RESOLVED THAT IT IS THE SENSE OF THIS COMMITTEE that all business and correspondence of whatsoever nature received by the American Kennel Club direct from Clubs or Exhibitors on the Pacific coast should be referred back to this Committee for action, before any action be taken thereon by the American Kennel Club, and that such rule as may be proper be formulated by the Rules Committee, and if approved by the American Kennel Club be published in the next issue of the book of rules.

And be it further RESOLVED that inasmuch as the powers delegates to the Pacific Advisory Committee are a part of the constitution of the American Kennel Club, and the rules adopted by the latter are therefore a part of the rules of the American Kennel Club, both the powers delegates to and rules formulated by the Pacific Advisory Committee for the guidance of Pacific Coast Clubs should be published in the new book of rules, or if the latter be deemed inexpedient, then only the powers granted by the A.K.C. should be so published for the information and guidance of clubs and exhibitors on the Pacific coast. Carried.

It was moved and seconded, that WHEREAS it would appear from the records of the American Kennel Club, that the sole object of the rule requiring specialty clubs to obtain the consent of the parent club is the enforcement of a common standard.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that it is the sense of this Committee that the purpose of the rule would be served by exacting from each specialty club applying for membership, an undertaking to accompany its application that it will maintain and conform to such standard as is or may be adopted by the parent body, and that at least on the Pacific coast such requirement would answer every purpose, and be it further RESOLVED that this Committee do hereby request the American Kennel Club to grant such authority to this Committee to admit Pacific coast specialty clubs filing such undertaking, without reference to the parent specialty club. Carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

July 25, 1906

Present: Dr. W.P. Burnham, Acting Chairman
        W.W. Stetheimer
        J.P. Norman

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Secretary read the following communication:

Napa, Cal., July 14, 1906

J.P. Norman, Esq.,
Secretary Pacific Advisory Committee of A.K.C.

Dear Sir:

I beg herewith to tender my resignation as a member of your Committee to take effect at once. I take this opportunity to thank your President, yourself and the other members of the Committee for many favors and to express my friendship and respect for you all.

Respectfully,
H.H. Carlton

It was moved and seconded that this Committee views with sorrow the withdrawal of Mr. Carlton’s valuable counsel and welcome presence from this Committee and accepts his resignation with the deepest regret that his long association with the members of this Committee is to be terminated. And it was further moved and seconded that the thanks of this Committee be and hereby are cordially extended to Mr. Carlton for his long, arduous and disinterested labors in behalf of the American Kennel Club and of kennel interests of the coast in general. Carried unanimously.

The Secretary read the following communication:

San Francisco, July 12th, 1906

J.P. Norman, Esq.,
Secretary Advisory Committee A.K.C.
Berkeley, Cal.

Dear Sir:

Owing to the pressure of other business which renders it impossible for me to devote the thought and time necessary to the fulfillment of my duties as a member of the Advisory Committee, I hereby tender my resignation as a member of your Board with the request that it be acted upon and accepted immediately. In severing my connection with your Committee, extending as it have over a period of ten years, I cannot but feel a sincere regret and desire to take this occasion to express to yourself and my fellow members of the Board my sincere appreciation of your unfailing courtesy and good will during my long period of service.

Very truly yours,
John E. de Ruyter

It was moved and seconded that whereas this Committee regards the continuance of Mr. de Ruyter’s services as being of the highest importance and indeed essential to the kennel interests of the Coast, therefore be it RESOLVED? That the secretary be and hereby is instructed to communicate this resolution to Mr. de Ruyter, with the request that he withdraw his resolution. And the consideration of said resolution is hereby deferred. Carried unanimously.

After some discussion of matters of interest to the Committee and to the American Kennel Club, which were embodied in the minutes of the previous meeting, it was RESOLVED that further discussion be postponed until the next meeting and that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club be invited to attend the same.

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned.

Attest: J.P. Norman,
Secretary

August, 18, 1906

Present: Dr. W.P. Burnham, W.W. Stettheimer, J.P. Norman
Absent: J.E. de Ruyter

On motion, Mr. Stettheimer took the chair.

The Chair introduced Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, present approved.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Vredenburgh addressed the Committee on general topics.

At the request of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, consideration of certain pending matters were deferred.

The Secretary stated that Miss Marie Riplinger had entered an English Setter Bitch, Cynthia, at the show given by the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, and that the entry blank bore the rotation “Registered”. Search of the Stud Book had disclosed that no such dog was registered therein. No listing fee had been paid to the Seattle D.F. Association on account of said dog and a letter to Mr. John Riplinger had elicited no response. It was Moved and seconded that the secretary be and hereby is instructed to call on Miss Marie Riplinger to show cause why action should not be taken by this Committee on the ground of fraudulent misrepresentation. Carried.

The Secretary stated that the same English Setter Bitch, Cynthia, had been entered by John Riplinger to show cause why action should not be taken against him by this Committee for fraudulent misrepresentation. Carried.

It was moved and seconded, that the resolution passed at the meeting of this Committee held on June 16th, 1906, be taken up seriatim for discussion with Mr. Vredenburgh, in accordance with the resolution passed July 25th, 1906. Carried.

Action taken by A.K.C.: The Secretary of the American Kennel Club stated that he had already arranged with the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee to furnish a carbon copy of the minutes as soon as possible after the meetings of the A.K.C. It was Moved and seconded that the thanks of the Committee be and hereby are tendered to Mr. Vredenburgh for his prompt acquiescence in the desires of the Committee. Carried.

TRANSMITTAL OF COMMUNICATIONS THROUGH THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE:

MR. Vredenburgh stated that he would have printed at the end of the book of rules, such rules of the Pacific Advisory Committee as were established for the guidance of Clubs and Exhibitors on the Pacific Coast under a suitable heading. It was Moved and seconded that this be accepted as satisfactory. Carried.

TITLES OF APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE:

Mr. Vredenburgh stated that legal advice has been taken as to the propriety of the present method of docketing such cases, and that the present method would continue until otherwise ordered. It was Moved and seconded that the minutes of the meeting of June 16th, as to this point be and hereby are confirmed, and that it is the sense of this committee that appeals from its decisions be docketed under the original titled of the case, giving the name of the appellant as such, and describing the action as an “Appeal form decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee.” Carried.

It was moved and seconded that the thanks of this Committee be and hereby are cordially extended to the American Kennel Club for its action in sending Mr. Vredenburgh to this Coast at the present condition of affairs, and to Mr. Vredenburgh for his visit at the present time will prove of incalculable value to kennel interests on the coast and to the interests of the American Kennel Club. Carried.

Attest: J.P. Norman
     Secretary

September 18, 1906

Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Esq., Chairman
         J.P. Norman, Esq.,
         W.W. Stettheimer, Esq.,
         Dr. W.P. Burnham

Present by invitation of the Committee:
         A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq., Secretary of the American Kennel Club

The minutes of the previous meeting were read. The chair called on the Secretary to repeat the paragraphs relating to the amendments requested by this committee to the new rules. The Secretary read as follows: Transmittal of communications through the Pacific Advisory Committee. Mr. Vredenburgh stated that he would have printed at the end of the book of rules under a suitable heading such rules as might be established by the Pacific Advisory Committee for the guidance of Clubs and Exhibitors on the Pacific Coast.

Discussion followed, in which Mr. Vredenburgh stated that he was convinced that the purpose of the Committee would be better subserved by having its rules collated under one head at the end of the book rather than scattered through the pages, but he would not oppose any amendments offered at the meeting of the A.K.C. tending in the direction indicated by the Committee.

The minutes were then on approved.

The Secretary read the following communication:

San Francisco, Sept. 13, 1906

J.P. Norman, Esq.
     Secretary P.A.C.A.K.C.

Dear Mr. Norman: I am sending enclosed copy of a letter to the Secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals which explains itself, and also my purpose in sending it. It is needless for me to mention that such a person as Adams has proven himself to be should be prevented from enjoying the privileges of your club, the members of which I take it being true lovers of animals and true sportsmen.

Your respectfully,
(Signed) J.E. Hax

San Francisco, Sept. 13, 1906

Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals,

Gentlemen: As an officer in your society I wish to report with the assistance of Mr. Pistolesi, Secretary of the Marin County Society, we secured a conviction in the case of the people versus Lawrence S. Adams of the firm of Booth & Adams, wholesale grocers. Adams breeds dogs for sale; he had a bull bitch in season on his place, which naturally caused the neighboring dogs to visit his place. He caught several dogs by snares and otherwise and administered raw turpentine, injecting same with a syringe into the rectum, causing the most intense agony to the animals. I was complaining witness. The case was clearly proven.

Your truly,
(Signed) J.E. Hax

The case as it appeared from the newspapers reporting the proceedings was that the victims of the dose said to have been administered by Adams ran shrieking and howling through the streets of Tiburon, one dying by the roadside, one jumping into the waters of San Francisco Bay, while others had to be destroyed. The Chairman stated that Adams had taken an appeal from the decision of the lower court.

It was moved and seconded that the case be laid on the table pending the decision of the appeal, and that Mr. Hax be recommended to prefer charges in the usual manner. Carried.

A.K.C. versus Marie Riplinger: Fraudulent entry at Seattle. As it appeared from the return of the receipt for registered letter, that the latter had followed Miss Riplinger to Los Angeles and had only recently been delivered, it was moved and seconded that consideration be deferred in order to give the defendant an opportunity to file her defense. Carried.

A.K.C. versus John Riplinger: Fraudulent entry at Portland. As the registered letter calling on defendant to show cause why action should not be taken against him has been returned without delivery, it was Moved and seconded, that consideration of the case be deferred to give Mr. Riplinger an opportunity to file his defense, and that the Secretary be requested to endeavor to place the said letter in the hands of Mr. Riplinger. Carried.

It was moved and seconded, that the Committee do now reconsider the resolution passed at the meeting of July 25th, 1906, whereby this Committee accepted the resignation of H.H. Carlton, Esq., and that said resignation be refused and that Mr. Carlton be and hereby is requested to withdraw the same, and to continue to afford to this Committee the benefit of the association and counsel which this Committee has so highly valued for the many years during which Mr. Carlton has been an esteemed member of the Committee. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that this Committee do hereby extend a vote of thanks to Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh for his attendance and counsel at his meeting, and that this Committee do hereby tender to him its best and hearty wishes for a pleasant journey and a safe arrival at New York. Carried.

The Secretary announced that he had approved the claim for dates made by the Bull Terrier Club of San Francisco for a show to be held on October 15th, 1906.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Attest:    J.P. Norman
Secretary

THE SECRETARY: As to reports of Standing Committees, I have the new rules which the Committee recommends, and I would suggest that they be left in abeyance in order that we may take them up as the last order of business.

THE CHAIR: A motion is in order to place this report of the Rules Committee on file and take it up later under the head of New Business.

MR. MORRIS: I make the motion.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a Sub-Committee report to the Membership Committee for this meeting as follows:

“RESOLVED, that this Committee is of the opinion that it should be empowered to admit Specialty Clubs within the limit of its jurisdiction without requiring that such Specialty Clubs be obliged to obtain the consent of the Eastern parent club, but that such admission be granted only on condition of such Specialty Clubs agreeing to adhere to the standard defined by the parent body, and that every such admission granted by the Pacific Advisory Committee be notified to such parent body, as well as to the American Kennel Club.”

This was sent to the Chairman of the Membership Committee. I have his written report, as follows:

“The resolution which I would like to have you show Mr. Smith and Mr. Van Schiack for their approval and consideration and such changes as they may deem necessary, is as follows: ‘Resolved that the Pacific Advisory Committee be empowered to admit Specialty Clubs within the limits of its jurisdiction without requiring that such Specialty Clubs be obliged to obtain the consent of the Eastern Parent Club (the American Kennel Club) but that such admission be granted only on condition that such Specialty Clubs produce in writing the willingness of the Parent Club of their particular special dog to have them form such a club; and that every such admission granted by the Pacific Advisory Committee be forwarded to the American Kennel Club.

I note by your letter that you wish a rule formulated, and you will see that my idea is that we are willing to have the Pacific Advisory Committee admit Specialty Clubs in their jurisdiction the same as we do in New York; and any rule to the effect of above resolution is agreeable to me. In other words, we are willing that they should admit Specialty Clubs under the same rule which we require here in the East, viz: that the Parent Specialty Club must express its willingness to have any off-shoot become a member of the American Kennel Club whose interests are centered in the same breed of dog as the Specialty Club already a member of the American Kennel Club.

Yours truly,

W.B. Emery

Dic.W.B.E. Chairman Membership Committee

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I have no personal feeling in this matter. I think that the request of the Pacific Advisory Committee is absolutely fair under the conditions they give. It is a pretty far cry from San Francisco to the East here, and I cannot see any trouble that can come from it so long as they adhere to the conditions laid down. I move that the Pacific Advisory Committee’s request be granted under the conditions laid down by it.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary read the following communication from the San Francisco Kennel Club:

San Francisco, September 14, 1906

R.P. Keasbey, Esq.,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

I am interested by the San Francisco Kennel Club to request that you will use your best endeavors to secure the passage of the following additions to the proposed new rules of the A.K.C. at the September meeting:

Section 6, rule II after “New Mexico”, insert “All applications for membership and dates and all communications should be addressed to the Secretary of said Pacific Advisory Committee.”

Rule XX, add “In the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, appeals to be made to that committee in the form prescribed.”

Section 8, Rule V, add “In the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee applications for dates must be filed with the Secretary thereof and copies of the proposed premium list must be submitted to him in triplicate for approval and endorsement.”

Rule VI, add “Two copies of the premium list must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee immediately after publication by clubs within its jurisdiction.”

Rule XVI, add “Clubs in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee must forward to the Secretary thereof two marked and certified copies of the catalogue.”

The passage of these additions to the proposed rules are necessary in order that the Advisory Committee should handle the Kennel business on this Coast. The powers given them under the constitution of the A.K.C. cover all these points but unless they are definitely instructed to do so by the rules, many of the Clubs, through ignorance, would endeavor to do their business with the New York office direct which would not only result in serious loss of time and engender many complications but tend to weaken the hold of the Advisory Committee on the Coast Clubs which, so long as they are expected to govern them, must not be.

Trusting that with the cooperation of the Coast delegates as well as some of the Eastern delegates who are friendly to us, you will be successful in securing the passage of these additions, I remain

Very truly yours,

(Signed) F.P. Butler

Secretary S.F.K.C.
MR. KEASBEY: I move that it be referred back to the Rules Committee to report.

THE SECRETARY: I think now that we are about to act upon the new set of rules, it would be well to take this communication into consideration when acting on these rules, because if these proposed amendments by the San Francisco Kennel Club are to become parts of the rules, they should be incorporated at the proper time.

Motion withdrawn.

MR. KEASBEY: I move that we take these up when we consider all the new rules together under the head of New Business.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Sub-Committee consisting of James Mortimer and Mr. E.M. Oldham and the Secretary of the A.K.C. on the arrangement of breeds as they shall be published hereafter in the premium lists in the catalogue, has its meeting and recommended that there be three divisions. The Committee was composed of your Secretary to confer with Mr. Oldham and Mr. Mortimer, who are two practical superintendents of shows, to come to a satisfactory conclusion as to changing the order of breeds to be published in the catalogue. Here is the joint report. They both signed it and I approved it. The divide the breeds into four sections, large dogs, medium dogs, small sized dogs and cage dogs.

MR. BROOKS: I move we dispense with reading the names of the different breeds.

THE CHAIR: It is moved and seconded that the report of the names of the breeds be not now read. I presume by that that any new breeds that were added would be placed in their right division.

THE SECRETARY: There was a resolution passed at one of the Executive Board meeting directing that on and after July 1, all dogs must be arranged in alphabetical order of breeds of dogs. At the last meeting we were informed by Mr. Mortimer that it was not practicable, and then a resolution was passed to rescind the action of the Executive Board, and I was appointed on this Committee to confer with these two practical men, Messrs. Oldham and Mortimer to arrange for a uniform style, so that in all premium lists and in all catalogues the dogs will come in the same order, and this is the result:

On motion, it was directed that this report should come before the meeting when the rules should be considered.
The Secretary reported a communication from the Rhode Island Kennel Club stating that it would not be able to hold its show at Pawtucket on September 8th, 1906, the date claimed, and requesting the return of its deposit of $25.

MR. CODMAN: At its show held in New Providence the Club engaged a hall for its show at Pawtucket, and prepared everything in readiness to hold such show, but discovered at the last moment that they could not secure that hall and could not get any other place.

MR. MOORE: I move that its deposit of $25 be refunded.
Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary submitted a communication from the Pomerian Club of America, and a protest from R.F. Mayhew against his rejection as a delegate to represent said club.

MR. MOORE: I think in justice to the Membership Committee it should be referred back to it, and I make that motion.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I recommend the payment of the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee of disbursements from May 1st, 1906, to September 15th, 1906 of $39.45.
THE CHAIR: If there is no objection we will order the Treasurer to reimburse the Pacific Advisory Committee as recommended.

THE SECRETARY: I now submit to you my recommendation in regard to publishing the Gazette semi-monthly instead of monthly.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think it would be a wise plan to follow the Secretary's recommendation, and give it a trial, say for the next three months.

THE SECRETARY: that is what I recommend.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the recommendation of the Secretary as to the publication of the Gazette semi-monthly be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VITI: Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, reported as follows:

The following applications have been filed for kennel names, and as they do not conflict with any already registered, the Stud Book Committee recommends that they be allowed:

Zenith       George C. Armitage
Woodcote       Gus Loures
Winning Style      W.A. Johnson and E.G. Messing
Wexford       Stanley H. Kidd
Ufton         Russell Perkins

Aorangi           Fred M. Huggins

The Committee had submitted to it a letter from Frederick W. D'Evelyn in which he says:

“I desire that the transfer of the kennel name “Sunset” to Mr. Hinkley, of Poughkeepsie, be withdrawn. As that gentlemen has acted in a manner which assumes a fraudulent character, having in no wise complied with the arrangements which were stated, and which he led me to understand were accepted, but he has ignored the matter in a most unwarranted manner. I shall now ask your official interference to protect my rights.

Yours very truly,

Frederick W. D'Evelyn

This name was originally granted to the writer of this letter and subsequently Mr. D'Evelyn signed an application to transfer this name to Mr. John L. Hinkley, of Poughkeepsie, New York. Here is Mr. D'Evelyn’s signed application, and on the 14th of February, 1906, the application was granted. Reading between the lines, which of course we are not required to do, it would seem that there has been a failure of consideration for the transfer, but the Committee cannot see that the American Kennel Club could possibly go into the matter of the adequacy of the consideration for the transfer. We think that if Mr. D'Evelyn, the former owner of the name, can show any fraud whatsoever, he should prefer charges against this gentleman, but meantime he certainly cannot be debarred from using the kennel name. Otherwise we should be disqualifying him without any trial. We hardly see anything before the Committee that would warrant the Committee’s reporting pro or con to the gentleman here.

The applications for the kennel name “Denver” we recommend be postponed for further investigation.

The name “Bradford” has been applied for by Mr. R.J. Bolster, but we find upon the records that the name “Bradford” has been granted heretofore in a limited sense. It was granted, I think, with the restriction that it should only be used for Yorkshire Terriers, but we think that if it were granted now generally it would seriously conflict with the use that has already been allowed of that name, and we therefore recommend that it be disallowed.

THE CHAIR: You have heard the report of the Stud Book Committee. If there is no objection it will be accepted and placed on file.

NEW BUSINESS

The report of the Committee on Constitution and Rules was then taken up, the same having been published in the August Gazette.

THE CHAIR: If there is no objection we will take up these rules in their order and act upon them without first having the whole report read.
SECTION 6 OF BY-LAWS

Rule I read as follows: No show is recognized unless the official endorsement of the premium list, together with the rating of the show in winners’ classes, signed by the secretary of the American Kennel Club, is published at the head of the classification.

On motion accepted.

Rule II. Every show is guaranteed one point toward a championship. All shows to be rated on the actual number of dogs entered, as follows: 1,000 dogs or over, five points; 750 dogs and under 1,000, four points; 500 dogs and under 750, three points; 250 dogs and under 500, two points; under 250 dogs, one point.

The Pacific Advisory Committee shall have jurisdiction in all states West of the Easterly boundary of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico.

THE SECRETARY: I have five amendments recommended by the Pacific Advisory Committee, one to follow this clause which I have just read, defining the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee. They ask that it be inserted as follows: to be rated as follows: 400 dogs or over, five points; 300 dogs and under 400, four points; 200 dogs and under 300, three points; 100 dogs and under 200, two points; under 100 dogs, one point. Specialty clubs holding shows confined to their own breeds, four points.

The total number of points required for a championship is ten. (See Rule VII, Section 7).

THE CHAIR: I should like to ask in connection with the first clause how that differs from the present rule.

MR. BROOKS: Not at all; but in the second clause the parallel line was divided by stated instead of an arbitrary line running north and south dividing some two or three states in two, taking the state line as the boundary line of the Pacific coast. I move that this rule II be adopted, including the proposed amendment of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MORTIMER: Does that take in the whole of Colorado?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

Motion to adopt seconded, and Rule II adopted as amended.

Rule III. The word dog, where used in there rules, includes both sexes.

On motion adopted.

MR. BROOKS: Before we take up Rule IV, the Committee would like to suggest that Rule VIII as reported by it be taken up as Rule IV; it is in better order. We want to put Rule VIII in place of the printed Rule IV.

Printed Rule VIII was then read: The breeder of a dog is the person owing of leasing the dam at the time of service.

Dogs whelped in the United States by a bitch purchased by a citizen of the United States in any foreign country and subsequently bred by him to a foreign dog, shall be considered “America bred.”

MR. BROOKS: This in a slight change of our old rule VII.

On motion adopted.

Rule IV (now Rule V) read: Every dog shown under these rules must either be registered or listed with the American Kennel Club previous to being exhibited. The fee for registration is one dollar, and for listing 25 cents. The registration of a dog gives the privilege of competition during its life. The listing of a dog gives the privilege of competition only for the current calendar year.

The penalty for non-compliance is cancellation of winnings except when a club states in its premium list, “This club assumes the collection and forwarding to the American Kennel Club of all listing fees.”

MR. BRITTON: Should not that read “Every dog ‘entered’ instead of ‘shown’?”. For instance a dog might be entered and not listed.

MR. BRITTON’S amendment seconded and carried.

Rule adopted.

Rule V (now Rule VI) read: Every dog must be the bona fide property of the person making such entry on the day of closing the entries. If an entry is made in the name of an agent, and the name of the owner is not given, the win of the dog shall be cancelled. The entry must clearly identify the dogs to be exhibited by name, and, if known, its date of birth, names of sire and dam, and the name of its breeder. Should any of these particulars be unknown to the exhibitor, it must be so stated on the entry blank. If the dog is already registered in the American Kennel Club Stud Book, the Stud Book number of the dog must be given with the entry. The right to exhibit a dog cannot be transferred by the owner by agreement, bargain, sale or lease.

On motion rule adopted.

Rule VI (now Rule VII) read.

MR. BROOKS: I should recommend striking out the word “either” in the second line.

MR. VITI: I would like to ask the Chairman of the Rules Committee what we are to understand is meant by the term “a recognized show in Europe”?
MR. BROOKS: A show recognized in the country in which it is held.

MR. VITI: By what authority in that country? I happen to know that in several countries in Europe there is a dispute as to jurisdiction. There are a number of national and semi-national kennel clubs. Some are what we term outlawed tracks in racing. Are you going to recognize dogs that have won at recognized outlawed shows? You cover Europe. There are quite a number of Stud Books outside of England and Germany and France, those that we are brought into more intimate contact with here in various countries. It is very easy for you to say at some show on the Continent, and bring in some of these queer breeds and have them entered for competition into our shows, the very thing the American Kennel Club has been striving to bar out. I must say that I do not know what is meant by “a recognized show”. I have the Stud Book of almost every country in Europe, and I see a great deal of conflict, and I think you are going to have trouble before you in determining what your authority for recognition is.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I see the point of Mr. Viti’s remarks absolutely. I think you should strike out the words “or Europe”.

MR. VITI: I thoroughly agree with Mr. Muss-Arnolt. If the American Kennel Club wants to recognize certain shows in Europe, they can be recognized by the American Kennel Club. I think the American Kennel Club should be the supreme authority for everything that takes place in dog affairs on this Continent.

MR. BROOKS: How about Mexico?

MR. VITI: There is no kennel club there that I ever heard of.

MR. BROOKS: My idea was, dog shows in good standing with the community.

MR. VITI: Who is going to judge the pulse of the community?

MR. BROOKS: I suppose you can get as close to it in one way as another.

MR. MORRIS: You could put in, “any dog show in Europe.”

THE SECRETARY: The idea of including the European shows was that men buying dogs in any country in Europe that have a reputation, and have won prizes, they can come over here and show them under an entirely different name, and we cannot possibly identify that dog with the name that the dog was originally shown under.

MR. VITI: I would respectfully ask the Secretary how accurately he can identify a dog that has been shown under one name in Belgium, under another name in Holland, under another name in France, under another name in England, under another name in Russia, under another name in Italy and under another name in Switzerland and so on throughout these various Continental countries? I thoroughly concur in what Mr. Muss-Arnolt has suggested.

Amendment seconded.

THE CHAIR: Under that condition of affairs any dog coming over here from England can have his name changed without anything being done.

MR. VITI: Yes, because England is not under the jurisdiction of the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIR: Suppose a well known dog is brought over here from England, and his name is changed when he arrives here, unless you know the breed you cannot identify him.

MR. VITI: I do not see any way of getting around that at all. If you brought a well known dog over here and left his pedigree behind him, there would be not way of identifying him. I think it is the jurisdiction of the American Kennel Club that we have got to stand on.

MR. PETERS: But in case a champion dog is brought over.

THE CHAIR: The same thing.

MR. PETERS: How are you going to tell whether he is a champion or not, if the dog is brought over here surreptitiously and put on the bench, and you do not require the name, how do you know whether this dog is a champion or not?

MR. MORTIMER: You do not know even that it is an imported dog.

MR. MOORE: I do not see how that has anything to do with it. A foreign dog can compete in anything but the novice class any how.

MR. MORTIMER: I wish to make an amendment to that rule so that it would read: “recognized show held in North America or Great Britain”.

MR. VITI: I do not accept that amendment at all. I do not see how you can mix up jurisdictions. I do not see how the American Kennel Club, in justice to the exhibitors, to the dog public, to its own members, can go outside of its own jurisdiction in this matter. It is purely a matter of jurisdiction.

MR. MORTIMER: According to Mr. Viti’s remarks it is quite possible to import a champion dog from England and show him in the novice class in this country.

MR. VITI: A person who does that is guilty of fraud, in the same way as a man who races a ringer in horse racing. You cannot take a handicap horse and change his name and get another handicap for him. He would be ruled off in the same way – he would be disqualified by the American Kennel Club for fraudulent suppression of the name and pedigree of that dog.

MR. PETERS: But you do not recognize those clubs according to that rule; so the wins would not count, and there would not be any fraud at all.

MR. VITI: The fraud is to get him in the novice class. It is a fraudulent suppression of the particulars of that dog, and a man doing that would be disqualified.

MR. MORTIMER: I should like to know why we should include Canada and not England. We shut Canada out completely at the last meeting.

MR. PETERS: I think we ought to recognize a United States dog previously shown in the United States at any recognized show in the United States; recognize those previously shown, and then put in another clause and say, wherever it can be shown, or the present owner of the dog knows the dog has been shown in a foreign country, that his name must be given wherever it is given, and put United States in a class by itself, and put Canada and other countries in separate classes.

MR. VITI: I ask for a vote on the amendment that I seconded, made by Mr. Muss-Arnolt
Mr. Mortimer’s proposed amendment lost.

THE CHAIR: The proposed amendment before you is to strike out the words “or Europe.”

MR. VITI: My suggestion is this: “that at any show recognized by the American Kennel Club.” I have just now realized that we would rule against our rules, to limit it to North America. Say at any recognized show by the American Kennel Club, no matter where it is, north, south, east or west, make it any show recognized by the American Kennel Club. Then if hereafter you want to recognize shows in England or any other country, they will come in under that rule. If the name of a dog which has won a prize at any show recognized by the American Kennel Club has been changed, the old name must be given on the entry blank, and so forth.

Amendment seconded and carried.

Printed Rule VI (now Rule VII) was on motion adopted as amended, and is as follows:

Rule VII If the name of a dog which has won a prize at any show recognized by the American Kennel Club has been changed, the old name must be given on the entry blank and published in the catalogue until such time as it wins a prize under its new name. The name of a registered dog cannot be changed after December 31st following the date of registration.
MR. BROOKS: Before moving printed Rule VII, (now Rule VIII), I should like to make a change in it: “If a dog has been entered without being identified, as directed in Rules IV, V, VI, and VII, it shall be disqualified and forfeit any prize which may be awarded to it, “ that I should like to amend by imposing a fine of one dollar for each error instead of two dollars.

MR. VITI: I move to amend by striking out those two lines where it reads “Except where fraud is not shown,” and add at the end: “Provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to cases of fraud.”

MR. SPACKMAN: I move that new Rule VIII (printed Rule VII) be changed to read as follows: “If a dog has been entered without being identified as directed in Rules IV, V, VI and VII, a fine of one dollar shall be imposed by the Secretary for each error, unless fraud shall be shown, in which case the win shall be cancelled.

Amendment seconded and adopted.

Rule VIII (new Rule IV) read.

MR. VITI: I move to precede the second paragraph of that rule by inserting the words “dogs bred and whelped in the United States and dogs whelped in the United States by a bitch purchased by a citizen of the United States,” and add after that, so there can be no mistake hereafter; “All other dogs shall be regarded as foreign bred dogs.”
Motion seconded and carried.

Rule IX read as follows:

No entry can be made in a kennel name unless that name has been registered with the American Kennel Club. The partners in a kennel will be deemed equally culpable in the case of fraud perpetrated in their name. The term "exhibitor" shall mean an individual or co-partnership exhibiting fraction of this rule, cancellation of win.

On motion, adopted.

Rule X read:

The person presenting the Identification Paper shall be recognized as the agent or owner in the latter’s absence, and his receipt for prize money shall be binding on the owner, unless notice to the contrary is indorsed on the identification paper.

On motion adopted.

Rule XI read:

The authorities of any show may decline any entries they see fit, or may remove any dog on account of disease, vice or other cause.

On motion, adopted.

Rule XII read:

Dogs may be entered “for exhibitors only” if so stated on entry blank, but any dog entered for competition and received at the show building must compete in all classes in which it is entered, and for all specials for which it is eligible and failing to do so shall be fined an amount equal to the entrance fee for each class. The only exception to this rule is that an exhibitor shall not compete for any special prizes donated by himself.

THE CHAIR: Can a dog be shown for specials only?

MR. BRITTON: That matter was brought up at the last meeting. The opinion of the delegates seemed to be that a dog should be allowed to compete, for specials only, and we fixed it up so they could do so, and they can do so according to the action taken at that meeting.

THE SECRETARY: At the last meeting it was the sense of the meeting that the Rules Committee should bring in such a rule at this meeting. That is the way it stood, because the last meeting had no authority whatever to change a rule, because it has got to go before the Rules Committee be instructed to bring in a rule allowing dogs to compete for specials only. The Committee, in discussing the matter, was not willing to bring in such a rule, giving as its reason that the principle of a dog show is to show and allow the very best dog of its bred to be awarded first, and that is defeated if you allow the best dog in the show possibly not to get first, but to get a special. That was before the Committee.

MR. BROOKFIELD: Can we refer to the minutes of that meeting? My recollection is that it was the unanimous vote of the delegates to instruct the Rules Committee to pass such a rule.

THE SECRETARY: It was.

MR. BROOKFIELD: That must have gone into effect.

MR. VITI: I have here the motion that was made at the February meeting, in which Mr. Buckley moved that the Rules Committee be instructed to so change this rule that entries for specials only may, in the future, be reached, and not necessarily be made to compete in the classes in which they are entered, and report at the next meeting. I seconded that motion, and I think it was unanimously carried.

THE SECRETARY: That is just my statement.

MR. PETERS: I do not think the American Kennel Club can make any dogs compete in specials, for the simple reason that we have no jurisdiction over specials, for the simple reason that we have no jurisdiction over specials, and have always claimed that, and for that reason I think that only specials for which it is eligible should be stricken out of that rule. I think that is the privilege of the owner. He wishes to enter what he wishes to compete for.

MR. BROOKFIELD: At Bar Harbor, in the official catalogue, a dog was not entered in any class at all. He won a special as the best in the show. It seems to me that if we do not publish in the Gazette and give a special notice as to what things come up, I do not see why that is not absolutely correct.

THE SECRETARY: There is a charge now that I reported from Mr. Kelly, which was brought in for a hearing on this very question. I reported that, and it has to come up before the Executive Board; but if left to me, I should decide that that dog, while physically there, legally was not at that show. We have a rule which states that every dog must be entered in its regular class. This dog was not entered in any class. Further than that, if you will refer back to the Gazette, you will find that there was a notice put in the Gazette to the effect that a dog could not be entered to compete for specials.

MR. VITI: You can enter a dog for specials only or for exhibition. He must be entered in a class, but he can be entered in a class for specials only.

MR. MORTIMER: It seems to me that that is a very great hardship upon the exhibitor. It is a hardship on the exhibitor that he cannot compete for specials in order to make up his team. He has three dogs now in the regular open class to compete for specials only. He makes that entry for the special prizes for the best team of four dogs.
MR. BROOKFIELD: I do not see how we can pass on that now, as the vote of the delegates was that the Committee should pass such a rule, and it has gone over the meeting.

MR. PETERS: I move the following be substituted for Rule XII: “Dogs may be entered for exhibition for specials only if so stated on the entry blank; but any dog entered for competition and received at the show building must compete for competition and received at the show building must compete in all the classes for which it is entered, and failing to do so, shall be fined an amount equal to the entrance fee for each class. Dogs competing for specials only must be entered in one of the regular classes in which he need not compete.”

On motion, Rule XII, as amended, was adopted.

Rule XIII read.

MR. MORTIMER: I move as an amendment that old Rule XIII shall be substituted for Rule XIII.

Motion seconded and carried.

Rule XIV read.

MR. MOORE: That last part is new, and it was framed to facilitate or expedite the settlement of prizes where wins have been cancelled. Before that, there was no provision, no method, by which the club or the Secretary of the American Kennel Club could proceed. Otherwise, the rule is as it was before.

MR. MORTIMER: The rule, as it reads now, is practically the same as it always has been. For instance, two or three exhibitors have been disqualified for not returning their wins. I do not know how the old rule reads, but I know it has gone into effect.

THE SECRETARY: That was a resolution, but now it has been incorporated into a rule.

MR. SPACKMAN: I suggest that after the word “show” in Rule XIV the following should be inserted, “except as provided for in Rule VIII.”

Amendment seconded and adopted.

Rule XIV, as amended, was adopted as follows:

Exhibitors are responsible for their own errors in making out their entry forms. The win of a dog wrongly entered or improperly shown shall be cancelled and entry fee forfeited to the club holding the show, except as provided for in Rule VIII. If the American Kennel Club cancels a win subsequent to the closing of the show, the exhibitor must return to the club holding the show all prizes won by the dog, by registered mail, within 30 days after receipt of notice to that effect. Penalty for non-compliance with this rule shall be suspension of the exhibitor until restitution is made and receipt for same filed with the American Kennel Club.

Rule XV read:

The regularly appointed veterinary alone shall determine the physical condition of dogs during the show. When appealed to by the judge or when giving an opinion on a protest to the Dog Show Committee, he shall immediately render his decision in writing.

Blindness, deafness, lameness, castration or spaying shall render the dog ineligible to compete at any show, except when the veterinary is satisfied that the deafness or lameness is temporary.

On motion, adopted.

Rule XVI read.

MR. MORTIMER (Reading): “In the event of an appointed judge not officiating, it shall be optional to the exhibitor, before commencement of judging the breed to withdraw his dog or dogs from competition.” How does that effect his entry fee?

THE CHAIR: He cannot get his entry fee back.

MR. VITI: I think he should have his entry fee returned. He pays his entry fee for competition. I think he ought to have his money returned. What right has bench show committees to confiscate the exhibitor’s entrance fee?

MR. MOORE: The intent was to return the entry fee.

MR. VITI: I think he ought to be allowed to withdraw his dogs from the building. If he is not going to compete, the Bench Show Committee should not have the right to compound his dogs. It ought to be just the same as if he never made the entry.

THE CHAIR: Then the rule will read, adding at the end of the second paragraph, “and from the show, in which event his entry fee shall be returned.

MR. BRITTON: I should like to move to add a paragraph before the last one there reading, “A judge may order from the ring any person not employed in showing a dog.”

Rule XIV, as amended, was adopted as follows:

The appointment or judges shall rest with the club giving the show. A judge must be a person in good standing with the American Kennel Club. After the list of judges has been published in the premium list it cannot be changed, unless as appointed judge is unable to fill his engagement. The Committee shall then have the right to fill the vacancy.

All the classes of any one breed of dogs must be adjudicated upon by the same judge or judges, acting in conjunction. In the event of an appointed judge not officiating, it shall be optional to the exhibitor before commencement of judging the breed to withdraw his dog or dogs from competition and from the show, in which event his entry fee shall be returned.

A judge, upon the complaint of any one actually engaged in the handling or showing of a dog during the judging of a class, may, if in his opinion the complaint is warranted, order from the ring any person guilty of intentional or deliberate interference with any dog therein competing.

Any person order from the ring as aforesaid, shall be prohibited from further handling or showing in any class.
during the continuance of said show. A judge may order from the ring any person not employed in showing a dog.

Full discretionary power is given to the judge of each class to withhold any or all prizes for want of merit. The judge’s decision shall be final in all cases affecting the merits of the dogs. If the win of a dog is cancelled, the next dog in order of merit shall be moved up and the win shall be counted in every respect the same as if it has been the original award. For this purpose the judge shall place one dog “Reserve” after regular prizes are awarded if a dog if sufficient merit is available.

MR. PETERS: I move a reconsideration of Rule XV.
Motion seconded and carried.
MR. PETERS: I now move that the Show Giving Committee shall have the privilege, in the event that the regular appointed veterinary shall be incapacitated to serve, of appointing a veterinary to take his place who shall act for him in all things.

Motion seconded and adopted.
Rule XVII:
No exhibitor is permitted to affix any award, sign or notice on the bench, of any prize not won at that show, unless it is specifically stated on such notice the name of the show where such prizes were awarded and the year in which that show was held. For violation of this rule the exhibitor shall forfeit any prize or prizes won at that show.

Rule XVIII read.

MR. MORRIS: I move as a substitution for Rule XVIII the following: “The Superintendent, the Secretary of the show, Veterinary or Club official acting in any of these capacities, cannot exhibit or officiate as judge at the show.”

Motion seconded and carried.

Rule XIX read as follows:

A protest against a dog may be made by any exhibitor, or any member of a club of the American Kennel Club, but must be in writing, and be lodged with the Secretary of the show club within seven days of the last day of the show. No protest shall be entertained unless accompanied by a deposit of $5 (to be returned in case the protest is sustained), except the same is lodged by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, which may be made at any time.

On motion adopted.

Rule XX read.

THE SECRETARY: There is a recommendation from the Pacific Advisory Committee adding this: “In the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, appeals to be made to that Committee in the form prescribed.”

MR. BROOKS: I approve of that recommendation. I move that that paragraph proposed by the Pacific Advisory Committee be added.

Motion seconded and carried, and rule, as amended, adopted.

Rule XX, as amended and adopted, is as follows:

An appeal may be taken to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club, but such appeal must be forwarded to its secretary within seven days of the decision being rendered, together with a deposit of $10. If the decision is sustained, the deposit shall be forfeited to the American Kennel Club, but if the decision is reversed, then all deposits must be returned to the appellant.

In the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, appeals to be made to that Committee in the form prescribed.

Rule XXI read, as follows:

A person or club guilty of misconduct of any kind in connection with dogs, dog shows or field trials may be suspended by the President of the American Kennel Club, or, in his absence, by the Vice President, or by the Committee of the show or trial where the offense was committed.

On motion, adopted.

Rule XXII read.

MR. BROOKS: I move that the last paragraph of Rule XXIII be made a special paragraph at the end of Rule XXII.

Motion seconded and carried.

Rule XXII, as amended, was adopted, and is as follows:

The disqualification or suspension of an owner shall apply to all dogs owned by him or connected with the perpetration of a fraudulent act, and no dog so disqualified is eligible for entry at any show under any ownership.

No person under suspension or sentence of disqualification can make an entry, exhibit or take a prize, act as agent for an exhibitor, or take a dog in the judging ring at any show held by a member of the American Kennel Club.

The privilege of the Stud Book are withheld from all persons under suspension or disqualification, for registration of dogs owned or bred by them.

The Executive Board is, however, empowered to use such discretion in the enforcement of this penalty as shall protect innocent parties.

Rule XXIII read as follows:

No person shall be disqualified without due notice and formal charges and specifications, and an opportunity given of being heard in his own defense.

On motion the same was adopted.

The following was, on motion, adopted as new rule XXIV:

“Rule XXIV:-- No claim against a club for unpaid prizes shall be valid unless filed with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club within six months of the last day of the show held by such club.”

SECTION 7 OF BY-LAWS

(CLASSES)

The following rules under Section 7 of the By-Laws as amended, were adopted as follows:

Rule 1.- The classification shall be confined to established breeds, which may be divided or limited by variety, weight, color, height or sex and otherwise, as provided for in the dog show rules.

New classes may be added is publicly announced before date of closing, except Winners’ Classes which must remain as endorsed in premium list.

Rule II.-- The Puppy Class shall be for all dogs over six months and not exceeding twelve months of age, and no entry can be made of one under six months, or whose date of birth, breeder, sire or dam is unknown.

Puppies may be permanently removed from a show after their classes have been judged, whatever those classes may be, but may be so removed only after the close of a show in any evening.

Puppy Classes must be judged not later than the second day of the show.

Rule III.—The Novice Class shall be for American bred dogs only, never having won a first prize at any recognized show, wins in the Puppy Classes excepted. The entry blank must state name of breeder and the words, “Bred in United States.”

Rule IV.—The Limit Class shall be for all dogs never having won four first prizes in said class at any recognized show, but no dog having been recorded Champion shall be eligible to this class.

Rule V. – The Graduate Class shall be for all dogs having won four first prizes in Limit Class at recognized shows, but no dogs having been recorded Champion shall be eligible to this class.

Rule VI.—The Open Class shall be for all dogs of any age over six months.

Rule VII. – The Winners’ Class shall be open only to winners of first prizes in any regular class at the show, giving at least three of the before mentioned classes, one of which must be the Open Class. The Winners’ Class can be divided by sex, provided the required three classes are also divided by sex.

Winners’ Classes cannot be allowed where two or more breeds are combined. The judge shall withhold the award of “first” in this class should he be of the opinion that there is no dog of sufficient merit to justify such award. Before awarding “Reserve” in this class the dog or dogs having been placed second to the winner in any of the classes must be brought before judges for competition with the remaining dogs in said Winners’ Class. No class winner can be withdrawn or withheld from competition in the Winners’ Class. No entry fee shall be charged for said competition in Winners’ Class.

The winners of ten points in this class, under three different judges (at least three points of which shall have been won at one show), excepting, however, at five point shows, when two wins under different judges will be sufficient, will thereby become a Champion of Record, be so registered by the American Kennel Club, and if registered in the Stud Book, will be entitled to an American Kennel Club Championship Medal. Duplicate medals for Champions cannot be issued.

Rule VIII.—The Miscellaneous Class shall be open to all dogs of established breeds which have not been otherwise provided for in the premium list, either with a class for the breed itself, or in combination with other breeds.

Entries in this class must specify the breed of the exhibit. Failure to comply with this condition shall cancel the award.

Rule IX.—The term Field Trial Record, as used at all dog shows, applies only to public trials where competition is open to all.

Rule X.—In estimating the number of prizes a dog has won, no award received by it on or after the day of closing of the entries, will be counted.

Rule XI.—In any class where there is a limit of weight, the person in charge of a dog entered in such class may claim of the Show Committee the right, at any time after the opening of the show and before the judging, to have the dog weighed, and the weight of the dog shall be registered and hold good at the time of judging.

Any competing exhibitor or handler shall have the right to demand the weighing or measuring of any dog during the judging of the close, other than hose whose weight has been officially registered. Any subsequent protest must be made in the formal manner provided for in these rules. The club must provide scales for use of the exhibitors or judges and designate official weighers.

Rule XII.—Dog Show Committees may provide such classes for dogs of recognized breeds as they may choose, provided they do not conflict with the conditions of the above mentioned classes.

Rule XIII.—Established breeds shall be such breeds as are eligible to registration in the Stud Book, and such breeds as may hereafter be made eligible for such registration.

A list of breeds recognized by the American Kennel Club must be published in every premium list, excepting those of specialty clubs confined to their own breed.

The following list comprises all breeds of dogs for which separate classes may be provided:

- Airedale Terriers
- Basset Hounds (Smooth)

MR. BROOKS: That is a new rule. It takes in all that list of dogs.

MR. MORTIMER: Rule XIII is in error, because there have been several breeds omitted since that list has been published.

MR. BROOKS: Why not let the Secretary be authorized to add to this list from year to year?

MR. MORTIMER: Yes, that will be satisfactory.

THE CHAIR: Rule XIII will be the same with the exception that a corrected list shall be put in.

THE FOLLOWING RULES ARE FOR GUIDANCE OF CLUBS, NOT TO BE PUBLISHED IN PREMIUM LIST:

AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB RULES GOVERNING CLUBS HOLDING SHOWS
SECTION 8 OF BY-LAWS

The following rules under Section 8 of the By-Laws were adopted, as amended, as follows:

Rule I. – The following rules governing clubs holding shows are published for the guidance of Bench Show Committees only, publication in premium lists and catalogues not permitted.

Rule II. – Any person or persons acting in any official capacity, paid or unpaid, including that of Judge, Secretary, Superintendent, Steward, Clerk of a Show or as an officer or the United States of America, under any rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, shall be disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club.

Rule III. – Any Active Member of the American Kennel Club may hold a show under American Kennel Club rules, provided it abides by all rules of the American Kennel Club.

Rule IV. – The use of a Club’s name for show purposes cannot be transferred to any other body or person.

Rule V. – Applications for dates must be filed with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club for approval by the Executive Board or such sub-committees as may be empowered to grant dates, subject to final endorsement of the premium list by the Secretary, of which a copy in duplicate must be submitted for approval before publication.

In the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee applications for dates must be filed with the Secretary thereof and copies of the proposed premium list must be submitted to him in triplicate for approval and endorsement.

Rule VI. – No premium list is valid without this endorsement, which must be printed in such list at the head of “Rules Governing Dog Shows.” One copy of the premium list must be forwarded to the American Kennel Club immediately after publication and before distribution. Penalty for non-compliance $1.00 per day.

Two copies of the premium list must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee immediately after publication by clubs within its jurisdiction.

Rule VII. – The duration of a show shall not exceed four days. Applications for dates must be accompanied by a fee of $25., which will be forfeited in the event of the show not being held.

Rule VIII. — Entries shall close not less than seven days prior to the first day of the show. No alteration of the advertised date of closing shall be allowed. Penalty for accepting entries after advertised date, “$5.00 for each entry.”
Rule IX. – The date of closing of entries of any show is an official part of that show, and a person eligible to make entries must be in good standing at the time of the closing of its entries. No entries can be accepted in the name of an agent only. Penalty for each entry, $2.00.

Rule X.—No entries can be accepted from any person who is not in good standing, a list of such persons must be obtained from the Secretary of the American Kennel Club before the closing of the entries. No person under sentence of suspension, disqualification or expulsion can be employed in any official capacity, or exhibit, or give or take a prize, or act as agent for any exhibitor, or show a dog in any judging ring. Penalty for violation: $5.00 for each offense.

Rule XI. – The premium list must contain the dog show rules of the American Kennel Club; also a list of the officials under whose management the dog show is to be held, who, with the exception of the paid employees, shall be held responsible for the payment of all prizes within sixty days of the last day of the show, in default of which the said officials shall be suspended or disqualified for such time as the American Kennel Club shall determine.

XII.—All claims against a club for unpaid prizes shall be outlawed unless made within six months from the closing of such show.
Rule XIII.—No special prize can be accepted or offered by a club after the opening of a show.

The show officials will be held responsible for the payment of all special prizes advertised in the premium list or catalogue.

All prizes must be in accordance with description in the premium list. Prizes of gold or silver must be of the purity of United States coin. If money prizes are offered, a fixed amount for each prize must be stated.

Rule XIV. – In default of the payment of prize moneys within sixty days of the last day of a show, the officials of such show, except paid employees, shall be suspended for such time as the American Kennel Club shall determined, or disqualified.

Rule XV.—Every show must provide a printed catalogue in which is given all particulars required of exhibitors in entering dogs as provided in Section 6, Rule VI, VII and VII of the “Rules Governing Dog Shows.” It must also contain a list of the officers under whose management the show is held.

Rule XVI. – A catalogue, marked with the winnings, and duly certified to by the secretary or superintendent, must be filed with the American Kennel Club within seven days after the closing of the show. Penalty, “1.00 per day.

Clubs in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee must forward to the Secretary thereof two marked and certified copies of the catalogues.
Rule XVII.-- The following rule must be observed in the arrangement of said catalogue. The name of the owner and then the name of the dog and registration number immediately follows the catalogue number, followed by further particulars as called for in Rule VI, Section 6. The catalogue must be in book form, and not exceed in surface size 6 x 8 inches, not less than 5 x 8 inches.

Rule XVIII.-- A club may assume the responsibility of collecting and forwarding to the American Kennel Club any listing fees, which fact must be stated in the premium list. Such fees collected must be forwarded to the American Kennel Club within seven days from closing of show, accompanied by a complete list of same. Penalty for non-compliance, $1.00 per day.

Rule XIX.—Upon notification from the Secretary of the American Kennel Club that there are still unlisted dogs, the show club must pay for same within fourteen (14) days after such notice, in default of which said club shall be suspended.

The amount deposited with the application for dates cannot be applied as payment of said fees.

Rule XX.-- Every show must have a qualified veterinary surgeon who shall be in attendance the evening preceding, and during the progress of the show, and no dog shall be benched without having been examined and passed by him. The veterinary surgeon is required to personally inspect the dogs on bench and the quarters where the dogs are exercised or crated, before 6 p.m. on the opening day of the show and at least once during the morning of each day, and a written report submitted to the Bench Show Committee. Dogs suffering from contagious diseases must be ordered from the building. Failing to comply with this rule, if protest is made and sustained, the club will be fined $5.00 for each offense.

Rule XXI.—In the events of a protest being filed in accordance with Rule XIX, Section 6, of the Dog Show Rules, the Show Committee shall at once meet and decide upon it, giving both sides the opportunity to be heard together and its decision rendered in writing.

Rule XXII.—If a protest is lodged subsequent to the show, it must be decided by the Committee within 20 days form its receipt. Five days’ notice of the date and place of the meeting for that purpose must be given to all parties interested, and decision rendered as above.

Rule XXIII.—The Bench Show Committee may suspend any person for misconduct at its show, notice of which must be forwarded with twenty-four hours to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, who will refer it to the Executive Board at its first meeting, for action.

Rule XIV.—The Secretary of the American Kennel Club must enforce penalties for violation of rules, and reserve same from deposit made with applicants for dates.
Rule XXV.— No entry shall be accepted of any puppy under six months of age or without day of birth, breeder, sire or dam, either for competition or exhibition. Penalty for violation: fine of $5.00 for each entry.

Rule XXVI.-- A dog wrongly entered cannot be transferred by the Show officials. Penalty, $5.00.

Rule XXVII.-- For any violation of the rules not otherwise specified, or for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, such action may be taken and penalty imposed as may be deemed proper.

Rule XXVIII.—Such regulations or additional rules may be adopted for the government of any show as shall be considered necessary, provided they do not conflict with any of these official rules.

Respectfully submitted,
Committee on Constitution and Rules:
EDWARD BROOKS (Chairman)
G. MUSS-ARNOLT
DWIGHT-MOORE
A.P. VREDENBRUGH

The request of the Ladies' Kennel Association to the American Kennel Club to adopt the following rule: “That dogs ruled off or barred from being shown in England should be barred from being shown in America,” was, on motion, laid upon the table.
MR. BROOKS: I call attention to the report of the committee which was appointed to take up the plan for arranging the premium list. It has been signed by Mr. Mortimer and Mr. Oldham and Mr. Vredenburgh. The rules Committee has gone over it and recommended it for adoption.

MR. MORTIMER: That is, to adhere to that as nearly as possible?

THE CHAIR: It is moved and seconded that it be adopted as a part of the rules.

Carried.

THE CHAIR: A motion is now in order to adopt the Rules Committee report in toto, and the recommendation which was read in the preamble, that is to say that it should take effect January 1st, 1907, was corrected.

MR. VITI: I move that it be adopted as amended.

Motion seconded and carried.

It having come to the knowledge of the meeting that one of the delegates of the American Kennel Club has, in an interview with a representative of a sporting paper of wide circulation reflected on the fairness and integrity of judges of a certain breed of dogs, Mr. Brooks moved that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

It was also brought to the knowledge of the meeting that one of the delegates has caused to be published over his signature in one of the sporting papers that under orders his remarks at American Kennel Club meeting had been suppressed for years, on motion the Secretary was directed to notify him to appear before the Executive Board at its next meeting for the purpose of explaining or substantiating such statement.

The meeting then adjourned.
SPECIAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB

(UNINCORPORATED)

55 Liberty Street
New York, November 19, 1906

A special meeting of the American Kennel Club was this day held at the office of the club, 55 Liberty Street, room 35, in the City of New York, on the 19th day of November, 1906, pursuant to the following notice, duly mailed to each member of the club. Such notice is as follows:

55 Liberty Street
New York

Sir: Please take notice that there will be a special meeting of the American Kennel Club at No. 55 Liberty Street, room 35, in the City of New York, on Monday, November 19th, at three o’clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of transferring all of the property assets, effects and good will of the club to the American Kennel Club, (incorporated) in accordance with the resolutions heretofore adopted, and for the transaction of such other business as may be necessary to achieve this end.
By order of the president,

A.P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary

DELEGATES OF ASSOCIATE SUBSCRIBERS

At said meeting there were present:

(1) W.G. Rockefeller
(2) Dwight Moore
(3) Airedale Terrier Club of New York, J.H. Brookfield, delegate
(4) American Dachshund Club, G. Muss-Arnolt, delegate
(5) American Fox Terrier Club, H.H. Hunnewell, delegate
(6) American Spaniel Club, H.K. Bloodgood, delegate
(7) Asbury Park Kennel Club, F.J. Trown, delegate
(8) Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association, John W. Britton, 2nd delegate
(9) Cedarhurst Kennel Club, John G. Bates, delegate
(10) Champlain Kennel Club, Abram D. Gillette, delegate
(11) Collie Club of America, R.S. Edson, delegate
(12) Irish Setter Club, Lawrence M.D. McGuire, delegate
(13) Irish Terrier Club of America, Singleton Van Schaick, delegate
(14) Long Island Kennel Club, Jos. M. Dale, delegate
Acted as secretary.

On motion duly made and seconded, the minutes of the last meeting of the club, as published in the September number of the Gazette were ratified and approved.

The secretary thereupon read the notice of the meeting showing that the object of the same was to transfer all of the property, assets, effects and good will of the club to the American Kennel Club, incorporation and for the transaction of such other business as may be necessary to achieve this end.

Mr. Viti thereupon read the report of the committee appointed to incorporate the club and

On motion duly made and seconded, the report was accepted and approved and the secretary was instructed to spread a copy of the same upon the minutes of this meeting.

Such report is as follows:

55 Liberty Street

New York, November 19, 1906

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen: The undersigned committee appointed to consider the advisability of incorporating the club, and with authority to have the club incorporated, respectfully report:

(1) That after carefully considering the matter the committee were of the opinion that the interests of the club would be best conserved by incorporating and

(2) That accordingly they requested your executive committee to act as incorporators, Mr. Vredenburgh acting as incorporator in the absence of Mr. Appleton.

(3) That the said incorporators duly organized and adopted a constitution and by-laws copies of which are annexed to this report.

(4) That in conformity with said constitution all the members of this club and their delegates have been duly elected members of the incorporated club and all of
(5) the associate members of this club and their delegates have been elected associate subscribers and delegates of the incorporated club.

(6) That all of the officers, executive committee and standing committee of this club have been elected officers, executive committee and standing committee of the incorporated club.

(7) That under the constitution as adopted all of the members of all the standing committee must be directors, therefore Messrs. Vredenburgh, Muss-Arnolt, L.W. Campbell, Chetwood Smith, Dwight Moore, Joseph M. Dale, Singleton Van Schiack, B.S. Smith and Ancel H. Ball all were elected as directors, and as said constitution calls for a board of thirty directors, the following delegates were elected to fill the remaining places on the board: Messrs. Monson Morris, Harry T. Peters, R.R. Keasbey, W.P. Earle, J.H. Brookfield, Abram D. Gillette, Craig F.R. Drake, Irving C. Ackerman, Howard Willets, James Mortimer, Edwin J. Van Schiack, John G. Bates.

(8) That said Incorporated Club is now duly organized and ready to take over the property, assets, effects and goodwill of this club.

Respectfully submitted,

MARCEL A. VITI
W.G. ROCKEFELLER
A.P. VREDENBURGH
Mr. Viti thereupon offered the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, In pursuance of resolutions passes and adopted by this club, the committee appointed, there-under have caused the American Kennel Club to be duly incorporated under the laws of the State of New York and

Whereas, The said club has bee duly organized, adopted a constitution and by-laws and elected all the members of this club and their delegates, members and delegates of said club, and the associate members of this club and their delegates, associate subscribers and delegates of said club.

Now, therefore, be it

Resolved That this club transfer, assign and set over all of its property, assets, effects and good will into said American Kennel Club, incorporated, add that the proper officers of this club be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute acknowledge and deliver unto said American Kennel Club, incorporated such instructions as may be necessary to effectuate, carry out and complete such transfer and assignment.

Said preamble and resolutions having been fully discussed.
On motion duly made and seconded, the same were unanimously adopted, a roll call being expressly waived by every delegate present.

Mr. Viti thereupon presented and read to the meeting the instrument of transfer and assignment called for by said resolutions, and

On motion duly made and seconded, the secretary was instructed to spread a copy of the same upon the minutes of this meeting. Such copy is as follows:

This indenture, made the nineteenth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, between the American Kennel Club, unincorporated association, hereinafter called the association, party of the first part and the American Kennel Club, a corporation duly created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the Membership Corporation Law of the State of New York, hereinafter, called the club, party of the second part.

Whereas, The said association at a special meeting thereof duly called for and regularly held on the 19th day of November, 1906, did adopt, the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, In pursuance of resolutions passed and adopted by this club, the committee appointed there-under have caused the American Kennel Club to be duly incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, and

Whereas, The said club has been duly organized adopted a constitution and by-laws and elected all the members of this club and their delegates, members and delegates of said club, and the associate members of this club and their delegates, associate subscribers and delegates of said club,

Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this club transfer, assign and set over all of its property, assets, effect and good will unto said American Kennel Club, incorporated, and that the proper officers of this club be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute, acknowledge and deliver unto said American Kennel Club, Incorporated, such instruments as may be necessary to effectuate, carry out and complete such transfer and assignment.

Now, therefore, this indenture witnesseth that the said association, party of the first part, in pursuance of said resolutions, and to carry out and to effectuate the same, for and in consideration of the premises and of the sum of one dollar, lawful money of the United States of America to it in hand paid by the said club, party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, transferred, assigned and set over, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, transfer, assign and set over unto the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, all of the property, assets, effects whatsoever and wheresoever situate belonging to said association or used by it in its business or in the conduct of its affairs, including among other things all of the plans and records, furniture and fittings, all claims, demands and accounts, due or to become due to said association, any and all bank accounts standing in its name or in the name of any of its officers or committees, all of its right, title and interest in and to the American Kennel Gazette and the American Kennel Club Stud Book, and the good will of said association, together with the exclusive right to use the name of the American Kennel Club.

To have, to hold the same unto the said American Kennel Club, party of the second part, its successors and assigns forever:

In witness whereof the said American Kennel Club (unincorporated) party of the first part, has caused there presents to be signed by its president and its seal, duly attested by its secretary, to be hereunto affixed the day and year above written.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any seats not occupied by delegates? I ask, as a matter of courtesy, if those who are not entitled to seats will vacate them for those who are entitled to seats.

DR. OSGOOD: Mr. Chairman, you asked a question whether there were any but delegates here. As one of your committee acting on this matter, I have asked a stenographer to be present to check the record of the regular stenographer. If you would like him to be removed, if you will so indicate, I will so state to him; or if you think that he should lie removed I will make a motion that we he allowed to hae an official stenographer here to check the record of the regular stenographer.

THE PRESIDENT: I can put. no motion at present.
We have not yet organized. There is a quorum here present, but we have a few proxies, and we have credentials of delegates who have not yet been seated. I think we have with us present the stenographer who has reported our meetings for the last twenty years or more. I want to submit to you, gentlemen, that I think that that is really carrying a question of feeling and disrespect for the club, and honesty of purpose, that you are unwilling to have as the official record of any of our meetings the stenographic report of a man who has served us for more than twenty years, and who has been and is now an official stenographer to one of the higher courts of record in this city, where accuracy is essential. More accurate reports than he has furnished us could not be made. It is immaterial, but I think that such a suggestion would be equivalent almost to saying that this stenographer was not to be trusted because he was engaged by the present management of the club. I cannot see any other interpretation of it, and when the time comes I will recognize a question of that kind, if you desire. I submit that that is a most extraordinary request.

DR. OSGOOD: My suggestion was not any reflection whatever regarding the official stenographer. It was simply that in view of the large number present it would be almost impossible to take everything down correctly, and if we had a check it would be a very valuable thing in such a large meeting. There is absolutely no reflection official stenographer.

THE PRESIDENT: When the time comes that motion can be put, but now we have business to proceed with which does not involve any general debate, and therefore I am not prepared yet to act upon it. The roll has been called and the Chair calls for proxies. If any proxies are held they should be submitted to the Chair. The Chair states that in order to be accurate in passing upon these proxies it has been deemed advisable to appoint a committee to take the proxies and report on the same.

MR. McGUIRE: Do I understand from your remarks that we propose, to vote proxies at this meeting?

THE PRESIDENT: I presume that the question as to proxies being regular and it being possible to vote proxies must be decided upon after, the character of them is submitted.

MR. McGUIRE: If the character is all right, I understand your ruling is that it is perfectly proper to vote them, and we will vote them.

THE PRESIDENT: I have not so ruled.

MR. McGUIRE: If they are in proper form will they meet your approval?

THE PRESIDENT: That is a hypothetical question which I decline to answer. It is not under my control.

MR. MC GUIRE: It is only for my information.

THE PRESIDENT: So far as possible, yes. On that committee I appoint Mr. Brooks, of Boston; Mr. Rutherford, of New York, and Mr. Viti, of Philadelphia; and I suggest that before proceeding with the business of the meeting you take a recess for say a quarter or half an hour, whichever you choose, giving that committee time to look over the proxies and to ascertain as to their validity. This is a question that might be raised, and we desire to have the representation absolutely complete.

MR. CUTLER: I move we proceed to business without taking any recess.

Motion seconded.

THE PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion, gentlemen. Are you ready for the question? (Cries of question). The President then put the question to a vive voce vote.

THE PRESIDENT: The ayes have it, and we will proceed to the business of the meeting, but no business can be proceeded with until you have passed on the proxies.
They will have to wait here. Everybody who is here must be entitled to vote in whatever form it may be, until it has been passed upon. No proxies have as yet been offered.

MR. LESLIE: Have any proxies been filed with the Secretary?

THE SECRETARY: No.

MR. MC GUIRE: What is the necessity of taking up the question, of proxies if none have been filed?

THE PRESIDENT: I have called for them. Have any been offered?

THE SECRETARY: No.

THE PRESIDENT: If none have been offered, there will be no time taken up with them.

MR. LESLIE: I offer a proxy.

THE PRESIDENT: Your credentials have been filed. That is quite a different matter. Those credentials will be passed upon.

MR. LESLIE: This is, a proxy in addition to that.

MR. CUTLER: I raise a point of order. No proxies should be used in a meeting of this kind. We come here as delegates representing clubs, and if we come here, we have. Whatever standing we have on this floor as delegates. No delegate has any right to delegate his authority to some one else. I raise that as a point of order and ask the Chairman to rule upon it.

THE PRESIDENT: If a proxy of that nature were presented, it would be no proxy.

MR. CUTLER: I understand this gentleman has just, offered a proxy. I raise a point of order that it is not valid in this meeting.

THE PRESIDENT: The proxy might be in the form of an authorization from a club to a person to represent it as a delegate.

MR. CUTLER: If it is, it must be filed, with the Secretary a certain number of days before this meeting, and be brought up to be acted upon. The word "proxy" has a perfectly plain meaning. It is not a credential. A credential filed with the Secretary can be brought up and be acted upon. My point is that it cannot be, and I ask a ruling on that point.

THE PRESIDENT: On such a hypothetical question, yes, that would not be a proxy.

MR. CUTLER: I do not think I make myself clear. If I am correct, it is not a hypothetical question. A gentleman has presented a proxy. I ask if it can be passed upon, whether it can be used. I raise the point that it cannot. There is no such thing as a proxy in this organization. No one can vote except as a delegate. I raise that point of order, and I think it is not a hypothetical question that is before the house now.

THE PRESIDENT: The proxy is not presented at the desk.

MR. MORRIS: It has been put on the desk.

MR. LESLIE: It will be made very clear if the Secretary will read it.

(Proxy read.)

THE SECRETARY: There is no seal on it.

MR. CUTLER: I now repeat my point of order.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair rules that that is not a valid proxy. There being no others to consider, the next order of business will be the election of delegates to ballot.

MR. CUTLER: I think the reading of the minutes of the last meeting would be proper if it is in the regular order of business.

THE PRESIDENT: Yes, you are quite right.

MR. CUTLER: I move that the Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting of incorporators and directors.

THE SECRETARY: The last meeting was a special meeting, of which I now read.
During the reading of the minutes, Dr. Osgood interrupted and said: I rise to a point of order. The point of order is that the constitution which was adopted by your incorporated club on the 5th day of November says that a quorum shall consist of twelve. The Secretary just read here that there were present at this special meeting but six members. Consequently there was not a quorum present, and I ask for a ruling of the Chair that this minutes be not read, as there was no quorum present at this meeting and no legal meeting held.

THE PRESIDENT: I should have to ask counsel to advise me before ruling on that point, but I understood this was a meeting of the incorporators, and I think under the law that that meeting of incorporators to transact business up to that moment is a meeting.

THE SECRETARY: This was the incorporated club that met.

THE PRESIDENT: I have asked Mr. Taylor here about it, and he concurs in my conception of it. These were the incorporators, and when they met there were six out eight. I thought they were all here.

MR. TAYLOR: The others waived.

THE PRESIDENT: They waived. That made that a perfectly legal meeting.
DR. OSGOOD: I take exception and still hold to my point of order that matters are out of order from this on. You called a meeting on November 5th of the directors which were elected from the members of the American Kennel Club at that time. That meeting was perfectly legal. At that meeting you adopted a constitution which required twelve for a quorum, and as there were only eight members of the American Kennel Club incorporated, you tied your hands as to the transaction of any further business when you passed that vote making a quorum twelve; and you did call a meeting after adopting that constitution on November 19th, at which there were only six members present, and I claim and ask you to rule that the business transacted at that meeting was illegal, as there was not a quorum present.

THE PRESIDENT: I cannot so rule.

DR. OSGOOD: I take an exception to the ruling of the Chair, and ask for the voice of the meeting. I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

THE PRESIDENT: It does not seem to me possible, even if you overrule the decision of the Chair, that you could invalidate a thing of that kind. That is for the Court. To rule at this meeting and declare there, was no meeting, and that no constitution exists, is something that is not within this club’s power to do.

MR. CUTLER: I understand the appeal is now before the house?

THE PRESIDENT: Yes. The question before the house is whether the decision of the Chair shall be sustained.

MR. CUTLER: May I address the delegates on that point?

THE PRESIDENT: Yes.

MR. CUTLER: I did not get Dr. Osgood's meaning very thoroughly, but the way I got it, as he stated it, was this: On the 5th day of November the members, the incorporators, or whatever you may call them, got together and organized a corporation and adopted a constitution, and one of the provisions which they adopted in that constitution was that a quorum should consist of twelve members. On the 19th of November they held a meeting at which there were only six members present. There were eight members in existence, and I understand the counsel to have stated that the other two members waived their rights to be present, but you will see that there being but eight members, and they having adopted a constitution which required twelve to make a quorum, any action which they might thereafter take would be null and void. The 19th of November came after the 5th of November, after the adoption of that constitution, and therefore whatever action they took at that meeting was null and void. When I made the motion that the minutes should be read, I referred to the minutes of this meeting, but Dr. Osgood raised the point, and so far as I can see, it is well taken, that that meeting was not a meeting, and it had no effect, therefore it is not the meeting the minutes of which should be read here. That is a simple proposition.

THE PRESIDENT: The vote of this club that its action was illegal declaring the same to be null and void, would have no effect.

MR. CUTLER: I understand the question of perhaps their legality, but, what the President means is a question for the court; but primarily every organization has a right to pass on its own records, and has a right to pass on the question of the legality of its own proceeding. The point before the house is on the question whether the Chair's ruling shall be sustained — was that meeting which took place on the 19th day of November a meeting within the meaning of the law of the American Kennel Club? Was it a legal valid meeting? We say no because it was only a meeting of six men when twelve were necessary to make a quorum.

THE PRESIDENT: I must ask before ruling on that as to what that representation was. I think there was in some manner a waiver of attorney.

MR. VITI: At that meeting the entire membership was present and the constitution could be adopted —

DR. OSGOOD: Mr. Chairman, I requested the floor to speak on the motion. I want to call the attention of the members to Section 5 of Article V of the Constitution, which reads: At any special or regular meeting of this club, twelve members shall constitute a quorum.” I want to read at the close of that meeting, dated November 5th, this: “On motion duly made and seconded, it was resolved that the constitution as submitted be adopted as the constitution of the club, and that a copy of such constitution so adopted be annexed by the Secretary to the minutes of this meeting.”

THE PRESIDENT: I will explain this. This seems to be a question raised which, on its face, must be absurd because under those circumstances the club would cease to have any existence. That is impossible.

DR. OSGOOD: That is what we claim.

THE PRESIDENT: No, that is impossible. There was a waiver of notice of this meeting as well. All the members were there present that could be, and the waiver of notice makes their action perfectly legal so far as their associates were concerned. All of the members of the club, as it existed at that time, were present, and had that not been the case they could not have transacted any business at any time, because they then could not have had a quorum to fill the vacancies under the constitution and elect thirty members of the Board.

MR. CUTLER: I want to place myself on record in this matter. I do not wish to appear as an obstructionist. I want things to go on smoothly. I appreciate that there are some lawyers here who have been following this matter. You adopted a constitution. That constitution said that twelve members should constitute a quorum, but there were not but eight members present. It was their misfortune; they should not have adopted any such constitution. If they did that act, they put themselves out of existence. I understand, although I am not a New York lawyer, I have looked up the New York law when I discovered that I was no longer a member of the club — looked up the New York law a little bit and looked up what is known as the Membership Corporation Law of New York. I do not call myself much of an expert, but I found that the law of New York, if I am correct in my reading, says: "Every quorum of a corporation organized under the membership law must constitute two-thirds of the entire membership, or at least nine — nine members any way. So I think under the law -- but I do not lay great stress on that -- the constitution which they say they adopted themselves put them out of existence, and they had no power to hold a legal meeting. That is the point which I wish to raise.

DR. OSGOOD: I call for the question on the appeal from the decision of the Chair.

MR. STEVENSON: There being only eight members of the American Kennel Club incorporated present that day at this meeting, and all being represented by signing a waiver, are not those members who became members afterwards estopped from raising this question as a proposition of law? My belief is that any club which is represented here to-day which was not a member of the American Kennel Club on the date of this meeting is estopped from endeavoring to attack the validity of that which was done at that meeting.

DR. OSGOOD: I would like to state that it was impossible for them to elect any further members after they had adopted that constitution requiring twelve members to be present, because they could not furnish a quorum.
thereafter to conduct legal business.

THE PRESIDENT: I must act on this question according to my best light. This point was, according to the ruling of the Chair, not well taken, and I must rule that that meeting was legal, and that as a matter of law you are estopped from reviewing this question.

MR. CUTLER: I understood the house was to decide on the appeal. I ask that a vote be taken on that appeal.

TEE PRESIDENT: There is not any appeal on that subject. I declared that out of order.

MR. CUTLER: What I was talking about was the appeal which Dr. Osgood made from the decision which the Chair has already made.

THE PRESIDENT: If the Chair decides on a question of law, there is no appeal on that interpretation of it.

DR. OSGOOD: As an appeal from the decision of the Chair in all parliamentary bodies, we have the right to demand that you put it to the vote of this meeting.

(Cries of question).

THE PRESIDENT: I decline to put the motion. I am so advised by counsel, and I act under that advice. I do not propose to put a motion which I am advised by counsel.
should not be put. My decision is final on that subject.

DR. OSGOOD: Then as the originator of that appeal, I call upon the next officer, the Vice-President of the club, or in Ms absence, the next officer, to put the motion on the appeal, which the constitution requires the officer to put to this body.

MR. CUTLER: I asked you, Mr. Chairman, when I got up to talk, if the question before the house was not a proper one, that the decision of the Chair should he sustained, and the Chair answered me that it was; and I asked you if I might address myself to that question, and I proceeded to address myself to that question, and I certainly understood, and I think everybody here understood, that that question was before the house, and if you have already put it to the house, there is but one more thing to do, take a rote upon it. You have ruled that it goes to the house already. We ought not to stay here — I believe in all frankness we ought not to take the ground here that the Chair has a right arbitrarily to decide against the majority of the members. I have been in town meetings before now, and the moderator of a town meeting is supposed to be about as arbitrary as anybody can be, but it is always recognized that the majority in town meetings has always an appeal from the moderator.

THE PRESIDENT: The proper question, as I understand it, is that the gentleman from Massachusetts has no right to raise this question. He is estopped from doing so. That is what I have been advised by counsel. Therefore, the motion could not, while it has been considered, ought not to have been made.

MR. CUTLER: You put it on the doctrine of estoppel that I have not any right to come here and appeal and address myself upon a motion which calls in question the validity of the records of a previous meeting of this club because at some meeting of those gentlemen who got together in this meeting saw fit to say that my club might become a member. Am I estopped? I came here for the purpose of raising this point: I have not estopped myself and my club has not estopped itself. On the doctrine of estoppel nothing has been done. I came here at the first opportunity in behalf of my club to raise that point. My club has not estopped itself.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: If I understand the matter correctly, it was not a meeting that required twelve to make a quorum; it was a meeting that of the incorporators, later directors, and the by-laws provide that a quorum of directors shall be made up of one-third of the directors. Six of these were present. It was not a meeting of the club.

DR. OSGOOD: The minutes of the meeting say it was a meeting of the club --- “Special meeting of the American Kennel Club Incorporated.” That is why we take exception. It was not a meeting of the incorporators, directors, or anything else; it was a meeting of the American Kennel Club Incorporated. The Secretary just read it.

MR. WILLETS: I submit that if the gentlemen takes that view that that was no meeting at all, then none of us were elected and have no business here. None of use have any business here if his point is correct. I do not say that it is correct.

MR. MC GUIRE: There is a grave question as to the correctness of the point; I think we are all entitled to our private interpretation of what that meant. I think the fairest way and the nicest way, in the light that we pose, at least as sportsmen, is to let the majority decided. We have heard some talk of the courts and that sort of thing, as to what the court might or might not do. Why take that view? I think we, the American Kennel Club – we are altogether wrong. We ought to decide for ourselves with the court’s interpretation or anybody else’s. We want our own interpretation.
THE PRESIDENT: I think, that is certainly a very excellent way of looking at it, but if you will just consider for a moment, the American Kennel Club was started some 22 or 23 years ago, having a very small beginning as an association, and as the result of very hard work it became successful and its influence very widespread. It accumulated in its treasury gradually a large sum of money, and it became necessary for it to be incorporated. That everybody admitted. Steps were taken to that end with every desire to do what was right. Now, if this meeting decides and declares that an action which was taken under advice of counsel is invalid, and it is stated as the legal consequence that such was not the case, I submit then that you will have to disband, simply leave this meeting and take no action whatever, because if that is the case, then it is quite true that nothing can be done. The question of the validity of the action taken will naturally have to stand until you gentlemen can call it in question. The club incorporated will have to proceed. Its directors are responsible for it, and then you will not have the opportunity to perhaps carry out some of the steps which you propose to do, for should it be declared that the action is invalid you have got to go all through this again.

MR. MC GUIRE: I believe we have listened most attentively, and I should not take the floor on this proposition, thinking I would be out of order, were it not for the statement made by the President. We all believe what you have said, Mr. Belmont. We have the greatest respect for the gentleman who originally organized the American Kennel Club. In saying that we are going to disregard entirely those who incorporated it, we are going, if we can, their methods, we are going to go back to where we were exactly, as you suggested, and we are going to do it right — going to do it over again in the open without a single star chamber proceeding. That is what we want; that is the purpose of our motions here. There could be a lot more said on that subject, but I don't think it would serve the purpose of this meeting to do it. We know how this incorporation was brought about; we know how it was done. Here is a majority of the American Kennel Club. Put a vote to them and ask them if they approve of it. Why don't they approve of it? Because they did not think it was right. Mr. Belmont, you recall at the last annual meeting our then Vice-president, Mr. Hunnewell, of whom we were all very fond, and I believe we are all now, paid you a very glowing tribute, in which the whole club joined. We believe you, Mr. Belmont, have done more for the American Kennel Club than any other one interest which has entered into it, and we are surprised — terribly surprised that you should choose to use this method of incorporation. There was no necessity for it. Tell us, Mr. Chairman, if you will, what was the necessity of making this incorporation a star chamber proceeding? Why was it done? Why was not the proposed constitution of the proposed incorporated club published in the unincorporated Kennel Gazette?

THE PRESIDENT: Your remarks in that respect are not addressed to the question before the meeting. You are digressing as to that.

MR. MCGUIRE: My dear Mr. Belmont, I should not have taken the liberty to do that, but I think you paved the way. I do not think I have digressed any further in my remarks as to some features of this proposition than you have in yours, not in the least.

THE PRESIDENT: I only wanted to call attention to what the action will result in. It will not necessarily result in what you think will take place.

MR. MCGUIRE: And I want to call attention to the fact that that is the result the majority desire. That, I think, is what they want; exactly that.
THE PRESIDENT: I will take very great pleasure, if this meeting would permit, to take the floor and explain to you my position, but I don’t think that is necessary.

MR. CUTLER: I want to say one word more. I have been at several meetings before, and there are gentlemen who know that I try at least to stand for what I believe is right. I may differ from the gentlemen, but I have always said what I meant in open meeting, and when I have met those gentlemen out of the meeting, I have been just as friendly as I was before. I have said what I said with a purpose in mind, and my purpose was the quicker was invalidated the proceedings of that meeting the better it was and the quicker we could get back to just where we were and begin over again, because I believe and I made it my business to find out what the sentiment throughout the country is, and I believe that the dog world is not satisfied with this constitution and with this organization as it purports to exist to-day. I do not think it was legally organized, and if it was not, let us wipe it out of existence and begin just where we were. The old club is in existence to-day; it has never ceased to be in existence. Let us go on under the old club until we can better ourselves and then make a constitution which will not be any worse than the old one, and which, above all things, will represent the dog fancier of America. That is all I want. There are different ways of accomplishing a purpose; but the only purpose I had in mind, and the only purpose I have in mind here now, is to brush out in the easiest possible way the whole corporation, and if we can do it by saying it is illegal and void, let us do it that way and begin over again and organize a corporation that will please the people who represent the dog, and I think this meeting here to-day is a testimony of what I am saying; the fact that all these people have come from all over this country to be represented and to remonstrate against this corporation and this constitution is more eloquent than anything I could say or try to say; and when we are trying to vote and the Chair is not going to let us vote to run our own affairs, the question which is already before us, and which in all fairness and justice should be before us to decide. If we are members of this club, we should certainly have a right to vote in it. If we are not, and I agree with the gentleman over there -- probably we are not -- the sooner we are out of it and the quicker we get our hat and coat and separate, the better, and say to our managers, "Gentlemen, we have confidence you, but give us something better next time. THE PRESIDENT: Gentlemen, I want to act perfectly fairly. That has been my object since these questions have been raised, and with a view to that, I think the action taken with regard to the rules and with regard to any vacancies it proper. I am advised that is that position I should take. I am advised that in the position I should take. I have sent for my personal counsel, and I wish before ruling definitely as to that, you would permit me to consult him. I am representing here the presidency of an incorporated organization.

MR. CUTLER: I do not want to interrupt. Ought we to resolve this thing into a quibble between lawyers? I am just as proud of my profession as anybody else, but I may be wrong and the other lawyer may be right, and vice-versa. We are here as sportsmen.

THE PRESIDENT: You have raised a question which is a legal quibble, and therefore I must be very sure as to the ruling in regard to it.

MR. SINGLETON VAN SCHAICK: May I ask why the opposition did not appear originally when the proposition was first before the house and make its objection?

MR. CUTLER: I was in the hospital at that time having an operation performed. I could not come, and the first opportunity I got I came here, and I am here.
now saying what I want to say right here.

DR. OSGOOD: It is not a matter that would appeal to legal opinion on the outside, or your personal adviser. We appeal to what you say is your own constitution. If the other does not exist we appeal to your constitution, the unincorporated American Kennel Club. We appeal under either one of those constitutions and ask that our rights be protected by the gentlemen whom we have placed, in office to protect our rights.

THE PRESIDENT: There is no meeting here of the unincorporated American Kennel Club.

DR. OSGOOD: Then under the incorporated, let us proceed.

THE PRESIDENT: There is one under the incorporated.

DR. OSGOOD: If that meeting was legal, you put us right into the incorporated club, and we trusted our interests to your care, and we ask you to protect them.

THE PRESIDENT: They shall be.

DR. OSGOOD: Give us our vote.

THE PRESIDENT: They shall be protected. I ask your indulgence as to that until I am assured to put question. Here I am told that you are estopped from raising it. Whether the Chair stated he would consider it or not, I find that to be the case, and am so advised. I would have to do so. That would be my duty perhaps for your best interests. It may be much more important for me to protect this club from disruption than to satisfy the desire of certain members who want their individual views accepted and adopted.

MR. MCGUIRE: If there is some question as to the legality as to putting the motion to the house, and I presume that is what you are waiting for, I should say that we are here members of the Incorporated Kennel Club. Do I understand that to be the view which the Chair takes of the matter?

THE PRESIDENT: Yes.

MR. MCGUIRE: We are all here as members of the Incorporated American Kennel Club. May I ask if the Chair would rule upon the point whether it would be possible for this meeting, or a majority of this meeting to appoint a committee to take such legal steps as they deem necessary to dissolve the corporation?

THE PRESIDENT: I could not tell what steps would have to be taken. I presume a committee could be appointed to report as to methods to be adopted. I see no reason why they should not appoint a committee to ascertain what steps could be taken, if any.

MR. MC GUIRE: The steps to be taken, especially what, are the proper steps to be taken by law; bout the committee will be appointed for the purpose of seeing that those steps are taken with, instructions to seeing to it that those steps were taken.

THE PRESIDENT: I should think not. It would be very much more satisfactory to me if you would take a short recess and allow me to consult counsel with regard to it, because I want to do what is right, and I want to do thoroughly what is my duty legally.

MR. MORRIS: I move we take a recess while Mr. Belmont consults counsel.

MR. MC GUIRE: Don't you think it would be rather a good scheme, while we are waiting for counsel to arrive, to get frankly together and discuss informally the ideas of the different delegates with regard to this incorporation? Adjourn the meeting for that purpose. Let that be in the nature of a recess, if necessary.

THE PRESIDENT: That we talk informally? I think that would be an excellent thing.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Certain delegates here are taking up a great deal of the time, and we do not know whether they are in the majority or not. We are wasting time in listening to a few gentlemen who may not have any public right here as yet,

THE PRESIDENT: I am trying to submit, in answer to Mr. Muss-Arnolt's suggestion, that the question as to how many are of the opinion of Dr. Osgood, whether there be 5 or 55 or 155, has no influence upon the Chair whatever. If I was absolutely sure that you could not muster 5 votes on that subject it would not change my ruling to put that question, either nightly or wrongly, or refuse to put it. It is not with the view of gaining time, or to do anything of that kind; it is because I want to put the question whether I ought to, and not, if I should not.

MB. MCGUIRE: It seems too bad that you should feel it was necessary to make any explanation of that kind. Surely we all know that, and we all believe it. I am really sorry that you have felt the necessity of saying that.

THE PRESIDENT: Gentlemen, I was prompted to say that from the fact that you raised the question as to the reliability of our stenographer.

MR. MCGUIRE: No. That was your interpretation of the motion. Only the accuracy was in question, not the reliability.

MR. MORRIS: I made a motion for a recess.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I second the motion.

THE PRESIDENT: Is it agreeable to you gentlemen to have a recess?

A DELEGATE: What is the motion?

THE PRESIDENT: There is a motion before the house which I refused to put.

MR. McGuire: Is Dr. Osgood's motion before the house?

DR. OSPGOOD: I appealed from the decision of the Chair, and I think that takes precedence over all other business.

THE PRESIDENT: You have, and I have refused to put that motion on a certain ground, and am waiting for an opinion whether my action taken is proper or not. If these gentlemen would like to discuss these matters, perhaps if you took a short recess it would be helpful.

MR. MC GUIRE: There is no objection to your discussing with counsel at length. It is not necessary for that purpose to take a recess. I suggest that you discuss with counsel at length, in the event that you wish to, right here.

THE PRESIDENT: (Addressing Mr. Auerbach) his counsel):
The point taken is that under the call for the second meeting, the first meeting having adopted a constitution requiring twelve members to be a quorum, under the call for the second meeting not having more than eight members, that they were estopped from taking any action at all, and therefore all they did at that meeting was invalid, and under the constitution they could not proceed, and consequently, from that fact, the corporation was practically dead.

DR. OSGOOD: I think the question to leave to your attorney is as to whether it is your duty to put my appeal to the decision of the Chair, under the constitutional right under which we are working to-day. It is not a matter for the courts.

THE PRESIDENT: The question on which I ruled, the question is the one which I am stating to counsel, and you took an appeal from that and I refused to put the question because I was advised that you were estopped from calling the action of the club in question.

DR. OSGOOD: Whether the position of the Chair is sustained or not is the question.

MR. AUERBACH: These gentlemen are here, if I understand properly, by reason of what was done at this meeting, the legality of which they call in question now; they are here by reason of that meeting which was held?

DR. OSGOOD: We are here to call in question the legality of this meeting and the meeting previous to it.

MR. AUERBACH: The question is, who are you that calls it in question. Are you not in existence to call it in question by reason of this meeting, the legality of which you dispute?

DR. OSGOOD: Put that once more.

MR. AUERBACH: You are here as a delegate or are you here by reason of this meeting, the legality of which you are protesting against?

DR. OSGOOD: I do not think I need to go into any argument. I am simply asking for my rights under parliamentary rules, after a motion has been made.

DR. AUERBACH: Your rights arise out of your election to be at this meeting. Is that correct?

MR. MC GUIRE: Have we any right to be here for the purpose of protecting the legality of that meeting and the legality of the corporation?

MR. AUERBACH: I think you have got to be here either represented or corporate. You cannot take the position that you are here as members and then call into question the propriety of the meeting upon which you must stand to be here as a delegate at all. It is a matter of business and a matter of good sense. You are here to protest. You are here to protest. You are here to do all sorts of things as members of this organization. How can you question your right to be here and yet insist upon being heard?

DR. OSGOOD: I will answer that. The position was taken by a number of us that at the meeting of November 19th there was no need for us to be there. We found out that in the absence of the delegates which represent clubs, the incorporators of the new club took action and claim now they have taken legally all the property that belonged to us as the American Kennel Club unincorporated. This American Kennel Club so-called incorporated, called a, meeting to-day after electing us as members. We come here to protest against their taking any action under the plan of incorporation.

MR. AUERBACH: Involved in that protest must be a protest against your being made a member of that organization.

DR. OSGOOD: I asked the Chair to rule, to put the motion under parliamentary law, which I asked for. The appeal is on the decision of the Chair.

MR. WILLSTS: Do you claim you have a right to come here and ask questions of the Chair?

DR. OSGOOD: Yes.

THE PRESIDENT: It is just the point the Chair is taking, that I am advised under those circumstances that you have no right to call it in question.

DR. OSGOOD: Have you a right to occupy the Chair? If you have a right to occupy the chair at this meeting, I have a right to put questions to you. We are both in the same position.

THE PRESIDENT: I think not. I think, you have no right to address this meeting on a question if you take the position you do; that is to say, there is no existence at all —

DR. OSGOOD: If you are a member of the American Kennel Club Incorporated, I am.

THE PRESIDENT: You say you are not.

DR. OSGOOD: I do not say I am not. I do not commit myself either way.

MR. WILLETS: I simply asked if he claimed to have a right to come here and raise any question or vote on any question.

DR. OSGOOD: I am not here under cross-examination.

MR. MILLETS: If Mr. Osgood does claim that he was elected at the meeting which he is now calling in question, and he claims that was an illegal meeting, why he has no standing in the premises.

MR. CUTLER: I came here, and I suppose everybody came here, because they got a postal card from Mr. Vredenburgh asking us to come here. This is an argument which I think will not appeal to the reason. If this had been a writ, or a summons into court, I could not have stayed away because I would have been in default; I would have had to go to court and raise the point. Even if the court had no jurisdiction, or that I was not properly summoned, or that I was not the person intended, I would go there for the purpose of raising that point, would enter an appearance; that is what we call it as lawyers. I came in answer to a summons; I came here at the first opportunity which was given to me. I raised the objection in order that I might not have it said by sitting here and taking part in this meeting I estopped myself from raising the point. The very first opportunity that I had to raise that point I raised it; that I was properly here, and I have said before you came in that it was my duty and the other members’ duty to come here, and if they had no rights here to take their hats and go out of that door. We are not here in any sense except as a company of gentlemen, not an incor-
MR. STEVENSON: Perhaps the only way to an answer that is by reference to the records of the American Kennel Club Incorporated. This, as I understand it, is not a meeting of gentlemen, is not a meeting of the American Kennel Club Incorporated, nor is it a town meeting. It is a meeting of the American Kennel Club Incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, where, I presume, the State of New York has statutes covering the management of corporations. We have our by-laws adopted in accordance with those laws; they have regulations for becoming members. What do those records show? I do not know the gentleman that just spoke; I do not know what clubs they represent, but do the records show that their clubs are members of the American Kennel Club Incorporated? If they are, I think they are here and have a right to speak; if they are not, they have not a right to speak. If they are here as members of the American Kennel Club Incorporated, I think they are bound by the action which the American Kennel Club Incorporators took at the meeting referred to.

MR. MC GUIRE: I think we are obtaining a great deal of legal knowledge here. Here you have a lot of unnecessary quibbling upon the illegality or advisability of the Chairman putting this motion, but I should say that if the Chairman desists in his arbitrary ruling that he will not put the motion before the house, then I should ask Dr.
Osgood to withdraw his motion to appeal from the decision of the Chair. I do not think,
Mr. Belmont, that it is quite within the conception of really fair play, without regard to the legal standing of the question in troubles of this kind, to quibble over technicalities.

THE PRESIDENT: I am not here to exercise my preference, I am here to do my duty as I understand it. I am not catering to any question at all of either friendship or consideration, or sportsmanlike feeling, or anything of that kind. My duty is to preside at this meeting and do what I think is proper. I have not refused finally to do this; I ask for the advice of counsel, because it occurred to me that I should not put the question inasmuch as it was a question I believed I had not a right, as Chairman to definitely decide. Otherwise declarations that these minutes were out of order would be that this meeting would have to adjourn. I am perfectly willing if counsel tells me that I should put the same, to do so, and then re-convening for those who consider themselves as members of the American Kennel Club.
Incorporated, provided they constitute a quorum and go with the meeting.

MR. MC GUIRE: May I ask are you now prepared to rule on the question before the house, or have you ruled, or will you rule on it?

THE PRESIDENT: I will ask the stenographer to read the original motion which I rules out of order, from which an appeal was taken.

THE PRESIDENT: I think we will get a clear understanding of this, because you are assembled here and apparently satisfied that you are members of the American Kennel Club. It was moved, seconded and carried that the minutes should be read, and then Dr. Osgood arise to a point of order saying that the minutes should not be read, as they were not the minutes of the valid meeting, and his words were: “I rise to a point of order. The point of order is that the constitution which was adopted by your incorporated club on the 5th day of November says that a quorum shall consist of twelve. The Secretary has just read here that there were present at this special meeting but six members. Consequently there was not a quorum present, and I ask for the ruling of the Chair that these minutes be not read, as there was no quorum present at this meeting and no legal meeting held. The Chair ruled that that point was not well taken, and then an exception to the Chair’s ruling was taken, and I allowed the motion to be debated with a view of putting it until it was made clear to me that that was not a question that this meeting should pass upon. This second meeting was a meeting of the incorporators who adopted the constitution, and they met and proceeded with their organization, as here related. If such action as that was irregular, why their corporate existence would have been brought to an end, which was impossible. That could not be done. They must have had some powers left. I have been in any number of companies that have incorporated that way, meaning that the incorporators selected a Board of Directors to perform all functions until they made the organization complete. That is the way I understood it, and that is why I ruled that way. If I can be shown that was wrong, I would be glad to change my ruling.

DR. OSGOOD: I quite agree that all the action which the incorporators took under the waiver of notice, and so forth, up to the time of the organization was perfectly legal and legitimate, but where I draw the line is, after you organized and adopted a constitution which says distinctly that a quorum shall consist of twelve, then I do not see how you can hold a legal meeting with six members afterwards. Up to that time when you were the sole members of the club and the incorporators were acting according to a constitution that forbade you to hold a meeting with less than twelve, it was a different matter.

THE PRESIDENT: I will ask Mr. Auerbach to explain it.

MR. AUERBACH: Have you this Gazette before you, Dr. Osgood?

MR. MC GUIRE: No, the doctor has not

(Dr. Osgood was provided with such Gazette.)

MR. AUERBACH: Will you turn to page 1039 of the American Kennel Gazette?

DR. OSGOOD: For what purpose, of arguing this out?

MR. AUERBACH: No, I was going to call your attention to certain things.

DR. OSGOOD: As I understand, Mr. Belmont, in addressing the meeting, he had sent for you to advise him?

MR. AUERBACH: I did not think so.

THE PRESIDENT: You probably did not hear me ask the privilege just now, when the question was raised; I asked the privilege of asking Mr. Auerbach to explain that.

MR. MC GUIRE: The question is the ruling of the Chair on the motion. That is the question before the house, and I think we are having a discussion on other phases of it, to satisfy us that we are all wrong and somebody else is right. The question is the ruling of the Chair and that is what I call for.

MR. HOOLEY: Don’t you think some other people have a right to say anything? It seems to me you have monopolized a great deal of time. We are perfectly willing to listen to you and to listen to our friend from Boston, or from anywhere else; but it does seem to me that we have some rights, and when the counsel very kindly makes a suggestion which might enlighten you and enlighten us, I think we have the right to hear it.

MR. MC GUIRE: I did not mean purposely to trespass on your time at all.

MR. HOOLEY: You seem to do a good deal of the talking.

MR. MC GUIRE: You just told me you would listen to me, and you are not listening to me.

(Cries of order.)
MR. MC GUIRE: Now the question is on the ruling of the Chair.

THE PRESIDENT: I think this is too serious a question not to ask again the privilege of having Mr. Auerbach explain, my personal counsel, the position which I have taken here. Mr. Mc Guire is constantly appealing to me on the question of fair play, and I want to give it to you, but you are trying to push me into putting a question which I am told this meeting is not competent to decide, and that is the question of legality. If you gentlemen want to listen to Mr. Auerbach — and I say really I want to put the question — if you will listen to him I will be very glad to put the question of sustaining my position and my ruling to you. Otherwise, if it is a matter of interpreting the legality of this, I am advised you are not competent to pass upon it.

DR. OSGOOD: We are perfectly ready to listen to Mr. Auerbach if it is your desire that he should be heard.

THE PRESIDENT: I shall be deeply indebted to you if you will.

MR. AUERBACH: I address myself particularly to you, Dr. Osgood, and to Mr. Mc Guire really, for I hope to deliver to you what you are in search of, that is, your information. On this question that has been presented to me, it is quite clear that you are in error, and the proposed course that the Chairman should take is not only the correct one, but the only defensible one to take. It is not a question for a joint meeting to determine the legality of this organization. Why, for a joint meeting to determine the position which you occupy here, as members or not of this organization, that is a technical ruling, but Mr. Belmont does not wish to rest it there alone, and has asked me to make an explanation, a statement which is explanatory of his ruling. If you will turn to page 1039 of the Gazette, I think all your solicitude about this question will be cleared up. I will read it:

"Section 5: At any special or regular meeting of this club twelve members shall constitute a quorum." You understand how this organization came into being, and you understand at this meeting that all the incorporators of the club were present, or they had waived notice of the meeting that was called. In order to bring the constitution into existence, so far as Section 5 was concerned, you must read the previous clause. You do not want to take a text and rip it out of its context and think you understand it. It says "upon organization". Upon organization of whom?
Of the incorporators — "the club shall elect as members all of the members of the American Kennel Club (unincorporated) and accept as delegates the delegates of said clubs whose credentials are now on file and as associate subscribers all persons who are now associate members thereof, as they shall then appear on the books of that association, and accept their several delegates as delegates to this club, such delegates to act as such until the next annual meeting of the club or their successors are elected." The method of qualifying members was there set forth. These gentlemen meet and at the meeting which takes place you then become qualified members of this organization, and you are now here qualified by this second meeting, at which all the incorporators were present or authorized that meeting of which they waived notice. How can there be any question, not only as to the legality, the necessity of it, but as to the fairness of it? How can there be any question about it in view of this clause? Of course if you disregard it and read Section 5 out of its context, the only thing that explains it, you see only that, but when you read the two things you will see that it is according to the spirit of the constitution.

DR. OSGOOD: The way it strikes me is that this clause was put in giving the incorporators the right, making all business legal, and would permit the incorporators to transact business, being all members of the American Kennel Club — we recognize that they did that all legally and properly up to the time that they adopted — at the close of this meeting that they adopted a constitution which prevented them every future time doing it in that way any more. I do not think you get exactly our point. Our point is not as to the legality of anything. We want it one way or the other, whether it is right or wrong. I asked the Chair to rule that the Secretary was out of order on the ground that he was reading the minutes of the a meeting which was held in direct opposition to the laws as laid down in the constitution, and that constitution did say that there must be twelve present to constitute a quorum, and I called the attention of Mr. Belmont, the Chairman, to the fact that there were only six present, and asked him to rule that, that was not a good and sufficient meeting, and I asked him to so rule. He decided that it was — that my point was not well taken, and he ruled against me; whereupon I, as every member of any organization, objected, and said I had a right under parliamentary law to question the ruling of the Chair; and I appealed to the meeting whether they
MR. AUERBACH: I am sure it would help all these gentlemen --

DR. OSGOOD: You are interrupting me. I have the floor. To resume from where I left off, it is simply on the question of whether Mr. Belmont in parliamentary law should put the question to vote; that is my appeal from his decision will the body here sustain the Chair in its action in declaring me out of order.

MR. AUERBACH: As I said before, the vote of this organization would not have anything to do with the propriety --

DR. OSGOOD: That does not matter.

MR. AUERBACH: I tried to call your attention to what the record is before you. If you will turn to page 1041 you will see what these organizers did: “On motion, duly made and seconded, it was resolved, to proceed to the election of all the members of the American Kennel Club (unincorporated), as members of this club, and to the acceptance of their delegates as delegates to this club” —

DR. OSGOOD: We are not discussing the meeting of the Board of Directors which you are reading. When the minutes of that meeting are called up to be read we will, discuss that question.

MR. AUERBACH: Let me finish. (Reading) "As delegates to this club, and to the election as associate subscribers to this club all the persons now associate members of said unincorporated club, and to the acceptance of their delegates as delegates to this club." So that you come here by virtue of the action taken by the Board of Directors at that meeting. Automatically the constitution did not execute this. There were eight members in existence of this club, who had been the incorporators of it, who preceded it, obeyed the mandate of the constitution and did elect those members into the club. Thereafter, when the other provisions of the constitution had been complied with, then no meeting could be held except in accordance with the constitution.

DR. OSGOOD: It strikes me that through some oversight by somebody they practically legislated themselves out of all powers in the future. But as to the minutes which you have just read, they have nothing to do with the minutes which we were just discussing. The minutes you read are of a directors' meeting held later.

THE PRESIDENT: If your position is sustained, the whole property and the whole of the American Kennel Club is vested then in three incorporators.

DR. OSGOOD: That is all right; we know you are perfectly responsible.

THE PRESIDENT: And they are under no obligation whatsoever to give that property back.

DR. OSGOOD: The question might arise as to the legality of that transfer.

MR. AUERBACH: You might just as well vote as to whether there has been a legal transfer of this property as to vote on the other question.

THE PRESIDENT: The point is not on the question of deciding a question of law, but I am perfectly willing to put the vote on appealing from my decision as a question of opinion as to the legality of that, but the meeting will go on.

MR. VITI: I move that Dr. Osgood’s point of order be stricken from the minutes for the reason that there was no pending motion before the meeting. A motion has been made that the minutes be not read, and that was seconded and carried. There being no pending motion before the house, the Chair was not obliged to entertain an interruption.

THE PRESIDENT: This is an appeal from the Chair.
This is not on the question of legality, because that you are not competent to decide.

Are you ready for the question?

The roll was then called, and the Chair was sustained a vote of 39 ayes to 27 noes.

The roll call is as follows:

NOES.

THE PRESIDENT: We have ventilated that subject, and I am very sorry that we have occupied so much time with it; but the next business in order is the election of delegates upon credentials.

MR. MORRIS: I move that the reading of the balance of the minutes be dispensed with and that they be accepted as published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded.

Upon the motion being put to a vive voce vote, the President declared that it had been passed.

Dr. Osgood asked for a roll call.

DR. OSGOOD: I withdraw my request for a roll call with the consent of those present, and accept them as passed. Shall we vote on the acceptance of those minutes as published in the Gazette?

It was moved and seconded that the minutes be accepted as published in the Gazette.

Carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have here the credentials of seventeen delegates to represent clubs.

The President appointed Messrs. Mc Guire and Van Schaick as tellers to take and count the vote on the credentials.

THE PRESIDENT: I think we would save time if we balloted for the delegates and proceeded with the next business in order, which is on the question of the amendments to the constitution.

MR. MORRIS: I will move that while we are taking this vote we proceed with the regular orders of business.

THE PRESIDENT: The voting would be very much expedited if those gentlemen who were not delegates, but who have their credentials to be acted upon, would leave the room. I have been requested to so state because the tellers cannot circulate well, and we have lost a great deal of time. I mean those who are not delegates and who have not credentials to be acted upon.

MR. MORRIS: I move we proceed with the regular order of business.

THE PRESIDENT: If there is no objection we can do it. If there is no objection we could proceed during the balloting to the consideration of the amendments to the constitution.

MR. VITI: Why not suspend the order of business and take up these reports and get through with them?

MR. MC GUIRE: I am perfectly willing to do anything of that kind except for the suggestion made by Mr. Muss-Arnolt that there might be a close vote on one of these amendments.

MR. VITI: Let us take a vote on the delegates who are in the room. Let us take a vote on those who are in the room and can vote.

MR. MC GUIRE: I think that would help matters very much.

THE PRESIDENT: If there is no objection taken we can proceed to the reading of the report of the committees and get through with them while we are balloting. The Secretary will please read the report. The tellers will continue balloting for the delegates.

The Secretary then read the certificate of election, which is as follows:
New York, February 6, 1907.

To the American Kennel Club, (INC)

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, in accordance with Article XII, Section V, of the Constitution, met this day at the office of the American Kennel Club (INC), for the purpose of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club (INC), for the officers and delegates of the Associate Subscribers of said Club, to hold office for the term of one year from this date or until their successors be elected.

We found the total number of Associate Subscribers entitled to vote to be 364.

Total number of votes cast  202
Total number of votes scattering, 91
Total number of irregular votes and thrown out, 5

We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greater number of votes to be duly elected as officers and delegates of the Associate Subscribers for the year ending February, 1908, to wit:
President H. K. Bloodgood
Vice-president W. C. Codman
Secretary C. W. Keyes

Delegates
(1) W. G. Rockefeller
(2) Dwight Moore
(3) A.G. Hooley
(4) Moses Taylor
(5) W.J. Berg
(6) B.S. Smith
(7) W. Rutherford

(Signed) Joseph. M. Dale,
Representing the President American Kennel Club (INC)

H. K. Bloodgood

President of the Associate Subscribers.

(Attest) A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary of the American Kennel Club (INC)

The Secretary then read the annual report in compliance with the Membership Corporation Law. The same is as follows:

"Gentlemen:

Pursuant to Section XI, of the Membership Corporation Law, we beg to report the Financial Statement for the year 1906 of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB and the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB (INC.). We also beg to report the admission of the following clubs to membership, to wit:-

ANTHRACITE KENNEL CLUB,
BERGEN COUNTY KENNEL CLUB,
BLOOMINGTON KENNEL CLUB,
CHESAPEAKE KENNEL CLUB,
CONEMAUGH VALLEY KENNEL CLUB
DAYTON KENNEL CLUB,
NORTH JERSEY KENNEL CLUB,
SHEEPSHEAD BAY KENNEL CLUB
WESTCHESTER KENNEL CLUB.

Respectfully submitted,

August Belmont,

President

A. P. Vredenburgh.

SECRETARY- TREASURER,

THE PRESIDENT: Unless it is desired, the reading of file financial statement will be omitted. It is only a lot of detail. These accounts have been examined by the finance committee and duly signed by them.

The Secretary then read his report, which is as follows:
SECRETARY’S REPORT.

NEW YORK, 13, 1907.

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB (INC)

Gentlemen:-

I have the honor to present this my regular quarterly report. I have referred one application for membership and Credentials from seventeen (17) clubs appointing Delegates, to the Membership Committee, which will report its recommendation at this meeting.

I have referred all claims for the registrations of kennel names, and transfers of same to the Stud Book Committee which will submit its report for your consideration.

I beg to report the resignation of the Gordon Setter Club of America, and the Tedesco Kennel Club, and would recommend the acceptance of same.

I will also present the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of December, 1906, of January 28th, 1907 and of February 6th, 1907, also a bill from said Committee for disbursements from Dec. 15th, 1906, to Feb. 4th, 1907, amounting to $26.60. I would respectfully recommend the payment of said bill.
Pursuant to a resolution at our December meeting I communicated with the Interstate Commerce Committee on the subject of its control over express rates, and in reply the Secretary of said Commission sent to this office a copy of the Act to regulate Commerce as amended to date and advises me that Express Companies are subject to the provision of the Act.

The following charges have been preferred and should he referred to the Executive Committee.

Jacob Dugro vs. Dorchester Kennels A. Nolan vs. Wilson Bernard

The following cases should be referred to the Stud Book Committee:

J. J. Dutra vs. A. S. Foutes T. W. Bartels vs. Cox
Wm. Blackburne vs. Mrs. Koerlin

The following case should be referred to the Pacific Advisory Committee:

M

J. Palin vs Mrs. L. C. Phipps

I also present appeals for reinstatement to good standing from G. R. Preston Jr., W. J. Gram, and Shirley Marston. These cases should be referred to the Executive Committee.

The Fancies’ Association of Indiana filed a notice of the suspension by its Bench Show Committee of L. Klein, for misconduct at and during its show Feb. 5th-3th, 1907, at Indianapolis, Ind. Under the rules the suspension of said Klein should be removed or should be changed to a penalty of disqualification.

Mr. James Watson asks for instruction as to the proper course of procedure relative to a challenge prize offered at the late Philadelphia show under specified conditions, and alleged to have been competed for under erroneous conditions. I therefore submit his communication to this meeting for action.

I am in receipt of a communication from the delegate of the Champlain Kennel Club requesting the adoption of a rule defining what should be considered as "misconduct in connection with dogs." This communication was received at this office on Jan. 30th, and therefore the same did not come to hand in time to be acted upon by the Rules Committee or to be published in the Gazette, prior to this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary.”

