At a meeting of the Board of Governors of the Pekingese Club of America, held September 9th, at #22 East 47th Street, New York City, there was a discussion regarding the Section known as #80A of the Sanitary Code of the City of New York.
This section #80A was added to the Sanitary Code under the general provision allowing the Board of Health to provide for the security of life and health in the City of New York.

It is the feeling of the owners of well kept dogs in New York that this section is unnecessarily drastic. The Board of Governors of the Pekingese Club of America, representing a membership of about two hundred, feels that this section bears specially severely on the owners of Pekingese dogs, inasmuch as it is impossible to muzzle the Pekingese, owing to the conformation of his skull and the prominence of his eyes.

We therefore feel that the security of life and health in the City of New York would be sufficiently guarded by a Section of the Sanitary Code that should provide that no dogs be allowed, in the streets or public places of New York unless they be muzzled OR HELD ON A LEASH. This would, it seems to us, fairly provide for the proper control of all dogs while in New York, which we members of the Board of Governors of the Pekingese Club of America agree is certainly necessary. It would, however, give the owners a choice as to whether their dogs should be muzzled or leashed, and would to the owners of all the various classes and breeds of dogs.

The Pekingese Club of America desires to aid the good work of the Board of Health in every way that may be possible, and will heartily support any regulations made by the Board of Health which provide for either the muzzling or leashing of all dogs while in the streets of the City of New York.

Trusting that your Board may amend Section #80A to substantially conform to the desires expressed above, we are

Very sincerely yours,

The Board of Governors of the Pekingese Club of America.

K. R. Hunter,
Secretary.

MR. HARBY: I came here particularly with the purpose of asking the American Kennel Club to adopt such a resolution as is requested there. I have had some correspondence with the Board of Health on the subject, and I received a letter from Dr. Goldwater telling me that in their opinion muzzling was quite necessary, because everybody in New York was suffering more or less from hydrophobia, and some time ago in England they had such a resolution, and he ascribes the absence of hydrophobia there to that resolution, and Dr. Goldwater is a man who does not wish to change anything he has once done. The amendment I would ask that the American Kennel Club suggest to the Board of Health to be adopted is simply that this section 80A be so amended as to provide that a dog may be taken on the public highway or in the park if securely leashed and attended, and in connection with that resolution they be informed just who the American Kennel Club is. They do not and never will know, in other words, that it is a representative organization, representing all the dog clubs of America.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: I understand that you are presenting a resolution different from that which has just been read by the Secretary.

MR. HARBY: Practically the same resolution. They asked me to present it personally, and if it was seconded, to state rather more in detail why it is important that it should be adopted.

DR. DE MUND: I would like to state for information that a few of us representing various specialty clubs called on Dr. Goldwater the other day. Dr. Goldwater informed us that dogs on leash are more harmful than dogs that are running around loose; that they were the ones that did the most biting, and that he is very much opposed to any change, and proposed to put it in force. Furthermore, I have positive information that there is a bill to be introduced at the coming session of the Legislature prohibiting the licensing and keeping of dogs in Greater New York, and if the Board of Health asks for the passage of that bill, it will go through unless it is opposed, and I move that a Committee of five be elected from among the delegates of the American Kennel Club with an appropriation not to exceed three thousand dollars, to fight the legality of the proposed ordinance of the Board of Health and also any proposed adverse legislation.

Motion seconded.

MR. RITCHIE: This is more serious than I think many of you realize. I did not at first take the matter seriously. I had the pleasure of attending several of the specialty club meetings during the last week discussing this subject, and I always believe in pouring oil on the waters and not getting agitated until you learn the attitude of the opposition, but several of the clubs are requested to appoint representatives to form a committee to see the Board of Health in this matter and see what their attitude is first, and if there should be any power of reasoning by the Board of Health it would not be necessary to go any further. The Board of Health's power is unlimited. They are authorized by the Legislature to pass any resolutions they desire to, and they become effective the moment that they decide upon them without hearings or any question before any other authorities.

Mr. Ritchie then detailed a somewhat lengthy interview he had with Dr. Goldwater on this subject, from which interview it appeared that it was the intention of the authorities to seek legislation inimical to dog interests.

MR. COLLINS: In sustaining the Doctor’s motion, I want to say that I was one of the gentlemen who called on Dr. Goldwater, and there is no question but that he is absolutely firm in his desire to exclude dogs from New York City absolutely. It would be hardly right or fair for any one individual or fancier to take this matter to court, but after conversing with people on the subject, among whom were some lawyers, it seems it would be quite easy to beat the Board of Health in a court decision, because the action which they have taken was based on the idea of protecting health, and I think it would be quite easy to prepare statistics to prove the contrary, and therefore I think that if this matter was carried to court their contention would not be sustained. Furthermore, if the Doctor and the Board of Health are let alone in this case, as Dr. De Mund says, the chances are that it is quite possible he will go to the Legislature in January and attempt to have passed an Act excluding dogs from New York City entirely. If he does that it means the death knell to many clubs which exist in this city. It would include the Westminster Kennel Club, the Long Island Kennel Club, the Bulldog Club, the Pekingese Club, the Toy Spaniel Club, the Pomeranian Club and various other clubs, in fact, all the specialty clubs of any character that exist in New York City that hold shows in this city. To fight any such legislation as that it would be necessary to employ counsel, so that the matter could be watched at Albany, and just as soon as a bill is prepared or offered, hearings could be had from the committees, and the matter fought at once. If we could not beat it entirely, we might have such a law or proposed law amended to such an extent that it would not materially affect the dog fanciers' interests. Therefore I think this action is absolutely necessary at this time, and we cannot start too soon, because today the ordinance goes into effect.

MR. WOOD: A year or two ago this question of whether the American Kennel Club had the right, or whether it was proper for it to spend its money in defense or offence on local issues was talked over. It seems to me quite an important question. The money of the American Kennel Club is gathered from the whole United States, and while the New York clubs are undoubtedly valued members of the American Kennel Club, it seems to me that this matter ought not to be gone into too hastily because there is some question as to whether the money of the American Kennel Club should be spent for the purpose of an issue which is entirely local. I am not saying it should not be done, but I would like to have the members talk it over a little bit. A lot of western cities which think they are pretty near as big as New York, might object to the American Kennel Club spending money for what is at the present time a purely local issue.

MR. OFFERMAN: I do not think the Committee realizes how serious this thing is. As New York goes, probably the rest of the country will go. It was so in racing, and it will probably be the same way with dog matters.

MR. RITCHIE: The American Kennel Club gets this money from the dog fancier, and the fight has started here, and I believe it is the duty of the American Kennel Club or any other organization that appeals to dog people, which get their support and money, to protect New York State to protect any other State that gets into the same trouble.

DR. DE MUND: I do not think this is a local issue entirely. It is a National issue. The bill proposes to prohibit the expressing of dogs. The idea is to keep dogs out of Greater New York. The New York shows are not made up entirely from local dogs; they come from all over the country.

MR. TEELING: I understand Mr. Ritchie to state that the best manner of procedure would be to go before the Board of Health first and see if we could not argue them out of putting this measure before the Legislature. If that is the fact, why, I suppose, the Doctor intends that there should be an attorney on that committee that he asks to be appointed. In order to do that work I do not know that they would need any funds.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: The only question is, if the end could not be accomplished in that way, and legislation be threatened in January, there would be a meeting in December, too late possibly to be of service.

MR. RITCHIE: The committee can go to the Mayor and ask him if the police force, which is the power they have to call on until the machinery is formed, is going to enforce this rule in that way.

DR. DE MUND: My motion was that the committee be elected to take up this question of the muzzling law, and further the question of further proposed adverse legislation. I did not mean that we should spend three thousand dollars right away. It may be necessary to go to court to fight this muzzling law. Dr. Goldwater has given his ultimatum, and several very good attorneys have given their opinion that the proposed legislation is not constitutional as it stands. My idea is that the committee might be able to work with the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The American Kennel Club should take the first action, I think.

MR. WOOD: I think the line ought to be pretty clearly drawn. I do not think the delegates think they ought to pay any amount of money now on hand in connection with the muzzling of dogs in New York City. If the broader matter is coming up, that dogs are not to be allowed in New York at all, that is a much more important matter.

DR. DE MUND: Mr. Wood does not seem to understand that it is not a question of muzzling dogs in New York City. It is the muzzling of dogs in public places. They can go into any public place at all. It is not a question of dogs on the streets.

MR. TEELING: I think, as Mr. Wood says, that the muzzling of dogs in New York City is purely and solely local, and we have that law in about all cities at different times. We have had it in Boston and they have had it in various other cities, and New York is having it now. What I thought was really before the meeting was that they were going to rule dogs, through future legislation, out of the Mr. Wood does not seem to under-
City of New York. In that case it becomes a national affair, but I should not think the matter of muzzling dogs in the City of New York was a national affair.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: Excepting if the law is to apply at a Bench Show instead of in the street.

MR. TEELING: My first thought was that it would not apply to a New York dog show any more than in a man's own house. The door is not open in a dog show, and the dogs are in a place which they cannot get away from.

MR. COLLINS: I take exception to the statement of Mr. Teeling in that respect. The regulation provides that dogs should be muzzled in public places, and we all know that a dog show is a public place, because admission is charged to the public. Furthermore, it does affect out of town people in the matter of bringing dogs to dog shows. If Mr. Teeling should come down from Boston and get off the train at the 42nd Street station and attempt to walk in the street with one of his Boston terriers unmuzzled, he would be subject to arrest and the dog taken to the pound. In respect to the appointment of a committee, my understanding is that if such a committee were appointed, they would of course attempt to handle this affair without any court proceedings or without any fight. The chances are that they would call upon the Mayor to see if they could not get his influence with his appointees, namely, the Police Commissioner and the Commissioner of Health, and the chances are they would also call upon the Governor for his influence with the officer of the Port of New York. They certainly would, I should imagine, try to accomplish this matter in the easiest way and without going to court. Furthermore, there is a number of officers, members of various dog clubs in New York City, who might also be able to assist, even though they were not members of the committee; but if it comes to a showdown and one of our members was arrested, it seems to me it would be to the interest of every dog fancier in the United States to have that ordinance declared unconstitutional.

MR. HOOLEY: The only question in my mind is as to voting for three thousand dollars or five thousand dollars for that purpose. It is just possible that as soon as New York starts in this thing that twenty or thirty of the cities will do the same thing. Are we going to appropriate two thousand dollars for each city? We cannot do it. We have not got it. I understand from Dr. De Mund and Mr. Harby and other gentlemen here that they called on Dr. Goldwater, and I was wondering why some of them did not call upon the Mayor. While we know they are very independent, I think they will listen very much to what the Mayor says and what he thinks, and any influence brought to bear on the Mayor would very quickly be brought to bear on the two Commissioners appointed by him. To do that would not take one thousand dollars or three thousand dollars or any amount of money. It would seem to me wiser to have a committee without the three thousand dollar appropriation, and let that committee proceed to see the Mayor or anybody whom they think best. I question the right of the American Kennel Club to appropriate money for use in a local matter. I cannot see my way to appropriate money here, and refusing it to some other city. It seems to me that the money appropriation ought to be considered very seriously. I am fully in accord with the Doctor and with the other gentlemen in regard to the fact that a committee be appointed and something be done in regard to this matter.

MR. BOGER: I think the correct way of raising a fund for defense in this case would be among the different clubs in New York State. They should all get together, have a general meeting, the same as a neighborhood protests against some kind of a property which was prejudicial to the health of the community. The clubs that are here, any of them at all, specialty clubs, show-giving clubs, should get together and provide the money for defense. I am a member of a specialty club that meets here. I am heartily in favor of voting a certain amount of money, but you cannot start by giving money for a certain locality. This was all thrashed out two years ago, and we came then to the conclusion that it could not be done. Now, the only logical method is for the clubs to get together and vote the money.

MR. HOOLEY: It would seem to me that the Westminster Kennel Club would be the worst sufferer if this law goes into effect. That is a very wealthy club. The amount of money made by their show I imagine is very large. There are other specialty clubs here whose members are men of wealth. It seems to me that the Westminster Kennel Club starting a subscription would get a large subscription in a few days.

DR. DE MUND: The American Kennel Club is supported by exhibitors and dog fanciers throughout the country. The money it has in its treasury comes from them, but when they come and ask for some relief the reply is, we should not spend the money. What is the use of having the money? They have to pay for it in the beginning, and it seems to me that the American Kennel Club is the proper one to start it. The various specialty clubs have held meetings. They have appointed delegates. This matter has been going on for three months and nothing has been done by the American Kennel Club. The weaker specialty clubs have taken what action they could in the matter. We have called on Dr. Goldwater, the Commissioner. We propose to call on the Mayor. I am speaking of the committee that was appointed by various clubs, and it seems to me the American Kennel Club should take the lead in this matter and should give some of its money toward it if necessary. I do not mean to say that they should spend the money right offhand. It may not be necessary to spend a cent. I know that the Long Island Kennel Club, at a meeting, expressed its willingness to give according to its means, but I think the committee could accomplish nothing without some money back of it.

MR. COLLINS: In reference to the three thousand dollars, Mr. Hooley speaks of it as a fixed figure. It might be three hundred dollars, it might be thirty dollars; it might not be anything, but whenever you want a committee that is going to do something you must give them tools to work with; and you cannot limit them to two or three hundred dollars. The chances are that no such amount as three thousand dollars will be spent. I do not agree with Mr. Hooley and Mr. Eoger when they say that the American Kennel Club should not spend its money in protecting its members in any locality. I say that the American Kennel Club should protect its members in every locality, be they where they may. Probably in small localities where people are poor it would be more their duty to protect them with their money, which is the strong instrument for helping them. Mr. Hooley says that the Westminster Kennel Club will be the greatest sufferer. I don’t know how much it will suffer, but I can tell you right here now that if this proposed legislation becomes a law, it will kill the Long Island Kennel Club. If the American Kennel Club or the members from towns outside of New York City take this stand, I do not know what the result will be.

MR. HOOLEY: There are 170 members of the Long Island Kennel Club. I have had the pleasure of knowing a large number of them. Mr. Collins has suggested that only three hundred dollars will have to be used. One dollar apiece contributed by the Long Island Kennel Club and a little money from the Westminster Kennel Club would do the legal work. The question in my mind is if Chicago or San Francisco asked for this money, would we grant it. If San Francisco asked for one thousand dollars, I do not believe this body would give them the money. This money can be raised by the specialty clubs in New York. The effort has not been made, but any effort made to raise this money would be, I am sure, a wonderful success. I think the money should come in that way. I am not in any way antagonizing the gentlemen who believe in this. I think the money should be raised by the local clubs by subscription.

MR. KEYES: I am not in favor of the American Kennel Club appropriating any money for this purpose at this time. I think if this matter comes before the Legislature that then is the time to appeal to the American Kennel Club. I am sure that if any muzzling ordinance or anything of that nature came up in Massachusetts, I do not think the members of our clubs would ask for a dollar. I think they would take care of it themselves.

MR. RITCHIE: The American Kennel Club has received a good many dollars from the dog fanciers. You register your dogs. You do not look to anybody else for protection but the American Kennel Club. The point now is in this situation not to wait until the dog law has passed the Legislature, because it is going to the Legislature. It is for the American Kennel Club to take action. It always seemed to be the question of a dollar, but you want us to pay to the club for the dogs just the same. What is the good of the American Kennel Club if it is not going to give the fancier some support? Why should the specialty clubs get together and pay their money for shows if the American Kennel Club is not going to help them? It is for the American Kennel Club to take the first step, even if it is only for ten dollars. The question is not now of going to the Mayor. You have not got another meeting to protect us. This is the meeting to act.

DR. DE MUND: Mr. Hooley has referred to the Long Island Kennel Club. I would say that we had a meeting the other night on this very question, and a large meeting, and it was said there that they would stand by the American Kennel Club and cooperate with them to the extent of their treasury, to help fight this law, but it was the unanimous sentiment of everybody there that the American Kennel Club first must come in and appropriate something and take some action in the matter.

MR. OFFERMAN: The American Kennel Club has a surplus, and I do not see where they could use the money better than in a situation of this kind. We only ask for three thousand dollars. I believe that is the maximum sum. That three thousand dollars in this case would go a great ways.

DR. DE MUND: Instead of making it the fixed sum of three thousand dollars, I would suggest that the American Kennel Club start a subscription with a certain amount of money. That would absolutely take it out of the American Kennel Club, but a smaller amount, and then let the other clubs fall in line with a subscription.
CHAIRMAN LEDERER: It might not cost that much.

DR. DE MUND: Under my resolution the money is in the American Kennel Club and the committee would have to show how the money was used.

MR. WOOD: I still want to know what the machinery of the American Kennel Club is for appropriating money.

DR. DE MUND: The delegates can do it.

MR. WOOD: I would like to know if the delegates passed the appropriation whether the Treasurer can pay out that money simply on the passage of that by the Board of Delegates. Suppose we so vote to appropriate it, and the Treasurer says no, that appropriation has to be first passed on by the Finance Committee and then by the Board of Directors.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: That is not a matter for the delegates to deal with.

MR. WOOD: What is the use of appropriating money if you cannot get it.

DR. DE MUND: The delegates are the American Kennel Club and they are supreme when it comes to a final vote.

The question being put, a rising vote resulted in eleven ayes and eight noes.
MR. WOOD: I raise the question of no quorum and the vote does not stand.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: I rule that there is a quorum present. The Chair rules that the motion is passed. Will the mover signify how he intended this committee to be appointed?

DR. DE MUND: By election among the delegates.

MR. WOOD: I would like to nominate Dr. De Mund as the Chairman of that committee.

Nomination seconded.

Messrs. Collins, Offerman, Lederer and Ritchie were also nominated to compose said committee.

MR. WOOD: I move the Secretary be instructed to cast a ballot for the election of these five delegates as members of the committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary stated he had cast the ballot for the gentlemen named as such committee.

On motion, the appeal filed by Mr. A. M. Lederer from the decision of a protest of the Southampton Kennel Club was referred to the Rules Committee.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
A roll call of the Board of Directors showed that on account of the absence of a number of the Directors present to adjourn to meet on the third of Tuesday in December unless called together before that time by the Chairman.

To the Delegates of The American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that three applications for Active Membership have been received since our last meeting, and eight Credentials from Clubs appointing Delegates to represent then in the American Kennel Club. These papers have been presented to the Membership Committee for its action.

The Del Monte Kennel Club has presented its resignation as an Active Member. This Club is in good standing up to January 1st, next, and I recommend the acceptance of its resignation.

A communication from the Chicago Trial Board recommends the appointment of Mr. W. F. Grower in place of Mr. William C. Thorne. Mr. Thorne has been ill for more than a year, and he will not be able to return to business for another year to come. There are several oases pending before this Board, and the Members desire a full Board before taking them up.

The National Fox Hunters' Association has made application to amend the Rules to enable the winner of "all age stake, open to all" at its annual trials to be recognized by the American Kennel Club as a Field Trial Champion. This matter has been referred to the Field Trial Committee to report its recommendation.

I have a report from the Stud Book Committee recommending that after January 1, 1916, the Stud Book be closed to American-bred dogs whose sire and dam have not been previously registered.

I take great pleasure in reporting the gift of twenty-two books for our library from Mr. J. W. Patten of Devon, Pa.; also a framed picture from Mr. Morris C. Menges, Sheepshead Bay. I sent personal thanks for these donations pending authorization to send official thanks from, the American Kennel Club.

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held December 14th, 1914, said Committee recommended as a Nominating Committee for Directors in place of the expiring class of 1915 the following:

William Rauch
A. G. Hooley
R. C. Stewart
John G. Bates
R. P. Keasbey

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh.
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:
REPORT OF STUD BOOK COMMITTEE.
October 30, 1914.

The Delegates of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

In the matter of the proposed change in the Rules Governing Registration, the Stud Book Committee begs leave to report as follows:

We would recommend that for the present, no change be made in the Rules for registration of imported dogs.

We would recommend that after January 1, 1916, no American Bred Dogs where parents are not registered, be accepted for registration, except that the regulation permitting dogs to be registered by virtue of winnings be not changed.

In the event of this change receiving the approval of the Delegates, we would advise that notice of the proposed change be printed in the Gazette of December 31st, and sent to the Kennel Press in order that breeders throughout the country may have opportunity to register their breeding stock during the year of 1915.

WILLIAM L. BARCLAY.

THEODORE OFFERMAN
MR. COLLINS: I would like to move to amend that report by adding that that notice be printed in the Gazette in each issue.

THE SECRETARY: I would do that anyway, and we also send printed slips with every registration form.

MR. LEDERER: Is it to be understood that under that provision of the report reading that no American bred dogs where parents are not registered, may be read that the dog may not be registered on his wins just as a registered dog without pedigree?

THE SECRETARY: There would be no change in that. It does not affect that regulation at all. Mr. Barclay, did your committee intend to change the condition of registering a dog by virtue of its winnings?

MR. BARCLAY: We did not take that up at the meeting. A dog can still be registered.

MR. LEDERER: I would offer as an amendment "excepting that nothing herein contained shall affect the right to register a dog on his wins irrespective of pedigree."

Amendment accepted.

Amendment seconded and carried.

The report of the Stud Book Committee as amended was then adopted.

The report of the Committee to seek a modification of the Dog Muzzling Ordinance was read. It follows:
The following is a report of the Committee elected by the delegates at the quarterly meeting of 15th September 1914.

Shortly after the quarterly meeting, the Committee met and organized itself. It was decided to call on the Honorable Health Commissioner and ascertain in conference just what was the purpose of the Health Department in enacting the ordinance known as Section 80A of the Sanitary Code and also whether there was any possibility of obtaining a modification thereof by concession on the part of the Department. The modification intended to be sought would simply change the sweeping requirement that all dogs on the streets and or public parks or public places be muzzled, whether in proper control or at large, to one leaving the option with the owner to keep his dog on leash or muzzle the dog. An appointment was accordingly made, and the entire committee conferred with the Honorable Commissioner. While the Commissioner expressed himself as firm in his determination to have the ordinance remain upon the statute books as exacted, he conceded to the Committee that reasonable enforcement thereof should not entail interference there under with dogs at dog shows held in public places; and further that the ordinance should not apply to toy dogs carried by their owners or in conveyances. The Commissioner further indicated his willingness to receive the Committee on future occasions and to go into the whole subject, of the progress that was being made toward the end sought by the Department, stamping out or minimizing rabies. The Committee respectfully called the consideration of the Commissioner to the fact that the great majority of dog-bites, and therefore the principal source of possible danger of rabies, lies with the vagrant and unowned or uncared for dogs in the street. This view the Commissioner expressed himself as sharing with the Committee, and he further admitted that the legislation complained of could not possibly reach the vagrant dog. He went further and stated that this entire field came within the jurisdiction of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and, under existing laws, the Health Department was not directly empowered to take up vagrant dogs. The conference concluded with an appointment for a further meeting at a date to be thereafter designated, on which the Commissioner stated he would be able to present statistics of his Department upon recorded cases of dog-bites, with special reference to whether they were inflicted by privately owned or by vagrant dogs and whether the dog doing the biting was on leash or not.

The Committee stated frankly that it was its purpose, in the absence of direct assurance or encouragement from the Commissioner, to take such other steps as might seem proper to obtain the aforesaid desired modification.

Your Committee then called in a body at the office of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and went into the question of control of the vagrant dogs with the general manager of the Society, Mr. W. K. Horton. Upon the suggestion of Mr. Horton, a further appointment was made, upon which the Committee attended a conference with Colonel Wagstaff, the President of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The Committee is pleased to report that it met a very lively interest in its endeavors on the part of Colonel Wagstaff and the Society. Colonel Wagstaff expressed himself emphatically as condemning the ordinance objected to as inflicting a very real and entirely unnecessary cruelty upon animals. He went further and assured the Committee of the co-operation of this Society in every respect. The Committee stated that it was about to circularize petitions addressed to the Mayor seeking to enlist his sympathy and active co-operation in obtaining the desired modification of the ordinance. The Society thereupon undertook to circularize your Committee's petitions among its patrons and members at large through its employees and various animal shelters.

The Committee then proceeded to prepare and have printed five thousand copies of the petition with appropriate spaces for signature and address of the signer on each copy.

The Committee issued an invitation to the various local show-giving and specialty clubs, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, the Bide-A-Wee Home for Animals, the Dog-Lovers Protective Association and the Anti-Vivisection League to attend an open meeting and discuss the ways and means of circularizing the petitions. Such a meeting was held and attended by a considerable number of representatives of such invited organizations, who all expressed lively interest in the work in hand and agreed to assist in obtaining signatures to the petitions.

The work of circularizing the petitions was then undertaken and copies were posted to all available sources that promised to be fruitful of signatures. In the meantime the Committee busied itself in securing statistics and data in the form of government pamphlets and otherwise, upon the subject of rabies in the human and its prevalence. In passing, it may be noted here that, accepting the official statistics of those authorities who endorse the muzzling law, the danger of rabies from a dog-bite is between fifteen and twenty per cent, of the cases of bites by concededly rabid dogs. When it is borne in mind how rare the disease of rabies is among dogs, it will readily be seen how infinitesimal is the danger sought to be guarded against by an ordinance requiring muzzling of every dog in the greater City of New York, upwards of 500,000.

On the 23rd November, 1914, your Committee had another conference, by appointment, with the Honorable Health Commissioner. He stated, at the outset, that he had not changed his position; that the muzzling law had not as yet been enforced long enough for a fair trial. He added, significantly in the opinion of your Committee, that perhaps after the ordinance had been enforced for the period of six months (namely, from the 15th September 1914), if it then appeared that there was no substantial decrease in the record of dog-bites, the ordinance might be annulled or modified. The Commissioner, at the same time, stated that there had been so substantial decrease in the record of dog-bite, according to the statistics of his Department, up to the time of speaking, and that there was no record of any new considerable capital had been made in certain of the newspapers about this time of the case of a girl named Polhemus alleged to have died of rabies as the result of the bite of a cat suffered about a year previously, and the Commissioner had been quoted as instancing this case in support of his ordinance. At this conference, the Commissioner volunteered the statement that he did not regard the Polhemus case as in point: it was the case of a bite by a cat, and had occurred so long before the development of disease symptoms, and death, as to negative the diagnosis of rabies. About the same time, an article purporting to be contributed by the Commissioner appeared in the "New York American" under the name of Commissioner Goldwater. This article opened with the statement "The dog must go", and was a scathing diatribe against the very presence of a dog in the city. The Commissioner also volunteered to your Committee the statement that the article was not contributed by him, and had appeared without his authorization. The Commissioner finally stated to your Committee that it was necessary to continue the ordinance in force for at least six months in order to establish the fact that rabies cases are traceable directly to the vagrant dogs with which the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals does not appear to be able to cope in a manner satisfactory to the Health Board. It was suggested by the Committee that if a concession could be obtained that it is the vagrant dog which is the source of danger by biting, it would be unnecessary to continue enforcement of the ordinance, even for the period of six months. The Commissioner expressed himself as being very much interested in the possibility of obtaining such a concession in writing from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, but would not engage to alter his ordinance; in which case, the Committee naturally declined to seek the concession. The Commissioner then seemed to your Committee to shift his ground somewhat, and stated that the muzzling ordinance really must be affording some measure of protection against dog-bites. He admitted that the statistics of his Department concerning bites by dogs on leash showed that these were cases of dogs biting the their owners, which clearly could not be reached by the muzzling ordinance. He stated that possibly the funds of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals available for the purpose of removing vagrant dogs are insufficient, and the muzzling ordinance might tend to establish this fact indirectly. In which event, moneys should be appropriated by the City or license fees raised. In conclusion, the Commissioner stated that if after a continuance in force of the present ordinance for the period of six months, there was either a decrease of the number of dog-bites to a negligible minimum or continuance of substantially the same number of bites, (tending to prove that the source of danger was the vagrant dog) the Department must admit that the muzzling ordinance is not an effective means of reducing the public danger of human rabies. Your Committee inferred that the Department would then be willing to consider either repeal or modification of the ordinance.

The Committee then determined to present the petitions in hand to the Mayor, if possible, in advance of the present quarterly meeting of the delegates, and to this end, wrote the Mayor asking for an appointment for this purpose at some date before the 15th December. It was also resolved unanimously by the Committee to invite Mr. August Belmont, as President of the American Kennel Club, to make the actual presentation of the petitions to his Honor the Mayor. A letter was received from Mr. Belmont accepting the invitation to present the petitions when an appointment might be made with the Mayor. The reply of his Honor, the Mayor, informed the Committee that he was not able to receive it at present, and stated that upon the information before him, he was disposed to endorse the position of the Department of Health. A further communication was accordingly addressed to the Mayor expressing regret of the impossibility of presenting this matter before the 15th December, as originally intended, and asking for an appointment at his earliest future convenience. The Committee awaits the response of the Mayor to its last communication.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated, 15th December, 1914.

MR. HOOLEY: I move the adoption of the report; also that the thanks of the Delegates be tendered to the committee for the work it has done in this matter, and further that the report be made a part of these proceedings.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the resignation of the Del Monte Kennel Club was accepted. Withdrawn by telegraph day of meeting.

THE SECRETARY: In the absence of the report from the Field Trial Committee on the application of the Foxhunters Association to allow a winning of the All Aged Stake open to all to be privileged to be recorded as Champion, I sent a communication to Mr. Chetwood Smith, who, in reply, sent me some papers and asked me to send him the enclosed with the other correspondence in the matter. I have heard nothing further from him.

On motion the Secretary was directed to send the thanks of the American Kennel Club to Messrs. J. W. Patten and Morris C. Menges for their kindness in donating 22 volumes of the Stud Book and picture.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

December 15, 1914.

To the Board of Directors of The American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to report the following matters that have come to hand since our meeting in May last.

At that meeting I was directed to communicate with the Minneapolis Kennel Club on the subject of their failure to send their listings and fees for same within the seven days allowed by the Rules, the reply to which will be presented to you at this meeting.

The disbursements made by the Western Agent to July 11, 1914, were paid by me subject, however, to your approval at this meeting. These disbursements were made by Mr. J. P. Norman up to the time of his resignation as Western Agent. I now have disbursements made by Mr. Vedder, our present Western Agent, from August 14th to October 23rd, amounting to $36.45 with vouchers accompanying same. I would respectfully recommend the payment of this bill.
I will present for our consideration & report of the San Francisco Trial Board at its meeting held November 14, 1914.

I received a recommendation for the adopting of prize ribbons to be awarded at all shows held by the by Clubs either Members of the American Kennel Club or by a License. I will present a sketch of the ribbon recommended for your consideration.

The following Directors filed written excuses for absence at our last meeting: --

A. C. Wilmerding          J. Macy Willets          S. R. Cutler

The following Directors have filed excuses for absence at this meeting:--

J. W. Appleton          George S. West
Howard Willets           Chas. R. Wood

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Respectfully submitted.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

All bills for Active and Associate Dues, and for Advertisements were mailed on November 30, 1914.

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Respectfully submitted.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the request of the Secretary of the Chicago Trial Board to substitute Mr. W. F. Grower in the place of Mr. William C. Thorn, who is ill and cannot attend to any of the work of the Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: If there be no objection the request of the Chicago Trial Board will be granted.

THE SECRETARY: The first check that I paid on August 14th, $11.22, for moneys advanced, was to the retired Western Agent. I thought it was hardly fair to ask him to advance that money pending our December meeting, as he was no longer connected with us, and having no meeting in September on account of the lack of a quorum, I paid that $11.20, and would like to have my action confirmed.

MR. STEWART: I move that the action of the Secretary be approved.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The new Western Agent's disbursements from August 1, to October 23rd, inclusive, were $36.45. In that amount there is included an item for the purchase of a typewriting machine, for which, we have a voucher for $20.00.

On motion the Treasurer was authorized to pay this bill of $36.45.

THE SECRETARY: At San Jose, Cal., there was an unauthorized show held under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, and under the provisions of Rule 2 everybody holding an official position in connection with that show was disqualified. Five of the disqualified persons, seeing the errors of their ways, applied for reinstatement to the San Francisco Trial Board, and each one paid his fee as required by the rules of $5.00. They recommended the reinstatement of these five people, and that recommendation was confirmed at the last meeting of our Executive Committee.

There are quite a few others who were more interested in the chicken end of the show than in the dog end, but holding official positions were also disqualified. I have here the minutes of the San Francisco Trial Board on that subject which I will read.

MEETING SAN FRANCISCO TRIAL BOARD

At a special meeting of the San Francisco Trial Board, held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, November 14th, 1914, the annexed application of Mrs. V. D. Goodrich, J. C. Berret, Mrs. E. S. King, Mrs. Fannie Bonney Snitjer, Joseph T. Brooks and E. R. Everett, all of San Jose, California, asking for reinstatement in the American Kennel Club, was presented for consideration.

After due deliberation it was the unanimous opinion of the members of the Board that the above named persons, who had been disqualified for participating as officials in a dog show held contrary to the rules of the American Kennel Club, should be reinstated to good standing.
in said club, and that the usual fees be waived.

C. W. Conlisk, Chairman,
Nat. T. Messer.
O. F. Vedder.

(At this point Chairman Hunnewell resigned the Chair to Mr. H. K. Bloodgood)

THE SECRETARY: I would like to state in connection with this report of the San Francisco Trial Board that the applications of these persons read as follows: “We hereby apply for reinstatement to the American Kennel Club, and hereby agree in the future to abide by its Rules and Regulations.”
Signed by every one of them. The San Francisco Trial Board, in a letter to me, stated that these people, as I said before, were not particularly interested in the dog end of the show, but were more interested in the chicken department, but as their names happened to be printed as officials they had to stand the same penalty as the others who ran the dog show end of it. It appears to me that if would be good judgment, if you can look at it in that way, to waive that $5.00 fee and reinstate these people.

MR. BOGER: I move that we accept their report and adopt their resolution, thereby showing that we have full confidence in the Board and will act as they suggest.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Minneapolis Kennel Club failed to furnish us with listing sheets and listing fees at their show held last Spring until 28 days had elapsed after the limit allowed by the rule, which carried with it a penalty of $28.00. This matter was brought up at the May meeting and I was directed to correspond with these people.

The Secretary read the correspondence on the subject.

MR. WILMERDING: If we should waive that fine, would it establish a precedent here of the American Kennel Club by that action?

THE SECRETARY: I cannot see why the Secretary cannot obey the rules. The rules are given him. If they do not read the rules it is not our fault, and it entailed a lot of correspondence on our part to try to get that money, and it took it 28 days to do it. They had 7 days to do their booking and send in their report and their money. It is not their money. They collected the money for us, and there is no reason why they should hold that.

MR. BOGER: I move that we remit the fine.

MR. WILMERDING: I move that the fine be not remitted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a suggestion from a gentleman in Chicago that instead of having different styles of ribbons at shows, that is, any ribbons for prizes at American Kennel Club shows, there should be a ribbon adopted by the American Kennel Club for such prizes, and he sends a sketch of his idea of what might be a proper ribbon to adopt.

MR. HOOLEY: I think the plan is a very good one. I think there is one thing we ought to consider in connection with it. The Westminster or the Long Island or Boston Clubs can offer and do offer and give a very handsome ribbon as a rule. Some of the smaller clubs might not be able, unless prizes are made in such a way that these ribbons would come cheaply to them, to give as expensive a ribbon as that.

MR. BOGER: I offer this as a suggestion to the committee that will take this matter up: Let them devote their efforts to the inscription on the ribbon.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that we allow each club to designate its own ribbon as heretofore.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There was a case in California of a Mrs. Wilson against the Ladies Kennel Association of Southern California, which was before the San Francisco Trial Board twice, the second time the case being re-opened by direction of the American Kennel Club, and both times the San Francisco Trial Board found against the complainant. This case was appealed and brought before the Executive Committee at its last meeting. The Executive Committee passed a resolution concurring and sustaining the action of the San Francisco Trial Board, pending, however, an opinion from Mr. R. C. Stewart, a member of the Executive Committee and also of the Legal Committee, on the legal phase of the case, and if the legal Committee concluded that there was nothing in it that would affect us in any way legally, the action of the San Francisco Trial Board should be sustained. The Legal Committee had all the papers in its possession and now presents this report; "After going over all the evidence and argument submitted in this matter I see no reason why the decision of the San Francisco Trial Board should not be sustained except in so far as concerns the censuring of the Judge of this show. The evidence submitted shows no sufficient reason for the censuring of the Judge, and there is no evidence that she was notified to appear at the meeting where she was censured, I therefore recommend that so much of the decision as refers to the censuring of the Judge be stricken out.

Ralph C. Stewart,
of the Legal Committee.

MR. KEASBEY: I move that the action of the Legal Committee be sustained.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have the excuses of Directors for absence at the May meeting and this meeting. They are all filed here.
MR. STEWART: I move that they be excused.
Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

"New York, February 3, 1915

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:--

Pursuant to Art. XVIII. Sec. 4 of the By-Laws of the American Kennel Club, the Secretary of said Club duly opened the ballots of the Associate Subscribers entitled to vote in the presence of the tellers appointed by the president of the said Club, and the undersigned tellers hereby certify as follows:

The following named gentlemen were elected delegates to represent the following named clubs:

The Secretary then read the report of the Nominating Committee, which follows:

"The Nominating Committee, elected to name individuals to be elected as Directors to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, held its meeting this day and made the following nominations.

For the expiring class of
Mr. Howard Willets
Mr. George Greer
Mr. A. G. Hooley
Mr. A. Clinton Wilmerding
Mr. Samuel R. Cutler
Mr. W. Prescott Wolcott.

For the class of 1917

Mr. Raymond Belmont to fill vacancy.

For the class of 1919

Mr. R. L. Boger (who was elected for one year in the place of Mr. Robert Sedgwick, Jr.)

Respectfully submitted,

William Rauch,
Chairman.

Nominating Committee.
John G. Bates,
A. G. Hooley
R. P. Keasbey
Ralph C. Stewart.

THE CHAIRMAN: You have heard the report, that is your pleasure?

MR. WOOD: I move the nominations be closed, and that the Secretary be directed to cast a ballot electing the gentlemen named.

Motion seconded.

MR. BERENDSOHN: I would like to rise to a point of order. This is the annual meeting, and I think I have the privilege to make a nomination. In looking through the class for 1917 I see that Mr. M. Mowbray Palmer is a director. He ceased to be a director because he ceased to be a delegate. I think it is no more than right to fill that vacancy now, as this is the annual meeting, and I would like to propose Mr. G. Muss-Arnolt to fill that vacancy.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the closing of the nominations, and that subject will have to be decided before you can offer any other nomination unless you desire to amend that.

Motion carried.

The Secretary stated that he had cast a ballot for the election of the gentlemen named.

THE CHAIRMAN: For your information, Dr. Berendsohn, I would state that at the last annual meeting the very subject that you desire to call to the attention of the delegates was disposed of. That is to say, that ceasing to be a delegate did not involve that delegate ceasing to remain a director. The constitution was amended later.
The gentleman whom you mention held his office as a director before that amendment was passed, and it cannot be retroactive. He is a director.

MR. WOOD: I think it was not the constitution that was amended, but the By-Laws.

THE SECRETARY: Yes.
MR. DE MUND: Do you rule, Mr. Chairman, that a director who shall cease to be a delegate shall thereby cease to be a director, does not apply in this case?

THE CHAIRMAN: I think not.

DR. DE MUND: To bring up the question I would appeal from that decision.

Seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: The appeal, if sustained, would establish an interpretation different from that placed upon the amendment of the By-Laws by the Chair.

MR. CUTLER: As I understand it, this By-Law has been amended, so it does not apply to Mr. Palmer’s office.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair so-interpreted it.

MR. CUTLER: How can it be otherwise? Here is a man who was a director at that time, and since then we passed a By-Law which provides that he cannot be one. You cannot take an office away in that way. When a man has an office you cannot go back and pass a By-law which is going to act backwards. We passed on that two years ago or so when you, Mr. Chairman, were involved, and we felt exactly that way. I did not happen to be here, but I read it in the press. The question came up if after you were the President of this club, and it turned exactly on that point, and the Association voted that a man held his office until it was taken away from him legally.

MR. COLLINS: I am going to vote in the affirmative, and I wish to explain my vote. My vote is not against the decision of the Chair personally, but simply on this By-Law, because I believe that the Constitution or By-Law as it was should prevail.

So far as the retroactive part of it is concerned, I fail to see where it is retroactive. When you are speaking of anything being retroactive you mean that it affects the past. This does not affect the past, but it affects the present and the future, and I would like to call Judge Cutler's attention to the fact that every Legislature passes legislation which legislates certain people out of office, and I cannot see why this organization cannot legislate people out of office as well as any other body which created those offices.

THE CHAIRMAN: They do that by abolishing the offices. They have a regular legal form.

MR. COLLINS: Yes, they do it in many ways.

THE CHAIRMAN: The delegates are to decide the interpretation of the By-Law.

MR. HOWARD WILLETS: Is not the office of delegate in this Association somewhat similar to a stockholder in a stock corporation? If a director in any stock corporation sells his stock in that corporation he ceases to be a director, I do not care for how long a period he has been elected.

THE CHAIRMAN: This is not a parallel case, because when the corporation was organized that particular law was upon the statute books and therefore it involves practically his buying that stock with that proviso, but in this case the directors were elected by the delegates for a certain term, and then they amended the By-Laws.

DR. DE MUND: As I have said, the directors are elected from among the members. If a man ceases to be a delegate he is no longer a member. If you are going back to that, it would seem to me that a man must be a member to be a director, and that would be the same in regard to a stockholder. I think Mr. Willets proposed that amendment at the time, that a man who ceases to be a delegate shall thereby cease to be a director. I do not see how there can be any two interpretations of that.

THE CHAIRMAN: That very point was discussed and the vote of the delegates decided that that did not involve, as the matter stood at that time, the ceasing of a delegate to be a director, and for that reason the amendment to the by-law was proposed and afterwards passed, and the Chair was simply giving his opinion and ruling on the subject that that is not a retroactive measure. If you decide that it must be so considered it will be so considered. If you vote in the affirmative, you sustain Dr. De Mund’s appeal. If you vote in the negative you sustain the interpretation which the Chair has placed upon the operation of the amendment to the By-Laws.

On being put to vote, Dr. De Mund's appeal was lost.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the financial report for the year. It would take some time to read it. I would state that it has been audited and found correct by Messrs. Townsend & Dix, accountants.

MR. STEWART: I move that the report be accepted and spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

(Said financial report will be found on another page of this number of the Gazette.)

The Secretary read his report as follows:

Feb. 23, 1915.

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since the last meeting I have received an application for Active Membership from the New York State Fair, I have also received Credentials from the Boston Terrier Club appointing Dr. Wallace Snow; Brussel Griffon Club of America appointing Mr. J. Bayard Kirkpatrick; Fort Orange Poultry & Pet Stock Association appointing Mr. J. W. Stott; New Bedford District Kennel Club appointing Mr. Samuel R. Walker; Plainfield Kennel Club appointing Mr. A. Clinton Wilmerding; Southampton Kennel Club appointing Mr. Henry D. Whitfield, all of which have been approved by the full Membership Committee. The Credentials from the Toy Dog Club of New England, appointing Mr. James Byrne, to be laid over for the reason that the Delegate was not known to any member of the Committee, nor vouched for by any person known to at least one member of the Committee.*

Credentials from the Lynn Kennel Club, the Pacific Cocker Spaniel Club, and the Rhode Island Kennel Club were received too late for publication in the January Gazette and were therefore laid over until a subsequent meeting.

The report of the Rules Committee approving of amendments to the By-Laws and the rules were published in the January Gazette and will be submitted to you at this meeting for your consideration.

The Special Committee on the "Dog Muzzling Ordinance" presented a bill for $61.00 which I will present to you for authority to pay.

I beg to report that resignations from the Santa Cruz County Kennel Club and the Piping Rock Kennel club have been filed and will be submitted to you for action.

Pursuant to Article XVI, Section 3 of the By-Laws, the following clubs have been automatically dropped from membership:

Delaware Valley Kennel Club
Jersey City Kennel Club
Ladies Kennel Association of California.
Portland Kennel Club.

The votes of the Associate Subscribers were opened by the Secretary and Board of Tellers on February 3, 1915 and resulted in the election of Messrs, W. G. Rockefeller and A. G. Hooley as the Associate Delegates for the year 1915.

The Directors to be elected at this meeting are six for the class expiring in 1915 one for the class expiring in 1915, and one for the class expiring in 1919.

As a matter of record I beg to inform you that by the will of the late Mme. Vernona Jarbeau, the American Kennel Club received a cabinet and cups, medals, and ribbons won by her dogs at different AKC shows at which they competed.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary.
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file. The bill for $61.00 presented by the Special Committee on the Dog Muzzling Ordinance was authorized to be paid. The Delaware Valley Kennel Club automatically dropped to be reinstated in prompt payment of dues for 1915.

MR. HOOLEY: I would like to add to that report that the thanks of the members be given to the Committee who labored in this matter. They did a great deal of work with very little expense, and I think that some appreciation should be shown them for the work they did.

Motion seconded and carried.

The resignations of the Santa Cruz County Kennel Club and the Piping Rock Kennel Club were read, and on motion accepted.

DR. DE MUND: As Chairman of the Dog Muzzling Committee I would report that we expected by this time to have everything cleaned up, but we have been unable as yet to have an audience with the Mayor to present the petition, in the meantime a test case was brought by an exhibitor and it is now in the courts, it has been carried to the Supreme Court and we are waiting a decision. The committee have worked with the attorney representing Mrs. Knoblauch, and the situation that I wish to report is, if fee base should go against Mrs. Knoblauch they want to know what position the American Kennel Club will take, whether they would be willing to go into the matter of taking an appeal to the Appellate Division in a financial way, not very much money, but to help the attorneys for Mrs. Knoblauch. Our bill so far has been about $60.00. That was for having petitions printed and so forth. If fee matter is decided against us -- I say against us because we have been working with Mrs. Knoblauch -- the sense of the Committee was that we might go on a little further and furnish part of the necessary means to carry it to a finish. If it is decided in our favor, and they take it up, the expense will be proportionately lees. If it is decided against us the expense will be a little larger, but not very much, and the Committee would like to ask for instruction from the delegates.

THE CHAIRMAN: There has been no decision on the subject at all?

DR. DE MUND: The decision has been reserved. It has not been given yet.

THE CHAIRMAN: Would it not seem better that the question be held in abeyance, because the character of the decision might be such as to involve a question of policy, as to whether we ought or ought not to go on with it.

MR. BOGER: I was one who originally protested against the spending of any money when this matter came up originally. Now, inasmuch as the Committee have been so faithful, if the Committee having it in charge deem it advisable to assist financially the appeal, I think we should give it to them. I say that because I am very glad of the opportunity now to express my feeling in the matter, because I was very much against appropriating any money before, but now since I have read accounts on the subject and have heard what the Committee has been trying to accomplish, I would like to be one of the first to make a motion that we give the Committee certain powers to act, so far as financial assistance on the appeal is concerned.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you desire to place any limit on the sum?

MR. BOGER: I do not know; whatever is the consensus of opinion of the delegates.

DR. DE MUND: The original resolution appropriated the sum of $3,000.00, but that was merely an appropriation which the Committee at no time had any desire to expend. It was merely to give the idea that there was some money back of it. There are other members of the Committee here, and I wish they would speak on the subject.

THE CHAIRMAN: Would it not be more satisfactory to have some limit put upon the expenditure?
DR. DE MUND: Certainly.

THE CHAIRMAN: Then a motion should be made to instruct the Committee in their discretion to assist in the appeal and expend a sum not exceeding whatever sum you would like to limit them to.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Why would it not be better to have this matter brought before the Finance Committee.

MR. BOGER: Refer it to the Finance Committee for final action in the matter?

MR. HUUNNEWELL: Yes.

MR. BOGBR: I make that motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question of the appropriation voted to the Dog Muzzling Committee be referred to the Finance Committee with power. Is that your motion?

MR. BOGER: Yes.

MR. COLLINS: The position is simply this, that before this Board of Delegates meet again we may have to appeal, if we are going to appeal it at all, because we do not meet again until May; but I think Mr. Hunnewell's idea is a very good one, that we should take the advice of the Finance Committee as to the amount of expense we should be put to.

THE CHAIRMAN: Why not word a resolution which would provide that the question as to the limitation of the expenditure for this appeal out of the general appropriation be referred to the Finance Committee with power.

DR. DE MUND: That would be satisfactory.

MR. COLLINS: Ee would be glad to be relieved of the responsibility.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I make that motion.

MR. HOOLEY: It is understood that it is at the request of that Committee that this is being done. We are not taking any power away from them, but the Committee requests that they be allowed to confer with somebody, and the conference would naturally be with the Finance Committee. Now they suggest that it be taken up with the Finance Committee, so that if there is any objection made afterwards it would not be against the Committee that is in charge of dog muzzling. Therefore I second Mr. Hunnewell’s motion. My understanding is that the Finance Committee would act with the Committee on Muzzling, and that this delegate body would approve of anything that the Finance Committee did in connection with that, so that instead of having to bring it up to a large body of men every time, they would go to the Finance Committee and confer with them, and that the Finance Committee would act for the delegates.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think the Finance Committee have any discretion as to what should be done with regard to the muzzling. The question is simply as to whether the expenditure shall be made.

DR. DE MUND: We have $3,000.00 which has been appropriated, that we could spend by a vote of the Committee. We do not feel like taking the responsibility of spending that money. We want to share it with somebody. There is no question about spending that or any part of it, but we would like to have the sense of the delegates how far we should go in this matter.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee deaistes to leare that decision to the Finance Committee.

DR. DE MUND: I think we would like to have it that way.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion is the limitation or the sum to be spent on the appeal, if it be taken, in the discretion of the Muzzling Committee, be referred to the Finance Committee with power.

MR. HUNNEWELL: My motion is that the Dog Muzzling Committee be requested to consult with the Finance Committee as to the sum to be expended in case of further expenditure of money, if they want to take it up, with power to act. Carried.
The report of the Rules Committee was read, as follows:

The Committee does not approve of the following amendment to Rule XVIII of Rules Governing Dog Shows, which is as follows:

"We hereby offer the following amendment to Rule XVIII, Rules Governing Dog Shows. Strike out all of the rule following the words 'and must also mark all absentees in their classes' which reads 'A professional handler shall not be eligible to act as a judge. (A professional handler is a person who handles, boards, conditions, or shows dogs for money as a means of livelihood.)"

The same having been submitted to them January 6, 1915 and acted upon by them January 20th, 1915.

The Committee suggests that a new Rule be added to the Rules Governing Dog Shows which shall read as follows:-

"All clubs when requesting judges to officiate shall require said judges to notify them in writing as to whether they are eligible under that portion of Rule XVIII referring to professional handlers and a copy of this portion of the rule must accompany such request. Nothing in this amendment shall be construed as applying to any foreign Judge who may be asked to officiate."
Section II. "Any person officiating as Judge after stating that he is not a professional handler as specified above, and whose statement shall be found to be false shall be disqualified for life."

Section III. "Any professional handler who notifies the American Kennel Club in writing that he has discontinued this occupation is at the expiration of one year from date of filing said letter eligible to judge at any show given under American Kennel Club Rules, provided he is in good standing."

The Rules Committee approve the following addition to the By-Laws.

Add to Article XVI.

Section 4. "Any Delegate may be transferred from one member in good standing to another, by vote of the Membership Committee, without being balloted for at a regular meeting, provided such change is satisfactory to the members from whom the Delegate is transferred."

Add to Article X.

Section 6. The Committee may transfer a Delegate from one Member to another in accordance with Article XVI Section four (4).

MR. STEWART: I received and placed on file.

Motion seconded and carried.
MR. CREUZBAUR: I would like to ask why those provisions should not apply to foreign Judges. As I understand the report, a foreign Judge might be a professional handler. Why should not a man coming from the other side be subject to the same provisions as those which are so wisely suggested here in America?

MR. HOOLEY: The Committee looked into that very carefully, and as I remember it, our Committee felt that it might be difficult for us to prove on the other side just who was or who was not a professional handler. He might be a professional handler in our Judgment and still not be considered a professional handler on the other side. We also felt that there was a courtesy due to the people of another country, whoever they might be, and we presumed that the club who invite Judges from the other side are usually sure of the reputation of the man whom they invite.

MR. WOOD: Do I understand that this is a motion?

MR. RITCHEY: I move that we take up these proposed amendments separately.

Seconded and carried.

MR. STEWART: I move that Rule XIV of Rules Governing Dog Show, the last sentence of paragraph 1 as now reads: "Dogs competing for specials only must be entered in one of the regular classes in which they need not compete," to read: "Dogs competing for specials only must be entered in one of the regular classes. Dogs so entered for Specials only cannot compete in the class in which they are entered".

MR. HOOLEY: I accept that.

DR. DE MUND: Do not the By-Laws provide how a new amendment shall be made? That has not gone before the Rules Committee nor has it appeared in the Gazette. That is not touching on any rule we are taking up now.

THE CHAIRMAN: If the Rules Committee, properly represented in this meeting, accepted that and were willing to embody it in their report and recommend it, it would be in order to put it before the meeting.

DR. DE MUND: The rule says it must be published in the Gazette.

MR. WOOD: As it is simply a question of words and does not mean anything, I do not see why we cannot have the unanimous consent of the Committee to present it as a part of their report.

THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. De Mund’s position is that it should be published, so we would have an opportunity to comment on it.
MR. WOOD: I ask that unanimous consent be given to have this recommendation of Mr. Stewart added to the report of the Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

(At this point Mr. Belmont resigned the Chair to Mr. H. H. Hunnewell.)

THE SECRETARY: I will now read the proposed amendments:

"All clubs when requesting Judges to officiate shall require said judges to notify them in writing as to whether they are eligible under that portion of Rule XVIII referring to professional handlers, and a copy of this portion of the Rule must accompany such request. Nothing in this amendment shall be construed as applying to any foreign judge who may "be asked to officiate."

Section II, "Any person officiating as Judge after stating that he is not a professional handler as specified above, and whose statement shall be found to be false, shall be disqualified for life."

Section III. "Any professional handler who notifies the American Kennel Club in writing that he has discontinued this occupation is at the expiration of one year from date of filing said letter eligible to judge at any show given under American Kennel Club Rules, provided he is in good standing."

MR. WOOD: In order to bring this matter to a head I would state that I have been requested by the Gwynedd Valley Kennel Club to make a motion that the Rules Committee's report be not accepted, and that the original suggested rule made to them by members who signed the rule be adopted. In other words, wipe out the rules adopted to keep professional handlers from judging, I make that motion.

DR. DE MUND: I second the motion, and as I was one of the original proposers of that rule, not that I believe the rule not to be a good one as it stands, but the way it has been enforced by the American Kennel Club, it has been a farce, and every show that I ever go to I hear complaints made that so and so is picked out and not allowed to Judge, while so and so is allowed to judge. The rule itself I believe to be a good one, but a good rule not enforced impartially is a very poor one. For that reason I brought that up in order that it may be settled one way or another. At the present time, at the show going on now, we have a professional handler Judging. He has been Judging all over the country and nothing has been done, but yet one man is picked out and brought down here, and he is told that he is a professional handler and cannot judge. I do not believe the rules of this club should be enforced in that way,

MR. WOOD: I would like to say a little on this subject. Dr. De Mund said the rule may be a good one, but it is a bad one the way it is handled. If someone can make some suggestion as to a better way of handling the subject we would be very glad to hear from him,

MR. HOOLEY: Will not this new rule or amendment that we are introducing here today cover all that? Will it not bring about just what we expect it to do? When we ask a man whether he is or he is not a professional handler, and he goes on record, it is easy to prove whether he is or is not. I think this rule will cover that end will protect us in every way,

MR. HOWARD WILLETS: I do not think Mr. Wood's motion is in order at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: I rule Mr. Wood's motion out of order, because the Chairman of the Committee offers this.

MR. WOOD: This matter has been referred to the Rules Committee and turned down by it. Does that prevent the Delegates from taking up and voting on that ruling?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chairman of the Rules Committee offers this as a motion. All you do is to vote down that motion and you accomplish your object. The motion is before the meeting. You cannot make the motion.

DR. DE MUND: A motion, it seems to me, would be in order to adopt the original amendment, not the report of the Rules committee, but I would make such a motion, that the original amendment be adopted.

THE CHAIRMAN: That motion is before the meeting. I think the motion before the House now is that the Rules Committee move that that amendment be not adopted and that those three paragraphs be substituted. We are voting on the original amendment, and the Rules Committee, which offered the motion, move that it be not adopted.

MR. HOWARD WILLETS: That has nothing to do with the matter relating to foreign judges?

THE CHAIRMAN: No. If you vote aye, you support the Committee and vote down the amendment. If you vote no, you turn down the Committee and vote for the amendment.

The question being put to vote, the proposed new rule was adopted.

DR. DR MUND: I move to strike out the referring to foreign Judges.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: A motion is in order to the report of the Committee as amended.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that the report of the Rules Committee be accepted.

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The next is, the Rules Committee approve the following addition to the By-Laws. Add to Article XVI.

Section 4. "Any Delegate may be transferred from one member in good standing to another, by vote of the Membership Committee, without being balloted for at a regular meeting, provided such change is satisfactory to the members from whom the Delegate is transferred."

Add to Article X.

Section 6. "The Committee may transfer a Delegate from one Member to another in accordance with Article XVI Section four (4)."

MR. WOOD: This last rule was partly suggested by myself, and in order that what I think is a good rule may not be voted down by any personal feeling that any Delegate may have against me, I want to state that I myself will never apply to be transferred under such rule, and I would like to have that spread upon the minutes, because I believe this to be a good rule, which will be a help to Kennel men, in that men who are good men should be kept on the Board of Delegates without losing their membership through some club going out of business. I want it clearly understood that I will never ask to be transferred to another. I hope anyone who may care to vote against this rule on my personal account will not do so because I believe it to be a good one.

DR. DE MUND: I do not think there is any personal feeling on the part of anybody against Mr. Wood, but I think the rule is a very bad one. It is about the only thing left to the club, and that is to elect its Delegates. I do not think it is in conformity with the rules that we have at the present time which state that Delegates must be balloted upon by the Delegates.

MR. WOOD: It may or may not be vicious legislation, but it would seem to me that a person who has been a Delegate for a number of years should not lose his Delegateship because some club which perhaps he knew very little about should lose its membership, perhaps I am wrong. It is for the Delegates to decide. I made it that way because I was blackballed on a substitution of one club for another.

DR. DE MUND: This is an Association of Clubs. Each club is entitled to appoint its Delegate. It is the most vicious legislation that I ever heard proposed in the American Kennel Club, to take from that club the power to say whom they shall have as representative. This is not a question of how good a man may be or how poor he may be. It is the question of the right of the club to be represented by whom they wish to send in; not to have a man because he happened to be elected here once kept on forever, which could occur under this proposed amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think there is one misunderstanding on your part. The clubs decide it; the Membership Committee does not decide it,

DR. DE MUND: This is not a club composed of individuals, but it is composed of various show-giving and specialty clubs, and they have given the Delegates the power to say who shall represent them and who shall sit with them.

THE CHAIRMAN: From your standpoint I agree with you, but you do not seem to understand that the club must elect the Delegate, and the Membership Committee has power to transfer him.

MR. CUTLER: I do not like the sound of that proposed addition to the By-Laws. I have no doubt that the Membership Committee meant it all right, but it sounds as if we were picking out Delegates for clubs. When this body transfers one Delegate or a man who has been a Delegate to another club, it will be accepted by the public to mean that we are picking out Delegates for clubs, and that is fundamentally different from what this club is organized for. I do not think we ought to pass that rule in that form.

THE CHAIRMAN: The idea was that another club elects this man.

MR. CUTLER: That is not what it says.

MR. WOOD: I would move an amendment, when some other club in good standing has duly elected such Delegate.

MR. HOOLEY: This is not a new man being brought in. He must be a member. He has been a member and he has been elected and balloted on, and he is in good standing, or he would not be here. He is a member of a club which goes out of existence. He must be asked for by the other club. He must be given up freely by his own club. We are not putting a new man in.

DR. DR MUND: We are taking away about the only power that the Delegates have left. They might as well not come here at all.

MR. HOLTON: Would it not clear up the atmosphere if we changed the reading of that to accomplish the object of the amendment, which, I understand, is to substitute for a process which is somewhat cumbersome a quicker method of continuing in the service of the club a man who has proved himself a worthy member. What is in my mind is this; The Committee possibly meant that to read that in the event of a man losing his Delegateship because his club either goes out of office or elects another, and this same man be nominated as a Delegate representing another club, that he be permitted to continue his office of Delegate by the ballots of the Delegates assembled. That would simply let them re-approve of the act that they registered when they elected the Delegate. Doesn't it take a month to do that now?

THR SECRETARY: It takes three months.

MR. HOLTON: This amendment would make it possible to do it at any meeting.

MR. CUTLER: I think we ought to be cautious about passing an amendment of this kind, because the American Kennel Club is a representative body. Its members are clubs and not individuals, and the right comes from the clubs. The clubs send their Delegates here, and we, as the body to which Delegates are sent, have the right to pass upon the propriety of that person being accepted, but I do not think we ought to pass any rule which will indicate that we have any preference for old members rather than new. I think the whole matter stands today as it ought to stand, giving the clubs the freest choice of whom shall represent them as Delegates, and the only mission which we have to perform is to pass upon the suitableness of the person which the club shall have selected as its Delegate. I can conceive of an instance where a person would be a very good Delegate for a club in one part of the country and perhaps not be a good Delegate for a club in another part of the country. Because a man has been accepted once, it does not follow that he need be accepted a second time. A man may represent one constituency very well, and not always represent well another, and it might not be wise to pass a vote that a man having been accepted once by this body would never have to be voted on a second time. I think it would be a fundamental error if we did that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I agree with Judge Cutler that I think it is all wrong to take away the right of ballot by the Delegates.

The question being put to vote the proposed addition to the By-Laws was lost.

THE SECRETARY then read the proposed amendment of Mr. Stewart to Rule XIV:

"Dogs competing for Specials only must be entered in one of the regular classes in which they need not compete", to read, "Dogs competing for Specials only must be entered in one of the regular classes. Dogs so altered for Specials only cannot compete in the class in which they are entered."
MR. HOOLEY: I move its adoption.
    Seconded and carried.
    The following proposed amendment:
    "We hereby offer the following amendment to Rule XVIII, Rules Governing Dog Shows. Strike out all of the rule following the words 'and must also mark all absentees in their classes', which reads, 'A professional handler shall not be eligible to act as a Judge. (A professional handler is a person who handles, boards, conditions, or shows dogs for money as a means of livelihood')."
    Was lost.

Applications of Messrs. C. W. Buttes and A. F. Hochwolt for reinstatement were presented, each accompanied by the necessary fee of 35. It was stated that favorable action by the A.K.C. on these applications would end all opposition to this club by the National Dog Breeders Association, and would be the means of the removal of disqualification of several men who were disqualified in Kansas City. On motion the requests of Messrs. Buttes Hochwolt were complied with and their disqualifications were removed.

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since the last meeting I received applications for Active Membership from the Anthracite Kennel Association, and the Eastern Collie Breeders Association. I have also received Credentials from the Collie Club of America appointing Mr. W. Ormiston Roy; Eastern Collie Breeders Association appointing Mr. Walter B. Foster; German Shepherd Dog Club appointing Mr. J. Montfort Schley, Jr.; Greyhound Club of America appointing Mr. Joseph Z. Batten; Irish Terrier Club of America appointing Mr. J. R. Under date of April 9, 1915, I received the resignation as a Delegate of Mr. John G. Bates who now represents the Irish Terrier Club of America; on April 14, 1915, the resignation of Mr. Edwin W. Dwight, who now represents the New England Collie Club.

At the annual meeting in February, the Portland Kennel Club was automatically dropped from Membership for its failure to pay its annual dues for 1915 on or before the date of that meeting. On March 8th, following, I received the dues from said Portland Kennel Club with an explanation from its Secretary under date of February 27th that he thought that he had mailed this check on January 31st. I was not authorized to reinstate the Portland Kennel Club, and beg to recommend that under the circumstances I be directed to accept these dues and reinstate the Club. The Membership Committee have approved all of the applications for Delegates except the Lynn Kennel Club.

