

Bring your entire family including your four-legged members
- for a day of fun and charity to benefit the American Cancer Society.

At the third annual

2011 Walk-n-Wag of Wake County

Sunday, November 6th, 11 am - 5 pm

Koka Booth Amphitheatre

8003 Regency Parkway, Cary, NC

Hosted by the Relay for Life communities of Cary, Apex & Morrisville in partnership with the American Kennel Club & the AKC Canine PartnersSM program.

Registration and activities open:	11:00 AM
Fight Cancer Walk begins:	1:00 PM
Event closes:	5:00 PM

The AKC Canine Partners program is for ALL dogs, including mixed-breed dogs! Enroll at the event for just $20!

Discover many fun activities that you and your dog can do together:

Agility • AKC Rally[®] • Flyball • Canine Freestyle
AKC Canine Good Citizen[®] test • Fun games and contests
Pictures with Santa

Visit vendors including pet product sales, pet grooming, concessions

Wake County Animal Center will be hosting a rabies and microchip clinic - 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM
Rabies shots - $5

Microchips with lifetime enrollment in AKC Companion Animal Recovery - $10

Best of all - help the American Cancer Society in the Fight Cancer Walk
- an easy 1-mile fun walk around the beautiful Koka Park lake.

Register at www.wakewalknwg.com for the Fight Cancer Walk
- $20 per dog and handler team.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY
BARK FOR LIFE[®]
A CANINE EVENT TO FIGHT CANCER

AKC
Canine
PartnersSM