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

It was announced that Mr. W. H. Brownell was elected as a delegate to represent the Brockton Kennel Club.
Mr. Chairman, I object to, Mr. Viti going around and telling people how to vote in passing the ballot box.

MR. VITI: I had not voted. I had followed Mr. Van Schaick to give me an opportunity to vote.

THE PRESIDENT: These remarks are quite out of order. The Chair would rule that there is no objection on the part of any one to canvass or do what he pleases with regard to the election of delegates, and I think it would be a very undesirable thing if any of you gentlemen knew anything about a delegate — who knew anything against a candidate — knew of some reason why he should not be elected, if you did not state it, because you only want the very best men you can get, and if there is anything you know about anybody, this is the time to state it.

The Treasurer read his report, as follows:
TREASURER’S REPORT

TO THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB INC.,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand January 1st, 1907 ............................................. $19,922.56
Receipts from Jan. 1st, to date .......................................................... 3,445.48
Total .............................................. $23,368.04

Disbursements from Jan. 1st to date .............................................. $2,021.57
Balance on hand .................................................. $21,346.47

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer."

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

MR. MC GUIRE: The vote is here on the election of Mr. George H. Taylor to represent the Bloomington Kennel Club. I would rather have the Chair announce it.

THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Taylor received 22 ayes and 23 noes. Mr. Taylor is therefore not accepted by this meeting.

The next candidate is George Lauder, to represent the Scottish Terriers’ Club of America. Remember that it requires a three-fourth vote to elect.

MR. SINGLETEN VAN SCHAICK: In regard to Mr. Taylor, as a teller I feel that there was hardly a fair vote. A great many numbers did not vote owing to the scarcity of white balls, and they let it pass by thinking there would he no question. It does not seem to me exactly fair that a man should be turned down in that way. I think we ought, as a fair lot of men, to have another ballot on that. I think we should give a fair deal.

It was moved and seconded that the vote for Mr. Taylor be reconsidered.

Motion carried.

THE PRESIDENT: That motion is carried. The tellers are instructed to pass the ballot-box again.

I have here the report of the Rules Committee, which I will read.

DR. OSGOOD: It strikes me that is a very important matter and one which will involve argument, and I would suggest that that be laid over until after we get through with this balloting.

Motion seconded.
MR. VTTI: I move that we proceed with the reading of the report, as an amendment to that motion,

MR. CUTLER: I raise the point that you cannot deviate from the regular order if there is objection. Here is an objection. When we proceeded to the reading of the Secretary's different reports you made the point that if there was no objection raised we would stick to the Secretary's report. We have come now to the report of the Rules Committee, which would involve these amendments, and I ask that this be delayed.

THE PRESIDENT: There is no objection. Unless there is objection to passing that over the Secretary will take up these other matters.

THE SECRETARY: I have the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of meetings dated December 15th, 1906, January 28th and February 6th, 1907. It is usually the case to dispense with the reading of them and have them published in the Gazette.

MR. MORRIS: I move that we dispense with reading those minutes, and have them published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

The following are Pacific Advisory reports:
"REGULAR MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held at 520 California Street, Dec. 15, 1905.

PRESENT: J. E. de Ruyter, Chairman, W.W. Stettheimer, J. P. Norman.

MINUTES: On motion, the minutes were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read a communication from H. H. Carlton withdrawing his resignation. The same was ordered filed.

The Secretary read a communication from J. E. Hax, advising that this Committee was misinformed in relation to the charge of cruelty to dogs for which Lawrence S. Adams was punished by fine in the courts of Marin County. Mr. Hax stated that Adams had filed no appeal and had paid his fine. On motion the letter with all documents pertaining to the case was laid upon the table, and the Secretary was instructed to bring up the matter at the next regular meeting of the Committee.

A.K.C. v. John Riplinger; Fraudulent entry at the Portland Dog Show. The secretary advised that no reply had been received from Mr. Riplinger and that there could be no certainty that any of the communications had reached the defendant. The committee proceeded to the examination of the entry blank and it was Moved and seconded, that this Committee does not find any evidence of fraud, but does find a technical error in making out the entry blank and therefore refers the said blank to the American Kennel Club to determine whether the usual fine should not be levied on the exhibitor. CARRIED.

A.K. C. v. MARIE RIPLINGER: Fraudulent entry at the Seattle Dog Show. The secretary advised that no reply had been received from Miss Riplinger, although one registered letter had been receipted for by her. It was MOVED and seconded, that as the circumstances in this case were the same as in the case of John Riplinger, the secretary be and hereby is instructed to follow the same procedure as in that case. CARRIED.

HAWAIIAN KENNEL CLUB v. J. F. MAY: Misconduct in connection with Dog Shows. It appeared from the evidence submitted to the Committee, that J. F. May was an exhibitor at the Honolulu Dog Show and a member of the Hawaiian Kennel Club. May insisted on forcibly removing his dog from the said show immediately after said dog had been judged, before the close of the show and before the show had closed for the day on which the dog was judged. The Hawaiian Kennel Club called on the defendant to show
At the regular meeting of the Hawaiian Kennel Club held on September 25th, 1906, the defendant was expelled by unanimous vote and due notification thereof made to the Pacific Advisory Committee on October 10th and November 27th, J. F. May was notified by the Secretary of this Committee to show cause why he should not be permanently disqualified. Mr. May has filed no defense.

It was moved and seconded that the present suspension in force against J. P. May be made permanent and that he be and hereby is disqualified. CARRIED.

ERNENWEIN V. TUCKER: CHARGE OF MISCONDUCT.

This is a complaint filed by J. F. Ernenwein against W. W. Tucker of Eatontown, N.J.; it is alleged that appellant bought from defendant a great Dane Dog, on the arrival of which at Seattle, the appellant had to pay $23.00 excess express charges, assessed on account of defendant's alleged error in placing an excess valuation on the dog. It is alleged that defendant has failed to furnish bill of sale and pedigree for said dog.

It is alleged, that defendant has sold to appellant a Great Dane bitch puppy as a fit mate to the said Dog, which puppy is the offspring of a brother and sister, brother and sister to the said dog and thus full uncle to the puppy. It is claimed that this relationship makes the said bitch ineligible as a fit mate for the said dog.

Appellant prays the Committee for relief as follows: First, that defendant be ordered to reimburse the plaintiff for the excess of $23.00 caused by defendant's fault. Second: That defendant be ordered to furnish bill of sale and pedigree for the dog. Third: That defendant be ordered to pay to plaintiff the freight charges for the carriage of the bitch puppy, also charges for keep of same and to furnish directions for the return of same to the defendant. It was moved and seconded, that this Committee is of opinion that the matter of reimbursing the excess freight charges paid on account of over-valuation is properly a matter for a civil court and not for this Committee and that this Committee declines to take action in such circumstances, that the same conditions and decision apply in the matter of the bill of sale and pedigree of the dog, and that this Committee declines to decide as to the proper mating for Great Danes and refuses to take action in reference to the sale and return of the bitch, and that deposit filed by Appellant be returned to him.

CARRIED.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:

J. P. Norman,

Secretary."
“MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, A.K.C.

Held at 520 California St., San Francisco,
January 28, 1907.

PRESENT: J. E. de Ruyter Esq., Chairman H. H. Carlton, Esq; J.P.
Herman, Esq.

ABSENT: Dr. W. F. Burnham; W.W. Stettheimer, Esq.

MINUTES: On notion the minutes of the previous meeting were accepted, as read.

Application: The secretary stated that acting under the constitution of the American Kennel Club, he had refused to accept the dues of the Stockton Kennel Club for the reason that payment of same had not been tendered within the limits laid down by the rules. The club was consequently suspended and the application for reinstatement signed by secretary and president was now before the meeting. It was moved and seconded that the Stockton Kennel Club be and hereby is restored to membership and good standing in the American Kennel Club, and that the secretary is therefore at liberty to accept and receipt for the dues of said club. CARRIED.
RESIGNATION: The resignation of the Santa Clara County Kennel Club, dated December 31st, 1906, being placed before the meeting, and the secretary stating that at the date of said resignation the club was in good standing, it was Moved and seconded that the resignation be accepted. CARRIED.

MISCONDUCT: On notion the case of Lawrence S. Adams was taken from the table. The information filed by J. Hax was read, stating that said Adams had been tried in the Marin Superior Court, found guilty and fined for cruelty to animals, in that he had maliciously injected turpentine into the rectum of several dogs. It was MOVED AND SECONDED, that the Secretary of this Committee be and hereby is instructed to file charges of misconduct against said Adams, such charges to be filed in the name of the American Kennel Club. CARRIED.

ADJOURNMENT: There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

"REGULAR MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held at 520 California St., February 6, 1907

PRESENT: J. E. de Ruyter, Chairman; H.H. Carlton;
Dr. W. P. Burnham, J. P. Norman

ABSENT: W. W. Stettheimer.

It was moved and seconded that the order of business be suspended, and that the case of THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, INC. V. L.S. ADAMS be taken from the table. Carried.

AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB INC. versus L. S. ADAMS, re misconduct in connection with dogs, charge of cruelty.

From the information filed with the committee, it appeared that the defendant in July last had been tried in the Justices Court of Marin County and had been convicted and fined for having injected turpentine into the rectum of a certain fox terrier dog owned by J. E. Hax.
The informant did not respond to the call to attend the meeting. The defendant filed an affidavit, in which he denied having injected the turpentine as alleged, but acknowledged having thrown some on the dog in question. It appeared that the said dog had excavated under a board fence and had further burrowed his way into the shed where the defendant kept a bull bitch in season. This dog was the most persistent and annoying of several, that had infested defendant's premises.
Defendant heard an unusual noise in the shed, and on entering found the fox-terrier in the room with the bull bitch. On trying to drive out the dog, he showed fight, and defendant had recourse to some turpentine, which he then threw on the dog, and which had the desired effect of inducing him to leave.
Defendant offered some further verbal testimony. It was Moved, by Mr. Norman but not seconded, that defendant’s action was justifiable and that he should be exonerated from the charge of cruelty to animals. It was moved and seconded that the charge be dismissed. Carried. Mr. Norman rose to a point of order, and explained that he had voted against the motion to dismiss, as he thought that the alleged cruelty was misnamed, and that the defendant was entirely justified in adopting the means he did to rid his premises of an intruding dog, that threatened to attack him. The chair remarked that he coincided entirely with Mr. Norman, and that if he had had to vote to decide a tie, his vote would have gone to exonerate Mr. Adams.
The secretary then read a communication from a member of the Committee; after some discussion, it was decided that no action should be taken thereon.
THE SECRETARY: I submit the report of the Executive Board as published in the Gazette under date of January 31st, 1907.

MR. MASTICK: I move that the reading of that report be dispensed with.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors of February 5th, 1907, which have not been published. They are as follows:
SPECIAL MEETING BOARD OF DIRECTORS, Feb. 5, 1907

The following Directors answered to roll call-

August Belmont, presiding.
James W. Appleton.
Hildreth K. Bloodgood.
Wm. C. Rockefeller.
Alfred P. Vredenburg

Monson Morris.
Dwight Moore
Harry T. Peters.
Rowland P. Keasbey
J. H. Brookfield.
B. S. Smith.
Craig P. R. Drake.
Edwin J. Van Schaick.
John G. Bates
Ancel H. Ball.

RESOLVED that the Secretary be and he is hereby instructed to receive as of January 20, 1907, the annual dues of any associate subscribers tendered to him since that date or hereafter paid to him, provided such dues are so paid on or before February 13, 1907 and that all associate subscribers so paying their annual dues fee thereby reinstated to all their rights and privileges as of January 20, 1907.

RESOLVED that the delegates be and they are hereby requested to suggest names to the Board of Directors of persons acceptable to them to be elected as Directors to fill any vacancies in the Board, there may be at the time of the Annual Meeting of the Club and that the Secretary be and he is hereby instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the delegate and Secretary of each club. Adjournment.

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary.”

THE PRESIDENT: The tellers report forty-nine notes in favor of Mr. Lauder and eight against as delegate for the Scottish Terriers’ Club of America. Mr. Lauder is therefore elected delegate. The tellers will please pass the ballot-box on the re-consideration of Mr. Taylor’s name.

THE SECRETARY: I report the resignation of the Gordon Setter Club of America as a member.

On motion the same was accepted.

THE SECRETARY: I have also the resignation of the Tedesco Kennel Club.

On motion the same was accepted.

On motion the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from December 15th, 1906 to February 4th, 1907 amounting to $26.60, was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: The Fanciers’ Association of Indiana, suspended L. Klein, and sent the notice of his suspension.
with affidavits of misconduct to this office.

On motion the same was referred to the Executive Board.

(At this point President Belmont resigns the chair to Mr. H. K. Bloodgood.)

MR. BELMONT: I would like to ask the chair if during the balloting we could consider the question of the amendments to the constitution. I would like to ask the privilege of the meeting to say a few words, and that we devote the time pending our electing delegates in the discussion of that subject, and then we will rapidly prepare ourselves to vote upon them when we have passed the credentials. If there is no objection I would ask your indulgence to say a few words on the subject.

CHAIRMAN BLOODGOOD: There is no objection, gentlemen? I hear none,

MR. BELMONT: I want to repeat again how gratified I am to see such a large meeting and such a great interest in the affairs of the club. Of course we are divided here into two separate camps as to what is best for the club, and that is embodied in the amendments which have been offered or are to be offered to-day for your consideration -- amendments to the constitution. Now, of course those who do not favor those amendments are all the present directors or officers, and those who have been associated with the Kennel Club for a lifetime, with the exception of a few who have never been satisfied with anything that we did, but I will say that those who have been dissatisfied have kept us to the mark in a great measure. When Mr. McGuire asked me to explain my position on that subject, I did not feel I could do so very well from the chair. I admit that I did not take an active part in a great deal of the details leading up to the incorporation of the American Kennel Club, but when I looked into it I felt perfectly satisfied, and I felt perfectly satisfied with the constitution, because I recalled that for many years we had a very limited attendance at the meetings of the delegates; the meetings were few necessarily and far between, and after all the majority of the clubs were really represented by local men and the work devolved practically upon a limited set of men who are actively engaged in promoting the interest of the American Kennel Club and attending to its affairs. I saw in this constitution simply this; viz giving permanent effect, to what was an existing state of things.

The Board of Direction numbered more than the average attendance we had of the delegates, and thirty seemed to be about as large a number of men as you could put on the board expecting them to give serious attention to the affairs of the club. At the beginning of any movement there is always sufficient interest to insure attendance, but as time goes on, the work, particularly if it goes smoothly gradually devolves upon a few, and it was absolutely necessary to so arrange our organization that it may be effective, with an Executive Committee, to lay mind & very desirable and the best way to conduct the business. Therefore, in explanation to Mr. McGuire's question I submit that the whole constitution was entirely satisfactory to me from the point of view of its efficiency. As to the personnel of it, that is another question. I did not know of a great deal of the friction in the club as it existed. I did not know of the motives governing the selection of certain gentlemen put on the board. I did not know of some put on the committee, and therefore the selection of these gentlemen I did not scrutinize accepting them as being the choice of those who knew more intimately than I the needs of the club. It has transpired since then that it might have been better to have selected some delegates who are representatives here of large specialty clubs. I say it might have been better, but I have never questioned the motives of those in control of the organization, nor do I question them now. Those steps were slated very deliberately, and I have never been able to reconcile myself with the idea that a fair opportunity was not given to every delegate to know all about them if they chose. I admit it was not published, but I submit there are delegates who live in this city and are within a stone’s throw of this office who never came near to inquire. They must have known a big organization like the American Kennel Club, if an incorporated organization that organization must be governed, by a constitution, rules by-laws — something, and that while they might be somewhat like the rules and regulations governing the American Kennel Club as an association, they necessarily must be different, and there are a great many here who could have know, if they had wanted to, and particularly if they were suspicious of the purpose of the management could have ascertained just what was going to be done. They did not do it, and that is their fault. The organization was brought about legally. Of that I was satisfied. When the incorporation took place and the unincorporated club conveyed its property into the hands of the incorporated organization I was in the chair. Some of the gentlemen who are most strenuously objecting to-day were sitting in this room, and I asked those present if anyone had any objection, and if so was I called for its expression. None came at all; not a word was said, and I congratulated the Kennel Club upon its peaceful re-birth if I should so put it, and stated that I thought we were starting really to do effective work and to preserve what was now a very important organization. This agitation that has been conducted is a very desirable one from the point of view of stirring us up. I like it. It is a good thing, but I want the right to prevail all the same; I do not want mistakes if I can help it. I submit you are going to work to rip up this constitution more in a feeling of resentment, for the extreme to which you are going really does not seem to me to illustrate anything else. Now, if, however, you want to take an active interest there is no reason why you should not have the opportunity, but the organization will prevail—if you do not take an active interest somebody will and somebody ought to. In these amendments there are certain cardinal features. One of them is the dissolution of Executive Committee, by which you hang up every subject for the board to act upon. It is not going to be easy to get that board together, and if we have such strenuous objections as to the number to constitute a quorum as we have had today we might as well let six months pass without doing anything. Besides you know very well that whatever amendment should pass now cannot take effect until next year. I submit, therefore, would it not be better not to pass a number of these amendments, even if you believe in them, and let us see how the thing worlds. It will soon show itself. You as delegates have every privilege to come into this office and ask what is going on, and I am sure you will find out everything you want to, provided you do not square off and want to fight to begin with because that is something sometimes takes place, I judge from some gentlemen who have complained of Mr. Vredenburgh's irritability --- and you must remember one cannot make a distinction between Mr. Vredenburgh as a professional secretary, as they call him, and myself, as an amateur officer, for I certainly think Mr. Vredenburgh is entitled to the same treatment as myself. I cannot see the difference, and I am sure that Mr. Vredenburgh has always been courteous and given all information possible when properly approached. In the present regulations, for example, there is an excellent provision with regard to the election of delegates, but you provide for a method of undoing which I think is not wise, and had better be left to see how this year works. Then you provide that vacancies among the delegates shall be filled by the club instead of by the directors. We might meet a condition of things as bad as that which Dr. Osgood said that we were in today. Supposing that through having delegates resign it deprived us of representation, and as new members of the board will have to be delegates to be directors, we might fall below the mark, if we had to wait for a meeting of the club before the gap could be filled. That is not the thing to do. But not to detain you any longer, I have felt — and in this matter perhaps you may not agree with me — I have felt it might be a good thing for the club if one feature here, it seems to me in view of the active interest that all you gentlemen seem to take, that we ought to amend the constitution so as to have quarterly meetings of delegates, but do not destroy the rest of the machinery if you do not propose to regularly come here. If those meeting did not lapse altogether — probably you would find when those meeting are held that the majority of the delegates present will be the directors of the this organization. If you find that to be the case, then the constitution putting all the power in the directors’ hands is best, but I see no objection, and I see perhaps agree advantage possibly of having quarterly meetings, taking up the current business every quarter, but if they do not take place, you have all your machinery to run this business, because it is a business now. The breeding and exhibiting of dogs is a pleasure and a past time, but the regulation of them and keeping of the records is a business, and one that must be attended to by a man that understands it, and I believe it would be difficult to-day to find a man who could take Mr. Vredenburgh’s place, very difficult. Mr. Vredenburgh has been here at the American Kennel Club day in day out -- he is a man who could have occupied a very good position, I am sure, in our business community, at a great deal better compensation than he receives here. He has devoted his life to the American Kennel you ought to feel very lucky to have a man of that kind. He lives and thinks of practically nothing else. I hope that you will confine yourselves, if you make any amendments to the constitution to this one amendment — that you do not go beyond that, because, I really believe that you will impair the club’s efficiency, and you can reach what you want just as well after the current year is over just as well, as you can by upsetting it now. Another thing it does not do us any good as an organization to appear divided. It would be better if we composed our differences here and the Board of Direction has certainly made every effort in its power to meet you in that spirit by recommending that you would select for their consideration because under the constitution they have to elect the directors to fill the vacancies now on the board candidates for the vacancies now on the board but they are prepared to take your selections made here. That is what you want to do. Those selections will certainly be representative of this meeting. That will be best for the welfare of the club. You must remember that according to the constitution if you want a meeting of the delegates you can always call it in the regular way by request. It only takes eight to call a special meeting of the delegates, but fix it, if you like through quarterly meetings, and see how it works; but do not change the rest; do not take away the power of the Executive Committee until you are satisfied that they do things improperly; do not destroy it entirely. Perhaps it is not large enough; Make it larger if you like. We may in the conduct of the club find that the machinery is not fully adequate. We cannot give you any notion of it to-day beyond what we have had in the way of experience of running it a short time and you yourselves can only criticize its working from a theoretical standpoint. You can only bring about what you think would be better. You cannot say it is better. I submit that [illegible] select your men and recommend them for the direction, and I am sure the board will elect them, and if you want to have quarterly meetings change the constitution. If you decide not to change the constitution, if there are eight men sitting in this room that want quarterly meetings, select your time for those meetings and ask for the call in the regular way. The meeting will be called and you will meet just as much as if it was provided in the constitution. (Applause).

DR. OSGOOD: Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask you to explain away some of the apparent causes of dissatisfaction in the framing of this constitution, one or two leading questions. In the first place, I want to ask you why you did not follow the regulation method of procedure in the changes of the constitution and by-laws which have always been in existence in this organization, that is by publishing them in the official organ for twenty days, or something of that kind so that the delegates that were broadcast through the country might have an opportunity to look over that constitution and decide whether there were things in there that they would like to come down and talk over. Why was it necessary for eight men to change a constitution which had been worked out satisfactorily for years and years without any publicity, without knowledge coming to any delegate that the matter of a changed constitution must be considered at all. I think I for one may say, and I presume others are in the same position, that we understood from the minutes appointing the committee and giving them their power, to give such power to insure a charter for the incorporated club. I did not think that that committee had, given any power to draw up a new constitution which would bind the old club. I had an idea that the old constitution was still the constitution of the club, and that your committee was simply empowered to procure for that club a charter.

THE PRESIDENT: I will answer that as well as I can. I do not know whether it will be satisfactory to you or not. The constitution was framed as nearly as possible like the old and certainly the Executive Committee existed, as you know. The delegates met regularly, and to take their places the Board of Direction was substituted to meet regularly. They meet at any time, the Executive Committee acting in the meanwhile; there is no reason why they should not meet every week if they want to. The machine is very much the same Dr. Osgood and in not submitting it
I cannot give you any explanation for that other than I do not think it was intended to dodge publicity. The publication in the Gazette you must remember was no property of the incorporated club at that time. The two were just as distinct as if that had been -- I know morally two totally dissimilar organizations were the same information but I mean physically, legally the two were just as distinct as if one was a horse show association; and that so far as that is concerned, the Secretary would have had no right to publish any Gazette of the incorporated club; and the other was not its property. He might have done it by asking and by courtesy, he would have had to get authority for doing it. He could not publish a constitution which had not become really a constitution of the American Kennel Club unincorporated because they had not sold themselves to the new.

DB. OSGQOD: That did not prevent him reading that constitution to the delegates that were assembled before asking them to vote on it.

THE SECRETARY: Every change was read.

THE PRESIDENT: It was read, I understand.

(Cries of no, no.)

THE PRESIDENT: I came in about the middle of the meeting, and I was told it was read.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It was read.
DR. OSGOOD: Mr. Taylor says the constitution was read to the delegates of the American Kennel Club unincorporated.

THE SECRETARY: The changes; not in full, but every change that was made from the old constitution was read.

DR. OSGOOD: Was not what was read and stated, simply such changes were made as were necessary to conform to the corporation laws?

THE SECRETARY: Mr. Taylor was here and read it himself.

DR. OSGOOD: I was not present at the meeting, but I read the record as signed by Mr. Vredenburgh, where it did not for a moment claim that the constitution was read at this meeting.

MR. TAYLOR: I do not think that you have read the minutes.

DR. DE MUND: In answer to that statement that that constitution or any part of it was read at that meeting of November 19th -- I was present and I say absolutely that no part of that was ever read to the delegates that were in the outer room.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: There is one here that said it
THE PRESIDENT: I regret extremely that Mr. Hunnewell is not here, who occupied the chair prior to my coming in at that meeting. I understood it was read.

A DELEGATE: I did not hear it read.

THE PRESIDENT: That does not necessarily follow that it was not read,

MR. PETERS: I sat through that meeting, and that constitution was not read at that meeting. No part of the constitution was read at that meeting,

THE PITESIBMT: The statement made by the Secretary is that changes were pointed out.

DR. OSGOOD: Were those changes specific so that the delegates of the unincorporated club understood all these changes?

THE SECRETARY: The minutes show the whole thing.

THE PRESIDENT: The minutes, Mr. Vredenburgh says, show the whole thing. Now, Dr. Osgood, with regard to the changes. As you know, the law provides for the Board of Direction, and you would have to have that anyway. Your delegates could not take charge of all the affairs of the club; it would be impossible if they wanted to.
DR. OSGOOD: I submit that was absolutely necessary. May I ask one other question, and that is, why it was necessary to deviate from the methods of almost all business—I mean membership corporations, and take the work out of the hands of the incorporators and put it into the hands of the directors themselves.

THE PRESIDENT: That is a very general custom in corporations, that incorporators elect the board and board serves for the time specified in the bylaws, whatever they may be. They classify themselves; they did exactly that. The recommendation to do that came from the President of the Westminster Kennel Club. I think a great injustice has been done to Mr. Vredenburgh on that question. That was recommended by Mr. Williams. At the last meeting of the Board of Direction Mr. Peters said he did not know about these matters. I did not question it but I thought it was very unjust to Mr. Vredenburgh and as Mr. Vredenburgh would not say anything I am taking the privilege of saying it for him. I think, gentlemen, that opened my eyes to the fact that Mr. Vredenburgh did not propose to use an affidavit which I have here; that he went to the President of the largest kennel club we have in this country, the first and the most important, and that on the question of the election of the directors we found that we had followed and recommended what the President of that club suggested; and he had held up to us as an example the foremost general athletic association — not the New York Athletic Club, but the Racquet Club, which is a very important organization here and as high as any.

MR. PETERS: I think I am entitled to the floor on that. I would like to say that that is absolutely so in a great many respects, that Mr. Vredenburgh did come down there one day to the office — we were very busy — and stated that the gentlemen in control of the American Kennel Club had decided on these changes. I never for a minute questioned it. I do not say that he had the constitution, but we were very busy in our office and we did not read it. I never looked at the constitution and never thought there was a change in the constitution; so far as I am concerned. In regard to the talk about the directors that I don't know about, if he had that talk with Mr. Williams. At the time I was instructed by the Westminster Kennel Club to vote against the amendment and shall I do so absolutely as far as that is concerned, but the personal feeling that I have in the matter is that I did not know because my attention was not called to the fact that there was a change in the constitution. That is the only grievance I have, that that thing was put through and I did not know it. I don't know that I have any excuse — I have not a blessed excuse. I should have read it. I should have insisted on it that the constitution be read and never for a moment have I been informed that there was any change in that constitution.

MR. RUTHERFORD: I would like Mr. Peters in stating what his instructions from the Westminster Kennel Club were to state them in full. He did not state them in full just now. If he has forgotten them I can state them for him.

THE PRESIDENT: You are not a delegate of the Westminster Kennel Club, if he does not choose to state them, you cannot.

DR. OSGOOD: That brings us right to a battle point. If the largest kennel club in existence was entitled to that consideration to look over the constitution and by-laws, why were not all the other clubs belonging to this organization entitled to that same consideration?

THE PRESIDENT: I think the Secretary, if you will allow him to answer, that can do that himself.
DR. OSGOOD: One other thing I would like to ask; we only want what is right; we do not understand it; we do not care anything about the personality; we want simply a square deal, and we want to be straightened out. If everything is square, above board and all right, we want it just as strong as anybody in the room.

THE PRESIDENT: Don't you think that is information? They want you to elect directors; they want you to be active.

(The delegates were informed by President Belmont that they were now voting for Joseph H. Dale to represent the Asbury Park Kennel Club)

DR. OSGOOD: As I understand, in incorporating a great many organizations it has been the custom to put up straw directors, clerks in offices, and so forth, as a temporary board to act as a Board of Directors for the purpose of incorporating, but those straw men are simply put up at the annual meeting, at which time the stockholders and all of the members of their corporation are allowed to vote for the Board of Directors.

THE PRESIDENT: That is the exception — I mean the exception as you state it. They have straw directors, as you call them, but their places are taken without recourse to the stockholders. The incorporators usually do that. They simply take straw men through whom they hide their identity but their places are taken by simply voting the various names in rotation that are handed to them, not by the stockholders at all.

DR. OSGOOD: Are not those straw directors usually expected to tender their resignations prior to the annual meeting to give the members an opportunity to express their views as to who are the proper men, or would not that be a little fairer way? Wouldn't it be a little more representative?

THE PRESIDENT: Perhaps it would, but the best was done that we knew how.

DR. OSGOOD: That may all be, and that is why we brought in these amendments, and that is why we feel that perhaps instead of making that term of office five years, as we did they ought to have been nominated to hold office until the annual meeting, and then ask for a general opinion of the club, as to who they would like to have represent them.

(At this point the President announced, the result of the vote for William H. Carroll, to represent the Bergen County Kennel Club as thirty-four and twenty-three against, showing that he was rejected.)
THE PRESIDENT: What was your question? The vacancies, as we now understand, are three. I thought there were more than that. One of them is to serve three years, one for two years, and one for one year. Therefore whoever you nominate at this meeting would be elected the directors. Then at the end of the year you have an opportunity to vote on the six, and two of those remain, and therefore if you elect six, you will have eight already in the Spring of the year, if you call them your men by that time. I do not think we will have any lines of difference then. Supposing there is, that will be eight out of thirty.

DR. OSGOOD: That was not the point as to the election to fill the vacancies. The point was, how did it happen you voted it was necessary to elect?

THE PRESIDENT: It is bad for any organization to have a full board go out, and to have to make an entirely new selection. The principle as we have it is good. The only question is, and that we will admit; perhaps it would have been proper for you to have had a voice, but because you did not have it, do not upset a good piece of machinery.

DR. OSGOOD: Let us put it a little more directly. You had twenty-three representatives of clubs sitting in the next room at the time you elected these directors.
Why wouldn't it have been a good think to have called those twenty-three men right in and allowed them to express their views? Why was it necessary to conduct your meeting in a private room with six men present or eight, whichever it was, with twenty-three men in the other room who were duly accredited delegates and supposed they had a right to indicate their preference in the election of officers that they always had had in the past? One other thing: The old constitution by which it was the privilege of the members to elect their Executive Committee and to have practically all the power of the club— that power, was it necessary to conform to the corporation laws? Was it necessary for you to take the power of the election of the Executive Committee out of the hands of the clubs and put it into the hands of the Board of Directors?

THE PRESIDENT: That was not necessary; necessarily not. It was deemed advisable to act otherwise and that is the only answer I can give you. However, that can be criticized by anybody who chooses to, and there it is. I can only say it was not necessary, but it was deemed advisable, and there was no serious objection raised to it by those who were elected, as I understand.

DR. OSGOOD: I think that showed that pretty nearly as a matter of fact, in that meeting the twenty-three all but six were members of the Board of Directors, and had been elected by you before they transferred the property.

THE PRESIDENT: I think this selection was largely made -- of course I notice there are some men that were not put on the board -- the majority of them were selected because they were known as the active men who would give their services to the club and other men, if they had been put on from a distance would not probably have attended the meetings, and we could not run the risk of not having them at the meeting.

A DELEGATE: The twenty-three in the other room had no voice in the matter at all.

THE PRESIDENT: It has been suggested, to me that it is a fact the Executive Board which was selected is, the Executive Board that had been elected before by the delegates, that was the fact. If in their actions they made a mistake and excited the club into activity, then they have done the best thing that could be done.

(turning to the vote on delegates) It is almost tantamount to suspending action on these delegates because you are not electing them. I will suspend that order of business, if you wish, and go to work on the constitution.
(The President then announced the vote of the delegates for Mr. Joseph H. Dale to represent the Asbury Park Kennel Club as being forty-one, and twenty-five against, thus defeating Mr. Dale.)

MR. BOYLE: It seems to me it is establishing a very bad precedent. It seems to me, gentlemen, that you are going to have quarrels in your meetings right along if you persist in doing this work. I do not know those gentlemen. Simply because an attorney has been hired by a corporation to work for them and received their pay is no reason why that man should be blackballed. I rely on your honor for the good feeling of this club, to stop it.

THE PRESIDENT: I suggest that you suspend the election of delegates, if it is going to take your time, and proceed with the selection of your candidates for the Board of Governors.

DR DeMUND: I move after this ballot, that we suspend the election of delegates and proceed with the election of the Board of Governors.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I object. We have started with it. Let us proceed with it.

MR. PETERS: My position has been misunderstood, no doubt but I would like to state that we are getting in a very serious place. I am a very young man here. It is looking very serious, and I really think that we had better suspend this election and try to get together to uphold the American Kennel Club in some way or another each party will have to try and make some concession and get together in some way. If some of the older men would get up and make some suggestions, they would accomplish what we want, and we could get out of here some time to-night with an amicable feeling and full understanding established. I would offer to suggest in that matter that the delegates be voted, for, not the directors.

THE PRESIDENT: The motion made by Dr. DeMund is that after the passing of the ballot-box for this delegate, that that business be suspended until after we have proceeded with the vote for the Board of Governors.

DR. OSGOOD: I second that motion.

THE PRESIDENT: I do not know whether you have observed the resolution of the Board of Directors, but it is resolved that the delegates be and they hereby are requested to suggest names to the Board of Directors of persons acceptable to them to be elected as directors to fill any vacancies in the board.
MR. McGUIRE: I want to say, in the course of your remarks, you seemed to assume that the opposition to the constitution was on the ground that some of the members of the opposition were disgruntled on account of not having been made directors in the incorporated club, I am speaking entirely and wholly for myself in saying that that has or had nothing whatever to do with my reason for objecting to it. To put it very briefly, I did intend to state it at length but I have been prohibited from doing that, but to put it briefly, I did not object to what you did, but it seemed to be the nasty way in which you did it. I did not object to being told some time ago by the delegate of how much time I monopolized, but it was the nasty way in which he did it.

MR. BROOKS: I object to the word "nasty."

THE PRESIDENT: It is not a parliamentary word.

MR. McGUIRE: It was not my purpose to be recognized in any way nor did I seek any preferment from the American Kennel Club in any way.

THE PRESIDENT: If you will allow me to say it, that was only stated as an element but certainly not as the controlling cause, I did not intend so to convey it, but it was an element in some cases.
MR. McGUIRE: I mean to say, so far as I was concerned it had no bearing whatever.

THE PRESIDENT: I think there was nobody selected for that reflection. What is your pleasure and what method do you propose to follow in the nominations?

MR. PETERS: I nominate Mr. Price.

MR. VITI: I second the nomination.

Nomination seconded and carried.

DR. DeMUND: I would like to nominate Dr. Osgood.

MR. VITI: I second the nomination.

Nomination seconded and carried.

MR. MORRIS: I nominate Mr. Winthrop Rutherford.

Nomination seconded and carried.

DR. DeMUND: I would like to nominate Mr. William C. Codman.

Nomination seconded and carried.

It was moved and seconded that the list of nominations be closed.

Carried.

THE PRESIDENT: In balloting, there are five in nomination. The three having the greatest number of votes will be your selection. If there is no objection taken to that method, that will be the method of counting. If you desire some other method please express it. I presume that is the fairest way. I appoint Mr. McGuire and Mr. Van Schaick tellers to take the ballot on the persons named. I will announce the result later.

MR. MORRIS: Wouldn’t it be easier to write down the choices on a piece of paper — let the gentlemen write down their choices of three names and put it to vote?

DR. OSGOOD: I suggest it be the method of voting that each member or delegate sign a slip containing three names and sign at the foot of the slip his own name so that the Secretary can check it.

MR. PETERS: I move that the four names be submitted to the Board of Directors for them to select three from.

Motion seconded.

MR. VITI: My understanding was that this meeting was to nominate one candidate for each vacancy and we were going to elect those candidates that had been so selected.

THE PRESIDENT: If the delegate will provide himself with a piece of paper and write the three names in the order of his preference, I think that will be the proper method. I desire to call your attention to the report of the committee, that you dispense with the reading on the question of the amendments. I think it proper for you to understand exactly how this matter has to be gone through. Amendments have been offered in the regular way and are here for your consideration, but the constitution provides that the committee has to pass on these amendments and make their recommendation to the board. The committee did pass upon those amendments and has reported adversely on every one of them. This is their report, I think, because it will save you a lot of time. The constitution provides that in the event of the committee reporting unfavorably, it then requires under those circumstances a two-thirds vote to carry the amendment, whereas if the committee had reported favorably it would only require the majority of the meeting, but having reported unfavorably every amendment that has been put forward must have a two-thirds vote.

DR. DeMUND: I ask that the vote be announced on Mr. Leslie.

MR. McGUIRE: The vote is here, and I ask the chair to announce it.

THE PRESIDENT: The vote on Mr. Leslie is forty-four, and twenty-four against.

That is not sufficient for election.
In voting for directors every delegate will have to write his name on the ballot; otherwise the vote could not be recorded.

MR. BOYLE: Would that be a secret ballot for each delegate to put his name on it?

THE PRESIDENT: This is a recommendation and therefore this meeting can adopt any method it chooses, even voting vi[illegible] voce. It is not necessary. They can vote any way. There was to be no prescribed method.

(At this point Mr. Belmont resigned the chair to Mr. Viti.)

MR. BELMONT: I am very sorry to have to state to you that I am the host at a dinner at home and must be there at quarter past seven. I would like very much to give expression in addition to what I have said, if I may be permitted, in offering an amendment for your action. Article V, Section 1, reads: "That the regular annual meeting of the club shall be held in February of each year at such time and place as shall be designated by the President, twenty days notice of which shall be given and published in the Gazette." I propose this: "That the regular annual meeting of the club shall be held in February of each year, and there shall be also regular quarterly meetings of the delegates in May, August and November in each year at such time and place as shall be designated by the President, twenty days notice of which shall be given and published in the Gazette."

May I leave this in the hands of one of the delegates who will offer it for me? If anybody chooses to offer that, you are quite competent to proceed.

MR. HUNT: I offer that amendment. (Reading same.)

MR. VITI: I move the adoption of that amendment.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion on the question?

DR. OSGOOD: I should be very glad to see your motion or amendment go through; but I do feel that it is my duty to say one word, that I think about the constitution, and that is an amendment to an amendment is unconstitutional because there is no opportunity to publish that in the Gazette for the required length of time, and I think we are obliged either to accept those amendments as they are worded or reject them.

THE PRESIDENT: I think you have the right. Your point is well taken so far as any action on this particular amendment is concerned, but there could be an amendment that this could be substituted for it. You are quite right. It may not be that section, but Dr. Osgood's objection is well taken, that the amendment which was proposed would have to come up for action by the club and then this could be the amendment of that.

MR. VITI: No, it is a substitute for that.

DR. OSGOOD: I think perhaps this would cover the same and get rid of the constitutional change.

THE PRESIDENT: Will you make that motion or amendment?

DR. OSGOOD: The amendment is in this form: To amend Article V, Section 1, by striking out such section and inserting in place thereof the following: "Section 1. Regular quarterly meeting's of the club shall be held in February, May, August and November, at such time and place as shall be designated by the President, twenty days notice whereof shall be given and published in the Gazette." It is practically the same thing.

MR. VITI: We have to vote on the amendment first anyway and this is an amendment to your amendment,

DR. OSGOOD: I don't quite understand. I do not think the amendment can be amended. The amendments as published in the Gazette must pass in toto or not at all.
MR. VITI: No; everything that is germane but not otherwise.

DR. OSGOOD: Then I am misinformed.

MR. VITI: Few matter cannot he introduced. I ask for a vote.

MR. CUTLER: Will you state what the original amendment offered was?

THE PRESIDENT: It is practically the same.

MR. CUTLER: I. would like to know because I would not want to have to explain to my club that I did not know what I was doing; when I was here.

THE PRESIDENT: Dr. Osgood proposes the original amendment.

DR. OSGOOD: To amend Section V of Article V by striking out the said section and inserting in place thereof the following: Section 1. Regular quarterly meetings of the club shall be held in February, May, August and November at such time and place as shall be designated by the President, twenty days notice whereof shall be given and published in the Gazette."

THE PRESIDENT: The other one simply indicates this: That the regular annual meeting of the club shall be held in February of each year, and there shall be also regular quarterly meetings.

MR. VITI: It is only a matter of phraseology.

THE PRESIDENT: I mean to say that the amendment offered by Dr. Osgood designates annual and quarterly meetings without differentiation at all, and this makes the February meeting the annual meeting, and the others quarterly meetings. The question then will be on the amendment. Are you ready for that question?

The amendment was unanimously carried.

MR. VITI: In view of the lateness of the hour I move we adjourn.

Motion seconded.

The roll call on this motion resulted as follows: Ayes thirty-three; noes twenty-seven.
Price, fifty-three, Rutherford, forty; Codman, thirty-nine; Osgood, thirty; Edson, twelve.

The meeting then adjourned.

The minutes of the meeting of the Board held March 20th, 1907, were read and approved as published, in the Gazette of March 31st., 1907.

Mr. Monson Morris thereupon presented the following preambles and resolutions to the Board:

"WHEREAS, at a meeting of the Board held March 20th, 1907, it was Resolved, that the delegates be and they are hereby requested, to suggest names to the Board of Directors of persons acceptable to them to be elected as directors to fill any vacancies in the Board which may exist at the time of the quarterly meeting of the Club in May, and the Secretary be and he is hereby instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the delegate and secretary of each Club.

WHEREAS, at said meeting it was further

Resolved, At the time of sending notices for the May meeting the Secretary be and he is hereby instructed to state in said notice the number of resignations of Directors in hand; and

WHEREAS, in conformity with said last resolution the Secretary added to the notice of said May meeting the statement that there were twenty-one (21) resignations in hand; and subsequent thereto six (6) more resignations were received by him. The said twenty-seven (27) names being as follows;

August Belmont
H. H. Hunnewell
M. A. Viti
James W. Appleton
Edward Brooks
William G. Rockefeller
William B. Emery
A. P. Vedenburgh
G. Muss-Arnolt
and WHEREAS, and subsequent thereto and while conferences were being held between the representatives of the Ashland House Committee and the President of the Club, with a view to the possible solution of questions of differences of opinion which had arisen among members of the Club, an article appeared over the signature of such Committee in the American Stockkeeper for April 20th, and in other publications which among other things, attacked the good faith of the action of the Board of March 20th, and otherwise contained inaccuracies and misleading statements, as will appear by the answer thereto published by certain delegates not members of this Board in circular from under date of April 27th, 1907, copies of both of which documents are made a part of this resolution,
AND, WHEREAS All of said resignations except those of Messrs. Ackerman, Peters and Vredenburgh could not be acted upon at this meeting.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the action of the Board taken at the meeting of March 20th asking the delegates to suggest names to the Board of Directors of persons acceptable to then to be elected as Directors to fill any vacancies etc., be and the same is hereby rescinded; and it is further

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this Board that any vacancies therein be filled by it pursuant to the Constitution of the Club.

The said preambles and resolutions having been duly seconded by Mr. Edward Brooks were thereupon unanimously adopted.

The circular of April 27th, 1907, referred to in the foregoing resolution is as follows:
On motion of Mr. Edward Brooks, seconded by Mr. Howard Willets the following preambles and resolutions were unanimously adopted;

WHEREAS, the validity of the Incorporation of the Club has been questioned and

WHEREAS, the Board has been advised that such a question is not well founded,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the matter be referred to the Attorneys for the Club, to take such steps in the premises as they may consider necessary.

The Secretary thereupon presented the resignation of Mr. Irvine O. Ackerman as a Director of the Club, and on motion duly made and seconded the same was accepted.

The President thereupon presented to the meeting the resignation of Mr. Alfred P. Vredenburgh as a Director of the Club and on motion duly made and seconded the same was accepted.

Mr. Vredenburgh’s letter is as follows:

April 18, 1907.

August Belmont, Esq.,
President American Kennel Club,
23 Nassau Street, New York City.

Dear Mr. Belmont:

When I accepted the position of a director in the American Kennel Club I was under the impression that I would be ineligible for the secretaryship unless I was a director. It was for this sole reason that I allowed myself to be elected, a director. I have always been loath to hold any position in the Club, excepting that of secretary and for that reason offered an amendment to the rules some two years ago so that the secretary-treasurer would not be a member of the Rules Committee, and although overruled by the balance of the committee, I again suggest the advisability of such an amendment.

In handing you my resignation, together with the other members of the Board, I adverted to the subject on the necessity of my being on the Board in order to be eligible to the secretaryship and deplored the same. To my surprise I was informed that it was not necessary for the secretary to be a director. Such being the fact, I hasten to say that under no circumstances will I be a candidate for re-election to the Board, my resignation there from being permanent.

Your very truly,
A.P. Vredenburgh

The secretary thereupon presented to the meeting the following letter of resignation from Mr. H. T. Peters:
New York, N. Y., April 22, 1907,

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary
The American Kennel Club,
55 Liberty Street, City.

Dear Sir:

I hereby tender my resignation as a director of the American Kennel Club, also my resignation as delegate of the Westminster Kennel Club, latter to take effect upon the appointment of my successor.

Yours truly,

Harry T. Peters."

On motion duly made and seconded the latter was laid upon the table.

The Secretary thereupon stated to the Board that reason of the resignations of Messrs. Ackerman and Vredenburgh there were two vacancies in the Board.

Mr. Winthrop Rutherfurd thereupon nominated Mr. George Bleistein of Buffalo, N. Y., as a Director.

Mr. W. B. Emery nominated Mr. C. W. Keyes, East Pepperell, Mass. as a Director.

Mr. J. H. Brookfield nominated Mr. Thos. Cadawalader, of Phila. Pa. as a Director.

Mr. Dwight Moore nominated Mr. S. W. Cutler, Revere, Mass. as a Director.
On motion duly made and seconded the matter of the election of the Directors to fill vacancies was laid over for further action.

On motion duly made and seconded the meeting thereupon adjourned.

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary
President August Belmont in the chair.

Secretary Vredenburgh read the minutes of the last meeting of the Board of Directors.

PRESIDENT BELMONT: There are before us for consideration this afternoon two questions: First, the question of filling the vacancies caused by the resignations of Mr. Vredenburgh, Mr. Ackerman and Mr. Peters.
The other is the question of accepting the credentials of delegates. I understand that there is a report of the Committee on membership on that subject, which I will ask the secretary to read.

The secretary then read the Membership Committee’s report as follows:

New York, May 2, 1907

The Membership Committee recommend the election of the following clubs:

- Western Beagle K. Club
- Cleveland Fanciers’ Club Co.
- Fairfield County KC
- Bloodhound Club of America
- Franingham District KC
- Ft. Pitt KC
- Hudson County KC

As may questionable statements have been made regarding the motive governing the selection of delegates at recent meetings, your Committee deem it advisable to abstain from the approval of any additional delegates at present.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. B. Emery, Chairman
Singleton Van Schaick
B.S. Smith
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the report be accepted and the recommendation therein contained adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Secretary Vredenburgh read the following report:

New York, May 2, 1907

To the Board of Directors,--

Gentleman:-

I beg to report that under the Constitution of the American Kennel Club (Incorporated) the credentials of delegates can be acted upon by the Board of Delegates at the annual meeting only, and thereafter by the Board of Directors at any stated meeting. " 15 Seattle Dog Fanciers' Assn. Clarence Sackett
" 16 American Pomeranian Club Henry D. Riley
The above applications will be reported by the Membership Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

MR. RUTHERFORD: I move that Mr. Blestein be elected to fill the vacancy on the Board of Directors caused by the resignation of Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh.

Motion seconded and carried.

A ballot was taken which resulted in the unanimous election of Mr. Bleistein as a director to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Vredenburgh’s resignation.

MR. MORRIS: I move that the resignation of Mr. Peters be taken from the table and that it be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I move that when we adjourn, we adjourn subject to the call of the chair.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

MR. MASTICK: I move that they be so approved.
Motion seconded, and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: The secretary will now read an extract from the minutes of the Board meeting held yesterday with reference to the question of the proposed selection by this quarterly meeting of candidates to fill vacancies that might exist at this time on the Board.

The secretary then read the part indicated.

THE CHAIRMAN: This is announced to you with great regret on the part of the Board but the circumstances are these: These resignations had to be tendered to take effect upon the appointment of each individual resigner's successor. The constitution compels the Board meeting at any time to have at least twelve members present to constitute a quorum, and therefore the Board of course could not resign. That was impossible because there would be nobody then to fill their places, the constitution not providing that the delegates could do it at any meeting, either annual or quarterly, as you all know, and so the same method of procedure was necessary as that adopted at the annual meeting when the delegates then assembled selected a certain number of names to fill the then existing vacancies on the Board of Direction. All these resignations therefore had to be tendered in The form referred to and were naturally subject to withdrawal. It was possible even to tender them at the last moment; that is to say, at a meeting of the Board of Direction which would have to be held subsequent to this quarterly meeting, in order that it might act upon those names selected for it to fill vacancies with. Inasmuch as those resignations might be withdrawn, and, as such as had not been tendered, might be tendered at the last moment -- (might even be tendered after you had been called upon to select candidates to fill Vacancies,) it was not deemed proper, [illegible] make the names public. There were two Requests made upon the officers of the club not to disclose the names of those directors Who had tendered their resignations. After the conversation with Mr. Vredenburgh that Course was determined upon, and the names of those resigning were withheld from one and all. No member of the Board or delegate not a member of the Board, could ascertain Who those gentlemen were. The Ashland House Committee desired to have those names Given to them, in order, as they stated, that they might canvass for candidates at this Proposed meeting of the Board. There were told that there was no necessity for it; that Twenty-one resignations had already been offered; that it would be necessary in any event to select thirty candidates, if not more. If you will recall that you selected four in order to fill three vacancies, on that basis you should have selected thirty eight to fill thirty. They were told that they could, canvass exactly as if they knew the names, and that is the fact. If these twenty seven resignations were before you now it nevertheless would, be necessary for you to select thirty names, because at the meeting to take place — that is, that was intended to take place after this quarterly meeting — there might be thirty resignations. However, they were persuaded in their own minds upon reflection that they were handicapped and could not properly canvass for candidates for this Board. The desire of the Board of course was to have a representative Board. The feeling was, if the Kennel Club does not believe that this Board is representative, or has been constituted in a manner unsatisfactory to all concerned, we had better resign and let the delegates select the Board. I wish to say here that there is not any question that if the delegates at large had chosen to come together, and had not questioned the fairness of our Board in taking that action, they would have selected a Board, and would have selected it absolutely and perfectly untrammeled, just as you did at the annual meeting. That questions ought then to have been set at rest; but, as the minutes show, the directors were incensed at the thought that their spirit of fairness was being called in question. They were also given to understand that there would be no effort made at all to secure a representative Board. They were also given to understand (this not officially,) as the attendance here shows, but a great many of those affiliated with the Ashland House Committee, and representing the Ashland House Committee would not be present here to-day, for the reasons illustrated by Mr. McGuire’s protest, and of those who followed his course here to-day.

MR. McGUIRE: May I ask where that was stated, or anything similar to a protest? I do not like to interrupt you, but for the sake of accuracy I would like to know.

THE CHAIRMAN: I was told that. If you will permit me to disclose our conversation —

MR. McGUIRE: I release you to disclose any conversation with perfect freedom.

THE CHAIRMAN: I was told that that was the case.

MR. McGUIRE: You are not forgetting that you are at liberty to disclose the conversation.

THE CHAIRMAN: I am going to disclose all that I know. Having heard what I already stated, I had no way of verifying it at all, but I had a conversation concerning matters that are not pertinent to this discussion with Mr. McGuire over the telephone, and I stated to him that I heard that they, the Ashland House Committee followers, were not going to be present because they did not want to jeopardize their future action. I understood you to say over the telephone that that was the fact.

MR. McGUIRE: Your understanding was entirely wrong as to anything even approaching that being the fact. I had no personal knowledge on the subject, so I could not possibly give you any. I had absolutely no personal knowledge at the time, and that is absolutely true.

THE CHAIRMAN: I referred to the same fact when Murray and yourself had discussed these various questions, with me, and there was no statement from you that that was not the fact.

MR. McGUIRE: You had no authority to communicate an expression of my personal opinion, and you accepted it as such, and now you make it as a semi-official opinion from the Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: No, I am stating simply what I heard; what I understood.

MR. McGUIRE: Understood unofficially from the Committee.
THS CHAIRMAN: If I have given the impression to any one present that I heard it from the Committee officially, I wish it to be understood that that is not the case. What I heard was hearsay, but when I made the allusion to Mr. McGuire, he said that he only expressed his personal opinion that it was so, but his personal opinion was unquestionably well taken because the attendance here proves this.

MR. MCGUIRE: Did not Mr. McGuire express that in a written communication long before he expressed it over the telephone? You knew Mr. McGuire’s opinion before that conversation?

THE CHAIRMAN: It was a presumption, and that presumption was well founded. If it was not well founded, why are not those gentlemen present to-day, the men who brought about this quarterly meeting? The incorporated club did not provide in its original Constitution for a quarterly meeting, but at the annual meeting it was voted on the suggestion of these very gentlemen that quarterly meetings should be returned to. They embodied it as one of their chief amendments, and the meeting accepted it on my suggestion, on the floor, that that should be done. I believe it was Dr. Osgood who proposed it.
MR. VREDENBURGH: No, Mr. Hunt.

THE CHAIRMAN: At all events, Dr. Osgood took part in the discussion, and was in accord with that proposed amendment, and these quarterly meetings -- this quarterly meeting is held because of that. It is certainly held in response to a desire on the part of the Ashland House Committee, and those who believe with them. It was in response to their wish and their belief that quarterly meetings should be held. That furnished the first opportunity that this Board could seize upon in an effort to adjust our differences, and therefore a special meeting of the Board was called to act upon the proposition for the selection of a new board. Call what I have stated before purely a presumption, that the Ashland representatives would not be present to-day, it is fair to say it was well founded, otherwise we would have all those gentlemen here now - otherwise the three protests recorded to-day would not have been made. That is the situation as I understand it, and if I am not stating it correctly, I hope that if there is anything to be added to it, some member of the Board will amplify what I have said, or correct anything that I have said that is not correct. The resolution described and amplified in the extract of the Board's meeting read to you, the publication signed by the Ashland House Committee calling the Board's good faith in question and stating their own inability to properly canvass without knowing their names, as if in this some injustice had been done them, was the basis for the reason given why this Board finally concluded that if it did come to you with a request to select new members of the Board, it would not be submitting those resignations to a representative meeting. Furthermore, if their sense of fairness was to be called in question they would not submit their resignations anyway. However, this has been the result. There was no time between yesterday and to-day to notify the delegates who are here expecting to select candidates for the Board. I think that covers the ground as nearly as I can do so, and if not, if any one present at those meetings desires to state anything further, I hope he will do so.

MR. McGUIRE: You referred to a telephone conversation we had just a few days ago in which you stated that you inferred from my statement that this would not be a thoroughly representative meeting, that all the delegates would not attend — do you say that that was a matter of news to you? Is it still your impression that that was the first intimation you had of it? If so, that is not fair, because you had a month prior practically received the same information from me, and only as an expression of ray personal opinion, and I have here a copy of the letter which I sent to you under date of April 10th, about two weeks prior to this telephone conversation to which you have referred in which I made exactly the same statement, and in your answer, which I have here, you comment on that statement. Does it seem reasonable that the telephone conversation would be a great surprise to you after having had the information two weeks prior to the telephone conversation?

THE CHAIRMAN: My telephone conversation with you was to the effect that I did not expect from what I had heard that the gentlemen were going to attend. That is what I said. I do not know but what this is almost extraneous, but you will have to confine yourself to that, because we have got to proceed with the business of the meeting. I would be glad to have you read our correspondence.

MR. McGUIRE: I state now that of my own personal knowledge there was no official agreement to that effect.

MR. BALL: I did not understand the chairman to make his statement based on official knowledge on his part. I understood him to state that he had heard of it before.

THE CHAIRMAN: I thought I made that clear. The delegates will have to judge of that according to the way it has been presented. We will now proceed to the regular order of business.

The secretary then read his quarterly report as follows;

New York, May 2nd, 1907.

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this my regular quarterly report.

The following clubs have filed application for Active Membership:

Western Beagle Club,

Cleveland Fanciers' Club Co.

Fairfield County Kennel Club.

Bloodhound Club of America,

Framingham District Kennel Club.

Port Pitt Kennel Club.

Hudson Co. Kennel Club,

The above applications have been referred to the Membership Committee which will report its recommendation at this meeting.

A report from the Field Trial Committee, together with a minority report of said Committee will be submitted for your action.

The Philadelphia Pointer Club was dropped from membership for non-payment of dues on March 16th, 1907, in accordance with the resolution adopted at the February meeting. Said club has filed its application for reinstatement.

The Southern Kennel Club held a show under A. K. C. rules which closed Jan. 19th, 1907; notwithstanding a number of demands made for the listing fees received by said club at its show it has so far failed to pay said fees. It would appear that said club had received fees for listings and has used the money so received for other purposes. I would recommend that the Club and its officers be suspended.

The Pacific Advisory Committee has rendered a bill amounting to $35.80, for disbursements from Feb. 6th to April 22nd, 1907. I would recommend that the same be ordered paid.

Mr. James Watson who officiated as judge at the late New England Kennel Club Show claims that certain statements and rumors derogatory to his standing as a judge had been circulated and quoting precedents already established by this club demands an investigation, and has filed with this office certain correspondence on the subject which is now offered to you for such action as you may deem best in the premises.

Mr. James Ballantyne a disqualified man has filed his appeal for reinstatement.

The New England Kennel Club at its late show sustained a protest against the entry of a chow at its show by the Princess de Montglyon and cancelled the winnings of the dog protested. An appeal against the decisions of the New England Kennel Club has been filed, and will be referred to the Executive Committee.

W. L. Davis has filed a complaint against the registration of a Boston Terrier, number 104,166, as fraudulent.

W. W. Tucker has also filed a complaint against the registration of a Gt. Dane, number 90184. These cases will be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Messrs. A. D. Gillett, S. B. Cummings and A. D. Newell recommend certain amendments to the Rules, and the same will be referred to the Rules Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The treasurer then read his report as follows:
New York, May 2, 1907.

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly report:

Balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1907....................................................19,922.56
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date...................................................... 8,784.59
Total 28,707.15
Disbursements from Jan 1st to date ........................................... 7,018.92
Balance on hand 21,688.23
Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vedenburgh,
Treasurer."

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The majority and minority reports of the Field Trials Committee were read, and on motion referred to the Rules Committee.

THE SECRETARY: The Membership Committee reports the applications of the following named clubs for membership in the American Kennel Club: Western Beagle Club, Cleveland Fanciers' Club Company, Fairfield County Kennel Club, Bloodhound Club of America, Framingham District Kennel Club, Fort Pitt Kennel Club and Hudson County Kennel Club.

THE CHAIRMAN: I would like to say a few words to you on this question of admitting clubs at this time. You have got to face a situation far different now from that which was presented some years ago. In times past when this organization was being built up there were not many clubs. There was no trouble in securing delegates that were qualified, and who were in New York, or sufficiently near to attend the meetings, and if they did not attend them, they showed a lack of interest, and that produced its own remedy, but to-day the American Club is getting very large and its membership is becoming more and more scattered. When we began to hold meetings we did not have any representation practically, as you know, for specialty clubs. There were not very many of them, and dog shows at that time were only profitable in large centres. Small dog shows did not pay, and they did not pay the exhibitors. I do not mean to say that they did not pay the premiums, but the premiums were so small, and transportation was not so good, and altogether there was not the same reason for discrimination with regard to membership then; but now the membership is growing very fast, and we have got property; so that giving up a membership is a very different thing at the present time from giving it up fifteen or twenty years ago. Fifteen or twenty years ago when they gave up membership, they gave up the chances of belonging to an organization that might be in debt. Now, they would be giving up a membership in an organization that has property, and that membership constitutes proprietary rights and interests, which of course are useful. In former times nothing but membership was permitted to bring them under the control of the American Kennel Club in order to bring about uniformity of rules and uniformity with regard to discipline and other matters. No show could be given except by a member of the club. The consequence of that was that whenever it became desirable to hold a show in connection with some great public function, such as you have now at Jamestown, the exposition at Chicago at the World’s Fair, and others of the same kind -- whenever it was deemed advisable to hold one of these shows, (which was very good for kennel matter for the promotion of our interests in a way) those organizations had to be made members, even if the chances were that they would not live beyond that particular event. If they did not survive, there was no way of ridding ourselves of their membership, even if they never held any show at all and simply possessed what some have been pleased to call a charter they could not have their membership taken from them. And when you take the other extreme of an organization started in a small place, not having proper financial backing, and very small prospects for the future, and they held that charter, as they call it, that membership stood to the exclusion of some other club proposing to hold a show, perhaps venturing upon or even inviting a loss, but more capable of bearing it. I strongly urge you to think this matter over. It has been brought up before, but the delegates have always voted against it. In that they have made, in my mind, a very grave mistake. At the present time we are not settled entirely as to our future. We have a schism here in our ranks, and unfortunately it is not yet healed, but I hope it will be. So it would seem wise not to increase the membership at all. It has nothing to do with the votes here. Please disabuse your minds of that. On the contrary, I think the tendency would be on the part of both the directors, committees and delegates to even bend over backward in favor of such credentials as might be considered attributable to the opposition. Of course a contest of this kind, if it is sought to acquire representation — you can see a premium would thus be placed on creating little clubs and making them part of your membership and giving them a position here which you can, never rid yourselves of, and perhaps later on would not be entitled to hold such membership by reason of their not having performed the serious membership by reason of their not having performed the serious functions of a club holding shows, or promoting the breed of any special dog. You really do not want to encourage a specialty club to split up into a dozen or fifteen different sub-clubs, so to speak, containing a few members, perhaps not exceeding their officers, a few people in some localities, and bringing them alongside of the Collie Club, alongside of the Beagle Club— I mean the main bodies, the important specialty clubs— alongside the Fox Terrier Club or alongside of any organization.

Really, as business men who have been interested in this organization, (and you would not be fighting over it if you were not interested), I want to call your attention to that, and in view of the fact that all these difficulties are not settled, why don't you wait until they are and then in the selection of your new membership it will be based on what you believe to be for your Club's best interests and then you can discuss this matter dispassionately. There is no reason whatever why you should not be able to license a show, or, in other words, put an organization on probation until it grows and becomes worthy of election to your membership. Let them prove themselves. Let them establish themselves permanently. At one time such a plan was considered a mistake because then every club would have preferred a license would [illegible] paid no dues whatever to the American Kennel Club to help support it. But to-day what is ten dollars it does not amount to anything compared to the proportionate interest in the Club's property. At all events if so great a premium is put upon membership by this organization as to have a small concern stand in the way of holding of shows in some particular locality unless the rival pays quite a large sum -- I think there is such an instance, isn't there?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, Columbus.

THE CHAIRMAN: If it is worth that, if a charter, in other words, membership in this organization is worth so much, then raise your dues; in other words, make it worth while, or else change your constitution so as to permit licenses, and then when a club has grown to a fair size and worthy of membership in this organization, elect it. I earnestly recommend that for your consideration. You have before you for election to membership these seven clubs. It is in order to proceed to the election of them if you so desire.

MR. STEVENSON: Acting on the suggestion of the Chairman, I move that the election of these applicants for membership be postponed; also that the question of qualifying for membership or licensing shows be referred to the Rules Committee which will take up the present situation and recommend to this club at a future meeting some plan which will cover the point suggested by the president.

Motion seconded.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Would not that work some injustice to some clubs which desire in the near future, before this matter can be acted upon, to hold a show? Will not the action proposed by this motion deprive such clubs as want to give a show at a near date the opportunity of doing so?

THS SECRETARY: There are three or four of these applicants that intend to hold shows — claim dates.

THE CHAIRMAN: There is no real hardship excepting this, that if they are not members, their wins do not count; that is all. So far as holding a dog show is concerned, there is nothing to prevent their doing that. It does not reduce the premium list; it simply reduces the value of the wins.

MR. McGUIRE: Do I understand that in order to be eligible for membership it is necessary to have the approval of the Rules Committee in the future?
THE CHAIRMAN: No. The Rules Committee will suggest a method of licensing clubs; suggest some scheme in the constitution that will cover this point and enable this body to authorize a show to be held under the rules and in without membership.

MR. MORTIMER: If these applicants for membership are not admitted to membership, it is useless for them to try to hold a show. There can be no successful show held now in this country if it is not held under A.K.C. Rules.

THE CHAIRMAN: They cannot hold shows until the Autumn, can they?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, they are going to hold shows this summer, before our next meeting,

MR. MOORE: There are really two motions in the same resolution.

THE CHAIRMAN: You can divide that motion into two parts, if you desire.

MR. STEVENSON: My intention was to postpone action on these applications until the Rules Committee had taken up the question of qualification. I have no objection to its being divided.

MR. MOORE: I offer that in the form of an amendment, that the original motion be divided into two
MR. THOMAS: I do not know that the mover of the motion understands the situation, but I personally know of four or five clubs now forming, and probably a good portion, of these clubs desire to hold registered shows in the immediate future. I consider that the refusal on the part of this club to at least consider their election at the present time would cause a tempest that would make the present controversy look like a breeze in a tea pot. There are so many small clubs around the country that desire in the next few months to hold shows, it seems to me that this matter ought to, be brought to some immediate decision.

THE CHAIRMAN: It may be a hardship, but it seems to me that the interests of the American Kennel Club are far greater than those of some small organization in the neighborhood, and I submit that while it may be a hardship, nevertheless you will be acting in the right direction not to act on their election, because you ought to have really a sort of probationary condition for a club before it becomes an active member. I do not know what these applicants are, I am in absolute ignorance of their size or importance, but that very remark
Mr. Thomas has made me feel like emphasizing that recommendation, because you say they are little and small. The smaller they are, the smaller the hardship and certainly so far as the American Kennel Club is concerned, that is a greater reason why they should have to wait and pass through a period of probation and hold their shows under a license and qualify for Membership later.

MR. THOMAS: I do not know the names of any of these clubs, but I would make an amendment to the present motion to the effect that the present clubs applying for membership be acted upon, and that a, committee be appointed, if necessary to act on the proposition as presented.

THE CHAIRMAN: The amendment already offered would bring that about.

MR. CADWALADER: How many of these clubs are there?

THE CHAIRMAN: Seven.

MR. CADWALADER: They all intend to hold a show in the near future?

THE SECRETARY: There are five, I believe that hold show but only one that has claimed dates. One of them is the Beagle Club which holds field trials and another is a specialty club.

MR. CADWALADER: Would it be possible for the Rules Committee to hold a meeting in the near future?

THE CHAIRMAN: So far as this is concerned, committees are only intended to simplify the business for a meeting at large, but the meeting at large has a perfect right to go into details. The committee on membership has approved and recommended these clubs, yet it is perfectly competent for this meeting to take up each one of these recommendations and act upon them after discussion.

MR. VITI: If this does not involve a charge of the constitution, but only a change in the dog show rules, the dog show rules could be amended at the September meeting. It would be only a question of the summer time when dog shows are not usually held.

The amendment to divide Mr. Stevenson's motion into two parts was then put and carried.

The first part of the motion offered by Mr. Stevenson was then read as follows: "I move that the election of these applicants for membership be postponed."

The same was put and carried, Messrs. Thomas, Stivers, Lauder, Bates and Trown voting in the negative. Mr. McGuire stated that he desired to be recorded as opposed to the motion, but not voting.
THE CHAIRMAN: If the next resolution is passed there will be a reference to the Rules Committee of the question of reporting at the next meeting a plan by which this club can license shows by amending its rules instead, of electing clubs to membership. Then, that recommendation being reported, I believe it is competent under the constitution, for the club at the next quarterly meeting, to amend those rules, and then if these clubs are not elected, and it is decided again that they shall not become members at all, but shall be entitled to be licensed, they can receive a license to hold a show which will then answer the objection stated by Mr. Mortimer. In other words, that they can then hold shows under A.K.C. rules and their wins would count under those rules.

MR. THOMAS: Am I correct in surmising that the next meeting will be held in September?

THE CHAIRMAN: Quarterly meetings are held every three months.

MR. THOMAS: Then this present club which applies for a date cannot have the right to hold an A. K. C. show, and the matter cannot be acted upon?

THE CHAIRMAN: Not before the next quarterly meeting, unless there should be a special meeting. In the ordinary course of the business of this club a question of this kind will come up at the next quarterly meeting, but the constitution provides that you, as delegates, can have any special meeting that you want if applied, for in the proper way, and at such a meeting you will be able to act.

MR. THOMAS: May I be informed if this duo has paid its deposit?

THE CHAIRMAN: That would be immaterial. Their application is before the American Kennel Club.

The second part of the notion offered by Mr. Stevenson was then read as follows: “That the question of qualifying for membership or licensing shows be referred to the Rules Committee, which will take up the present situation and recommend to this club at a future meeting some plan which will cover the point suggested by the president.”

MR. CUTLER: The question is, shall it be referred to the Rules Committee for the Rules Committee to make some rule about the admission of clubs?

THE CHAIRMAN: No; the Rules Committee simply recommends; the Rules Committee has no power to act.

MR. CUTLER: Then it is to refer the matter to the Rules Committee for the purpose of having it recommend some rule to cover this point?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. CUTLER: Would it not be wiser to leave the matter as it is now? As it is now the Membership Committee have power to investigate everything; to investigate the standing of every duo that applies for membership; to investigate their purpose or motive in becoming members; to decide every application upon its merit, and then to recommend whether it shall be accepted as a member. It seems to me that any rule that might be adopted would be subject to occasionally hardship, and it could be probably circumvented, if the Membership Committee as it is in existence now, made all the necessary investigation, and after looking the matter over, see fit to recommend and applicant for membership, why cannot everything be accomplished under that provision that is in vogue to-day, as it can be under any rule which may be framed, I do not care how strict it is. You do not know what is going to happen in two or three years from now. A rule which may cover this matter to-day may not cover it several years from now, but it is fair to presume that when a committee appointed by this body looks into a matter and gives fair investigation and careful consideration and arrives at a conclusion, and then presents its findings to this body, that body will be in a fair position to act upon it. Take each case as it comes up, and it seems to me that is wiser than to try to make laws in advance to cover every case. The Rules Committee has already made some very good rules; it perhaps can make others when the time comes. They may not be binding, but at the same time they are practically binding because they have always been lived up to, and it seems to me that we are getting into a position here where we are going to have a reign of law in good old fashioned style. Too much law is a bad thing for any organization.

THE CHAIRMAN: You asked me, Mr. Cutler, and I presume you asked for an answer, with regard to it. I see by what you have said that you quite misunderstood the power of the committee on the admission of clubs. They are not vested with power to investigate in all particulars, not at all, not in the slightest; could not be by any rule of this club. But what the club will be able to do either through this committee or rather through the recommendation of this committee, is to license a small show, a small club, and bring it into being and let it grow until it is capable of becoming a member. If they now refuse to recommend a club because it is insignificant, that it does not seem to have the proper backing, then the club cannot join at all; then it simply has to go out of existence. On the other hand, if the recommendation that I make is adopted and the Membership Committee find that it is really quite a worthy organization, but has got to grow, it can be given a chance by licensing it and permitting it to hold a show.

MR. CUTLER: I do not differ with the Chair in that I believe that there are a great many clubs that should be put on probation. My only point is that it seems to me that that can be accomplished in a different way.

THE CHAIRMAN: It cannot be done under the present Rule. There is no power in the rules or constitution which permits anything but one of two things, either you become a member or you do not, and you have got to become a member to be able to hold a so called recognized show. You cannot hold a show under any other course.

MR. CUTLER: Suppose the Membership Committee has an application before it and they say, we want to investigate, we have not finished our investigation; we will continue this matter and not make any report at this meeting; in other words, we will not report at this meeting, but will continue the investigation further until we have ascertained that this club wants to come in good faith and has a good purpose in coming in. I understand your answer would be that they cannot, hold a show in the meantime. Is there any way of giving them a special license to hold a show with the idea that it may be taken away? Is that fair to them, to let them have a back door; to have two kinds of membership? It does not strike me as being right. I do not think there should be two grades of members. A club ought to be a member or it ought not. If it is not fit to come in, it ought to be held by the committee on investigation, on probation, if you wish to use that term, until it can prove that it has a purpose and has a field for good work. If it is not a proper club to become a member, then we ought not to let them give a show.

MR. THOMAS: I do not think a good many people understand what this proposition is. I know at the present moment three clubs that are desirous of giving an A. K. C. exhibition. They have grown up from small exhibitions, and they have now come to the point where they wish to give American Kennel Club shows in the early Autumn.

THE CHAIRMAN: You are not talking to the point. I rule your remarks out of order unless you devote yourself to the discussion of this motion. The part of the motion to which you are addressing your remarks has been passed.
MR. THOMAS: I would call attention to the fact that a great many clubs wish to hold A. K. C. shows later on, and that they will not know whether or not to state that they are going to hold or intend to hold A.K.C. shows. There are a great many one day shows held through the summer, and this matter which has come up will put them in a position where they will not know what to do.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, they do. They know perfectly well that they cannot announce this summer that they are going to hold shows as members of the American Kennel Club. They have got to hold shows where their wins will not count. They also will know, if they choose to ascertain, that there is before the Kennel Club for consideration the question of possibly making them members, or licensing them, and that their application for membership is regularly before the club, and will be acted upon probably at the next meeting.

The second part of the motion offered by Mr. Stevenson was then put and carried.

MR. POST: I have a resolution to submit, and with your permission I will ask the secretary to read it.

The secretary then read the following preamble and Resolution: “WHEREAS, the regularity of the incorporation of the Club has been brought into question and WHEREAS, in the opinion of the Club no such question can be fairly raised, NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that it be referred to the Attorneys for the club, to take such steps as may be necessary or proper in the premises.

George E. Post, Jr.

Seconded by E.M. Mance, Jr.

Resolution seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Philadelphia Pointer Club was dropped from membership for non-payment of dues on March 16, 1907, in accordance with the resolution adopted at the February meeting. They have received three notices, three bills. It filed an application on April 12th for reinstatement.

MR. MOORE: I move that the communication be acknowledged and laid upon the table.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Southern Kennel Club has neglected, declined or refused to pay the listing fees that it received from exhibitors for its show which closed on January 19th last. Under the rules they have seven days to turn in their listing and fees to this office. They have not turned them in and have informed me that they have spent the money, and state that when they get money they will pay it.

MR. MOORE: I move that they be given ten days in which to pay, and if not paid at the end of ten day they be suspended.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bill rendered my the Pacific Advisory Committee amounting to $35.80 was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. James Watson has requested an investigation as to certain rumors made against him as Judge at the New England show.

MR. MORRIS: I move that the matter be referred to the Executive Board with power.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the Chair.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and adopted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, N. Y., July 31, 1907.

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit this my regular quarterly report.

At the meeting held May 2d the applications for membership from seven clubs were laid on the table pending proposed action on a report of the Rules Committee under which clubs can be licensed to hold a show. Since that time one of the applications laid on the table has been withdrawn, and the following new applications have been filed:

“Chester Co. Agl. Association
Louisville Collie Club
Rutland Kennel Club
Simsbury Kennel Club”

All the applications for the registration of kennel names that have been filed with this office since February last, have been turned over to the Stud Book Committee, and its report will be placed before you.

The Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of April 27th will be made a part of the records of this
The Committee on Constitution and Rules held a meeting on June 12th last, and will submit Five Amendments to the Dog Show Rules, for action at this meeting. These amendments were published in the Gazette of June 30th.

By Act of the Legislature of Utah the title of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society was changed to that of the Utah State Fair Association, and the A. K. C. is requested to make the change in title of this club on its records.

The following changes have been filed.

"Mrs. L. L. Millar vs. People's Poultry and Pet Stock Association. Failure to pay a Special, alleged to have been won at the Show, Jan. 23d-26th.

J. T. Moore vs. Merrimack Valley Kennel Club.
Failure to pay a Special.

W. F. Fisher vs. Merrimack Valley Kennel Club.
Failure to pay a Special.

Mrs. A. O. Van Heusen vs. Princess de Montglyon.
Misconduct in connection with dogs.
At the late Wissahickon Show, the Alstead Kennel alleged that an entry of a Collie was sent to said show with a check to cover entry fees. It appears that the Wissahickon Show never received either entry or entry fee and at the request of Mrs. C. M. Lunt, one of the proprietors of the Alstead Kennels, the said Collie was permitted to compete, was awarded a prize, and the entry written in the Catalogue which is filed with this office. Such a procedure being unusual, the award was cancelled by this office upon the ground that as the entry was not received at the closing of the date of entry, that the dog officially was not eligible to compete at said show. The said Mrs. Lunt in behalf of the Alstead Kennels, has appealed from the above action and requests the win of the dog to be recognized.

Under date of June 18th Mr. T. B. Middlebrooke, Superintendent and Secretary of the Revere Kennel Club, filed a notice of the suspension of said club of ten exhibitors for removing their dogs from the show without permission, notice of the above was sent from this office to each person suspended, and in every case a reply has been received denying that permission was not granted them and that owing to the absence from the show of Mr. Middlebrooke that permission had been accorded by the person in charge of the gate. No further action can be taken by this office until official action is had in the premises.

The Pacific Advisory Committee has filed a for disbursements from April 25th to July 23rd, amounting to $40.10, I respectfully recommend that the same be ordered paid.

At the last New York Show Edward Lyons of Hadley, Mass, through M. T. Mason Agent, entered a Pointer bitch, named Betsy L. in limit Class, No. 105, and gave its pedigree by Joe Pointer, out of Sara’s Elsie, this bitch was awarded first prize. I have a certificate from the breeder L. E. Dickinson, stating that the sire of this bitch was Pointer D., and the dam Lucy. I have therefore cancelled the award and called upon Lyons, to show cause why action should not be taken against him for giving fraudulent pedigree.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary,”

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read, and is as follows:

New York, July 31, 1907,

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report.

Balance on hand Jan. 1st. 1907.................................................................19,922.56
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date..............................................................13,443.59

Total 33,366.15

Disbursements from Jan. 1st to date................................................14,928.99

Balance on hand 18,437.16

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Treasurer.”

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I have here the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee under date of April 27th, 1907.

MR. MOORE: I move that they be made a part of the record of this meeting and published in the Gazette.

Motion second and carried.

Following are such minutes:

"MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, S.F.K.C. BENCH SHOW,
_____________________ April 27, 1907. ______________________________

PRESENT: H. H. Carlton, Dr. W. P. Burnham, W. W. Stettheimer, J. P. Norman

ABSENT: J. E. de Ruyter.

On motion, Mr. Carlton took the chair."
Moved and seconded that the minutes of the previous meeting be accepted as published in the A.K. Gazette. CARRIED.

On motion, the resignation of J.E. deRuyter was taken from the table. It was moved and seconded, that the resignation being unavoidable on account of the removal of Mr. de Ruyter to Los Angelos, it be and hereby is accepted with the deepest regret, and that the thanks of this Committee be and hereby are extended to Mr. de Ruyter for his long and invaluable service to the best interests of kenneldom and the American Kennel Club, and for the many sacrifices he has been called on to make in the rendering of such services, and that the secretary of this Committee be and hereby is instructed to notify Mr. de Ruyter of this resolution. CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

It was Moved and seconded, that Charles K. Harley be nominated to the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB for appointment to the vacancy on this Committee occasioned by the resignation of John E. de Ruyter. Carried unanimously.

The Secretary read the application of the PASADENA KENNEL CLUB for membership, and stated that all requirements of the A.K.C. had been duly met. It was Moved and seconded, that the Pasadena Kennel Club be and hereby is elected to membership in the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB. CARRIED.
The secretary read the application of the Western Bullterrier Breeders Association for membership and stated that all requirements of the rules had been duly met, including an undertaking to conform to the standard, present or future, adopted by the Bull Terrier Club of America. It was Moved and seconded, that the Western Bull Terrier Breeders Association be and hereby is elected to membership in the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB. CARRIED.

PEASLEY vs. OAKLAND KENNEL CLUB

This was a protest filed by W.K. Peasley of Los Angeles, owner of the Hampshire Kennels, against the refusal of the Oakland Kennel Club to deliver to appellant a trophy offered by John Tait for the best Champion, as published in the premium list of the said club. It was stated and not contradicted, that the trophy was awarded in the ring to appellant’s foxterrier dog, Champion Wandee Knight, No. 262 in the catalogue. The defendant claimed that the said dog had no right to compete in the ring, the trophy having been really intended for the best dog entered in the “Champion Class”, and that the word “CLASS”, and that the word “CLASS” was omitted from the premium list and catalogue through inadvertence. The defendant further claimed that the appellant knew this, and was taking advantage of a technically to obtain the cup, he having omitted to enter
In the “Champion Class” through oversight of his handler. The defendant further stated that the judge, James Mortimer, had scratched out the number of appellant’s dog, “262; in the judge’s book and had substituted therefore No. 162, the number of the reserve dog, Champion Greystone Breadalbane, owned by O.J. Albee. The defendant was represented by the president, G.W. Ellery and the secretary W.E. Chute.

Defendant made the argument, that the context in the premium list and the “Champion Class” opened farther on should have caused appellant to know that his dog was not eligible to compete for the trophy, as it was not entered in the “Champion Class”.

After consideration of the evidence, it was MOVED and seconded, that whereas a club is responsible for its errors, in the same way as an exhibitor, according to rule XIV. Of Section 6 of By-laws, and whereas the premium list issued by the defendant club placed no restriction on the trophy offered for best Champion, therefore Be it Resolved, that the Oakland Kennel Club be and hereby is ordered to deliver to W.K. Peasley, the cup awarded at the late Oakland Dog Show for best Champion to the Appellant’s Fox Terrier, Champion Wandee Knight, No. 262 in the Oakland catalogue, and that said delivery must be made within sixty days from March 21st the closing day of said show, in default whereof, that said club be suspended until the delivery is made, and due notice thereof furnished to this committee. CARRIED.

SOUTHWESTERN KENNEL CLUB vs. J.W. BROOKS:

Misconduct.

The appellant club had suspended the defendant for having refused to take his dogs into the ring to compete for a special prize, which action the defendant justified by the statement that he had removed a puppy from the show after it was judged, which broke up his team, the said prize being a trophy for the best team of Boston terriers. A further reason for the suspension was the action of the defendant in having made remarks derogatory to the character and reflecting on the honesty and integrity of the judge, James Mortimer.

The defendant appeared, and the Southwestern Kennel Club was represented by J.J. Morris, chairman of the bench show committee.

From the affidavits furnished, it appeared that the defendant had been neaten in several classes and that he had become very excited, and had made remarks to members of the Bench Show Committee on others, that “the Judge had thrown him down, but that he would fix him”; “that unless the judge put matters right at Oakland, he would spend a thousand dollars to publish him over the country,” and other speeches of like kind.

The defendant, on being called on to furnish evidence in his defence, in addition to the affidavits already filed, which did not bear on this particular charge, said that he felt great regret to having made any such statements, that he desired to retract any and all reflections on the honesty and integrity of the judge, James Mortimer, that he had only made such statements in the excitement of the moment, when laboring under the disappointment of seeing his dogs beaten, and that he desired to offer to the Committee, the judge and Club his unqualified apology for having been guilty of the misconduct charged.

Mr. J.J. Morris, representing the appellant club, made a plea for leniency for the defendant.

It was Moved and seconded, that Whereas the refusal to take in a team of dogs to compete for a special prize did not constitute an offense punishable with suspension, and whereas the defendant acknowledged that he had been guilty of conduct prejudicial to the best interests of dogs and dog shows in making remarks reflecting on the honesty and integrity of the judge, James Mortimer, and whereas he has expressed his willingness to file with this Committee such apology as may be deemed suitable by it, Therefore be it Resolved, that the offense committed is punishable by suspension, and that such suspension shall be and is lifted, when the defendant shall have filed with the secretary of this Committee such apology to the parties concerned as may be deemed acceptable by the secretary of this Committee. CARRIED.

SOUTHWESTERN KENNEL CLUB vs. BENJAMIN BLOSSOM

Misconduct

The defendant had been suspended by the appellant club for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of Dogs and Dog Shows, in that he had forcibly removed his dogs form the late Dog Show held by the Southwestern Kennel Club at Los Angeles before the close of the show, contrary to the expressed wish of the superintendent and bench show committee of said show.

It appeared from the complaint filed by the club, that the defendant had been requested by the doorkeeper not to take his dog, Bill Sykes IV., Bulldog, from the show, and that he had told the doorkeeper to go to the devil and had refused him to give his name.

In defense, the defendant alleged unsanitary conditions prevailing at the show, danger of fire caused by smoking by officials, visitors and attendants and lack Of management, including frequent changes in the location of the dogs.

In reply, the club filed affidavits showing that the benching for which it had contracted failed to arrive, owing to wash-outs on the railroad, that it had used extraordinary means to provide its own benching, that it had succeeded in providing the same in a remarkably short space of time, that the conditions were not unsanitary, and that the defendant did not remove his dog until after it had been judged.

J.J. Morris, chairman of the bench show committee, represented the appellant club.

It was Moved and seconded, that Whereas the Southwestern Kennel Club was disappointed in not receiving the benching for which it had contracted by reason of wash-outs and other circumstances over which it had no control, and whereas the club had no knowledge of this disappointment until the morning of the opening of the show, and whereas the club used every effort to meet the unforeseen contingency, and proof thereof has been furnished, Benjamin Blossom, was not justified in removing his dogs form the show, prior to the close thereof, contrary to the rules by the Club provided and to the wishes of the superintendent. and the Bench Show Committee, and that the said Benjamin Blossom be and hereby is suspended from all privileges of the American Kennel Club for the period of six months, dating from the closing day of the show of the Southwestern Kennel Club at Los Angeles, March 9, 1907. CARRIED.

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned.

ATTEST:     J.P. Norman,
Secretary."

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, and is as follows:

STUD BOOK COMMITTEE’S REPORT

Referring to the resolution adopted at the March meeting, “That names of States, Territories, Cities, and Colleges and Universities shall not be granted as kennel names, prefixes or affixes,” we think same should be amended to read “Cities of importance” etc.

The Committee would request instructions as to cases wherein applications for Kennel Names are filed by more than one applicant, and wherever one or more of the applicants already have a registered kennel name, whether or not in such case the name applied for should be granted to the applicants.
J.J. Dutra has preferred charges against A.S. Foutes regarding the pedigree of a Boston Terrier, Minnie II, stating that the dam of the this Terrier, Minnie II, stating that the dam of this Terrier, was bred to a Spaniel before having been mated to a Boston Terrier, but as yet the complainant has not submitted any proof of the fact stated, and the Committee think that the matter should be held in abeyance until further proof is submitted.

In the matter of the Greyhound Melody II, l02227. T.W. Bartels has filed a protest in which he states” that I was the owner of Mac’s Melody on June 11, 1905, when she has a litter of puppies by Lord Bluff. I neither gave nor sold any of the bitch puppies of this litter to any one. This litter was whelped outside of Denver and it was afterwards said that there was a black and white bitch puppy obtained in some manner from the litter without my sanction. When Mr. Cox was about to purchase a white and black bitch purported to be from Mac’s Melody I notified him in person that if there was such a puppy that it has been stolen from me, and that I would protest his registering or entering in any event such a greyhounds as being from Mac’s Melody.

The applicant Mr. Cox claims that the pedigree is correct, but he can have no personal knowledge of the subject because he purchased same from A.S. Carter, who is given as the breeder and who states, “that I never owned this animal. A man by the name of William Schutz of Denver, who worked for me at that time, owned her and had me bring her down to Denver and trade her for a Pointer bitch.” That the question of pedigree being exclusively in the knowledge of Mr. Bartels, the Committee think full credence should be given to his statement regarding same. There does not appear any evidence of fraud affecting Mr. Cox or Mr. Carter. Carter however obtained the pedigree from one Schutz and we think therefore Mr. Carter should establish this fact and put us in communication with Mr. Schutz, and we recommend that the Secretary be instructed to communicate with him to this end. For the above stated reasons the registration of the dog should be cancelled.

The Committee has in hand several other cases but regret they are unable to report on them at present as some parties and witnesses have not responded to requests fro information necessary to a proper termination of the matters. The Committee expect replies very shortly when they will immediately report on same.

The word Aberdeen was not allowed, for the reason that it conflicts with the breed of that name.
In the matter of the Kennel Name Roydon, the same is disallowed on account of conflicting with the word Royban. In deciding between these two names, the Committee allowed Royvan on account of the application having been received prior to Roydon.

The word Sheepshead Bay, is not allowed for the reason that it conflicts with the Sheepshead Bay Kennel Club a member.

We recommend that the following names be allowed registered as kennel names, as the applications are in proper order and the names do not conflict with any already registered also that the following transfers be allowed:

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to know why the prefix “Aberdeen” was refused.

THE SECRETARY: Because there is an “Aberdeen” terrier.

MR. MORTIMER: No; that name has long ago gone into disuse, and that breed is now known as Scottish terrier. I fail to see why that should be a sufficient reason for not allowing the prefix “Aberdeen”.

MR. VITI: We thought it conflicted with the Aberdeen terrier. Moreover it is the name of a town, and there was a resolution passed at the last meeting provided that the name of a city should not be given.

MR. MOORE: I move that the report of the Stud Book Committee be accepted and the recommendations therein contained be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There are two questions which they ask that they want decided at this meeting. First, to amend a recent resolution that where the word “cities” is used, it should be amended to read “cities of importance.”

MR. MOORE: That was included in my motion to adopt the recommendations of the Stud Book Committee.

THE SECRETARY: They do not recommend; they ask for action on that.

THE CHAIRMAN: That should be taken up under the head of general business.

MR. VITI: We found there were so many small cities of different names, and that there was a tendency on the part of exhibitors to use the names of small cities without knowing them to be such, it would be necessary to have an atlas at hand to look up all these names, and there might be some city of that name somewhere. We thought for that reason they ought to be large or important cities or well known cities. We simply ask for instructions.

MR. MORTIMER: I move that the recommendation of the Stud Book Committee be adopted in that regard, that the word “cities” be amended to read “cities of importance.”

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The committee requests instructions as to cases wherein applications for kennel names are filed by more than one applicant, and wherever one or more of the applicants already have a registered kennel name, whether or not in such cases the name applied for should be granted to the applicants. In other words, the committee means, there is a rule that a man having had a kennel name registered, but where two men each have a kennel name, and they form a co-partnership, and they apply for another kennel name under the co-partnership, whether that shall be allowed.
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think if it was not one of the same breed that one of the previous applicants has applied for, it should be allowed.

MR. MORTIMER: I do not see any objection to allowing a partnership to have a kennel name, even if the partners have an individual kennel name of their own, so long as the dogs are owned by the partnership.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think if it was not one of the same breed that one of the previous applicants has applied for, it should be allowed.

MR. MORTIMER: I do not see any objection to allowing a partnership to have a kennel name, even if the partners have an individual kennel name of their own, so long as the dogs are owned by the partnership.

MR. APPLETON: Suppose one of the partners dies, the partnership goes on, and one man would have two names.

MR. MOORE: I think this is out of order. We can adopt the recommendations as a whole at this time, but we cannot go out of the order of business.

THE CHAIRMAN: We can act on the report.

MR. MORTIMER: I cannot see any objection to a partnership having a kennel name. I have the kennel name “Suffolk’ registered. Mr. Greer has a kennel name brookside”. If we chose to form a partnership why could not we take another kennel name to be used by us for dogs that are owned by us as a firm?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Under such a plan Mr. Mortimer might form a partnership with somebody else, and they can go on ad infinitum and have a dozen or more prefixes.

MR. THOMAS: Mr. Peters and I have a kennel and we formed a partnership and exhibited for some two years under a separate kennel name. We had, wherever we exhibited, anywhere from 8 to 15 dogs in a show, and materially benefited a show and had a great deal of sport out of it and it did no harm. The kennel no longer exists, but that is a tangible example.

THE SECRETARY: The committee brought up that instance that Mr. Thomas mentioned, and they felt that they possibly had been approving of a registration of a name that they ought not to have approved, but to make sure they ask for instructions on that point from this meeting.

MR. THOMAS: I move that the committee be instructed to report on this matter favorably, that is, to grant a co-partnership kennel name.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think we are doing a foolish act if we adopt that. It will tend to endless confusion. The two gentlemen who have claimed that prefix do not show that breed any longer. They have their own breed, and they show under their own prefix.

MR. MORTIMER: As I understand it, there is no rule which prevents the two gentlemen whose names have been mentioned, that is, Mr. Peters and Mr. Thomas, from showing dogs under the name of the Windy Valley Kennel, if they choose to.

MR. VITI: We simply want to know what is going to happen hereafter. We want to know for future guidance what we are going to do hereafter. There is a rule of the American Kennel Club that holds that no one shall have more than one name. We want to know when applications are made hereafter what is to be done.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Does not that rule prevent that practically?

THE SECRETARY: No, it does not, although it can act that way.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: If one of the partnership partners died, then one man has two kennel names. That would not be allowed, and therefore the partnership name would have to be cancelled.

THE SECRETARY: For example, you and I are in partnership, and I die. A part of your money was contributed to joint kennel name. you are the surviving partner. We have no right to cancel that name. Therefore, you would have two kennel names, would you not?
MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: No.

THE CHAIRMAN: Would not your name on your death become void?

THE SECRETARY: My name would become void, but the registration would not become void.

MR. MOORE: Take the case of the Presto Kennels. After Dr. Mott’s death the kennel name was sold to a party in New Jersey, and we approved of the transfer.

THE SECRETARY: The case of Mr. Tilford’s kennel was argued here at length, and it was decided that that was an asset of Mr. Tilford’s estate, and no one could use the name; that it was still in force, and that the only way the name could be used by another person would be to have the application for the transfer made by the executor of the estate. That was decided here by this club.

THE CHAIRMAN: How does that affect the partnership?

THE SECRETARY: The same way.

THE CHAIRMAN: You mean that the heirs of the deceased partner would have an interest in that kennel name?

THE SECRETARY: A one-half interest in that kennel name, yes.

MR. THOMAS: Would it be satisfactory if this was worded so that at the death or cessation of such partnership the name should lapse?

THE CHAIRMAN: I would like to have this matter referred back to the Stud Book Committee in order that we might have more information about it.

Mr. Thomas’ motion was then put and lost.

MR. EDSON: At this point I move that we suspend the regular order of business and proceed with the election of the different clubs. I am speaking for the clubs that have deposited their money for membership, and also deposited their checks claiming dates. The Fairfield County Kennel Club deposited its check for $10 for membership on March 11th.

MR. MOORE: I arise to a point of order.

MR. EDSON: After that rule has taken effect I suppose it will keep us from electing these different clubs as members under the old rule. They formed their clubs; they have deposited their money with the American Kennel Club during March and April. Then the new rules comes out of the June meeting, and they are held back.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, waiting for the report of the Rules Committee. It was so voted that they should vote at this meeting. I do not see the necessity of going out of the order of business to elect these clubs.
MR. EDSON: If that report is adopted by the meeting, the Fairfield County Kennel Club will have to come under that ruling, whereas if we suspend now and elect them members of the American Kennel Club under the old ruling, that will not apply to their membership, and they will become full bone fide members. I move that we suspend the regular order of business.

MR. MOORE: I arise to a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: What is your point?

MR. MOORE: That what Mr. Edson is saying is out of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not rule that he is out of order now.

MR. EDSON: I would like to say a few things here. The membership of the Fairfield County Kennel Club is 63 –

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is whether you move to suspend the regular order of business and take up this business out of its regular order.

MR. EDSON: I do move that we suspend the regular order of business and take up the election of these clubs.

Motion seconded and lost.

The report of the Committee of Rules was then read, and follows:
“RULES GOVERNING DOG SHOWS.”

Add to Rule II the following:

“Field Champion – Foxhounds. The dog winning the highest general average in any one year at the trials of the Brunswick Foxhound Club, or winning the highest general averages twice at any other trials of clubs, members of the American Kennel Club, shall be entitled to be recorded as a Field Champion.

Beagles – Classes when divided by height, must be divided as follows, and in no other way – Over 13 inches, and not exceeding 15 inches – 13 inches and under – 12 inches and under (optional with Club holding trials).

The members to be rated as follows:
National Beagle Club of America.......................................................... 4 points
New England Beagle Club................................................................. 3 “ Central Beagle Club........................................................................... 3 “ Keystone Beagle Club....................................................................... 2 “
Southern Beagle Club....................................................................... 1 “

Open class wins only to be counted.

RULES GOVERNING CLUBS.

Amend Rule III by Adding Section 2

“Any Club not a member of the American Kennel Club may be licensed to hold a show under the American Kennel Club rules upon the payment of ten dollars ($10.00) for such license, the same to accompany the application. All other conditions which now govern members shall apply to such licensed shows. Licenses if approved by the Membership Committee within ten days after same have been filed, must be issued by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club.”

Amend Rule XIII by adding:
“No special prize can be withdrawn or the conditions thereof changed after same has been published in the Premium List.”

Amend Rule XXVII by adding:
“Penalty for Non-compliance, five dollars ($5.00).”

Make new rule XI as follows:
“Any Club which accepts an entry fee other than that published in its Premium List, or in any way discriminates between exhibitors, shall upon proof of such discriminations be suspended.”

Change present rule XI to XXIX, inclusive to XII to XXX Inclusive.

Edward Brooks, Chairman Rules Committee.

MR. EDSON: I move that we suspend the order of business once more.

THE CHAIRMAN: The next business in order is to accept or not accept this report.

MR. EDSON: If that is accepted that will rule out the Fairfield County Kennel Club. We are lost if that is passed.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move it be laid on the table and taken up first under the head of new business.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the first amendment relating to field champions.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that it be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the proposed amendment relating to beagles.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I wish to offer an amendment to that, being a minority member of the Rules Committee, not considering that the propose amendment as read is a fair proposition at all. I wish to submit this, which is in my opinion fair:

Points to entitle a beagle to claim field championship title: Any bona fide starters in Open and Derby Classes at any public field trial affiliated with the American Kennel Club to be graded in points as follows: 75 entries and over, 5 points; 60 entries and under 75, 4 points; 45 entries and under 60, 3 points; 30 entries and under 45, 2 points; under 30, 1 point. 10 points are necessary to qualify for title of champion under following conditions: One win must be secured at a trial which is rated at 3 points or over, and points must be won under at least two different judges or set of judges at separate trials.

Amendment seconded.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: The proposition of the majority of the Rules Committee means plain and simple class rulings. If the proposed ruling goes through, they can sit on a rocking chair and do nothing and have the four points just the same. This is not fair sport. If there is a club of as many entries, and has as good a trial as the National, it ought to be entitled to the same credit. We do not want to make a class rule here and have to throw it over when another club has as many entries. Let us make the entries once for all.

THE SECRETARY: Do you mean to add your amendment to the classification of under and over inches, or do you mean to cut that out?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Only field trial champions.

THE SECRETARY: It is to be divided by height as follows-

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Only to the title, to the points

MR. APPLETON: I am a member of the committee that recommended this. Our object was to give something based on the last ten years, and that scale was based on that. We wanted to get something through. We did not think it possible to get a proper arrangement according to the number of starters, but in talking it over with the other gentlemen, as a member of the National Beagle Club, I am willing to agree to this amendment of Mr. Muss-Arnolt, provided the number of starters including the Derby, which I not an open class –

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I accept that. I did not make a distinction by the entries in the open class.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt's proposed amendment re-read.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think that is a little vague.

MR. MORTIMER: Suppose that at the National Beagle trials of this year, we will say, a dog wins under two judges, and that dog wins again the following year, and the same two judges are appointed. Will that count?

THE SECRETARY: No.

MR. APPLETON: I move to amend that by striking out that part of the recommendation referring to the same judges.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Yes, I accepted that.

The proposed amendment, as amended, was then read as follows:

Beagles: Classes when divided by height, must be divided as follows, and in no other way: Over 13 inches, and not exceeding 15 inches – 13 inches and under – 12 inches and under (optional with club holding trial).
Points to entitle a beagle to claim field championship title: Any bona fide starters, in open and Derby, at any public field trial affiliated with the American Kennel Club to be graded in points as follows: 75 entries and over, 5 points; 60 entries and under 75, 4 points; 45 entries and under 60, 3 points; 30 entries and under 45, 2 points; under 30, 1 point. 10 points are necessary to qualify for title of champion under following conditions, only open class wins to count. One win must be received at a trial which is graded at 3 points or over.

   Adopted.

   THE SECRETARY (Reading): Amend Rule III by adding Section 2.

   “Any club not a member of the American Kennel Club may be licensed to hold a show under the American Kennel Club rules upon the payment of ten dollars ($10.00) for such license, the same to accompany the application. All other conditions which now govern members shall apply to such licensed shows. Licensed if approved by the Membership Committee within ten days after same have been filed, must be issued by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club.”

   MR. EDSON: I would offer an amendment to that, to read: “That all clubs having requested membership in the American Kennel Club prior to August 1, 1907, be admitted to membership to the American Kennel Club under the old ruling.

MR. MORTIMER: Do I understand that this new rule prevents any admissions to the American Kennel Club?

MR. EDSON: It does as it stands.

MR. MOORE: Not at all. A licensed club has a right to apply for full membership at any and at all times.

MR. EDSON: You are making it a great hardship to the clubs that were organized.

MR. MOORE: I do not understand that. We allow them to hold their show.

MR. EDSON: The Fairfield County Kennel Club for membership, and applied for dates on March 11th and April 24th. We hold receipts for those dates. There was no such rule as this in force, and it was not even considered, and we organized our club thinking we could properly become members under those old conditions. That being the case, and the American Kennel Club desires to act properly I think, they should admit these under the old ruling as we requested to become members prior to any thought of this new rule coming up. We wish to become regular members. We are trying to promote dog interests. We have at the present time 63 members. I am perfectly willing to submit that list or anything else.
MR. THOMAS: I appeal to the gentlemen here in the name of the Simsbury Kennel Club for an equal footing with every other kennel club here, and I ask for the admittance of that club on the same basis as every other club. The club has been in existence three years. This is the third time it will have given a show. It has 45 members, and it will be the third A.K.C. Club, if it is admitted as an A.K.C. Club in the State of Connecticut now in active work. The Fairfield County Kennel Club will be the fourth. It you think there are too many clubs in the State of Connecticut helping on the work of the American Kennel Club, I am perfectly willing to step aside and take a license, or anything you like, but I appeal to you as sportsmen to let those clubs in on an equal basis with every other club. It was organized and has given two shows; not A.K.C. shows, and at its last show there were nearly 200 dogs benched. Mr. Bates has exhibited there and Dr. DeMund and Mr. Edson has exhibited there for the last two years.

MR. STEVENSON: If I understand this question properly, up to the present time the only way that a dog show could be given under A.K.C. rules was for a club to become a member. Am I correct?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. STEVENSON: The question arose some time ago suggested, I think, by Mr. Belmont, as to the advisability of limiting the membership of this club, and the matter was referred to a committee which made this report, and the effect of this report, as I understand it, if recommended and carried, is to provide for those who did not wish to form a club for the purpose of becoming members, but who wished to hold a show under A.K.C. rules, so that if this rule is passed a club need not become a member of the American Kennel Club to hold a show, but they may be licensed. I take it that the gentleman misinterprets the intention, and he interprets it to mean that if this rule was passed no other club can ever become a member of the American Kennel Club. If this rule is passed I think it is optional with the gentleman’s club whether they make application for membership, and being elected they could hold their show under AKC rules; so their standing cannot be affected in any manner, shape or form by the passage of this resolution. Their application for membership can be acted upon and they can be elected. If perchance they should not be elected, they can apply for a license.

MR. THOMAS: I would like to know under what circumstances if this rule goes into effect, discrimination will be made as to whether a show is a bona fide proposition working for dog interests, or whether it is a fake organization for political purposes. In other words, how will it be decided as to whether the thing is a bona fide proposition or not?

THE CHAIRMAN: I suppose the delegates will have to settle that.

MR VITI: I understand this rule exactly as Mr. Stevenson has stated it. It does not preclude any club that has made application for active membership by a vote of the delegates here being elected, provided of course the application has been on file a proper length of time; they may be elected either to active membership or as a licenses member. If we adopt the rule then the motions that have been made by Mr. Edson and Mr. Thomas could be acted upon as to whether or not those clubs, for the reasons that they have stated, shall be elected to active membership commencing today, or license clubs.

MR. EDSON: If that is the case, and one way accomplishes it as well as another, why not do it now?

MR. VITI: Because I do not think you can suspend this business. It is not germane to the report of the Rules Committee, and would be constitutional. It is not germane to the amendments proposed by the Rules Committee, and you can only offer an amendment that is germane to the original amendment suggested by the Rules Committee.

DR. DE MUND: Why is it then that these clubs that had their applications in before the last meeting were not admitted an usual at that time? Why was a new rule suggested and the clubs kept out? It has worked a great deal of hardship to the Fairfield County Kennel Club. Why could not they have been admitted at the last meeting as usual?

THE CHAIRMAN: Were you at the meeting when the delegates voted to do this?
DR. DE MUND: No, but I think it is rather a humiliating spectacle.

THE CHAIRMAN: Were you at that meeting?
DR. DE MUND: No, I was not at the meeting.

MR. STEVENSON: I move that the recommendation be adopted.
MR. THOMAS: I represent a bona fide proposition, and I am perfectly willing to leave it to the gentlemen present as to whether my club should be a full fledged member of the AKC.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is not the question. The question is whether this is a proper rule to pass.

Motion to adopt amendment seconded and carried.
THE SECRETARY (Reading): Amend rule XIII by adding, “No special prize can be withdrawn or the conditions thereof changed after same has been published in the Premium List.”

DR. DE MUND: I move that it be adopted.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY (Reading): Amend Rule XVII by adding: “Penalty for non-compliance, five dollars ($5.00).”

That amendment was brought in pursuant to instructions of the delegates. The rules provides at present that the size of the catalogues shall not exceed a certain dimension, and shall not be less than a certain dimension, but there was no penalty fixed when they violated that rule, and we found that some of the clubs were violating the rule by making the dimensions of their catalogues anything they pleased, and we now fix a penalty of five dollars.

Moved and seconded that the proposed amendment be adopted.
Carried.

THE SECRETARY (Reading): Make new Rule XI as follows: “Any club which accepts as entry fee other than that published in its premium list, or in any way discriminates between exhibitors, shall upon proof of such discrimination be suspended.”
The object of that rule is this: That any one of you gentlemen paying three dollars for the privilege of competing for a prize at any show must know as a fact that a professional handler cannot go to that show and allow that show to pay him a rebate of one dollar, or a dollar and a half or two dollars in order to send twenty or thirty entries, and he competing against you, paying one-third of entry fee that you paid.

On motion, duly seconded, said proposed amendment was adopted.

THE SECRETARY (Reading): Change present rule XI to XXIX inclusive to XII to XXX inclusive. That is owing to making new Rule XI.

On motion, duly seconded, the same was adopted.

MR. MORTIMER: I should like to make a motion as to the time when that should go into effect; that is, the changing of the rule; the additions that have been made and the rules that have been changed, that some day be fixed when those rules should go into effect. I have all my rules and premium list in print. All the preliminary copy for the premium list I have already sent to the printer, and no doubt it is in type by this time. Must I alter those rules?

THE SECRETARY: No. Make the amendments acted upon today to take effect September 1st.
MR. MORTIMER: I move that they go into effect the 1st day of September.

THE SECRETARY: That will not affect any show that files its classification prior to September 1st.

MR. MOORE: It goes into effect today?

THE CHAIRMAN: No, September

MR. MOORE: How can you approve of any show until September 1st.

THE SECRETARY: Approve them under the present rule.

MR. MOORE: How are you going to license shows? I move that the amendments to the rules governing the holding of shows go into effect immediately, and the other amendments go into effect on September 1st.

MR. STEVENSON: I move to amend that, that all rules go into effect immediately except the rule governing the discrimination of shows, and that to take effect September 1st.

THE SECRETARY: I think the easiest way to get over this is that the amendments adopted today, with the exception of that under which shows can be licensed, shall go into effect on September 1st; that the amendment covering the licensing of shows to go into effect upon its passage. That will cover the whole thing.

MR. MOORE: I accept that correction to my motion.

Seconded and carried.
THE SECRETARY: The Deseret Agricultural & Manufacturing Society, by act of the Legislature, was changed to that of the Utah State Fair Association, and it asks that the change be noted on our records.

On motion the request was granted and the change directed to be noted on the record.