Respectfully submitted,

Our meeting was held on the 17th of February, at which time this Club was automatically dropped. The letter enclosing this check was written on February 27th to our Western Agent and forwarded by him to this Club. I have had it all this time and have not been able to accept it without your authorization.

MR. LEDERER: I move that the check of the Portland Kennel club be accepted, and that the Club be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the resignation of Mr. John G. Bates as a Delegate, and also the resignation of Mr. Edwin W. Dwight, who now represents the New England Collie Club.

On motion said resignations were accepted.

MR. COLLINS: I would like to ask if the Secretary has received any report from the Pacific Coast Trial Board in reference to the case of Judd vs. Bowman?

THE SECRETARY: I have. Mrs. Bowman has been disqualified.

MR. COLLINS: Mrs. Bowman is a member of the Long Island Club, of which I am a Delegate, and she has requested me to bring the matter before this meeting today, and I have gone into the matter. She has handed to me certain papers, correspondence and matter. I have gone through those papers and I have come to the conclusion that so far as my personal idea is concerned she is absolutely innocent of any wrongdoing. Otherwise I would not be on my feet advocating her cause. I therefore move you that this Board recommend to the Board of Directors that the decision of the Trial Board be not approved, and that the matter be referred to the Executive Committee without the formality of a regular appeal for their review of the action. My reasons for making that motion are as follows: In the first place, I do not think that the Trial Board on the Coast had any jurisdiction in the matter since the case in question was absolutely a New York transaction, and should have gone before the New York Trial Board. Secondly, Mrs. Bowman did not have any proper means of defending herself. She was notified of the charges against her, and of course, submitted her written answer, which is surely very unsatisfactory in such a case, while on the other hand the complainant was represented by her husband, who is a lawyer, and naturally they had every opportunity to rebut any of the statements made by Mrs. Bowman in her defense.

Third: I believe that disqualification of Mrs. Bowman would mean taking away from her practically her means of support, and since the matter is entirely a civil transaction, I think that would probably mean a civil case, which in my opinion would go against this Club and be very disagreeable to it. My fourth reason is that there are certain phases in the case which if aired in court would probably mean very unpleasant notoriety for this organization, particularly its Pacific Trial Board. My fifth reason is that I do not consider that the complainant had any cause whatever for action. In order to explain my last reason I will have to give you a very brief idea of the case, which I can do. It seems that this Mrs. Judd bought two Maltese Terriers from Mrs. Bowman—puppies, one a dog and one a bitch, with the understanding that these puppies were to be retained by Mrs. Bowman until they had arrived at such an age that they would develop certain points necessary to the breed, and also that the bitch would arrive at her second season and be bred. Before the time came when the dog would mature sufficiently and properly, or the bitch would reach a second service time, the purchaser called the deal off and demanded back her deposit of $15.00, which deposit was returned to her, thereby absolutely completing the matter and settling it. After that the complainant learned that Mrs. Bowman had sold this bitch puppy, and believing that that puppy was a puppy which at the time was winning considerably in shows she wrote to Mrs. Bowman demanding either the puppy or the $100.00 which Mrs. Bowman was supposed to have received for the puppy. That was after she had demanded and received back her deposit at the closing of the transaction.

DR. DE MUND: I second the motion and would like to give my reasons for doing so. I have gone over some correspondence in the matter, and I believe that a grave injustice has been done the defendant in this case. Furthermore, there are certain phases of the matter which Mr. Collins spoke of that would not redound to the credit of the American Kennel Club.
THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me that the way you propose to proceed is really out of order. According to Article 14, this ought to go on appeal to the Executive Committee.

DR. DE MUND: The motion is that the Executive Committee be asked to take up the case.

MR. COLLINS: I am asking that this meeting recommend such action to the Board of Directors. That was my idea in asking that that action be taken instead of approving of this decision by the Pacific Trial Board. That would remove this disqualification from Mrs. Bowman, and there would be absolutely no final action taken in the matter, the final action being that of the Executive Committee. I appreciate the fact that the regular course to pursue would be for Mrs. Bowman to appeal the case. Mrs. Bowman is not a wealthy woman, and it probably would cost her something to prepare the case, to say nothing of the $25.00 which it would be necessary for her to deposit, and rather than open the case I thought probably if the Executive committee would review the case they would see sufficient evidence and facts to simply ignore the decision reached by the Trial Board and throw it out, which in my opinion would be the
THE CHAIRMAN: The question is whether we would be in order in doing that.

MR. COLLINS: This Committee can recommend anything they please.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is very clearly stated in the by-laws what we can do.

MR. COLLINS: May I ask what will the Board of Directors do in the case? They must either approve or disapprove of this recommendation, must they not?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. COLLINS: My motion is that they disapprove that report, and then they can take it up of their own accord and ask the Executive Committee to review the case. If they refuse to approve of the action of the Trial Board, then they can take it up themselves and have the Executive Committee review it.

THE SECRETARY: That is not the custom. The custom has been ever since we have had Trial Boards that the action of the Trial Board is final unless appealed from within thirty days.

THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me the proper procedure would be -- I am not saying that you are not perfectly right as to the case, but it seems to me that really your motion is out of order according to our own by-laws.

MR. COLLINS: This Committee can recommend anything they like. They can recommend to the President, they can recommend to the Secretary or to my Committee or to the Board of Directors. If they can elect the Board of Directors they can recommend anything they see fit.

DR. DE MUND: I move to amend Mr. Collin’s motion, that the Delegates request the Executive Committee to re-open this case of Judd vs. Bowman and investigate the findings of the Pacific Trial Board. That is not an appeal. It is a new procedure entirely.

Amendment seconded.

MR. COLLINS: I accept the amendment.

MR. LEDERER: I ask for information whether this action by the Pacific Trial Board differs in any respect from a disqualification made by other Trial Boards. Being a member of the New York Trial Board I am interested in getting this information. Was the party referred to disqualified by the Pacific Trial Board, or was there a recommendation, or what is the status of the proceeding?

THE SECRETARY: She was ordered to be dis - qualified and all privileges of the American Kennel Club withdrawn from her.

MR. LEDERER: Then she is disqualified?

THE SECRETARY: She is disqualified.

DR. DE MUND: My object in making that amendment is to avoid what I think would lead to a pretty serious scandal to the American Kennel Club if this matter goes through. I do not think we want a repetition of the Ellery case.

MR. HOOLEY: Simply for information I would like to ask Mr. Collins whether they have a letter — I think you said you had the correspondence — asking for the return of the $15.00 and the acknowledgement of the $15.00?

MR. COLLINS: I believe they have.

MR. BUCHANAN: The $15.00 was requested and was sent, and acknowledgement given of the $15.00.

THE CHAIRMAN: This is all out of order. The point is whether this recommendation is proper under our by-laws.

MR. COLLINS: I want to call the attention of the Delegates to one fact: Speaking of what has been done in the past, I don't know, possibly it has, but I do not think you have ever had quite a similar case where a person was tried in New York by a Trial Board from the west. The defendant, to begin with, was placed at a great disadvantage. I do not believe the Trial Board had any legal jurisdiction in the matter, and I believe if it goes to a civil court there will be nothing to it. Why go into that? It might be just as well settled now.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not see why this Delegate cannot make a recommendation. Of course, the recommendation does not govern the Board of Directors nor the Executive Committee.

Dr. De Mund's amendment was then put and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you withdraw your motion, Mr. Collins?

MR. COLLINS: Yes, I will accept that as the original motion.

DR. SNOW: The Boston Terrier Club would like to place before the Rules Committee for their consideration an amendment to Rule 4 of the Rules governing shows. The proposed amendment is as follows:

Rule 4. Classifications shall be confined to the recognized breeds hereinafter named, which may be divided or limited by variety, weight, color, height or sex and otherwise as provided for in these rules.
All classifications must be arranged as follows: Puppy, novice, American bred, limit, open and winners -- after which additional classes that do not conflict with the breed standard may be provided in any breed.

MR. HARBY: I would like to ask for information. What is the rule with regard to specials that are sent by clubs to be competed for at shows where they are sent after the publication of the premium list? Are they open to competition or is there any limit of time?

THE SECRETARY: The limit of time is that no special can be accepted later than the day before the opening of the show.

MR. HARBY: Then they can be sent in at any time?

THE SECRETARY: Prior to the opening of the show.

MR. HARBY: I wish to bring the attention of the members to an abuse which has grown up here, and then if I understand the rule, I will make a proper motion, that specials are time and again sent to shows and the only people who are aware of them are those who send in the specials, and that lately has opened a situation to the suspicion at least that it is intended to shut out competition and to award specials to certain individuals. I have been asked to bring to the attention of this meeting, without mentioning any special instances, the fact that lately some specials have been sent in to shows solely that only the committee sending in the specials were aware that they were offered, and competition that would have existed has been shut out in consequence. Take, for instance, a special offered for the best in the same class. Such special has been awarded to inferior dogs because other dogs did not compete or were not entered in that class. That sort of thing has grown lately, and three instances I have in mind, either through carelessness -- probably through carelessness — there has been a gross abuse. It has been so gross that it is open to criticism, and I think that the American Kennel Club ought to adopt some rule which would prevent a committee representing a club, a Specialty Committee, from submitting specials at such time as that it would be impossible for members of that club to know that those specials were to be competed for. It can be very readily seen that three or four people representing a committee can dispose of the club specials, and people who ordinarily ought not to receive them would stand a very good chance of getting them by reason of the fact that others who could compete for them did not enter for that competition. I would like to ask, is it proper to make a motion here to amend that rule, or should it be submitted to some committee?

THE SECRETARY: It must be submitted to the Rules Committee in the same way that the Boston Terrier Club has just submitted a proposed amendment.

MR. HARBY: Couldn't these members here adopt a resolution that the committee be asked to take cognizance of that and amend the rule? Might it not be here provided? I should like to have it done as the sense of this meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think that would be quite in order.

MR. HARBY: Why cannot the members of the American Kennel Club get together and ask the Rules Committee to amend the rules instead of having one member write them a letter asking them to amend the rule? I do not want it to go in as an individual proposition. I believe that the members here, if they understand the situation, would be in favor of asking the Rules Committee to amend that rule so as to provide that specials must be received before the publication of the premium list, or at least must be published in some fashion so as to permit members to know for what special there will be competition.

MR. MORE: I think that would be up to the specialty clubs themselves. They delegate their powers to a committee. Where there are specials to be given I think it would be up to the club itself to regulate their affairs. I do not think we ought to interfere with the offering of specials by specialty clubs.

MR. HARBY: The question is of having the offering made public. My creation is now on the regularity of the procedure. Why may not a motion be made here resolving that the members here present recommend to the Committee on Rules that such and such a rule be amended so as to provide that no specials may be competed for at shows unless such specials appear in the premium list or be published in certain publications within a certain time before the show. Why would it be irregular to make such a motion? If it is not I would like to make it.

MR. HOOLEY: I think each individual club has a right to say what their special should be and when they shall be given, when the announcement should be made, I cannot see how we can dictate to the clubs. Every time we have tried to do that we have got into trouble.

MR. HARBY: It seems to me that the members of a specialty club should be protected in the specials that were donated by the club. I think that the fair way would be that each member of the club should know what the specials were for competition. There are a number of clubs whose boards do not include men, and whose boards do not include lawyers, but whose boards are made up of women, who, however well intentioned, do not understand the importance of removing from their own committee the suspicion or the suggestion that there was any personal reason for the manner in which specials were arranged and not published. I have been informed by Mr. Mortimer and other people that they have had great difficulty in getting specials in time; they have come in late, and I have seen announcements of specials from such and such a club without saying what those specials were, and I know of members who have tried to find out what specials their own club was giving. It is all very well to say that it is the business of the club to regulate that thing, but we are men here, and should know that women, never mind how well intentioned they are, find some difficulty in regulating their own club affairs, if a rule were adopted by the American Kennel Club that no specials are open to competition unless they were so received or so published as to give notice that they were to be competed for, such a rule would President, H. H. Hunnewell in the Chair.

The Secretary read his report which is as follows:-

June 14, 1915.

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:- I beg to report that at the regular quarterly meeting of Delegates held May 18, 1915 a resolution was offered by one of the delegates to refer the case of Judd vs. Baumann to the Board of Directors with the recommendation that the decision of the San Francisco Trial Board be not approved and that the matter be referred to the Executive Committee without the formality of a regular appeal for their review of the action.

This motion was amended and adopted as follows: "that the Delegates request the Executive Committee to re-open the case of Judd vs. Baumann and investigate the findings of the San Francisco Trial Board."

Through an error of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the matter was acted upon at its meeting and the Directors adopted the following resolution: "that the sense of the Board of Directors that the case of Judd vs. Baumann should take its usual course by appeal if the defendant feels aggrieved by the decision of the San Francisco Trial Board; that the Secretary communicate with Mrs. Baumann, informing her rights within ample time so that she may file an appeal if she so desires, this matter having been referred to the Board of Directors by Delegates." The action of the Board of Directors was illegal for reason that the amendment at the Delegates meeting referred it to Executive Committee.

I beg to quote from the By-Laws, Article II, Section 3:-

"It (Executive Committee) shall have power to hear, review and finally determine any appeal which may be taken from the decision of a Trial Board."

Further, Article XIV:-

"A Trial Board shall have power to hear and decide by a majority vote of the entire board, matters submitted to it, and shall continue or remove the suspension or impose the penalty of disqualification. It shall keep complete minutes of its sittings. Its decisions shall be in writing signed by all members attending, and have annexed thereto all exhibits and papers offered before it. All decision, together with complete copies of its minutes, shall be filed with the Secretary of the Club within ten days of the date of the rendition of any decisions. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Club to notify, in writing, all parties in interest of the decision of a Trial Board.

An appeal from a decision of a Trial Board may be made to the Executive Committee. Notice of such appeal must be made to the Executive Committee in writing within thirty days after the receipt of such notice by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, accompanied by a deposit of twenty five ($25.00) dollars, which shall be forfeited if said appeal is not sustained."

In compliance with the resolution of the Board of Directors, the Secretary did notify the defendant, first, that she can appeal in accordance with the rules, second, that she could request that the Trial Board be directed to re-open the case upon the ground of new evidence. The has taken advantage of her privilege and filed her appeal this I have been informed by competent legal authority that the procedure that has been followed by this office from the time Trial Boards were established to the present, has not been in accordance with legal Practice, in that; all cases of alleged misconduct have been referred by the Trial Board located nearest to the abiding place of the plaintiff. No rule has ever been adopted to govern such matters and as your Secretary has ever been adopted to govern on his own initiative.

In the above case of Judd vs. Baumann just decided by the San Francisco Trial Board, I referred the matter to that Board, the plaintiff living in Seattle, Washington, and the defendant living in Brooklyn, New York. This case now comes before the Committee upon the recommendation the Delegates at its meeting on May 18, 1915. As I interpret the rules, this Committee cannot undertake to consider the merits of the case at this meeting for the reason that an appeal has just been filed by the defendant and notice of same must be sent to the plaintiff; but I believe this Committee has the undoubted right to pass upon the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Trial Board in its investigation of the case in question.

Anticipating that an appeal would be filed, I forwarded all the papers together with the report of the San Francisco Trial Board, to our Legal Committee for its opinion as to whether the finding of said Board was according to the evidence before it but not upon the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Trial Board.

Your decision will affect other ones that are now pending and are to be heard on June 17th, and have been referred by me to Trial Boards in accordance with our previous practice.

Under date of May 19, 1915 I received a check from the Jersey City Kennel Club for its annual dues for 1915. This check was accompanied by the information that the President of the Club had been out of town for some time on account of ill health, which accounts for the delay in sending the check. This Club was automatically dropped from membership at the annual meeting of the American Kennel Club February 24, 1915. I have not accepted this check for said dues but have held it pending the decision of this Committee.

Mr. Louis A. Meyer, as agent for Messrs. Hartley and Henry, has appealed from a decision on a protest made to the San Mateo Kennel Club. This case, as is the custom, should be referred to the San Francisco Trial Board, but I have delayed doing so pending your instructions.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary

On motion the report was accepted and ordered on file.

The secretary presented the resolution of the Delegate of the matter of Judd vs. Baumann by direction of said Delegates.

In reviewing this case, the Board has only considered the question of the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Trial Board. And after a general discussion of the question it was

RESOLVED: that the Executive Committee finds that the case of Judd vs. Baumann was improperly sent to the San Francisco Trial Board for hearing through error in this office, it properly belonging to, and coming under this jurisdiction of the New York Trial Board. We do therefore recommend that this case be sent to the said New York Trial Board for its consideration. The disqualification of Mrs. Carl Baumann therefore is automatically removed.

By it further RESOLVED, - that the secretary be, and hereby is directed to return to Mrs. Baumann the appeal made by her on June 14, 1915 together with a deposit of $25.00 in accordance with the above decision of this Committee.

Carried.

In the matter of the payment of dues for 1915 by the Jersey City Kennel Club, said Club having been automatically dropped from membership on Feb 24, 1915, it was RESOLVED: -- that the secretary be directed to receive said dues, credit same to the Jersey City Kennel Club and reinstate said member, such reinstatement to take effect on December 31, 1915.

Carried.

Adjourned.

Secretary
SPECIAL MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB.

Held at its offices, No. 1 Liberty Street,
Wednesday, July 14th, 1915.

Vice-president H. H. HUNNEWELL in the Chair.

PRESENT:

MESSRS. E. H. HUNNEWELL, H. K. BLOODOODD,
A. G. HOOLEY, ROWLAND P. KEASBEY, and
A. CLINTON WILMERDING.

ATTENDING:

A. P. VREDENBURGH, Secretary.

The Secretary reported to the Committee that the following matters were up for consideration: Mrs. Anna R. Judd vs. Mrs. Carl Baumann, Re protest against decision of the Executive Committee of June 15, 1915. M. J. Mullin vs. Mrs. F. T. McGlinchey, Re protest against decision of the Executive Committee of June 15, 1915.

The protest in the Judd vs. Baumann matter is signed by Anna R. Judd in person and consists of eight typewritten sheets which I now present to the Chairman.
The protest in the matter of Mullin vs. McGlinchey is in the form of a letter signed by Charles Lamson Griffin, an Attorney Law, acting in behalf of Mr. Mullin and consists of three letters two by Mr. Griffin and one in response by your secretary.

THE CHAIRMAN: Have we a quorum?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, and Mr. Ralph C. Stewart said he would be here but has not yet appeared.

THE CHAIRMAN: We will take up as our first order of business the protest of Judd vs. Baumann. This protest is lengthy and appears to have been written by a woman but was no doubt dictated by her husband.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yea, it was undoubtedly dictated by her husband, and his legal ideas are very wide of the mark.

THE SECRETARY: There is one thing I would like to have made a matter of record at this meeting and that is, do you want the protest published or not? If it is published it has got to be edited considerably.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We will speak of that when we get through with our meeting and determine whether we want it published or not. How does that suit you, Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, that would seem to be the proper way to handle that matter. But when we are considering the matter of editing it, can they come back on us for anything she writes?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, they can, if we publish it.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you mean to say that in a case like this where Mrs. Judd writes to us a communication if we publish it we are liable?

THE SECRETARY: We are liable. Mrs. Baumann could sue us for damages.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you mean to say Mrs. Baumann could sue us for publishing something written to us by Mrs. Judd?

THE SECRETARY: It cost you $6,000 for something that one of our delegates said.

THE CHAIRMAN: But that was a very different matter. I do not think that the cases are analogous at all.

MR. HOOLEY: Will anybody care particularly to have it published or to read it if published? If there is no demand to have it published, why run any risk?

THE CHAIRMAN: I am not discussing that. I say this is a very different case from that of the delegate who made certain statements. Here is a case where a written communication is sent to us and signed by Mrs. Judd.

THE SECRETARY: Shall I read this, gentlemen?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, read the communication by Mrs. Judd.

THE SECRETARY: (Reads the first part of the communication and is interpreted when reading the following sentence at the bottom of the first page: "The Directors having acted and referred the case in question, their decision on that point is conclusive.")

THE CHAIRMAN: Wait a moment. "The San Francisco Trial Board is what appears in my copy, which is not the case referred to by you.

THE SECRETARY: It does not so appear here.

THE CHAIRMAN: I cannot held that. I have a copy here.

THE SECRETARY: I will read what I have (concludes reading of the sentence as follows: "Nor can it be highhandedly vacated on the mere statement that an error was committed in your office without pointing out what such error is, and why it should vitiate the extended and expensive proceedings which have taken based upon it."

THE CHAIRMAN: Now stop there. Let us settle that first, unless you want the whole thing read throught.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not care to have it all read. We might as well discuss this and settle this point now.

THE CHAIRMAN: Let us thresh these things out as we go along.

MR. BLOODGOOD: The Executive Committee has a right to create Trial Boards, they certainly have a right to decide where a trial shall be heard. We send this woman to California to have her case tried and she is a poor woman to begin with. She has not had a fair show. They bring charges against her out there and she lives here in Brooklyn. It was not fair to the Baumann woman at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think we have to go further than that. It is not a question of fairness. This is a question of whether we had the right to do what we did. In this protest it is stated, “This is the only clause to be found which prescribes the jurisdiction of the Trial Board, and if attaches no territorial limitations, but authorizes the reference of any case to such Trial Board as may seem fit.” That is the point she makes. It seems to me we may assign these cases to any Trial Board we choose. It is stated here in my copy— I do not know whether it appears in your copy but it is in mine— “The Directors having acted and referred the case in question to the San Francisco Trial Board their decision on that point is conclusive”. The Directors did no such thing.

THE SECRETARY: No, the Secretary did that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: So far as that statement is concerned, it entirely imagination on the part of the one who inspired the protest.

THE CHAIRMAN: I am taking this thing up in detail and I now make the point that if we have the right to create.
Trial Boards we also have the right to say where cases may be tried and also say where the proper places are.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes. I notice that in a part of this protest there is a statement about a criminal action and all that sort of thing.

THE CHAIRMAN: Gentlemen, don’t you think it is a good idea to go through these things in detail and then get the whole thing in our minds? Now, go on.

THE SECRETARY: (Continues to read from the last line of page 1 and continues on page 2 and is interrupted when reading the follows: “You will see that this fixing of the jurisdiction of the Trial Board also contains no territorial limitations, but that it is given full power to hear all matters submitted to it without any qualifications.”

THE CHAIRMAN: That has nothing to do with the subject before us, that I can perceive? What is your point on Section 2?

THE SECRETARY: That is Section 1, Article XIV.

THE CHAIRMAN: The section I refers to, Section 3, Article II says, “It shall have power to hear, review and finally determine any appeal which may be taken from the decision of a Trial Board.”

THE SECRETARY: That refers to the Executive Committee. That is not the Trial Board.
THE CHAIRMAN: I am not concerned for the moment with the Trial Board. It is now, to my mind, a question of what we can do. I do not see that that article has anything to do with it at all.

MR. HOOLEY: Yes, I think from their standpoint it has, because she claims that it was a decision perfectly just and equitable and all right. She further makes the point that it was up to the Executive Committee to determine where the case should be tried and wherever the case was sent there it should have been tried, and as the Secretary sent it to the San Francisco Trial Board that is the whole story. I think that is the most pertinent part of her letter.

MR. KEASBEY: Her contention is that it was sent there and that, therefore, the San Francisco Trial Board had full jurisdiction.

MR. BLOODGOOD: But this is a case where the action was practically sent to California for trial. The defendant resides here in New York and the case was really brought against her here.

THE CHAIRMAN: That has nothing to do with it.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not know about that. If Mrs. Judd brought this case in any Court of Law she would have had to pay damages upon the trial because she absolutely cancelled her contract. She had no contract with this woman. She eliminated this woman in every way.

MR. WILMERDING: You mean the Judd woman?

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes. In a Court of Law she would have had no standing whatever. The only thing, to my mind, before us is a question of equity to this defendant.

MR. KEASBETY: That is the way it looks to me.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think the merits of the case have anything to do with it at all.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not mean to say that the merits of the case have entirely all to do with it, but we have to so act as to do justice and see that it is done. This was not fair to this woman. It is very well for Mrs. Judd to go on and say that Mrs. Baumann accepted that foreign jurisdiction. As a matter of fact, Mrs. Baumann was instructed by us to take her case to San Francisco and there have it tried before that Trial Board. If she had not done so she would have been disqualified.

THE CHAIRMAN: She had to do that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: She had to do that. It naturally follows that doing something she had to do did not compel her to waive her rights at all. Here is an ignorant woman as a matter of fact, the Trial Board’s decision was entirely too severe, to my mind, in this case. By such action you take away a member’s rights absolutely and under certain circumstances I can readily see that the member would have no ability, by means of circumstances, to defend herself.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think we can go into the merits of the case at all.

MR. HOOLEY: How can we go into this case at all?

THE CHAIRMAN: It is a question whether we can act as we did at the last meeting. We cannot go into the merits of the case until the facts are before us.

MR. HOOLEY: If we had a right to act as we did at the last meeting then we have a right to take this matter up today and determine it. What we did the other day we had a right to do and no doubt we will act today in the same way. Now what can we do?

MR. BLOODGOOD: This Board is here to see that justice is done.

MR. HOOLEY: There is no doubt about that at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: I quite agree with. That is all we are here for and that is all we hope to do.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We are here to see that justice is done to members of this organization and we are not here to permit any injustice. If we think an injustice was done then it is our duty here today to correct that injustice. This Board can create Trial Boards and we have the power to act with full equity jurisdiction.
THE CHAIRMAN: We can make ourselves a Trial Board.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We can make ourselves a Trial Board and send any case to any Trial Board as we wish to. We have the power to say now and here that we do not believe this was a proper case to send to San Francisco. We may act putting entirely aside any question of contract. As a matter of fact, Mrs. Judd has stated in her protest that she does not claim to have a contract and has abandoned and claim to have a contract and has abandoned any claim to one. It was not a fair trial.

MR. HOOLEY: That is what we did say.

THE CHAIRMAN: Apart from that, we do not want to slap our San Francisco Trial Board.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Not at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: What are we taking minutes of this meeting so far?

THE SECRETARY: Because it is a very important meeting and the minutes should be taken, in my opinion.

THE CHAIRMAN: But you will necessarily have to cut out an awful lot of this.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not want to say that it was not a fair trial on the part of the San Francisco Trial Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: No, I understand that perfectly.

MR. BLOODGOOD: What I do want to say and what I mean to say is that it was not a fair trial because this woman lives here in Brooklyn and was not able to go there and defend herself. In the first place she had no money to go out there and put a proper defense. She is a poor woman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Your answer to that is if they want to prefer charges over here and have not the money to do it with, they should not do it.

MR. BLOODGOOD: In the first place, under such circumstances, they have no business to prefer charges-

THE CHAIRMAN: But supposing for the sake of argument that the complaint did have a just case and had a right to prefer charges?

MR. BLOODGOOD: They have a right to prefer charges but they cannot designate where they shall be tried.

THE CHAIRMAN: But you harp on the statement that they did not have a right to prefer charges, that they did not have a cause of action. That is not for us to decide. The case is not before us to decide on its merits.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I did not mean that.

THE CHAIRMAN: Suppose they did have a perfectly good case? Take that as the basis for argument, that they did have a right to prefer charges. Now, where would the charges be preferred?
MR. WILMERDING: I think the two points made in these two paragraphs are odd; I think they are reasonable. I think we made a mistake the other day in settling the case as we did, and the one had point is that we are going back of our San Francisco Trial Board. Another bad feature is that the thing will become, it seems to me, retroactive in all cases to be decided by the Trial Boards, and every one not pleased with verdicts can demand to have their cases reviewed.

MR. HOOLEY: That is up to us.

MR. BLOODGOOD: As a matter of fact, the Executive Board here has a right, according to the constitution, to put it anywhere they please.

MR. WILMERDING: But they have done it and the matter has been closed.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Never mind that we have done and never mind how the matter has been disposed of. If it was not done right and if it was not disposed of with justice we will do right and justice now. That is the basis we should act on.

MR. WILMERDING: The matter was given for consideration and determination to the San Francisco Trial Board and by that Board settled. It seems to me that we an error when we did not accept that woman’s appeal.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We made an error on what basis?
MR. WILMERDING: On the basis that there is no rule here directing our Secretary to send these cases to any definite Trial Board, therefore he has the privilege of sending them where he pleases. As a matter of fact, such cases should be tried in the defendant’s territory. In this case a mistake has been made in sending it to San Francisco Trial Board to go into the matter and decide it. They have settled the matter and the only thing to do is to let the woman appeal or we stultify ourselves.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I cannot see it that way.

MR. WILMERDING: And we are going to be criticized otherwise.

MR. KEASBEY: This matter was all threshed out before.

MR. WILMERDING: But I have awakened and I do not think do now.

MR. KEASBEY: I am not convinced.

THE SECRETARY: I think the whole question rests on one single point: The Executive Board has the right to review and the Executive Board must listen to appeals. This Mrs. Baumann was given her choice, either to ask for a reopening of the case on the ground of new and additional testimony, or to appeal to the Executive Committee. She called at the office and I again stated to her the two courses she could pursue. She said, “We have made up our mind to appeal.” She appealed in a legal way and, in my opinion, right there is where we made our error in not listening to that appeal.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Allow me to interrupt you a moment right there. Was she not given to understand that she had to appeal?

THE SECRETARY: She was written to that effect, that she had the right to appeal?

THE SECRETARY: She was given her choice right then when she was here. She and her husband called after she received that letter from me and I again told her plainly that she could ask to have the case reopened on account of new testimony that was not before the Board in the original case, which would cost her nothing, or if she did not want to do that she could appeal to the Executive Committee and pay her deposit of $25. And thereupon she and her husband consulted in this room and said, “We have determined to appeal and we will send you that appeal”. She did send that appeal together with the necessary deposit. It was in my hands before necessary deposit. It was in my hands before the last meeting of this Executive Committee and I reported that I had the appeal with the necessary deposit. That is the only weak point in our case.

THE CHAIRMAN: That may be the point, but here we have all these protests and statements by this complainant. This complainant or protestant states that we have not the right to do these things. Now, as a matter of fact, we have the right.

THE SECRETARY: I don't know about that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: There is not the slightest doubt that we have the right to do these things.

THE CHAIRMAN: We ought to tell her that she is all wrong and that we will do as we please and do what we think is justice. I do not think we should do as Mrs. Judd says we should do.

MR. WILMERDING: I think at this moment we ought to go very carefully in this matter. I think her points are well taken.

MR. KEASBEY: This protest is full of accusations against that woman.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think we have nothing to do with the accusations against the woman. We can eliminate what she tells us about what we ought to do. Here, for instance, is one of her statements, "As a matter of law the San Francisco Trial Board was the proper one to this case".

MR. BLOODGOOD: And we say that we think it was
MR. WILMERDING: I am not biased one way or the other, but I think these matters should be given most careful consideration.

MR. HOOLEY: I think Executive Committee has the right at any time to take the entire jurisdiction of the case and decide it in any way that justice requires our decision and go over the head of our Trial Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is what I understand and that is what I want the understanding to be.

MR. BLOODGOOD: And that we did what we have the right to do. We do not want to sit down and let these people ride over us.

THE CHAIRMAN: No, we do not want that to occur.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I put this case before a friend of mine, a lawyer who is a very prominent man, and he told me that from his standpoint this was all piffle.

MR. WILMERDING: I think that the points are well taken that we have no right to go back the San Francisco Trial Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: And then she states, "If I should now prosecute this case, 3,00 miles from home, before the New York Trial Board, how do I know that if such Board reaches a decision that then this Committee may not again, of its motion, upset all the proceedings by a resolution which says that the officials of the Club made some mistake",

MR. WILMERDING: I think that is good argument.

MR. BLOODGOOD: It may be good argument but I do not think it is in very good taste. The original letter starts out on the basis of unfairness on our part. The letter that accompanies this starts on that basis.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to state that one of your Legal Committee in a conversation over the telephone said that he thought that they were very strong on one point.

THE CHAIRMAN: What point is that?

THE SECRETARY: The point I refer to is that we had an appeal and that we had an appeal and that we returned it to Mrs. Baumann.

MR. BLOODGOOD: The point that we accepted the money on deposit and the appeal?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: It was not officially accepted.

THE SECRETARY: Yes it was, and I sent her a receipt for it and put it through the books.

THE CHAIRMAN: Where money is sent you, you are bound to send a receipt. That does not necessarily bind this Committee.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, but I put it through the books as an appeal to the Executive Committee. Neither the Executive Committee nor the Board of Directors have to do anything official in accepting an appeal or a deposit. When we give an appellant an opportunity to do such a thing, under our by-laws, and the appellant does it, it is not necessary to get permission from anybody.

THE CHAIRMAN: I dare say, but at the same time the Executive Committee repudiated the appeal when we made the decision that we did make.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We thought the appeal was unnecessary.

THE CHAIRMAN: We thought the appeal was unnecessary and whether a record of the remittance went through your books or not has nothing to do with it. You had to acknowledge the money under any circumstances.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We hold that we do not think, this thing having been tried out, there was a trial fair to Mrs. Baumann.

THE CHAIRMAN: There is no objection from Mrs. Baumann on her appeal being sent back?

THE SECRETARY: No.

MR. BLOODGOOD: That was the idea of this Board, that Mrs. Baumann having had to go to San Francisco for trial and having been tried there it was not a fair proposition. Mind you, she did not bring this thing against 'somebody out there; they brought it against her here, and there is no reason in the world why she should have been sent away out there when she was entitled to be tried [illegible] out there when she was entitled to be tried here within this jurisdiction. Mrs. Judd lays a lot of stress upon the waiver of the question of jurisdiction by Mrs. Baumann. That is ridiculous.

MR. HOOLEY: And she lays a lot of stress on criminality.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is another question, whether it was entirely a civil matter or a civil and criminal matter.

MR. HOOLEY: We have nothing to do with that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Absolutely on the facts as presented in this protest there is no foundation for either a civil or a criminal suit in any court.

THE CHAIRMAN: If it is a criminal case, that has nothing to do with us.

MR. BLOODGOOD: No, but as a matter of fact she has nothing to stand on in any kind of a case, civil or criminal. She put herself out of court when she cancelled her contract and she cancelled that contract herself. I don't care whether Mrs. Baumann sold that dog ten times over or not, as the record now stand Mrs. Judd has not a leg to stand on.

THE CHAIRMAN: That has nothing to do with us.

MR. BLOODGOOD: It has, to determine whether here is a case either civil or criminal. As to any question of crime having been conditioned, that is another matter.

THE CHAIRMAN: As I say, that has nothing to do with us.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not suppose it has, but there was no crime committed. If there was anything at all committed it was a breach of a civil contract sounding in civil damages. Then under the rule of the law the locality of the defendant should determine the place of trial.

MR. KEASBEY: Mrs. Judd principal argument that it should be tried in San Francisco is based on her allegation that the act was criminal.

THE SECRETARY: The verdict is that Mrs. Baumann should be disqualified for dishonorable conduct. That is the verdict of the San Francisco Trial Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Judd claims it was a criminal act.

MR. HOOLEY: None of that published?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. HOOLEY: Was that published?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, that was published.

MR. HOOLEY: Then I do not see why Mrs. Baumann has not got a case against us.

MR. BLOODGOOD: This is a fairytale,

MR. HOOLEY: We headed off any case Mrs. Baumann might have against us by doing what we have done. Otherwise she might have had a case against us.

MR. BLOODGOOD: As to any question whether or not Mrs. Judd has a case at law, I say she has not a leg to stand on; and as to there being anything criminal in this whole matter that is ridiculous, it is absurd.

THE CHAIRMAN: What is her contention here that there is criminality involved in this proceeding?

MR. BLOODGOOD: It is merely a broad statement to that effect without involved in this proceeding?

THE CHAIRMAN: I think the trouble with you, Mr. Bloodgood, is that you have the case so in your mind that you insist upon thinking of the case and of its merits. I think we ought to decide this thing absolutely apart from whether she has a case or not to what her case is. I think it is an entirely distinct matter. The case is not before us.

MR. BLOODGOOD: How can you separate our decision from the merits of the case?

THE SECRETARY: The present status is that this case has been referred to the New York Trial Board for an original trial.

THE CHAIRMAN: What does she mean by saying at the close of her protest, “I have also sent a copy to the New York Trial Board, requesting them to take no steps in this matter until the question hereby raised has been disposed of”?
She has no business to do what?

MR. WILMERDING: Then why have we called this meeting? I was surprised when I got this notice.

MR. HOOLEY: Yes, then why are we here?

MR. BLOODGOOD: To consider this communication which I consider is a very impertinent communication.

MR. WILMERDING: Have we power to undo our actions taken at the last meeting?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, of course we have.

MR. WILMERDING: To bring it to a hear I will make a motion

THE SECRETARY: Put in “Having considered the protest.”

MR. WILMERDING: I move, having considered the protest.

THE CHAIRMAN: This is not a protest.

THE SECRETARY: Yes it is.

MR. WILMERDING: I make a motion, in order to bring the matter to a head, that the protested action of this body be –

THE SECRETARY: Affirmed.

MR. WILMERDING: No, not affirmed.
MR. HOOLEY: Rescinded?
MR. WILMERDING: No, not rescinded.
THE SECRETARY: Be reconsidered?
MR. WILMERDING: Be reconsidered, to use that word reconsidered. I may change it again. And that the defendant, Mrs. Baumann, be ordered to file her appeal with the customary deposit so that the case may take its regular course. That is the only way to get out of it.

MR. HOOLEY: We can have a vote on that.
MR. BLOODGOOD: I cannot agree to that.
MR. HOOLEY: I cannot either.
MR. KEASBEY: If Mr. Wilmerding will just reverse that motion to the effect that we stand by our previous decision then I will vote aye. I am of the opinion that to even make a motion like that looks as if we were giving too much of compliment to them. For that reason I am not in favor of considering any motion one way or the other. It would be the same way if we made it a motion sustaining the action of the committee or a motion to be voted down reconsidering the action of the Committee.

MR. WILMERDING: I am still of the opinion that we made a mistake.
THE CHAIRMAN: Is that motion seconded? (No second.)
MR. BLOODGOOD: I cannot see that at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is the motion seconded? (No response). Then that motion is lost or, rather, there is no motion before us. I think that that motion looks as if we were taking this thing to seriously. I do not see anything in the whole matter.

MR. WILMERDING: You have had other people talk to you about it?

MR. BLOODGOOD: I have had other people talk to me about it.

MR. WILMERDING: It could be qualified a little differently.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I discussed our action taken at the last meeting and I consulted one of the judges of the Grievance Committee or of the Bar Association who has been a Judge on the Grievance Committee for ten years, and I consulted Mr. Steeling of Morgan & Company. I took it before him. Both of them said that they could not see how we could hear that appeal at all. They also thought that if we considered that this was not a fair trial—not from the San Francisco Trial Board’s standpoint—but not a fair trial is a matter of jurisdiction that the Committee ought to refer it to the New York Trial Board and that that would be proper course to take, as the appeal was not before us. are here acting in the capacity of Judges of the Supreme Court, that is what we are, and our powers according to the constitution are very sweeping.

MR. WILMERDING: Even so, we do not want to do anything, Mr. Bloodgood, that will subject us to criticism.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Mr. Wilmerding, I do not care what criticism I may subject myself to so long as I feel that I am doing right and administering justice.

MR. WILMERDING: We all feel that way.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I believe that we all feel that way. I do not mean to say that I am the only one who feels that way. I do not say that I am the only one who feels that way. I do mean to say that as far as criticism goes it does not cut any ice with me, if I am doing what I think is right and just.

MR. HOOLEY: With your permission, Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the Secretary if there are any cases similar to this that have occurred within the last two years?

THE SECRETARY: They go back as far as the time when Trial Boards were established.

MR. HOOLEY: Let us go back that far. In the majority of cases you have not sent them where it has been difficult for either party, as a rule?

THE SECRETARY: I have sent every case, with one exception, as far as I can recall, to the Trial Board nearest to the residence of the plaintiff.
MR. WILMERDING: Is not that the wrong way?

THE SECRETARY: That may be; I do not say anything about that. But that has been our custom for the last seven years.

MR. BLOODGOOD: You can fall back on that. I do not think that was a correct system.

THE SECRETARY: That may be; I do not say anything about the that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: But we can fall back on that because it was the accepted practice. There is no question as to our power to send the case to any Trial Board we want to send it to. We create those Trial Boards and if we feel a case should come before a certain Trial Board and will get better handling there we have the power to do that. There is no doubt about that.

MR. HOOLEY: No, there is no question about that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I think the stand we ought to take now in connection with this matter is not on the basis of legality but on the basis of equity and for the reason that it was not fair to Mrs. Baumann to send her out there to San Francisco for trial. I believe that the trial in all fairness should have been held here.

MR. WILMERDING: Suppose, on the other hand, the other party like Mrs. Baumann, could not afford to prosecute the case here. Take it either way. It is practically because Mrs. Baumann was poor in his one instance that a certain argument has been made in her behalf but that is not involved in the merits of the case. I do not think there is any question but the rule stated where the Secretary was to send these cases and it has been up to him to send them where he chose.

THE SECRETARY: You must bear in mind that at the last meeting was directed by resolution to send all cases to the Trial Board nearest to the residing place of the defendant.

MR. WILMERDING: That is the proper thing. I have no doubt of that. That is the right way.

MR. HOOLEY: I feel that if we are exercising the powers, so to speak, of a Supreme Court or a Court of Appeals, that we should exercise those powers in the way customary in such courts. Very often in judicial practice you will find that the Court of Appeals will simply throw a case out and say that in the judgment of the Court the case was unfairly tried, that he was tried in a way and in a court where he did not have a chance to get justice. Therefore the law books are full of precedents to the effect that cases are reversed and tried over again and therefore you take it to such and such a court and try it. That is just what we do here. That is what is done in the Courts of Law day after day, not only in this country but in Europe,
There is no reason why we should not follow that practice here.

MR. WILMERDING: Then you are overruling your San Francisco Trial Board.

MR. HOOLEY: No, no, we accept that ruling but we acknowledge that we made a mistake in sending the case to that jurisdiction for trial.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We are willing to accept the burden of having made a mistake in sending it there.

MR. WILMERDING: But we have no precedent to say that it was a mistake.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We do not need a precedent.

THE CHAIRMAN: Let us make a precedent.

MR. HOOLEY: Let us make a rule.

MR. BLOODGOOD: It is too late for this case. That would be a retroactive rule.

MR. HOOLEY: No, I do not think so.

MR. BLOODGOOD: There is only one way our decision could be questioned, in throwing, the California Board out of the last session because we talked about a contract here. The contract was made here and the case should have been sent here originally but, as a matter of fact, Mrs. Judd eliminated any question of contract; she cancelled it.

MR. HOOLEY: Absolutely.

MR. BLOODGOOD: By cancelling her contract she was left without any case on a contract. If she now sought to try this case on a question of dishonorable conduct certainly Mrs. Baumann should have an opportunity to be heard.

MR. WILMERDING: Now you are getting into the merits of the case here.

MR. BLOODGOOD: You have to get into the merits of the case to know where you are at.

MR. WILMERDING: We are not discussing the merits of the case here.

MR. BLOODGOOD: You have to discuss the merits of the case to a certain extent. But we are not now determining the merits of the case.

MR. WILMERDING: We have all read that thing?

MR. BLOODGOOD: I know that we have all read it but you do not suppose I am going to sit here and take what this lawyer sends to me as gospel when I know it is not gospel. We are not going into the merits of the case but we are discussing the subject of her case. Was that subject just dishonorable conduct?

THE SECRETARY: I do not remember. It was a long matter.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Did Mrs. Judd bring in this question of contract?

THE SECRETARY: I do not think there was any mention made of the contract.

MR. BLOODGOOD: But she made a claim against Mrs. Baumann, didn’t she, on the basis of having sold this dog?

THE SECRETARY: On the ground that Mrs. Baumam sold the dog to someone else for the reason that she got more money for it then she, Mrs. Judd, was to pay her, and after that then she cancelled her contract and asked for the return of the deposit. That is as near as I can remember.

MR. BLOODGOOD: She got the return of her deposit?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, and we have the cancelled check.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Then Mrs. Judd is out of court.

MR. HOOLEY: That is the way it looks to me.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Absolutely. If she had brought this action in a Civil Court she would have had to pay the costs. There is no question at all but that in a civil action the Court would have dismissed the complaint and taxed the costs against the complainant,

THE SECRETARY: When I received the appeal, or when Mrs. Baumann notified me that she was going to appeal, there was such a mess of documentary evidence in the record of testimony taken before the San Francisco Trial Board that in order to save this Board half a day going over the appeal and the voluminous record I sent the record to one of the members of our Legal Committee. It took him three-quarters of a day to study it and then he sent it to another member of the Legal Committee. After careful study both of them came to the same opinion, that the San Francisco Trial Board acted properly on the evidence before it. That is all I know about the case.

  MR. BLOODGOOD: That was his opinion?
  THE SECRETARY: That was their opinion.
  MR. WILMERDING: Mr. Cutler and who?
  THE SECRETARY: Mr. Cutler and Ralph Stewart.
  MR. KEASBEY: That is all right. We are not questioning the decision of the Trial Board at San Francisco. We are only questioning the jurisdiction of that Board. That is the only point in issue.
  MR. BLOODGOOD: I quite agree with you. We were wrong in sending it there and we should correct the wrong.
  MR. HOOLEY: The New York Trial Board may on the same state of facts act entirely different.
  MR. WILMERDING: I think the only proper order is for the woman to appeal.
  MR. BLOODGOOD: This letter is all twaddle. There was no crime committed.
  MR. WILMERDING: We are all agreed on that. The only thing is that the thing has been done and done according a rule heretofore in existence, according to a regular heretofore? in existence. We made the mistake of our lives when we did the other thing.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I think the attitude of the Board should be one looking toward complete justice and absolutely irrespective of anything that has happened heretofore and I am firmly convinced that this case should come before the New York Trial Board. It is not fair to the defendant to force her to go out to California.

MR. HOOLEY: Do not forget one thing and that is that the delegates by a vote felt that same way. They showed their feeling in the matter by voting on the question and asking us to go into this thing. We are not doing this on our own hook. Our delegates have voted to refer this to us with a recommendation to act.

THE CHAIRMAN: At the top of page 6 of this protest you will notice this: "Another reason why this case should not be heard by the New York Trial Board is because they are practically next door neighbors to Mrs. Baumann. San Francisco is a thousand miles from Seattle, but Brooklyn is separated from New York only by the East River".

MR. HOOLEY: That is a nice reflection on the Executive Committee and the New York Trial Board.

MR. BLOODGOOD: That is as much as to say that the New York Trial Board is crooked.

THE SECRETARY: That is what all lawyers do in sending in a brief like that. They attack everybody, but that does not amount to anything.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not think all lawyers do that, because a man in business going before a Court would not insinuate that that court was crooked. I think any such allegation is that in a pleading or in a brief would subject, the pleader to punishment for contempt of court.

THE SECRETARY: You ought to see the brief that our lawyer sent to the Appellate Division. You would think from that that the other people were devils.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes, the other people, but not the Court. He would not dare say that he does not trust the Court.

THE CHAIRMAN: And as to this reference to, the criminal thing, what about that?

MR. HOOLEY: That is right at the top of page 2.

MR. KEASBEY: No, I beg your pardon, it is at the top of page 3.

MR. BLOODGOOD: You may abuse the other fellow as much as you please but do not abuse the court that tries you.

THE CHAIRMAN: We are quite agreed as to that. The charge here is that there was something criminal but I do not see anything in the way of facts to justify it. That is brought in, I presume, to justify the contention"
That the jurisdiction should be in San Francisco because she says, “In all criminal cases it is universally the law that the trial shall take place in the jurisdiction in which the offense was committed.” Then she does on to argue that because she read an advertisement in Seattle and sent the check from there that that is the locus of the commission of whatever crime it is that she has in mind. I don’t think there is anything to that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: of course there is not.

THE CHAIRMAN: Let me read this that I have hastily scribbled as an answer to his letter. We have to answer this protest.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes, I should think an answer ought to be written but I question what kind of an answer.

THE CHAIRMAN: We will decide what we want to do at all but it is an answer to this protest. As I said, it has been hurriedly written:

"That in answer to protest No. I, in our opinion our by-laws give us full power to act as we did at the last meeting held June 15th, 1915.

"In answer to II, in our opinion the proper place for this trial should have been New York, not San Francisco.

"III. But in answer to III, we are not in any way challenging the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Trial Board. The question of the defendant waiving the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Trial Board or submitting to the Trial Board has nothing to do with the matter, as she did as she was told. In our opinion this is not a criminal point as claimed in the protest filed by the plaintiff.

"In answer to IV, the reason for our action was that the case should have been tried in New York. This is due to a mistake of our office. There is nothing but justice behind the scenery".

We ought to act on that now and she should have an answer.

MR. BLOODGOOD: She has a right to an answer but she has no right to dictate to us to spread things on our records.

MR. WILMERDING: I think it is undignified to answer that in that way. It might be answered in a few words. In any event, it is a vindictive, wretched things, this protest, and will involve other charges.

THE CHAIRMAN: One purpose is to make it perfectly clear that we think we had a perfect right to act as we did.

MR. WILMERDING: I have expressed myself and I feel very strongly. I cannot change any ideas.

THE CHAIRMAN: But we have a perfect right to act as we did.

THE SECRETARY: Hold on, but you are challenging the jurisdiction.

You say, "We are not in any way challenging the jurisdiction".

THE CHAIRMAN: That is right.

THE SECRETARY: I would put it, "We are not in any way challenging the judgment of the San Francisco Trial Board".

THE CHAIRMAN: You change it accordingly. Read this thing through. I want to put myself on record that we have a perfect right to do this and to do what we have done.

THE SECRETARY: I think it is quite proper to put such a thing on the record.

THE CHAIRMAN: You can do anything you want to do, That is not what we are going to do. That is simply a statement that we have a right to do as we did. I think we had such a right. If we did not we had better find it out.

THE SECRETARY: In the first place, there is a protest brought before this Board. It does not make any difference whether you consider that protest insulting to this Board or not. We have got to listen to the protest, no matter what the protest is. This is saying that we did listen to the protest and what our opinion is.

THE CHAIRMAN: We ought to answer that is some way.
MR. WILMERDING: It is not intended as a letter to her?

THE SECRETARY: No, no.

THE CHAIRMAN: But you have to answer her in some way?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, and we may tell her she will find the result of this meeting in The Gazette of July 31st.

THE CHAIRMAN: Then you ought to revise that.

THE SECRETARY: I do not think so. The letter will then read: "After carefully going over Mrs. Judd's protest, the Committee feels as follow in answer to the same:

"1. In its opinion our by-laws give us full power to act as we did at the last meeting held June 15th, 1915;

"2. In its opinion the proper place for this trial should have been in New York, not in San Francisco;

"3. We are not in any way challenging the judgment of the San Francisco Trial Board. The question of the defendant waiving the decision or submitting to it has nothing to do with the matter, as she did as she was told"—

MR. HOOLEY: I think that word "told" should be taken out and that we should insert that we instructed her.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes, that we instructed nor.

MR. WILMERDING: Referring back to the first paragraph where you state, "In our opinion our by-laws give us full power to act as we did at the last meeting held June 15th, 1915. We might specify a little more fully there.

THE SECRETARY: (Continuing to read) "In our opinion this is not a criminal point"—

MR. HOOLEY: Make that "case".

THE SECRETARY: Yes, criminal case. (Continuing to read)

4. The reason for our action was that the case should have been tried in New York"--

MR. BLOODGOOD: That is repetition.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, that is repetition.

THE CHAIRMAN: Read it.

THE SECRETARY: (Continuing) "This is due to a mistake of our office. There is nothing but justice behind the scenery".

MR. WILMERDING: Cut that out.

THE SECRETARY: Take out the whole fourth paragraph?

THE CHAIRMAN: Say that as to the fourth statement the mistake was due to our office and that we are not challenging the judgment of the San Francisco Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: Because she did as she was instructed?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. WILMERDING: At the last meeting we stated it was a mistake in the office here, but it was a question in my mind whether it was or not.

THE CHAIRMAN: Did Mr. Belmont say anything about it?

THE SECRETARY: No.

THE CHAIRMAN: There is no question in my mind but the thing should have been tried in New York instead of in San Francisco, and the question is whether it is easier to get out of it by letting it go and have her appeal or have it properly tried.

MR. WILMERDING: I think the best way out is to let her appeal it and we can go back on our previous decision.

THE CHAIRMAN: This answer does not affect what we do now?

MR. WILMERDING: Does that go in the minutes?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. WILMERDING: Is it published?

THE CHAIRMAN: I think it ought to be published.

MR. WILMERDING: If published then her charges ought to be published, paragraph by paragraph, otherwise people will not know what it means.

THE SECRETARY: You mean this?

MR. WILMERDING: Yes. What I contended for before was that the Committee consider this matter as a body without recording what we say or do in the minutes or without sending a categorical reply that shall appear in the minutes but simply decide it is you gentlemen say and render a decision.

THE CHAIRMAN: I am not going to take back water on whether we had the right to do it or not. I think we had a perfect right to do it. If we could do it then we can do it now. I do not propose to say we were wrong. I think we has a perfect right to do what we did.

MR. WILMERDING: The question is still open in my mind whether we were wrong in sending it to San Francisco or not. It probably should have been tried here but there was nothing to guide us in saying that we made a mistake.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Just consider that this is a Supreme Court here and we are supposed to act in fairness. Is not that it?

MR. WILMERDING: Absolutely.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Now, is it a fair thing for a plaintiff to force this defendant to go away out there? Mind you, away out to San Francisco is a distant place. Now, if you know anything about the law, if Mrs. Judd had brought an action or brought a civil suit against Mrs. Baumann in the California Courts and got a decision that decision would not be worth the paper it was written on. As a matter of fact, she could not have secured a decision. Do you suppose the New York laws would acknowledge anything of that, sort? It could not. Mrs. Judd is out of court on the question of contract because she eliminated the con-contract. But the contract was made in the State of New York, the property was here.

MR. WILMERDING: But we have no rule to follow as to that. Again, do not forget that the plaintiff had to go 2,000 miles while the defendant had to go only 3,000 miles.

MR. BLOODGOOD: This plaintiff was bound to prove the defendant guilty. It was up to the plaintiff to prove this person guilty. She is not guilty until she has been proven guilty.

MR. WILMERDING: That is the reason I favor the case always being tried in the defendant's territory. As you say, it is well known that the law presumes a defendant innocent until proven guilty. But I am sticking to the plaintiff here.

MR. BLOODGOOD: You are sticking to a precedent carried on in this place. If the precedent has been wrong we want to change it; we do not want to sit here and do anything wrong.

MR. WILMERDING: But why change it in this case?

MR. BLOODGOOD: Why not change it in this case as well as in any other? Why should we make an exception of this and say we wont do justice to this defendant but we will in the next case that comes along?

MR. WILMERDING: But the thing has been decided by the San Francisco Trial Board. It is practically over with. Now we are trying to undo it.

THE CHAIRMAN: No, we are considering retrying it.

MR. WILMERDING: The only thing I will vote for is to retry the case. You can have me in the minority if you want me.

MR. BLOODOOOD: If the case was on appeal here I would vote to reverse the judgment on the ground that the disqualification of the woman is entirely too strong.

MR. WILMERDING: My previous motion was not seconded?

THE SECRETARY: No.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I think the attitude that we should take is the attitude of fairness.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think what we ought to have done was to advise Mrs. Baumann to appeal to the New York Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: That is simply to ask for a change of venue.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, that is what we ought to have done.

THE SECRETARY: As the case now stands, the case has got to come before the New York Trial Board unless you reconsider that action.

MR. HOOLEY: It would come before the New York
Trial Board in any case.

THE CHAIRMAN: Have you heard anything from the San Francisco Trial Board?

THE SECRETARY: They do not Bay anything about it at all.

MR. WILMERDING: I am not influenced by the opinion of the two lawyers who spoke to you about this matter, who said that thing should come up in an appeal and not as decided. I formed my opinion before you saw those two men. It is a case where there is sane possibility of considerable diversity of opinion.

MR. BLOODGOOD: You forget one thing, that we have power that goes farther than a Court of Law.

MR. WILMERDING: It would be very bad to use those powers arbitrarily.

MR. BLOODGOOD: But we are not going to use those powers arbitrarily; we are going to use them in fairness.

MR. WILMERDING: That is, of course, your individual-opinion, that it is fair. The case has been decided by one Trial Board. The question is now, do you want to go over their heads.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not think that Mrs. Baumann has had a fair show. At the same time, she may be guilty and if I tried the thing and I believed she was guilty I would decide her guilty.
THE CHAIRMAN: It is not a question of that so much but a question of whether she should or should not have been tried there. I say she should not have been tried there.

MR. BLOODGOOD: It is a question of fairness, too. That is one reason why she should not have been tried there.

THE CHAIRMAN: I quite agree with you, it never should have been tried there.

THE SECRETARY: I have had no reason to change my mind on the suggestion that I made at the last meeting, that if you decide you could say that hereafter all cases be sent to the Trial Board located nearest the territory of the defendant.

MR. WILMERDING: That is the only way that I can see.

THE SECRETARY: Because I only recall one case where I took it away from the territory of the plaintiff and that was because the Chicago Trial Board never will attend to any business sent to it.

MR. BLOODGOOD: This Board has a perfect right to send it to any Trial Board it desires to send it to. According to our constitution we have a right to send it to any Trial Board we want to.

THE SECRETARY: So I sent that particular case to the Boston Trial Board where the defendant lived. That is the only case I can recall where I did not send it to the Trial Board nearest the territory of the plaintiff.

MR. HOOLEY: Most of our cases are all around here, with the exception of one case. What was that case? We had a Texas case that came to New York.

MR. WILMERDING: We had a lot of cases from Kansas City that came before our Board and we decided that by right they should go to Chicago. They came before us instead of going to Chicago. There will be an awful row if we make a rule such as is now contemplated in regard to this San Francisco case.

THE CHAIRMAN: When you take the difference between Chicago, Texas and New York, it is very little.

MR. HOOLEY: I suppose in any one of those cases, we with the power of a Supreme Court can decide as to what disposition shall be made of them.

MR. WILMERDING: I do not like that Supreme Court idea. We have rules or we have not. It sounds very dictatorial.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Our Executive Committee had more power than the United States Supreme Court.

THE SECRETARY: You can do as you please.

MR. WILMERDING: As a matter of information, what did the Executive Committee ask us to consider at their last meeting? What did the delegates instruct us to do?
THE SECRETARY:  To review the case.
MR. WILMERDING:  Did they use the word "instruct"?  Are they superior to the Executive Committee?
THE SECRETARY:  No, they recommended.
MR. WILMERDING:  They recommended us to review the case without any instructions?
THE SECRETARY:  They could not instruct us.
MR. HOOLEY:  They gave us their advice.
THE CHAIRMAN:  How could they advise us?
MR. HOOLEY:  One delegate had a package of papers that thick (indicating) and gave us his opinion at great length.
THE SECRETARY:  They merely recommended.
MR. WILMERDING:  Did they not recommend that you accept an appeal from Mrs. Baumann?
THE SECRETARY:  They did not have that at all.
THE CHAIRMAN:  In the first place, the appeal was not in at that time; and in the second place they did not have anything to do with the appeal. The delegates asked us to reopen the case. We cannot reopen the case according to our own constitution. They asked us to review it. We have not any business to review it. I suppose we could if on appeal.
THE SECRETARY:  The rule says you can review it.
THE CHAIRMAN:  Yes, if it is appealed.
MR. WILMERDING: Which is the superior body, the delegates or the Committee?

MR. BLOODGOOD: The delegates.

THE CHAIRMAN: Of course, the delegates can do anything we do.

THE SECRETARY: Section 3, Article II, in fixing powers of the Executive Committee, uses the following language: "It shall have power to hear, review and finally determine any appeal which may be taken from the decision of a Trial Board."

MR. WILMERDING: The Executive Committee?

THE SECRETARY: Yes. And to undo anything we ought to have a two-thirds vote. "It shall have the power of the Board of Directors between meetings of said Board". That is all the power the Executive Committee has, and it also has general supervision of the standing committees. It has power to hear, review and finally determine any appeal from a Trial Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: We are the final court on an appeal, but that says we can only review an appeal. That is the stand I took at the last meeting.

MR. WILMERDING: The Board of Directors run the Club.

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. WILMERDING: Then I consider them superior to to the Executive Committee. If they instructed us to do anything and we did not do it—

MR. BLOODGOOD: Get that out of your head; they did not instruct us to do anything.

THE CHAIRMAN: No, they did not.

MR. BLOODGOOD: This me a suggestion by the delegates.

MR. HOOLEY: We have the power to consider and hate power to determine any matter which may be referred to us by the Board of Directors.

THE SECRETARY: By the Board of Directors, but not by the delegates.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think any power can go over the action of a Trial Board but the Executive Committee. We are the only ones that can go over the action of a Trial Board but we cannot consider the action of a Trial Board until the case is brought to us on an appeal. The Directors have no right to go over the action of a Trial Board.

MR. WILMERDING: No.

THE CHAIRMAN: Nor have the delegates.

MR. WILMERDING: I know that.

THE CHAIRMAN: The only ones who can supersede the action of a Trial Board on an appeal are the members of the Executive Committee. Instead of accepting the appeal from this decision of the San Francisco Trial Board, which we could have done at the last meeting, and instead of going over the case on appeal we came to the conclusion, which we had a perfect right to do, that the case had been tried in the wrong place and should be retried in the right place. There is the whole thing in a nutshell.

MB. BLOODGOOD: I believe so now.

THE CHAIRMAN: If you do not believe so, it is a question whether Mrs.
Baumann should give back her appeal and try the thing de novo. I am perfectly willing to do that, provided you lay down the hard and fast rule that we had a perfect right to do what we did do. I think that is the most important point, that we had a perfect right to do as we did.

MR. WILMERDING: I think we should not make a rule afterwards to fit a preceding case already tried by a Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: I think that was unfortunate but, it at the same time, as you have done it, it would be a very impolitic thing now to stultify yourselves.

MR. HOOLEY: I quite agree with you that we should not back down in any way.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not believe in doing that.

THE CHAIRMAN: I would back down if I thought I wrong.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Of course I think that we all would, but I don’t think we were wrong. I think we did the fair thing. I think we sent this before a court where it should have gone originally and where the case could be tried in all fairness on all sides. This woman was not represented in California; she had no counsel.

THE SECRETARY: That was her own fault.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I know that, but at the same time it has a certain bearing on the case.

MR. WILMERDING: Is it your idea now to have a case tried where the defendant lives?

MR. HOOLEY: Yes.

THE SECRETARY: That is the reason your Trial Board turned back all that cases to me and directed me to send them to this, that and the other Trial Board, whichever happened to be nearest the residence defendant.

MR. HOOLEY: My Judgment is that the majority of cases which you have brought before you are such that the ones interested in them will never hear of this thing. If you take the class of people who come before you—with all due respect to them—and the people you have tried, they never even see a paper.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I go to far as to say that this Board can remove a case from a Trial Board if we do not think it is in a position to give a fair trial and render a fair decision.
THE CHAIRMAN: On the same principle that we can take over the duty of any committee.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is there in black and white — we can take the duties away from any committee.

MR. WILMERDING: I am not questioning that; I am questioning the propriety of making this kind of a precedent.

THE CHAIRMAN: Did not we take over the License Committee once?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, and the Board of Directors have acted as a Trial Board. We cannot act as a Trial Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: But we can take over the duties of any committee.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, but we cannot act as a Trial Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: Why not?

THE SECRETARY: Because an appeal must come to us. The Board of Directors have got to resolve themselves into a Trial Board. They can do that any time they please and they have done it.

THE CHAIRMAN: This is a bad precedent.

MR. HOOLEY: The Directors really in that case are the Supreme Court.

THE CHAIRMAN: No, you can appeal from the Directors to the Executive Committee. If you want to put it that we are the Supreme Court.

MR. HOOLEY: We really are the Supreme Court?

THE CHAIRS: Yes, because they can appeal from the Board of Directors to us and we can finally decide it. The reason for that is very clear because the Board of Directors would act as a Trial Board and we would then act as an Appellate Body or a Supreme Court, and so they formed this committee, which has absolutely nothing to do and yet the men of this committee have done more to run the Club during twenty years than any other committee and there is not a thing to do except consider these appeals. How many appeals have we had during twenty years?

