

Application For Canine Officer Program

The AKC Canine Officer program provides recognition for dogs that work in a public service role for government agencies. The AKC is proud to acknowledge the skill and dedication of these officers and their dogs. The AKC working in conjunction with local clubs will generate a certificate of appreciation for the club to present to the officer at an official ceremony. Dogs do not have to be AKC registered. If desired by the agency, the AKC will register the Canine Officer for free.