On motion the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements, from April 25th to July 23rd, amounting to $40.10, was ordered paid.

The matter of the suspension by the Revere Kennel Club of ten exhibitors for removing their dogs from its show without permission was, on motion of Mr. Muss-Arnolt, referred to the Executive Board.

THE SECRETARY: I have nothing else to present for your action except the application of the clubs that were laid upon the table at the last meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN: If it is in order we will take that up now.

THE SECRETARY: The earliest application is December 10, 1906, of the Western Beagle Club. That application was held up since the time of its reception for the reason that the Western Beagle Club failed to file the consent of the National Beagle Club. It finally filed that consent April 30th last.

The Western Beagle Club was then balloted for and elected.

MR. MOORE: I move that the applications for the Simsbury Kennel Club and the Fairfield County Kennel Club be taken up for election at this time. I claim that everything else is out of order. I ask that those two be voted upon.

MR. VITI: I second the motion.

Motion carried.

In view of the appeal made on behalf of the Fairfield County Kennel Club, the Simsbury Kennel Club and the Bloodhound Club of America, the applications of such clubs were then voted upon and they were duly elected.

Present:
Hildreth K. Bloodgood,
Marcel A. Viti,
James W. Appleton,
William B. Emery,
Monson Morris,
Dwight Moore,
Rowland P. Keasbey,
J. H. Brookfield,
Winthrop Rutherfurd,
B. S. Smith,
Chetwood Smith,
C. F. R. Drake,
John G. Bates.

In the absence of the President and Vice President Mr. William B. Emery was selected as temporary chairman.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were adopted as published in the Gazette.

The secretary read the credentials of clubs appointing delegates as follows:
Chesapeake Kennel Club, Mr. S. T. Peters.
English Setter Club, Mr. Charles M. Bruce.
Hartford Show Association, Mr. William L. Davis.
Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, Mr. Clarence Sackett.
North Shore Kennel Club, Mr. William J. Green.
District of Columbia Kennel Club, Mr. Howe Totten.
Welsh Terrier Club, Mr. P. B. Lord, Jr.
Bloodhound Club of America, Dr. Louis G. Knox.
Bergen County Kennel Club, Mr. William H. Carroll.
Asbury Park Kennel Club, Mr. Joseph M. Dale.
Westminster Kennel Club, Mr. William Rauch.

All approved by the Committee.

Anthracite Kennel Club, Mr. R. E. Westlake; not approved by the Committee, he having been a paid judge.

Western Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association, James H. Andrews, M. D.; no report by the committee.

Philadelphia Collie Club, Dr. J. Richard Dalling; no report by the committee.

Duquesne Kennel Club of Western Pennsylvania, Mr. S. S. Leslie, Jr; no report by the committee.

Methuen Kennel Club, Mr. Willis N. Kimbal; no report by the committee because he is already a delegate and has not been withdrawn.

Genesee County Kennel Club, Mr. Charles W. Gardner; no report by the committee.

Toy Spaniel Club, Mr. H. Lee Anstey; No report by the committee.

Long Island Kennel Club, Mr. John S. Collins; no report by the committee, American Pomeranian Club, Mr. Henry D. Riley; not approved by the committee, he being the secretary of a show giving club.

MR. MOORE: I move that we proceed to the election of those delegates approved by the committee:

Motion seconded and carried.

The following named delegates were then elected to represent the following named clubs:

Chesapeake Kennel Club   S.T. Peters
English Setter Club       Charles M. Bruce
Hartford Show Association William L. Davis
Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association Clarence Sackett
North Shore Kennel Club   William J. Green
District of Columbia Kennel Club Howe Totten
Welsh Terrier Club        F.B. Lord, Jr.
Bloodhound Club of America Dr. Louis G. Knox
Bergen County Kennel Club  William H. Carroll
Asbury Park Kennel Club    Joseph M. Dale Westminster Kennel Club    William Rauch

At this point Mr. Emery resigned the chair to Mr. H.K. Bloodgood.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club (Inc.)
Gentlemen:

I have the honor to present this my regular quarterly, report.

Three applications for membership and twenty-one credential certificates have been referred to the Membership Committee, and a report from same will be submitted at this meeting for your consideration. All matters under the jurisdiction of the Stud Book Committee have been referred, and a report covering the applications for kennel names having been received since the last meeting will be presented to you.

I beg to report that the Newport Dog Show has tendered its resignation to take effect at once. This club being in good standing I recommend the acceptance of this resignation.

The following complaints have been filed:

Mrs. L. L. Millar vs. Peoples’ Poultry and Pet Stock Ass.

M. S. Heald vs. Revere Kennel Club.

G. F. Eggert vs. Westminster Kennel Club.

F. E. Smith vs. Wolverine Kennel Club.

John E. White vs. Dr. James 0. Lacaillade,

The above cases with the exception of the last mentioned are claims for unpaid prizes, the latter being for misconduct in connection with dogs.

I beg to report that since the new rule governing licenses went into effect the Membership, Committee has approved of eight applications, and I have accordingly issued li-to the following clubs: Louisville Collie Club, Rutland Kennel Club, Chester County Agricultural Association, Greenfield Country Club, Collie Club of the State Agricultural Society, Fort Worth Pet Stock Association, Illinois Valley Kennel Club, Sullivan County Kennel Club and Cleveland Fanciers Club Company.

In connection with the license question I respectfully request a ruling upon the following points:

First: Shall a license be granted to a Specialty Club there being a club for the same breed already an active member.

Second: In case a Specialty Club can be licensed, what should be the rating of such a show.

A rule exists by which a Specialty Club cannot become a member unless it files with its application the consent and approval of the older member for the same breed. This possibly might be construed to cover the license question, but there is nothing whatever in the rule under which your Secretary can assure the responsibility of deciding that point, and for that reason the above ruling is asked for.

I mailed final bills to all Associate Subscribers in arrears for subscriptions for 1907 on September 5th, and would request the usual resolution that such persons in arrears at the expiration of the thirty days from the mailing of said bills shall be dropped without further notice,

I would respectfully call your attention to the fact that there are two vacancies in this Board, one in the class to serve two years, and one in the class to serve three years. These vacancies were laid over at the last meeting.

Since writing the above report I beg to state that I have received from the Wolverine K. C. an affidavit setting forth that they have just paid all outstanding claims in full for prize money due exhibitors at the late show.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer's report was read, and is as follows:

New York, Sept. 19, 1907.

To the Directors

Of the American Kennel Club (Inc.)

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my financial report to date.

Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1907, 19,922.56
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date, 15,865.33
Total, 35,787.89

Disbursements from Jan. to date, 17,284.58

Balance on hand, 18,503.31
Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh, Treasurer.
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Viti, Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, reported that said committee had approved the applications for the following kennel names, as they do not conflict with any already registered:

Aberdare Philip Boyer and W. A. Flagg.
Amberston J. B. Clancy and N. L. Clancy.
Beaufresne Gardner Cassatt.
Beechview Charles Biesel.
Brandwood Philip J. Brand.
Bruce Mrs. F. L. Schubert.
Cayuta A. L. Thompson.
Elorer J. E. Webster.
Fernbank O. B. Fleming.
Gabilan Mrs. Thomas Murphy.
Harman's Mrs. G. Harman-Shelley.
La Sonrisa R. C. Halstead.
Lincroft W. A. Winter.
Longhill A. B. Dalby and M. Echverria
Majestic L. M. Chaney.
Mirasol C. C. Curtis.
Newry Jos. A. McAlleenan,
Old Home Mr. & Mrs. A. A. Capwell,
Phiro     F.A. Fisher
Richwoods Walter Mc Roberts.
Rockley    Mrs. W. W. Vaughn.
Rhuddlan   Edward C. Kirk
Tanglewood John K. W. Loyd.

MR. MOORE: I move that the recommendations of the Stud Book Committee be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The complaints that have been filed are to be referred to the Executive Board. There are five.

MR. MOORE: I move they be referred to the Executive Board.

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I ask for a ruling. Shall a license be granted to a Specialty Club there being a club for the same breed already an active member? The rule today is that there being an active member of a Specialty Club, no other Specialty Club of the same breed can be admitted to membership unless it files with its application the written consent and approval of the original club.

   THE CHAIR:    It is practically the same thing.

   THE SECRETARY:     It is practically the same thing if it is so decided.    The inference is that it is the same thing.

   THE CHAIR:    This is a question of license, and to become a member the applicant must have the consent of the specialty club.

   MR. MOORE:    But only to become a member.    Why should they not hold a show ?

   THE CHAIR :    Does not a license accomplish it in the same way ?

   MR. MOORE :    No, because they are only licensed to hold a show, and if a sufficient number of men form a specialty club, and hold a show, and are willing to take the one point, I do not see why they should not hold a show.

   MR. VITI :    It seems to me that it is a question of standard, because there is no guaranty that the specialty club—I do not care what the rating may be—-would abide by the same standard of weights and measures as the original club, and you have four or five different standards in different parts of the country.

   MR. MOORE :    I move that no licenses be granted to specialty clubs unless they are regular members of the American Kennel Club, or receive the approval of the specialty club of same breed now a member of the American Kennel Club.
THE SECRETARY: That would not be advisable because a regular member is entitled to hold a show. I suppose you mean by your resolution that a license shall not be granted to specialty club where a club exhibiting the same breed is on our roll of membership.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Suppose a parent club is in the east and the specialty club applying for a license is out west, and the specialty club is perfectly willing and anxious to abide by the standard and rules of the parent club, and all they desired to do was to give a show, why should they not have a license to hold a show? Would it not be well to ascertain if they are willing to abide by the proper standard, and if they understand that their existence is contingent upon their following a proper standard for that breed, that then they can be permitted to hold a show, if it does not clash with the original club,

MR. SMITH: It seems to me that the whole matter could be covered by granting the other specialty club a license providing the parent club is willing for them to have a license.

THE CHAIR: It is a question of the American Kennel Club protecting its members.

MR. APPLETON: I move that licenses be granted to specialty club subject to the written approval of the specialty club of the same breed now a member of the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.
THE SECRETARY: The second question is, In case a specialty club can be licensed, what should be the rating of such a show? A member holding a show rates at four points.

MR. VITI: I do not see how you can change that. The rules in regard to the rating of other licensed shows certainly apply, and I do not see how you can suspend those relating to specialty clubs and not suspend those relating to ordinary show clubs. I think they are licensed they should be licensed to have the same privileges as the rules allow to specialty club members. I do not see how you can possibly get away from that. Of course you can change your rules if you so desire.

MR. MOORE: If they are granted four points would the shows held in the west or in the middle west be represent active of the breed to entitle them to four points towards a championship?

THE CHAIR: Probably it would not, but it is a question of the rules.

MR. MOORE: The question is, is specialty club unless it is a member of the American Kennel Club? What constitutes a specialty club in this country?

THE CHAIR: I suppose it is a specialty club if you license it as a specialty club.

MR. MOORE: Then we recognize it.

MR. RUTHERFORD: What is the rule of rating at ordinary shows?

THE SECRETARY: At general shows the minimum of one point, and then it is determined on the number of actual dogs that the catalogue shows have been entered. On the Pacific coast there is a different rating, but every specialty club now is guaranteed four points.

MR. BATES: Would they get a point more out there on their specialty shows?

THE SECRETARY: No.

MR. RUTHERFURD: This is a licensed specialty club?

MR. VITI: It is a licensed specialty club, but it can only be licensed to hold shows under the rules of the American Kennel Club.

MR. RUTHERFORD: They have got to hold their shows under the rules, but as regards their rating I think it would be amply covered if you included in the motion the condition that the rating is to be determined by the parent club.

MR. MOORE: All we can do to-day is to interpret the rules.

THIS SECRETARY: You have just determined that an application for a license to a specialty club may be granted if with that application is filed the approval of the original club member. That is settled. Now another question comes up. The parent specialty club cannot determine for us what the rating of that licensed show shall be.

MR. RUTHERFURD: But they might suggest it.

MR. MOORE: The Membership Committee has power to take care of that.
THE SECRETARY: They cannot determine on the rating.

MR. MDORE: Then it will be a four point rating.

MR. VITI: Rule III says that all other conditions which now govern members shall apply to such licensed shows. "What are licensed shows? Clubs. It does not say specialty clubs. It means show club and specialty club.

MR. MOORE: I think we can resolve that it is the sense of this meeting that no club can be recognized as a specialty club which is not a member of the American Kennel Club. Then we deny their applications right at the start.

THE SECRETARY: But you have just passed a resolution that they can be licensed.

MR. WORE: We can rescind that, that former resolution which we passed which in a sense recognizes specialty clubs that do not belong to the American Kennel Club, which is contrary to our rules.

THE SECRETARY: My opinion is that if we have a specialty club member in good standing we ought not to license a show for the same breed of dogs.

MR. MORE: That was my idea originally.

MR. MORRIS: That is in the hands of the parent club.

THE SECRETARY: I think the Membership Committee would rather have some instructions in regard to it, and not be left to act upon its own responsibility.

MR. MOORE: I move that it is the sense of this meeting that if licenses are granted to specialty clubs, the same rating applies as to a member of the American Kennel Club in accordance with Rule III.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRET AST : The Newport Dog Show tenders its resignation to take effect at once.

MR. SMITH : I move that the resignation be accepted with regret.

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY : Final bills to associate subscribers in arrears were mailed on September 5th, and I would ask for the passage of the usual resolution that all such persons that may be in arrears on October 5th shall be dropped from the roll without further notice.

MR. MOORE : I make such a motion. Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY : There are two vacancies on this Board, one to serve in the three year class, and the other to serve in the two year class.

MR. SMITH : I nominate Mr. Joseph 1, Dale to fill the vacancy in the three year division. I think something should be said in regard to Mr. Dale, at this meeting. I think if the American Kennel Club ever had a faithful servant and a man who was interested in its affairs, it is Mr. Joseph M. Dale. Through a miserable fraud he was virtually ousted from this club, and I think if there is any delegate who is worthy of a place on this Board, who really deserves it, that man is
Mr. Joseph M. Dale.

Mr. Viti: I nominate Mr. William Rauch, of the Westminster Kennel Club to fill the vacancy in the two year division.

Mr. Dale was elected by a vote of nine to one.

Mr. Rauch was elected unanimously.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read Ms regular quarterly report as follows:

New York, November 26, 1907.

To the American Kennel Club (Inc.)

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that the Pacific Advisory Committee has filed a copy of the minutes of its meeting held November 12th, 1907, and will present same at this meeting for your consideration.

The Stud Book Committee recommends the granting of 34 applications for kennel names, and ten applications for transfer of registered kennel names.

The following charges have been filed: Oct. 10, 1907, Charles S. Shand vs. C. A. Armstrong; Oct. 16, 1907, E. M. Meek vs. Daniel O'Keefe; Nov. 19, 1907, Silver Lake Kennels vs. Rutland Kennel Club. These matters will be referred to the Executive Committee.

I have a communication from the Bull Terrier Club of America, dated Nov. 13, 1907, informing me that the check sent from this office on Nov. 12th for a return of the deposit fee of $25.00, had through an accident been burned, and requests a duplicate check. I took immediate steps to stop the payment of this check, and now ask your authority to issue a duplicate check for said amount.

The Pacific Advisory Committee has presented a bill for disbursements from August 1st to Nov. 18th amounting to $61.85, and would recommend the payment of the same.
The bills to clubs for the annual dues for 1$08 will be mailed on the 30th instant, and I now ask for instructions whether I shall accept dues tendered after Jan. 1st. The Constitution prescribes that clubs that have failed to pay their dues on or before Jan. 1st shall forfeit all right to representation. The question arose one year ago whether the secretary had the right to accept dues tendered after Jan. 1st.

I will present two communications, one from the Long Island Kennel Club and one from R. F. Mayhew.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer's report was read as follows:

New York, Nov. 26, 1907. To the American Kennel Club (Inc.) Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my financial report for the year 1907 to date:

Balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1907, 19,922.56
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date, 19,531.94
Total, 39,454.50
Disbursements from Jan. 1st to date, 20,895.76
Balance on hand, $18,558.74.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer.
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I present the minutes of the meeting the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MOORE: I move that the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Board be spread upon the minutes of this meeting and published in the Gazette in the usual manner.

Motion seconded and carried.

The minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee are as follows:

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE A.K.C. at 1196 McAlister Street, San Francisco, Nov. 12, 1907.
Present: Chas. K. Harley, Chairman; H. H. Carlton, Dr. W. P. Burnham, W. W. Stettheimer and J. P. Norman.

On motion, the minutes of the previous meeting were approved as published in the Gazette.

The application of the Western Fox Terrier Breeders Association was presented by the Secretary. The applicant having complied with all requirements, including an undertaking to conform to the standard as adopted by the parent specialty club, it was Moved and seconded that the Western Fox Terrier Breeders Association be and hereby is elected to membership in the American Kennel Club. Carried.

The application of the California Cocker Club for membership was presented by the secretary. The applicant having complied with all requirements, including an undertaking to conform to the standard adopted by the parent specialty club, Moved and seconded that the California Cocker Club be and hereby is elected to membership in the American Kennel Club. Carried.

By direction of the chair the secretary was called to read a statement published in a New York Kennel paper over the alleged signature of the "Ashland Committee." The chair called for an expression of opinion and a substantive motion, and it was Moved and seconded, that whereas there appears in the issue of Field and Fancy, dated Nov. 2nd, 1907, over the alleged signature of the "Ashland Committee" the following statement:

"we can tell you the facts in the case of Dr. Andrew, the delegate appointed by the Western Bull Terrier Breeders' Association. This club did not choose to accept a man whose name had been sent to Norman, secretary to the Pacific Advisory Board, by Vredenburgh and suggested to them by Norman. When informed of what had been put up to this club, the Bull Terrier Club told them that it was a foregone conclusion, that if they did not accept Vredenburgh's man, they would not get any other man past the committee. They replied that they did not care, that they had no use for any kind of a delegate except one who would represent them."

and whereas, this Committee has determined by such investigation as is so far possible that there is no vestige of truth in the statement as published, Therefore be it Resolved, that the officials of the Western Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association be and hereby are requested to appear before this Committee at its next meeting to be held on Tuesday, the tenth day of December, for the purpose of adding further testimony in this matter. Carried.

PABST VS. STOCKTON KENNEL CLUB: MISCONDUCT IN CONNECTION WITH DOG SHOWS.

The complaint recited that the appellant, H. M. Pabst of Portland, Oregon, had mailed to the Stockton Kennel Club on October 1st the date of the closing of entries for the Stockton show, an envelope containing the entries of appellant's Pointer Mason's King, and of the Fox Terrier Multnomah Blue, belonging to W. B. Fechheimer. The envelope had been misdirected to Stockton, Wash, and did not arrive at Stockton, Cal. until the 11th October, after the catalogue had been printed. Under instructions from the Chairman of the Bench Show Committee the secretary of the club wired the appellant refusing the entries, but on receipt of another telegram from appellant, stating that entries had been mailed before date of closing, wired accepting the entries, having been advised by telephone by the secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, that such acceptance or rejection was at the discretion of the club. The pointer arrived at noon of the opening day of the show, together with the fox terrier. Both were admitted and benched, but the pointer was not allowed to compete, the chairman of the bench show committee having instructed the judge to refuse to judge the dog.
Mr. Fechheimer, the representative of the appellant, protested, but the bench show committee claimed to have overruled the protest verbally.

In view of the fact that no evidence was submitted by the club showing that the entries were not actually mailed before the date of closing, and that the secretary of the club telegraphed the appellant that his entries would be accepted, it was Moved and seconded, that whereas there is no evidence before this Committee to show that the appellant's entry was not mailed before the closing of entries for the show, and whereas the secretary of the Stockton Kennel club wired the appellant that his entry would be accepted, Therefore be it

Resolved, that the appeal be and hereby is sustained, and that the Stockton Kennel Club was grossly in error in refusing to allow appellant's Pointer to be judged and is hereby censured for such refusal; and it is further

Resolved, that the following items of account claimed by the appellant be not allowed for the reasons stated, viz:

- Expense at dog show, necessity not shown, $5.00
- Telegrams incurred through appellant's misdirection of letter, .77
- Half expense of representative, Mr. Fechheimer, Not necessary, as the club advised that it would take due care of dogs sent by express, 50.00

And it is further

Resolved, that the following items of appellant's account tie and hereby are allowed, and that the Stockton Kennel Club be hereby is ordered to pay the following amounts within ten days from date into the hands of this committee, viz:

Entrance fee, $2.00
Deposit for Protest, $5.00
Expressage to and from Stockton, $13.95

Total, $20.95

and that the same together with appellant's deposit to this Committee shall be duly paid to him on surrender of the express company's receipt for the charges paid. Carried.

NIEBORGER VS. STOCKTON KENNEL CLUB: Misconduct in connection with dog show.

The appellant, George A. Nieborger, complains that the Stockton Kennel Club refused to allow his brace of Cocker Spaniels to compete for a trophy offered in the premium list "For the best Brace of Cocker Spaniels", on the ground that the said brace had not been entered in a class provided for braces, and that he had filed a protest and a deposit of $5.00 in connection with said refusal, and had received no decision in writing as provided by the rule, or otherwise. Appellant further charged:

2'. That the superintendent was permitted to show dogs in the ring contrary to the rules.

3'. That his dogs and a number of others were not examined by a veterinary surgeon prior to being benched or during the progress of the show. Appellant claims damages in the sum of $50.00.

On suggestion of the Committee appellant agreed to allow the representative of the club, R. H. Groves, treasurer, to recite verbally the decision of the Bench Show committee, which the secretary had been instructed to convey to appellant in writing and had not so done. Said decision was the overruled of the appellant's protest. Evidence was produced by the defendant showing that the veterinarian of the club had been in attendance and had examined all dogs daily before and during the progress of the show. After hearing witnesses on either side it was Moved and seconded, that whereas the premium list of the Stockton Kennel Club contained the offer of a trophy for the best brace of Cocker Spaniels, and it was shown that the appellant's brace was entitled to compete, inasmuch as no mention was made in said offer of any restriction in the nature of an obligatory entry in a brace class, Therefore be it

Resolved that appellant was entitled to compete in such class and the decision of the bench show committee of the Stockton Kennel Club is hereby overruled and the said club ordered to return to defendant within ten days from the date the deposit of $5.00, and it is further resolved that the award of the said cup for best brace is hereby cancelled, and the holder, W. H. MacKay, is hereby ordered to return the said cup to the Stockton Kennel Club within ten days from date or be then suspended from all privileges of the American Kennel Club, and the Stockton Kennel club is hereby censured for refusing to allow appellant's dogs to be judged in the ring by the judge of the show then present. And it is further resolved that the charge No. 2 of appellant be dismissed.
And it is further resolved that the charge No. 3 of appellant be dismissed, and that appellant's deposit be returned to him in the regular course.
Carried.

HANSING V. LAURIN : Charge of fraud and misrepresentation.

F. L. Hansing, of Salt Lake City, charges that Joseph A. Laurin, of Montreal, did not conform to contract in the matter of a purchase of an Airedale Terrier bitch supposed to be in whelp.

There being no reply from defendant, and the registration receipt not having been returned to the secretary, it was Moved and seconded that the case be postponed to the next meeting, December 10th, 1907. Carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned on motion to Tuesday,
December 10th, 1907.

On motion the report was accepted and kennel names granted.

On motion the treasurer was authorized to pay the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee amounting to $61.85.

On motion the charges filed in the matters of Shand vs. Armstrong, Meek vs. O’Keefe and Silver Lake Kennels vs. Rutland Kennel Club were referred to the Executive Committee.

The secretary was, on motion, empowered to send a duplicate check for $25. to the Bull Terrier Club of America to replace a check for the same amount burned through accident.

THE SECRETARY: I ask for instructions whether I shall accept dues from clubs tendered after January 1st. As I read the rule it is mandatory in one part of it, which is that the club ceases to have representation if the dues are not paid on or before January 1st. I take it that if I accept those dues tendered after January 1st by my individual act I re-instate representation. The additional part of the rule is that if dues are not paid on or before January 1st the club may be suspended or dropped. Last year of my own volition I declined to accept dues that were tendered after January 1st, and at a subsequent meeting there was a resolution adopted by which I was directed to accept those dues as of a certain date.

MR. MORTIMER: What was customary previous to January 1st?

THE SECRETARY: Previous to the incorporation I accepted the dues -whenever they were paid.

MR. MOORE: There was a resolution passed at the last February meeting touching upon that.

THE SECRETARY: There was on that individual case,

MR. MORRIS*: What is the use of having a rule if we do not live up to it? The rule is plain enough.

THE SECRETARY: All the bills will go out on Saturday, the 30th, and on the bottom of each bill is this clause of the constitution. The clubs then have 30 days within which to pay their dues according to the constitution. I want definite instruction as to whether or not I shall accept dues tendered after January 1st.

MR. MORTIMER: The rule says you must not accept
THE SECRETARY: The rule says that they shall cease to have representation if their dues are not paid on or before January 1st. If I accept them when tendered after that date do I not reinstate the representation of a club that the constitution has disfranchised?

MR. MOOEE: The secretary need not accept them in writing. He can say that the check has been received and it will be placed before the next meeting of the club.

THE SECRETARY: The rule says they may be suspended or dropped.

MR. LORD: Therefore it is necessary for them to act; and if the secretary takes that check it does not become dues until the club acts.

THE SECRETARY: Does not the secretary reinstate their representation by accepting it?

MR. LORD: I do not think it necessarily does from the wording of the constitution.

THE CHAIR: It seems to me that the proper way is if those dues are not paid on or before the first of January the secretary report that to the club, and the club can decide as to whether they shall be suspended or not. They might have a very good reason for not sending in their dues in time. It would be a question of appeal then I should think.

MR. B. S. SMITH: I move that the secretary be instructed not to accept any dues tendered after January 1st.

Motion seconded.
THE SECRETARY: All I ask is the club's direction. If the association tells me to accept dues whenever they are tendered, that is all I want. If any club should send dues post marked January 1st I would of course accept it just as I would an entry to a show.

MR. MOORE: It is very unusual for people to look at the post mark on a communication to see if it was mailed on time, and for that reason if the dues are payable on January 1st, and we give them ten or fifteen days grace, I do not see why that would not be proper. I offer an amendment to the motion giving them ten days after January 1st in which to pay their dues.

MR. B. S. SMITH: I think by passing that amendment you do away with the rule, I think all the secretary wants to know is whether he shall accept these dues after January 1st or not for the reason that last year he was censured for not having done so in several cases.

MR. LORD: If the dues are accepted, it makes no difference if the club is not in good standing, but if a club has been so late in paying its bills that the delegates think it a good thing to suspend that club, they can do it even after the check has been accepted, under the wording of the clause. But if, as Mr. Smith says, the secretary has been censured for not having lived up to this rule strictly, I take back what I say. I do not see why it is not perfectly proper to let those checks come in and accept them, and return the checks or return the money if the Kennel club shall decide that the club shall not be re-instated. The club can be dropped or it can lose its representation.

THE SECRETARY: It must lose its representation.

THE CHAIR: Your print is, Mr. Lord, that the Secretary’s action is not binding on the club?

MR. LORD: I do not think the Secretary’s is binding on the club.

MR. MORTIMER: I offer an amendment to the amendment that 30 days grace be allowed to clubs in arrears.

MR. MOORE: I am willing to make it 30 days if necessary, but I think ten days is sufficient. Last year the secretary was not criticized unless he was criticized for not using his discretion. He could not use his discretion in the matter. Now he wants to know just what he shall do. Last year he rejected the checks, and then we had to extend the time, I think, 60 days.

THE SECRETARY: At the annual meeting they accepted every amount that had been tendered up to that time as of an earlier date.

MR. MOORE: Therefore if you were to fix a date now it would be perfectly satisfactory, I do not accept the amendment. I think ten days is sufficient.

MR. MORRIS: Is not this matter absolutely settled by the constitution?

THE CHAIR: I do not think the Secretary has anything to do with it in this case. It is for the delegates to drop them or not as they please. As I understand it, the fact that the Secretary receives a check is not binding on the club in any way.

   THE SECRETARY : I have to send a receipt for the check if I accept it.

   MR. B. S. SMITH: I think the secretary asked the question whether he shall live up to the rule laid down or not this year. I move that the secretary be instructed to live up to the rule.

   THE CHAIR: If you are ready we will vote on the second amendment first.

   MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: It has notably to do with dropping the club. It is simply the re-instatement of that representation.

   THE CHAIR: That is all. You have heard the motion. The second amendment is that clubs have 30 days after the first of January.

   MR. BLOODGOOD: I don't think we have any right to do that. I don't think we have the power to do that.

   MR. MORTIMER: I withdraw my amendment, as to 30 days.

   THE SECRETARY: You can only amend articles to the constitution in February.

   MR. WILLETS: There is nothing in the constitution about whether you accept the check or not. If a club does not pay its dues before the first of January it ceases to be represented.

   THE CHAIR: Accepting the check up to the 31st of January will not do this at all.

MR. VITI: It seems to me you would only be re-instating the representation. They do not lose their membership. It simply says that they shall not be represented while the dues are not paid.

THE CHAIR: This motion for the secretary's guidance does not change the article in any way. They lose their representation if the check comes after the first of January whether he accents it or whether he does not. I cannot see that we are amending the constitution in any way. We could not amend the constitution at this meeting. If it could be pointed out to me that we were amending the constitution in any way I should rule the motion out of order.

MR. MOORE: You are making a motion concerning something that has not occurred. You cannot legislate for something that is going to happen.

THE CHAIR: All legislation is for the future.

MR. BROOKS: Are you not extending their representation 30 days?

THE CHAIR: No, by no means. We simply tell the secretary he can accept the check. It empowers the secretary to keep the check here.

MR. BROOKS: So long as you hold the check they have the right to send a delegate here.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: It seems to me that if the bills go out on Saturday they have 30 days notice, but as the printing on the bills is not particularly conspicuous, I should think it would be wise for the secretary to enclose an additional circular stating in large type that clubs would waive their right to representation unless their dues are paid by January 1st. I think after that it would, be proper for the secretary, after January 1st, to accept checks, but in receipting his bills stating it is in payment of dues, and that the right to representation has been forfeited.

MR. MOORE: If that is put in the form of an amendment I will withdraw my amendment.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I would make that as a motion, substituting it for the other motion.

MR. MORTIMER: Before that motion is put I would like to ask how long it is going to take to get those circulars out.

THE SECRETARY: I can have them printed so that they would go out Saturday with the bills.

Motion second and carried.

The Secretary read the following communication from the secretary of the Long Island Kennel Club;

Oct. 14, 1907,

American Kennel Club,

55 Liberty Street,

New York City.

Gentlemen:
The following copy of a resolution unanimously passed at the last regular monthly meeting of the Long Island Kennel Club held in Brooklyn on October 1, 1907, is transmitted to you in according with the instruction therein contained:

Resolved: That the Secretary be instructed to call the attention of the American Kennel Club to the fact that no action appears to have been taken on the credentials of the club's delegate to the American Kennel Club presented in the early months of the present year; and that as a consequence the Long Island Kennel Club, one of the largest showing giving
org. in the US in point of membership, has now bee without proper representation for nearly a year.

Resolved further: That in the absence of any official or other intimation that the delegate elected to represent the club is not in good standing or is unacceptable for any reason, the Secretary be instructed to request definite action on the credentials in question, and official notice of such action at the earliest possible date, to the end that the exact status of the Long Island Kennel Club as a member of the AKC may be determined.

Respectfully submitted,
John H. Dorian
Secretary

MR. MORRIS: I move the communication be laid on the table.

THE SECRETARY: The credentials of the Long Island Kennel Club were presented to the Board of Directors at the meeting in Feb, the day following the annual meeting, and I think that he received one white vote. They were notified to that effect that he was not accepted, and they then filed another set of credentials for the same gentleman, and the Membership Committee, at the August meeting, the following meeting, reported that in its judgment of any delegate owning to the domestic condition of affairs in the Kennel Club, and there the matter rests.

THE CHAIR: Then their present credentials are before the Membership Committee at the moment?

THE SECRETARY: At the next meeting the Membership Committee will have to report for or against; that is, if they report on any of the credentials of any delegate owning to the domestic condition of affairs in the Kennel Club, and there the matter rests.

THE CHAIR: Then their present credentials are before the Membership Committee at the moment?

THE SECRETARY: At the next meeting the Membership Committee will have to report for or against; that is, if they report on any of the credentials.

THE CHAIR: What has been written to them in answer to this?

THE SECRETARY: That I would present the matter to
DR. DEMUND: I would like to ask why the Membership Committee could report upon other credentials if they could not report on the credentials of the Long Island Kennel Club.

The Secretary then read the part of the rules bearding on this subject.

DR. DEMUND: Was such a notice ever sent to the Long Island Kennel Club or to its delegate, by the Membership Committee?

MR. EMERY: I do not think that those credentials have come before the committee since last Feb. when, if I remember correctly, they were passed over to the meeting.

THE SECRETARY: It was approved by you?

MR. EMERY: Yes, but the action of the meeting blackballed the candidate. So far as the Membership Committee was concerned, that was passed to the meeting and approved.

DR. DEMUND: I should say that the candidate never came up before the meeting; he merely came up before a few of the directors.

THE CHAIR: is the application before the Comm now?

THE SECRETARY: Yes. There are a number before the club now, by they cannot be acted upon.

THE CHAIR: Do I understand you to say that no credentials have come in since then?

MR. EMERY: No additional ones.

DR. DEMUND: Did not the secretary just say that credentials have since been filed with the Membership Committee?

THE SECRETARY: There are ten credentials there. His is among them.

DR. DEMUND: Did not the secretary just announce that they had been before the Membership Comm, and they said they preferred not to report upon them?

THE SECRETARY: At the August meeting, and it is a part of the minutes.

DR. DEMUND: I ask the Membership Committee if they have not been before it.

MR. EMERY: They have not been before the Committee because they have not been signed.

THE SECRETARY: The Membership Committee refused to sign any.

DR. DEMUND: That is what we are asking, why they do not report upon them.

MR. EMERY: The Membership Committee decided that just at present it is not wise to approve or disapprove of any of the credentials of delegates until the atmosphere is cleared so far as the domestic trouble of the club is concerned.

DR. DEMUND: Then why did they discriminate in approving some credentials and not others? They say one minute they do not care to pass upon any. Then why do they do they pass on some and not on all?

THE CHAIR: That is your expression of opinion.

DR. DEMUND: No; the secretary said they have passed on some and not on others.
MR. MOORE: I move that the matter be referred to the Membership Committee.

DR. DEMUND: It has been before them. The letter asks why some action has not been taken.

MR. MOORE: I move that this letter from the Long Island Kennel Club be referred to the Membership Comm.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There is one more communication written by Mr. R. F. Mayhew on the same subject, as the rep. of the Pomeranian Club, that his credentials had been rejected, and he asks me to publish the letter in the Gazette. I told him I was willing to do that, but I would refer it to the meeting.

Communication referred to and reply read.

   DR. DEMUND: I move that Mr. Mayhew's letter be published in the Gazette.
   Motion not seconded.

   MR. MOORE: I move that that letter be laid upon the table. It is entirely out of order. It is from an individual and not from a club.
   MR. BROOKS: I second the motion.
   Motion carried.

   MR. MORRIS: I move that the Rules Comm take up the subject of increasing the championship points, increasing the rating of a show necessary to qualify for a championship.
   Motion seconded and lost.

On motion the meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

THE CHAIR: As I understand, there is only one thing before us today, and that is an agreement that has been drawn up by the counsel for the Ashland House Comm. and the counsel for the American Kennel Club. This agreement was voted on by the directors and unanimously carried. The memorandum will not be read.

Mr. Taylor read the memorandum as follows:

Whereas, suit has been brought by the members of the Ashland House Comm. attacking the validity of the corporate existence of the club and praying for the appointment of a receiver and for judgment directing the Incorporation Club to turn over its assets, etc., to the old unincorporated club; and

Whereas, the defense of said suit would entail great expense to the club; and

Whereas, the matters in controversy can be settled once and for all by the club and this render further prosecution of said suit unnecessary and relieve the club of the expenses attendant thereon;

Now, therefore, be it

Resolved that a committee of thirty be appointed and elected as follows:

Messrs. Frederick H. Osgood, John E. DeMund, Clair Foster, Lawrence M.D. McGuire and Henry Jarrett appointed by the Ashland House Comm;

Messrs. Wm G. Rockefeller, Dwight Moore, Howard Willets, B.S. Smith and Marcel A. Viti, appointed by the President of the club, all of whom have signified their willingness to act on said comm...

Twenty members of said committee are to be elected by a mail vote of all of the members of this club, and of the members of the American Kennel Club Unincorporated, as they existed on the 19th day of November, 1906. The present delegate of the associate subscribers shall each be entitled to one vote for each of said twenty members of said committee. The vote of the a delegate of a member shall be considered and counted as the vote of the member he represents unless such member shall decide at a meeting thereof, regularly called and held, to vote itself for said twenty committeemen, and shall itself vote therefore by a ballot signed by it President and Voice President and Secretary, in which case the vote of such member shall be counted and that of its delegate shall be of no effect and disregarded.

A member of the club which was also a member of the American Kennel Club Unincorporated on the 19th day of Nov., 1906, shall have but one vote and shall not be entitled to an additional vote by reason of the fact that it was a member of both clubs, and any member of the American Kennel Club Unincorporated in good standing on the 19th day of Nov. 1906, shall be entitled to resigned from this club of the American Kennel Club Unincorporated subsequent to said date.

Members not having delegates may at a meeting thereof regularly called and held vote for the said twenty committeemen and the ballot of such class so voting shall be signed by its President or Vice President and Secretary.

Each member to be entitled to one vote for each of said twenty committeemen, to be cast by itself or its delegate as above provided, and the twenty names receiving the highest number of votes shall be and constitute twenty members of said committee.

Twenty names for said committee shall be proposed by the Board of Directors of this club and twenty names shall be proposed by the Ashland House Comm, any twenty of which may be elected by the members or their delegates, as above provided, as member of said comm., but the members or their delegates, vote as aforesaid, shall not be confined to the names as they may see fit as members of said committee.

The Secretary shall at once sane to each delegate to the club, and to each member of the club, and to each member and delegate of the American Kennel Club Unincorporated in good standing on the 19th day of Nov. 1906, a copy of these resolutions, and a list of the names proposed by the Board of Directors of the club and by the Ashland House Comm respectively, together with a request to such delegate or member to vote for twenty names for said comm., and to return his or its ballots in an envelope, to be sent therewith, addressed to him, and marked “Vote for Committee.”
All votes must be returned to the Secretary on or before January 21st, 1908, and shall be opened and counted by him and two tellers to be appointed by the ten members appointed by the Ashland House Comm. and by the President of the his club, as above provided, and in the presence of the attorney for this club and the attorney for the Ashland House Comm. Said notes to remain securely sealed and unopened and until said canvassing, which shall be on the 22nd day of Jan. 1908.

Such comm. shall organize as soon after Jan. 22nd, 1908, as practicable and elect a chairman and secretary. A majority of the comm.. shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Such committee shall have full power and authority to determine by a majority vote of the entire comm.. whether the club as it now stands is properly incorporated or whether it would be for the best interests of the club to re-incorporate, and if so upon what lines, and for that purpose take a mail vote so that a full vote of the committee may be assured.

Should such comm.. by such majority vote decide that the club should be re-incorporated, then in that event the comm.. shall have full power and authority to re-incorporate the club, adopt a constitution and select and elect a board of directors therefore by a majority vote of the entire comm.. which may be taken by mail, and generally to do everything requisite and necessary to be done to make such new incorporated club an organization prepared and competent to take over the assets, effects, good will, name, etc. of the American Kennel Club.

MR. MORRIS: I move the adoption of the preambles and resolution.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I second the motion.

The resolution was unanimously carried.

Mr. Belmont then took the Chair.

THE CHAIR: I want to congratulate you, gentlemen. I have been informed that you have unanimously adopted these resolutions. That augurs the beginning of a very early end.

On motion the meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

MR. EMERY: The Membership Committee has ten credentials on file, a number of which are in proper form. The others simply lack one or two slight details which may be furnished in a day or two by mail. The Membership Committee is ready to approve the credentials which are in proper form if this meeting so desires.

MR. MOORE: How many are in proper form?

MR. EMERY: There are three in proper form. I might add that of the seven remaining two of the gentlemen named are already delegates, so I do not see how we can re-elect them.

THE CHAIR: Do you mean by that that they represent some other club now?

MR. EMERY: They represent clubs other than those for which they are now proposed.

THE CHAIR: Do I understand you to say that they are delegates at present?

MR. EMERY: They are delegates at present.

THE SECRETARY: As I understand it there are two delegates present who have been appointed to represent other clubs, and have not yet resigned from the clubs that they do now represent.

MR. EMERY: That is correct.

The following named gentlemen were then elected to represent the following named clubs.

Simsbury Kennel Club, Louis E. Stoddard.
Old English Sheep Dog Club of America    J.P. Welch
Toy Spaniel Club of America, H. Lee Anstey

THE CHAIR: What is the report of the Committee as to the other delegates?

MR. EMERY: We will have to lay those over until their credentials are received in proper form.

MR. MOORE: I move that those credentials be laid over until the next meeting.

MR. EMERY: We desire instructions to write to these various clubs asking for a reply to our letters within a specified time. Otherwise we cannot approve their credentials. It is only fair to some of the clubs that we should hear from them.

MR. VITI: I move that the request of the committee be granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

American Kennel Club (Inc.)

Gentlemen:

The Stud Book Committee beg to report the granting of the following names as kennel names, prefixes and affixes:

<table>

</tbody>
</table>
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and kennel names granted.

On motion of Mr. Rockefeller the Board went into executive session.
The President, Mr. August Belmont, then took the Chair.
The Board then arose.
The memorandum of terms for the adjustment of the questions at issue between the Ashland House Committee and the American Kennel Club (Inc.), having been recommended by Mr. R.D. Murray, attorney for the American Kennel Club, having been read to the meeting, on motion was unanimously adopted.

MR. VITI: I move in the event of the memorandum of terms which was just read being adopted by the quarterly meeting that the secretary be directed to request a mail vote from the Board of Directors for nominees for the ticket of twenty to be suggested by the President, and that the twenty names receiving the highest number of votes shall constitute that ticket.

Motion seconded and carried.
MR. APPLETON: In adopting rules some time ago covering field championships for fox hounds and beagles no provision was made for registering such champions or for the issuing of medals to field champions. Therefore I moved that the secretary be instructed to register fox hounds and beagles who are entitled to field champions as such, and to issue to them an American Kennel Club championship medal provided that the dogs are registered in the stud book of the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

Adjourned.

THE CHAIR: If there be no objection the minutes of the last meeting, as published in the Gazette, will be accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: In the minutes of the last meeting of the directors, as published in the Gazette, there is attributed to Mr. Moore a statement in reference to legislation for the future. Mr. Moore states that he made no such statement and desires to have the matter corrected.

On motion the paragraph was amended and corrected to read as follows: Substitute the words “A delegate” in the place and stead of the words “Mr. Moore.”

The Secretary then read his regular quarterly report as follows:

New York, February 12, 1908.

To the American Kennel Club (Inc.).

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to present my quarterly report for your information and consideration.

I have submitted ten credentials appointing delegates to your Membership Committee, which will report its recommendations to you at this meeting.

The annual report, as pr. Sec. XI Corporation Laws: Pacific Advisory Committee reports, and Treasurer’s report will be presented in their proper order of business.
A bill for disbursements by the Pacific Advisory Committee, amounting to $72.95 has been received and your Secretary and your Secretary would recommend the usual resolution ordering its payment.

The Toledo Kennel Club, under date of Dec. 9, 1907, requests to be dropped from the roll of membership, and the Rockland County Industrial Association, under date of Dec. 20, 1907 tenders its resignation. These Associations were in good standing at the time of the receipt of their communications having paid their dues to Jan. 1, 1908, and your Secretary would respectfully recommend that their requests be granted.

I also report that the Dalmatian Club of America filed a communication dated Jan. 15, 1908 advising your Secretary that Mr. J. B. Thomas, Jr., had ceased to be its delegate from that date.

I beg to report the suspension of Fred P. Kirby by the Philadelphia Dog Show Association.

The following charges have been filed:

Dec. 16, 1907: W. H. C. Pillsbury vs. Ladies' Kennel Association of Massachusetts. Charge, unpaid special. Notice was sent by your Secretary to Mrs. O. K. Dennee, Secretary, on Dec. 16, 1907. No reply has been received by this office.
Dec. 28, 1907: M. A. Ross vs. Amos Clayton. Charge: Selling plaintiff a blind dog. Notice was sent Clayton, by registered mail, on same date. No reply has been received.

Jan. 28, 1908: C. M. Hutton and Fred M. Huggins vs. Fort Wroth Poultry and Pet Stock Association. Charge: Failure to act on their protest. The usual notices were sent to the secretary, who replied that the case was not acted upon for the reason that the plaintiffs had failed to file proofs in support of their allegations.

Feb. 11, 1908: L. M. Goldsmith vs. Fort Worth Poultry and Pet Stock Association. Charge: Unpaid prizes. Notice was mailed to the Secretary yesterday and therefore no reply can be expected within a week hence. I will present a communication from Mr. Wallace N. Vreeland, and correspondence relative to same, on the subject of awards in Cocker Spaniels, at the late Bryn Mawr Show. We called on the Secretary of said show to forward to this this office the judge’s book, which has evidently been lost in the mail, and the missing book is now being traced by the Post Office Authorities.

In this matter of lost mail, the many reports from our various correspondents, notifying us of remittances, which upon search we can find no record of the receipt of same, is getting to be a very serious matter. The complaints began early in November last, and have continued without intermission to date. We receive daily from one to seven such complaints, and all have been reported to the Postmaster, who in turn handed them to the Inspector for investigation. With the view of removing as many possibilities as possible. I rented a Post Office Box, No. 2048, and arranged that all mail for this office should be taken from said box.
by the delivery clerk, and placed in a mail bag, and the lock snapped by him, I keeping the key in our safe. There can therefore be no opportunity of our mail being tampered with, between the Post Office and myself, and notwithstanding these measures of precaution, the daily loss of letters still continues. Two notices have been published in our Gazette warning our patrons, and asking to register all letters containing money. I am reporting this matter very fully, for the purpose of giving widespread notice through the publication of the minutes of this meeting the sporting papers, and with a request that all persons sending remittances through the mail to this office to register same, for their own protection.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:

New York, Feb 12, 1907.

To the American Kennel Club (Inc.).

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Amount</th>

I also beg to report that bills for dues for 1908 were mailed on Nov. 30, 1907 with an enclosure advising the Clubs that in case the dues were not paid on or before Jan. 1, 1908 that such Clubs that were in arrears on said date, would forfeit the right to representation by delegate. I now have to report the following Club in arrears:

Chesapeake Kennel Club,
Framingham District Kennel Club,
Massachusetts Kennel Club,
Taunton Kennel Club,
Methuen Kennel Club,
Southern Ohio Kennel Club,
Valley Fair Kennel Club.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary then read the following report:

February 13, 1908

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to Section XI of the Membership Corporation Law, we beg to report the financial statement of the American Kennel Club (Inc.) for the year 1907. We also report the admission of the following clubs to membership, to wit:

Western Beagle Club,
Fairfield County Kennel Club,
Simsbury Kennel Club,
Bloodhound Club of America.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer.

H. H. HUNNEWELL,
Vice-President.
THE SECRETARY: The financial statement was published in the last Gazette.

I have the regular minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee, and also special minutes from the same committee. They have not been published.

The minutes of the regular meeting follow:

REGULAR MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE:

1296 McAlister Street, San Francisco,

February 1st, 1908

Present: H. H. Carlton, Dr. W. P. Burnham, W. W. Stettheimer,

J. P, Norman.

On motion, Dr. Burnham took the chair.

It was moved and seconded that the regular order of business be suspended and that the case of Nieborger vs. the California Cocker Club be taken up. Carried.

NIEBORGER V. CALIFORNIA COCKER CLUB: The appellant, George A. Neiborger, protests against the action of the California Cocker Club in expelling him from membership in said club without giving him an opportunity to be heard in his own defense.

The respondent filed the defense that said action did not affect appellant’s status with the American Kennel Club, inasmuch as appellant had been dropped from membership for the reason that members of the club found him inharmonious and uncongenial.

The defendant further pleaded that inasmuch as said action did not affect defendant’s good standing with the American Kennel Club and was taken in the interest of the California Cocker Club and was a purely domestic affair, the expulsion of appellant was a matter over which the A.K.C. has no jurisdiction.
It was moved and seconded that defendant’s demurer be sustained on the ground of lack of jurisdiction and that appellant’s deposit be returned to him.

CARRIED.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Secretary read the following report, as per copy, hereto attached and made part of these minutes.

It was moved and seconded that the committee do now go into executive session and that the attendance of the Secretary be dispensed with during the consideration of his report, Mr. Stettheimer acting as secretary during said session. CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that the finding of the executive session be transmitted direct to the Executive Committee without the intervention of the Secretary of the Committee. CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that the report of the Secretary be accepted, made part of the minutes of this meeting and filed. CARRIED.

The MENLO PARK KENNEL CLUB FILED APPLICATION for membership in the American Kennel Club. It was moved and seconded that the applicant club be and hereby is elected to membership. CARRIED.

THE PACIFIC BOSTON TERRIER CLUB filed application for membership in the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB. It was moved and seconded that the applicant club be and hereby is elected.
HANSING v. LAURIN: Charges of fraud and misconduct.

The appellant, F. L. Hansing of Salt Lake City charges that Joseph A. Laurin, Montreal, sold to Mr. Harkness, et al, an Airedale bitch said to be in whelp, and that said bitch when due to whelp, came in season. By authority of the defendant, the bitch was returned to him and another sent out. This bitch was represented to have been bred to her grandsire, but it is claimed did not whelp.

Appellant charges fraud and misconduct by reason of first bitch not having been in whelp and not conforming to specification in advertisement. The same charges are preferred in connection with the second bitch, which had been bred to her grandsire, and claim was made that said breeding was unsuitable.

Defendant filed the defense that neither bitch was guaranteed to be in whelp, that he had used all diligence to be sure of the breeding of both bitches, that he had been unable to secure the exact date of birth of the second bitch, but was sure she was not more than three years old, that he had paid out of his own pocket the express charges on the return of the first bitch,

And that he was not guilty of Fraud, Misconduct or Misrepresentation. It was moved and seconded that whereas the vendor had not guaranteed either bitch sold to appellant or partners to be in whelp, and that the allegation of said bitches having been bred had not been disproved, and whereas it appeared that defendant had made a required effort to satisfy the purchasers of the bitches in question: Therefore be it RESOLVED that the charges preferred against Joseph A. Laurin be and hereby are dismissed. CARRIED.

The Secretary presented the resignation of the SPOKANE KENNEL CLUB from membership in the American Kennel Club. On the affirmation by the secretary of the good standing at said time of resigning, it was Moved and Seconded that the resignation be accepted. CARRIED.

In the matter of the article appearing in Field and Fancy of November 2, 1907, the Secretary read a letter dated Jan. 2, File 2, addressed to Chas. R. Thorburn, Secretary of the WESTERN BULL TERRIER BREEDER’S ASSOCIATION, requesting Mr. Thorburn to furnish a written statement that would assist the Committee in the investigation of said article, Mr. Thorburn having volunteered to furnish such statement in his letter of November 30th. The Secretary reported that he had received no reply from Mr. Thorburn.

It was moved and seconded that the secretary of this Committee be and hereby is instructed to mail to Mr. C. R. Thorburn under registered cover, a copy of his letter of January 2nd with request for immediate reply.
There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Attest:

J. P. NORMAN,
Secretary.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb 1st, 1908.

Members of the Pacific Advisory Committee, A.K.C.

Gentlemen:

I beg herewith to submit my report of the business transacted during the past year, and my recommendation in connection therewith.

In addition to the foregoing, many calls by telephone were answered and requests for information complied with.

Quite a number of callers were received at the residence of your secretary, such calls being made mainly for the purpose of inspecting the Stud Books, or in reference to protests or registrations.

The above is exclusive of requests for blanks and forms.

It is obvious that the amount of work barely outlines above, and the inconvenience of having to transact kennel business at his private residence, and sometimes, even, at his place of business, must work hardship on your Secretary, whose time, labor and entire leisure time are given over to the prosecution of the work of the American Kennel Club without compensation. But your Secretary must absolutely decline to allow the business of the American Kennel Club to encroach on the time claimed by his daily avocations.

I recommend, therefore, that another Secretary be elected, who can give the necessary time, labor and location to the A.K.C. business without injury to his other claims, or that an office be provided for the transaction of such business with provision also for a competent assistant to take care thereof.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. NORMAN, Secretary,
Pacific Advisory Committee, A.K.C.

The special minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee were then read as follows:

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 1 1908

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary Executive Board,
American Kennel Club,
#55 Liberty St., New York City.
Dear Sir:

At the regular meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, held on February 1st, 1908, our Secretary, Mr. J. P. Norman, submitted the attached report, which after being read was ordered spread upon the minutes. On motion duly made and seconded, the Advisory Board excused Mr. Norman from entering into a deliberation on his recommendation and retired into executive session.

After careful investigation of the report the undersigned members of the Pacific Advisory Committee respectfully submit following recommendation for your approval and early action:

Whereas Mr. J. P. Norman as acted as Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee without compensation for the past nine years and has faithfully performed all duties connected therewith and

Whereas Owing to the enormous growth of interest in matters connected with American Kennel Club affairs in the territory of the Pacific Advisory Committee, the Secretary's dues, originally few, have become to manifold and arduous that it is no longer within the province of Mr. J. P. Norman to devote the requisite amount of time to the execution of same without compensation. Be it

Resolved That the Pacific Advisory Committee recommend to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club to make following appropriation for the proper maintenance of a Secretary and office of the American Kennel Club in the city of San Francisco under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, to wit:

and be it further

Resolved that the Pacific Advisory Committee recommends to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club to tender this position of Secretary to Mr. J. P.
Norman, whose tireless efforts in the past have been almost entirely responsible for the successful growth of affairs of the American Kennel Club on the Pacific Coast.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. P. BURNHAM,

H. H. Carlton,

WALTER W. STETTHEIMER.

Owing to illness I was unable to attend above meeting. This recommendation meets with my hearty approval.

CHAS. K. HARLEY.

MR. GILLETTE: I move that they be referred to the Finance Committee.

Motion seconded.
MR. ROCKEFELLER: I think rather than referring them to the Finance Committee it would be better to refer them to the Special Committee of Thirty. There are a number of questions that have got to be taken up. The club last year practically made what money it did show as a surplus from the interest it received from savings banks. The Stud Books are a direct loss to the club. They cost in the neighborhood of six dollars apiece, and we give them away with a subscription. My own opinion is that we should not refer this to the Finance Committee, but to send it to the Committee of Thirty. I offer that as an amendment to the motion.

MR. GILLETTE: I accept the amendment.

MR. MOORE: I second the amendment.

Motion as amended carried.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

MARCEL A. VITI,
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file and the recommendations contained therein adopted.

THE SECRETARY: I have a request from the Toledo Kennel Club to be dropped from the roll. They do not resign. They ask to be dropped from the roll, as they no longer want to continue.

MR. MOORE: I move that they be dropped from the roll at their own request.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I report the resignation of Rockland County Industrial Association.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I move that the resignation be accepted to take effect March 1, 1908.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from Mr.
Vreeland in regard to the changing of awards at the last show of the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club.

MR. MORRIS: I move that the matter be referred to the proper committee.

Motion seconded and lost.

MR. MOORE: I move that the Secretary be instructed to make the change in accordance with the Judge’s book when he receives it.

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There is only one other matter mentioned in my report which requires action, and that is a very serious matter, the loss of our mail. I have done everything I can think of to prevent further losses of our mail matter, but it still continues. We had seven complaints to-day, seven complaints day before yesterday, and they run from one to four complaints every day.

MR. MOORE: I suggest that it might be well if the Secretary Communicate with Spratt’s, and have them put on in red print that remittances must be registered when accompanying applications for resignation.

MR. VITI: We might have some printed slips stating that his mail had been stolen and therefore ever one is advised to registered remittances, and put one of such slips in every letter that goes out of the office.

THE SECRETARY: This trouble commenced about the middle of November last. Heretofore we have occasionally received such complaints. Possibly they would not average one a month, but about the 15th of November these complaints commenced to pour in, and they have come in right along without any intermission from that time. I hoped I could stop the leak by being able to place the responsibility between the Post Office and myself. The letter carriers who come in with registered mail are very much exercised about it, because it as been pretty generally talked about. I have procured a mail bag with a snap lock upon it, and the Postmaster has directed the delivery clerk to place the mail in that mail bag and snap the lock, and then give it to our messenger. There can be no tampering with that until open the mail with keys which I keep in the safe, but notwithstanding that the letters still continue to miscarry. It must be in the Post Office that they are lost. The only satisfaction that I have been able to get is the statement by the post Office authorities that they have turned the matter over to the inspector in charge. I have questioned the letter carriers, and they tell me that they hear very little from the inspector on any subject. There is no doubt that the letters which contain checks have been opened and the checks destroyed. I have heard of checks being sent, but have never been put through the bank. One check for $200 was sent in November. It never reached us. Money orders are very probably destroyed, because we have had quite a number of duplicates come to us for money orders that have been issued, and have never been presented for payment. When it comes to money and postage stamps sent as money, they are the perquisites of the gentleman that has been making love to our mail. You can readily understand that it is a very serious matter when complaints arrive in such numbers.

THE CHAIR: have there been complaints of the same kind from other firms?

THE SECRETARY: I do not know, but Mr. Glynn, who has just been judging at the show, told me that they were going through the same experience in the English Kennel Club. There is no doubt that the Post Office employees know pretty well by this time that about 75% of our letters contain money, and it appears as if they thing it has been pretty good game.

THE CHAIR: Is there any higher authority that we can bring this matter to?

THE SECRETARY: The Post Master is the only man I know of.

MR. GILLETTE: I have had some experience with lost mail in my time, and I know very well that the Post Master here will take care of it if he can.

MR. MOORE: I would like to ask the Secretary if he has notified the Post Office authorities that he has received these complaints.

THE SECRETARY: Yes; I sent them a number of notices about it, but the loss still continues. In a great many cases I have given them the names and addresses of the complaining parties.

MR. MOORE: I think Mr. Viti’s suggestion that you have slips printed and sent in each of your envelopes is a good one.

THE SECRETARY: I think the publicity that will be given to the minutes of our meeting will bring the matter to the notice of almost everybody, because men do read the sporting papers, and they do read the proceedings of our meetings. I will tell you of a little incident. Dr. Knox, the bloodhound man, sent me a letter containing a money order for $1.50, and he had written on the face of his envelope: “This envelope contains a money order for $1.50. Please do not steal it.” The Post Master sent a demand to me after taking out the contents to give him the envelop, which I did.

In regard to the clubs in arrears for dues, named in the Treasurer’s report, Mr. Willetts moved that such clubs be notified of the fact that they are in arrears and if they do not pay such dues within thirty days, they be dropped from the roll.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Chesapeake Kennel Club made a deposit and claimed dates for a show to be held in November last in connection with the Exposition at Norfolk. They went so far as to have their premium list printed, I believe, when the appropriation that they expected from the Exposition failed to materialize, and they gave up their show. They have requested the return of that deposit of $25. The rule is very positive that after a deposit is made, if the show is not held, such deposit is forfeited.

MR. MORRIS: I move that this club refuse to refund the deposit.

Motion seconded.

MR. DALE: I do not think there is any need of a motion. I think it takes care of itself.

THE SECRETARY: It is a request, and the club should answer it.

MR. DALE: All you can do is to refer to the rule and abide by it. What is the use of having rules if you are not going to live up to them?

MR. MOORE: I move, as an amendment, that the Secretary be instructed to notify them that their request is denied.

Amendment seconded and carried.

Mr. Viti: Is it possible to act on the credentials of any delegates at this meeting?

    THE CHAIR: We have no report from the membership committee to-day.

    MR. VITI: If possible would like to have them taken up and balloted for, if there are any. I thought we had laid some on the table.

    MR. VAN SCHAICK: The reason that no report has been made on those names is that, in the first place, a meeting has not been called by the chairman; and, in the second place, during the interval while this Committee of Thirty is acting, we thought it best not to act upon any names until they had come to some decision.

    MR. MOORE: I move that the report be accepted.

    Motion seconded and carried.

    On motion of Mr. Moore, the delegates went into executive session.

    On motion the committee arose.

    MR. GILLETTE: I beg to report that the Executive Session has directed the Secretary to send a written communication to the Bull Dog Club of America in reply to its communication, being an extract from the minutes of its annual meeting.

    On motion the report was accepted and the Secretary directed to comply with the direction of the Executive Session.

    On motion the meeting then adjourned.

THE SECRETARY: I have the minutes of the last meeting here. They have been published in the Gazette.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

THE CHAIRMAN: We seem to be very much in the same position that we were at the annual meeting that was adjourned without any sine die, and I suggest, if there be no objection, that we shall not allow the regular order of business to-day, but ask for a report from the Committee of Thirty, and then decide, after hearing that report, what we shall do, whether we shall go on with the meeting or adjourn for further action. Mr. Rockefeller, have you any report?

MR. ROCKEFELLER: Yes, I would like to speak for a moment. Gentlemen, in behalf of the Committee of Thirty and the Committee of Twelve, I would like to say that it seemed to be the opinion of both those committees that if we could obtain a special charter from the State of New York it was the wise thing to do. So we had prepared a charter which was offered to the Legislature at Albany. A number of changes were made. We did not get it completed as quickly as we expected, but it finally passed the Senate the last day of its session, and the Governor signed it on last Saturday, so that we are now in a position to proceed under a special charter. The charter gives us powers governing dog shows, and similar matters, but does not in any way provide for the government of the club, leaving that to be arranged for in a constitution to be adopted. We did not dare to delay very long because at the time the bill was introduced it was expected that the Legislature would adjourn on April 11th. As a matter of fact the session was extended for about two weeks longer, but it is true that we did not have any time to waste. I think now that we are in shape for the Sub-Committee of Twelve to proceed and prepare a constitution and by-laws to be presented to the various committees. Up to this time we have felt that we were not in a position to proceed because we did not get the special charter, and we would have to try and adopt some sort of a stock corporation law which would have been very irksome, which would have provided for a number of different classes of stock, and would have been very complicated.

THE CHAIRMAN: For information I would like to ask if any work has been done on the constitution of any kind.

    MR. ROCKEFELLER: With the aid of several members in New York a great deal of work has been done in drafting a new constitution.

    THE CHAIRMAN: Has the Sub-Committee of Twelve appointed a subcommittee?

    MR. ROCKEFELLER: It was left to the Chair to appoint it, but that committee has not been appointed because we felt we were not sure enough as to what we could do.

    THE CHAIRMAN: I would suggest that we are keeping the kennel world waiting for a long time.

    MR. ROCKEFELLER: I think we should be able to report inside of two weeks.

    THE CHAIRMAN: To the Committee of Thirty?

    MR. ROCKEFELLER: We can report practically at the same time, I think, to both Committees by giving long enough notice.

    THE CHAIRMAN: Does the Committee of Twelve realize the importance of hurrying this matter up?

    MR. ROCKEFELLER: We do certainly.

    THE CHAIRMAN: Gentlemen, you have heard the report of the Committee.

What is your pleasure?

    MR. McGUIRE: As a member of the Committee of Twelve
I wish to state that we had one meeting, and I believe there was but one resolution passed, and that was to appoint a Sub-Committee, and that Sub-Committee has never been appointed, and so far as the Committee of Twelve is concerned, of which I am a member, I can say that all that Mr. Rockefeller has stated is news to me. I am quite sure that that resolution provided that before the Sub-Committee of Twelve would take any action or present any constitution to the Committee of Thirty, the report of the Sub-Committee would come to the Committee of Twelve in writing. That was my understanding about it.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I think that is correct in the main, but we felt if we delayed long enough to formally have the Committee of Twelve adopt a resolution, we might not be able to get the bill through the Legislature, and the Committee of Thirty or the Committee of Twelve are in no way bound to accept this new charter.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is a matter for your Committee meeting.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: And I would like to say, in excuse, that I have been sick for the last sick weeks, and I have not been able to push thing along as much as I would like to have done.

THE CHAIRMAN: That matter which you bring up, Mr. McGuire is a matter to be brought up in the Committee of Thirty, because we have no jurisdiction over the Committee of Thirty. They can do anything they please, and anything you would have to may would have to come before that Committee, and not before us here.

MR. McGUIRE: I understand the Chairman of the Committee has reported, and he is also reporting for the Committee of Twelve, and I, as a member of that Committee, had not heard of what had been accomplished. In line with the Chairman’s report I think, in order to get the situation accurately before this meeting it would be quite accurately before the Committee. I believe the charter has been granted --- has been applied for, and I presume it has been applied for by this club.

THE CHAIRMAN: That has nothing to do with this meeting.

MR. McGUIRE: The meeting should have known of that.

THE CHAIRMAN: That would come up before the Committee of Thirty. We can only accept the report of the Chairman of the Committee of Thirty, and he has reported progress so far. Anything that we have to say about that would come up before the Committee of Thirty, and not before the Committee of Delegates.
MR. McGUIRE: My only purpose is to give information to the delegates: that is all.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I would like to say that there really was noting to report until Sunday night because I was unable to find out whether the bill has been signed by the Governor or not.

THE CHAIRMAN: I simply asked for information.

MR. WILLETS: I would like to say that the only reason for applying for a special charter was that this club, in consequence of its constituency, the way it is made up, cannot have a charter put through under a general act, and that was the only reason for going to the Legislature for a special act. We could not organize under a general law.

MR. McGUIRE: I believe we are all agreed that that was unnecessary and essential. However, we all have agreed on the point that that charter should have been submitted to the Committee of Thirty or to the Committee of Twelve.

THE CHAIRMAN: That would come up at your meeting. The discussion of that question is out of order here. The discussion, as far as it has gone, although out of order, had better be printed so as to let the public know that we have been working on it. I do not see that we are in a position to do anything at all until that Committee reports.

MR. McGUIRE: I believe it is in order to act upon the report of the Committee of Thirty.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is in order to move that the report be accepted.

MR. MOORE: I make that motion.

MR. McGUIRE: I move that there be added to the report of the Chairman of the Committee of Thirty the special act for the charter obtained for the incorporation of the club, and that it form part of his report and be printed along with his report in the Gazette.

THE CHAIRMAN: You mean the charter itself?

MR. McGUIRE: Yes.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I do not think that is proper. I have not reported to the Committee of Twelve or to the Committee of Thirty. You simply asked if I could report anything, and on my own individual responsibility I stated to the meeting what has been done.

THE CHAIRMAN: You mean that what you have said is not a report, but an answer to a question for information?

MR. ROCKEFELLER: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any legal objection to the charter being added, as moved?
MR. ROCKEFELLER: I am not a lawyer. I do not know.

MR. McGUIRE: I do not feel that there could be any possible objection to giving the delegates of the club as a whole all possible information of what is being done, or what has been done.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think you are perfectly right as to that. The question is, are we not riding over the heads of the Committee of Thirty. This matter ought to go to the Committee of Thirty before it comes to us. My request to Mr. Rockefeller was for information to ascertain if there was any chance for this thing being finished within the next year, and, as Mr. Rockefeller has stated, he did not offer his statement as a report, but as information for that purpose. Now the question is whether we are not riding over the Committee of Thirty.

MR. McGUIRE: I do not see in what sense we are riding over anybody. There has been a charter returned for the incorporation of the club, and I believe that is very good work. I believe it was only necessary to do it very quickly, and I think there cannot be any possible objection to advising the delegates, and especially those who live so far away that they cannot come here, of the charter under which our Committees are working. If there is any objection to the charter going in, let us here it.

MR. BROOKS: Is not that charter already public property? It has already been signed by the Governor.

MR. SMITH: It seems to me that in as much as we elected a Committee of Thirty, and that Committee of Thirty elected another Committee of Twelve, and of the Committee of Twelve there were several appointed to take care of this charter, and all that sort of thing, it is very bad taste, and we would show a lack of confidence in that Committee if we tried to do anything like what has been suggested that we should do. I think it is in very bad taste to try to force them to do anything. Now, Mr. Rockefeller has made his report—

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Rockefeller has not made a report; it was simply information.

MR. SMITH: Well, simply information, I think as we adjourned the last meeting and were willing to leave the matters in the hands of the Committee, we should do the same thing now, and not force that Committee to do any more than it is possible to do to-day.

MR. BROOKS: I cannot see any possible objection to having the charter already signed by the Governor, and therefore a public document, published in the Gazette. It is public property. You can go to Albany any time you please and get a copy of that charter.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: We have not a certified copy of the charter. It was only signed on Saturday night, and I presume that we will get one in the course of a few days.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think this would be a solution of this matter: The Chairman of the Committee of Thirty makes no report, but for information which I asked he made the statement which has been made. I see no objection, as Mr. McGuire and Mr. Brooks suggest, to having the charter, which is public property, published in the Gazette, simply showing that that is as far as they have gone.

MR. WILLETS: It is impossible to publish any paper which the Committee has not received.

MR. BROOKS: When it is received. Of course that is what I meant.

THE CHAIRMAN: I mean when you receive your certified copy of the charter.

MR. WILLETS: That certified copy would naturally go to the lawyer who represented the Kennel Club in Albany; from him it would come to our counsel here in New York, and from him it would be turned in to the club. If the bill was signed only late Saturday, I do not think there has been sufficient time to go through all that. I agree with what has been said, that the matter should be made public as soon as possible.

MR. BROOKS: I think that is all either of us meant, Mr. McGuire, wasn’t it?

MR. McGUIRE: Yes.

MR. APPLETON: There has been no report from the Committee as a Committee. This matter has not been reported to the Committee of Thirty. I do not see how they can come here before you as a Committee to report, and take action on their report.

MR. McGUIRE: It is not my purpose to do anything in bad taste, but I would like to know what this charter provides, so when there is a meeting of the Committee of Thirty called we can talk intelligently.

THE CHAIRMAN: Before that meeting of the Committee of Thirty is held, this matter will be told you.

MR. McGUIRE: I have not any reason to believe that it will. In view of past experiences I have not the least reason to believe it will. It is not going to harm us to have it published. A great many people a long distance from here are very much interested in any charter we might incorporate under, and I think it is much better to give it the widest publicity. This is the exact time to do so in order, if there is any objection before the Committee can make up a constitution of which this charter would be a foundation to let the Committee know it. A certified copy of that charter can be had on request. There is no necessity for it to pass through various legal hands. That has been done. That was done before it was sent up to Albany. The Secretary of the Club can be instructed to send for a certified copy for the purpose of having it published in the Gazette.

THE CHAIRMAN: All we can do is to ask the delegates to request the Chairman of the Committee of Thirty, in view of the fact that he has made no report, but that we understand there has been a charter passed, if he will make that public property in the Kennel Gazette, and he can do it or not as he pleases.

MR. BROOKS: This has already been done. It is a public document, and I could go up to Albany and see it without a Committee or anybody.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: Before the judiciary committee in either the Assembly or Senate would pass the bill they made our lawyers insert a clause which provided that it must be accepted by the existing organization before it became final.

THE CHAIRMAN: Then the charter is not final?

MR. ROCKEFLLER: It is final where it has been accepted by our present club.

MR. McGUIRE: That charter will be published, if not in the Gazette, in some other law papers.

THE CHAIRMAN: It has been obtained, but it does not go into effect unless accepted by the club.

MR. McGUIRE: That is entirely immaterial. I think it would be much better to publish that charter in the Gazette than perhaps to have it published in advance of our official notice by some other dog paper.

THE CHAIRMAN: I see no objection to have the charter published, and I think the best thing to do would be to bring a motion before the meeting. A motion is in order to ask the Chairman of the Committee of Thirty to publish the charter in the Gazette.

MR. McGUIRE: I renew my motion.

MR. BROOKS: I second it.

MR. McGUIRE: I will withdraw my motion and substitute this: That the Chairman of the Committee of Thirty advises this meeting that a charter has been obtained under which we propose to incorporate this club. I move that the Secretary of the club be instructed to obtain, without delay, a certified copy of the charter and that it be published in the next number of the Gazette.

MR. BROOKS: I second that motion.

Motion carried.

MR. McGUIRE: I have noted in the Gazette that the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, Incorporated, have dropped from membership several clubs who were members of any in good standing of the American Kennel Club unincorporated. It is my belief that that was a mistake.

THE CHAIRMAN: I shall have to ask the Secretary to answer you.

MR. McGUIRE: These clubs should be immediately re-instated, and no further action taken with regard to dropping clubs until this club is re-incorporated.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you limit your action to that one thing?

MR. McGUIRE: That is all I can think of in a minute, but I believe it ought to be very general. I do not believe the Board of Directors of this club should take any further drastic action just now. There is some question as to the title obtained to the assets of the club by the present incorporated club. We do not want any question of that king in the new incorporated club, and surely we cannot gain a clear title to the assets of the club without getting the vote of all the members of the old unincorporated club.

MR. APPLETON: Were these clubs dropped for non-payment of dues?
THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. LORD: If there were dropped by the incorporated club, which had no power to drop them, its action would have no effect on their standing in the club. If the club was not able to drop members, there would be no point in voting on this motion at all.

Dr. De MUND: It was understood at the annual meeting that no action would be taken by the American Kennel Club affecting any legislation until the Committee of Thirty had completed its work, and it seems to me that the directors at present should not take any action affecting the standing of clubs or do anything more than the routine business. That was understood at the time of the annual meeting.

THE SECRETARY: The old constitution of the un-incorporated club laid down a rule for the payment of dues by which clubs could be dropped. The present incorporated club adopted the same rule in the constitution.
These clubs that were dropped had not paid their dues. The bills were sent out to be paid before January 1st, and then at the February meeting they were given thirty days within which to pay their dues or be dropped. Notices were sent to them. They were given thirty days, and they did not pay their dues; therefore the clubs were dropped under the clause of the constitution of the present incorporated club, and also under the clause of the constitution of the unincorporated club.

MR. McGUIRE: I think it leaves the way open possibly for those clubs to come in and contest the title to the assets by this club.

THE CHAIRMAN: They have forfeited their membership since then.

MR. McGUIRE: They may have forfeited their membership in the incorporated club, but whether they forfeited membership in the American Kennel Club is a very serious question. I do not believe they have.

MR. BALL: Would they not have to tender their dues to the incorporated club?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. BALL: And they never did?

THE CHAIRMAN: No.

MR. BALL: I should consider that they were dropped.
THE SECRETARY: They could be dropped if they did not pay; they ceased to be members by action. They could have time granted to them, and it has always been the custom to grant thirty days. These clubs have not paid their dues since 1906.

MR. McGUIRE: My reference is not to any club which has obtained its membership since the incorporation of this club. My reference is to clubs only who were in good standing before the club was incorporated. It is quite within the province of the directors to stop any club that was a member since the incorporation, but not prior to the incorporation.

MR. BALL: Is a club in good standing that has failed to tender its dues?

MR. McGUIRE: They did tender their dues. They may have taken the position to refuse to pay their dues to the incorporated club for twenty different reasons. We do not know why they refused them. The old club was not in existence; they could not have tendered them then.

MR. BALL: Your Committee claimed that the old club was in existence.

MR. McGUIRE: We claim it now.

MR. BALL: They never tendered payment to the old
MR. McGUIRE: They could not because the Secretary would not accept them. I am afraid if you try to drop any clubs that were in good standing prior to the incorporation, and they see fit to be re-instated, they can be.

THE SECRETARY: If I understand this case properly, when the club re-incorporates the members of the old unincorporated club has the privilege of a voice in the re-incorporation. If any club that was a member of the old unincorporated club refuses to pay its dues to the incorporated club, the incorporated club can drop that member from the incorporated club and yet that member is not dropped from the old unincorporated club. That is the way I look at it, and there is no question in my mind that the action of the Board of Directors at the last meeting in dropping delinquents from the so called incorporated club was absolutely legal and yet those dropped clubs, if they were members of the old unincorporated club, have a vote, and they have a vote because they were not dropped from the old unincorporated club.

MR. McGUIRE: I meant to put in my motion any club that was in good standing in the unincorporated club. It is immaterial what we do with clubs who gained their membership through this incorporation.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Secretary tells me that no clubs that were in good standing at the time of the incorporation of the club have been dropped from the unincorporated club. They have been dropped from the incorporated membership.

MR. McGUIRE: Then I move that they be re-instated into the incorporated club be reason of their having been in good standing in the old club.

MR. WILLETS: I submit that all these matters about incorporated and unincorporated clubs were left to the Committee of Thirty. The moment that that Committee of Thirty were elected at these matters were left in the hands of that Committee, and I do not think any resolution we may pass here would have any effect whatever.

DR. De MUND: Did the Committee drop the clubs, or the directors?

MR. WILLETS: I do not think the directors had any right, and I don’t think they had anything to do with it whatever, and I do not thing any action we may take here will affect the matter, and I move that the matter be laid on the table.

MR. MOORE: I second the motion.
Carried
The meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, May 25, 1908

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this my regular quarterly report. I have referred one application for membership, one application for reinstatement, and fourteen credentials for delegates to the Membership Committee for its action. Since our February meeting we have issued four licenses for shows to be held under our rules all of which have been held, and have two applications now pending. On May 18th I mailed Final Bills to one hundred and twenty Associate Subscribers in arrears for subscriptions for the present ear, and would respectfully recommend that the usual thirty days be granted to such subscribers in arrears, and all such subscribers that have not responded at the expiration of thirty days be dropped from our list.

The Pacific Advisory Committee has filed a bill of disbursements from March 1st, to May 13th inclusive amounting $47.45, and I would recommend the payment of same.

I beg to report that C.M. Landis, Keystone State Kennel, Reading, Pa., sent us a check for $19.00, for registration and certified pedigrees. We found it necessary to decline to register and issue these pedigrees to the extent of $6.00, and said amount was returned to him in cash. The above check was returned by our Bank "not good" with $1.50 protest fees added. Upon notification he sent us another check which was again returned "not good" with a similar amount of protest fees.
again added. He subsequently sent a third check which I placed in the Bank for collection, this was again returned to us which we still hold and which I have endeavored to collect, but without success. This matter has been placed in the hands of counsel from whom no report has been received up to this date.

I preferred charges against this man serving him with a copy of same, and notwithstanding his many promises to settle the account has failed to do so. I would respectfully recommend that this man C.M. Landis, be suspended until he settles his account.

On Nov. 16th, 1907, I mailed a check to the Louisville Collie Club returning its Date Deposit of $25.00 less a penalty of $5.00. I am advised that this check has never been received by said club, and an application has been filed requesting a duplicate. I ask instructions.

The North Jersey Kennel Club was admitted to Membership with headquarters at Hackensack, N.J. Said club has applied to register with its headquarters at Newark, N.J., and desires official sanction to that effect.

The Revere Kennel Club applied for dates to hold a show at Charleston, Mass. I granted said dates, and approved of the show, not being aware that Charlestown was a part of the municipality of Boston. The New England Kennel Club at its meeting in April passed a resolution protesting my action in granting these dates at said place. This protest is now before you for such action as you may deem proper.

On April 23rd, 1901, Mr. Shirley Marston, Boston, Mass., was duly disqualified by our Executive Board by virtue of his suspension by the New England Kennel Club for forcibly removing his dogs from its show and for an assault on the Ticket Taker. Mr. Marston has appealed for reinstatement and under date of Feb 12th, the New England Kennel Club voted at the regular meeting of its Executive Committee, to request the American Kennel Club to reinstate Mr. Marston. The matter is now before you for such action as you may deem proper.

The following charges have been made for unpaid prizes at shows: A. Self vs. Ft. Worth Poultry and Pet Stock Assn.

H.H. Knowles against A.G. Eberhart for misconduct in connection with shows.

Failure to act on protest.
The following appeals have been filed:
Mrs. R.F. Mayhew against North Jersey Kennel Club, for refusal to accept an entry marked “to compete only for unclassified specials and sweepstakes.”
M.F. Mulcahy against the Revere Kennel Club from decision on protest.
H.G. Vaughan against the A.K.C. for cancellation of the winnings of a Foxhound at the late Boston show.
North Shore Kennel Club against Prof. Wm. O'Connor. For misconduct at the Salem Show.

The following notices of suspensions have been filed:
North Jersey Kennel Club against C.H. Armstrong. For misconduct in connection with shows.
North Jersey Kennel Club against Leo Cohn. For misconduct in connection with shows.

At our February meeting I reported a charge by W.H.C. Pillsbury against the Ladies Kennel Assn. of Mass. for an unpaid special. This claim was outlawed under the rules by a margin of eleven days. I notified the Sec'y, of said Club of the claim on Dec. 16th, and received no reply until after our February meeting and inadvertently reported this claim.

The Bulldog Club of America has filed a notice with this office that it has expelled from membership C.G.
Hopton for reprehensible conduct. I have therefore suspended said Hopton and mailed him the usual notice giving him an opportunity to appeal.

I beg to present correspondence from the U.S. Department of Agriculture; and from H.K. Bloodgood, President of our Associate Subscribers; a communication from James Watson requesting a ruling on the subject of mixed puppy classes in English Toy Spaniels; and request instructions about the issuing of a license for a show to be held at Dallas Texas, there being at this time an active member in said City, that has not held a show since 1891.

Finally I beg to present a supplemental report and recommendations on matters of vital importance to the welfare of the Club.

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary."

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Treasurer's report was read as follows:

New York, May 25, 1908
To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report.

Balance on hand January 1, 1908 ...........................................20,640.24
Receipts from January 1st to date.............................................10,807.66
   Total                                             31,477.90
Disbursements from January 1st to date...............................13,486.95
   Balance on hand..............................................17,960.95

Respectfully submitted,

    A.P. Vredenburgh
    Treasurer."

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

On motion the bill filed by the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from March 1st to May 13th inclusive, amounting to $47.45, was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: I now bring before you this matter of C.M. Landis. If there was ever a case of fraud, that is it. He succeeded in getting $6 from this club for a bad check.

MR. BROOKS: I move that Mr. Landis be suspended.
until he pays his account.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: In November of 1907 I mailed a check to the Louisville Collie Club returning its date deposit of $25, less a penalty of $5. They claim they had never received it. The check is marked out in my bank balance.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I move that the Treasurer stop payment on the original check.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The North Jersey Kennel Club applied for permission to change the address of its headquarters from Hackensack to Newark.

On motion the request was granted.

THE SECRETARY: The New England Kennel Club filed its protest against the show of the Revere Kennel Club on Charlestown. As I reported to you, on granting those dates to that club I had no knowledge that Charlestown was a part of the municipality of Boston. Their protest came too late for me to withdraw my approval, as the premium lists were printed and distributed, but the New England Kennel Club now sends a suggestion here that I think should go to the Committee of Thirty because it is in the nature of an amendment to the constitution.

THE CHAIRMAN: If there is no objection, that matter
THE SECRETARY: I have here a communication from the New England Kennel Club relative to the reinstatement of Mr. Shirley Marston, who was disqualified in 1901 for forcibly removing his dogs from a show, and for knocking down the ticket taker who attempted to keep him in the show. The New England Kennel Club suspended him for that action.

MR. BROOKS: I move that the request of the New England Kennel Club in this respect be granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from the Department of Agriculture at Washington. In July, 1906, they changed their regulation under which dogs could be imported to this country free of duty. I was just informed by the department that we must issue a new form of customs certificate, which I have had prepared and so far have issued a great many of them. The Department, however, insists that every imported dog before receiving such certificates from the American Kennel Club should have been registered in the Book of Record of the country from which it is imported. That rule we have never enforced. It has been a matter of indifference to us whether a dog was registered in the country from which it was imported or not so long as that dog could establish its pedigree for three generations. The Department is insistent on this regulation, and I have held them off as long as possible and told them I would report it as the first meeting and have it referred to the proper Committee. Their last letter is dated April 17\textsuperscript{th}, 1908.

On motion the above matter was referred to the Stud Book Committee.

On motion of Mr. Rockefeller the communication from Mr. Bloodgood, President of the Associate Subscribers, addressed to the President of the Club, was tabled.

THE SECRETARY: Here is a matter that I suppose should come before the Executive Committee, but I will report it to you. A fox hound was shown a the late Boston show as an American fox hound. It is an appeal from my decision in cancelling the win.
Here is a fox hound that was sired by an English fox hound out of a so called American fox hound bitch, and I decided that that was a cross-bred hound, and was not eligible to compete in the American fox hound classes, and I cancelled his win.

MR. BROOKS: Should not that be sent to the Stud
THE SECRETARY: I do not know. I think it is for you to determine.

MR. APPLETON: I think precedent will show that wins of hounds bred in that way have been recognized.

THE SECRETARY: The precedent has been established in this club that a setter that can trace to a cross between a Gordon or the Irish must be known as a cross-bred setter. The precedent has been established that a Boston terrier is only a Boston Terrier when the original cross is at least in the fourth generation, and in hounds it cannot be known as an American fox hound, when it is stated and admitted that the sire of that dog is an imported English fox hound.

On motion the matter was referred to the Stud Book Committee.

On motion the recommendation of the Secretary-Treasurer concerning certain financial matters was referred to the Finance Committee with the request that it be acted upon immediately and referred to the Committee of Thirty.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, containing the following applications for kennel names.

The Secretary read his regular quarterly report.

The same follows:

New York, Sept. 30, 1908

To the BOARD OF DIRECTORS of

THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this my regular quarterly report.

Since the last meeting of the Board licenses have been issued to twenty-one clubs to hold shows under our rules. I beg to submit a report of the Stud Book Committee of its meeting held June 16th, last. Also minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of May 26th and August 1st, 1908. Also a communication from said Committee requesting an interpretation of the conditions governing a Breeders’ cup which was competed for on the Pacific coast, also a bill from said Committee for disbursements from May 12th to August 22nd, amounting to $60.15.

At the meeting held May, 1907, the Southern Kennel Club and its officers were suspended for its failure to pay listing fees amounting to $60.50. Said amount was paid on September 8th, 1908. As I had no authority to re-instate said Club or its officers, upon the liquidation of said indebtedness, I respectfully refer the matter to your Board for action.

Mr. Ernest Lester Jones, applied for the Kennel Name Brentwood, which was not approved by the Stud Book Committee. He now appeals from the action of the Stud Book Committee and said appeal with his reasons will be presented to you for your action.

Under date of September 8th, 1908, the Toy Spaniel Club of America filed with this office a notice of the expulsion of one of its members, Miss Rosalie I. Stewart, and on same date I notified Miss Stewart of her suspension giving her an opportunity to show cause why said suspension should not be made permanent. An appeal has been received from Miss Stewart.

The following charges have been filed for unpaid prizes:

June 9th: John L. Korzendorfer against Merrimack Valley K. C.

August 22nd: O. A. Zuerchen vs. Buffalo K. C.

The following charges are for misconduct in connection with dogs.

June 17th, 1908, James Webber vs. Frank T. Brown.

Sept. 25th, 1908, American Kennel Club vs. Jules Ferond.

In compliance with the recommendation of the Stud Book Committee charges have been preferred by the A. K. C. against R. S. Barrett for an alleged fraudulent transaction in connection with dogs.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, Sept. 30, 1908.

To the BOARD OF DIRECTORS of

THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report:

Treasurer.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I present the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee, held on May 26th, 1908 and August 1st, 1908.

MR. MOORE: I move that the reading of such minutes be dispensed with, but that they be spread upon the minutes of this meeting of the Board of Directors.

Notion seconded and carried.

Following are the minutes of the two meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee:

REGULAT MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held at the Office of Dr. W. P. Burnham, San Francisco, May 26th, 1908.

Absent: Chas. K. Harley, H. H. Carlton

On motion, Dr. Burnham took the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
SECRETARY’S REPORT.

San Francisco, May 26\textsuperscript{th}, 1908.

Pacific Advisory Committee,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that to date of the current year, ten shows have been held in the jurisdiction of this Committee, viz.: 7 by members of the A. K. C. and 3 by licensees.

2252 dogs were shown and 29 championship points recorded.

Total listing fees remitted to A. K. C. $278.50

I have approved dates for the following members:

Santa Cruz Co. K. C. Colorado K. C.

I have to lay before you application for license from the Del Monte Kennel Club for Show at Del Monte, August 28-29; Montana Kennel Club for Show at Helena, September 30 to October 2.

Both applicants have complied with all requirements of the American Kennel Club, and I would recommend that the licenses be granted.

The Hawaiian Kennel Club has filed a deposit for a show to be held at a date to be claimed later, when the movements of the Atlantic Fleet are definitely determined. On account of the emergency of the case, and that owing to geographical distance, the show at Honolulu could not be held, if that club had first to ascertain if a certain specified date would be granted I have authorized the Club to hold the show and notify me when the date is settled. Such date cannot conflict with any other show in our jurisdiction and I would ask the Committee to approve my action.

There are 26 Club in this jurisdiction, 20 being members and 6 licensees.

The following appeals will be laid before the Committee:

BONE AND ATTRIDGE v. S. F. K. C. Appeal from Bench Show Committee.

WAGNER v. SEATTLE D. G. G. Compliant of non-payment of special prize.

I beg to inform the Committee, that in conformity with instruction from New York, I have issued a penalty bill against Eugene Tripod for erroneous entry of his Poodle, Black III. At Oakland, and he has returned said bill with no advice that he did not enter nor authorize any one else to enter his dog at that show, nor did he show his dog. As a matter of fact his dog is marked absent in the official catalogue. I submit the original blank, catalogue and letter from Mr. Tripod.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman,

Secretary.
On motion, the Secretary’s report was accepted and ordered filed.

On motion, it was ordered that a License be granted to the Montana Kennel Club of Helena, Montana.

On motion, it was ordered that License be granted to the Del Monte Kennel Club of Del Monte, California.

After some discussion it was moved and seconded that the Standing Resolution of March, 1902, and September 1907, be and hereby is suspended in so far as applications for License from New Clubs are concerned, and that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to call a special meeting of the Committee to consider all such application, giving at least five days notice of such meeting to the members, and that mail votes shall no longer be issued to cover the cases in question.

CARRIED

On motion, it was resolved that the action of the Secretary in the case of the Hawaiian Kennel Club be and hereby is approved.

F. W. WAGNER v. SETTLE DOG FANCIERS ASSOCIATION:
Complaint of non-payment of Special Prize

The Complaint of Appellant sets forth that his Pointer Puppy, Chief Sam, won the “Butterworth Trophy” at the Seattle Show, 1907, and that the same was never received.

From the letters of the Appellant to the Committee, as well as from the letters of Appellant to the Secretary of the Respondent Association, it appeared that the said Association has never received the trophy offered by Butterworth, but that they had sent to Appellant a trophy to take the place of the one offered. The Appellant had returned the trophy sent to him, because it was tarnished and did not appear to him to be of sufficient value. The Seattle Dog Fanciers Association submitted that it had acted in good faith, and had done its best to make good the loss occasioned by the failure of Butterworth & Son to keep their word.

It was moved and seconded that WHEREAS the Seattle Dog Fanciers Association appears to have complied with the rules of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB by forwarding to Appellant a trophy to replace the one advertized in the premium list, therefore be it

RESOLVED that the SEATTLE DOG FANCIERS ASSOCIATION has fulfilled its duty, and that the case be dismissed.

CARRIED.

In the matter of the penalty bill, for $1.00 issued against EUGENE TRIPID, for erroneous entry of his Poodle, Black III. In the Oakland Show of 1908, as shown by original entry blank and catalogue of said show,

It was moved and seconded that WHEREAS the entry blank shows that the entry of the dog was made, and

WHEREAS Exhibitor returns the bill and advises that he never made nor authorized such entry, therefore be it
RESOLVED that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to call on the Oakland Kennel Club for an explanation of the transaction. CARRIED.

BONE AND ATTRIDGE v. SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB:

Appeal from decision of Bench Show Committee.

The trophy to be known as the “Breeder’s’ Cup” from the award of which appeal was taken, was originally offered in 1902, by Dr, H. L. Tevis, “For the best Pacific Coast-bred Bull Terrier whelped in the year previous to competition, to be won three times under the condition of deed before becoming the property of one exhibitor.”

From the premium lists submitted, it appeared that the defendant in 1903, the second year of the competition for the trophy, amended the wording of the deed to read as follows: “Dr. H. L. Tevis offers the Breeder’s Cup for the best Pacific Coast-bred Bull Terrier, whelped in the year previous to competition, to be won three times by the same Breeder, before becoming his or her absolute property.”

Each of the Appellants had scored one win for the trophy under the first deed and J. I. Sparrow, to whom the trophy was awarded and delivered, had made three wins under the new deed.

The Respondent Club contended that the change in the wording simply made the conditions of the deed plainer, without altering the wording, and that the Appellants had forfeited their right to appeal by omitting to do so, when the change was first made five years previously. As argument for the defense, the Club cited the fact, that in 1903, the Appellant, Bone, exhibited a bitch puppy, Hawthorn Pleasure, bred by himself, which took second in puppy class, and allowed the award to go to John Bradshaw for a puppy bred by him, but exhibited by Arthur Spear; and as a further argument for the defense, the fact, that the other Appellant, Attridge, exhibited a dog puppy bred by himself, Edgcote Baron, which took first in its class, and yet allowed the award to go, also without protest, to Mrs. C. R. Thorburn’s bitch puppy Meg Mirrilies II, bred by J. I. Sparrow, the award being the second made the latter.

On consideration of the premium lists and catalogues, and of the arguments advanced by both parties to the appeal it was MOVED AND SECONDED that the Secretary to be and hereby is instructed to refer the case, with all necessary detail, to the Rules Committee for an interpretation of the original deed of gift, especially with reference to the word “Exhibitor” appearing therein, and for a ruling as to whether the appellants had or had not lost their right to contest the amended wording of the premium list, in view of their failure to make an earlier protest, and that the consideration of this appeal be and is deferred until reply is received from the Rules Committee.

CARRIED.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Attest:

Secretary.

REGULAR MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held at First and Mission Streets, San Francisco,

August 1st, 1908.

Present:  C. K. Harley, Chairman; W. W. Stettheimer,

Absent: H. H. Carlton; Dr. W, P, Burnham.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read. It was moved and seconded that they be approved as read. An amendment was moved and seconded that the minutes be corrected by substituting the words “American Kennel Club” for “Rules Committee”, wherever the latter may occur in the last paragraph of said minutes.

CARRIED.

On motion, the minutes of the previous meeting were then accepted as corrected.

The Secretary’s report was read and on motion was accepted and ordered spread on the minutes, as hereunto attached.

The application of the Spokane Kennel Club for license to hold a show at Spokane, Wash., on October 6\textsuperscript{th} to 9\textsuperscript{th} was approved.

The application of the Ladies kennel Association of California for a license to hold a show at Oakland, Cal. On September 25\textsuperscript{th} and 26\textsuperscript{th} was approved.

In the matter of the fine levied on Eugued Tripod for error in entering dog at Oakland show, and cancelled on account of statement of Tripod that he had not made nor authorized such entry, the Oakland Kennel Club made reply to the enquiry of the Committee, that said entry was procured by telephone. On motion, the case was laid on the table.

A communication was received from the San Francisco Kennel Club and read: On motion, it was ordered that consideration of the same be deferred to the next meeting of the Committee.

VENICE OF AMERICA KENNEL CLUB v. W. E. CHUTE: MISCONDUCT.

Notice from the Venice of America Kennel Club that W. W. Chute had been suspended for three years for removing a dog from the Venice show without permission of superintendent or veterinarian. Respondent filed an affidavit acknowledging the offence, but claiming that he removed the bitch in question, for the reason that she would not relieve the wants of nature on the hard wooden floor provided for the exercising room, and further, that he perforce to leave the show some hours before its close and removed the bitch, because the latter was of such a bad temper as to forbid of being handled by any strangers and was therefore a menace to all visitors at the show.

It was moved and seconded that W. W. Chute be and hereby is suspended from all privileges of the American Kennel Club for thirty days, dating from July 25th, the last day of the Venice show. CARRIED.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

A large number of requests were made for examination of Stud books and other information, which could be granted; others had to be refused or referred to the New York office, on account of the lack of time or information.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman,

Secretary.

On motion the bill submitted by the Pacific Advisory Committee of $60.15 for disbursement was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: At the meeting of this club held in 1907, the Southern Kennel Club was suspended, together with its officers, for its failure to pay over to this club the listing fees which it received. A year and a half after that, on September 8th, we received the $60.50 which they owed to this club. The resolution simply suspended the club and its officers, and gave no authority to reinstate upon the payment of the amount due. It is now for you gentlemen to determine whether this club should be reinstated or not.

MR. MOORE: I move that the Southern Kennel Club be reinstated, it having made good its indebtedness to this club.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Dale: I offer as an amendment that the matter be laid on the table.

Amendment seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. Ernest Lester Jones applied for the kennel name “Brentwood”. The Stud Book Committee disapproved this application for the reason that the same name “Bentwood” was already registered.

MR. APPLETON: It has been the policy of the Committee not to allow names that conflict in any way. That list of kennel names which Mr. Jones gives in his communication I think was given some years ago before we adopted this present policy. I think our present method is the right one. I think after we have given these names a registration they ought to be protected by us, and that we should not grant names which sound so nearly alike that a mistake might be made.

MR. MOORE: I would like to ask with the Stud Book Committed, in framing their report, did not have in mind the interest of other parties holding similar kennel names rather than any other purpose, to protect the owner and the club.

MR. VITI: And the general public. They must not be confounded. It is the same rule that the Courts have adopted in regard to trade names and trade marks. There must be no infringements. We came before the directors some time since and asked for instruction in this matter, and it seemed to be the consensus of opinion, that we should not permit it for these two reasons: First, that it was unfair to the owner of a similar registered name; and second, it was unfair to the public.

MR. MOORE: If the owner of a similar name raised no objection, it would still be against the policy of the Stud Book Committee?

MR. VITI: Of public policy.

THE SECRETARY: The owner of the word “Bentwood” does object. He sent us a letter to that effect.

MR. MOORE: I move that the action of the Stud Book Committee in this matter be approved and its policy endorsed.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from the Pacific Advisory Committee under date of May 28th, 1908, asking an interpretation of the condition governing a Breeder’s Cup which was competed for on the Pacific coast.

MR. MORRIS: I move that it be referred to the Committee on Rules with power.

Motion seconded and carried.

(At this point President Belmont resigned the chair to Mr. Bloodgood).

The report of the Stud Book Committee of June 16th, 1908, was read, and is as follows:
At a meeting of the Stud Book Committee held the 16\textsuperscript{th} the following subjects were acted upon.

In the matter of the breed of dog submitted by Commander Peary. The same is to be known and recognized as the North Greenland Eskimo.

In the matter of the Maltese Terrier, “Sonny Boy”. This dog was registered in 1906 on its wins, and there does not seem to be sufficient evidence to show that his pedigree is incorrect.

In the matter of the English Setter “Fleetbird”. From the evidence submitted it seems that the bitch sold does not tally with the bitch registered, both in number, color, and the date of whelping changed on the certified pedigree. The Committee recommend that the transaction be investigated upon charges of fraud.

M. A. Viti,

Chairman Stud Book Committee.

THE SECRETARY: I have preferred charges against this man for fraud.

The report of the Stud Book Committee dated September 30\textsuperscript{th}, 1908, was then read, as follows:

To the Board of Directors,

Gentlemen:

The Stud Book Committee herewith submit their report. 72 application for Kennel Names have been Received, also 4 applications for transfers. All have been passed with the exception of the word “Braemore” which conflicts with the word “Braemar” already registered, and therefore is disallowed.

In the matter of the Foxhound “Vanquish” your Committee beg to report that whereas there are no rules and resolution taken by this Club defining what constitutes an American Foxhound, a misunderstanding has therefore existed. We recommend that the wins at the New England Kennel Club show in February, 1908, should be allowed.

IRISH SETTER CLUB. Singleton Van Shaick.

MASCOUTAH KENNEL CLUB. C. F. R. Drake.

NEW ENGLAND BEAGLE CLUB. Chetwood Smith.

RUSSIAN WOLFHOUND CLUB Dr. J. E. De Mund.
On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his regular quarterly report, as follows:

New York, Nov. 30, 1908

TO THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this my regular quarterly report.

Agreeable to the direction of the Board of Directors at its last meeting, I have referred the matter of the Tevis Breeders’ Cup, competed for at the shows of the San Francisco Kennel Club, to the Committee on Constitution and Rules, which will report on the subject at this meeting.

I have sent to the Stud Book Committee thirty-six application for the registration for Kennel Names, and four Transfers. A report from said Committee on these application should be presented at this meeting.

Since the last meeting of the delegates twenty-four licenses have been granted by the Member Committee for shows to be held under our rules.

I beg to present the minutes of the meeting of our Pacific Advisory Committee of October 17th, 1908.

The following charges have been lodged for unpaid prizes, F. T. Brown vs. Oak Park Collie Club; Charles Kershner vs. Merrimack Valley Kennel Club; Mrs. A. R. Conkling vs. Monmouth Co. Kennel Club.

I reported at a former meeting the suspension of William O’Connor by the North Shore Kennel Club, and under date of October 20th I have a request from said club to reinstate O’Connor.

At the last meeting of the Board of Directors I reported the expulsion of Miss Rosalie Stewart by the toy Spaniel Club of America, and our suspension is in consequence thereof. I respectfully submit that the notice of expulsion should be read at this meeting to enable you to determine whether grounds for expulsion is sufficient for our suspension.

I have a notice from the Secretary of the New England Kennel Club of the resignation of William B. Emery as a delegate to this club.

I beg to report that I will mail this day all bills for Active Dues and for Associate Subscriptions. As Active Dues must be received on or before January 1st I will act in accordance with the instructions given me last year, and hold such payments as may be made after January 1st subject to your official action at the annual meeting in February.

A bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from August 24th to November 23rd inclusive has been presented and I respectfully recommend that same be paid.

Respectfully,

Signed    A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report, as follows:

New York, November 30, 1908

TO THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my financial report:

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee, October 17, 1908, were submitted, and on motion they were ordered published in the Gazette. They are as follows:

MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, OCTOBER 17, 1908,

1196 McAllister Street, San Francisco.

Absent: C. K. Harley

On motion, Mr. Carlton took the chair.

On motion, the minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

It was moved and seconded that the rules be suspended, in order to dispose of pending protests and appeals.

CARRIED.

In the case of STETTHEIMER vs. VENICE OF AMERICA KENNEL CLUB: An appeal from decision of a bench show committee.

Appellant filed an affidavit stating that his fox terrier dog, Tallac Marlin, had been entered in the Venice show, had won special prize for best of any breed in the show, but had failed to compete for the special offered for best Pacific-Coast bred dog, by reason of the neglect of the show-giving club to see that his dog was brought into the ring for competition. The dog was evidently eligible to compete, as appel-llant’s entry blank stated that the owner was breeder, and that his residence was at Redwood City, California. Appellant appeared in person.

Respondent was not represented.

Respondent filed answer to the effect that the club was not responsible for the failure of Appellant’s dog to compete, inasmuch as it was impossible for a club to determine which dogs were eligible for specials, and moreover that it was no part of the duty of a club to look out for dogs for anything but regular classes.

It was moved and seconded, that whereas the Venice of America Kennel Club advertised in its premium list, that when exhibitors were not present, their dogs would be taken into the ring for competition by attendants, and whereas appellant’s entry blank showed clearly that Tallac Marlin must be a Pacific Coast-bred dog, and therefore eligible to compete for the trophy offered for such, and whereas said Tallac Marlin had won the special for best of any breed in the show and would necessarily have won the aforesaid trophy, if allowed to compete for same, and had the respondent exercised due care to take him into the ring, as advertised in their premium list:

Therefore be it RESOLVED, that the appeal be and is sustained, and that Appellant’s dog is entitled to the trophy offered for best Pacific Coast-bred dog, and that the Venice of America Kennel Club be and hereby is ordered to deliver said trophy to appellant and to return to him his deposit of $5.00 within thirty days from date hereof, under penalty of suspension.

DENNIS vs. LADIES KENNEL ASSOCIATION OF CALIFORNIA: An appeal from decision of Bench Show Committee.

W. H. Dennis represented by Mrs. W. H. Dennis.

L. K. A. of Cal. Represented by Mrs. H. P. Rosenberg for the President, Mrs. J. A. Wiborn and by Dr. L. W. Spriggs for the Secretary, Mrs. G. A. Spriggs.

Appellant filed affidavit by Mrs. W. H. Dennis and Mrs. J. W. Mathews.

Respondent filed no affidavit and no written defense.

Appellant appealed from decision of bench show committee, on protest based on statement that appellant’s black cocker spaniel bitch, Twinkle II. Had been beaten for first winners, and for special prizes, by bitch Cressella Nancy, owned by A. L. Crewsell, which bitch had been entered at the Oakland show of the L. K. A. Cal. After the official due date of closing of entries.

After hearing the affidavits presented by appellant, and the oral testimony, offered by respondent and a witness,

It was MOVED AND SECONDED, that Whereas it was proven by the testimony given by the Respondent Club’s representative, that the entry of Cressella Nancy was not completed until after the date of closing of entries,

Therefore be it RESOLVED that this appeal be and is sustained, and that all awards given to said Cressella Nancy be and hereby are cancelled and all prizes forfeited, and that the award of First in Winners Class, Bitches, Black Cocker Spaniels and the Trophy for best Black Cocker Bitch, and the California Cocker Club Trophy for best Black Cocker Spaniel of Opposite Sex be made and passed to the Reserve bitch, Appellant's Twinkle II and that the Ladies Kennel Association of California be and hereby is ordered to deliver to Appellant all said Trophies and to return to him his deposit of $5.00 within thirty days from date hereof, and to pay to the American Kennel Club a fine of $5.00 in respect to the entry of Cressella Nancy aforesaid.

On motion the meeting was adjourned, subject to the call of the chair.

Attest: J. P. Norman,

Secretary.

The following report of the Rules Committee was read:

Nov 30, 1908

In reference to Tevis Breeder's Cup matter referred to us to determine, we beg to report that in view of the fact that the original deed of gift was destroyed in the San Francisco fire, a decision can only be reached through the wording of the special as published for the first time in the San Franci-co Dog Show catalogue of 1902 which reads as follows:

Dr. H. L. Tevis offers a silver cup to be known as “THE BREEDER’S CUP” for the best Pacific Coast bred bull terrier whelped in the year previous to competition (1901). To be won three times under the condition of deed before becoming the absolute property of one exhibitor.

It is the sense of this Committee that the conditions of a deed of gift for any special prize cannot be changed after the conditions of the same have been published in premium list or catalogue, therefore we decide that the cup has been won as follows:

At the 1902 show by J. C. Bone breeder and exhibitor of the bitch Hawthorn Snowflake.

At the 1904 show by Ed. Attridge breeder and exhibitor of the dog Edgecote Peer.

At the 1903, 1905 and 1906 shows the exhibitors to whom the awards were given were not the breeders and therefore the awards are not in accordance with our conception of a “Breeder’s Cup.”

G. Muss-Arnolt.

Dwight Moore.

A. P. Vredenburgh.

On motion the same was accepted and filed.
The Stud Book Committee report was read as follows:

Your Committee would also call your attention to the fact that the name "Lynbrook" has been applied for, for registration, while the word "Lynwood" is registered. An application has been made for the word "Parkview", while the words "Parkdale" and "Parkway" are registered. Application ahs also been made for the word "Southland" while the words "Southlawn" and "Southwark" are already registered and we would ask you to determine whether or not these applications should be granted. We further recommend that in order to remedy the present confusion and unsatisfactory condition of affairs and to meet what seems to be the view of the breeders of Foxhounds, hereafter the breed be divided into English and American Foxhounds. The requirements of registration in each breed to be the same as those prescribed for other breeds of dogs. In order to disturb existing conditions as little as possible, we recommend that this should go into effect after December 31st, 1908, the closing of the current Stud Book. Your Committee in making the foregoing recommendation bases its conclusion upon a wide correspondence with those interested in breeding Foxhounds and in exhibiting them and found only one correspondent, the Brunswick Foxhound Club, who was not in favor of the change.
The correspondence is attached hereto and made a part of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

Marcel A. Viti.
Singleton Van Schaick.

(At this point Mr. H. H. Hunnewell arrived and took the chair.)

THE CHAIRMAN: The Stud Book Committee calls attention, in its report, to the fact that the name "Lynbrook" has been applied for, for registration, while the word "Lynwood" is registered; that the application has been made for the name "Parkview", while the words "Parkdale" and "Parkway" are registered; that application has also been made for the word "Southland" while the word "Southlawn" and "Southwark" are already registered. The Committee asks the delegates to determine here whether or not these applications should be granted under the circumstances.

MR. MORTIMER: I move that those applications be granted.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: What recommendation does the Committee make?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee makes no recommendation at all.