THE SECRETARY: Not over three or four and in every case we have affirmed the decision of the Trial Board.

MR. HOOLEY: We will make a very serious error if we in any way stultify the action of our Executive Committee at the last meeting. I think it is imperative that we back ourselves up, as long as we know we are not doing injustice to anybody.

MR. KEASBEY: I agree with that.

MR. WILMERDING: I think that is the least feature.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not see much in your argument.

MR. WILMERDING: I am sorry you cannot convince me I am open to conviction.
Mr. Bloodgood: I do not want to convince you, but the argument you make I do not see at all.

THE SECRETARY: Well, gentlemen, if you agree with this answer that Mr. Hunnewell drafted, that is the only thing you can do now, and that is to affirm the previous action of the Executive committee as of June the 15th, and direct the New York Trial Board to take up this case as an original case.

MR. WILMERDING: Will Mr. Hunnewell's statement or motion or letter be published in The Gazette?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. WILMERDING: Then I move you that in some way that word "criminal" be removed from there, with all due respect to you, Mr. Hunnewell.

THE CHAIRMAN: Then put it this way, "In our opinion this is a civil case". She says in her protest that it must be one of two things, civil or criminal. You will correct that and say, "In our opinion this is a civil case" instead of as it is now written.

MR. BLOODGOOD: In my opinion it is not either a civil or a criminal case.

MR. HOOLEY: That is a question of contract

MR. BLOODGOOD: No. You can go into any Court of Law in the world and you will be told that Mrs. Judd has absolutely put herself out of court. As the matter presents itself now the only thing Mrs. Judd can bring in the way of charges against Mrs. Baumann before a Trial Board is on the question of doing something that is prejudicial to the interests of The American Kennel Club. That is all. As far as having any case against Mrs. Baumann in a Civil Court she has not such a case. She has waived all such right, if she ever had any. She states that very clearly in her protest. So far as a criminal action is concerned, I do not think she ever had any and I think that is all nonsense.

THE CHAIRMAN: Supposing, for the sake of argument, she had some action against Mrs. Baumann, it would be a civil action?

MR. BLOODGOOD: It would be a civil action and nothing else.

MR. WILMERDING: That is only a suggestion. I do not want to criticize.

THE SECRETARY: What is the objection to the word criminal?

MR. BLOODGOOD: I think it is all right to use the word criminal but say we do not believe it is a criminal case.

THE SECRETARY: Say "In our opinion it is not a criminal case as claimed"?

THE CHAIRMAN: She claims it is.

THE SECRETARY: "As claimed".
MR. WILMERDING: Is there going to be any preamble covering this thing? All this is not going to appear in The Gazette, is it? A great deal of this must be eliminated. In all that going to The Gazette?

MR. HOOLEY: This conversation?

MR. WILMERDING: Yes.

MR. HOOLEY: No.

MR. WILMERDING: Will anybody on earth understand what this is in reply to without some explanatory preamble?

THE CHAIRMAN: It is in response to Mrs. Judd's protest.

MR. HOOLEY: I suppose the editor of The Gazette will say this is in reply or in regard to the case of Mrs. Judd.

THE CHAIRMAN: She sent a copy of this protest to all the papers.

MR. BLOODGOOD: We are not going to make ourselves liable.

THE CHAIRMAN: She sent this to all the Directors and to all the papers. Now, why should we print it?

THE SECRETARY: It should be to this effect: "This meeting was called for the purpose of considering a protest filed by Mrs. Anna R. Judd against the decision of this Committee at its meeting of June 15th, 1915; and also the protest of M. J. Mull in against the action of this
THE CHAIRMAN: Let us wait until we get through then settle that.
THE SECRETARY: I know, but this is a preamble.

THE CHAIRMAN: Here is her statement about the criminal side of it (beginning at the bottom of page 2): "All legal contests under the law are divided into civil, which are offenses against an individual, and criminal, which are offenses against the public. In all civil cases it is universally the law that the defendant has a right to demand that he be sued in the jurisdiction in which he resides. In all criminal cases it is universally the law that the trial shall take place in the jurisdiction in which the offense was committed. Imagine a person coming into the State of Washington and committing murder, and then insisting on being tried in the State of New York where he resided. In this case, if I were asking relief for myself, such as the possession of the dog in question or a monetary compensation for the wrong done me, it might resemble a civil case, and I should have sought a remedy against Mrs. Baumann at her place of residence. But in this case it is an offense against the public (the dog fancy of the United States), and is criminal in that it seek the punishment of the offender. Mrs. Baumann advertised her wares throughout the United States and into every State into which she went and she became subject to the laws of that State. Mrs. Baumann came by her advertisements into the State of Washington to do business, and the dealings thus begun were consummated when I mailed a check for the deposit to her in the Seattle Post Office, and this contract was still in force when she sold the puppy in New York to Mrs. Baumann and the offense was against me and my contract rights which were in the State of Washington. "

I do not consider that criminal. In her own protest Mrs. Judd states that if it is a civil case then the jurisdiction is where the defendant resides.

MR. BLOODGOOD: There is nothing criminal about that. The criminal part of it is absurd.

MR. KEASBEY: Would not it be just as well to put it this way, that we consider this a civil case?

THE SECRETARY: I have it here, "In our opinion, this is not a criminal case as claimed in the protest filed by the plaintiff".

MR. KEASBEY: That will not be published?

THE SECRETARY: This will be published.

MR. KEASBEY: But will we be taking any chance by Mr. Judd or Mrs. Judd saying we published it and that Mrs.
Judd had nothing to do with it?

MR. HOOLEY: I do not know whether she can come back at us or not. It reflects on Mrs. Baumann because it plainly charges her with a criminal act.

THE CHAIRMAN: We deny the fact.

MR. KEASBEY: I do not believe in handing these good, five or six or eight thousand dollars of our hard earned money.

MR. WILMERDING: We consider this case under the heading of a civil case.

MR. HOOLEY: Something like that.

MR. KEASBEY: I may be foolish and unnecessarily particular.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is just as easy to put it in, "We consider this to be a case under the head of a civil case". I do not think we will get into trouble by doing that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Let us have the whole thing now.

THE SECRETARY: (Reading): "After carefully going over Mrs. Judd's protest, the Committee feels as follows, that in answer to No, 1 in our opinion our by-laws give us full power to act as we did at the last meeting held June 15th, 1915"—

MR. WILMERDING: You ad better say, "In answer to Paragraph 1".
THE CHAIRMAN: No, you decided to leave that out.

THE SECRETARY: (Continuing to read) “In answer to No. 2, in our opinion the proper place for this trial should have been in New York, not San Francisco.

"In answer to No. 3, we are not in any way challenging the judgment of the San Francisco Trial Board. The question of the defendant waiving the decision or submitting to it has nothing to do with the matter, as she did as she was instructed.

"In our opinion, this is not a criminal case, as claimed in the protest filed by the plaintiff".

There is no come-back on us in publishing that?

MR. WILMERDING: Yes there is. Why not put it,

"As she was instructed to do by The American Kennel Club?"

THE CHAIRMAN: Why don't you change it?

MR. WILMERDING: I feel a little delicacy in changing anything you got up,

THE CHAIRMAN: I have no delicacy about it because that was written hurriedly for you to thresh the thing out, because I am in favor of putting ourselves on record as having done right and if we did wrong we should be told so.

(The stenographer is in doubt whether the last two statements credited to Mr. Wilmerding were by him or by Hooley.)

MR. BLOODGOOD: There is no question but that we had the power to do it. We could have turned around and said that we did not consider this was a fair trial for Mrs. Baumann. We could have said she was at a distance where she did not have a fair trial. That is all that was necessary for us to say.

MR. HOOLEY: We did not even have to say that, we could have said simply, "Try the case over again in New York".

THE SECRETARY: You had better come to a conclusion on that.

THE CHAIRMAN: There are two separate things—that and what we do are separate.

THE SECRETARY: I know that.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I would say something more than Just considering this a civil case. I would not let that man get away with too much.

MR. HOOLEY: I will vote in favor of putting the word "criminal" in capital letters, because I believe absolutely in the motion, but I am only thinking about any chance at all of a come-back. It is just as easy to say that we do not think that we do not think this is a criminal case.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not say anything because I cannot make a motion.

MR. HOOLEY: You. Mr. Bloodgood, make a motion and I will second it.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I think this is all right.

MR. HOOLEY: Make a motion and I will second it.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Then I move—

THE CHAIRMAN: I am perfectly willing to change that to civil. You all want it civil?

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes. I move that in our opinion this is a civil case.

MR. WILMERDING: The stenographer has a memorandum of it and he can put it in.

THE CHAIRMAN: We do not have to make any explanation.

MR. BLOODGOOD: No, not at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not want to force that motion on you.

MR. HOOLEY: Ho. You make that motion and I will second it. Is that "instructed by The American Kennel Club"?

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes.

MR. HOOLEY: That is not just the way it ought to be worded, but it can be voted on in that form and we may change a few words afterwards.

MR. BLOODGOOD: But very little in that needs to be changed.

MR. HOOLEY: Now, are we ready for the question?

MR. WILMERDING: This second paragraph in regard to the proper place for the trial and that the trial should have been in New York and not San Francisco I am agreeable to because I believe New York is the proper place for it, but I still maintain my former position that we have no right at this time to transfer the case and that it should be opened only on appeal. So I will not; vote on that.

MR. HOOLEY: You can vote against it.

MR. WILMERDING: Practically I am in favor of it. The question is whether I would be contradicting myself having made that previous motion.

MR. BLOODGOOD: If you do not believe in the motion, vote against it.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do not vote for it.

MR. HOOLEY: I am sorry we cannot convince you.

MR. WILMERDING: I do believe in it.

MR. HOOLEY: Then you had better vote for it. Question, question.

THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor will manifest it by saying aye (all vote yes but Mr. Wilmerding).

THE SECRETARY: Then the final draft as adopted is as follows:

"After carefully going over Mrs. Judd's protest, the Committee feel as follows:
"That in answer to No. 1 in our opinion our by-laws give us full power to act as we did at the last meeting held June 15th, 1915.

"That in answer to No. 2 in our opinion the proper place for this trial should have been in New York, not San Francisco.

"That in answer to No. 3, we are not in anyway challenging the judgment of the San Francisco Trial Board. The question of the defendant waiving the decision or submitting to it has nothing to do with the matter, as she did as she was instructed by The American Kennel Club. In our opinion, this is a civil case".

Now, do you want to affirm the decision of this Committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: We will now decide what we win do with it.

MR. HOOLEY: I thought that was attended to at the last meeting?

THE CHAIRMAN: What you want to vote against is what we are voting for now.

MR. WILMERDING: That is what I Just asked you, whether that second clause interfered with my previous motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: Your previous motion was not seconded.
Mr. Wilmerding: I know, but it is on record and not seconded.
MR. HOOLEY: You can withdraw that and it will not appear in the record at all.
MR. WILMERDING: I want it to appear in the record. I want to stand on it because I think I am correct.
MR. HOOLEY: That will not be published.
THE SECRETARY: I don’t know.
MR. HOOLEY: Can we instruct the Publication Committee?
THE CHAIRMAN: What are we going to do with these cases?
MR. WILMERDING: I am in favor of all this thing.
THE CHAIRMAN: That is what we are voting for.
MR. WILMERDING: I think this thing should be tried here. I think it should have been tried here but I do not think now the Committee should take this action without an appeal.
THE CHAIRMAN: That is the question before the house now,
MR. WILMERDING: Then I will change my vote in favor of this.
THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think that stultifies anything you said.
MR. WILMERDING: I am in favor of all that.
THE CHAIRMAN: I understand this motion does not carry any action at all. It merely gives our view and says we think we were right and are right.

MR. WILMERDING: In our opinion that we think it should have been tried here and I believe that it should have been tried here.

THE CHAIRMAN: Now the next question is shall we have it tried in New York or shall we have an appeal?

MR. BLOODGOOD: I move that we sustain the action of the Executive Committee.

THE SECRETARY: In the previous meeting.

MR. BLOODGOOD: In the previous meeting. I think that is all.

THE SECRETARY: And direct the New York Trial Board.

MR. BLOODGOOD: In directing the New York Trial Board to proceed with this case.

MR. WILMERDING: It has already been directed.

THE SECRETARY: Affirm their decision.

MR. KEASBEY: I second the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any discussion?

MR. BLOODGOOD: I would like to have that motion repeated.

(Motion repeated by the stenographer as follows) "I move that we sustain the action of the Executive Committee in the previous meeting in directing the New York Trial Board to proceed with this case and affirm their decision.”

THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor of the motion will manifest it by saying aye (the motion to be carried with one dissenting vote, that of Mr. Wilmerding.)

THE SECRETARY: That settles that.

MR. KEASBEY: As Chairman of the Publication Committee I am not certain as to how much of this we will cut out.

THE SECRETARY: Use your own judgment.

MR. HOOLEY: What is the use of putting anything but that one statement?

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not think there is any use in printing the whole statement.

THE SECRETARY: We want to keep these notes, though.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Yes, keep them for our own use.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think you have to publish everything you say at these meetings, or anything more than just the mere facts. Our conversations here are very informal.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Simply publish the motions and such things as this answer and a brief explanation of the situation.
THE CHAIRMAN: As a matter of fact, I do not think anybody but our own Board ought to have access to the minutes of our meetings. I do not think anybody ought to have access to these notes or ought to know what we say in these meetings.

MR. BLOODGOOD: That is quite right. We need these things for our own use, for the use of this Committee and for nobody else; otherwise we want them preserved without publication or publicity.

MR. HOOLEY: With all due respect to the Publication Committee I wish we could recommend to them in this case, and this is not for publication, that only the fact that the protest was received from Mrs. Judd and the answer thereto be published. Simply have that appear in The Gazette and nothing else.

THE SECRETARY: You have to give this answer.

MR. HOOLEY: I say, and this answer. Just state that the protest was received and the answer and the motion.

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. WILMERDING: I do not see how you can get away from publishing the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: No one cares about the motions but do not want our informal discussion published.

MR. BLOODGOOD: This is a perfectly informal discussion. If we were going to have this published we would have used different language and used it more carefully.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, and I want these minutes to file with our documents so that we can always refer to them.

THE CHAIRMAN: But they will not be accessible to anybody but members of our Committee.

MR. BLOODGOOD: And they belong to our Executive Committee exclusively.

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Then that concludes the matter of Judd against Baumann?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Then go ahead.

THE SECRETARY: The next is the protest of Mullin vs. McGlinchey

MULLIN VS. McCLINCHHEY.

THE SECRETARY: (Reads): For the purpose of the record I will say that this is a protest by Michael J. Mullin of Stamford, Connecticut, against Mrs. F. T. McClinchey, of Waltham, Massachusetts, regarding the sale of a Boston Terrier male puppy. Mr. Mullin is represented by Charles Lamson Griffin, a lawyer with offices at 45 Cedar Street, New York. I have just read to you a letter from him dated June 24th, 1915, to The American Kennel Club and our answer to that letter and an additional letter from him dated July 1st, 1915. The substance of the protest is that Mr. Mullin understood his case was to be heard by the New York Trial Board but that the case has been transferred to the Boston Trial Board, the nearest to the residence of the defendant.

MR. HOOLEY: He states that he had no notice.

THE SECRETARY: He says, "Without notice". He states this in his second letter but he acknowledges in the other letter that he had notice.

MR. HOOLEY: He can have it heard on an appeal later on. He is a little early.

MR. WILMERDING: This is another case of jurisdiction and it is a little different matter. He says this defense was to be in New York. That is a different proposition.

THE SECRETARY: This man Mullin purchased a dog from Mrs. McClinchey.

MR. WILMERDING: And who is Mrs. McClinchey?

THE SECRETARY: Somebody living in Waltham, Massachusetts. And it appears that the pedigree of the dog is not as represented and Mr. Mullin prefers charges against Mrs. McClinchey.
MR. HOOLEY: Where does this man Mullin live?

THE SECRETARY: Right here in Stamford, Connecticut, 28 miles from here. I sent it to the New York Trial Board. You directed me at the last meeting that it must be sent to the Trial Board nearest the residence of the defendant and I immediately transferred it to the Boston Trial Board.

MR. HOOLEY: How far is Waltham from Boston?

THE SECRETARY: Only twelve miles, a very short distance.

MR. HOOLEY: That is where that belongs, then.

MR. WILMERDING: That case came before us and we referred it back to you.

THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me, if you want to pursue a man you have to take the witnesses to his place of residence in a civil action.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Where was the dog sold?

THE SECRETARY: The sale was made at the Westminster Kennel Club Show held in this city Feb, 1915.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Was the dog sold in New York?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. KEASBEY: If the rule to have the cases tried by the Trial Board nearest the residence of the defendant holds then the action of the Secretary was quite proper.
MR. HOOLEY: The Secretary followed his instructions by referring it to the Boston Trial Board, so I do not think we need look into that matter at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: Why should not it be tried in Boston?

MR. HOOLEY: I do not see any reason why not.

MR. WILMERDING: What was that?

THE SECRETARY: Why should not it be tried in

MR. WILMERDING: That is the place where it should be tried.

THE CHAIRMAN: Which means, in view of the resolution we passed, that that is the place it should be tried. That is the natural place. If we passed no resolution, is not that the natural place for the trial of the Case?

THE SECRETARY: Yes

THE CHAIRMAN: He would have to go to Massachusetts to prosecute this case?

MR. WILMERDING: Yes.

(On motion duly made and seconded the Secretary's action in sending the case to the Boston Trial Board was unanimously sustained.)

Thereupon the meeting was adjourned.
Mrs. Anna R. Judd, Complainant.

-v-

Mrs. Carl Baumann,
Respondent

This is a complaint for alleged misconduct in the sale of a dog. The case was formally tried by the San Francisco Trial Board, after due notice and upon hearing or submission of documentary evidence by both parties to the controversy. The decision of the said Trial Board, finding the respondent guilty of conduct prejudicial to the welfare of the sport of dog showing and dog breeding and denying her the privileges of the American Kennel Club, is reported in full in Gazette of 31 May, 1915.

At the regular quarterly meeting of delegates held 18th day of May 1915, it was resolved as follows:
“Doctor De Mund: I move to amend Mr. Collins' motion that the delegates request the Executive Committee to re-open this case of Judd vs. Baumann and investigate findings of the Pacific Trial Board. That is not an appeal. It is a new procedure entirely. Amendment seconded.”

On the same day, the Board of Directors, through the misimpression that the resolution of the delegates had referred this matter to it, entertained and adopted a resolution that the case take the usual course: i.e., that the respondent proceed with an appeal to the Executive Committee from the decision of the San Francisco Trial Board if she was aggrieved thereby.

The respondent thereupon promptly and seasonably filed her appeal in due form and paid the deposit of $25.00 required by the By-laws.

Thereafter, and on the 15th June, 1915, the Executive Committee convened and adopted the following resolution:

“RESOLVED—That the Executive Committee finds that the case of Judd vs. Baumann was improperly sent to the San Francisco Trial Board for hearing through error in this office, it properly belonging to, and coming under the jurisdiction of the New York Trial Board. We do therefore recommend that this case be sent to the said New York Trial Board for its consideration. The disqualification of Mrs. Carl Baumann therefore is automatically removed.”

“BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED – That the Secretary be, and hereby is directed to return to Mrs. Baumann the appeal made by her on June 14, 1915, together with a deposit of $25.00, in accordance with the above decision of the Committee. Carried.”

Complainant Judd, upon being advised of this decision addressed a communication to the directors and officers of the Club, protesting against the action of the Executive Committee on several grounds and refusing to present her case on a new trial before the New York Trial Board. The Executive Committee, at a further meeting held the 14th July 1915:

“RESOLVED: That we sustain the action of the Executive Committee at a previous meeting held June 15th, 1915, in directing the New York Trial Board to proceed with the case. Carried.”

Mr. A. C. Wilmerding, having previously at this meeting offered a resolution, which was not seconded, that the Executive Committee reconsider its action and that the case take its usual course by appeal according to Article XIV. of the By-laws, voted in the negative on this motion.

The case comes to the New York Trial Board on the resolution of the Executive Committee of the 15th of June, 1915.

The situation presents questions of novel impression. This Trial Board has been unable to discover any precedent in point. It is difficult to see what end was to be served by purporting to vacate and set aside the decision of the San Francisco Trial Board by this extraordinary procedure, especially when the respondent, the aggrieved party, had duly filed an appeal there from, according to the procedure provided by the By-laws. The difference in result, of course, that the disqualification was removed pending a new trial.

The resolution of the Executive Committee seems to have gone upon the proposition that a defendant should be tried before the Trial Board nearest in point of geographical location to his place of residence. But whether such would Be the better practice was not an open question in this case at the time. The case had been assigned to the San Francisco Trial Board, the nearest to the place of residence of the complainant, according to the usual practice in effect. Other cases were regularly so assigned, and their decisions stand. It is impossible for this Trial Board to subscribe to the proposition that subsequent legislation, and the resolution of the Executive Committee was nothing other than legislation, can operate retroactively and affect an existing decision of a Trial Board, proceeding upon precedent and duly rendered. The fact that the respondent appeared and submitted her evidence in defense without questioning the jurisdiction of the tribunal is a further circumstance of controlling importance. It cannot with reason be urged in answer that she was compelled to do so; that the usual notice to appear was mandatory and deprived her of her right to raise the question, if any had existed, of jurisdiction. It is only after an adverse decision on the merits that this question is sought to be raised. The actual filing of an appeal, in due course, by the respondent and performance by her of prerequisites for taking the same are further acts confirming, not disaffirming, on her part, and so far as in her power lay, the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Trial Board. The resolution of the Executive Committee ordered the appeal to be returned to the respondent. Its power to do so is respectfully doubted by this Board.

In the premises, the New York Trial Board has come to the following conclusions:

First: -- That the resolution of the Executive Committee is void for lack of jurisdiction to set aside the finding of a Trial Board without appeal or motion on the part of the aggrieved party and in the absence of sufficient grounds, upon its investigation held pursuant to the delegates' resolution;

Second:-- That, consequently, the matter is not properly before this board.

This Board has not of course, examined into the merits of the controversy. It has come to these conclusions only after due and careful consideration of the judicial and legislative history of the case purely as a matter of constitutional rights within the club and procedure as affecting all parties to Trial Board litigation. It is fully mindful of the fact that it has not jurisdiction to reverse the Executive Committee: That is not what it is doing. It has simply found, and with all due respect to the Executive Committee, no controversy before it for trial.

Mr. Willets: I have a letter here which I have been requested to read by a member of the Executive Committee. He has been called away from the City and could not be present at the meeting.

Mr. R. C. Stewart: May I ask that the representatives of the Press by requested to leave the room?

Mr. Wood: I move we go into Executive Session.

Motion carried.

(See minutes of the Executive Session)

Mr. Hunnewell: takes the chair.

Mr. August Belmont: The minutes will recite that the Chairman requested Mr. Hunnewell to take the chair.

Mr. Chairman, as Chairman of the Executive Committee, I desire to state that the Executive Committee is in possession of a copy of this report of the Trial Board, and that in the Report it is stated that the Complainant will take the subject up in due course.

Mr. Wilmerding: That will do.

The Chairman: Any further business?

The Secretary: We have nothing further.

Motion to adjourn was carried at 4:15 pm.
EXECUTIVE SESSION

EXECUTIVE SESSION

Mr. Willets read the following letter:

To the President and Delegates of the American Kennel Club—

Dear Sirs:

I regret extremely that I have been unavoidably called away from the city and shall be unable to attend the next quarterly meeting.

I wish to protest against the action of the New York Trial Board in refusing to try the Judd-Baumann case after having been so instructed to do by the Executive Committee.

At the quarterly meeting of the delegates held on the 18th of May last the Executive Committee was, by a unanimous vote, requested to re-open the Judd-Baumann case.

The Executive Committee met on June 14th and took the matter under advisement and their finding was as follows:

"RESOLVED that the Executive Committee finds that the case of Judd v. Baumann was improperly sent to the San Francisco Trial Board for hearing, through error in this office, it properly belonging to and coming under the jurisdiction of the New York Trial Board. We do, therefore, recommend that this case be sent to the New York Trial Board for its consideration. The disqualification of Mrs. Carl Baumann therefore is automatically removed.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the secretary be and hereby is directly to return to Mrs. Baumann the appeal made by her on June 14, 1915, together with a deposit of $25.00 in accordance with the above decision of this Committee. Carried."

The Executive Committee met again on July 14th and after considering the protest of Mrs. Judd against the decision of this Committee of June 15th passed the following:-- “RESOLVED that we sustain the action of the Executive Committee at the previous meeting held June 15, 1915, in directing the New York Trial Board to proceed with this case. Carried.”

Not having heard from the New York Trial Board, I called up the Chairman and asked him what has been done in regard to the Judd-Baumann case. He told me that his board had decided that the ruling of the Executive Committee was incorrect and that it would not take the matter up. I told him that in my opinion his board had exceeded its authority and had gone beyond its rights, that it had been instructed by the Executive Committee to try this case, the Executive Committee had not asked it for advice, or to question or to take any responsibility for the rulings of the Executive Committee. He said he would give my opinion to the rest of the Board.

The Executive Committee had not received and communication from the Trial Board in answer to its direction that the case should be tried.

I am informed that about the 1st of Sept the Trial Board handed in its decision to the Secretary addressed to the American Kennel Club, which decision is, as I am informed, that the Executive Committee should have heard the appeal and should not have referred the case for trial to the New York Board.

I protest very strongly against the action of the New York Trial Board, for its lack of courtesy to the Executive Committee, for its negligence in not trying the case when so instructed to do, for having exceeded its power and for having criticized and questioned the rulings of the Executive Committee. It seems to me that this is the most dangerous attack on the discipline of the American Kennel Club that has ever occurred.

The Executive Committee was acting under the unanimous request of the delegates.

The Executive Committee decided that the San Francisco Trial Board had no jurisdiction in the matter, it having been entirely a New York transaction, and that the case had been sent to the San Francisco Board through the error of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club. The question being one jurisdiction of the San Francisco Trial Board, there could have been no proper or legal trial and therefore Mrs. Baumann’s appeal could not be considered.

The rulings of the Executive Committee of the Club all the power of the Board of Directors between the meetings of the said Board.

The claim that Mrs. Baumann made no protest against so-called trial at San Francisco falls to the ground, in my own judgment, as she was improperly advised through the error of the secretary of the American Kennel Club, and would have been disqualified if she had not followed his instructions.

I feel that if possible the New York Trial Board should be removed for its refusal to obey the rulings of the Executive Committee. If this cannot be done at this time on account of no formal charges having been filed against them, or for any other reason, then the Trial Board should be reprimanded and the Executive Committee should be requested to act under Section 2 of article 2d of the by-laws, and perform the duties of the Trial Board in this case on the ground that the Trial Board has refused to perform the duties imposed by the by-laws on said Board.

I feel very strongly in this matter, and while I dislike to ask for drastic action against fellow members of the Kennel Club, all of whom I have known for some years, I do not think that friendship should be allowed to enter into a matter which if permitted to stand will be subversive to all authority and discipline of the American Kennel Club.

Yours very sincerely,

H. K. Bloodgood.
The Chairman: Well, gentlemen, what is your pleasure with regard to this case, because it has got into a serious tangle? I have thought a good deal about it, and have regretted extremely that an important matter prevented me being present at the meeting when this action was taken.

I telephoned that I could not attend and I understood before I left my office that that Committee was adjourned to the next day at 10 or 11 o’clock. When I returned the next morning, I found the Committee had taken this action so that while a member of the Committee I had no opportunity to take part in the deliberations.

As your presiding officer I am only stating this in explanation of the fact that I was not able to be present and give you my reasons for not being there; and I assume the privilege of stating to you what would have been my views had I been there, and there were my views at the time. Whether I should have been successful in persuading my fellow committeemen or not, is not the question. Your action was taken, and the result you know. But it appears from the records of the Club that no attention has been paid heretofore with regard to locality. Where an act has been committed, or a case has come up for trial the cases have been referred to the West, even thought the Defendant was here in the East, and vice versa. That has been the practice.
The practice at law does not govern our practice at all. Our customs are founded upon what we find from time to time to be the best in the interests of the Kennel Club, and we are not obliged to follow the practice in law with regard to those matters.

Now in that case nobody ever raised the question at all about this case, when it went to trial. It came in the regular way, and no objection was lodged. Both parties accepted the jurisdiction of the Western Trial Board, and submitted their case to them, and it was decided.

I think that so far as the jurisdiction of either of our Trial Board went – of course one has no jurisdiction over the other certainly, neither the Western can pass on the acts of the Eastern on the question—in my opinion that was final, and there was not other course excepting for that case to come up on appeal; and although it reached that stage in a round-about sort of way, nevertheless it got there; and the action was in my opinion then correct.

What has happened since that, you know. The money was returned, and there is a change of venue, but there is no precedent in law for that sort of thing. If you are going to follow one precedent you must follow them all.

I am not a lawyer, but if I state something that is not correct I shall be very glad for any lawyer in the room to correct me. But if you are following legal precedents, then I believe that no change of venue could be possible in law, if neither party had raised the question of jurisdiction before the trial. Am I correct? Now that is just what you did.

A personal friend of mine, when I stated my views to him said that the character of the correspondence, the nature of the letters addressed to the Kennel Club by both parties and that particularly by that part which appealed--- all those letters were of such character that it was impossible to recognize them and to conform to the request, just because those letters were impertinent. I venture to say, that in my opinion did not have anything to do with it. A friend of mine told me that if I had read the letters I would have acted just as they did because of them; that is, it was undignified for the Kennel Club to submit to the request of the person addressing them in such language, and in such an insulting way. I demur from that. I do not think that in my opinion would have anything to do with the case at all. You were either to act properly or not; one of the two.

Now I have thought that over. It is a difficult situation. While stating my views now, merely by way of explanation, I intended to attend that meeting and present my views. If I had failed, I would have said nothing to this meeting at all. Therefore it is fair to me now to have the opportunity to express them to you, without asking that they shall have any bearing upon your action.

Now gentlemen, what disposition do you desire that I make of this case? Let me draw your attention to the fact that this Committee is not a standing Committee. As a Trial Board, it is not a standing Committee. Standing Committee are specifically named in the Trial Board and this is not one of them. They are a separate and totally different organization. They are a Trial Board, and they are clothed with certain powers and certain duties.

Section 2, which Mr. Bloodgood has referred to reads as follows: (reading same).

Now this is a power which the Executive Committee has of itself, and you must not make the mistake again of having the Executive Committee appeal to the delegates instructing the Executive Committee to take this trial up, in the place of the Trial Board, under that Section; because to save your time, the chair would rule that that was not correct. That is not a Standing Committee, and therefore that could not be done.

Mr. Wood: Mr. President, this is a very unsatisfactory case, and having been on the New York Trial Board for a number of years it appeals to me a good deal. I don’t know how a Trial Board can take up a case that does not exist. Judd refuses to bring further action before the New York Trial Board. There was therefore no case to take up.

Never at any time when I was on the Trial Board did we ever go out and bring charges against anybody ourselves; and I do not understand the Executive Committee brought charges against Mrs. Carl Baumann. I do not see what that Board could do. How could they take up a case that did not exist? There was not any case there as I understand. The money had been returned, and the appeal was disregarded, and the penalty imposed by the San Francisco Trial Board was done away with. What under the sun could the New York Trial Board take up? What was there for them to take up?

The Chairman: You mean the parties at issue were not prepared to go on with their case at all?

Mr. Wood: Mr. Judd refused to go ahead as the secretary said. What was to be done? What could the Trial Board go on? They could not ask Judd if he wanted to bring a case, as he had already refused it.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I will ask the secretary if there has not been a case before; a case referred to the New England Trial Board from New York.

The Secretary: Yes.

The Chairman: There have been cases where they have been referred from one Trial Board to another. Has that been decided?

The Secretary: No sir.

Mr. Collins: The whole matter as far as the trial, or as far as the charges for which the first trial was taken, we ever go out and bring charges against anybody ourselves; and I do not understand the Executive Committee brought charges against Mrs. Carl Baumann. I do not see what that Board could do. How could they take up a case that did not exist? There was not any case there as I understand. The money had been returned, and the appeal was disregarded, and the penalty imposed by the San Francisco Trial Board was done away with. What under the sun could the New York Trial Board take up? What was there for them to take up?

The Chairman: You mean the parties at issue were not prepared to go on with their case at all?

Mr. Wood: Mr. Judd refused to go ahead as the Secretary said. What was to be done? What could the Trial Board go on? They could not ask Judd if he wanted to bring a case, as he had already refused it.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I will ask the secretary if there has not been a case before; a case referred to the New England Trial Board from New York.

The Secretary: Yes.

The Chairman: There have been cases where they have been referred from one Trial Board to another. Has that been decided?

The secretary: No sir.

Mr. Collins: The whole matter as far as the trial, or as far as the charges for which the first trial was taken, amounts to very little. As Mr. Wood stated, there was absolutely no case when it stopped. The woman claimed her money back, that is, the purchaser of the dog, and got the money, so the matter was settled before any changes were ever brought. So it seems to me a great deal of trouble has been caused over a very insignificant matter. To close the whole matter, I would move you sir, that the matter be settled on its present status, with the exception that the members of the New York Trial Board express their regrets for any discourteous action towards the Executive Committee.

Mr. Lederer: I desire to say that there has been no discourteous acts as far as I, as a member of the New York Trial Board am concerned, and certainly no intention of a discourteous act towards the Executive Committee. Our function was purely a judicial one, I take it, at the time. We looked into the action taken by another Board of this Club and found as to that Board, as we might concerning an individual member, in our opinion it erred in its decision. Not that we decided to flout it, or to be in any way discourteous. I would disclaim any intention to act discourteously before the Executive Committee.

Mr. Collins: Mr. Chairman, I am referring to the acts which the gentleman who wrote the letter referred to. One was that the communication, instead of being addressed to the Executive Committee, was addressed to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club.

Now, I do not doubt if there were any discourteous acts on the part of the New York Trial Board, they were absolutely unintentional; and I think we should settle and close the whole matter up of the New York Trial Board will be willing to express themselves in such a way that will settle the matter.

The Chairman: Mr. Bloodgood does not find any fault with the manner in which they have done it, but what they have done.

Mr. Collins: HE said they were discourteous. If he feels that way, and the balance of the Executive Committee feels that way, probably an apology of the Trial Board will settle the difficulty.

The Chairman: Mr. Bloodgood thinks these gentlemen were discourteous in the mere fact that they refused to act in accordance with the instructions of the Executive Committee, and proceed with this trial, in the manner in which they did it. Of course they would have to rescind their action to satisfy Mr. Bloodgood.

Mr. Wood: Will the Chair please tell us how they could have acted, when there is no case before them?

The Chairman: I cannot pretend to tell you. If the parties to the controversy were unwilling to go on then of course you have nothing to say, and if that was the case, and
You know that to be the case, would it not then have been better to have taken that as a reason, and let the question of jurisdiction pass for some other time?

Mr. Wood: The report boils down to that anyhow.

The Chairman: There is no mention of the unwillingness of the litigants to go on in the report.

Mr. Wilmerding: All that Mr. Lederer has said is very true. There has been no intention of discourtesy on the past of our Committee in any shape or form, and I want to endorse what he said, and further more to tell you that our custom has always been to make our reports to the Secretary, the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, and it never entered my head personally that it was necessary to report to the Executive Committee. We have no intention to discourtesy on our part, as our custom has always been to go to the Secretary.

Mr. Hunnewell: Mr. President, further backing up Mr. Bloodgood in a way, the Executive Committee were given full powers by the delegates, the Executive Committee had told the Trial Board to do certain things. I think it was for the Trial Board to come back to us, the Executive Committee, and ask for their opinions. We told them to do it. What are their reasons for not doing so? I think it is very discourteous not to come back to the body who told them to do it. We had full power of doing anything we pleased with that case. Whether we did right or not, has nothing to do with it. We told the Trial Board to hold that trial. Then, if they found they could not hold, or would not hold it, they should have sent to the Chairman of our Executive Committee, and said so.

The Chairman: Would it satisfy the Executive Committee to have that document changed, and address it to them, stating that they were unable to go on with the case for the reasons stated?

Mr. Lederer: I would like to state that the understanding of the Trial Board was that this report would be presented to the Delegates, precisely the way it has been presented, because the matter originated the way it has been presented, because the matter originated at the Delegates’ meeting. This matter comes before the club out of the San Francisco Trial Board, at a Delegates’ meeting. It was adopted in a resolution amending Mr. Collins’ original resolution, that puts it in the Executive Committee; so we thought it was it was no more than proper, that it having been handed on to us by the Executive Committee, it should come back finally to the body where the whole matter originated, on the floor of the Club. That was our idea.

Mr. Hunnewell: We were appointed with full powers by the delegates, were we not?

Mr. Lederer: Yes.
Mr. Hunnewell: Therefore, it would only have been courteous to have brought the report back to us. I think if a Sub-Committee reports to a Committee, the Committee reports to the whole.

Mr. Lederer: That is not our conceptions of the Trial Board and the Executive.

Mr. Hunnewell: It was only courteous to have given your decision whatever it was, to the Executive Committee.

Mr. Lederer: We had no such intention.

Mr. Hunnewell: I ask if the Secretary can read the report of the New York Trial Board again, as found.

The Chairman: The section of the by-laws is only intended to refer to cases that are up for trial, and I will read the section to you (Reading section). Under those circumstances the immediate duty would have been to send a copy of this to the Executive Committee, and under that section, if this was to be done, it was one of the cases or decisions. Now, if you do not want this interpreted that way, and this was a question that should have been addressed to the Executive Committee, the Trial Board could volunteer to withdraw this, and address themselves to the Executive Committee, saying they were unable to comply with the instructions of the Executive Committee, because of the fact that they considered that they had reasons. Also if you add as well, that in addition to that that the parties in litigation were not prepared, and willing to go on with the case, for that reason, it would be well.

Mr. Hunnewell: The part that Mr. Bloodgood and I object to is why should the Trial Board come to a joint meeting and say they did not do this, because the Executive Committee was wrong in giving it to them; why did not they come to us? We might have changed our minds. What have they not been courteous to come back and say to us “We do not think you are right?”

The Secretary: That communication is to the American Kennel Club, and not the secretary.

Mr. Lederer: This copy of the communication is not addressed to any person at all. It is un the usual form. We filed this report with the secretary. This is the 40th because since we have stated numbering the cases, that has been the 40th case filed in the same manner as in other cases. We saw nothing extraordinary about this matter. There is no reason why we should address the Executive Committee, any member, or Secretary, or delegates. It is filed as a reported decision.

The Secretary: Addressed to the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Lederer: There is no form of address to any one at all.

The Chairman: Let me point out that it would be perfectly competent for your Committee to have passed a resolution authorizing the secretary of the your Committee to convey to the Executive Committee your views on the subject.

    Mr. Lederer:  Certainly it would.

    The Chairman:  The minutes of that meeting, you would have transmitted to the secretary of the kennel club, under this section, anyway, but your own Secretary would have conveyed your decision with the same paper to the Executive Committees.  Now, let me suggest—why take offense because nobody has intended to do anything discourteous, and to ask for apologies from men who are working according to their best belief, and doing it in a proper way, according to their notions?  Why not let that all pass off in this discussion?  The Trial Boards feel that they are prepared to address themselves to the Committee in the manner the Executive Committee wish. It does not change your attitude. I believe they are not prepared to retire from their attitude, or they are not prepared to retire from their attitude, or their opinion that the Executive Committee has no jurisdiction in the matter, because of the reasons stated.  I presume they could not stultify themselves in that way, but if they address that to the Executive Committee – I mean to say if you made it a part of your action at that meeting, in addressing yourselves to the Executive Committee, and sent a copy of that in the form of a copy to the secretary, you understand the original having been sent to the Executive Committee, and then it becomes a trial record in that way, it might satisfy the feelings of everybody. The difference of opinion— I do not suppose you are prepared to debate here today as to that.

Mr. Schley: May I ask if the report of the Trial Board is submitted to the delegates?

The Chairman: That would be a matter of opinion.

Mr. Schley: The authority of the delegates as such, seem to be limited under section 5 of article 17 (reading same).

The Chairman: If they were to be confined in their powers, it would have said “sole powers”.

Mr. Schley: Quite true, except on the legal principle, but have they the right to pass on the report of the trial?

The Secretary: No.

The Chairman: That is for information there.

Mr. Wood: Mr. President, as the delegates turned this matter over to the Executive Committee to handle, I move it is either the sense of this meeting that this report should be handed to the Executive Committee to report on the Trial Board, before coming to the delegates; this is an Executive Session, and nothing need be published on what has been said or done, and why cannot we turn that over to the Executive Committee?
Mr. Lederer: Sent that to the Secretary and ask him about it?

Mr. Wilmerding: I would like to report what I have said--- it is far from our aim or intention to upset the Executive Committee, and now, as Chairman of he Committee I desire to hand another copy of our report to the Secretary with the request that he turn it over to the Executive Board.

The Secretary: Is that satisfactory, Mr. Hunnewell?

Mr. Hunnewell: I am speaking of Mr. Bloodgood rather, and I am speaking really with him in this matter, and I think he would probably say yes. I should like to hear some other members of the Executive Committee say something about it.

The Chairman: I am sorry that this report of the Trial Board was read, with those gentlemen of the Press in the room. It will be necessary for you.

A Member: They did not take it down.

The Chairman: It will be recorded by them as having been presented at the meeting. Are they willing to give it up?

The Secretary: They are only too glad to get it.

The Chairman: If we go again to Session, open session, it is perfectly competent for the Chairman of the Executive Committee to say that he has received this report, and proceed as soon as we convene, that can be made to appear in your minutes, that he has received the report.
Mr. Wood: I move that we go out of Executive Session.

Mr. Schley: One suggestion more, that the rules be taken up by the Rules Committee, before we go out of Executive Session again, to amend article 19, section 4, by some appropriate phrase that cannot extend the jurisdiction of any Trial Board in the case of misconduct in the case of dogs, or fraud in the sale of dogs, so that the locality of the alleged misconduct or sale took place, should be governed by the locality of the dogs. I mean if a man should happen to do crooked work, at the Minneapolis show, and live at New York, the place where the trial should be, should be at Minneapolis, or the Trial Board having jurisdiction in Minneapolis. It is the suggestion of the Rules Committee to form appropriate rules.

The Chairman: you are not addressing yourself to the subject of this motion.

Mr. Schley: I beg your pardon.

Mr. Secretary: The proper think for the delegates to do is to send their proposed rule in writing to me, and I will send it to the Rules Committee for them to consider. That is the proper procedure.

Mr. Stewart: Mr. Chairman, would it be in order to ask that the report from the Trial Board be stricken from the minutes of the delegates?

Mr. Wood: I second that.
The Chairman: I think that has been read in open session, and I presume you would have to do that in open session, in order to make it a matter of record. It was read in open session. Now, if you will go back to open session.

Mr. Hunnewell: Still, could not you note that it has been expunged from the minutes, as it has been handed to the president of the Executive Committee?

The Chairman: Or you might do it this way: It would be difficult to proceed without reading in some remark of the Chairman of the Executive Committee, and just after it, write in saying that the Chairman of the Executive Committee received the same report, and that the Chairman of the Executive Committee, can motion, and put themselves on record, but not agreeing at all to the position taken by the Trial Board as regards the jurisdiction that in fact the litigants are unwilling to go on with the case, and that would be an academic question or discussion, which you did not care to precipitated. Also that the Executive Committee considers it having fallen of its own weight, and not by reason, that is a way you can do it, without surrendering your position.

Mr. Lederer: Mr. President, if there is no action taken by the delegates, and it appears in the minutes that a Copy of the report has also been delivered to the Executive Committee, it seems to me that its publication to the delegates at large, could not be objectionable in any way.

The Chairman: Mr. Lederer; don’t you think it would be better, to report that the parties to this case declined to go on with it, and therefore the question of jurisdiction is an academic one?

Mr. Lederer: It might be well. That of course appears in the report itself, as Mr. Wood pointed out.

Mr. Hunnewell: there is another question that would have to come up, if this thing is taken up against. The Executive Committee might go back to the San Francisco Trial Court. I don’t see that we can decide that now.

The Chairman: I was trying to cover that point, any statement made by you as representing the Executive Committee.

Mr. Hunnewell: I mean that, but you are Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The Chairman: Is there any one here? I would have to take the floor then and state that the Executive Committee had received this communication, and that raises the question of jurisdiction, and that would really result in precipitating an academic discussion of the subject, because in their report, they mentioned the fact that the parties to the litigation refused to go on with it, therefore there is no case to be decided by either Trial Board. If you would like me to state that, then, after the reading of that report, we will prevent a grand discussion in the newspapers that we had a row in the American Kennel Club. Then, the motion is before you.

Mr. Hunnewell: I would like to say one thing before we go out of Executive Committee. It is evident today that here is a case in point? Do you think it wise to have these newspaper men in here, during our meeting?

The Chairman: They have got that full report. They took it down. If we asked them to retire before the report was read, we would have had no trouble about it at all.

Mr. Hunnewell: We ought never have had them in here at all.

The Chairman: You voted. It was requested by one of the delegates, and put to you. But we are confronted with the fact that those gentlemen have got that report in short-hand, and know it was made. Now, if you will take the Chair, I will state as Chairman of the Executive Committee, that the Executive Committee received this report, and that a discussion as to the jurisdiction of the Executive Committee, on the Trial Board, would result in precipitating an academic argument or discussion. That would be the better way, and that in the report it is stated that the parties to this litigation were unwilling to go on, and therefore there was no case to be tried by either Board, and therefore the Executive Committee, while not accepting the position of the Trial Board, recognizes that there is not any case for them to try on that ground, but not on the ground that there is no jurisdiction.

Mr. Lederer: It has been suggested to me that it might be more accurate to state that the complainant had refused to go on. There has been nothing heard, so far as I know as a member of the Trial Board, from the respondent, Mrs. Carl Baumann.

The Chairman: The respondent could not.

Mr. Lederer: The complainant would be the party of the burden of proof, and the party who wrote the letters to the various directors and officers.

Mr. Willets: I would like to make a suggestion, that the Trial Board withdraw this report, and simply make a short report to the Executive Committee, and say that in view of the fact that they have taken up this case, and in view of the fact that the complainant declines to go on with the matter, that they cannot go any further into it, and therefore they retire from the case. There is nothing for them to go on, and if they make a report to the Executive Committee they cannot carry out the instructions of the Executive Committee, that is all there is to it.

The Chairman: If they make such a report, and “The Field and Fancy” publishes it in full, where are you Mr. Willets?

Mr. Willets: If you make a suggestion to the newspaper reporters that we are here, and simply tell them that that was withdrawn and do not ask them to publish it, I think they would agree.

Mr. Hunnewell: I think my suggestion is a good one, if they will withdraw that report. Your remarks will settle the case, because you bring out the fact that there is no case. That settles the whole question and that settles it right up. The point is to withdraw this think from the minutes, and simply to say that this Committee, the Trial Board withdraw their report, and hand it to the President of the Executive Committee. If this thing comes out in the papers, the thing is withdrawn in Executive Committee.

Mr. Foster: I am going to ask the courtesy of the Delegates, for the privilege of saying just a word or two. I am entirely a new man among you. This is my first meeting, and perhaps it might interest you to know how the report which you are considering struck in a man who has not been with you, and has simply come in from the outside, representing the Club to which he belongs, and that is this: That to me the serious and important feature of this whole thing, is not so much whether this report was addressed to the Executive Committee, to the secretary, or to the Delegates, but the fact that the Trial Board goes to work, and criticizes the Executive Committee for the action they took, and through the Executive Committee, the delegates at their last meeting and then on top of it, all we learn is that the case is practically dropped, because the complainant withdraws her complaint. Now, it seems to me that the gentlemen’s suggestion over here is the wise one, that the Trial Board withdraw their report, and simply state to the Executive Committee that they cannot try the case, because the complainant has withdrawn the complaint.

The Secretary: She has not withdrawn the complaint, Mr. Foster. She refuses to appear before the New York Trial Board. She has not withdrawn the complaint.

Mr. Willets: That amounts to the same thing, the person refuses himself under the jurisdiction of the Court. If you do not go on with the complaint, you have practically withdrawn the complaint. You have no jurisdiction over here to force her to come to New York.

The Chairman: Well, if you can persuade those gentlemen not to publish that report, because you evidently want to get rid of the question in that way.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: Would it not be possible for you to state Mr. Chairman, that as Executive Chairman, you heard from the Trial Board that they considered that they had better withdraw that report, as there was no case, so that if the report was published, it would not matter?

Mr. Wilmerding: We did not render our report on that case because the complainant refused to appear. We had nothing to do with that. The main crux of our position, on point o four decision was that the case had already been decided. Was not that it, Mr. Lederer? That it has already been decided by another Board?

The Chairman: I understand that, perfectly. I am simply pointing out that when I suggested that I, as Chairman, made that statement the onus would be when you representative status that the Executive Committee does not care to discuss it, as an academic question, and consequently, there is no case, and that was the only reason, otherwise, you have got to fight it out, as to the jurisdiction of the Executive, in such a case. Then, you would be obliged to consider a case, whether it has any merit or not.

Mr. Hunnewell: Why not let the Trial Board and Executive Committee fight it out?

Mr. Lederer: There are no parties to the litigation.

The Chairman: If you discuss it academically, you would have to assume the parties would go on, and then discuss the jurisdiction of the Executive Committee, I have not time to stay with you through that.

Mr. Hunnewell: Mr. Chairman, if the Trial Board did not take this case on, would not the San Francisco trial hold good?

The Chairman: On appeal.

Mr. Wilmerding: The case is closed and decided.

The Chairman: The only way you can revive it out there is to say that it has been finally decided that the decision of the Trial Board shall stand, and cause them to make their appeal in the way they did before.

Mr. Hunnewell: That is exactly what you are doing in your statement here that you are going to make to the Committee of the whole. You will simply say that the Executive was wrong, and that is what you are saying.

Mr. Chairman: I stated my views.

Mr. Hunnewell: I know, but if that is the vote of the meeting, the Executive Committee was wrong.

The Chairman: What I propose to say was that while not yielding the point about their jurisdiction, the Executive Committee did not care to precipitate an academic discussion on the question, inasmuch as the complainant would not go on with the case, and therefore the Trial Board had no case. Of course if the Trial Board want to recede from their position altogether, and withdraw their report, and let their reason go, on the ground that there was no case for them, it is for them to decide. If they choose to do that, then, in the vernacular, “nothing done”.

Mr. Collins: Would not that be the better way, let the Trial Board withdraw their report entirely in open meeting, and refer the matter to the Executive Committee, and all reference to the matter be expunged from these minutes, and then the Executive Committee and the Trial Board can fight it out in Executive meeting by themselves, without anybody getting the wiser?

Mr. Hunnewell: Let us get this thing out of the paper.

Mr. Lederer: Let this meeting go out of Executive Session into general session, and that the Chairman or President of the Executive Committee should make a report to follow immediately in the published minutes, that the Executive Committee received this report, and since it understands that the plaintiff refuses to go on and try the case before the New York Trial Board, the whole case has become a purely an academic one, and no parties being before the Board, there is no further question to try.

Mr. Wilmerding: Mr. Chairman, may I ask was the San Francisco party notified that the trial would go on, and notified to appear and present evidence?

Mr. Lederer: No.

Mr. Wilmerding: And they have not refused to go on.
Mr. Lederer: They have anticipated such notice, by writing letters to the Executive Committee, of about five or six pages.

Mr. Wilmerding: Those letters are not official, and if this report was published, they might say we are prepared to go on and mix things up. They have not notified the Trial Board that they would not give evidence, not were they notified to do so.

The secretary: Yes, they were so notified. They were notified to do so.

The Chairman: If you want to keep that case alive in that way, and the possibility of re-trying it, then, you must put on your record what you propose to do that this report is withdrawn, because the complainant is not prepared to go on. There is no case. That would not do.

Mr. West: Mr. President, it is the duty of the Trial Board to report on anything that is referred to it. I move that the Trial Board be requested to report on the matter referred to, and any other remarks be stricken out of their report. If the complainant won't go on and stand trial, they will report to that effect, and strike out the rest of that report.

Mr. Wilmerding: Mr. Chairman, has the plaintiff been notified to come on, and has the case been opened by appeal? That is the only way it can be reopened.
The Chairman: I don’t know. The Secretary I presume has done nothing.

The Secretary: Both parties have been notified that the case has been referred to the New York Trial Board, and since publishing the letter which has been referred to, Mrs. Judd, has sent a further communication to the Kennel Club, in support of her charges.

Mr. Willets: May I state, Mr. Chairman, that the reporters outside have stated that they will not say anything further about that report. I asked them if they would cut that part out, and they said they would, so I don’t think that we need be anxious about that report.

Mr. Stewart: I ask the Chairman of the Trial Board be asked to withdraw the report and refer it to the Executive Committee.

Mr. Wilmerding: We have delivered our decision, and I will ask the Secretary to hand it to the Executive Committee.

Mr. West: Ma I ask the President of the New York Trial Board if this plaintiff was notified at what hour the New York Trial Board would sit.

Mr. Wilmerding: No sir, because there was no trial. It could not be opened excepting by appeal, and payment of $25.00. The case was not opened before us.

Mr. Hunnewell: There is a question between the Exe-
The Chairman: In the first place I cannot remain with you but if you precipitate this question you will never reach a conclusion.

Mr. Hunnewell: I ask Mr. President, to have it ended.

The Chairman: You will never reach a conclusion, because it would involve a decision which would practically mean that the Executive Committee supersedes in authority every other constituted body of this club, including the Delegates.

Mr. Hunnewell: If they won’t publish it, let us withdraw it in Executive Committee.

Mr. Lederer: This report is not addressed to the Delegates, or Secretary or anybody. It happens to have been read in the Secretary’s report of this meeting, but the copy has also now been delivered to the Executive Committee, therefore, I fail to see really what is the matter. We have made no report.

The Chairman: Well, gentlemen, I shall not be able to stop. If you go in general session, what are you going to do?

Mr. Lederer: We are not going to touch it in any way
Mr. Schley: The motion was that it was improperly before the Delegates.

The Chairman: You could not make a report of that kind because it has been properly reported, and sent to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club. If they sent a copy to the Executive Committee as a result of their meeting, they would have been obliged, under the by-laws, to have sent a copy of that to the Secretary with a copy of their minutes, and every act that they had performed at that meeting.

Mr. Schley: But the action of the Trial Board in withdrawing from having sent it to the Secretary, could not that be straightened out by the minutes stating that it had never been before the delegates, and was referred solely to the Executive Committee?

The Secretary: It could not be.

Mr. Schley: I know that you do not want to withdraw their report.

The Chairman: Gentlemen, you are going into general session, what are you going to do?

Mr. Lederer: We are not going to do anything.

Mr. Hunnewell: That has not been done in the open meeting yet.

Mr. Lederer: It would be done in the Delegates meeting.

Mr. Hunnewell: The Chairman of the Executive Committee has to state.

Mr. Lederer: And state that he has received a copy of the same report.

The Chairman: I will so state. Then all in favor of the open session will signify.

(Here the open session was resumed).

Motion carried that same be accepted and placed on file.
The Secretary read the report from the Stud Book Committee as follows:

September 20, 1915

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:--

I beg to present the following matters for your consideration.

A report from the Stud Book Committee recommending Rules under which dogs may be registered in the American Kennel Club, to take effect on Jan 1, 1916. Owing to the closing of the Stud Book, on and after Jan. 1, 1916, to American Bred dogs whose parents had not been previously registered was found necessary to adopt new conditions for publication on each registry application form.

The matter of the Russian Wolfhound winning at the later Charity Show was referred to the Stud Book Committee for its decision. The Committee met on July 15, 1915 and its decision was published in the Gazette of August 31, 1915. This report will be read to you, if you so desire.

The Spokane Kennel Club is obliged to cancel its show dates on account of a small epidemic of rabies in that territory, and asks whether it would be possible to refund the license fee and deposit, or can it be arranged to have the said fees and deposits transferred to apply to a show held in 1916.
Mr. Howe Totten has filed a communication appealing from my decision in which I refused to issue a duplicate Championship Certificate, and requests that such a rule be repealed, and that another certificate may be issued to replace the certificate sent to him (which may be represented to have been lost or destroyed on the payment of a fee).

At the late Woodmere Kennel Club show, a rule was violated by accepting an entry with the name of an agent which was a disqualified person. In reply to a communication to the secretary of that club from me, I have affidavit from the judge, the steward, the treasurer, and an exhibitor to the effect that the gentlemen was not permitted to enter the ring at any time during the show, and that the dog for which he was agent was not shown by him. I also have a letter from Mr. Foley, the Superintendent of the Show, who accepted the entry, that in so doing, he did not notice that this person’s name was signed as agent, but that when said person did arrive at the show, he informed said person that he could not act as agent, nor show the dog, and said instructions were carried out. It now rests with this meeting whether any further action should be taken in this matter.

At the late Show of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Massachusetts, held at Auburndale, Mass. a Judge placed a defeated dog as first winners, and an undefeated dog as reserve winners. In reply to a communication from me on the subject, I have a letter from the Judge giving his reason for placing the dogs as he did, and same will be submitted to you for such action as you deem best.

A request from the Chief of the Department of Live Stock of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition on the subject of its forth-coming Dog Show will be submitted to you for action.

I beg to report that Mr. William Rauch and Mr. J. Macy Willets filed excuses for absence at the regular meeting of the Directors held May 18, 1915. I also report that Mr.
S. R. Cutler has presented his excuse for his absence from this meeting, as have also
Mr. James W. Appleton and Mr. Charles W. Keyes.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

Motion carried that same be accepted and placed on file.
The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as published in the Gazette.
The Secretary read the Treasurer’s Report

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

The Report was approved and placed on file.

The secretary read letter from Spokane Kennel Club.

Mr. Stewart: I move that the money be applied to next year’s show as requested.
Mr. Wilmerding: Has there been a precedent on a case of this kind?

The Secretary: Yes.

Mr. Wilmerding: Have we had any precedent of a case of this kind, giving them credit for their fee?

The Chairman: We have returned the money/

The secretary: Only under certain circumstances. I should think the resolution which was offered is the best thing that could be offered. Transfer it to cover the 1916 Show.

The Chairman: I remember several cases where we either refunded the money or have done this same thing.

The Secretary: I remember a case after the San Francisco fire, we refunded the money. That was the only occasion that I know of.

The Chairman: This is a case of rabies, provided it is true.

The Secretary: You do not know anything about that.

The Secretary read letter from Mr. Howe Totten.

Motion carried that it be referred to the Rules Committee.
The Secretary: In the case of the Woodmere Kennel Club, the Superintendent accepted an entry from an Agent, a disqualified person. I immediately wrote the Woodmere Club about it, and I have affidavits here from the judge, the steward, the secretary, a bystander, and from the treasurer of the Club, in which they said that when they discovered this mistake through this violation of the rule, that they informed this disqualified person that he could not take the dog in the ring; not did he enter the ring himself. He did not enter the ring, not did he show the dog in competition.

Mr. Wood: May I ask the Secretary who entered the dog? If he simply entered the dog as agent for an owner that was not disqualified, I do not presume there was any rule broken was there?

The Secretary: Yes, sir. He entered the dog in the name of the owner, and then signed his own name as agent, and that was published in the catalog.

Mr. Wood: I see.

The Secretary: And it distinctly prohibited that.

Mr. Boger: Mr. Chairman, I move that we accept that report, with a reprimand to the superintendent to be more careful in the future. No doubt they did everything they Could to get all these affidavits; the spirit was right.

Mr. Wilmerding: The superintendent, or the kennel club?

The Secretary: “No person under suspicion or disqualification can make an entry, exhibit, or take a prize, act as agent for an exhibitor, or take a dog in the judging ring of any show.”

Mr. Wood: What I meant was that we did not let him act as agent.

The Secretary: But they accepted him as agent.

Mr. Wood: He does not become the agent until he does to the show. But he was not allowed to go there.

Mr. Wilmerding: He is not allowed to participate in the show.

A Member: He is not allowed to make an entry.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I would like to know whether these affidavits were voluntary or requested.

The Secretary: I can explain that. When I wrote to the Club’s Secretary asking for an explanation, he immediately sent my communication to the treasurer. He called at this office. I read the rule to him. He said they had discovered it, and knew it; and he said “I want to do everything in my owner to put the Woodmere Club right with the American Kennel Club”, and he said, “If I can get affidavits from the judge and the steward, will that help me”? I said “if you get such affidavits, I will report the matter to the Kennel Club”, and he brought in five.

The motion was carried.

The Secretary: The next matter is that a judge at the Ladies’ Kennel Association at Massachusetts placed a beaten dog as first in the winners’ class, and an unbeaten dog as reserve. I wrote to the secretary of the show, and he turned my letter over to the judge. (reading letter from the judge)

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I believe that this may be very well settled.

A Member: Mr. President, am I correct when I say that the winning puppy would not meet the other dog until he came to winners’ class?

Mr. Boger: We don’t know yet.

Mr. Willets: I would like to ask for information. Suppose I had a dog in a limit class, and he wins in that class. He is entitled to go into the winners, is he not?

The Secretary: Absolutely.

Mr. Willets: Suppose that dog goes in the open class, and was beaten by another dog, that was not in the limit class?

The Secretary: He is a beaten dog.
The Chairman: Gentlemen, I think that rule applied to one class, and not different classes.

Mr. Willets: Certainly.

The Secretary: I will read the rule, and as I maintain here, his decision was wrong, according to the rule.

Mr. Wilmerding: That has not been the custom, Mr. Chairman, that where the dog is beaten by another dog in a given class that that dog getting second, can go into the reserve.

The Secretary: Yes, if he is beaten by the winner. If he is beaten by the winner, he has to go into the reserve.

Mr. Wood: I move that the judge’s decision be reversed, and that the matter be referred to the rules Committee for further action, if they think it necessary.

The Chairman: How can you reverse the judge’s decision?

Mr. Wood: He is not right.

The Chairman: You cannot reverse the decision.

Mr. Wood: Cancel the one. We can put the other dog up.

Mr. Boger: That is the same thing.

Mr. Wood: I move that the winner of No. 99, be cancelled, and 101 be given the winner. If he gave reserve winners, he cannot hold up winners for it.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: Is there anything we can do, except to cancel that?

The Secretary: No.

Mr. Wood: Cancel the winners dog, and that automatically puts the other dog up the winner.

Mr. Boger: I second the motion.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Wood: I understand that has been referred to the Rules Committee to look into.

The Chairman: You had better put that. You understand the rest of the motion is that it be carried to the Rules Committee?

The Secretary: From the Panama Exposition, here is a long letter here, and it asks if the AKC would accord this show the privilege of points. In other words, they want to hold this show under their own independent rules, but they decline to hold under the AKC rules, and they ask the American Kennel Club to acknowledge their wins towards the championship, by crediting each dog that they put first with so many points.

Mr. Wood: This has all been settled before hand.

The Chairman: How do those rules differ from ours?

Mr. Wood: We have already decided that a year ago
The Chairman: Out of curiosity, do their rules differ very much from ours?
The Secretary: Yes, their way of judging is different.
Mr. Chetwood Smith: You might have a disqualified man showing.
The Chairman: As Mr. Wood remarked, this was decided a year ago.
Mr. Willets: I move the Secretary be instructed to write a letter to that concern, and tell them that this matter was taken up, whenever it was first, but the date of course, and that inasmuch as they refuse to show under our rules, we cannot accede to their request to give any points.
The Chairman: Don’t you think we had better add that we wish them good luck?
The Secretary: I have the following excuses, from the last May meeting, which arrived after the meeting.

J. Macy Willets  William Rauch
And excuses from attending this present meeting from Mr. S. R. Cutler, Mr. J. W. Appleton, and Mr. Keyes.
On motion the same were accepted and placed on file.
The Chairman: Out of information, I should like to know if there are any directors who have been absent from any meeting without any excuses?
The Secretary: I could not tell you. I know one that has Mr. Rockefeller. I have had no excuses from him, and he has not attended the meeting.

