In accordance with the provision of the Regulations for Lure Coursing Tests and Trials, Chapter XIII, Section 3, the following requirements must be met for reinstatement of a hound:

- 1) A minimum of a calendar month of retraining.
- 2) Certification in writing by two licensed judges or an AKC field representative stating the dog acted appropriately during a reenactment of the incident. Neither of the two judges may be owners, co-owners, immediate family of the owners or co-owners, nor reside in the same household as the owners of the disqualified hound.
- 3) A letter requesting reinstatement, a check made out for $50.00 payable to the AKC, and the judges' certifications.
- 4) A decision by the AKC to reinstate said privilege.
- 5) A hound disqualified a second time is not eligible for reinstatement.

Owner(s)' Certification

I (we) apply for reinstatement of the above listed hound. I (we) have fulfilled all of the requirements of the reinstatement, including retraining, and certify this hound is now running cleanly. (Attach an explanation of how this hound was retrained with this reinstatement request.)