MR. VITI: We thought it would be better to have the Delegates pass on those applications. There has been a great deal of comment made by applicants as to why kennel names applied for by them were not passed upon.
Heretofore we have been in the habit of rejecting all those which were phonetically similar to those already registered. Mr. Can Schaick and I went over the names, and for that reason we thought it would be well to bring up those three names for the meeting to pass upon.

MR. McGUIRE: I do not think it would be advisable or wise to grant those names if there is the least doubt on the part of the Committee about the matter. I think those three names should be sent back to the Stud Book Committee.

MR. MORITMER: I think the difference is so great between, for instance,
"Southland" and "Southlawn" and the same with the others, that there would be no danger of conflict, and therefore I cannot see any reason why they should not be granted.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It seems to me that the Stud Book Committee should make a decision in the matter. The Committee is appointed for the purpose with power to act. If they have any doubt about it, let them so state, but they should make a decision one way or another. Otherwise there is no use in having the Committee.

MR. MORTIMER: I think the Committee has acted with A great deal of wisdom. They were not certain in their own minds whether these applications should be granted or not; therefore they refer the matter to a general meeting. What more can they do? It was the wisest course they could pursue in my opinion.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: The general meeting has no light on those matters except from the information which is given to us, therefore it cannot decide properly. It is for the Stud Book Committee to act upon.

Mr. Mortimer's motion was seconded and lost...

Mr. McGuire moved that the matter be sent back to the Stud Book Committee and that the balance of its report be accepted and its recommendations adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Oak Park Collie Club has defaulted in the payment of prizes to F. T. Brown; the Merrimack valley Kennel Club has defaulted in the payment of prizes to Charles Kershner, and the Monmouth County Kennel Club has defaulted in the payment of prizes to Mrs. A. R. Conkling.

THE CHAIRMAN: What is the usual procedure?

THE SECRETARY: It has been usual to refer it to the Executive Committee, but I think that this meeting is capable of acting. They have all been notified. The usual procedure is suspension until they comply and pay their prizes.
MR. MORTIMER: Have they given any reason why they declined to pay their prizes?

THE SECRETARY: No. I sent a communication to the Secretary of the Monmouth County Kennel Club on October 29th. I had a call from the Secretary about a week ago, and he said he would attend to the matter. I have had no information on the subject since. He said he would let me know just as soon as he had attended to it. I addressed a communication to the Secretary of the Merrimack Valley Kennel Club on October 24th on the subject, but no reply has yet been received. I notified the Secretary of the Oak Park Collie Club by letter dated September 3rd, and he replied saying that the medals were now completed and would be delivered to Mr. Brown with the cups which were then being engraved, and that he had notified Mr. Brown to that effect. I received a letter from Mr. Frank Brown to-day in which he states that the same answer was given to him two months ago, and that he could not understand why it should require two months to send medals which were already engraved. This notice was sent to me by the Secretary of the Oak Par Club on September 14th, two months and a half ago.

MR. MOORE: I move that these three clubs be given thirty days in which to pay said prizes, at which time if not paid, they be suspended.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The North Shore Kennel Club, under date of April 20th, suspended Mr. William O’Connor, which acted as a suspension here. There has been no opportunity since that time to refer this suspension for action to the proper committee, but on October 20th I received a request from the North Shore Kennel Club to re-instate Mr. O’Connor.

MR. MOORE: Who asks for his re-instatement?

THE SECRETARY: Mr. M. F. Mulcahey, who says he thinks Mr. O’Conner has been punished enough.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Does he withdraw the charges?

THE SECRETARY: That is practically what it amounts to.

MR. CODMAN: It was a rather stormy mix-up at the time, and they were all somewhat heated. Mulcahey was the offended person, and he is asking to rescind the order of suspension.

MR. MORTIMER: The request should come from the show-giving club that suspended him, shouldn’t it?

THE CHAIRMAN: It should come from the people who punished him.

THE SECRETARY: It came here from Mr. M. F. Mulcahey, the chairman of the committee, and this letter is signed simply by M. F. Mulcahey.
MR. CODMAN: I think it should be referred back to the club which suspended him.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: As the second letter is not signed Bench Show Committee, I think it is absolutely informal, and we cannot take action on it.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, we can take action.

MR. MORTIMER: We can take action provided Mulcahey will certify that he is writing as Chairman of the Bench Show Committee. He simply signed his name without any official designation.

MR. MOORE: Can we not re-instate him on a given date, notifying the club to that effect, and if no objection is made up to that time, he will be reinstated?

THE CHAIRMAN: You could do that.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: We cannot do anything of the kind. Charges have to be referred by a club. The request to withdraw is signed by an individual.

Mr. McGuire: I move that the secretary be instructed to write to that club and ask if they wish those charges withdrawn.

THE SECRETARY: In case I receive an official communication from that club stating that they withdraw the charges, will you include in that motion that I am authorized to re-instate him?
MR. McGUIRE: Yes.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: At the last meeting of the Board of Directors I reported the expulsion of Miss Rosalie Stewart by the Toy Spaniel Club of America, and our suspension in consequence thereof. I now read you the charges and the correspondence in connection therewith. On account of her expulsion, under a standing resolution she was suspended pending appeal. She has appealed and denies all the allegations, and to-day I received a communication stating that on the first day of January preceding her alleged expulsion she had resigned as a member of the club and therefore was not under its jurisdiction. I submit this matter to you in order that you may determine whether the cause of her expulsion by her club is sufficient cause for the American Kennel Club to suspend her and thereby deprive her of the privileges of the American Kennel Club.

MR. MOORE: I would like to know what standing resolution gives any specialty club, or any other club, the right to suspend a person--

THE SECRETARY: The American Kennel Club had a definition of the word "expulsion" determined in 1904, that expulsion from a club meant suspension by the American Kennel Club pending appeal. If a man is expelled from a club for non-payment of dues, under their constitution they have a right to expel him, but that does not mean he will be suspended by the American Kennel Club, because he may be unfortunate and not able to pay his dues, but if he is expelled by his club for conduct prejudicial to the interests of the American Kennel Club, we permit the suspension to remain. That is the reason I want to know whether in your opinion the grounds upon which this person was expelled by the Toy Spaniel Club are sufficient for the American Kennel Club to continue its suspension.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Do not all those reasons fall flat if it is shown that her resignation from the club was offered previous to that occurrence?

(At this point President Belmont arrived and took the chair.)

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: It depends upon the circumstances. Suspension by this club does not necessarily follow. Supposing the person who submits the resignation is in arrears for dues, the resignation cannot be accepted; or the resignation may be received on the eve of the action of the club ordering the suspension. In a case of that kind they are not obliged to accept it, and it does not necessarily follow that that resignation shall be effective. If charges are lodged against a member of a club, he cannot resign.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Suppose the resignation comes in Before the charges are preferred?

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: I mean a resignation that is a palpable evasion, it would not be necessarily effective.

MR. McGUIRE: Is there anything in the papers to show whether the lady was a member of the club or not before the suspension?

THE SECRETARY: There is not. The action of the Toy Spaniel Club was taken on the 25th of March, and they did not see fit to notify me of the expulsion until the 2nd of September thereafter.

MR. EDSON: It would seem that she did not have an opportunity to defend herself; that they took action without her even knowing it.

THE SECRETARY: That I do not know. I received a letter from her to-day. The question is whether the charges upon which she was suspended by the Toy Spaniel Club are sufficient to base our suspension upon, or whether they relate entirely to a domestic matter that is not misconduct from our point of view.

CHAIRMAN BELMOT: The point you make is that if the expulsion is effective, then it is merely a matter of custom here to endorse that expulsion with a suspension by the American Kennel Club?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, pending appeal, to show that it
Is not an expulsion that would come under our rules.

MR. EDSON: I think the secretary ought to be instructed to examine into this matter, as the papers do not explain themselves, and that he should write to the Toy Spaniel Club and ask for more information on the subject.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the secretary be instructed to ascertain if Miss Rosalie Stewart was a member or not at the time of the expulsion. That will settle the whole matter one way or the other, and we can then take it up. We cannot allow a suspension against a non-member.

THE SECRETARY: If this matter cannot be determined or decided today, it cannot be disposed of for three months. In the meantime, if this person is innocent so far as we are concerned, we are depriving her of the right of showing or exhibiting or taking any part whatever in shows. If it should be proven that we are right in continuing her suspension, then it is proper to deprive her of those privileges, but if there is any question that the grounds of her expulsion are not sufficient, and cannot be called misconduct under our rules, I do not think it is fair to deprive that person of the right of exhibiting dogs.

DR. De MUND: It seems to me that the club is making pretty serious charges against the lady, and if they are well founded she should certainly be kept under suspension until the proof is given one way or the other. I understand that one of the charges accuses her of taking money belonging to the club.
CHAIRMAN BELMONT: The charges are not proven. They are simply made, and therefore you could not expect the American Kennel Club to act upon them without a hearing.

DR. DeMUND: But they have considered them grave enough to expel her.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: But the expulsion does not necessarily make it valid. That is the point. In the ordinary course, if that expulsion is valid, then you could suspend her, but if it is not valid, then it is a question that has not yet been definitely decided, and she would have to come to you on appeal. It is for you to decide whether the evidence is sufficient on which the lady was expelled.

MR. CODMAN: She could not be expelled. She had already resigned.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: The secretary is not in possession of definite facts. On the one side it is claimed that she resigned; on the other side it is claimed that she was expelled and naturally at that time was a member in good standing. There being some doubt about it, the secretary calls to your attention how unjust it would be to deprive this lady of the right to exhibit dogs, because she might be proven innocent.
DR. DEMUND: We have a report signed by eight members of the executive committee that she was expelled from the club. That seems sufficient proof for the present that she has been expelled from the club. Against that we merely have her statement that she was not a member of the club.

THE SECRETARY: Suppose we show that she was expelled by the club legally - that she was a member of the club and legally expelled, and her expulsion is signed by every member of the Executive Committee. We suspend her, of which we notify her. She comes in with her appeal and says, yes, I was expelled; I was expelled because I was in arrears for dues for two years. That is not reason why the American Kennel Club should suspend her. That ought to raise her suspension. The point to be decided here is whether the grounds upon which the Toy Spaniel Club expelled her -- which we will say for the sake of argument are good grounds -- whether they are sufficient grounds for the American Kennel Club to suspend her.

MR. McGUIRE: I think those charges are very general, and I do not think we have sufficient facts before us to decide the matter on its merits, and until we have further facts we had better lay it over. I move that the matter be laid over until the next meeting of the club, and the secretary be instructed to communicate with all parties concerned for the purpose of getting all facts in relation thereto.
Motion seconded and carried.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: I would like to interrupt you for a short time in your deliberations. I am very busy to-day. I could not get here to attend this meeting from beginning to end, but there is one matter that has been brought to my attention which I deem of great importance, and I hope if I am not able to remain with you, at all events you will take some action on the subject, and that is the expenses of this club. The fact is that we are spending more money in getting out our Gazette and publishing our Stud Book than we are getting in, and we are running on a basis that is eating into our reserve fund. That is something that we must correct at once. The work has very much increased. The charges were very low for the sort of work done in times past, but somehow or other it could be done at that time. There was not so much material. For instance, the hunting up of the pedigree of a dog then was not anything like the work it is now, for the reason, I suppose, that the pedigrees have vastly increased. The secretary can give you the details with respect to it. And I think this Board is competent to act upon the increase of the charges. In the first place, the Associate Membership receives more to-day than the club can afford to give them. It costs much more to publish the Stud Book. For $5 they get a certain number of registrations and then they get a copy of the Stud Book and Gazette. It costs the club more than it can afford and I think the secretary suggests that he may be able to show you that the associate members should pay $7.50 instead of $5.00.

THE SECRETARY: The charges ought to be increased.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: The charges of this club should be so arranged that we can add to our reserve fund instead of eating into it. We are bound to destroy it, and that is an important asset for the club. That asset was looked upon as a matter for contention at one time, and you do not want to remove the chance of getting into discussion about that fund by letting it be destroyed, or giving it away. I urge upon you to take action now and correct this evil at once, because you are running at a loss of from $2,000 to $3,000 a year fully, if not more, and it has been going on for some time. Increase your charges. It is better not to do business men must know. That is what I came here to say to you this afternoon and to ask you to give that subject your earnest attention. I do not think it will take long because the secretary has the figures ready for you, and you are all sufficiently familiar with the charges, and what you give for them, to decide very promptly what would be a fair increase. You must increase them or you will run behind.

MR. HUNNEWELL: In a matter as important as this would it not be wise to let it go to the Finance Committee and allow them to submit some plan? It seems to me it is quite an important matter and ought to be gone over very carefully before any decision is reached. It is a very difficult thing to decide in an afternoon. I understand that the Committee of twelve have some scheme on hand.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, they have suggested something, but I would suggest that it might be a good idea to submit the matter to the different committees that have charge of it, and let them bring in a recommendation.

MR. HUNNEWELL: What is the Finance Committee for?

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: It has not brought this matter before the club. Take whatever action you deem wise. Have a report made to the different committees and report again at a special meeting.

DR. DeMUND: I think we all understand that is the position, but in the present status of the club, can we take any action? It seems to m that it is up to the committee of thirty, if they ever meet, to take some action in regard to increasing the charges.

THE SECRETARY: Notice is to go out for a meeting on December 16th.

MR. MCGUIRE: That is a matter that has come up before the Sub-committee and has had more or less serious consideration. It has been discussed, and I believe when the committee does report it will have reached some recommendation to submit to the club, but I think it would be unwise to take any action at this meeting affecting the membership. The club in its present status can hardly afford that, although realizes that the matter which you have brought to our attention warrants immediate action.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: I would urge you, at all events, to pass a resolution recommending a committee to take such steps to insure to the club a sufficient revenue. You say it is up to the committee. I am a member of the committee of thirty, but I have never been called upon to attend any meeting.

MR McGUIRE: It is unfortunate that the chairman of the committee of thirty is not here. However, I think Mr. Moore is better informed than any other person on what the committee has done and is about to do, and I think, if he is so disposed, he can enlighten us very much. There are provisions in the constitution which tend to cure this very condition which you have mentioned.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: In your opinion then that matter is sufficiently in hand as to now need no action at all. I only know, as your executive officer, that that is what is happening.
MR. MOORE: I do not think there is any question about that. It has been discussed quite a number of times, but it seemed to be the sense of the members of the committee that it was not a good time now to make any positive changes; that when the new organization takes hold, and we know where we stand as regards this present organization, then the matter should be gone into very thoroughly and very carefully.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: In the meantime we are losing money.

MR. MOORE: It is unfortunate, but it may be better than to rush pell mell into something that we would have to change right after it was done.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: We are publishing an absolutely unnecessary Stud Book. We could cut down the expenses one half. There are entries of classes in it that have no recognition whatever in this club. We could cut down the Stud Book and the Gazette.

MR. MORTIMER: The great trouble seems to be that nobody knows what the Sub-committee is doing. I am a member of the committee of thirty, but I do not know what it is doing. The Sub-committee of thirty, but I do not know what it is doing. The Sub-committees have held meetings. I happened to be here one day last week when there was a meeting of the committee.

THE SECRETARY: I have copies of the notices for a meeting of the committee of thirty to be held on the 16th day
Of December, in which enclosure I am sending out the original agreement of November, 1907, and the tentative constitution which the Sub-committees have put together.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that this matter be referred to the committee of thirty with a request that it act as soon as possible.

MR. McGUIRE: As a member of the committee of thirty I have been asked frequently by various members of the club what progress the committee was making. I was away for quite a long time and was in no position to answer. Since the granting of the charter I believer there have only been two meetings of the Sub-committees, and without attempting to offer any criticism, or anything of the kind, I think that work could have been proceeded with faster. I thin kit should be proceeded with now. I think the committee of thirty should report to the club, if possible, not later than its annual meeting.

MR. HUNNEWELL: There is a meeting called for the 16th of December.

MR. McGUIRE: Yes, but that merely brings before the committee of thirty a tentative constitution which, if I may use the expression, cannot be chewed over for two or three months. The gentlemen who drew this tentative constitution, I believe, have devoted a good deal of time to it. The committee of thirty always being entirely competent to act, I think that some suggestions might be had from the members. The secretary has just told us he is about mailing this tentative constitution along with the agreement, and so forth, which is a very good thing, but I also think it would be a good thing not only to hasten the delivery of that tentative constitution to the committee, but at the same time publish it as soon as possible in the Gazette, thereby leaving the committee open to suggestions from members.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to say that it would have been published in the Gazette before this had it not been for a rule in the constitution prohibiting any committee from reporting until they report to the Kennel Club. If the American Kennel Club directs it, then it is proper, because the constitution says that reports to be made by committees can only be made public by and through the American Kennel Club. If you pass a resolution to-day, it will go in, but I cannot do it without a resolution.

MR. HUNNEWELL: My motion was to refer this matter of the finances to the committee of thirty with a request that they act promptly.

Motion seconded and carried.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: I cannot see what the charges have to do with a new organization. We are talking business here. We are going to talk business together. It is only
That we are going to change the method perhaps of doing so, but the charge for registration may remain the same, no matter what the organization is.

MR. McGUIRE: This whole subject is now in the hands of the committee of thirty, and if this tentative constitution is made known it will be readily seen that they have time to make provision for just the circumstances to which you have called our attention. They will in all likelihood report in six weeks. I do not think any action should be taken before they report. I think the constitution will provide for the dues, and so forth, and if we have waited until this time, we can afford to wait six weeks longer. The Sub-committees that made up this constitution have gone over it very carefully, and if it is put before the committee of thirty members might possibly care to make some suggestions with regard to it. I suggest that we publish the constitution, and if any of the committee of thirty, or if a request is addressed to the committee of thirty as a whole by any member, it will receive consideration.

CHAIRMAN BELMONT: I understand that a resolution authorizing the committee of thirty to publish the draft of the constitution, in their discretion, would be proper?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

It was moved and seconded that the committee of thirty be authorized, in their discretion, to publish the draft of the constitution.

   Carried.

(Mr. H. H. Hunnewell takes the chair)

On motion the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee amounting to $40.40 for disbursements was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from the New England Kennel Club reporting the resignation of Mr. William B. Emery. Nobody has been suggested to fill his place. It is simply a notice to us that he has resigned.

MR. VAN SCHAIK: I move it be laid upon the table.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: I would like to move, in reference to Mr. Emery's resignation, that the secretary be instructed to write to him and ask him to reconsider the same until the new organization has been effected.

MR. McGUIRE: I second the motion.

   Carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read the call for said special meeting.

The Secretary read a communication from the Long Island Kennel Club naming Mr. John F. Collins as its proxy.

Mr. Moore moved that said proxy be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Moore offered the following resolution:

“WHEREAS, In pursuance of resolution passed and adopted by this Club, the committee elected and appointed there-under have caused the American Kennel Club to be duly incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, and

WHEREAS, the said Club has been duly organized, adopted a Constitution and by-laws and elected all the members and associate subscribers and all delegates of members and of associate subscribers and all delegates of members and of associate subscribers of this Club, members, associate subscribers and delegates of said Club, and

WHEREAS, a notice of this special meeting, stating the purpose for which it was called, was mailed to each member and delegate on January the ninth, 1909, and

WHEREAS no dissent thereto has been received by the Secretary.

Now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of this Club be and hereby are instructed to transfer, assign and set over all of its property, assets, effects and good will unto said American Kennel Club without compensation.

DR. DE MUND: I second the resolution.

THE CHAIRMAN: We seem to have arrived at the end of our difficulties, and this seems to be the last step. Are you ready for the question?

The question was then put, and all the delegates voted in favor of the resolution except Mr. John W. Britton 2nd, representing the Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association, who voted “No.”

DR. DE MUND: I would like to ask the gentleman that voted “no” to reconsider his vote. I ask that as one of the representative that met this Committee of Thirty. After a great deal of work and after discussing the matter thoroughly we agreed unanimously on this resolution which has been put before you, and I do not think that the gentleman has carefully considered the matter. He is not supporting his own representatives. I speak for Mr. McGuire and myself. Some of the other members of that committee are here, and I do not think it is fair to send him into a body and then not stand by it, and I hope he will reconsider that vote.

MR. OSGOOD: I would like to add my voice to what has been said by Dr. De Mund, and to say to the gentleman that the large majority has conceded everything that they fairly the large majority has conceded everything that they fairly could for unity and harmony. Perhaps the constitution does not absolutely suit him. No constitution could, but there will be an opportunity at the next annual meeting for him to suggest any change. I hope he will reconsider his vote.

MR. BRITTON: If you have all had your say, I would like to say that I am representing my club, and I am voting as my club wishes me to.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you realize what your club is doing?

MR. BRITTON: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: And you still do it?

MR. BRITTON: I have certain instructions from my club, and I am following them to the best of my ability.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you realize that the Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association is holding up the American Kennel Club, and for what reason? If you are a representative you must be able to state the reason.

MR. BRITTON: I do not think it is necessary.

THE CHAIRMAN: Under those circumstances it would seem to me that the Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association could very properly come under this resolution.

DR. DE MUND: I cannot see what ground the Bull Terriers’ Club has for this action. The Bull Terrier Club signed the agreement indicating that it would stand by the Committee of Thirty. That agreement states that if any one of the representatives and Committee of Thirty has any fault to find, then I could see where they might have a loophole, but it was unanimous, and I cannot see how the Bull Terrier Club, or any other club, can stultify the action of this committee and of its representatives.

MR. OSGOOD: I have had a talk with the delegate of that club, and I know he is laboring under a misunderstanding. He told me one of the reasons why he thought the constitution was no better than the one we had previously, and he is absolutely wrong in his premises. He understands the matters directly opposite from what it is, and it would seem to me a great disappointment to us to have the affairs of the American Kennel Club held up for a year through a misunderstanding on the part of the delegate of the club.

MR. HOOLEY: It would seem to me that possibly the gentleman might be conferred with, and there may be some little thing in his mind that does not quite agree with the facts. Is it in order to adjourn for a few moments to talk this matter over? The gentleman seems to be an intelligent looking man, and I am sure an intelligent man would not stand alone, and I am sure any man of intelligence would be open to any information he might receive.

On motion recess was declared.

THE CHAIR: The meeting has now come to order after a recess. Owing to the very unfortunate circumstance that has arisen, we are not in a position to turn over the assets to the new incorporation club, or at least become the incorporation club which we are at present, owing to the sole dissenting voice of the Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association, which apparently will not give its reason, and if it does not give its reason it will be very difficult for us to ascertain what the trouble is, unless it is a sore head of some kind. Owing to this unfortunate situation the object of the meeting is no longer before us, and we will have to adjourn. The club being incorporated, we can proceed with the ordinary business, because it is simply a question of the assets.

MR. MOORE: I move that this meeting adjourns to meet at the call of the chair.

DR. DE MUND: Perhaps Mr. Britton will talk to the members of his club this afternoon, and they might telephone us if there is any idea of a change of mind at a future meeting of this club. They might instruct him the other way. If we are to adjourn now let us ask Mr. Britton to do that.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Britton, you might communicate with the members of your club and tell them that everybody has been perfectly amicable. Everybody has done his very best to bring about this agreement, but of course it is impossible to suit everybody in every detail, and for one dissenting vote to stop the whole organization seems to be a little bit --- well, I won’t say the word.

MR. OSGOOD: Might it not be possible providing Mr. Britton cannot get an expression of opinion from the members of the Bull Terriers’ Club this afternoon, for him to bring the matter up at their meeting to-night? We shall probably all be in New York, and if they should take action to-night perhaps we could organize to-morrow at an adjourned meeting at the call of the Chair, provided they telephoned down to that effect.
MR. MOORE: I would move that where we adjourn, we do so until tomorrow at four o’clock at Madison Square Garden, in order to give the Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association ample opportunity to confer. Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: I will adjourn the meeting until tomorrow at the restaurant at Madison Square Garden, at four o’clock, and, Mr. Britton, I trust you will do your best to bring about a change in your vote, because it seems to me ridiculous that one club should hold up 130 clubs.

MR. BRITTON: If any gentleman wants to attend our meeting to-night I have not the slightest doubt that they would be glad to listen to him.

DR. DE MUND: I will go to the meeting tonight if I will be welcome.

MR. MOORE: I move that Dr. De Mund and Mr. Osgood be appointed a committee of two to attend this meeting of the Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association to-night. Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: And I move that Mr. Britton be asked to appeal to his club to do the best they can, and I feel that Mr. Britton will do it; that he will state the facts, and it will undoubtedly have a great deal of weight with his club. Motion seconded and carried.
The meeting then adjourned until to-morrow, at the restaurant at Madison Square Garden, at 4 p.m.

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
Mr. H.H. Hunnewell in the Chair.

In addition to a quorum at the meeting of the 11th ______ there were present Messrs. R.P. Keasbey, William H. Carroll and F.J. Trown.

Mr. J.W. Britton, II, the delegate from the Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association, moved that the vote on Mr. Moore’s resolution to transfer the property of the American Kennel Club to the American Kennel Club, Incorporated, under the Special Act, be reconsidered.

Motion seconded and carried.

DR. OSGOOD: I move that the resolution offered by Mr. Moore to transfer, assign and set over all the property, assets, effects and good will of the American Kennel Club to the American Kennel Club, Incorporated, without compensation, be now acted upon.

Motion seconded and carried.

The resolution of Mr. Moore was then presented seconded and carried unanimously.

On motion the exciting adjourned.

A.P. Vredenburgh

MR. MOORE: Mr. Chairman, I think a motion is in order to elect a permanent chairman. The chairman that was elected by vote was called to Europe, and I therefore move that Mr. Hunnewell be elected permanent chairman of this committee.

MR. B.S. SMITH: I second the motion.

Carried.

MR. WILLETS: I nominate Dr. De Mund as vice-chairman of this committee.

Nomination seconded.

Dr. De Mund was unanimously elected vice-chairman of the committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: I rule that the Committee of Thirty is acting with the powers of directors and under the constitution of January 5th, 1909, as per the vote at the meeting of the American Kennel Club, Incorporated. Is there any objection to my ruling?

No objection was made.

MR. OSGOOD: I call attention of the Chair to an error in Section III, Article 6 of the Constitution, and
I state that it is the opinion of every member of this committee that the number constituting a quorum was placed at twelve instead of sixteen.

It was moved and seconded that the order of business be suspended.

Carried.

MR. WILLETS: I move that we now proceed to the election of committees.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: I submit the report of the Nominating Committee appointed by the Chair, signed by all the members of the committee.

Member,  R.S. Edson

LICENSE COMMITTEE.  (3)
Chairman  J.G. Bates,
Member,  F.H. Osgood
Member,  Geo. Lauder, Jr.

MR. MOORE:  I move the nominations close.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. WILLETS:  I move that the Secretary be instructed to cast one ballot for all these candidates.
Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary announced that he had cast the ballot as instructed.

THE CHAIRMAN:  Then I declare that these gentlemen have been duly elected members of these committees.

THE SECRETARY:  There are sixteen clubs in arrears for dues for 1909.

THE CHAIRMAN:  The Secretary will read the names of such clubs in arrears.
The Secretary read the names of said clubs.

MR. MOORE:  I move they be given the usual mail notice that if their dues are not paid within thirty days from date they will be dropped from membership.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Moore has made a suggestion which I think it is well to state, and that is that the Secretary be asked to write to the chairman of each of these different sub-committees, requesting them to organize as quickly as possible and frame rules of procedure, and then report to the Secretary, so that he will know how to conduct the business in connection with these different committees.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the appeal from Miss Rosalie Stewart against her suspension by the Toy Spaniel Club. I reported at the last meeting that she had been expelled from the Toy Spaniel Club, and I brought up the question whether the cause of her expulsion by her club was sufficient for us to continue the suspension. The matter was laid on the table. Pursuant to instructions I wrote to the Secretary of the Toy Spaniel Club in regard to this matter, and I submit to you the correspondence in connection therewith, which is quite voluminous.

DR. DE MUND: I move that the Committee of Thirty resolve itself into a trial board to hear and determine the case of Miss Rosalie Stewart.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Committee then went into session as a trial board.

DR. DE MUND: I have to report that the finding of the trial board is that the suspension of Miss Rosalie Stewart by the Toy Spaniel Club be removed.

MR. MOORE: I move that the finding of the Trial Board be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

DR. DE MUND: I move that a communication from R. S. Barrett, et al, in reference to the Fanciers’ Association of Indiana, be referred to the License Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at four o’clock, at Madison Square Garden.

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
Mr. H.H. Hunnewell in the chair.
Quorum present.
The directors proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year with the following results:

President, August Belmont,
1st Vice-President Hollis H. Hunnewell
2nd Vice-Pres. Hildreth K. Bloodgood
Secretary and Treasurer, A.P. Vredenburgh

On motion the following named gentlemen were appointed as members of the Pacific Advisory Committee:
Charles K. Harley,
H.H. Carlton,
W.P. Burnham,
W.W. Stettheimer, and
J.P. Norman

On motion the Secretary was directed to advise the Pacific Advisory Committee that a Code of Rules for their guidance would be forwarded in due course. Also that no additional active members should be elected until further notice.

DR. OSGOOD: I desire to offer the following:
Resolved that it is the sense of this meeting that the members desire to express their regret that President
Belmont was unable to be present at the satisfactory closing up of the affairs of the club of which he was instrumental in organizing and many years its president, owing to his compulsory absence through illness.

Seconded and carried unanimously.

MR. MOORE: I move that all standing resolutions that have heretofore been in force shall be rescinded from this date.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

(Signed) SINGLETON VAN SCHAICK,
Representing President of the Am. Kennel Club
(Signed) CRAIG F.R. DRAKE
Representing President of the Associate Subscribers of the American Kennel Club

A.P. VREDENBURGH
(ATTEST) Secretary of the American Kennel Club
The Secretary read his report as follows:

To The American Kennel Club (Incorporated)

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that there are in file credentials from nineteen clubs, and applications from three Specialty Clubs for admission to Membership.

Applicants for fifty three kennels names have been filed since our last meeting.

A bill fro $28.75 from the Pacific Advisory Committee from December 1st, 1908 to February 3, 1909 has been presented. The same appears to be correct, and I respectfully recommend the payment of same.

Twenty-one clubs paid their dues for 1909 after January 1st, 1909 and receipts were given “Subject to your action.”

Seventeen clubs are in arrears for dues for 1909 and your action on the subject is requested. The following matters were “laid on the table” at the last meeting, and should be taken up, and disposed of at this meeting:

Miss Rosalie Stewart’s appeal, and William B. Emery’s resignation.

Resignations have been received from the District of Columbia Kennel Club, and the Keystone Beagle Club. Both clubs were in good standing on December 31st, 1908, and their resignations are in good order.

At the election of officers and delegates for the Associate Subscribers, the following were elected:

President ------------------------- H.K. Bloodgood
Vice-President ------------------ O.W. Donner
Secretary-------------------------- Dr. J.E. DeMund
Delegates:
  W.G. Rockefeller, A.G. Hooley
  Dwight Moore, B.S. Smith
  W. Rutherford, W.J. Berg

I will submit the annual report of the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, also the minutes of the meeting of January 16, 1909 of said Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh

Secretary.”
MR. MOORE: I move that the report be laid upon the table to be taken up in the regular course of business.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the treasurer’s annual report. This will be published and made part of the minutes of this meeting.

MR. OSGOOD: I move that the Treasurer’s annual report be accepted and spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the financial report from January 1st to date, as follows:

“New York, February 10, 1909:

To the American Kennel Club (Incorporated)

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the financial report from January 1, 1909 to date:

Balance on hand January 1, 1909 ---------------------------- $19,151.37

Receipts from January 1, 1909 to date --------------------- 3,428.93

Total -------------------------------------------------------- $22,580.30

Disbursements from January 1, 1909 ------------------------ 3,107.98

Balance on hand ---------------------------------------- 19,472.32

Respectfully submitted.”

A.P. Vredenburgh

MR. OSGOOD: I would like to ask if in the annual report of the Treasurer there is included extraordinary legal expenses, and if so, what is the amount.

THE SECRETARY: Yes. Legal expenses and disbursements for the year, $1,704.95, which just about covers the deficit which has been pointed out.

On motion the Treasurer’s report was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: There were 53 applications made for kennel names and 10 for transfers. The Stud Book Committee have approved of 49. It has disapproved of the names “Lord”, “Shady Brook Farm” and “Watchung” Anthony-Wayne because they conflict with other kennel names already granted. The names and transfers approved by the committee are as follows:

THE SECRETARY: I submit the annual report of the Pacific Advisory Committee and the minutes of the meeting of January 16, 1909. It has been customary to print these minutes without reading them

"MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE: A.K.C.

Hotel St. Francis, San Francisco,

January 16, 1909.

Present: H. H. Carlton, Dr. W. P. Burnham, W. W. Stettheimer, J. P. Norman

Absent: C. K. Harley.

On motion, Mr. Carlton took the chair.

On motion the minute were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary presented the following report:

Berkeley, January 16, 1909.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith a statement of the business transacted during the past year by the Secretary of this Committee. In consequence of the fact that many applications for registrations, kennel names, certified pedigrees, etc. are forwarded direct to New York, I am unable to give even an approximate estimate of the total revenue derived from the Pacific Coast.

The following figures represent the amounts remitted to New York through my office:

Number of letters written 770
Received approximately 1300

Deposits remitted to New York $525.00

Returned to clubs 325.00

INCOME: Collected for A. K. C.

Deposits forfeited: $50.00

Fines 61.00

Listing Fees 517.50

Dues and License fees 240

Registrations, certified pedigrees, kennel

Names, etc. 380.50

Total revenue remitted to A.K.C $1,549.00

I have kept no account of the blanks, rules, etc., sent in answer to requests for same, but the number is quite large.

I beg to call your attention to the request made in my last annual report that you elect another secretary in my place, or afford me some other relief from the excessive strain on my time, labor and pocket involved in the incumbency of the office of Secretary of this Committee, which I have now occupied for over eleven years.

Respectfully submitted:

J. P. Norma, Secretary.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary’s report be accepted and filed, pending action taken at the ensuing

Meeting of the A.K.C. Carried.

The Colorado Kennel Club announced its consolidation with the Inter-Mountain Terrier Club, and requested permission to change its title to Colorado Kennel and Intermountain Terrier Club.
It was moved and seconded that the desired permission be granted, and that the Secretary of American Kennel Club be requested to change the records of his office accordingly. Carried.

The Menlo Park Kennel Club and the Pacific Boston Terrier Club presented their resignations. Both members being in good standing. It was moved and seconded that the resignations be and hereby are accepted. Carried.

Communications were read from the Colorado Kennel Club and the Hawaiian Kennel Club, announcing their inability to hold their shows on the dates approved. There being no mention of any definite date in the future as one, for which they would desire recognition. It was moved and seconded that the deposits follow the usual course and be forfeited to the A.K.C. Carried.

IN RE BONE AND ATTRIDGE V. S. F. K. C.

It was moved and seconded, that Whereas the Rule Committee of the A.K.C. has decided that the only wins on the Tevis Breeder's Cup have been made as follows: In 1902 by J. C. Bone, Breeder and Exhibitor of the Bitch, "HAWTHORNE SNOWFLAKE, and in 1904 by E. Attridge, Breeder and Exhibitor of the dog "EDGECOTE PEER", and that the awards made in 1903, 1905, and 1907 were not in accordance with the conditions originally laid down, the exhibitors not being the breeders. Therefore, be it resolved, that the protest of the Appellants be and hereby is sustained, and that the San Francisco Kennel Club be and hereby is ordered to cancel said awards of 1903, 1905 and 1907, and to offer the Tevis Breeders Cup at future shows until won outright under the original deed of gift as published for the first time in the catalogue of 1902. Carried.

IN RE ACKERMAN V. F. S> POTT: A charge of misconduct.

The Appellant stating that he was misinformed as to the extent of the culpability of the respondent, requested permission to withdraw the charge filed. On motion, said permission was granted.

IN RE ACKERMAN V. JOHN OLIVER: Charges of Misconduct and Fraud. From the affidavits filed, it was charged that respondent had custody of one of appellant's stud dogs, which he bred without appellant's knowledge or consent, appropriating to himself the puppy taken in lieu of stud fee. It was further charged, that respondent was withholding from Appellant a wire-haired fox terrier bitch, of which he denied appellant's ownership, and the half of a litter of puppies, resulting from the mating of one of appellants'

Stud dogs, with the said bitch, also the property of appellant. It appeared from the evidence of appellant, as well as from reply of respondent, that said bitch had been left in the latter's custody by one Frank Hall, to whom appellant had entrusted her under certain conditions, which Hall had failed to fulfill. Both parties to the case appeared in person.

After hearing the defense, which set up a claim for the board for several dogs, it was moved and seconded: That whereas appellant's bitch, Chamption Humberstone Hope, was acknowledged to be his property by Frank Hall, who also in the affidavit filed, acknowledged his failure to fulfill the terms on which said bitch had been turned over to him by appellant. Therefore be it Resolved that appellant's protest be sustained and that John Oliver be and hereby is ordered to deliver to I. C. Ackerman, within their (30) days, under penalty of suspension, the said bitch, on receipt of the payment for board and stud fees as follows, and also to deliver to said Ackerman half the littler of puppies, the result of mating said Humberstone Hope to appellant's stud dog, Humberstone Penance, or failing the delivery of half said litter, to pay to said Ackerman, the stud fee of $25.00 for services of said dog. And be it further Resolved, that from the sum due to said Oliver shall be deducted the amount expended on said Oliver's be-

Behalf by appellant $11.25 for entry fees at Santa Cruz Show, as acknowledged by respondent. The amount due to respondent is as follows:

Seven weeks' board during nursing of puppies, at 20 cents per diem: $9.80
Ten months board at 1.00 per week $40.00
One months board Ch. Humberstone Record at 3.00 per month $3.00

Less 11.25 entry fee -11.25

$41.55

From which amount there is a further deduction of $25.00, in case of failure to deliver half of litter by Humberstone Penance out of Humberstone Hope. Carried.

In the matter of the breeding of Humberstone Record to a bitch owned by Pott, it was moved and seconded that there was no evidence to show that respondent was responsible for said breeding, and that it was not clearly proven that Pott’s bitch was bred to said dog. Carried.

IN RE STETTHEIMER V. VENICE KENNEL CLUB: A protest from Bench Show Committee’s decision.

W. J. Morris filed an application for a re-hearing of this case, and on perusal of his letter and accompanying affidavit, it was moved and seconded, that his application be referred to next meeting of reconsideration, pending the presentation of further evidence, as announced by him. Carried.

After some discussion on matters of general interest

To the Pacific Coast, the meeting, on motion, adjourned.

ATTEST:

J. P. Norman,

Secretary.

MR. MOORE: I move that they be published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I also submit a bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee showing disbursements amounting to $28.75.

MR. WILLETS: I move that the bill be paid.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There are twenty-two clubs that paid their dues after January 1st up to and including today. I made a separate list of these clubs for the reason that the constitution says that clubs not paying dues on or before January 1st shall cease to have representation, and had I accepted these dues in regular course I felt I would be placing clubs on the list as representatives in contradiction to the constitution, so I gave receipts to these twenty-two clubs subject to the action of the American Kennel Club.

MR. MOORE: I move that the dues which have been Paid by these twenty-two clubs mentioned be accepted as of January 1, 1909.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There are sixteen clubs which have not paid up to date. They are in arrears.

MR. MOORE: I move that that matter be laid on the table and taken up later in the afternoon.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the resignation of the delegate of the New England Kennel Club, Mr. William B. Emery. At the last meeting it was moved that his resignation be laid upon the table and that the Secretary be directed to request him to withdraw his resignation until after the reorganization of the club. Mr. Emery has replied that he could not see his way clear to do so, and his resignation should be taken from the table and disposed of.

MR. OSGOOD: I move that the resignation be accepted.

Motion seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think a vote of thanks should be extended to Mr. Emery for his services to this club covering many years.

MR. OSGOOD: I ask that that be incorporated in my motion.
Motion carried.

THE SECRETARY: Another matter that was laid on the table at the last meeting was the appeal of Miss Rosalie Stewart against her suspension. I have voluminous correspondence here, and I would like to take that matter up.

DR. DEMUND: I move that it be laid on the table.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I report the resignations of the District of Columbia Kennel Club and the Keystone Beagle Club. They were in good standing on January 1st.

DR. DEMUND: I move that their resignations be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I submit a long communication from twenty seven dog fanciers protesting against allowing the Fancier’s Association of Indiana holding another show under our rules.

MR. MOORE: I move that that matter be laid on the table ad taken up later.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Membership Committee has reported on the credentials of delegates which are before us. They have reported favorably on fifteen and laid over four credentials for further consideration.

MR. OSGOOD: I move that we proceed to vote upon
The fifteen which have been reported favorably.

Motion seconded and carried.

The following named delegates were then duly elected to represent the following name clubs:

- Genesee County Kennel Club,    James W. Gardiner,
- Duquesne Kennel Club,    S. S. Leslie, Jr.
- Long Island Kennel Club,    John F. Collins,
- Philadelphia Collie Club,    Dr. J. R. Dalling,
- Japanese Spaniel Club of America    Monson Morris,
- Chicago Kennel Club    Frank T. Brown,
- Western Fox Terriers Breeders' Association    Edgar C. Beecroft
- Anthracite Kennel Club,    Wilson Bailey,
- California Cocker Club,    George H. Taylor,
- Dalmatian Kennel Club of America,    Joseph B. Thoman, Jr.
- Bay State Cooperative Bench Show Association,    Edward W. Dwight,
- Fairfield County Kennel Club,    Alvin Untermeyer,
- Lynn Kennel Club,    C. C. Rogers,
- New England Kennel Club,    Edward Brooks,
- Ladies' Kennel Association,    J. L. Frothingham.

MR. OSGOOD: I move that those credentials which were reported unfavorably be laid upon the table.
THE CHAIRMAN: They go back to the Membership Committee.

The Maltese Terrier Club and the Greyhound Club of America were duly elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: The Philadelphia Pointer Club was a member of the American Kennel Club, and it was dropped because it did not pay its dues within the time specified by the club. A short time thereafter this club sent its dues, which I accepted pending the action of this club, and it has applied several times for reinstatement. It is not a new application; it is simply an application for reinstatement, and therefore I did not consider that it was necessary to apply to the Pointer Club of America for its sanction, because it was already a member.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: They are non-members to-day.

MR. MOORE: For how long a time were they members?

THE SECRETARY: For two or three years.

MR. OSGOOD: I understand this is simply a question of reinstatement?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: If a club is dropped from our roll, it ceases to be a member.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It was dropped from non-payment of dues, and for no other cause, and so it ceased to be a member absolutely.

MR. BLOODGOOD: It seems to me they are non-members.
I should think it would be advisable for the Pointer Club of America to give it's sanction. It is the parent club. You have got to protect your members. That is what the club is for, to protect the clubs that are members.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I cannot comprehend how the club can be in a position to apply for reinstatement. If it was in default for non-payment of dues, and it was dropped for that reason, I do not think we have any right to be lenient with it.

MR. MOORE: Would it be in order to move that they make an application for membership in the usual manner?

THE SECRETARY: The club was dropped by vote in connection with other club which were given thirty days within which to pay their dues, and f not paid they were to be dropped without any further action, and I do not know whether they give any excuse here for not paying their dues. It is quite a while ago that they applied, March 28th.

DR. DE MUND: I move that they be instructed that they must get the consent of the parent club before applying for election.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think they should be told to apply in the usual course for membership.

MR. OSGOOD: I second the motion.

Carried.

THE SECRETARY: There is one very important matter which I would like to have action on. This building is to be torn down on the 1st day of May. We have got to move. We have looked around both uptown and downtown, and the consensus of opinion of the people who have called here seems to be that the club should remain downtown. The rent for such a space as we actually require is very high, and I do not think that the delegates would care to go into an old building again. I have looked at a new building just one block from here in which we can secure most advantageous rates for a large floor space. The agents of the building expressed themselves as being particularly anxious to have the American Kennel Club become their tenant, and I have a plan here for your inspection. It is the German-American Insurance Building. It is another Flatiron building like the one at 23rd street, situated on Liberty street and Maiden Lane. They offer us practically one-half of the seventeenth floor. They will arrange the partitions at their own expense in any way that we desire. The building is not fully completed yet, but it is a modern building in every respect. They offer us a fine meeting room for our delegates and for our committees, larger than this. Adjoining that is a large room running the entire width of the floor for the accommodation of those who take care of the Stud Book and the Gazette. On the point of the Flatiron they offer another room in which to place all our typewriters. Directly in front of the corridor is the general reception room, as we have here, for our visitors, patrons and customers. On the left of that is a small private office, 17 by 14 feet. The general reception room is 15 by 14 feet. The general reception room is 15 by 18 feet. The meeting room is 17 by 30 feet. The library is 17 by 17 feet. The working room is 18 by 25 feet, and the typewriters room is 19 by 10 feet. Every room on that floor is lighted by windows. As I said, they have made special rates for us. They have a regular rate of so much a square foot, but they have made special rates for us, and we can get that special section on a five-years' lease for $1,000 per annum more than we paid for this office, or $3,000 per annum exactly. For storage room they will give us either room on the top floor or down in the sub-basement free of cost. Not desiring to put this matter before you entirely upon my own judgment, I asked Mr. Dwight Moore yesterday to go around and look at the place with me, which he did, and he can confirm what I have said and give his own opinion of the matter.

MR. MOORE: I visited the quarters with Mr. Vredenburgh, and I found they were well situated for our needs and gave us room for expansion which we hope will take place in the next few years. We certainly ought not to take quarters for any length of time and not have some room for expansion, and those quarters would be adequate for us for some time to come.

THE SECRETARY: I also desire to state that I explained to the agent of the building that we held a number of meetings during the year, and that we had from 30 to 50 delegate attending them, and he said he would be very glad, if we gave him notice of the dates of the meetings, to reserve one elevator to run as an express for our delegates only.

MR. APPLETON: I would like to ask the Secretary whether it would interfere with the convenience of customers, and so forth, if we moved uptown.

THE SECRETARY: The majority of our business is done by mail, but in talking over this removal, either uptown or downtown, we found that very often it is necessary for us to telephone, for instance to Mr. Appleton, or to Mr. Belmont, or to Mr. Van Schaick, or to Mr. Bloodgood to come here to enable us to organize with a quorum. Those gentlemen would be very willing to come here, which gives them an opportunity of going back to their offices, but if we asked Them to come to 23rd street or 42 street, or some other place uptown, they would be unwilling to come because it would take too much time and it is too far away. We have been in Liberty street since 1892, and I think it a good idea for us to stay in Liberty street if we can. I also visited the Everett Building, a new building which has not been fully completed yet, at the Plaza at 17th street overlooking Union Square. There the agents offered us fine quarters, but the rent is very high and we would be obliged to put up our partitions at our own expense. I also visited the City Investing Company Building, the Singer Building and the Terminal Building and found that they all ask from three dollars to four dollars and a half a square foot, while the rate at the German-American Insurance Building in Liberty street, to which I have referred, is about one dollar and a half a square foot.

MR. MOORE: I think if this matter was referred to a committee to confer with the Secreatry, the whole matter could be adjusted.

THE SECRETARY: I have held this matter open for ten days, and I finally told the German-American Insurance Building that I would give them an answer one way or the other to-morrow morning.

THE CHAIRMAN: This meeting is perfectly competent to act upon this matter.

MR. WILLETS: I move that a lease be made for these quarters spoken of by the Secretary. By the way, that building is No. 1 Liberty street. So we will still be in Liberty street.

MR. MOORE: Some considerable time and attention will be required in the selection of new furniture, and so forth, and I think that a committee would have something to do.

THE SECREATRY: Yes, I would lie to have a committee.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, I would like to have a committee.

MR. MOORE: I move that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to act with the Secretary in this removal matter.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: I will appoint Mr. Moore, Dr. De Mund and Mr. B. S. Smith as such committee.
THE CHAIRMAN: What do you wish to do with these matters that were laid on the table?

MR. MOORE: It seems to me that the conduct of affairs would be more satisfactory in the hands of the Committee of Thirty than in the hands of the officers and present Board of Directors of the club that has been in existence for the last two years. I move that the management of the club be vested in the Committee of Thirty with power to conduct the business of the American Kennel Club Incorporated, until such time as a meeting of delegates of the American Kennel Club, Incorporated, rescind this action.

That the Committee of Thirty have all the powers of the Board of Directors, and act under the constitution adopted by them January 5, 1909.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I move that all these matters that were laid on the table be referred to the Committee of Thirty.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: I move we now adjourn until tomorrow afternoon at four o clock at the Madison Square Garden.

Motion seconded and carried.

ADJOURNED ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, INCORPORATED.
Held at Madison Square Garden, February 12, 1909.

Mr. H. H. Hunnewell in the Chair.
Quorum present.
The Committee on Nominations submitted the following report:
Chairman,
Committee of Thirty,
Your sub-committee respectfully reports that after carefully considering the eligible lists of names for directors the names of the following gentlemen be recommended to the delegates to constitute the first Board of Directors:
August Belmont,
H. H. Hunnewell,
H. K. Bloodgood,
J. W. Appleton,
Edw. Brooks,
W. G. Rockefeller,
Dwight Moore,
R. P. Keasbey,
J. S. Price,
W. Rutherford,
S. Van Schaick,
B. S. Smith,
Chetwood Smith,
Wm. Rauch,
Howard Willets,
W. C. Codman,
J. G. Bates,
A. H. Ball
J. E. DeMund,
Your Committee is of the opinion that the fairest way to divide these into the proper classes is by drawing lots after the thirty directors have been elected.

Respectfully submitted,

L. M. D. McGuire,
Howard Willets,
J. E. DeMund,
Dwight Moore,
John G. Bates.

On motion the nominations were closed.
The Secretary directed to cast one ballot for the candidates nominated.
The Secretary cast the ballot, and the Chair declared the above ticket elected.

On motion the action to place the control of the club in the hands of the Committee of Thirty was rescinded.
The Several terms of the directors were ordered to be determined by lot.
The Secretary was directed to draw the names and the Chairman announced the allotments as follows:

For five years: August Belmond, J. W. Appleton, S. Van Schaick, J. E. DeMund R. H. Johnson, Jr., and F. H. Osgood

For four years R. T. Keasbey, J. S. Price, Jr., John G Bates, S. R. Cutler, Richard Croker, Jr., and James Mortimer,

For three years: H. K. Bloodgood, Chetwood Smith, William Rauch, R. S. Edson, E. D. Post, Jr., and Richard H. Hunt.

For one year: Dwight Moore, B. S. Smith, Howard Willets, A. H. Ball, F. B. Lord, Jr., and W. L. Barclay

On motion the meeting was adjourned

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary.

I will present the certificate of Election for four delegates to represent the Associate Subscribers, the report of the Rules Committee on the matter of three proposed amendments. One approved and two not approved. Said report having been published in the Gazette of Jan. 31st as proved for in the Constitution. The report of the Nominating Committee for Directors of the Class of 1915. The minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of Jan. 16th and Jan. 22nd, 1910.

"Respectfully submitted,
(SIGNED) A.P. VREDEBURGH,
Secretary."
MR. MOORE: I move that it be laid on the table, to be taken up in the regular course of business.

Motion seconded and carried.

The report of the Rules Committee was then read, as follows:

“January 18, 1910.

MEETING OF RULES COMMITTEE

Dr. De Mund proposed an amendment to Article VI, new Section XI as referred to the Rules Committee as follows:

“All director who shall absent himself from two consecutive regular meetings of The Board without being excused by a majority vote of said Board, shall be Deemed to have resigned and shall cease to be a director.”

APPROVED BY COMMITTEE.

Mr. Leslie’s amendment will not implicate and would not serve in its purpose, and would be an injury to small breeders, is as follows:

1. “Puppies to be eligible for entry in the puppy class must be American bred and the entry blank must shall number of litter registrations.

2. All litters eligible for entry to exhibit in the puppy class must be registered within thirty (30) days of birth, the registration blank showing breed of dog, date of birth, making of litter, sex of litter, sire and dam of owner, dam and name of owner, dates of service to be properly certified by owner of stud dog.

3. All litters offered for registration will be subject to the usual rules of the American Kennel Club covering registration.

4. A charge of one ($1.00) dollar will be made for such registration.”

NOT APPROVED BY COMMITTEE.
Mr. Mortimer’s amendment to Rule XV is as follows:

“Amend Rule XV of the Rules Governing Clubs by striking out the second Paragraph of the rule, and a new rule substituted in the original form.

NOT APPROVED BY COMMITTEE.

(SIGNED)    H.H. HUNNEWELL
            J.E. DE MUND
            F.B. LORD, JR.

MR. HUNNEWELL:

On a point of information I would ask was there no an error in that report as published in the Gazette which was afterwards corrected?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, it was erroneous as published, but was corrected. The error crept in by poor proof reading and I had the man who read the proof sign a letter of explanation and apology to every one of the members of the Rules Committee, and to Mr. Leslie too.

THE CHAIRMAN: The first proposed amendment is to Article VI, new Section XI. What is your pleasure with regard to that proposed amendment?

MR. WILLETS: I move that it be adopted.

Motion seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is ambiguous in this sense, when he be excused. If he has, for instance, absented himself from one meeting and then desires to be excused at the next, and it so happens that he is compelled to be absent from that second meeting, he is without excuse.
MR. HUNNEWELL: The Rules Committee intended that at the second meeting if he was not present he would send in his excuse for not being present. We passed the rule as it was given to us, and that was the presumption, that if he was not present at the second meeting, he would give his excuse, and his excuse would be accepted or not. In other words, if a man was unavoidably absent from the first meeting he would write, saying he was sick or something of that kind. In that event he would be excused, and then he would have two more meetings before him before he could be considered to have resigned in the event that he had not been excused.

THE CHAIRMAN: Still it might happen, and I think when you come to apply the rule that a man might be prevented from attending the second meeting too late even to hand in his excuse. This is, his excuse would be submitted at the third meeting if he could not present it at the second meeting, and you might lose a very valuable representative.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I think under that ruling, as we intended it, a man might be absent from eight meetings and on giving a proper excuse the directors would grant it. He could say that he could not be present at a certain meeting, and it is for the directors to decide whether or not they choose to keep him on the directorate.
DR. DE MUND: As a member of the Rules Committee I desire to say that our object in proposing this rule was to reach certain directors who have never been present at meeting and have never shown any interest in our meetings. It is very difficult to get a quorum present. Any director who takes an interest in our meetings and who is prevented from attending them, can send an excuse to the first meeting or to the second meeting. It was not intended to be arbitrary.

MR. HUNNEWELL: For instance, a man might go abroad and that reason would be considered sufficient.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is quite true, but the language is mandatory.

DR. DE MUND: It seems to me to be perfectly clear. A director need not necessarily offer the excuse himself. His excuse can be offered through a friend of his who knows that he will be unavoidably absent.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not understand that there is anything that prevents the Board, at the time such a director ceases to be a member of it without being excused from re-electing him. If at the third meeting he presents an excuse it would be perfectly competent for that Board to re-elect him a director.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It is not a question of re-election. He would not be dropped.
THE CHAIRMAN: I think he is dropped. I think it is mandatory.

DR. DE MUND: Without an excuse, it says.

THE CHAIRMAN: It does not make any difference, if his excuse is not offered then and there at the next meeting, he is dropped.

DR. DE MUND: If some member of the Board should move that a director be excused, that would be sufficiently.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Supposing one of us should go abroad, and our mail should not be forwarded to us, and we should not receive notice of a meeting of the directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think any one going abroad with this rule in existence would notify the Secretary to request a leave of absence.

THE SECRETARY: It is not necessary for any director to get a notice. The constitution provides that the directors meet on the third Tuesday of every fourth month, and they know it perfectly well.

THE CHAIRMAN: However, the language is mandatory.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The Rules Committee did not mean to be mandatory in any way. Our object was to get rid of certain men who never come to the meetings. They do not give any excuse, and that settles them. The men that take an interest and attend the meetings, if they are absent all they have got to do is to say that they were in Europe or were prevented from attending through some other cause, and their excuse will be accepted.

DR. DE MUND: I must take exception to your statement that it is mandatory. It would be mandatory without that clause in it providing for excuses. The directors may excuse whom they please, so that if a man is excused by a vote of the Board, the Rules does not apply.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Could the Chair suggest anything to make it more satisfactory?

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think there is any danger in it, only I think it is proper that the Board should know what it is doing. You are proposing an amendment here which provides that if a director is absent from two meetings without being excused he ceases to be a member. I do not think there is any harm in pointing it out. When a man ceases to be a member in that way you can reinstate him if you like. I do not think there is any harm in it.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move it be adopted.

Carried.

MR. WILLETS: I move that a copy of this new rule be mailed to each director and be also published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: Now I call your attention to the second proposed amendment and ask your pleasure regarding it. I observe that it is not approved by the committee.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the Committee’s Report be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: I now read you Mr. Mortimer’s proposed amendment to Rule XV. This is not approved by the Committee.

MR. MORTIMER: That refers to the wording of the catalogue. There was a rule passed here that instead of the owner’s name coming first in the catalogue, the dog’s name should come first, the stud book number, then the owner’s name, then the date of the birth of the dog, then the sire and dam, and so on. My object in calling for the old method of wording the catalogue is because that method has been in existence for some fifty or sixty years nearly. It is the method that has been adopted and is still used by the English Kennel Club and by the American Kennel Club ever since its inception, and by all other dog clubs in the world so far as I can learn. Furthermore, there is no good reason why it should be changed. I inquired of the Secretary of our club, and he informed me that the change will not facilitate the work of the office in any way at all. I have found from my own experience that putting the dog’s name first caused me double work in the office in checking off the numbers of the dogs; and then again in putting an owner’s dogs together, as is the general request on the past of exhibitors as to dogs of the same breed, as we have done; for instance, an exhibitor has four or five fox terriers entered, he likes to have those fox terriers benched together, not that the numbers should follow consecutively, but that the dogs should be benched together — I say that I have found that that has doubled the work of the office to do it. Several exhibitors have spoken to me on the subject, and they are all in favor of going back to the old method. It seems that a change of this kind should be made, if it is, for some good reason, but no one has been able to urge any good reason why the change was made, and for that reason I ask that we return to the original method of wording the catalogue, where the exhibitor’s name comes first, and then the dogs, and so forth.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I should like to ask the Secretary’s opinion as to whether it would facilitate the work of the office.

THE SECRETARY: I do not see that it does. It does not facilitate the work of the office. When the New York catalogue was printed it has the name of the dog first in very small type and the owner’s name in capitals, and of course the capitals first strike the eye. I am inclined to believe, however, that if the name of the dog was printed in capitals and the owner’s name in small type, it would obviate in great measure many mistakes that may be made in tabulating them and in compiling them for the stud book. I would like to say that the stud book for 25 years has been arranged precisely according to the present rule, that is, the name of the dog comes first --- then the number, and then the name of the owner, and then the particulars regarding the dog.

MR. MORTIMER: The argument of the Secretary is all very well so far as the stud book entry is concerned, because he was looking for a particular dog or a particular number, but we have in our catalogue an index to exhibitors. We refer to the index and we find there the number of Mr. Belmont’s or Mr. Vredenburgh’s dog. It is much easier to find that when the owner’s name is in the margin of the catalogue. I am not talking about the little catalogue that is printed by some specialty club, but of catalogues printed by the larger clubs because they have great number of exhibits.

THE CHAIRMAN: I presume the committee thought it was an exhibition of the dog and not an exhibition of the owner.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Absolutely that was the idea.

MR. MORTIMER: Is not the exhibitor more important Than his dog?

MR. HUNNEWELL: No, not at a dog show.

MR. MORTIMER: Can there be a dog show without an exhibitor? Think of the absurdity of this thing. The name of the dog comes first, then the stud book number, then the owner’s name, then the date of birth, and so on. It does not refer to the dog, it refers to the owner.

THE CHAIRMAN: Are you not possibly exaggerating the difficulties which come to you simply because you have been so long in the habit of following that method?

MR. MORTIMER: No, I am not. I am objecting on account of the actual excess of work that it has caused me in my office, and I feel very strongly about it because I am sure that any one here who has had any experience in that kind of work would find that they have double work, double trouble in finding the dogs when they do not know where the owners’ names are. The owner is what you are looking for first, and I say that a method which has been good enough for the English Kennel Club and for ourselves ever since there were dog shows should not be changed unless there is some very good reason for changing it.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The committee, as I remember it, changed it for several reasons. One reason is that horse shows are catalogued in that way. The fact that the English Kennel Club has followed that method for fifty years does not affect the question at all. Horse show catalogues and other catalogues give the name of the horse first, and after all, the dogs are on exhibition, and not the exhibitors. Mr. Vredenburgh assured us that it would help the office here to a considerable extent in making up their stud book.

MR. MORTIMER: I asked the question of Mr. Vredenburgh and he assured me that it would not facilitate the work of the office. Another thing, you referred to horse shows. They do not print the pedigrees of the horse in their catalogues.

THE SECRETARY: So far as facilitating the work of the office here is concerned, it does not make really very much difference to us, but I think that with the catalogue we have before us we are less liable to error than we were on the old way.

MR. VAN SCHAICK: Mr. Mortimer’s point is well taken, I think, for that reason that a great many people go to a dog show to see certain people’s dogs, and it is a great deal easier to find them if the owner’s name comes first.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The owner’s name is indexed.

MR. MORTIMER: If this present method is continued I can say now for the information of exhibitors that their dogs will be no longer placed together at the Westminster
Kennel Club Show, but they will have to follow the regular order of the catalogue, because it is too much work. It took me nearly forty hours to get out a draft of the benching so that the exhibitors’ dogs could be put together before their numbers could be put up.

MR. PALMER: In support of Mr. Mortimer’s remarks, I desire to say that while at the Westminster Kennel Club Show I came in contact with a great many people who do not go to dog shows very frequently, but occasionally, and they seemed to experience any amount of trouble in ascertaining where the dogs were, etc. The average dog man can find his way around, but the novices cannot, and I do not see that the committee has shown us in any degree how what they adopted is going to benefit us in any way.

The question was then put and resulted in the committee’s recommendation being not approved, and the Chairman declared Mr. Mortimer’s proposed amendment to Rule XV adopted.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. J.J. Lynn has recently spoken with me in regard to the situation on the Pacific Coast which, I believe, is not entirely satisfactory. Mr. Lynn seemed to think that the best method was for us to return to the old control exercised from New York. I think our present method is the better one, because it is so far away, and if we have the right men there undoubtedly it is the proper method of conducting business, but I want to suggest that during the coming spring or summer when Mr. Vredenburgh is at liberty it would be an excellent idea to send him out there to look over the situation. It would be unfortunate if by reason of any confusion that may be growing up there that we would have a secession and would have to pass through all the trouble that we had once before, because Mr. Lynn intimates that there is a movement to establish an independent Pacific Coast Kennel Club. Before acting I want to call your attention to this fact and want to make the suggestions that you authorize Mr. Vredenburgh sometime during the summer to go and look over the ground so that he can intelligently report on the subject, and then we will be satisfied as to whether the proper method is being followed or not.

At this point Mr. Belmont resigned the chair to Mr. Hunnewell.

THE SECRETARY: I have the usual minutes of the meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee of January 6th and January 22nd. It is customary to print these in the Gazette without reading them.

MR. MOORE: I move that they take that course.

Motion seconded and carried.
'REGULAR MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE,
Held at Metropolis Bank Bldg., San Francisco, January 6, 1910.
Present: H.H. Carlton, Chairman; Dr. W.P. Burnham; W.W. Stettheimer; Nat. T. Messer; J.P. Norman, Secretary.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read, and on motion adopted.

The Secretary read a communication from a member of the Committee calling attention to the discrepancy between the entries at the Oakland show, of the Bull Terrier puppies, TAMARACK VICTOR and the BLOOMSBURY TERROR, the dam of the former being given as Tamarack Glory, and of the latter as Venoma Peeress. The breeders being given respectfully as W.D. Kant and Mrs. Frank Morris. The two dogs being litter brothers.

The Secretary was by resolution, directed to obtain certain particulars from the alleged breeders, and from Mrs. Witts, the alleged owner of the bitch at the time of serving.

The Secretary read the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, held December 21, 1909, in which it is twice stated by Mr. Mortimer, that the San Francisco Catalog and the awards therein, had been passed by the Pacific Advisory Committee.
With a view to the correction of said minutes, it was Resolved that the Pacific Advisory Committee do hereby respectfully call the attention of the Board of Directors to the fact that this Committee is not, nor has it ever been authorized or qualified to pass upon the awards contained in any certified catalog, all inspection of catalogs being performed at the office of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, #1 Liberty Street, New York.

The Secretary read a communication from a member of the Committee, which after due consideration was laid upon the table.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:  J.P. NORMAN
Secretary.”

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at Metropolis Bank Bldg., San Francisco, January 22, 1910
PRESENT:  H.H. Carlton, Chairman;  W.W. Stettheimer, Nat. T. Messer, J.P. Norman, Secretary.
Absent:    Dr. W.P. Burnham

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

In the matter of the Bull Terrier puppy entries at the Oakland Show of 1909:

It was found on investigation that the puppy TAMARACK VICTOR, #162 in the catalog, awarded second prize in Bull
Terrier Puppies, Dogs, was not bred by W.D. Kant as stated by the owner, J.C. Berry, and it was

Resolved that the attention of the American Kennel Club be and is hereby directed to this error, for which a penalty of $1.00 should be levied; there being no evidence of any intent to defraud.

In re application of the Santa Clara Valley P. & P. S. Ass., to be allowed to change the name of said association to San Jose Kennel Club, it was Resolved that the application be granted and the American Kennel Club be notified accordingly.

A communication was laid before the Committee by a member thereof, and after discussion was on motion laid upon the table.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST: J.P. NORMAN,
Secretary"

THE SECRETARY: I submit the resignations of the Champlain Kennel Club, Madison Athletic Association, Simsbury Kennel Club, Southern Beagle Club, Southern Kennel Club, and Utah State Fair Association. These clubs have all paid up to January 1st.

DR. DE MUND: I move that they be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There are eleven clubs that according to Article XVI, Section III of the constitution or by-laws, which have ceased to be members of the American Kennel Club. There were not dropped. They ceased to be members through not paying their dues up to this date. The by-laws say that on the 1st day of February if the dues are not paid they shall be suspended, and if there dues are not paid during the annual meeting to be held in February they shall cease to be members.

THE CHAIRMAN: No action is necessary.

THE SECRETARY: Now, that they have ceased to be members of the American Kennel Club, it is not within the power of this Association to reinstate them unless they come in as a new member would with the usual application and entry fee.

MR. MORTIMER: I desire to offer the following resolution: That no puppy or dog under twelve months of age shall be eligible to compete in any class or for any prize competition for which is limited to exhibits not exceeding a certain weight or height. That is to say an undeveloped dog shall not compete in any class where there is a limit of height or weight. A dog competing in a class where there is a limit of weight or height should be a matured dog. He should be twelve months old or over.

THE CHAIRMAN: You do not apply that to the ordinary terrier except the bull or Boston terrier?
MR. MORTIMER: We apply it where there is a limit of weight. We have in bull terriers and different other breeds classes that are limited by weight. In beagles dogs are limited by height, and no puppy should be eligible for a class where there is any limit either of weight or height.

MR. CAMPBELL: I think it would be well to take up Mr. Belmont’s suggestions concerning a proposed visit by Mr. Vredenburgh to the Pacific Coast, because if there is any dissention some steps should be taken to end it before the trouble goes any further.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Is not that in the power of the directors only?

THE CHAIRMAN: It is in the power of the directors, but I see no objection to the delegates making any suggestion that they wish in regard to it. As I understand the situation, it is entirely in the power of the directors, and the matter would come before them, but the directors no doubt would be glad to hear anything that the delegates would like to say about it.

MR. CAMPBELL: I move that Mr. Belmont’s remarks in connection with Pacific Coast kennel matters be seriously considered by the directors and acted on.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS,
Held May 18, 1909, at the Offices of the American Kennel Club,
No. 1 Liberty Street, New York City.

H. H. Hunnewell in the chair.

Present:

J. W. Appleton,
Singleton Van Schaick,
John E. De Mund,
F. H. Osgood.

Roland P. Keasbey,
J. Sergeant Price, Jr.
John G. Bates.

Chetwood Smith,
R. Stuart Edson,
Richard H. Hunt.

Hollis H. Hunnewell,
Edward Brooks,
George Lauder, Jr.

Dwight Moore,
B. S. Smith,
Howard Willets,
Franklin B. Lord, Jr.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

To the Board of the Directors:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that at the last meeting of the Board of Directors, Trial Boards were appointed and the papers in the different cases referred to the Board s were promptly sent to the Chairmen thereof. I have Partial report from the Trial Board sitting in New York, but have heard nothing whatever from the Boards sitting in Boston and Philadelphia. The papers which were sent on March 18th, 1909, and their receipt acknowledged.

At the same meeting of the Directors claims for unpaid prizes were submitted and I was directed to write to each of the complainants and ask if the obligations had been fulfilled, and if no reply be received within thirty days, the matters to be dropped by this club.

Notices were received in the cases Goldsmith vs. Ft. Worth Poultry and Pet Stock Association, M. S. Heald vs. Revere Kennel Club, and R. A. Follett vs. Boston Terrier Club, and their claims had not been satisfied.

No reply having been received from D. G. Gardner vs. Cincinnati Kennel Club, same vs. People's Poultry and Pet Stock Association, A. Self vs. Ft. Worth Poultry and Pet Stock Association, W. F. Fisher, and John L. Korzendorfer vs. Merrimack Valley K. C., I therefore have dropped these cases in accordance with the resolution adopted by your Board at its last meeting.

I beg to report the following charges:

April 2, 1909, Howe Totten vs. W. W. Tucker,
April 15, 1909, William Reilly vs. Chicago Kennel Club,
April 26, 1909, Mississippi Valley K. C. vs. L. L. Bonham,

May 12, 1909, R. F. Aabel vs. W. W. Tucker.

I have an appeal from the Pacific Advisory Committee from my action in declining an Associate Registration for 1908, after the entries for that year's book had closed. T his resolution was sent to the Executive Committee of the A. K. C., which decided at its last meeting that it properly belonged to your Board.

I have a communication from the Professor of Animal Husbandry of the Ohio State University in reference to the purchase of an entire set of our Stud Book, requesting that some concession in the price be made. This is a matter over which I have no discretion and therefore refer it to your Board for instruction.

I beg to report the following bills that have been received:

Pacific Advisory Committee disbursements from March 1st to May 11, $27.40
Davies, Stone and Auerbach, for professional services, $1,000

The minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of March 20th are presented and the same will be spread in full upon the records of this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:

“New York, May 18, 1909

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to present eh financial report from January 1, 1909, to date:

January 1, 1909, to date:
Balance on hand January 1     $19,151.37
Receipts from January 1 to date    10,192.00
Total                          $29,343.37
Disbursements from January 1st to date   $12,222.20
Balance on hand                  $17,121.17

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer."

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the stud book Committee was read as follows:

REPORT OF THE STUD BOOK COMMITTEE

In the matter of the charges of Honborg vs. E. E. Franke giving a false pedigree for the Boston Terrier "Leone Peanuts", The Committee do not consider that any intent to defraud is shown. Charges are therefore dismissed. The pedigree as given by Mr.
Walkland, the breeder, is accepted as correct.
Application has been made by several owners of the Terriers heretofore known as Roseneath, that these dogs be recognized as West Highland White Terriers on the ground that they are shown in England under this name, and that Roseneath is an erroneous name for the breed. The committee recommend that this change be made and the breed be hereafter known as West Highland White Terriers.

The requests for recognition of the breeds called Deutsh Long Haired Vorstch Hund and Red Bone Hounds have been refused.

A protest against the Kennel Name "Garfield" registered by Mrs. Jennie Mathis has been filed by Mr. C. Schaefer, the ground being that the name properly belongs to him. The protest is not sustained.

Signed

J. W. Appleton,
Singleton Van Schaick,
W. L. Barclay.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Appleton: I would also like to state that there was some discussion at the last meeting with reference to what we should charge for prefixes, or kennel names. The committee has decided on a charge of fifteen dollars for a life ownership of a name, and a fee of five dollars with one dollar maintenance fee for each year.

Mr. Books, on behalf of the Rules Committee, reported as follows:
The Committee has been hard at work and have the rules pretty well into shape, but we are still to hear from the Field Trials Committee and also from the License Committee. I understand from the chair of the License Committee that it has no rules. I think rules ought to be drawn and published defining exactly what a license is. We will be able to finish our work as soon as we hear from those two committees and report at the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Chetwood Smith, on behalf of the Field Trials Committee, reported progress. Mr. Dwight Moore, chairman of the Publication Committee, reported as follows: "I wish to state that the members of this committee took up an entirely new line of work and are groping somewhat in the dark, and have been earnestly striving to accomplish some good. I believe that they are on the right track now, and hope to be able to make a further report at the next meeting."

Mr. Bates, on behalf of the License Committee, reported as follows: "We have been unable to form any rules for the License Committee. At the present time the license are being granted to clubs, and they are paying a certain amount of money. The License Committee is going to try to increase that amount, if possible.

The Secretary then read the report of the Trial Board sitting in New York to which was referred the charges of The American Kennel Club vs. Lyon and Vern King vs. R. S. Barrett.

MR. MOORE: I rise to a point of order. As we have no jurisdiction in this matter, it being merely decisions by the Trial Board, I move that the decision be read and such portions as the judge see fit to publish be published in the Gazette.

THE CHAIRMAN: I rule that the point of order is well taken. Just read the findings. The report is very indefinite. The committee simply recommend certain things.

MR. MOORE: I move the report be sent back to the Trial Board with instructions.

Motion seconded and carried.

Subsequently, the Trial Board submitted the following report:

TRIAL BOARD

A. K. C. vs Lyon:
Ordered that Lyon be suspended.

Vern King vs. R. S. Barrett:
Ordered that charges be dismissed.

Singleton Van Schaick,
William L. Barclay.

The Secretary read the reports of the Trial Board
Sitting in New York

REPORTS OF TRIAL BOARD SITTING IN NEW YORK.

AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB vs. J. L. IREBERRY:

J. L. Ireberry disqualified for misconduct in connection with dogs.

MRS. C. M. LUNT APPEAL:

Dismissed. Cancellation upheld.

M. A. ROSS vs. AMOS CLAYTON:

Clayton to return to Ross the money he paid for dog within 30 days or be disqualified. Ross to return dog to Clayton, if dog is still alive.

AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB vs. JULES FEROND:

Charges dismissed.

BERNARD GUGGENHEIM vs. BRUNO WOLFRUM:

Ordered that Wolfrum give a pedigree or refund the money within 30 days or be disqualified.

NORTH JERSEY KENNEL CLUB vs. LEO COHN:

North Jersey Kennel Club sustained.

NORTH JERSEY KENNEL CLUB vs. C. H. ARMSTRONG:

North Jersey Kennel Club sustained.

MATTER OF H. K. BLOODGOOD and WALLACE N. VREELAND:

The trial board finds that Mr. Wallace N. Vreeland's charges against Patrick Shea are without any foundation.
HUTTON and HUGGINS vs. FT. WORTH POULTRY & PET STOCK ASSOCIATION:

The Trial Board finds that at this show the Superintendent exhibited dogs and that the dogs were sick, and that the cub did not decide the protest within thirty (30) days. We recommend that the Fort Worth Poultry & Pet Stock Association receive no more than licenses to hold shows and it is hereby ordered that all the officials and Superintendent of that show be disqualified.

MAYHEW vs. NORTH JERSEY KENNEL CLUB:

The Trial Board finds that under Rule XI of the Rules Governing Dog Shows the Secretary of the North Jersey Kennel Club had a right to refuse the entry of any exhibitor and therefore had a right to refuse the entry of Mrs. Mayhew.

GRIFFITH vs. CARY:

The Trial Board finds that there is no ground for the disqualification of Mr. Cary and therefore the charges are dismissed.

THE APPEAL OF MERCY ARGENTEUAU, PRINCESS de MONTGLYON FROM THE DECISION OF THE NEW ENGLAND KENNEL CLUB:

The Trial Board finds that on Friday, February 22, 1907, when taken before the Bench Show Committee of the New England Kennel Club the dog Chin Chino owned by the Princess de Montglyon had some coloring matter in his coat. The Bench Show Committee thereafter cancelled the dog's Winnings. No opportunity gas given the exhibitor to be heard according to Rule XXII of the Rules Governing Clubs. In this the New England Kennel Club erred.

The trial Board also finds that there was no dye on the coat of the dog when judged and that the Princess de Montglyon had no knowledge of any dye being placed there subsequently, therefore, the decision of the New England Kennel Club is revered and the dog's winnings are restored.

ADA OLIVE VAN HEUSEN vs. MERCY ARGENTEAU, PRINCESS DE MONTGLYON:

The Trial Board finds that the Princess de Montglyon did not dye or cause to be dyed the dog Chin Chino and that she had no knowledge of any coloring matter being put on the dog's coat at anytime. In regard to the letter referred to in the charges which was published in Field & Fancy, we find that this does not constitute a sufficient cause for action by the American Kennel Club.

Chairman

THE SECRETARY: I will state that there is one case pending before the Board sitting in New York, Weber vs. Brown, which has not yet been settled. As to the cases referred to the Trial Board sitting in Boston, and as to the cases referred to the Trial Board sitting in Philadelphia
I have received no reports.

DR. OSGOOD: I would like to make a statement regarding the Boston Trial Board. I received notice from the Secretary appointing the Trial Board, consisting of three members. I notified him immediately that one of the members had already acted on one of the cases. I then received a reply from him, stating that he had no authority to make any change in the matter. The next day he informed me by letter that the other member of the Trial Board had refused to act. Consequently there is no Trial Board. I then received a communication from Mr. Vredenburgh asking me to endeavor to prevail upon that member to serve, as he was a useful man, but before receiving that letter I sprained my ankle and was laid up, and have been ever since.

THE CHAIRMAN: You have heard Dr. Osgood on behalf of the Boston Trial Board, and I would suggest that Dr. Osgood should try to prevail upon the third member to serve, and Mr. Cutler could be replaced by some one to try the case in which Mr. Curler is interested.

MR. MOORE: I move that the two remaining members elect a third person to take Mr. Cutler's place on that Trial Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: In order that we may act legally, you should recommend a man to me, and if the meeting will Give me the power, I will appoint him.

MR. MOORE: I should like to ask if all the Trial Boards who have reported to-day have sent in all the exhibits and all correspondence and papers in reference to the cases referred to them. I ask this because it is very important if the matters come up on appeal that the Executive Board have all of the papers relating to the cases, and not merely the decisions.

MR. DE MUND: On behalf of our Board, I will say that all the testimony and everything will be turned over to the Secretary. He has most of them now.

THE SECRETARY: I have all the papers with the exception of the stenographer's report of the trial of the Princess de Montglyon.

MR. MOORE: I move that the Secretary be instructed to follow the matter up closely and see that all papers are forwarded.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: As I understand it, the Trial Boards out of existence as soon as the cases are tried and decided?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

I have three cases of claims for unpaid prizes: Goldsmith vs. Fort Worth Poultry and Pet Sock Association, M. S. Heald vs. Revere Kennel Club and R. A> Follett vs. Boston Terrier Club. They were notified by me in Conformity with the resolution passed at the last meeting to advise us if the obligations had been met, and if no replies were received within thirty days the cases should be dropped.

Replies in the three cases referred to were received, stating that the obligations had not been met.

DR. DE MUND: In the first cases referred to of Goldsmith vs. Fort Worth Poultry and Pet Stock Association, I do not see how any further punishment can be meted out to the latter named club. It has been disqualified, together with all its officials, and we recommend that it be not granted another license, so I fail to see how we can punish it any further. I move that the case of Heald vs. Revere Kennel Club be sent to a Trial Board to be designated by this Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Willets moved to rescind the motion just passed.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR MOORE: I move that the Secretary communicate with both parties once more and if the prize is not paid within thirty days, the Revere Kennel Club be suspended until paid.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have eight cases in which no reply was made to my letter of inquiry, and I have dropped the

THE CHAIRMAN: There are two Trial Boards, and we should elect one consisting of three New York men and one consisting of three men from Chicago.

THE SECRETARY: I think the two Western cases can be tried by the Board sitting in New York as well as a Board sitting in Chicago.

MR. MOORE: I move that the Chair appoint that Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: I appoint Messrs. Lauder, De Mund, and B. S. Smith as such committee, they to elect their own chairman.

The Secretary read a communication from the professor of Animal Husbandry of the Ohio State University in reference to the purchase of a set of the stud books, requesting that some concession in the price be made.

THE SECRETARY: The price of a set now is five dollars a volume, and there are twenty-five volumes. We have all the volumes but Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5, which are now out of print.

MR. APPLETON: It would be a good thing to have Those volumes on file with the Ohio State University. I would recommend a large concession in price.

MR. WILLETS: I move that we donate a set to this institution.

Seconded

MR. MOORE: I move as an amendment that they be sold to this society at half price without prejudice to any charge that might be made in the future, starting with Volume No. 6.

Amendment seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of March 25th, 1909.

MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE: March 20, 1909.

Held at office of W. W. Stettheimer.

On motion, Mr. Carlton took the chair,

On motion, the minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

RE the application of the Tacoma Kennel Club for a license to hold a show at Tacoma, Wash., April 28, 29, 29, May 1, 1909. On motion the license was unanimously granted.

Re the rejection by the Secretary of the A. K. C. of two applications for registration account associate membership in 1908 from E. B. Varian and two for same account from E. T. Chase. After due consideration of all correspondence in the matter between the two applicants and the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee and the Secretary of the A. K. C. respectively.

It was moved and seconded, that Whereas it appears from the records that theses applications were filed with the secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, as agent of the A. K. C., bearing date of December 28 and 29, 1908, respectively, for which year the associate membership dues had been paid by the two applicants:

And Whereas the secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee was precluded by the pressure of private business from dispatching A. K. C. matters until January 6, on which date said applications were mailed to New York, arriving there on or about January 11th:

And Whereas the Secretary of the A. K. C rejected the application on what appears to this Committee to be the insufficient reason that they were too late to be included in the 1908 Stud Book:

And Whereas such action wrongfully deprives said two associate members of the registration for which they had duly paid in 1908 and duly claimed in 1908:

Therefore be it resolved that it is the sense of this Committee, that the Executive Committee should order the inclusion of these two registrations in the 1909 Stud Book, charging same against the 1908 A/C. and this Committee respectfully requests the Executive Committee to so order.
And be it further resolved that the secretary of this Committee address this resolution direct to the Executive Committee for prompter action, in addition to spreading it on the minutes of this Committee, of which it shall be part.

Carried.

There being no further business, the committee adjourned.

Attest:

J. P. Norman,
Secretary.

DR. OSGOOD: I move that it be ordered spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

THE SECRETARY: The entries for the Stud Book close precisely as the entries for a show, on the 31st day of December. On the 2nd day of January, before the mail is opened, it is divided by postmark on the envelope, and every envelope that is dated the 2nd of January goes in for the coming year's books. We hold the mail open for seven days so that registrations can reach us from the Far West and Northwest that have the date mark of the 31st day of December. Then the copy goes to the printer. These entries were not received until the 11th or 12th of January, not having been sent, according to the postmark, until about the 6th of January, six days after the closing of our entries, and I adopted the course that has been followed
By this club since 1889, declined to receive them. We have a signed agreement between the American Kennel Club and the Pacific Advisory Committee specifying wherein the Pacific Advisory Committee is accepted as an agent for this club, and I think it is a fair conclusion that they cannot act as agent for this club in any matter not specified. Therefore I declined to receive these applications, just the same as I would decline to receive any application from any of you gentlemen which you did not mail until the 1st day of January, and they now appeal from my decision.

DR. OSGOOD: I think they ought to take the same course that entries do which are received too late to be accepted.

MR. BROOKS: I go further back than that. If they are going to assume powers that are not relegated to them by existing agreement, I think they ought to be notified that they should attend strictly to their own business, and not assume powers that have not been given to them. They have received registrations that ought to come to this office. They have nothing to do with registrations. We never asked them to look after registrations, and I think now is the time to call their attention to that fact. I would suggest that the Rules Committee might frame a rule according to which we can notify the Pacific Advisory Board exactly under what rules they are acting.

THE SECRETARY: Have you a copy with you of the agreement we have with them, Mr. Brooks? I wish you would read the supplemental agreement, the second one, under which I acted.

(Mr. Brooks read the part of the agreement referred to.)

MR HUNNEWELL (resigning the chair to Mr. Appleton): I think there is one element in this matter that we completely overlooked, and that is the fact that the Secretary has been receiving registrations from the Pacific Advisory Committee for a long time. If the Pacific Advisory Committee had not any right to send registrations, why did you accept them?

THE SECRETARY: For instance, Tom Middlebrook, of Boston, sends me day in and day out applications for registrations for other people. I take them. Does that constitute Mr. Middlebrook as our agent?

MR. HUNNEWELL: No, in that case, but I think the exhibitors out West think they can do that, as they have been doing it right along. I think it is a hardship on the exhibitors out there. I think in the future it ought to be distinctly understood whether the Pacific Advisory Committee can take registrations, or whether they cannot, but as they have been doing it, people out West think
That if they get their application there in time that is all that is necessary.

THE SECRETARY: IN one day I have received four checks with application sent to us, checks drawn to J. P. Norma, Secretary, and J. P. Norman endorses them over and sends those checks with the applications. I do not see how that constitutes Mr. Norman, or the committee he represents, our agent.

MR. WILLETS: If whoever mailed these checks had happened to mail them so they would have arrived here in time, would you have accepted them?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. WILLETS: But if he has been careless and has not attended to it in time, I do not see why simply because he has made a mistake the innocent exhibitor should be made to suffer. That has been the custom and course of business for years to accept registrations in that manner.

THE SECRETARY: But that does not constitute them our agents. For instance, your show closes on the 1st day of the month, and I give my entry on the 1st day of the month, the date it closes, to John Smith, and John Smith fails to send it to you, have you any right to accept that entry?

MR. WILLETS: No, because we have not been in the Habit of receiving entries from John Smith.

THE SECRETARY: The rules state that the registration covers only the year for which dues are paid. For 1909 these gentlemen had not paid their dues.

MR. WILLETTS: I understand that, but they have mailed their applications within the proper time.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, but they made an error in mailing them to somebody who had no right to receive them.

MR. WILLETTS: We have accepted registrations through those channels. I move that those registrations be accepted in accordance with the request in that letter.

MR. APPLETON: My point is this: So far as the public is concerned, the Pacific Advisory Committee are our agents out there, and a man is very apt to make a mistake in not knowing what he is an agent for. They are agents for the American Kennel Club, so far as I know, and exhibitors hand them their registrations as agents for the American Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: Suppose that the man who accepted them had no legal right to accept them, although the exhibitors Thought he had a legal right, and suppose he lost them in his desk and did not send them to us in a year, should we accept them?

MR. WILLETS: Yes. That is his fault.

DR. DE MUND: I think that the exhibitors should get what they are entitled to, but I do not think we should uphold the Pacific Advisory Board for acting beyond its powers.

MR. MOORE: I think we should wholly ignore this communication from the Pacific Advisory Committee, and the Secretary should write directly to these people.

DR. DE MUND: We ought not to uphold this appeal from the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MOORE: If it is the pleasure of this meeting the Secretary could notify those two people direct that their registrations have been accepted.

THE CHAIRMAN: We have to acknowledge their appeal. We cannot ignore that.

MR. MOORE: This is a matter between the Secretary of the American Kennel Club and the secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, and why are we not justified in taking up the matter directly with those two exhibitors?

MR. APPLETON: If we decide to accept these entries we should couple with that decision a vote to the effect
That the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee has exceed his authority in accepting these registrations.

THE CHAIRMAN: I would suggest that coupled with this motion we ought to back up the Secretary of the American Kennel Club in his position that he was perfectly right, and that the Pacific Advisory Committee had no business to accept the registrations as agents. In that way we return the money to the exhibitors, and we tell the Pacific Advisory Committee that they should not have done it.

MR. MOORE: I do not know that the Secretary wants to go as far as that.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, I do. There is nobody living that can compel those registrations but this Board. I could not do it. I would be exceeding my authority if I did.

MR. MOORE: Isn't it a fat that Secretary Norman has been keeping copies of all these registrations?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. MOORE: We have been furnishing them with a card index to give them this information.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, but not for registrations.

THE CHAIRMAN: I did not mean to ask for a vote of censure in my remarks. I thought it would be a good idea to point out the fact that our Secretary acted according to the rules, and that those registrations should not Have been accepted, or, in other words, when they were accepted, they were not accepted according to our agreement as an agent, but simply as an individual.

MR. WILLETS: I move that those four registrations be accepted and that Secretary Norman be informed that in future he may simply accept registrations as an individual, not as an agent of the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bills rendered by the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from March 1st to May 11th, aggregating to $27.40, were ordered paid.

On motion the Board then went into a committee of the whole.

Subsequently the committee arose and reported through its chairman that the committee of the whole direct the chair to appoint a committee of three to confer with Mr. August Belmont for legal services.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Willets, Moore, and B. S. Smith,

The Secretary: I would like to state for general information that there was a committee appointed in connection with myself to lay out and furnish these offices, and I can state in general terms that the entire cost of furnishing and of work we have had to have done here,
And the removal, was $1,500.

MR. WILLETTS: I move that a vote of thanks be extended to the committee which had charge of the removal and furnishing of the offices.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting was then adjourned.

To the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen,

I beg to report that I have turned over to the Membership Committee, applications for active membership from the following clubs:

Central New York Kennel Association,
Framingham District Kennel Club,
Pekingese Club of America, and Monmouth County Kennel Club.

Also credential appointing delegates from the following clubs:

Western Bull Terrier Breeders' Association.

At the annual meeting of the club there were sixteen clubs reported in arrears for dues for 1909, and I was directed to send final bills and if same were not paid on or before March 11th, that such clubs should be dropped from the roll without further action. Five of the clubs paid within the required time, and eleven were dropped from the roll of members. Subsequently the Mascoutah Kennel Club, Altoona Kennel Club, People's Poultry and Pet Stock Association, and the Maltese Terrier Club paid, and I accepted same subject to the action of this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary read the correspondence between himself
And the secretaries of the Mascoutah Kennel Club, Altonna Kennel Club, and People's Poultry and Pet Stock Association, resulting in the payment by those clubs of the dues of which they had been reported in arrears, and stated that he had received those dues subject to the approval of the American Kennel Club.

It was moved and seconded that the dues received from the clubs mentioned be accepted.

CARRIED.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to state that two of our delegates have just presented the American Kennel club with very handsome pictures, and Mr. Arkwright, of London, has presented the club with a copy of his book, which is regarded as the best book extant on the pointer, and I think some acknowledgement might be properly made at this meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN: If there be no objection, a motion is in order that the American Kennel Club tender its thanks to these donors of these gifts.

MR. LESSLIE: I move the adoption in the minutes a resolution recognition of the services of Mr. Charles Gibbs Carter, late president of the Duquesne Kennel Club of Western Pennsylvania, who died last Friday. The data for the minutes will be furnished by the secretary of that club. Mr. Carter gave a number of years of his time
Gentlemen:

At a recent meeting of this club Mr. Jno. Moorehead, Jr. was elected President to fill the office which was made vacant by the death of Mr. Chas. Gibbs Carter; Mr. Charles A. Painter was elected Vice President in the place of Mr. Moorehead.

At the request of our delegates Mr. Lesslie I enclose the following minute, Which at your recent meeting of the delegates was to be sent to you to be spread upon the minutes of the American Kennel Club.

“Whereas, in the death of Mr. Charles Gibbs Carter the Kennel world has lost an [illegible] fancier, gentleman and capable judge, and

Whereas Mr. Carter who by him time, services and devotion has done much for the kennel interests, therefore

Be it resolved that the American Kennel Club express its sorrow over his death and extend their sympathy to his family, and

Be it further resolved that this minute be spread upon the minutes of this Club.”

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE
AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,
Held at its offices, No. 1 Liberty Street, Tuesday,
September 21st, 1909.
Mr. H. H. Hunnewell presiding.

Present:

John E. De Mund,      R. Stuart Edson,
F. H. Osgood,       Hollis H. Hunnewell,
Rowland P. Keasbey,   Edward Brooks,
John G. Bates,       Dwight Moore,
H. K. Bloodgood,      B. S. Smith,
Chetwood Smith,      Howard Willets.

On motion of Mr. Moore the regular order of business was suspended.

MR. MOORE: As Chairman of the Publication Committee I would like permission from the Board of Directors to make the Gazette a monthly publication on the 1st of January, 1910, if in the opinion of the Committee it would prove to be economical to do so.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: I move that the Publication Committee be directed to publish the rules as adopted, with the Constitution, and have copies thereof placed with the Secretary for sale at a price to be determined upon by the committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with,
and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.
The Secretary read his report, as follows:

To the Board of Directors,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit for you consideration a report from the Stud Book Committee of Sept. 3rd, 1909, Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee, of June 5th, 1909, and August 4th, 1909.

In the Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of June 5th, Mr. Nathaniel Thayer Messer was unanimously nominated as a member of the Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles K. Harley. Action should be taken on this nomination at once as the Committee is in need of the services of another member of its body.

I beg to report the bill for disbursements by the P. A. C. from May 21 to September 10, amounting to $36.15. This bill appears to be correct and I recommend that same be ordered paid.

I also submit the reports of the Trial Board sitting in Boston upon the cases referred to it.
Under date of June 11th, 1909, the Anthracite Kennel Club notified me of the suspension of John Gaynor, and Dr. H. M. Beck for removing their dogs from its show without permission. In connection with the above it has been the custom heretofore to either remove the suspension or change same to that of disqualification.

The Newcastle County Fair Dog Show held under a License, failed to publish in its premium list as directed by the Rules a list of officials under whose direction the show was held. A notice to your Secretary was received to the effect that their show being held in connection with the County Fair it was not considered necessary to publish any names of the Committees and expresses regret that one of our Rules was violated.

The following charges have been filed for unpaid specials:

John Black vs. Buffalo Kennel Club.
Mrs. E. Moore vs. Buffalo Kennel Club.
Mrs. J. Benzie vs. Lynn Kennel Club
George D. Smith vs. Plainfield Kennel Club.
Revere Collie Kennels vs. Merrimack Valley Kennel Club
J. H. Blackwood vs. Merrimack Valley Kennel Club
Helen M. Tablot vs. Merrimack Valley Kennel Club
Mrs. W. H. Ingham vs. Merrimack Valley Kennel Club
W. E. Weare vs. Merrimack Valley Kennel Club
The different Clubs against whom charges are filed have all been notified and with the exception of the Plainfield Kennel Club I have no knowledge that any effort has been made to pay the claims.

Under date July 27th, I notified the Secretary of the Merrimack Valley Kennel Club as follows: "I regret to say that there has not been a show held by your club for several years that we have not had either one or two complaints against it for its failure to pay its obligations, and unless you pay all Specials won at your last show at once, I will be under the necessity of recommending that your club be dropped from our list of Membership and its officers suspended." In making a search of our records for the past four years I find that twelve cases were filed for unpaid prizes against the Merrimack Valley Kennel Club. The officers to whom my communication are addressed, ignore them absolutely. In four case out of the five complaints reported at this meeting, the complainants allege that they have proof that the Specials won by them had been paid into the Club. In my opinion the continuance of this club's membership is not only a detriment to Dog Shows, but it places the American Kennel Club in the position that it cannot enforce its rules unless action shall be taken to eliminate the shows held by this club from our jurisdiction.
The late Trial Board sitting in New York disqualified W. W. Tucker of Eatontow, N. J., on charges preferred by How Totten and F. R. Aabel, Jr. Tucker filed a mass of papers and photographs in his reply to these charges and now demands the return of certain of these papers and photographs. I, having no authority to comply with his request, would recommend that the Board that tried him be authorized to return such papers as in their judgment they may deem proper.

The following charge has been filed for misconduct in connection with dogs:
"June 14th, 1909, J. W. Tasker vs. W. E. Mason."

I would recommend that a Trial Board be appointed at this meeting to investigate this case.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:

To the Board of Directors of

The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen,

I beg to present the financial report from Jan. 1 to date:

Balance on hand Jan. 1st 19,151.37
Receipts from Jan 1 to date 18,478.26

Disbursements from Jan 1st to date 19,766.72
Balance on hand 17,711.54

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
Report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

STUD BOOK COMMITTEE MEETING

September 1st, 1909.

Resent- Mssrs. Appleton and Van Schaick.

In the matter of George C. Newman vs. John Faulkner with regard to the pedigree of poodle "Frolic" and other charges: As there was no proper evidence produced by Mr Newman and the case is now more than two years old, it was decided to go no further into the matter.

Bull Terriers "Macomb Kentucky" and "Macomb Hupp". The registrations of these terriers were canceled on account of improper pedigree having been given. We find no intention of fraud on the part of E. A. Goring, who registered the dogs, of C. L. Borders. Thomas Finn, 420 Brooklyn Ave., Detroit, having supplied to C. L. Borders a false pedigree for the dam of the above mentioned dogs, and having been convicted in a Police Court for fraud in so doing, we recommend, on the evidence before us, that said Thomas Finn be disqualified.
In the matter of the charge of Dan F. Riordan against Martin Smith, of Hillsboro, Wis., for furnishing false pedigree for beagle bitch "Little Daisy". The charge being dated 1907 and the Committee being unable to get any answer to its letters or any evidence, the matter is dropped.

In the matter of charge of L. Bartlett that a false pedigree was given him by Mrs. W. R. Gibbs for the French bull bitch by "Athos" ex. "San Toy": The Committee is satisfied by the breeder's statement and that of Mrs. Gibbs that there has been no fraud and that the pedigree is correct as given to Mr. Bartlett.

In the case of the bulldog "Morgan" registered under No. 129272 as by "Woodcote Marshall" ex. "Fair Lady": Upon the statement of the owner of "Woodcote Marshall" that such mating never took place, we recommend that the registration of "Morgan" be canceled. E. S. Lepet, who registered this dog, appears to be innocent of any intention of fraud. We recommend that T. M. Marshall, 3026 Locust Street, St. Louis, be disqualified for fraud in giving a false pedigree for the dog "Morgan".

J. W. Appleton
Singleton Van Schaick
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

The minutes of meetings of the Pacifica Advisory Committee were read, as follows:
MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE: June 5, 1909.
Held at First & Mission Streets, San Francisco.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

BARTELS vs. COLORADO KENNEL CLUB & I. M. T. C. CON.
Appeal from decision of bench show committee.

The reply of the respondent club not being received,
It was moved and seconded, that consideration of the case be postponed for 30 days.
Carried.

In re the petition of William J. Morris, to reopen the case of Stettheimer vs. Venice of America Kennel Club.

Mr. Stettheimer rose to a point of order and requested the privilege of making a statement.

He said that he did not care for the cup in question and that as a matter of fact he had already told the Venice Kennel Club that they might put it up at their next show. As however, Mr. Morris seemed very anxious for the cup, the speaker waived his right and was willing to let Mr. Morris have it.

On motion, the petition of appellant was denied and
The secretary instructed to inform appellant of Mr. Stettheimer's abandonment of the trophy.

The Committee then went into executive session with Mr. Stettheimer in the chair.

At the close of the Executive Session.

It was moved and seconded, That Whereas this Committee is embarrassed in its work by the uncertainty as to the new rules, which are to be formulated for its guidance, and Whereas such uncertainty tends to the detriment of the kennel interests of the coast, Therefore be it Resolved that the Pacific Advisory Committee do recommend to, and request of the Executive Committee of the A. K. C. that Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh be sent out at the earliest opportunity, to enunciate said rules for the information of the Pacific Advisory Committee, and that he be endowed with full power to formulate such additional rules, as may be found necessary on conferring with this Committee.

And be it further Resolved that it is the firm belief of this Committee that such action would be of the highest benefit to the kennel interests of the coast and of the A. K. C and that such action is at the present juncture highly proper and essential to the proper development of the kennel interests of the Coast and of the A. K. C. Carried.
The chair then rose and stated that he was reluctantly compelled to tender his resignation as a member and Chairman of this Committee, for the reason that his business interests would necessitate his prolonged absence from San Francisco.

It was moved and seconded, That this Committee do accept the resignation of its Chairman, Charles K. Harley, with the deepest regret and with a most acute personal feeling of loss of his counsel and association, and that said Charles K. Harley has earned the gratitude of American Kenneldom and of the Pacific Coast in particular for his services to the kennel interests of the country. Carried.

It was moved and seconded, that this Committee do recommended to the American Kennel Club Henry H. Carlton for appointment as Chairman to succeed Charles K. Harley resigned. Carried.

It was moved and seconded, That this Committee do unanimously nominate to the American Kennel Club Nat T. Messer for appointment to the vacancy on this Committee caused by the resignation of Chas. K. Harley. Carried.

It was moved and seconded, that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to convey at the earliest possible moment to the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club, the resolutions passed at this meeting, at the nomination
Of the executive session, so that the said Executive Committee may be enabled to take action thereon without loss of time. Carried.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:

J. P. Norman,
Secretary.

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary American Kennel Club,
New York.

Dear Sir:

I am directed by the Pacific Advisory Committee to communicate to you the following resolutions, passed at the meeting held on the 5th inst. and to request you to communicate them to the Executive Committee at the earliest opportunity.

1. That this Committee do accept the resignation of its Chairman, Charles K. Harley, with the deepest regret and with a most acute personal feeling of loss of his counsel and association, and that said Charles K. Harley has earned the gratitude of American Kenneldom and of the Pacific Coast in particular for his services to the kennel interests of the country.

2. That this Committee do recommend to the American Kennel Club Henry H. Carlton for appointment as Chairman to succeed Chas. K. Harley, resigned.

3. That this Committee do unanimously nominate the American Kennel Club Nat T. Messer for appointment to the vacancy on this Committee caused by the resignation of Chas. K. Harley
4. That Committee is embarrassed in its work by the uncertainty as to the new rules, which are to be formulated for its guidance, would recommend to, and request of the Executive Committee of the A. K. C. that Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh be sent out at the earliest opportunity, to enunciate said rules for the information of the Pacific Advisory Committee, and that he be endowed with full power to formulate such additional rules, as may be found necessary on conferring with this Committee.

And it is the firm belief of this Committee that such action would be of the highest benefit to the kennel interests of the Coast and of the A. K. C. and that such action is at the present juncture highly necessary and essential to the proper development of the kennel interests of the Coast and of the A. K. C.

Yours very truly,

PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE: A. K. C.

J. P. Norman,
SECRETARY.

Present, H. H. Carlton in the Chair; W. W. Stettheimer, J. P. Norman.

Absent, Dr. W. P. Burnham; Present by invitation of the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, Mr. A. P. VREDENBURGH, Secretary of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB.

Moved and seconded that the rules be suspended in order that the Committee may consider all pending charges and protests.

CARRIED.

SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB vs. THOMAS HOWARD.

CHARGE OF MISCONDUCT.

In the foregoing case, the papers showed that the defendant had been tried by the SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB for the offense of painting black the nose of his Bull Terrier. On his own confession the SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB had found him guilty and had cancelled the wins of his dog, but had exonerated the defendant on the ground that he erred in ignorance of the rules. The case had been referred back to the SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB by the Secretary of the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, with instruction
That the Kennel Club had no power to exonerate anyone guilty of conduct prejudicial to the best interests of Dogs and Dog Shows, and that it was the duty of said club to suspend defendant, and to so advise the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE. The defendant appeared in person, and the SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB was represented by the Secretary, DR. L. W. SPRIGGS. DR. SPRIGGS, being granted permission to address the Committee, represented that the SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB had acted as it had, because it believed the defendant to be guiltless of any evil intent. The defendant on being interrogated, acknowledged that he had painted the dog’s nose that he had so done without intent to deceive the Judge, but simply to make his dog look prettier, and expressed sincere contrition for his action.

It was moved and seconded that the defendant having evidently erred in ignorance, and having expressed regret for his action, be suspended for the term of sixty days, dating from June 24th, 1909.

CARRIED.

GEORGE A. CRANFIELD vs. SYDNEY A. CUMMINGS.
MISCONDUCT.
CHARGE OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY IN THE PRECINTS OF A DOG SHOW.

It is charged by GEORGE A. CRANFIELD that on Friday,
May 14th, 1909, at the San Francisco Dog Show, Sydney A. Cumming struck the appellant in the face, knocked him down and struck him after he was on the ground, using at the time foul and unspeakable language, and all this without provocation. Neither appellant nor respondent appeared. Dr. L. W. Spriggs, Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club being present, was interrogated as to his knowledge of this affair, and answered that he heard only vague rumors. On being asked why he had no investigated them, he replied that he was too busy with the details of the show.

It was moved and seconded that whereas the alleged assault was committed in the Precincts of the Dog Show held by the San Francisco Kennel Club, that that Club was the Court of first instance, and that the charges filed by George A. Cranfield against Sydney A. Cumming be and hereby are referred to the San Francisco Kennel Club for investigation with instruction to report to this Committee within twenty (20) days from date, and it was further moved and seconded that the San Francisco Kennel Club be and hereby is censured for not having investigated a case of assault and battery committed within the precincts of a Dog Show held by said club.

CARRIED.
SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB vs. JOHN I. SPARROW.

FAILURE TO RETURN CANCELLED PRIZES.

The San Francisco Kennel Club notifies the Pacific Advisory Committee that it has called on Mr. John I. Sparrow to return the Tevis Breeder’s Cup, according to the ruling of the rules committee and the Pacific Advisory Committee. Mr. Sparrow, notwithstanding repeated presentation of the registered letter containing notice from the San Francisco Kennel Club, and repeated notification by the Post office to call for such registered letter, having failed to do so, it was moved and seconded that whereas Mr. Sparrow has failed to return to the San Francisco Kennel Club the Tevis Breeder’s Cup, which was handed to him in error, his wins of same having been canceled by the American Kennel Club, and whereas said Sparrow has prevented the postal authorities from delivering to him, a registered letter containing the notice of the American Kennel Club, and whereas said Sparrow is known to have had ample notice of the decision of the American Kennel Club, cancelling his win of the Tevis Breeder’s Cup, THEREFORE, be it resolved that said Sparrow be and hereby is suspended for the period of thirty day, and if said Cup be not returned to the San Francisco Kennel Club at the expiration of said period, Mr. Sparrow be disqualified.

For life.

CARRIED.

THOMAS W. BARTEL
Vs. THE COLORADO KENNEL CLUB and INTERMOUNTAIN TERRIER CLUB, Consolidated.

APPEAL FROM DECISION OF BENCH SHOW COMMITTEE.

Appellant claims to have paid the fee for an associate membership in the respondent Club during the Show, and before the awarding of certain special prizes, and that said Club prevented him from competing for those prizes. The respondent Club claims that the appellant was not elected to membership prior to the award of such specials, nor was he ever elected, and that his money was subsequently returned to him.

It was moved and seconded that the protest of appellant is frivolous and therefore be and hereby is dismissed.

In the matter of the Dog Show held in May, 1909, by the San Francisco Kennel Club, it was moved and seconded that said Club be directed to surrender to this Committee all of the original entry blanks of said show.

CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that the minutes of the previous meeting be approved as published in the gazette.
It was moved and seconded that the minutes be amended by striking out the paragraph nominated MR. CARLOTON to the American Kennel Club for appointment to the Chair.

CARRIED.

It was moved and accepted that the minutes as amended be accepted as published in the gazette.

CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that MR. CARLOTON be hereby declared the Chairman of this Committee.

CARRIED by Acclamation.

It was moved and seconded that this Committee do now proceed to the consideration of the proposed new rules of the American Kennel Club governing Dog Shows and Clubs, and also of the proposed new rules of the American Kennel Club governing the Pacific Advisory Committee.

CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that it be suggested to the American Kennel Club that in Rule Seventeen of the Rules governing Clubs, that the word "must" be substituted for the word "May" in the rule permitting Clubs to collect the listing fees on behalf of the American Kennel Club. So that it will be compulsory for Clubs holding Shows to collect those fees. This will have the effect of preventing exhibitors from listing direct with the American Kennel Club. And consequently will eliminate unnecessary expense and office work. It will also prevent any fraud on the Clubs, through exhibitors falsely claiming to have listed direct with the American Kennel Club.

CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that the American Kennel Club be requested to embody in its rules governing the Pacific Advisory Committee, the amendments hereinafter proposed by this Committee.

RULE 1: "The Pacific Advisory Committee shall consist of five members, who shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after adoption of said new rules. One member shall hold office until 1911; one until 1912; one until 1913; one until 1914, and one until 1915, and at each annual meeting of the Board of Directors, beginning 1911, a member shall be elected to hold office for five years. This article is to supersede Article Six, Section Five of the By-Laws of the American Kennel Club."