Mr. Wood: He is abroad, I think.

The Secretary: I don’t know where he is, I have not heard from him for a long while.

The Chairman: Has he been dropped automatically?

The Secretary: He has not.

Mr. Willets: I think he has been dropped automatically.

The Secretary: It says here it will be taken as a resignation (Referring to rules)

The Chairman: If it was taken as his resignation, I suppose his resignation would be either accepted, or refused. I think some action should be taken to make a precedent in this matter. We have never had action in this kind of matter, and I think in the future it is just as well to start a good precedent in this matter, so that you won’t have your hands tied.

Mr. Boger: He is automatically dropped. He has no say in the matter.

Mr. Wood: He has not been in the meetings for a good number of years, I was going to say.
The Chairman: Well, I think it is time now we should take some stand on the matter as to whether he is to be given the privilege to come back.

Mr. Wood: He is a valuable man to the Kennel Club.

Mr. Boger: Mr. Palmer has only attended two meetings.

(The secretary here read the rule.)

Mr. Boger: Then he is no longer a director.

The Chairman: He is deemed to have resigned; in other words, put in his resignation. It is up to us to accept it or refuse it.

The Secretary: I should think so.

Mr. Wood: This is a very unpleasant precedent.

The Chairman: It is an important precedent, but I think it is one to be made, otherwise there is no object in the rule.

Mr. Wood: To bring the question before the house, I move that Mr. Rockefeller's resignation be accepted.

The Secretary: And give your reasons.

Mr. Wilmerding: Shall we extend the time to the next meeting?

Mr. Wood: Anything to get it before the house, and discuss it.

Mr. Wood: I move that a letter be sent to Mr. Rockefeller that under the by-laws his resignation is in effect, and we shall be glad to hear from you.

The Chairman: I think we had better talk that over.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I would like to have your ruling on that, whether you consider that a resignation.

The Chairman: I should rule that was a resignation before the meeting. That will bring the matter up. We can settle it at this meeting or hold it over.

Mr. Willets: Does not the language of the by-law there, after the resignation, say he ceases to be a Director?

(The Secretary read the rule)

Mr. Wood: We can extend the excuses to him, if we want to.

Mr. Boger: He is automatically out of it. We cannot excuse him.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I therefore move that Mr. Rockefeller be excused for having been absent from the directors’ meetings.

Mr. Wilmerding: Let the Secretary write upon the by-law, and asking his desires.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I second Mr. Wilmerding’s amendment.

The Chairman: I think gentlemen, you want to go very slow about it. Here is a precedent that we are making.

Mr. Wilmerding: We should not like all our members here who are delinquents in that way considered culprits; they have not committed any offense. We are all, I may say a happy family, and good men, and we don’t want to lose anybody.

The Chairman: That is the point. Therefore, we want to make a good precedent.

Mr. Wilmerding: Writing this letter to him won’t hurt/

Mr. Keasbey: That rule was made to obtain a quorum at meetings. If this be done, we shall have trouble with the quorum.

The motion and amendment were carried.

Mr. Keasbey: I would like to present excuses for Mr. George Greer.

Same accepted, together with the excuse of Mr. Bloodgood.

On motion the meeting then adjourned at 4:45pm.

The secretary presented the report of the New York Trial Board, which was accepted by the Chairman of the Executive Committee in behalf of said Committee on Sept 21, 1915.

The Committee took up the report of the New York Trial Board for discussion, and investigated the same.

After a thorough discussion of the matter before the meeting principally by Messrs. Belmont and Bloodgood, the Chairman of the New York Trial Board expressed a willingness to try the case of Judd vs. Baumann, provided both parties in the case agreed in writing to accept the jurisdiction of the New York Trial Board, subject to the consent of the remainder of the Board.

A motion to accept the promise of the New York Trial Board was voted upon and carried.

A request from John W. Brant, Accountant for the Canadian National Live Stock Records, for the last ten volumes of the American Kennel Club Stud Book, was granted, provided said Canadian National Live Stock Records will exchange its official records, and send same to the American Kennel Club.

Adjourned.

The Chairman: Are there any other nominations?

Mr. Stewart: I second the nomination.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the nominations be closed.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion, the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Mr. William Rauch as Chairman of the Finance Committee.
The Secretary stated that he has cast such ballot, and Mr Rauch was declared elected as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, December 20, 1915

To the Board of Directors the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the following matters for your consideration.

The suspension of John Bohrer by the Woodmere Kennel Club for an attempt to assault the Judge of said show, and for using profane and indecent language while in the show ring.

A communication from Mr. George F. Foley recommending uniform prize ribbons to be given at all American Kennel Club Shows.

From the Fort Orange Poultry Kennel and Pet Stock Association requesting a change of title to that of the Albany Dog Club.

A communication from Mr. James G. Rosman inviting the American Kennel Club to appoint a representative to act with representatives of the Dog Lovers’ Protective Association and the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to meet with the Board of Health on the question of the Muzzling Ordinance.
From A. Branshaw of Dallas, Texas apologizing for past action and requesting his reinstatement.

From the Canadian National Live Stock Records requesting us to pass a Rule affecting dogs imported into Canada from the United States.

From the Birmingham Kennel Club appealing from the action of this office in forfeiting the Secretary’s Deposit at its late show.

From O. F. Vedder, Western Agent of the American Kennel Club on account of his disbursements from May 10, 1915 to date amounting to $21.50.

Excuses have been received from August Belmont, George S. West, Samuel R. Cutler, Joseph A. Buchanan, and Chetwood Smith from attendance at this meeting, all having business engagements.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s Report was read as follows:

New York, December 20, 1915

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I hereby submit the financial report from January 1, 1915 to date:
Balance on hand $22,797.75
Receipts to date 35,539.73
Total 58,337.48
Disbursements to date 28,171.93
Balance on hand $30,165.55

I beg to report that all bills for Active Dues and Associate Subscription were mailed on November 30, 1915.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary read a communication from the Woodmere Kennel Club, calling attention to its suspension of John Bohrer for an attempt to assault the Judge of its show and for using profane language while in the show ring.

Mr. Lederer: If I may be permitted the comment, I would say that the Trial Board began to consider this case, and discovered that under Rule XXIII it is a matter for the Directors. A suspension by a show giving club is a matter to be acted upon by the Directors, and must be acted upon by the Directors.

The Chairman: Can we not ask the Trial Board to get information for us?
Mr. Lederer: It might be referred.
Mr. Bloodgood: I do not see why it should go to the Trial Board at all. I would like to ask how it came to the Trial Board.

Mr. Lederer: It was among the papers of various cases which were handed over to it.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not see why it should have gone out of this office. If it comes before the Directors, it ought not to have gone to the Trial Board.

The Secretary: It has just been discovered.

The Chairman: We cannot try the matter here. Mr. Bohrer has a right to defend himself. Why can we not ask the Trial Board to go into the facts and report them to us.

Mr. Wood: He has been suspended?

The Secretary: Yes.

Mr. Wood: Why should we do anything else unless he appeals?

Mr. Lederer: I would like to say that it does seem to me rather a strange procedure to permit a bench show Committee of any bench show club to invoke the penalties of the American Kennel Club, suspension or disqualification. It hardly seems to me fair that such a suspension or disqualification should stand as a penalty imposed by the American Kennel Club on the here say so of the Bench Show Committee of any number of show giving clubs that are recognized by the American Kennel Club. It is a pretty severe penalty that is enforced there.

The Chairman: It has been going on for thirty years.

Mr. Lederer: I might say in calling attention to this that I am not proposing any change in the procedure.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not see how you can change the procedure, because our by-laws say that he shall stand suspended. I think when a man assaults a judge in the ring he has gone about as far as he can go. My idea is that I would disqualify him for life. I would not give him any change at all.

The Chairman: He must have a chance to defend himself.

Mr. Bloodgood: That is not the point I make. On it being proved to me that that man assaulted a Judge in the ring, I would move to disqualify him for life. I do not think that would be too severe a penalty for such an act.

Mr. Lederer: We are dealing with the question of whether or not the allegations are true. Shall we accept the finding of a Bench Show Committee?

The Chairman: That we must do under our Constitution.

Mr. Lederer: Under the Rule the matter must come before the Board of Directors, as I read it, referring to Rule XXIII.

Mr. Bloodgood: We have acted on things like this very often sending it to a Trial Board.

The Chairman: You are disqualifying a man without a chance of defending himself.

Mr. Bloodgood: He did not pay attention to the matter.

The Chairman: He did not answer them, and he did answer me.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not think there should be any consideration for him at all.

He did not answer the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Wood: We do not have to do anything. He was suspended until he appeals.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think all we have to do is to sustain the club. The Secretary wrote him, and he did not reply to his letter.

(Rule covering such case was then read by the Secretary.)

Mr. Wood: I move the suspension be upheld.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The next matter in the order of business is Mr. Holey’s recommendation of a uniform practice which must be given to all recognized shows.

The Chairman: Why not send that to the License Committee.

Mr. Wood: I think it would be a very good rule. I have talked with Mr. Foley. He said if we could put AKC or some definitive insignia on the ribbon it would make it a very much more valuable ribbon for those who would have it.

Mr. Bloodgood: I cannot see why every show-giving club should be forced to give the same sort of ribbons. I cannot see any object in it. I think any Bench Show Club ought to have the right to give the ribbons they want to give. They can put AKC on them, if they like. I think that it would be very much nicer for those shows, but to give the same sized ribbon---

The Secretary: No, he means the color, blue first, red second, and third, yellow.

Mr. Bloodgood: Isn’t that generally so now?

The Secretary: There are a great many of these shows that are held at hotels, one evening shows, where they give out ribbons, and Mr. Foley says that at another show they will decorate their stalls with these ribbons if they hold a little show at a hotel among themselves, thereby giving a false value to their dogs.

Mr. Bloodgood: Isn’t there some rule covering that?

The Secretary: No.

Mr. Wood: They cannot do it if the Superintendent objects to it.

The Secretary: The Superintendent can prevent it.

Mr. Lederer: The Rule on that subject, as I recollect it, merely provides that if ribbons are used to decorate the show they must specify where they won it.
Mr. Howard Willets: I move that a Committee be appointed to take the matter up and report at the next meeting to the Delegates.

Mr. Hooley: I second the motion.

Carried.

The Chairman appointed Messrs. Howard Willets, Theodore Offerman and Charles R. Wood, as such Committee.

The Secretary: I have a communication from the Fort Orange Poultry Kennel and Pet Stock Association requesting the privilege of changing their title to that of the Albany Dog Club. The dog contingent of the club has separated entirely from the poultry contingent, and they are holding separate shows, and it is simply a matter of form. They ask this change of title which is usually granted.

Mr. Bloodgood: I move that their request be granted.

Motion seconded and granted.

The Secretary: Mr. James G. Rossman, President of the Dog Lovers’ Association of America, asks the American Kennel Club to appoint a representative to join with the Dog Lovers’ Association and also the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, to meet the Chairman of the Board of Health in regard to the Muzzling Ordinance. I wrote Mr. Belmont, asking him if he cared to appoint such a representative, because they were to hold their meeting some little while ago, and on October 29th, Mr. Belmont.
Replied, stating as the matter of the Muzzling Ordinance is a serious one he would not presume to act without instructions in appointing a representative of this club. We have had a Committee, on that Doctor De Mund, Mr. Lederer, Mr. Collins and Mr. Offerman, and Mr. Ritchey. They completed their labors and were discharged.

Mr. Ritchey: Since that letter was written Doctor Goldwater has retired, and there is another Commissioner now in that office, and it seems that the matter has drifted to a point where there is little attention paid to dogs on the street, and I suppose Mr. Belmonts' idea was that it was for the American Kennel Club to say whether it would recognize the Dog Lovers' Association by sending a representative of this club to an organization of that kind.

Mr. Boger: I would like to make a motion that we place this matter in the hands of Mr. Belmont with power to act.

Mr. Wood: I second the motion.

The Chairman: You mean with power to act if he wishes to?

Mr. Bloodgood: When you say with power to act, you do not mean that he shall appoint a man?

Mr. Boger: Not unless he wants to.

The Chairman: You are giving him authority to act or
Mr. Boger: Yes, giving him all authority in the matter.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Mr. A. Branshaw of Dallas, Texas, was disqualified three years ago. He made certain charges against the Secretary and the Superintendent of the Texas Kennel Club. A Committee went down to Dallas and took testimony, and Mr. Branshaw had not standing at all from the report of this Committee. He now writes that he wishes to apologize to the American Kennel Club, to the Texas State Fair officials, and the Texas Kennel Club, for his past actions, and respectfully requests that he be reinstated. Mr. Clayton, against whom he made charges, writes us recommending his reinstatement.

Mr. Boger: I move that he be reinstated.

Mr. Bloodgood: I would like to offer as an amendment that inasmuch as Doctor Clayton, in his letter, stated that Mr. Branshaw has been acting in a manner antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, that Mr. Branshaw undertake to do nothing against the American Kennel Club in the future.

Mr. Boger: I accept the amendment.

Motion as amended carried.

Mr. Wood: I would like to suggest that perhaps we ought not to publish this in the Gazette.
The Chairman: I see some members of the Publication Committee present, and it is for them to decide that question.

The Secretary read the communication from the Canadian National Live Stock Records, “That dogs brought from the United States must now be recorded in your book to the Canadian purchaser’s ownership before eligible for registration here. We would like you to pass a similar rule in reference to dogs going into the United States from Canada.”

Mr. Stewart: I move that that be referred to a Committee to be appointed by the Chair.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The Birmingham Kennel Club held its second show. They made their usual deposits of $25.00 for their dates, and $10.00 for their Secretary, which under the rule is forfeited unless that secretary sends to the American Kennel Club within seven days of the closing of their show a full report of that show together with all listings received by it and the Judge’s book. The show, from all I hear, was pretty well mixed up, although it was their second show. The Secretary said that he did not understand that he has to send listing sheets to the American Kennel Club, and as the time had elapsed after we had written to him I forfeited the Secretary’s deposit of $10.00. He appeals from that in this letter which I read. The listing sheets were sent to them. The rule distinctly provides that they must send in these listing sheets. I could not see that there was any excuse for them, as it was their second show, and really I had nothing else to do except to enforce the rule, and it is for this meeting to say whether they will act on the matter or not.

Mr. Wood: I move under the circumstances we return their $10.00, and that they be warned against a repetition of a violation of the rules.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I have here the bill of disbursements from our Western Agent from May 10th to December 18th, amounting to $21.50. The bill appears to be correct.

Mr. Bloodgood: I move that it be ordered paid.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion excuses received from Messrs. August Belmont, George S. West, Samuel R. Cutler, Joseph A. Buchanan, and Chetwood Smith, for absence from this meeting, were accepted.

Mr. Lederer: I move that the Directors accept the recommendation of the Delegates in Executive session.

Mr. Howard Willets: The Secretary and Treasurer stated that by the end of the year we will have considerable money on hand, and that he is finding it very difficult to get any Savings Bank to accept any further deposits. Mr. Bloodgood and I have talked the matter over, and we would suggest that the Finance Committee be permitted to invest a certain portion of our surplus funds in some perfectly safe bonds or short term notes of railways or corporations. We think we could get at least five per cent with a very great measure of safety.

Mr. Wood: I move that be referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Howard Willets: We did not want to take the responsibility without the recommendation of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Boger: Are there certain classes of security we are bound to invest in?

The Chairman: No. If the Finance Committee want a vote of confidence, I think a motion is in order that the Finance Committee be empowered to act as they deem best.

Mr. Hooley: I would make such a motion.

Motion seconded.

The Chairman: I think they have the right anyway.

The Secretary: Yes, they have such right.

Motion carried.

Mr. Wilmerding: I wish to say a word in behalf of the License Committee. From time to time there have been little notes in the different papers regarding the License Committee, calling attention to the fact that there are matters that the License Committee should take up and act upon. I would like to have our labors defined if possible. Of course, I do not think the by-laws go into it far enough. As we understand the situation, we are to take up only such matters as are brought before us by the American Kennel Club or by its Secretary. Some of the papers have the ribbon shows, and referred to other matters which have not been before our body at all, and I think that perhaps you could instruct us as to whether or not we should hunt up what we call outside matters and take them in hand. Otherwise, I think they should come from the Secretary or from the Directors.

Mr. Bloodgood: It does not seem to me that the License Committee should go outside of anything except as turned over to it by the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary: Their duties are clearly expressed in the by-laws. I do not see how they can act on anything outside of matters brought to their attention by the authority of the Club. They have one other duty, and that is, in case a club does not hold a show within eighteen months, an application for a license in the same city or town may go before the License Committee, and they may use their discretion whether they will grant that license or not.
If they grant this license, and if at the expiration of twelve months after such license the show has been held, and a resident members has not held a show, then they have the right to apply for full membership, and it then rests entirely in the discretion of the License Committee whether they will approve of their membership or not.

Mr. Bloodgood: There is nothing for the License Committee to take up unless it is sent to them by the Secretary or the Kennel Club?

The Secretary: No.

Mr. Wilmerding: We are not asking now the privilege of acting on what we call matters out of our sphere, but as I said, some of the papers have accused us of not attending to our duties and particularly in regard to ribbon shows.

The Chairman: Don’t you have to give a license for ribbon shows?

Mr. Wilmerding: Yes, We thought we would like to have our labors defined, if possible, but if it is understood, as we understand it, that we are not to take up anything except as present by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, that is sufficient. We wish this criticism could be stopped, if possible; that is all. Another matter I would like to bring up which I think would clear the atmosphere, is in regard to the Judd-Baumann case, if the report of the Trial Board was published in the Gazette. We have been criticized in some of the papers as not handling the matter properly, and so forth, being inactive, and they have especially criticized me as Chairman of the Board. I think if that report were published it would clear the atmosphere. In fact, I thought it was going to be published when we turned it in. I excepted to see it in the Gazette, but it has not been published, and I ask that it be published.

Mr. Boger: I understand – this is only my recollection – that the report of the Trial Board was principally upon the rights of the Executive Committee.

Mr. Bloodgood: Speaking of the original report. I think you are perfectly correct in that.

Mr. Hooley: It seems to me we went all through this publishing game. I think we paid a very high price for one or two of our publications, and I had a foolish idea possibly it was a pretty good think not to publish any of these things, and I think we all agreed upon that matter some time ago. I do not think that Mr. Wilmerding, or his Committee, or any one of them – I have seen most of the papers and I have not seen anything that has been a personal attack on that Committee or any member of it; nothing to compare with attacks that have been made on the American Kennel Club. While I appreciate the feeling that Mr. Wilmerding or the Committee may have, I should be very much opposed personally to any publication of any of these things that are going to bring us in any possible mix up with these people who are up for trial. I do not think we ought to dignify it any further than we have.

Mr. Wood: That was read here in Executive Session, and it was pretty generally understood that it was not to be published. That was the understanding of the Publication Committee, and the members who were present at that meeting said it was not to be published at that meeting.

The Chairman: You are right.

Mr. Bloodgood: You are perfectly right, and not only did they not publish it, but they did not publish my letter to the Delegates. It was written to the Delegates, and it went to all the Delegates, and mine was not before the Executive Session. Mine was read before it went into the Executive Session.

Mr. Keasbey: I think the Chairman of the Executive Committee said we had no right to publish that.

The Chairman: Do you wish to put your remarks in the form of a motion, Mr. Wilmerding?

Mr. Wilmerding: I move that the report of the Trial Board in the Judd-Baumann case be published.

Motion seconded, and lost.

The Secretary: At the meeting of the Executive Committee of last October, I was told not to publish the minutes. I would like to know whether the minutes of the Executive Committee held yesterday are to be published.

Mr. Hooley: I move that they be not published. I mean the Executive Session, any notes or anything that was made of that. I do not believe any were made. The first part of the meeting was simply an informal meeting.

The Chairman: Mr. Vredenburgh means the report he read today, and wants to know whether that is to be published or not.

Mr. Howard Willets: I move that that report of the Executive Committee meeting held yesterday, as read to the Delegates today, be published. That resolution was passed with the specific intent of having it published.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Wilmerding: I move also that the minutes of the previous meeting of the Executive Committee be published.

Mr. Boger: What good is it going to do to publish them?

The Chairman: This is the report of the whole meeting.

Mr. Bloodgood: Mr. Wilmerding is really trying to stir this think up again. If he wants the fight over again he can have it.

The Chairman: Mr. Wilmerding is out of order. That is the report of the whole meeting that was handed in here.
Mr. Wilmerding: They fit one into the other.
The Chairman: This is a report of both meetings.
Mr. Wilmerding: That includes the previous meeting.
The Chairman: Yes. That is the net result of both meetings.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The following named clubs were elected to membership, Messrs. D. P. Ritchey and Doctor J. E. De Mund acting as Tellers:

Ladies Dog Club of Lowell, and Delaware State Fair, Incorporated.

Credentials from the National Beagle Club, appointing Mr. Raymond Belmont its delegates, were presented, and Mr. Belmont was duly elected.

The Secretary read his report as follows:
To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last quarterly meeting, I have received two applications for Active Membership, and one credential for the appointment of a Delegate. These applications have been referred to the Membership Committee.

I have also received proposed amendments to the Rules from Messrs. J. R. Thorndike, Howard Willets and Ralph C. Stewart. Since these proposed amendments were received, the Rules Committee have not been able to meet and consider same. This Committee is ready to report today, but according to Article XXIII, Section 2, the report cannot be acted upon at this meeting, for the reason that it is obligatory that such report must be published in the Gazette at least two weeks prior to the meeting at which it can be acted upon.

In accordance with Article XVII, Section 3, the Membership Committee has nominated for Associate Delegates for the year 1916, Messrs. A. G. Hooley and Francis G. Lloyd. It also proposed the following Nominating Committee to nominate as Directors the following names: George Greer, George S. West, R. C. Stewart, J. Macy Willets, and A. C. Wilmerding.

I also report the receipt of the following resignations: William G. Rockefeller as a Director. The Salinas Kennel Club and the Del Monte Kennel Club as Active Members.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows:

Present: A. G. Hooley, Chairman; H. H. Hunnewell, R. P. Keasbey, George Greer

I. J. R. Thorndike's suggestion being unadvisable.

II. Referring to Part 3, of the report of the meeting of the Rules Committee on May 24, 1915, the Committee recommends the following to be added to Rule XIV of The Rules Governing Dog Shows.

“Dogs unless specifically entered for specials are not required to compete for same, but the presence of the dog at the show shall be considered as making competition whether they are brought into the ring or not.”

III. No dog at any show given under the rules of the American Kennel Club shall count any championship points by reason of winning the winner’s class, unless there shall have been competition by two or more dogs owned by different exhibitors in at least one of the regular classes. NOT APPROVED.
IV. Amend Section G. of Rule V of Rules Governing Dog Shows to read:--

“Winners of fifteen points in this class under three different judges at least six points of which shall have been won at two three point shows.”

APPROVED.

The Rules Committee recommends that these Rules go into effect immediately on their adoption.

A. G. Hooley

The Chairman: If there is no objection, this report will be ordered printed and made a part of the minutes of this meeting.

The Secretary: The Membership Committee nominated for Associate Delegates Messrs. A. G. Hooley and Francis G. Lloyd. They also suggest to the Nominating Committee to nominate Directors consisting of Messrs. George Greer, George S. West, Ralph C. Stewart, J. Macy Willets and A. Clinton Wilmerding.

Mr. Bloodgood: I move that the recommendation of the Committee be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the resignation of Mr. William G. Rockefeller.

Doctor De Mund: I move that his resignation be accepted with regret.

The Chairman: I think the secretary might be empowered to thank Mr. Rockefeller for the many valuable services rendered by Mr. Rockefeller to the club in years past, and that it is with deep regret that his resignation is accepted.

Mr. Howard Willets: I wish to move that the Secretary be directed to write to Mr. Rockefeller expressing the regret of the American Kennel Club, and its appreciation of his services during these many years past.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I submit the resignations as Active Members of the Salinas Kennel Club and Del Monte Kennel Club. They are in good standing up to January 1st.

On motion, said resignations were accepted.

The Secretary read the following:

Appeal of George W. Smith from the decision of the Chicago Trial Board in the case of Smith vs. Bonham;

MOVED That the hearing of the above appeal be set down for the next regular meeting of the Committee to be held on the third Tuesday in March.

By R. C. Stewart. Interpretation of Article II Section 3 of the American Kennel Club’s By-laws for the guidance of this Committee.

“When witnesses are summoned by this Committee in cases of appeal, they will be heard provided no new evidence is submitted. In case new evidence is offered to this Committee, it must be referred by it back to the original Trial Board to re-open the case and consider the new evidence.”

By R. C. Stewart

“That the License Committee be directed to take up the matter of late entries at dog shows; dogs not on the benches during
“the show, and dogs allowed in a show building that have not been entered at said show.”

The Secretary was directed to write a letter to show Superintendents and notify them that this Committee will take steps to enforce the Rules referring to these subjects.

On motion the meeting was adjourned until Tuesday March 20, 1916.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Louisville Kennel Association was elected as a members of the American Kennel Club.

The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named Clubs:

Central New York Kennel Association         Doctor James G. Class
Boston Terrier Club                         Augustus E. Wright

Messrs. Wood and Kirkpatrick acted as tellers.

The Secretary: The Nominating Committee met on the 15th of this month and have just handed me their nominations in a sealed envelope, which I now open. The Nominating Committee met to nominate directors for the expiring class of 1916, and for a vacancy in the class of 1919, which I now open:

“The Nominating Committee appointed to nominate directors for the expiring class of 1916 and for vacancy in class of 1919 beg to report as follows:

Nominations for expiring class of 1916:

Hollis H. Hunnewell
W. L. Barclay
Theodore Offerman
Henry T. Fleitman
Doctor John E. DeMund
W. Ross Proctor
Vacancy class of 1919: John Sinnott
George Greer
Chairman.

The Chairman: You have heard the report. Are there any further nominations?

Mr. Wilmerding: I would like to nominate Mr. Alison M. Lederer for the class of 1919.

The Chairman: In the expiring class there are six nominations, and in the class of 1919 there are two nominations, Mr. John Sinnott and Mr. Alison M. Lederer.

Mr. Wood; I move that the nominations for the class of 1916 – there seem to be no others – be closed, and the Secretary be directed to cast a ballot for the six gentlemen named.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot.

The Chairman: Now, there are two nominations for the class of 1919, Messrs. Sinnott and Lederer.

Mr. Cutler: I would like to ask, is it a vacancy we are filling?

The Chairman: Yes.

Mr. Cutler: I want to second the nomination of Mr. Lederer. I would like to know just how this thing stands. I understand that Mr. Lederer is at present a director of that class, and there is somebody nominated to take his place.

Mr. Greer: I merely say that there is a vacancy in the class of 1919. Mr. Lederer was appointed for one year, and the time having expired, we have to put in a new director or re-elect Mr. Lederer. The Nominating Committee named Mr. Sinnott for that position.

Mr. Cutler: The present member is Mr. Lederer until his successor is appointed?

The Chairman: Yes.

(During these remarks blank pieces of paper had been distributed to the delegates present for the purpose of balloting, and were being taken up by the tellers.)

Mr. Cutler: I want to second Mr. Lederer’s nomination. I thought I would be allowed to make a few remarks seconding his nomination.

The Chairman: You are entitled to say a few words before we proceed.

Mr. Cutler: In gatherings that I have been in heretofore, it has not been usual to have the ballots collected before the speeches were made.

The Chairman: I do not know why they were made so soon. We will have the balloting done over again.

Mr. Cutler: I am not desirous of that. If there is anything here that is going to be put through, well, put it through, but let me state that some of us will be missing from further meetings if that is the way things are done here. I belong to the same profession Mr. Lederer does, and I cannot see any reason why a lawyer who has given his time and services to this Association should be legislated out of office and some one else put in his place, without any explanation being made for such a course. I know Mr. Lederer have given the best that is in him as a lawyer to this organization, and I think that I, as another lawyer, who has done the same in my modest way, have a right to have something to say. I have been coming over here for thirteen years, and it is due to any man who has been serving this organization to have explanations made when you are asked to put him out of office. I have an idea what the reason is. Somebody differs with an opinion that he has had on a board of which he is a member, and hence we have got to have his successor appointed.

Mr. Howard Willets: If you will allow me, I will make a motion that the ballot be not counted until Judge Cutler has been given an opportunity to state what he desires to say.

Mr. Cutler: I know they will not be counted because there is not any rule in common sense or decency that authorizes the collection of ballots until nominations are closed.

The Chairman: I have said that was a mistake, and I say now that all the ballots have been destroyed. I did not know that the ballots were being taken up.

Mr. Cutler: If I have started anything that I ought not to start, I hope I will be excused, but this is the time to have a full discussion.
The Chairman: Any further nominations?

Dr. De Mund: I move that nominations be closed.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Lederer: Under the circumstances, I am in some doubt as to whether I should offer my resignation as a delegate, and from the Trial Board until a decision shall have been rendered in a case that is now pending before it, because I do not feel that with decency a members of the Trial Board could resign while the matter is before it, and before a decision has been rendered; but, frankly I feel that, as Judge Cutler has said, there is something behind this nomination of some one else to suppliant me. I am perfectly willing not to serve as a director, but I cannot with dignity serve as a delegate or as a members of a trial board. I say I am in doubt as to whether I had better withdraw my name from the ballot. That is, I suppose I can do that, and ask to be excused—or whether it is permissible to go on. I will let the gentlemen advise me. I am advised to stand for election, and I will do so.

Mr. Cutler: I am no advocate for Mr. Lederer, but he has suggested just my thoughts. He is a member of a board, and that board has a decision pending before it. It is not wise, and I do not think it is courteous to this board, while that decision is pending, to send out to the world the fact that we are going anything to indicate that we disapprove of the attitude taken by that board before the decision is made. That is exactly what I had in mind. I did not want to speak about it. I know there is a difference of opinion, but at least we ought to wait until we have had a chance to consider the case, and give a decision, and not prejudge them; not let it be known that the delegates here assembled of the American Kennel Club pass a vote which can be considered in any way of censure to a Trial Board which is doing the best it knows how to do in struggling with a problem which is now before it. I think the policy of this organization should be to stand behind its Trial Boards, and if they are wrong, the remedy will come in another way. Let us not pass any vote here which in any way will be construed to be a censure of that Trial Board until at least we have heard what the decision is.

Dr. De Mund: I do not think that it is quite fair on the part of Judge Cutler to try to befog the issue. We are voting for a director, or not for a Trial Board. Judge Cutler, the gentleman who has just spoken, and something about legislating somebody out of office. The Nominating Committee has chosen to nominate him.

Mr. Wilmerding: No, I nominated him.

Dr. De Mund: I do not think the Nominating Committee should be suppressed in their efforts. I do not think it is the right thing to say that the Nominating Committee were not doing what they thought best.

Mr. Cutler: I think everybody here understands quite well what the real issue is. There is no use of trying to be technical about it. I think he knows it, and I think every man knows the reason why he is not continued as a director as he was last year -- That it is because certain people are dissatisfied with his opinion upon a Trial Board. I think that can be accepted throughout the dog world, that this is the real issue.

A count of the ballots was then made, which showed 23 votes for Mr. Sinnott and 15 votes for Mr. Lederer.

The Secretary: I would like to state that owning to the great rush of business it has been impossible to complete this financial statement for the year 1915 in time to have it audited, and I will therefore only give you the result in a few items of this year. Last year we closed with a balance of $22,797.75/  In the year 1915, December 31, we disbursed $29,794.99 and closed with a balance of $36,473.10.

Mr. Lederer: I move that it be accepted as read and filed.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read his report as follows:
To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last quarterly meeting, I have received one application of Active Membership, which has been approved by the Membership Committee.

Credentials from the Central New York Kennel Association and the Boston Terrier Club have been approved by the Committee. Also the credentials from the California Airedale Terrier Club which came too late to be published in the Jan Gazette, and therefore laid over under the rules until the next meeting.

I will present the certificate of the Tellers on the result of the vote for Associate Delegates.

The proposed amendments to the Rules were reported upon by the Rules Committee and the same have been duly published in the Gazette, and will be presented to you for such decision as you may deem proper.

The following clubs have been automatically dropped from Membership in accordance with the rules: Lenox Dog Show Association, New England Collie Club, Lehigh Valley Kennel Club, Portland Kennel Club, Sonoma County Kennel Club and the Rumson Kennel Club. The Bay Side Kennel Club of Southern California paid by check, which has just been returned marked N.G.
Referring to the New England Collie Club, I received its resignation this date, but as the Club was not in good standing, it could not resign, and it is therefore named in the list of Clubs that have been dropped.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Rules Committee was read, as follows:

I. J. R. Thorndike’s suggestion being unadvisable.

II. Referring to Part 3, of the report of the meeting of the Rules Committee on May 24, 1915, the Committee recommends the following to be added to Rule XIV of the Rules Governing Dog Shows.

“Dogs unless specifically entered for specials are not required to compete for same, but the presence of the dog at the show shall be considered as making competition whether they are brought into the ring or not.”

III. No dog at any show given under the rules of the American Kennel Club shall count any championship points by reason of winning the winner’s class, unless there shall have been competition by two or more dogs owned by different exhibitors in at least one of the regular classes. NOT AP-PPROVED.

IV. Amend Section G, of Rule V of Rules Governing Dog Shows to read:

"Winners of fifteen points in this class under three different judges (at least six points of which shall have been won at two three point shows.) APPROVED

The Rules Committee recommends that there Rules go into effect immediately on their adoption.

Mr. Lederer: I feel that I can do nothing but tender my resignation to the Colorado Kennel Club, and as a member of the Trial Board of this club, to take effect, of you so please, on arriving at a decision in the case of Judd vs. Baumann, now before the New York Trial Board. I go regretfully, of course, but I feel that I can do nothing else. I have the interests of the Kennel Club at heart. I wish I could lay before you exactly what is in my heart as to the reason for me being legislated out of office as director, but perhaps it would not come with good grace.

The Chairman: We are sorry that Mr. Lederer has taken the matter so much to heart as to resign. As his resignation has not yet been accepted, perhaps it will be proper to give Mr. Lederer an opportunity to reconsider it.

Mr. Stewart: I move that his resignation be laid on the table.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Chairman: We will now take up the second clause of the report of the Rules Committee reading as follows: “Dogs unless specifically entered for specials are not required to compete for same, but the presence of the dog at the show shall be considered as making competition whether they are brought into the ring or not.”

Mr. Collins: I move the adoption of that clause.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chairman: “No dog at any show given under the Rules of the American Kennel Club shall count any championship points by reason of winning the winner’s class, unless there shall have been competition by two or more dogs owned by different exhibitors in at least one of the regular classes. Not approved.”

Mr. Wood: I move that the decision of the Committee be upheld and the rule not changed.

Mr. Harby: That proposition I have heard discussed a great many times, and I am speaking now as a delegate of the Pekingese Club. I want to call one thing to the attention of the members, that when the Pekingese were first here there were very few dogs that were not entitled to get a reserve ribbon, because there was no competition. Their owners took them to the South and out West where there was not competition at shows, so they became enrolled as champions though worthless dogs. I do not know what the sentiments of the members here are, but I want to call this to their attention, if they limit the right of dogs to earn the title of champions, that same thing is to be repeated, viz., worthless dogs being held out before the public as champions. I think the limitation of two is entirely too small. This was by reason of not having a rule of that kind that the Pekingese Club of America adopted a rule providing what they call the Pekingese Club championship. Under that rule the dog is entitled to have the title, Pekingese Club champion, provided it has won its championship in the presence of real competition. I brought about the adoption of that rule, and it met with acceptance from every owner of a Pekingese. As a result there has been only one Pekingese Club champion, but, as a further result of it, the competition for that title has been extreme and fierce. Specimens have been brought over here from England better than we could breed here for the purpose of competing for that title. Another result has been that at all shows the number of Pekingese has been greatly increased, so that now in a show which lasts one of more days there are more Pekingese exhibited than any other breed, to the great financial advantage of the show, and it adds great interest to the show. I say that as exemplification of the advantage of that rule. As to other breeds, I am not acquainted with them, but take Airedale Terriers, it was perfectly east to obtain a championship, and now it is not, and other breeds come on from time to time. I think it my duty to bring that to your attention, and I vote in favor of eliminating the right of the dog to earn the title of championship in the absence of championship in the absence of competition. There does not seem to be any reason why the only dog in the class which obtained winners' points, and those go around from one show to another picking out shows where they can finally obtain that title, and then be held out as a real champion specimen when the dog may not be a champion specimen at all. I intend to vote against the report of the Committee rejecting the proposed rule.

Mr. Hooley: As the chairman of that Committee, there is one thing I want to say that appealed very strongly to the Committee. I might cite an instance that would be possible, where a dog is bought by a man in new York or in any of the central stated, and is sent by him three hundred or four hundred miles away to some show. There might be several other dogs entered there. Anything might occur. It might happen that only two or three or possibly one dog arrived there. The man makes his entry in good faith; he pays his expenses for having his dogs set there. The other man does not send his dogs, or the dogs do not arrive, or they do not get entered. Under those circumstances will you penalize that man who is brave enough to send his dog a distance away, and say to him, “You cannot have it because there other dogs did not arrive?” I think it is only fair to the man who does send his dogs, to give him the title he seeks. The Committee went very thoroughly into that. They talked with a number of exhibitors and fanciers about it, and it was the judgment of the Committee that it was in the best interests of the dog world, as we think, that we disapproved of this proposed change.

Mr. Wood: The judge always has the privilege of withholding a winners’ ribbon if he does not want to give it, and I think the License Committee has the right to say what dog shall have it. As the principal discussion seemed to be on the subject of new breeds, the gentleman who spoke previously to the chairman of the Rules Committee, took it up from the standpoint of new breeds, I should think that the License Committee would be perfectly able to take care of that.

The Secretary: I would like to state that a number of years ago we had two rules that we had to rescind. One was that there ought to be competition in the winner’s class, and another was that it depended upon the amount of money that they gave. It was found to be a hardship to the man who, as Mr. Hooley states, at large expense sent his dog to a distant show, and through no fault of his there was no competition. Therefore he had his expenses, the chance of injury to his dog, bringing his dog back without any reward, simply because somebody else did not enter and compete against his dog. Therefore the Club rescinded those rules.

The question being put, the delegates voted to uphold the decision of the Rules Committee.

The Chairman: Section IV. Amend Section G of Rule V of Rules Governing Dog Shows to read: “Winners of fifteen points in this class under three different judges (at least six points of which shall have been won at two three point shows.) APPROVED.”

Mr. Boger: I believe the precedent was that any dog which has annexed championship points previous to this, would come under the old ruling. I move to amend the proposed amendment of the Committee, that any dog which has acquired championship points under the old rule will have the right and privilege to continue in the winner’s championship under that rule.

Mr. Boger’s amendment seconded and carried.

The Chairman: I will put the motion now as amended.

The motion as amended was carried.

Mr. Wood: I move that the matter of Mr. Thorndike’s suggestion be laid on the table.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chairman: The Rules Committee recommends that these rules go into effect immediately upon their adoption. There is a rule here which provides that no rule shall become ef-effective until the expiration of ninety days after its passage. Therefore these cannot go into effect until after 90 days have elapsed.

The Secretary: There is a matter in my report about the Bay Side Kennel Club of Southern California, whether that club is automatically dropped or not. There was a bad check which I had redeem.

Mr. Lawson: Id it not possible there may be some mistake about that?

The Secretary: I do not know. It was a check from California which I had to redeem this morning for their dues.

Mr. Boger: I think that sometimes those officers are filled by people whose knowledge of business is very limited and I move that the Secretary write to the Kennel Club mentioned and notify them of this shortcoming, and see what the reply is.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Hooley: Would it not be advisable to put a time limit on that?

The Secretary: It has got to be at least fifteen days.

Mr. Hooley: I move that if the check is not redeemed in twenty days the club be dropped.

Mr. Boger: I accept the amendment.

Motion as amended seconded and carried.
Mr. Wood: I was requested by an old member of the Lehigh Valley Club, who said that he had been written to about the payment of this year’s dues, and to state that the club disbanded last year, and that they could not consider the matter of dies because there were no officers—indeed there was no club left, and there was nobody to write and resign.

Mr. Howard Willets: At the last meeting there was a Committee appointed to look into the matter of having uniform ribbons for winning dogs at all shows, under the rules of the American Kennel Club. We are now ready to report if you are read to hear it:

REPORT OF RIBBON COMMITTEE.

Your Committee recommends the following regulations be added to the Rules Governing Dog Shows:

All organizations, or clubs holding dog shows under the Rules of the American Kennel Club, shall after June 1, 1916, use the following colors and designs for their prize ribbons or rosettes:

First: Blue
Second: Red
Third: Yellow
Fourth: White
Winners: Royal Purple
Reserve Winners: Royal Purple and White
Specials: Green
Each Ribbon or Rosette shall be at least 2” wide and approximately 8” long and bear on the face of same the seal of the American Kennel Club, the name of the prize, and name of Show-giving club, with numerals of year and date of show. The seal shall not be less than the diameter of the Standard Seal 1-7/8” in diameter, except that where the Show-giving Club wishes they may use their club colors for winners’ rosette and may reduce the size of the AKC seal one-half.

There shall be printed on all Ribbons and Rosettes numerals giving the year in which the show was held. Said numerals shall be at least 5/8” in height. Where rosettes are used, the ribbons may be more narrow, but the numerals and seal of the American Kennel Club must be stamped on the rosettes.”

At the suggestion of two show-giving clubs, we added to that that in case of winners, if the show-giving club has colors, they may use a rosette for the winner’s classes made of ribbons of club colors.

“No show superintendent, Secretary, or Bench Show Committee shall allows any ribbon not won at an American Kennel Club Show to be used for decorations, or attached in any way to the Benches at any show given under the Rules of the American Kennel Club.

Any show-giving organization not conforming to the above regulations, shall be fined the sum of Twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for any show at which the offense may occur.

There is no desire on the part of your Committee to suggest curtailing the size of ribbons or rosettes to be used by any show-giving organization, but simply that they believe ribbons should not be smaller than 2” in width and approximately 8” in length and should bear on the face of them the seal or insignia of the American Kennel Club 1 7/8” in diameter.

It seems to your Committee important that Exhibitors should not be allowed to use ribbons won at shows, given under other rules than those of the American Kennel Club. This frequently results in ribbons being used for decorations, which have been won at shows antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, or at small shows of little merit.

Sales of dogs have frequently been made to visitors at American Kennel Club show in the strength of a large exhibit of ribbons which influence the purchaser, whereas the prizes won in many cases were at shows having little or no competition.

Further your Committee wishes to advise you that the rule of standard colors is now carried out by the Canadian Kennel Club, and we understand also by the English Kennel Club at all their championship shows.

Your Committee also recommends that the American Kennel Club copyright the ribbons having its seal printed on them, and that each show-giving club should obtain permission of the American Kennel Club to use such ribbons at each of their shows.

The question having been brought up as to the use of a special seal or insignia of a show-giving club your Committee wishes to report that it was not their intention to suggest curtailing in any way the design of ribbon and that all clubs may use their own insignia and place same in such position as they wish, providing the use of such insignia does not interfere with the seal of the American Kennel Club.

For your further information your Committee begs to report that ordinary silk ribbons of the above character, that is 2” in width, and 9” long with the date of the year and the seal of the American Kennel Club, can be purchased from a number of dealers for approximately six cents per ribbons, and that several ribbon manufacturers have stated that they will be glad to bear the expense of making the dies for the seal and the yearly numeral without expense to the show-giving club, provided a reasonable number of ribbons were purchased.”

Mr. Hooley: I move that the report be adopted.

Dr. De Mund: I would move to strike out the 2 inches wide and 8 inches long. It is all very well for clubs that are in New York to show 8 inch ribbons, but clubs in the South often have to depend on certain lots of ribbon that they get there, and it might be 6 inches long. I think it would cover the intent if they would recommend a size, but not make this arbitrary. It would work a great hardship on a great many small clubs.

Mr. Wilmerding: I second the motion.

Mr. Howard Willets: Do I understand you to say that the ribbons should be less than 2 inches wide?

Dr. De Mund: It is length I spoke of. I have known of some clubs that cannot afford to pay very much money for ribbons, but have been able to get odd lots of ribbon about 6 inches in length donated to them by some store in the town or city in which they are holding the show. By making that club pay six cents for their ribbons would work quite a hardship.

The Chairman: Then why don't you make your motion to strike out “8 inches long”?

Dr. De Mund: I will.

Mr. Roy: I would like to offer an amendment to the amendment to strike out the red tape and just adopt the colors only. There are a great many cases where people can get their own ribbons. Why insist on another lot of red tape in connection with shows? We have enough now. If we simply adopt the color scheme and adopt those at all dog shows, we can leave the details to the clubs.

Dr. De Mund: I will accept that
Mr. Wood: The Committee went into this matter very fully and very carefully, and wrote to a great many places and asked many questions. It seems to me that if we adopt a standard ribbon it will be more likely to work out as a definite proposition than if they are of all different sorts. I really believe that the seal of the American Kennel Club should go on the ribbons. I think it is of value. We considered the matter thoroughly, and the seal seems to be the neatest and best design we could think of it put on the ribbons. The question of length is not very important, but if you take a deal 1 7/8 inches wide and put a suitable sized letter on it, you ribbon will look very curious if it is not pretty near 8 inches long.

Mr. Hooley: I think this think was all gone into the other day, and the idea of having these ribbons was to avoid all this question of cheap ribbons.

Mr. Lawson: It seems to me the main point is to have the seal on the ribbon. The question of whether it is an American Kennel Club show. That is the point we are aiming at, it seems to me.

Mr. Roy: It seems such a trifling matter to state about the type of ribbon. If you want to adopt the principle that the American Kennel stamp be on, all right, but to restrict that club to a certain ribbon—actually a six cent ribbon, makes it prohibitive in some cases to hold a show.
I know of cases where they could not afford to pay six cents for them. I think we should leave that to the show people themselves.

Mr. Wood: There is nothing in the report, as I remember it, stating that the ribbon must cost six cents. We looked it up to see what the ribbons would cost, and advised the delegates to that effect. If they can get a different kind of ribbon cheaper, there is nothing to prevent them doing so, so far as the report is concerned.

Mr. Howard Willets: We investigated the matter and the ribbon makers said they would furnished ribbons like that for six cents.

Mr. Hooley: I know of a show that is coming on that has a very handsome ribbon, and I would like to state that that ribbon cost them 4 ½ cents. I question whether we want a club to give a show who cannot pay three or four cents for a ribbon. I would not think that club was financially able to father a show if they are so limited in means that three or four cents for a ribbon is prohibitive to them. I do not wish to start any argument or anything on this question, but I have met people in all the different towns at the different shows, and I have yet to hear of a show-giving club that would hesitate to pay three or four cents for a ribbon. I do not doubt that ribbons for those shows could be purchased for two cents. Usually in the Case of these ribbons, many of the smaller towns, cheaper shows get their ribbons for nothing. They hold up a merchant for them. I think we should respect our Committee.

Mr. Barnard: I desire to state that the Philadelphia club has adopted this ribbon, and the cost of 4 ¼ cents, the same as last year, the ribbon as suggested Committee.

Mr. Roy: I would like to incorporate in the amendment that the stamp or seal of the American Kennel Club must be on every ribbon.

Mr. Howard Willets: There are two points here I want emphasized. One is that every club must have the American Kennel Club seal on their ribbons, and that the seal should be copyrighted by the club and permission given. Those are the two points we want to make. We would rather have a uniform sized ribbon at all shows, but that was simply a suggestion.

The question was put to vote on Mr. Roy’s proposed amendment and lost.

The Chairman: Dr. De Mund’s motion is before you now.

Dr. De Mund: I move to amend the report by inserting the words “approximately 8 inches.”

Seconded and carried.

The report of the Committee as amended was then carried.

Mr. Roy: I am instructed by the American Collie Club to bring before you the matter of the registration of American bred puppies. I have a copy of a letter sent on the 18th of January to the Secretary, which I will read.

January 19, 1916

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary
American Kennel Club, 1 Liberty Street, NYC.

Dear Sir:

I sent you registration papers for a collie bitch puppy. The registration papers and money were returned because the sire was not registered according to the new ruling. Now, the sire, Champion Laund Limit, is an English Collie and one of the best known Collie dogs in the world. Evidently someone in the office has made a mistake.

I informed your office that the bitch was bought in England. I then had her mated to Laund Limit. She, the bitch, whelped here in America. I have two more across now waiting to be mated to Limit.

You can readily see that I cannot register the sire, as he is not my property. If this new ruling is right, it will stop all importation. The dam of the puppy refused registration has been registered. Kindly let me hear from you.

“Mr. Comerford”

I informed the Secretary that I was going to bring this matter up for a ruling.

Whether it is referred to the Rules Committee, I am quite willing to leave it in any way the delegates would like, but the question is this: The Secretary informed me that there was only one way to do that, and that was to get the permission from the English owner of that dog to register him in the American Kennel Club.

The Chairman: That matter would go before the Stud Book Committee ordinarily. A motion would be in order to refer that to the Stud Book Committee where it belongs.

Mr. Cutler: I think it would be well for the same Committee to make a positive ruling on this subject, so that the publish will understand what the rule is. I move that the matter be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

The Secretary: With power or to report back?

Mr. Cutler: To report back, as giving their construction, so that the rule can be stated. I understand that the gentleman who brought this up asks for a ruling from some Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published the Gazette.

The Secretary: The election of President of the American Kennel Club is now in order. Before any nominations are made for that office, I should like to read a letter I received from Mr. August Belmont, dated Jan 10.

The Secretary then read the letter which stated that owing to pressure of business and lack of time to devote to the club and its affairs, Mr. Belmont was desirous that his name be not mentioned for President of the American Kennel Club for the ensuing year; that he had the interests of the Club at heart, and would be very glad to offer such assistance as he could at any future time.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the letter be accepted with regret and that the Secretary write a letter to Mr. Belmont stating the thanks for the American Kennel Club for his services during the past years.

Mr Wilmerding: I think it would be proper and suitable if a Committee were appointed to draw up a set of resolutions expressing our regret in proper form, and sending it to Mr. Belmont.

Mr. Hooley: If that is an amendment to my motion, I accept it.

Motion as amended accepted and carried.
The Chairman: I appoint Messrs. Wilmerding, Rauch, Greer and Howard Willets as such Committee.

Mr. Wood: I would like to nominate Mr. H. H. Hunnewell as President of the American Kennel Club for the ensuing year.

Mr. Stewart: I second the nomination.

Mr. Bloodgood: I move that nominations be closed.

Mr. Hunnewell resigned the Chair to Mr. Bloodgood.

Mr. Bloodgood: Are there any other nominations?

Mr. Boger: I move that nominations be closed.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Howard Willets: I move that the Secretary be directed to cast a ballot for the election of Mr. Hunnewell as President.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The Secretary takes great pleasure in casting a ballot for Mr. H. H. Hunnewell as President of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Hunnewell: Gentlemen, words fail me to express the honor which you have conferred on me electing me president of your club. I thoroughly realize the tremendous duties that go with the office, and I hope and trust that I will be able to satisfy your confidence. I will do all in my power to further the interests of the American Kennel Club. I have been associated with you a great many years, and I shall endeavor to carry out the mutual desire of us all, and that is to keep up a truthful attitude to our friends and to the dog world. I am not readily accessible, being far away from the home office, but if I find this in any way detrimental to the Club, I shall gladly step out, but I am sure that the officers will help me in that respect. I, however, am always ready and willing to come on at any time that my presence is considered necessary. I shall keep in constant touch with the office, and do the best I can in that way. It is with feelings of misgiving that I take the position that Mr. Belmont has so long filled so admirably, who has done so much for the Club from its beginning, aiding it financially and mentally, and in every other way, carried it to its present state, where he leaves us with a wonderfully big association, which has gained the respect of everybody who is fond of the dog, of true sportsman and lovers of fair play. I think the American Kennel Club owes a great debt to Mr. Belmont for all that he has done for it, and I shall personally let him know that I appreciate it fully as much, if not more, than anybody else. I want to thank you again very much for the honor you have conferred on me, and I know you will treat me as I, with all my shortcomings, deserve.

President Hunnewell then took the chair.

Mr. Wood: I would like to nominate for the New York Trial Board Messrs. John Collins, Chairman, Henry T. Fleit-mann and Theodore Offerman.

Mr. Boger: I would like to nominate Messrs. A. C. Wilmerding, A. M. Lederer and John G. Bates as members of the New York Trial Board.

Dr. De Mund: I was chairman of the New York Trial Board and was elected as a member of the Executive Committee. It was not passed on officially; no resolution was made, but it was talked over at that time, and it was an unanimously decided that the chairman of the Trial Board would have to sit on the Executive Committee, and I resigned as chairman of the Trial Board.

Mr. Wilmerding: The matter of being on the Trial Board as chairman and being on the Executive Committee of course applied to my case. The matter has been discussed considerably, and I think it is not exactly the correct thing for me to be on both boards. Furthermore, I have no particular desire to sit on the Trial Board, as the work is without end or limit. The matter comes up, that we have a very important trial ahead of us, which we are about three-quarters through with, and which will take possibly another month’s time to complete, and as I said to you a few days ago if I were continued on the Trial Board, that is, I am not asking the privilege – I am not seeking it—when I am through with this case I shall retire. I shall be glad to be relieved of its many duties.
The Chairman: You would not go out of existence until your slate is cleaned off. You would have to continue your Trial Board.

Mr. Wilmerding: I do not see it that way.

The Chairman: That would seem only reasonable. You would not expect another Trial Board to take up your work?

Mr. Cutler: It has been suggested here that because a man had been elected to the Executive Committee he was ineligible as a member of the Trial Board. I see nothing inconsistent with the position. It is a fact that in the large majority of the States of the United States you try a case before a judge and you take an appeal to what is known as the Appeal bench. The judge before whom the case was tried is a member of that court. In most States, that is, in a great many States—in New Hampshire, the State where I began practicing law, it was the custom—it was considered improper for the judge who had heard the case in the Court below to sit with the judges in bank when they considered that case.

The Chairman: That is my point.

Mr. Cutler: But in Massachusetts it is not the point because they say there that a judge who heard the case below knows better about the facts and can inform his associates about them to their advantage, so it is a fact that in Massachusetts, where I practice now, the Judge before whom you try a case sits in the full bench when the case is considered, and have had the experience many times of arguing before the same judge the second time. That is, he, with all four associates, has asked me questions if I did not contend so and so when I was before him at the court below.
There are two theories, and I will not say which is the correct theory. It was my lot to have been a member of the show Committee that decided a case, and then afterwards had an appeal taken from the show Committee to the trial board in Boston, of which I was a member. That was when the Trial Board was first established, and I considered it established a precedent in sitting with my associates when that question came up. So, if a gentleman is made a member of the New York Trial Board and is also made a member of the Executive Committee, if he should follow the precedent that has already been established he could refrain from sitting with the other members when the case which had come before the New York Trial Board came before the Executive Committee. I see no real difficulty with the situation of having a member of a Trial Board a member of the Executive Committee. The question has been raised that if you gentlemen re-elected the Trial Board what their position would be as to cases which have already begun. I may go out of office. I do not know what the usual practice is. I tried a case before a Commission a few weeks ago, and one of the members of the Commission went out of office, and then the others hurried up and rendered their decision on the 31st of December, so it would not go over into Jan for fear that the question would be raised whether a new member would have the right to consider it.

The Chairman: We have a right to ask this Trial Board to clean up their slate, and then the new Trial Board would take up the new business as it came along.

Mr. Buchanan: I move we proceed to a vote.

The two sets of names put in nomination as members of the New York Trial Board were then balloted for, resulting in the election of Messrs. John Collins, Henry P. Fleitmann and Theodore Offerman.

The Chairman: What is your pleasure in regard to the present cases? Do you want them to go ahead with them?

Mr. Bloodgood: I move that they be empowered to finish up their cases.

Mr. Wilmerding: I do not think that they will accept the power. I do not know what the others will do. I am speaking for myself now, that I will not continue the case.

Mr. Howard Willets: I beg to submit the proposition that as long as the old Trial Board is going out of office and a new Trial Board is elected, the old Trial Board is not in office and they cannot receive any power because they are not a Trial Board. They cannot go on with the work. They do not constitute a Trial Board.

Mr. Hooley: Can the new Trial Board take up the work of the old Trial Board then?

Mr. Bloodgood: I withdraw my motion.

Mr. Keasbey: I nominate Messrs. W. L. Barclay, chairman, J. Sergeant Price, Jr. and Russell H. Johnson, Jr. as members of the Philadelphia Trial Board.

A communication from our Western Agent in the case of H. M. Robertson and Doctor W. C. Billings stating that the above case has furnished sufficient evidence upon which to base a searching investigation.

An appeal from James A. Dutton against the decision of the Western Beagle Club.

A communication from the German Shepherd Dog Club asking for a change in the classification of the German Shepherd from medium sized dogs to that of large dogs. This information is addressed to the Rules Committee.

A communication from A. Branshaw in the matter of his re-instatement.

Pursuant to Rule XXIII governing dog shows, I beg to report the following suspensions: Miss Marion Kennedy, by the American Pomeranian Club; Mrs. J. C. Mallery by the Central New York Kennel Association; Charles G. Gilbert and E. Clark by the Ladies Kennel Association of Southern California.

Respectfully submitted,

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Secretary: I have a communication from the San Francisco Trial Board in the case of Robertson versus W. C. Billings. They came to the conclusion that that was a matter outside of this particular case; that it was a rather serious one, and they want permission to go into the matter and investigate it fully. They ask further consideration of the matter.

Mr. Stewart: I move that the San Francisco Trial Board be appointed a Committee of Investigation to look into the matter and report back to the Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I submit the appeal of James A. Dutton against the decision of the Eastern Beagle Club. Not being an appeal from a decision of a Trial Board it must come before the directors.

Mr. Wood: I move that it be referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: At the last meeting Mr. A. Branshaw, of Dallas, Texas, applied for reinstatement, and I was directed to inform him that if he would send a communication apologizing for his actions, and agreeing to abide by the American Kennel Club rules, he would be reinstated. I had a letter dated December 28th from him which I read. On the strength of that I reinstated him, Mr. Branshaw, with the authority given me by the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Wood: I move that it be accepted and placed on file, and that the Secretary’s action be confirmed.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Miss Marion Kennedy was suspended by the American Pomeranian Club for removing her dog without permission from their show, and her unseemly manner while in the ring. I notified Miss Kennedy of this suspension, and gave her the opportunity to show cause before the Board of Directors why that suspensions should not be removed. She wrote an apology to the Executive Committee of the Pomeranian Club. The American Pomeranian Club passed a resolution that so far as it was concerned, they withdrew all charges against Miss Kennedy and were willing to reinstate her, but of course they could not speak for the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Stewart: I move that she be reinstated.

Mr. Howard Willets: I second the motion.

Carried.

The Secretary: Mrs. J. C. Mallory, of Newport, Rhode Island, was suspended by the Central New York Kennel Club December 3rd. I read a communication from Mrs. Mallory.

Mr. Wood: I move we go into executive session.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Board of Directors went into executive session.

The Committee of the Whole arise and through its chairman reported the following resolution: That the Secretary be directed to notify Mrs. Mallory that the Board of Directors has sustained her suspension and that the proper procedure would be to apply to the Central New York Kennel Association to recommend her reinstatement.

The Secretary: The Ladies Kennel Association of Southern California suspended Messrs. E. Clark and Charles Gilbert for misconduct at their show of November 11th, 1915. I simply report this to the directors.

Dr. De Mund: I move the suspension be sustained.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I have two communications here, one from W. R. Price, and one from Mr. M. E. Harby, which are practically the same, on the question that Mr. Roy brought up about the registration that went into effect on January 1st.

Mr. Stewart: I move that they be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I have a letter from Mr. Webster, of Newport. He has made an arrangement with the Lynn Club that his dogs, as they could not arrive at that show at the time advertised—but they would accept his dogs when they did get there, and that they would fix a time for judging them. He states that the dogs were there within a very few minutes of the time stated. He had his kennel manager with him and he got there late, and after they arrived they found that after his kennel manager had gone to lunch they judged his dogs before the time that they agreed to do so. The Lynn show people in answer to that state that inasmuch as Mr. Webster’s dogs arrived early in the morning, they did not suppose for a moment that they would have to retard the judging of them in order to comply with their agreement when they understood the dogs were not to arrive until later. He would not make any charges against them. He wants to know if the American Kennel Club will permit a club to break such a promise as that.

Mr. Wood: I move that the matter be referred to the Boston Trial Board, not exactly as a Trial Board, but as a Committee to investigate and report.

Mr. Bloodgood: I second the motion.

Carried.

The Secretary: The German Sheepdog Club respectfully requests that rule 25 of the Rules governing clubs be amended so that German Sheepdogs may be removed from their present classification of medium sized dogs and included under the classification of large dogs.

Mr. Hooley: I move that be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I have here excuses for absence of Messrs. Palmer, Keyes, Wolcott and Cutler from the December meeting, and from Mr. Alfred C. Maclay from this meeting.

Mr. Stewart: I move that their excuses be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: At the last meeting of the Executive Committee I was directed to communication to the superintendents of dog shows on three questions. One was accepting entries after the entries closed; another was, dogs kept in their crates during the continuance of the show, only taken out to be judged, and the last is dogs brought into the show building that were not entered at that show. I prepared the regular letters, had them printed, and they are going out. In connection with that there was a Mrs. Locke who called here this morning from Chicago. She is the Secretary of the Irving Park Kennel Club. She wants to prefer charges on all those headings against a man who is superintending a great many of the Middle West Shows. She states that before she knew the rules that she was solicited by him to solicit entries for certain shows, naming the shows, after the entries closed. She solicited and turned in twelve entries after spending two days work on it. She also said that one of the clubs broke into her office to try and get her minutes book; that the president of the club, in trying to twist her minute book from her hand at the meeting sprained one of her fingers. She also says that while she was at a meeting, her house was broken into and searched for her minute book, but her minute book was locked up in a safe deposit vault. She said that she would like to bring this matter before the American Kennel Club as to accepting entries, and so forth, and further than that, that the dogs that were absent by direction of this superintendent were not marked absent, and states that he will guarantee for $250 to superintend a show that will be two points rate. As this comes in line with this very action of the Executive Committee the other day, this lady says: “I cannot afford to do missionary work, to put up a deposit.” I told her exactly what we were undertaking to do; that she should send these different allegations, each one supported by affidavits; that I would ask the American Kennel Club if they would investigate this matter without a formal charge, and making a deposit.

Dr. De Mund: I move that the matter be taken up by the directors at the next meeting, and that she be directed to furnish us affidavits and evidence in the matter without any deposit.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.
EXECUTIVE SESSION

Mr. Wood: I do not know Mrs. Mallory, but I was at the Show, and some of the statements contained in that letter are not, in my opinion, borne out by what happened there. I don’t know whether any one else saw what happened, but I saw her refuse to deposit five dollars. She said she did not have it. Several people offered to loan the money. She refused to take it. She went back to her hotel and was apparently, so far as anybody could see, all the next day in the hotel, had sufficient money to pay three or four days board bill at the Utica Hotel for herself and her maid. I don’t believe we want to take such action against women as we do against men, but that is the situation as I saw it in Utica.

Mr. Bloodgood: Did Mrs. Mallory apologize to the Club that suspended her?

The Secretary: I have another letter that Dr. De Mund just handed me. I don’t know what that is.

Mr. Bloodgood: We just reinstated Miss Kennedy on the basis that the show-giving club withdrew their charges. We must support our members. Personally I think out motion to reinstate Miss Kennedy—we let her off very easily. I think she ought to be censured for her action. I think we must uphold the members of this club. She certainly apologized to the club that suspended her.
Mr. Stewart: I move that this matter be referred to the Boston Trial Board.

Dr. De Mund: There are no charges against the woman. She has been suspended. She does not go to the trial court. She comes to the directors.

MR. Bloodgood: If it is a question of sustaining a member of the club, we certainly should have something, or our members should have something showing they were justified in suspending her on her action.

Mr. Howard Willets: I move that the Secretary be instructed to write to the Central New York Kennel Association and ask them their wishes in the matter.

