

Director of Major Gifts

The AKC Humane Fund, Inc. seeks Director of Major Gifts to join our corporate headquarters in New York. This talented individual will be responsible for bringing significant new donors to the AKC Humane Fund outside and beyond our existing constituent base. With this being a highly visible position, the selected candidate will be a competent fund raiser, excellent grant writer and an experienced face to face solicitor of individuals and corporations. The director of Major Gifts is responsible for building and executing the major gifts plan; meeting targets for donations, major gifts, and bequests; managing fundraising events; and representing the organization to the philanthropic community.

Requirements include a Bachelor's degree with a minimum of five to seven year's fundraising experience. Position requires proven track record in development, grant writing, and major gifts with a not-for-profit organization. Demonstrated success in achieving revenue targets of over $2 million annually all required.

Qualified candidates should respond with cover letter, resume and salary requirements to employment@akc.org. The cover letter should detail your skills and experience. Relocation not covered.