In explanation of the above Amendment, it was the sense of the Committee that no member could attain efficiency and a working knowledge of the rules in less than six to eight meetings, and as a Committee rarely held more than six meetings a year, it is obvious that any new member
Would be legislate out of office before he had obtained the knowledge requisite to conduct the business of the Committee, and to further the interests of the American Kennel Club.

RULE 2: Approved as proposed.

RULE 3: and RULE 5: That Rule Five be cancelled, and that Rule Three be amended to read as follows: "Said Committee shall exercise the power of the Board of Directors as laid down in Article Six of the Bylaws, Sections Seven, Eight, Nine and Ten, and Article Twenty of the Bylaws, Sections Four, Five and Six.

Rule 4: Approved as proposed
Rule 5: Cancelled.
Rule 6: Cancelled.
Rule 7: Approved as proposed.

Rule 8: That it shall have power to receive admission fees and dues from Active Members; deposits with date claims; charges and appeals; listing fees, and penalties for violation of rules. All fees collected must be forwarded to the Treasurer of the American Kennel Club within seven days after the Committee has taken any necessary action, that may be required in connection with such fees.

Rule 9: Approved as proposed.
Rule 10: That it shall elect its own Chairman,
And shall appoint an Honorary Secretary, who shall be a member of the Committee. It shall have the power to appoint an Assistant Secretary, who need not be a member.

Rule 11: That it shall not incur any liabilities without the prior sanction of the Board of Directors, except for postage, stationary, telephone service, room rent, for meetings, express and telegraphic charges, and such services of a stenographer as may be necessary to conduct the work of the Committee.

It was moved and seconded that the hearty thanks of this Committee be and hereby are extended to Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh for his valuable advice, counsel and assistance.

CARRIED BY ACCLAMATION.

It was moved and seconded that the hearty thanks of this Committee are due and are hereby extended to the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club for their action in complying with the request of this Committee, to send Mr. Vredenburgh to the Coast, and it is the firm conviction of this Committee that this action of the Executive Committee and the presence of Mr. Vredenburgh have been of an inestimable value in furthering the interests of the American Kennel Club on the Coast, and in cementing the bond that binds the Pacific Coast in unswerving loyalty
To the American Kennel Club.

CARRIED BY ACCLAMATION.

There being no further business, the Committee then adjourned.

Attest: J. P. Norman,
Secretary.

On motion these minutes were ordered received and spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

It was moved and seconded that the terms of agreement with the Pacific Advisory Committee, as handed in by the Rules Committee, be adopted and placed on file.

Motion carried.

Following are the terms of agreement referred to:

RULES GOVERNING THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE:

1. The Pacific Advisory Committee shall be annually elected in the matter provided by Article VI Section V of the By-Laws and derives its powers and limitations in accordance with Article XIV.

   Article I. It shall consist of five members, who shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after adoption of said new rules. One member shall hold office until 1911; one until 1912; one until 1913; one until 1914; one until 1915, and at each annual meeting of the Board of Directors, beginning 1911, a Member shall be elected to hold office for five years. This Article is to supersede Article VI., Section V., of the By-Laws of A. K. C.

2. The powers granted to the Membership Committee and the License Committee shall be exercised by it acting with the same limitation of power as held by such Committee of the American Kennel Club.

3. Said Committee shall exercise the power of the Board of Directors as laid down in Article VI of the By-Laws, Sections 7, 8, 9, and 10, and Article XX of the By-Laws, Sections 4, 5, and 6.

4. It shall have power to decide appeals from rulings of Dog Show Committees.

5. It shall recommend to the Board of Directors candidates to fill vacancies on its Committee.

6. It shall have power to receive admission fees and dues from Active Members; deposits with date claims; charges and appeals; listing fees, and penalties for violation of rules. All fees collected must be forwarded to the Treasurer of the American Kennel Club within seven days after the Committee has taken any necessary action, that may be required in connection with such fees.

7. It shall have power to approve classifications of the Premium List and shall exercise the powers of the Secretary as described in Rule VIII of the Rules Governing Clubs.

8. It shall elect its own Chairman, and shall appoint an honorary Secretary, who shall be a Member of the Committee. It shall have the power to appoint an Assistant Secretary, who need not be a member.

9. It shall not incur any liabilities without the prior sanction of the Board of Directors, except for postage, stationary, telephone service, room rent (for meetings), express and telegraphic charges, and such services of a stenographer as may be necessary to conduct the work of the Committee.

On motion the bill for disbursement by the Pacific Advisory Committee from May 21st to September 10th, amounting to $36.15, was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: The Pacific Advisory Committee, at its meeting held on June 5th, 1909, nominated Mr. Nathaniel Thayer Messer as a member of the Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles K. Harley. I recommend that action should be taken on this nomination at this meeting, as the Committee is in need of the services of another member of its body.
DR. DE MUND: I nominate Mr. Nathaniel Thayer Messer for that vacancy.

Nomination seconded and carried,

On motion the reports of the Trial Board sitting in Boston upon the cases referred to it, were ordered published.

They are as follows:

DECISION OF BOSTON TRIAL BOARD

M. F. MULCAHY v. REVERE KENNEL CLUB

This is an appeal from the decision of a Show Committee of the Revere Kennel Club, upon a protest whereby the wins of the Boston Terrier, "CUPID'S PEACH", at the Charleston Show, held in April, 1908, was protested on the ground that said dog was entered without being identified by the correct names of sire and dam and the correct name of its breeder.

After due notice to the protestant and the exhibitor of said dog, the parties came before the Board on July 7, 1909, at three o'clock in the afternoon, the protestant appearing in his own behalf, and the exhibitor appearing by Mr. Dwight Baldwin.

The evidence presented, consisted of the papers filed with the Executive Committee, together with additional evidence, both documentary and oral presented at said hearing.

Arguments were made by both parties.

And now after consideration, the Board finds

1. That the entry of said CUPID'S PEACH, did not identify her by the correct name of her sire and dam, and that the name of her breeder, as given in said entry, was incorrect.

2. That the exhibitor was guilty of no fraud in describing the dog in the manner in which she was described in said entry.

3. The Board are of opinion that the foregoing errors are not technical errors within the meaning of the RULE VI of the rules governing dog shows in force at the time said entry was made.

The Board therefore decides that all prizes won by said "CUPID'S PEACH" at said show, are hereby forfeited.

Mr. Cutler, as he sat as a member of the Show Committee, from which this appeal was taken, did not sit at the hearing of this case, and took no part in the deliberations of the Board in reference to it.

Respectfully submitted,

Frederick H. Osgood,
Chairman.

Edwin W. Dwight,

MAJORITY OF THE BOSTON TRIAL BOARD
Boston, July 31, 1909.

DECISION OF BOSTON TRIAL BOARD

JOHN E. WHITE, Plaintiff, v. JAMES O. LACAILLADÉ, Defendant.

In the matter of the sale of the French Bull Bitch,
"D'ANGLEMONT BUD."

This case came before the Board for trial upon charges in writing preferred by the plaintiff against the defendant, specifications in due form having been properly filed with the Executive Committee.

The allegations contained in said specifications are: That the defendant did non or about the eighteenth day of Jun, 1907, fraudulently sell to the plaintiff, the French Bull Bitch, "D'ANGLEMONT BUD" by falsely representing her to be sound, healthy and in whelp.

The parties were each duly notified by letters addressed to each respectively and to the attorney of the plaintiff, Robert E. McClure, to which notice the defendant replied by letter and the plaintiff replied by letter through his said attorney.

The evidence presented to this Board, consisted of the various papers, correspondence and affidavits, filed with the Executive Committee, together with the letter above referred to from each of the parties.
And now after consideration the Board finds:

1. That the plaintiff was induced to purchase said "D'ANGLEMONT BUD" because of the representations of the defendant that she was sound, healthy and in whelp.

2. That said "D'ANGLEMONT BUD" was not, at the time of said purchase, sound, healthy and in whelp, and that she die soon after being received by the plaintiff, because of said unsoundness.

3. That the defendant knew, or should have known at the time he made said representations and at the time he sent said "D'ANGLEMONT BUD" to the plaintiff that said representations were false.

4. That the conduct of the defendant since said sale and representations and since his attention has been called to said condition of said "D'ANGLEMONT BUD", has been discreditable.

The Board therefore decides that the defendant, James O. Lacaillade, and all dogs owned by him be and are hereby disqualified until such time as he shall return and pay over to the plaintiff the purchase price of said dog, to wit: Fifty Dollars.

F. H. Osgood, Chairman,
Samuel R. Cutler,
Edwin W. Dwight.
The foregoing two cases, being of a similar nature, both in reference to the facts and in reference to the considerations necessary for their decision, have been considered by the Board together.

All the parties in both of said cases were duly notified to appear before the Board on July 7, 1909, at three o'clock in the afternoon at Room 320, Tremont Building, #73 Tremont Street, Boston, Massachusetts, but none of said parties appeared, either in person or otherwise, nor did any of them, in any matter whatever, communicate with the Board.

Our investigations, therefore, have been confined to the papers in each of the cases, respectively, filed with the Executive Committee, and inasmuch as neither said Kammere, nor the Dorchester Kennels, appeared before us, or in any ways submitted themselves to the Board's jurisdiction, the Board deem it necessary to decide whether it has power to act in the premises.
And now, after consideration, the Board are of opinion

That the papers on file in these cases do not constitute "charges" against said Kammerer, or the Dorchester Kennels, and were not intended as such, but seem to be inquiries as to the pedigrees of certain dogs, alleged to have been sold by said Kammerer and the Dorchester Kennels; and insomuch as the parties have not been before the Board, the facilities for investigating said pedigrees being so limited, it would seem that an investigation by the Stud Book Committee would develop more reliable information, than any attainable by this board.

The Board therefore decide to take no further action in either of said case, unless further directed so to do.

Respectfully submitted,

F. H. Osgood,
Samuel R. Cutler,
Edwin W. Dwight,

BOSTON TRIAL BOARD.
THE SECRETARY: The Anthracite Kennel Club, under date of June 11th, 1909, notified me of the suspension of John Gaynor and Dr. H. M. Beck for removing their dogs from its show without permission. It has been customary heretofore to either remove the suspension or change it to disqualification.

It was moved and seconded that these two exhibitors be disqualified.

Carried.

THE SECRETARY: I call your attention to the fact that the Newcastle County Fair Dog Show, held under a license, failed to publish in its premium list the names of the officials of that club under whose direction the show was held, as required by the rules. I submit a letter of apology from that club in which regret is expressed that one of our rules was violated.

MR. WILLETS: I move that their apology be accepted, and no further action taken.

Motion seconded and carried.
In relation to the charges filed by John Black vs. Buffalo Kennel Club, Mrs. E. Moore vs. Buffalo Kennel Club, Mrs. J. Benzie vs. Lynn Kennel Club, and George D. Smith vs. Plainfield Kennel Club, for unpaid specials, on motion the Secretary was directed to notify these clubs that unless they paid these prizes within thirty days they would be disqualified.

On motion the secretary was also directed to notify the Merrimack Valley Kennel Club that in default of the payment of prizes to J. H. Backwood, Helen M. Talbot, Mrs. W. H. Ingham and W. E. Weare within thirty days, it would be disqualified.

THE SECRETARY: I refer in my report to the disqualification by the late trial board sitting in New York of Mr. W. W. Tucker, of Eatontown, New Jersey, on charges preferred by Howe Totten and F. R. Aabel, Jr. Mr. Tucker now demands the return of certain papers and photographs furnished him in reply to these charges.

It was moved and seconded that the Board that tried Mr. Tucker be authorized to return such papers to him as in their judgment they may deem proper.

Carried.

In relation to the charge filed for misconduct in connection with dogs by J. W. Tasker vs. W. E. Mason, it Was moved and seconded that it be referred to a New York trial board.
Carried.
The Chair appointed Messrs. De Mund, Smith and Lauder as such trial board.
DR. De MUND: I would like to make a motion not to be considered as establishing a precedent, that the American Kennel Club reimburse Mr. Lord for the money which he has spent for typewriting in connection with the rules and with the testimony in the case of the Trial Board of which he was Chairman.
Motion seconded and carried.
On motion the meeting then adjourned.
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

To the Delegates of

The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen: I have the honor to report the reception of Applications for Active Membership from the Chicago Collie Club and the West Highland White Terrier Club of America. Also credentials of the delegates from the Central New York Kennel Association, Framingham District Kennel Club, Maltese Terrier Cub of America, and the West Highland White Terrier Club of America.

The above applications and credentials have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

The Rules Committee filed its report recommending new Rules to Govern Clubs and to Govern Dog Shows to go into effect January 1st, 1910. The report and the proposed rules were published in the August 15th Gazette, and action on this report should be taken at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Committee on Constitution and Rules submitted through its Chairman, Mr. Edward Brooks, the proposed rules governing clubs and shows to take effect January 1, 1910, as published in the Gazette. The delegates took them up seriatim, and after thorough consideration and long discussion, the rules were adopted as amended. The rules amended as follow:

RULES GOVERNING CLUBS.

RULE VIII. Two copies of the proposed classification must be sent to the Secretary for approval and none shall be valid without his endorsement, which must be printed at the head of the classification. The Premium List must contain a list of the Officers of the Club and Officials of the Show. One copy of the Premium List must be forwarded to the Secretary before distribution. Penalty for non-compliance: $10.00

Two copies of the Premium List must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee immediately after publication by Club within its jurisdiction.

RULE XIII. Special prizes cannot be accepted or offered by a Club after the opening of the Show, nor can any be withdrawn, or the conditions thereof change after the same have been published in the Premium List (except where a Specialty Club's prizes are governed by its own Rules in force when announced), and provided that the conditions are properly stated as in the written terms of the gift, or if there be no such written terms, in the event f Specials being offered at more than one Show, the conditions in the first Premium List under which they were offered shall govern. The show giving club shall be responsible for errors of interpretation or publication of special prizes and shall award prizes of equal value. All prizes must be in accordance with the description in the Premium List. Prizes of gold or silver must be of the purity of the United States coin. If money prizes are offered, a fixed amount for each prize must be stated. This however, does not prevent the offering of percentage prizes in the classes. All prizes must be in accordance with the description of the premium list.

RULE XVI. A Catalogue marked with the winning and absentees certified to by the Secretary of the Show giving Club and also all the Judges’ books must be filed with the American Kennel Club within seven days after the closing of the Show. Penalty $1.00 per day.

Clubs in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee must forward to the Secretary thereof two marked and certified copies of the Catalogue, and also all the Judges’ books.
RULE XII. A Show giving Club must assume the responsibility of collecting all listing fees for the American Kennel Club, which fact must be stated in the Premium List. Such fees collected, with complete data, must be forwarded to the Secretary within seven days from the closing of the Show. Penalty for non-compliance, $1.00 per day. (The amount deposited with the application for dates cannot be applied as payment of said fees.)

RULE XVIII. Every Show must have a qualified veterinarian who shall be in attendance before and during the progress of the Show, and no dog shall be benched without having been examined and passed by him or his representative, who shall himself be a qualified veterinarian. He is required to personally inspect the dogs on the benches and the quarters where the dogs are exercised, or crated, before 6 p.m. on the opening of the Show, and at least once during the morning of each day shall examine all dogs and submit a written report to the Bench Show Committee. Dogs suffering from Contagious diseases must be removed from the building. The Show Committee shall be empowered, in case the regularly appointed veterinarian shall be incapacitated to serve, to appoint another veterinarian to take his place and act for him in all things. Failing to comply with this rule, the Club shall be liable to suspension.
To the classification under Rule XXV was added the word "Scottish" before the name "Deerhounds",

RULES GOVERNING DOG SHOWS.

Section C, Rule II was amended to read:

Section C. Specialty Club Shows confined to the breed represented by their Club shall be rated at 4 points. Specialty Clubs not active members, may be licensed with the written consent of the parent club, and will be rated at 2 points.

The heading "Field Trial Rules and Championships," was amended to read "Field Trial Rules and Field Championships."

Every dog must be the bona fide property of the person making the entry. The right to run a dog cannot be transferred.

Under the heading "Beagles", Section 4 was amended to read

OTHER BREEDS THAN THOSE SPECIFIED:

Two wins in open classes will constitute a Field Champion.

Section D. relative to the Graduate Class was eliminated and the following was substituted:
SECTION D: The American bred shall be for all dogs bred in the United States of America and no champion shall be eligible.

SECTION F was amended to read:

SECTION F. The Winners' Class, for which there shall be no entry fee, must be opened to winners of first prizes in either the Puppy, Novice, Limit, American bred or open classes, all of which shall constitute the regular classes, at a show giving at least three of the above mentioned classes, one of which must be the Open. The Winners' Class may be divided by sex, provided the required three classes are so divided.

After awarding the Winners' prize, the dog or dogs having been placed second to the winner in any of these classes must compete with the remaining dogs in said class for "Reserve." No eligible dog can be withheld from competition.

SECTION J. Field Trial Classes at Bench Shows shall be confined to dogs that have been placed at a recognized Field Trial.

Hunting Classes shall be confined to dogs that received a certificate of merit as a hunting dog from judges at a recognized field trial, or that have been placed at such a trial.
Rule X was amended to read:

RULE X. IF the name of a dog which has won a prize at any show has been changed, the old name also must be given on the entry blank and published in the catalogue until such time as it wins a prize under its new name.

Rule XIV was amended to read:

RULE XIV. Dogs may be entered for exhibition or for specials only, or for certain specials which must be specified on the entry blank; but any dog entered for competition and received at the Show must compete in all the classes for which it is entered, and failing to do so shall be fined an amount equal to the entrance fee for each class. Dogs competing for specials only must be entered in one of the regular classes in which they need not compete. All specials classified and unclassified offered in any breed must be adjudicated upon by the judge appointed for that breed.

Rule XVII was amended to read:

RULE XVII. The regularly appointed veterinarian or his representative shall determined the physical condition of dogs during the Show. When appealed to by the judge, or when giving an opinion on a protest to the Show Committee, he shall immediately render his decision in writing.

A dog that is blind, deaf, lame, castrated, spayed, dyed or faked shall be ineligible to compete at any show,
Except in the case of lameness, when the veterinarian is satisfied that it is only temporary.

RULE XVIII was amended to read:

RULE XVIII: The appointment of judges shall rest with the Club giving the Show. A judge must be a person in good standing with the American Kennel Club. After the list of judges has been published in the Premium List, it cannot be changed, unless an appointed judge is unable to fill his engagement. The Committee shall then have the right to fill the vacancy.

All the classes of any one breed of dogs must be adjudicated upon by the same judge, or judges, acting in conjunction. In the event of any appointed judge not officiating, it shall be optional with the exhibitor before the commencement of judging the breed to withdraw his dog or dogs from competition and from the show, in which event his entry fee shall be returned.

A judge may order any person from the ring. Upon the complaint of any one actually engaged in the handling or showing of a dog during the judging of a class, he may, if in his opinion the complaint is warranted, order from the ring any person guilty of intentional or deliberate interference with any dog therein competing.

The Judge’s decision shall be final in all cases affecting the merits of the dogs.

Full discretionary power
Is given to the judge to withhold any or all prizes for want of merit.

Should the win of a dog be cancelled the next dog in order of merit shall be moved up, and the win shall be counted in every respect the same as if it had been the original award. For this purpose the Judge shall place one dog "reserve" after the regular prizes are awarded if a dog of sufficient merit is available.

The judges must mark in their own books all awards made by them and must also mark all absentees in their classes.

RULE XXIV was amended to read:

RULE XXIV: The suspension or disqualification of an owner shall be from the day of the perpetration of the fraudulent act, and apply to all dogs owned by him or connected with the perpetration of a fraudulent act, and no dog so disqualified is eligible for entry at any show under any ownership.

No person under suspension or disqualification can make an entry, exhibit, or take a prize, act as agent for an exhibitor, or take a dog in the judging ring at any show.

The privileges of the Stud Book are withheld from all persons under suspension or disqualification, for registration of dogs owned or bred by them.
Under Rule XXVI was added to the breed "Deerhounds" the word "Scottish".
Under Rule XXVII was added before the breed "Deerhounds" the word "Scottish".
There was also added the breed "Maltese" to the terrier division.

DR. DE MUND: I move that Rule XXVII be referred back to the Stud Book Committee for revision, specifying all different breeds of dogs that belong to the Sporting and Non-Sporting Division with power to adopt in these rules.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. BROOKS: I move that the rules as amended be adopted as a whole.

Motion seconded and unanimously carried.

Insert full rules as adopted;

On motion the meeting was then adjourned.

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary.
MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, held at the offices, No. 1 Liberty Street, Tuesday, December 21st, 1909

Present:
J. W. Appleton,
John E. DeMund,
Rowland P. Keasbey,
John G. Bates,
James Mortimer,
H. K. Bloodgood
Chetwood Smith
Hollis H. Hunnewell
William C. Codman
George Lauder, Jr.,
Dwight Moore,
B. S. Smith
Howard Willets,
Franklin B. Lord, Jr.

On motion the minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows:
To the Board of Directors,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to report upon the following matters which have been filed with this office since our last meeting. On Oct. 6th, 1909, the Asbury Park Kennel Club requested to be dropped from the Roll of Membership, for the reason that it has ceased to exist as a club.

On Dec. 13th, 1909, the Western Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association tendered its resignation. The above Clubs are in good standing and I would recommend that their requests be complied with.

On December 18, 1909, the Sheepshead Bay Kennel Club requested to be dropped from the Roll of Membership for the reason that it had ceased to exist as a club.

At the Bangor Show of 1908, Mr. R. J. Chase was suspended for removing his dogs without permission. Under date of Dec. 18, 1909, Mr. Tom. B. Middlebrooke, Secretary and Superintendent of said Show requests the reinstatement of Mr. Chase, believing that he has been sufficiently punished, and at the time his offense was committed, he did not realize the graveness of it.

The American Poultry Association solicits the cooperation of the American Kennel Club to take up with the Express Companies the question of rates, uniform dispatch in shipping, prompt delivery, feed and water en route, and protection from exposure.

The Tri-State Fair held a dog show at Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 4th-9th, 1909, and published in its premium lists and catalogue the Rules of the American Kennel Club, the classification, and my certificate of approval guaranteeing for championship record one point. This Club was neither a member nor was it licensed. It did not send its classification of approval signed by me as published. Undoubtedly many exhibitors believed the statement that the American Kennel Club sanctioned its show. I called upon the Secretary, Mr. R. M. Williams, to show cause why the officers of the Tri-State Fair should not be disqualified for inducing entries under false pretences and the fraudulent use of the American Kennel Club Rules, and the Secretary’s name. The reply to this communication states “that the Tri-State Fair sold outright for a consideration of $250.00 to J.M. Avent, Hickory, Tenn., the exclusive right to hold and conduct a dog show on the Fair Ground, presuming that he knew what he was doing, and feeling that with his standing and reputation we were fully protected therein.”

This is a very serious matter, and such action should be taken as may be deemed proper.

The Pacific Advisory Committee called upon the San Francisco Kennel Club to explain certain irregularities found in the Catalogue of its late show, and also called upon William Ellery, an exhibitor, to explain nine (9) interlineations in his Collie entries as found in the official catalogue of the San Francisco Show. Both the San Francisco K.C. and William Ellery ignored the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee and applied to the Superior Court of the State of California for a temporary injunction restraining the Pacific Advisory Committee from taking any action in the matter. An application is still pending before the Court for a permanent injunction. I called the attention of Mr. August Belmont, President of the American Kennel Club to the action above stated, and such proceeding appearing to him to be conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, he suspended the San Francisco K.C. and its officers: William Ellery and the Valverde Kennels until such time as the charges for alleged misconduct can be investigated by competent authority. Mr. Belmont’s action was taken under the provision of Rule XXI, Rules Governing Dog Shows adopted in 1907, and will remain in force until January 1st, 1910.

I have given merely an outline of the matter an will submit voluminous correspondence which foes into the details fully, for your due consideration. In connection with the above case, I beg to say that we have found another discrepancy in Mr. William Ellery’s entry of the Collie Valverde Virgil, which was entered at San Francisco as having been whelped May 18, 1908, and at Oakland as whelped as May 27th, 1908, this entry was in the puppy classes.

The following charges have been filed:
Carrie E. Lamouree vs. Harry R. Kendall
Bulldog Club of Am. vs. Charles G. Hopton

Both cases for misconduct in connection with dogs.
G.A. Wertheim vs. Monmouth Co. K.C.
A.B. Dalby vs. Framingham District K.C.
John F. Crowell vs. Plainfield K.C.
J. Cooper Mott vs. Cedarhurst K.C.

These cases are for unpaid specials

Five other charges for unpaid special were filed but were satisfied through the efforts of the American Kennel Club.
Pursuant to the Resolution of your Board at its September meeting, I suspended the Merrimack Valley K.C. and its officers, and the Buffalo K.C. and its officers for the non-payment of special prizes. The officers of the Merrimack Valley K.C. and its officers, and the Buffalo K.C. and its officers for the non-payment of special prizes. The officers of the Merrimack Valley K.C. ignored all communications from this office, and so far as I know have never made any effort to pay their just obligations. With the Buffalo fort to pay their just obligations. With the Buffalo K.C. however, I am assured that it has made every effort to pay a cut donated by Mrs. C.E. Proctor, but were unable to locate her. In this connection I received a letter from Mrs. Proctor on the 17th instant, in which she informs me that the communications from the Buffalo Club had just reached her, they having been misdirected. She states that she will pay the cup to the winner, after the holidays, so that the same way be suitably marked.

John W. Patten and Edmund L. McKenzie presented to the Club framed pictures which were valuable acquisitions to our collections, and official thanks are due these gentlemen for their courtesy.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vrendenburgh,
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I beg to report the resignation of the Asbury Park Kennel Club Sheepshead Bay Kennel Club and the Western Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association. They are all in good standing.

MR. MOORE: I move that their resignations be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then submitted the correspondence in the matter of Mr. R.J. Chase, who was suspended for removing his dogs from the Bangor Show of 1908.

MR. LORD: I move that he be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary brought before the Directors the matter of the dog show held by the Tri-State Fair at Memphis, Tennessee, on October 4th to 9th, 1909, stating that said association had published in its premium list and catalogue the rules of the American Kennel Club, the classification and his certificate of approval guaranteeing for championship record one point. Also the fact that this club was neither a member of the American Kennel Club, nor was it licensed, and that it did not send its classification for approval, and never received a certificate of approval signed by him as published. That being called upon by him to show cause why the offices of the Tri-State Fair should not be disqualified for inducing entries under false pretences and the fraudulent use of the American Kennel Club’s rules, and also the use of his name, Mr. R.M. Williams, the Secretary of said show, replied that the Tri-State Fair sold out right for a consideration of $250 to J.M. Avent, of Hickory, Tennessee, the exclusive right to hold and conduct a dog show on the Fair Grounds, presuming that he knew that he was doing and feeling that with his standing and reputation they were fully protected therein.

On motion of Mr. Chetwood Smith, the matter was referred to the New York Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: Charges have been filed for unpaid specials by Charles J. Best vs. New Castle County Agriculture Fair Association, G.A. Wertheim vs. Monmouth County Kennel Club, A.B. Dalby vs. York Kennel Club, John F. Crowell vs. Framingham District Kennel Club, Anna Sands vs. Plainfield Kennel Club and J. Cooper Mott vs. Cedarhurst Kennel Club.

DR. DeMUND: I move that they be given thirty days in which to pay these specials, in default of which said clubs and their officers be disqualified.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Buffalo Kennel Club and its officers were suspended for non-payment of prizes, and I submit to you the correspondence from said club and Mrs. Proctor, the donor of the prize. The American Kennel Club had nothing whatever to do with it. To-day I received a letter from the Buffalo Kennel Club in which it is stated that they have done everything within their power to procure this prize cup from Mrs. Proctor, but had so far been unable to do so. I would like to say that I am really liable to censure because I was given thirty days to suspend these men. Within those thirty days I received letters from them in which they say that they have made every effort to locate Mrs. Proctor, and I finally gave them Mr. Proctor’s address at 149 Broadway, and they wrote to him, as he now states, and instead of suspending them after thirty days, I waited until sixty days had elapsed and then suspended them. This is the result. All of the officers who are dog showing men and the club itself, which has a claim in for the next spring, are suspended, and they cannot show or hold a show.

MR. MORTIMER: Is it possible to prefer charges against the donor of a special prize who does not pay it? The club itself has done everything in its power to get this special paid. It seems to me the donor of the special is the one that is to blame instead of the club.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: It seems that this is a cup which is given to various shows, to be later returned. I do not see how you can hold the club responsible, because it has to deliver it to the individual that wins it, and they hold it for a year.

THE SECRETARY: That is an old time matter with us. The club advertises a certain special which may be the inducement for a man to enter his dog at that show. He does not care who donates the cup. It is the show giving club that offers that special, and it is one of the conditions of the agreement made between the exhibitor and the club, for which a monetary consideration is paid, and therefore the club is held responsible, which is proper in my opinion.

MR. MORTIMER: If I may be allowed to explain, these cups that are put up to be won at the different shows are never at any time in the possession of the club. They are retained by the donor of the cup.

THE CHAIRMAN: No, I do not quite agree with you there.

MR. CODMAN: They should be sent to the club.

MR. MORTIMER: The club seldom has possession of the cup, and it is never won. It goes on record with the secretary of the club, and he notifies the donor that a certain exhibitor has won this cup. I suppose this cup has been won three times or more by this same exhibitor.
THE CHAIRMAN: It looks as if it was won outright and never existed.

MR. MORTIMER: I move that in view of the fact that the Buffalo Kennel Club has done everything in its power to hand over this cup to the winner, no blame attaches to it, and that the suspension of the Buffalo Kennel Club be now removed, and that Mrs. Proctor, the donor, be suspended until the prize is paid.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I beg to report that charges have been filed by Carried E. Lamouree vs. Harry R. Kendall and by the Bulldog Club of America vs. Charles G. Hopton for misconduct in connection with dogs.

DR. DeMUND: I move that that matter be referred to the Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chair appointed as the New York Trial Board to hear and determine these charges Dr. DeMund, B.S. Smith and George Lauder, Jr.

THE SECRETARY: You heard my report about the trouble we are having in San Francisco, and I now submit to you Mr. Belmont’s order of suspension. I would like to state that I sent that communication to the Pacific Advisory Committee, and it was returned to me with the statement. that it would be contempt of court as they were prohibited from taking any action whatever owing to the temporary injunction restraining them. So I had to send it back to these people direct from this office. I received a telegram from William Ellery this morning stating that the Pacific Advisory Committee had refused to give hour and place for contemplated hearing of injunction suit. The situation is this: There were nine different entries made in the catalogue of the San Francisco Show, and when the official catalogue was sent to the Pacific Advisory Committee, and by it sent to this office, there were nine interlineations in handwriting giving in three or four instances differences in date of birth of some of the puppies, and in other instances giving different names of sires. The Pacific Advisory Committee asked me what I thought about it. I said that the matter ought to be investigated. So they sent to the San Francisco Kennel Club asking it to send to them its entry forms. The San Francisco Kennel Club replied that the entry forms was quite probably brought about, as was explained to me, from the fact that they were in the custody of Mr. William Ellery who was then up in Van Ness Avenue, and who removed down to Geary street. He did not care about taking any of this stuff with him, and he destroyed it. The Pacific Advisory Committee then called upon the San Francisco Kennel Club to show cause why action should not be taken against them for changing the printed body of the catalogue, and they called up Mr. Ellery, who is not only an exhibitor, but the President and owner of the San Francisco Kennel Club, to produce his personal kennel records in their original form, giving both the club and Mr. Ellery fourteen days to comply with its request. I believe that it is a fact that the Pacific Advisory Committee did, through some oversight, neglect to state the place where the meeting was to be held. There were two source of redress. They should have submitted to the Pacific Advisory Committee, and if they lost their case there, to send it on appeal here to the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club, neither of which was done.

It is clear that Mr. Ellery saw fit to ignore the American Kennel Club, both on the Coast and in New York, and applied to the courts and obtained a temporary injunction restraining our committee from any action whatever in the case, and an application is still pending for a permanent injunction. I am informed that the temporary injunction was granted on the ground that we were a foreign corporation doing business in another state without having filed our articles of incorporation. The action of the person forced the American Kennel Club, through its Pacific Advisory Committee, to engage counsel, at some substantial cost, and I sent a certified copy of our charter to the Coast, certified by the Secretary of State at Albany, and asked him if he found it necessary to file that charter to do so, pay the fees and send us the bill. I have a notice here that the counsel for the Pacific Advisory Committee says that in his opinion it is not necessary to file it.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to say a few words in regard to this case, not because I am taking the part of the San Francisco Kennel Club, or Mr. Ellery, but simply because I know Mr. Ellery, and I have quite some knowledge of the San Francisco Kennel Club, and I just wish to say a few words here to show that everything has not been carried on with the courtesy that it might have been. The San Francisco Kennel Club held its show on May 15th, 1909, and its catalogue was sent in to the Pacific Advisory Committee and was passed by that body, and the winnings were published in the American Kennel Gazette on June 30, 1909. There was only one entry form sent on, and that was for fox terriers that were entered for June 19th, 1909. After the winnings had been published in the American Kennel Gazette – and I do not suppose there is any necessity for keeping the entry forms after the winners have been published, the entries list of entries was called for on August 6th. They did not call for Mr. Ellery’s forms alone, but for the entry forms of every dog that was entered in that show, which was over a month after the Kennel Gazette was printed and the awards published. Notification was sent to Mr. Ellery by the Pacific Advisory Committee that an affidavit had been filed on September 20, 1909. You note that the show was helped on May 12th to 15th, 1909, and this affidavit was made.
on September 20th, the same date that the San Francisco Kennel Club was notified that it was to be tried for misconduct, but with no time or place mentioned for the proposed trial in this notification, no reply made by the Pacific Advisory Committee to a registered letter signed by Mr. Ellery asking for information as to the time and place when this trial was going to be held. This was addressed to J.P. Norman, Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee. Mr. Ellery received the post office receipt for the delivery of the registered letter, but no reply was ever sent him or to the San Francisco Kennel Club to that registered letter asking for the time and place where the trial was to be held, consequently they did not know when or where it was to be held, and then they took the action that you have heard about. That is all I have to say, but it seems there was a little irregularity. It seems to me if a committee has to retain all their original entry forms for an unstated length of time we would be obliged to have a special store room for that purpose. When once the awards have been passed by the representative of the American Kennel Club, that is the Pacific Advisory Committee, one would imagine that those entries has been found correct. Then all the entry forms were called for of every individual exhibitor at the show. At that time Ellery had to move from Van Ness Avenue on account of the fire, and the building was being erected at 48 Geary Street. I was out there in May and they showed me the new building which they were going to remove into the following month in June. All the waste paper and matters that they did not want to take down to Geary street were destroyed. That is the reason those entry forms could not be produced but Mr. Ellery makes the point that he could not receive any reply to a registered letter which he sent asking the Pacific Advisory Committee where this trial was going to take place, and when, and that is what he complains of. That is the reason he got out the injunction.
THE SECRETARY: He could have appealed to the American Kennel Club at No. 1 Liberty Street, and he would have gotten an answer.

DR. DeMUND: I move that on the withdrawal of the injunction suit by Mr. Ellery and the San Francisco Kennel Club, the payment of all expenses that the Pacific Advisory Committee has been put to in this case, and the submission of Mr. Ellery and the San Francisco kennel Club to the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, that suspension be removed. Furthermore, that the Pacific Advisory Committee, be directed to appoint a place and time for the hearing of the charges against Mr. Ellery and the San Francisco Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read the following:

In the Matter of the Fort Worth Poultry & Pet Stock Association, H.W. Clapham was notified by this Board of show cause why he should not be disqualified.

The evidence submitted by H.W. Clapham being satisfied, we find that there is no cause for his disqualification.

Franklin B. Lord, Jr.,
Chairman

December 21st, 1909
On motion said report was accepted and placed on file.
On motion the disbursement of the Pacific Advisory Committee amounting to $32.95, were ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: The Louisville Poultry & Pet Stock Association writes this letter and submits its catalogue. Here is the catalogue which is supposed to be typewritten. There are no awards in it at all. I told them I would submit it to this meeting to see whether you would accept that when our rules call for a printed catalogue.

MR. MORTIMER: I move that that be returned to them and they be asked to inset their awards.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Here is an appeal from Charles Walters, which was brought before the Executive Committee. We can constitute ourselves a Trial Board and settle it right here, if you desire. At the Bridgeport Show there was a Collie entered by Mr. Walters. On the morning of the show this Collie was very sick, and this gentleman sent his wife to the show and asked if they dog was well enough late in the afternoon they could bring it in. She asked the President of the club, who was also the Chairman of the Bench Show Committee, Dr. James E. Hair, and I have his letter to confirm his statement, he said they would admit the dog any time that afternoon, and he did it under this additional Rule 1. He was the Chairman of the Committee and this lady supposed he had perfect authority under that rule to grant her that permission. They fixed the dog up so that they got it there about six o’clock that night. The dogs were judged the next day. She was awarded first. One of the competitors protested and the Bench Show Committee, consisting of three, but not with the Chairman of the Committee present, sustained the protest, and they appeal from that decision.

THE CHAIRMAN: If you want to continue this case here now, you must constitute yourselves a trial boards.

MR. WILLETS: I move that the matter be referred to a trial board.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I now submit to you the matter of the application of the American Poultry Association asking for the co-operation of this club to take up with the Express Companies the question of rates, uniform dispatch in shipping, and so forth. We have been through this several times.

MR. MORTIMER: The Poultry Association has succeeded in getting a great many concessions from the Express Companies, and I believe it would be a very good thing for some committee of the American Kennel Club to work in co-operation with them.

MR. WILLETS: I move that a committee of three be appointed to confer with the American Poultry Association of which Mr. James Mortimer be one.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chair appointed as the other two members of the Committee Messrs. R. P. Keasby and Mr. Chetwood Smith.

MR. MORTIMER: I move that a vote of thanks be extended to Messrs. Patten and MacKenzie for their kind gift of pictures to the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

On motion the minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The applications of the Butterfly Bench Show Association and the Southside Kennel Club having been approved by the Membership Committee, said clubs were duly elected.

The following named delegates were elected to represent the following named clubs:

- Bulldog Club of America: Edwin L. Boger
- Bergen County Kennel Club: R. P. Keasby
The Secretary read his report as follows:

“New York, Dec. 20, 1909

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that I have received two applications for Active Membership, eight credentials, with the appointment of delegates, all of which I have referred to the Membership Committee, which will report at this meeting.

“I also report the nominations for delegates to represent the Associate Subscribers, made by the Membership Committee, on Dec. 2, 1909, and from the same Committee the names suggested to act as a Nominating Committee for the expiring Class of Directors.

“Dr. J. E. DeMund gives the following notice to amend the By-Laws Article VI, new Section XI. ‘Any director who shall absent himself from two consecutive regular meetings of the Board, without being excused by a majority vote of said Board, shall be deemed to have resigned, and shall cease to be a director.”

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) A.P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary“

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report, as follows:

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the financial statement form Jan. 1st, 1909, to date:

Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1909 ........................................ $19,151.37

Receipts from Jan. 1, to date........................................... 23,472.09

Total ................................................................. $49,623.46

Disbursements from Jan. 1, to date ......................... 25,718.64

Balance on hand ............................................. $16,904.82

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) A. P. VREDENBURGH,
Treasurer”

THE CHAIRMAN: May I ask why it is that the disbursements are in excess of the receipts?

THE SECRETARY: The expense of removal and the necessary new furniture made that increase of expenditures necessary, together with the additional rent was about $1,000. That pays the rent up to the 1st of January.

On motion the Treasurer's report was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary then read the following report:

December 2, 1909

TO the Delegates of the American Kennel Club
No. 1 Liberty Street, NYC

Dear Sirs:

In accordance with Section V, Article X of the Bylaws, the Membership Committee at its meeting held December 2, 1909, suggests the following names to act as a Nominating Committee in conformity with Section III, Article XVIII of the Bylaws, namely:

H. K. Bloodgood
Singleton Van Schaick
George Greer
B. S. Smith
Clarence Sackett

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) HOWARD WILLETTS
Chairman Membership Committee

MR. MOORE: I move the adoption of that report.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: I place those names in nomination as members of the Nominating Committee for the expiring class of directors.

DR. DE MUND: I second the motion.

MR. MOORE: I move that the Secretary cast one ballot for those names as read. Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have cast ballot for the gentlemen named.

THE CHAIRMAN: I declared them duly elected.

The Secretary then read a further report from the Membership Committee, as follows:

December 2, 1909

To the Secretary of the American Kennel Club
No. 1 Liberty Street, NYC

Dear Sir:

In accordance with Section VI, Article X of the By-laws, the Membership Committee at its meeting held December 2, 1909, nominated the following persons as Associate Delegates to represent the Associate Subscribers for the year 1910, namely:

W. G. Rockefeller
Dwight Moore,
Ben S. Smith
Winthrop Rutherfurd

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) HOWARD WILLETS

Chairman Membership Committee

THE SECRETARY: Under the new Bylaws were have had to reduce the number of our Associate Delegates from 7 to 4. That is the reason there were only 4 nominated. These nominations are to be voted for by the Associates in January. I give that simply as a matter of information.

THE SECRETARY: I have this proposed amendment to the Bylaws offered by Dr. DeMund, which I will read:

“Art. VI, new Sec. XI. Any director who shall absent himself from two consecutive regular meetings of the Board without being excused by a majority vote of said Board, shall be deemed to have resigned and shall cease to be a director.

J. E. DE MUND”

DR. DE MUND: I move that be referred to the Rules Committee. I merely report it here in conformity with the by-laws which require it to be read to the meeting and published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary read the following:

New York, December 21, 1909

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg leave to submit the following for your consideration.

That a rule be provided for the registry of all litters whelped, giving date, sire and dam.

That a charge sufficient to cover expense of publishing, giving date, sire and dam.

That no puppy be entitled to enter any competition after January 1, 1911, where said rule has not been observed.

That the number of puppies in litter and sex of them be made a part of the record.

That no foreign born puppies be admitted to competition in the puppy class.

Respectfully submitted for the further consideration of the Committee on Rules.

(Signed) S. S. Leslie, Jr.

Delegate, Duquesne Kennel Club

DR. DeMUND: I move that it be referred to the Committee on Rules.

MR. GILLETTE: May I suggest that there be included in that proposed rule the following: That the American Kennel Club be notified of the deaths.

MR. MORTIMER: I think that is a matter that ought to be discussed here. It seems to me that there are a great many objections to it, and as we have a pretty full meeting of delegates here, this question should be discussed by them now. To my mind it is one of the most absurd propositions that ever was brought before this club. It seems to me an erroneous idea that puppies can be identified from the mere fact that they are registered. If a man wants to be dishonest in this regard he can be so regardless of how much registration might be resorted to. So far as shutting out puppies of foreign breed is concerned, I do not think it is right at all. I should like to hear some discussion on this subject.

MR. LESLIE: As the delegate of the club which makes this recommendation, and as Mr. Mortimer seems to think it is absurd, I want to say that I think it is anything but absurd. To my mind and I think to the minds of a great many people present, puppies are so near the limit or over the limit that there is very little question whether they are puppies at all. This proposed rules was framed to present fraud on the part of men who will do these things. The majority of breeders will not countenance it. Mr. Mortimer would not countenance it. It gives the Kennel Club some check on the puppies that are coming in. As to the matter of our presenting foreign bred puppies from being exhibited in the puppy class, it is for the benefit of the American bred dog, and in order to try to bring it to a better standard than it is to-day. I trust that the Rules Committee will adopt it.

MR. MORTIMER: I want to say that I think it is impossible to make a man honest by legislation. I do not see how the registration of litters of puppies is going to be a safeguard at all, because it is the easiest thing in the world to substitute some other puppy. As I said before, if a man is dishonest, he will continue to be so, it does not make any difference what rules you make, and the fact that Mr. Leslie has seen some puppies which looked like grown dogs is no reason why this rule should be adopted. A puppy is a puppy until he has attained the age of twelve months, although there are many breeds that develop earlier. I do not think the shutting out of foreign bred dogs will add to the interest or to the benefit of dogs in general. We have already shut out the foreign bred dogs from the novice class, and the result is that whereas our novice class, before that rule was passed, was the largest class in the Show, it is now the smallest class. Anybody who has had any experience in superintending shows will know that what I am saying is true.

THE CHAIRMAN: This matter must go before the Rules Committee, and anyone who wishes to make any suggestions may come before that committee, and they will be heard.

MR. LORD: I think it must be referred to the Rules Committee by a vote.

MR. LESLIE: I move that this suggestion be referred to the Rules Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you accept the amendment that has been made in regard to the insertion of deaths?

MR. LESLIE: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gillette, your amendment was that deaths should also be recorded?

MR. GILLETT: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chairman of the Rules Committee is not here to-day, but as one of the Rules Committee, I should also be very glad to have anybody who so desires to come before the Rules Committee, or send anything they like in the form of suggestions to the Committee in writing.

A call for the ayes and nays on the motion resulted in the motion being lost.

DR. DeMUND: I would like to offer an amendment to that last motion. I think the by-laws prescribe that any amendment to the rules may be offered, and must go to the Rules Committee, and then they committee reports back. I do not think this meeting has any power to take the matter out of the hands of the Rules Committee. The delegates can only act on the report of the Rules Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: Your idea is that it goes to the Rules Committee from the mere fact that it has been reported here?

THE SECRETARY: I do not think there is any doubt about that, but at the annual meeting you can vote it down if you please.

MR. LESLIE: Just in the same manner that those other reports were referred to the Rules Committee without the action of this body.

THE SECRETARY: This is simply giving notice at this meeting that this should not go to the Rules Committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: This matter must go to the Rules Committee under the constitution.

MR. MORTIMER: I move that if it goes to the Rules Committee, that the vote that was taken also goes to the Rules Committee.

The Chair then called for a vote on this motion by a showing of hands, which resulted in seven ayes and fourteen nays.

THE SECRETARY: At one of the meetings of the delegates in May last, there was a sub-committee appointed to report upon a bill rendered by Davies, Stone & Auerbach for $1,000 for legal services.

MR. WILLETS: I beg to make a slight correction, that the bill was originally $4,000. After various talks and negotiations with Mr. Auerbach, the bill has been reduced to $1,000.

The Secretary then read the report of the sub-committee referred to.

DR. DeMUND: I move that the report be accepted and placed on file.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Mortimer offered the following amendment to the rules:
Amend Rule 15 of the rules governing clubs by striking out the second paragraph of the rule, and a new rule substituted in the original form.

THE SECRETARY: The object of this amendment is to give them privilege of publishing the name of the owner first.

MR. LESLIE: I move that the amendment be referred to the Committee on Rules.

MR. LORD: I would like to hear an expression of opinion on that.

DR. DeMUND: I do not see the object of an expression of opinion beforehand. The rules Committee cannot adopt a rule. The amendment must be sent back to the delegates, and then is the time to make suggestions before voting upon it. The Committee on Rules merely reports back to this body.

THE CHAIRMAN: They report back to the annual meeting.

MR. MORTIMER: The annual meeting takes place in February. In the meantime, the Westminster Kennel Club will be getting out its catalogue, and I ask the privilege of putting in the names of the owners first. It has been done in that manner for a great many years, and it has been done by every other club in the world.
THE CHAIRMAN: That cannot be done.
MR. MORTIMER: I have sent communications to several of the representatives here, but I do not know what was done in the case. It seems rather a hardship when you are willing to conform to every rule which the American Kennel Club makes, and considering the size of your catalogue, and the fact that you spend $1600 or $1700 for your catalogue, you cannot word it as you please. If any one can show me any benefit accruing from this change I should be very glad to give way.

THE CHAIRMAN: The only think that I can remember as the object which the Rules Committee had in mind when they made this change was to make it clear that it was the dogs that were being exhibited, and not the owner’s.

MR. MORTIMER: I say with equal force now you give the pedigree of the owner instead of the dog. Now you first enter your dog’s name and your stud book number, and then you enter the owner’s name, and then the date of the birth and the sire and dam. It does not show that the date of the birth and the sire and dame belong to the dog. It might naturally follow the owner’s name.

THE CHAIRMAN: This will go before the Rules Committee. I am informed that there is nothing else to come before this meeting, and a motion to adjourn is in order.

MR. MOORE: I move we adjourn.
Motion seconded and carried.
Meeting adjourned.

New York, Dec. 20, 1909

To the Executive Committee

Gentlemen:

I beg report the following cases for your consideration:

J. W. Tasker vs. W. E. Mason Appeal from decision of Trial Board.

Under date of Oct. 26, 1909, Tasker filed an appeal and made the necessary deposit of $25.00. Under date of Nov. 12, 1909, I received the following telegram. “I withdraw charge against Mason please return money.” Tasker.” This was followed by a written request to withdraw the charge and to return the money. To which I replied that I had no authority to do so without official sanction.

New England K. C. & Mrs. A. O. Van Heusen vs. Princess de Montglyon Appeals from decision of Trial Board.
At the last meeting of this Committee Counsel for all the parties in interest were directed to file briefs which order was duly complied with and copies of said briefs were mailed to each member of this Committee. The matter is now ready for final action.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vrendenburgh
Secretary

Tasker vs. Mason:

Appellant applied to withdraw his appeal from the decision of the Trial Board.

Applications for membership were submitted from the Pittsburg Collie Club, Maryland Kennel Club and the Southern Collie Club of Memphis, and having been duly balloted for, they were declared elected.

At this point President August Belmont arrived and took the chair.

Mr. A. C. Wilmerding was elected as a delegates to represent the Santa Cruz County Kennel Club.

The Secretary read the report of the Nominating Committee, as follows:

“New York, January 13, 1910

To the Delegates of American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

The Nominating Committee to name Directors for the class expiring 1910 elected at the meeting of the Delegates on December 21, 1909, beg to report that in conformity with Section III, Article XVIII of the By-laws hereby make the following nominations, to serve in the Directors class for 1915.

Messrs. Dwight Moore, Howard Willets,
MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the Secretary cast one ballot for the election of those gentlemen.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary state that he had cast such ballot for the gentlemen named, and they were declared duly elected.

THE SECRETARY: I submit herewith the Treasurer’s report. It is quite a lengthy document. I have caused galley proofs to be printed and handed to the delegates, and it is for you to say whether or not I shall now read this report to you.

MR. WILLETS: I move that we dispense with the reading of the report, and that it be adopted and spread on the minutes of this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read his report as follows:

“New York, February 14th, 1910.

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly report.

The following clubs have tendered their resignations:
Champlain Kennel Club
Madison Athletic Association
Simsbury Kennel Club
Southern Beagle Club
Southern Kennel Club
Utah State Fair Association

Under Article 16, Section III, the following clubs have ceased to be members of the American Kennel Club for the non-payment of dues for 1910:

Cedarhurst Kennel Club
Chester Kennel Club
Conemaugh Valley Kennel Club
Dayton Kennel Club
Franklin Kennel Club
Japanese Spaniel Club
Mascoutah Kennel Club
San Francisco Kennel Club
The People’s Poultry and Pet Stock Association
Valley Fair Kennel Club
Washington (Pa.) Kennel Club

I will present the certificate of Election for four delegates to represent the Associate Subscribers, the report of the Rules Committee on the matter of three proposed amendments. One approved and two not approved. Said as provided for in the Constitution. The report of the Nominating Committee for Directors of the Class for 1915. The minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of Jan. 6th and Jan. 22nd, 1910.

“Respectfully submitted,

(SIGNED) A. P. VRENDENBURG
Secretary.”
MR. MOORE: I move that it be laid on the table, to be taken up in the regular course of business.

Motion seconded and carried.

The report of the Rules Committee was then read, as follows:

“January 18, 1910

MEETING OF RULES COMMITTEE

Dr. DeMund proposed an amendment to Article VI, new Section XI as referred to the Rules Committee as follows:

“All directors who shall absent himself from two consecutive regular meetings of the Board without being excused by a majority vote of said Board, shall be deemed to have resigned and shall cease to be a director.”

APPROVED BY COMMITTEE

Mr. Leslie’s amendment will not implicate and would not serve in its purpose, and would be an injury to small breeders, is as follows:

1. “Puppies to be eligible for entry in the puppy class must be American bred and the entry blank must show number of litter registrations.
2. All litters eligible for entry to exhibit in the puppy class must be registered within thirty (30) days of birth, the registration blank showing breed of dog, date of birth, marking of litter, sex of litter, sire and name of owner, dam name of owner of stud dog.
3. All litters offered for registration will be subject to the usual rules of the American Kennel Club covering registration.
4. A charge of one ($1.00) dollar will be made for such registration.”

NOT APPROVED BY COMMITTEE.
“Mr. Mortimer’s amendment to Rule XV is as follows:

“Amend Rule XV of the Rules Governing Clubs by striking out the second paragraph of the rule, and a new rule substituted in the original form.

NOT APPROVED BY COMMITTEE

(Signed)  H.H. Hunnewell
   J.E. DeMund
   F.B. Lord, Jr.”

Mr. Hunnewell:

On a point of information I would ask was there not as error in that report as published in the Gazette which was afterwards corrected?

   THE SECRETARY: Yes, it was erroneous as published, but was corrected. The error crept in by poor reading and I had the man who read the proof sign a letter of explanation and apology to everyone of the members of the Rules Committee, and to Mr. Leslie too.

   THE CHAIRMAN: The first proposed amendment is to Article VI, new Section XI. What is your pleasure with regard to that proposed amendment?

   MR. WILLETS: I move that it be adopted.

   Motion seconded.

   THE CHAIRMAN: It is ambiguous in this sense, when shall he be excused. If he has, for instance, absented himself from one meeting and then desires to be excused at the next, and it so happens that he is compelled to be absent from that second meeting, he is without excuse.
MR. HUNNEWELL: The Rules Committee intended that at the second meeting if he was not present he would send in his excuse for not being present. We passed the rule as it was given to us, and that was the presumption, that if he was not present at the second meeting, he would give his excuse, and his excuse would be accepted or not. In other words, if a man was unavoidable absent from the first meeting he would write, saying he was sick or something of that kind. In that event he would be excused, and then he would have two more meetings before him before he could be considered to have resigned in the event that he had not been excused.

THE CHAIRMAN: Still it might happen, and I think when you come to apply the rule that a man might be prevented from attending the second meeting too late even to hand in his excuse. That is his excused would be submitted at the third meeting if he could not present it at the second meeting, and you might lose a very valuable representative.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I think under that ruling, as we intended it, a man might be absent from eight meetings and on giving a proper excuse the directors would grant it. He could say that he could not be present at a certain meeting, and it is for the directors to decide whether or not they choose to keep him on the directorate.
DR. DeMUND: As a member of the Rules Committee I desire to say that our object in proposing this rule was to reach certain directors who have never been present at a meeting and have never shown any interest in our meetings. They will not resign. It is very difficult to get a quorum present. Any director who takes an interest in our meetings and who is prevented from attending them, can send an excuse to the first meeting or to the second meeting. It was not intended to be arbitrary.

MR. HUNNEWELL: For instance, a man might go abroad, and that reason would be considered sufficient.

THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me to be perfectly clear. A director need not necessarily offer the excuse himself. His excuse can be offered through a friend of his who knows that he will be unavoidably absent.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not understand that there is anything that prevents the Board, at the time such a director ceases to be a member of it without being excused from re-electing him. If at the third meeting he presents an excuse it would be perfectly competent for that Board to re-elect him a director.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It is not a question of re-election. He would not be dropped.
THE CHAIRMAN: I think he is dropped. I think it is mandatory.

DR. DE MUND: Without an excuse, it says.

THE CHAIRMAN: It does not make any difference, if his excuse is not offered then and there at the next meeting he is dropped.

Dr. DE MUND: If some member of the Board should move that a director be excused, that would be sufficient.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Supposing one of us should go abroad, and our mail should not be forwarded to us, and we should not receive notice of a meeting of the directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think anyone abroad with this rule in existence would notify the Secretary to request a leave of absence.

THE SECRETARY: It is not necessary for any director to get a notice. The constitution provides that the directors meet on the third Tuesday of every fourth month, and they know it perfectly well.

THE CHAIRMAN: However, the language is mandatory.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The Rules Committee did not mean to be mandatory in any way. Our object was to get rid of certain men who never come to the meetings. They do not give any excuse, and that settle them. The men that take an interest an attend the meetings, if they are absent all they have got to do is to say that they were in Europe or were prevented from attending through some other cause, and their excuse will be accepted.

DR. DE MUND: I must take exception to your statement that it is mandatory. It would be mandatory without that clause in it providing for excuses. The directors may excuse whom they please, so that if a man is excused by a vote of the Board, the Rule does not apply.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Could the Chair suggest anything to make it more satisfactory?

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think there is any danger in it, only I think it is proper that the Board should know what it is doing. You are proposing an amendment here which provides that if a director is absent from two meetings without being excused he ceases to be a member. I do not think there is any harm in pointing it out. When a man ceases to be a member in that way you can reinstate him if you like. I do not think there is any harm in it.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move it be adopted.

Carried.

MR. WILLETS: I move that a copy of this new rule be mailed to each director and be also published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: Now I call your attention to the second proposed amendment and ask your pleasure regarding it. I observe that it is not approve by the committee.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the Committee’s Report be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: I now read you Mr. Mortimer’s proposed amendment to Rule XV. This is not approve by the committee.

MR. MORTIMER: That refers to the wording of the catalogue. There was a rule passed here that instead of the owner’s name coming first in the catalogue, the dog’s name should come first, the stud book number, then the owner’s name, then the date of the birth of the dog, then the sire and dam, and so on. My object in calling for the old method of working the catalogue is because that method has been in existence for some fifty or sixty years nearly.

It is the method that has been adopted and is still used by the English Kennel Club and be the American Kennel Club ever since its inception, and by all other dog clubs in the world so far as I can learn. Furthermore, there is no good reason why it should be changed. I inquired of the Secretary of our club, and he informed me that the change will not facilitate the work of the office in any way at all. I have found from my own experience that putting the dog’s name first caused me double work in the office in checking off the numbers of the dogs; and then again in putting an owner’s dogs together, as is the general request on the part of exhibitors as to dogs of the same breed, as we have done; for instance, an exhibitor has four or five fox terriers entered, he likes to have those fox terrier benched together, not that the numbers should follow consecutively, but that the dogs should be benched together --- I say that I have found that that has doubled the work of the office to do it. Several exhibitors have spoken to me on the subject, and they are all in favor of going aback to the old method. It seems that a change of this kind should be made, if it is, for some good reason, but no one has been able to urge any good reason why the change was made, and for that reason I ask that we return to the original method of wording the catalogue, where the exhibitor’s name comes first, and then the dog, and so forth.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I should like to ask the Secretary’s opinion as to whether it would facilitate the work of the office.

THE SECRETARY: I do not see that it does. It does not facilitate the work of the office. When the New York catalogue was printed it had the name of the dog first in very small type and the owner’s name in capitals, and of course the capitals first strike the eye. I am inclined to believe, however, that if the name of the dog was printed in capitals and the owner’s name in small type, it would obviate in great many mistakes that may be made in tabulating them and in compiling them for the stud book. I would like to say that the stud book for 25 years has been arranged precisely according to the present rule, that is, the name of the dog comes first – then the number and then the name of the owner, and then the particulars regarding the dog.

MR. MORTIMER: The argument of the Secretary is all very well so far as the stud book entry is concerned, because he was looking for a particular dog or a particular number, but we have in our catalogue an index to exhibitors. We refer to the index and we find there the number of Mr. Belmont’s or Mr. Vrendenburgh’s dog. It is much easier to find that when the owner’s name is in the margin of the catalogue. I think you would readily understand that if you saw the catalogue. I am not talking about the little catalogue that is printed by some specialty club, but catalogues printed by the larger clubs because they have a great number of exhibits.

THE CHAIRMAN: I presume the committee thought it was it was an exhibition of the dog and not an exhibition of the owner.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Absolutely that was the idea.

MR. MORTIMER: Is not the exhibitor more important than his dogs?

MR. HUNNEWELL: No, not at a dog show.

MR. MORTIMER: Can there be a dog show without an exhibitor? Think of the absurdity of this thing. The name of the dog comes first, then the stud book number, then the owner’s name, then the date of the birth, and so on. It does not refer to the dog, it refers to the owner.

THE CHAIRMAN: Are you not possibly exaggerating the difficulties which come to you simply because you have been so long in the habit of following that method?

MR. MORTIMER: No, I am not. I am objecting on account of the actual excess of work that it has cause me in my office, and I feel very strongly about it because I am sure that any one here who has had any experience in that kind of work would find that they have double work, double tracking in finding the dogs when they do not know where the owner’s names are. The owner is what you are looking for first, and I say that a method which has been good enough for the English Kennel Club and for ourselves sever since there were dog shows should not be changed unless there I some very good reason for changing it.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The committee, as I remember it, changed it for several reasons. One reason is that horse shows are catalogued in that way. The fact that the English Kennel Club has followed that method for fifty years does not affect the question at all. Horse show catalogues and other catalogues give the name of the horse first, and after all, the dogs are on exhibition, and not the exhibitors. Mr. Vrendenburgh assured us that it would help the office here to a considerable extent in making up their stud book.

MR. MORTIMER: I asked the question of Mr. Vrendenburgh and he assured me that it would not facilitate the work of the office. Another thing, you referred to horse shows. They do not print the pedigrees of the horses in their catalogues.

THE SECRETARY: So far as facilitating the work of the office here is concerned, it does not make really very much difference to us, but I think that with the catalogue we have before us we are less liable to error than we were in the old way.

MR. VAN SCHAICK: Mr. Mortimer’s point is well taken, I think, for the reason that a great many people go to a dog show to see certain people’s dogs, and it is a great deal easier to find them if the owner’s name comes first.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The owner’s name is indexed.

MR. MORTIMER: If this present method is continued I can say now for the information of exhibitors that their dogs will be no longer placed together at the Westminster
Kennel Club, Show, but they will have to follow the regular order of the catalogue, because it is too much work. It took me nearly forty hours to get out a draft of the benching so that the exhibitors' dogs could be put together before their numbers could be put up.

MR. PALMER: In support of Mr. Mortimer's remarks, I desire to say that while at the Westminster Kennel Club Show I came into contact with a great many people who do not go to dog shows very frequently, but occasionally, and they seems to experience any amount of trouble in ascertaining there the dogs were, etc. The average dog man can find his way around, but the novice cannot, and I do not see that the committee has shown us in any degree how what they have adopted is going to benefit us in any way.

The question was then put and resulted in the committee's recommendation being not approved, and the Chairman declared Mr. Mortimer's proposed amendment to Rule XV adopted.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. J. J. Lynn has recently spoken with me in regard ot the situation on the Pacific Coast, which, I believe is not entirely satisfactory. Mr. Lynn seemed to think that the best method was for us to return to the old control exercised from New York. I think our present method is the better one, because it is so far away, and if we have the right men there undoubtedly it is the proper method of conducting business, but I want to suggest that during the coming spring or summer when Mr. Vrendenburgh is at liberty it would be an excellent idea to send him out there to look over the situation. It would be unfortunate if by reason of any confusion that may be growing up there that we would have a secession and would have to pass through all the trouble that we had once before, because Mr. Lynn intimates that there is a movement to establish an independent Pacific Coast Kennel Club. Before acting I want to call your attention to this fact and want to make the suggestion that you authorize Mr. Vrendenburgh sometime during the summer to go and look over the ground so that he can intelligently report on the subject, and then we will be satisfied as to whether the proper method is being following or not.

At this point Mr. Belmont resigned the chair to Mr. Hunnewell.

THE SECRETARY: I have the usual minutes of the meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee of January 6th and January 22nd. It is customary to print these in the Gazette without reading them.

MR. MOORE: I move that they take that course.

Motion seconded and carried.
“REGULAR MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at Metropolis Bank Bldg., San Francisco, January 6, 1910.
Present: H. H. Carlton, Chairman; Dr. W. P. Burnham; W. W. Stettheimer; Nat T. Messer; J. P. Norman, Secretary.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read, and on motion adopted.

The Secretary read a communication from a member of the Committee calling attention to the discrepancy between the entries at the Oakland show, of the Bull Terrier puppies, TAMARACK VICTOR and the BLOOMSBURY TERROR, the dam of the former being given as Tamarack Glory, and of the latter as Venoma Peeress. The breeders being given respectively as W. D. Kant and Mrs. Frank Morris. The two dogs being litter brothers.

The Secretary was by resolution, directed to obtain certain particulars from the alleged breeders, and from Mrs. Witts, the alleged owner of the bitch at the time of serving.

The Secretary read the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, held December 21, 1909, in which it is twice stated by Mr. Mortimer, that the San Francisco Catalog and the awards therein, had been passed by the Pacific Advisory Committee.
With a view to the correction of said minutes, it was Resolved that the Pacific Advisory Committee do hereby respectfully call the attention of the Board of Directors to the fact that this Committee is not, nor has it ever been authorized or qualified to pass upon the awards contained in any certified catalog all inspection of catalogs being performed at the office of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, #1 Liberty Street, New York.

The Secretary read a communication from a member of the Committee, which after due consideration was laid upon the table.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:  J. P. NORMAN
Secretary.”

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at Metropolis Bank Bldg. San Francisco, January, 22, 1910
PRESENT:  H. H. Carlton, Chairman; W. W. Stettheimer, Nat. T. Messer, J. P. Morgan, Secretary.
Absent:  Dr. W. P. Burnham

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
In the matter of the Bull Terrier puppy entries at the Oakland Show of 1909:
It was found on investigation that the puppy TAMARACK VICTOR, #162 in the catalog, awarded second prize in Bull
Terrier Puppies, Dogs, was not bred by W.D. Kant as stated by the owner, J. C. Berry, and it was

Resolved that the attention of the American Kennel Club be and is hereby directed to this error, for which a penalty of $1.00 should be levied; there being no evidence of any interest defraud.

In re application of the Santa Clara Valley P. & P. S. Assn., to be allowed to change the name of said association to San Jose Kennel Club, it was Resolved that the application be granted and the American Kennel Club be notified accordingly.

A communication was laid before the Committee by a member thereof, and after discussion was on motion laid upon the table.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:  J. P. Norman,
         Secretary."

THE SECRETARY:  I submit the resignations of the Champlain Kennel Club, Madison Athletic Association, Simsbury Kennel Club, Southern Beagle Club, Southern Kennel Club, and Utah State Fair Association. These clubs have all paid up to January 1st.

DR. DE MUND:  I move that they be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY:  There are eleven clubs that according to Article XVI, Section III of the constitution or bylaws, which have ceased to be members of the American Kennel Club. They were not dropped. They ceased to be members through not paying their dues to this date. The by-laws say that on the 1st of February if the dues are not paid they shall be suspended, and if their dues are not paid during the annual meeting to be held in February they shall cease to be members.

THE CHAIRMAN: No action is necessary.

THE SECRETARY: Now, that they have ceased to be members of the American Kennel Club, it is not within the power of this Association to reinstate them unless they come in as a new member would with the usual application and entry fee.

MR. MORTIMER: I desire to offer the following resolution: That no puppy or dog under twelve months of age shall be eligible to compete in any class or for any prize competition for which is limited to exhibits no exceeding a certain height or weight. A dog competing in a class where there is a limit of weight or height should be a matured dog. He should be twelve months old or over.

THE CHAIRMAN: You do not apply that the ordinary terrier except the bull or Boston Terrier?
MR. MORTIMER: We apply it where there is a limit of weight. We have in bull terriers and difference other breeds classes that are limited by weight. In beagles dogs are limited by height, and no puppy should be eligible for a class where there is any limit either of weight or height.

MR. CAMPBELL: I think it would be well to take up Mr. Belmont’s suggestion concerning a proposed visit by Mr. Vredenburgh to the Pacific Coast, because if there is any dissension some steps should be taken to end it before the trouble goes any further.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Is not that in the power of the directors only?

THE CHAIRMAN: it is in the power of the directors, but I see no objection to the delegates making any suggestion that they wish in regard to it. As I understand the situation, it is entirely in the power of the directors, and the matter would come before them, but the directors no doubt would be glad to hear anything that the delegates would like to say about it.

MR. CAMPBELL: I move that Mr. Belmont’s remarks in connection with the Pacific Coast Kennel matters be seriously considered by the directors and acted on.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

A. P. Vrendenburgh
Secy
Mr. H. H. Hunnewell in the chair.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

DR. DE MUND: There are two or three vacancies on the Board of Directors at present. Would it not be in order to fill those vacancies before we proceed with the election of the officers?

THE SECRETARY: You can suspend the rule.

THE CHAIRMAN: If there be no objection, the order of business will be suspended and we will proceed to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors.

THE SECRETARY: In the class of 1911, William G. Codman, having ceased to be a delegate, his directorship becomes vacant.

Dr. DE MUND: I nominate Mr. W. L. Barclay in the place of Mr. Codman.

MR. B. S. SMITH: I second the nomination.

MR. OSGOOD: I move that the Secretary cast one ballot for his election.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the chair declared Mr. W. L. Barclay to be elected in the place of Mr. Codman.

THE SECRETARY: The next vacancy is in the class of 1912, George B. Post, Jr., his club having resigned and the same having been accepted at this meeting.

MR. WILLETS: I nominate Mr. M. M. Palmer.

Nomination seconded.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for his election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chairman declared Mr. Palmer elected.

THE SECRETARY: The next vacancy is in the class of 1913, in the place of John G. Bates, whose club has ceased to be a member.

MR. WILLETs: I move that the filling of the vacancy be postponed until the next meeting.

MR. OSGOOD: I place in nomination the name of Dr. Edward W. Dwight. Nomination seconded.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for Dr. Dwight’s election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared him duly elected.

Dr. DE MUND: I should like to state that these gentlemen are only elected for a year. Their places must be filled by nomination and election by the delegates next year.

MR. OSGOOD: I nominate Mr. August Belmont for President of this association.

MR. B. S. SMITH: I second the nomination.

THE CHAIRMAN: There being no further nominations, the secretary will be empowered to cast one ballot for Mr. Belmont’s election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Belmont was declared elected.

MR. BLOODGOOD: For Vice-President I nominate Mr. H. H. Hunnewell. Nomination seconded.
On motion the Secretary was authorized to cast one ballot for Mr. Hunnewell. The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Hunnewell was declared elected.

MR. MOORE: I nominate Mr. H. K. Bloodgood for Second Vice-President. Nominations seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: If there be no further nominations, the Secretary will be instructed to cast one vote for Mr. Bloodgood.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Bloodgood was declared duly elected.

MR. OSGOOD: I nominate Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh as Secretary and Treasurer. Nomination seconded, and by viva voce vote, he was declared duly elected.

STANDING COMMITTEE

DR. DE MUND: I nominate for the Finance Committee, Mr. W. G. Rockefeller, Chairman; Mr. Dwight Moore and Mr. Howard Willets. Nominations seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: There being no further nominations, the Secretary is instructed to cast one vote for the gentlemen named to compose the Finance Committee.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot,
and the gentlemen named were declared duly elected.

Messrs. James W. Appleton, Singleton Van Schiack and W. L. Barclay were re-nominated to succeed themselves as members of the Stud Book Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: There being no further nominations, the Secretary is instructed to cast one ballot for these gentlemen.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the gentlemen named were declared duly elected as members of the Stud Book Committee.

MR. MOORE: I nominate Mr. Edward Brooks, Mr. H. H. Hunnewell, Dr. De Mund, Mr. Winthrop Rutherford and Mr. B. S. Smith as members of the Rules Committee.

Nominations seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: There being no further nominations, the Secretary is authorized to cast one ballot for their election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot and the gentlemen named were duly declared elected members of the Rules Committee.

Messrs. Chetwood Smith, M. M. Palmer, J. W. Appleton, W. G. Rockefeller, and A. G. Hooley were nominated as the Field Trial Committee.

Nominations seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: There being no further nominations, the Secretary is instructed to cast one ballot for these gentlemen.

The Secretary stated that he has cast such ballot, and these gentlemen were duly declared elected members of the Field Trial Committee.

Messrs. Howard Willets, J. E. De Mund, B. S. Smith, J. S. Price, Jr., and George Greer were nominated as members of the Membership Committee.

Nominations seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: There being no further nominations, the Secretary is authorized to cast one ballot for these gentlemen.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and these gentlemen were declared duly elected member of the Membership Committee.

Messrs. Dwight Moore, C. F. R. Drake, George Lauder Jr., R. P. Keasbey and W. L. Barclay were nominated as the members of the Publication Committee.

Nominations seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: There being no further nominations, the Secretary is instructed to cast one ballot for these gentlemen.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the gentlemen named were declared duly elected as the members of the Publication Committee.

Mr. Willets nominated Dr. J. E. De Mund, George Lauder, Jr., Dr. F. H. Osgood as the members of the License Committee.

Nominations seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: There being no further nominations, the Secretary is instructed to cast one ballot for these gentlemen.

The secretary stated that he has cast such ballot, and the gentlemen named were declared duly elected as the members of the License Committee.

THE SECRETARY: There are five members to be elected on the Pacific Advisory Committee, and the agreement entered into between the American Kennel Club and the Pacific Advisory Committee directs that the five members shall be elected at this meeting, one to serve until 1911, one to serve until 1912, one to serve until 1913, one to serve until 1914 and one to serve until 1915, so that each year one of these member’s terms expires.

MR. MOORE: I would like to ask if it is mandatory upon us to fill those vacancies at this meeting according to the constitution. In view of the recommendation that was made by the delegates and the possibility of a visit by the Secretary to the coast, it might be well to postpone action until some future meeting. If that is in order,
I will put it in the form of a motion.

THE CHAIR: That is in order.

MR. MOORE: Then I make that a motion.

DR. DE MUND: I second that motion.

Motion carried.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, February 14th, 1910

To the Board of Directors,

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my quarterly report. The decisions of the Trial Board sitting in New York, at its meeting held January 18th, 1910. The resignation of Ancel H. Ball, as a Director, and as a member of the Field Trial Committee. The resignation of Albion L. Page, as the Delegate of the Scottish Deerhound Club. The resignation of James Mortimer from the Special Committee on the subject relating to the Express Company. Mr. Mortimer tells me to-day that I can withdraw that.

J. W. Tasker, Pontiac, Mich., preferred charges against W. E. Mason, of Liverpool, England. Said charges were tried and investigated by a Trial Board which decided in favor of the defendant. Tasker appealed from such decision to the Executive Committee, and later applied to withdraw his appeal. This request was granted b the Executive Committee which ordered that the deposit of $25.00 be forfeited. Under date of January 14th, Tasker renews his appeal stating that his withdrawal was for the purpose of having his deposit returned. The disposition of this matter is now before you.

At the meeting held December 21st, last, the Merrimack Valley Kennel Club and the officers of said Club were suspended for their failure to pay six special prizes, for which charges had been preferred. Under date of February 4th the said club filed with this office receipts for the payment of said prizes in full, and appeals to you for reinstatement.

The San Francisco Kennel Club and its officers were suspended by the President of the American Kennel Club for conduct prejudicial to its best interest. Said suspension was confirmed by this Board at its meeting held December 21st, and by resolution at said meeting, certain conditions were imposed upon the fulfillment of which the suspension would be removed. Notice of this resolution was sent to the Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club notice of the receipt of which is set forth in a supplemental complaint filed in the Superior Court of the City County of San Francisco, state of California. This supplemental complaint was occasioned by a demurrer by the Pacific Advisory Committee to the original complaint said demurrer being sustained by the Courts. I am advised by wire as follows:

"Feb. 9th, 1910. Injunction suit fought to a finish. Court decision for us demands the resolutions that club withdraw suit not complied with. Await action of Board of Directors."

In connection with this matter, I received a request for the return of the deposit made with the claim for dates for the show for 1909. In reply to which I quote from my letter of January 28th.

"I beg to advise you that it is usual to apply for the return of this deposit through our P. A. C. I will however present your request at the next meeting of the Kennel Club to be held Feb. 15th, 1910."

The following charges have been filed with this office and should be referred to a Trial Board:

Jan. 7th, 10. Robert N. Adams vs. J. S. Bechtold
Jan. 7th, 10. Robert N. Adams vs. Edwin L. Boger
Jan. 28th, 10. H. W. Jacobs and
               T. I. Herren ( ) vs. El Paso Kennel Club
Feb. 8th, 10. Mrs. Ellen Moore vs. Mrs. Nina Proctor and Blue Dragon Kennel

The Pacific Advisory Committee has just forwarded a bill for disbursements from December 27th, 1909 to February 7th, 1910, inclusive, amount to $19.20. The charges appear to be correct and I would recommend payment of same.

Respectfully submitted, A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, February 14th, 1910.

To the Board of Directors,

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the financial statement from January 1st, 1910 to date.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the findings of the Trial Board in the matter of the Appeal of Mrs. C. F. Walters against the Bridgeport Kennel Club, and also in the matter of the Tri-State Fair Association of Memphis. I suppose they should be included in the minutes and published.

January 18, 1910

MEETING OF THE TRIAL BOARD

In the matter of the appeal of Mrs. C. F. Walters against the Bridgeport Kennel Club.

Mrs. C. F. Walters and Mr. Blatz, the Secretary of the Bridgeport Kennel Club were before the Committee.
The Board finds that Mrs. Walters received permission to bring her dogs into the show from Dr. James E. Hair, President of the Club, and a member of the Bench Show Committee, under additional Rule No. 1, of the Club.

It is ordered that the wins of “Bridgeport Professor” be restored, and the decision of the three members of the Bench Show Committee be reserved.

Further that J. M. Avent, Hickory Valley, Tenn. be and hereby is suspended until he can show cause why said suspension should not be removed. Inasmuch as it is alleged he purchased for the sum of $250.00 from the Tri-State Fair Association the exclusive right to hold and conduct a dog show on the fair grounds during the fair, that it is alleged that he with knowledge used the aforesaid copyrighted rules, used the alleged approval signed by the Secretary, the same being used without warrant, thereby inducing entries at said show false representation.

Dr. DeMund moved that the resignation of Albion L. Page, as the delegate of the Scottish Deerhound Club, be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Merrimack Valley Kennel Club appears for reinstatement. They have paid all the claims that were outstanding against them, and the Secretary of the club takes all the onus for the trouble on himself.

MR. OSGOOD: I move that that club be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I report the request of Mr. Tasker to renew his appeal. I would like to state that the case was tried and Mr. Tasker lost. After Mr. W. E. Mason was notified that he had won his case against Tasker, he then sent a Collie to Mr. Tasker as a gift, as he did not want him to be at a loss, but he said he would not do it until the case has been decided, and it being decided in his favor, he felt he was in position to make him the offer, which Mr. Tasker accepted and still has the collie. For that reason Mr. Tasker wanted to withdraw his appeal. This Board granted that permission but forfeited his $25. Now he says in order to save his $25, he wants to renew his appeal.

THE CHAIRMAN: I rule that his appeal is out of order.

MR. MOORE: I move that the Chair appoint Trial Boards to hear these charges.

THE SECRETARY: The San Francisco Kennel Club requests the deposit of $25 for its show last May to be returned. There is no question in my mine that they have sent this request directly here because they insist upon ignoring the existence of our Pacific Advisory Committee. In reply to that I wrote to that club that the usual courses was to apply through the Pacific Advisory Committee, but I would bring it before the meeting of the directors to-day. It is now before you. In this connection I suppose I may as well give you a little history of what is going on there. Mr. Ellery and the San Francisco Kennel Club, through Spriggs and others as officers, obtained a temporary injunction restraining the Pacific Advisory Committee from taking any action in the case; that they desired to investigate the last San Francisco show where there were ten entries that had been tampered with in the official catalogue of the club. The temporary injunction was granted. We made demurrer, and the demurrer was sustained, but leave given to put in a supplemental application. That was decided during this last week, February 10th, in our favor in both cases. I believe that that temporary injunction was granted on the ground that we were a foreign corporation doing business in the State of California without having filed a copy of our articles of incorporation. I caused an attested copy from the State Department at Albany to be sent to the Coast, asking if it was necessary to file it. Our attorneys there said that they declined at present to file these articles because they did not think that it came within the meaning of the act that we should file them. By this decision which has been just handed down by the Judge of the Superior Court there, our contention is probably the correct one. We do not have to file articles of incorporation there. We are not considered by the Court of California as coming under the statute that we are a firm doing business for profit in their state. In connection with this matter we have a bill for professional services in the case of Ellery against the American Kennel Club for $250, and for professional services in the case of L. W. Spriggs and William Ellery, constituting the San Francisco Kennel Club, against the American Kennel Club, also a bill for $250, a total of $500. I received a letter this morning which I now read:

“Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 9, 1910

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary American Kennel Club,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

I have the honor to inform you that a decision was rendered to-day by Judge Sturtevant, of the Superior Court of the County of San Francisco, Cal., in the cases of Ellery and the San Francisco Kennel Club vs. the American Kennel Club, the Pacific Advisory Committee et al.

The decision dissolves the temporary restraining order issues against us, and denies the application for a permanent injunction. In fact, our demurrer was sustained at all points. This confirms my telegram of date:

“A. P. Vredenburgh, Liberty Street, New York.
Injunction suit fought to finish. Court decision for us DeMund resolution Ellery and Club withdraw suit not complied. We await action Board of Directors. J. P. Norman.”

I beg to advise you further that the Pacific Advisory Committee held a special meeting immediately after the promulgation of the decision, and it was resolved that no action could be taken by this Committee in the cases of the American Kennel Club vs. Ellery and vs. the San Francisco Kennel Club, in view of the De Mund resolution ordering Ellery to withdraw his injunction suit, which order has not met with compliance on his part. The Committee therefore, awaits the further pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Yours very truly,

PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, A.K.C.

J. P. NORMAN,
Secretary.

MR. OSGOOD: I move that the matter be laid on the table.

MR. MOORE: Is it in order for me to make a motion that the Chair arrange with the Secretary to investigate this matter on the spot?

MR. CUTLER: I have been somewhat in doubt as to whether a motion ought to be made in the present state of affairs. I suppose there is no question but what the bill of lawyers will have to be paid, but it occurs to me, and it has been discussed somewhat informally before the meeting that some resolution ought to be passed which would require such condition precedent to the reinstatement of Mr. Ellery and the San Francisco Kennel Club that they should reimbursement the club for the expense of the litigation. Therefore I will move that the bill of Messrs. Ackerman & Oppenheim be approved and paid.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CUTLER: I move that the First Vice-President, Mr. H. H. Hunnewell and the Secretary be constituted a committee to investigate this whole matter; that this matter be referred to them and that they be required to report at the next meeting; and that further consideration of this matter be postponed until the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

MR. MORTIMER: I second the motion.

Motion carried.

MR. MOORE: I move that the application of the San Francisco Kennel Club for the return of its deposit fee of $25, be sent to the Pacific Advisory Committee for action.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CUTLER: I move that it is the sense of this Board that whenever any person or club shall begin suite or commence any litigation against the American Kennel Club before having exhausted the remedies provided by the American Kennel Club, the same shall be deemed conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club within the meaning of Rule XXII of the rules governing clubs, and misconduct in connection with dogs, dog shows and field trials within the meaning of Rule XXIII of the American Kennel Club rules Governing Dog Shows.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I second the motion.

Motion carried.

On motion, the bill for disbursements by the Pacific Advisory Committee amounting to the $19.20 incurred during the period from December 27th to February 7th, was ordered paid.

MR. MOORE: That raises a question which I think we ought to consider, that they lawyers' fee should be paid by the Pacific Advisory Committee, and the cost of the litigation included in the conduct of their office, and not of the American Kennel Club. Therefore, I move that our Treasurer should provide them with the funds with which to meet that expense, so that it is in their expenses, and not expenses of New York.

Seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The following named clubs were elected to membership: Washington Kennel Club, Dandie Dinmont Terrier Club and St. Claire Kennel Club of Detroit.

The following named gentlemen were elected as delegates to represent the following named clubs:

- California Airedale Terrier Club, G. A. Wertheim;
- Golden Gate Kennel Club, M. Mobray Palmer;
- Western Fox Terrier Breeders’ Association, John G. Bates;
- French Bulldog Club of America, O. F. Vedder;
- Greyhound Club of America, Edward H. Carl
- Irish Setter Club of America, R. Walter Cruezbauer;
- Old English Sheepdog Club, Tyler Morse.
The Secretary read his report as follows:

“To the Delegate of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since the last meeting, I have received five applications for active membership, and nine credentials for delegates to represent active members.

These applications and credentials have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report on same at this meeting.

Proposed amendments by James Mortimer, and the Pacific Advisory Committee, together with a request from said Committee for an interpretation of the third paragraph of RULE V., of Rules Governing Clubs have been referred to the Rules Committee, which will report at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary.”

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows: “The proposed amendment offered by Mr. James Mortimer “That no puppy under twelve months of age shall be eligible to compete in any class where there is a certain stated weight or height limit.” Approved by the Committee.
“Your Committee has been requested to interpret the third section of Rule V, Rules Governing Clubs, which reads as follows: ‘Clubs which have not held a show during the year 1908, or prior to September 1, 1909, desiring to hold a show within twenty-five miles of a place where a show has been held during that year or the year previous, must obtain the consent of the older club before the application would be approved.’ Your Committee interprets the word ‘older’ in the clause above quoted, means ‘oldest.’ In this interpretation the License Committee concurs, upon the ground that that was its meaning when it framed the rule.

“The resolution of the Pacific Advisory Committee, which reads as follows: ‘That every club in good standing in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee shall, between January 1st to 15th of each year, send its President, Secretary or Chairman of its Bench Show Committee, to a meeting with the Advisory Committee in San Francisco, and shall then by a majority of votes determine on the name to be sent to the Board of Directors to be appointed to the vacancy on the Committee.

“That between June 1st and 15th of each year, the same officials shall meet and determine on the legislation or measures necessary to be enacted either by the Committee or for recommendation to the American Kennel Club.
“That the position of Secretary of the Committee be made a paid one, and that said Secretary shall have no vote.”

“The above a rule is recommended by your Committee.

(Signed)

H. H. HUNNEWELL
J. E. DEMUND
B. S. SMITH.”

MR. MOORE: I would like to have those two matters referred to in the report of the Rules Committee taken up separately.

THE CHAIRMAN: The first matter that comes up for your consideration is the proposed amendment offered by Mr. James Mortimer which is: “That no puppy under twelve months of age shall be eligible to compete in any class where there is a certain stated weight or height limit.”

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: In Beagles there is a limit of fifteen inches in height. Does this mean that Beagle puppies are not eligible for the winners’ class?

THE SECRETARY: No, not at all.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: Why can he not compete in the fifteen inch class if there is such a class?

MR. MOORE: He cannot.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: If I have a puppy under fifteen inches in height, and it cannot be shown under this proposed amendment, is he eligible for the winner’s class?

MR. RUTHERFURD: Yes, I think so.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: Why is he not eligible for a limit class for fifteen inches and under?

MR. RUTHERFORD: Not if all Beagles are specified to be fifteen inches and under.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: It says, height or weight. Last year at the New York Show there were a number of puppies which were not allowed to compete in the open class for dogs fifteen inches and under in height.

MR. MOORE: I notice that the representative of the Boston Terrier Club is now here, and I would like to bring up the question as to how it would affect Terriers. They are divided into three classes of weight, and I think that most of the show giving clubs who are members here, would consider that it would curtail their entries very seriously. I think it would work a great hardship on show giving clubs. It will reduce their number of entries because the Boston Terrier cannot go into that weight class, and it will also be a considerable hardship on the exhibitor.

DR. OSGOOD: I move that it be accepted as proposed by the Rules Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question of weight was one which we went into here this morning.
MR. RUTHERFORD: The Bull Terrier puppy may weigh twenty-five pounds, and when he is grown he may weigh sixty pounds, and if he is evidently unfair that that puppy should compete in a thirty pound class. That question came up at the New York Show last year, and a protest was entered. We could not allow the protest because there was no rule covering it.

MR. MOORE: The same principle applies in pugilistic circles. If a man is at a certain weight and fights in a certain class, and two years later he puts on weight and goes into another class, it has no effect; he goes into a heavier class.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It does not mean that he always has to remain in that class.

MR. MOORE: That will deprive a puppy of the opportunity to win in a weight class under the rule.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think the only breed which this word “height” refers to is Beagles. I do not think there is any other breed which is restricted as to height. I would like to ask the Secretary for information about that.

THE SECRETARY: I do not know of any other breed which is so restricted.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think it would work very adversely in Beagles because it would prevent your entering puppies in any other class except the puppy class, and if that is the intention I think that might be treated in that way, that puppies are only eligible for puppy classes and not for any of the other classes.

THE CHAIRMAN: The only way we looked at it was this, that a puppy twelve months old is not fully grown either in height or weight, and that is the reason we though it was unfair competition.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I would like to offer an amendment to that, that the class in relation to height be stricken out, as it refers only to Beagles and does not affect any other breed.

Amendment seconded.

DR. OSGOOD: I accept the amendment, because there is only one breed affected as to height.

MR. MOORE: I ask why you make any exception. If it is a fair rule it ought to include every dog without exception. I should like to except the Bulldogs and Boston Terriers and Bull Terriers. A rule is a rule.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think this is a little bit different. I am not making any exception. I am striking out height.

MR. MOORE: And I am striking out weight.

Amendment to proposed amendment striking out the limitations of height and weight carried.

MR. BAILEY: Would that affect Cocker Spaniels where the premium list calls for weight or height, that is, a weight of 18 or 24 pounds?

THE CHAIRMAN: No, it would not apply to them.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Where is this weight to be stated, in the prize list, or in the club list or in the standard weight of breeds?

THE CHAIRMAN: In the premium list.

The proposed amendment as read was then put to vote and lost.

THE CHAIRMAN: The next paragraph in the report of the Rules Committee is the interpretation of Rule V of the Rules Governing Dogs.

DR. DeMUND: I move that that be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the report of the Rules Committee as amended was adopted.

THE SECRETARY: I would state for the information of the delegates that the Gazette under date of April 30th, contains a full report of the Special Committee which was sent out to the Pacific Coast two minutes ago. I cannot report anything further in regard to that at this time.

MR. MOORE: I move that the report of the Special Committee as published in the Gazette of April 30th, be approved by the delegates, and that a copy of a resolution be forwarded to the Board of Directors.

   DR. DeMUND: I second the motion.

   Carried.

   On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary’s report was read as follows:

“To the Executive Committee:

Gentlemen:

Webber vs. Brown

In the above case the Trial Board sitting in New York found in favor or Webber. Brown appealed and by resolution of your Committee, a meeting was arranged with Webber, Brown and Mason, and Webber was directed to produce the dog in question, at Madison Sq. Garden in Feb. last. New evident being produced at said meeting the matter was referred back to the Trial Board, which reports that said Board re-affirms its former decision and returns the case to this Committee to render its final decision on this appeal.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH,
Secretary.”

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, Held at its Offices, No. 1 Liberty Street, New York City,
May 17th, 1910

Mr. H. H. Hunnewell in the chair.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. Edward Brooks has resigned as the delegate to represent the New England Kennel Club. This causes a vacancy on our Executive Committee, our Rules Committee and our Board of Directors.

MR. WILLETS: I move that the vacancies caused by the withdrawal of Mr. Brooks as delegates of the New England Kennel Club be not filled at this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: there is a vacancy in the class of 1912, Mr. Richard H. Hunt. His successor as delegate has been appointed.

MR. MOORE: I nominate Mr. Andrew Albright.

Nominate seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There is a vacancy also in the class of 1915. The Mascoutah Kennel Club has ceased to be a member of this club, and its delegate, Mr. C. F. R.
Drake cannot therefore act.

DR. DeMUND: I nominate Mr. A. C. Wilmerding to fill that vacancy.
Nomination seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: There is a vacancy on the Publication Committee caused by the withdrawal of Mr. C. F. R. Drake.

DR. DeMUND: I nominate Mr. A. C. Wilmerding to fill that vacancy.

“SPECIAL MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, February 8, 1910.

Present:  H. H. Carlton, Chairman; Dr. W. P. Burnham; W. W. Stettheimer; Nat T.
          Messer; J. P. Norman, Secretary

    On motion the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was postponed to the next meeting.

    The Chair stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of communicating to the Committee the fact that the Honorable Judge Sturtevant of the Superior Court of San Francisco, had sustained the demurrer offered by the attorneys for the Committee, and had denied the application for permanent injunction sued for by the San Francisco Kennel Club and by William Ellery, and for the further purpose of considering the cases of the American Kennel Club vs. the parties named.

    The Committee being barred by the De Mund resolution from proceeding with the trial of the San Francisco Kennel Club and of William Ellery.

    It was resolved that a telegram be dispatched at once to the American Kennel Club, acquainting them with the decision of the Court, and asking for further instructions in the matter.
MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE:
Metropolis Bank Building, San Francisco, March 5, 1910

The minutes of the meeting of January 22\textsuperscript{nd} and of the meeting of February 8\textsuperscript{th} were read and approved.

The resignation of the UTAH STATE FAIR ASSOCIATION was read and accepted.

The Secretary read a letter from W. E. Chute to the American Kennel Club respecting a discrepancy in the date of birth of the Collie Valverde Virgil as shown at San Francisco and at Oakland, and a reply to said letter from the Secretary of the A. K. C. referring the matter to this Committee for investigation. On motion the communications were laid on the table until after the pending visit of Messrs. Hunnewell and Vredenburgh.

In the matter of the cancellation of the win of the French Bulldog Halcyon Alexandre, entered in the open class at Oakland, and catalogued in limit class by error of the Oakland Kennel Club, it was resolved that the matter be laid on the table until the next meeting.

The Secretary notified the Committee that he had received a check for the deposit of the San Francisco Kennel Club for its 1909 show, with instructions form the Secretary of the A.K.C. to return said deposit, and that he had complied with said instructions.

The Secretary read a communication from the secretary of the A.K.C. advising that the Vice-President and Secretary of the American Kennel Club would be in San Francisco on March 17th and 18th.

It was resolved that a meeting of the Committee be held on March 17th at the Palace Hotel at 1 p.m., and that Messrs. Hunnewell and Vredenburgh be invited to attend.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned to the date named.

Metropolis Bank, San Francisco, April 9, 1910.
Present:  H. H. Carlton, Chairman; J. P. Norman; W. W. Stettheimer; N. T. Messer.
Absent:  Dr. W. P. Burnham

The minutes of March 5th, March 17th, and March 19th were read and approved.

The Secretary read the following report:

SECRETARY’S REPORT
“Pacific Advisory Committee:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last meeting, two mail votes have been taken, as a result of which, a license has been granted to the SPOKANE KENNEL CLUB to hold a show on October 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 1910.

TACOMA KENNEL CLUB to hold a show on April 21, 22, 23, 1910.

and THE GOLDEN GATE KENNEL CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO has been admitted to membership in the American Kennel Club.

In addition to the foregoing, I have approved dates for the following clubs:

PORTLAND KENNEL CLUB, April 27-30
GOLDEN DATE KENNEL CLUB, May 4, 5, 6, 7
SEATTLE KENNEL CLUB May 4, 5, 6

I lay before you the application of the SEATTLE DOG FANCIERS ASSOCIATION for license to change their name to SEATTLE KENNEL CLUB. Anticipating your favorite action in this matter, I have approved the dates for their show under the new name, and would like your confirmation of my action.

In accordance with your resolution, calling for papers in the matter of the cancellation of the win of the French Bulldog, Halcyon Alexandre, at the Oakland Show, I beg to lay them before you, with the advice that the said win has been restored by the A.K.C.
I have a communication from the Secretary of the A.K.C. directing me to return to the San Francisco on March 19th to cover the club’s 1910 dues. The money has been refused, as the San Francisco Kennel Club ceased to be a member of the A.K.C. on February 15th by reason of failure to pay the dues before that date. I have returned the said money order to Dr. L. W. Spriggs per registered letter.

(Signed) J. P. Norman
Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted.

It was moved that the application of the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association to change the name of the club to “Seattle Kennel Club” be approved, and that the action of the secretary of this Committee approving dates and premium list under that name be hereby confirmed. Seconded and carried.

In the matter of the cancellation of the win of the French Bulldog Halcyon Alexandre, now restored, it was resolved that the papers be ordered filed.

It was moved that copies of Mr. Stettheimer’s resolution, passed on March 19th, be sent to various clubs in this jurisdiction, asking for their approval.

After discussion of matters of general interest, the meeting adjourned.

St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, April 19, 1910

PRESENT:  W. W. Stettheimer; Nat. T. Messer; J. P. Norman;

ABSENT:  H. H. Carlton; Dr. W. P. Burnham.

It was resolved that the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting be postponed.

The Secretary presented an application for membership from the Ladies Kennel Club of California

On motion the application was approved.

The Secretary submitted a copy of a communication from the Oakland Kennel Club to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, purporting to be a protest against the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee, in granting dates for a show to the Golden Gate Kennel Club of San Francisco.

It was moved and seconded that the said communication to the American Kennel Club was contrary to the rule, that all communications from clubs in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee should be addressed to said Committee and that consequently the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club be requested to return to this Committee for consideration and action, the said communication from the Oakland Kennel Club, and that the secretary of this Committee be and is instructed to convey this resolution to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club. CARRIED.

Moved that the original endorsements of above members of American Kennel Club be forwarded to the secretary thereof for the meeting on third Tuesday in May. Seconded and carried.

The application for membership of the California Airedale Terrier club was submitted to the Committee. The Secretary stated that the same was in conformity with the rules, and that the constitution of said club contained a clause that the club would adhere to the standard laid down by the Airedale Terrier Club of America.

It was resolved that the application be granted and that the California Airedale Terrier Club be elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary presented an application from S. A. Cummings for reinstatement to good standing. In view of the fact that the said Cummings had been disqualified for assault committed in the precincts of an American Kennel Club show and for the use of foul and indecent language threat, it was resolved that said application be rejected.
The secretary presented an application from Horace G. Lepman for reinstatement to good standing, Said Lepman had been disqualified after having been suspended pending return of the money, which had been paid after the expiration of the suspension.

The secretary stated that Lepman had wired him on March 18, asking for reinstatement and requesting a reply to Jefferson Hotel, St. Louis. The reply had been sent to the address mentioned, but the Telegraph Company had not been able to deliver it, as Lepman was not there. The American Kennel Club had consequently been called on to pay the charges on the telegram.

It was resolved that consideration of Lepman’s petition be postponed until the next meeting, and that the papers in the case be submitted for further consideration.

It was moved that it is the sense of this Committee that the “twenty-five mile” clause in Rule V of the Rules Governing Clubs Is not intended to apply to show-giving towns, where a new club takes the place of an old one, of which the membership has lapsed, and that the Secretary of this Committee is instructed to convey this interpretation to the Rules Committee of the American Kennel Club.
with the request that it pass on this and approve or disapprove of same. Seconded and carried.

It was resolved that the secretary be instructed to notify all members of the American Kennel Club in good standing in the jurisdiction of this Committee, that the semi-annual meeting of Club representatives will take place on Saturday, June 4th, at 1 p.m., at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, and that all clubs are requested to send to the Secretary the names of the official that will represent them.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:

J. P. Norman
Secretary

At this point Mr. H. H. Hunnewell resigned the chair to Mr. H. K. Bloodgood.

THE SECRETARY: The report of the Special Committee on Pacific Coast matters is printed in full in the Gazette of April 30th, and in my report to-day I state that I will read out personal impressions if this Board desires to hear them.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think inasmuch as Mr. Hunnewell and Mr. Vrendenburgh went out there it would be very interesting to hear what they have to say on the subject.

The Secretary then read the committee’s personal impressions, as follows:

Gentlemen:

In our report we have stated what happened on the Coast. My personal deductions and opinions on the various matters discussed, as referred to in our report, are as follows:

To begin with, I wish to state that the general courtesy and hospitality we received was most complimentary and gratifying. Our representatives, the Pacific Advisory Committee, appeared to me to be a very intelligent, capable, honest and most conscientious body, doing their work with a thorough knowledge of the rules in an efficient manner. The support we received from those loyal to the American Kennel Club and the Pacific Advisory Committee, was sincere, strong and gratifying; but there are a number there, who, though loyal to the American Kennel Club, object to the Pacific Advisory Committee, as well as a very small number, who, I am afraid, would object to anything and everything which did not coincide with their own views.

In my opinion, the various troubles most apparent are largely due to the ignorance of our rules and to the rights they are entitled to and posses – a conduction most deplorable and which is responsible for the lack of interest they take in keeping in touch with their delegates in New York and in directing them what to do; and, to a certain extent due to a strong personal element antagonistic to the Pacific Advisory Committee, principally as to its system of election, and, in a few instances, to its personnel – I will refer to this later.

The general feeling seemed to be not antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, believing, as they said, that they would get fair play from the home body. As to an antagonistic club being formed as a rival to the American Kennel Club, there was no real evidence of it, and, if such is the case, it is known to but very few. The abolishment of the Pacific Advisory Committee was never advocated, except that a few said that if things were to go on as they were at present, they would personally deal directly with No. 1 Liberty Street.

This brings us to the Pacific Advisory Committee referred to above. A large number of those whom we heard insist on a direct say in the election of their committee, a right to be represented, and to abolish of their committee, a right to be represented, and to abolish the system of self perpetuity, which they claim exists now. Some of them seem to feel that they cannot get a fair deal – why, I fail to see. No valid reasons are given for such a feeling, but a personal surmise only that such and such a thing would happen, because they knew it would. We told them that they had a right to their delegates in New York; to propose whom they wanted to the directors, who are bound to listen to them – but they will not see it that way. The present system of electing one man a year seems too slow for them; they want to elect a new committee immediately – a fact we showed them was impossible without changing the Constitution, and, undoubtedly, would be most inadvisable. The fact that they system they advocated was tried years ago and failed, in my opinion has nothing to so with the case.
Conditions have undoubtedly changed, and I think they are entitled to a try with what, in my mind, they have a right to have. I explained to them that it would be impossible for us---anxious as we were to please them and help them along – to legislate differently for one section of the country from that of any other, the best for all being our predominante idea.

In view of these facts, I heartily support the resolutions and suggestions made by the Pacific Advisory Committee, which give them a voice in selecting their nominees to be presented to the directors for election, as I think they are distinctly entitled to a voice in electing the body that governs them. As to the other causes, they were so little referred to and so seldom mentioned in their discussions, and, to my mind, impracticable and inadvisable for many reasons, that I do not recommend them.

Now I am coming to the personal element, which is the most difficult problem to deal with. There is no doubt that there are two factions at war; that, you can see for yourselves in the resolutions offered. The outside breeder and exhibitor is suffering thereby, being between them both and must put up with whatever happens. There is no doubt but that the suspension of Ellery, owing to the injunction, has brought matters to a head. I can say, without betraying any confidential conversation, that one element is dissatisfied with the suspension, owing to the fact that, as you all know, the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee did not answer the San Francisco Kennel Club’s letter as to a place and date of meeting. The injunction was made for the reason that they Pacific Advisory Committee could hold a meeting without representation, an entirely untenable position, as it was against the Rules of the American Kennel Club that such a thing could happen. Ignorance of the Rules is no excuse, and when one member of a corporation sues another or the whole corporation, they should at least know the Constitution and By-laws before doing so. The result is, that owing to the want of courtesy at most and an unintentional omission and nothing more, and for the reasons stated in their report on the part of the Pacific Advisory Committee, an unfortunately injunction is put on the whole American Kennel Club. This, in my opinion, is distinctly prejudicial to the interests of the American Kennel Club, in view of the fact that all the resources in the power of the members of the American Kennel Club were not exhausted before such action was taken. The error of the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, having no possible evil results to any one except the want of courtesy, was no excuse for such injunction, and is due to the want of the knowledge of the Rules, which would clearly have stated that their surmise was impossible.

It was clearly pointed out by me that the suspension was not instigated by the Pacific Advisory Committee; that it was done by our President with the full knowledge and consent of the 1st and 2nd Vice Presidents and in accordance with our rules; and that we could make no exception in this case, but that every one under the same circumstances would have been treated likewise. I also stated that the parties concerned were given the opportunity by the President of the American Kennel Club to fulfill certain conditions or take the consequences; the conditions to date have not been complied with. The Board of Directors held the question in abeyance and took no action on our President’s proclamation.

In this case, gentlemen, I do not care to recommend anything other than what I have said, but I have simply stated the facts as they have impressed me. As to those conditions not pertaining to this personal matter, I am heartily in support of giving the Coast the right to elect their own governing body, and think that in the near future there will be perfect harmony between us all, for there certainly should be, as there are many enthusiastic breeders there who should be encouraged and helped to the best of our power. The best results will be obtained through a perfect harmony and feeling that all, whomsoever the may be, are treated alike; no favoritism nor antagonism. I close my personal opinions with thanks to one and all on the Coast for the courtesy and hospitality I received, and wish I could have the pleasure of going out there yearly to talk over dog matters.

Respectfully submitted,

H. H. Hunnewell,
Member of Committee

I concur,

A. P. Vredenburgh
MR. WILLETS: I move that the Board of Directors concur in the remarks of Mr. Hunnewell as read.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that a vote of thanks of the club be tendered to Messrs. Hunnewell and Vredenburgh, composing this committee on Pacific Coasts matters, for their interest and efforts and the very thorough manner in which they have handled this matter.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: Mr. Hunnewell called attention to the error in Mr. Cutler's resolution passed at the February meeting. As I took part in that discussion, I would like to state that it is my distinct recollection, I would like to state that it is my distinct recollection that the purpose of the resolution was to authorize the Vice-President and Secretary to investigate the general condition of affairs on the Pacific Coasts within the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

DR. DeMUND: I move to rescind my resolution passed at the December meeting in regard to Mr. William Ellery and the San Francisco Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

DR. DeMUND: I move that on the submission by the officers of the late San Francisco Kennel Club of their case to the Pacific Advisory Committee, and on the payment by them of $250, being one-half of the cost of legal services in connection with the injunction suit brought by them against this club, their suspension be removed.

Motion seconded and carried unanimously.

DR. DeMUND: I move that on the submission by Mr. William Ellery of his case to the Pacific Advisory Committee, and on the payment by him of $250, being one-half of the costs of legal expense in connection with the injunction suit brought by him against this club, his suspension be removed.

Motion seconded and carried unanimously.

At this point Mr. H. H. Hunnewell resumes the chair.

THE SECRETARY: I submit a protest from the Oakland Kennel Club.

MR. MOORE: I move that it be referred to the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I also submit a communication from the Bulldog Breeders’ Association, requesting the use of the American Kennel Club rules.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I move that inasmuch as the Bulldog Club of America has objected to the Bulldog Breeders’ Association holding a licensed show, and as our rules are copyrighted, we could not allow them to use our rules, but should said association hold a show which did not conflict with any of our rules, the same would not be considered as antagonistic to the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bill for disbursements by the Pacific Advisory Committee from February 9th to May 7th inclusive, amounting to $64.85, was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: I now present the resignation of Mr. James Mortimer as chairman of the Special Committee on Express matters.

It was moved and seconded that said resignation be accepted.

Carried.

Mr. R. P. Keasbey was nominated to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Mortimer’s resignation.

Nomination seconded and carried.

The Secretary read a communication from Dr. J. E. DeMund, asking that a full investigation be made in connection with an article published in the Canadian Kennel Gazette and copies in a local dog paper, reflecting on his integrity.

On motion the matter was referred to the Trial Board for investigation.

THE SECRETARY: I submit an appeal by Thornton O.
Crown against the Washington Kennel Club. He made a protest because his dog did not get a certain prize, and the protest was not sustained. Therefore he has appealed to the American Kennel Club.

On motion the matter was referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board.

On motion, the matters of Miss Lillian Webster vs. Senn Senn Kennls and John Newman vs. Miss Ella Van Benthuyzen were referred to the New York Trial Board.

On motion the charges filed by A. J. S. Edwards vs. F. S. Sternberg were referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board.

On motion the charges preferred by S. C. Spaudling and Mrs. L. L. Banham vs. Louisville Poultry & Pet Stock Association for unpaid prizes were referred to the New York Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: The La Crosse Kennel Club held a license show in September and October of last year, and has failed to send to this club the listing fees, amounting to $22.00, although due notice has been given it of such indebtedness.

MR. WILLETS: I move that said club be given thirty days in which to pay this amount, in default of which they be disqualified.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion Mrs. E. W. Throckmorton, Mr. F> H. Farwell and Dr. L. Knox were tendered a vote of thanks for their kindness in presenting the club with framed pictures and medallion.

MR. WILLETS: As Chairman of the Special Committee appointed in connection with the bull of Mr. Auerbach for legal services, I desire to report that I submitted the list given me by Mr. Vredenburgh to several lawyers, and I have also discussed the matter with Mr. George Taylor, and it seemed to be the consensus of opinion that if we paid $750 for the services that were rendered we would be quite right in the matter. The Committee suggests that this proposition be submitted to Mr. Belmont for his consideration. We also request to be discharged.

