1. Any dishonest, fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission of the insured which includes expected or intended injury.
2. Injury to an employee of an AKC recognized/approved judge while in the course of employment by the AKC judge.
3. Assumption of liability by and AKC judge in a contract or agreement, unless that liability exists in the absence of such contract or agreement.
4. Damages arising directly or indirectly from the judge's activities as an officer or director of any corporation, company or business other than while acting in an official capacity as an AKC recognized/approved judge at and AKC sanctioned event.
5. Damage to Property in your care, custody or control.

Q Is there coverage under this policy if an

AKC recognized/approved judge is hurt while officiating at an AKC sanctioned event?

No, there is not coverage under this policy; however, there is a separate group accident policy for these types of injuries. Please submit a claim/incident form and any related medical bills to Jade Whitehead if an injury occurs.

Q Does this policy provide defense coverage for non-monetary claims?

No. Coverage is triggered when a claim for damages is made. Defense is not provided to defend a decision that was made during an AKC event unless the claimant is asking for damages.

Q What does an AKC judge do if they are verbally told someone is holding them responsible for an incident at an AKC sanctioned event?

Tell them that if they would like to put their complaint in writing, you will be happy to submit it to your insurance carrier for their determination as to whether or not you are legally liable for the incident. NEVER ADMIT LIABILITY OR TELL THEM THE INSURANCE CARRIER WILL “TAKE CARE OF IT”