Motion seconded by Dr. De Mund.

Mr. Cutler: I hesitate to say very much about this case because the matter has been referred to the Boston Trial Board, and we did have a partial trial.

The Chairman: Why should it have gone to the Boston Trial Board?

Mr. Cutler: I do not know, but I suspect the reason. The custom heretofore has been to send—I think an order has bee made to send it to the Trial Board where the defendant lived, and the defendant lives within the jurisdiction of the Boston Trial Board.

The Chairman: She is a New York woman. She lives in Newport, Rhode Island, in the summer time.
Mr. Cutler: As a matter of fact, I believe she is down in North Carolina now. We sent her a registered letter and it came back, not received; but that did not indicate she was not there. What I rose to say--- I do not care--- I prefer you should not send it to the Boston Trial Board. What I wanted to say was that it seemed to me much better policy to send all of these cases to the different Trial Board. I do not think we can do these cases justice, coming here in the afternoon when we want to get away, and go about them in this desultory manner. I think there is a great difference. Whether it is right or not we tried a case a while ago and the people came before us. I looked them over and came to the conclusion that one of the men was perfectly innocent. He did not know anything at all about dog shows. He picked up his dog and carried it out right in the presence of the policeman and everybody else, and he did it so openly that the superintendent and the police thought he was going to bring it back again. Another man was brought before us at the same time, and he had been going to dog shows and knew the ropes. It was perfectly apparent when you saw them both together that one of them was morally guilty. So here we have got two women. The last one leaves a good deal to be desired in her apology. I should say the first one was a lady and the other one might not be.

Mr. Howard Willets: That is why I wanted to get the particulars from the club.

Mr. Cutler: We got a letter from the Utica Club to reinstate her, so I have heard here. The letter which they wrote to us stated the case, and said that one of the men standing by offered to loan this woman money enough to leave as a deposit. I think it was one of the officers or superintendents, and she picked up her dog and went out. If these cases are handled by a Trial Board, who will have the patience to look into the matter so that it can be handled with justice to all parties, but taking them as we know them here, and listening to their letters, I fear many times we may do an injustice to all the parties, and I think it would be wise to refer it.

Mr. Wood: This matter comes here. This is a suspension by the Central New York Kennel Association. There is no reason why we should communicate with them. She has been called a defendant. She is not a defendant yet. We should send her a letter and advise their decision. Why should we write them anything further about it. If she wants to appeal she has the right to appeal, and If she does not want to appeal, why should we have anything more to do with it except to write a letter stating she has a right to appeal?

Dr. De Mund: The rule distinctly provides what should happen in these cases. The clubs have the right to suspend anybody for an infraction of our rules. The show Committee suspended Mrs. Mallory. If she appeals from their decision, she appeals to the directors, and they can dispose of the case as they see fit. Mrs. Mallory has asked for reinstatement. It is not an appeal from anything. The motion to write to the Central New York Central Association, and ask their wishes in the matter, I think is a proper one.

Mr. Bloodgood: It seems to me you certainly want the wishes of the Kennel Club. Mr. Wood was making the same point that I made at the beginning. We must sustain our members. It has been always our rule that when a bench show suspended anybody they were suspended until they appealed. She has a right to appeal. She does not appeal. She asks for reinstatement.

Mr. Hooley: It seems to me we have not anything to do in the matter at all until that Association writes and states to us that they would like the woman reinstated or something to that effect. I do not know why we should ask them for anything.

The Chairman: The motion before the house is that the Secretary write to the Central New York Kennel Association and ask them their wishes in the matter.

Mr. Howard Willets: I think Mrs. Mallory’s letter requires a reply, and I would suggest that the reply be made that her remedy is an appeal to the American Kennel Club.
She has not appealed it there, and she has not asked for reinstatement, either one.

Mr. Cutler: I wish Mr. Stewart would read the law here. It seems to me it is perfectly plain. A show giving club may suspend any person for an infraction of their rules, and it then says the Board of Directors shall consider the suspension at their next meeting, and it is not necessary for there to be any appeal. It is our duty to consider it at the next meeting. Now, if at the next meeting the Board of Directors see fit, as they have on one occasion before, to refer the matter for investigation to a Trial Board, they have a right to have an investigation made and a report made back to the directors, and then the directors must act upon the report of the Trial Board. As I said I do not like to talk too much on this case. I have acted in it already. The Boston Trial Board has already acted, and you will see that through our efforts we have elicited a list of witnesses, and it was our purpose to correspond with those witnesses, and find out what they would say. I think it is not necessary for us to ask the Utica Club what they want us to do. They have already done what they thought was right. The question is now, shall we sustain them, and if we have light enough upon the subject now it is our duty to either sustain or not sustain them, just as we see fit. If we want more light we can take the means which is given us to secure that information, and the rules say expressly that Trial Board shall consider whatever questions are referred to them by the Board of Directors, and that is what the Trial Board was created for. I had something to do with the creation of them, to investigate at first and get first hand information upon whatever questions may be referred to them by the directors. In that case, there is light enough for the Board to act, and they can act now, but I see no reason for asking the Utica Club to let us know what they want us to do.

Dr. De Mund: I move to amend Mr. Willets’ motion that we sustain the New York Central Kennel Association – that we sustain the action of the New York Kennel Association.

Mr. Howard Willets: The amendment is accepted.

The question on the amendment was then put, and it was carried.

Mr. Howard Willets: I substitute for my other motion, that Mrs. Mallory be advised of the action of the club, and that she be instructed as to what her privileges are in the matter.

The Secretary: To whom can she appeal?

Mr. Howard Willets: To the American Kennel Club for reinstatement.

Mr. Cutler: The rules of the American Kennel Club are as much open to her as they are to any other woman. The other lady knew what to do. Why doesn’t this one know what to do? Is it necessary that we should write to her telling her we have sustained the suspension, and tell her that she cannot appeal for reinstatement? She knows that. According to what one of our members has seen and has testified to us right here, she did not act like a lady in that club. Why should we today to her?

Mr. Howard Willets: There is no reason why we should. That is not my reason at all. I do not believe she understands the rules of the American Kennel Club.

Dr. De Mund: She practically asked for reinstatement, the same as the other one did. We have refused it.

The Secretary: There are many cases where persons who have been suspended by clubs and have appealed for reinstatement, where we have always asked the suspending clubs what their desires were in the matter. I do not think of a case where we have ever reinstated a person under those circumstances that we did not first ask the approval of the club of the Judge, whoever it may have been, that occasioned their suspension.

Dr. De Mund: as I understand it, suspension carried on that way, they asked for reinstatement. They generally appealed. The appeal when they think that the club has been unjust to them. There is no claim here of that. It is not a case for a trial. She is asking for reinstatement, and I don’t think it would do any harm to ask the club that suspended her what they wish in the matter. If you do not wish to do that I think we should sustain the action of the Kennel Club.

    The Secretary: That ought to come from Mrs. Mallory to the show-giving club, not from this club. She ought to be advised that her proper course would be to apply to the Central New York Kennel Association, and ask them if they would approve or willing to have her reinstated. That has always been our custom.

    Mr. Cutler: She has not asked us our advice, has she?
    The Secretary: No, but that has been our custom.
    Mr. Howard Willets: We are simply calling her attention to her privileges. I move that the Secretary be instructed to write to Mrs. Mallory, and call her attention to the privilege of asking for reinstatement.

    Mr. Cutler: She has the right to ask for reinstatement, but she has no appeal. She has been suspended by a show-giving club, and it is our duty to consider whether we will sustain that show-giving club or not. There is no appeal.

    Dr. De Mund: She did not object to the decision.

    Mr. Cutler: She has not objected to it, she has not said anything, but she has a right to come in here and ask for reinstatement, as any other person has, but it is no appeal.
Mr. Howard Willets: I think if my friend over there will look up the rules he will see that any member, or any disqualified person, or suspended person has the right to appeal from the decision of the board of directors to the Executive Committee of the club.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not see the advisability of communicating with her too much. It is for her to appeal to that club, and then come here. It is not for her to come here.

The Chairman: Her request for reinstatement should come through that club.

Mr. Bloodgood: That is my idea. We have got to uphold our members.

Mr. Howard Willets: If I had my own personal way in this matter, I would be very glad to see Mrs. Mallory out of every show, because she is a nuisance. In every show she attends, there is no doubt about that; but I do think she should have an opportunity of putting herself straight, not only before our club, but before the show-giving club.

Mr. Bloodgood: I cannot agree with Mr. Willets in this motion.

The Secretary: The motion before the house is that the Secretary be directed to notify Mrs. Mallory that the Board of Directors has sustained her suspension, and that her proper procedure would be to apply to the Central New York Kennel Association to recommend her reinstatement.

    Motion seconded and carried.
    On motion the Committee then arose.

President Hunnewell presiding—

Present:

The following business was acted upon:

Ratto
vs
Appeal by White from the decision of the Chicago Trial Board.

White

Ordered: That the finding of the Chicago Trial Board be sustained on the ground of gross carelessness, but without any intent of fraud on the part of White, in view of the possibility of erroneous entry in the Stud Book. It is the opinion of this Committee that the sentence of suspension for the term of thirty days was excessive. From statements made by White which were not denied by Ratto, the Committee feel that Ratto was also careless in the matter.

Smith
vs
Appeal by Smith from the decision of the Chicago Trial Board.

Bonham

Ordered: That the appeal of Smith be sent to the Chicago Trial Board together with letters from both parties that were received by the Secretary this March 21, 1916, and to ask for information regarding the statement made by Smith in said appeal, and to determine if the letters from Smith dated March 18, 1916, and the letters from Bonham, dated March 15, 1916, are new evidence. Also the Chicago Trial Board is requested to file a detailed statement of the case at the original trial.
Totten
Vs
Appeal from Totten from the decision of the New York Trial Board.

Ludwig

Mr. A. C. Wilmerding was excused from acting on this appeal, and retired.

Ordered: This Committee hereby sustains the decision of the New York Trial Board on Counts 2-3 and 4. The Committee feels that there was an absolute Breach of Contract in the case, and therefore the decision of the New York Trial Board on Count 1 be and hereby is reversed. Ludwig is hereby directed to return to Totten the sum of Fifteen dollars Stud fee, and that the said Ludwig be and hereby is suspended for the term of thirty days from this date. In case the said sum of fifteen dollars be not returned to Totten within the thirty days. The said Ludwig shall remain suspended until said amount is paid. The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLVED: That upon an appeal being made to the Executive Committee from the decision of any Trial Board, a copy of the appeal together with notice of the date upon which the case will be heard by the Executive Committee, be sent to the plaintiff, the defendant also the Trial Board which originally heard the case, by registered mail (receipt card to be demanded) at least twenty days before the meeting.

RESOLVED: That Chicago Trial Board be requested to add to the minutes of their meetings the names of all parties who are present at the hearings on any before them.

RESOLVED: That all Trial Board are directed to send to the American Kennel Club a full summary of all cases referred to them with their findings.

RESOLVED: That the Finance Committee consisting of William Rauch, H. K. Bloodgood and Howard Willets be empowered to rent a box at the Mercantile Safe Deposit Company and that any two of said Committee shall have access to box at any time.
RESOLVED: That all applications from Active members for dates for shows be sent to the License Committee for its approval.

The following Members were present:

H. K. Bloodgood
A. G. Hooley
Ralph C. Stewart

H. K. Bloodgood in the Chair:

At the request of the New York Trial Board permission was given to its Members to appear at this meeting. After a general discussion on the subject of the practice of Trial Boards, the members of said Board withdrew.

The Secretary reported that by direction of this Committee, he wrote to the Chicago Trial Board on March 23, 1916 asking for further information in the case of Smith vs. Bonham. He wrote again to said Board on April 5, 1916 asking for a reply to his former letter. The deposit made by Howe Totten with his charges against Charles Ludwig was declared forfeited.

Charles Ludwig’s request to reopen his appeal re Totten vs. Ludwig, his contention that the sum of $15.00 ordered by this Committee at its last meeting to be paid by Ludwig to Totten was unjust, and his claim against Totten for $14.62 for a board bill and expressage was not allowed:

The President: The next order of business is the report of the Secretary

The Secretary thereupon read his report as follows:

New York, May 15, 1916

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the following matters for your consideration.

A unanimous report from the Stud Book Committee on matters referred to it at the last meeting.

An appeal from W. H. Dahline against the decision of the Louisville Kennel Club on his protest.

An appeal from A. B. Elcock from the decision of the Westminster Kennel Club on his protest.

A complaint by Mrs. C. D. Atwood against the Kennel Club of Philadelphia.

The suspension by the Inter-State Collie Club of S.D.Y. Gallatin.

Appeals for reinstatement filed by M. Ryan and Percival Fletcher.

The fees for above appeals were paid.

An appeal for reinstatement from Edwin Clark. The necessary fee did not accompany this appeal.

An appeal from Charles F. Gilbert for reinstatement. The fee for such appeal was paid to our Western Agent, and mailed by him to this office on May 12\textsuperscript{th} last. This fee has not as yet been received by this office.

A communication from F. W. Paget, owner of the Wild Fire Kennels that said Kennel Name was claimed and granted by the English Kennel Club subsequent to the granting of same by the American Kennel Club. I have written to the English Kennel Club on the subject and have not as yet received a reply.

A communication from Mrs. C. E. Lamouree to the effect that one of her dogs was marked in the Judge’s book of the Newark Kennel Club show as having received 2\textsuperscript{nd} open, and reserve winners, and the other dog as having received 1\textsuperscript{st} novice. She states that neither of these dogs were present at the Newark Show, and therefore requests a correction.

An appeal from Mrs. Anna E. Franks against the decision of the Mississippi Valley Kennel Club on her protest.

A communication from Mrs. A. L. Holland on the action of the Westminster Kennel Club in withholding its permission for her dog to be judged for a Special.

A complaint was made with this office that Mrs. Madge Thorpe who had been appointed to Judge at the coming Nassau County Kennel Club Show came within the interpretation of our rules re “Professional Handlers”. I have an affidavit from Mrs. Thorpe to the effect that she is not a professional handler as set forth in our rules.

The following Directors have presented their excuses for absence at this meeting: C. W. Keyes; Willaim Rauch, S. R. Cutler, J. A. Buchanan, George S. West, R. C. Stewart.

a cross entry of $19,000 withdrawn from the reserve fund and placed in the working capital, from which is forms a part of the $28,000 investment.

The President: You have heard the Treasurer’s report. If there is no objection it will be accepted and placed on file.

Are there any standing Committee to be heard from?

The Secretary: Yes; the Stud Book Committee. The Stud Book Committee begs leave to report as follows:

Philadelphia, PA. March 1st, 1916

Stud Book Committee

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

The Stud Book Committee begs leave to report as follows:

In the matter of the request of the German Shepherd Dog Club for the Amendment of Rule XXV of the Rules Governing Clubs so that German Sheep Dogs may be classed as a large breed instead of a medium sized breed, in order that the larger benching must be used for these dogs.

The reasons advanced for this change in the Rule is—

FIRST. That many specimens weigh from 65 lbs. to 95 lbs., and are of large and rangy type.

SECOND. That some vicious specimens are a source of danger to those passing along the aisles, when benched in the medium sized benches.

We believe that this breed does not average heavier in weight or higher at the shoulder than other medium sized breeds; that in the event of a vicious specimen being benched, a wire should be placed in front of the bench as a protection to the general public at the show; that at the larger shows where a large number of these German Sheep Dogs sometimes are benched and when the size of the hall may necessitate the economizing of space, the increased space taken up by the larger benches might work as a detriment to the Show giving Club.

For these reasons we do not approve a change in the rule making it compulsory to give these dogs the large benches; though there is no reason why exhibitors should not ask Superintendents and Bench Show Committees for any sized Benching they wish.

We have been asked for a ruling in regard to American Bred Puppies imported in utero, whose sire has never been brought to this country, nor registered by the AKC, but whose dam has been registered with the American Kennel Club.

We rule that these Puppies may become eligible to registration only by the registration of the foreign sire, either by the foreign owner of the dog, or by the owner of his American bred get, with the written consent of the foreign owner and a signed copy of the requisite pedigree of the foreign dog signed by his owner must be filed with the Registration application, in the event of the foreign owner not signing the registration application.

We have been asked to rule on the question whether American bred dogs of unregistered parents whose litter brothers or sisters were registered prior to Jan 1, 1916, are eligible to registration. We rule that they are not eligible to registration.

As there seems to be confusion in the minds of some members of the fancy regarding the registration of foreign dogs imported to this country, we take occasion to state that no change whatever has been made in the rule governing the registration of Foreign Dogs. They are eligible to registration now precisely as they were prior to Jan 1, 1916.

Referring to the question of dogs being eligible to registration on their wins – it was not the idea of your Stud Book Committee that such registration should be possible, and they had not understood that an amendment to this effect had been adopted, though the minutes of the American Kennel Club show that such an amendment to our former report was passed and accepted.

For the future, we recommend that no dog shall be eligible to registration on wins.

Wm. L. Barclay, Chairman
Theodore Offerman
Chas R. Wood

The President: Does that take effect at once? No more registrations of dogs on wins?

The Secretary: In 90 days.
Mr. Wood: Mr. Barclay asked me to say that a misunderstanding occurred when the first report was prepared. It had a paragraph in it to the effect that dogs could not be registered on wins, and a number of people came to the Stud Book Committee and said they thought the whole thing should be thrown out on that technicality because people had not had a chance to think it over long enough, so a second report was prepared after the first one, which did not contain that point, and then when it was brought up by Mr. Lederer. He had the think in his mind, from the original report which was discussed outside by a number of delegates. I move that the report be accepted with the provision that that paragraph should not be accepted, but as a matter of fact, that was not put in that report to be accepted.

Dr. De Mund: I object to that ruling that American-bred dogs cannot be registered on their wins. I think that the delegates by unanimous vote expressed their opinion that they should be registered on their wins, and it does not seem to me that the Stud Book Committee should make a ruling so far-reaching without it going before the delegates again to be acted upon. A great many people have spoken to me about it, and I have not found one that was in favor of that ruling.

Mr. Wood: I am doing a lot of talking for Mr. Barclay because he asked me to. I am not Chairman of the Committee. The Stud Book Committee thought it over very carefully, and thought it was for the best interests of the Stud Book to have it go that way. We do not have any personal feeling. We want it talked over, thrashed out as much as possible, but Mr. Barclay’s idea and Mr. Offerman’s, I think too, was that what you wanted in your Stud Book was a good, clear pedigree, and after that, we did not want to have dogs registered on wins unless we knew something about their pedigree. Of course, it will complicate things a lot, because a dog can go in and may become a champion without becoming registered.

The Secretary: And he might be a mongrel too.

Mr. Wood: He cannot get a medal, but he can become champion just the same. How about that? Can a dog get a certificate of championship without being registered?

The Secretary: Under the old rule a dog could become a champion of record, but would not be entitled to a medal unless that dog had been registered.

Mr. Offerman: He could get his certificate.

The Secretary: The certificate is practically the same as a medal, I should say.

Dr. De Mund: I do not believe that constitutionally the Stud Book Committee can make such a ruling after the delegates have decided by a vote that they could not. It seems to me this should go to the delegates again. They have decided that American-bred dogs can be registered on their wins, and I do not think the Stud Book Committee can override the
Mr. Wood: That is another point we would like to have brought up, whether the Stud Book Committee are to report to the delegates or to the Board of Directors. That report was made to the Directors because it was thought wise after consulting with everybody. I do not know what you men may think here. You have been here longer than I have. I do not know whether it is supposed to report to the delegates or to the Board of Directors.

The President: The bylaws read “It (Stud Book Committee) shall in all matters be subject to the action of the Board of Directors, to which it shall report as occasion may require.”

Mr. Hooley: In reference to registration of dogs who simply in the end receive their numbers on their wins, in my idea it makes a great deal of difference; for instance, you can take a Pointer and a Setter, cross them, and you get a dropper, which may look exactly like a Setter or maybe a very good Pointer. I have seen both kinds, not in my own kennels but in others, and I have seen very beautiful dogs that are only half-bred dogs. Those dogs would be eligible on wins. That dog would then be a recognized Setter and be a half breed while he had no pedigree, and it might be very deceiving to the man who is very much interested in Setters, so it is a very dangerous think for the breeders to establish that rule, and I think myself it would be very much better if a dog had to have absolutely a pedigree to be registered on.

The President: you could obviate that by adding that his dog must have a straight pedigree. A dog, for instance, that had not been registered in accordance with the rule that your Committee made referring to a brother or a sister in a litter, if that dog wins and can show a pedigree, he could be registered. That would obviate your d Difficulty.

Mr. Hooley: Three generations are really necessary.

Mr. Bloodgood: Does that crossing occur very frequently?

Mr. Hooley: It should not, but it has occurred. I have seen several crossed that look both ways in the same litter.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think that might happen once or twice out of a good many breeds, but I should not think it would be likely. That would not be my experience in breeding. I do not say that it is not so, but I think we are going a long way if we rule out this question on wins. It is a think that ought to be considered very carefully, I think.
Maybe you might make your wins more severe, but the fact of ruling it all out, I do not think the dog public would be in favor of it.

The President: I think if you made your wins more severe and insisted upon a pedigree too, you would follow out the idea.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think for a dog that is able to go to a championship there ought to be some recognition of that dog.

The President: How would it be if the Stud Book Committee drafted that differently and sent it to the delegates?

Mr. Wood: You do not want to start a precedent of sending anything to the delegates. You don’t have to. We are not supposed to report to the delegates. If the directors do not believe it is a good proposition, and they represent the sentiment of the dog world as well as anybody, it should not be sent to the delegates. We do not want anything adopted that is not perfectly satisfactory.

The Secretary: I would like to say that this crossing is not confined to Pointers and Setter. There is a great deal of it done in Boston Terriers with French Bulls; we have had cases before us where it was acknowledged. Also I know of a case of a Fox Terrier and an Irish Terrier that resembles the Irish Terrier, and it went to a show and won. There is the case of Mr. Little, where he bred a Boston Terrier to a French Bull and he won. So it is not confined to Pointers and Setters, and I think for the safety of the Stud Book, as it is a book to show the line of blood, that you cannot be too careful what dogs you permit in the Stud Book, and to be assured of that, it must be by its pedigree.

Mr. Bloodgood: How many wins does he have to have?

The Secretary: Two winners first or two reserves, without anything whatever known about the dog.

Mr. Bloodgood: Then that dog has to reach two wins?

The Secretary: Yes.

Mr. Bloodgood: You say this so-called Irish Terrier won; did he go as high as that?

The Secretary: No, because we found it out and cancelled the win.

Mr. Bloodgood: You might want to make your number of wins more severe so that a dog would be entitled to a championship, but I have great doubt if any cross-bred dog like that – there might be one exception out of a great many thousand – would reach a championship by such crossing as that; it would not be my experience in breeding, and I have crossed a great many dogs in my day.

The President: What is the objection to having a pedigree to a dog anyway, even if he does win?

Mr. Bloodgood: There are a great many good dogs that have been picked up and their pedigree could not be traced.

The President: His get or generations in the future if he is good enough to breed to, his get naturally would be able to be registered in time.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not see any objection to entering that dog in the Stud Book but saying that he was entered on his wins.

The Secretary: We do say that.

Mr. Bloodgood: You want to show that the dog, how he was registered, then a man breeding that way would know what he was doing.

The Secretary: We always state it was registered by wins.

Mr. Bloodgood: Take a little dog that is able to go to some championship; I do not mean these little dogs where there is no competition; you must not legislate against the other breed, and that is what you are doing; it is rather serious, I think. You might make it a registration on a championship.

The President: You might leave it to the Stud Book Committee as to whether he could be registered or not. I mean by that the Stud Book Committee should decide whether it was a small breed that did not amount to anything with no competition, or a big breed where the competition was big.

Mr. Wood: The main idea is to keep the mutts out, not a mutt necessarily, but you generally have a very good idea. In a terrier you do get a good dog once in a while with a mongrel strain, and he might do a lot of winning and yet throw back horribly. I know you do in Bull Dogs get a mistake in breed; one will be a Bull Dog and the rest will all be mutts, I mean where the bitch gets loose.

Mr. Bloodgood: Make some rule that would show anybody how this dog was registered if you like to.

Mr. Wood: I think if you make an amendment to the effect the dog has to get something above championship, there would be no question about it.

The President: You have got to expect the breed wants to find out how every dog they want to breed to is registered, whether by wins or not.

Mr. Wood: If he has got to win 10 points towards championship, that will cover up very quickly.

Mr. Hooley: the point I make is not so much as to the championship of the dog, but the fact that a dog might win at one show; there might be only three dogs at the show; those are, of course, only possibilities, but they do occur, and this dog wins and perhaps goes in another show and wins against and is a reserve winner; he is eligible to registration. That dog might then be advertised in any paper as registered in the American Kennel Club, and the man who buys that terrier or setter or pointer, looking through and finding that this dog has done some winning in the field, is bred to. Instead of getting a long-haired setter, he probably gets a short-haired point, and right away he says it is a funny thing, because there is a moral guarantee on this dog by the American Kennel Club, and naturally he is disappointed. He writes to the man and says, "This dog is only half setter, but it looks like a setter." I do not think that the man who breeds to him is being treated just right, and I think it should be safeguarded as to just what is the best way. I feel it is unsafe at least and unfair to the breeder who is ignorant of the matter, and many are. In Spaniels I do not know that does occur. Mr. Bloodgood, of course, knows much more about that, but I know in pointers and setters such things have happened, and the second or third generation are usually very poor dogs.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not question the fact that Mr. Hooley says that it does occur, and I think he is perfectly right that people should be safeguarded, but if he has to get ten points towards the championship and then be registered, no matter what he is registered at, if that man advertises him as such, the world would know that this dog is registered on his wins. The suggestion of Mr. Wood was that one dog has a good pup in a litter and the rest are mutts. I have bred a bitch that won, and beautifully bred too all the way back. She had one puppy in all her life that went out and won everywhere, and she never had a pup afterwards that could win a first prize.

Mr. Wood: What I meant was where we knew it was bred wrong.
Dr. De Mund: Take Chows, Japanese Spaniels, Pekingese dogs, take a Russian Wolfhound, dogs that come from a country where there is no Stud Book, they may be brought to this country and it is impossible to register their get; there is no Stud Book in those countries, and that works a great hardship and would work a very great hardship on the breeds of those particular dogs. It would be impossible to register such dogs at any time. A good Chow might be brought from China; there would be no possible way of getting any pedigree of that dog; its get could not be registered under any consideration.

Mr. Willets: I think one point we missed and that is, that the people who register dogs are now of the opinion and they have been ever since this new rule went into effect or was published before it went into effect, and they all rushed to get their dogs registered under the old rules before the new ones went into effect, they are of the opinion in the dog world now that they cannot register a dog unless the dam and sire both are registered, and if we change the rule now, I think we are going to create a great deal of confusion. If it had not been for that idea among the dog owners and breeds, you would not have had this rush of business at the end of last year. You have not changed the registration of foreign dogs. It is just as difficult to register a foreign dog as it was previously.
The Secretary: Any foreign dog that can establish three generations of pedigree is entitled to be registered. I will venture to say in our experience that I would be very, very liberal in saying that we do not average 100 dogs a year registered on their wins, and therefore if this suggestion of the Stud Book Committee foes into effect, there are very few people that will be hurt.

The President: How does it stand at present?

The Secretary: That they can be registered on their wins.

Mr. Wood: I move the Committee’s report be accepted.

Dr. De Mund: I move it be accepted with that one exception.

Mr. Willets: I will make an amendment to that report, that is, that a dog can be registered on its wins provided it earns 10 points towards its championship, and I pedigree of three generations is furnished.

The President: Is that amendment accepted?

Mr. Wood: Yes, I will accept that.

The President: That is an amendment of that one clause?

Mr. Wood: Yes; otherwise the report is accepted.

Mr. Willets: In that amendment I have not put in that the ancestors must have been registered; simply to give a pedigree for three generations, because I Think you ought to protect the thoroughbred breeds and not let any cross bred in. if they are registered on their wins you will do something against the breeder of thoroughbred dogs, and I think you ought to protect your thoroughbred breeds.

Dr. De Mund: Suppose you bring a Pekingese to this country and go through and win at every show with that dog, beat everything that is here; isn't that dog entitled to a registration?

Mr. Willets: Then I think there ought to be a separate Stud Book for such dogs.

The President: His get could be registered.

Mr. Willets: That takes time.

The President: It does not close the door absolutely.

Mr. Fleitmann: Because a dog is registered and does not give a sire and dam the breed is not going to breed to a dog without any pedigree. If they ask for a pedigree they can say he is registered on wins, he has no known pedigree.

Mr. Offerman: I think if a dog is registered on his wins the novice won't ask for a pedigree; it is to protect the novice; the others that know anything about the dog game will look at the pedigree. I should think the Stud Book would be for the registration of dogs that have a pedigree. Those that have not a pedigree I do not think should be allowed to come in.

Mr. Willets: My motion was that a dog may be registered on its wins, provided it has earned 10 points toward the championship and a pedigree of three generations is furnished.

The President: Gentlemen, you have heard the amendment. Are you ready for the question? All in favor will say aye; contrary-minded, no.

Mr. Bloodgood: I vote no on that.

The amendment was adopted.

The President: The report as a whole, as now amended, is up for approval.

Mr. Wood: I move it be accepted.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary: W. H. Dahlineof Minneapolis, Minnesota has appealed from the decision of the Louisville Kennel Club on his protest. That ought to go to the Trial Board.

Mr. Bloodgood: I move it be sent to Philadelphia.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Mr. A. B. Elcock appeals from a decision of the Westminster Kennel Club at its last show.

Dr. De Mund: I move that go to the New York Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The Interstate Collie Club suspended a man by the name of Gallatin for abusing the Judge.

The President: Where is the Interstate Collie Club?

The Secretary: At Philadelphia. They notified Mr. Gallatin to appear before their Committee, which he did not do, and they then held their meeting and suspended Mr. Gallatin. Mr. Gallatin objects to the suspension and said that he was already suspended from the club by reason of his being in arrears in dues. This club notified me they had suspended him from their club. I then wrote him, to which he replied.

The President: We have no jurisdiction over a club with its members. A motion will be entertained to dismiss.

Mr. Sinnott: I move it be dismissed.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Mr. M. Ryan, who is now under suspension for creating trouble at the show of last year held by the Newark Kennel Club, makes application for reinstatement. His application is endorsed by sixteen different persons, one of whom is one of our delegates, Mr. John F. Collins.

The President: Who was he suspended by?

The Secretary: On complaint made by Mr. Mead, the Judge of the show, and he was suspended by the Trial Board.

Mr. Hooley: I move the gentlemen be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary: The case of Mr. Percival Fletcher, he applies to be reinstated.

Dr. De Mund: I move that he be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I have a telegram from our Western Agent in the matter of the application of Charles G. Gilbert for reinstatement. The Ladies’ Kennel Association of California, the Secretary of which had him disqualified. Now, they send an appeal for his reinstatement.

The President: Does the San Francisco Trial Board advise his reinstatement?

The Secretary: No, they do not, but the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Southern California that had him disqualified requests it.

Dr. De Mund: Would it be in order to move that the case be referred back to the San Francisco Trial Board, and if they recommend his reinstatement, that we grant it?

The President: I think that would be in order, and I think it would be a polite thing to do.

Dr. De Mund: I make the motion that we reinstate him subject to the approval of the San Francisco Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Mr. F. W. Paget of Denver, Colorado, registered the word Wildfire in March, 1914. The same word was registered by Mr. G. Aldrich in the English Kennel Club, June 24, 1914, three months afterwards. According to the Reciprocity Agreement with England which went into effect on March 12, 1914m the English Kennel Club erred in granting that kennel name.

Dr. De Mund: Were they aware at that time that that name was granted here?

The Secretary: That I do not know. I have written to the English Kennel Club. I have received no reply as yet.

Dr. De Mund: I move in the meantime the Secretary be instructed not to receive any dogs for registration by the name of Wildfire, except from Mr. Paget’s kennel.

The Secretary: We have only received one, and that was by virtue of its previous registration in the English Stud Book.

Dr. De Mund: Yes, but that should not be registered as Wildfire in this country. Mr. Paget is entitled to that protection.

The President: Do you put that in the form of a motion?

Dr. De Mund: Yes

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I have a letter from Mrs. C. E. Lamoure.

Dr. De Mund: I move that a letter be written to the judge asking him to explain.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary: Mrs. Annie E. Franks of St. Louis, Missouri, made a protest at the Mississippi Valley Kennel Club show; her protest was not allowed, and she now appeals.

Dr. De Mund: I move it be sent to the New York Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

The President: What does she want?

The Secretary: I don’t know. I have read the entire letter. I bring this up at the request of Mr. Rauch; he asked me if I would bring it up at the meeting.

Dr. De Mund: I move that it be dismissed, and that no action be taken.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The License Show held by the Hippodrome Kennel Club Nashville Tenn sent their Judges books, and a marked catalog on May 1st within the proper time. The catalog did not contain a list of officers nor the name of the veterinarian.

The rule positively says that listing fees cannot be deducted from deposit, so this show was held April 24th.

The President: What is the usual form of procedure?

The Secretary: That is for this Board to determine.

The President: Isn’t there a regular fine imposed in the rules?
The Secretary: A dollar a day.
Mr. Bloodgood: Is it a License Show?
The Secretary: A License Show; they did not publish their veterinarian in the catalog.
Dr. De Mund: It seems to me in a License Show they put up a deposit of $35, do they not?
The Secretary: Yes
Dr. De Mund: We have that $35, and rather than run up a big sum of money in fines and so on, which they will never pay, I think it were better if we declare the $35 forfeited and pay ourselves out of that and close the incident; it seems to me that would be the best way.
The President: With a recommendation not to give them another license for a show?
Dr. De Mund: Yes
The President: Then not go on with the dollar a day fine?
Dr. De Mund: No, because it will get up to a big sum.
The President: I think that is best, because it closes the incident. You make that as a motion?
Dr. De Mund: Yes
The President: And in that motion was embodied that it be recommended not to give them another license?
Dr. De Mund: Yes
Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the Secretary be instructed to write to the Secretary of the Nassau Club, Long Island, stating that as there was some question as to the fact of the eligibility of Mrs. Thorpe to judge, that we consider it wise for her not to be allowed to judge at this show.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The following Directors have filed their excuses for absence at this meeting: Charles W. Keyes; William Rauch; Samuel R. Cutler; Joseph A. Buchanan, George S. West and Ralph C. Stewart.

Dr. De Mund: I move that their excuses be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Wood: I just want to mention one think that I think would be a good idea. I do not know whether it should be handled by the Rules Committee or in some other way. I saw five or six catalogs last year and probably in not one of them did it state the shows were held under the American Kennel Club rules. The American Kennel Club did not get into the catalogs in any way.

The President: Do we take cognizance of such shows?

Mr. Wood: Yes, and there is no rule I know of that it has to show the AKC in the catalog. It is in the premium list, but not in the catalog.
and the conditions of the contract, and therefore I should imagine that was the only book that was necessary to refer to the fact.

Mr. Wood: Sure, but it should be in the catalog anyway, because everybody files away a catalog. They do not keep a premium list for 10 or 15 years. It certainly ought to be in the catalog.

The Secretary: Will you be kind enough to tell me how this office will know that it is not in the catalog until after the catalog is received and the show is over?

Mr. Wood: I do not say the office would know that, but it does seem to me that if they are held under our rules their catalog certainly should show it; they are using our name, they are using our protection, they are using everything of the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary: I think we might put a notice in the Gazette.

The President: Will you make a motion to that effect?

Mr. Bloodgood: Yes, I move that the Secretary put in the Gazette that the catalog must mention the fact that their show is held under the rules of the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

Dr. De Mund: I make a motion that in the case of any Trial Board, where one or more of the members are unable to act for any reason, that the Directors give the President power to designate substitute.

After considerable discussion the motion was seconded and carried.
On motion duly made and seconded, the meeting adjourned.

New York, May 15, 1916

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last quarterly meeting, I have received two applications for Active Membership and Credentials from nine clubs appointing Delegates. These applications have been referred to our Membership Committee.

Proposed amendments to the Rules offered by the Delegate of the Long Island Kennel Club were published in the Gazette of April 30th, and have been referred to the Rules Committee.

At the last meeting of the Directors, a Committee was appointed to draw up a set of resolutions expressing our regret in proper form at the decision of Mr. August Belmont to retire as President of the American Kennel Club. This Committee adopted a preamble and resolution which is as follows:

August Belmont, Esq:

Preamble and Resolution

At the annual meeting of the Directors of the American Kennel Club held in New York on Feb 24, 1916, the following Pacific Preamble and Resolution was adopted unanimously by the meeting there assembled:

“That WHEREAS, our President, August Belmont, has seen fit to retire from the office of President of this association and,

WHEREAS, his incumbency has covered the long and unusual period of twenty-eight years, and

WHEREAS, his keen intellect and knowledge of affairs pertaining to the management of Kennel Club matters have been of great value, not only to the American Kennel Club, but to Kennel Clubs and Kennel interests in general, be it therefore,

RESOLVED: That in August Belmont’s retirement our Club has suffered a distinct loss and by these minutes we wish to, and do hereby express our sincere and genuine regret that he found it necessary to take this step, and to offer him our appreciative thanks for his devotion to the club and his many years of faithful work in guarding and furthering its interests,

And although the majority of the present Directors did not have the honor of serving with Mr. Belmont during the first few years of his presidency, yet they fully appreciate the masterful manner in which he has always conducted this office, and it is further

“RESOLVED that these resolutions be duly inscribed in proper form upon the minutes of our club, and that an engrossed copy be forwarded to the subject of this testimonial.”

By direction of said Committee, I forwarded the above resolutions to Mr. Belmont, and the following is his April 28, 1916

My dear A. P. Vredenburgh

   I am in receipt of the beautiful and artistic engrossment of a set of resolutions passed by the American Kennel Club on the occasion and with reference to my retirement from the Presidency.

   If anything could increase my warm attachment for the AKC and add to the many delightful memories of friendship and cooperation in the interest of the Kennel World over the past twenty-eight years, this tribute and regard for me would do so.

   Please convey to all our members, both of the Board and Delegates, my sincere appreciation of this very tender evidence of their kindliness toward me. I am deeply touched as well as flattered.

       Believe me.

       Yours very sincerely,

       August Belmont

   By the above resolution, the Committee directed that same be entered in the minutes of the Club, therefore I am reporting the matter to the Delegates.

   The Delegates from the Albany Dog Club filed with this office a proposed act introduced in the Legislature in regard to the Licensing of dogs. This proposed act was read twice in the Senate, and by unanimous consent, the rule was suspended and said act ordered to a third reading and printed, and referred to the Committee on Agriculture retaining place in the order of third reading.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

The President: You have heard the Secretary’s report. If there is no objection it will be placed on file.

The next order of business is the report of the standing Committee.

The Secretary: I will state on behalf of the Rules Committee that the proposed amendment from the delegate of the Long Island Kennel Club was considered by that Committee today, and by resolution was laid on the table for further consideration.

The President: Gentlemen, you have heard the report of the Rules Committee. If there is no objection it will be placed on file.

General business is now in order.

A communication was read from the delegate of the Albany Dog Club on the subject of a bill before the Senate in relation to the licensing and keeping of dogs. Referred to the Law Committee.

Dr. De Mund: I move that a Committee of three be appointed by the Chair to codify the bylaws of the American Kennel Club, to report the same through the Rules Committee at the next annual meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.
The President: On that Committee I appoint Mr. H. K. Bloodgood, Dr. De Mund and George Greer.

On motion duly made, seconded and carried, the meeting adjourned.

The minutes of the meeting held April 18, 1916 were read and same were accepted and ordered on file.

George W. Smith ) Appeal of Smith from the Vs. ) Re decision of the Chicago Trial Board
Mrs. L. M. Bonham )

ORDERED that the action of the Chicago Trial Board of November 16, 1915 suspending Mrs. Bonham for six months is sustained and the appeal dismissed. The deposit with said appeal was ordered to be returned to Mr. Smith.

The Secretary was directed to reply to the several questions asked by the Chicago Trial Board, as instructed by this Committee.

Mr. Crabtree, who is advertised to judge at the forthcoming show of the Southampton Kennel Club, was declared ineligible to judge and the Secretary was directed to notify the Southampton Kennel Club of the above decision.

At the late show of the Ladies Kennel Assn. of America at Mineola, Long Island, held June 5th and 6th, 1916, Mr. John Brett was advertised as a judge. Under date of May 17, 1916 the Secretary addressed a communication to Miss M. L. Wickes, Secretary of the Ladies Kennel Assn. of America, that “inasmuch as Mr. John Brett, who has been appointed a judge at your forthcoming show at Mineola, never having filed notice with this office that he is not a professional handler, Mr. Brett is not eligible to officiate as a judge at the show to be held by your association.” The receipt of this communication was acknowledged by Miss Wickes, Secretary, under date of May 18th. Mr. Brett did officiate as a judge at said show against the specific instruction from the American Kennel Club. It is therefore.

ORDERED that the Ladies Kennel Association of America be and hereby is penalized in the sum of $100.00. Be it further

RESOLVED that unless the Ladies Kennel Association of America can produce proof that it notified Mr. John Brett of Rule XVIII and received his reply, the original of which to be filed in this office within ten days from this date, an additional fine of $25.00 is hereby imposed, and

WHEREAS that the receipt of the communication from the Secretary of the American Kennel Club to the Ladies Kennel Association of America, having been acknowledged by the official Secretary of that Association and no attention was paid to the contents, therefore it is hereby

RESOLVED that the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club hereby unanimously adopts a vote of censure upon the officers of the said Ladies Kennel Association of America for their gross neglect in this matter.

The Secretary was directed to write to Mr. Emory M. Wilson, Secretary of the Cocker Spaniel Club, that his explanation in the matter of the special offered to the Westchester Kennel Club is satisfactory to this Committee.

The request of Mrs. Carl Baumann for the return of letters submitted by her to the New York Trial Board in the case of Judd vs. Baumann is hereby granted and the papers were referred to the Law Committee to select such letters.

The Northern Hare Beagle Club, having expressed a wish to hold a specialty show in connection with its forthcoming field trials, the Secretary was directed to issue on license to cover both the specialty show and trials, provided the written consent of the National Beagle Club shall accompany the application for the license and the charge therefore shall be the single fee and deposits.

A letter received from Mrs. C. E. Lamouree calling attention to two of her English Toy Spaniels entered at the late Newark Kennel Club show, both having received awards notwithstanding the fact that both were absent from the show, the judge was called upon to explain the matter. This he is unable to do and the Secretary was directed to call upon the Secretary of the Newark Kennel Club Show for an explanation as to the awards marked in the judge’s book.

The request of the Santa Clara County Kennel Club to change its title to that of the Garden City Kennel Club be and hereby is granted and the Secretary was directed to change the records accordingly.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

Mr. Hunnewell called the meeting to order and the roll was called by the Secretary.

A. P. Vredenburgh: There are twenty delegates present and therefore a quorum.

Mr. Hunnewell: The next order of business will be the minutes of the preceding meeting: Were they published in the Gazette?

A. P. Vredenburgh: Yes.

Mr. Hunnewell: If there is no objection the minutes will be accepted as published in the Gazette.

The next order of business will be the report of the Secretary.

A. P. Vredenburgh: To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club: Gentlemen:
I beg to report that since our last quarterly meeting, I have received four (4) applications for Active Membership, and credentials from five (5) Clubs appointing Delegates. These applications have been referred to our Membership Committee, which will report on same.

I have reports from the License Committee and from the Stud Book Committee which I will present to you Under date of Sept 14, 1916, the Fanciers’ Association of Indiana filed its resignation as an Active Member of the American Kennel Club to take effect at once. This Club is in good standing, its dues having been paid to Jan 1st next.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

The reason that these reports are presented to the Delegates instead of the Directors is that matters they touch upon are matter that it is considered the Delegates should have first in their possession. One of the reports I was directed by the Chairman to submit to the Delegates.

Mr. Hunnewell: If there is no objection the Secretary’s report will be placed on file.

Election of Members.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The report of the membership Committee is as follows:

The Membership Committee report that in the absence of one of the Committee, three members have passed upon the applications for Membership and the Credentials of Delegates.

Two applications from clubs in Los Angeles,
California have been held up pending the action of your Board of Directors in connection with the report from our Pacific Coast Representatives, concerning their investigation of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Southern California.

C. R. Wood, Chairman

Mr. Hunnewell: You have heard the report of the Membership Committee. If there is no objection it will be placed on file.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The first application for active membership is the San Antonio Kennel Club which is signed by the Committee.

The Chairman appointed Messrs. Wolcott and Neilson Tellers whereupon the San Antonio Kennel Club and the Detroit Kennel Club were duly elected members and August Belmont, Jr., was elected Delegate of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of America and Charles A. Kelly Delegate of the Colorado Kennel Club. Effingham Lawrence was elected Delegate of the West Highland Kennel Club and Morris Kinney was elected Delegate of the Santa Clara Kennel Club.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The Stud Book Committee report is as follows:

Directors American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

The Stud Book Committee reports as follows:
Application has been made for the recognition of the breed of Labrador Retrievers, by the American Kennel Club. A number of letter having been received from owners and breeders of this variety of Retrievers, we recommend that the Labrador Retriever be added to the list of recognized breeds.

In the matter of the protest against the registration of the Russian Wolfhound bitch “Morza” referred to the Stud Book Committee by the Executive Committee, we report that we have taken up the matter with Mr. Pro Valensi, of California, the owner of the bitch who made the registration, but that at this time we have not completed our investigation of the particulars given on the registration blank.

The fee for the use of a kennel prefix for life had been $15.00. A number of the holders of such prefixes having died, the family or the Executors of the Estate have in some cases asked to have the Kennel name transferred to another party for life on payment of the usual transfer fee of $1.00. It was not the intention of the Committee that Kennel prefixes should be granted in perpetuity for $15.00, and the Committee recommends that in future on the decease of the Holder of a Kennel prefix for life, the family or Executor may ask to have the prefix transferred to another party on payment of the transfer fee of $1.00.
and that the new holder may have the option to taking over the prefix for life on payment of $15.00, or of holding the prefix from year to year at the usual maintenance fee of $3.00.

In the event of no action being taken by the family or Executor within one year after the death of the holder of a kennel prefix for life, we recommend that all rights to such kennel prefix shall lapse. W. L. Barclay, Chairman

The Chairman: Gentlemen, what is your pleasure? It was thereupon moved and seconded that the report be accepted and the recommendations adopted.

A. P. Vredenburgh then read the report of the License Committee.

The Chairman: I think it is a good idea to have the intention as to Fox Terrier made plain.

Mr. Bloodgood: It would seem to me it would mean all varieties.

The Chairman: You mean because they do not mention one kind it would mean both?

Mr. Bloodgood: Yes.

Mr. Barnard: Another thing I noticed, they speak of the German Sheep Dogs. I believe that is the name the American Kennel Club calls that breed. That is incorrect. They are German Shepherd Dogs. The German Shepherd Dog Club makes quite a distinction.

A. P. Vredenburgh: That question was brought up before our American Kennel Club. As all varieties of sheep dogs are known by the American Kennel Club as Sheep Dogs the request to change to Shepherd Dogs was acted upon by the Stud Book Committee and their refusal to call them Shepherd Dogs was sustained by the American Kennel Club. Notwithstanding the fact that the club known as the German Shepherd Dog Club calls them Shepherd Dogs the Committee and the American Kennel Club decided on their protest that they would not change the name and they should be known as all other sheep dogs as Sheep Dogs.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: What is the use, without putting German Shepherd Dogs down as foreign breed. Is he more foreign than the English Bulldog?

A. P. Vredenburgh: I don't know about that.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: that is ridiculous.

The Chairman: Is there any member of the License Committee here? That is up to the Stud Book Committee.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I take exception to the statement that they are used more for police duty and general companions and they are not used as Collie or Shepherd Dogs. The Shepherd Dog has not been used only for use as a police dog. He is used as a Shepherd Dog and is called the Shepherd Dog because he is the companion of a Shepherd. But he is a Shepherd Dog per se.

The Chairman: Do you make that as a suggestion to the License Committee?

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: Yes, because it looks out of The Chairman: Is that seconded?

The motion was duly seconded.

A Member: I move that it be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

The Chairman: Whatever Committee it is. I don’t know whether that is the Stud Book Committee or the License Committee.

A. P. Vredenburgh: They come under the head of foreign dogs under our rule.

The Chairman: That will have to be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: Is a Pekingese foreign dog?

The Chairman: No. Pekingese Spaniels do not come under foreign. It is up to the Stud Book Committee. The License Committee will have to accept the classification of the Stud Book Committee. If there is any suggestion you want to make to the Stud Book Committee it is in order now.

The Chairman: If you want to refer these foreign dogs to the Stud Book Committee again and mention these German Sheep Dogs they will act on it and then this report from the License Committee would automatically follow it.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: That is satisfactory to me.

The Chairman: The question of all foreign dogs is referred back to the Stud Book Committee. The motion was duly seconded and carried.

A Member: Under that motion have they the privilege of reconsidering the name and changing it to Shepherd Dogs?

The Chairman: They can do anything they want.

The Secretary: The following are entitled to mixed classes not divided by sex (reads), and the following shall not be entitled to winners' classes.

Mr. Proctor: What are the requirements under which a breed might be divided by sex for championship?

A. P. Vredenburgh: The Committee have arbitrary power to designate these winner classes and classes not entitled to divided winners' classes.

Mr. Proctor: I understand that but what is the point at which they make the division?

A. P. Vredenburgh: I don't know.

Mr. Proctor: I would like to protest on behalf of the Welsh Terrier club, that they be included in breeds that are divided by sex. There are a good many of them shown, especially in this part of the country. Back in other parts of the country it varies.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The proper thing to do, I should say, is for your club to send a protest to the License Committee.

Mr. Proctor: That is what I want to do.

The Chairman: If you will make a protest to the License Committee then the License Committee will bring it before the Club.

A. P. Vredenburgh: No, they have arbitrary power.

Mr. Proctor: Then I should go before the License Committee?

A. P. Vredenburgh: Yes.

A Member: I do not see why the Delegates do not have an equal right to make the same protest as a club. Irish Terrier are not divided by sex. Skye Terrier are divided by sex. I don’t believe there have been two Skye Terrier in the last two years. It seems to me the Delegates have a perfect right to refer this back to the License Committee and ask for figures on which they base their figures.

Dr. De Mund: The reason the Committee decided against Welsh Terrier and English Fox Hounds is that after going over the various shows they found so few shown they did not consider them in their judgment entitled to divided winners’ class at the present time. I think Welsh Terrier were shown only at some three shows the present year, and very few, two or three at a show at a time. I don’t remember the figures. I was not on the Committee. English Fox Hounds are not shown anywhere except at Westminster Kennel Club shows.

The Chairman: I think, gentlemen, the License Committee have probably gone over these figures very carefully. I think it will be a great mistake if we haphazard include all the rest of the dogs to be divided by sex. I think if one starts I think everybody will have to. I think better to refer it back to the License Committee. They are authorized to revise the list they have given us.

Dr. De Mund: This is not to take effect until the 1st of Jan. I think now is the time to refer back to the License Committee to reconsider again.

Mr. Wood: On the same line, a great man Hound Shows are being held and are being started very strongly in my part of the country. I think in any view of your own kennel club rules more interest ought to be taken in Fox Hounds than at present. Chihuahuas are not shown here at all. Fox Hounds certainly have been shown at Westminster, probably more shown there than in half a dozen breeds all over the country.

The Chairman: Let us go on with the rest of the report of the Rules Committee and then we will return to this if necessary.

A. P. Vredenburgh: (Continues to read report of the Rules Committee.)

Mr. Coombs: Would it not be in order for this meeting to accept the report as presented but instruct the Committee to present either where suggested classification or some other rule which would automatically divide the classes, before the first of the year?

The Chairman: Do you offer that as a motion?
Mr. Coombs: I ask whether that would be proper?
The Chairman: I think that would be proper. You accept the report?
Mr. Coombs: Then I offer that as a motion, that we accept the report by the Committee but instruct it to submit a method of dividing the classes before the first of the year.

Dr. De Mund: They have under the bylaws arbitrary power to designate. I would move this report be referred back to the License Committee with the suggestion offered and they be asked to include or give reasons why they have not included other breeds and the winners divided by sex.

The Chairman: Do you offer that as an amendment to his motion?
Dr. De Mund: His motion is not seconded.
Mr. Coombs: Was my motion seconded?
The Chairman: No.
Mr. Coombs: Then I cannot discuss my motion, regarding the last suggestion. If the License Committee has arbitrary power and the meeting of Delegates has no authority in the matter, why is the report submitted to us?
The Chairman: They want to know how we feel about it.
Mr. Coombs: Then they have not arbitrary power?
Mr. Collins: It is for us to approve or disapprove their action, although they have arbitrary power.
The Chairman: Yes.

Mr. Collins: I would like to amend Dr. De Mund’s motion, that if in the opinion of that Committee they can devise a better plan than this or the one they have been working under, they do that.

The Chairman: In other words, you mean they are to go more fully into what I suggest?

Mr. Collins: Yes, and make a more feasible plan.

The Chairman: It is feasible if worked out.

Mr. West: Haven’t they made a suggestion that it be referred back to the Rules Committee to make an arbitrary rule?

The Chairman: Yes.

Mr. West: That is a good suggestion. I would like to make a motion.

Mr. Collins: I second Dr. De Mund’s motion.

The Chairman: You can make an amendment.

Mr. West: Has the other amendment been seconded?

Dr. De Mund: I accept Mr. Collin’s amendment to the original motion.

Mr. Wood: Why not refer it both to the License Committee and the Stud Book Committee and let them work it out.

Dr. De Mund: I do not think the gentlemen understand the question. Read the power under which the License Committee is acting and you will see they have only one definite power.

The Chairman: The Secretary will read that rule.

A. P. Vredenburgh: No doubt they have absolute power whether the Delegates approve or not.

Dr. De Mund: My motion was that we refer this back and say it is the sense of this meeting that they change it if they can.

The Chairman: That was seconded. Now your amendment.

Mr. Collins: That they offer any other feasible proposition.

Mr. Bloodgood: As a matter of fact this does not seem to be satisfactory to the Delegates. The Delegates evidently want some help. While the License Committee has arbitrary power it does not want to enforce it without the sanction of the delegates.

The Chairman: That is the way I understand it.

A. P. Vredenburgh: They propose their ruling here shall not go into effect until Jan 1st next. There has been a Special Committee appointed to revise the bylaws and the Rules of the American Kennel Club and to report so that the same can be acted upon at the Annual Meeting in Feb. It appears to me that hearing all the suggestions and as two of the members of that Special Committee are now present that they may devise some means of amending that section of the Rule that has given the License Committee arbitrary power and it would only make a difference of about six weeks, because they will report an entire revision of the Rules and bylaws to be acted on in the middle of Feb. I think that is well to be considered before you take any action on this matter.

Mr. Willets: The Rules says that the License Committee shall have arbitrary power to say what dogs shall have winners and what not. If the License Committee says that shall be done it has got to be done.

The Chairman: As I understand it, Mr. Willets, the License Committee does not say anything. They say, we want to know that the Delegates and clubs think.

Mr. Bloodgood: They ask the Rules Committee to do it and the License Committee could adopt it.

Mr. Collins: The License Committee asks the Rules Committee to do something entirely different. It comes under the province of the Rules Committee and the license Committee. The License Committee can merely designation a grade to apply. They cannot make the rule that so many dogs shall be present. That is in the province of the Delegates alone.

Mr. West: I move that we accept the suggestion of the License Committee and refer this matter to the Rules Committee to report.

The Chairman: You are out of order. You cannot make two motions without having acted on the first. You may make an amendment.

Mr. Barnard: If the Delegates feel that Mr. West's motion is clear and better, why not have the other Delegates withdraw their motion?

The Chairman: That is perfectly possible but I cannot withdraw it.

Mr. Barnard: Mr. West's motion is clearer and more satisfactory.

The Chairman: Then why don't you vote down the other motion?

Dr. De Mund: I take exception to the gentlemen's remark that Mr. West's motion is much clearer and more satisfactory, because it deals with something entirely different.
My motion was simply to send this back to the License Committee with a request from the Delegates that they go into the matter and give divided sex in these classes if they see fit. Mr. West's motion is to refer their request to the Rules Committee, which is something entirely different.

The Chairman: Mr. West will not put his as an amendment and it cannot be put as a motion. If Mr. West will put his as an amendment it will be discussed.

Mr. West: Can we vote on that motion and another motion? The Delegates state they do not want the establishment of an arbitrary rule to go into effect.

Mr. Bloodgood: This, of course, is sent you by the Committee to get your opinion.

Mr. Ritchey: I think it is the sense of all the Delegates that they want a chance for any breed to be represented. I oppose any report that offers an arbitrary rule which would prevent any breed from receiving its classification if there are enough breeds represented at any one show. For that reason I am opposed to the acceptance of this report, as Dr. De Mund has expressed it.

The Chairman: The amendment has to be voted on first. Have you Mr. Collins’ amendment?

Mr. West: May I say one thing regarding Dr. De Mund’s motion. This question came up two weeks ago and was referred to the License Committee and now they have come back with the best they can do. Why refer back again? It will be getting nowhere. They have come back and said frankly they cannot and made a suggestion as to how it could be handled. I cannot, for one, see any sense in referring it back for another three months’ consideration.

The Chairman: Gentlemen, any further discussion?

Mr. Wood: Just what can the License Committee do when they get this back? Have they power to say that those dogs shall have a winner’s class?

The Chairman: No.

Mr. Wood: Can’t we tell the Rules Committee to prepare a rule of that kind?
The Chairman: Yes. Those in favor of Dr. De Mund’s motion will manifest it by raising the right hand.

(Five Delegates raised the right hand.)

The Chairman: Contrary minded. (Eight hands).

The Chairman: Motion lost.

Mr. West: I move now that we follow the suggestion of the License Committee and refer this matter to the Rules Committee to report on.

Mr. Collins: I second the motion.

Dr. De Mund: I do not see how that can be done without suspending the bylaws which give the License Committee sole power to designate. I wanted to get that out of the road and then refer their request to the Rules Committee. But you cannot refer the whole matter to the Rules Committee. They have no power to designate which breed shall be divided by sex.

Mr. West: My motion was simply that the matter be referred to the Rules Committee to make an arbitrary rule which shall divide the breeds according to the number of dogs actually shown.

The Chairman: The Rules Committee, as I understand it, have no jurisdiction over any arbitrary power they have in designating what dogs shall be divided by sex. But the Rules Committee have jurisdiction over this matter. You will notice that the report says further, “Or any other scheme, such as the Collins’ plan”. They say, give us some suggestion.

Dr. De Mund: My only object was to take this out of the way.

Mr. Barnard: If the Rules Committee suggest a rule something like that, would not that arbitrarily do away with the power the License Committee now has, because then the breeds would get the winners’ classes according to the number of dogs at that Winners’ Show. The License Committee would not have anything to do with it.

The Chairman: That is what they want.

Mr. Barnard: I don’t catch Dr. De Mund’s idea.

Mr. Ritchey: This rule will now become a rule on Jan 1st?

The Chairman: Yes

Mr. Ritchey: As the motion has just passed you have accepted the report.

Several Members: No, sir.

Mr. Ritchey: Under the motion as now passed it does become effective the 1st of Jan?

The Chairman: The Rules Committee could not make the rule effective until at the Annual Meeting in which any rule would have to be published in the Gazette and therefore would not become effective until Jan 1st.

Mr. Ritchey: What has been voted upon here?

The Chairman: nothing. We cannot change the rule and have it in effect until after the Annual Meeting.

A. P. Vredenburgh: And any rule cannot go into effect until ninety days after acted on.

Mr. Wood: Do you mean to say that if that is the rule of the American Kennel Club that the Delegates cannot change it? We can refuse to accept that report. Certainly if the Delegates have the right to refuse to accept that report they have the right to change the rule.

Dr. De Mund: They have that power but I think not after having been presented to the Delegates.

Mr. Wood: The Delegates sent it to them.

Mr. Bloodgood: They have the power but preferred to come to us. They are not trying to enforce any power. They are trying to do what everybody wants. They desire to find out what your pleasure is in the matter and whether it is satisfactory to you or not. There is no danger of any of these things being put in action.

Mr. Wood: Is there any reason why we cannot direct the Rules Committee to do what the License Committee ask?

The Chairman: No. you are only referring that one clause to the Rules Committee.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The only reason this report was brought before this meeting was because the License Committee suggested what they thought was a better plan than what the bylaws instructed them to do. if they simply divided winners’ classes according to the first part of the report the report would not have been submitted to the Delegates at all because it was final with the License Committee. They thought to suggest something in their opinion better than that and that is the reason it was final with the License Committee. They thought to suggest something in their opinion better than that and that is the reason it was referred to the Delegates.

Mr. West: My motion is that we refer it to the Rules Committees.

The Chairman: Those in favor?

Dr. De Mund: I move that this report go back to the License Committee and that the Committee be requested by the Delegates to withdraw putting it into effect until further instructions from the Delegates.

Motion seconded.

The Chairman: All those in favor? Unanimously carried.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The Fanciers’ Association of Indiana tender their resignation.

The Chairman: Are they in good standing?

A. P. Vredenburgh: They are in good standing up to the 1st of next Jan.

The Chairman: Is this resignation of the Fanciers’ Association of Indiana accepted? If no objection it will be accepted.

A. P. Vredenburgh: That is all I have to bring to the attention of the Delegates.
Mr. Coombs: Will you please advise the exact status at the present time of the question of registering foreign dogs? The matter has come up in the Bull Terriers Club and I am instructed to register the protest of the Bull Terriers Club to accepting a foreign unpedigreed dog merely on its wins.

A. P. Vredenburgh: No such rule.

Mr. Coombs: My reason for that is the motion passed by the Directors is that the dog must have ten points and three generations.

A. P. Vredenburgh: That is right.

The Chairman: You withdraw your objection?

Mr. Coombs: Yes.

A. P. Vredenburgh: It has to have three complete generations of pedigree and credited with ten points towards a championship for an American bred dog. A foreign bred dog can always be registered on three generations of pedigree. It does not have to have any wins at all.

A. P. Vredenburgh: Yes.

The Chairman: If no objection the minutes as they appeared in the Gazette will be accepted and placed on file.

Any election of officers?

A. P. Vredenburgh: No.

The Chairman: The report of the Secretary.

A. P. Vredenburgh: I beg to present the following matters for your consideration.

New York, Sept 16, 1916

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the following matters for your consideration.

The Shepaug Valley Kennel Club was prevented from holding its show claimed for Sept 1, 1915 for the reason that the Board of Health has forbidden both the Shepaug Valley Fair and the Kennel Club from holding their shows on account of Infantile Paralysis.

In view of this fact, they respectfully ask the American Kennel Club to return its license fee and date deposits.

I will submit a report from the San Francisco Trial Board, the result of an investigation of the conduct of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Southern California, for which permission for such investigation was granted by the Board of Directors at the May meeting. Also a report from the New York Trial Board.

Mr. M. M. Palmer has filed a protest against the action of the Stud Book Committee in granting the Kennel Name “Delaware Valley Farms”.

Mr. F. W. Paget sends a communication to the Directors on the subject of the registration in the English Kennel Club of the kennel name “Wildfire”. I have been in communication with Mr. Paget since Jan 7\textsuperscript{th} last, and took the matter up with the English Kennel Club April 19\textsuperscript{th} last. I have kept Mr. Paget posted on the matter, and finally under date of Sept 8\textsuperscript{th} last informed him that the English Kennel Club had cancelled its registration of the word “Wildfire”.

I will submit two communications referring to the late Southhampton Kennel Club Show.

Mrs. J. C. Mallery was suspended by the Central New York Kennel Association on Dec 3, 1915, and same was confirmed by the Directors on Feb 24, 1916.

Under date of June 13, 1916, the Secretary of the Central New York Kennel Association advised us that at a meeting held by said club on June 12, 1916 it was voted to ask the American Kennel Club to reinstate Mrs. Mallery to good standing.
Under date of Sept 18, 1909, Sydney A. Cummings of San Francisco, California was disqualified. Mr. Cummings has applied for reinstatement, and said application is recommended by three persons. He has also paid the necessary fee of $5.00 with his appeal.