MR. APPLETON: I move that the report of the Committee be accepted and the committee discharged, and that the matter be submitted to Mr. Belmont.

Motion seconded and carried.

DR. DeMUND: On behalf of the Rules Committee, I present the following resolution: That the Secretary be authorized to refer cases for trial direct to the Trial Boards at his discretion, thereby avoiding the delay necessitated by waiting to have these cases first reported at the regular meetings of the Directors.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

         John E. De Mund
         Rowland P. Keasbey
         Andrew Albright, Jr.
         Hollis H. Hunnewell
         William G. Rockefeller
         Winthrop Rutherfurd

On motion the Board went into executive session.

THE CHAIRMAN: I thought it my duty to call you together as soon as possible to acquaint you with a situation with which you are probably already familiar to a very great extent, and to discuss with you what steps should be taken with regard to certain events happening on the Pacific Coast at the present time, as to whether the officers or any of your committee would be justified in defending suits brought against the Club, and take any action that you might desire for the protection of the Association. I do not know that that will be necessary. As you are aware, there has long been in the West at one time and another a desire to establish an independent organization. Once before it took form because we were administering kennel affairs, and it was not possible for us as a club to give close consideration to all the minor details of kennel matters in the West, and to meet that situation a committee of this club was appointed to look after Pacific Coast kennel affairs. It appears that that committee, in the exercise of its functions, disciplined a certain man for irregularities. Their action in that respect was under our rules, and so far as I can judge, correctly taken, but the discipline happened to fall upon a man who had not only a very large interest in dogs, but a very great following. Since his suspension he has gathered together all the dog men that he could, and by supplying plenty of means and having a press agency, he has made certain headway. Just what that headway is it is difficult to judge. A regular association has been formed which is called the National Dog Breeders Association, and it was organized on the lines of the American Kennel Club itself, having an association membership and a representation just as we have. It is practically modeled upon our club. The men composing this organization desire to substitute their association for the American Kennel Club. They give their associate members a right to a stud book. There is a letter here from the Secretary which shows you what they propose to do. The National Breeders Dog Association was organized under date of August 30th, 1910. You see of course that they mean business. What they desire to do is to control certain newspapers, when I say “they”, it is really boiled down to one man, who supplies the money. This man is William Ellery. It is a of course very easy to excite prejudice against the American Kennel Club through the newspapers just as it is against any established body, no matter what it is. The man that has been disciplined can always claim he was treated unfairly, because that is very natural. It is exactly like horse racing. There is no possible way of reaching those men under the law. You can send them to jail if they do anything wrong or steal, or anything of that kind, but the only thing that can be done by an association is to deprive them of the privilege of that association and everything connected with it, and the moment you do that you naturally destroy the value of a man’s property. That is practically the reason why the punishment that we impose is so drastic in the American Kennel Club. If it is only the individual that you punish, if you only deprive him of a privilege, very often he will run the risk, but if you go on beyond that and make the property which he has used in connection with this fraud valueless, then you really reach him. It has been found for the last one hundred years on the turf that you never could do anything to a man unless you destroyed his property. It is so in England and it is so here. The moment a man commits a fraud you not only deprive him of the privilege of joining in the sport, but you rule that every single horse that he owns is deprived of the right to race, and what we do here is to deprive a man also of his right of being recognized at shows, and that affects the value of his property, and on the strength of that you know they have raised a great hue and cry against us because this man Ellery was disciplined. He had at the time dogs that represented a value of at least $10,000, and the moment their wins could not be recognized of course it hurt them commercially, and under that plea he begun suits--- not himself, but through somebody back of him—a suit under the Sherman act, by which he claims that the value of his property has been destroyed in restraint of trade. I have not yet had an opportunity to consult about it, but it is so nearly on the line of what we have on the turf that I think there is no merit in it at all. You do not interfere with his business so far as that is concerned, and there is no monopoly. You are not doing it for that purpose of preventing any competition, or anything like that. You are simply taking away from him a privilege as a member or an organization. I do not think that amounts to anything. The serious part of it is the advertisement it gives him under the Sherman act. It is the kind of talk that carried very far just at the present time, and people not familiar with the facts may think that we have attempted to exclude from our field people who want to compete with us. That seems to be the idea, but this agitation was really brought about by a disgruntled man who has the means of creating a counter movement b which he can control the question of discipline, and knowing that his action in connection with that is such that he can very likely get reinstated. I don't know whether he can or whether he cannot. That is a matter for the committee; they are to be judge of the character of his offense. But he came up and appealed, didn’t he?

THE SECRETARY: No, he never appealed; he went to court instead of appealing. He had a right to appeal to the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIRMAN: The serious feature of it is, what might it ultimately grow into. A number of years ago when the field trials were going on Mr. Frank Hitchcock, who was one of our active members, and Mr. Duryea and Mr. Terry---there were a great many field trial owners that were personally connected with the American Kennel Club, and we never took any active steps to concern ourselves with regard to it. They wanted us to take hold of it, and I remember that at that time there was a feeling that it would complicate matters. I think it is only the Beagle Club that has brought us into active touch. That is probably the most energetic organization we have had, but as the American Field was more in touch with the field of sport than dog shows, they were able to start the nucleus of what has now grown into a pretty substantial register of dogs, known as the Field Stud Book.

THE SECRETARY: It has 22,000 registered up to date.

THE CHAIRMAN: And I should think they register about 40 per cent of the number we register. That is in Chicago, an active center, and has taken a hostile attitude—and by the way I hope that you will treat the matters that we are discussing here as strictly in confidence, because if you have really a desire to win this fight, if it comes to that, or take any course of procedure, nothing can hurt you so much as a disclosure of any of your intentions with it than to have this question come out in the newspapers, because you would be abused, and to make a proper defence you would want to be so organized as to be effective to do this or that until we know precisely what we are going to do. The Field Stud Book is an entity and can be made the nucleus of serious opposition. I suppose you are all familiar with the history of the club in Boston which was at one time our competitor, and which has a register here with the Forest & Stream, and we were registered with the American Field, and both those registers belonged to independent journals, and if they had taken the register of the Forest & Stream as the official register and started with the prestige of the Western Kennel Club they probably would have that standing and might have been capable of conducting dog affairs and outlived us if we had not taken the Field Stud Book, the nucleus of the whole thing; and then by negotiations we get together, and the dog club believed in personal representation; they were satisfied in being represented as associate members and delegates, and their entity was preserved, and the danger of a competing register was done away with by their exercising as option which they then had on the register, and the register was suppressed and the American Kennel Club stud book made the official stud book, and as you remember, registration was made compulsory. Every man that owned a dog has to register in the American Kennel Club stud book or he could not show his dog; he was disqualified if he did not do that, and the moment that occurred you built up what you have got to-day. There is in existence another one which if we should stop to-day, or lose ground, could gradually grow to be considerable record and might become sufficiently important to be recognized by the United States Government. We have that advantage at the present time. That is what I want to impress upon you, not to do anything because I am going to tell you what my views are. I do not know whether they will hold; I do not know that I am as familiar with these affairs as I ought to be and you have to be, but I have received a report that they had secured an option on that American Field Stud Book and were going to take it and make it their official organ and start our with that. It is a question whether we ought not to get together with all the dog interests and combine those registers, and let those people proceed in their own way as they are doing now. They can never succeed with a stud book beginning at the present moment; starting with 500 registrations and then publishing every year 600 or 700, it would be lost in the shuffle in time. That, gentlemen, is one of the subjects that we must consider. The other matter is the question of defending any suits or helping them in the West to do so. Those are the steps before you. Mr. Vredenburgh is very familiar with the matter. He can answer any questions. If any one desires to make any statement, now is the time to make it. Mr. Hunnewell and Mr. Vredenburgh were out West recently trying to ascertain the cause of the dissatisfaction existing there, and they can tell you a great deal more than I can.

MR. HUNNEWELL: At the last meeting I think I told all I know about it. I gave my impressions and a statement of facts which appeared in the Gazette, and also my personal impression of the whole matter, and I am perfectly willing to answer any questions. All those gentlemen whose names you mentioned as being in connection with this National Breeders Dog Association were talked
THE CHAIRMAN: Were they our friends?

MR. HUNNEWELL: No, not those men you have mentioned there. They acted as our friends at the time, but we were a little skeptical about it then. George Gray was Secretary of Oakland Kennel Club, and all those people are Ellery men. When I was out there I thought the row was a little bit more serious than Mr. Vredenburgh did. I thought there was a certain kind of dissatisfaction apart from Ellery, but I don’t think they knew what it was. They were just dissatisfied on general principles as is vey apt to be the case against the East.

THE CHAIRMAN: They had their own committee.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Their contention was that they did not have any voice in electing the committee, which was a very good point. It was a compulsory committee, and it all came down to the question of Mr. Norman. It is personal antagonism against Mr. Norman, because he was put in a position he had not right to be put in. He had to act just as our Secretary does, and then he had to vote, and they came to the conclusion that he penalized somebody for an offence there—he was on a committee of five and had one vote, and that they all did as he said, and that position they took was a perfectly justifiable one.
We answered that by telling them that they could elect their own committee; that under our constitution they could suggest names to the directors and the directors would elect them; but that was not enough. In fact, if we granted everything they asked for it would not have been sufficient unless you exonerated Ellery.

THE CHAIRMAN: So far as Ellery went, but how about the rest of the Coast?

MR. HUNNEWELL: The rest of the Coast was perfectly satisfied, but Ellery has a big following. There is great antagonism to the American Kennel Club—not against the club, but against the Pacific Advisory Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: On what grounds do they want Ellery reinstated, simply because he is Ellery?

MR. HUNNEWELL: Because he is Ellery. They never gave me any other reason. I said that it did not make any difference, that if Mr. Belmont or I, President and Vice-President, did what Mr. Ellery did we would be brought up before the Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: What was the exact reason for this disqualification?

MR. HUNNEWELL: We did not disqualify him; we suspended him. He is only suspended. As I told them out there, Mr. Bloodgood and I were here at the time when this thing came up, and Mr. Vredenburgh asked me to do it, and I said no, it was the President’s duty to do that, and Mr. Bloodgood and I sent word to you that if you did that we would back you up. That was the time they said the thing has been misquoted to you. I told them out there that was no such thing, that Mr. Bloodgood and I sent word to you that if you did that we would back you up, and Mr. DeMund was there at the time.

DR. DEMUND: That action was sustained afterward by the entire Board of Directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: That was under the rules a duty which I had to perform in order that the discipline shall reach a man immediately, which action shall be sustained or otherwise by the Board.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It was unanimously sustained at the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: Their own Board out there, what have they got to do with it now?

MR. HUNNEWELL: As the matter stands at present Ellery has to come up for trial. Then he has the right to appeal.

THE CHAIRMAN: He must come up before them?

MR. HUNNEWELL: First.

THE CHAIRMAN: That he would not do?
MR. HUNNEWELL: That he would not do. He absolutely refused to do it. I had a talk with Ellery.

THE CHAIRMAN: Were there not some changes with regard to his registrations?

MR. VREDENBURG: He made twelve entries, and they were published in the catalogue, and then when the official catalogue came to us there were ten interlineations, three of which was the changing of the name of the sire, and the other nine was the changing of the dates of birth.

MR. HUNNEWELL: But he has the privilege of explaining why he did that. No fraud has been proved against him at all. Mr. Ellery told me that Norman has no business to bring him up and accuse him, because he knew his records were burned. I asked him what that had to do with it. He said he has no business to of that because he knew his (Ellery's) records were burned. He told me that Norman had no business to bring him up before the committee because he knew that his records were burned. I told him that all he had to do was to go up and explain it.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Were they home bred dogs?

MR. VREDENBURGH: Home bred dogs.

MR. HUNNEWELL: There were twelve changes in all. We did not go into that matter out there to any extent because the matter had not breed tried, and we did not want them to get the impression that we were going over the heads of the Pacific Advisory Committee. We could not go over their heads.

THE CHAIRMAN: The only thing with regard to that is that they cannot compel an inquiry. They are prepared to listen to anything he has to say, but he will not go before them.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Yes, but this contention is that where the Pacific Advisory Committee erred gravely was that they sent him first a letter saying that there was going to be a meeting and he was to appear, but they did not send him the time of the meeting of the place. Then Ellery—not Ellery, but it is all the same thing—sent a registered letter to the Secretary asking where this meeting was to take place, and Norman paid no attention to it, and therefore Ellery’s contention is that he could have been tried without having an opportunity to be heard. I saw Ellery’s lawyer, who was there at the same time with Ellery, that is Cook—and he was a Judge out there—I said: “Mr. Cook, when you sue a corporation or one of the members of a corporation, don’t you read the constitution of the corporation first?” He said yes. I said: “Why didn’t you read the constitution of the American Kennel Club first?” He said: “I took Mr. Ellery’s word for it.” I then showed him the rule by which no man can be disqualified without proper notice. He said: “That is not proper notice,” but Cook acknowledged that Ellery had not anything to stand on in that regard.

DR. DE MUND: Don’t they dispute that any registered letter was ever received?
MR. VREDENBURGH: No. Mr. Ellery stated he sent a registered letter. They dispute that, that he did not---

MR. HUNNEWELL: Well, it is the same thing. I mean the two things are so closely connected that one goes with the other. Ellery is one individual and the Ellery Club is the other.

THE CHAIRMAN: When is that committee on the Coast appointed?
MR. HUNNEWELL: They are appointed here by us every year. Norman is now a paid secretary with no vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yet they do not want him?
MR. HUNNEWELL: I do not know what the row is about bow, but it is the same thing.

THE CHAIRMAN: Ellery, under the present conditions, is out?
MR. HUNNEWELL: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: And he will not submit to that?
MR. HUNNEWELL: He will not submit to that, because he claims a change of venue. He says they are prejudiced against him and he wants to bring the matter before a fair board.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Have you an explanation at all about those two matters?

MR. HUNNEWELL: I would not discuss them with him.

MR. VREDENBURGH: They told us they were printer’s errors.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It was none of my business. It was the Pacific Advisory Committee’s errors. It was none of my business to find out what his errors were.

THE CHAIRMAN: Two months ago I rather got the impression from you that this movement was not a serious one.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I did not think it was.

THE CHAIRMAN: I would liked to have known that, because if it was not serious it seemed to me that with all the disadvantages they were laboring under there, without organization, and if they were really satisfied with the committee, this movement would just go the course of most of them, but if they are dissatisfied with the committee, and if it can be said that the committee did not give them a fair show, it sounds a little queer that they should have notified them to appear before them without stating a place or time, and then that Ellery sent them a registered letter, and even then they did not notify him.

MR. HUNNEWELL: But that first notice was exactly the same as our Secretary sends out to-day. He says simply: You will have to appear, but he does not state any date. His claim is, if I did wrong, they did wrong, and they ought to call it off.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is not quite the same kind of a wrong.

MR. HUNNEWELL: His point is that he does not want to be tried before that Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: So far as the Committee is concerned, it seems to me that is our creation, and if we are conscious of the fact that they failed to answer a demand for a hearing, that they should at least take steps to either bring it about or else refer the matter to us. If they have that letter on their files, and they choose to hand it over to us, I do not know of anything that would prevent us from proceeding in the matter.

MR. HUNNEWELL: There is no reason at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: We might perfectly well give them a hint that unless they did that we cannot have our interests jeopardized by reason of their doing something that is unfair.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Of course their reason is a very good one. They did not want to interfere with the Oakland show, but then they should have told him so. Their reason is a perfectly good one, if they had a reason for not having the meeting; they wanted the Oakland show over with before they had the meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN: It does not sound to me like a very good argument. If a man is under ban of any kind he certainly has a right to demand relief without any reference—

MR. HUNNEWELL: I am merely stating what they told me.

MR. MOORE: When Mr. Ellery said that he had done wrong and we had done wrong, and to call it quits, didn’t he refer to his action in going to court rather than to any other offence?

MR. HUNNEWELL: Yes.

MR. MOORE: Not that he had done wrong in making a change in his entries, which he does not admit at all, but that he had gone at once to the California courts to override us.

MR. HUNNEWELL: He want to the California courts because he did not want to go before that committee, and because they did not answer his letter, and he wanted to come before us. There is not a single one of those men that would not be perfectly willing to come up before the Board of Directors.

MR. MOORE: Did not Mr. Belmont suspend him for his court action?
MR. HUNNEWELL: Yes.
MR. MOORE: Not for his offence?
MR. HUNNEWELL: No.
MR. VREDENBURGH: He did not exhaust his remedies.

THE CHAIRMAN: If any one does anything against our interest we have a right to suspend him.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It is more than a right; it is mandatory.

THE CHAIRMAN: I did not know enough about it to believe I was justified in acting under that rule.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I quote the rule to you and cited your opinion.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The only question for you to decided is whether it was an act prejudicial to the interest of the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIRMAN: I want to see Mr. Wickersham as to whether that rule under which I acted is a rule that would be sustained in court, or whether it was an unjust-tifiable rule to have. We had a litigation here one in this State that established in this State a very important point. We published in our Gazette as a matter of information to our members the disqualification of a man, and that remained there in print, and we were taken into court individually and collectively. We won that suite. They went to the Court of Appeals with it, and that court said we had a perfect right to do that. We ceased to do it because we thought after all that it would work an injustice some times, just as in this case, all the men were perfectly fair. The men who conducted the show had not paid the premiums, and we disqualified under the rules everybody connected with the show, all the officers and everybody. That was decided in our favor, and in this case we will have to defend a suit as to whether we can properly do this.

MR. WILLETS: Do you know on what ground they complain that we are a monopoly under the Sherman Act?

THE CHAIRMAN: We have the complaint here. The Secretary can read it to you.

(Complaint read.)

MR. MOORE: This was in connection with going to law; this is conduct prejudicial to the best interest of dogs.
MR. VREDENBURGH: Any matter prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, and he specified in his suspension that the rules gave him certain redress that he had no exhausted the remedies the rule provided for, and had gone to court without doing anything, and therefore his act was prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club.

MR. MOORE: No dog show rule covers this case of Mr. Belmont’s. It must be some other rule.

MR. HUNNEWELL (pointing): There is the rule.

MR. MOORE: You raised the question of employing counsel to defend suit. There is a resolution passed either by the directors or by the club shortly after our reconstruction, which prohibited us from employing counsel except under certain conditions. Do you recall it?

MR. VREDENBURGH: To originate anything, but not to defend.

MR. MOORE: There is such a resolution, and we ought to have it.

THE CHAIRMAN: That you should have, but it is the object of this meeting that if anything of that kind was done, it should be done by the Board.

MR. MOORE: I am not sure but what the Board has been prohibited by the delegates; I may be wrong.
DR. DE MUND: It must be authorized by the Board of Directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: In other words, that Mr. Vredenburgh or any of the offices shall not be able to employ counsel in connection with anything having to do with the club without authority.

MR. MOORE: I am offering this as a caution. I think we ought to have the resolution.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is what I understand to have been done.

THE SECRETARY: Suit was commenced against us, and we have got to defend it.

MR. MOORE: There is no question about that. When does the time to answer expire?

MR. VREDENBURGH: Two of them have ten days and the rest of them have thirty days. I telegraphed them to retain the same counsel who defended our suit before.

THE CHAIRMAN: In their complaint they do not touch upon my action at all?

THE SECRETARY: No, not at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: It may be that they are acting under the stress of a treatment which may not be wholly justified; I don’t know. Certainly if we are in the wrong, we ought to correct that.
MR. MOORE: Wouldn’t it be possible have that suit transferred to the court here where the head office of the club is?

THE CHAIRMAN: I don’t know.

MR. MOORE: And would that take it out of the hands of the Pacific Advisory Committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not know. The suit is against remember exactly the details. The way it was presented to me was that here was a man that had committee an error and he would not do anything. This man committed an error and he would not do anything. This man demanded through a registered letter the time and place for him to be heard, to which he received no reply, and then he sat still. That is new to me.

THE SECRETARY: No, he did not sit still.

THE CHAIRMAN: He sat still in this respect, it was up to our committee after that to give him a chance. He had gone through the West, and if he desired to out loose and make that a reason, he had something to go on. If he is able to tell that story and to say that these people were laying for him and trying to get his scalp and tricked him, and having no word to appear, and making it appear that no time and place was mentioned, whereas it was his business to see to a matter of that kind---
THE SECRETARY: He had the right to appeal to the American Kennel Club.
THE CHAIRMAN: If I heard such a story as that I would say it was pretty tough.
THE SECRETARY: He did not appeal to the American Kennel Club.
THE CHAIRMAN: I want the contents of his registered letter to the committee.
THE SECRETARY: Asking for a time and place. They never answered that letter, and when we were out there and when they made that report the acknowledged that they did not answer the letter and said it was an error, but no account of that they could not hold a meeting to try the account of that they could not hold a meeting to try the man, and never attempted to hold a meeting to try the man.

MR. HUNNEWELL: They could not hold a meeting after the injunction.
THE SECRETARY: I know that, but they never tried to.
THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me that we need some light about it. Here is a committee that we created, and of course we are going to be responsible for it to a certain degree.

MR. MOORE: We whitewashed them and told them everything they did was perfectly proper.
THE CHAIRMAN: Were you made award of the fact that they had not answered that letter?

MR. MOORE: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Why did you go over it without any—

MR. MOORE: I don’t know, unless we are all dummies, and one followed the other.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Ellery did not write the letter, but the San Francisco Kennel Club did.

MR. RUTHERFURD: My recollection of his explanation is that it was one man, not a committee. The Secretary had received word that he had asked them to do the proper thing, and the others had not any knowledge of it.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The Pacific Advisory Committee did not answer the letter because they did not have a meeting, and Norman did not take it upon himself to answer the letter.

MR. MOORE: I would like to ask if Mr. Norman is not 95 per cent of the whole committee.

THE SECRETARY: No.

THE CHAIRMAN: As between men, I do not think you would for a moment hesitate to say that a committee that had a secretary, paid or otherwise, and that secretary took it upon himself to do something, and the committee in your opinion did the baby act and say it was not their fault, but it was his—

THE SECRETARY: They did not do that. They acknowledge the mistake.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The fact is the committee never had a meeting, and that letter did not come up.

THE CHAIRMAN: But a big stir like this, they must have known it, and we are in a false position if he ever made any attempt to have a hearing at any time.

MR. MOORE: I do not see that there was any necessity for the Pacific Advisory Committee rushing in pell mell to make possible a complication that could have been avoided, and we could have taken the action, or they could after deliberation, but I do not see any reason why we should jump into the pit ahead of the time. The Pacific Advisory Committee is so very anxious to do something that they invariably do the wrong thing.

THE SECRETARY: This rule 2 was absolutely mandatory.

MR. MOORE: Yes, but there is a time and place for everything. You don't have to do it on the minute. You might as well wait a week and think it over and see whether it is advisable.

THE SECRETARY: They did, and whether it was advisable or not, they must do it.
MR. MOORE: Yes, and now we are in the courts.

THE SECRETARY: If we disqualified the man they could sue us.

MR. MOORE: I am perfectly willing, if we did it, to stand by it, but they are subservient to this club, and they should have in mind the welfare, not of the Pacific Advisory Committee, but the welfare of the American Kennel Club.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Did you and Mr. Hunnewell come to any conclusion which would point to a way of getting out of this thing—in other words, if the right things were done, that this matter could entirely be smoothed over?

THE SECRETARY: The conclusion that I reached was this, that the only thing that could be done would be for us to say just exactly what Mr. Ellery’s counsel said in court, that if we would withdraw the accusation that there was anything apparently wrong in that catalogue, and we state that there was anything apparently wrong in that catalogue, and we state that there was no basis for our suspicion, then they would listen to us.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Was there an accusation made?

THE SECRETARY: There was a question asked to investigate, for him to show cause why these things were done.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Was it put in an offensive way? It strikes me as a very simple thing that a man might get a name—it is frequently done in the New York shows and Boston shows. I have seen errors in the catalogues.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Very well, explain.

MR. RUTHERFURD: But a man is not accused.

MR. HUNNEWELL: He is not accused.

THE SECRETARY: He was asked to come before this Committee and explain this matter.

MR. RUTHERFURD: The way I should think it should be done would be to state that certain things were charged against a man and then to ask him to kindly state his side of the case.

MR. WILLETS: He said he would explain and he wants to know the time and place appointed for him to do so, and he gets no answer.

THE SECRETARY: He simply went to court and charged that the Committee restrained him from taking any action whatever, but the committee never attempted to take any action, and he knew that he sent this registered letter to the Committee, and he never appeals to the American Kennel Club. If we did not pay any attention to it then he could have gone to the courts.

MR. WILLETS: There was nothing to appeal except to complain that the Pacific Advisory Committee had not answered a letter which he had written to them.
THE CHAIRMAN: Let me tell you how I feel. It is a small quarrel but it seems to me that our skirts ought to be absolutely clean. There was an effort made for a hearing to this extent that there was a registered letter sent, and the Secretary, who is not a member of the Committee, did not bring it before the meeting.

MR. HUNNEWELL: He was a member at the time.

THE CHAIRMAN: He did not bring it before the Committee, and some say that it was because there has been no meeting. Nevertheless, he did not bring it before the meeting, and that effort was made, and it was so important that they should have answered it. I think they ought to have met and taken action, and we stand, so far as that matter is concerned, wrong no matter how you look at it.

DR. DE MUND: How soon after the letter was received was this injunction suit brought? That restrained them from all action.

THE CHAIRMAN: I know that, but then it was some time.

THE SECRETARY: But, Mr. Chairman, this suit to-day has nothing to do with the Ellery matter.

THE CHAIRMAN: But don’t you see the whole thing is Ellery. What do you suppose he is doing? He may have consulted counsel and found that the rule under which
I disqualified them would not be sustained, and then he goes further and the whole thing is published, and it makes a fine show, and we are put in the position of being a trust doing some one an injustice. The matter is pretty well managed, and behind it all is may be that he is going to give us enough trouble until we come to him.

DR. DEMUND: There was a resolution passed which I offered at a meeting after your suspension allowing Ellery, on the withdrawal of his suit and submitted to the Pacific Advisory Committee, and also directing them to give him notice of the time and place of the meeting, that this suspension would be removed. He could have accepted that and it would have wiped out the whole thing; but he would not do that.

THE CHAIRMAN: They would act on the record of that letter.

THE SECRETARY: Yes

DR. DE MUND: If that resolution were read I think it would clear the whole matter.

(The Chairman then read Rule 21).

MR. HUNNEWELL: That covers your action, because the new rules were not then in force; they did not come into effect until the following February.

MR. WILLETTS: Was Mr. Ellery advised of that resolution of Dr. De Mund’s? Do you know whether a copy of that was sent to him?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Did you sent it to him personally?

THE SECRETARY: I sent it to him personally, and one of the officers of the San Francisco Kennel Club that Mr. Belmont suspended, which matter was afterward taken out of Mr. Belmont’s hands, and he was suspended by the American Kennel Club—the Secretary was in to see me about two weeks ago, and he told me he was now perfectly ready to come before the Pacific Advisory Committee and make any explanation in his power if we would waive the payment of the $250 which was assessed against the San Francisco Kennel Club to reimburse the Committee, and for their legal expenses only.

MR. WILLETS: That was included in Dr. De Mund’s resolution.

THE SECRETARY: Yes. There is an action now to come up at a regular meeting the Pacific Advisory Committee recommending some such course as that. While this suspended man was here he told me: “I will not show under the National Dog Breeders Association and I cannot show under the American Kennel Club.” He said: “I would like to show under the American Kennel Club.” At the same time he was one of the incorporators of this National Dog Breeders Association. I shows him the marked catalogue where the dispute occurred, and I said: “This is in the handwriting of Mr. Clute, who certified to the correctness of the catalogue.” He said: You are mistaken; that is in the handwriting of Mr. Ellery himself; I know his handwriting very well.” Now, Mr. Ellery stated to Mr. Hunnewell and to me that the only way that you could convict a man of any misconduct in connection with entries at a show was in misconduct in connection with entries at a show was in connection with the original entry blank, and he told me that if he owned a club, and he made out his entry blank fraudulently for some ulterior purpose, and saw that entry on the copy of the printer for the catalogue, and then deliberately tore up his entry blank, we could not convict him. That is the stand Mr. Ellery took.

MR. HUNNEWELL: There is no question about it that Ellery is as crooked as a ram’s horn. There is no reason at all why the San Francisco Kennel Club should not be allowed to do what the Committee suggests. That eliminates the registered letter because the registered letter was written by the San Francisco Kennel Club. Even there Ellery is back of them, because it has been spilt into two pieces. Ellery did not write the letter. To be sure, he owned the other club, and if the letter was going to be received it was going to his office, but he did not write the letter. He is back of all this, and these people are as innocent as you and I are.

THE SECRETARY: We have to act accordingly to our rules, but there is no reason why we should not rescind some of them under certain circumstances. There is no reason why we should not allow the San Francisco Kennel Club to go before the Pacific Advisory Committee, remit the fine and let the think stay on Ellery.

DR. DE MUND: The San Francisco Kennel Club is out of existence.

THE SECRETARY: There are only two members, the Vice-President and the Secretary. The Secretary told me that the Vice-President was merely a figurehead.

MR. HUNNEWELL: That lets them in individually. The San Francisco Kennel Club is out of existence.

THE CHAIRMAN: Why?

MR. HUNNEWELL: Because they did not pay their dues. Their contention was that they were suspended and therefore they could not pay any dues, which is perfectly ridiculous. It was while this trouble was on that they were suspended. They ceased to pay their dues because their contention was that they were suspended and therefore could not pay any dues, and while we were out there they sent their dues in, and they were refused because they had ceased on the first of February to be members.

THE CHAIRMAN: What has become of the organization?

MR. HUNNEWELL: They have ceased. They never were any organization; they were about the whole club.

THE SECRETARY: Ellery paid $600 for it, and there was $800 in the treasury. There were two men left in the old club. He put in two or three men as figureheads.

MR. HUNNEWELL: They say, if we will remit this fine of $250 they will go up and explain to the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MOORE: That has nothing to do with this trouble. It has nothing to do with this present suit.

THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me we have got two things to do. One is to decided intelligently as to what action we want to take with regard to these suits. They have got to be disposed of in some way so far as they touch upon us, and it seems to me the shortest cut would be to appoint a committee to take that matter up and make recommendation at the regular meeting of the Board. It seems a little bit hazy how we should be represented; we are involved in the suit, and to what extent—it is primarily directed against the Pacific Advisory Committee.

THE SECRETARY: And the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIRMAN: They ought to be told to defend it. If you want to competent committee to take the matter up and make a recommendation either at a special meeting, if it is preferred, or a the regular meeting which will be held within twelve days, I think it would be proper that I should appoint one. The only reason I called this meeting was that I am going up to Canada next week, and I expect to be gone until the first of October. I injured myself quite seriously in June, and I want to get well before I go to work again; but I will do anything I can in the meanwhile. I do not want to recommend to you—I have only been a short time in the city. I am going away next Tuesday morning. That is one thing, and then the other one, which I think you ought to have a committee on also, because there is a lot of confusion about it, as to what course we had better take; also in regard to this matter, whether we can get those of our friends to stand by us rather than following Ellery on a misrepresentation of the facts.

MR. MOORE: Do you suppose it would be proper to have somebody address the Pacific Advisory Committee individually and ask them if under certain circumstances they would waive jurisdiction?

THE CHAIRMAN: That might be a good idea, but I think the committee ought to take it up. That committee ought to know the facts, what occurred between the parties, what answer has been made, what action has the Pacific Advisory Committee taken; all that is part of this matter, and see whether they have any connection with this case. What would induce them to come back. We ought to try to take the ground from under Mr. Ellery’s feet, if possible, so that he cannot complain that whatever we have done was not fair, and to see that he has no ground to stand upon, and after having established really what we are going to do, make everybody acquainted, even to the extent of having to send somebody out there. If they are going to establish a big organization, they are on feelings of hostility, and we are going to have endless trouble. We are going to be obliged to act first against this club and then against that club, and the first thing you know it may reach Chicago, and there your rules are and there you begin to disqualify all around, and your suits are pending in court. What are you going to do? You go on suspending, and they bring suits, and the Lord only knows where we are coming out. I suggest two separate committees be appointed to make a report at the next meeting as to the exact conditions of affairs.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Would you have time to serve on those two committee, with counsel?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, I will make time. I will read over what there is and make it a point to be present.

THE SECRETARY: There is another very important matter that ought to be taken in hand to-day, and that is to see if we can secure the possession of the Field Stud Book.

THE CHAIRMAN: I have mentioned that before. I think it very important the we should go to work and get the whole organization together, if possible. We cannot do it unless we raise a fund on the part of the members of the American Kennel Club. We do not want to take the money out of our treasury.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I am informed that we can get it for $15,000.

THE CHAIRMAN: I am willing to subscribe $1,00 towards it, if that is the price. I don’t know whether the Kennel Club could afford to pay a certain amount towards it. I stand ready at any time to give a thousand dollars towards it. I think that would remove the danger of opposition in the future very much.
THE SECRETARY: That includes just the stud book. We would have to recognize the 22,000 that they have registered, and there should be a condition made that the American Field would not attempt to publish another such book.

THE CHAIRMAN: It takes a long time to build a stud book up. If it is deemed advisable, that is my position. I will help to that extent. I think we ought not to have any trouble to raise the money if necessary. When it comes time to arrange as to counsel we will see what we can do about that. I am willing to subscribe something to that end; but I repeat my suggestion to you that you take these two subjects up separately, one the question of the litigation, what should be done in connection with that, and what recommendation be made to the full Board with regard to it.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Will these matters come up before the delegates or the directors?

THE SECRETARY: The directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: The other matter is the question of the Ellery case, to see what we can do to bring about some kind of harmony, and if possible get him under the jurisdiction of the club.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I should like to offer a motion that those two committees-why not make it one committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: Well, a committee of five?

MR. MOORE: A committee of five is hard to get to-
MR. HUNNEWELL: I amend that motion by authorizing an appropriation of $200 to be paid counsel.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think you had better make it a committee of five, and if you wish me to be Chairman to say that I be simply ex officio chairman. The motion is that the Chair appoint a committee of five, of which he shall be ex officio chairman, to take up the subject of this litigation and the Ellery matter, and an appropriation of $200, and to report at a regular meeting of the Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question of a stud book is certainly a delicate one.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I have a suggestion to make about that. Mr. Chetwood Smith knows more about this than anybody else, and he has been talking about this, and I do not know why it would not be a good idea to make him a committee of one on that matter.

The Chairman appointed Messrs. Keasbey, Hooley, Hunnewell and Willets as said committee of five.

Mr. Willets moved that the recommendation of the Pacific Advisory Committee as follows: "Moved by W. W. Stettheimer, seconded by Nat. T. Messer, that it is the sense of this committee to request the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club to remove from their minutes the two resolutions (adopted at a time when the Pacific Advisory Committee through court proceedings was enjoined from action) referring to the San Francisco Kennel Club case and to the William Ellery case, and to certify said resolutions to the Pacific Advisory Committee to be spread on the records of the latter. The purpose of this request is to place the Pacific Advisory Committee in apposition to act on the said two resolutions in such a manner as existing conditions may demand,” be approved.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting of the Board of Directors was dispensed with and they were accepted as published in The Gazette.

THE CHAIRMAN: At a special meeting of the Board of Directors held on September 8th, 1910, President August Belmont outlined the situation in connection with the Pacific Coast matter, and at that same meeting another question of importance was informally considered, of which a record was made. If you desire those minutes to be read the secretary will read them. However, as most of the directors were present at that meeting it may not be considered necessary to read what was said at that special meeting.

MR. RUTHERFURD: I move that the reading of those minutes be dispensed with.

Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary read his report, as follows:

New York, Sept. 20, 1910

To the Board of Directors,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this my quarterly report. The reports of the Standing Committee are as follows:

Pacific Advisory Committee May 24, June 4, August 6, August 20, September 1, 1910.

The report of August 6, 1910, has been published in the Gazette of August 31st.

Unless you desire the above reports read at this meeting, I will adopt the usual course, and make them part of the Minutes of this meeting, and publish same in the next number of the Gazette.

The License Committee has approved of Twenty-four Licenses since our regular meeting of May 17, 1910.

In compliance with instructions received from this board at its May meeting, satisfactory settlement was made of Mr. J. S. Auerbach’s bill for legal services for the amount suggested by your Special Committee.

The Lexington Kennel Club held a show under License in April, 1910. They failed to file a printed catalogue, in place of which they sent a written list of awards. This we declined to accept and returned same. General Roger D. Williams caused a catalogue to be printed especially for filing with the A. K. C. at considerable expense. This however took time, so that the penalty amounted to $101. I would suggest that this penalty be remitted or if not expedient to do that, that the date deposit of $25.00 be forfeited in lieu of penalty.

The La Crosse Kennel Club held a Licensed Show October 8, 1909, and we were not able to collect from said club $22.00 in listing fees until July 11, 1910. Therefore assessed a penalty of $276.00. The President of said club has filed an appeal setting forth that the fault was entirely that of the secretary, and the other offers has no knowledge whatever that the secretary had failed to pay the listing fees.

The Schuylkill Valley Kennel Club held a Licensed Show December 30-31, 1910, charges were filed against said club for non-payment of certain prizes. This matter was referred by you to the Philadelphia Trial Board, and said Board disqualified the club and its officers. I made a number of ineffectual attempts to obtain word from the secretary, and the President, and it is only at this late day, that the secretary has found time to write asking for the return of their date deposit. This I have declined to honor. I have an appeal from the Vice President of said club for re-instatement, in which he makes rather damaging statements against the other officers of the club.
The Rules Governing Dog Shows, Rule III, Section C states “Specialty Club Shows confined to the breed represented by their club shall be rated at four points, specialty clubs not active members may be licensed by the written consent of the parent club and will be rated at two points. The Chicago Collie Club was elected an active member September 21, 1909, having filed with its application the written consent of the Collie Club of America. The question arises whether said club shall be entitled to four points or two points? I am personally familiar with the facts brought about by correspondence with several of the Specialty Clubs, particularly that of the Boston Terrier Club, to the effect that objections were made by the parent clubs to consent to the admission of another club for the same breed, upon the ground that the second club would rate precisely the same as the parent club. These objections have apparently been removed by the rule above quoted. While I am inclined to believe that the letter of the Rule does not apply to a subsidiary club, that has become an active member, yet I am not certain as to the intent of the Rule, and therefore ask for a decision at this meeting.

The American Dachshund Club has filed an application for permission to change the official title of said club to that of the Dachshund Club of America. I would recommend that permission be granted accordingly.

At the annual meeting the appointment of the Pacific advisory Committee was laid over. Since that time Mr. Norman resigned and became a paid secretary, and Mr. Norman J. Stewart has been nominated to fill the vacancy. As the members of this Committee have been holding over, I am of the opinion that some action should be taken toward their appointment in accordance with their agreement between their committee and this Board.

W. E. Chute of San Francisco has begun a suit against the American Kennel Club. W. W. Stettheimer, and N. T. Messer, members of the P. A. C. Norman J. Stewart and J. P. Norman, neither one of whom are members of that Committee. The complaint is that the American Kennel Club has formed a conspiracy in the restraint of trade, damages are asked to the extent of fifteen hundred dollars and additional five hundred to pay his counsel. The matter has been placed in the hands of competent attorneys, to defend the suit.

At a special meeting of this board held in executive session on September 8, the request of the P. A. C. at its meeting held August 20th, was unanimously granted. The minutes of said meeting are specified above.

A statement by the A. K. C. has been prepared at the request of the officers, galley proofs of which have been handed or mailed to every director in order that proper action on the subject may be taken at this meeting.

The following cases will be referred to the Trial Board sitting in New York.

Appeal of Joseph M. Dickson against suspension Essex K.C.

Mrs. M. Thorp vs. Essex K. C. In this case I am advised by the Club that the check has been mailed on August 4th. I have however been unable to have this confirmed.

Mrs. J. D. Vhay vs. J. W. Burrell. This case has been finally settle and plaintiff asks to have same dismissed and deposit returned to her.

J. H. Blackwood vs. Westminster K. C. In this case the special claimed was donated by the Scottish Collie Club, through W> C. Hunter, Secy. Collie Club of America. Hunter has been disqualified for his refusal to turn over to the Collie Club of America the books, records and paper, which were in his custody while secretary.

James Watson vs. Staten Island K. C. Requesting an investigation of statements made by the Staten Island K. C. reflecting on Watson in one Sporting Papers.

J. E. DeMund and A. Albright, Jr. vs. Dr. A. Boultee.
Jennie A. Holeschuh vs. Mrs. J. K. Fox.

The following cases will be referred to the Trial Board sitting in Philadelphia:

Mrs. Harry S. Peaster vs. The York K. C.

Howe Totten vs. Duquesne K. C.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
THE CHAIRMAN: Five names have been submitted to me as candidates for election as members of the Pacific Advisory Committee. They are: H. J. Stewart, Dr. W. P. Burnham, N. T. Messr, W. W. Stettheimer and E. H. Carlton. Mr. Stewart is nominated in place of Mr. Norman, who has resigned.

DR. DeMUND: I move the nomination of those gentlemen named as members of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

On motion nominations were closed.
Nominations seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: To conform to the agreement with the Pacific Advisory Committee necessitating a change in our rules I offer the following amendment to the constitution:

Article VI, Sec. 5, after the word “elect,” strike out “and thereafter the Board shall annually elect.” add the following paragraph: “At the annual meeting in 1911 or any adjournment thereof, the Directors shall elect five members, one of whom shall hold office until the annual meeting in 1912, one of whom shall hold office until 1913, one of whom shall hold office until 1914, one of whom shall hold office until 1915, and one of whom shall hold office until 1916, and at each annual meeting thereafter the Directors shall elect one member to hold office for five years.”

This matter was referred to the Rules Committee, which reported in favor of the amendment.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

New York, July 27, 1910

Meeting of the Stud Book Committee was held at the office of the American Kennel Club, July 27, 1910.

Present: James W. Appleton, Chairman
Singleton Van Schaick

The Committee recommend that under the head of Foreign Dogs and the Doberman Pinscher be recognized and the general term “Pinscher” be omitted.

Complaint of W. H. Harris re the Bull Terrier, “Chess”.

The Committee recommend the cancellation of registration No. 138840, also registration No. 109578, and notify Mrs. Leonhart, who registered “Chess”.

Signed, J. W. Appleton, Chairman
S. Van Schaick

On motion the same was accepted and the recommendations therein contained were adopted.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the minutes of four meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MOORE: I move that they be spread upon the minutes of this meeting.
Motion seconded and carried.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

In re the application of Horace G. Lepman for reinstatement:
On motion it was resolved to refer said application with accompanying affidavits submitted.

In re the entry of William Ellery’s Collie, Valverde Virgil, at the San Francisco and Oakland shows 1908, with different dates of birth, referred to this Committee by the American Kennel Club for investigation and action:
On motion it was resolved that consideration of said case be postponed and the papers filed with the papers in the other cases pending against William Ellery.

In re the protest of the Oakland Kennel Club to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, against the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee for granting dates for a show to the Golden Gate Kennel Club without the consent of the Oakland Kennel Club.

On motion it was resolved that said protest as referred to this Committee by the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, be and is overruled, and that the attention of the Oakland Kennel Club be called to the fact that the interpretation by the Pacific Advisory Committee of Rule V of the rules governing clubs, was confirmed by the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club at the meeting held May 17th, 1910.

The secretary read the minutes of the meeting of the American Kennel Club and of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club held May 17th, 1910.

On motion it was resolved that the election of a paid secretary be postponed until the called semi-annual meeting of June 4, 1910.

On motion the meeting adjourned

Attest: J. P. Norman,
Secretary.

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held June 4, 1910, St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco
H. H. Carlton in the Chair.
The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Chair stated that it was in order to comply with the resolution of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club directing this Committee to appoint a paid secretary.

It was moved and seconded that Mr. J. P. Norman be elected as secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Carried.

Mr. Norman thanked the Committee for the election and tendered his resignation which was accepted.

On motion the Committee proceeded to consider the appeal of Horace G. Lepman for reinstatement to good standing, Dr. Burnham taking no part in the proceedings on account of having been plaintiff in the case.

It was moved and seconded that on careful comparison of the new correspondence of Horace G. Lepman, and of the old correspondence of 1905 on file, the Committee finds that the allegations stated in the two sets, to be at variance.

The facts of the original case appear to be as follows:

That Dr. Burnham paid $135.00 on April 8th, 1905, for the Collie bitch Brookmere Kelpie, which was to be shipped to him for the San Francisco show in May, 1905. As the bitch was not shipped, and a number of demands for return of the money ignored, as late as July, 1905, H. G. Lepman on November 1st, 1905, was suspended by this Committee for sixty days, to be disqualified if the money was not returned within that time. Disqualification automatically took effect December 31, 1905, because the money had not been received within the time limit.

On review of the case, the Committee finds that the money was returned after expiration of time limit only by radon of the stress of the American Kennel Club’s action, and that there is therefore no reason for removal of the disqualification.

Appeal therefore denied.

On motion the Committee adjourned, for the semi-annual convention of coast delegates.

OFFICE OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB

Berkeley, Cal., June 5, 1910.

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary
American Kennel Club, New York

Dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that at the meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee held on the 4th inst. in conformity with the resolution of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club authorizing the appointment of a paid secretary, the undersigned was elected to that position. In consequence of my election to the position of secretary, I tendered my resignation as a member, which was accepted by the Committee.

At the convention of the delegates of the Pacific Coast Clubs, held subsequently to the said meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, the vacancy caused by my resignation was announced and on motion of the delegates of the Western Fox Terrier Breeders Association, Mr. Norman J. Stewart was selected by the unanimous vote of the delegates and the Pacific Advisory Committee, to be nominated to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club for election to the vacancy on the Committee caused by the resignation of Mr. J. P. Norman.

I have the honor to remain, dear sir,

Yours very truly,

J. P. Norman

Sect'y Pacific Advisory Committee A. K. C.
ADJOURNED MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held June 4, 1910, St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco.

Present: H. H. Carlton, Dr. W. P. Burnham, W. W. Stettheimer, N. T. Messer

H. H. Carlton in the Chair.

The Chair stated that the business of the meeting was to act on the recommendation by the Coast Delegates of Mr. Norman J. Stewart, to fill the vacancy on the Committee caused by the resignation of Mr. J. P. Norman.

On motion the recommendation was approved, and it was resolved that the name of Mr. Norman J. Stewart to be submitted to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club for election, to fill the vacancy on this Committee.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Attest: J. P. Norman
Secretary

MEETING OF DELEGATES OF PACIFIC COAST CLUBS
AND
PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held June 4, 1910, at St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco
Present: The Pacific Advisory Committee, Mrs. J. J. Matheson, Delegate, Ladies Kennel Association of California, Mr. Robert Wallace, Delegate, Golden Gate Kennel Club, Mr. H. Hastings, Delegate, Western Fox Terrier Breeders’ Association.

H. H. Carlton in the Chair.

The Chairman informed the meeting that there was a vacancy in the Pacific Advisory Committee caused by the resignation of Mr. J. P. Norman, and that it would be in order for the delegates assembled to select a nominee for recommendation to the Pacific Advisory Committee for nomination to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club. Mr. Wallace nominated Mr. Norman J. Stewart, Mr. Hastings seconded the nominations.

The nomination was carried unanimously.

The Chair then called for discussion on matters of general interest to the Coast. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST: J. P. Norman
Secretary

The Committee appointed by President Belmont at the special meeting of the Board of Directors held on September 8th, 1910, submitted its report.

On motion the disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee amounting to $49.95 was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: In the matter of the Lexington Kennel Club the held their initial show under license of April 15, 1910, and their secretary sent us a hand written list of awards of the winners and the reserved winners. The rule states that they must file here a printed catalogue, and after some correspondence General Roger Williams said that he would fix the matter up for us, and he had an entire catalogue printed with all the entries in regular form for the purpose of filing here, which undoubtedly entailed considerable expense, but before that time arrived one hundred and one days had elapsed after the seven days subsequent to the closing of the show, which meant a penalty of $101.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that the fine be remitted and that their deposit be returned.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The La Crosse Kennel Club collected for the American Kennel Club $22 listing fees. They held their show on October 8th, 1909. I found it impossible to collection that money until July 11th, 1910, just two hundred and seventy-six days after the show was held. The American Kennel Club disqualified the La Crosse Kennel Club and its officers. I have an appeal here from the President of the club asking for reinstatement, and stating that they might desire to hold another show.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I move in this case that the fine be remitted, and that all of the officers be reinstated with the exception of the secretary of the club, and that hereafter in the event that the listing fees are not paid when due the secretary of the American Kennel Club give notice to that effect to all of the officers of the show giving club.

MR. WILMERDING: I second the motion.

MR. PALMER: I understand that the motion is that the secretary of this club is to notify all the officers of the club in case the fees are not paid. It seems to me that that is giving a lot of trouble to this organization. Heretofore we have always dealt only with the secretary of the show giving club. I do not think it concerns us what they do.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think it is just exactly that attitude which has hurt the American Kennel Club tremendously with the general public, the fact that we depend upon one person and pay no attention to any one else. I think if we were a little more liberal in our actions we would save enough in lawyers’ fees more than sufficient to pay that additional expense.

JUDGE CUTLER: It seems to me that it is bad policy for us to disqualify members of a club without giving them notice. I think case illustrates the principle very well. It seems to me that it is an erroneous idea, which has been followed for some time, in case the secretary of a club is negligent as to sending in fees to disqualify the whole club.

THE SECRETARY: Only the officers.

JUDGE CUTLER: Well, the officers. Every one familiar with local clubs knows that the Vice President and Directors of the clubs have very little to do with the practical working of clubs. If the secretary neglects his duty it is not proper for this club to disqualify the officers for the secretary’s negligence. I concur in what Mr. Smith has said in this regard. I think it is sportsmanlike, and I think, to put it a little stronger, it is common decency to notify a man that he is likely to be disqualified because of somebody’s neglect before he wakes up and finds that he has been disqualified without knowing anything about it. I am very glad this motion has come up. I would like to add to the motion that our secretary not only gives notice to the officers as to unpaid listing fees, but in connection with fees of all kinds.

THE SECRETARY: It is not only the fees, but sometimes it is the catalogue that is not sent in at the proper time.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I accept Judge Cutler’s amendment and shall ask that the motion read in this way: If the listing fees or other requirements are not complied with, which under our rules would call for disqualification, the officers of the club be notified.

THE CHAIRMAN: The secretary suggests that the notice goes to the secretary because he is the only person to whom it can be sent. If it is sent to the other officers it would only mean two or three extra letters, and I agree with Mr. Smith and with Judge Cutler that such a course of action would put us on a broader basis.

MR. HOOLEY: I think Mr. Wilmerding can testify in connection with several clubs that we have been connected with, in one case particularly, where the secretary was very lax, and because of the negligence of the secretary of the club nearly everything was put up to Mr. Wilmerding, who was President, to straighten out. This club would have been disqualified if Mr. Wilmerding had not attended to the matter. I think those of us who have been up against it in that respect, as most of us have, can realize the necessity of the passage of Judge Cutler’s motion. I think it is absolutely essential that the officers of the club be notified. Suppose the secretary dies, who would you notify?

Motion as amended carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Schuylkill Valley Kennel Club defaulted in the payment of prizes, and the matter was referred by the directors to the Philadelphia Trial
Board. That Board met and gave the defaulting club an opportunity to appear, and finally disqualified them. I submit an appeal from one of the officers of what club.

On motion that matter was referred back to the Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: The Chicago Collie Club became a member of the American Kennel Club in 1909. They obtained the written consent of the Collie Club of America to be admitted. They were admitted. They are now holding a specialty show, and they claimed that they should received four points for that. I do not know but what they should receive four points, but at the same time I have in mind the correspondence that I had for two or three years with several of the Specialty Clubs in which objection to the admission of a club of the same breed as their own, or the licensing of a club showing dogs of the same breed as their own, was that the rating would be the same as the parent club received, which is supposed to hold the larger show. I see by the rules that specialty clubs not active members may be licensed and only get two points. The question is, what was the intent of the makers of that rule, whether if a club became a member with the consent of the parent club it would receive the same rating as the parent club or not.

MR. MOORE: That was certainly the intent.

MR. PALMER: Heretofore all clubs that have come in and been recognized as members of the American Kennel Club have been rated at four points?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. MOORE: It was understood that in several breeds, if the club holding the show was a member, it got four points.

THE SECRETARY: That is the rule then that members, are under the circumstances, entitled to four points?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

On motion the application of the American Dachshund Club to change its name to the Dachshund Club of America was granted.

THE CHAIRMAN: In the minds of a great many people, both on the coast and in the east, there seems to be the idea that the American Kennel Club is a close organization, and that we stand so much on our dignity that we do not answer criticism and vilification, and what therefore our accusers will continue in that way so long as they can keep out of the courts on actions brought for libel. These criticisms have been particularly hard on the committee that was appointed to do to the Pacific coast in order to ascertain the statue of matters there, and I think for one if I am not a grafter and making my living out of the American Kennel Club, it is about time for this club to say so. I do not know any reason why we should stand so much on our dignity that we should not explain everything we do, especially in view of the fact that what we do here is done for the best interests of all concerned, and if we are wrong we want to know it. When we are required to act under our rules in a manner which may seem drastic to some people, I see no reason why such action should not be explained in the Gazette. At my instigation and with Mr. Belmont’s consent I gave the facts in connection with our controversy with certain people on the Pacific coast to the Secretary and asked him to have an explanatory article written for publication, and this article, the proofs of which have been sent to you, is the result. A few corrections have been made since you have received it, but I do not know whether you approve of its publication. I do not know whether you approve of this article, but all I can say is that personally I am a little but sick of being called a member of a gang and all that sort of thing. I think it is up to the directors to put Mr. Vredenburgh and myself right before the public. I cannot see any harm in it. We can always go into executive session when we wish to, but what we do publicly I think we ought to be able to say why we do it.

DR. DeMUND: I move that that article, of which copies have been sent to every director, be published in the Gazette and sent to all of the dog papers in the country with the request that they publish it.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I second the motion.

MR. MOORE: I went over that article pretty carefully, and I think it is going to do a lot more harm than good.

MR. BROOKS: In what way is it going to do any harm?

MR. MOORE: I think it is only furnishing ammunition to the other side to keep up this same sort of vilification. We had the same trouble before in connection with the various reports that were given out in answer to what the Ashland House Committee said against us. That policy did us more harm than if we had kept silent.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think the American Kennel Club by standing on its dignity and not replying to these libels, has gone too far. It has been carried to the point where people think that everything we do here is done behind closed doors. I think the more publicity we can give to every one of our acts the better it will be for us in the end.

MR. MOORE: Have you seen that article?
MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: Yes.

MR. MOORE: That it asks a question and then answers it?

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: Yes, but I think if the American Kennel Club hereafter took the attitude of giving publicity to all their acts it would greatly improve its standing among dog breeders and exhibitors.

MR. MOORE: Do you think that the majority in the East believe all this stuff that has been published?

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: It is not in the East that we need fear any trouble; it is from the West and Middle West.

JUDGE CUTLER: I am laboring under somewhat of a disadvantage in this matter. I did read that article very carefully as I came over on the train, and I think we ought to discrimination between publicity and explanation. The American Kennel Club has not yet got to the point, and its officers have not got to the point, and its committee which was sent out to the coast has not got to the point where they are bound to make any explanation.

THE CHAIRMAN: Have you seem some of the articles that have been published?

JUDGE CUTLER: Yes, I have seen some of them which have attempted to interpret my own language and tell what I meant by a motion which I made to send out to the coast
two gentlemen whom I believe do not need to publish any explanation of why they went out there, and I don't believe that I should add anything to the meaning of the motion which gave that committee its power by publishing any explanation of what my motion meant. I have not any very definite opinion on this matter, but I think we ought to take the attitude that we are not bound to explain our actions to our enemies any way; our friends won't ask us to explain.

DR. DWIGHT: As the younger of the directors and as one elected for one year, I should have a great deal of hesitance in breaking into a discussion which it seems to me is extremely important, but I do feel very strongly about it, and I believe in what Mr. Cutler said so deeply that I feel that it would not be doing justice to myself by remaining silent on a matter of this kind. I read that article with care. I read it over three times, with the idea in mind as to how it would affect one who did not know the details. I am so unfortunate as to be a director who does not know the details, not having been present at the meeting. My opinion as to its effect on the American Kennel Club is of no value. My opinion as to its effect on the public without knowledge, I think is of a little value. It seems to me that it is always a mistake to say too much. I think what you do not say you do not have to take back. I think it is always a mistake to do too much explaining. It is a very easy matter to hire a clever attorney or a clever newspaper writer who can beat us at their own particular game. I do not believe in going into a game when we are going to get licked by doing so. I think we would lose a great deal more than we would gain by so long an article, by so much explanation or so much criticism of individuals. I do not believe that you have reached the stage where it is necessary at all. It seems to me it is always unwise to explain by throwing mud at another fellow even if he is very guilty. We may have a little of it stick on our own hands.
It has been said that we need not fear the East. We need not fear the East. You have got the East now, but you do not want to do anything that is unnecessarily going to bring about criticism in your own strong holds.

MR. WILMERDING: I coincide with these gentlemen who have just spoken on this matter. I think the article is much too lengthy, and I also think that there are a number of paragraphs which should be eliminated. I have made some notes which I have not at hand now connected with it, but I did show them to Mr. Vredenburgh. I think if an article should go out, it should be much shorter than the present one, and there seems to be a little flavor there of mud slinging. The phase that seems to predominate throughout is the one of explanation, which, as the gentlemen here said a moment ago, seems to me quite unnecessary.

DR. DE MUND: I think that the American Kennel Club should define its attitude. We have been attacked be almost every paper, and no answer has been made in any way. I do not believe in an explanation, but I do believe in a statement of the facts of the case. Reference has been made to the Ashland House Committee. If a statement of the case has been made at that time before publicity has been given, there never would have been an Ashland House Committee; and I think we are in the same condition now, that we should state our attitude plainly and give the dog people of the country an opportunity of knowing all of the facts of the controversy, and not be confined to only one side of it.

MR. MOORE: In my remarks I did not intend to convey the idea that I am opposed to the publication of a statement of the facts. I think that is an excellent idea. I was talking of that article as it was submitted to the directors. I don’t think that any of the members of the Publication Committee would oppose a statement of fact. They did not seem to be particularly opposed to that particular article.

MR. HOOLEY: I think some of these gentlemen perhaps did not read the Kennel World and some of the California papers and therefore they do not know how the matter is treated out there. Page after page in every issue has been published. Added to that there has been editorial criticism, and to all this there has been no reply, and we stand held up and nailed up to the cross and nothing done. It seems to me something ought to be done and done at once, particularly as they go into details so strongly on the coast.

MR. B. S. SMITH: There is one paper here in the East which has taken a very bitter attitude toward the American Kennel Club from the start of this controversy, and I understand that that very paper to-day has suspended hostilities in a measure owing to the fact that they are waiting to hear the side of the American Kennel Club before they write any more against it. That editor has had ammunition from the other side. He knows nothing whatever about what reason was for doing these things, so it seems to me that is one very good argument in favor of publishing some sort of an explanation in regard to our attitude in this matter.

THE CHAIRMAN: It does not seem to me that this is so much a matter of explanation as it is of saying what we had done; not why we did it, but what we have done.

DR. DWIGHT: I think I agree and I think every gentleman in this room will agree that a careful statement of the facts might be very advisable. My own feeling is that personalities, calling names, is always unwise. That article, while it may not have been read by everybody in this room, has been read by a larger percentage of the people in this room than by the outside world, and what we are doing now is to lay ourselves open to criticism by everybody. Having that article published in every paper it becomes our official answer. We call names, we accuse them of various things which it would be difficult to prove. We use very many adjectives, which is usually unwise, and it does not seem to me a dignified article as representing a moral, judicial position. I think such an article as that would give the other side a lot of ammunition. I think if any article goes out it should be a very careful and a very question, leaving something to the imagination. Let the other side see the strong point. It seems to me it is very injudicious in its present form.
MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I would like to second the motion that has been put in connection with this matter.

MR. KEASBEY: On reading that article it struck me as being very good, and I like it all except galley No. 5, I think that should be eliminated.

JUDGE CUTLER: I read a copy of the Kennel World, and I would consider that I had cheapened myself, I should consider that the officers and the members of this club would cheapen themselves by answering any of the stud that was published in that paper. There is only one way to deal with a statement of that kind, either ignore it, or kick it downstairs. You cannot enter into a discussion with a man that will put out that kind of stuff. He will beat you. We send two gentlemen out to the Coast to talk with those people to find out what the facts are, to find what are their grievances and bring them back to us and report. If that sheet is indicative of their attitude, are we going into a diplomatic correspondence with a gang of muckers. We do not want to talk with them. We do not want to deal with that kind of people. What better could we have done than to have sent out Vice-President and our Secretary out there with sole power to investigate and ascertain what their grievances were and bring them back to us so that we could act intelligently upon them, and yet note the kind of treatment which they received from their local dog press, treatment which I would not want to receive from the lowest sheet that I can think of. We do not want to explain anything in answer to that kind of talk. We cannot do it and maintain our dignity as gentlemen. That is my position in reference to it.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think it is with the idea of giving the general press a true statement of the facts.

JUDGE CUTLER: We will only dignify that paper and will not help ourselves any.

MR. PALMER: I agree thoroughly with all that Judge has said, and it seems to me that the Kennel World and the other papers of that kind have about exhausted all their ammunition. I don't know what more they can say. So far as denying these statements is concerned, it is merely giving them an opportunity to keep up the fight, and we will have it all over again. We certainly would lose our dignity.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: It seems to me when two members and officers of the American Kennel Club are sent out as a committee to the Pacific Coast, and statements are there made against them which appear in nearly all of the papers, it is up to the American Kennel Club to make some statement to the general press.

JUDGE CUTLER: All you can make is a statement that you cannot publish and would not publish.

MR. RUTHERFURD: I simply want to say that I think Judge Cutler has stated the matter very well, and I think the simplest way would be to have the case put in a very few words, that the Vice-President and Secretary had been sent out there, for what purpose, that they had conferences with the dog world, and that articles have been written by the kennel press—I have not read them—they seem to be pretty long—should not even be alluded to, and give that statement to whatever dog papers or daily papers you see fit.

DR. DE MUND: It seems to me that some of the gentlemen lose sight of the fact that it is not the kennel press alone, but it has been every paper that has misquoted or told half of the truth as to the condition of affairs, and we have no way of answering it or putting it before them exactly according to the facts. A great many papers have quoted part of the truth about a matter and have worked it around to the disadvantage of the American Kennel Club, and it has not been answered in any way.
THE SECRETARY: Mr. Chairman, you will bear me out that at your suggestion you collated from the press diverse criticisms, misrepresentations and misstatements that had been made form time to time for a number of months regarding the attitude of the American Kennel Club. This statement is not drawn from the imagination at all. It is absolutely a statement of the facts a statement that can be proven every word. The mud slinging that is in this statement you will find is quotation from different papers. There is only one statement that I can recall that was not susceptible of proof, and it is only within the last three weeks that I have found that out—I was told by one of the parties implicated. We say on galley No. 5 that Mr. Chute is personally responsible for altering the entries on the San Francisco catalogue. That is not so, and I therefore struck it out. Dr. Spriggs, who was the Secretary of the San Francisco Club, of which Mr. Ellery was the President, called at this office about three weeks ago, and after talking the matter over with him I showed him the bound catalogue that was sent here as the official catalogue of the San Francisco Show. He examined the ten interlineations, and he told me positively that they were in the handwriting of Mr. Ellery himself and not in the handwriting of Mr. Chute; that he was very familiar.
with Mr. Ellery’s handwriting, and this was his handwriting. Just as soon as he stated that I struck out these three lines, and we make no allusion whatever as to who made the interlineations. Outside of that I do not know of a single thing in this statement that is not an actual fact.

MR. RUTHERFURD: It may be that a great many of them are facts to the best of your knowledge later on that they are not true, just as in this article were published to correct it. I think something very short, very much to the point and carefully gotten up should be sent not only to the dog papers, but to the daily press. I think that would cover the ground.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you mean referring to the San Francisco matter in a few words and all these matters should be referred to in a very few words?

MR. RUTHERFURD: Yes, very carefully and well done, so that nobody could prick it with a pin in any way, opening no argument, asking no questions, answering no questions, simply stating the facts as to what the trouble was out there.

THE CHAIRMAN: You cannot mention that trouble out
there without mentioning names.

MR. RUTHERFURD: I did not say not to mention any names. I do not say that it would be necessary to withhold all names, but I should not make any strictures on those names.

THE CHAIRMAN: What is your suggestion as to what should be done with this article?

MR. RUTHERFURD: I should have the Chair appoint a committee called a Publication Committee; a committee that the Chair considers competent to prepare such an article.

MR. HOOLEY: Would the Vice-President and the Secretary consider it in anywise discourteous if it should be declared as the sense of this meeting that it would be injudicious to publish the article proposed?

THE CHAIRMAN: No, not at all.

MR. HOOLEY: Why could not that article be boiled down as suggested by Judge Cutler and Mr. Rutherfurd and other gentlemen here, and made to fit the case, as the judgment of the majority seems to be, with the understanding that no discourtesy was intended to anybody.

JUDGE CUTLER: I move as an amendment to the motion that the Chair appoint a committee of three to take this matter under consideration with power to prepare and publish such statement as they deem proper.

MR. HOOLEY: As I understand it, using this article as a basis?

JUDGE CUTLER: Yes.

Amendment seconded.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think if you take that article and boil it down and make a dignified article of it, they will print it, but nobody will read it. The people in the Kennel World are used to plain facts.

DR. DWIGHT: There is just one more word I desire to say, and that is, the statement has been made, or the question has been asked, if Mr. Hunnewell and Mr. Vredenburgh would consider that discourteous. It seems to me it should be impressed upon these officers and upon the public, not only the kennel public, but the greater public, that instead of suggesting any discourtesy to our officers, them, and especially in all of their actions in connection with this mission on which they went. I think that should be made very plain; that the Board of Directors are backing them just as hard as we can.

DR. DE MUND: I accept the amendment.

THE SECRETARY: While you are discussing this matter, I might say that Mr. Hunnewell stated in an interview he had with a newspaper man that he found fault with me as the Secretary of the American Kennel Club because I did not answer these misstatements and the different statements made in the newspapers, and quoted the act of the Secretary of the English Kennel Club, that he did it. If I live until the 6th of next May I will have been Secretary of this club for twenty-five years, and up to this time I never have gone into print to contradict anything. I did not think it was my business; if any contradiction was to be made, it should come officially from the club, and not from me. If the Board of Directors think that it comes within my duty when I see any newspaper criticism or misrepresentation to answer it, I should like to know that from the Board of Directors. Personally I should never do it unless I was so directed.

    MR. RUTHERFURD: My idea is that this article should come from the Directors.
    THE CHAIRMAN: It was written using the facts as they were given by me.
    MR. RUTHERFURD: I think that would be a fatal mistake for us to publish an unofficial statement.
    THE CHAIRMAN: It is not signed.
THE SECRETARY: I was given these facts that Mr. Hunnewell culled from the newspaper and the minutes of our different meetings simply to use and whip them into shape. There were no views of his own that he advanced.

The motion as amended was then put and carried.

The Chair appointed Messrs Cutler, Mr. Brooks and Dr. Dwight as the committee of three to prepare and publish such statement as they deemed proper.

The following was moved by Mr. Hooley, seconded by Mr. S. R. Cutler:
Resolved that the American Kennel Club hears with deepest regret of the death of its first President, Major James M. Taylor, and extends to his family its heartfelt sympathy in their great loss.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

THE SECRETARY: I submit two applications from the Yorkshire Terrier Club of America, one from New York and one from Boston. The one hailing from New York has been refused by the Membership Committee, but the application from the club hailing from Boston has been signed by all the members of the committee.

MR. MORTIMER: Is there any reason given why the application of the New York club was refused?

THE SECRETARY: No. The chairman of the committee is here.

MR. WILLETS: The application of the New York Club was refused on several grounds. We think that the Boston Yorkshire Terrier Club is entitled to membership because it was actually sent in before that of the New York club.

A ballot being taken, the Yorkshire Terrier Club of Boston was duly elected.

The New London Kennel Club was also elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Dandie Dinmont Terrier Club:                James J. Fox
Ladies' Kennel Association of California:    Edward Brooks
Cleveland Fanciers' Club:                    George W. Batson
Duquesne Kennel Club:                       Joseph B. Vandergrift

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

To the Delegates,

of the American Kennel Club.
“Gentlemen:

I beg to report that I have submitted to the Membership Committee three applications for membership, one for the Yorkshire Terrier Club of America, with headquarters in Boston, the other for the Yorkshire Terrier Club of America, with headquarters in New York City, and one for the New London Kennel Club, at New London, Conn. Also credentials appointing delegates received from the Cleveland Fanciers’ Club Co., Dandie Dinmont Terrier Club or America, Duquesne Kennel Club, and the Ladies’ Kennel Association of California.

“In accordance with Article XVIII, Section 3, By-laws, the Membership Committee shall at this meeting suggest the names of five delegates to act as a Nominating Committee for six Directors whose terms of office expire
starting with 500 registrations and then publishing every year 600 or 700, it would be lost in the shuffle in time. That, gentlemen, is one of the subjects that we must consider. The other matter is the question of defending any suits or helping them in the West to do so. Those are the steps before you. Mr. Vredenburgh is very familiar with the matter. He can answer any questions. If any one desires to make any statement, now is the time to make it. Mr. Hunnewell and Mr. Vredenburgh were out West recently trying to ascertain the cause of the dissatisfaction existing there, and they can tell you a great deal more than I can.

MR. HUNNEWELL: At the last meeting I think I told all I know about it. I gave my impressions and a statement of facts which appeared in the Gazette, and also my personal impression of the whole matter, and I am perfectly willing to answer any questions. All those gentlemen whose names you mentioned as being in connection with this National Breeders Dog Association were talked
THE CHAIRMAN: Were they out friends?

MR. HUNNEWELL: No, not those men you have mentioned there. They acted as our friends at the time, but we were a little skeptical about it then. George Gray was Secretary of the Oakland Kennel Club, and all those people are Ellery men. When I was out there I thought the row was a little but more serious than Mr. Vredenburgh did. I thought there was a certain kind of dissatisfaction apart from Ellery, but I don't think they knew what it was. They were just dissatisfied on general principles, as is very apt to be the case against the East.

THE CHAIRMAN: They had their own committee.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Their contention was that they did not have any voice in electing the committee, which was a very good point. It was a compulsory committee, and it all came down to the question of Mr. Norman. It is personal antagonism against Mr. Norman, because he was put in a position he had no right to be put in. He had to act just as our Secretary does, and then he had a to vote, and they came to the conclusion that he penalized somebody for an offence there--- he was on a committee of give and had one vote, and that they all did as he said, and that position they took was a perfectly justifiable one.
We answered that by telling them that they could elect their own committee; that under our constitution they could suggest names to the directors and the directors would elect them; but that was not enough. In fact if we granted everything they asked for it would not have been sufficient unless you exonerated Ellery.

THE CHAIRMAN: So far as Ellery went, but how about the rest of the Coast?

MR. HUNNEWELL: The rest of the Coast was perfectly satisfied, but Ellery has a big following. There is great antagonism to the American Kennel Club – not against the club, but against the Pacific Advisory Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: On what grounds do they want Ellery reinstated, simply because he is Ellery?

MR. HUNNEWELL: Because he is Ellery. They never gave me any other reason. I said that it did not make any difference, that if Mr. Belmont or I, President and Vice-President, did what Mr. Ellery did we would be brought up before the Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: What was the exact reason for this disqualification?

MR. HUNNEWELL: We did not disqualify him; we suspended him. He is only suspended. As I told them out there, Mr. Bloodgood and I were here at the time when this thing came up, and Mr. Vredenburgh asked me to do it, and I said no, it was the President’s duty to do that, and Mr. Bloodgood and I sent word to you that if you did that we would back you up. That was the time if you did that we would back you up. That was the time they said the thing has been misquoted to you. I told them out there that was no such thing, that Mr. Bloodgood and I sent word to you that if you did that we would back you up, and Mr. DeMund was there at the time.

DR. DE MUND: That action was sustained afterwards by the entire Board of Directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: That was under the rules a duty which I had to perform in order that the discipline shall reach a man immediately, which action shall be sustained or otherwise by the Board.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It was unanimously sustained at the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: Their own Board out there, what have they got to do with it now?

MR. HUNNEWELL: As the matter stands at present Ellery has to come up for trial. Then he has the right to appeal.

THE CHAIRMAN: He must come up before them?

MR. HUNNEWELL: First.

THE CHAIRMAN: That he would not do?
MR. HUNNEWELL: That he would not do. He absolutely refused to do it. I had a talk with Ellery.

THE CHAIRMAN: Were there not some changes with regard to his registrations?

MR. VREDENBURGH: He made twelve entries, and they were published in the catalogue, and then when the official catalogue came to us there were ten interlineations, three of which was the changing of the name of the sire, and the other nine was the changing of the dates of birth.

MR. HUNNEWELL: But he has the privilege of explaining why he did that. No fraud has been proved against him at all. Mr. Ellery told me that Norman had no business to bring him up accuse him, because he know his records were burned. I asked him what that had to do with it. He said he had no business to do that because he knew his (Ellery’s) records were burned. He told me that Norman has no business to bring him up before the committee because he know that his records were burned. I told him that all he had to do was to go up and explain it.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Were they home bred dogs?

MR. VREDENBURGH: Home bred dogs.

MR. HUNNEWELL: There were twelve changes in all. We did not go into that matter out there to any extent because the matter had not been tried, and we did not want them to get the impression that we were going over the heads of the Pacific Advisory Committee. We could not go over their heads.

THE CHAIRMAN: The only thing with regard to that is that they cannot compel an inquiry. They are prepared to listen to anything he has to say, but he will not go before them.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Yes, but his contention is that where the Pacific Advisory Committee erred gravely was that they sent him first a letter saying that there was going to be a meeting and he was to appear, but they did not send him the time of the meeting or the place. Then Ellery – not Ellery, but it is all the same thing—sent a registered letter to the Secretary asking where this meeting was to take place, and Norman paid no attention to it, and therefore Ellery’s contention is that he could have been tried without having an opportunity to be heard. I saw Ellery’s lawyer, who was there at the same time with Ellery, that is Cook—and he was a Judge out there – I said: “Mr. Cook, when you sue a corporation or one of the members of a corporation, don’t you read the constitution of the corporation first?” He said yes. I said: “Why didn’t you read the constitution of the American Kennel Club first?” He said: “I took Mr. Ellery’s word for it.” I then showed him the rule by which no man can be disqualified without proper notice. He said: “That is not proper notice,” but Cook acknowledged that Ellery had not anything to stand on in that regard.

DR. DE MUND: Don’t they dispute that any registered letter was ever received?
MR. VREDENBURGH: No. Mr. Ellery stated he sent a registered letter. They dispute that, that he did not –

MR. HUNNEWELL: Well, it is the same thing. I mean the two things are so closely connected that one goes with the other. Ellery is one individual and the Ellery Club is the other.

THE CHAIRMAN: When is that committee on the Coast appointed?
MR. HUNNEWELL: They are appointed here by us every year. Norman is now a paid secretary with no vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yet they do not want him?
MR. HUNNEWELL: I do not know what the row is about now, but it is the same thing.

THE CHAIRMAN: Ellery, under the present conditions, is out?
MR. HUNNEWELL: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: And he will not submit to that?
MR. HUNNEWELL: He will not submit to that, because he claims a change of venue. He says they are prejudiced against him and he wants to bring the matter before the fair board.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Have you an explanation at all about those two matters?
MR. HUNNEWELL: I would not distribute them with him.

MR. VREDENBURGH: They told us they were printer’s errors.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It was none of my business. It was the Pacific Advisory Committee’s errors. It was none of my business to find out what his errors were.

THE CHAIRMAN: Two months ago I rather got the impression from you that this movement was not a serious one.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I did not think it was.

THE CHAIRMAN: I would liked to have known that, because of it was not serious it seemed to me that with all the disadvantages they were laboring under there, without organization, and if they were really satisfied with the committee, this movement would just go the course of most of them, but if they are dissatisfied with the committee, and if it can be said that the committee did not give them a fair show, it sounds a little queer that they should have notified them to appear before them without stating a place or time, and then that Ellery sent them a registered letter, and even then they did not notify him.

MR. HUNNEWELL: But that first notice was exactly the same as our Secretary sends out to-day. He says simply: You will have to appear, but he does not state any date. His claim is, if I did wrong, they did wrong, and they ought to call it off.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is not quite the same kind of a wrong.

MR. HUNNEWELL: His point is that he does not want to be tried before that Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: So far as the Committee is concerned, it seems to me that is our creation, and if we are conscious of the fact that they failed to answer a demand for a hearing, that they should at least take steps to either bring it about or else refer the matter to us. If they have that letter on their files, and they choose to hand it over to us, I do not know of anything that would prevent us from proceeding in the matter.

MR. HUNNEWELL: There is no reason at all.

THE CHAIRMAN: We might perfectly well give them a hint that unless they did that we would be obligated to change the Committee, that we cannot have our interests jeopardized by reason of their doing something that is
MR. HUNNEWELL: Of course their reason is a very good one. They did not want to interfere with the Oakland show, but then they should have told him so. Their reason is a perfectly good one, if they had a reason for not having the meeting; they wanted the Oakland show over with before they had the meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN: It does not sound to me like a very good argument. If a man is under ban of any kind he certainly has a right to demand relief without any reference –

MR. HUNNEWELL: I am merely stating what they told me.

MR. MOORE: When Mr. Ellery said that he had done wrong and we had done wrong, and to call it quits, didn’t he refer to his action in going to court rather than to any other offense?

MR. HUNNEWELL: Yes.

MR. MOORE: Not that he had wrong in making a change in his entries, which he does not admit at all, but that he had gone at once to the California courts to override us.

MR. HUNNEWELL: He went to the California courts because he did not want to go before that committee, and because they did not answer his letter, and he wanted to come before us. There is not a single one of those men that would not be perfectly willing to come up before the Board of Directors.

MR. MOORE: Did not Mr. Belmont suspend him for his court action?
MR. HUNNEWELL: Yes.
MR. MOORE: Not for his offence?
MR. HUNNEWELL: No.

MR. VREDENBURGH: He did not exhaust his remedies.

THE CHAIRMAN: If any one does anything against our interests we have a right to suspend him.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It is more than a right; it is mandatory.

THE CHAIRMAN: I did not know enough about it to believe I was justified in acting under that rule.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I quoted the rule to you and cited your opinion.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The only question for you to decide is whether it was an act prejudicial to the interest of the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIRMAN: I want to see Mr. Wickersham as to whether that rule under which I acted is a rule that would be sustained in court, or whether it was an unjust-tifiable rule to have. We had a litigation here once in this State that established in this State a very important point. We published in our Gazette as a matter of information to our members the disqualification of a man, and that remained there in print, and we were taken into court individually and collectively. We won that suit. They went to the Court of Appeals with it, and that court said we had a perfect right to do that. We ceased to do it because we thought after all that it would work an injustice some times, just as in this case, all the men were perfectly fair. The men who conducted the show had not paid the premiums, and we disqualified under the rules everybody connected with the show, all the officers and everybody. That was decided in our favor, and in this case we will have to defend a suit as to whether we can properly do this.

MR. WILLETS: Do you know on what ground they complain the we are a monopoly under the Sherman act?

THE CHAIRMAN: We have the complaint here. The Secretary can read it to you.

(Complaint read)

MR. MOORE: This was in connection with going to law; this is conduct prejudicial to the best interests of dogs.
MR. VREDENBURGH: Any matter prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, and he specified in his suspension that the rules gave him certain redress that he had not exhausted the remedies the rule provided for, and had gone to court without doing anything, and therefore his act was prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club.

MR. MOORE: No dog show rule covers this case of Mr. Belmont’s. It must be some other rule.

MR. HUNNEWELL (pointing): There is the rule.

MR. MOORE: You raised question of employing counsel to defend suit. There is a resolution passed either by the directors or by the club shortly after our reconstruction, which prohibited us from employing counsel except under certain conditions. Do you recall it?

MR. VREDENBURGH: To originate anything, but not to defend.

MR. MOORE: There is such a resolution, and we ought to have it.

THE CHAIRMAN: That you should have, but it is the object of this meeting that if anything of that kind was done, it should be done by the Board.

MR. MOORE: I am not sure but what the Board has been prohibited by the delegate; I may be wrong.
DR. DE MUND: It must be authorized by the Board of Directors.
THE CHAIRMAN: In other words, that Mr. Vredenburgh or any of the officers shall not be able to employ counsel in connection with anything having to do with the club without authority.

MR. MOORE: I am offering this as a caution. I think we ought to have the resolution.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is what I understand to have been done.

THE SECRETARY: Suit was commenced against us, and we have got to defend it.

MR. MOORE: There is no question about that. When does the time to answer expire?

MR. VREDENBURGH: Two of them have ten days and the rest of them have thirty days. I telegraphed them to retain the same counsel who defended our suit before.

THE CHAIRMAN: In their complaint they do not touch upon my action at all?

THE CHAIRMAN: It may be that they are acting under the stress of a treatment which may not be wholly justified; I don't know. Certainly if we are in the wrong, we ought to correct that.
MR. MOORE: Wouldn’t it be possible to have that suit transferred to the court here where the head of office of the club is?

THE CHAIRMAN: I don’t know.

MR. MOORE: And would that take it out of the hands of the Pacific Advisory Committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not know. The suit is against them. They would have to come all the way here. I cannot remember exactly the details. The way it was presented to me was that here was a man that had committed an error and he would not do anything. This man demanded through a registered letter the time and place for him to be heard, to which he received no reply, and then he sat still. That is new to me.

THE SECRETARY: No, he did not sit still.

THE CHAIRMAN: He sat still in this respect, it was up to our committee after that to give him a chance. He had gone through the West, and if he desired to cut loose and make that a reason, he had something to go on. If he is able to tell that story and to say that these people were laying for him and trying to get his scalp and tricked him, and having no word to appear, and making it appear that no time and place was mentioned, whereas it was his business to see to a matter of that kind—
THE SECRETARY: He had the right to appeal to the American Kennel Club.
THE CHAIRMAN: If I heard such a story as that I would say it was pretty tough.
THE SECRETARY: He did not appeal to the American Kennel Club.
THE CHAIRMAN: I want the contents of his registered letter to the committee.
THE SECRETARY: Asking for a time and place. They never answered that letter, and when we were out there and when they made that report they acknowledged that they did not answer the letter and said it was an error, but on account of that they could not hold a meeting to try the man, and never attempted to hold a meeting to try the man.

MR. HUNNEWELL: They could not hold a meeting after the injunction.
THE SECRETARY: I know that, but they never tried to.
THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me that we need some light about it. Here is a committee that we created, and of course we are going to be responsible for it to a certain degree.

MR. MOORE: We whitewashed them and told them everything they did was perfectly proper.
THE CHAIRMAN: Were you made aware of the fact that they had not answered that letter?

MR. MOORE: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Why did you go over it without any—

MR. MOORE: I don’t know, unless we are all dummies, and one followed the other.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Ellery did not write the letter, but the San Francisco Kennel Club did.

MR. MOORE: I would like to ask if Mr. Norman is not 95 per cent of the whole committee.

THE SECRETARY: No.

THE CHAIRMAN: As between men, I do not think you would for a moment hesitate to say that a committee that had a secretary, paid or otherwise, and that secretary took it upon himself to do something, and the committee in your opinion did the baby act and say it was not their fault, but it was his –

THE SECRETARY: They did not do that. They acknowledged the mistake.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The fact is the committee never had a meeting, and that letter did not come up.

THE CHAIRMAN: But a big stir like this, they must have known it, and we are in a false position if he ever made any attempt to have a hearing at any time.

MR. MOORE: I do not see that there was any necessity for the Pacific Advisory Committee rushing in pell mell to make possible a complication that could have been avoided, and we could have taken the action, or they could after deliberation, but I do not see any reason why we should jump into the pit ahead of the time. The Pacific Advisory Committee is so very anxious to do something that they invariability do the wrong thing.

THE SECRETARY: This rule 2 was absolutely mandatory.

MR. MOORE: Yes, but there is a time and place for everything. You don’t have to do it on the minute. You might as well wait a week and think it over and see whether it is advisable.

THE SECRETARY: They did, and whether it was advisable or not, they must do it.
MR. MOORE: Yes, and now we are in the courts.

THE SECRETARY: If we disqualified the man they could sue us.

MR. MOORE: I am perfectly willing, if we did it, to stand by it, but they are subservient to this club, and they should have in mind the welfare, not of the Pacific Advisory Committee, but the welfare of the American Kennel Club.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Did you and Mr. Hunnewell come to any conclusion which would point to a way of getting out of this thing—in other words, if the right things were done, that this matter could entirely be smoothed over?

THE SECRETARY: The conclusion that I reached was this, that the only thing that could be done would be for us to say just exactly what Mr. Ellery’s counsel said in court, that if we would withdraw the accusation that there was anything apparently wrong in that catalogue, and we state that there was no basis for our suspicion, then they would listen to us.

MR. RUTHERFURD: Was there an accusation made?

THE SECRETARY: There was a question asked to investigate, for him to show cause why these things were done.

MR. RUTHERFORD: Was it put in an offensive way? It strikes me as a very simple thing that a man might get a name—it is frequently done in the New York shows and Boston shows. I have seen errors in the catalogues.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Very well, explain.

MR. RUTHERFURD: But a man is not accused.

MR. HUNNEWELL: He is not accused.

THE SECRETARY: He was asked to come before this Committee and explain this matter.

MR. RUTHERFURD: The way I should thin it should be done would be to state that certain things were charged against a man and then to ask him to kindly state his side of the case.

MR. WILLETS: He said he would explain and he wants to know the time and place appointed for him to do so, and he gets no answer.

THE SECRETARY: He simply went to court and charged that the Committee restrained him from taking any action whatever, but the Committee never attempted to take any action, and he knew that he sent this registered letter to the Committee, and he never appeals to the American Kennel Club. If we did not pay any attention to it then he could have gone to the courts.

MR. WILLETS: There was nothing to appeal except to complain that the Pacific Advisory Committee had not answered a letter which he had written to them.
THE CHAIRMAN: Let me tell you how I feel. It is a small quarrel but it seems to me that our skirts ought to be absolutely clean. There was an effort made for a hearing to this extent that there was a registered letter sent, and the Secretary, who is not a member of the Committee, did not bring it before the meeting.

MR. HUNNEWELL: He was a member at the time.

THE CHAIRMAN: He did not bring it before the Committee, and some say that it was because there had been no meeting. Nevertheless, he did not bring it before the meeting, and that effort was made, and it was so important that they should have answered it. I think they ought to have met and taken action, and we stand, so far as that matter is concerned, wrong no matter how you look at it.

DR. DE MUND: How soon after the letter was received was this injunction suit brought? That restrained them from all action.

THE CHAIRMAN: I know that, but then it was some time.

THE SECRETARY: But, Mr. Chairman, this suit to-day has nothing to do with the Ellery matter.

THE CHAIRMAN: But don’t you see the whole thing is Ellery. What do you suppose he is doing? He may have consulted counsel and found that the rule under which
I disqualified them would not be sustained, and then he goes further and the whole thing is published, and it makes a fine show, and we are put in the position of being a trust doing some one an injustice. The matter is pretty well managed, and behind it all is maybe that he is going to give us enough trouble until we come to him.

DR. DE MUND: There was a resolution passed which I offered at a meeting after your suspension allowing Ellery, on the withdrawal of his suit and submitting them to give him notice of the time and place of the meeting, that his suspension would be removed. He could have accepted that and it would have wiped our the whole thing; but he would not do that.

THE CHAIRMAN: They would act on the record of that letter.

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

DR. DE MUND: If that resolution were read I think it would clear the whole matter.

(The Chairman then read Rule 21).

MR. HUNNEWELL: That covers your action, because the new rules were not then in force; they did not come into effect until the following February.

MR. WILLETS: Was Mr. Ellery advised of that resolution of Dr. De Mund’s? Do you know whether a copy of that was sent to him?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Did you send it to him personally?

THE SECRETARY: I sent it to him personally, and one of the officers of the San Francisco Kennel Club that Mr. Belmont suspended, which matter was afterwards taken out of Mr. Belmont’s hands, and he was suspended by the American Kennel Club—the Secretary was in to see me about two weeks ago, and he told me he was now perfectly ready to come before the Pacific Advisory Committee and make any explanation in his power if we would waive the payment of the $250 which was assessed against the San Francisco Kennel Club to reimburse the Committee, and for their legal expenses only.

MR. WILLETS: That was included in Dr. De Mund’s resolution.

THE SECRETARY: Yes. There is an action now to come up at a regular meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee recommending some such course as that. While this suspended man was here he told me: “I will not show under the National Dog Breeders Association and I cannot show under the American Kennel Club.” He said: “I would like to show under the American Kennel Club.” At the same time he was one of the incorporators of this National Dog Breeders Association. I showed him the marked catalogue where the dispute occurred, and I said: “This is in the handwriting of Mr. Clute, who certified to the correctness of the catalogue.” He said: “You are mistaken; that is in the handwriting of Mr. Ellery himself; I know his handwriting very well.” Now, Mr. Ellery stated to Mr. Hunnewell and to me that the only way that you could convict a man of any misconduct in connection with entries at a show was in connection with the original entry blank, and he told me that if he owned a club, and he made out his entry blank fraudulently for some ulterior purpose, and saw that entry on the copy of the printer for the catalogue, and then deliberately tore up his entry blank, we could not convict him. That is the stand Mr. Ellery took.

MR. HUNNEWELL: There is no question about it that Ellery is a crooked as a ram’s horn. There is no reason at all why the San Francisco Kennel Club should not be allowed to do what the Committee suggests. That eliminated the registered letter because the registered letter was written by the San Francisco Kennel Club. Even there Ellery is back of them, because it has been spilt into tow pieces. Ellery did not write the letter. To be sure, he owned the other club, and if the letter was going to be received it was going to his office, but he did not write the letter. He is back of all this, and these people are as innocent as you and I are.

THE SECRETARY: I told him he was suspended on a technicality.

MR. HUNNEWELL: We have to act according to our rules, but there is no reason why we should not rescind some of them under certain circumstances. There is no reason why we should not allow the San Francisco Kennel Club to go before the Pacific Advisory Committee, remit the fine and let the thing stay on Ellery.

DR. DE MUND: The San Francisco Kennel Club is out of existence.

THE SECRETARY: There are only two members, the Vice-President and the Secretary. The Secretary told me that the Vice President was merely a figurehead.

MR. HUNNEWELL: That lets them in individually. The San Francisco Kennel Club is out of existence.

THE CHAIRMAN: Why?

MR. HUNNEWELL: Because they did not pay their dues. Their contention was that they were suspended and therefore they could not pay any dues, which is perfectly ridiculous. It was while this trouble was on that they were suspended. They ceased to pay their dues because their contention was that they were suspended and therefore could not pay any dues, and while we were out there they sent their dues in, and they were refused because they had ceased on the first of February to be members.

THE CHAIRMAN: What has become of the organization?

MR. HUNNEWELL: They have ceased. They never were any organization; they were about the whole club.

THE SECRETARY: Ellery paid $600 for it, and there was $800 in the treasury.
There were two men left in the old club. He put in two or three men as figureheads.

MR. HUNNEWELL: They say, if we will remit this fine of $250 they will go up and explain to the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MOORE: That has nothing to do with this trouble. It has nothing to do with this present suit.

THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me we have got two things to do. One is to decide intelligently as to what action we want to take with regard to these suits. They have got to be disposed of in some way so far as they touch upon us, and it seems to me the shortest cut would be to appoint a committee to take that matter up and make recommendation at the regular meeting of the Board. It seems a little bit hazy how we should be represented; we are involved in the suit, and to what extent—it is primarily directed against the Pacific Advisory Committee.

THE SECRETARY: And the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIRMAN: They ought to be told to defend it. If you want a competent committee to take the matter up and make a recommendation either at a special meeting, if it is preferred, or at the regular meeting which will be held within twelve days, I think it would be proper that I should appoint one. The only reason I called this meeting was that I am going up to Canada next week, and I expect to be gone until the first of October. I injured myself quite seriously in June, and I want to get well before I go to work again; but I will do anything to you – I have only been a short time in the city. I am going away next Tuesday morning. That is one thing, and then the other one, which I think you ought to have a committee on also, because there is a lot of confusion about it, as to what course we had better take; also in regard to this matter, whether we can get those of our friends to stand by us rather than following Ellery on a misrepresentation of the facts.

MR. MOORE: Do you suppose it would be proper to have somebody address the Pacific Advisory Committee individually and ask them if under certain circumstances they would waive jurisdiction?

THE CHAIRMAN: That might be a good idea, but I think the committee ought to take it up. That committee ought to know the facts, what occurred between the parties, what answer has been made, what action has the Pacific Advisory Committee taken; all that is part of this matter, and see whether they have any connection with this case. What would induce them to come back. We ought to try to take the ground from under Mr. Ellery’s feet, if possible, so that he cannot complain that whatever we have done was not fair, and to see that he has no ground to stand upon, and after having established really what we are going to do, make everybody acquainted, even to the extent of having to send somebody out there. If they are going to establish a big organization, they are on feelings of hostility, and we are going to have endless trouble. We are going to be obligated to act first against this club and then against that club, and the first thing you know it may reach Chicago, and there your rules are and there you begin to disqualify all around, and your suits are pending in court. What are you going to do? You go on suspending, and they bring suits, and the Lord only knows where we are coming out. I suggest two separate committees be appointed to make a report at the next meeting as to the exact condition of affairs.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Would you have time to serve on those two committee, with counsel?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, I will make time. I will read over what there is and make it a point to be present.

THE SECRETARY: There is another very important matter that ought to be taken in hand to-day, and that is to see if we can secure the possession of the Field Stud Book.

THE CHAIRMAN: I have mentioned that before. I think it very important that we should go to work and get the whole organization together, if possible. We cannot do it unless we raise a fund on the part of the members of the American Kennel Club. We do not want to take the money out of our treasury.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I am informed that we can get it for $15,000.

THE CHAIRMAN: I am willing to subscribe $1,000 towards it, if that is the price. I don’t know whether the Kennel Club could afford to pay a certain amount towards it. I stand ready at any time to give a thousand dollars towards it. I think that would remove the danger of opposition in the future very much.
THE SECRETARY: That includes just the stud book. We would have to recognize the 22,000 that they have registered, and there should be a condition made that the American Field would not attempt to publish another such book.

THE CHAIRMAN: It takes a long time to build a stud book up. If it is deemed advisable, that is my position. I will help to that extent. I think we ought not to have any trouble to raise the money if necessary. When it comes time to arrange as to counsel we will see what we can do about that. I am willing to subscribe something to that end; but I repeat my suggestion to you that you take these two subjects up separately, one the question of the litigation, what should be done in connection with that, and what recommendation be made to the full Board with regard to it.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Will these matters come up before the delegates or the directors?

THE SECRETARY: The directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: The other matter is the question of the Ellery case, to see what we can do to bring about some kind of harmony, and if possible get him under the jurisdiction of the club.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I should like to offer a motion that the President appoint two committees, himself to be Chairman of each, and the committees consisting of three each, with power to engage counsel.

THE CHAIRMAN: Whom would we get as counsel?

MR. MOORE: Engaging counsel, even though it might be for a specific purpose, might lead the club into an expenditure that it would not want to pay.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is time enough for the committee report and ask authority for counsel at the meeting of the Board. We want to share that a little; I do not think we ought to authorize them to employ counsel.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Don’t you think they could come to the meeting with a much more intelligent opinion if they had counsel?

THE CHAIRMAN: We might suggest an appropriation of so much for counsel, say $100.

THE SECRETARY: I think that the committee that is appointed on the Field Stud Book had better commence at once to open negotiations for it, so that they can report at the next meeting.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I will add to my motion that those two committees- why not make it one committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: Well, a committee of five?

MR. MOORE: A committee of five is hard to get to-
MR. HUNNEWELL: I amend that motion by authorizing an appropriation of $200 to be paid counsel.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think you had better make it a committee of five, and if you wish me to be Chairman to say that I be simply ex officio chairman. The motion is that the Chair appoint a committee of five, of which he shall be ex officio chairman, to take up the subject of this litigation and the Ellery matter, and an appropriation of $200, and to report at a regular meeting of the Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question of a stud book is certainly a delicate one.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I have a suggestion to make about that. Mr. Chetwood Smith knows more about this thing than anybody else, and he has been talking about this, and I do not know why it would not be a good idea to make him a committee of one on that matter.

The Chairman appointed Messrs. Keasbey, Hooley, Hunnewell and Willets as said committee of five.

Mr. Willets moved that the recommendation of the Pacific Advisory Committee as follows: “Moved by W.W. Stettheimer, seconded by Nat. T. Messer, that it is the sense of this committee to request the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club to remove from their minutes the two resolutions (adopted at a time when the Pacific Advisory Committee through court proceedings was enjoined from action) referring to the San Francisco Kennel Club case and to the William Ellery case, and to certify said resolutions to the Pacific Advisory Committee to be spread on the records of the latter. The purpose of this request is to place the Pacific Advisory Committee in a position to act on the said two resolutions in such a manner as existing conditions may demand,” be approved.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting of the Board of Directors was dispensed with and they were accepted as published in The Gazette.

THE CHAIRMAN: At a special meeting of the Board of Directors held on September 8th, 1910, President August Belmont outlined the situation in connection with the Pacific Coast matter, and at that same meeting another question of importance was informally considered, of which a record was made. If you desire those minutes to be read the secretary will read them.. However, as most of the directors were present at that meeting it may not be considered necessary to read what was said at that special meeting.

MR. RUTHERFURD: I move that the reading of those minutes be dispensed with.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read his report, as follows:

New York, Sept. 20, 1910

To The Board of Director,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this my quarterly report. The reports of the Standing Committees are as follows:

Stud Book Committee of July 27, 1910

Pacific Advisory Committee May 24, June 4, August 6, August 20, September 1, 1910.

The report of August 6, 1910, has been published in the Gazette of August 31st.

Unless you desire the above reports read at this meeting, I will adopt the usual course, and make them part of the Minutes of this meeting, and publish same in the next number of the Gazette.

The License Committee has approved of Twenty-four Licenses since our regular meeting of May 17, 1910.

In compliance with instructions received from this board at its May meeting, satisfactory settlement was made of Mr. J.S. Auerbach’s bill for legal services for the amount suggested by your Special Committee.

The Lexington Kennel Club held a show under License in April, 1910. They failed to file a printed catalogue, in place of which they sent a written list of awards. This we declined to accept and returned same. General Roger D. Williams caused a catalogue to be printed especially for filing with the A.K.C. at considerable expense. This however took time, so that the penalty amounted to $101. I would suggest that this penalty be remitted or if not expedient to do that, that the date deposit of $25.00 be forfeited in lieu of penalty.

The La Crosse Kennel Club held at Licensed Show October 8, 1909, and we were not able to collect from said club $22.00 in listing fees until July 11, 1910. Therefore assessed a penalty of $276.00. The President of said club has filed an appeal setting forth that the fault was entirely that of the secretary, and the other officers had no knowledge whatever that the secretary had failed to pay the listing fee.

The Schuylkill Valley Kennel Club held a Licensed Show December 30-31, 1910, charges were filed against said club for non-payment of certain prizes. This matter was referred by you to the Philadelphia Trial Board, and said Board disqualified the club and its officers. I made a number of ineffectual attempts to obtain word from the secretary, and the President, and it is only at this late day, that the secretary has found time to write asking for the return of their date deposit. This I have declined to honor. I have an appeal from the Vice President of said club for re-instatement, in which he make rather damaging statements against the other officers of the club.
The Rules Governing Dog Shows, Rule III, Section C states “Specialty Club Shows confined to the breed represented by their club shall be rated at four points, specialty clubs not active members may be licensed by the written consent of the parent club and will be rated at two points. The Chicago Collie Club was elected an active member September 21, 1909, having filed with its application the written consent of the Collie Club of America. The question arises whether said club shall be entitled to four points or two points? I am personally familiar with the facts brought about by correspondence with several of the Specialty Clubs, particularly that of the Boston Terrier Club, to the effect that objections were made by the parent clubs to consent to the admission of another club for the same breed, upon the ground that the second club would rate precisely the same as the parent club. These objections have apparently been removed by the rule above quoted. While I am inclined to believe that the letter of the Rules does not apply to a subsidiary club, that has become an active member, yet I am not certain as to the intent of the Rule, and therefore ask for a decision at this meeting.

The American Dachshund Club has filed an application for permission to change the official title of said club to that of the Dachshund Club of America. I would recommend that permission be granted accordingly.

At the annual meeting the appointment of the Pacific Advisory Committee was laid over. Since that time Mr. Norman resigned and became a paid secretary, and Mr. Norman J. Stewart has been nominated to fill the vacancy. As the members of this Committee have been holding over, I am of the opinion that some action should be taken toward their appointment in accordance with their agreement between their committee and this Board.

W. E. Chute of San Francisco has begun a suit against the American Kennel Club. W. W. Stettheimer, and N. T. Messr, members of the P. A. C. Norman J. Stewart and J. P. Norman, neither one of whom are members of that Committee. The complaint is that the American Kennel Club has formed a conspiracy in the restraint of trade, damages are asked to the extent of fifteen hundred dollars and additional five hundred to pay his counsel. The matter has been placed in the hands of competent attorneys, to defend the suit.

At a special meeting of this board held in executive session on September 8, the request of the P. A. C. at its meeting held August 20th, was unanimously granted. the minutes of said meeting are specified above.

A statement by the A. K. C. has been prepared at the request of the officers, galley proofs of which have been handed or mailed to every director in order that proper action on the subject may be taken at this meeting.

The following cases will be referred to the Trial Board sitting in New York.

Appeal of Joseph M. Dickerson against suspension Essex K.C.

Mrs. M. Throp vs. Essex K.C. In this case I am advised by the Club that the check had been mailed on August 4th. I have however been unable to have this confirmed.

Mrs. J.D. Vhay vs. J.W. Burrell. This case has been finally settled and plaintiff asks to have same dismissed and deposit returned to her.

J.H. Blackwood vs. Westminster K.C. In this case the special claimed was donated by the Scottish Collie Club, through W.C. Hunter, Secy. Collie Club of American. Hunter has been disqualified for his refusal to turn over to the Collie Club of America the books, records and papers, which were in his custody while secretary.

James Watson vs. Staten Island K.C. Requesting an investigation of statements made by the Staten Island K.C. reflecting on Watson in one of Sporting Papers.

J.E. DeMund and A. Albright, Jr. vs. Dr. A. Boultee.
Jennie A. Holeschuh vs. Mrs. J.K. Fox.

The following cases will be referred to the Trial Board sitting in Philadelphia:

Mrs. Harry S. Peaster vs. The York K.C.

Howe Totten vs. Duquesne K.C.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer's report was read as follows:

New York, September 20, 1910

To the Board of Directors,

Gentlemen:

I beg to present the financial statement from January 1st to date:

Balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1910 - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - 19,318.64
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date, - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - 18,858.27
Total 38,176.91
Disbursements from Jan. 1st to date - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - 18,117.32
Balance on hand 20,059.59

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
THE CHAIRMAN: Five names have been submitted to me as candidates for election as members of the Pacific Advisory Committee. They are: N.J. Stewart, Dr. W.P. Burnham, N.T. Messer, W.W. Stettheimer and H.H. Carlton. Mr. Stewart is nominated in place of Mr. Norman, who has resigned.

DR. DeMUND: I move the nomination of those gentlemen named as members of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

On motion nominations were closed.

Nominations seconded and carried

MR. MOORE: To conform to the agreement with the Pacific Advisory Committee necessitating a change in our rules I offer the following amendment to the constitution:

Article VI, Sec. 5, after the word “elect,” strike out “and thereafter the Board shall annually elect.” Add the following paragraph: “At the annual meeting in 1911 or any adjournment thereof, the Directors shall elect five members, one of whom shall hold office until the annual meeting in 1912, one of whom shall hold office until 1913, one of whom shall hold office until 1914, one of whom shall hold office until 1915, and one of whom shall hold office until 1916, and at each annual meeting thereafter the Directors shall elect one member to hold office for five years.”

This matter was referred to the Rules Committee,
which reported in favor of the amendment.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

New York, July 27, 1910

Meeting of the Stud Book Committee was held at the office of the American Kennel Club, July 27, 1910.

Present: James W. Appleton, Chairman
Singleton Van Schaick

The Committee recommend that under the head of Foreign Dogs the Doberman Pinscher be recognized and the general term “Pinscher” be omitted.

Complaint of W.H. Harris re the Bull Terrier, “Chess”.

The Committee recommend the cancellation of registration No. 138840, also registration No. 109578, and notify Mrs. Leonhart, who registered “Chess.”

Signed, J.W. Appleton, Chairman
S. Van Schaick

On motion the same was accepted and the recommendations therein contained were adopted.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the minutes of four meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MOORE: I move that they be spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.
MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE A.K.C.
Metropolis Bank Building, San Francisco
May 24, 1910

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

In re the application of Horace G. Lepman for reinstatement.

On motion it was resolved to refer said application with accompanying affidavits to Dr. W.P. Burnham for investigation and report as to the truth of the new statements, evidence and affidavits submitted.

In re the entry of William Ellery’s collie, Valverde Virgial, at the San Francisco and Oakland shows 1908, with difference dates of birth, referred to this Committee by the American Kennel Club for investigation and action:

On motion it was resolved that consideration of said case be postponed and the papers filed with the papers in the other cases pending against William Ellery.

In re the protest of the Oakland Kennel Club to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, against the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee for granting dates for a show to the Golden Gate Kennel Club without the consent of the Oakland Kennel Club:

On motion it was resolved that said protest as referred to this Committee by the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, be and is overruled, and that the attention of the Oakland Kennel Club be called to the fact that the interpretation by the Pacific Advisory Committee of Rule V of the rules governing clubs, was confirmed by the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club at the meeting held May 17th, 1910.

The secretary read the minutes of the meeting of the American Kennel Club held May 17th, 1910.

On motion it was resolved that the election of a paid secretary be postponed until the called semi-annual meeting of June 4, 1910.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

Attest: J.P. Norman,
Secretary.

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held June 4, 1910, St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco.

H.H. Carlton in the Chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Chair stated that it was in order to comply with the resolution of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club directing this Committee to appoint a paid secretary.

It was moved and seconded that Mr. J.P. Norman be elected as secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee.
Carried.

Mr. Norman thanked the Committee for the election and tendered his resignation as a member of the Committee.

On motion the resignation was accepted.

On motion the Committee proceeded to consider the appeal of Horace G. Lepman for reinstatement to good standing, Dr. Burnham taking no part in the proceedings on account of having been plaintiff in the case.

It was moved and seconded that on careful comparison of the new correspondence of Horace G. Lepman, and of the old correspondence of 1905 on file, the Committee finds that the allegations stated in the two sets, to be at variance.

The facts of the original case appear to be as follows:

That Dr. Burnham paid $135,000 on April 8th, 1905, for the Collie bitch Brookmere Kelpie, which was to be shipped to him for the San Francisco show in May, 1905. As the bitch was not shipped, and a number of demands for return of the money ignored, as late as July, 1905, H.G. Lepman on November 1st, 1905, was suspended by this Committee for sixty days, to be disqualified if the money was not returned within that time. Disqualification automatically took effect December 31, 1905, because the money had not been received within the time limit.

On review of the case, the Committee finds that the money was returned after expiration of time limit only by reason of the stress of the American Kennel Club’s action, and that there is therefore no reason for removal of the disqualification.

Appeal therefore denied.

On motion the Committee adjourned, for the semi-annual convention of coast delegates.

Attest: J.P. Norman,
Secretary

OFFICE OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB
Berkeley, Cal., June 5, 1910

Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary
American Kennel Club, New York

Dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that at the meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee held on the 4th inst. In conformity with the resolution of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club authorizing the appointment of a paid secretary, the undersigned was elected to that position. In consequence of my election to the position of secretary, I tendered my resignation as a member, which was accepted by the Committee.

At the convention of the delegates of the Pacific Coast Clubs, held subsequently to the said meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, the vacancy caused by my resignation was announced and on motion of the delegate of the Golden Gate Kennel Club, seconded by the delegate of the Western Fox Terrier Breeders Association, Mr.
Norman J. Stewart was selected by the unanimous vote of the delegates and the Pacific Advisory Committee, to be nominate to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club for election to the vacancy on the Committee caused by the resignation of Mr. J.P.
Norman.

