SO YOU WANT A DOG?

FIRST FIND A BREEDER YOU TRUST.

Before bringing home that cuddly new puppy, find a responsible breeder who is knowledgeable, experienced and works to improve the breed. He or she should encourage you to visit their home to see the puppies and ask questions to learn more about the breed. They'll also provide you with the appropriate AKC papers so you can confirm your puppy's parentage.

Chances are, you'll be living with your puppy for more than a decade so choose a breeder who will ensure that you get the happy, healthy, wonderful puppy you want and deserve.

To find a responsible breeder, visit www.akc.org.