Under date of August 6, 1910, G. S. Haliwell was disqualified by the Pacific Advisory Committee, and now appeals for reinstatement, same accompanied by the necessary fee of $5.00, and his reinstatement is recommended by our Western Agent.

It is with regret that I present the resignation of a Delegate, a Director, and Chairman of the License Committee from Mr. A. C. Wilmerding, owing to a claim upon his time by his business, and also that his physical condition requires him to reduce as far as possible the various labors that he has assumed in the past outside of his personal business.

With the exception of myself, Mr. Wilmerding has been connected with the American Kennel Club as a Delegate longer than any other living Delegate, and it is with regret that I am obliged to present this resignation.

Notice has been received of the following suspensions: June 15/16 – Mrs. And Mrs. A. A. Swartz by the Long Island Kennel Club. July 25, 1916; John Cresser by the French Bulldog Club of America. August 30, 1916, Mrs. Albert Gagnee by the Asbury Park Kennel Club. August 31, 1916; John W. Keegan and M. A. Burney by the Kennel Club of Atlantic City.

In reference to the suspension by the Kennel Club of Atlantic City, I am in receipt of a communication from the Superintendent of said show under date of Sept 8, 1916, that a special meeting of the Bench Show Committee of said club will be held on Sept 20, 1916 when the cases of Keegan and Burney will be reopened.

The following charges have been preferred: June 17, 1916; Harry Rushton vs. Bulldog Club of New Jersey. June 3, 1916; Harry Rushton vs. Bulldog Club of America and Bulldog Breeders’ Association.

July 25, 1916; Gwynned Valley Kennel Club vs. L. R. Blynn.

August 15, 1916; A. G. Eberhart vs. Chicago Kennel Club

Sept 9, 1916; Mrs. E. L. Brownell vs. George F. Flach

I recommend that the above suspensions and charges be referred to such Trial Boards as you may deem advisable.

I have an unsigned complaint against the Minnesota State Fair for allowing a Mr. Craig of Tracy, Minnesota to exhibit puppies under age at such show.

The Golden Gate Kennel Club was fined by this office $25.00 for transferring an entry received at their late show. I will present a letter on the subject from the Superintendent of the Show.
The disbursements made by our Western Agent to July 1, 1916 amounting to $26.95 and bill for which mis-carried in the mail, which was to be presented to the Executive Committee meeting which was ordered for July 18, last, no quorum being present, I assumed the responsibility of paying said bill, which I found to be correct, and now ask this Board to confirm my action.

I beg to present excuses from the following Directors:

M. M. Palmer for absence at the May meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

The Chairman: You have heard the Secretary’s report. What is your pleasure?

It will be placed on file and taken up in due order.

Mr. Bloodgood: Mr. Keasbey asked me to extend his excuses on the ground that he is in a Directors’ Meeting this afternoon and would get here if possible.

A Member: Mr. Stewart asked me to present his regards and his excuse is that he has typhoid fever.
A. P. Vredenburgh: I beg to submit the financial report which is as follows:

New York, September 18, 1916

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit the following report from Jan 1, 1916, to date:

Balance on hand ........................................ $36,473.10
Receipts from Jan 1, 1916 to date ..................... 37,473.36
Total .......................................................... 73,946.46
Disbursements from Jan 1, 1916 to date.......... 66,587.41
Balance on hand ........................................ $ 7,359.05

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

The Chairman: You have some bonds?
A. P. Vredenburgh: Yes, $29,000.

The Chairman: You have heard the report. If there is no objection it will be placed on file. Now take up the Secretary’s report.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The Shepaug Kennel Club was prevented holding their meeting by the Board of Health and they ask for the return of their license fee amounting to $50.

Upon motion duly made and seconded the request was granted.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The San Francisco Trial Board was given permission at the last meeting to investigate the conduct of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Southern California. This is their report.

Mr. Wood: A little of this came up on the Membership Committee in connection with two clubs there asking to take the place of this one they thought might be disqualified, and as Mr. Howard Willets and Dr. De Mund are going to California in the next six weeks it seems to me a good idea that they be authorized to talk it over with our Western Agent and report to our Directors at the December meeting. I will make that as a motion if the Chair sees fit to consider this as a motion. Also that nothing be published regarding this matter until they report.

A Member: I second that motion.

The Chairman: I think it is just as well if we do not publish this discussion.

A. P. Vredenburgh: We want to keep a record of it.

The Chairman: yes.

Mr. Bloodgood: It seems they have not passed on these things. Almost everything presented there has been passed on. They have not read the rules and they paid no attention to them in running the show. This show evidently practically violated all the rules of the American Kennel Club. Because you are a nice fellow you ought not to be punished is not the intention of the American Kennel Club. It is our intention to be just. I think their idea of just a censure and a few fines sounds absurd to me.
It is apparently not justice. We have punished other people for these mistakes time and time again. Why should we alter our precedents here just for this Club? I think the motion ought to be made to have them show cause why they should not be disqualified. To me it was the most loosely run show I ever heard of.

Mr. Wood: I think that Mr. Bloodgood is entirely correct. Somebody ought to be disqualified. The only question is whether the entire club should be dropped from membership, or whether particular officers should be disqualified. I saw them last year. Previous shows were run about the same way. I think Mr. Willets and Dr. De Mund could determine whether it would be a proper thing to drop the club or particular officers. We have an application from two others. Our Western Agent suggested not accepting either application for the present.

Mr. Morse: We have a report from our San Francisco Trial Board. I do not see why we should appoint a Committee. Why not act on this?

MR. Hooley: I think there is a great absence of knowledge out there as to what is required and as to how shows could be and should be run. I do not say that applies in this particular case because I think the lady who was running that show had experience in the East and knew something about it. But there is no question but the man in authority in connection with this club running the show really knew nothing about it. I found it so when there last fall.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think Mr. Hooley’s suggestions are good, but the question of ignorance is no excuse whatever.

A. P. Vredenburgh: I would like to state that I had a personal letter from our Western Agent, as a supplement to this report, in which he says that one of the applications that Mr. Wood refers to, by the Southern California Kennel Club for membership, was brought about by the present Ladies’ Association of Southern California, knowing that they had been investigated and feeling that the charges against them were so strong that they wanted to perpetuate themselves by forming another club under another name with different officers but at the same time really representing the present Ladies’ Association of Southern California.

And further than that, Miss Anita Baldwin, hearing of this investigation and that the chances were that the present Ladies’ Kennel Association would probably go out of existence, wanted to jump in and have a membership in Los Angeles and she also sent in an application for a New York membership for the Southern California Kennel Club. She is President and her kennel man is Secretary and another employee in her employ is Treasurer.

It shows they were onto this defense. They came to the conclusion that investigation would bring out such facts that would go against the Ladies' Association and these two factions wanted to get in there and take their place. In this supplementary letter, although addressed to me as Secretary and not as a member of the Committee, he says that from facts that have come to their hearing he is strongly of opinion that the Ladies Kennel Association of Southern California should be suspended forthwith.

Mr. Hooley: Is Mr. Ford a member of this club?

A. P. Vredenburgh: No.

Mr. Hooley: If he is a member of that club I think we should be very careful about dropping the club. I agree with what Mr. Bloodgood says. The only question in my mind is what action we should take as to dropping the entire club or a certain membership in it or certain officers. Mr. Ford of Pasadena is above reproach. This is a Pasadena crowd. Mr. Connors lives in Pasadena. I am simply speaking for Mr. Ford and some of the people that I know.

Mr. Wood: I have no desire by that motion to do anything but postpone action. I do not think it will do any harm if we wait. Maybe we ought to suspend the club and suspend several members. That report is in a way a whitewashing report. Now along comes Vedder afterwards and says we ought to do more and he makes up his mind from hearsay evidence after the trial is over.

Mr. Bloodgood: I have no objection to postponing it until we get some information. There is no objection to that. But I think you will come to the same conclusion when you return.

A. P. Vredenburgh: It is a question, Mr. Chairman, whether we could disqualify or suspend that club without giving them an opportunity to show cause why they should not be suspended.

Mr. Bloodgood: that is my suggestion. Direct them to show cause why they should not be suspended.

Mr. Hooley: I second the motion.

The Chairman: The motion is made and seconded that the Chair appoint as a Committee Dr. De Mund and Mr. Willets to go into the matter with the Pacific Advisory Board and report.

Mr. Wood: And with the people in Los Angeles.

The Chairman: Yes.

A. P. Vredenburgh: And that this report be accepted and ordered filed.

Mr. Wood: Yes, but not to be published.

A. P. Vredenburgh: I understand, not to be published.

The chairman: Are you read for the question, gentlemen? Those in favor? Carried unanimously.

The next motion is that the report be accepted and filed but held up pending their return.
Mr. Wood: I so move.
Mr. Hooley: I second that motion.
The Chairman: Gentlemen, you have heard the motion. What is your pleasure? Unanimously carried.
A. P. Vredenburgh: Now as to the action of the Stud Book Committee in granting the kennel name “Delaware Valley Farms” to Mr. John Keyser (reads communications).
The Chairman: Was that kennel name granted by the Stud Book Committee?
A. P. Vredenburgh: Yes. The kennel name was granted by the Stud Book Committee. This is a protest against their action by Mr. M. M. Palmer.
The Chairman: Gentlemen, you have heard the complaint.
Mr. Bloodgood: Have you any reasons from the Committee why they granted this kennel name? have they stated any reasons at all?
A. P. Vredenburgh: No, sir.
The Chairman: Has this protest been sent to the Committee?
A. P. Vredenburgh: No, it was just received.
Mr. Wood: It seems to me the point is pretty well taken.
The Chairman: It seems to me the Stud Book Committee will think so too.
Mr. Palmer: Outside of what I have written to the American Kennel Club I naturally would think the Stud Book Committee would be thoroughly familiar with the rules governing registration of kennels, and there are seven distinct rules on the application blanks, one of which absolutely nullifies what the Stud Book Committee has done. No applicant in the name of any State, etc., will be approved or granted. Any State. Delaware happened to be a state.

The Chairman: I think we might hand that back to the Stud Book Committee and then if they refuse to alter it the protest will come to us.

MR. Wood: I don’t know what the Stud Book Committee might have done if any suggestion was made they should not have granted that. But there are some precedents. There are several Valleys, Valley Field and Valley View and one or two others already in the Stud Book. We saw no reason why Delaware Valley should not be also in the Stud Book. Of course, Delaware is the name of a State, but Delaware Valley or Delaware River or Mississippi River is not within that rule.

A Member: Is not this Delaware Valley Farm?

Mr. Wood: I don’t understand there is any objection to farm. There are lots of farms.

Mr. Palmer: It seems to me the matter should be referred to the Stud Book Committee for action.

(The motion was then duly seconded.)
The Chairman: It is moved and seconded that the matter be referred to the Stud Book Committee. Motion carried.

A. P. Vredenburgh: This is in relation to the same “Wildfire” (Reads communication in relation thereto). This letter is addressed to the Board of Directors after I had been in correspondence for the last five months with Mr. Paget telling him I had taken the matter up with the English Kennel Club and as soon as I heard from the English Kennel Club I would promptly notify him. He knew it was in progress and ignoring the Kennel Club office he goes to the Directors. In the meantime the correspondence I have had with the English Kennel Club brought about a meeting at which time they cancelled the registration of “Wildfire” in England, and I notified Mr. Paget to that effect. There was one single registration outside of Mr. Paget’s registration with the name Wildfire attached to it, and that was an English registration that was registered in England with the prefix Wildfire that we under our reciprocity agreement were bound to adopt. That registration was good and it was good over in England. Now they have cancelled it and I have very serious doubts whether we have any right to cancel a registration accepted in that way.

Dr. De Mund: It seems to me that Mr. Paget is right in his contention that we had no right in the first place of registering that as the American Kennel Club had granted him the prefix Wildfire some three or four months before this prefix was granted to the English Kennel Club and I think the dog’s registration should be cancelled.

A. P. Vredenburgh: I don’t think you have the right to do it.

Mr. Bloodgood: I don’t see how you can do anything else but cancel it. We have to uphold our own rules.

A. P. Vredenburgh: That was the rule at the time of registration.

Mr. Bloodgood: When did you notify Mr. Paget of this?

A. P. Vredenburgh: I have been in correspondence with him since last Jan.

Mr. Bloodgood: Have you informed him as things were going along? I see you make an objection to bringing it before the Board of Directors?

Mr. Bloodgood: But if I had waited give months and had not heard a word I might object.

A. P. Vredenburgh: Jan 27 I wrote him. June 26 I wrote him. July 24 I wrote him and I explained to him thee and quoted the letter from the English Kennel Club/ I write that to Mr. Paget on the 24th day of July.

Mr. Bloodgood: How long has this been going on?
A. P. Vredenburgh: Since the 7th of Jan. Then I write to him again September 8th. It was August 9th that I notified him of the cancellation.

Since that time there has been a puppy out of this bitch registered here.

Dr. De Mund: I move that the registration named Wildfire be cancelled.

The Chairman: Yes, and substitute some other name.

Mr. Willets: I move as an amendment that both those registrations be cancelled and the money for the registrations be returned and then they can re-register them under another name.

The Chairman: Put that motion again, Mr. Willets.

Mr. Willets: I move that the registration under the prefix Wildfire be cancelled and the owner be told that he has the privilege to re-register the dog under another name.

Motion seconded.

The Chairman: I do not think it necessary to return the registration fee as long as it is to change the name. You have heard the motion, gentlemen, what is your pleasure? Unanimously carried.

A. P. Vredenburgh: Here is a communication from London on the question of a kennel name. Referring to the late Southampton Kennel Club Show. (Discussion about Snowball of Esperance).
It developed that the dog in question was registered under No. 205,832 but no definite action was taken.

On motion duly made and seconded Mrs. J. C. Mallery was reinstated.

The applications of Sydney A. Cummings and G. S. Haliwell for reinstatement were passed upon. Upon motion duly made and seconded they were reinstated.

The resignation of A. G. Wilmerding was upon motion duly made and seconded accepted with regrets.

Upon motion duly made and seconded the following suspensions were confirmed, June 15, 1916, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Swartz by the Long Island Kennel Club.

August 30, 1916, Mrs. Albert Gagnee by the Asbury Park Kennel Club.

The Chairman: Have they appealed?

A. P. Vredenburgh: Mrs. Gagnee has not appealed. Mr. Cresser has appealed.

The suspensions of John W. Keegan and M. A. Durney by the Kennel Club of Atlantic City were not acted upon because it was reported that their cases would be reopened and would be tried tomorrow.

Mrs. Swartz lives in New York and Mrs. Cresser in Brooklyn.

The Kennel Club of Atlantic City suspended two men but informed me they would reopen the case at the meeting to be held tomorrow.

Mrs. Swartz appeals.
The Chairman: We have to uphold the suspensions.
A. P. Vredenburgh: unless they appeal.

We have several complaints, Rushton against the Bulldog Club of New Jersey and against the Bulldog Club of America and the Bulldog Breeders’ Association.

Mr. Wood: Wont it save time to have the Secretary notify those clubs saying they will be suspended if they don’t pay their specials?
A. P. Vredenburgh: The Bulldog Club of New Jersey is out of existence.
Mr. Wood: I thought it would save time for the Secretary to notify those clubs to pay or the matter would go to the Trial Board. I make that as a motion.
The motion was duly seconded.
The Chairman: All those in favor. Carried.
A. P. Vredenburgh: If not paid within 30 days?
Mr. Wood: I would not give them that long.
Mr. Bloodgood: Oh, yes.
A. P. Vredenburgh: Go to the Trial Board.
Mr. Wood: Yes. Give me a memorandum of the Bulldog Club and I will try to collect it tonight.
A. P. Vredenburgh: The Gwynedd Valley Club is quite a serious proposition in connection with Mr. Blynn in regard to his refusal to return a cup and has to be handled carefully.
This does not want to be published. He has eloped with $25 or $30 of the money. He is getting $6,000 or $7,000 on the New York American and we think he ought to pay it.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The worst part is he is a Delegate.

Mr. Wood: He won’t probably be a Delegate long because he is a Delegate form the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Southern California.

A. P. Vredenburgh: This was for a cup.

The Chairman: Why not tell him to return the cup?

Mr. Wood: Surely

A. P. Vredenburgh: Or what?

The Chairman: Return the cup in 30 days or be suspended. Does that suit everybody? So ordered.

A. P. Vredenburgh: Charges for non-payment of money. He claims a balance of $12.

Dr. De Mund: I move to send that to the Chicago Trial Board.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The Chicago Trial Board and the Chicago Kennel Club are practically the same thing.

Dr. De Mund: I move that it go to the New York Trial Board.

Motion duly seconded.

The Chairman: All those in favor say aye.
Carried.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The protest of Mrs. Brownell against George Flach in what is claimed the fraudulent registration of a dog.

Mr. Wood: I move that it be sent to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion duly seconded.

The Chairman: So ordered.

A. P. Vredenburgh: Do you suppose I ought to take notice of this unsigned complaint?

Dr. De Mund: Scrap basket.

Mr. Wood: I so move.

The Chairman: Unless there is objection so ordered.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The Golden Gate Kennel Club was fined by this office $25.

A. P. Vredenburgh: I have a letter from Mrs. Vedder. Here was a dog entered in the bitch class called Billy and he transferred her to the dog class and he was fined $25.

Mr. Willets: I move that be remitted.

Motion duly second.

Mr. Bloodgood: I don't see how you can remit it. If you have a rule you have to stand by it. It does not matter who did it. I don't care whether it was ourselves or some one else.
Mr. Wood: One of the Executive Committee made the same mistake in Philadelphia and we paid $25.
A. P. Vredenburgh: He did not make the same mistake.
Mr. Wood: We were fined for it.
Mr. Bloodgood: It is not a question whether we want to make him pay it or not. It is a question whether we want to go into it.
The Chairman: It seems to me we ought to make him pay more than anyone else because he is our own agent.
Mr. Bloodgood: I think we ought to stick to our rules.
The Chairman: I think if anybody else does it they will be able to say, you let Vedder off, why not let us off.
Mr. Bloodgood: Yes, because Vedder is us.
The Chairman: What is the next motion?
A. P. Vredenburgh: Then the penalty must be enforced?
It was then duly moved and seconded that the penalty be enforced. All in favor?
Carried.
A. P. Vredenburgh: I have a bill for disbursements of the Western Agent amounting to $26.95 which I paid July 18th. I would like to have that confirmed.
Dr. De Mund: I move it be confirmed.

Mr. Wood: I second the motion.

The Chairman: Gentlemen, you have heard the motion and it is seconded.

Those in favor. Carried.

Dr. De Mund: There is a vacancy as a Director Mr. Wilmerding’s resignation having been accepted. I move that John F. Collins be elected in his place.

The motion was duly seconded and unanimously carried, the Secretary being authorized to cast one vote for Mr. Collins for the unexpired term.

Mr. Willets: I nominate Dr. De Mund as Chairman of the License Committee in place of Mr. Wilmerding.

The nomination was seconded and the nominations were closed. Dr. De Mund was unanimously elected and the Secretary authorized to cast one vote.

Mr. Bloodgood: Will you kindly inform us if the Directors that have not attended the meetings and have no excuses three times?

A. P. Vredenburgh: August Belmont, J. W. Appleton, Raymond Belmont. I think that is all.

The Chairman: Has not any one of those sent excuses? You have Mr. Appleton’s resignation.

Mr. Wood: If was refused, I think, and laid on the table.

Mr. Bloodgood: Mr. Appleton told us several times that he could not come.

There is no better man we could have here than Appleton but if he cannot come somebody ought to be here to fill his place and perform the duties of the office, and he has distinctly given us to understand that he cannot attend the meetings.

The Chairman: I have spoken to him personally about it several times.

Mr. Bloodgood: I know that. Nobody thinks more of Mr. Appleton than I do. but I do not think anybody should be on this board that does not attend the meetings and do the work. We don’t want figureheads on this board. Mr. Raymond Belmont was on the Membership Committee. He never attended at meetings. He has never been here.

A. P. Vredenburgh: I don’t recall the time he has been here.

Mr. Bloodgood: As far as the President goes, of course that is another proposition. There is something to be said on both sides there.

A. P. Vredenburgh: He has been to the meetings. I ought not to have called his name.

Mr. Bloodgood: I don’t think he has been absent three meetings.

A. P. Vredenburgh: he was absent at the May meeting and he is absent from this meeting.

Dr. De Mund: He was not present at the Annual Meeting. You read a letter.

A. P. Vredenburgh: Yes, the Annual Meeting and the May meeting and this meeting.

Mr. Bloodgood: As far as Appleton and Raymond Belmont are concerned I think they should be dropped from this Board. I think we should accept Mr. Appleton’s resignation, as he clearly put it that way. I don’t mean with any offense to anyone but as a question in behalf of the working force of the Kennel Club. If they are going to accept positions on this board they ought to be here. I think there has been too much of that absenteeism heretofore.

Dr. De Mund: Is not our rule explicit on that?

The Chairman: What is the rule?

A. P. Vredenburgh: It is accepted as a resignation.

Dr. De Mund: I thought our rule was final.

Mr. Wood: We have several precedents for dropping members in that way and also have written then that we will drop them if they did not attend.

The Chairman: I think we wrote one man once saying if he did not attend we should talk it as a resignation. I think it a good idea if we did the same to all three men.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think you are wrong when you do that.

Dr. De Mund: There was a great deal of criticism about that.
Mr. Bloodgood: The papers howled about it all over the country and it was stated that because it was Mr. Rockefeller. I don’t care who he is, whether the President of the United States or not. If he does not do what is right to this Kennel Club he ought not to be here. Here is the rule.

The Chairman: Did not Mr. Belmont write the last time?

A. P. Vredenburgh: He wrote to the Annual Meeting. He was not at the May meeting and is not at this meeting.

The Chairman: Gentlemen, what is your pleasure? Do you want to accept these resignations?

Dr. De Mund: I move that we accept the resignation of the Directors who have been delinquent under that Section 10 of bylaws.

A. P. Vredenburgh: Raymond Belmont, J. W. Appleton and August Belmont.

The motion was duly seconded.

The Chairman: All those in favor say aye.

Unanimously carried.

A. P. Vredenburgh: I present the following excuses, M. M. Palmer for absence at the May Meeting, R. P. Keasbey, William Rauch, Charles W. Keyes, E. L. Boger, S. R. Cutler, J. A. Buchanan, Chetwood Smith, George Greer, W. L. Barclay, R. C. Stewart, from this meeting.
It was moved and duly seconded that he excused be accepted. It was so ordered by the Chairman.

Mr. Wood then nominated J. R. Thorndike as a Director, which was duly seconded; Mr. West then nominated Morris Kenney as a Director, which was duly seconded. Dr. De Mund then nominated D. G. Lloyd as a Director which was duly seconded. And it was then moved that the Secretary draw lots for their positions.

The nominations were then closed after each nomination and each gentleman was unanimously elected.

A. P. Vredenburgh: I vote for the three nominees to fill the unexpired terms and to choose their classes by lots.

Here is a Maltese Terrier registered on the 30th of December, 1915, as Snowball of Esperance.

Mr. Willets: We have to recognize that here. I move that the Secretary write the English Kennel Club to ascertain if the Lady’s claim is correct, and if there be any wins entered under the name they be withdrawn.

The Chairman: She can change the name.

Mr. Willets: yes, but the dog won under a wrong name.

The Chairman: That is not exactly the point. We did not take Wildfire's wins away from him.

Mr. Willets: I withdraw that part of it.

A. P. Vredenburgh: She owns the word “Esperance”.
I don’t have to write for that.

Mr. Willets: Then I move the registration be cancelled.

Mr. Wood: And give him a change to re-register the same thing in the case of Wildfire.

The Chairman: Yes, all those in favor will say aye. Motion carried.

The demand of Floyd Price, Attorney for Mrs. Carl Baumann, for the return of affidavits handed to the Trial Board by his client and also the right to examine the evidence given by Mrs. Baumann to the Trial Board was refused. SPECIAL MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, HELD OCTOBER 25, 1916.

Dr. De Mund

The report of the Chicago Trial Board meeting Oct., 4, 1916 was presented.

In the case of the trial by the Board, and the Secretary of the Board filed his reply thereto.

The Secretary was directed to inform Ratto that he can appeal from the decision of the Chicago Trial Board subject to the Rules Governing Appeals.

The report of the New York Trial Board meeting held Oct. 16, 1916, was presented. The recommendation of the Board to reinstate to good standing Mr. & Mrs. A. Swartz was approved.

The penalty imposed against Frank F. Dole $50.00 for publishing in the premium list of the Suffolk County Kennel Club show a special for which he had no authority. The Committee directed the Secretary to inform the New York Trial Board that it exceeded its authority in the case. The authority given by the bylaws to Trial Boards is either suspension or disqualification.
for any misconduct.

The decision in the case of the Asbury Park Kennel Club against Mrs. Albert Gagney is that the action of said Asbury Park Kennel Club is suspending defendant is hereby upheld as a penalty for the latter’s failure to attend at the hearing of this case by that club; however, the wins of the dog are hereby reinstated and the suspension of Mrs. Gagney is hereby removed. The above action was approved by this Committee.

In the case of the French Bulldog Club vs. John Cresser, the Board sustains the action of the French Bulldog Club in suspending said Cresser and therefore withholds all privileges of the American Kennel Club from him for an additional period of thirty (30) days from date. Approved by this Committee.

In the case of John Brett, the Board sustains the position of the Executive Committee and declares Brett a Professional Handler according to Rule XVIII of the Rules Governing Clubs, and orders that he be deprived of all the privileges of the American Kennel Club without limit. Approved by this Committee.

The Spokane Kennel Club filed a complaint against Mr. O. F. Vedder for stating his personal opinion in regard to a show held at Spokane in an official communication. The Committee requests Mr. Vedder to withdraw the objectionable remark.

The failure of the Spokane Kennel Club to file its listing sheets with the American Kennel Club subjects the Club to penalty of one dollar a day from seven days after the closing of the show; but, inasmuch as the Secretary of that club has been ill since the closing of the show, this Committee directs that unless a copy of listings is filed with this office within 20 days from date, a penalty of one dollar a day will be imposed on and after that date.

A petition from the Pacific Coast Collie Club requesting the reinstatement of the Valverde Collies was considered by the Committee, and as no application from Mr. William Ellery for reinstatement has been received, this Committee cannot consider the petition from the Pacific Coast Collie Club.

The request of A. W. Cates for ruling on the following question:

“A Boston Terrier bitch is beaten for the best of the breed by a Boston Terrier dog. In competition for a special offered for the best Terrier and breed, the Boston Terrier dog is beaten by a Smooth Fox Terrier dog. In competition for the best in the show, a Smooth Fox Terrier dog is placed winner over an English Bulldog bitch. Is the Boston Terrier bitch eligible to compete for the Special for the best of the opposite sex under the conditions as named above?”

The Committee rules that the Boston Terrier bitch is eligible to compete for such a special.

The request for a ruling from Mrs. F. Thompson on the awards in unclassified specials for Toys at the Danbury show was presented. Mrs. Thompson’s dog won Reserve in Winners Classes of Pekingese Spaniels. The following day when the judging for the best Toy dog in the show took place, Mrs. Thompson took it for granted the dog having received First Winners was present, so did not take her dog in the ring. The winner of Third is taken in the ring and received the award for the best Toy. The Committee rules that Mrs. Thompson should have shown her dog. On her failure to do so, the award of the Judge is approved.
At the Wilmington Show of 1916, the Judges’ Book marked the Cocker Spaniel “Red Lady” as having received Reserve winners. The Judge Mr. Dole under date of October 2, five months after the show, wrote a letter to the owner of “Red Lady” that she was given winners instead of Reserve Winners. This Committee rules that in order to make a correction, it will be necessary for the Judge to correct his Judges Book and initial said correction.

The decision of the Detroit Kennel Club against the protest of B. M. Rosenheim is hereby sustained. The question at issue was a Boston Terrier entered in the class under seventeen lbs. disqualified in that class for the reason that he weighed 17 lbs. 1 oz. This dog came in for special for the best male Boston Terrier and was awarded the prize. This Committee rules that although the dog was disqualified for over-weight in its regular class, the dog was regularly entered at the show, was physically present, and was therefore entitled to compete for the best of its breed in the show, no other conditions appearing.

Mr. James Crawford a part owner of the Hillcote Kennels and manager of same for which he receives a salary asks if he is eligible to judge. The Committee rules that the is not eligible to act as a judge at any American Kennel Club show.

The complaint against A. W. Cates as Superintendent of the Grand Rapids show, for accepting entries of eight dogs of different breeds, the agent for said dogs as published in the catalogue being Mr. W. C. Cates the son of the Superintendent, was considered. The different dogs were entered in the name of the bona fide owners followed by the name of the agent. The Committee rules that as an agent he was not competing, and therefore did not violate the rules.
Complaint dismissed.

Complaint of Valentine Huff against the Suffolk County Kennel Club for an unpaid prize of $15.00 in gold was referred to the New York Trial Board.

The suspension of Mrs. E. O. Lakeland by the American Pomeranian Club was referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board.

A complaint by Edward Woods against J. W. Burton alleging that he is a professional handler was referred to the License Committee.

A protest from the Plainfield Kennel Club against the methods of the License Committee was ordered filed.

The Secretary was directed to use the office force to report meetings held by the Delegates and Directors and Executive Committee, and that on and after this date nothing shall be published in the official Gazette but results.

In the matter of the indebtedness of the Vickery Kennels to the American Kennel Club which the Secretary reported he could not collect, he was given authority to commence suit, and at the expiration of the advertising contract to discontinue same.

The Secretary reported that John Brett acted as Judge at the late show held at Binghamton, and was directed to send by registered mail to the Binghamton Industrial Exposition a marked copy of the Rule on the subject of invitations to judges, and ask if that Rules has been compiled with.

The Detroit Kennel Club filed a claim against A. W. Cates its late Superintendent for his failure to pay to said Club a balance of $89.74. The Secretary was directed to notify Mr. Cates that unless he promptly settles his indebtedness to the Detroit Kennel Club within ten days all privileges of the American Kennel Club will be withdrawn from him.

A complaint from Mrs. G. Horowitz of London, that Mrs. S. Williams exhibited a Maltese Terrier under the name of “Snowball of Esperance” the affix being registered by Mrs. Horowitz with the English Kennel Club was considered. The Committee decided that as no application has been received to register with the American Kennel Club the word “Esperance” the use of that word in the name of the dog does not conflict with the Reciprocity Agreement between the English Kennel Club and the American Kennel Club, and that we cannot therefore afford Mrs. Horowitz any relief.

The Committee accepted the resignation of Mr. J. A. Buchanan as a member of the License Committee, and Mr. R. P. Keasbey was appointed as his successor.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was presented:

Dec 8, 1916
Stud Book Committee

The Directors of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

The Stud Book Committee reports as follows on the matter referred to them.

In the matter of revising the list of foreign dogs, the Committee recommends that the German Sheepdog be classed as a native dog, as large numbers of them are bred and exhibited in the United States. We do not at present recommend any other change in the list of foreign dogs.

In the matter of the dispute between Messrs. John McGough and Wilford Wood as to the Breeder of the Airedale Bitch, Night-shade W. we decide McGough to be the Breeder.

In regard to the protest of Mr. M. M. Palmer in regard to granting the Kennel Name, Delaware Valley Farm, we are of the opinion that having granted this name, we have no authority to reverse our action in the matter and furthermore do not wish to grant to any one the exclusive use of the words Valley and Farm in combination with other words.

In the matter of the disputed pedigree of the Boston Terrier, Queenie Love, ALC
No. 211,414, we would request that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club send by registered mail to Geo. W. Flack, a letter similar to his letter under date of Sept 9th, and in case of the failure of Geo. Flack, to reply within ten (10) days, that the matter be referred to a Trial Board on the evidence of the letter of Mrs. Brownell.

We do not recommend changing the name of the German Sheepdog to the Germans Shepherd Dog.

The Secretary read the report as follows:

New York, Dec 18, 1916

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

At the meeting held Oct 25th last, the following matters were presented, and the Committee acted on same pending the compliance with its ordered, and I therefore report that in the case of the of Binghamton Exposition appointing John Brett as a Judge at its late Show, filed with this office a letter from John Brett in reply to their communication, in which he made a statement that he was not a professional handler.

Mrs. O. E. Lakeland was directed to pay a penalty of $4.00 and upon payment of same she would be reinstated to good standing. This penalty was promptly paid.

The complaint of the Detroit Kennel Club against A. W. Cates, its former Superintendent for his failure to make an accounting of monies received by him during said show is withdrawn, from the reason that said accounting was made to the satisfaction of the Detroit Kennel Club.
The appeal of the Pacific Coast Collie Club for the reinstatement of the Valverde dogs has been followed by another appeal on the same subject.
The complaint of the Spokane Kennel Club against our Western Agent for a personal remark made by him in an official communication has brought to hand a communication from our Western Agent on the subject.
Your instructions to your Secretary to commence suit against the Vickery Kennels for its failure to pay three years advertising contract was placed by your Secretary in the hands of Henry D. Coghlan an attorney in Chicago, and the account was settled by him for which we were obliged to pay his fee of $22.50.
The communication from John Ratto in reference to his several cases against Doctor White of Chicago.
The request of your Committee to the Chicago Trial Board to correct its report of Sept 13, 1916 has not yet been complied with.
The following new business is presented:
The case of Baumann vs. American Kennel Club.
We employed Morgan, Morgan and Carr and have paid said firm on account of services of the above entitled matter $250, said bill being approved by Mr. Bloodgood, to whom the matter was referred by your Committee.
A communication from the English Kennel Club on the use of the prefix Esperance.
A petition from a number of persons for the reinstatement of J. W. Keegan, who was suspended by the Philadelphia Trial Board.
Charges by Mrs. Brooks Ellwanger against the New York State Fair. for the payment of the sum of $5.85 won at said Fair.

The Secretary of the Show informed me that the check for said amount was in their hands and had been endorsed by Mrs. Brooks and F. F. Livesey her agent. This payment has been contradicted by Mrs. Ellwanger. I therefore called upon the Secretary of the New York State Fair to loan this com the cancelled voucher for said amount, which I have and will present to you for your judgement.

The Special Committee appointed to investigate the Kennel situation in Los Angeles, consisting of Dr. De Mund and Howard Willets will report the result of their investigation at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

Report accepted and ordered on file.

In the matter of the Binghamton Industrial Exposition on motion said Club was held guiltless of violating the American Kennel Club rules.

In the appeal of the Pacific Coast Collie Club for the reinstatement of the Valverde Collies it was moved by Dr. De Mund that the Secretary write to the Pacific Coast Collie Club and request it to furnish us with the names of the dogs which they wish reinstated, together with the names of their owners.

In the matter of the Vickery Kennels the Secretary reported that he had collected the outstanding advertising account, paying to Henry D. Coghlan, attorney, the commission of $22.50.

In the matter of the Western Agent’s letter to the Spokane Kennel Club the Secretary was directed to send a suitable reply to the Western Agent.

A communication from John Ratto was read in reference to the appeal of the Boston Terrier “Coast Guard.” The Secretary was directed to notify Ratto that this dog is registered with the American Kennel Club and that he can obtain the pedigree from this office at the usual cost.

The disbursement to Morgan, Morgan and Carr in the Baumann case was confirmed.

A communication from the English Kennel Club in reference to the protest of Mrs. Horowitz in registering a Maltese Terrier named “Snowball of Esperance.” The matter was referred to the Stud Book Committee.

The memorial in behalf of John W. Keegan asking that he be reinstated to good standing was presented.

Dr. De Mund: I move that as Keehan did not avail himself of his right to appeal that we cannot alter the decision of the Philadelphia Trial Board.

Mrs. Brooks Ellwanger made a complaint against the New York State Fair for its failure to pay to her the sum of $5.85, won by her dog at the late Syracuse Show.

On motion of Mr. Wood the Secretary was directed to write to Mrs. Ellwanger that we have in our possession the cancelled check of this Committee that said claim had been paid to Mr. Livesey.

The Special Committee consisting of Messrs. Howard Willets and Dr. De Mund made an oral report on the condition of affairs in Southern California and laid before this Committee a very satisfactory solution of the troubles in that section. It was therefore RESOLVED that the matter be referred to the Membership Committee and that the suggestions of the Special Committee be followed by said Membership Committee.

On motion it was determined that it is against the policies of the American Kennel Club for its Western Agency to act as superintendent or official at any show held under American Kennel Club rules.

Dr. De Mund presented the resignation of the Ladies Kennel Association of Southern California and on motion the same was accepted.

Mr. Chetwood Smith brought up the question of permitting show-giving clubs to refer to Stud Books other than that of the American Kennel Club and sighted specials offered at the Eastern Dog Club Show at Boston in Beagles. It was therefore MOVED and carried that no motion in any premium list or catalogue of any other Stud Book that that of the American Kennel Club shall be permitted and that this action be referred to the Special Committee on rules.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
LADIES’ DOG CLUB
-vs-
FRANK F. DOLE

BRIEF OF APPEAL

By your courtesy and permission I am submitting the following points as a basis for my contention that my appeal should be sustained.

First:-- It is my contention that the New York Trial Board had no jurisdiction to set in this case and was in error in assuming to consider it for the following reasons:--

(1) I submit that no proper complaint was ever preferred against me to the American Kennel Club. I shall be prepared to state at the hearing, which by your courtesy, I am to attend, certain facts and circumstances brought to the attention of certain officials of the Kennel Club. But it is my contention that the correspondences and statements in the hands of the Secretary do not constitute charges made under oath in accordance with the rules of the American Kennel Club and that they were never intended as such by the Ladies Dog Club of Massachusetts.
(2) I find no record of any reference having been made by the Board of Directors of this case to the New York Trial Board and as is well known by several decisions, it is only when the Board of Directors of this case to the New York Trial Board and as is well known by several decisions, it is only when the Board of Directors refer a case to a Trial board that the Trial Board has jurisdiction to hear it.

(3) No copy of the charges which by the rule should have been made with specification in duplicate, has ever been given to me in accordance with Section 6 of Article XIX of the bylaws.

(4) It is also my contention that the alleged misconduct took place, if at all, at a dog show, or at least concerned a dog show, and therefore, the proceedings should have been begun before the local show Committee.

See Rule XX and Rule XXII of the Rules Governing Clubs and Rule XXIII of the Rules Governing Dog Shows.

(5) It would seem to be very clear that whatever mistake or misconduct the evidence before the Trial Board disclosed was an infringement of Rule XII of the Rules Governing Clubs and that “The Show Giving Club: would be, under that rule, the responsible party, the penalty being fixed by that rule to be that “The Show Giving Club” shall award prizes of equal value. In other words, it seems to me that as I was acting simply as an agent of the Suffolk County Kennel Club and without authority the club published in its premium list special prizes, I am responsible to the Suffolk County Kennel Club for any failure in the publication which is complained of against me, and the penalty is fixed by the rule and therefore, the rule must be followed and the attempt on the part of the New York Trial Board to deprive me of the privileges of the American Kennel Club was beyond their power.
Lastly I contend that the Board of Directors are the only authority, outside of the Show Giving Club, the President of the American Kennel Club or in his absence, the Vice-President, which has jurisdiction to inflict punishment for violation of the rules governing clubs and that the alleged misconduct in this case, if any there was, amounted to a violation of Rule XIII and if any penalty was imposed at all, it should have been imposed under Rule XXII of the Rules Governing Clubs.

Second: -- If, however, the Executive Committee should decide that the New York Trial Board had jurisdiction to act in the case and that they did act within their province, I respectfully submit that the Executive Committee should sustain my appeal on the grounds that form a fair interpretation of the evidence before the New York Trial Board, the conclusions of that Board were not justified.

(1) As I have before mentioned it seems to me that the Suffolk County Kennel Club should be responsible in the first instances of my duty to that club and not to the American Kennel Club or the public at large.

(2) I would further suggest that the Ladies Dog Club of Mass, have not been injured and could not have been injured by the alleged misconduct and that if any one was injured it was my employer, the Suffolk County Kennel Club, therefore the Ladies’ Dog Club of Mass. Should not have been the complainants.

(3) It appeared in evidence undisputed that I, in causing the offer of these specials to be printed in the premium list, was acting upon authority given me by members of the Ladies’ Dog Club of Mass. Whom, I at the time believed had authority to act in behalf of that club; and that as soon as I was notified by the Secretary and the president of the Ladies’ Dog Club of Mass, that I had, without authority caused these specials to be printed in the premium list; I did all in my power to prevent further injury and refrained from printing them in the catalogue. It also appeared that the premium list was published only five days before the entries closed and that there were only two dogs exhibited at the show which were eligible to compete for these specials; that no demand was ever made for the special prizes and that they were never judged and no question was ever made in reference to the matter at the time of the show, and that neither the Show Giving Club not the Ladies’ Dog Club of Mass. Has been called upon to deliver these specials.

I therefore contend that in fairness considering the undisputed evidence, the Trial Board should at most have found only an error in judgment on my part which I did the best I could to remedy at the earliest opportunity and that through my efforts no one was injured by my error, therefore the Executive Committee should, I respectfully submit, decide that my conduct did not amount to misconduct.

(4) Lastly the record itself as it appears in the Kennel Gazette discloses the fact that the New York Trial board has recommended the Board of Directors to deprive me of the privileges of the American Kennel Club and does not purport to finally decide the case itself, which I contend amounts only to a recommendation to the Board of Directors and that until the Board of Directors act upon my case, I should be considered in good standing. At least the Executive Committee should decide that my appeal should be sustained and that I am at present entitled to all the privileges of the American Kennel Club, because for the reason stated above the New York Trial Board are exceeding their authority in making recommendations to the Board of Directors until the Board of Directors have submitted a case to them for recommendation.

Third:-- It would seem as if there need be nothing more said in reference to this case, but if contentions so far are not valid, I respectfully ask that I be given a further trial before the New York Trial Board and that my case be remanded to the New York Trial Board in order that I may introduce other evidence which I have become acquainted with since the trial and in order that I may have further opportunity to more carefully prepare and present my case than I did in the first instance.

(1) I have never been allowed to examine the charges preferred against me or the evidence introduced against me, although I have requested it.

(2) As to the newly derived evidence I shall avail myself of your courtesy by explaining that orally to the Executive Committee at the hearing.

Fourth:-- I cannot help feeling that the penalty inflicted upon me or recommended by the New York Trial Board is excessive and unreasonably severe.

(1) An examination of the rules governing clubs and the rules governing dog shows will disclose the fact that many errors and wrongs for cause far greater than the one I am accused of are punishable by small fines, the greater being $25.00.

(2) As is well known, I have already been deprived of the right to judge at one show which has deprived me of $50.00, that through the press I have been greatly injured and humiliated and probably have suffered many financial losses.

(3) As the Executive Committee well know, I derive substantially my entire livelihood from my activities connected with dog matters and that the slightest reflection upon my good name will be of incalculable injury to me.

Fifth:-- The infliction of a penalty, I submit is to prevent a repetition of the alleged wrongful conduct and I assure the Executive Committee that what I have suffered already at the hands of the American Kennel Club had accomplished all that any penalty could accomplish.

I wish to thank the Executive Committee for its courtesy in allowing me to submit this brief and to appear before it.

FRANK F. DOLE

Mr. Collins, Chairman of the New York Trial Board, was in attendance upon the request of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club to answer such questions as the Committee might put to him. Thereupon Messrs. Dole and Collins withdrew and the Committee considered the case and arrived at the following conclusion:----

RESOLVED that the appeal of Frank Dole be not sustained;
RESOLVED that the privileges of the American Kennel Club be restored to the said Frank F. Dole on and after May 13, 1917.

The Secretary presented a complaint from the President of the New Haven Kennel Club against Frank F. Dole. It was resolved that the same be referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board with the suggestion that the principle matter to be investigated was the failure of Mr. Dole to supply the said New Haven Kennel Club with a report giving the names and addresses of such persons or parties from whom he had received entry fees and such other matters as might be necessary to complete the records of said New Haven Kennel Club.

Mr. M. M. Palmer through his attorneys, Messrs. Bloomthal and Levy, 233 Broadway, NYC, filed a notification in support of his protest against the Kennel Name “Delaware Valley Farms” granted to one John L. Kuser and claiming that it conflicted with the kennel name Valley Farms owned by the said M. M. Palmer, notifying us that unless the kennel name Delaware Valley Farms be cancelled said firm would take such legal proceedings as they may deem it advisable to enforce their client’s rights. The matter was referred to our Legal Committee for its opinion.

On motion the Secretary was directed not to publish the minutes of this meeting in the Gazette.

Adjourned.

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last quarterly meeting, I have received four applications for Active Membership, and referred same to our Membership Committee, which reports the approval of the admission of the Arizona Kennel Club, Canton Kennel Club, Los Angeles Kennel Club and the Worchester Kennel Club.

I also received credentials from eight Clubs appointing delegates. The Committee approved of the following: Brunswick Foxhound Club, appointing Edson F. Starks; Genessee Valley Kennel Club, appointing A. McClure Halley; Washington Kennel Club, appointing S. J. Held; French Bulldog Club of America, appointing Robert F. Smith and the Boston Terrier Club, appointing Richard R. Lawrence.

The Committee withholds its report on three Credentials for the reason that the candidate was not known to any one member of the Committee, not was he vouch for by any person known to any member of the Committee.

The New London Kennel Club had filed its resignation as an Active Member. This club was in good standing to Dec 31, 1916 I would recommend the acceptance of its resignation.

The Committee appointed at the Dec meeting to nominate candidates for the expiring class of Directors and Standing Committees will report its nominations at this meeting.
At the meeting in May 1916, a Special Committee of three was appointed to revise and codify the bylaws and the rules, and its report was published in the Gazette of Jan 31, 1917, and can now come before the Delegates for action.

Article XXIII, Section 1 of the bylaws does not apply in this case for the reason that Delegates directed the Special Committee to do special work and present same at the following annual meeting (Feb 1917) for such action as the Delegates may deem proper.

The following clubs have been automatically dropped from Membership on accordance with the Rules: Buffalo Kennel Club, International Toy Poodle Club, Oakland and Alameda County Kennel Club, California Scottish Terrier Club, National Fox Hunters Assn., Louisville Kennel Assn., Jersey City Kennel Club, Pittsburgh Collie Club, Wisconsin Kennel Club, Cleveland Fanciers Assn., and the Yorkshire Terrier Club.

On motion the Bylaws as recommended by the Special Committee were adopted as published.

Inasmuch as several Delegates stated that they desired to offer several minor amendments to the bylaws, it was moved and seconded that the vote on the adoption of the bylaws be reconsidered. The vote being taken, the President announced game to have been carried.

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

   The Stud Book Committee reports as follows:--

   The German Shepherd Dog Club has applied to have the breed German Sheepdog recognized by the American Kennel Club under the name of German Shepherd Dog. The club asks this change of name for the following reasons: --
1. That the American Kennel Club admitted to membership the Specialty Club for that breed under the name of German Shepherd Dog Club.
2. That the breed in Germany is called Deutscher Shaferhunde, the proper translation of which is German Shepherd Dog.

3. That a different breed in Germany is known as the Sheep dog, so that Germany has both Shepherd dogs and Sheep dogs.

A number of years ago application was made to the Stud Book Committee for the recognition of the breed German Sheepdog in the list of foreign dogs. The authority on Foreign dogs recognized by the Rules Committee in Rule V, Section H, of the Rules Governing Shows, is Count Henry de Bylandt’s book “Dogs of all Nations.” It has been the custom of the Stud Book Committee to consult this book before recognizing a breed of foreign dogs. This book refers to the breed in question as Deutscher Shaferhunde or German Sheepdog. The Count de Bylandt clearly does not attempt to make the English name of this breed a literal translation of the German name Deutscher Shaferhunde. In countries where the English language is spoken, the name for a dog that herds sheep is sheep dog. For instance we have the Shetland Sheepdog, the Old English Sheepdog, the Sheepdog of the Marennes, the Russian Sheepdog, the Welsh Sheepdog, etc.

This breed was originally recognized by the Stud Book Committee under the name given to it by the Count de Bylandt in “Dogs of all Nations.”

In regard to the point that Germany has both Shepherd Dogs and Sheep dogs, your Committee fail to find any mention of a German Shepherd Dogs in dogs of all national and therefore if any breed of sheepdog or shepherd dog exists differing from the breed in question, such breed under the rules could not compete in a miscellaneous class and would not be recognized by the Stud Book Committee and therefore could cause no confusion in the Stud Book.

When the German Shepherd Dog Club applied to the American Kennel Club for membership, the breed in which they were interested has already been recognized under the name of German Sheepdog. As to whether admission to membership should have been asked for by this club under a name differing from that of the breed which they expected to represent, is not for the Stud Book Committee to determine.

As this matter has been referred three times to the Stud Book Committee your Committee has made an effort to fully set forth the reasons for the previous reports on this subject; further the Committee disclaims any wish to run counter to the wishes of the breeders and exhibitors of the German Dog, but as long as the Count de Bylandt book remains the authority on foreign dogs, recognized by the American Kennel Club, your Committee does not see its way to recommend the change asked for. Further as this breed has appeared in the Stud Book for many years under the name of German Sheepdog, a change of name in the future would create some confusion and in the opinion of your Committee would not be for the best interests of the Stud Book.

In the matter of the registration of the Maltese Terrier “Snowball of Esperance” protested by the English Kennel Club as violation the Reciprocity Agreement, your Committee reports that this dog is a Champion of Record and has received this Championship Certificate and under the rules his name cannot be changed. The question of the protest appears to turn on the proper interpretation of the Reciprocity Agreement.

In case the wording is not clear, the Stud Book Committee cannot be sure of the proper interpretation, but will confirm the substance of the contents of the Stud Book as far as they are able to any ruling on the question furnished to them by the American Kennel Club.

W. L. Barclay (Chairman)
C. R. Wood
Theo. Offerman

On motion the report was accepted and adopted.
In the matter of the Maltese Terrier “Snowball of Esperance” protested by the English Kennel Club for the reason that “Esperance” is a registered kennel name in England, the Secretary was directed to communicate with the English Kennel Club and ask if they will be willing for this registration to remain in force for the reason that the dog has won its championship and has received its Championship certificate and medal; if the English Kennel Club still objects that the Stud Book Committee shall direct the owner of said dog to have the name changed and to be re-registered under its new name, the owner to return the Championship certificate and medal upon receipt of which a new Championship certificate and medal shall be issued under the new name.

On motion same was carried.

On motion the Secretary was directed to cause a card index made of all English Kennel Names and same to be consulted so as to prevent the use in any manner or connection with the name of a registered dog.

Mr. Wm. L. Barclay resigned as Chairman of the Law Committee and W. Ross Proctor was elected Chairman in his place.

On motion the above resignations and elections were made to appear as the original election.

On motion a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Wm. L. In the matter of the protest of M. M. Palmer against the registration fo the kennel name Delaware Valley Farms. The Law Committee to which this matter was referred at the December meeting, reported that the matter be referred to the Executive Committee for final action with the request that said Committee will hear the parties and render a final decision, provided however that both M. M. Palmer and John L. Kuser will each stipulate to abide by the decision of the Executive Committee in the matter.

On motion the Board of Directors granted authority to the Executive Committee to rescind the action of the Board of Directors at the Dec, 1916, meeting approving the report of the Stud Book Committee in relation to the Palmer protest.

The Stud Book Committee made a verbal report recommending that bitches having been bred in foreign countries and whelp in the United States, the puppies from such breeding shall be eligible to registration provided their Sire and Dam are eligible to registration by three complete generations of pedigree. Report accepted and adopted.

A proposed bill in the Senate on the taxation of dogs and kennels was referred to the law Committee with full power to send a representative to Albany to appear and argue against said bill, the expenses in the matter to be borne by the American Kennel Club.

Charges preferred by Doctor E. House against Doctor J. C. Lacaillade were referred to the Boston Trial Board for investigation.

In the matter of the appeal of Frank F. Dole for reinstatement it was on motion referred to the Executive Committee.

The complaint against the Louisville Kennel Club for its failure to use the official entry forms at its show was referred to the Rule Committee.

A communication from the Pacific Coast Collie Club was referred to the Executive Committee.

The excuses of Henry T. Fleitman for absence from the December meeting and from Messrs. Morris Kinney, W. P. Wolcott, Alfred B. Maclay, J. A. Buchanan from the present meeting were on motion accepted.

The Chairman of the law Committee made a full report on the subject of the proposed bill re taxation of dogs and kennels, and on motion, duly seconded, it was

RESOLVED: That it is the sense of this Committee that Senate Bull No. 233, and the same Bill, as amended in the Senate, No. 223458 is excessively drastic, unjust and discriminatory in its provisions, and should not be passed in its present form; and that the Chairman of the Legal Committee be, and hereby is instructed, to take such steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to good standing.

Frank F. Dole appealed for reinstatement to good standing, accompanying same with a fee of $5.00. Mr. Dole appeared in his own behalf.

On motion the appeal was denied. The Secretary was instructed to return the fee of $5.00 to the said Dole and the original action of this Board by which all privileges of the American Kennel Club will be restored on May 13, 1917 was confirmed.

On motion, duly seconded, it was

RESOLVED: that it is the sense of this Committee that it is prejudicial and against the best interests of the American Kennel Club for any member of the Board of Directors or of Committees or of Trial Board or Territorial Reps of the American Kennel Club to hold a brief or appear as counsel for any person in connection with charges with or under investigation before the American Kennel Club.

It was further

RESOLVED: that a copy of the above resolutions be sent to all Directors, Committee, Trial Boards, and Reps of the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary presented an appeal from Hugh W. Jackson against the decision of the New York Trial Board in the case of the cancellation of winnings of the French Bulldog “Faux Pas” at the show of the French Bulldog Club of New England, Nov 9, 1916.

On motion the Secretary was directed to instruct the New York Trial Board to retry the case on the ground that the certificate of the veterinarian dated Nov 9, 1916 placed in evidence at the original trial of the case was the only proper evidence, and that the vet’s certificate dated Nov 12, 1916 was not proper evidence under the rule. Further that the defendant had not been notified to appear before the New York Trial Board when the case was before it for investigation. (The Secretary was directed to advise the New York Trial Board that it is the sense of the Executive Committee that lameness implies unsoundness, but unsoundness does not only lameness, and that the evidence before the Executive Committee did not show lameness at the time of the show.)
Doctor O. Schuurman and Miss Glen Wood, charges against Mr. N. J. Bernhard, 724 Jefferson St., Buffalo, NY for misconduct in connection with dogs. This case was referred to the New York Trial Board for investigation.

Mr. R. L. Bettie, charges against Mr. C. H. Freasier, Dallas, TX for misconduct in connection with dogs. This case was referred to the San Francisco Trial Board for investigation.

It was moved and carried that the publication of all decisions rendered by the several Trial Board and of the different meetings of the American Kennel Club and its Committees be left to the discretion of the Publication Committee to edit same before such proceedings are published in the American Kennel Gazette.

In the case of Doctor E. House against Doctor J. O. Lacaillade, which had been referred to the Boston Trial Board, President Hunnewell, pursuant to authority given him by the rules, did appoint Mr. T. Dickson Smith as a substitute for Mr. Samuel R. Cutler, Chairman of the Boston Trial Board for the reason that Mr. Cutler had acted as counsel for Doctor Lacaillade and was therefore disqualified from participating in the investigation of the case.

The Louisville Kennel Association was automatically dropped from membership on the day of the annual meeting of the American Kennel Club, Feb 13, 1917, for its failure to pay its dies for the current year. These dies were received by the Secretary on Feb 24, 1917 with the explanation that there had been a change in the office of Secretary of said club and that the bill for the dues mailed from this office on Dec 1st had never been received by the Secretary in office.

On motion the said dues were accepted and the Louisville Kennel Club reinstated to membership.
This Committee insists that the Secretaries of clubs, active members of the American Kennel Club, must keep the American Kennel Club promptly notified of all changes of officers of such clubs.

An application from the Spokane Kennel Club for the return of its date deposit and Secretary’s deposit upon the ground of the inability of said club to hold a show during the year of 1917 owing to the prevalence of rabies throughout its section of the country was granted.

The Law Committee reported progress in the case of M. M. Palmer against John L. Kuser Re protest against the granting and recording of the kennel name Delaware Valley Farms, endorsing the action of the Stud Book Committee refusing to cancel said kennel name.

It was moved and carried that the report of the Law Committee be received and its recommendation adopted.

The Law Committee reported progress in the matter of the proposed Wickes Bill in the New York State Legislature on the subject of the taxation of dogs.

The License Committee presented application forms to be filed by applicants to be licensed as judges and superintendents to take effect July 1, 1917. This Committee suggested several changes in said forms and on motion duly carried, the forms were approved as corrected.

The Finance Com reported the certificate of Messrs. Townsend and Dix, licensed auditors, certifying to the correctness of the accounts for 1916 of secretary-treasurer.

It was moved and duly carried that the privileges of the American Kennel Club be restored to Frank F. Dole to take effect April 13, 1917. The Board expresses its regret that through an error of this office Mr. Dole’s name had been placed on the disqualified list instead of upon the list of suspended persons and the secretary was directed to so express the opinion of this com to Mr. Dole.
On motion the meeting adjourned.

On motion the same was accepted and ordered on file.

The meeting went into an election for Directors to fill vacancies in the Board.

The Chair appointed Messrs. J. Macy Willets and F. C. Neilson as Tellers. Ballots being taken, the Chair announced that Q. A. Shaw McKean was elected for one year in the place of Chas. W. Keyes in the Class of 1919; John G. Bates in the place of J. R.
Thorndike in the class of 1922.

The Law Committee presented the following report:

May 15, 1917

I beg to submit herewith a brief report of the work I have done in connection with the bull introduced by Mr. Wicks, being “an act to amend the agricultural law relative to dogs and protection of domestic animals therefrom.”
The bill as originally introduced was excessively drastic in many of its provisions, which I have fortunately succeeded in having amended to a great extent. The new bill puts all of the provisions relating to the licensing of dogs and the protection of domestic animals under the Agricultural Law instead of under the General Municipal Law, which is a wise provision as it puts administration of the law under a central State Department instead of in the hands of a great number of local authorities and petty politicians.

The license fees have been reduced to two dollars for dogs, and three dollars for bitches, and a special kennel license has been provided at twenty dollars or such sum not in excess of twenty dollars as shall be equivalent to two dollars for each dog in the kennel. There will be an additional fee of twenty-five cents for such dog so licensed for a license tag to be worn by said licensed dog.

In the matter of kennel licenses, I have been able to have stricken from the original bill the words, “constantly confined” as applied to the inmates of a kennel, which is more fully set forth on Page 4, Paragraph 133.

I have been able to have incorporated an exemption from the provisions of this act of dogs “confined to the premises of incorporated societies devoted to the care of hospital treatment of lost, strayed or stolen animals, or confined to the premises of public or private hospitals devoted to the treatment of sick or diseased animals.” I have been able to exempt “dogs brought to any village, town or city and entered for exhibition to any dog show if confined or in immediate [illegible].

I have not been able to prevent the killing of dogs under certain circumstances, but I have had the provisions so amended as to be somewhat more reasonable than the original bill intended. I had endeavored to limit the killing of a dog attacking domestic animals to the owner of the animals attacked, in which I failed. On the other hand, the bill does not compensate the killer of a dog, and said killer of a dog is compelled to report the facts under a penalty of ten dollars for failure so to do.

I think that the bill in its present form is as reasonable as it is possible to expect the present Legislature to pass. There has been brought the strongest pressure possible by the up-state farming interests for the protection of sheep, the breeding of which has been seriously interfered with by the predatory dog, and in view of the present condition of the food situation in this country today, they had every advantage in forwarding their interests, and I feel that as a whole we have accomplished a great deal.

I enclose herewith a printed copy of the bill as now before the Governor for his signature, together with a brief digest of the law, covering the essential points in which we were interested, and I will forward you all the correspondence in the matter in the course of a few days.

Respectfully submitted,
Wm. Ross Proctor
Chairman of the law Committee

It was moved and seconded that a vote of thanks be extended to the Committee for the time and trouble they have taken in this matter.

Motion carried.

A communication from George F. Foley stating that the English Setter Club of America, the Irish Setter Club of America and the Pointer Club of America had abandoned their proposed shows on account of distemper in the kennels of E. B. Chase at whose place the shows were to be held, and asked for the return of their date deposits. On motion the secretary was directed to inform Mr. Foley that the shows of said Clubs could be postponed and that the date deposits will be held by the American Kennel Club as covering a claim for dates for future shows.

A communication from the Memphis Kennel Club and the Southampton Kennel Club, that they would not hold their shows on account of the war situation, was presented and it was moved and seconded that their date deposits will be held by the American Kennel Club subject to a claim for shows at any time during the calendar year. In case such shows are not held within the time specified, the deposits will be forfeited.

The Houston Dog Fanciers Association suspended Messrs. C. F. Ireland and R. B. McAshben for removing their dogs from its show without permission.

On motion the action of the Houston Dog Fanciers Association was confirmed and the suspension made permanent.

Charges were preferred by J. T. Halpin against J. O. Lacaillade which, on motion, were referred to the Executive Committee.

On motion the secretary was directed to publish in the Gazette that any Director who enlists for the war should notify the secretary and that that will be considered as a valid excuse whenever he may be absent from a meeting of the Board.

On motion the application of the Pekingese Club to grant winners classes divided by weight was disapproved upon the recommendation of the License Committee.

Excuses from Directors Morris Kinney, Wm. L. Barclay, W. P. Wolcott, Wm. Ross Proctor, Samuel R. Cutler, Chetwood Smith, Howard Willets and John Sinnott were on motion accepted.

On motion meeting adjourned.

The secretary read his report as follows:

New York, May 14, 1917

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report from the Boston Trial Board, the Philadelphia Trial Board, and the New York Trial Board on the matters that were referred to them by the American Kennel Club.

I also beg to present the report of the Law Committee on the matter referred to it of Palmer vs. American Kennel Club.

The matter of the protest of Mrs. Horowitz in the registration of the Maltese “Snowball of Esperance” which was referred to the English Kennel Club has been amicably settled, and the letter from E. W. Jaquet, Esq., secretary of the English Kennel Club, will be read for your information.

The Philadelphia Trial Board report on the case submitted to it referring to the late Field Trials of the Eastern Beagle Club, and said report was confirmed by the Executive Committee.

I have a communication from the President of the Eastern Beagle Club asking for an explanation which I acknowledged. I will read the correspondence for your information.

I beg to quote Article II, Section 2 of the bylaws:

“It shall have general supervision of the standing Committees of the Club, and if it shall appear at any meeting of the Committee that any Standing Committee, through inability to obtain a quorum or for any other reason, has failed to hold a meeting or has neglected to perform the duties imposed by these bylaws on such Committee, then in any such event the Executive Committee shall be, for the time being, vested with and may exercise all the powers of and act as such delinquent standing Committees, and any action of the Executive Committee so taken shall have the same force and effect as if taken by the standing Committee whose function it is exercising.”

In this connection, I am forced to report that we have in hand eighteen applications for kennel names received during the month of March, and fourteen applications for kennel names received during the month of April. For some cause, the Stud Book Committee has failed to act upon these applications. According to our Reciprocity Agreement with England, we agree to pass on all applications for kennel names on or after the 29th of each month.

We have now thirty-two applications that have not been acted upon. It is only justice to such persons as apply and pay for kennel names that they have prompt services. It has placed this office in an embarrassing position by promising from time to time that we would promptly advise them of the action of the Stud Book Committee, which owing to the failure of the Stud Book Committee to act, we were obliged to break our promise.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary

On motion same was accepted and ordered on file.

The case of Halpin vs. Lacaillade, which was on motion referred to this Committee by the Directors, was, on motion, referred to the Boston Trial Board to investigate and to report its recommendation. Mr. T. Dickerson Smith is appointed a temporary member of said Boston Trial Board in place of Samuel R. Cutler.

Carried.

The report of the Boston Trial Board in the case of Doctor E. House against Dr J. O. Lacaille was presented and is as follows:

“In this case the complainant claims that he bought a French Bulldog named D’Anglemont Frisco from the defendant but that he never received said dog.