I have the honor to remain, dear sir,

Yours very truly,

J.P. Norman
Sec'y Pacific Advisory Committee A.K.C.
ADJOURNED MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held June 4, 1910, St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco

         H.H. Carlton in the Chair.

The Chair stated that the business of the meeting was to act on the recommendation by the Coast Delegates of Mr. Norman J. Stewart, to fill the vacancy on the Committee caused by the resignation of Mr. J.P. Norman.

On motion the recommendation was approved, and it was resolved that the name of Mr. Norman J. Stewart be submitted to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club for election, to fill the vacancy on this Committee.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Attest:   J.P. Norman
         Secretary

MEETING OF DELEGATES OF PACIFIC COAST GUIDE
And
PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE.
Held June 4, 1910, at St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco.

Present: The Pacific Advisory Committee, Mrs. J.J. Matheson, Delegate, Ladies Kennel
         Association of California, Mr. Robert Wallace, Delegate, Golden Gate Kennel Club, Mr. H. Hastings, Delegate
Western Fox Terrier Breeders’ Association

H.H. Carlton in the Chair.

The Chairman informed the meeting that there was a vacancy in the Pacific Advisory Committee caused by the resignation of Mr. J.P. Norman, and that it would be in order for the delegates assembled to select a nominee for recommendation to the Pacific Advisory Committee for nomination to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club. Mr. Wallace nominated Mr. Norman J. Stewart, Mr. Hastings seconded the nomination.

The nomination was carried unanimously.

The Chair then called for discussion on matters of general interest to the Coast.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Attest:  J.P. Norman,

Secretary

The Committee appointed by President Belmont at the special meeting of the Board of Directors held on September 8th, 1910, submitted its report.

On motion the disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee amounting to $49.95 was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: In the matter of the Lexington Kennel Club they held their initial show under license of April 15, 1910, and the secretary sent us a hand written list of awards of the winners and the reserved winners. The rule states that they must file here a printed catalogue, and after some correspondence General Roger Williams said that he would fix the matter up for us, and he has entire catalogue printed with all the entries in regular form for the purpose of filing here, which undoubtedly entailed considerable expense, but before that time arrived one hundred and one days had elapsed after the seven days subsequent to the closing of the show, which meant a penalty of $101.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that the fine be remitted and that their deposit be returned.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The La Crosse Kennel Club collected for the American Kennel Club $22 listing fees. They held their show on October 8th, 1909. I found it impossible to collect that money until July 11th, 1910, just two hundred and seventy-six days after the show was held. The American Kennel Club disqualified the La Crosse Kennel Club and its officers. I have an appeal here from the President of the club asking for reinstatement, and stating that they might desire to hold another show.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I move in this case that the fine be remitted, and that all of the officers be reinstated with the exception of the secretary of the club, and that hereafter in the event that the listing fees are not paid when due the secretary of the American Kennel Club give notice to that effect to all of the officers of the show giving club.

MR. WILMERDING: I second the motion.

MR. PALMER: I understand that the motion is that the secretary of this club is to notify all the officers of the club in case the fees are not paid. It seems to me that that is giving a lot of trouble to this organization. Heretofore we have always dealt only with the secretary of the show giving club. I do not think it concerns us what they do.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think it is just exactly that attitude which has hurt the American Kennel Club tremendously with the general public, the fact that we depend upon one person and pay no attention to any one else. I think if we were a little more liberal in our actions we would save enough in lawyers’ fees more than sufficient to pay that additional expense.

JUDGE CUTLER: It seems to me that it is bad policy for us to disqualify members of a club without giving them notice. I think this case illustrates the principle very well. It seems to me that it is an erroneous idea, which has been followed for some time, in case the secretary of a club is negligent as to sending in fees to disqualify the whole club.

THE SECRETARY: Only the officers.

JUDGE CUTLER: Well, the officers. Every one familiar with local clubs knows that the Vice President and Directors of the clubs have very little to do with the practical working of clubs. If the secretary neglects his duty it is not proper for this club to disqualify the officers for the secretary’s negligence. I concur in what Mr. Smith has said in this regard. I think it is sportsmanlike, and I think, to put it a little stronger, it is common decency to notify a man that he is likely to be disqualified because of somebody’s neglect before he wakes up and finds that he has been disqualified without knowing anything about it. I am very glad this motion has come up. I would like to add to the motion that our secretary not only gives notice to the officers as to unpaid listing fees, but in connection with fees of all kinds.

THE SECRETARY: It is not only the fees, but some times it is the catalogue that is not sent in at the proper time.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I accept Judge Cutler’s amendment and shall ask that hte motion read in this way: If the listing fees or other requirements are not complied with, which under our rules would call for disqualification, the officers of the club be notified.

THE CHAIRMAN: The secretary suggests that the notice goes to the Secretary because he is the only person to whom it can be sent. If it is sent to the other officers it would only mean two or three extra letters, and I agree with Mr. Smith and with Judge Cutler that such a course of action would put us on a broader basis.

MR. HOOLEY: I think Mr. Wilmerding can testify in connection with several clubs that we have been connected with, in one case particularly, where the secretary was very lax, and because of the negligence of the secretary of the club nearly everything was put up to Mr. Wilmerding, who was President, to straighten out. This club would have been disqualified if Mr. Wilmerding has not attended to the matter. I think those of us who have been up against it in that respect, as most of us have, can realize the necessity of the passage of Judge Cutler’s motion. I think it is absolutely essential that the officers of the club be notified. Suppose the secretary dies, who would you notify?

Motion as amended carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Schuylkill Valley Kennel Club defaulted in the payment of prizes, and the matter was referred by the directors to the Philadelphia Trial
Board. That Board met and gave the defaulting club an opportunity to appear, and finally disqualified them. I submit an appeal from one of the officers of that club.

On motion the matter was referred back to the Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: The Chicago Collie Club became a member of the American Kennel Club in 1909. They obtained the written consent of the Collie Club of America to be admitted. They were admitted. They are not holding a specialty show, and they claim that they should receive four points for that. I do not know but what they should receive four points, but at the same time I have in mind the correspondence that I had for two or three years with several of the Specialty Clubs in which objection was made. The great objection to their consenting to the admission of a club showing dogs of the same breed as their own, was that the rating would be the same as the parent club received, which is supposed to hold the larger show. I see by the rules that specialty clubs confined to the breed represented by the club should be rated at four points; that specialty clubs not active members may be licensed and only get two points. The question is, what was the intent of the makers of the rule, whether if a club became a member with the consent of the parent club it would receive the same rating as the parent club of not.

MR. MOORE: That was certainly the intent.

MR. PALMER: Heretofore all clubs that have come in and been recognized as members of the American Kennel Club have been rated at four points?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. MOORE: It was understood that in several breeds, if the club holding the show was a member, it got four points.

THE SECRETARY: That is the rule then that members, are under the circumstances, entitled to four points?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

On motion the application of the American Dachshund Club to change its name to the Dachshund Club of America was granted.

THE CHAIRMAN: In the minds of a great many people, both on the coast and in the east, there seems to be the idea that the American Kennel Club is a close organization, and that we stand so much on our dignity that we do not answer criticism and vilification, and that therefore our accusers will continue in that way so long as they can keep out of the courts on actions brought for libel. There criticisms have been particularly hard on the committee that was appointed to go to the Pacific coast in order to ascertain the status of matters there, and I think for one if I am not a grafter and making my living out of the American Kennel Club, it is about time for this club to say so. I do not know any reason why we should stand so much on our dignity that we should not explain everything we do, especially in view of the fact that what we do here is done for the best interests of all concerned, and if we are wrong we want to know it. When we are required to act under our rules in a manner which may seem drastic to act under our rules in a manner which may seem drastic to some people, I see no reason why such action should not be explained in the Gazette. At my instigation and with Mr. Belmont's consent I gave the facts in connection with our controversy with certain people on the Pacific coast to the Secretary and asked him to have an explanatory article written for publication, and this article, the proofs of which have been sent to you, is the result. A few corrections have been made since you have received it, but I do not know whether you approve of its publication. I do not know whether you approve of this article, but all I can say is that personally I am a little but sick of being called a member of a gang and all that sort of thing. I think it is up to the directors to put Mr. Vredenburgh and myself right before the public. I cannot see any harm in it. We can always go into executive session when we wish to, but what we do publicly I think we ought to be able to say why we do it.

DR. DeMUND: I move that the article, of which copies have been sent to every director, be published in the Gazette and sent to all the dog papers in the country with the request that they publish it.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I went over that article pretty carefully, and I think it is going to do a lot more harm than good.

MR. BROOKS: In what way is it going to do any harm?

MR. MOORE: I think it is only furnishing ammunition to the other side to keep up this same sort of vilification. We had the same trouble before in connection with the various reports that were given out in answer to what the Ashland House Committee said against us. That policy did us more harm than if we had kept silent.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think the American Kennel Club by standing on its dignity and not replying to these libels, has gone too far. It has been carried to the point where people think that everything we do here is done behind closed doors. I think the more publicity we can give to every one of our acts the better it will be for us in the end.

MR. MOORE: Have you seen that article?
MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: Yes.
MR. MOORE: That it asks a question and then answers it?
MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: Yes, but I think if the American Kennel Club hereafter took the attitude of giving publicity to all their acts it would greatly improve its standing among dog breeders and exhibitors.

MR. MOORE: Do you think that the majority in the East believe all this stuff that has been published?
MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: It is not in the East that we need fear any trouble; it is from the West and Middle West.

JUDGE CUTLER: I am laboring under somewhat of a disadvantage in this matter. I did read that article very carefully as I came over on the train, and I think we ought to discriminate between publicity and explanation. The American Kennel Club has not yet got to the point, and its officers have not got to the point, and its committee which was sent out to the coast has not got to the point where they are bound to make any explanation.

THE CHAIRMAN: Have you seen some of the articles that have been published?

JUDGE CUTLER: Yes, I have seen some of them which have attempted to interpret my own language and tell what I meant by a motion which I made to send out to the coast
two gentlemen whom I believe do not need to publish any explanation of why they went out there, and I don’t believe that I should add anything to the meaning of the motion which gave that committee its power by publishing any explanation of what my motion meant. I have not any definite opinion on this matter, but I think we ought to take the attitude that we are not bound to explain our actions to our enemies any way; our friends won’t ask us to explain.

DR. DWIGHT: As the younger of the directors and as one elected for one year, I should have a great deal of hesitancy in breaking into a discussion which it seems to me is extremely important, but I do feel very strongly about it, and I believe in what Mr. Cutler said so deeply that I feel that I would not be doing justice to myself by remaining silent on a matter of this kind. I read that article with care. I read it over three times, with the idea in mind as to how it would affect one who did not know the details. I am so unfortunate as to be a director who does not know the details, not having been present at the meeting. My opinion as to its effect on the American Kennel Club is of no value. My opinion as to its effect on the public without knowledge, I think is of a little value. It seems to me that it is always a mistake to say too much. I think what you do not say you do no have to take back. I think it is always a mistake to do too much explaining. It is a very easy matter to hire a clever attorney or a clever newspaper writer who can beat us at their own particular game. I do not believe in getting into a game when we are going to get licked by doing so. I think we would lose a great deal more than we would gain by so long an article, by so much explanation or so much criticism of individuals. I do not believe that you have reached the stage where it is necessary at all. It seems to me it is always unwise to explain by throwing mud at another fellow even if he is very guilty. We may have a little of it stick on our own hands.
It has been said that we need not fear the East. We need not fear the East. You have got the East now, but you do not want to do anything, that is unnecessarily going to bring about criticism in your own strongholds.

MR. WILMERDING: I coincide with these gentlemen who have just spoke on this matter. I think the article is much too lengthy, and I also think that there are a number of paragraphs which should be eliminated. I have made some notes which should be eliminated. I have made some notes which I have not at hand now connected with it, but I did show them to Mr. Vredenburgh. I think if an article should go out, it should be much shorter than the present one, and there seems to be a little flavor there of mud slinging. The phase that seems to predominate throughout is the one of explanation, which as the gentlemen here said a moment ago, seems to me quite necessary.

DR. DeMUND: I think that the American Kennel Club should define its attitude. We have been attacked by almost every paper, and no answer has been made in any way. I do not believe in an explanation, but I do believe in a statement of the facts of the case. Reference has been made to the Ashland House Committee. If a statement of the case had been made at that time before publicity had been given, there never would have been an Ashland House Committee; and I think we are in the same condition now, that we should state our attitude plainly and give the dog people of the country an opportunity of knowing all the facts of the controversy, and not be confined to only one side of it.

MR. MOORE: In my remarks I did not intend to convey the idea that I am opposed to the publication of a statement of the facts. I think that I san excellent idea. I was talking of that article as it was submitted to the directors. I don’t think that any of the members of the Publication Committee would oppose a statement of fact. They did not seem to be particularly opposed to
that particular article.

MR. HOOLEY: I think some of these gentlemen perhaps did not read the Kennel World and some of the California papers and therefore they do not know the matter is treated out there. Page after page in every issue has been published. Added to that there has been editorial criticism, and to all this there has been no reply, and we stand held up and nailed up to the cross and nothing done. It seems to me something ought to be done and done at once, particularly as they go into details so strongly on the coast.

MR. B.S. SMITH: There is one paper here in the East which has taken a very bitter attitude toward the American Kennel Club from the state of this controversy, and I understand that that very paper to-day has suspended hostilities in a measure owing to the fact that they are waiting to hear the side of the American Kennel Club before they write to hear the side of the American Kennel Club before they write any more against it. That editor has had ammunition from the other side. He knows nothing whatever about what ah has been done by the American Kennel Club or what their reason was for doing these things, so it seems to me that is one very good argument in favor of publishing some sort of an explanation in regard to our attitude in this matter.

THE CHAIRMAN: It does not seem to me that this is so much a matter of explanation as it is of saying what we had done; not why we did it, but what we have done.

DR. DWIGHT: I think I agree and I think every gentlemen in this room will agree that a careful statement of the facts might be very advisable. My own feeling is that personalities, calling names, is always unwise. That article, while it may not have been read by everybody in this room, has been read by a larger percentage of the people in this room than by the outside world, and what we are doing now is to lay ourselves open to criticism by everybody. Having that article published in every paper it becomes our official answer. We call names, we accuse them of various things which it would be difficult to prove. We use very many adjectives, which is usually unwise, and it does not seem to me a dignified article as representing a moral, judicial position. I think such an article as that would give the other side a lot of ammunition. I think of any article goes out it should be a very careful and a very judicial statement of fact of which there can be no question, leaving something to the imagination. Let the other side see the strong point. It seems to me it is very injudicious in its present form.
MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I would like to second the motion that has been put in connection with this matter.

MR. KEASBEY: On reading that article it struck me as being very good, and I like it all except galley No. 5. I think that should be eliminated.

JUDGE CUTLER: I read a copy of the Kennel World, and I would consider that I had cheapened myself, I should consider that the officers and the members of this club would cheapen themselves by answering any of the stuff that was published in that paper. There is only one way to deal with a statement of that kind, either ignore it, or kick it down stairs. You cannot enter into a discussion with a man that will put out that kind of stuff. He will beat you. We send two gentlemen out to the Coast to talk with those people to find out what the facts are, to find what are their grievances and bring them back to us and report. If that sheet is indicative of their attitude, are we going into a diplomatic correspondence with a gang of mockers. We do not want to talk with them. We do not want to deal with that kind of people. What better could we have done than to have sent our Vice-President and our Secretary out there with sole power to investigate and ascertain what their grievances were and bring them back to us so that we could act intelligently upon them, and yet note the kind of treatment which they received from their local dog press, treatment which I would not want to receive from the lowest sheet that I can think of. We do not want to explain anything in answer to that kind of talk. We cannot do it and maintain our dignity as gentlemen. That is my position in reference to it.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think it is with the idea of giving the general press a true statement of the facts.

JUDGE CUTLER: We will only dignify that paper and will not help ourselves any.

MR. PALMER: I agree thoroughly with all that Judge Cutler has said, and it seems to me that the Kennel World and the other papers of that kind have about exhausted all their ammunition. I don't know what more they can say. So far as denying these statements is concerned, it is merely giving them an opportunity to keep up the fight, and we will have it all over again. We certainly would lose our dignity.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: It seems to me when two members and officers of the American Kennel Club are sent out as a committee to the Pacific Coast, and statements are there made against them which appear in nearly all of the papers, it is up to the American Kennel Club to make some statement to the general press.

JUDGE CUTLER: All you can make is a statement that you cannot publish and would not publish.

MR. RUTHERFURD: I simply want to say that I think Judge Cutler has sated the matter very well, and I think the simplest way would be to have the case put in a very few words, that the Vice-President and Secretary has been sent out there, for what purpose, that they has conferences with the dog world, and that articles have been written by the kennel press—I have not read them— they seem to be pretty long—should not even be alluded to, and give that statement to whatever dog papers or daily papers you see fit.

DR. DE MUND: It seems to me that some of the gentlemen lose sight of the fact that it is not the kennel press alone, but it has been every paper that has misquoted or told half of the truth as to the condition of affairs, and we have no way of answering it or putting it before them exactly according to the facts. A great many papers have quoted part of the truth about a matter and have worked it around to the disadvantage of the American Kennel Club, and it has not been answered in any way.
THE SECRETARY: Mr. Chairman, you will bear me out that at your suggestion you collated from the press divers criticisms, misrepresentations and misstatements that had seen made from time to time for a number of months regarding their attitude of the American Kennel Club. This statement is not drawn from the imagination at all. It is absolutely a statement of the facts, a statement that can be proven every word. The mud slinging that is in this statement you will find is quotation from difference papers. There I only one statement that I can recall that was not susceptible of proof, and it is only within the last three weeks that I have found that out--- I was told by one of the parties implicated. We say on gallery No. 5 that Mr. Chute is personally responsible for altering the entries on the San Francisco catalogue. That is not so, and I therefore struck it out. Dr. Spriggs, who was the Secretary of the San Francisco Club, of which Mr. Ellery was the President, called at this office about three weeks ago, and after talking the matter over with him I showed him the bound catalogue that was sent here as the official catalogue of the San Francisco Show. He examined the ten interlineations, and he told me positively that they were in the handwriting of Mr. Ellery himself and not in the handwriting of Mr. Chute; that he was very familiar with Mr. Ellery's handwriting, and this was his handwriting. Just as soon as he stated that I struck out these three lines, and we make no allusion whatever as to who made the interlineations. Outside of that I do not know of a single thing in this statement that is not an actual fact.

MR. RUTHERFURD: It may be that a great many of them are facts to the best of your knowledge later on that they are not true, just as in this case you have now cited, and it would be too late if this article were published to correct it. I think something very short, very much to the point and carefully gotten up should be sent not only to the dog papers, but to the daily press. I think that would cover the ground.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you mean referring to the San Francisco matter in a few words and all these matters should be referred to in a very few words?

MR. RUTHERFURD: Yes, very carefully and well done, so that nobody could prick it with a pin in any way, opening no argument, asking no questions, answering no questions, simply stating the facts as to what the trouble was out there.

THE CHAIRMAN: You cannot mention that trouble out
there without mentioning names.

MR. RUTHERFURD: I did not say not to mention any names. I do not say that it would be necessary to withhold all names, but I should not make any strictures on those names.

THE CHAIRMAN: What is your suggestion as to what should be done with this article?

MR. RUTHERFURD: I should have the Chair appoint a committee called the Publication Committee; a committee that the Chair considered competent to prepare such an article.

MR. HOOLEY: Would the Vice-President and the Secretary consider it in anywise discourteous if it should be declared as the sense of this meeting that it would be injudicious to publish the article proposed?

THE CHAIRMAN: No, not at all.

MR. HOOLEY: Why could not that article be boiled down as suggested by Judge Cutler and Mr. Rutherfurd and other gentlemen here, and made to fit the case, as the judgment of the majority seems to be, with the understanding that no discourtesy was intended to anybody.

JUDGE CUTLER: I move as an amendment to the motion that the Chair appoint a committee of three to take this matter under consideration with power to prepare and publish such statement as they seem proper.

    MR. HOOLEY:  As I understand it, using this article as a basis?
    JUDGE CUTLER:  yes.
    Amendment seconded.
    MR. CHETWOOD SMITH:  I think if you take that article and boil it down and make a dignified article of it, they will print it, but nobody will read it.  The people in the Kennel World are used to plain facts.

    DR. DWIGHT:  There is just one more word I desire to say, and that is, the statement has been made, or the question has been asked, if Mr. Hunnewell and Mr.
    Vredenburgh would consider that discourteous.  It seems to me it should be impressed upon these officers and upon the public, not only the kennel public, but the greater public, that instead of suggesting any discourtesy to our officers, we have the greatest and highest possible confidence in them, and especially in all of their actions in connection with this mission on which they went. I think that should be made very plain; that the Board of Directors are baking them just as hard as we can.

    DR. DE MUND:  I accept the amendment.

    THE SECRETARY:  While you are discussing this matter, I might say that Mr.
    Hunnewell stated in an interview he had with a newspaper man that he found fault with me as the Secretary of the American Kennel Club because I did not answer these misstatements and the different statements made in the newspapers, and quoted the act of the Secretary of the English Kennel Club, that he did it. If I live until the 6th of next May I will have been Secretary of this club for twenty-five years, and up to this time I never have gone into print to contradict anything. I did not think it was my business; if any contradiction was to be made, it should come officially from the club, and not from me. If the Board of Directors think that it comes within my duty when I see any newspaper criticism or misrepresentation to answer it, I should like to know that from the Board of Directors. Personally I should never do it unless I was so directed.

MR. RUTHERFURD: My idea is that this article should come from the Directors.

THE CHAIRMAN: It was written using the facts as they were given by me.

MR. RUTHERFURD: I think that would be a fatal mistake for us to publish an unofficial statement.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is not signed.
THE SECRETARY: I was given these facts that Mr. Hunnewell culled from the newspapers and the minutes of our different meetings simply to use and whip them into shape. There were no views of his own that he advanced.

The motion as amended was then put and carried.

The Chair appointed Messrs Cutler, Mr. Brooks and Dr. Dwight as the committee of three to prepare and publish such statement as they deemed proper.

The following was moved by Mr. Hooley, seconded by Mr. S.R. Cutler: Resolved that the American Kennel Club hears with deepest regret of the death of its first President, Major James M. Taylor, and extends to his family its heartfelt sympathy in their great loss.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

THE SECRETARY: I submit two applications from the Yorkshire, Terrier Club of America, one from New York and one from Boston. The one hailing from New York has been refused by the Membership Committee, but the application form the club hailing from Boston has been signed by all the members of the committee.

MR. MORTIMER: Is there any reason given why the application of the new York club was refused?

THE SECRETARY: No. The chairman of the committee is here.

MR. WILLETS: The application of the New York Club was refused on several ground. We think that the Boston Yorkshire Terrier Club is entitled to membership because it was organized before the other one, and its application was actually sent in before that of the New York club.

A ballot being taken, the Yorkshire Terrier Club of Boston was duly elected. The New London Kennel Club was also elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Dandie Dinmont Terrier Kennel Club: James J. Fox
Ladies’ Kennel Association of California: Edward Brooks
Cleveland Fanciers Club Co: George W. Batson
Duquesne Kennel Club: Joseph B. Vandergrift

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

“New York, December 19, 1910

“To the Delegates,
Of the American Kennel Club
“Gentlemen:

I beg to report that I have submitted to the Membership Committee three applications for membership, one for the Yorkshire Terrier Club of America, with headquarters in Boston, the other for the Yorkshire Terrier Club of America, with headquarters in New York City, and one for the New London Kennel Club, at New London, Conn. Also credentials appointing delegates received from the Cleveland Fanciers’ Club Co., Dandie Dinmont Terrier Club of America, Duquesne Kennel Club, and the Ladies’ Kennel Association of California.

“In accordance with Article XVIII, Section 3, By-laws, the Membership Committee shall at this meeting suggest the names of five delegates to act as a Nominating Committee for six Directors whose terms of office expire in February, 1911. In accordance with Article XIX, Section 4, of the Bylaws, the Membership Committee, shall at this meeting nominate four candidates to act as delegates to represent the Associate Subscribers.

“The Inter-State Kennel Club has tendered its resignation as an Active Member to Take effect at once; this club is in good standing and I recommend the acceptance of said resignation.

“I beg to report the following proposed amendment:
Rule Governing Club. 1st. ‘Make a new section, known as Section VII, Article XX, Bylaws, to read:

‘Any Association, Club, Licensed Show, individual person or persons, against whom charges have been preferred, must forward a deposit of $5.00 to the American Kennel Club before their defense will be heard, which deposit shall be forfeited if said charges are sustained.’

“The above proposed amendment is offered by Messers. Smith, Lauder, Jr., and Hooley, comprising the New York Trial Board.

“No. 2. Proposed Amendments, to the Rules Governing Clubs:

‘Strike out the 3rd (third) Article of Rule V, which reads as follows: Clubs Which have not held a show during the year 1908, or prior to September 1st, 1909, desiring to hold a show within twenty-five miles of a place, where a show Has been held, during that year, or the year previous, must obtain the consent of The older club before the application will be approved.’

‘Offered by Dr. J.E. De Mund, Chariman License Com.

‘No. 3. Amend Rule XVI, as follows:

‘Strike out the words (and also all judges’ books) in the first paragraph of said Rule. Make a new paragraph to read:

‘Judges’ books must be provided for all shows held under American Kennel Club Rules, and said books must be filed with the American Kennel Club, within seven (7) days after the closing of a show. Penalty for non-compliance twenty-five dollars ($25.00),’ Offered by Howard Willets.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A.P. VREDENBURGH,
Secretary.”

On motion the same was received and placed on file.

Mr. Willets, Chairman of the Membership Committee, reported the following named gentlemen to compose the Nominating Committee: Messrs. Alfred Maclay, Chairman; E.H. Sackett. Also nominations for Associate Delegates: Messrs. W.G. Rockefeller, Dwight Moore, B.S. Smith and W. Rutherfurd.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

“December 20th, 1910.

“The Stud Book Committee begs to report that since the last meeting, they have added the following to the list of recognized breeds: Sheepdog of the Abruzzes, sometimes known as Sheepdog of the Maremmes, and the Welsh Springer. The Committee now recommends in addition, the recognition of the Shetland Sheepdog, which is now recognized by the English Kennel Club, and of which breed, there are now some representatives in this country.

The Committee reports further. In the matter of the bull terrier Chess. The bull terrier Chess, was registered by Mrs. N. Leonhart, as being bred by Mrs. W.H. Harris. Mrs. Harris denies having bred the dog. No reply to the Secretary’s letter, asking an explanation has been received from Mrs. Leonhart. The registration has been cancelled, and the Committee recommends that the Secretary be instructed to prefer charges against Mrs. Leonhart for fraudulent registrations.

The Irish Terriers, Redskin and Cambridge Dick, were entered at the Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts’ show and listed by Joe Hennessey and P. Bronw, respectfully as being by Thorncroft Sportsman. The breeding is denied by Mr. J.P. Thorndike, the owner of the Sportsman, and the entries were protested by him and the protest sustained by the Ladies’ Kennel Association. The wins have been cancelled, and the Committee is now further investigating the matter.

(Signed)

J.W. APPLETON, Chairman
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

Mr. Edson: I would like to hear a report from the Publication Committee. Since that committee has been in existence we have never had any report of and kind of nature.

MR. WILMERDING: I have no report to make. I am not the chairman of the committee. I only attended one meeting since I have been a member. There has only been one meeting.

MR. EDSON: There has only been one meeting this year. Last year I was a member of the Publication Committee and there were several suggestions advanced for consideration by the Board of Directors. One subject which I remember has never been brought before the Board of Directors, and I cannot understand why the matter has not been brought up. It was suggested at that meeting that the Chairman bring before the Board of Directors the subject of eliminating the publication of pictures in the American Kennel Club Gazette, as it was useless. That was unanimously carried. That happened more than a year and a half ago. I see the pictures are still appearing in the Gazette. I would like to know why.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think your remarks will have the effect of bringing an answer from the committee at the next
THE SECRETARY: I can answer that question now. The pictures are being paid for now.

MR. EDSON: They were paid for before.

THE SECRETARY: No, they were not.

MR. EDSON: Why does the American Kennel Club offer to pay for them when the Publication Committee came to the conclusion that they were useless and that they should be eliminated?

THE SECRETARY: I will not speak for the Publication Committee, but I will say what I was directed to do by the Publication Committee through its chairman, and that is that the expense of publishing pictures in the Gazette was something that we got no return for, and we should discontinue their publication unless they were paid for. In that event to continue to publish. In every case where we have published a picture since that meeting of the Publication Committee we have received our price for the publication of the picture.

MR. EDSON: I have always understood that they were paid for.

THE SECRETARY: You misunderstood.

MR. EDSON: I cannot understand why these pictures were published after the Publication Committee had decided to eliminate them.
THE SECRETARY: I have already stated that the Publication Committee did not decide not to publish them.

MR. EDSON: I call upon the Chairman of the Publication Committee to show me those minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: There is only one member of the committee here.

THE SECRETARY: Whoever owns the dog pays the American Kennel Club for the publication of the picture.

MR. EDSON: Do you mean to tell me that we are getting the benefit of those pictures in the Gazette and are not paying for them? As a member of the Committee, I understand they cost the American Kennel Club Gazette a certain specified amount.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Publication Committee will report at the next meeting.

MR. WILMERDING: This matter did not come up at the single meeting we have held this year.

THE CHAIRMAN: I will ask you to bring it up before your Committee.

On motion the resignation of the Inter-State Kennel Club was accepted.

THE CHAIRMAN: The balance of the Secretary’s report relative to amendments to the constitution goes to the Rules Committee, and I would suggest in the future that these quarterly meetings that every standing committee should send in a report of some kind, so that we may know exactly what they are doing. Very often we have no reports of any committee except the Stud Book Committee. I merely offer that as a suggestion.

Communications were received from Messrs. F.H. Osgood, Edward Brooks, and R.P. Keasbey, giving reasons for their absence at this meeting.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The minutes of the last meeting as published in the Gazette were duly approved.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

To The Board of Directors

Of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report the Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of meetings held October 27th, and November 19, 1910. I would also report that the Special Committee appointed at your last meeting to publish a statement to the press, setting forth the position taken by the American Kennel Club on matters pertaining to the Pacific Coast, finished their labors and having been appointed with full power to publish same, caused papers.

“Since our last meeting, the License Committee has approved of seven licenses.

“At the meeting of the New York Trial Board held November 29, 1920, your Secretary called upon B.F. Simonds, H.R. Williams, as President and Vice-President of the National Airedale Terrier Club, and Herbert M. Wolff, as judge at said National Airedale Terrier Club, at its show held in Kansas City, Mo., which show was held under rules antagonistic to those of the American Kennel Club to show cause why they should not be disqualified, under RULE II of the Rules Governing Clubs. Replied were received from Mr. Simonds, and Mr. Williams to the effect that their election to office in said club, was without their knowledge or consent, that they did not exhibit at said show, not did they visit said show. No reply was received from Wolff. These matters were referred to the N.Y. Trial Board, at its meeting held November 29, 1910, and said Board recommends, that in the case of Simonds and Williams, Rule II, shall not be enforced, and in the case of Wolff, that he be disqualified.

In compliance with Section XI, of the Bylaws, adopted February, 1910, I have to report that the following Directors have absented themselves from the regular meeting of the Board for two consecutive meetings, and are therefore deemed to have resigned; Russell H. Johnson, Jr., Class 1914; Richard Croker, Jr., Class 1913; William Rauch, Class 1912. Their successors should be elected at this meeting, except in the case of Mr. Rauch who has submitted for your consideration his reasons for said absences.

I beg to report that during the present year, at the following shows, National Beagle Club, Greater Houston Club, Texas Kennel Club, Lone Star Kennel Club, and Springfield Kennel Club, failed to provide judges’ books at their shows, and it is stated that the judges used the catalogues in judging. The rules state that judges’ books must be filed with the American Kennel Club, but does not impose any penalty for non-compliance, therefore I am reporting this matter for information only.

At the Chicago Collie Club show, October 1, 1910, there was an entry made under the name of Allendale Assn. owner, the Allendale was registered, William Ross owner. I therefore cancelled the winnings of the dog shown by the Allendale Assn. The President of the Chicago Collie Club appeals from my decision in said cancellation, and asks for a ruling on the subject. Your Secretary joins in this request for his future guidance, as to whether an Association not registered as such can be considered as an owners and exhibit as such.

I have to report that the Pointer Club of America, an Active Member of the A.K.C. at its late Field Trials, accepted three entries at said trials, from J.M. Avent, and permitted him to handle six entries. The said J.M. Avent, is a person not in good standing, having been disqualified for using A.K.C. rules at a show held without the sanction of the A.K.C. and for publishing the approval of the American Kennel Club over the signature of its Secretary without authority. I have therefore called upon the Pointer Club of America through its Secretary to show cause why action should not be taken against it.

The Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, at Washington, D.C., has notified the different association for the registration of domestic animals that on and after January 1, 1911, the privilege heretofore accorded to said association to issue custom certificates, under certain conditions, will be withdrawn, and that all applications for the importation of domestic animals free of duty, must be made direct to the Department of Washington. For general publicity, I have cause the preliminary notice and the new regulations governing the certification of pure bred animals to be published in the forthcoming Gazette of December 31st.

I would respectfully recommend that this meeting resolve itself into executive session to discuss matters of a confidential nature.

The Pacific Advisory Committee bill of $49.35, for disbursements from September 20th to December 13th, 1910, has been filed and found to be correct. The payment of same is respectfully recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A.P. VREDENBURGH,
Secretary."
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

To the Board of Directors,
American Kennel Club,
Gentlemen:

I beg to present my financial statement from January 1st to date:

“Balance on hand, January 1st, 1910 ---------------------------- $19,318.64
“Receipts from January 1st to date ------------------------------------ 25,914.74
“Total --------------------------------------------------------------- $45,233.48
“Disbursements from January 1st to date ---------------------------- 23,986.68
“Balance on hand ------------------------------------------------- $21,246.80

“I also report that all bills for active dues and associate subscriptions were mailed November 30th, 1910.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) A.P. VREDENBURGH
Treasurer”

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The following reports of the Pacific Advisory Committee were read as follows:

“MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE: October 27, 1910
Held at Dreamland Pavilion, San Francisco.

Dr. Burnham in the Chair.

On motion, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Secretary presented certain correspondences, which was ordered filed.

The Secretary presented the premium list and catalogue of the dog show held by the San Jose Kennel Club.

It was moved and seconded, that the San Jose Kennel Club, a member of the American Kennel Club, having held a dog show on October 6, 7, and 8, 1910, under rules antagonistic to the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, in contravention of Rule II of the Rules Governing Clubs, be and hereby is suspended, together with its officers and judges, including H.F. Mann, President, F.E. Baldwin, A. Kammerer, E.K. Clendenning, V.W. Richards, D.A. Robertson, Vice-Presidents, Charles R. Harker, Secretary, E. Van Every, Treasurer, J.C. Berret, Superintendent; J. Hervey Hones and Theed Pearse, Judges, and Henry Berrar, Joseph T. Brooks, Val J. Ruh, E.R. Everett, A.B. McKean and W.S. Sullivan, Members of the Executive Committee, and that said San Jose Kennel Club and its officers and judges are hereby cited before this Committee on November 19th, 1910 at 4:30 p.m., in the Green Room of the Saint Francis Hotel, San Francisco, or by letter within fourteen days from date, to show cause why such suspension should not be made permanent, and why said San Jose Kennel Club should not be expelled from the American Kennel Club. Carried.

The Secretary reported that the following clubs had not complied with the request of this Committee for the lists of officers and members thereof.

It was moved and seconded, that the Secretary be instructed to direct the following clubs to forward the required lists within fourteen days from date: SEATTLE: PORTLAND: OAKLAND: SOUTHWESTERN: HAWAIIAN: CAL. AIREDALE. CARRIED.

The Secretary submitted a notification from the American Kennel Club that the Board of Directors at the meeting held August 20th, 1910, had remanded to the Pacific Advisory Committee, the De Mund resolution, adopted May 17, 1910.

It was moved and seconded, that This Committee do hereby adopt the resolution remanded to this Committee by the American Kennel Club as follows: That on the submission by the officers and members thereof.

It was moved and seconded, that This Committee do hereby adopt the resolution remanded to this Committee by the American Kennel Club as follows: That on the submission by the officers of the late San Francisco Kennel Club of their case to the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, and on the payment by them of $250.00, being one-half the cost of legal services in connection with the injunction suit brought by them against the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, their suspension be removed, AND that on the submission by Mr. William Ellery of his case to the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, and on the payment by him of $250.00, being one-half of cost of legal expenses in connection with the injunction suit brought by him against the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, his suspension be removed. CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded, that the Secretary be directed to notify the officers of the late San Francisco Kennel Club and Mr. William Ellery of the adoption of this resolution by the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, and to call upon them to fulfill the terms of same by paying the amounts involved to J.P. Norman, Secretary of this Committee at his office, 1215 Metropolis Bank Building, San Francisco, on or before November 15, 1910, and in the event of such payment to appear before the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE for trial in the Green Room of the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, on November 26th, 1910, at 4:30pm. CARRIED.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:

(Signed) J.P. NORMAN,
Secretary.”

“MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco,

November 19, 1910.
PRESENT: Dr. W.P. Burnham, W.W. Stettheimer; Nat. T. Messer; Norman J. Stewart
ABSENT: H.H. Carlton

Mr. Stettheimer in the Chair.

"On motion the minutes of the previous meeting were approved, as read.

It was moved and seconded that the San Jose Kennel Club, a member of the American Kennel Club, having been suspended for holding a dog show at San Jose, Cal., on October 6th, 7th, 8th, 1910, under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, and having failed to appear before this Committee, as summoned, to show cause why the suspension should not be made permanent, the said San Jose Kennel Club be and hereby is disqualified and expelled from the American Kennel Club, and that the officers and judges of said San Jose Kennel Club, namely: H.F. Mann, President; F.E. Baldwin, A. Kammerer, E.K. Clendenning, V.W. Richards, D.A. Robertson, Vice-Presidents; C.R. Harker, Secretary; E Van Every, Treasurer; J.C. Berrett, Superintendent; Henry Berrar, Jos. T. Brooks, Val J. Ruh, E.R. Everett, A.C. McKean, W.S. Sullivan, Members of the Executive Committee; and J. Hervey Jones and Theed Pearse, Judges; having been suspended and having failed to show cause before this Committee why such suspension should not be made permanent, they be and hereby are disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club. CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary be and is instructed to communicate to Mr. A. Wolfen, whose name appears as Secretary-Treasurer of the California Cocker Club, in a list of officers and members furnished by that club under date of September 21st, 1910, that such list contains the names of three disqualified persons, and the California Cocker Club is requested to furnish to the Pacific Advisory Committee a list of officers and members, amended so as to omit the names of said disqualified persons from the Executive Committee. Said names being: J. Hervey Jones, H, Leo Park, Val J. Ruh.

CARRIED.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:

(Signed) J.P. NORMAN

Secretary."

THE SECRETARY: The special Committee that was appointed last August have completed their labors and I recommend their discharge. That committee is composed of Samuel R. Cutler, Edward Brooks and Edwin W. Dwight.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that they be discharged with the thanks of the delegates for their work.

Motion seconded and carried.
THE SECRETARY: In relation to the charges brought against B.F. Simonds, H.R. Williams and Herbery M. Wolff, officers of the National Airedale Terrier Club, for holding a show in Kansas City, Mo., under rules antagonistic to those of the American Kennel Club, I have to state that they were given an opportunity to show cause why action should not be taken against them. Messrs Simonds and Williams reported that they had been placed in these positions without their knowledge or consent; that they did not know that they held these offices, and they ask that they be not disqualified. The Trial Board went through this correspondence, and it recommends that Rule II, which calls for the disqualification of such persons, be not enforced. Mr. Wolff, who judged at this show, never replied to my communication, and the Trial Board recommends that Rule II be enforced in his case.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I move that the Trial Board’s recommendation be adopted. Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There are three vacancies on the Board of Directors. In the case of Mr. Williams Rauch, who represents the Westminster Kennel Club, I received a letter from him dated December 16th, giving his reason why he could not attend.

It was moved and seconded that Mr. Rauch’s explanation be accepted.

CARRIED.

THE SECRETARY: The two directors who have not put in any appearance or furnished any explanation for their absence, are Messrs. Russell H. Johnson, in the class of 1914, and Richard Croker, Jr., in class 1913. I may say in connection with this matter that these gentlemen have never attended a meeting of the Board of Directors.

Nominations were made and a ballot being taken, the Chairman announced that Mr. John G. Bates was elected to fill the vacancy in the class of 1914, and that Mr. Alvin Untermyer was elected to fill the vacancy in the class of 1913.

THE SECRETARY: The question now comes before you in relation to the entry made in the name of the Allendale Association at the Specialty Show held by the Chicago Collie Club in October last. It has always been a question in my mind whether that is a good entry. The Association has never been registered with us and we have no means of getting at the individuals who compose the association. If it is necessary to prefer charges or to cancel wins or to discipline. In this case there was a kennel name Allendale registered, owned by a man named Ross. It appears that, within the last five to six days, he has sent in an application to transfer the word “Allendale” from himself to the Allendale Association. The Allendale Association is a farm for young boys for educational purposes. It is a corporation. They showed this collie in the name of their association as owner, and as there has been other instances – for instance, a certain brewing company – I cancelled their wins because we had no record of the proprietors. The President of the Chicago Collie Club asks for a ruling in this matter and appeals from the cancellation that I imposed. I am very glad he did it because I would like your instructions in the matter.

DR. DE MUND: Does not that go to the Rules Committee for interpretation of the rules?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. WILLETS: It seems to me it is rather a hard ruling that an association or number of men together cannot show their dogs. Suppose there were several gentlemen owning a hunting club and they owned some very good pointers and wanted to show some of their dogs at some of the shows. For instance, the Chesapeake Bay Hunting Club,— I do not say that there is such a club — wanted to show some pointers, and they entered them as being owned by the Chesapeake Bay Hunting Club. Are they to be debarred from showing their dogs because the Chesapeake Bay Hunting Club is not registered with us as an owner? Individuals do not own those does; it is the whole hunting club. This dog was simply shown by an association. They do not claim any kennel names or anything else. Mr. Bloodgood and two other gentlemen and myself have an association. Suppose we want to show our setters, would we be debarred from showing them as an association? We must show them as an association.

THE CHAIRMAN: You are opening a very wise road there.

THE SECRETARY: We have what appears to me as a precedent. The Stud Book Committee decided that the Myopia Hunt Club could not enter their dogs as Myopia Hunt, unless they registered the name. That was several years ago, and they did it.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I would like to ask if all the various hunt clubs are registered?

MR. MORTIMER: The hunt clubs are not entered at Madison Square Garden. They do not enter any hounds at Madison Square Garden.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think the point is here, if the hunt clubs that enter dogs do not come under the jurisdiction of the American Kennel Club, they are governed by the rules of the local show.

MR. BLOODGOOD: The whole point of the matter is that the association must be registered.

MR. MORTIMER: If the association is registered, that covers it.

On motion the matter was referred to the Rules Committee.

On motion the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements amounting to $49.35 was ordered paid.

On motion the Dr. DeMund, the meeting went into committee of the whole.

The committee arose and Mr. Bloodgood, the chairman, reported that the matter under discussion has been referred to Mr. Alvin Untermeyer as counsel. Also that it has been resolved that hereafter only the motions and the results of the deliberations be published in the minutes of the meetings in cases of misconduct or charges for misconduct.

On motion the report was adopted.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The report of the election of associate delegates was read as follows:

"New York, February 1, 1911

"Pursuant to Article XIX, Section 4 of the By-laws of the American Kennel Club, the undersigned, Secretary of the said club, duly opened the ballots in the presence of the tellers appointed by the President of said club and certify as follows:

We therefore declare the following candidates, having received the highest number of votes, to be duly elected as delegates for the Associate Subscribers for the year 1911 and until their successors shall have been elected:

William Rockefeller, Dwight Moore, Ben S. Smith, Winthrop Rutherfurd.

(Signed) A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

RAYMOND BELMONT ) Teller
Clarence Sackett ) “

THE CHAIRMAN: The next business in order is the reading of the minutes of the last meeting.

MR. MOORE: At the last meeting of the delegates there was a matter acted upon by them which was an error. The matter should have been brought before the directors, and I would like to have the consent of the delegates to defer that matter of the action of the Board. I refer to the report of the Stud Book Committee. I move that the minutes of that meeting be approved with the exception of the report of the Stud Book Committee and the discussion.
relative to the Publication Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: You move that that part be expunged from the minutes?
MR. MOORE: Yes.
Motion seconded and carried.

The following named clubs were elected to membership:

Gwynedd Valley Kennel Club, Irish Wolfhound Club, Plainfield Kennel Club and Sioux City Kennel Club.

The application of the Toy Dog Club of New England was presented.
MR. MOORE: Has that club ever held a show?
THE SECRETARY: No.
MR. MOORE: Is a motion in order to postpone the election of this proposed member until after the vote on the amendments? In one of the amendments coming up today there is a question on locality, that clubs holding shows shall have jurisdiction within a certain territory.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Is this a specialty show?

THE CHAIRMAN: No. This is the application of a club for membership which has not held a show.

MR. MOORE: They do not claim a town. They are scattered all over Massachusetts, and they could hold a show in Boston if they were elected before this amendment goes into effect.

THE CHAIRMAN: Such a motion as you suggest is in or-
MR. MOORE: Then I make that motion.

MR. BEHRENDSON: Wouldn’t it be better to refer it back to the Membership Committee?

MR. MOORE: I accept that amendment. Amendment seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Santa Clara County Kennel Club was elected on January 3rd by the Pacific Advisory Committee and thereby becomes a new member of the American Kennel Club without any action on the part of this club.

The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Cincinnati Kennel Club: Morris G. Adler
Gwynedd Valley Kennel Club: Charles R. Wood
Santa Clara County Kennel Club: W. S. Gurnee, Jr.
Erie Kennel Club: Ralph C. Stewart
Plainfield Kennel Club: Edmund L. Mackenzie
South Side Kennel Club: Charles A. Kelly
New England Collie Club: H. P. J. Earnshaw

THE CHAIRMAN: The next business in order is the election of directors. There are six directors to be elected at this meeting to serve until 1916. A nominating Committee was appointed and the Secretary will announce their selection, and it is competent for you to elect them as a whole or individually.
THE SECRETARY: The class of directors expiring today have been nominated for the club of 1916:

In the class of 1915 there was a vacancy and a director was elected for one year until this meeting. For that class Mr. A. Clinton Wilmerding is nominated by the Nominating Committee.

For the class of 1914, in a similar way Mr. John G. Bates was nominated.

For the class for 1913 Mr. Alvin Untermeyer was re-nominated for the entire term, and owing to the fact that Dr. Dwight, who was a director and whose club ceased to be a member of the American Kennel Club, it left a vacancy, and the Nominating Committee has nominated Mr. Charles D. Bernheimer in his place.

For class 1912 Messrs. M. M. Palmer and A. Albright, Jr., were nominated.

THE CHAIRMAN: If there is unanimous consent you can authorize the Secretary to deposit one ballot for the gentlemen named, or if you wish to ballot for the gentlemen named, or if you wish to ballot on each of the names or in groups, it is for you to say. I do not find any specific method of election prescribed by the by-laws.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that the Secretary be authorized to cast one ballot for the various nominees as recommended by the Nominating Committee.

    Motion seconded and carried.

    THE SECRETARY: The Secretary has cast a vote for the ticket named by the Nominating Committee appointed by this club last December.

    The Secretary read his financial statement for the year 1910, which will be found published elsewhere.

    “New York, February 14th, 1911.

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my usual report:

    The Philadelphia Dog Show Assn. has tendered its resignation from active membership. This club was in good standing on December 31, 1910, and I recommend that said resignation be accepted.

    Notices from the following Active Members have been filed: Jan. 21, 1911, Bloomington Kennel Club: Feb. 8, 1911, Bull Terrier Breeder’s Assn.: that both have ceased to exist as clubs, and therefore should be dropped from the list of Active Members.

    Under Article XVI, Section III of the By-laws, the following clubs were duly suspended on Feb. 1, 1911, for failure to pay the dues for the current year, and on this date said clubs have ceased to be members of the American Kennel Club.
Bay State Co-operative Bench Show Assn.
Bryn Mawr Kennel Club
Bloomington Kennel Club
Bull Terrier Breeders’ Assn.,
Columbus Kennel Club
North Shore Kennel Club
Topeka Kennel Club

In consequence of the above, the delegates of the Bay State Bench Show Co-operative Assn. ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors, for the class of 1913. A successor for this class should be elected at this meeting.

All the proposed amendments to the By-laws, the Rules Governing Clubs and the Rules Governing Dog Shows have been duly published in the Gazette and the same have been referred to the Rules Committee which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

Since our last quarterly meeting the Santa Clara Kennel Club has been admitted to Active Membership by our Pacific Advisory Committee. I have received application for Active Membership from five clubs and credentials for delegates from seven clubs, all of which have been referred to the Membership Committee which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH

Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

MR. MOORE: The Finance Committee met a short time ago, and its report is embodied in the report of the Treasurer here.

MR. BROOKS: Chairman of the Rules Committee, reported as follows:

The Rules Committee reports the following amendments and additions to the By-laws and Rules Governing Clubs and Shows:

1. Add the By-laws, Section 7, Article XX, as follows: “Any person who may have been suspended or disqualified on charges by any Trial Board and who may appeal for re-instatement shall not be considered unless upon payment by the appellant of the fee of five dollars.”

That was not the rule which was originally submitted to us. The rule which was originally submitted to us called upon anybody who wanted to appeal to make a deposit of five dollars. We changed that so that anybody who has been disqualified or suspended and wants to have a rehearing for re-instatement should be charged a fee of five dollars. We thought it just and proper that he should pay part of the expense incurred by the club in hearing his appeal.

THE CHAIRMAN: That would also protect the club from any number of unnecessary re-hearings as well.
MR. BROOKS: It is suggested more with a view to covering the club’s expenses in holding these various Trial Board meetings. If he wants to be reinstated I think he should pay a part of the expense.

MR. COLLINS: Does that proposed amendment hold that a person against whom charges have been presented shall deposit five dollars?

MR. BROOKS: Anybody who has been disqualified or suspended by a Trial Board. If he has been disqualified by a meeting of the club, and he desires reinstatement, we do not ask here that he shall pay anything, but the proceedings of the Trial Board are rather expensive.

MR. APPLETON: It seems to me that every man who has been disqualified should be on the same footing. If one man wants to rehearing I do not see why he should not pay five dollars as well as another. Under this proposed amendment any one who desires a rehearing does not have to pay. It makes somewhat of a distinction in the two different kinds of disqualifications.

THE SECRETARY: There is more trouble and expense in a Trial Board than there is in having the matter come simply before the club. We have to have special stationery and a great deal of special matter in order to go through the trial by a regularly appointed Trial Board. We have had cases before the Trial Board where two consecutive days have been consumed. The Stud Book Committee may bring up a case and recommend the suspension or disqualification of a man that has committed some error at a show. As I understand, this amendment does not cover anything like that. It only covers the cases where expenses are incurred by the American Kennel Club to conduct that trial.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The cases which come up for trial before the Trial Boards are different from other cases of disqualification entirely. Disqualifications and suspensions have been imposed without any trial at all, and there is no expense connection with them. The disqualified one can appeal from that, and there is no Trial Board. For instance, suppose the President disqualifies somebody. There is no expense connected with that. He is disqualified, and he appeals, and that is the end of it; but the Trial Board has to go to considerable expense. That is the reason we limited the payment of a fee by the appellant to the Trial Board.

MR. MOORE: Why make an arbitrary sum? Why not leave it to the discretion of the Trial Board? Some cases take hours to decide and other cases might not take ten minutes.

THE SECRETARY: The plaintiff has to put up ten dollars, and in eight cases out of ten he gets him ten dollars back because he wins his case, and the Trial Board seemed to think it was not fair to assess the person who has been disqualified a greater sum than five dollars because the plaintiff who brings the suit gets his ten dollars back in eight cases out of ten.

MR. WILLETS: In order to bring this matter before the house I will move an amendment that this shall read: “Any person who may be suspended or disqualified and who may appeal for reinstatement, the same shall not be considered unless upon payment by him of five dollars.”

MR. BROOKS: I will accept the amendment.

Amendment seconded and carried.

The Rule as amended and carried.

“No. 1. Add to the By-laws, Section 7, Article XX, as follows: Any person who may have been suspended or disqualified and who may appeal for reinstatement shall not be considered unless upon payment of a fee of five dollars.”

MR. BROOKS (reading): No. 2 Article VI, Section 5 of By-laws: At the annual meeting in 1911 or adjournment thereof, the directors shall elect five members of the Pacific Advisory Committee one of whom shall hold office until the annual meeting of 1912, one of whom shall hold office until 1913, one of whom shall hold office until 1914, one of whom shall hold office until 1915, and one of whom shall hold office until 1916, and at each annual meeting shall elect one member to hold office for five years.”

Amendment seconded and carried.

MR. BROOKS (reading): “No. 3. Strike out third article of Rule V, Rules Governing Clubs, and substitute: “An active member shall have the sole show privilege in the city or town of its organization, provided it shall hold an annual fixture. No show shall be licensed in said city or town without permission of the said member except should said member fail to hold a show within a period of eighteen months, in which case a show may be licensed in said city or town, without the permission of the resident member. If said resident member fails to hold a show within twelve months after a licensed show has been held in said city or town, an application from a new organization for active membership may be accepted by the American Kennel Club without the consent of the original member.”

MR. COLLINS: If that rule were adopted would it not exclude any young club in a city from being an active member of this organization or from holding a show? For instance, the organization which I represent, the Long Island Kennel Club, is located in the same city as the Westminster Kennel Club, and I think under this rule it would make us subsidiary to them and compel us to go to the Westminster Kennel Club for permission to hold this show in the same city.

MR. BROOKS: Have you held a show already?

MR. COLLINS: Yes.

MR. BROOKS: This applied to new clubs.

THE CHAIRMAN: You could amend that so it would apply to boroughs, so that kennel clubs could exist in the boroughs of the Bronx, Richmond and Queens, for instance. Even if a show took the place of the Long Island Kennel Club, it would be for them and not for the Westminster Kennel Club or for a Manhattan Club to have anything to say about it. It should mean the same as a borough.

MR. BROOKS: Do you think it would be wise to district New York?

MR. MOORE: It would be just as necessary to re-district Boston and Philadelphia and Chestnut Hill and other places. I do not think it will interfere.

MR. COLLINS: I think it would militate against the standing of the Long Island Kennel Club and the other clubs located in and around Boston and Philadelphia, and if any of these clubs should lapse for a year from holding a show, anybody could jump in and hold a show.

THE SECRETARY: Within eighteen months.

MR. BROOKS: They have got to get the sanction of the License Committee and the sanction of the older club.
THE SECRETARY: And also the sanction of the Membership Committee.

MR. COLLINS: I move as an amendment, that in the case of the City of New York that city or town should be read as city or borough.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I do not see how any trouble could arise from this because it goes through three bodies and it takes eighteen months to bring it up.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think it should be referred back to the Rules Committee because I don’t think the rule has been digested well enough.

MR. COLLINS: If Mr. Muss-Arnolt will make that as an amendment to the motion I will accept that. I think the whole business is rather indefinite.

Motion last made seconded and lost.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion being lost, do you renew your motion, Mr. Collins?

MR. COLLINS: Yes, I will renew my amendment now.

MR. APPLETON: I would suggest cities or towns that district or borough should be considered in the place of the word “city.”

MR. COLLINS: That is acceptable.

MR. HOOLEY: How about smaller cities of twenty-five thousand or thirty thousand inhabitants that are divided?
It would cause a great deal of unnecessary trouble and work. I think it would complicate matters for our committee and for our Secretary.

THE CHAIRMAN: Of course the Committee will interpret this amendment rationally, and if they should do an injustice to any smaller city, that would be a matter for appeal, and you could cover the point that way.

MR. PALMER: I think if a show is not good enough to make good in eighteen months, somebody ought to have the right of making good.

Mr. Appleton’s motion was put and lost.

MR. BROOKS: I now move the original amendment.

Original amendment as read carried.

MR. BROOKS (reading): No. 4. To amend Rule V, Section J of Rules Governing Dog Show: Field Trial Classes of Bench Shows shall be confined to dogs that have been entered and run at any recognized field trial.”

The Rules Committee cut out the part referring to the sire and dam and left it in this shape, that field trial classes at bench shows should be confined to dogs that have been entered and run at recognized field trials.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: That is a new rule, isn’t it?

MR. BROOKS: This is an amendment to the original rule, or rule published.

THE SECRETARY: Any dog that has been placed at a recognized field trial.

MR. BROOKS: The amendment is that he strikes out the word “placed”. It shall be confined to dogs who have been entered and run. A dog might lose a place by a very small margin.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: Eight years ago I started this same movement and had several shows of our field classes for dogs that had been entered and run. The result was that dogs were entered for field trials and run there which could not run, simply with the idea of making them eligible for this class, and it spoiled the field trial class, and at the suggestion of a good many field trial people when these rules were gotten up, that was changed and put in in this way, that a dog must have been placed in the field trial class to be eligible. There is a Hunter’s class which follows this, if I am not mistaken, for dogs which have been run in field trials which have received a certificate of merit at those trials. I am very much opposed to having this change made.

MR. MOORE: I move that it be referred back to the Rules Committee with the recommendation that they take it up with the Field Trial Club. I think the Field Trial Club should be consulted about this.

Motion seconded.
MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I think it is a pity to lay this matter down for a year. It has been tried out in the way which is now suggested and found to be very unsatisfactory, and those who have watched these field trials for the last six years will know that only the dogs that have been placed are the ones entitled to recognition.

MR. APPLETON: I quite agree with Mr. Smith’s remarks. I have watched the field trials for a good many years.

The motion to refer the matter back to the Rules Committee was put and lost.

The original amendment was put and lost.

MR. BROOKS (reading): “No. 5. Amendment to Rule XVI, Governing Clubs: Strike out the words ‘and also all judges’ books’ in the first paragraph of said rule. Make a new paragraph to read: ‘Judges’ books must be provided for at all shows held under American Kennel Club Rules, and said books must be filed with the American Kennel Club within seven days from the close of the show. Penalty for non-compliance, twenty-five dollars.”

It used to be a dollar a day.

Amendment seconded and carried.

MR. BROOKS (reading): Section F, Rules Governing Shows: “At any show where there is no winners’ ratings, wins in the novice and limit classes will not be recorded.
The reason for this is that the puppies have been shown in the puppy class and then won in the winners class, and then the show had no rating, and they had ruled that that puppy was one having won in the winner’s class – having no credit in the winner’s class and at the same time has been shown as a novice.

(At this point Mr. Belmont resigned the chair to Mr. H. H. Hunnewell).

THE CHAIRMAN: You misunderstood that. The point is this: That a puppy that is entered in a show, and he wins in the winners’ class, and his winners does not count, but he wins in the novice; heretofore that novice counted. So he does not get credit for his winners, and he loses in his novice. A gentleman brought this matter up to me the other day. He said he entered his dog in a small show, and he won his winners, and the show did not give him a point. He entered this dog simply to help the show out. He meant to keep this dog for novice class in New York. He tried to enter him in the novice, and they say it is not eligible yet he does not win one point. It is unfair if you allow a dog to have the novice counted against him if his winners did not count.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: If the show is not large enough to give one point, why pay any attention to any wins, even the limit wins?

MR. MOORE: There might be sixty dogs in one breed, and yet you say those wins do not count.

MR. COLLINS: That would work in the other direction. The exhibitor if you added that to it.

MR. MOORE: It would seem to me as if we were trying to change the rule because some one had mentioned a slight hardship; not that there is any crying need of it. We have been holding shows for two years under the present rules and I have not heard anybody crying about it. I do not think we ought to change the rules because some one calls attention to the fact that he might lose one win.

MR. BROOKS: Perhaps the word "recorded" is not properly used. The intention was that it should not work against him at the next show where he wants to go into the novice class.

MR. PALMER: If there wins do not count, what is the dog showing for? It is a recognized show, but it does not rate ne point. Yet at the same time he might win his novice. He could go to another show and if his first limit counted at the next show, his second limit would count; but in this way it would not count at all, his novice or limit wins.

THE CHAIRMAN: This is against the exhibitor. We are trying to save the exhibitor.

MR. HOOLEY: I shows at a number of shows last year, I think at Lenox, Islip and Staten Island, as also did a number of others, where we did not get any winners ratings had dogs in the novice class and ran them through. I think that is a change we all take. You have got to be a good sport and take that chance. I think the average exhibitor feels that way about it. I think the average exhibitor would be perfectly satisfied with the rule.

Amendment seconded and lost.

MR. BROOKS (reading): "A puppy winning in the winners shall not be adjudged as having won in the novice or limit classes."

The object of that is that if the dog is entered in a novice class and wins in the winners where there is no rating, he shall not be classed as having been shown.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The reason that this was brought up was because this same gentleman said he entered a puppy in a puppy class and did not enter him in the novice because he wanted to show him in the novice in New York, and he entered him in the novice in New York and the Secretary ruled that having won in the winners it counted as a win and was not eligible in the novice.
MR. MOORE: I move that this amendment take the same course.

Amendment seconded and lost.

Mr. Brooks read the rest of the Rules Committee report as follows: “In regard to the case of the Allendale Association of Lake Villa, Illinois, where they entered a dog under the name of Allendale Black Douglas, the action of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club in cancelling the win of said dog is hereby sustained, on the ground that the prefix “Allendale” had already been registered with the American Kennel Club.

In regard to an associate entering a dog over its association name, the Rules Committee rule that in the future the name of the association, proof of its incorporation, and a list of its officers shall be filed with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club prior to the making of any such entry.

The report of the Rules Committee, as amended, was then adopted.

The following named gentlemen were elected directors of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

N. J. Stewart, one year; W. P. Burnham, for two years; H. H. Carlton, for three years; N. T. Messer, for four years; and W. W. Stettheimer for five years.

On motion the resignation of the Philadelphia Dog Show Association was accepted.

THE SECRETARY: The Bloomington Kennel Club notified me on January 21st, twenty-one days after their dues were payable, that they had disbanded. The Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association notified me on February 8th, thirty-nine days after their dues were payable, that they had disbanded.

MR. MOORE: They have already been dropped.

THE SECRETARY: They have been dropped. I have here the appeal from the Topeka Kennel Club, asking to be transferred to the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee. As the Topeka Kennel Club did not see fit to pay its dues I suppose there is nothing to be done.

On motion of Mr. Brooks, the meeting went into a committee of the whole.

MR. H. K. BLOODGOOD, in the chair.

The committee of the whole rose, and the chairman reported that the recommendation made by the committee of the whole was accepted unanimously.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
Vice-President H. H. Hunnewell, in the chair.

On motion the rules were suspended and Mr. H. K. Bloodgood assigned to the chair.

MR. HUNNEWELL: On the recommendation of the delegates at the annual meeting I move that in view of the faithful services rendered to the American Kennel Club by Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh for twenty-five years we do now recommend the Finance Committee to direct the payment of $500 to him at a complimentary dinner to be tendered to him after the May meeting of the delegates, and that a committee of three be appointed to arrange for a subscription dinner to be tendered to him by the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and passed unanimously.

Chairman Bloodgood appointed Messrs. Bernheimer, Willets, Dr. J. E. DeMund and B. S. Smith as such committee.
THE CHAIRMAN: If there be no objection, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting will be dispensed with and they will be accepted as published.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS
THE CHAIRMAN: The first officer is that of a president. Nominations are in order.

MR. MOORE: I nominate Mr. August Belmont for re-election.

Nomination seconded.

On motion the Secretary was authorized to cast a ballot for Mr. August Belmont as President.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot and the chairman declared Mr. August Belmont's election as President.

MR. MOORE: I nominate Mr. H. H. Hunnewell for First Vice-President.

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations were closed.

On motion the Secretary was authorized to cast one ballot for Mr. Hunnewell as First Vice-President.
The Secretary declared that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. H. H. Hunnewell was therefore duly declared elected.

MR. MOORE: I nominate Mr. H. K. Bloodgood for the office of Seconded Vice-President.

Nomination seconded.
On motion nominations were closed.

On motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for Mr. Bloodgood’s election as Second Vice-President.

The Secretary announced that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Bloodgood was thereupon declared elected.

MR. MOORE: I nominate Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh for election as Secretary-Treasurer.

The Secretary announced that he had cast such ballot.

STANDING COMMITTEES

MR. BROOKS: I nominate Messrs. W. D. Rockefeller, H. K. Bloodgood and Howard Willets as members of the Finance Committee.

Nominations seconded.
On motion nominations were closed.
On motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for the gentlemen named.

The Secretary announced that he had cast such ballot, and they were declared duly elected.

Nominations seconded.
On motion nominations were closed.
On motion the secretary was directed to cast one ballot for these gentlemen as members of the Stud Book Committee.

The Secretary announced that he had cast such ballot, and the gentlemen named were thereupon declared duly elected.

Nominations seconded.

MR. BERNHEIMER: I nominate Messrs. Dwight Moore, A. Clinton Wilmerding, A. Albright, Jr., Rowland P. Keasbey and M. M. Palmer as members of the Publications Committee.

Nominations seconded.

On motion nominations were declared closed. On motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for the gentlemen named.

The Secretary announced that he had cast such ballot, and the gentlemen named as members of the Publication Committee were thereupon declared duly elected.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

“New York, February 14th, 1911.

To the Board if Directors of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen: I beg to present my quarterly report:

A decision by the Trial Board sitting in New York, at its meeting held Feb. 7, 1911.

The semi-annual convention of Pacific Coast Clubs: The Minutes of the P. A. C. meeting held Jan. 3, 1911. An appeal from the Topeka K. C. to be transferred to the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee. In this connection let me say that said club being in arrears for dues is no longer a member of the Kennel Club.

(This report was written yesterday and the time expired to-day when the Topeka Club ceased to be a member).

Dr. F. H. Osgood, a member of this Board requested me to inform you that owing to recent severe illness he has been ordered South by his physician and will not be able to return until early in April. Mr. S> R. Cutler sent his excuse for absence at this meeting. These notices are reasonable excuses for absence from this meeting and same should be passed upon by this Board.

On February 9, 1911, E. A. Rogers, Dundee, Mich. preferred charges against W> E. Mason, Ridgewood, NJ for misconduct in connection with dogs. This matter will be referred to the Trial Board sitting in New York.

I have two communications which I will read for your information, one from the Toronto Kennel Club, and one from the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club.

A bill for disbursements by the P. A. C. from Dec. 23, 1910, to Feb. 7, 1911, amounting to $25.04 has been received and I recommend same to be paid.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH

Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:

To The Board of Directors

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my financial statement from Jan. 1, 1911 to date.

Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1911-----------------------------$21,793.44

Receipts from Jan. 1 to date----------------------------- 3,708.65

Total --------------------------------------------------$25,502.09

Disbursements from Jan. 1, to date---------------------- 2,935.72

Balance on hand ----------------------------------------$22,566.37

I beg to report for your information that although the Rules do not require that final bills for active dues should be sent to clubs in arrears they were however mailed on Feb. 1, with a notice to each club that it had on that date been suspended, and that if said dues were not paid on or before the date of this meeting that said clubs would cease to be members without further action.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDEBURGH,
Treasurer

THE SECRETARY: I thought it was only fair to the clubs who had failed to pay their dues on February 1st to notify them that they had been suspended, but they had the opportunity to make good before the 15\textsuperscript{th}, and as a consequence there are six clubs that have paid since February to date.

On motion the report was accepted and placed on file.

MR. MOORE: I move that the report of the Stud Book Committee at the December meeting to the delegates be accepted as of that date and placed on file.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Appleton read the report of the Stud Book Committee as follows:

"New York, February 15\textsuperscript{th}, 1911

REPORT OF STUD BOOK COMMITTEE

MATTER OF POODLE LANSDOWNE FANDANGO

Miss Elise Dorr petitions to be allowed to change the name of the Poodle ‘Lansdowne Fandango’, registered on December 30, 1910. The facts are as follows: The dog was bought here Mr. Lewis for Miss Dorr in England, and on arrival here Mr. Lewis applied for registration in his name. The name applied for being ‘Lansdowne Hermitage Fandango.’ ‘Lansdowne’ being the prefix owned by Mr. Lewis. The name ‘Hermitage’ being already taken, the dog was registered as ‘Lansdowne Fandango.’ Miss Dorr now claims that Lewis had no right to register the dog in his name, as she was the sole owner of the dog at the time. She objects to the dog being registered under Lewis’ prefix and claims that he had no authority to register the dog. In spite of the fact that the registration has been published in last year’s Volume of the Stud Book, the Committee, nevertheless thinks it equitable under the circumstances that the registration of the dog be cancelled, and so recommends.

MATTER OF BULL TERRIER CHESS

In the matter of the Bull Terrier ‘Chess’ registered by Mrs. N. Leonhart as bred by Mrs. W. Harris, who denies having bred the dog. This matter was brought before the last meeting, and since then, the Secretary wrote Mrs. Leonhart under date of December 23rd, giving her an opportunity to state her case and has received no reply.

The Committee recommends that Mrs. N. Leonhart be suspended for incorrect registration.

MATTERS OF IRISH TERRIERS RED SKIN AND CAMBRIDGE DICK

In the matter of the Irish Terriers ‘Red Skin’ and ‘Cambridge Dick’ as stated in the Committee’s last report. These terriers were entered at the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Mass. Show by Joe Hennessey and P. Brown respectfully. The breeding given was denied by the owner of the sire and the Committee are satisfied that the correct breeding of the dogs were not given. Mr. Brown has satisfied the Committee that he was not responsible in any way for the misrepresentation of the breeding. We believe that Joe Hennessey is guilty of having deliberately entered and listed the dogs under false pedigree and we recommend that he be disqualified.

J. W. APPLETON,
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

Mr. Moore read the report of the Publication Committee:

To the Directors:

The average yearly deficit of the Gazette 1905-1908 was $2,368.28 against $1,847.08 in 1909 and $599.69 in 1910. The small deficit last year would have been reduced by $170.00 had not the P. O. Department raised the Gazette to the 3rd class rates instead of 2nd class.
The average yearly cost of printing the Stud Book 1905-1908 was $2,666.71 against $2,118.36 in 1909. The figures for 1910 will not be available until edition is completed, but we are confident of a considerable cost saving over 1908.

Respectfully submitted,

DWIGHT MOORE,
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH read the report of the Field Trial Committee, as follows:

“The Field Trial Committee wish to report that a number of Field Trials for the various breeds have been held and that the results of these trials would be published in the Stud Book.

FIELD TRIAL COMMITTEE,

CHETWOOD SMITH

CHAIRMAN

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Keasbey, Chairman of the Committee on Expressage reported progress.

THE SECRETARY: I have a certified copy here of the notice that was sent to the Pacific Coast Clubs for the semi-annual convention to be held in San Francisco on January 3rd. That, I suppose should be published, but it is not necessary for me to read it. I also have the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee under date of January 3rd. It is usual that these minutes be made a part of our proceedings and printed. They are as follows:

“THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB.
Berkeley, Cal., Dec. 17, 1910.
Mr. A. P. Vredeburgh,
    Secretary American Kennel Club,
    New York
    (COPY)
Dear Sir:
    Please take notice that the semi-annual convention of Clubs, members of the American Kennel Club, in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee will be held on Tuesday, January 3rd, 1911, at 4 p.m. at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco.

    Your club is hereby invited to send a delegate to the convention, who must be either the President, Secretary or Chairman of Bench Show Committee of the Club, and you are requested to communicate to the Pacific Advisory Committee, at your earliest convenience, the name of your representative and the office he holds.

    Yours very truly

    American Kennel Club

By Pacific Advisory Committee:
J. P. Norman
Secretary

SEMI-ANNUAL CONVENTION OF COAST CLUBS
Held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, January 3, 1911
PRESENT: Pacific Advisory Committee by H. H. Carlton, Chairman; Dr. W. P. Burnham; W. W. Stettheimer; Nat. T. Messer; Norman J. Stewart
Santa Cruz Kennel Club by George A. Nieborger.
Western Fox Terrier Breeders’ Association by H. Hastings
Ladies Kennel Association of California by Mrs. J. J. Matheson

The meeting was called to order by Mr. H. H. Carlton in the Chair.

The Chairman stated that the first business would be the nomination of an entire Pacific Advisory Committee for election by the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, at the annual meeting February 15th, 1911.

Mr. George A. Nieborger stated that the present Committee was satisfactory in its entirety, to all the kennel clubs on the Pacific Coast, to the best of his knowledge, and he therefore moved that the Pacific Advisory Committee be requested to nominate to the American Kennel Club, the present incumbents, namely:

H. H. CARLTON, DR. W. P. BURNHAM, W. W. STETTHEIMER, N. T. MESSER, NORMAN J. STEWART.

Seconded by Mrs. J. J. Matheson, carried

Mr. H. Hastings stated that it was necessary for clubs, members of the American Kennel Club, to be protected against outlaw clubs holding shows in the towns where the members of the American Kennel Club were located.

Mr. G. A. Nieborger moved, Mr. Hastings seconding, that the Pacific Advisory Committee be recommended to pass a rule affording protection to all clubs holding shows under the rules of the American Kennel Club, against outlaw clubs holding shows in towns where such members of the American Kennel Club held their shows, and that it is the sense of the meeting that such protection could be best afforded by supplementing Rule II of the American Kennel Club, by a rule disqualifying exhibitors at such outlaw shows, or their dogs, or both. Carried.

After some further discussion the meeting was adjourned.

ATTEST:  J. P. NORMAN
Sec’y, Pacific Advisory Comm.

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco
January 3, 1911

PRESENT:  H. H. Carlton, Chairman;  W. W. Stettheimer;  Nat. T. Messer; Norman J. Stewart.

ABSENT:  Dr. W. P. Burnham

On motion the minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read.

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. A. Wolfen in answer to the communication sent to the California Cocker Club, in accordance with the resolution passed on November 19th, 1910, such reply stating that Mr. Wolfen was no longer secretary of that club.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary of the Committee be instructed to communicate to the officers of the California Cocker Club in good standing, that the list of officers furnished by that club, contains the names of three disqualified persons, namely:

J. H. Jones, J. L. Park and V. J. Ruh, as Members of Executive Committee, and that the California Cocker Club is hereby notified to furnish to the Pacific Advisory Committee within thirty days from date, a list of officers and members, amended so as to omit the names of such disqualified persons from the Executive Committee. Carried.

In the matter of the American Kennel Club vs. William Ellery and vs. the San Francisco Kennel Club: The Secretary read a reply from Dr. L. W. Springgs, stating that he could not conform to the resolution of this Committee adopted October 27th, 1910, for the reason that he was no longer an officer or member of the San Francisco Kennel Club, and that he had no funds of said club in his possession but that he was willing to be tried by the Pacific Advisory Committee.

The Secretary also exhibited a registered latter addressed to Mr. Wm. Ellery, 48 Geary Street, San Francisco, marked “returned to writer.”

It was moved and seconded that the suspension of William Ellery and the officers of the San Francisco Kennel Club, namely: William Ellery, President; H. B. Blatchly, Vice-President; and L. W. Spriggs, Secretary, be and is hereby made permanent.

On motion the application of the Del Monte Kennel Club for a license to hold a dog show at Del Monte, on February 10th and 11th, 1911, was approved.

On motion the application of the Santa Clara Kennel Club for membership in the American Kennel Club was granted.

The Secretary presented the minutes of the semi-annual Convention of Delegates of Pacific Coast Clubs, members of the American Kennel Club.

On motion, the minutes were approved and ordered adopted as part of the minutes of the present meeting.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution of the Delegates nominating H. H. Carlton, Dr. W. P. Burnham, W. W. Stettheimer, N. T. Messer, Norman J. Stewart, to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club for election as members of the Pacific Advisory Committee for the next one, two, three, four and five years be transmitted to said Board of Directors. Carried.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST: J. P. NORMAN

Sec'y Pacific Advisory Comm.
THE SECRETARY: The Trial Board of New York had before it an appeal from the decision of the Whippany River Dog Show Committee. It appears that in Russia Wolfhounds, one of the dogs was not on its bench, and it is alleged that the owner of the dog or the agent of the dog said that he did not know whether the dog was there or not. When the special was called for this dog suddenly appeared. The dog was protested and the Bench Show Committee found that there was no rule that they could discover by which the protest could be sustained, and therefore they overruled the protest. The protestant appealed here, and it was sent before the Trial Board, and this is the result of the Trial Board's deliberations:

February 7, 1911
BOREAS KENNELS VS. WHIPPANY RIVER KENNEL CLUB
Re Appeal:

The Trial Board finds that from testimony advanced the dog mentioned, 'Rasboi' was not benched but was held in crate until some time after the judging had started in fact until awards had been made in several of the classes, and no evidence to the contrary has been adduced. Additional rules Nos. one and ten, of the Whippany River Kennel Club, specifically provide that no dogs will be received after 10 A.M. on the first day of the show, and by Rule No. 10 dogs must not be removed from the bench.
during the hours of judging. Now as the said dog ‘Rasboi’ was not on bench during the morning of said day, and did not appear until called for judging late in the day, the Board finds that his winnings should be cancelled, and the reserve dog be given winners. The Board’s judgment is, that all Clubs members of the A.K.C. and also all Clubs which show under their rules by license must in every way live up to the rules by license must in every way live up to the rules as published in their premium list. We wish to call particular attention to the mater of exhibitors and officials of clubs regarding the question of dogs being allowed to remain in crates or being kept off the bench during the prescribed hours of judging. The Board understanding the term judging to refer to any and all judging and not as confined to any one breed. We realized that the public who pay admission to shows do so to see the dogs on the bench and not empty benches, and that the crates or off the bench is unfair to the public and to other exhibitors. The Board also considers the great injustice done to the Superintendent and Managers of who cannot until notified always know if such cases, but who received from the public and other exhibitors the criticism of such actions. They wish to state further that the Whippany Kennel Club is censured by this Board for not enforcing its additional rules
Nos. one and ten,
and that at any future show any protest made in regard to any exhibitor guilty of keeping his dog off the bench (except by permission of Show Superintendent and then only for some sufficient cause) during the time advertised for judging dogs, and who does not bench his dogs promptly upon arrival will be subject to penalty as prescribed by the Trial Board. The Board realizes that at times it is absolutely imperative to remove the dog or dogs from the bench but still insists that they must be returned promptly to their stalls and requests exhibitors in all justice and fairness to held enforce the above ruling.

B. S. SMITH

A. G. HOOLEY

MR. BERNHEIMER: There are lots of one day shows that do not bench the dogs. The shows are held on horse show grounds where the dogs are placed in box stalls.

MR. HOOLEY: The benching of the dog is understood to be under his number. If it is under a tree, his number should be up. On horse show grounds or any other place where dogs are shown they have the number up. It does not necessarily follow that the dogs have to be placed on a bench or box.

THE SECRETARY: It means that they shall not be kept locked up in their crates and out of sight.

It was moved and seconded that the finding of the Trial Board be accepted and the recommendations therein
On motion the excuses sent in by Messrs. F. H. Osgood and Samuel R. Cutler for their absence from this meeting as directors were accepted.

THE SECRETARY: The charges preferred by Rogers against Mason will be referred to the Trial Board.

The Secretary read a communication from the Toronto Kennel Club and his reply thereto.

MR. MOORE: I move that that be laid on the table.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary also read the following communication from the Canadian Kennel Club.

184 Adelaide Street West

Toronto, Feb. 6th, 1911

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary American Kennel Club,

New York, NY

Dear Sir:

At the regular meeting of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Kennel Club held on Feb. 3rd, I was instructed to formally thank you, as Secretary of the American Kennel Club, also your associates in the office who so kindly received the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club on his late visit to New York. This, I can assure you it gives me great pleasure to do.
Yours truly,

H. B. DONOVAN

Sec'y-Treas

On motion the disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee from December 23rd to February 7th, amounting to $25.04 were ordered paid.

Chairman Hunnewell appointed the following Trial Boards:

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
Present: Vice-President, H. H. Hunnewell in the Chair.

THE SECRETARY: I have an appeal here from Mr. T. J. Farley for reinstatement. I will state for your information that in 1888 this man Farley was disqualified for showing a dog, an Irish Setter in the New York show in the puppy class when it was proven on the trial that the dog was very much older than twelve months. He has been under disqualification since 1888. He now appeals for reinstatement, thinking that he has been punished long enough, and he sends these four requests from other people.

Moved and seconded that Mr. T. J. Farley be reinstated.

Motion carried.

THE SECRETARY: At the show of the Anthracite Kennel Club, Messrs. H. M. Beck and John Gaynor were suspended for removing their dogs without permission and against the protest of the officers. I have applications from them for reinstatement. Their reinstatement is recommended by the President of the Anthracite Kennel Club.

It was moved and seconded that Messrs. H. M. Beck and John Gaynor be reinstated.

    Motion carried.
    The meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and they were adopted as published in the Gazette,

The following named clubs, having been approved by Membership Committee, were duly elected as members of the American Kennel Club:

Trenton Kennel Club, French Bulldog Club of New England.

THE SECRETARY: The toy Dog Club of New England, whose application was placed before the meeting in February last, was referred back to the Membership Committee on account of protests that had been filed against their admission. This application was again before the Committee to-day and the application is not approved.

The following now gentlemen were elected as delegates to represent the following named clubs:

PASADENA KENNEL CLUB  John E. de Ruyter
SIOUX CITY KENNEL CLUB  M. Robert Guggenheim
NEW LONDON KENNEL CLUB  Josiah Mason Willets
ST. LOUIS COLLIE CLUB  Lloyd W. Smith
BULL TERRIER CLUB OF AMERICA  Robert Goelet
WASHINGTON KENNEL CLUB  Edward A. Conroy
POINTER CLUB OF AMERICA  W. C. Root
TOY SPANIEL CLUB  John W. Minturn

THE SECRETARY: The Southern Collie Club at Memphis appointed Joseph W.
Burrell as its delegates. They could not properly answer the questions that are on the credentials, and therefore he is not approved by the Committee. I report this as a matter of information.

The Yorkshire Terrier Club appointed George E. Peabody, nor did his club vouch for him in any way, and the matter of his election has been laid over.

The Secretary read his quarterly report, as follows:
New York, May 16, 1911

To the Delegates of the
American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report two applications for membership received since the last meeting, also one application that was laid over. Ten credentials for delegates to represent active members. These papers have been referred to the membership committee which will report at this meeting.

We have added two active members on the Pacific Coast since our last meeting, the Northern Cal. K. C. and the Marin Valley K.C. they are both show-giving clubs.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: Under Rule 14 of the rules governing dog shows, the seconded paragraph thereof, it seems to me should be changed in order that its meaning may be made clear. It says; “That all specials, classified and unclassified, offered in any breed must be adjudicated upon the judge of the regular classes appointed for that breed.” How can you have unclassified specials for one breed?

MR. MORTIMER: That is an absolute impossibly, except they are classified specials, because the judge is there to judge the classified specials.

THE CHAIRMAN: What is an unclassified special?

MR. MORTIMER: An unclassified special means a special where different breeds can be possible.

MR. MOORE: That does not apply. It is for that breed.

THE CHAIRMAN: As I understand it, it means, for instance, if you have a bull terrier and a fox terrier come together, it is necessary to have a judge for bull terriers and a judge for fox terriers to judge them.

MR. MORTIMER: That would be the case, but that is impossible.

DR. DeMUND: The reason for the selection of that term “unclassified” was that at some shows specials would be given for the best Airedale Terrier in the show, and they would be classified under the heading of unclassified specials, and then would be judged as had been done in the past.

MR. MORTIMER: That is not quite right. If there is a special offered for the best Airedale terrier in the show, he is judged by the Airedale terrier judge. It is a special attached to that breed. Therefore it is a classified special; it is not an unclassified special. For instance, if there is a special offered for the best fox terrier in the show, it is judged by the fox terrier judge. The word “unclassified” in that resolution seems to me to be out of place altogether.

DR. DeMUND: The word “unclassified” is out of place there, but I remember distinctly that Mr. Bloodgood brought that point up, that any special offered for a particular breed has been put down under the heading of that breed, but before this rule went into effect some time ago there were specials put under the head of unclassified specials for a certain breed, and that was the reason it was made in that way. The working is wrong.

MR. MOORE: I think I was on the Committee at the time those rules were made, and this rule was formulated for the purpose of obviating the difficulty that we had some years ago in connection with dogs that had been passed upon in regular classes meeting again and having the regular judge’s award upset. It happened several times where a dog had received winners and another dog had received winners coming under another judge, and the award in the regular classes being upset. It may be that the wording is bad, but the intent is all right.

MR. MORTIMER: Could we not pass a resolution to the effect that no dog having been beaten in its class in its particular breed should take part in any unclassified special?

THE CHAIRMAN: Suppose the dog was beaten, he might be ineligible for the special.

MR. WOOD: May I ask how the best sporting or the best non-sporting dog in a show is judged, whether by the judges of specials or by the different breeds?

MR. MORTIMER: Take, for instance, the Westminster Kennel Club show, the unclassified specials are judged there on the third day of the show. The regular classes out of ten the judges who have passed upon the different breeds have gone home. They are business men and have gone away, and they are not there to take part in the judging on the third day. How are you going to get over that? I say it is an absolute impossibly.

THE CHAIRMAN: The only way out of that difficulty, it seems to me, would be to have the resolution say that the verdict of the judge of his class must be upheld. In that way they could not reverse a decision. I think the best thing to do would be to bring this matter to the attention of the Rules Committee.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I move that this matter be referred to the Rules Committee.

MR. COLLINS: If there were a rule in line with the suggestion of Mr. Mortimer to the effect that a dog would not be eligible to compete against a dog which has beaten him or her in the regular classes, I think that would tend to obviate the trouble referred to. If this dog that was beaten was eligible and competing – you see there is another phase of the subject. A dog might be eligible to compete and might have been removed from the show, which would let in the second dog to compete. If you made a hard and fast rule that a dog which had been beaten in his class could not compete or the special, there would be no competition for the special if the dog that was eligible for the special was not on the ground.

MR. MORTIMER: I think if there was a rule passed that no dog which had been beaten in his own particular breed should be permitted to come in to be judged for a special, that would obviate all that. There would be not trouble if those conditions were carried out.

THE CHAIRMAN: Supposing that the special is offered for the best dog in the show owned by the members of that club or organization?

MR. MORTIMER: That is a different thing. I mean for a general special for the best dog in the show.

MR. HOOLEY: As I understand it, Mr. Mortimer confined it to the winners in both classes.

MR. MORTIMER: The only dog that could compete would be the dog that won in the winners class in his breed, or the bitch that own in her breed, and that no other dog should be permitted to come into the ring to compete for a special in the show.

MR. HOOLEY: And in a case where the dogs were entered for specials only that dog could come in?

MR. MORTIMER: Yes, because it had not been judged.

MR. HOOLEY: There is one other point in regard to these unclassified specials. After the New York show and Pittsburg show and a number of others, there was a great deal of dispute and in some cases considerable feeling as to the judging. For instance, in New York you had probably twenty-five or twenty-seven judges. Of course Mr. Mortimer, as the manager of that show, could not control all those judges, and they do go away, and the judging of toy spaniels is left for the judges of terriers to pass upon, and the same things applies to the judging of Newfoundlands and St. Bernards, and so forth.
It does not seem to be just to the breeders. Possibly Mr. Mortimer or the Rules Committee could suggest something to obviate that difficulty. It seems to me we could do away with the entire lot of judges and have one judge to judge specials. We know several men who are competent to do that sort of thing.

MR. MORTIMER: As a matter of fact that kind of specials do not amount to anything any way; they are spectacular and all that sort of thing, but no particular good is done by offering a special for the best dog in the show.

DR. DeMUND: There is a rule at present to the effect that the appointing of a judge shall rest entirely with the Bench Show Committee, and unless that rule is rescinded the American Kennel Club cannot interfere with that.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I move the following resolution: That no dog is eligible for the special in any of the regular classes.

MR. MORTIMER: I make a motion that the matter be referred to the Rules Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: It must go before the Rule Committee.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

“New York, May 16th, 1911.
To the Board of Directors
Of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that the minutes of the P. A. C. of March 11 were published in the March Gazette by the request of the Committee. The minutes of said Committee of April 12th will be presented to you and they should be ordered spread upon the minutes.

“The Phila. Trial Board recommend the removal of the disqualification of Mr. F. S.
Sternberg. Mr. Lwo Cohn was disqualified about three years ago for writing anonymous letters against a judge at the North Jersey K. C. Show, he now apologizes and asks to be reinstated.

The English Setter Club requests the changing of its title to read the English Setter Club of America. The Revere Kennel Club applies to change its title to that of the Bay State Kennel Club.

The following charges have been filed and will be referred to the different Trial Boards:

Mrs. Mary Gately vs. Boston Terrier Club
Mrs. Charles Dalmaine vs. North Jersey K. C.
J. W. Minturn vs. William Hamilton, Jr.

To determine the ownership of Eng. Toy Spaniel ‘Speckled Wren’ at the following Bank, 1910.

In the matter of judging English Setters at the late Pittsburg Show it is stated that the owner of Mallwyd
Ned declined to bring his dog in the ring to be judged in winners classes. I have letters from the Secretary of the show and the judge on the subject, and although the owner of the dog in question has repeatedly promised to send a written statement, up to this writing he has failed to do so. I would suggest that this matter be referred to a Trial Board for investigation.

At the late Omaha Show, two judges were employed one for the non-sporting dogs. When the Special for the best dog in the dog show was called the Dog Show Committee gave notice to the judges that they had determined that this special should be judged solely by the ‘Sporting Dog’ judge. There is no doubt that the rules have been violated and the club should be disciplined. A number of the exhibitors have protested such action. I would suggest that this matter be investigated by a Trial Board.

J. W. Minturn changed the name of a Bulldog and failed in showing this dog to mention its previous name, having already won under its original name; it therefore became necessary for me to cancel all the wins of this dog. It however is very unfortunate if it is necessary to move up the beaten dogs for the reason that it takes in eleven shows, nine of which were in 1910, and the winnings are published in the 1910 Stud Book. Under the circumstances I believe it is in your power to legislate on this subject.

It gives me pleasure to give you the information that Federal Court of San Francisco upheld our demurrer in the Chute vs. A.K.C. damage case.

There is to be an International Congress of Kennel Clubs which will take place in Paris on May 23rd-24th, 1911, the object of which is to bring together all clubs interested in dogs throughout the world, and to furnish an occasion to exchange views on the questions that interest them all.

Mr. S. L. Goldenberg, one of our Associate Members of long standing, will be pleased to represent the A. K. C. at this initial meeting, and report to us more fully on the subject matters which will be brought up before that congress. I have arranged to cable him if you see fit to appoint him as our representative, as he is a resident of Paris.

The bill for disbursements for the P. A. C. from February 25th to May 8th, 1911, amounting to $40.35, has been field, same appears to be correct and I recommend that same be paid.

I have two communications from William G. Rockefeller, begging to be excused for absence at the February and May meeting of this Board, on account of sickness.

Mr. Mortimer asks to be excused on account of his absence for the February meeting of this Board for the reason that he was detained at the W. K. C. at that date.

Mr. S. R. Cutler will be prevented from being present to-day on account of a professional engagement and asked to be excused.

Mr. Geo. Lauder, Jr. begs to make his excuses owning to illness.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A. P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and place on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, May 16th, 1911
To the Board of Directors
of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my financial statement from January 1st to date.

Balance on hand January 1st ......................... $21,793.44
Receipts from January 1st to date ....................... 10,232.64
Total
................................................................. $32,026.08

Disbursements from January 1st to date .............. 9,504.69
Balance on hand ...........................................  $22,521.39

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A. P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

DR. DeMUND:  On behalf of the License Committee, I have to report that last meeting we have granted nine licenses. The Pacific Advisory Committee granted two licenses, making a total of eleven licenses granted since February 15, 1911.

On motion the report of the License Committee was accepted and placed on file.

The Stud Book Committee, through its Chairman, reported progress.

DR. DeMUND:  For the Rule Committee I have to report that it has had no work to do since the last meeting, no matters having been referred to it.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: The Field Trials Committee wish to report that there have been no trials held since the last meeting, but that it expects shortly to bring a matter before the directors for action.

MR. MOORE:  I ask the directors to accept the report of the Publication Committee as published in the last Gazette.
On motion the Secretary was directed to spread upon the minutes of this meeting the proceedings of the meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee held on April 12th, 1911.

They are as follows:

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco
April 12, 1911

PRESENT: W. W. Stettheimer; Dr. W. P. Burnham; Nat. T. Messer.
ABSENT: H. H. Carlton; N. J. Stewart

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

On motion, the minutes were approved as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary presented the following report:

Members Pacific Advisory Committee, Gentlemen:

I shall submit to you two applications for membership: First, the Northern California Kennel Club, located at Sacramento, Cal. Second, The Marin Valley Kennel Club, located at Mill Valley, Cal.

This club is a consolidation of the Marin County and the Mill Valley Kennel Clubs, both of whose applications for membership were denied at the last meeting.

Both the applicants have filed constitutions in duplicate with lists of members, have deposited the necessary fees and have in all ways complied with the A. K. C. rules.
I beg to submit to the Committee a copy of a premium list issued by the Oakland Kennel Club for a show to be held in Oakland under antagonistic rules, on May 4, 5, 6, 1911, which are the published days of the show to be held in San Francisco by the Golden Gate Kennel Club. The Oakland Kennel Club is a member of the A. K. C., hitherto in good standing.

In the matter of the Cal. Cocker Club carrying disqualified individuals on its Executive Committee, I would advise that I have not, to date, received any reply to my request for its list of officers.

I beg to submit herewith a copy of the catalog of the show held under antagonistic rules by the San Francisco Kennel Club, all the officials of that club shown in said catalog are already disqualified, with the exception of Messrs. William Bay, William Blackwell, W. G. McMahon, C. W. Riffee, A. L. Stuart.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. P. Norman, Secretary

On motion the Secretary's report was approved and ordered filed.

It was moved and seconded that the application of the Northern Cal. Kennel Club for membership in the American Kennel Club be approved. Carried.
It was moved and seconded that the application of the Marin Valley Kennel Club for membership in the American Kennel Club be approved. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that the Cal. Cocker Club, a member of the American Kennel Club, be suspended for conduct prejudicial to individuals on its list of officers and that said club be called on to show cause, in writing, within thirty days from date, addressed to the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, J. P. Norman, P. O. Box 23, Berkeley, Cal., why it should not be expelled from membership in the American Kennel Club. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that the Oakland Kennel Club, a member of the American Kennel Club, having issued a premium list announcing a Dog Show in Oakland, under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, to be held on May 4, 5, 6, 1911, the published dates of the show to be held under A. K. C. rules in San Francisco by the Golden Gate Kennel Club, has been guilty of conduct most prejudicial to the best interests of Dogs and Dog Shows, and it was further moved and seconded that the said Oakland Kennel Club with all its officers, paid or unpaid, be and is hereby suspended, and is called on to show cause in writing, within thirty days from date, addressed to the secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, J. P. Norman, P. O. Box 283, Berkeley, Cal., why said club and its officers, paid and unpaid, should not be expelled from the American Kennel Club and disqualified. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that Wm. V. N. Bay and the Frisco Kennels, Wm. Blackwell, W. G. McMahon, C. W. Riffee and the Farallone Kennels and A. L. Stuart be and hereby are suspended for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of Dogs and Dog Shows, in having acted as officials of the San Francisco Kennel Club at a Dog Show held under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, and that said Bay, Blackwell, McMahon, Riffee, and Stuart be called on to show cause, in writing, within thirty days from date, addressed to the secretary, of the Pacific Advisory Committee, J. P. Norman, P. O. Box 283, Berkeley, Cal., why they should not be disqualified. Carried.

On motion, it was resolved that the secretary be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution for publication in the American Kennel Gazette.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST: J. P. NORMAN
Secretary

MR. KEASBEY: As Chairman of the Express Committee, I have to report that the Committee has been unable to make any progress, and I move that said Committee be discharged.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Trial Board of Philadelphia reports as follows:
April 28th, 1911
The Directors of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

In case Edwards vs. Sternberg, submitted to the Philadelphia Trial Board in May, 1910, an award of $170 with interest from July 9, 1909, to September 21st, 1910, was made in favor of Mr. Edwards, and on the failure of Mr. Sternberg to make payment within the required time he was disqualified. On April 18th, 1911, the amount due from Mr. Sternberg to Mr. Edwards was received by your Board, and Mr. Edwards’ receipt for same is enclosed.

Mr. Sternberg has explained that it was impossible for him to make this payment last September, and claims to have made payment as soon as he was in a position to do so.
He asks for reinstatement to good standing with the American Kennel Club, and in consideration of information which has come to your Board, that Mr. Sternberg has paid
Mr. Edwards’ claim in full as soon as he was able to do so, we recommend the removal of his disqualification.
Signed, J. Sergeant Price, Jr.,

Russell H. Johnson, Jr.,

William L. Barclay,

Chairman

MR. B. S. SMITH: I move that Mr. Sternberg be reinstated to membership in the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: One Mr. Leo Cohen write anonymously against some judges of the North Jersey Kennel Club Show at Newark about three years ago, and the Bench Show Committee of that club suspended him, and the matter was referred to our Trial Board, which changed the suspension to disqualification. Mr. Cohen now writes that he regrets his action, states that he had been showing, and he asks now after having suffered punishment for three years: “I trust you will give me one chance. I will prove worthy of the same by being reinstated.” That has not gone before the Board.

DR. DeMUND: I think that Mr. Cohen’s application might be granted. It was a question of writing articles against one of the judges, and as he states, how was a novice in the dame, and he has been punished now for three years, I think his application for reinstatement might be granted without any harm bring done to the fancy.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think it would be just as well to let this matter go back to the Trial Board and let them look into it.

On motion the matter was referred to the Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: The English Setter Club requests the privilege of changing their name from “The English Setter Club” to “The English Setter Club of America.”

MR. MORTIMER: I move that the application be granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Application is made for permission to change the title of the Revere Kennel Club to that of the Bay State Kennel Club.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: That is a Massachusetts Kennel Club of which I am an officer, and I object to this change being made. I think the two names are too nearly alike.

DR. OSGOOD: There is already a Bay State Association, and I object to the granting of the application.

On motion the application was refused.

THE SECRETARY: I submit a rather peculiar case from Omaha. There were two judges appointed, one a Judge of Sporting Dogs, and the other a Judge of Non-Sporting Dogs. When the special for the best dog in the show was called both judges were in the ring. It appears that in the meantime the Bench Show Committee has written letters to both of these judges, one to the judge of sporting dogs, saying: “You have been designated to judge this special,” and to the judge of non-sporting dogs: “You are not required in this special.” He immediately left the ring and the judge of sporting dogs awarded the special for the best dog in the show to a sporting dog. IT is a question whether any club, unless it specifically states in its premium list or in its catalogue that this particular special shall be judged by one particular judge, has the right to remove the other judges or prohibit them from judging the special. If they had such right we want to say so; if they did not have such right we want to declare that. I think this club should be disciplined for its action in this respect.

MR. MOORE: Can the Trial Board be instructed to refer the question to the Rules Committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, it could be referred to the Rules Committee.

MR. MOORE: I move that the matter be referred to the Trial Board with instruction to ask for an interpretation of the rule that applies to that case.

MR. MORTIMER: In my opinion the Dog Show Committee at Omaha has a perfect right to select the judge of unclassified specials and in doing so they no doubt believed they were selecting the most competent and capable judge, and I therefore move that the action of the Dog Show Committee of Omaha Kennel Club be endorsed.

MR. HOOLEY: I move as an amendment that this matter be referred to the Rules Committee to take action in regard to the appointment of judges and the way they should be specified.

Mr. Mortimer’s motion was then put and lost.

MR. MOORE: I renew my original motion that this matter be referred to the Trial Board with instructions to obtain a ruling from the Rules Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I would like to make suggestion to the Rules Committee to the effect that hereafter the judge or judges for unclassified specials be named in the premium list.

MR. MORTIMER: I do not think that this club has any right to demand any such thing as that. The selection of judges is up to the Dog Show Committee, and therefore I think we would be legislating too much if we tried to enforce any such rule.

THE SECRETARY: At the late Pittsburg Show Dr. James W. Hair was the judge in English Setter classes. A second dog received first, and the dog that was beaten received reserve, and the dog that beat him it is claimed could not be produced and brought in the ring. I submit the correspondence which passed between the judge and the Secretary of the Pittsburgh Club and this office.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: I move that the matter be referred to the Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

DR. DeMUND: In the matter of Mr. Minturn’s dog “Rockcliffe Magnet”, I move that the wins be cancelled and that the other dogs be not moved up.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CHETWOOD SMITH: In relation to the matter of disturbing the records after the stud book has been printed, I move that this matter be referred to the Publication Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bill for disbursements for the Pacific Advisory Committee, amounting to $40.35, was ordered paid.

On motion the excuses of Messrs. William G. Rockefeller, James Mortimer, Samuel R. Cutler and George Lauder, Jr., for their absence at directors’ meetings were accepted.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that Mr. S. L. Goldenberg be appointed to represent the American Kennel Club at the International Congress of Kennel Clubs to be held in Paris on May 23rd and 24th, 1911.
Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting went into a committee of the whole.

The Chairman later reported that the matters under discussion by the committee of the whole had been decided.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Mr. H. K. Blodgood was appointed Chairman.

DR. DeMUND: We are about to lose one of the office force of this club now employed in this office. Mrs. Schellhass is to be married very shortly. She has been with the American Kennel Club for eleven years, and I move that we donate one month’s salary to her and also purchase a suitable wedding present for her.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Bernheimer, on behalf of the Dinner Committee, reported concerning the expenses incident thereto.

MR. HOOLEY: I move that the question of wins or souvenirs be eliminated and that the directors, for extraordinary expenses, appropriate an amount not exceeding $200 to defray any expenses for the dinner to be given to Mr. Vredenburgh.

Motion seconded and carried.

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last quarterly meeting, I received Credentials for the appointment of delegates from the French Bulldog Club of New England, and the Yorkshire Terrier Club of America. These matters have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report at this meeting.

I also will submit a report from the Rules Committee, recommending certain amendments to the Rules. These amendments were duly published in the August issue of the Gazette, and are now before you for adoption or otherwise.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The credentials of the French Bulldog Club of New England, appointing Mr. Walter Burgess its delegates, was read, and Mr. Burgess was duly elected.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows:

New York, August 17, 1911

To the Delegates,

Gentlemen:

Your committee, at its meeting held this day, begs to present with its approval the following amendments to the Rules Governing Dog Shows.

Rule III, Sec. c: Amend second paragraph to read, Specialty Clubs not active members may be licensed with the written consent of the parent club, and will be rated at two or four points, as the parent club shall decide. If the consent of the parent club be not given within one month, or if a four point rating be refused, the applying club may appeal to the License Committee which may issue a license for a two or a four point show.
Rule IV: Add a new paragraph to read--- All classifications must be arranged as follows: Puppy, Novice, Limit, American Bred, Open and Winners, after which additional classes can be included in any breed.

Rule XIV: Substitute for the second paragraph the following:
All classified specials offered in any breed must be adjudicated for that breed. An classified special is one in which two or more breeds compete.

Rule XVIII: Add the following after the words “Kennel Club” on the third line.
The names of all judges, including those of unclassified specials, must be published in every Premium List. Failure to publish such names shall be punishable by a fine of Twenty-five (25) dollars.

Edward Brooks, Chairman
J. E. DeMund
B. S. Smith

THE SECRETARY: The first proposed amendment is to Rule III, Sec. C: Amend second paragraph to read, “Specialty Clubs not active members may be licensed with the written consent of the parent club, and will be rated at two or four points, as the parent club shall decide. If the consent of the parent club be not given within one month, or if a four point rating be refused, the applying club may appeal to the License Committee which may issue a license for a two or a four point show."

MR. HOOLEY: I move the adoption of the proposed amendment.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The next paragraph amendment is to Rule IV: “Add a new paragraph to read: Puppy, Novice, Limit, American-Bred, Open and Winners, after which additional classes can be included in any breed.”

MR. HOOLEY: I move that that amendment be adopted.

Motion seconded.

MR. MORTIMER: Before we adopt this rule I would like to offer an amendment, and that is that the classes shall follow this order that I now read: Puppy, Novice, American bred, Limit, Open and Winners. My reason for asking that the American Bred class be placed next to the Novice class is because it will facilitate getting the dogs into the ring to a very great extent. Most of the dogs that go to make up the American Bred class generally come from the Novice class. They are generally entered first in the Novice class. They are generally entered first in the Novice class. Therefore if we have the classes to read, Puppy, Novice and then American Bred, it will be a very great help to the committee.

DR. DeMUND: I do not think there is any objection to that amendment from the Rules Committee. It seems to be a very good point.

The proposed amendment as amended was then adopted, and is as follows:

“Rule IV: Add a new paragraph to read: ‘All classification must be arranged as follows: Puppy, Novice, American Bred, Limit, Open and Winners, after which additional classes can be include in any breed.’

THE SECRETARY: The next proposed amendment is to Rule XIV: All classified specials offered in any breed must be adjudicated upon by the judge of the regular Classes appointed for that breed. An unclassified special is one in which two or more breeds compete.” Now, there is another rule that must be taken in connection with that to the effect that the names, of all judges, including those for the classified specials must be published in every premium list.

DR. DE MUND: I move the adoption of the rule.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. BOGER: I would like to say in connection with this matter that in a certain show at which I entered a dog, a dog I had already beaten came in to compete, and I thought it was so unsportsmanlike that I refused to bring my dog into the ring. If one dog has winners, it is possible under that rule that a dog that did not take anything in his class at all can come in and compete under another judge at the same show, practically annulling his win on points. That would bring in the larger Water Spaniel and Cocker Spaniels, in fact all breeds. That would make it an unclassified special, would it not, and the Spaniel judge could not judge that.

THE SECRETARY: Not unless he was appointed for unclassified specials.

MR. MORTIMER: Yes, and therefore he should be authorized to adjudicate upon that particular special.

THE SECRETARY: The judge of all sporting spaniels does not say which one of the specials of sporting spaniels is better than the other. He says each one is the best one of that particular special. Therefore if they appoint another judge where the different specials of sporting spaniels come in, he certainly cannot stultify what the original judge did.

MR. GUGGENHEIM: Supposing Mr. A. is judging my different breeds of Sporting Spaniels, and he puts Mr. X’s dog third in Cocker Spaniels, and the Mr. B is judging Unclassified specials and he puts the dog which Judge A put third as the best Sporting Spaniel in the show? That can be done under the present rule.

MR. MORTIMER: If we carry out this rule we are going to cause a great deal of confusion. We have usually a set of judges. One judge judges Irish Setters and English Setters. There is a special for that. That is an unclassified special, and he cannot judge that.

DR. DE MUND: I rise to a point of order. That amendment was adopted. Asked for an expression of opinion before it was adopted and nobody had anything to say about it.

MR. MORTIMER:

There should be an amendment to provide that except in cases where there are several breeds of Sporting Spaniels, say for instance, Setters. You have your different breeds in Sporting Spaniels. You are going to take them away from your Spaniel judge, or your Setters away from your Setter judge and give them to somebody else to adjudicate upon, which really is not proper.

DR. DE MUND: I think Mr. Mortimer’s point is well taken. I move to reconsider the previous action of the delegates in this matter.

Motion to reconsider seconded and carried.
MR. GUGGENHEIM: If that rule were passed the way it is, and then another rule were adopted providing that no dog which has been previously beaten can compete for an unclassified special for which the dog beating him is eligible, I think that would obviate the difficulty.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, but you are taking away from a judge of a breed of dogs his right to judge that breed. That is the question.

MR. COLLINS: I move the adoption of this amendment in place of the other one: That all classified specials offered in any breed or breeds must be adjudicated upon by the judge of the regular classes appointed for that breed or breeds.

DR. DE MUND: The question arises as to the definition of an unclassified special, and that was the difficulty the Committee has in mind to remedy. The idea of the Committee, when this matter came up, was to define a classified special and an unclassified special. If you could find some way of getting around the unclassified special it would obviate the whole trouble.

MR. BOGER: As I understand the rule to-day, for instance, the Westminster Kennel Club, that being the largest club. A special would be offered for the best dog in the show. Any number of exhibitors could come in the ring. They would have a right there, not only the winning Cocker Spaniel or winning Setter, but the second, third and fourth winners. The whole ring would be filled with dogs that never took a point in their regular classes.

MR. HOOLEY: If the winning dog in a class should be taken out are you going to make a provision that a man who refuses to show him, or sends him home –

THE CHAIRMAN: A man has no right to refuse to show. He must bring his dog in the ring.