Your Board heard the case on Wed. April 11, 1917, at which time the defendant was present in person and the complainant was represented by one Charles E. Townsend. The defendant admitted that he had sold the dog in question to the complainant and also admitted that he had not delivered the said dog, but said in explanation that no money had changed hands. He also claimed that he had received the complainant’s money the day after he had sold the dog to one Julius M. Fangman. At the request of the defendant your Board agreed to receive additional written evidence if received within one week, but although the complainant did submit said evidence the defendant did not.

Your board finds from the evidence submitted, that the defendant received the money from the complainant on or before Sept 18, 1916 and that the dog in question was sold to the said Fangman on Oct 3rd or 4th, 1916.

Your Board, therefore, finds from the written evidence submitted, which is attached hereto, and from the testimony presented at the hearing, that the defendant had acted in a manner which is prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club and was guilty of misconduct in connection with dogs.
Your Board, therefore, recommends that the defendant be disqualified.

Boston Trial Board

On motion the recommendation of the Boston Trial Board was confirmed and Lacaillade was deprived of all privileges of the American Kennel Club.

On motion all papers in the above case are to be held by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club as the property of said Club.

The New York Trial Board presented its report in the case of Dr P. S. Schuurman and Miss Glenn Wood against Mr E. J. Bernhard which is as follows:

New York, May 3, 1917

To the Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

At a regular meeting of the New York Trial Board held on the above date all members being present, the charges preferred by Dr P. Schuurman and Miss Glen Wood of Chicago, Ills, against Mr. E. J. Bernhard of Buffalo, NY were considered.

This case is simply a dispute between Dr Schuurman and Miss Wood and Mr. Bernhard as to whether the amount paid by Schuurman and Wood for a Boston Terrier purchased by them from Bernhard was more than what the dog was worth, and whether the vendor’s description of the dog was true. Also, whether the dog’s tail was out. A number of veterinarians’ certificates are submitted by both sides as to this latter question.

It was the unanimous opinion of this Board that this case is practically of the same kind as the case of Kahn against the New York Dog Exchange, which was referred to this Board early in 1916, and which we decided was purely a monetary transaction in which fraud was not strongly evident; and therefore, under Article XIX, Section 4 of jurisdiction of the American Kennel Club, but one which should be tried in a Civil Court.

Before we decided this latter case, we consulted the Executive Committee which Committee concurred in this opinion: If the American Kennel Club should undertake to settle such cases, it would mean that this Club would act simply as referee in dog transactions to determine the values of the animals in question, which work we do not think the club should undertake.

We therefore refuse to render a decision in the case of Dr P. Schuurman and Miss Glenn Wood, against Mr. E. J. Bernhard, and authorize the secretary of the American Kennel Club to return the amount of the deposit to the plaintiffs.

John F. Collins – chairman
Henry T. Fleitman
Theodore Offerman

On motion the above report was approved.

The New York Trial Board reported upon the matter of the disqualification of the French Bulldog Faux Pas which was sent to it for a re-trial, which is as follows:

New York, April 7, 1917

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

At a regular meeting of the New York Trial Board held on the above date, all members being present, the case of the disqualification of the French Bulldog Faux Pas was again considered. This dog was disqualified at the last show of the French Bulldog Club of New England by that club. This disqualifying decision was appealed from by the owner of the dog Mr H. W. Jackson, to the American Kennel Club, which appeal was not sustained by this Board, Mr. Jackson against appealed from the latter decision to the Executive Committee with the result that the Executive Committee decided that there was sufficient grounds for a retrial and referred the case back to the New York Trial Board for that purpose.

This Board unanimously believes that its original decision was correct. The two points on which the Executive Committee deems sufficient for a retrial are as follows:

1st. That the certificate rendered by the Veterinarian Ryan on Nov 9th did not give proper cause for disqualification, and that the subsequent certificate of the said Ryan dated Nov 12th was not proper evidence.

This Board’s unanimous opinion as to this matter was that the first certificate was made in the show ring under great excitement; that it was written hurriedly so that the judging of the dogs could continue and so that the com could act at once and give its decision. We therefore did consider the other certificate, the one dated Nov 12th as being a suppletive and properly typewritten and prepared certificate for record. In this second certificate, which Dr Ryan subsequently swore to, he states specifically that the dog was lame. This certificate was undoubtedly made only as the result of his examination of this dog in the ring and in the case of the protest the same as the one issued by him on Nov 9th, he gives in his supplemental certificate quite sufficient grounds under the rules for disqualification.

It is the opinion of this Board that the intent of the rule was fully carried out by the veterinarian as we are satisfied that, he, when he examined the dog and also when he prepared either or both of his certificate, believes that the dog was unfit for competition and the rule distinctly stated that he shall be the sole judge of the dog’s eligibility to compete under this rule. We also believe that the omission of one or two words from a certificate (made as we before claim) under such exciting and peculiar conditions and which was later rectified is too insignificant a technicality to be considered.

2nd. That the defendant (meaning in this case the appellant Jackson) was not notified to appear before this Board.

As we decided this case purely under the rule which states that the veterinarian shall decide such protests and as we were satisfied that the rule had been properly complied with, there was in our opinion absolutely no necessity for having Mr. Jackson appear before this board as any evidence or information which he might furnish us with would not have affected our decision in any way whatsoever.

However, in dealing with this case now, we are simply acting under instructions received from the Executive Committee written by the secretary under date of March 22 which were as follows:

March 22, 1917

Mr. J. F. Collins, Chairman New York Trial Board
3 East 28th Street, NYC

Dear Sir:

I beg to advise you that Mr. High W. Jackson appealed from the decision of the New York Trial Board in its decision in the Faux Pas case and same came up for action before the Executive Committee at its meeting held on the 20th instant. I was directed to instruct the New York Trial Board to retry the case on the ground that the certificate of the veterinarians dated Nov 9, 1916, placed in evidence at the original trial of the case was the only proper evidence and the veterinarian’s certificate dated Nov 9, 1916, was not proper evidence under the rule. Further, that the defendant has not been notified to appear before the New York Trial Board when the case was before it for investigation.

I was therefore directed to advise the New York Trial Board that it is the sense of the Executive Committee that “lameness implies unsoundness, but unsoundness does not imply lameness.” Further that the evidence before the Executive Committee did not show lameness at the time of the show.

Yours truly,
American Kennel Club
A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary

We therefore accordingly decide that the certificate of the veterinarian given in this case did not state sufficient grounds for disqualifying this dog, that the decision of the Committee of the French Bulldog Club of New England is hereby authorized to return to the appellant, Jackson, the amount of the deposit made by him when he filed his original appeal with our club.

RESOLVED that it is the sense and the desire of this Board that this decision shall be published in full in the American Kennel Gazette.

JOHN F. COLLINS, Chairman
Henry T. Fleitman
Theodore Offerman

On motion the recommendation of the New York Trial Board in the above case was confirmed and the winnings of the French Bulldog Faux Pas at the late show of the French Bulldog Club of New England were ordered to be restored.

The report of the Boston Trial Board in the matter of the disputed pedigree of the Boston Terrier Queenie Love No. 211414, which was referred to it by the Stud Book Committee of the American Kennel Club is as follows:

Boston, Mass., April 5, 1917

The Boston Trial Board to whom was referred for investigation the disputed pedigree of the Boston Terrier Bitch Queenie Love AKC 211414, begs leave to report that it has carried on as extensive an investigation as the nature of the case would permit. Two hearings were held by the Board, to wit:-- On Sat., Jan 27th and March 9, 1917, at which times the evidence of the owner of the Bitch in question presented his evidence by letter marked Exhibit A and made a part of this report. Also the oral evidence of the complainant and her husband and other corroborating witnesses were heard by the Board. Further the Board listened to the oral testimony of Mr. Maguire of whom the present owner claims to have bought Queenie Love and the testimony of George Emerson of #12 Causeway St., Boston, the owner of Emerson’s Chim, the reputed Sire of Queenie Love.

The Board has also carried on some independent investigation with a view of ascertaining the truth of the testimony of the foregoing witnesses and has carefully considered the whole subject matter under consideration, and its findings of facts are as follows:

Brownell’s Nellie, the reputed dam of Queenie Love had a litter of six pups in the summer of 1915, sired by a dog owned by the complainant, Mrs. Brownell, but we find that the description of Queenie Love does not correspond with any one of these puppies.
The Board finds that Brownell’s Nellie was never served by Emerson’s Chum and the neither the owner of Brownell’s Nellie or her husband know that there was such a dog as Emerson’s Chum in existence up to the time of the hearing before the Board.

The Board is unable to ascertain any clue to the breeding of Queenie Love, but it is of the opinion that Emerson’s Chum is not her sire and Brownell’s Nellie is not her dam; it therefore would recommend the cancellation of the registration of Queenie Love.

Mrs. Scaramanga asks an apology from the Greenacre Kennels; this I have been unable to obtain. A letter from the Greenacre Kennels dated Nov 9th, informs me that it was impossible to call at this office to see a copy of the advertisement Mrs. Scaramanga has referred to, to which I replied to on Nov. 13th:

“If you find it impossible to call at the office, I will suggest that you might send some representative who can furnish you with the information, and can compare the original photograph filed at this office by the secretary of the English Kennel Club, with your advertisement.”

to which no attention has been paid.

From Oscar D. Ridings in the matter of the action of the Philadelphia Trial Board re. Eastern Beagle Club. In this case I was directed to send to Mr. Ridings a copy of the reason why the Philadelphia Trial Board acted as it did. A copy of a communication from the Philadelphia Trial Board in response to your request was sent to Mr. Ridings on August 31, 1917. This letter has never been returned to this office, and Mr. Ridings evidently demands a second letter.

From Frank A. Howes withdrawing his complaint against the Grand Rapids Kennel Club.

From the secretary of the English Kennel Club suggesting for the consideration of the American Kennel Club that it shall refuse to list or register any dog which has not been registered with the English Kennel Club.

I beg to represent the finding of the Boston Trial Board in the case of Mrs. H. Robertson vs. Edward Axtell. A report from the Philadelphia Trial Board in the case of J. V. Schneider vs. Mr. & Mrs. M. Sneyd.

Miss Marielouise Whittlesey claim a Braintree Cup alleged to have been won by her at the late show of the Ladies Kennel Assn. of Mass. The wording of the conditions under which this cup was offered has been changed several times by the Ladies Kennel Assn. of Mass. I would recommend that the correspondence in this case be referred to a Committee for investigation.
A communication from the Field Trial Committee, Chetwood Smith, Chairman, in reference to the demand of this office that all contestants at Field Trials must be governing by the same rule that governs dog shows, namely, that all dogs must either be registered or listed.

A bull for legal services contracted by the Law Committee, which I had no authority to pay without first being approved by the American Kennel Club.

The late show of the American Fox Terrier Club published a catalogue contrary to our rules as to the arrangement of the data with each entry. This is a matter for your Committee to determine, whether the club should be penalized or not.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH

New York, Feb 18, 1918

At the Sept quarterly meeting of the American Kennel Club it was suggested that an ambulance should be presented to the United States Government and after discussion it was referred to the Finance Committee to report its recommendation at the next meeting.

The Finance Committee, having looked into the matter, ascertained that the United States Government is not accepting gifts of ambulance and therefore the Finance Committee decided it would help Government best by investing its available funds in Liberty Bonds which it has done, and this of greater help to the Government than it would have been if it purchased an ambulance.

There has been no change in the amount of securities held by this club and they are now in the possession of the Finance Committee and kept in the Mercantile Safe Co. vaults.

William Rauch,
Chairman
On motion the same was accepted and ordered on file.

The Rules Committee recommended the Rules Governing Field Trials and Field Championship as recommended by the Field Trial Committee as follows:

Rule I.

Specialty Clubs not active members of the American Kennel Club may be licensed to hold Field Trials with the written consent of the Parent Club. If the consent of the Parent Club be not given within one month, the applying club may appeal to the license Committee which may issue a license in its discretion.

Rule II.

Every club holding Field Trials must forward to the American Kennel Club one copy of the Premium List before distribution.

Premium List must contain a list of the officers of the club, the judge or judges who will officiate at the Trials, the classes and their conditions, and state the rules under which the Trials are to be run.

Every dog entered under these Rules must be registered or listed previous to being started in a Field Trial. The fee for registration is one dollar and for listing 25 cents. The registration of a dog gives the privilege of competition for life. The listing of a dog gives the privilege only for the Field Trials for which it is listed.

Rule III.

No person shall be eligible to judge at any Field Trial until he or she has been licensed by the American Kennel Club, through its License Committee, except that substitute or additional judges, whether Licensed or Non-Licensed, may be appointed by a Field Trial Club at a Field Trial if occasion demands it; provided however said judges have never been refused a License by the American Kennel Club and are in good standing with the American Kennel Club.

Field Trials must provide the judges with books containing names of the starters and their owners and the addresses of the owners.

The awards in the Judges’ Books are to be marked by the Judges themselves, signed by the Secretary of the club and forwarded to the American Kennel Club within seven days after the closing of the Field Trials.

Officers of Field Trials Clubs may run dogs in or act as Judges at Field Trials.

Rule V.

All Beagles must be measured by the standards of the National Beagle Club before starting and if incorrectly entered must be transferred to their proper classes.

Classes when divided by height must be divided as follows: over thirteen inches and not exceeding fifteen inches, and thirteen inches and under; and hounds can only compete in the classes for their respective heights.

On motion the above amendments were unanimously carried.
An appeal was presented, asking for an amendment to the rules to prevent a puppy from competing with grown dogs when the classes are designed by weight.
On motion this appeal was referred to the Rules Committee.

The secretary read his report as follows and same was accepted and ordered on file:

New York, April 15, 1918

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club:
Gentlemen:

I beg to report that the complaint of R. H. Atkinson vs. Delaware State Fair Kennel Club, and the complaint of R. C. Duncan vs. Shreveport Kennel Club for unpaid prizes were laid over at the last meeting of this Committee and since that time the cases have been settled to the satisfaction of the complainants.

The Colorado Kennel Club claimed a show to be held in 1918, making the necessary deposit. Said club now requests the privilege to postpone its show to 1919, and that the deposit now
In our hands may be transferred to cover a show to be held next year.

The New England Kennel Club, through an oversight, failed to pay its dues for 1918, and on the date of our annual meeting was automatically dropped from membership. It now asks that we accept the dues so that said club may be reinstated, after which to accept its resignation as an active membership which will enable it to resign whole in good standing.

A communication from the English Setter Club of America, and from the Western Beagle Club in reference to registration of dogs entered at their trials.

A communication from Mr. R. C. Rathborne will be presented for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VRE DENBURGH
Secretary

The New England Kennel Club, through an oversight of one of its employees, failed to pay its annual dues for 1918 before the date of the annual meeting and was therefore automatically dropped from membership. A check for dues followed within a few days and on motion the same was accepted and the New England Kennel Club was reinstated in good standing.

The Colorado Kennel Club claimed dates for a show to be held in 1918 and made its deposit on December 6, 1917. It applied for permission to transfer its dates to May, 1919 and asked that the deposit in our hands be transferred to cover such date. On motion the secretary was directed to notify the Colorado Kennel Club that we must follow the procedure as in other cases, and in accordance with the rules, if the said club does not hold a show within the calendar year the deposit will be forfeited.

Messrs. Warren and Jennings protested an award at the late Pekingese Show and the protest was not allowed by the Committee of the Pekingese Club and appealed from the decision. The matter was referred to the New York Trial Board for investigation.

An application from the English Setter Club for a rating at Field Trials on the same principle as the rating granted to Beagle Trials. The English Setter Club, being a member of the Amateur Field Trial Club of America, on motion the secretary was directed to communicate with the English Setter Club of America in view of the said Amateur Field Trial Club of America to become an active member of the American Kennel Club and that the Field Trial Committee of the American Kennel Club be directed to consider a proper scale for ratings toward a championship for Field Trial Dogs.

The matter of opening the Stud Book for a period of sixty days for the registration of stud dogs and brood bitches of Field Trial dogs was referred to the Stud Book Committee for its consideration.

A communication from R. C. Rathborne was presented to the meeting and on motion the secretary was directed to communicate with the English Kennel Club on the subject matter of Mr. Rathborne’s letter and the reply from the English Kennel Club to be referred to the Stud Book Committee for its consideration.

Mr. John J. Degnan offered a cup for the best get of Degnan’s Little Bantam through the Providence County Kennel Club. This cup was awarded to Evans Bantam No. 221902. The award was questioned by the donor upon the ground that the exhibitor of Evans Bantam was not the full owner, and therefore declined to deliver the cup. This Committee rules that inasmuch as Evans Bantam was the get of Degnan’s Little Bantam and as such was awarded the prize, that the Providence County Kennel Club must pay said prize to the exhibitor of Evans Bantam.

The License Committee presented the following statement and on motion it was decided that the same be published in the April Gazette:

The License Committee, at its last meeting held April 2nd, decided to make the following statement:

The Members of this Committee greatly regret the scenes which have occurred at recent shows.

It is their opinion that the position of a Licensed judge of the American Kennel Club should be one of dignity and one that should command the respect of the entire dog showing public. Should such scenes as those above referred to be repeated frequently, the position of Licensed Judges would absolutely lose all dignity and many self respecting ladies and gentlemen would decline at act in that capacity with the result that the judging of dogs would become a farce.

When judges have the confidence of the Exhibitors and conduct themselves so as to retain that confidence, such scenes cannot happen but when circumstances suspected by many fanciers seem to indicate that the decision has preceded the competition, then the competition becomes a hippodrome and the judge, his dignity gone, becomes the target of those around the ring who forget their own self respect.

As has been before stated by members of this Committee, it is not the desire of the officers and Committeemen of the American Kennel Club to weed out the evils of the dog show, but to prevent the appearance of evil, and consequently judges must conduct themselves not only honestly and fairly but in such a manner as to avoid any appearance of favoritism and also, as before stated, so as to command the confidence of the Exhibitors and maintain their own dignity. If they do not so their licenses will be revoked.

Cumulative circumstances evidence is often as convincing as any other sort of evidence. The provision in the American Kennel Club rules setting forth the power of the License Committee states that this Committee shall have power of the License Committee states that this does not state what ground shall be necessary for the revocation of a license. This Committee has decided that when it is for the best interest of the dog to revoke a license without giving any reasons, it will do so.

It was moved and seconded that the meeting go into an election to fill the vacancies occasioned by the late H. K. Bloodgood. The Chairman suggested that it would be advisable to wait before filling said vacancies until a larger representation of the Committee should be present.

On motion the meeting then went into an election. Howard Willets was nominated as First Vice President. There being no other candidates the nomination was closed and the secretary was directed to cast a vote for Howard Willets and he was declared unanimously elected.

Dr DeMund was nominated as second Vice President. There being no other candidate on motion the nomination was closed and the secretary was directed to cast a vote of Dr DeMund who was declared unanimously elected.

C. F. Neilson was nominated as Chairman of the License Committee. There being no other nominations the secretary was directed to cast a vote for Mr. Neilson and he was declared unanimously elected.

Theodore Offerman was nominated as a member of the Membership Committee. There being no other nominations the secretary was directed to cast a vote for Mr. Offerman and he was declared unanimously elected.

The Western Beagle Club filed a notice that the Futurity Stake of said club to be decided in 1919, and that the brood bitches must be registered in order to make the litters eligible for said Stake and that as several of the dams who were not eligible under the present rules to be registered in the American Kennel Club had been registered in the Field Dog Stud Book requested a ruling.

On motion the secretary was directed to inform the Western Beagle Club that in such cases where the dams were not eligible for American Kennel Club registration and were registered in the Field Dog Stud Book must be listed with the American Kennel Club to insure eligibility under its rules.

There being no further business before the Committee on motion the meeting adjourned.

New York, May 10, 1918

To the Board of Directors
American Kennel Club
A. P. Vredenburgh, secretary

Your Committee on Rules had the honor to report as follows:

A meeting of the Committee was held at the offices of the American Kennel Club, Thursday, May 9th last, a quorum being present.

The following suggested rules were considered.

1. Referring to our conversation in regard to the weight classes I wish to say that the undersigned request a limit on same. There being no rule preventing a puppy competing against a grown dog in the weight classes, we request that a rule be made preventing an unformed unfinished animal competing against a perfected specimen in the weight classes.

2. The New York Trial Board at its meeting on April 25, 1918 strongly recommends An amendment to the Rules Governing Dog Shows. That all dogs must be kept on the bench except during regular exercising hours designated by the show giving clubs. Infraction of this rule means disqualification.

Your Committee unanimously decided to disapprove the suggested rule as to excluding puppies from competing in weight classes for the following reasons:

1. We fail to see wherein it is an advantage to an immature or undeveloped dog (a puppy) to be allowed to compete in any class with grown or mature dogs.

2. We feel that such a rule would be very unfair to puppies in that it would exclude them from many limit and open classes and reduce their eligibility for competition to only, in some shows, the puppy and winners classes of the regular American Kennel Club classes.

Your Committee unanimously decided to approve the rule as to keeping dogs in their benches during shows amended as follows:

Addition to Rule XIX as paragraphs 2-3-4 of Rules Governing Dog Shows: --

All dogs at shows must be kept on the benches or in the cages provided or allowed for them for exhibition purposes except while its breed is being judged, or during the periods designated by the show-giving clubs for exercising or before the time specified as the opening hour of the show or after the time specified as the closing hour of the show each day. A dog may, however, be removed from its bench or cage by permission of the superintendent or by order of the Veterinarian or his representative. This rule does not apply to out of door shows.

This rule must be enforced by all superintendents who shall report to the American Kennel Club each and every infraction of it and the offending exhibitors shall be fined five dollars for each offense.

The exercising periods, hours of opening and closing of shows, must appear in every premium list as additional rules.

Respectfully submitted,
John F. Collins
Chairman

After a general discussion the rule was amended by adding after the first paragraph “This Rule does not apply to out of door shows.”

The report of the Committee was accepted and the recommendation as amended was unanimously adopted.

Mr. John F. Collins, Delegate of the Long Island Kennel Club, offered the following resolution:

I move that the German Shepherd Dog Club be informed that unless they change their name eliminating the word German and advise the Secretary of the American Kennel Club of this change within 60 days from date, the said cclub shall be dropped from membership in the American Kennel Club and the secretary of the American Kennel Club shall be instructed in such case to pay to the German Shepherd Dog Club an amount equal to the pro rata amount of their dues for the period from 60 days from date to the end of the year. Also that the Stud Book Committee be authorized and instructed to change the name of the German Sheepdog to The Sheepdog.

John F. Collins
Delegate Long Island Kennel Club

After discussion the resolution was duly adopted, after having been amended in the last paragraph to read “Also that the Stud Book Committee be authorized and instructed to suggest a new name for the German Sheepdog.”

On motion the President was requested to appoint a Committee of three to report a proper resolution of sympathy to the family of the late Mr. A. G. Hooley. The Chair appointed as such Committee Messrs. George Greer, Wm. Rauch and R. P. Keasbey.

On motion of Mr. Collins the American Kennel Club subscribed the sum of $250.00 to the Red Cross Fund and the Treasurer was directed to send a check for said subscription without delay.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

President Hunnewell was duly elected a member of the Finance Committee to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of H. K. Bloodgood.

It was moved, seconded and carried that the Treasurer (A. P. VREDENBURGH) be given permission to open the American Kennel Club box at the Mercantile Safe Deposit Vault when accompanied by any one of the members of the Finance Committee.

On the recommendation of the Western Representative W. S. Macy was duly elected as a member of the San Francisco Trial Board to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of A. G. Hooley.

Mr. R. W. Creuzbauer, the Delegate of the Irish Setter Club was elected for one years as a Director of the class of 1920.

The vacancy of the class of 1922 occasioned by the death of Mr. Bloodgood was on motion laid over until the next meeting of the Board.

The secretary read communications from the English Setter Club after which Francis G. Taylor, delegate from the English Setter Club, was on motion invited to address the board on the question of the recognition of the Amateur Field Trial Club of America Championship.
It was moved, seconded and carried that the communications of the English Setter Club in reference to the recognition of the Amateur Field Trial Club Winner of Champion Stake be referred to the Field Trial Committee with instructions to report at the next meeting of this Board. The consensus of opinion of the Board was that a rule should be adopted to comply with the request of the English Setter Club.

The report of the Publication Committee was presented and is as follows:

New York, May 15, 1918

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

The Publication Committee, upon the request of bill for the 1917 Stud Book, have gone very carefully into the matter and recommend the temporary discontinuance of the Stud Book and suggest that it be combined in some way with the American Kennel Gazette for the following reasons: The cost of the 1917 Stud Book, based on the Patteson Press’ estimate of December 13, 1917, amounts to $4,154.35. This bill, if based on price in our 1916 contract would have amounted to $2,986.00, showing an increase of 30% owing to the general increases cost of labor and material due to the present conditions.

As in all probability there will be approximately the same increase cost for the 1918 Stud Book, we do not feel that we are at liberty to involve the club into such further increase expenditures.

We give below tabulated list showing the cost of the Stud Book from 1912 to 1917 inclusive, and the sales of the same. You will note that the sales have fallen off to almost nothing, in other words we have purchased 250 volumes and sold 50:--

Yours truly,

R. P. Keasbey, Chairman
Publication Committee
Theodore Offerman

On motion the report of the Publication Committee was referred to a Special Committee consisting of the Chairman of the Publication Committee, the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee and the Chairman of the Law Committee with instructions to reduce expenses as much as possible in the publication of the Stud Book and that the said Committee be given full power to act and its decision to take effect as soon as possible.

The New York Trial Board presented its report as follows:

New York, April 25, 1918

New York Trial Board meeting held at the American Kennel Club April 25, 1918.

In the appeal of Messrs. Warren and Jennings from the decision of the Pekinese Club of America. This Board sustains the decision of the Pekingese Club, as there was no violation of any rule at that show, and that the win of Cairnwhin Tinto in Class Special #57 at the show of the Pekingese Club of America held Jan 28, 1918 should stand as recorded.

John G. Bates
Theodore Offerman

On motion the report was duly approved.

The report of the Philadelphia Trial Board is as follows:
Dear Sirs:--

The Philadelphia Trial Board reports as follows on matters submitted to it:

In the matter of the Philadelphia Airedale Club vs. Lawrence Tobin in regard to unpaid Specials, the Specials have been paid and no further action is taken.

In the matter of the Philadelphia Boston Terrier Club vs. Frank Owens, Mr. Owens removed his dog from the show of the Philadelphia Boston Terrier Club held Jan 24th without the consent of the show authorities. Mr. Owens filed a defense in which he claims that he had to go to work at 4 pm and had made arrangements to have someone meet him at the show to take his dog home when the show closed. As this person failed to appear, he had no other course than to remove his dog. Your Board considers this defense inadequate and suspends Mr. Frank Ownes for a period of six months from the date of this report. Mr. Frank Owens for a period of six months from the date of this report.

In the matter of the charge of Mr. Vinton Breeze against Sarah Anne Abercrombie for writing a letter reflecting on his integrity as a judge, the case was referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board for a decision as to whether this should properly come before the Bench Show Committee of the Philadelphia Kennel Club or be acted on by the American Kennel Club. As no protest was made against any dog, and as no misconduct is alleged to have been committed by Mrs. Abercrombie at the show, your Board is of the opinion that the matter should be acted on by the American Kennel Club. The proper mode of procedure would be for Mr. Breeze or the Philadelphia Kennel Club, or the American Kennel Club to prefer a charge against Mrs. Abercrombie in accordance with Article XIX, Section 3 of the By-laws, for writing the letter under date of March 2, 1918 criticizing the judging of Mr. Breeze.
In the complaint of Mrs. Peter Menges against the Philadelphia Kennel Club for the re-judging of a class of Japanese Spaniels when it was found that a dog had improperly been marked absent, referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board for investigation, your Board reports that the additional rules published in the Premium List of the Philadelphia Kennel Club state that in the absence of an Exhibitor a dog will be brought into the ring by an attendant. In the present case, it has been shown to the satisfaction of your Board that this Japanese Spaniel was in his cage under his proper number and overlooked by the attendant when the class was called. The matter was discovered after half an hour before the Judge had finished all his breeds, and turned in his Judge’s book to the office. The case was referred to the superintendent who decided the class should be re-judged. Mrs. Menges protested against the re-judging of the class, but made no protest in writing against the dog Omize in accordance with Rule XXI of the Rules Governing Shows and Mrs. Menges took her dog into the ring a second time to compete in the re-judging of the class. Your Board is of the opinion, that in the absence of written protest at the time, that the decision as to the re-judging of this class rested properly with the Superintendent subject to review by the American Kennel Club in case his decision involved the violation of any of the Rules. Further as the matter was quickly discovered, and a lapse of half an hour could hardly have affected the merits of the dogs, it was in the interest of fair play and good sportsmanship to allow this dog properly in his cage to compete.

Such cases may arise from time to time and each case must be decided on its merits. It is impossible to lay down any rule or precedent for the re-judging of any class, the presence or absence of some of the dogs or exhibitors, the wishes of the judge, the time elapsed between the original judging of the class, and the re-judging of the class all having a bearing on the situation.

In the present instance your Board recommends that the awards stand according to the re-judging of the class.

In the matter of Dr. H. B. Kobbler vs. the Philadelphia Kennel Club for taking Mr. Wm. T. Payne’s Cocker Spaniel entries after the date of closing, sent to the Phila. Trial Board for investigation, your Board has had considerable correspondence in this matter which is forwarded herewith, and made a part of this report. Dr. Kobbler makes affidavit that at the New York Show, after date of closing of entries for the Phila Show, Mr. Payne informed him that he had not entered at Philadelphia. The catalogue of the Philadelphia Show shows eight entries by Mr. Payne with a letter after the number of six of these entries which Dr. Kobbler appears to think indicates a late entry.

The additional rules published in the premium list of the Phila. Kennel Club states that entries should be made on blanks furnished by the club, but does not state that they must be made on these blanks. Mr. Payne writes that he reserved entries for his Cocker Spaniels early in Feb and mailed the particulars later. Mr. Payne and Mr. Foley, the superintendent, each write that the particulars for these entries were received by mail “In time,” but will not specify any date on which these entries were received or show any letters or Post marked envelope in support of their statements that the entries were received “In time.” A letter was sent to Mr. Payne asking for his version of the conversation with Doctor Kobbler at the New York Show, and offering to call a sitting of the Trial Board and give Mr. Payne and the Phila. Kennel Club an opportunity to answer the affidavit in the presence of Doctor Kobbler.
Your Board is at a loss how to proceed further with this investigation as they do not feel justified in calling a sitting of the Trial Board and sending a subpoena to Mr. Payne to come from Kingston, PA to Philadelphia to give testimony unless a formal charge, in accordance with Article XIX, Section 3 of the bylaws, is preferred against the Phila. Kennel Club for receiving late entries.

The results of this investigation are embodied in the correspondence submitted herewith. The decision as to whether the circumstantial evidence in the matter would warrant preferring a formal charge against the Phila. Kennel Club for receiving late entries rests with the American Kennel Club.

Respectfully submitted,
Russell H. Johnson, Jr.
J. Sergeant Price, Jr.
Wm. L. Barclay

P. S. Since this report was prepared a reply has been received from Mr. Payne to my letter of April 2nd. A copy of my letter and of Mr. Payne’s reply is enclosed herewith.

(W. L. B.)

On motion the matter of the entries at the late show of the Kennel Club of Philadelphia was directed to be returned to the Trial Board with instructions to go further into the matter and ascertain the date of the receipt of the challenged entries.

In the charges of Vinton Breeze the matter was left to Mr. Breeze to make formal charges if he so desires. The other recommendations in the report were accepted and the report in full adopted.

The request of Charges H. Mason to publish further data regarding the entries, the number present, and the actual number of exhibitors at shows held under American Kennel Club rules was on motion referred to the Publication Committee.

The thanks of the English Kennel Club for the action of the Feb meeting was presented through its Secretary, E. W. Jaquet, Esq
An application from Philip M. Wand to be reinstated to good standing after having been disqualified since August 6, 1910, was duly granted.

Excuses for absence from Messrs. Howard Willets, Rule> C. Stewart, Wm. L. Barclay and George S. West were duly accepted.

On motion the meeting adjourned.
REGULAR MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HELD AT THE OFFICES OF Present Hunnewell in the Chair.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, June 18, 1918

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the following matters for your consideration:

The reports of the Boston Trial Board, re Murray and Maxwell, vs. Worcester Kennel Club, and the American Kennel Club vs. C. F. Sullivan.

The report of the New York Trial Board re License Committee vs. E. G. Snow, Jr.

Application from the Toy Spaniel Club of America to grant dates for 1919. This club claimed dates for a show during the current year, and has abandoned same, and asked for dates for next year, and the deposit now in our hands to be applied to next year’s dates. This matter was referred by the License Committee upon the ground that said Committee had no authority to act on such applications.

Report from the Special Committee on the subject of the Stud Book for 1918. Legal opinion from the Law Committee.

Charges preferred by Harriet F. Price vs. Arthur Golding. Walter Brown vs. J. Bate Locke. Harry Weinberg vs. Kansas City Boston Terrier Club. W. H. G. Clark vs. The Ladies Dog Club. At the late show held at Lynn, and the Ladies Charity Show held in New York City, the Doberman Pinscher “Arno von Maryschel” was entered under the wrong ownership. The rule states distinctly that the exhibitor of a dog must be the bona fide owner of same at the time of the closing of entries.

A bill for disbursements from our Western Representative from Nov 28, 1917 to June 5, 1918 amounting to $22.25.

The Special Committee composed of the Chairmen of the Stud Book Committee, the Law Committee, and the Publication Committee decided to suspend the publication of our annual Stud Book during the continuance of the war, and combine it with the Gazette, and in that connection the matter of finance should be carefully considered.

The war has reduced our income considerably, and on the other hand, owing to the high cost of printing, and in fact everything that we require to carry on the business of the office has been materially increased.

The income for the five months in 1917 was $15,093.26, and for a similar period in 1918 $11,899.31. I find that the average loss of income per month from Jan 1st to May 31st to be $638.75.

I also find that the receipts from registrations has decreased owing to the failure of the registration of sires and dams amounting to 4,413 entries, from the time that we adopted the new registration rule, up to June 1st, 1918.

Our incoming mail from Jan 1st to June 1st in 1917 was 14,395 letters, whereas for the same period in 1918 11,170. This is a fair index of the loss of business.

The cost of the Stud Book for 1917 was $4,154.35, of which amount I paid on account on the 13th of June $1,500.00, amount unpaid $2,654.00.

Our working capital on this date amounts to $3,092.96.

In consideration of the foregoing, I beg to make the following suggestions:
FIRST:  That we withdraw our Reserve Fund now in the Broadway Savings Institution amounting to $5,000.00 and incorporate same in our working capital.
SECOND:  That we re-open the Stud Book from July 1st to December 31st and accept all applications for registration of Stud Dogs and Brood Bitches whose pedigree can be established for three full generations, and for such registrations as may be accepted, a charge of $2.00 each to be made.
THIRD: That inasmuch as the Gazette and Stud Book will be combined, it will be combined, it will make the Gazette very much more valuable than it has been heretofore, I would recommend that the subscription price of the Gazette be increased from $2.00 to $3.00 per year, and that the single copies be increased from $0.20 to $0.30.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the report was accepted and ordered on file.

The Stud Book Committee reported as follows:
June 15, 1918

Executive Committee
American Kennel Club
c/o A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary
No. 1 Liberty Street, New York

Gentlemen:

At the meeting of the Executive Committee held in April, the suggestion was made that the Stud Book be opened for a period of 60 days for the registration of stud dogs and breed bitches of established pedigree among Field Trial dogs.

On Jan 1, 1916 the Stud Book was closed to all American bred dogs whose sires and dams were not registered. By referring to the reports of the Stud Book Committee recommending this change in the requirements for registrations, it will be seen that the Committee anticipated that in the course of time, dogs of great quality and value as show specimens and producers would be bred from parents of established pedigree, but unregistered. It was foreseen that these dogs and their descendants, ineligible under the rule, would constitute an ever increasing and widening loss to the Stud Book, and that in course of time provision would be necessary for the registration of these dogs if the Stud Book was to be representative of the thoroughbred dog in America. The closing of the Stud Book Jan 1, 1916 was done for the purpose of safeguarding the accuracy of registered pedigrees.

The expectations of the Committee were more than fulfilled in 1916 and 1917. At the present time, owing no doubt to the war, we face a falling off in the number of registrations, amounting to 600 a month and during 1917 we were compelled to refuse 1600 applications for registration of pedigreed dogs ineligible by reason of not having sire or dam registered.

In order to meet this situation, the Stud Book Committee has decided to accept the suggestion of the Executive Committee referred to above, not only for Field Trial Dogs but for dogs of any recognized breed.

The Committee therefore recommends that from Oct 1st to Dec 31, 1918 the Stud Book be opened to American bred dogs whose pedigrees can be established for three generations.

Very truly yours,
Ralph C. Stewart
Chairman Stud Book Committee

The above report was accepted and its recommendation adopted subject however to an amendment substituting the date Oct 1st in the last paragraph to read July 1, 1918.

The Boston Trial Board reported on the following cases:

Investigation as to Certain Alleged Charges against C. F. Sullivan
American Kennel Club
Vs.
C. F. Sullivan

This case was referred to the Boston Trial board with the request that the same be investigated and reported upon, and arises out of two letters addressed to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, in which the writers claim that Mr. Sullivan, being a duly licensed Judge of the American Kennel Club, received money for handling dogs at certain shows.

One of these letters is signed Mr. Dorthey and the other is signed M. Kelly. Each of the same being dated at Boston, the first, December 22, 1917 and the second Oct 30, 1917. Further than this, these is no means of identifying the writers. The name Dorthey does not appear in the Boston Directory and there are about 20 Kellys in the Boston Directory, where the first name beings with M. The Board, therefore, had no means of communicating with either of the supposed writers of these letters. Mr. Sullivan however, was notified and duly appeared before the Board, Wednesday, May 15, 1918.

The Board is of the opinion that these letters are virtually anonymous letters and should not be made the basis of charges even if they were intended as such by the writers. They do not fulfill the requirements of the American Kennel Club in various matters of form, and the Board is of the opinion that the writers intentionally concealed their identity.

Mr. Sullivan, however, waived these informalities and requested the Board to allow him to testify notwithstanding he was told by the Board that it did not consider the matter contained in these letters required any answer from him.

Mr. Sullivan's request was granted, and he explained to the Board that for the past several years he had never received any re-numeration either in money or otherwise for showing dogs. He emphatically denied the charges made in the above mentioned letters, and stated that at the specific shows mentioned, the only dogs which he had shown had been either ones which belonged to his wife or ones which belonged to friends of his, for which he received no re-numeration of any kind for handling. The Board unanimously believed the statements made by Mr. Sullivan and would therefore recommend that no further action be taken.

Worcester Kennel Club

This is a claim for an unpaid Special (S 20) offered at the 1917 show of the Worcester Kennel Club.

The Board has received various communications from different parties including the Superintendent at said show, Mr. T. E. L. Kemp, of Bridgewater, MA, and the complainants which correspondence, together with the documents referred to the Board by the Board of Directors are made a part of this report. And now upon consideration of the same, the Board finds that the special in question was duly delivered and received by the complainants and that they make no further claim.

The Board would therefore recommend that no further action be taken.

The New York Trial Board reported as follows:

New York, June 17, 1918

License Committee

Vs.

E. G. Snow, Jr.

In the matter of charges made by A. McClure Halley against E. G. Snow, Jr. for violation of the condition on entry form adopted by the American Kennel Club, which reads as follows:

"I certify to the best of my knowledge and belief that there has been no case of distemper within the period of six weeks prior to this date in any kennel in which the dog or dogs herein entered have been quartered during any part of that time."

Beg to report that their Board has met and heard witnesses at three different sessions of their Committee, including beside the complainant and defendant, veterinarians, kennelmen, Committees from the Pekingese Club and others cognizant or claiming to be cognizant of the facts, and as a result your Committee feel that the charges as made are sustained.

Mr. Snow it is hardly necessary to say, denied the charges and gave testimony as to his fairness and desire to obey and be governed by Kennel Club rules, and whilst making no attempt to disclaim responsibility for his acts beyond being governed by the advice of the veterinarian employed by him on the particular occasion referred to, i.e., April 28, 1917, when the dog Laurel of Lang was shown at Staten Island, does feel that his veterinarian’s advice absolves him from all responsibility.

Doctor Slawson, the veterinarian in question, states the dog, Laurel of Land had an undoubted case of distemper, and that there were other dogs infected during this period. Doctor Slawson was succeeded by Doctor French, who testified that there were no cases of distemper in the kennels at this time or at any time between April 3, 1917 and May 23, 1917. Doctor French’s testimony before our Committee stated there were the usual and ordinary dog troubles, chiefly auto intoxication, but no distemper.

Doctor Slawson’s testimony on which Mr. Snow based his right to show Laurel of Land at Staten Island on 28th of April, 1917 is as follows:

Q. Was Laurel of Land entirely cured in your estimation April 15, 1917?
A. He was out of danger on that date, and it would have been safe to show him, provided he did not come in contact with any other dogs.

Q. Did you tell Snow that this dog was all right to be shown?
A. Yes. Snow asked me when he could be shown and I told him any time after three weeks from March 25th, provided he did not come into contact with other dogs, and was out of danger. Any well dog could carry the germs to other dogs, and in a way it would be re-infected.

Q. Did Snow’s dogs have distemper after you left?
A. Yes. There were a number of dogs infected at that time.

Q. Do you think it could have been auto intoxication?
A. No.

Q. Were there other dogs sick beside Laurel of Lang?
A. Yes. The kennels were not clear for a long time. Snow admitted his dogs had distemper, and is now treating them with Del Creo.

Doctor Slawson testified – “that he had never shown dogs, and was not familiar with the rules of the American Kennel Club, but as already stated, he thought there would be no danger in showing Laurel of Lang provided he did not come in contact with infected dogs.”

Further testimony of Doctor Slawson, as shown by stenographer’s minutes, is as follows: “I told Mr. Snow that Laurel of Lang could be shown if he did not come in contact with other dogs, as the disease could be re-infected in a way, but he did not do this, and that is the way the other dogs around him were sick with distemper.”

Part of the testimony consisted of a paper, furnished us by Mr. Halley, dated July 6, 1917, addressed – “To Whom It May Concern” purporting to be signed by Yankibourne Kennels, and consisting of a testimonial as to the efficacy of Del Creo, the first clause of which read as follows:

“On the day of April, 1917, I had seven cases of distemper and four of chronic auto-intoxication and decided to give Del Creo a trial. I singled out three dogs affected with chronic intestinal distemper and dosed them according to directions received from the Delson Chemical Company. At the end of four days I had received no results whatsoever, either detrimental or beneficial; in fact, my dogs seemed to be lingering on in the same condition, as at the time I first started the Del Creo; while those which had not been dosed at all were growing steadily worse. This convinced me that to a certain extent, Del Creo was arresting the action of disease, and I decided that the doses were not sufficient to effect a cure. I then decided to double my doses and found a marked improvement 24 hours after, increasing the amount of each dose."

Yankibourne Kennels

We believe that Mr. Snow realizes the gravity of these charges, and your Committee believe there has been gross carelessness in showing a dog just recovering from distemper, and in association with other infected dogs, and recommend that Mr. Snow be suspended from showing dogs for a period of 90 days from this date.

Delegates (3)

The meeting then went into an election for active members and delegates. The Chair appointed William L. Barclay and Edwin L. Boger as Tellers.

The application of the American Chesapeake Club of active membership was taken up, and after a ballot was taken the Chairman announced the unanimous election of the American Chesapeake Club.

The following Credentials were acted upon and duly accepted.

The Chairman announced the result as follows:

The Bull Terrier Club of America appointing John W. Britton II; Eastern Beagle Club, appointing L. Rollin Moore, and the New Jersey Beagle Club appointing George B. Hughes.

The Field Trial Committee presented the following report:

“Enclosed you will find the various letters mailed to me, in your letter of May 23rd, regarding the Amateur Championship of the Amateur Field Trial Clubs of America.

After looking into this matter very carefully, and getting the consensus of opinion of all the Setter and Pointer men, I know, my opinion is, that the winner of the Amateur Field Trial Clubs of America’s Champion Race, should be recorded, as the Amateur Champion of the year, in the Stud Book of the American Kennel Club Kennel Club, and if I am unable to be present at the next meeting of the Board of Directors, I wish that you would advise them as above.

Yours very truly,

Chetwood Smith, Chairman

George S. West”

On motion the report was accepted, and the recommendations duly adopted.

Mr. Collins asked the privilege for Mr. R. C. Cleveland, representative of the German Shepherd Dog Club of America to address the meeting. On motion the request was duly granted.

Mr. Cleveland then took the floor and addressed the meeting and after reciting the resolution of a former meeting by which the German Shepherd Dog Club of America was directed to drop the word German in their title, said that a Committee from his club had met the Stud Book Committee, to which the matter had been referred during the latter part of May 1918, and had discussed with the Stud Book Committee the question of renaming its breed of dogs, and as a consequence amended its Charter so that the word German might be eliminated, and also said that it was the consensus of opinion of the Members of his club that the name of the breed should be either The Police Dog, the American Shepherd Dog, or the American Sheepdog, and that his Club was not only willing but anxious to eliminate the word German from the name of the club, and of its breed of dogs, and that as no report on this subject had been received from the Stud Book Committee, the German Shepherd Dog Club of America felt that it was due to it that the matter should be settled at once.

After Mr. Cleveland retired, the subject matter of his address was thoroughly discussed by the members present, and it was finally resolved that the name of the breed of dogs formerly known as the German Sheepdog be and hereby is changed to read the Shepherd Dog, and that the title of the German Shepherd Dog Club of America be changed to read the Shepherd Dog Club of America.

An application from certain members of the Dachshund Club of America to change the name of the breed now known as the Dachshunde to that of the Badger Hound was presented to the meeting. The delegate of the Dachshund Club agreed to the change of name, except however that it should be known as the Badger Dog. This matter was thoroughly known as the Dachshunde be and hereby is changed to read the Badger Dog, and Delegates (5) that the title of the Dachshund Club of America be changed to read the Badger Dog Club of America.

A communication from the secretary and Treasurer of the Louisville Kennel Association notifying us that pursuant to a resolution passed at its regular annual meeting in December 1917, that they have amended their Charter by changing the name of the Louisville Kennel Association to that of the Kentucky State Fair Kennel Club, and would request that this change be made in the records of the American Kennel Club.

On motion the request was duly granted, and the name of the Louisville Kennel Association will from this day be known as the Kentucky State Fair Kennel Club on the records of the American Kennel Club.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

On motion the vacancy on the Board occasioned by the death of Mr. Bloodgood was laid over until the next meeting.

The Rules Committee reported as follows:

July 16, 1918

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

The following matters have been taken up by the Rules Committee since the last regular meeting of the Board of Directors.

The complaint of Harry Weimberg against the Kansas City Boston Terrier Club because the regularly appointed Judge did not complete judging all of his classes, and a substitute Judge replaced him, the latter judge re-judging all of the classes judged by the regular judge as well as those which the latter did not judge. Correspondence had with the officers of the club developed the facts that this method was decided upon after the consultation of the Committee, and with the exhibitors; no protest against this procedure having been lodged by any of the exhibitors. Because of these facts your Committee decided to sustain the action of the Bench Show Committee of the Kansas City Boston Terrier Club, but wish it specifically understood that this decision shall not be taken as a precedent in subsequent cases of a like nature.
Board of Directors (3)

This case, the facts of which have been just recited, seems to have been the first of its kind in the history of the American Kennel Club, consequently there was no precedent to follow in the matter and your Committee believed that some interpretation of Rule XVIII, Paragraph 6, should be made by this Committee so that should such a case happen again officials of a Dog Show would know how to act. After considerable discussion, the Committee decided unanimously that in a case where the regularly advertised judge had judged some of his classes, and then found it absolutely made by the regularly advertised judge shall stand and the judge substituted shall judge only the other classes and specials.

The Committee decided to hold public hearings on any proposed new rules or changes in the rules and publish the following notice:

The Rules Committee has decided that hereafter public hearings will be held by this Committee, at the offices of the American Kennel Club, on all proposed new rules, or changed in rules, before this Committee either approves or disapproves of any changes in the rules. Stenographic notes will be taken of all arguments made by Fanciers. Fanciers who cannot arrange to attend these hearings may submit their opinions in writing.

All suggestions either oral or in writing will be given due consideration by the Committee, and also will be at the disposal of the delegates before they are called upon to vote on any proposed changes in the rules. Notices of these hearings will be sent to the Kennel Press 10 days before the date of the hearings. All communications in this respect should be addressed to the Chairman and received at this office on or about the date of the hearing.

The request of T. Gilpin Massey for a divided winners classes according to sizes for Beagles was denied. Should this request be granted, it would undoubtedly lead to similar requests for many other breeds.

Some years ago, the American Spaniel Club and the Dachshund Club succeeded in getting separate winners classes for the different colors in these two breeds, which was immediately followed by a request form the Collie Club for separate winners classes for this breed divided by colors which latter request was refused, and a resolution was adopted at that time to the effect that the division of winners classes by color and weight should not be given, which resolution seems to cover the case as request by Mr. Massey.
Board of Directors (4)

Respectfully submitted,
John F. Collins
Chairman

On motion the report was accepted and the recommendations duly adopted.

A letter from the Delaware State Fair notifying us that the show of 1918 had been abandoned, owing to shipping facilities.

On motion of Mr. Collins, the Secretary was directed to hold the date deposit of the Delaware State Fair to cover any future claim for dates.

The resignation of Mr. Samuel R. Cutler as Chairman of the Boston Trial Board was presented, and on motion the same was accepted with regrets.

Doctor E. W. Dwight was nominated as Chairman of the Boston Trial Board and was unanimously elected.

The vacancy on the Boston Trial Board was on motion referred to the President of the American Kennel Club with power to name a successor to Mr. Cutler.

The appeal of Lieut. H. H. Crowell to reinstate his kennel name Hailon, which was cancelled for the non-payment of maintenance fee.

Lieut. Crowell gave as his reason for failure to pay said fee, that he was in the service and away from home.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to accept the maintenance fee of the kennel name Hailon, and upon receipt of same to reinstate the name.
The resolution on the death of Mr. A. G. Hooley was reported by the Special Committee, and on motion the same was directed to be spread upon the minutes.

RESOLUTION. Much as Mr. A. G. Hooley will be missed as a breeder to the dog world, to the American Kennel Club, Board of Directors, Executive Committee, and other Committees, in which capacity he always rendered most loyal and efficient service. His sound judgment, knowledge and interest in kennel matter will be greatly missed by the club.

The Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club beg to convey to Mrs. Hooley and the family, the club’s most sincere sympathy.

Excuses for absence from this meeting were received from William Ross Proctor, George S. West, and Ralph C. Stewart and on motion same was accepted.

Sept 9, 1918

In the matter of the charges preferred by Mrs. Harriet F. Price against Arthur Goulding, referred to the New York Trial Board by Executive Committee of American Kennel Club at its meeting, held June 18, 1918.

Beg to report that their Board has met and heard witnesses, and as a result your Committee feel that the charges as made are sustained.

Mrs. Price changes “that a Cairn Terrier Bitch (then in Season), was sent to Goulding March 29th to be cared for by him and mated to a dog of my (her) selection.”

Mrs. Price received on April 10th a letter from Goulding stating --- “I fixed all up and bred “Podge” (the bitch in question)- to Inverness Doran, so you had better send check to I. Black” – which she did.

Black was Payne Whitney’s Kennelman.

On April 16th, Payne Whitney enclosed to Mrs. Price a letter from Black, in which he stated that Podge had not been bred to the Greentree dog, and later in accordance with Mr. Whitney’s instructions, check- which Mrs. Price had sent, was returned to her without any explanation from Black.

Podge whelped on May 19th, two pups, which would indicate that she was bred soon after he receipt by Goulding. The pups, according to Mrs. Price and Black, Mrs. Whitney’s Kennelman, are undoubted Carins.

At a time Podge was in Goulding’s care, and was allowed to have the run of the house, there was in his care at that time the Cairn Terrier Lugate Lucid, belonging to Mrs. Byron Rogers, and during Goulding’s absence in the West (California), it is assumed by your Committee that Podge was bred to Lucid. Goulding testifies that during his absence the kennel was in the Army. Mrs. Goulding, according to Goulding’s testimony, could give no information, or had none to give us as to the mating, and Goulding claimed he could get no word or reply from Gough on the subject.

Mrs. Price saw Black, Mr. Whitney’s Kennelman, at the Gravesend Show, and he intimated that Goulding bred Pdoge to Lochearn Gillie, Goulding, however says Lochearn Gillie was never in his kennels.

We had no occasion to call Mrs. Bryon Rogers before our Committee, but wrote to her to see if she could throw any light on the subject, and quote from her reply on July 27th.

Arthur Goulding has made no admissions to me regarding
Executive Committee (3)

The mating of Podge. Writing me on a business matter, he added, “Mrs. Price got a decision on the breeding of Podge that she was bred in my absence in Chicago, and got registration on Lucid, as he was at my place at the time.” It is hardly necessary to say that your Committee gave no such decision, although all the indications point to Lucid as the Sire of the pups, and if your Committee concur we should advise that Mrs. Price be given permission to register the pups on payment of Stud Fee to Mrs. Rogers.

Goulding’s statement in letter to Mrs. Price that Podge was bred to Inverness Doran and requesting her to send check for service to Mr. Whitney, was admitted by Goulding on the stand to be false. He said he requested check, as he intended to breed Podge the next day. This was, of course, not done or possible to be done, as the bitch was already in whelp.

Your Committee recommend that Goulding be suspended from all the privileges of the Kennel Club, for four months from date.

Francis G. Lloyd, Chairman
John G. Bates
Theodore Offerman

On motion the report was accepted and the recommendation of the Board approved, except that the penalty of suspension of six months instead of four months be imposed. CARRIED.

The report of the Philadelphia Trial Board is as follows:

Chestnut Hill, PA
July 11, 1918

Directors of the American Kennel Club
Gentlemen:

The Philadelphia Trial Board reports as follows on the case of Doctor H. B. Kobler vs. Philadelphia Kennel Club.

Your Board received a letter from the Secretary of the American Kennel Club under date of May 23rd, “advising that the report of the Phila. Trial Board on this matter had not been accepted and that the matter was referred back to the Board.” To find out and report the date on which the entries of Mr. W. T. Payne were received by the Kennel Club of Phila.

Under date of March 23rd, in a letter which was forwarded with and made a part of, the first report, Mr. Foley, the Superintendent of the Show writes: I do not remember when the entries were received”, and “on inquiry of my assistants they do not remember the day they were received”, and again “They were received by mail and the envelop was nto saved and we have no way of telling what the date of the postmark was”.

Obviously, therefore, the Philadelphia Trial Board cannot definitely determine the date on which these entries were received.
Executive Committee (4)

The matter may be reviewed as follows:

(1) Mr. Payne had not been accustomed to show his Cocker Spaniels under the later Mr. Bloodgood.

(2) At the New York Show, after the entries for the Philadelphia Show had closed, it is claimed he informed Doctor H. B. Kobler that he had no entered at Phila.

(3) The entries of Mr. Payne’s Cocker Spaniels in the show catalogue, show the letter A. before six of the eight entries indicating some irregularity in the numbering of the catalogue.

On the other hand, it has been shown to the satisfaction of your Board, that a doubt existed before the closing of the entries as to whether Mr. Bloodgood would officiate as Judge. It is shown that Mr. Payne knew of this doubt and reserved his entries in case a substitute was appointed; also that Mr. Foley wrote to Mr. Payne under date of Feb 11th that entries had been reserved for eight Cocker Spaniels owned by Mr. Payne and suggesting that he (Mr. Payne) send his particulars as soon as possible.

Under date of March 22nd, Mr. Payne wrote the Phila. Trial Board that he had reserved entries for Cocker Spaniels early in Feb and sent them in due time.

Mr. Payne explains his conversation with Doctor Kobler at the New York Show by the statement that he told Doctor Kobler to the effect “that he was not showing any dogs in Philadelphia under Mr. Bloodgood”, and according to his (Mr. Payne’s) recollection the word “showing” was used and not the word “entered”. This Doctor Kobler disputed under date of June 9th.”

The fact that some of Mr. Payne’s entries in the catalog had a letter before the number while others do not appear with the letter, influences your Board to disregard the claim that the letter indicated a late entries. The letter before an entry is so common that all such entries cannot be open to the suspicion of being late entries.

Your board has questioned Mr. Foley further and has had an interview with Doctor Kobler in an effect to go deeper into the matter. Letters from both are forwarded with this report.

To sum up the matter, your Board is of the opinion that a case has not been made out against the Philadelphia Kennel Club. Further, it is the opinion of the Trial Board that in case the usual fine is imposed on the Philadelphia Kennel Club or any action taken against Mr. Payne for making late entries, that the burden of proof should be on the American Kennel Club to show that these entries were received late, and not on the Phila. Kennel Club or Mr. Payne to show that they were received in time.

Holding this view of the matter at the time of the previous report, your Board hesitated to make any recommendation but left the matter open for any action which the American Kennel Club might see fit to take in case the Directors do not coincide with the view of the matter taken by the Philadelphia Trial Board.
Executive Committee (5)

Your Board regrets its inability to determine definitely the date on which these entries were received and respectfully submits the results of its investigation for any action which the American Kennel Club may see fit to take.

On motion the report was accepted and the case dismissed.
The report of the Chicago Trial Board is as follows:

July 12, 1918
A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary:
American Kennel Club
1 Liberty Street, NY

Mr. Dear Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh:

We return herewith all papers in the case of Walter Brown of Winnipeg, Canada, and J. Bate Locke of Chicago.

The Trial Board assembled at the Grand Pacific Hotel at four o’clock pm July 10, all members being present. Both Mr. Brown and Mr. Locke were present, although the former had been advised by you that his attendance was not necessary. At the suggestion of members of the Trial Board, Messrs. Brown and Locke went through all correspondence that had been passed between them to their satisfaction, and they parted good friends. In fact Mr. Locke received Mr. Brown as his guest, took him to the station where he could take a train to see some kennels along the North Shore, and today had him as his quest kennels along the North Shore, and today had him as his quest at the Vickery Kennels at Barrington, Illinois.

Mr. Brown expressed his entire satisfaction with the treatment he received from the Trial Board, and also with the terms of settlement agreed upon between himself and Mr. Locke. He informed us that the would write a letter to that effect to you. We thought this would be the best way to adjust this case, as there seemed to be considerable error on each side, and the only thing that stood in the way of an amicable settlement, without the intervention of the Trial Board, was some rather peppery letters Mr. Brown had written Mr. Locke on the subject.

We presume that to make this official, it will be necessary for Mr. Brown to formally withdraw the charges of misconduct preferred against Mr. Locke. He has agreed to do that, and you will doubtless hear from him soon after his return to Winnipeg? He will probably read home Saturday or Sunday.
Executive Committee (6)

On motion the report was accepted as the case dismissed.
The report of the Boston Trial Board is as follows:

Boston, MA. July 15, 1918

In the matter of the Special Prize offered by the respondent Club at The Braintree Show for the Best Poodle including Toy Poodles, Open to All. To be won outright at this show.

Miss Marielouis Whittlesey vs. Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts.

This case was referred to the Boston Trial Board by the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club for investigation and report.

A large amount of correspondence between the different parties in interest and with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, and other officials thereof, as well as other letters turned over to this board have been carefully considered by each member of the board and several conferences have been held with reference to said correspondence.

The Board gave a hearing which the petitioner and the respondent were each invited to attend. The petitioner appeared in person and the respondent appeared thru its attorney, Everett W. Crawford Esq. of Boston. The original prize list of the Braintree show at which the cup in question was offered was shown to the board and the case was extensively discussed and argued by both sides, and now after giving the matter careful consideration, it seems to the Board that Miss Whittlesey is absolutely entitled to the so-called Braintree Cup, which must have an actual value $30.00.

The Rules of the American Kennel Club expressly state that “show-giving Clubs shall be responsible for the errors of publication of special prizes and shall award prizes of even value”, and that “all prizes must be in accordance with the description in the premium list.” We take this to mean that if a special is printed in the prize list and the donor does not give the same, the show-giving Club must give it themselves, also that when the value is stated for full description of the prize given, the prize awarded has got to correspond to this value and description.

This rule seems to have been enacted to insure fair dealing on the part of show-giving clubs as well as to encourage confidence among exhibitors.

We can see no connection between the so-called Rochardson Cup originally offered in 1905 and the Braintree Cup. Neither can we see any connection between the Braintree Cup and the Champion Chasseur Memorial Trophy. We believe that Miss Whittlesey was absolutely entitled to the latter, and if the winner of it at the Ladies Kennel Association of Mass. Show held on June 5, 1917, under the terms as printed in the prize list, demands this cup, we believe that the Ladies Kennel Association of Mass. would have to furnish one under the American Kennel Club Rules. In other words, they would be responsible for furnishing two of these cups in view of the fact that they printed the conditions in this prize list in the form in which they did.

In our opinion Miss Whittlesey was entitled to both the Braintree Cup valued at $30.00 and the Champion Chassuer Memorial Trophy as well.

Further than this, we do not see on what ground the Secretary of the American Kennel Club delivered the so-called Braintree Cup, which Miss Whittlesey sent to him to Mrs. Clark.

The correspondence and other documents considered by this Board in arriving at the foregoing report is attached hereto and made a part of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

Samuel R. Cutler
Edwin E. Dwight
George S. West

On motion the report was accepted and recommendations duly adopted.

The License Committee referred the case of Mrs. Attmore Robinson officiating as a judge at the late show of the Ladies Kennel Association of America.

Mrs. Robinson applied for a Judge’s License and the same was not acted upon by the Committee, but was left in abeyance subject to future consideration. A letter from the Superintendent of July 11th states “That he called at the office of the American Kennel Club, and checked up the applications from those who had been submitted to the American Kennel Club for action, and found that Mrs. Vernon Castle had not applied. On my return to the office, I immediately got into communication with Mrs. Castle’s Secretary and told her to send the application at once as the American Kennel Club was to have a meeting of its License Committee within a day or two. At the time of going over the applications, we agreed that all the applicants were in good standing, and I naturally supposed that the Licenses had been granted at the May meeting.”

Mr. Collins stated that it was highly improper for any club
To take for granted that all applications for licenses would be approved, and on the strength of such presumption to permit any person to Judge who could not show their License Card.

It was therefore moved that the Ladies Kennel Association of America, and the Superintendent, George Gail, be publicly censured by a notice in the Gazette for permitting an unlicensed Judge to act, and further that a similar action at any time by any club will be dealt with severely.

The Secretary presented a communication from the War Industries Board and his reply thereto. On motion the communication was received and ordered on file.

On motion all matters relating to the Liberty Bonds now held by the American Kennel Club and for the possible subscription to the forth-coming issue of Liberty Bonds be and hereby is referred to the Finance Committee with full power to use its discretion.

Dr. De Mund stated that some action should be taken in regard to the failure of the Stud Book Committee to report more promptly on the matters referred to it.

It therefore moved the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS It has come to our notice that the Stud Book Committee did not hold a meeting since the latter part of May, 1918, and through the representative of the German Shepherd Dog Club of America, we find that said Committee did no hold a meeting to act upon the naming of its breed of dog since the latter part of may, 1918, and notwithstanding the fact that this subject was referred to the Stud Book Committee for its action at the meeting of the American Kennel Club in May last, it remains a fact that up to this day, no report has been received of any action in the matter on the part of the Stud Book Committee.

It was therefore RESOLVED by this Committee that the Executive Committee (9)

Stud Book Committee should meet at least once each month and report upon cases sent to it for action, and in case it does not come to a prompt decision on matters pending, that said Committee is directed to return the papers in such cases as has not been acted upon back to the American Kennel Club, and that the Executive Committee will thereupon take over the work of the Stud Book Committee.

Carried.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York Dec 17, 1918

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that the following credentials have been received. From the Shepherd Dog Club of America, appointing R. MCI. Cleveland, and from the Lades Kennel Association of Massachusetts, appointing E. G. Snow, Jr. These credentials have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report on same at this meeting.

I have signed a pledge to the Pulp and Paper Division of the War Industries Board that we will not exceed a tonnage of 6620 lbs. in the publication of the Gazette and Stud Book.

Since the signing of that pledge, I have received official notice from the said Industries Board that all rules and regulations of the Pulp and Paper Division affecting the publication of all periodicals excepting daily, Sunday, and weekly newspapers are withdrawn, but however, strongly recommend that we will not exceed tonnage as set forth in the pledge above referred to.

In accordance with Article XVII, Section 3 of the bylaws, the Membership Committee must nominate Delegates to represent the Associate Subscribers for the year 1919, and said Committee must recommend a Nominating Committee to nominate Directors and Committees to fill the vacancies that will occur at the annual meeting in Feb 1919.

I have a request from William A. Richards, Pikesville, Maryland, recommending that the separation of puppy classes into two classes; namely, from six and under nine months, and nine and under twelve months, be made a rule to apply to all shows. This request should be sent to the Rules Committee.

The Empire Beagle Club has sent a notice to the effect that it has been obliged to cancel its Trials of 1918 until next year. This club was obliged to postpone its Trials on account of the influenza. At the date of postponement approved by the License Committee, the Empire Beagle Club found that the Hotel at which their headquarters were to be established, had been closed for the season, and that the owner was unable to secure servants to properly care for the club and its friends, and therefore were obliged to abandon to show and ask that the date deposit now in our hands should be transferred to cover their claim for next year.

Respectfully submitted
A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
(3) Delegates.

On motion the report was accepted and placed on file.

The Membership Committee reported favorably on the Credentials from the Shepherd Dog Club of America and the Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts.

The Membership Committee in accordance with Article XVIII, Section 3, of the bylaws nominated as a Committee to nominate Directors and Committees to fill the vacancies that will occur at the annual meeting in Feb 1919 the following:

George Greer, Chairman
Dr. De Mund
Ralph C. Stewart
C. F. Neilson
Howard Willets

The above nominations were placed before the meeting, and were unanimously elected as a Nominating Committee.

The communication from William A. Richards recommending that the puppy class be divided, six months and under nine, and nine months and under twelve, to apply to all shows was on motion referred to the Rules Committee.

The appeal of the Empire Beagle Club to transfer their date deposit now in the hands of the American Kennel Club to cover the claim for Trials to be held in 1919, for the reason that owning to a postponement of the date, which was brought about by the influenza epidemic and the hotel at which quarters were to be secured had been closed for the season.

On motion the application was granted, and the Secretary was (4) directed to transfer the date deposit now in his hands to cover the claim for dates for Trials to be held in 1919.

(2) Board of Directors

New York, Dec 17, 1918

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the following matters for your consideration.

Charges preferred by George F. Foley, Superintendent of the Philadelphia Charity Show against Miss Frances A. McCahill. This check was returned by the bank with a notice “Not sufficient funds.” Notice to that effect was sent to the maker of the check to which no reply had been made, after which a registered letter was sent to the lady marked “Return Receipt Requested”. This was returned to Mr. Foley marked “Return to the writer, Refused.”

The Western Beagle Club asks the American Kennel Club to decide a question referring to entries in their futurity stake. I would recommend that this matter be referred to the Field Trial Committee.

At the late Detroit Show, there appears to be a misunderstanding in reference to the prize money to be distributed in the open classes. There are two exhibitors who claim prize money that the Detroit Kennel Club refused to pay until the American Kennel Club interprets officially the question at issue. I would recommend that this be sent to the proper Committee to report on same.

Mr. L. T. Holliday, Anaconda, Montana, applied for the kennel Washoe, Feb 18, 1918, and after waiting until Nov 1, 1918, requested the return of his fee, upon the ground that the Stud Book Committee had ample time to act upon his application, and as the Committee had not replied to any of his letters, I considered that the return of his fee was only just, and returned same, and have his receipt thereof.

I have a communication from Doctor E. W. Dwight of the Boston Trial Board in reference to the publication of excerpts from the not the full report of its Trial Boards. I believe that this custom had been approved by this Board, and that the publication Committee had been so instructed.

I would report that since our last meeting, President Hunnewell appointed T. Dickson Smith, as a member of the Boston Trial Board, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Cutler.

A bill for expenses of the Western Representative from June 8th to Nov 25, 1918 amounting to $10.60 and I would recommend that this bill be paid.

I have charges preferred to U. V. Woegerer against Louis E. Rode. This matter was referred to the New York Trial by the License Committee for investigation only. The New York Trial Board reported that in its opinion, there is strong evidence of fraud.
(3) Directors

in the matter of the registration of a Boston Terrier, and as the witness, cognizant of the facts agreed to prefer charges. I recommend that these charges be referred to the Trial Board for Trial.

I have excuses for absence from this meeting from W. L. Barclay, R. W. Creuzbaur, William Rauch, and Charles A. Kelly.

A communication from the delegate of the Eastern Beagle Club which I would recommend to be referred to the Field Trial Committee.

A request from the president of the Southampton Kennel Club for a remission of the date deposit made for the show of 1918 for the reason that the Government refused to furnish a Special Train to reach the show grounds.

Respectfully admitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and ordered placed on file.

The Southampton Kennel Club, owing to the impossibility of securing a special train for their show to be held in 1918, requested that the date deposit might be transferred to cover a show by said club to be held in 1919 was on motion granted, and the Secretary was directed to notify the Southampton Kennel Club of the result.

Mr. George S. West stated good and sufficient reasons why the Eastern Dog Club was not able to hold its show, December 31st, to Jan 2nd, and requested that the date deposit might be transferred to cover a show to be held by said club in 1919. On motion the request was granted.

Mr. Collins, in behalf of the License Committee, asked the opinion of this meeting in reference to granting permission to Licensed Judges to officiate at shows not held under American Kennel Club Rules was taken up and discussed, and on motion, it is the consensus of opinion that the License Committee should grant permission to as few of such applications as possible, and to none of them unless there is a good and sufficient reason shown why it should do so.

The Secretary announced that since the last meeting, the President appointed Mr. T. Dickson Smith as a member of the Boston Trial Board to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Samuel R. Cutler, and on motion the appointment was confirmed.

On motion the Secretary was directed to communicate with the donors of said cup and ascertain the disposition that they may want to make of said cup, as it had not been competed for since 1908.

The appeal from Theodore Offerman in behalf of Arthur Goulding, who was suspended by this Board until March 1919, was on motion granted, and the Secretary was directed to reinstate Arthur Goulding to good standing on Jan 1, 1919.

Dr. De Mund assumed the chair temporarily.

The report of the Philadelphia Trial Board in the case of L. V. Almirall against the Delaware Valley Farm Kennels and J. F. Crangle was presented and is as follows:

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

The Philadelphia Trial Board reports as follows on the case of Almiral vs. Delaware Valley Farms Kennels.

Mr. Leon V. Almiral paid two visits to the Delaware Valley Farms Kennels in 1917, on the second of which he purchased a Russian Wolfhound bitch for $100.00, and had same shipped to him in Colorado. Mr. Almirall claims that Mr. Crangle Supt. Of the Delaware Valley Farm Kennels told him that the bitch had been registered with the American Kennel Club. Mr. Crangle disputes that he told him that the bitch had been registered, but admits that he told him that the bitch could be registered. Mr. Almirall furnishes the Trial Board with a pedigree which he claims was given him by Mr. Crangle at the time of the sale. This pedigree gives sire of the bitch sold as Holmes Lusky, dam Coutess Orloff, both being registered and making the bitch sold eligible for registration, if bred in accordance with that pedigree. Mr. Crangle at first denied that he had given any pedigree to Mr. Almirall.
with the bitch. On being shown the pedigree in his handwriting dated the day of the sale, he admitted that he gave the pedigree to Mr. Almirall.

Later on being pressed by Mr. Almirall to carry out his agreement to have the bitch registered, Mr. Crangle attempted to register a bitch Olga Orloff by Obilska ex. Zenda Orloff. This bitch was ineligible for registration by reason for the same Zenda Orloff not being registered. This application for registration was refused in June 1918 by the office of the American Kennel Club. After some further delay and a charge being preferred against the Delaware Valley Farm Kennels by Mr. Almirall, Mr. Crangle succeeded in having registered the dam Zenda Orloff and also the bitch shipped to Mr. Almirall Olga Orlogg. A certificate of registration was sent to Mr. Almirall. The pedigree on the application for registration of Olga Orloff was entirely different from the pedigree which Mr. Crangle admits to have furnished Mr. Almirall at the time of the sale. Mr. Crangle claims to have notified Mr. Almirall some weeks after the sale that the pedigree furnished was incorrect. The letter under date of July 5th, from Mr. Almirall’s attorneys to Mr. Crangle clearly indicates that no letter as to the incorrectness of the pedigree indicates that no letter as to the incorrectness of the pedigree if Mr. Almirall himself had registered the bitch on the pedigree furnished to him by Mr. Crangle, that the incorrect blood lines for the bitch Olga Orloff would have gone on record in the Stud Book.

It had been amply proved that the Delaware Valley Farm Kennels has been guilty not only of gross carelessness but of utter disregard for the responsibility which all kennels should assume in furnishing pedigrees with stock sold.

Your board recommends that the $10.00 deposit be returned to Mr. Almirall and that the Delaware Valley Farm Kennels be suspended Executive Committee on this report.

Yours truly

S. Sergeant Price Jr.

William L. Barclay

On motion the recommendation of the Philadelphia Trial Board was adopted and the Delaware Valley Farm Kennels and Mr. J. F. Crangle was suspended for the period of six months from the date of this meeting. Mr. Hunnewell resumed the chair.

On motion the Dr. De Mund, Mr. Crangle is warned that a repetition of the issuing of wrong pedigrees will result in his disqualification.
Executive Committee

The Stud Book Committee reported as follows:

Chestnut Hill, PA Dec 14, 1918

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

The Stud Book Committee reports as follows in the matter of the registration of the Airedale Bitch Peggy XXX referred this Committee for investigation.

Doctor William P. Martin, Newark, NJ registration the Airedale Bitch Peggy XXX giving name of dam as Brandwood Witchcraft, date of birth as July 11, 1918, breeder M. V. Vibert, Weston, NJ. Miss Pauline W. Smith, Monroe, Conn. Writes to the American Kennel Club challenging this registration on the ground that she has owned this bitch for more than a year and that Brandwood Witchcraft whelped no puppies on July 11, 1918.

Your Committee has traced the bitch Brandwood Witchcraft from the Kennel of Philip Brand, Chicago, where she was bred through four owners to Miss Pauline Smith, and finds that at no time was she owned by Mr. Vibert, and that therefore the registration is incorrect, and it is hereby cancelled. A letter was sent to Doctor Martin asking for a copy of the pedigree furnished him at the time of sale. Mr. M. V. Vibert replied to this letter asking what was wrong with the pedigree. The Stud Book Committee took the position that it was for Mr. Vibert to say what was wrong with the pedigree or to certify to its correctness, and he was so advised. Mr. Vibert replied admitted that Brandwood Witchcraft was not the dam pf Peggy XXX, but that the latter was bred by Mr. Swart of Margaretville, NY out of an Airedale bitch Miss Trailer, who was out of Brandwood Witchcraft. Mr. Vibert also claimed that this was out of Brandwood Witchcraft. Mr. Vibert claimed that this error occurred from a confusion of pedigrees. This explanation is unsatisfactory to the Stud Book Committee. Brandwood Witchcraft is unsatisfactory to the Stud Book Committee. Brandwood Witchcraft is on of the best bred Airedale in the country. A pup out of her would have considerable value. Peggy XXX would have gone on record with the American Kennel Club with incorrect blood lines if Miss Smith had not come forward with the information contained in her letter. It is obviously impossible for the Stud Book Committee to provide against the confusion of pedigrees. It is obviously the duty of those registering dogs to have some authority for the facts set forth on the registration blank. Doctor Martin has furnished the Stud Book Committee with a copy of the pedigree given him by Mr. Vibert. This pedigree does not give Mr. Vibert’s name as the breeder of Peggy XXX and no explanation to date has been give to the Stud Book Committee as to how Mr. Vibert’s name as breeder came to be on the registration blank. Unless the proper name of breeder is given with each registration, it is impossible for the Stud Book Committee to verify the facts.

The Stud Book Committee recommends that Mr. Vibert be summoned before a Trial Board to be further questioned in regard to the confusion of pedigrees, and unless a satisfactory explanation be forthcoming, that appropriate action be taken by the Trial Board.

Respectfully,
William L. Barclay
For the Stud Book Committee

On motion the case was referred to the New York Trial Board.

It was moved, seconded and carried, that the Executive Committee demands to go on record that the original motion by Mr. Collins of the License Committee to the effect that Licensed Judges were requested to become Associate Subscribers, that the same should be amended to read that it should be suggested instead of requested for such Licensed Judges to become Associate Subscribers, for the reason that the Committee believe it would be best for all Licensed Judges to become such Associate Subscribers, so that they could keep in touch with the various changes of rules and official notifications that appear from time to time in the American Kennel Club Gazette and Stud Book.

The Secretary reported that the Stud Book Committee had failed to act upon several applications for kennel names that had been pending for months, and on motion, Charles R. Wood and William L. Barclay are requested to hold a meeting of the Stud Book Committee in order to pass on all matters pending.

On motion of Mr. Collins duly seconded and adopted, the Secretary was directed to pay all employees of the American Kennel Club office, the same Xmas presents as were paid in December 1917.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

A communication from the Secretary of the Pekingese Club of America to the effect, that in the Premium List of the Westminster Kennel Club, the dates of the Specials offered by the Pekingese Club of America were printed from “Show 1918 to Show 1919”. This is a typographical error, and should be from “Show 1919 to Show 1920”.

Permission was asked to print the correct dates in the Westminster Kennel Club’s Catalogue, and on motion the same was granted.

A communication from the Superintendent of the Westminster Kennel Club to the effect, that on Nov 3rd, 1918. the Old English Sheepdog Club offered to the Westminster Kennel Club the same specials as were offered in 1918. In printing the Premium List for the show of 1919 the Superintendent failed through an oversight to publish these specials in his Premium List.

An application from Mr. Harry T. Peters, Vice President of the Old English Sheepdog Club in a circular marked “Addenda to the Premium List”, and same must be mailed to all the known Old English Sheepdog owners before the entries close on Jan 27th 1919.

A letter from the Philadelphia Charity Show Association, asking a ruling whether a dog entered in the limit class and its entry having been cancelled by the American Kennel Club, for the reason that said dog was not eligible to said limit class, could compete for specials. After considerable discussion, the matter was referred to the Rules Committee for its consideration and report its finding to the next meeting of the American Kennel Club.

A request from the Pinehurst Field Trial Club to change its title to read the “Pinehurst Kennel Club” was on motion granted.

Complaints against the Yorkshire Terrier Club of America were presented to the Meeting, and it was decided that the matter did not come within the province of the American Kennel Club, and the complainants are recommended to make their charges with the Yorkshire Terrier Club.

A letter from the Detroit Kennel Club in reference to claims against it for prizes, the conditions of which were ruled upon by this Committee at its last meeting was read, and same was ordered on file as a matter of record.

The Stud Book Committee rendered its report as follows:

Chestnut Hill, PA
Jan 17, 1919

To the Executive Committee
Of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

The Stud Book Committee reports as follows in the matter of the registration of the Great Dane Bitch Madame Petrova, #245,459.

This bitch was registered by Andrew Hammond 271 E. 37th Street, Brooklyn. The name of sire was given Prinz Von Weisman 174,738. Mr. Ludwig 553 3rd Ave. New York claims to be the owner of Prinz Von Weisman and advises the American Kennel Club that his dog was never bred to the bitch named on the registration application signed by Mr. Hammond.

A letter was sent to Mr. Hammond advising him that the registration has been challenged and asking for any explanation of the matter which he might have to offer. No reply to this letter was received.

The Stud Book Committee recommends that Mr. Andrew Hammond be summoned before a Trial Board to show cause why action should not be taken against him for registering a false pedigree.

Respectfully,
Wm. L. Barclay
For the Stud Book Committee

The recommendation that same should be referred to the Trial Board was approved, and on motion the matter was referred to the New York Trial Board with a notice to report its finding back to the Stud Book Committee.

A letter from M. V. Vibert was read to the meeting, and on motion the same was laid on the table.

An application from the Spanish Kennel Club, Madrid, Spain, for a donation of Volumes of the Stud Book was on motion granted.

The President, acting under Article XVIII, Section IV of the Bylaws appointed.

Mr. Theo. Offerman

them.

These applications have been referred to the Membership Committee which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

I beg to present the certificate of the Board of Tellers certifying to the election of Francis G. Lloyd and Spencer Eddy as delegates to represent the Associate Subscribers for the year 1919.

To the American Kennel Club:

The Treasurer presented his report for the year 1918 as follows:

Treasurer’s Report for 1918

New York, Feb 18, 1919

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the receipts and disbursements for the year 1918 as follows:

Receipts from all sources from Jan 1st to Dec 31st, 1918, $29,866.31.
Disbursements for the same period $32,012.98, and balance on hand at the beginning of the year Jan 1, 1918 was $10,296.66. The balance on hand at the ending of the year
December 31, 1918 was $8,143.99.

My accounts were submitted to Townsend and Dix, licensed auditors, and I have their certificate dates Feb 10, 1919 certified as correct.

I beg to direct your attention to the following figures.

The composition for the Stud Book from 1907 to 1909 inclusive was 35¢ per 1000 Ems.

1910 to 1913 " " 40¢ " " "
1914 to 1917 " " 50¢ " " "
1918 " " 60¢ " " "
1919 " " 80¢ " " "

All other items on the publication of the Stud Book have increased proportionately.
Delegates (5)

The rent of the office has been increased $1,000 per year beginning with May 1, 1919.

With this increased expenses, it would be obvious to your that during the period of high prices, that we have not made any increase in our prices, except an addition of $0.10 per copy for the Gazette.

I am strongly of the opinion that we will be obliged to make additional charges on registrations in order to meet the deficit. This is a question for your consideration or to refer same to the Stud Book Committee with power to settle the matter.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer.

The meeting went into an election for members and delegates.
The Chair appointed Messrs. W. P. Wolcott and W. Ross Proctor as tellers.
The application of the Ohio Valley Kennel Club for active membership was presented and balloted for and the Chair announced said club duly elected to active membership.

Townsend Scudder was unanimously elected as a Delegate to represent the Ohio Valley Kennel Club, and George B. Hooley was unanimously elected as a delegate to represent the New Jersey Beagle Club.

The Mississippi Valley Kennel Club was reinstated to good standing as an active member.

The nominating Committee announced the following nominations for directors.

For the Class of 1924 – Morris Kinney
Francis G. Lloyd
George S. West
E. L. Boger
John Sinnott
C. A. Kelly
Delegates (6)

For the Class of 1922 Spencer Eddy in the place of H. K. Bloodgood deceased and Townsend Scudder in place of O. Carley Harriman no longer a delegate.

For the Class of 1920, R. W. Creuzbaur to succeed himself for the full term.

The Rues Committee reported as follows:

New York, Jan 29, 1919

The Rules Committee have the honor to report as follows:

The proposed change to Rule V., Section A of Rules Governing Dog Shows making two puppy classes, one for puppies over six months and not over nine months and another for puppies nine months and not over twelve months, referred to this Committee by your honorable board at its last meeting, was considered by this Committee at a regular meeting held Jan 22\textsuperscript{nd} last. Your Committee unanimously decided to report against this proposed change for the following reasons:

1\textsuperscript{st}—Rule VI of Rules Governing Dog Shows provided that Dog Shwo Committees may provide such classes for dogs as they may choose which allows for any show officials to provide two classes for puppies instead of one if in judgment it is best so to do.

2\textsuperscript{nd}—Your Committee does not deem it expedient to make mandatory rules of this character preferring to leave such matters optional with dog show officials as far as possible.

The following changes to rules suggested by Mr. R. F. Mayhew were also considered at this meeting.

1\textsuperscript{st}—Full Championship ratings to be allowed only to shows giving not less than $15.00 cash prizes in not less than three regular classes for each winners class and half rating where less than the above amount is given.

2\textsuperscript{nd}—A dog may be entered for Specials only, but a dog so entered may only compete for specials which call for two or more dogs to compete as a unit.

3\textsuperscript{rd}—Unclassified Specials restricted to members of a club may only be offered at shows held by the club with which such specials are identified.

Your Committee unanimously decided to disapprove of these three changes suggested by Mr. Mayhew. The matter of the Championship ratings is being ably handled by the License Committee along lines which seems to be giving quite general
Delegates (7)

Satisfaction, and their actions in this connection should not, for the best interests of all, be interfered with by this Committee. In fact this Committee has not jurisdiction in this matter. As to the other two proposed changes, we believe should the American Kennel Club make such rules it would be absolutely unfair to the various clubs and further would tend to decrease competition and consequently be inimical to the best interest of the dog.

The communication from Mr. Foley, Superintendent of the Philadelphia Charity Show Association Show held Oct 5th last, which reads as follows:

A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary
American Kennel Club

Dear A. P. Vredenburgh:

Will you give me a ruling on the following point? At a show of the Phila. Charity Show Assn. at Bryn Mawr, PA, on Oct 5th, Mrs. A. L. Holland’s Dog Choo-Tai of Hydegree was awarded first in limit and winners, the dog being entered only in the limit class. Subsequently the limit win was cancelled for ineligibility and Mrs. Clinton I. Martin’s dog Li Chang of Marimar was moved up from reserve winners to winners.

What I want to know is whether Mrs. Holland’s Dog, being physically present at the show, is also eligible for all the specials that were awarded to it at this show. I do not think that Mrs. Martin’s dog would automatically, by reason of being moved up to winners, win some of the specials, as Mrs. W. S. Belding won winners bitches with Yatte of Bayldon, and if the ineligibility of Mrs. Holland’s dog has been known at the show, the bitch and Mrs. Martin’s dog would have entered into competition for specials, as Li Chang and Yatta both answered special requirements, and did not come into competition at all.

Yours very truly,
George F. Foley, Supt.

And which was referred to this Committee for a ruling by the Executive Committee at its meeting held Jan 22nd last, was considered and this Committee decided unanimously to rule that as this dog was not properly entered in any regular class that all of its wins both in the regular classes and specials shall be cancelled. Such prizes to be void where there is no dog of record to move up, and that in computing the Championship rating for its breed at this show, this dog shall be considered as not in said show.

Your Committee in this connection have decided to recommend the adoption of the following rule:
Delegates (8)

Addition to paragraph One, Rule XIV, of Rules Governing Dog Shows:

“Should a dog be not properly entered in any of the regular classes at a show, all prizes including special prizes awarded to said dog shall be cancelled. Such prizes to be void where there is no dog of record to move up, and in computing the Championship Points for its breed, said dog shall not be considered as in the show.”

The instructions received form the Executive Committee (decided upon at its meeting above noted) to present an amendment by which the Board of Directors may elect an Assistant Secretary when in its opinion it is deemed expedient was considered.

To create this new officer would necessitate an amendment to the bylaws, but as Article XXIII, Section 1 of the bylaws provided as follows:

“The constitution or bylaws may be amended at the annual meeting of the club only, and notice of any proposed amendments must be filed in writing, 60 days prior thereto.”

And since such 60 days notice cannot be given, your Committee decided that the Executive Committee must have overlooked this contingency and therefore such amendment we are not recommending at this time, but will do so later should the Executive Committee with us to do so.

John F. Collins
Chairman

On motion the report was accepted and the recommendations adopted.

The Field Trial Committee reported as follows:

Boston, Feb 11, 1919

American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

The Field Trial Committee desire to report that they have done over the various Field Trials held under our rules during the past year, and that all awards have been checked up and the proper ratings given each trial. Also that there seems to be even better feeling of cooperation existing between the various Beagle Clubs and the American Kennel Club, than formerly; that the various Clubs were doing their best to follow our rules, there being this year no deliberate signs of transgression.
Delegates (9)

The papers in the Lentilhon-Van Dyke case are being returned, as without further information which we are unable to obtain, it is impossible for us to act.

We have decided against the recommendations of L. Rollin Moore, as stated in our special report which is as follows:

After careful consideration of Mr. L. Rollin Moore’s recommendations, we are of the opinion that it would not be advisable to incorporate them in our rules, as under these recommendations it would be possible to hold a trial consisting of 25 starters and having the winner receive 5 points.

These recommendations have merit, but we believe the possibilities they open up more than counteract the desirable thoughts contained in them.

Respectfully submitted,
Chetwood Smith, Chairman

On motion the report was accepted and the recommendations adopted.

The Scottish Deerhound Club of America filed its resignation as a member of the American Kennel Club, and as said club was in good standing on Dec 31, 1918, the resignation was on motion duly accepted.

On motion Mr. Daniel P. Ritchey was permitted to pay the dues of the Brussels Griffon Club of America, and Mr. James Gardner Rossman was permitted to pay the dues of the Atlanta Kennel Club, in order to prevent said clubs from being automatically dropped at this meeting.

The question of new quarters for the club was referred to the Finance Committee and Mr. Spencer Eddy. They were requested to report to the Secretary at the earliest possible amount.

On motion of Mr. Collins it was directed that the complete report of the Treasurer be published in the Gazette containing the statements made by the Secretary relative to the advanced cost of all expenses of the American Kennel Club.
Delegates (10)

A full discussion was held on the question of increasing certain of the fees which resulted in the general consensus of opinion that notwithstanding the fact that in almost every direction prices and fees had been greatly increased, the American Kennel Club was not willing to impose a further burden on the owners and breeders of dog.

The club decided to make good any deficit for the calendar year owing to the increase in our printing bill and the increase of rent of 33%.

Owing to the small demand for the Volumes of the Stud Book for the past years and necessarily the accumulation of that stock on hand, Mr. Lloyd moved to ask the Finance Committee to recommend the sale of these back volumes at a nominal price to be fixed by it.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the December Gazette.

The Secretary presented the following report:

New York, Feb 18, 1919

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the following matters for your consid-
Directors (2)

A report from the New York Trial Board in the matter of the registration of the Airedale Terrier Peggy XXX also in the matter of the case of the Woegerer vs. Rode.

A report from the Philadelphia Trial Board in the case of the New York Charity Show vs. Miss Frances A. McCahill. In this case, a question of a check returned to the superintendent of the show form the bank marked “Not sufficient Funds”. I beg to inform you that under date of Feb 4th, Miss McCahill sent a check to the American Kennel Club for $5.00 to take up the check that was not good. I hold this check subject to your instructions.

At a recent meeting it was decided that the American Kennel Club should recognize the winner of the Champion Stake held by the Amateur Field Trial Clubs of America. From a letter received through its Secretary dated Jan 9, 191, it is evident that the Amateur Field Trial Clubs of America are very careful about the title of Champion, and in that letter notified me that nine dogs started at the Championship Stake at Bradley Hills, Maryland on Dec 27, 1918, and the Judges certified as follows: “Under the conditions encountered, none of the dogs showed the quality of bird work or class which would justify the title of the Amateur Champion. Upon vote of the clubs present, it was decided however that all of the dogs entered would be eligible to compete without payment of entry fee under the 1919 Amateur Championship Stake.

I have an application from the Newark Kennel Club to the effect “That it is desirous of enlarging its jurisdiction and is contemplating changing the name of the club from the Newark Kennel Club of Newark, NJ to that of the Newark Kennel Club of Essex County, NJ or to that of the Essex County Kennel Club of Newark. The proposition being to cover the entire county of Essex, thereby enabling us to hold shows outside of the city of Newark.”

The Queen City Kennel Club failed to hold its show in 1918, on account of the war conditions and assumes that its date deposit of $25.00 will now apply to cover a show for 1919.

This club has asked for dates for March 13th to 15th or April 10th to 12th to be held in Cincinnati, OH. It now rests with this meeting whether it will permit this date deposit to be transferred to cover the new claim.

I will submit correspondence with the Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts and Miss Marielouise Whittlesey also from Samuel L. Goldenberg which refers to the Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts.

I have a complaint from W. H. Young vs. Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts for its failure to pay to him certain unpaid specials at the last show held by that club, also a complaint from John Eager vs. William Holton, in which Eager claims that Holton had given a faked pedigree for an Irish Terrier.
Directors (3)

I have correspondence with H. L. Moxley & Company in reference to the additional rent to be charges for our office of May 1, 1919.

The following excuses for absence at this meeting have been filed, Charles R. Wood, Chetwood and James E. Meade.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the above report was accepted and ordered on file.

On motion the meeting went into an election for officers, Committees and trial board to serve for the year 1919.

H. H. Hunnewell was nominated as President.

Howard Willets was nominated as First Vice-President.

Dr. De Mund was nominated as Second Vice-President.

In the matter of Woegerer vs. Rode complainant charging that Louis E. Rode on June 4th and 5th, 1918, at Ladies Kennel Association of America Show and on June 22, 1918 at North Shore Kennel Club of Long Island Show, entered a Boston Terrier bitch puppy Rode’s Dolly date of birth given on entry blank and catalogue as Oct 4, 1917, and same puppy was entered at Hudson County Kennel Club Show Sept 1918 and at the Boston Terrier Specialty Show, Oct 26, 1918 and at these two shows date of birth was given as Oct 29, 1917.

This is confirmed by entry blanks, registration certificate and show catalogues. At the first three shows referred to above Rode Dolly was listed, at the 4th show referred to, the Boston Terrier Specialty Show, Rode’s Dolly was shown under her registered number 248843 AKC.

Louie E. Rode admits these facts of birth was the result of a misunderstanding between his brother, George W. Rode, and himself, claiming that George W. Rode gave him the wrong date of birth of Rode’s Dolly, confusing her with Owen’s Dolly George W. Rode appeared before your Trial Board and testified as follows: “After I had seen the catalogue of North Shore Kennel Club I noticed date of birth of Rode’s Dolly” given as mistake had been made in the date of birth given, I also told him that Oct 4th was the date of birth of Owen’s Dolly we both had a dispute over it, and for a time our relations were strained. I did not know my brother meant Rode’s Dolly when he asked for the date of birth as we always called her Freshie. I thought my brother meant Owen’s Dolly as he only asked me for the date of Dolly, so I gave him October 4th.”

Louis E. Rode in his testimony states “the dam of this puppy was Grand View Trixie, she whelped Oct 29, 1917. She had brought up this puppy for about ten days when she was accidently killed on Nov 10th or 12th. Then he took this puppy and two others of the same litter to a Mrs. Ming who had a foster mother on Nov. 10th or 12th. The first week
Directors (7)

One puppy dies, second week the second puppy died, and the third week he had taken the last remaining puppy, the female in question away from Mrs. Ming’s and given her to his brother to look after.

This puppy was afterwards called Rode’s Dolly, and at the Boston Terrier Specialty Show where she was shown, she took a first in puppies and won the puppy stake amounting to some $40, Mr. C. W. Hildreth, the owner of the sire was written to and asked when Gran View Trixie was bred, in his reply, he stated that he had lost his book with date of breeding, but to the best of his recollection it was sometime in August 1917. Mr. Hildreth was summoned before your Committee but failed to appear.

This Board after hearing the complainant, defendant and witnesses, and accepting affidavits from reputable parties find that the date of birth of Rode’s Dolly is Oct 4, 1917, and not Oct 29, 1917, and therefore recommend that Louis E. Rode be requested to return all prizes and specials won at the New York Boston Terrier Club Show, and that the wins be cancelled and all privileges of the American Kennel Club be withheld from the said Louis E. Rode and that he be suspended for two years from this date.

The Philadelphia Trial Board reported as follows:

Phila. March 7, 1919

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

The Philadelphia Trial Board reports as follows on the case. New York Charity Show vs. Miss Frances McCahill, referred back to the Philadelphia Trial Board by the Board of Directors at the meeting held Feb 18th.

Miss McCahill paid entry fees to the New York Charity Show with a check which was returned unpaid. The New York Charity Show preferred a charge against her. The matter was referred to the Phila. Trial Board. The Phila. Trial Board recommended the suspension of miss McCahill until entry fees were paid and for 6 months thereafter. Miss McCahill on Feb 4th gave check to the American Kennel Club to cover entry fees in dispute and wrote that she had moved from Great Neck, Long Island, and had not heard that a charge had been preferred against her.

Mr. Foley of the New York Charity Show previously had sent a letter to Miss McCahill by registered mail demanding entry fees, which letter was returned to Mr. Foley by the Post Office marked to the effect that Miss McCahill had refused to receive same.

In view of the fact that she gave prompt attention to the matter when brought to her by the American Kennel Club, the Phila. Trial Board recommends that the term of suspension be reduced to 3 months from Feb 4th.

Charges preferred by A. K. Miller vs. E. G. & M. B. Miller and K. Onstott were presented and on motion the case was referred to the San Francisco Trial Board for Trial.

A communication from the Superintendent of the Detroit Kennel Club in the matter of the failure to publish the name of the veterinarians of said club in its Premium List laying the blame upon the printer for not following copy.

On motion, the penalty prescribed by the Rules was assessed against the Detroit Kennel Club for violation of the Rule. It was further resolved that the penalty be returned in this case and the Superintendent be cautioned against the printing of Premium Lists hereafter without first ascertaining the corrections upon the revised proofs.

A communication from the Newark Kennel Club in reference to its jurisdiction in Essex County, and asks for an interpretation of the resolution of the Board of Directors in this connection at its last meeting.

On motion, the Secretary was directed to notify the Newark Kennel Club that it was granted the privilege of holding shows at any place within limits of Essex County, but that its jurisdiction applies only to the City of Newark.

At the last meeting of the delegates, permission was given to the delegate of the Atlanta Kennel Club to pay the dues of
(5) Executive said Club, thereby saving it from being automatically dropped from Active Membership. As this privilege was not taken advantage of, the Atlanta Kennel Club was duly dropped from Active Membership.

It was ordered that owing to the conditions of Kennel Affairs in the past year, that the dues of the Bayside Kennel Club, Birmingham Kennel Club, and the New Bedford District Kennel Club remaining unpaid at the time of the Annual Meeting, said clubs being therefore dropped from membership, the Secretary was empowered to accept the dues of the above 3 mentioned clubs and reinstate them to active membership. It being specified however that this action shall not be taken as a precedent.

In the matter of the Goldenberg Trophy held by the Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts, the donor of this Trophy directed that it should be awarded to the Exhibitor having the greatest number of wins upon it. It appears that it was in competition four times, in 1905, it was won by Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Vanderbelt, in 1906 by Mr. Sam Greenwood, in 1907, by Mrs. G. R. Washburn, and in 1908 by Mrs. E. W. Clark. Inasmuch as there was only one win each by the four above exhibitors, the Secretary was instructed to notify the Ladies Kennel Association for Massachusetts that club itself should draw lots for said cup and sward same to the successful winner.

On motion the Rules Committee was requested to write a letter to the Secretaries of all of the active members of the American Kennel Club, to the Associate Subscribers, and to the later Licensed Shows held under American Kennel Club Rules asking for an opinion whether the Licensing of Judges should be continued or should be discontinued. The said resolution to be published in the American Kennel Gazette and Stud Book and that the letters to the various members and licensed shows to be sent not later than May 1, 1919.
(6) Executive.

The following matters were left to the Secretary to attend to and with power to act:

First: To make the necessary arrangements for removing to the new offices.

After investigation, the Stud Book Committee finds these two pedigrees to be incorrect and the registrations are hereby cancelled. Letters were sent to O. G. Mills and Murphy who signed the registrations as owners of these dogs, and who claim to have received these pedigrees from Mr. Moss. A letter was sent to Mr. Moss by the Stud Book Committee asking whether he furnished the pedigree under which these puppies were registered. His reply admits that the pedigrees as registered are incorrect but appears evasive as to responsibility for furnishing incorrect pedigrees.

The Stud Book Committee believes that either deliberate fraud or carelessness amounting to misconduct has been shown and recommends that Mr. J. N. Moss, El Libertad Kennels, Cambridge, Ohio, and also O. G. Moore, Cambridge, Ohio be summoned before a Trial Board to show cause why action should not be taken against them for issuing incorrect pedigrees with the Airedale Terriers King Doodle and Robert M. II.

The minutes of the last meeting of the Committee were accepted as published in the Gazette.
The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, May 19, 1919

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the following matters for your consideration.

The Inter-State Collie Club held a Licensed Show April 12, 1919 and published the name of the an un-licensed Superintendent. Their excuse is ignorance of the Rules, and the saving of a professional Superintendent’s fee.

It is charged that the Nassau County Kennel Club at its show held on the 10th inst. after completing the Collie judging and dismissed the classes, later on reopened the Collie Classes in order to judge a late arrival. The question to be determined is whether to not the Bench Show Committee of a Show giving club has the right to reopen classes after the judging has been finished in that breed.

You are asked to settle a dispute in regard to a special that was offered by the American Pomeranian Club at its last show.

Mrs. Herbert Adam of England makes a complaint against Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Axtell for the exhibiting a Chow Chow as their property, having purchased the dog from the complainant and failing to pay for same.

I have a communication from T. Gilpin Massey in reference to purchasing back numbers of the Stud Book. The instructions from the Executive Committee were to offer back numbers of the Stud Book if taken prior to April 1st. There were a number of persons who took advantage of this offer. Applications that we have had since we moved to this office, I have refused. I therefore ask that if the Committee desires to dispose of any more of the Stud Books from our now small stock to fix a price per volume.

At the Feb meeting, I was directed to send a complimentary set of Stud Books to the Spanish Kennel Club. After shipping, I received a bill from the American Express Company for $22.57 for charges. This I declined to pay and finally guaranteed the payment of same, and notified the Spanish Kennel Club, that it will be necessary for them to pay the charges on receipt of the books and to notify us promptly if same had been done, so that it would relieve us from our guarantee.

The Wissahickon Kennel Club will hold its 18th annual show on June 7th. This show is not held under American Kennel Club Rules, entries will be accepted up to the time of judging and an unlicensed Judge will officiate.

I have a communication from our Western Representative in reference to the show of the Seattle Kennel Club, which took place May 15th to 17th, 1919. The Rules of the American Kennel Club are not published and the Certificate of Approval is published as being signed by O. F. Vedder, Western Representative.

Mr. Vedder writes us that he refused his approval of the classification, and therefore his name was signed without his authority.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

Same was accepted and ordered on file.
The Secretary notified the Committee that the Inter-State Collie Club of Philadelphia employed an unlicensed Superintendent at its late show, and that the said club on being asked for its defense in the matter pleaded ignorance of the Rules and economy.

On motion the said Inter-State Collie Club is fined the sum of $10.00 and the Secretary was directed publicly reprimand said club for its violation of the Rule, and that the same be published in the Gazette, further that this nominal fine should not be considered as a precedent.

At the Nassau County Kennel Club show held May 10, 1919, the Bench Show Committee permitted the reopening of the Collie Classes without the consent of any exhibitors after that breed had been adjudicated upon, and been dismissed. The question therefore was “Has a show giving club the legal right to reopen the classes of any breed after it has been finished without the consent of all of the exhibitors in that breed.”

After discussion, it was RESOLVED that this matter be referred to the New York Trial Board for investigation, and that said Board shall direct the Judge, the Bench Show Committee and the Superintendent of the show to appear before it and investigate the matter, and inasmuch as Mr. Theodore Offerman is one of the Bench Show Committee of the Nassau County Kennel Club, he will not be eligible to act on the New York Trial Board in this case, and the Chair appointed Mr. Charles A. Kelly to act as substitute for Mr. Offerman during the investigation of the above case.

At the late Pomeranian Club show, there was a Special offered by Miss Ellen Laflin. Two exhibitors claim this trophy. The matter was referred to the New York Trial Board for its decision.
A communication from Mrs. Herbert Adam of England in reference to a Chow Chow at the late Westminster Kennel Club Show sold by her and never having been paid for, was presented to the Committee, and on motion, the Secretary was directed to notify Mrs. Adam that this being solely a civil case was not one that could come under the jurisdiction of the American Kennel Club.

A communication from T. Gilpin Massey in reference to the price of the Stud Books was presented, and the Secretary was authorized to sell single copies or sets of copies at the cost of $2.00 per volume.

All purchasers of these books in sets must call at the American Kennel Club office for delivery of same. The club will not undertake to ship these books on receipt of orders.

The guarantee of the Secretary for shipping the complimentary set of books sent to the Spanish Kennel Club was on motion duly approved.

The Secretary reported the show to be held by the Wissahickon Kennel Club, June 7, 1919, which was advertised, not to be held under American Kennel Club Rules, was discussed.

On motion, the Rules Committee was requested to present at the next meeting of the Delegates, a resolution to the effect that the Board of Delegates consider the holding of shows not under the Rules of the American Kennel Club by active members of the American Kennel Club to be inimical to the best interests of dogs.

An amendment was offered to the above motion to incorporate the following: This resolution if offered for the purpose of bringing this whole matter before the American Kennel Club at its next meeting.
(5) Executive Committee

On motion, the resolution as amended was duly adopted.

At the Seattle Kennel Club Show held May 15th to 17th, 1919, the proper Rules of the American Kennel Club were not published, although it was published that the classification was approved by our Western Representative, who claims that it was a misunderstanding and the case was referred to the San Francisco Trial Board.

An application from E. K. Austin for reinstatement to good standing was presented, and on motion Mr. Austin was duly reinstated and the fee demanded by the Rules was waived.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

I will submit at this meeting the report of the Field Trial Committee Re Lentilhon-Van Dyke vs. the Western Beagle Club Sweepstakes of 1918.

The report of the New York Trial Board Re re-judging Collie Classes at the late Nassau County Kennel Club Show.

The report of the New York Trial Board Re Re-opening the case against Louis E. Rode by request of the Executive Committee.

The following charges have been received:

Sherwood Hall Jr. vs. Scottish Terrier Club of America
Mrs. E. C. Aulis vs. The Grafton Kennel Club
Mrs. Oren Harris and Mrs. Gael Johnson vs. Pittsburg Dog Fanciers Club
Walker Cunningham vs. Pittsburgh Dog Fanciers Club.
Charles Ludwig vs. Adolf Guttmann
S. Jackson vs. E. F. Joyce

I beg to report the resignation of O. F. Vedder as our Western Representative. Mr. Vedder has removed from the Pacific Coast and we are now without a representative in that location.

A bill for disbursements amounting to $13.92 up to June 7, 1919 at the time of relinquishing the position as Western Representative.

William Ross Proctor has presented his resignation as Chairman of the Law Committee, stating that the most urgent reasons compelling him to take this step.

The San Angelo Kennel Club appeals for an extension of their date deposit for their show of 1918, stating that the reason for failing to hold their show in 1918, was due to local conditions and that the drought compelling the Fair Association to abandon their show of Live Stock and Farm Products.

I have a communication from Mr. Edward Axtell in reference to the registration of a Boston Terrier alleged to have been sent to us in 1914. This application never reached this office and was probably lost in the mail. Owing to the present rule, the dog is not eligible to registration and I agreed to present this communication and application for your action.

The Louisville Airedale Club owing to printers trouble postponed the date of entries of their show which was a direct violation of the Rules, and I beg to report same for your consideration.

We have orders for duplicate copies of Volumes 18 to 28 of the Stud Book from the Field and Fancy Publishing Company. Replying to same I advised that in looking over our stock, we find that it has been depleted to such an extent that I am not willing to assume the responsibility of disposing of any more Volumes until I had been instructed by the American Kennel Club at this meeting.
Directors (3)

The Southampton Kennel Club advises us that it has been found impossible to hold its show during 1919 and it asks to grant dates for July 11, 1920, further that the deposit of $25.00 which we have held since 1918 be transferred to cover their new date. There was a Special Resolution adopted by the Board of Directors at its meeting held Dec 17, 1918, that owing to the impossibility of obtaining a Special Train, that the Directors granted their appeal to transfer said Date Deposit until 1919. As the Southampton Kennel Club found it impossible to hold a show during 1919, they now ask for this deposit to be transferred to cover their claim for 1920.

I have excuses for absence from this meeting from William Rauch, Chetwood Smith, George S. West, W. Ross Proctor, Howard Willets, James E. Meade and Charles A. Kelly.

Owing to the distance between San Francisco and Los Angeles, I would recommend the appointment of an additional Trial Board located at Los Angeles and would suggest the following names for such board: Freeman A. Ford, Chairman, W. S. Macy and R. C. Halstead. Such an appointment would transfer Mr. Macy from the San Francisco Trial Board which will leave a vacancy on that Board to fill. I would recommend the appointment of Irving C. Ackerman.

Since writing the above report a supplementary bill has been received from our Western Representative amounting to $5.70, I would respectfully recommend the payment of same.

Respectfully submitted,

Charges were preferred by Albert Welty, owner of the Frazwel Kennels, Wheeling, W. VA. challenging the correctness of registration of Airedale Terriers, Kind Doodle No. 251793, and Robert M. II No. 251792 now owned by F. A. Mills and W. J. Murphy, both of Roseville, Ohio, Messrs, Mills and Murphy bought the puppies from J. N. Moss of Cambridge, Ohio, who sold them for O. G. Moore, also of Cambridge, Ohio. In registering the dogs, Briergate Bruiser, owned by Albert Welty, above mentioned was claimed as the sire, but this is denied by Mr. Welty, who says the read sire is Bobbie IV.

Notice of this trial was sent by registered letter to each of the parties concerned, and replies were received from W. J. Murphy and J. N. Moss, who disclaimed any intent of fraudulent registration.

A registered letter addressed to O. G. Moore, Cambridge, Ohio was returned by the postmaster of that city marked “unclaimed.”

After going over all the correspondence in the case very carefully, it is the judgment of the Trial Board that the action of the Stud Book Committee be sustained; that J. N. Moss be suspended for 90; that O. G. Moore be suspended for one year; and that the registrations of the dogs above mentioned by cancelled.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows:

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

In pursuance of the request contained in your resolution which was adopted at your last meeting that the Rules Committee should obtain an expression of opinion from the various clubs and individual Fanciers throughout the country as to whether the licensing of judges have proven beneficial to the Dog Fanciers should be continued or not. The Committee caused to be sent eleven hundred circular letters to clubs and individuals, a copy of which circular letter is appended, and received 92 replies.

At a meeting of the Rules Committee held Sept 9th last, at which were present, H. H. Hunnewell, Dr. De Mund, R. P. Keasbey, and John F. Collins, the answers to this letter were canvassed with the following result.

Forty-two clubs answered of which 99 were in favor of the continuance of this system, while 13 were opposed. Of 50 individual replies, 39 favored the licensing of judges while 5 did not favor this system. Six were doubtful in the opinion of the Committee as to their opinion.

This shows 69 percent of the clubs in favor of licensing and 99 percent of the individuals.

The replies received came from all sections of the country and not form any one locality in particular.

The American Fox Terrier Club did not submit a reply which was explained by Mr. Hunnewell, Secretary of the club, that he did not deem it necessary as the Fox Terrier Club were the proposers of the resolution to discontinue the licensing of judges.

New York, Feb 17, 1920

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

The year 1919 has been a successful one, though punctuated with serious difficulties which I am glad to say are rapidly being overcome. The upset occasioned by moving our offices, the loss of seasoned and efficient assistants of this office, and the immense amount of trouble caused by the printers’ strike, have been the reasons for our work falling behind in its promptness, but as aforesaid we hope soon to be up to date with our records, etc., and the work will be running smoothly.

The volume of business received has increased largely as will be shown by the Financial Statement.

I beg to tender my grateful thanks to the Special Office Committee who have aided me very largely in handling many of the difficulties.

I beg to report that since the last quarterly meeting I have received applications for active membership from the following clubs:

The report of the Rules Committee dated December 30, 1919 was received, published in the November Gazette and is as follows:

December 30, 1919

The regular meeting of the Rules Committee was held at the office of the American Kennel Club on the above date, all members being present.

The Resolution offered by the Fox Terrier Club which reads as follows:

Unanimous Resolution passed at the Annual Meeting of the American Fox Terrier Club, Feb 20, 1919.

Whereas it is the sense of the members that the recent establishment of a rule, granting the License Committee of the American Kennel Club the power to license and remove judges, has failed to bring about a satisfactory condition of affairs to the dog fancy.

Be it hereby resolved, that the delegate of the A.F.T. Club to the AKC be instructed to present a resolution to the proper authorities of the AKC at the earliest moment, calling for the revocation of the rule, which embodies the License Committee of the AKC with power to grant and revoke judges’ license, and furthermore calling for the annulment of all past acts of the License Committee of the AKC in connection with said rule.

And be it furthermore resolved that the Secretary of the A.F.T. Club be instructed to mail a copy of above resolution to the Secretary and Delegate of every club a member of the AKC.

H. H. Hunnewell
Secretary A.F. T. C.

which was referred to this Committee by the Executive Committee on March 6th, was considered, and on motion was not approved. All members voted in the affirmative with the exception of Mr. Hunnewell who voted in the negative.

A letter received from Mr. Foley, Superintendent of the last Newport Dog Show, asking for an opinion as to Special No. 267. The Committee by unanimous vote decided that under the circumstances this Special should be declared void.

A resolution which reads as follows, and which was referred by the Delegates at the last meeting to this Committee was considered:
Delegates (6)

To the American Kennel Club:

Notice is hereby given in writing that the following amendment will be proposed to Article VI of the bylaws at the next annual meeting of the club.

Amend Article VI of the bylaws by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 10 thereof and to change the number of present Section 10 to 11; said new Section 10 to read as follows:

Section 10. They shall have power to retire on an annual pension in such amount as they shall determine an employee of the club or its predecessor, whose term of employment or office shall have exceeded 20 years, and who shall have reached the age of --- years.

RESOLVED. That the foregoing proposed amendment to Article VI of the bylaws be received, filed and referred to the Committee on Rules with directions to report thereon at the annual meeting of the club, and be published in the Gazette prior to said annual meeting.

It was decided that it is the opinion of this Committee that the Board of Directors already have the power, as proposed in the above resolution, and therefore, this resolution as a proposed amendment to the bylaws the Committee deems unnecessary and is, therefore, not approved.

The recommendation made by the Special Committee for Office supervision that Rule VIII of Rules Governing Dog Shows be amended, changing the amount of the fee for registration from $1.00 to $2.00 was given careful consideration, and it was unanimously decided that while we feel that the services performed by the office of the AKC in the work of registrations really demand a decidedly larger fee than it is at present charged, we consider that there is no real necessity for the proposed increase of the registration fee at present and, therefore, this recommendation is not approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John F. Collins, Chairman proceeded to ballot for active membership and credentials for delegates and the following clubs were elected to active membership:

Delegates

Credentials for the following delegates to the American Kennel Club, approved by the Membership Committee were balloted for and elected:

Mr. John Z. Adams to represent the Chow Chow Club
Mr. N. F. Emmons, the Bullterrier Club of America
Mr. Howard C. Griffiths to represent the French Bulldog Club of America
Mr. George O. Heinlein to represent the Maltese Club of America

The credentials from the Collie Club of America were not approved by the Membership Committee, the Committee asking for instructions which were given the adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLVED that it is the sense of this meeting that the delegates of the American Kennel Club shall be men only.

On motion, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted:

New York, May 17, 1921

RESOLVED, that the American Kennel Club order the Shepherd Dog Club of America to discontinue the so-called registering of dogs, the changing of registered dogs’ names, the granting of kennel names and any other similar services for which charges are made and which are duplications of the services performed by the American Kennel Club as the American Kennel Club deem such practices absolutely detrimental to the best interest of dogs, dog shows and the American Kennel Club.

The registering of dogs is only necessary for the identification of a certain animal and a record of its pedigree for breeding and show purposes and the permission to change a registered dog’s name and the granting of kennel names and similar services for practically the same reasons, therefore one record that of the American Kennel Club is sufficient and any other similar record is absolutely unnecessary, and only makes confusion because of additional numbers being given and the possibility of the two or more records being different, also the additional cost of the second fee in any case only adding unnecessarily to the expense of breeders.

The American Kennel Club greatly regretted the necessity of having been compelled recently to increase the fee for registration and other charges, because of the additional financial burden it meant to fanciers. Therefore the American Kennel Club had decided that it cannot allow a subordinate or member club to add in any way to these charges or costs.

Furthermore other or all Specialty Clubs might decided to furnish and charge for such services until sooner or later the cost for such services in all breeds might be materially increased and the confusion of records, names, numbers etc. would become unbearable.

On motion, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: That it is the sense of the delegates present that the Publication Committee should given consideration to the desirability of publishing in the Gazette additional information that will be of general interest to the public.

The Publication Committee announced that they would gladly receive Articles and suggestions from all members and delegates.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The following Trial Board reports and recommendations were adopted:

The Report of the Philadelphia Trial Board in the matter of Joseph L. Myers for reinstatement. That reinstatement of Mr. Myers would not be for the best interests of the American Kennel Club and recommends that the appeal be dismissed.
The Report of the Philadelphia Trial Board in the matter of Mrs. J. Harris against Mrs. Catherine Goetz. The conclusion of the Board is, that the defendant shall refund the purchase money or stand suspended until she has done so.

The report of the New York Trial Board in the matter of the protest of the registration of the Shepherd Dog, Sir of Elliottmanor. The Board recommends that this matter be referred back to the Stud Book Committee.

In the matter of the registration of the Pekingese, To Tai Toy, the Board is of the opinion that as Mrs. Dalley who made the incorrect registration, has never exhibited dogs and has registered only one dog previously and as she has given the dog in question to her father as a pet, no misdemeanor is evident and that as the registration has been cancelled, no further action need be taken.

In the case of the appeal against the decision of the Bench Show Committee of the Colorado Kennel Club at their late show, Nov 19th last in the matter of the Bulldog, Man O'Way, the Board recommends that the protest against the win of this dog be disallowed and that Mr. Sarconi’s appeal from the decision of the Show Committee of the Colorado Kennel Club be sustained, and this decision be published in the American Kennel Club Gazette.

In the matter of Mrs. Muller’s claim against the vendor of a dog, the Board recommends that the matter be referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board for the taking of further evidence.

In the matter of the complaint of Mr. Edwin L. Boger and the Bulldog Club of America, this case was referred back to the New York Trial Board.

The Committee appointed at the meeting of the Board of Directors held Feb 15, 1921 to draw proper Resolutions in appreciation of the services of our retiring President, H. H. Hunnewell, submitted the following which was unanimously adopted.
WHEREAS, on his retirement from the office of President of the American Kennel Club on Feb 15, 1921, H. H. Hunnewell has completed a term of twenty continuous years in the offices of Vice President and President of the club. It is, therefore.

RESOLVED that the Directors of the American Kennel Club take pleasure in extending to Mr. Hunnewell their sincere appreciation of the faithful and efficient services rendered by him during those many years. His good judgment and close attention to the various matters which have come up before the club have done much to place the American Kennel Club in the position it is at the present time, and it is a source of satisfaction to his fellow members of the Board that Mr. Hunnewell continues to be a director, thereby giving to the club, and to the dog world in general, the benefit of his experience and advice.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution be duly spread in proper form upon the minutes of the club and a copy of same be forwarded to Mr. Hunnewell.

New York, NY

Gentlemen:

Your recent letter concerning the wording of the Specials of the Shepherd Dog Club of America Inc., was referred to the Board of Governors of the club at its last meeting.

It was the sense of the Board that your objection to this wording was perhaps due to a misunderstanding. Our special in no way ignores the AKC registration as the first condition of registry in the SDC Stud Book is AKC registration.

However, the Board and the club wish to co-operate with the American Kennel Club in every way and therefore, in future our specials will be worded: ----open only to dogs in the AKC and the SDC Stud Books.

Very sincerely yours,
Reginald M. Cleveland

The report of the New York Trial Board in the matter of the case of Battle vs. Sessinghaus was read and on motion its recommendations were adopted as follows:

1. That Mrs. Sessinghaus should return at once to Mr. Battle the $25.00 sent her by him on Feb 22, 1920 as a deposit on Bruces Queenie as the purchase was never completed, the owner of the dog having raised the price after naming one that was accepted. Any counter claim on the part of Mr. Sessinghaus is a separate matter as no mention of a charge for service is to be found in the correspondence.

2. That Mr. Battle has no claim against Mrs. Sessinghaus for $125.00 he paid for Delporte’s Beauty as the correspondence shows no fraudulent motives or actions on Mrs. Sessinghaus’ part. Furthermore Mrs. Sessinghaus acted only as agent in the matter and evidently, as she declares, without financial interest in the transaction.

3. That any claim in regard to Delporte’s Beauty should be made against Mrs. Delporte and as fraud is not clearly shown the matter is not within the province of the American Kennel Club. In our opinion Mr. Battle’s only recourse is to his local courts.

Newton H. Day
Secretary
Received and placed on file.

The report of the Boston Trial Board in the matter of the charges preferred by Mildred Greene vs. Mrs. R. A. Richards, et. al, was read, and on motion, it was seconded and carried that the report be received and its recommendations adopted which are as follows:

That these charges were not preferred against the Executive Committee of the Boston Terrier Club, or the Boston Terrier Club but against five members of the Executive Committee as individuals, the charges being that these individuals had wrongfully votes to deprive charges being that these individuals had wrongfully votes to deprive the petitioner of membership of the Boston Terrier Club and the American Kennel Club has no authority or jurisdiction against men as individuals on account of the way that they have votes at a Specialty Club meeting.

The report of the Boston Trial Board in the matter of the charges preferred by Ana E. Tukey, was read, and on motion, it was seconded and carried that the charges should be dropped and no further action taken.

The report of the Boston Trial Board in the matter of the charges preferred by Mrs. Louis Lichtenhein was read, and on motion, it was seconded and carried that the report be received, placed on file and its recommendations adopted, which are as follows:

It is the opinion of the Trial Board that in connection with dog shows there is practically always more or less talk about the winning dogs especially among disgruntled exhibitors, but it does not seem to us that this is the proper matter to come before the Trial Board, because as stated, if the petitioner has been wronged she has her remedy in the Civil Courts.

The report of the Los Angeles Trial Board in the matter of the protest made by Mrs. E. F. Rhodes and Mrs. Josephine Strong, against Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Winn was read, and on motion, it was seconded and carried that report be received, placed on file and its recommendations adopted. This protest was made to the Bench Show Committee of the Crown City Kennel Club and afterwards referred to the Los Angeles Trial Board. This Board recommends:

That the extenuating circumstances be considered and the wins of
The Pekingese, Ah Sid II, in American-bred Class and F. Suie Win, in Limit Dogs (red) Class at the Crown City Kennel Club show be cancelled and the protestants dogs moved up to first place in both cases, but that Mr. and Mrs. Winn be not suspended from the privileges of the American Kennel Club.

The report of the Bench Show Committee of the Westminster Kennel Club in the matter of the complaint of T. L. Leeming, was read, and on motion, it was seconded and carried that this matter be referred to the New York Trial Board for investigation.

Charges preferred by Mrs. Grace B. Thayer were read, and on motion, it was seconded and carried that the matter be referred to the Boston Trial Board for investigation.

Ralph C. Stewart
Chairman, Legal Committee
American Kennel Club
802 West End Trust Bldg.
Philadelphia, PA

Dear Mr. Stewart:
Further in explanation of our letter of June 28, 1922, with reference to the recognition by the Department of Agriculture of American books of record, I feel that our previous letter to you on this subject was not perfectly clear. As stated in our previous communication, a ruling was made by the Solicitor of the department, which specified that the Secretary of Agriculture and authority to extend recognition to such animals as were registered in American Stud Books and issue certificates of pure breeding for them. Since such cases are rather infrequent, it has been decided that the policy of this Bureau shall be to act upon each important individually as the importation may come in, rather than grant official recognition to American Societies prior to actual importations of purebred live stock.

Very truly yours,

J. O. Williams
Senior Animal Husbandman

On motion, seconded and carried, the meeting adjourned.

   Respectfully submitted,
   Newton H. Day
   Secretary

   The resignation of Mr. S. M. Spalding as a member of the Los Angeles Trial Board was read and it was moved, seconded and carried that same be accepted.

   The meeting then proceeded to the election of a member to fill the vacancy upon the Los Angeles Trial Board. Mr. John H. Matthew, Jr. was nominated and duly elected as the member of said Board.

   The report of the New York Trial Board in the matter of the registration of the Boston Terrier, Lady Trilby, II, was read and on motion, it was seconded and carried that report by received and its recommendations adopted as follows: The New York Trial Board has considered this case and has tried unsuccessfully to reach Eugene Jeremias of Newark, NJ, the man who made the alleged false registration. Jeramias, the owner of a litter of dogs for the first time evidently decided to dispose of them no matter how questionable his methods. As he refuses to answer the charges, the Board recommends that he be disqualified until such time as he answers the charges.
The report of the New York Trial Board in the matter of the charges referred by G. A. Cluett against E. T. Holmes, Jr., was read and on motion, it was seconded and carried that the report be received and its recommendations adopted, which were to the effect that a settlement having been made in this case, the Board, therefore advises that the suspension of Mr. E. T. Holmes, Jr. be removed on Sept 19, 1922 with an understanding that if the account is not settled within a reasonable time, further action will be taken.

The report of the New York Trial Board in the matter of the complaint of T. L. Leeming against Arthur Goulding, was read, and on motion it was seconded and carried that the report be received and its recommendations adopted which are: That as Mr. Arthur Goulding has made no reply to the charge brought against him by Mr. Leeming, it is recommended that M. The report of the New York Trial Board in the matter of the Cocker Spaniel, Midnight Nightnelem, referred to them by the Stud Book Committee, was read, and on motion, it was seconded and carried that the report be received and referred back to the Stud Book Committee.

The report of the New York Trial Board in the matter of the charges referred by Chas. O. Locke against Jos. L. Kelly, was read and received and on motion, seconded and carried, its recommendations were adopted as follows:

The New York Trial Board reported on the above case on May 16, recommending the suspension of Jos. L. Kelly, but making a reservation that puppies bred by Kelly and sold to Locke and Mrs. Sarah Scott be allowed to be registered.

The Board has now interviewed Mrs. Fawcett and is convinced beyond a doubt that it is impossible to register the puppies bred by Kelly and sold to Locke and Mrs. Scott.

The Board, therefore, recommends that Jos. L. Kelly be suspended for period of two years from May 16, 1922.

The Report of the New York Trial Board in the matter of the communication from Geo. B. Hooley in reference to Article in Hounds and Hunting concerning Beagle Trials, was read and on motion, it was seconded and carried that the Report be received and its recommendations adopted as follows: The New York Trial Board has considered this matter and in accordance with Mr. Hooley’s letter of September 5, we recommend that no action be taken.

It is the opinion of the Board that Doctor Russell signed the applications under a misunderstanding and it is recommended that no further action be taken.

The communication received from the South Philadelphia Kennel Club, read, and on motion, it was seconded and carried that the Secretary be instructed to inform said club that the American Kennel Club assume no jurisdiction in the matter.

October 19, 1922

Mr. Newton H. Day, Secretary
American Kennel Club
221 Fourth Avenue, NYC

Dear Sir:

I send you enclosed correspondence which I have had with the Golden Gate Kennel Club. Please note that from Mr. Alex Wolfen’s letter of October 12th it would seem that the Golden Gate Kennel Club is practically no longer an organization of importance. Moreover it would appear from the third paragraph of his letter, that the three active members named became dissatisfied with the membership because it was “unyielding” and reduced it to themselves. It would seem, therefore, that I am representing an organization that is not of a character which justifies my being a delegate, and I tender herewith my resignation.

I remain

Yours very truly,

August Belmont.

On motion, it was seconded and carried unanimously that the following resolution be adopted:
WHEREAS many articles have appeared in the weekly publication known as Field and Fancy which contained numerous statements about the American Kennel Club and certain of its members, officers and committeemen and
WHEREAS Chas. H. mason of Port Washington, NY is alleged to have written the articles above referred to and
WHEREAS the publication of such statements is prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club and of dog fanciers generally, therefore, be it RESOLVED that the President of the American Kennel Club be and hereby is instructed to prepare and prefer charges against said Chas. H. Mason for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, dogs and dog shows because of the statements above referred to, and be it further.
RESOLVED that charges shall be referred to a Trial Board and the said Chas. H. Mason be requested to appear before them to present proof of same, and also for such action as they may deem proper.