THE SECRETARY: A man must show for every special that his dog is eligible for.

MR. BOGER: And you propose to make him ineligible for those specials.

(A recess was then taken for ten minutes)

The meeting reconvened.

DR. DE MUND: The Rules Committee, after discussion with several of the delegates, offer the following amendment to take the place of the one proposed, commencing with the words “Unclassified specials: ‘An unclassified special is one not confined to the breed or breeds adjudicated upon by any judge or judges. A dog shall be deemed ineligible to compete for a special against any dog or dogs that have previously beaten it in the regular classes at the show then being held.”

Amendment seconded.
The amendment just offered to the proposed amendment was adopted, and is as follows:

“Rule XIV: Substitute for the second paragraph the following: All classified specials offered in any breed must be adjudicated upon by the judge of the regular classes appointed for that breed. An unclassified special is one not confined to the breed or breeds adjudicated upon by any judge or judges. A dog shall be deemed ineligible to compete for a special against any dog or dogs that have previously beaten it in the regular classes at the show then being held.”

THE SECRETARY: The next proposed amendment is to Rule XVIII: “Add the following after the words ‘Kennel Club’ on the third line. The names of all judges, including those for unclassified specials, must be published in every premium list. Failure to publish such names shall be punishable by a fine of Twenty-five (25) dollars.”

DR. DE MUND: I move the adoption of that proposed amendment.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. BERNHEIMER: Rule XX reads “The Superintendent, the secretary of the show, Veterinarian or club official acting in any of these capacities, cannot exhibit or officiate as judge at the show.” I would like to add to
I therefore offer this as an amendment to our classification:

“Section F. The winners’ class, for which there shall be no entry fee, must be opened to winners of first prizes in either the Puppy, Novice, Limit, American Bred, Open, and Field Trial Classes, all of which shall constitute the regular classes at a show giving at least three of the above mentioned classes, one of which must be the open. The winners’ class may be divided by sex, provided the required three classes are so divided.”

On motion the matter was referred to the Rules Committee.

MR. COLLINS: At the last meeting of the Long Island Kennel Club the matter of the warfare being conducted by one of the yellow journals of the City of New York against the dog was pretty thoroughly discussed, and I was instructed to bring the matter before the American Kennel Club, to, if possible, forestall any action which may be taken by the present Legislature that may be detrimental to the interests of the dog. It has been suggested that the American Kennel Club take steps to bring about legislation which will protect dog owners and also protect the public against the curs running in the streets. I would therefore move that a Committee be appointed to prepare such legislation and to see that it is placed In the hands of some legislative representative in this State, and to do all that it possibly can to have it passed by the present Legislature, and that the American Kennel Club defray any expenses in the matter of drawing up a bill, or something to that effect. The legislation which I have in mind would be very simple. It is simply that a law should be passed providing that all dogs taken on the street must either have a leash or muzzle. That would protect the public and protect dog owners as well.

MR. KELLY: Would there be any objection to appointing such a Committee to report at the next meeting? It seems to me a very proper thing for the American Kennel Club to do, so that both sides may be heard on the question whether it is a proper matter for the American Kennel Club to consider or not.

MR. COLLINS: My motion was that the American Kennel Club attempt to have legislation of the character I have mention passed by the present Legislature so as to forestall more serious legislation that may go through from some other source.

MR. EDSON: It seems to me that this matter should be taken up by the different local clubs in the different states.

MR. KELLY: I move as an amendment that the American Kennel Club appoint a Committee to consider this ques-
Amendment seconded.

MR. WILLETS: May I add a further amendment, that that report shall incorporate in it some idea of the expense to be incurred by the American Kennel Club in entering into such a question.

MR. KELLY: I accept that amendment.

MR. COLLINS: I withdraw the original motion and accept Mr. Kelly’s amendment.

MR. KELLY: The amendment is that the Committee be instructed to report in addition to the matter directly under consideration the expense that this club might incur.

Motion as amended seconded and carried.

The chair appointed John F. Collins, Chas. A. Kelly, W. S. Guinee Jr., as such Committee.

THE SECRETARY: There have been a number of suggestions made to me since the last meeting as to the advisability of a rule under which the show management can take refuge, that no person shall be admitted into the show ring at any show except the judge, the steward and the exhibitors. The reason given for that suggestion is this, that many times they have seen visitors in the ring, or newspaper reporters in the ring, and that as soon as a judge drops his book, they pick it up to make copies of it for their papers, in perfect good faith and honest intent, but it gives the opportunity to whoever picks up that book to change any award that may be in it to suit himself. This is not probable, but possible. I simply bring this matter up in order to give you the ideas of quite a number who have talked to me on the subject since our last meeting.

MR. GURNEE: I move that we now give notice to the Rules Committee that we shall offer an amendment to the rule excluding from the ring all except the judges, stewards, exhibitors and show officials.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

A. P. VREDEBURGH

Secretary
MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, HELD AT ITS OFFICES, NO. 1 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK CITY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1911.

Mr. H. K. Bloodgood in the Chair.

Present:
Dwight Moore
B. S. Smith
Howard Willets
A. G. Hooley
A. Clinton Wilmerding
John E. De Mund
John G. Bates
F. H. Osgood
C. D. Bernheimer
James Mortimer
H. K. Bloodgood
M. M. Palmer
Andrew Albright, Jr.

On motion the minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The secretary read his report as follows:

September 18, 1911

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:
I beg to report that the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee meeting of May 22nd was published in the July issue of the Gazette, at the request of that Committee. I now submit the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee meeting held August 18th, 1911, also the report of the Stud Book Committee and of the License Committee.

I have two communications from the Monmouth County Kennel Club, which will be submitted to you for such action as may be deemed proper.

The Newark Ohio Kennel Club held a show under License May 3rd to 6th, 1911, and notwithstanding the fact that we have notified all of the officers of said Club, we have failed to receive all of the officers of said Club, we have failed to receive from the Club either the catalogue of the show, the judge’s book, or the listings. The letters sent to the President, Vice-President, and Secretary of said Show have all been returned, marked “not found.”

I have declined to recognize the show, and still hold their $25.00 deposit, subject to your direction.

The New Hampshire Fair Association held their show under License September 4th to 7th, 1911. Their entries closed September 2nd, 1911, which was a clear violation of Rule IX of the Rules Governing Clubs, which says: “Entries shall close not less than seven days prior to the first day of the show.”

I am advised by this Club that the show was gotten up in such a hurry that they had not time to read and digest the Rules and that they overlooked the date of closing of the entries unintentionally, and asked to be excused in this licensed.

I beg to present a bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee from May 11th to September 6th, for $58.65. This bill appears to be correct, and I recommend the payment of same.

Two claims have been made for unpaid prizes. Dr. J. D. Lynch against the El Paso Kennel Club for a medal donated by the Collie Club of America, and Mrs. Annie Bruhn against the Mississippi Valley Kennel Club. These claims will be referred to the Trial Board, sitting in NY, at their first meeting.

Agreeable to a resolution adopted by your Board at its May meeting, Dr. De Mund, Chairman of the Special Committee to select a suitable wedding gift for Mrs. Schellhass, performed his duties, and I have a letter of thanks from the recipient.

The following Directors have made written excuses for their inability to attend this meeting: Messrs. A. Untermyer, J. W. Appleton, Edward Brooks, and George Lauder, Jr., H. H. Hunnewell, R. P. Keasbey, W. G. Rockefeller.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH

Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

September 18, 1911

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my financial statement from January 1st to date.

Balance on hand January first ------------------ $21,793.44
Receipts from January 1st to date -------------- 18,501.70

Total 40,295.14

Disbursements from January 1st to date ----- $17,859.92
Balance on hand ----- 22,435.22

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: A meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee was held on August 18, 1911, and I submit the minutes of such meeting.

On motion such minutes were adopted, and they are as follows:

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco,

August 18, 1911
PRESENT: W. W. Stettheimer, Chairman, N. T. Messer, Norman J. Stewart
ABSENT: Dr. W. P. Burnham, H. H. Carlton

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and on motion approved.

The secretary presented the following report:

I beg to report that since the last meeting of this Committee two clubs have been licensed by mail vote, and four claims for dates have been approved.

The clubs licensed are Seattle and El Paso, and the claims were filed by San Mateo, Alameda County, Colorado, and Northern California. Eight shows have been already held this year and nine more are schedule in our jurisdiction, making a total of seventeen.

The Snohomish County Kennel Club of Everett, Washington, has filed an application for membership with the annual dues and admission fee, but the application is defective and not in shape to be definitely considered. They have filed no deposit, but apply for dates on September 14, 15, 16, 1911. As those dates are so near, I have wired and written them to amend their application, and would suggest that the Committee might approve it, conditionally on their filing it in due form with your secretary.

I call your attention to a letter from the President of the Marin Valley Kennel Club and ask for instructions.

Re the claim of J. H. Taylor for prizes at the late Tacoma show, I submit further correspondence, also in re the claim of William Gale at the same show.

An erroneous entry is referred to this Committee by the American Kennel Club, for investigation and action, and I submit all records.

J. W. Elliott was suspended by the Seattle Kennel Club and a letter was written to him by this Committee notifying him to file his defense within thirty days. The letter was returned.

On June 26th I received a letter from Mr. Elliot dated at San Francisco, June 24th, and on the 28th I forwarded to him at the address he gave, the original registered letter. The thirty days have long elapsed, and no reply has been received.

I submit a letter from the Ladies Kennel Association of So. Cal., and my reply thereto.

The secretary of the American Kennel Club has written a letter in reference to a matter of unfinished business, that was first discussed in Executive session on May 22, 1911 and in reference to which the Chair appointed a special Sub-Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman, Secretary
Re the application of the Snohomish County Kennel Club: It was moved and seconded, that said application be approved, conditionally on the club filing all necessary documents and fees with the secretary of the Committee. Carried.

Re the notice of the President of the Marin Valley Kennel Club in reference to the deposit only on the joint signatures of the President and secretary of the Club.

Re the claim of J. H. Taylor for unpaid prizes at the Tacoma show: On motion, the case was postponed until the next meeting.

Re the letter of F. E. King, secretary Tacoma Kennel Club, in reference to a certain false pedigree: On motion the secretary was directed to call on Mr. King for an affidavit.

Re the claim of William Gale for ribbons alleged to have been won at the Tacoma show: It was moved and seconded, that this Committee finds Mr. Gale’s claim for second and reserve ribbons to be unfounded, and requests the secretary of the Tacoma Kennel Club to furnish Mr. Gale with a duplicate 3rd prize ribbon. Carried.

In reference to the erroneous entry referred by the NY office, the secretary was directed to proceed with the investigation thereof.

Re Jas. W. Elliot, suspended by the Seattle Kennel Club for misconduct, in the alleged stealing of a cup, the property of the Club: It was moved and seconded, that the said J. W. Elliott having failed to file an answer to the charges, be and hereby is disqualified. Carried.

The Committee went into Executive session, in order to receive a report from a special sub-committee, and the secretary was duly instructed.

On resumption of regular business, the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST: J. P. Norman

Secretary

The report of the License Committee was read as follows:

September 18, 1911

To the Directors of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

Your License Committee begs to report that since the May meeting, it has approved of sixteen Licenses and during that time four license have been granted by the Pacific Advisory Committee.

There are no further applications for Licenses pending at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. DeMund,

Chairman
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, and is as follows:

September 19, 1911

To the Delegates:

Gentlemen: During the last quarter, there have been no cases before your Committee to be reported upon. From time to time, the Members have met and passed on Kennel Names published in the Gazette not conflicting with those already granted.

Your truly,

Singleton Van Schaick,
Acting Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Publication Committee was read as follows:

New York City, Sept. 19, 1911

Mr. Chairman:

Your Publication Committee begs to report that no occasion for a meeting has arisen during the Quarter. The next matter of importance will be the letting of contract for publishing the Stud Book in January, 1912, which will not come up until December.

Respectfully submitted,

Dwight Moore,
Chairman
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I submit to you the communication from the Monmouth County Kennel Club. It is as follows:

Aug. 14, 1911

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh, Secy.

American Kennel Club,
No. 1 Liberty St., NY

Dear Sir:

The Bench Show Committee finds that in the classes judged by Mr. J. Willoughby Mitchell at the show held at West End, NJ, on July 22, 1911, in some instances the awards in the Judges' book were marked by the Steward at the alleged instigation of the Judge, which is a direct violation of the rules, and that in class No. 583 for Pomeranians the dog No. 481 was marked absent although actually present & shown in the ring, and awarded 1st prize.

Yours truly,

Chas. D. Bernheimer,
Secy

DR. OSGOOD: I offer a resolution that the matter be referred to a trial board.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I submit a further communication from the Monmouth County Kennel Club as follows:
At a meeting of the bench show Committee of the Monmouth County Kennel Club held on August 10, 1911, the Committee sustained the protest entered by Mrs. E. S. Allard against the Pomeranian Perky Swell, owned by the Carteret Kennels, for not being shown in his natural color, and have suspended the owner of dog with the recommendation for leniency, the Committee also recommend the cancellation of the wins of the dog at the show held on July 22, 1911.

Yours truly,

Chas. D. Bernheimer,

Secy

MR. HOOLEY: This case was a particularly unpleasant one for the Monmouth County Club, and perhaps for all concerned, but as I understand, the officers of that club have recommended mercy, as the offender has acknowledged having done what the veterinarian and others claimed she did. It seems to me from the amount of advertising and notoriety she has had, she has been sufficiently punished, and I move that the suspension be removed. I do this more
On account of the fact that the Monmouth County Club of officials have suggested that it be done.

DR. DE MUND: As one of the members of the Bench Show Committee which suspended Mrs. Conkling, I do not want to vote on this question now, but I do think the ends of justice would be served by removing her suspension, because her punishment and notoriety has been sufficient. I do not think she would ever do it again, and it seems to me that nothing would be gained by continuing her suspension further.

MR. BATES: I move as an amendment that the suspension be continued until after the holding of the New York show.

Motion seconded and lost.

MR. MORTIMER: I move as an amendment that her suspension be removed at the end of the present year.

Motion seconded and lost.

MR. HOOLEY: My motion is that the suspension be removed on the request of the Monmouth County Kennel Club.

Carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Newark, Ohion, Kennel Club held a show last May under a license, and up to this time they have not furnished this club with a catalogue, with the Judges books or with any listings. Notices were sent to the President, Vice-President and secretary of the Club and all came back marked not found. I have two applications here for recognition of the wins which of course I had to decline, because we not know what dogs won. We hold their $25 deposit. It is for the directors to say what shall be done about that show and what shall be done about that deposit.

DR. OSGOOD: I move that the $25 now in the hands of the American Kennel Club shall be retained to cover the fine against this club, that the American Kennel Club shall not recognize the show and that the officers and Bench Show Committee connected with this club be disqualified.

Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary: The New Hampshire Fair Association held a show on September 4th, and their entries closed on September 2d, two days prior to the opening of their show. The rule says that shall not close less than seven days from the opening say of the show. I have received from them a communication in explanation of their error to the effect that there was no intention on their part to violate any of our rules.

MR. WILLETS: I move that their explanation be accepted and their show be recognized.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from May 11th to December 6th, amounting to $58.65, was ordered paid.

On motion the excuses of Messrs. H. H. Hunnewell, Alvin Uнтерmyer, J. W. Appleton, Edward Brooks, George Lauder, Jr., R. B. Keasbey and W. G. Rockefeller for absence at this meeting were accepted.

The secretary submitted a communication from Mrs. Josephine Mitchell (formerly Mrs. Schellhass) thanking the Directors for the beautiful gift of silver presented to her by Dr. De Mund on behalf of the American Kennel Club.

On motion the meeting went into Committee of the whole.

The Committee of the whole then arise, and Dr. Osgood, its Chairman, reported that the matters which came up before it were duly considered.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Dr Osgood presiding.

DR. DE MUND: There is a matter that has come to my attention lately. I had a talk with a very prominent member of the English Kennel Club, and it seems that now the time is ripe for reciprocity between the English Kennel Club and the American Kennel Club, but there was nothing official in this. He assured me he thought the English Kennel Club would be very glad to meet us on the question, and I move that a Committee be appointed, I think a small Committee would be best, a Committee of two with the secretary, to take up this matter with the English Kennel Club not officially, but to see what terms can be arranged and report back at the next meeting of this Club.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to know or have it explained to me what benefit to us there would be in this matter?

DR. OSGOOD: I would ask the secretary to talk the matter over with Mr. Mortimer.

The secretary: you may remember that in 1901 there was a reciprocal agreement entered into between the American Kennel Club and the English Kennel Club which I have pigeonholed in the safe, and which shows several benefits to the American Kennel Club. At that time the American Kennel Club was feeling rather aggrieved over the action of the Canadian Kennel Club in repudiating three different agreements made between it and the American Kennel Club. In this agreement made with England, the preamble was that it was agreed that the American Kennel Club shall be the sole kennel authority on the Continent of North America. The second was that the English Kennel Club should be the sole authority in Great Britain and her colonies. One stultified the other. Canada was on the Continent of North America, and Canada was one of the colonies of England. The following summer the English Kennel Club permitted Canada to affiliate with it. The American Committee consisting of Mr. Carnochan, Mr. Rodman and myself, held a meeting, and a vote of two to one decided that owing to the fact that England had allowed Canada to affiliate with it, the Committee declined to bring forward to the American Kennel Club for discussion or ratification the agreement entered into between the two clubs. The matter has rested in abeyance ever since. When Mr. Glynn was here in June last to judge the Mineola show, he called on me, and he was very earnest in hoping that an agreement could be made between the two leading kennel clubs in the world. He said he thought it would be mutually beneficial. He said that he had discussed the matter with some of their members and the secretary, and they all thought the same way. The relations between the American Kennel Club and the Canadian Kennel Club are at this time so friendly that that matter does not enter into the question at all. I can bring up one little instance where a benefit would arise to the American Kennel Club. There was a certain man before the Trial Board. The Trial Board heard that this man had been set down by the English Kennel Club for a number of years for some fraudulent transaction. I was directed by the Trial Board to apply to the Kennel Club in London for the information that they desired on this subject of the disqualification of this man. The answer came back that they could not furnish me with any information whatever. I was rather surprised to get that communication because the relations between the Secretary of the London Club and myself have been so friendly that I have been able on several occasions to get a great deal of valuable information; but that matter was not explained to me until Mr. Glynn was here when I asked him the question. He said that in want of reciprocity between the two clubs that the libel laws were so strict in England that they feared to send the information we wanted; that had there been a reciprocal agreement between us we would have been welcome to all the information they could have given us. One great benefit which would have accrued to the American Kennel Club is this: A man that is disqualified in England, coming over here is good enough to show with the best men we have got, whereas if we had reciprocity the man that is disqualified in England is not good enough, and could not show here. He could not sell his dogs here. There would be no reason in the world, if he was going to continue in the kennel world why he should come to this country, because there he would be down and out. There is another way in which we both would be benefited: We find now people in this country who claim a kennel name, a well known registered kennel name on the other side. There is nothing in our rules that prevent that Stud Book Committee from granting that name. Therefore some of our people are trading on the reputation made by the English kennels. We have several cases that we have granted. Now, with the old reciprocity agreement it was agreed between us that we would not grant the kennel names only at certain times in the year, at which times they would send us from time the additions to their kennels name, so that neither one would conflict with another. There is another thing: You take a man that imports a dog that has made a great reputation under a certain name, he come to this country, and the man wants to register that dog under its name. We say we cannot register that dog under that name because we have a dog already registered under that name, and you have got to change that dog’s name. Under our agreement of 1901 it was arranged that in such a case we could duplicate the names we already have on our books by putting in parenthesis Eng. That was the English name of the dog. I cannot tell you all the benefits that would accrue, but there are many benefits that would come to us.

Motion to appoint Committee carried.

The Chair appointment Dr. J. E. DeMund, B. S. Smith and A. P. Vredenburgh.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I do not know whether it is in order in this Committee or not, but during our meeting here to-day I heard one of our delegate state that upon one occasion he refused to take his dog in the ring. One of our own delegates sits here with us and states that he refused to bring his dog in the ring. What is the criticism of the American Kennel Club?

MR. WILLETS: I make a motion that the secretary be instructed to write to Mr. Boger in regard to this matter and bring it before the Trial Board after having given Mr. Boger an opportunity to be heard.

Motion seconded and carried.

Adjourned

A. P. VREDENBURGH

Secretary
In the Matter of the Appeal
Of Mr. B. F. Lewis against
The action of the secretary
Of the American Kennel Club
In cancelling the awards to English Setter “Landsdowne Noble.”

DR. DE MUND: I move that the action of the secretary in cancelling the wins be sustained, but in view of the facts and circumstances as presented by Mr. Lewis, and with the advice of the secretary, we restore the wins and impose a fine of one dollar for each entry.

Seconded and carried.
In the Matter of the Appeal of Lewis H. Miller of reinstatement from disqualification.

On motion the same was referred to the Philadelphia Trial Board.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the September Gazette.

The application of the Eastern Dog Club, whose application is now before you, is composed of the dog show members of the old New England Kennel Club. The Executive Committee of the New England Kennel Club held a meeting and invited the charter members of the Eastern Dog Club to be present, and then passed a resolution informing the American Kennel Club that they recommended the election of the Eastern Dog Club, and that they would relinquish their Boston show, they, the New England Kennel Club, reserving the right to hold an open air show at any time on their own grounds. In accordance therewith the Eastern Dog Club has claimed April 2nd and 5th inclusive for the Boston show with the consent and recommendation of the old New England Kennel Club.

The Eastern Dog Club was duly elected.
The following named clubs were also elected to membership in the American Kennel Club:

- The Nassau Kennel Club
- Delaware Valley Kennel Club
- Lehigh Valley Kennel Club and
- Schipperkee Club of America

The secretary: I have the application of the Greater Des Moines Kennel Club, which has held one licensed show, but as the application is not properly made the Committee laid it aside until another meeting.

The following named gentlemen were elected as delegates to represent the following named clubs:

- Lehigh Valley Kennel Club: Abram D. Gillett
- Monmouth County Kennel Club: Charles E. Bernheimer
- Nassau County Kennel Club: W. H. Sawyer
- Yorkshire Terrier Club of America: George E. Peabody

The secretary: The Alameda County Kennel Club sent the credentials have been laid on the table by the Membership Committee for the reason that Mr. Turner is not personally known to any one of its members.

The North Jersey Kennel Club filed the credentials for Mr. Andrew Albright, Jr., as its delegates. Under date of December 12, 1911, Mr. Albright requested to withdraw his name.

The secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

"New York, December 18th, 1911

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that I have received five applications for Active Membership and five credentials for the appointment of delegates, all of which I have referred to the Membership Committee, which will report at this meeting.

I also beg to report the nominations for delegates to represent the associate subscribers made by the Membership Committee on this date and from the same Committee the names suggested to act as a Nominating Committee for the expiring class of directors.

Notices was given at the September meeting that two amendments to the rules and one new rule would be brought before this meeting for its consideration. These proposed amendments have been referred to the Rules Committee, which will report its recommendation at this meeting.

I beg to report the reception of the resignation of the Atlantic City Kennel Club and the Danbury Agricultural Society. Both of these clubs are in good standing.
and I recommend the acceptance of their resignations.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDEBURGH

On motion the same was accepted.

The secretary read the report of the Rules Committee as follows:

“Your Rules Committee approved the amendment to Rule XX, which reads as follows:

“Dogs belonging to a kennel in which any of the above officials are in any way connected shall be deemed ineligible for competition.”

DR. DE MUND: I move that be adopted.

MR. APPLETON: It seems to me that the language “in any way connected” is rather indefinite. Shouldn’t it say by ownership, or something of that kind?

THE CHAIRMAN: It says dogs belonging to a kennel with which any way connected.

MR. COLLINS: I do not think that that rule quite covers the case, as desired by the mover of it at the last meeting, because it says none of these gentlemen can exhibit. What does exhibit mean? I only exhibitors are the people who own the dogs. I think it was intended that they should not exhibit or handle or show a dog.

MR. BERNHEIMER: Exhibit means that they cannot show. I do not think it means anything about handling. I will state for the information of the delegates why this proposed amendment was brought up. At a recent show the Superintendent of that show was the kennel manager of a well known kennel, and the kennel of which he was the manager exhibited at the show of which he was superintendent, and there were quite a number of complaints which led to my making the motion that this be embodied in that Rule XX, so that the superintendent of a show, being the kennel man of a kennel could not exhibit at the show of which he was superintendent of a show, being the kennel man of a kennel could not exhibit at the show of which he was superintendent. I think that covers it.
MR. BOGER: Does that mean if the Bull Dog Club of America gave a show, the secretary could not exhibit?

THE CHAIRMAN: No. The secretary of the show only is meant.

MR. RUTHERFURD: No.

MR. RUTHERFURD: I think it should.

MR. COLLINS: I think you could add those two words, exhibit or handle.

The secretary: In other words, to compete or handle?

MR. COLLINS: I move as an amendment to add the word 'handle' after the word 'exhibit'.

MR. RUTHERFURD: It is just as important that a man should handle. The judge may not know who the dogs belong to, but he may know the man who is handling them.

DR. DE MUND: if the dog cannot compete it cannot be handled by anybody. I think the rule as it is covers it.

THE CHAIRMAN: I understand that the amendment goes a little further than that, that no person connected with the show can handle anybody else’s dogs.

MR. VAN SCHAIK: Suppose the exhibitor was not
There in person, and that the dog has to be taken into the ring. Who would take it?
Somebody must take it in.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Perhaps his attendant would take it in.

DR. DE MUND: It seems to me the rule as it is covers what it was designed to cover, and it is enough without the addition of the words “or handle”.

The amendment to the proposed amendment was then put and lost.

The amendment as proposed by the Rules Committee was then carried.

The secretary: The Committee disapprove of the amendment to Rule V, Section
F, which reads: “Add field trial classes”.

DR. DE MUND: I move that that proposed amendment be adopted.

MR. MORTIMER: may I ask if there is any reason given by the Rules Committee for not admitting the field trial class as a regular class?

The secretary: Not in their report. They simply say they disapprove the proposed amendment.

DR. DE MUND: The reasons of the Rules Committee for disapproving the proposed amendment were that the number of breeds that would be affected would only be
About three, pointers, setters and beagles; that it would open a new class where there are already five classes eligible to winners and would cause quite a lot of confusion. Any dog that is entered in a field trial class can be entered in one of the other classes and be eligible for winners. If the proposed amendment was approved in this case we probably would be asked to make a class for the Dalmatians, whose owners would want a road trial class. Various other breeds would ask for classes. It would create a great deal of confusion and a great deal more work for the American Kennel Club.

The action of the Rules Committee in disapproving of the proposed amendment to Rule V, Section F, was sustained.

(At this point President August Belmont arrived and took the chair.)

The secretary: The Rules Committee does not approve of the proposed rule which reads: “Shall exclude from the judging rings at all AKC shows all persons except the judges, stewards, superintendents and show officials.” In their opinion the exclusion of person from the ring lies with the officials of the Club giving the show.

THE CHAIRMAN: A motion would be in order to endorse or otherwise the decision of the Committee.
MR. GUGGENHEIM: I move that the action of the Committee be endorsed.

Motion seconded and carried.

The resignation of the Atlantic City Kennel Club was read, and on motion accepted.

The secretary: I have reported the resignation of the Danbury Agricultural Society, and I think possibly I had better read their letter and my reply, so that you may determine whether it is intended for a resignation or not. On the 29th of November I sent them a bill for dues, and on December 7th they returned this bill to me. I concluded that the return of this bill was tantamount to a resignation.

DR OSGOOD: I should not consider that a resignation at all, and I do not think that their communication should be accepted as such. It seems to me that was more for information, to ascertain whether their dues were necessary inasmuch as they had not held a show the year before.

THE CHAIRMAN: The rule on the subject is practically automatic.

MR. BERNHEIMER: Since they mentioned the sum of $25 is it not likely that they thought that the dues were to be deducted out of the $25?

The secretary: No, I do not interpret it that way.
MR. CREUZBAUR: I move that the communication be laid on the table.

Motion seconded and carried.

The report of the Membership Committee was read as follows:

New York, December 18, 1911

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

In accordance with Section V, Article X of the By-laws, the Membership Committee at its meeting held December 18, 1911, suggest the following names to act as Nominating Committee, in conformity with Section III, Article XVIII of the By-laws: C. D. Bernheimer, Clarence Sackett, Alfred B. Maclay, J. Macy Willets, E. M. Carle.

Respectfully submitted,

Howard Willets,
Chairman, Membership Committee

On motion the same was accepted.

The secretary: I submit to you the report of the Special Committee that was appointed at the last meeting of the delegates. It is as follows:

A. P. VRE DENBURGH.

Secretary American Kennel Club

1 Liberty St. NY
Dear Sir:

I beg to submit the following as report of Committee appointed pursuant to resolution of the delegates at the September meeting to consider the subject of legislation in New York in relation to dogs.

The Committee held several meetings, at one of which, it was determined to Committee with all the members of the American Kennel Club, organized in this State, which was done, one reply resulting: which reply was vague and practically non-committal.

We also looked up all the laws now in existence, affecting dogs in any way and after a thorough examination of these laws we concluded that there was nothing in any of them detrimental to dogs or to dog owners.

On of the matters which we were to include in our report was the cost of introducing legislation. After considering the subject fully, we decided not to recommend the attempting to obtain the passage of any bills, because the agitation against dogs conducted by several New York Dailies had abated and we feared that the introducing of any bills relative to this question might awaken the dog’s enemies to renewed vigor and do more harm than good but we did decide that it would be well for this organization to employ somebody to watch for any legislation which we might wish to defeat. A Letter was sent to Ex-Judge Franklin M. Danaher, who, one of the Committee knew has had considerable experience in this work, to learn what he would charge for such services. A reply was received from that gentleman quoting a figure of $150. one half to be paid in advance and the balance at the end of the session. Mr. Danaher explained that to properly cover this matter would necessitate his scrutinizing probably three thousand bills during the usual four months session. For this fee he would also watch any legislation which we were interested in and keep us posted as to its progress.

In conclusion we respectfully recommend as above suggested, that the American Kennel Club employ counsel to watch for any proposed legislation harmful to dog interests and advise this organization of same and keep the Club posted as to its progress.

We append hereto, copy of circular letter to American Kennel Club members in this State, the one reply to same, copy of all existing laws on the subject, copy of letter to Mr. Danaher and his reply.

Respectfully submitted,

John F. Collins, Chairman

MR. COLLINS: I move the adoption of that report.

Motion seconded.

MR. OSGOOD: May I ask what the adoption of that report means?

THE CHAIRMAN: I think the resolution should add that proper officers be authorized to carry out the recommendation of the Committee.

MR. COLLINS: I will move an addition to that ef-
MR. WOOD: Why in New York State only? Why should those who live in other States ask the American Kennel Club to spend money in New York State only? We have troubles in other cities also.

DR OSGOOD: It seems to me that that is special legislation in favor of one State against another.

THE CHAIRMAN: The American Kennel Club was incorporated here, and I suppose that is the reason why New York State only was mentioned.

MR. COLLINS: For the information of the gentleman asking the question, I will state, if you remember, as I do, last summer, there was a great deal of agitation in New York State about mad dogs, and all such nonsense as that---we demand it nonsense, and we feared that there would be some legislation go through at Albany which would be very detrimental to dog interests in this State, it would not only affect New York State, but it would affect every State that holds a dog show. We feared such legislation, and we wanted to prepare ourselves against it by putting through some legislation which would be more or less of a negative quality, but since the agitation, as stated in the report, has abated, we thought it was better not to attempt to pass any legislation, but to watch legislation and see that none was passed that would hurt the dog. So far as other States are concerned, there is no use of crossing the bridge until we come to it. If other states are suffering let the representation of dog interests in such States attempt similar legislation and I will support it.

DR OSGOOD: For the past three or four years we have had extreme agitation in this line, but the legislative Committee found that the dog men who were interested in the subject went to them and fought them on their own grounds. It seems to me that there are enough dog men in New York to keep watch of whatever legislation is going on, and to go there and fight it. If you appoint a Committee to keep watch of legislation, what is that going to amount to? You will all know it. Every dog man knows what is going on in legislation in regard to the dog. It seems to me this proposed expenditure is a waste of $150.

MR.GUGGENHEIMER: I consider it a great waste of club money to spend $150 to watch legislation because if any legislation of that kind should be passed the daily papers would publish it, and we would know about it in plenty of time.

MR. CHAIRMAN: That does not necessarily follow. Sometimes bills are introduced and referred to Committees. There were about 800 bills signed at the last session of the Legislature and I doubt very much if the ordinary citizen was familiar with over 25 or 30 of them. However, this is an entirely new subject to me, but you know that almost all legislation in cities is confined to city ordinances. The sheep law and other laws of that kind, are passed in the interest of country districts. Nobody has suggested what kind of legislation would be considered detrimental in this connection.

MR. COLLINS: One of the newspapers in NYC published the statement that dogs were out of place, that they were a back number on civilized communities, and should not be harbored or kept in the city or within the city limits. If such a law as thee were passed, what would become of your dog shows, where dogs are brought in from every state to the New York show. It has been said that you all know all about this legislation. I wonder how many of them know that the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has succeeded in getting the Court of Appeals to decide in favor of collecting taxes on dogs. As the gentlemen whom we correspond with relative to watching this legislation stated, the were some 3,000 bills passed by the Legislature, some of which affected dog interests, and I think among these 3,000 bills there might be many affecting dog shows without my knowing anything about it. Talk about $150 expense, we perhaps could have it done cheaper than that. Still I think it is a good thing to do, and it is something that the American Kennel Club should do. The American Kennel Club has organized the dog interests. It is, as has been said, incorporated in this State. It is the largest State in the Union; there are more dogs owned in this State than half a dozen other States out together, and to do that in this State would be worth the money.

DR OSGOOD: It does not seem to me that the amount of $150 is material one way or the other. We are establishing a precedent of spending the general fund for the interest of one State, which I do not believe is right. There is no special call for any different conditions in New York from any other State.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Talking about legislation in Massachusetts, they had a meeting this month there, and one of the suggestions made for the Legislature to pass upon was that all dogs should be tied up. That of course is detrimental to dogs.

MR. BOGER: There was a bill presented before the Pennsylvania Legislature which made it compulsory to muzzle all dogs except during the gunning season. All the dog people in Pennsylvania took that up of their own accord and they wrote to all the members of the Legislature from their districts, and the bill was defeated.

DR. DE MUND: I move that this resolution be referred to the Finance Committee with power.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I agree with what has been stated here, that it is outside of our province to handle this matter. Here are people from all over the country, and we should not take this matter up for private purposes.

Motion seconded.

DR. DE MUND: It is quite likely that a number of the delegates do not know that the American Kennel Club has already taken up the question of excess charges on dogs and has been represented before the Inter-State Commerce Commission with a very good change of success in having those charges reduced. That matter started with the Finance Committee of this Club, and I think if this resolution was referred to the Finance Committee, not only in the State of New York, but in other States which brought up the matter, it would be taken care of.

Carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of October 21st, 1911, also a special resolution in reference to the publication of winnings in the annual Stud Book, also the bill for disbursements by said Committee, from September 25th to December 11, 1911, amounting to $32.10. In accordance with the resolution of the Committee, this bill has been audited as correct and I recommend the payment of same.

For your information, beg to say that the Publication Committee, held its meeting on the Stud Book for 1911 and the Gazette for 1912.

Reports are in order from two Special Committee appointed at the meeting of September 19th.

The finding of the Philadelphia Trial Board in the matters referred to it, namely, L. H. Miller, Appeal for reinstatement, and E. L. Boger, has been filed and is at your pleasure.

A concern called the American Kennel Company, 113 East 9th Street, NYC, is doing business in dogs and dog supplies. I wrote to this concern under date of November 18th as follows:

"I will call your attention to the fact that the title of your Company is very misleading. It is so much so that in my opinion it is an infringement on the corporate title of the American Kennel Club, and apt to cause confusion, which has already occurred a number of times. I would dislike taking any steps in this matter other than to request that you will voluntarily change your title."

There has been no reply received to my letter and I would suggest that some steps be taken to present the use of their name if same is possible.

I have the bill from Ackerman & Oppenheim for services rendered re Wm. Chute vs. American Kennel Club et al. and costs, amounting to $550.00. This bill is dated May 13, 1911. I entered into correspondence with out Pacific Advisory Committee, setting forth that I thought the amount charged was exorbitant.

I am now officially informed that the Pacific Advisory Committee in Executive Session, held on October 21st, 1911, resolved that the bill of Ackerman & Oppenheimer for $550.00 for legal services having been reduced to $450.00, same be hereby recommended to the American Kennel Club for payment.
I beg to report that Messrs. Chetwood Smith, Samuel R. Cutler, Dwight Moore and Edward Brooks regret that they will be unable to attend this meeting, and ask that they may be excused.

Agreeable to the Ruling by the Chair, it will be in order for the several standing Committees to make their reports at this meeting.

The Appalachian Exposition held a show under license, September 19th to 21st, 1911, and have failed to file Judges' books, marked Catalogue, Listing Sheets and fees, and are subject to a fine of $1.00 per day for non-compliance with the rule. I would recommend the forfeiture of the date deposit, the suspension of the officers, and that the awards be not recognized.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted.
The Treasurer read his report as follows:
New York, December 18, 1911

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my Financial statement from January 1st to date:

Balance on hand January 1st, 1911 ----------------------- $21,793.44
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date ------------------------------   25,077.19
Total     46,870.63
Disbursements from Jan. 1st to date ---------------------- 23,809.82
Balance on hand             23,060.81

I also report that all bills for Active dues and Associate Subscribers were mailed November 29th, 1911.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH
Treas.

On motion the same was accepted.
The report of the Finance Committee was read, as follows:

“New York, December 19th, 1911

“It having been called to the attention of the Finance Committee that the Interstate Commerce Commission was going to have hearings in New York in regard to the reasonableness of express charges, and as it was necessary that quick action should be taken, the Finance Committee arranged for the American Kennel Club to be represented by counsel in an effort to have the express charges on dogs reduced.

“The Finance Committee now desired that its action be ratified. At the present time it can simply report that the investigation being made by the Interstate Commerce Commission is a very wide scope, and it believes that some progress has already been made.

“Respectfully submitted,
Wm. G. Rockefeller
“Chairman, Finance Committee

DR. DE MUND: I move that the action of the Finance Committee be ratified.
Motion seconded and carried.
The report of the License Committee was read as follows:
BOARD OF DIRECTORS  A. K. C.

The License Committee reports since the last meeting that they have granted the following licenses:

PHILA. BULLDOG CLUB
FORT ORANGE POULTRY & PET STOCK ASSOC.
PHILA. BOSTON TERRIER CLUB
BLACK RIVER VALLEY POULTRY & PET STOCK ASSOC.

LICENSE COMMITTEE
J. E. DeMund
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted.

The report of the Publication Committee was read as follows:

New York City, December 19th, 1911

Mr. Chairman:

Your Publication Committee begs to report that it has held two meetings September and after considering the bids for publishing the Gazette for 1912 and Stud Book for 1911, awarded the former to the Patteson Press and the latter to Mr. James Watson.

Respectfully submitted
Dwight Moore
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted.

On motion the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee were ordered spread upon the minutes of this meeting.
Absent: Dr W. P. Burnham

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The secretary presented the following report:

Pacific Advisory Committee

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that 16 shows have been held in this jurisdiction this year, and 3 more have been approved or licensed, making a total of 19 shows to date, against 13 for 1910. This includes the Los Angeles show of the Ladies Kennel Association of So. Cal., licensed by mail vote since our last meeting, for November 9, 10, 11.

In regard to the Stockton Show held under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, the only reply received is a defense of one of the officers of said show.

Re a statement from the secretary of the Tacoma Kennel Club that a fraudulent entry was made by a certain exhibitor.

In regard to a matter considered in executive session only, on which the Chair has arranged to report at this meeting as a sub-Committee.

I am advised by the Santa Clara Co. Kennel Club, of the suspension of W. H. Revere for misconduct in removing his dog from the show contrary to the rules, and using foul and abusive language to the doorkeeper.

W. C. Cox vs. Colorado Kennel Club: I protest against the placing of certain trophies.

A statement of Mr. T. Kielhofer, respecting the date of birth of a litter of Cocker Spaniels, one of which was shown at Del Monte with a different date of birth.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. NORMAN
Secretary

On motion the secretary’s report was approved and ordered filed.

American Kennel Club vs. Hub City Kennel Club: infraction of Rule II.

It was moved and seconded that the officers of the Hub City Kennel Club, with the exception of Dr C. L. Six, the president, be and hereby are disqualified for acting in an official capacity at a show held in the United States, under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, in contravention of Rule II of said Club.
CARRIED.

It was further moved and seconded, that on the receipt by the secretary of this Committee within thirty (30) days from date, of an undertaking signed by Dr C. L. Six, that he will not, in the future, support in any manner, shape or form, any show held in the United States, under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, that said Dr Six, shall be excepted from the disqualification of the officers of the Hub City Kennel Club.  CARRIED.

American Kennel Club vs. C. F. Manning: Charge of fraudulent pedigree.
It was moved and seconded that investigation having shown that C. F. Manning entered another person’s dog under his own name, at the Portland show, and that investigation showing that the act was committed in ignorance and without intent to defraud inasmuch as the ownership was [eligible] on the entry blank that the win of said dog be cancelled, and that Mr. Manning be warned not to repeat this infraction of the rules.  CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that the Tacoma Catalogue being defective in not showing whether or not the trophies for Washington bred Collies announced in the Premium List, were actually distributed, the secretary be instructed to call on the Tacoma Kennel Club to furnish a certified catalogue showing the disposition of these trophies, and to call also on the secretary of the American Kennel Club for the Tacoma Judge's book for Collies. CARRIED.

F. E. King vs. J. H. Taylor: Charge of falsifying pedigree.

No reply having been received from F. E. King to the request of this Committee dated August 19, 1911, for an affidavit substantiating his letter of June 21, 1911, stating that J. H. Taylor had entered a Collie puppy bitch under a false pedigree in the Tacoma show of April 1910.

It was moved and seconded that F. E. King be directed to file said affidavit within thirty (30) days from date, without fail. CARRIED.

On motion the Committee then went into executive session.

On the termination thereof, regular business was resumed.

Santa Clara County Kennel Club vs. W. H. Revere: Suspension for misconduct.

It was moved and seconded that the secretary of this Committee notify Mr. W. H. Revere to show cause in writing, within thirty (30) days from date, why his suspension should not be made permanent. CARRIED.

Re T. Kielhofer: A statement as to age of puppies.

It was moved and seconded that T. Kielhofer be directed to file with this Committee within thirty (3) days from date, an affidavit giving, as breeder, the age of the Cocker Spaniel puppy, Yama Yama Girl, shown at Del Monte, August, 1911. CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that certain officials of the San Jose Kennel Club, having acted in that capacity at a show held San Jose on October 5, 6, 7, 1911, under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, that said Officers be and hereby are called upon to show cause in writing, within thirty (30) days from date, why they should not be disqualified. CARRIED.

It was moved and seconded that consideration of this case be postponed until the next meeting. CARRIED.

The Chair stated that he wished to bring before the Committee a matter on which he had received various complaints, it being the omission from the 1911 Stud Book of the winnings in regular classes other than winners. The other members of the Committee stated that they had heard similar complaints.

It was moved and seconded that this Committee hereby request the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club to take up this question with the Stud Book Committee.

The Stud Book having been greatly impaired in value, particularly on the Pacific coast, by the omission of the wins in the regular classes, and that this Committee recommend that the 1911 Stud Book be compiled in the same manner as the one for 1909, and include all the wins omitted in the 1910 issue. CARRIED.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Carlton and Messer as a sub-committee to audit the expenditures of this Committee.

It was moved and seconded that this Committee adopt as a standing resolution, the rule, that any member absenting himself from two consecutive meetings without valid excuse, shall be dropped from membership. CARRIED.

Mr. Messer called attention that at some shows a great many dogs were absent from their benches during the time that the box office was open to the public, and that consequently the public was to a certain extent disappointed in not seeing the dogs, to see which admission had been paid.

Other members endorsed Mr. Messer, and, it was moved and seconded that the following supplemental rules governing dog shows in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, be adopted, to go into effect January 1st, 1912:

I. Every show giving club must advertise in its Premium List in heavy type, the daily opening and closing hours of the show, as well as the hours for exercising the dogs.

II. Every dog must be on its bench during the advertised hours, except during the judging of the breed and the advertised period for exercising; puppies excepted in accordance with Rule V, Section A.

III. The above rules must be printed in the Premium List and Catalogue of every club holding a dog show in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

IV. Infractions of these rules are punishable by fine of suspension. CARRIED.
On motion the meeting adjourned.

Attest: J. P. Norman
Secretary

The secretary: Here is the resolution of the Pacific Advisory Committee that is incorporated in its report, and which was sent to me separately:

Berkeley, Cal., October 24, 1911

A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary American Kennel Club
New York
Dear Sir:

I beg to advise you that the following resolution was adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee at its meeting held October 21, 1911.

That this Committee do hereby call upon the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club to take up with the Stud Book Committee thereof the matter of the Stud Book, the same having been greatly impaired in value, particularly on the Pacific Coast, by reason of the omission of the winnings in the regular classes (other than winners classes) and that we hereby recommend that the Stud Book for 1911 be compiled in the same manner as the issue for 1909, and that it include the wins omitted in the issue for 1910.

I would respectfully ask that you present this resolution to the Executive Committee at its next meeting.

Yours truly,

J. P. Norman
Secretary Pacific Advisory Committee
October 30, 1911

Mr. J. P. Norman
Box 283
Berkeley, Cal.

Dear Sir:

I have your favor of the 23rd inst., with enclosures.
I will present the bill of Messrs. Ackerman & Oppenheim for $450 for legal services to the Directors at the meeting to be held the third Tuesday in December.

The resolution in reference to the printing of the winnings in the Stud Book will also be presented to the Directors. The Executive Committee has nothing whatever to do with such matters. I may say, however, that it would be an utter impossibility to publish in the Stud Book for 1911, the winnings referred to in the resolution adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee on October 21st, 1911.

Yours truly,

A. P. VREDENBURGH

The secretary: That is a matter that has been regulated by the Publication Committee hereto fore and should be referred to them.

DR. DE MUND: I move that the resolution be referred to the Publication Committee.

MR. APPLETON: Was that done by the action of the directors?

The secretary: That was done by the Committee and ratified by the directors. It would be a physical impossibility to incorporate all these wins in the Stud Book as requested. It would take this force probably three months to do it. We would have to go over 101 shows and put first, second and third in all the regular classes. The Stud Book at the retail price of five dollars per volume, we lose nineteen cents on every volume that we sell, and on each volume that we sell to an associate subscriber we lose $2.19, and if we were obliged to incorporate these winnings that the Committee ask for it would probably mean an additional cost to the Stud Book of at least $400.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Do not all these wins that they ask for appear in the Gazette?

The secretary: Yes.

The motion to [eligible] the Pacific Advisory Committee resolution to the Publication Committee was carried.

On motion the bill for disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee from September 25th to December 11th, amounting to $32.10, was ordered paid.

The secretary: The attorney’s bill for services rendered in the case of William Chute vs. American Kennel Club et al, with costs, has been rendered, amounting to $550. This has been reduced to $450, and the Pacific Advisory Committee recommends its payment. In reference to this bill I would state that Mr. Chute sued the American Kennel Club for violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act. The case came before the judge easily in May. He did not render his decision until the following November. His decision was in favor of the American Kennel Club. The plaintiff in the case had six months within which to appeal from that decision. He did not appeal, and he cannot appeal now because he is dead.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I move the bill be paid.

Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary: Now I submit to you this matter of the American Kennel Company. We have repeatedly received letters intended for it. They have the same initials, A. K. C. I believe it is an infringement of our corporate title. I believe it is harmful to us and beneficial to it, and if possible I think some action should be taken to prevent them from using that title. There was another company called the American Kennel Company in East 34th street near the old Long Island Ferry. I went there and after having a talk with the proprietor, he saw the justice of the case, and he said as soon as he used up the stationary that he then had on hand he would change his title, and I have never heard since from that concern, nor did any of its letters come to us.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the matter be referred to the Finance Committee with power to employ counsel if it deems necessary.
Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary: The Appalachian Exposition held a show last September. We have been unable to obtain any information whatever from them. They have not filed their judge’s books, their official catalogue, their listing sheets nor the cash that they had received for listings. They do not reply to our letters. We had a similar case at our last meeting at which a resolution for listings. They do not reply to our letters. We had a similar case at our last meeting at which a resolution was passed that we would forfeit the $25 that we held for their date deposit; their officers were suspended and the awards at their show ere not recognized. I think it is quite proper that some official action should be taken in this case.

DR OSGOOD: I made the motion in the other case, and I do not see why we should not follow the same course and take the same action here. I make such a motion.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion Messrs. Edward Brooks, Samuel R. Cutler, Chetwood Smith and Dwight Moore were excused from attendance at this meeting.

On motion the meeting went into Committee of the whole.

The Committee of the whole reported and the same was duly approved.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

-------
COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

The secretary: The Philadelphia Trial Board has made an interpretation of the rule, and under that interpretation the charges against one of our delegates were not sustained, and it remains for you to say whether you desire the rules of the Philadelphia Trial Board decision read or not, or to go through the regular course of being published in the Gazette as being final. There has been no appeal whatever.

DR OSGOOD: Any question about it, any doubt?

The secretary: The old rule and the new rule were considered and they interpreted the new rule. There was a gentleman here at the last meeting who stated that he had withheld his dogs from competition, and while in Committee of the whole Mr. Bloodgood suggested that that was a matter that should be investigated by the proper authorities, and this delegate living in Philadelphia, I sent the case to the Philadelphia Trial Board, and they think that under their interpretation of the rule it was not violating any rule whatever. The only question is whether you do not published in the Gazette as usual, or whatever you do not want to hear this interpretation and discuss it.

THE CHAIRMAN: If there is no objection, the matter will take the usual course and publication will be had without further action.

The Committee on motion arose.
President August Belmont, presiding.

The secretary read the findings of the Philadelphia Trial Board in the matter of the appeal of the L. H. Miller for reinstatement.

DR. DE MUND: I move that the recommendation of the Philadelphia Trial Board be carried out.

Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary” Mr. Herbert L. Wolf was disqualified by our Trial Board for judging at a show antagonistic to the American Kennel Club at Kansas City, and I read this communication which I have received from him.

MR. APPLETON: I move that he be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

February 19, 1912

TO THE DELEGATES OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB:

I beg to submit herewith my usual report.

On January 31st, The Crotona Collie Club filed its resignation. This club was not in good standing at the time of the reception of its resignation, having failed to pay its dues on or before January 1st, 1912.

February 3rd, 1912, the Southside Kennel Club notified me that said Club is no longer in existence.

Under Article XVI, Section III of the By-laws, the following Club were duly suspended on February 1st, 1912 for failure to pay the dues for the present year and on this date said clubs having ceased to be members of the American Kennel Club.

Anthracite Kennel Club
Bergen County Kennel Club
Brocton District Kennel Club
Central New York Kennel Club
Merrimac Valley Kennel Club
Pine Tree Kennel Club
York Kennel Club

Since our last meeting the Del Monte Kennel Club has been admitted to Active Membership by our Pacific Advisory Committee. I have received three (3) applications for Active Membership and Credentials from five (5) clubs, all of which have been referred to the Membership Committee which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

The Pacific Advisory Committee nominated the following gentlemen to fill vacancies on said Committee.

- Mr. John E. DeRuyter, to serve five years
- Mr. Carroll Cooke, to serve two years
- Mr. Norman J. Stewart, to serve one year.

By authority of the Finance Committee, Messrs. Guggenheimer, Untermyer & Marshall were retained to appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission to care for the interests of the Breeders and Exhibitors of dogs during the investigation on Express matters that is now going on and we feel assured that the result will be beneficial to the Dog Fraternity.

The Pacific Advisory Committee filed with this office, a copy of the minutes of the semi-annual Convention of the Pacific Coast Clubs, which with your permission will be spread in full upon the minutes.

The Nominating Committee filed a list of its nominations for Directors for the expiring class to serve for five years and for Directors to fill the unexpired term of Mr. J. Sergeant Price in the class of 1913.

The report of the Tellers for the election of Delegates of the Associate Subscribers, as follows:

Wm. G. Rockefeller
Dwight Moore
B. S. Smith

Three proposed amendments to the Rules have been reported to the Rules Committee which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

The Financial Statement for the year 1911 having been audited and approved by the Finance Committee, I recommend that same be made a part of this meeting and spread in full upon the Minutes thereof.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and filed.

The following named clubs were elected to membership:

Toy Dog Club of New England
Japanese Spaniel Club of American Kennel Club

The Secretary reported that the application of the San Antonia Kennel Club was laid over by the Committee.

The following named gentlemen were elected to present the following named clubs:
Delaware Valley Kennel Club: Dr W. H. Nafis
Alameda County Kennel Club: T. M. Turner
Japanese Spaniel Club of America: George F. Parker
Del Monte Kennel Club: Edwin H. Hobbie

The Secretary reported that the credentials for the Trenton Kennel Club and the Plainfield Kennel Club were laid over by the Committee.

The report of the Nominating Committee was read as follows:

New York, Jan. 17, 1912

The Nominating Committee appointed by the Membership Committee of the American Kennel Club held its meeting on Jan. 17\textsuperscript{th}, 1912, and have nominated as Directors for the class of 1917, Messrs. H. K. Bloodgood, Chetwood Smith, M. Mowbray Palmer, Raymond Belmont, William Rauch, and Tyler Smore; and the class of 1913 to fill the unexpired term of J. Sergeant Price, the Committee have nominated Mr. Ralph C. Stewart.

Respectfully yours,

Chas. D. Bernheimer
Chairman
J. Macy Willets
Alfred B. Maclay

Mr. Willets: I move that the nominations be closed.

Seconded and carried

On motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for the gentleman named by the Nominating Committee.
The Secretary reported that he had cast a ballot for the class of 1917, Messrs. H. K. Bloodgood, Chetwood Smith, Mowbray Palmer, Raymond Belmont, William Rauch and Tyler Morse; and for the class of 1913 to fill the unexpired term of J. Sergeant Price, Mr. Ralph C. Stewart.

The Treasurer submitted his annual report.

Moved and seconded that the reading of said report be dispensed with and accepted as printed.

Carried.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows:

Feb 19, 1912
Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:
The Rules Committee report favorably the following amendments:

Rules Governing Clubs: Rule V – Add. The Secretary of any Club, or organization, applicant for a license shall deposit with the application a fee of ten ($10.00) dollars which shall be forfeited in case of violations of rules XVI and XVII.

Amendment to Rule XX: Anyone acting as Judge at a show shall not exhibit for competition, not act as agent or handler at such show. Penalty for violation of the above rule twenty-five- ($25.00) dollars.

Rule XVIII. Amendment. The names of all Judges in-including those for unclassified specials also the name of the Superintendent, Secretary of Shows and Veterinarian must be published in every Premium List and Catalogue. Failure to publish such names shall be punishable by a fine of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars.

The fist proposed amendment having been re-read, Dr Demund moved its adoption.

Seconded and carried.

The seconded proposed amendment having been re-rest, Mr. Hooley moved its adoption.

Seconded and carried.

The third proposed amendment having been re-read, Mr. Bernheimer moved its adoption.

Seconded and carried.

The report of the License Committee was read as follows:

Feb 19, 1912
To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

The License Committee begs to report that one hundred and one (101) shows were held under American Kennel Club Rules in 1911 as follows:

1—Regular Clubs-------------------------------41
2—Licensed Clubs-----------------------------32
3—Specialty Clubs-----------------------------20

4—Licensed Specialty Clubs----------------  8

(Signed)  J. E. DeMund

Chairman

On motion the said report was accepted and filed.

THE SECRETARY:  I submit the report of the semi-annual convention of the Pacific Coast Clubs. It is rather a lengthy document, and in my report I have recommended that it be spread in full on the minutes of this meeting.

Mr. Bernheimer:  I move it be spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

Semi-Annual Convention of the Pacific Coast Clubs,

(Members of the American Kennel Club)

Held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco,

January 3, 1912

-------------------------------

PRESENT:  T. R. Collins, representing the Santa Cruz County Kennel Club

J. C. Bone, representing the Marin Valley Kennel Club

A. J. Molera, representing the Del Monte Kennel Club

Hon. Carroll Cook, representing Northern California Kennel Club

Alexander Russel, representing the California Airedale Club

And the Pacific Coast Advisory Committee:

W. W. Stettheimer

Norman J. Stewart

Nat. T. Messer.
On motion it was resolved to dispense with the reading of the minutes of the previous convention.

The Chairman read the following report:

San Francisco, Jan 3, 1912

Delegates of the Pacific Coast Clubs in the Jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee

Gentlemen:

I take pleasure in submitting to you a comparative report relating to the conditions of the AKC affairs under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, tabulated by our Secretary, Mr. Norman, showing a steady growth of members, numbers of shows, exhibitors and dogs exhibited. The report is very encouraging and one that we all have to just reason to feel proud of, to wit:--

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>1910</th>
<th>1911</th>
<th>Gain</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Number of Active Members</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>18</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number of Shows Held</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>19</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number of Exhibitors</td>
<td>1851</td>
<td>2615</td>
<td>826</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number of Dogs Exhibited</td>
<td>2584</td>
<td>4095</td>
<td>1511</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The most pleasing feature of the above statement is the very healthy gain in number of exhibitors, being 41% in excess of 1910. At this rate of increase the Pacific Coast inside of very few years, will hold shows that numerically will compare favorably with the largest in the United States, and there is no reason why this big increase over 1910 should not continue, if you gentlemen who represent the various Coast Clubs will continue working as intelligently and conscientiously for 1912 as you did in 1912.

One very important feature towards the success of Dog Shows is the preservation among the various clubs in the coast. This can be best accomplished by getting into closer touch with your brother delegates at this meeting, or with the officers of the other show-giving clubs under PAC jurisdiction; arrive at earlier conclusions about your show dates, so that they do not clash, as has been the case in the past, this creating discord; but, if possible, arrange a circuit or a series of circuits which the American Kennel Gazette and every other canine sporting paper in the United States advertisers to exhibitors. Early information as to probable show dates is of great importance in more than one way to exhibitors, especially to breeders.

To create a feeling of greater confidence among the 2615 exhibitors under our jurisdiction I do not hesitate to offer you a very radical recommendation, to which I trust you will give due consideration at your next Club meeting. I would suggest to you gentlemen the abandoning of all mixed special prizes at future shows, utilizing the money heretofore spent on these mixed specials in offering straight breed prizes for dogs bred by exhibitors. My principal point against the offering of mixed specials such as for “Best Dog In Show, any breed”; “Best Brace in Show, any Breed”; “Best Kennel in Show, any breed”; “Best Terrier in Show, any breed”; etc., etc., is the fact that in most instances these specials are won over and over by the same fanciers, who most often are officers of the Show-giving club. This is readily understood when consideration is given to the fact that Clubs are organized and governed by fanciers who usually represent the largest kennel interests in their respective localities; that the awards of mixed specials are based on merit is not the point at issue. It is the existence of a feeling of resentment on the part of the outside fanciers (non-members of the Show-giving clubs) that deserves consideration, and from personal observation at various shows as well as from the numerous protests before the PAC, I feel convinced that the awarding of mixed special prizes is a subject of more adverse comment and unjust criticism, not only against the winner of the Trophy but the Show management and the judge as well, than the honor of offering, judging and winning same is worth.
“Kindly bear in mind that this is only a suggestion and based on a personal opinion, but it is none the less based on experience gained as a charter member of the Oldest Show-giving Club in California, one that offers no mixed specials, and that, I firmly believe, has in a great measure, for that reason, retained the confidence and popularity of the fancy, as is borne out by the records of its steadily growing entries, which is not, unfortunately, the case with all other Clubs in this state. The only counter argument that the awarding of mixed specials, especially that for “Best Dog in Show, any Breed”, attracts the public and swells the box office receipts is scarcely worthy of an answer, as Dog Shows should be primarily run with a view to development and improvement of thoroughbred dogs, and the monetary consideration must be a secondary one, if the game is to maintain its high standard in the sporting world. This remark is a preamble for my second suggestion as to laying more stress on offering better prizes for dogs bred by exhibitors. The breeders are and always will be the main stay and backbone of the fancy and are entitled to every form of recognition and encouragement f the game is to prosper and grow on the coast.

Buyers of thoroughbred dogs become exhibitors, and they may come and go, but if they continue in the game, they invariably become breeders, otherwise they drop out, and the breeders should be catered to more.

At our October, 1911, meeting the Board passed a resolution embodying several additional rules with those governing Dog Shows, which I will read to you:

Rules for the Government of Clubs holding shows.

Adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee, October 21\textsuperscript{st}, 1911.

To take effect January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1912.

I. Every Show-giving Club in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee must advertise in its premium list and catalogue the daily opening and closing hours of the Show, as well as the hours for exercising the dogs.

II. Every dog must be on its bench during the advertised period for exercising; puppies excepted, in accordance with Rule V., Section A.

III. The above rules must be printed in the Premium List of every Club holding a Dog Show in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

IV. Infraction of these Rules are punishable by fine or suspension.

“The application of these rules will give fanciers and visitors the opportunity of seeing all Dogs at all times during the progress of the Show, which I regret to say has not been the case for the past few years, and the Committee looks forward to your hearty co-operation in the strict drastic, passage of same was finally necessitated by too many infractions and they simply represent measures insuring equal rights to all.

Mr. Cook moved that he report be approved and spread upon the minutes and that the recommendations therein contained be adopted by the Convention.

Mr. Nieborger seconded the motion and expressed himself as being heartily in concurrence with its sentiments.

Mr. Stewart said that the principle object in passing the new rules was to strengthen the hands of the Coast Show-giving Clubs, enabling them to act impartially. He said that far too many requests are made to Bench Show Committee by exhibitors who wish to remove their dogs before the close of the show and that the Committees would be better able to refuse these requests if they were enabled to throw the onus for the refusal on the rules adopted by the Advisory Committee.

The resolution was passed unanimously.

The Chair announced that the following vacancies existed in the Pacific Advisory Committee and that nominations by the Convention to fill the vacancies would be in order.
W. P. Burnham (term expiring 1913) has resigned; Mr. H. H. Carlton (term expiring 1914) had also resigned; and the term of Norman J. Stewart would expire in February 1912.

The Chair said that the old Pacific Advisory Committee had been termed “Self-perpetuating” and that this was the main objection joined in the formation of the N.D.B.A. In order to meet and overcome this objection, a resolution had been adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee which would result in having a new Committee every five years.

At this point the Secretary announced to the Convention that there was another vacancy to be submitted to the Committee, Mr. Carlton having tendered his resignation the day previous. The Pacific Advisory Committee then took a recess for the purpose of considering Mr. Carlton’s resignation and embodied its decision in the minutes of the meeting previously adjourned.

Mr. Cook nominated Mr. Stewart to succeed himself for the full term and Mr. Nieborger seconded the nomination.

Mr. Stewart declined to accept, stating that he was opposed to the proposition that a member of the Committee should succeed himself.

Mr. Nieborger said that he thought with the convention should rest the final decision as to whether a member should succeed himself or not and that this resolution of the Pacific Advisory Committee would prevent the Coast Clubs from retaining a good man on the Committee when they wanted to do so.

Mr. Bon nominated Mr. John E. de Ruyter to succeed Mr. Stewart.

Mr. Russell seconded the nomination and it was carried unanimously.

Mr. Cooke nominated Mr. Stewart to succeed Dr De Mund Burnham for the unexplained term.

Mr. Nieborger seconded the nomination and it was carried unanimously.

Mr. Stewart thanked the Convention and said that he accepted the nomination reluctantly as it appeared to be the unanimous wish of the Convention to retain him on the Committee.

Mr. Nieborger nominated Mr. Cook to succeed Mr. Carlton for the unexpired term.

Mr. Collins seconded the nomination and it was carried unanimously.

The Chairman called the attention of the Convention to the necessity of the clubs to the coast combining to form a circuit or series of circuits and insisted upon the necessity of making early claims before dates.

Several members endorsed his views and the secretary of the Committee stated that his office was open to receive such claims and that he would be glad to co-operate with the clubs in securing harmony and avoiding clashes.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee be requested to communicate with the different show-giving clubs of the coast to ascertain the dates of their contemplated shows, in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Chairman's Report.

Carried.

Mr. Cook state that it would impress the clubs of the coast with the work of the Convention and of the Committee if they had before them a copy of the proceedings, and he moved that a full report of the meeting, including the Chairman's Report and the new rules be sent to each club in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Mr. Nieborger seconded the motion, which was carried unanimously.

There being no further business, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

Attest: J. P. Norman
               Secretary
THE SECRETARY: The Crotona Collie Club presented its resignation under date of Jan 31, 1912. Its resignation is not valid because the club was not in good standing on that date.

Dr Osgood: I move that that club be notified that upon receipt of its back dues its resignation will be accepted; otherwise it will be dropped.

THE SECRETARY: I have a notice from a man signing J.F.R. that the South Side Kennel Club is no longer in existence.

Mr. Bates: I move that said club be dropped.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Pacific Advisory Committee reports the following nominations:

Mr. John E de Ruyter to serve five years,
Mr. Carroll Cook to serve two years, and
Mr. Norman J. Stewart to serve one year.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I move that the secretary be directed to cast a ballot for the election of the gentlemen named.

The secretary stated that he had cast a ballot for the election of Mr. John E de Ruyter to serve five years, Mr. Carrol Cook to serve two years and Mr. Norman J. Stewart to serve one year.
THE SECRETARY: I have some correspondence here that it is not necessary to read except to call attention to the fact, as I have reported, that Messrs. Guggenheimer, Untermeyer & Marshall are taking care of the dog interests before the Interstate Commerce Commission that has been in session for two months. It would appear to me from what I have read in the newspapers that there will be such laws passed as will change the charges that the Express Companies have heretofore been charging the poor dog breeder and exhibitor, so that they will have some relief.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The secretary announced that he had cast a ballot for the election of Messrs. George Greer, George Lauder, Jr., and F. H. Osgood as members of the License Committee.

The Secretary: The Trial Board are for your appointments.

The Chairman: The Chair will appoint the Trial Board as they now stand.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

Feb 19th 1912

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB:

I beg to present my quarterly report. The decisions handed down by the Trial Board sitting in New York were published in full in the Gazette of January 31st, 1912.

The Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of December 9th, Jan. 3rd and Jan 8th have been filed since out last meeting and as is usual, I recommend that same be spread in full upon the minutes.

Mr. George Lauder, Jr., asks to be excused for his absence in the South.
Mr. James Mortimer asks to be excused from attendance at this meeting on account of business connected with the Westminster Kennel Club Show which opens to-morrow.

The following charges have been preferred and are now pending for misconduct in connection with dogs and dog shows:

Dr George Clayton vs. A. Branshaw
American Kennel Club vs. L. Jaeger
Buffalo Kennel Club vs. Jos Lewis

A bull has been received for disbursements by the Pacific Advisory Committee Jan. 2\textsuperscript{nd} to Feb 12\textsuperscript{th} amounting to $27.90, duly audited by the Committee of the Pacific Advisory Committee. I therefore recommend the payment of same.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A. P. Vredenburgh

On motion the same was accepted and filed.

The Treasurer read his financial statement as follows:

New York, Feb 19\textsuperscript{th} 1912

To the Board of Directors:

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my financial statement
From Jan 1st, 1912.

Balance on hand, Jan. 1st, 1912 -------------- $22,963.91

Receipts from Jan 1st to date --------------- 4,094.86

Total ------------------------------------ $27,058.77

Disbursements from Jan. 1st to date -------- 3,508.29

Balance on hand -------------------------- $23,550.29

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A. P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and filed.

The report of the Publication Committee was read as follows:

The Publication Committee met on Jan. 9th to consider the resolution of the Directors in the matter of publishing in the Stud Book a list of all wins in Regular Classes.

The omission of all except Winners Classes in the 1910 Stud Book effected a reduction of 217 page; a saving of at least $285.00 in cost of paper and printing alone as compared with cost of 1909 Stud Book and your secretary estimates that other expenses for tabulating and compiling represents at least fifty cents per page. The comparison of 1910 cost with that of 1908 is still more favorable to present methods of publishing the Stud Book.

The necessity for economy in making up the Stud Book is shown by the costs, sales and net losses of recent issues to Dec. 31st, 1911, as follows, which for purposes of comparison are substantially correct.

1908 Issue 650 vols.
   Free  471
   Stock 179 vols       Cost 2398.85
   Sales 339.00
   Debit - 2059.85

   Free  393
   Stock 157 vols       Cost 2118.36
   Sales 225.00
   Debit - 1893.36

1910 Issue 300 vols.
   Free  20
   Stock 290 vols       Cost 1766.46
   Sales 700.00
   Debit - 1066.46

Your Committee is not aware of any special demand for the inclusion of all wins, except by resolution of the Pacific Advisory Committee and your Secretary informs us that the average sale of Stud Books on the Pacific Coast does not exceed ten copies annually.

Respectfully submitted,
   (signed) Dwight Moore
   Chairman

DR. DE MUND: I move that the report of the Publication Committee be approved.

MR. Wilmerding: I have just received instructions from the club that I represent, the Santa Cruz County Kennel Club, to vote against this report. I am in the peculiar position of having been on the Publication Committee, but I would like to register my vote against it.

MR. MOORE: I would like to have it appear that Mr. Wilmerding approved of the report and subsequently received instructions from his club to vote against it.

Dr De Mund's motion to approve the Publication Committee’s report was then adopted.

The report of the Field Trial Committee was read as follows:

New York, Feb 19 1912

The Field Trial Committee has attended to its duties as will appear by the published reports in the Stud Book their only regret being that the report of the National Beagle Club was not received in time to appear in the Stud Book for 1911.

Field Trial Committee

By Chetwood Smith

Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and filed.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. George Lauder, Jr. asks to be excused from attendance at the last meeting of the Board of Directors on account of his absence from the country. He is at Bermuda.

Mr. Hooley: I move that his excuse be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. James Mortimer also asks to be excused from attendance at this meeting on account of his duties in connection with the show of the Westminster Kennel Club.

On motion the same was accepted.

THE SECRETARY: I submit to you reports of meeting held by the Pacific Advisory Committee on December 9th, 1911, Jan 3rd and Jan 8th, 1912.

Mr. Moore: I move that they be spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held at the palace Hotel, San Francisco,

Dec. 9, 1911

Absent: Dr W. P. Burnham

W. W. Stettheimer in the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The secretary read the following report:

In re AKC vs. the Hub City Kennel Club: Dr Six, having signed the undertaking to support AKC shows only in future, I have filed all papers in this case.

J. H. Taylor vs. Tacoma Kennel Club: I have received the corrected certified catalogue from the Tacoma Kennel Club and the judge’s book from the AKC as further evidence in this case.
F. E. King vs. J. H. Taylor: Charge of falsifying pedigree: I submit a letter from Mr. King stating that he is unable to discover her address, hence is unable to furnish the required affidavit.

Santa Clara Co. Kennel Club vs. W. H. Revere: Suspension for misconduct. I have received no reply to my letters calling on Mr. Revere to show cause why his suspension should not be made permanent.

Mr. Ted Kielhofer has furnished an affidavit setting forth the age of the Cocker Spaniel bitch puppy, Yama Yama Firl, exhibited as such at Del Monte, August, 1911.

AKC vs. Officers of San Jose Kennel Club: Infraction of Rule II. Four letters have been written, of which two are undelivered on account of imperfect address. I have a reply from Dr Bullitt, stating that he was made an officer of the club without his knowledge. I have no answer to the other letters.

Dr W. P. Burnham tenders his resignation from the Committee.

These are two cases of complaint and cross complaint, filed with duplicate specifications and deposits. I would suggest that they follow the usual course.

W. C. Cox vs. Colorado Kennel Club: Complaint of change in conditions of trophy. This is a renewal of an old case, and I submit all premium lists and catalogues in connection therewith. It is postponed from the last meeting.

T. Kielhofer vs. Waggener: Suit for monetary compensation. This is a request for compensation for $20.00, which plaintiff has to pay to A. L. Creswell for finding his dog, which Waggener is alleged to have carelessly left behind at the Del Monte show, and for handling which dog he is alleged to have received $10.00 payment in advance.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman, Secretary

On motion, the secretary’s report was approved and ordered filed.

Cox vs. Colorado Kennel Club: Complaint of change of conditions in trophy.

On motion, the secretary was instructed to write to D. O. Bartlett, the donor of the trophy in question, for information as to the terms of the original deed of gift.

J. H. Taylor vs. Tacoma Kennel Club: A claim for undelivered special for best Washington-bred Collie of opposite sex. On motion, it was resolved that the catalogue and judge’s book of the Tacoma show prove that complainant’s dog was beaten and was not entitled to the trophy in question.

Complaint dismissed.

F. E. King vs. J. H. Taylor: Showing dogs under fraudulent pedigree. Mr. King stating that his informant having left Tacoma, and he being unable to ascertain her address, and consequently unable to furnish the necessary affidavit:

On motion, it was resolved that as Mr. King was unable to substantiate the charge, the papers in the case be filed.

Santa Clara County Kennel Club vs. W. H. Revere:
Suspension for misconduct in removing dog from show in contravention of the rules, and using foul and abusive language to the door keeper.

Defendant having filed no defense, on motion, it was Resolved that the suspension of W. H. Revere be and hereby is made permanent.

AKC vs. Alice Brade: Showing a puppy under age with false date of birth.

The affidavit of Mr. Ted Kielhofer, the breeder, showing that the Cocker Spaniel bitch, Yama Yama Girl, was born on March 4th, 1911, whereas said dog was shown at Del Monte August 25th, 1911, in the puppy class with date of birth as Feb 24th, 1911.
on motion, it was Resolved, that the secretary file charge against the exhibitor, Miss Alice Brady, and call on her to file her defense in writing within thirty days from date.

AKC vs. Officers of San Jose Kennel Club: Infraction of Rule II.

E. K. Everett having failed to show cause, on motion, it was Resolved that said E. K. Everett be and hereby is suspended. Dr James K. Bullitt having advised this Committee that his name as Vice President of the San Jose Kennel Club was used without his knowledge or consent, on motion, it was Resolved that said Doctor Bullitt be and hereby is exonerated from the charge.

In the case of J. Ray and B. Ogden, on motion, it was Resolved that their cases be postponed, as the letters of notification had not been delivered, owing to imperfect address.

Dr W. P. Burnham having tendered his resignation as a member of the Committee, It was moved and seconded, that Doctor Burnham's resignation be accepted with the deep regret of his colleagues, that his professional duties no longer permit him to continue his membership effectively, and that the hearty and sincere thanks of this Committee and of the AKC be and hereby are extended to him for his past services.
Magnuire et al vs. Bone

Charges of misconduct

Bone et al vs. Salz

On motion it was Resolved that these charges follow the usual course.

Kielhofer vs. Waggener: Suit for return of handlers; fee and compensation for reward paid for finding plaintiff’s dog.

On motion it was Resolved that the charge be not considered, as fraud was not involved in the case, but that the Committee regrets its inability to assist the plaintiff, there being no AKC rule to cover carelessness on the part of the handler.

On resumption of regular business, it was resolved that the semi-annual convention of Coast Clubs and the Pacific Advisory Committee be set for Wed., Jan 3rd, 1912, at 2 pm at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Attest: J. P. Norman

Secretary
Present: W. W. Stettheimer, N. T. Messer, N. J. Stewart

Absent: H. H. Carlton

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

On motion, the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was postponed.

The secretary read his report as follows:

San Francisco, Jan. 3, 1912

Pacific Advisory Committee

Gentlemen:

I lay before you the application for membership of Del Monte Kennel Club. All papers are in order and the necessary fees have been paid.

I regret to announce that I have received a letter from Mr. H. H. Carlton, tendering his resignation from this Committee.

Cox vs. Colorado Kennel Club

I have received from the donor of the cup in dispute, Mr. W. O. Bartlett, a copy of the original deed of gift herewith submitted.

Bone et al vs. Salz. Maguire et al vs. Bone

These are two cross complaints filed by members of the Marin Valley Kennel Club. No answers have been filed, and I presume the parties will appear in person.
I present a letter from the secretary of the AKC, calling on this Committee to investigate certain alleged occurrences at the show of the L. K. A. of So. Cal.

Miss Alice Brady has filed no reply to the charge of showing a dog at Del Monte, under a wrong pedigree, and I would ask that proper measured be taken.

Respectfully submitted

J. P. Norman, Secretary

On motion the report was accepted.

It was moved and seconded, that the application of the Del Monte Kennel Club for membership in the AKC be approved.

Carried.

The resignation of Mr. H. H. Carlton was read and the following resolution adopted:

That this Committee accept the resignation of Henry H. Carlton with the utmost regret that business reasons preclude him from continuing his membership, and that the heartfelt thanks of the Committee be and hereby are tendered to Mr. Carlton for the great and steadfast services rendered by him for thirteen years, to the cause of the AKC and the interests of the dog on the Pacific Coast.
On motion, the Committee adjourned for a recess for the purpose of attending the Semi-annual Convention of Delegates of Pacific Coast Clubs.

On reconvening, the secretary announced that the Convention had nominated the following gentlemen to fill vacancies on the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Mr. John E. de Ruyter, to succeed Dr W. P. Burnham, for the unexpired term of one year.

Hon. Carroll Cook, to succeed Mr. H. H. Carlton, for the unexpired term of two years.

The Chair announced, that in order to maintain the efficiency of the Committee and for the proper transaction of business, he would temporarily appoint Messrs. J. E. de Ruyter and Carroll Cook to act as members of the Committee pending that confirmation by the Board of Directors of AKC.

Maguire et al vs. Bone. Bone et al vs. Salz

On the appearance of the parties to these complaints, it was agreed and stipulated that both complaints should be discharged without prejudice, and that Mr. Bone, as President of the Marin Valley Kennel Club, should submit a statement of his receipts and expenditures in connection with the dog show of the Marin Valley Kennel Club, and that the same would be examined by other members of the Club, and any differences should be arbitrated by the Pacific Advisory Board.

The Chair appointed Jan 8th, and the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, as the time and place for such arbitration; and on motion, the meeting was adjourned accordingly.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco
Jan. 8, 1912

Present: W. W. Stettheimer, N. T. Messer, J. E. de Ruyter, C. Cook
Absent: N. J. Stewart (on account of illness)

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

On motion, the rules were suspended and the case of the Marin Valley Kennel Club taken up for consideration.

On examination of the accounts submitted by Mr. J. C. Bone, President of the Club, and on consideration of the objections lodged by Mr. M. J. Maguire, secretary of the Club, it was Resolved, that this Committee find Mr. J. C. Bone to be responsible to the Marin Valley Kennel Club for the sum of 107.10, and that the charge of Mr. M. J. Maguire et al vs. Bone, and J. C. Bone et al vs. Salz, be and hereby are dismissed without prejudice, the deposit is each case to be returned to the plaintiff.

The minutes of the previous meeting were then read and approved.

Cox vs. Colorado Kennel Club: A protest against change in conditions of a trophy.

It was Resolved, that the protest of Mr. Cox be denied, as the original deed of gift of the trophy in question did not contain any limitation as to residence or Club membership as claimed by Mr. Cox.

It was furthermore Resolved, that the Colorado Kennel Club be instructed to notify each person having a leg on the W. O. Bartlett Cup, for best team of Irish Terriers that the said Cup had to be won three times before becoming the property of the winner.

AKC vs. Bernon Ogden. Infraction of Rule II.

It was Resolved, that Bernon Ogden, not having filed any defense, be and hereby is disqualified, for having acted as an official at a dog show held under rules antagonistic to the AKC at San Jose, Cal.

AKC vs. Alice Brady. Exhibiting a dog under erroneous pedigree.

It was Resolved, that Miss Alice Brady, not having complied with the instruction of this Committee to file her defense within thirty days, be and hereby is suspended.
Mrs. A. Koehler vs. L. K. A. of So. California.

The secretary of the AKC, having called on this Committee to investigate certain allegations made by Mrs. A. Koehler, in reference to certain actions of the veterinarian, at the show given by the L. K. A. of So. California, at Los Angeles, Cal., it was Resolved that the bench show Committee of the said Association and the veterinarian thereof, be and hereby are called on to render a full and true report of the occurrences stated by Mrs. Koehler, to have happened.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Attest: J. P. Norman

Secretary

The report of the License Committee was read as follows:

Feb. 19th, 1912
To the Directors of the AKC

The License Committee begs to report that it has granted the following license since Dec. 19, 1911:

Grand Forks Kennel Club
West Tennessee Kennel Club
Boston Terrier Club of Buffalo
Greater Des Moines Kennel Club

(Signed) J. E. DeMund

Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and filed.
THE SECRETARY: I present a bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from Jan 2nd, 1912 to Feb 12, 1912, amounting to $27.90, signed and OK’d by the special committee, John E. de Ruyter and N. T. Messer.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I move the same be approved and paid.

Motion seconded and carried.

Dr Osgood: I would like to bring up a matter under the heading of new business. We have had a number of standing Committees on which we have able representatives who devote their time and good work for the interests of the club, and it has been brought to my attention time and time again when matters were proposed here which were considered questions of law. It has always been thought necessary to refer to counsel, and it has seemed to me that we have an abundance of legal talent, members of the organization who would gladly give their time and ability of sufficient amount to assist us in anything which we consider should be referred to counsel, that is, anything of a judicial nature, and I would make a motion that a standing Committee of three be appointed in regular manner, known as the legal Committee to whom all matters of a judicial nature should be referred in preference to employing outside counsel.
Motion seconded and carried.

DR. DE MUND: I would like to nominate Messrs. Ralph C. Stewart of Philadelphia; Mr. Alvin Untermyer of New York, and Mr. Samuel R. Cutler of Boston, to compose that Committee.

Nominations seconded.

On motion, nominations were closed.

On motion the secretary was directed to cast a ballot for the gentlemen named as members of such Committee, the first gentlemen named to be Chairman.

The secretary announced that he had cast a ballot for Messrs. Ralph C. Stewart, Alvin Untermyer and S. R. Cutler as members of said Committee.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I have received three anonymous communications from people in the Middle West, stating that there is somebody out there who is advertising a registration of dogs under the name of The American Dog Register; and that people of that section of the country believe that that is a branch of the American Kennel Club. Unfortunately, all these communications are unsigned, and I thought that if this matter appeared in the minutes some of these people might write and send their names.

THE SECRETARY: I submit herewith the report of the Chairman of the Finance Committee. It is as follows:
Mr. H. H. Hunnewell, in the Chair.

The secretary read a communication from Mr. B. S. Smith, Chairman of the NY Trial Board, as follows:

Executive Committee

On Jan. 27th, 1912, the Trial Board in the case of Branshaw vs. Clayton, found “Charges not sustained and the case was dismissed.” Since that time much correspondence has been received by the secretary of the American Kennel Club from Mr. Branshaw, in which he complains that he lost the case on account of not being able to afford the cost of coming on here personally with witnesses as did Dr Clayton. He maintains that Dr Clayton is a menace to the interests of Dog Shows in the State of Texas and questions the credibility of the witness who testified for Dr Clayton. There is a case now pending before the Trail Board of Clayton vs. Branshaw, in which Clayton maintains that Branshaw attempted to boycott the shows in Texas, which he, Clayton, managed, and that Branshaw is a menace to the interests of Dog Shows in Texas.

It is the unanimous opinion of the Trial Board that before considering the case of Clayton vs. Branshaw the case of Branshaw vs. Clayton should be re-opened, and that one of the members of the Trial Board with the secretary of the American Kennel Club should go to Dallas, Texas, on as early a date as possible, summon all interested in the case to appear before them there, and make a thorough examination as to the conditions of affairs in the State of Texas where there appears to be something radically wrong. The adjustment of affairs in Dallas by this investigation would be morally felt throughout the circuit of shows held in the State of Texas of which there are five (5).

Very truly yours,

(Signed) B. S. Smith (Chairman)

New York Trial Board.

DR. DE MUND: I move that the Trial Board be given permission to re-open the case of Branshaw vs. Clayton; also that the recommendation of the Trial Board as to sending some one to Texas to look into this matter be approved.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: I move that Mr. B. S. Smith be instructed to go there as chairman of the Trial Board to investigate the particular case, and that the Secretary be directed to accompany him in an advisory capacity, and also to ascertain for the benefit of the Executive Committee the present condition in the State of Texas with regard to this circuit of shows.

Motion seconded and carried.

DR. DE MUND: Our last dinner was such a great success that several members have asked for another one. On the 8th of May, Mr. August Belmont will have been out President for twenty-five years. I move that a Committee be appointed to provide for a dinner to be given to Mr. Belmont, that the price of tickets be limited to five dollars each and that an appropriation be granted to the Committee to defray expenses.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

THE SECRETARY: The first matter that comes up for your consideration is a communication from C. D. Berheimer of the question of rabies. The communication is as follows:

New York, Feb 19th, 1912

Mr. A. P. VREDENBURGH, secretary
American Kennel Club
1 Liberty Street, NYC

Dear Sir:

I deem the time opportune for this Club to take up the question of rabies in dogs. The supposed prevalence of this disease throughout the country is working a hardship to Breeders, Exhibitors, and Dog Shows. In several counties in this State, it is necessary to obtain a permit from the Sheriff before a dog can be removed, and in some counties, it is absolutely impossible to obtain a permit.

I suggest that a Committee be appointed (with power) to act in conjunction with the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture and the several State Depts of Agriculture in an endeavor to stamp out the dread disease, and to take up such other matters in connection therewith so as to facilitate the removal of dogs for shows by their owners.

[last line is illegible]

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Chas. D. Bernheimer

THE SECRETARY: I have asked Dr Osgood and Mr. Bernheimer to remain at this meeting for the purpose of giving us their ideas on this subject.

MR. Bernheimer: I Committee was appointed to take up the matter with the Commissioner of Agriculture of this State, or to take up the question with the Commissioner of Agriculture of the U.S., to see whether they could not get at some method by which they could endeavor to do away with rabies entirely in this country or get it down to a minimum. To-day it was brought to my notice that in Mount Vernon a little yellow dog was playing with a show string of a child, and the cry of “mad dog” was taken up, and some one hit the dog with a cane, and naturally the dog ran and before they got through the dog really was angry – I won’t say he was mad. The policeman got after it, and I suppose now Mt. Vernon will be quarantined. Rye is quarantined, Westchester County is quarantined and Rockland County is quarantined. In Rye, if I want to take my dogs out I have got to go before the Sheriff and give a description of watch dog, and I have to remove the dog in three days. If I wanted to take out five or six dogs I suppose there would be a question. As I said, if we desire to take out our dogs, we have to go before the Sheriff and get out permits to take out dogs out.

Dr Osgood: I do not know that this matter would stir up a hornet’s nest, as has been suggested here. I thought perhaps Mr. Bernheimer had not given the matter quite the consideration it ought to have. In the first place, matters of contagious diseases do not come before the secretary of Agriculture. He has not jurisdiction whatever. They go before the Bureau of Animal Industry. That is where the authority lies. There is another point to consider, and that is, that no State authority can interfere with the Interstate Commerce Commission, and I thought that in some way somebody who was acquainted with the laws regarding animals and their removal from State to State, and some one who was also identified in some way with the Bureau of Animal Industry might bring about in a quiet way some relief from the present condition of things, so that each individual need not suffer any inconvenience whatever, without getting up any stir by going there officially to the Secretary of Agriculture and having it read and become a matter of record, and so forth. I thought it was a matter of record, and so forth. I thought it was a matter that could be determined by private conference without any of the results following, and I thought if it went in as Mr. Bernheimer has suggested through a Committee appointed by a dog organization and referred to the secretary of Agriculture, it would then become a matter of record and begin to be stirred up first at Washington and then in the different States that were mentioned, and it might make a great big row. You know when you begin to talk about rabies, or anything of that kind, a lot of people in this country begin to go crazy, and the less stir you have about it, if it is done between two individuals, I think you would get a great deal more satisfactory result than you could by bringing it through a Committee this way in an official manner.

The Chairman: I think Mr. Bernheimer's idea of was to appoint a Committee and let them work it out their own way as quietly as possible.

Mr. Bernheimer: And besides, I did not think that there was the number of cases of rabies that are reported by the newspapers. I know that the New York State Dept. of Agriculture have it in hand, and they referred it to the Sheriffs of the different counties, and I believe that if the State would appoint an inspector wherever a mad dog scare came up, and any dog that had been bitten by a supposed mad dog was kept under observation for a certain length of time, or put in quarantine, and dogs that had not been bitten to be allowed to be removed from the county or town in which the scare has been, that would do a great deal to obviate it, because in that event any dog that had been bitten by a mad dog would be destroyed as soon as he developed any symptoms of rabies.

The Chairman: You cannot always tell whether a dog has been bitten or not.

Mr. Bernheimer: Any dog that shows any bite or anything, should be kept under observation.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think you will find that there is a law now which provides that in case a dog has been bitten by a mad dog he is placed under ---

Mr. Bernheimer: No, they simply put a quarantine on the town.

Mr. Bloodgood: They quarantine the dogs that have been bitten, as I understand it. You have got to rid people of hysteria. The question of rabies – there is about one dog in a thousand or five thousand that has rabies. It is not a question of real rabies; it is a question of the hysteria of the people, and unless you can reach that in some way little good can be done. I am inclined to think that Dr Osgood is correct that if we get to stirring things up we are going to make matters worse.

Mr. Osgood: My idea would be something like this: The laws of the U.S. vary in almost every State. In NY State Commissioner Pierson, Secretary of Agriculture, has charge of more contagious disease than animals. That does not prevail in a great many of the States, and the Commissioner of Agriculture in Washington has absolutely no control over contagious diseases in the U.S. There is a clause in the Interstate Commerce Law which prevents anything being passed by a State Judge which would interfere with the Interstate Commerce. It is a question in my mind whether it would be an easy matter if, for example, you had an outbreak of rabies in NYC, and the State was quarantined by the Commissioner of Agriculture to move a dog from one part of the State to another, but I do not believe the Commissioner of Agriculture in NY has any jurisdiction over animals which are to be moved out of the State and across the border, and that a permit could be served, and we could have an abundance of them in this office to give to any one that wanted to show dogs at any place – to make out a permit and have it properly signed so that the dog could go from one State to another wherever it is desired to exhibit him; but it is unwise in a matter that people get so inflamed over as they do over rabies, and there is so little of it about, to get any general stir up or newspaper talk about it. A well known institute, as have been suggested, would seem to be ready to do almost anything to get people to go to it, and any stir that they can get up on the question of rabies is so much money in its pocket. You say in Westchester County that certain towns – or another county is quarantined, which is it?

Mr. Bernheimer: Rockland County.

Dr Osgood: If a dog is found with rabies, or suspected of having rabies, he is taken by a State County Commissioner, and an examination made to demonstrate whether it has rabies or not. Then any dogs to which that one has been exposed are quarantined for a certain length of time, say three or four weeks.

Mr. Bloodgood: You say only for three or four weeks?

Mr. Osgood: Yes.

Mr. Bloodgood: How can they tell. Rabies have never appeared under eighteen or twenty days, and it generally runs six weeks.

Dr Osgood: About four weeks is the average that they are quarantined – if they go over the nineteenth or twentieth day they do not worry about it.

Mr. Moore: I move that the Chairman appoint a Committee of three to consider this matter and report back to Executive Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published.

The following named clubs were duly elected as members of the American Kennel Club, Mr. M. R. Guggenheim having been appointed teller:

  Western French Bulldog Club
  Manchester Terrier Club
  American Foxhound Club
  Philadelphia Bulldog Club

The secretary: The application of the Toy Dog Fanciers’ Club of America was not approved by the Membership Committee.

The following named delegates were elected to represent the following named clubs:

  Toy Dog Club of New England        Henry T. Bowers
  Manchester Club of America         Raymond Belmont
  Scottish Terrier Club of America   Henry T. Fleitmann
  Framingham District Kennel Club    A. E. Wright
  Airedale Terrier Club of America   Howard Ehrich
Mr. H. K. Bloodgood takes the chair.

The secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

May 20, 1912

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that I have received since our last meeting six applications for Active Membership and Credentials from eight clubs for Delegates to represent them, all of which have been handed over to the Membership Committee, and said Committee will report its recommendation at this meeting.

The Pacific Advisory Committee has sent a recommendation to amend Rule V, Section B, so as to admit Canadian bred dogs to compete in novice classes. This application under the Rules should be referred to the Rules Committee.

Respectfully submitted

(Signed) A. P. VREDENBURGH

Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Guggenheim: It was with great regret on my part, and I am sure that I voice the sentiments of every delegate here, that I heard of the sad and sudden death of our associate and follow delegates, Mr. George W. Batson. I move that an appropriate letter of condolence be inscribed on the minutes expressing the regret of the delegates and their due appreciation of the services which he has at all times rendered to the club, and that a copy of the same be forwarded to his widow.

Motion seconded and carried.

DR. DE MUND: In that connection I would like to state that one of the oldest members of the American Kennel Club died the other day. I do not know that many here knew him, but he was a very active member a few years ago. I refer to Dr H. R. Foote. I move that the same course be followed in his case.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Guggenheim: I have a communication which I received from the secretary of the club which I represent, the Seattle Kennel Club. It is rather lengthy, but I think it should be read at this meeting in order that the delegates may take action on it if they deem proper.

The secretary then read the communication.

Mr. Guggenheim: I think I would like to have an expression of the members as to how they feel on this subject. It seems to me that these petty fines for trifling violations of our rules, which are sometimes unavoidable, are pretty hard on some of our members, in view of the fact that they have no experienced men to run the show, as was the case of this club on the Pacific Coast. The men who are selected to handle these Pacific Coast shows are men who have other business to attend to, and they do the best they can, and it seems very hard to fine them such large amounts for violations that really cannot be helped. It does not do the American Kennel Club any good. This violation was not committed for the purpose of defrauding the public or fooling anybody, but was done through absolute error, and therefore it seems to me if we could abolish that rule, particularly in connection with Pacific Coast shows, it would be desirable.

Mr. Bernheimer: If this was simply a clerical error, that is one thing, but I think it must have been something more serious than a mere clerical error.

Mr. Guggenheim: As I understand, it was a mis-spelling of words, about twenty-five such errors.

DR. DE MUND: While it may seem a very small matter to the Seattle Kennel Club, if the system of fines was abolished, it would probably have the effect of doubling the force of the American Kennel Club. This system of fines has made people careful, and it seems to me that any club ought to be willing to see that their catalogues came in in all kinds of shapes, and they had to be sent back half a dozen times for correction.
Mr. Collins: I would like to ask if it is possible to remit fines by arrangement. For instance, if the club has a secretary that is absolutely inexperienced and he has made the mistakes simply through error or through lack of knowledge of our rules, wouldn’t it be possible for that club to refer the matter to the American Kennel Club and have the fines remitted. I think it might be obviated in that way.

THE SECRETARY: It is always.

Mr. Guggenheim: if that is the case, would a motion be in order to remit to the Everett Kennel Club this $25 which they were fined on a technicality?

The Chairman: It would be out of order. This matter would have to be referred back to the Rules Committee.

Mr. Guggenheim: They lost considerable money on their show. They tried to do their best to comply with the rules, and they have shown a good spirit, and I think we ought to make it as easy for them as we possibly can.

The Chairman: The commission of twenty-five errors in a catalogue is quite a serious matter. They ought to select somebody who could read the rules and understand them.

DR. DE MUND: Any club can appeal and ask that their fine be remitted, but it is too late in this case.

THE SECRETARY: This meeting cannot remit a fine that has never been imposed. There was no fine imposed against the Everett Kennel Club. That is a matter which comes within the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Mr. Guggenheim: Would the fine have been sustained if imposed by the Pacific Advisory Committee?

THE SECRETARY: There was no fine imposed.

Mr. Guggenheim: It may have been imposed by the Pacific Advisory Committee.

THE SECRETARY: No. We impose the fine and if it is paid it is sent to the Pacific Advisory Committee, and by them forwarded to us. It is usual with this kind of letters that there is seldom foundation for their statements. We have a case now of a club that held its show the 4th day of May, that is seventeen days ago. The American Kennel Club gives each club seven days to do their work and make their returns to the American Kennel Club, and if they do no do it they are assessed on dollar a day as long as they are in arrears. This club has not made its return yet. If we remit these fines when will we ever get out returns from the shows? That is the only thing that makes them pay them.

Mr. Collins: The only case in which I would suggest that a fine be remitted is one where there would be positive cause shown that it was an unavoidable mistake. For instance, where the secretary was ill and none of the members know anything about it, he might be so sick that he would not be able to give the information even to any of his members. In a case like that the imposition of a fine would be a hardship.

THE SECRETARY: A matter of that king would be brought up before the delegates.

Mr. Sawyer: Should not some action be taken on the gentlemen’s letter? This does a little bit further than the mere one point. Here is an honest man trying to work for us and with us who believes we are in error. I should like to see such a matter as that referred back to the Rules Committee, and that the secretary be instructed to write a letter to this club explaining our action, and make the matter a public one so that every Kennel Club will understand our action. This writer believes we are wrong, and he does not understand why we are doing as we are. I would recommend that you show this man where we stand. We are trying to so the same things he is, that is the best thing.

The Chairman: If you wish to make a motion to refer the matter to the Rules Committee it would be in order.

Mr. Sawyer: I would like to make a motion that that be referred to the Rule Committee, to take the matter up with this complainant in the spirit in which he writes. I do not recommend putting in a letter a suggestion that we see any possible way of remitting the fine, because that is the only possible way we can take care of that difficulty at the present time.

Mr. Guggenheim: I would suggest that the motion include the writing of a letter by the Rule Committee to me in explanation of its action, and I will forward the same to the secretary of this club who wrote me.

Mr. Sawyer: That is entirely acceptable.

Mr. Boger: I second the motion.

Carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and they were accepted as published.

DR. DE MUND: I move the election of Mr. W. H. Sawyer as a director to fill the present vacancy for one year.

Nomination seconded and carried.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

May 20th, 1912

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my quarterly report. There is a vacancy in the Board of Directors for the class for 1916, which should be filled at this meeting.

I beg to submit the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of their meetings held March 22nd and April 13th. To follow the usual proceedings, I would recommend that the same be ordered spread in full in the minutes of this meeting.

I also submit the decision of the Trial Board in the cases of Branshaw & Nevitt vs. Clayton, and of Clayton vs. Branshaw. This decision was handed down May 8th, and therefore I have not had the opportunity of publishing same in the Gazette, and would recommend that these findings be spread in full in the minutes of this meeting.

The Boston Terrier Club of Buffalo applied for a license to hold a show at Buffalo, March 7th and 8th, 1912, and filed with such application, the consent of the Boston Terrier Club to permit such show to be held with a rating of four points. The License Committee, after investigating the matter, directed me to issue a license to said Club, and to advise that two points would be the rating of the show.

The Boston Terrier Club of Buffalo returned the License that was issued on January 22nd and declined to hold the show at a two point rating, and threatened that legal steps would be taken to ascertain why they cannot obtain the same impartial treatment accorded to other clubs, and demanded the return of the license fee and the date deposit. This I declined to so, as no authority is vested in me by which I could comply with that demand.

Rule V, of the Rules Governing Clubs states that the deposit for dates shall be forfeited in case of the show not being held. This matter is now before you for adjustment.

At the Sioux Falls Kennel Club show, held Oct. 12th to 14th, 1911, one Mrs. Geo. W. Debay, the wife of the Secretary of said show, entered a Fox Terrier, stated on the entry form wire-haired. The dog was a smooth Fax Terrier and the judge, G. A. Cranfield, transferred this dog to the smooth class, in which it won. This office cancelled the awards and moved the next dog in merit up. The transfer of this dog by the judge was in direct violation of Rule XXI, of the Rules Governing Clubs, from which I quote: A dog wrongly entered cannot be transferred by the show officials. Penalty $25 for each offence.

We had a communication from the officers of said Club, saying that this transfer was made without their knowledge or consent, and also a communication signed by George A. Cranfield, judge, which states: This is to certify that the Fox Terrier dog, Don, No. 97, was transferred from the wire-haired Fox Terrier class to the smooth-haired Fox Terrier class, and I hereby certify that this change was made wholly on my part, and without the consent of any member or officer of the Sioux Falls Kennel Club, and I hereby sign this statement as absolutely true.

We have penalized this Club $25 of this action, which has not been paid. We stall hold their deposit of $25 which can be applied to this penalty, if you so direct. The owner of the dog moved up has complained several times that she has not received the prize money due her. I therefore ask that proper action be taken in the adjustment of this case.

The Southern Collie Club asks permission to hold a bench show for all breeds on September 23rd to 26th inclusive, and a Collie specialty show, Sept 27th and 28th. The secretary of said CLub states that “There two shows will be run independent of each other. We will issue separate premium lists and catalogues, and also have separate judges for each show.” I replied that I am not willing to give an opinion as to whether it would be within the spirit of the Rules to permit these two shows to be held as requested, and thay i would submit same to you at this meeting for proper decision.

I beg to report the bill for disbursements by the Pacific Advisory Committee from Dec 29th to May 14th inclusive, amounting to $31.75. This bill has been marked correct by the Auditing Committee of the Pacific Advisory Committee, and I recommend the payment of same.

The Pacific Advisory Committee adopted a resolution in reference to the public dinner to be given to Mr. August Belmont on May 25th, which I am requested to read to you to give the necessary publicity, and I therefore recommend the same to be spread in full in the minutes of this meeting.

I have to report that excuses have been filed for absence at this meeting from Mr. Chetwood Smith, Mr. Edward Brooks, Mr. H. H. Hunnewell, Mr. Howard Willets, Dr F. H. Osgood, and Mr. George Greer, B. S. Smith, James Mortimer.

Respectfully submitted

(Signed) A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

Treasurer's Report

NY May 20, 1912.

To the Board of Directors

Of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit my quarterly financial report from Jan. 1, 1912 to date.

Balance on hand, Jan. 1st, 1912 ------------------------ $ 22,963.91
Receipts to date, --------------------------------------------     10,799.16
Total ----------           33,763.17
Disbursements from Jan. 1, 1912 to date            10,186.11
Balance on hand ---- 23,577.06

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary
On motion the same was accepted.

The secretary: The minutes of the meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee, held on March 22\textsuperscript{nd}, and April 13\textsuperscript{th} are submitted. They are usually ordered to be spread upon the minutes and published.

Mr. Bernheimer: I make that motion.
Motion seconded and carried.

Meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee

Held at the Auditorium, San Francisco

March 22, 1912

Absent: J. E. deRuyter

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

On motion, the minutes of the previous meeting were approved as published in the Gazette.

The secretary read his report as follows:

San Francisco, March 22, 1912

Pacific Advisory Committee

Gentlemen:

Since our last meeting held on Jan 8\textsuperscript{th}, you have approved by mail vote the applications of the Spokane and Tacoma Kennel Club for licenses; altogether eleven shows have been granted dates so far.

I take great pleasure in laying before you the following letter, dated Feb. 23rd, 1912, of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, in which he announced in most gratifying terms, that the members of this Committee temporarily appointed by the Chair, have been duly elected by advises that the recommendation of this Committee, adopted Oct. 21, 1911, re the publication of wins in the 1911 Stud Book was disapproved by the Publication Committee, and the latter’s report was adopted by the American Kennel Club.

Koehler vs. L. K. C. of So. Cal.

I submit the following statements of the bench show Committee and of the veterinary surgeon, in reply to the charges of Mrs. Koehler.

Todd vs. L. K. A. of So. Cal. Claim for trophy. I submit the statement of the secretary of the Club, which is borne out by the Judge’s book and the certified catalog.

The Marin Valley Kennel Club applied for permission to change its name to Marin County Kennel Club.

I submit a complaint from Miss Gertrude Locke, complaining of the substitution of a trophy, and asking for your ruling.

Horace G. Lepman, disqualified, seeks reinstating.

W. C. Cox of Denver, requests this Committee to re-open his case. As this is virtually an appeal from the Committee’s decision, I returned his papers, requesting the deposit of ten dollars, which really should have been filed in the first instance. This he declines to file, and I recommend that his request be denied, as not being in conformity with the by-laws of the American Kennel Club. I might mention that he appealed from our decision to the American Kennel Club, which declined to entertain the appeal, unless accompanied by the usual deposit of twenty-five dollars.

I lay before you a statement as to a puppy shown at Sacramento, for your decision as to whether you desire to initiate an investigation or to call for sworn charges.

Smith vs. Johnson; a charge of misconduct. Deposit has been regularly filed.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman, Secretary

The following letter was read:

New York, Feb 23, 1912

Mr. J. P. Norman, Sec’y Pacific Advisory Committee, Berkeley, California.

Dear Sir:

I beg to advise you that at the annual meeting of the American Kennel Club the nominations forwarded by your Committee to fill vacancies on said Committee, were presented to the Delegates. By unanimous vote, Mr. John E. deRuyter was elected to serve five years, Mr. Carroll Cook to serve two years and Norma J. Stewart to serve one year.
Permit me personally to congratulate the Committee in securing the services of gentlemen so highly thought of, and whose well known ability is fully appreciated.

Yours truly,

American Kennel Club

A. P. VREDENBURGH

Secretary

On motion it was resolved that Mr. Vredenburgh’s letter be spread upon the minutes. Koehler vs. Ladies Kennel Association of So. California: A charge of misconduct.

On motion, it was resolved that the charges be dismissed and papers filed, Mrs. Koehler having furnished no evidence sufficient to support her allegations.

Todd vs. Ladies Kennel Association of So. California: Complaint of non-receipt of prize.

It appeared from the evidence, that Miss Todd believed her dog to be entitled to a prize for the best shown by a members of the Club, but the dog that won the special for best in show, being also entitled to compete for said prize, was awarded the same by the judge without being brought into the ring.

On motion, it was resolved that Miss Todd’s complaint be dismissed and that circumstances of the case be explained to her.
Miss Gertrude Looke vs. Northern California Kennel Club: A complaint of the quality of the trophy.

On motion, the complaint was ordered filed.

In re Horace G. Lepman: A petition for re-instatement.

On motion, it was resolved that it was the sense of the Committee that Mr. Lepman had been sufficiently punished, by six years disqualification, and that said disqualification be and is hereby cancelled, and Horace G. Lepman restored to good standing in the American Kennel Club.

W. C. Cox vs. Colorado Kennel Club: A petition to re-open case.

On motion, it was resolved that said petition be denied unless accompanied by the proper deposit of ten dollars.

Biggs vs. Hartnup: A charge of misconduct.

On motion, it was resolved that the secretary procure the original of the affidavit filed by Mrs. Biggs, and that he investigate the registration alleged by plaintiff to be fraudulent.

Re the Marin Valley County Kennel Club: Application for change of name.

On motion, it was resolved that the Marin Valley County Kennel Club be and hereby is authorized to change its name to Marin County Kennel Club.
Smith vs. Johnson: Charge of misconduct.

On motion, it was resolved that the case be laid over until the next meeting.

Re James W. Elliot: Petition for re-instatement.

On motion, it was resolved that all papers be laid on the table until the next meeting.

American Kennel Club vs. G. L. Meade: Contravention of Rule II.

G. L. Meade having acted as show secretary of a show held in San Francisco in Feb and March 1912, under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, as shown by catalog of said show, it was moved and seconded, that said G. L. Meade be and is hereby suspended, and is called upon to show cause within fifteen days from date, in writing, addressed to the secretary of this Committee, why such suspension should not be made permanent.

The Committee then went into executive session.

On resumption of regular business it was resolved that the meeting adjourn until April 13, at 2pm at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco.

Attest: J. P. Norman
Secretary
Meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee

Held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco
April 13, 1912.

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

On motion, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The secretary submitted his report as follows:

San Francisco, April 13, 1912

Pacific Advisory Committee

Gentlemen:

Re Biggs vs. Hartnup: Charge of misconduct.

The original affidavit and application for registration of the dog at issue now accompany the other papers.

Dr Smith vs. Dr Johnson: Charge of misconduct.

This case was postponed at out last meeting and is now ready for consideration.

Re James W. Elliot disqualified: Application for trial.

The papers in the original case are herewith submitted, and show that applicant was first suspended by the Seattle Kennel Club for misconduct.

G. L. Meade: Suspended for infraction of Rule II.

No reply has been received to my notice to show cause.
Re Dr L. W. Spriggs disqualified: Application for trial. I submit all papers showing that Dr Spriggs was disqualified as an officer of the late San Francisco Kennel Club.

The Ladies Kennel Association of So. Cal. has applied for membership, and has complied with all formalities except that they fail to give their headquarters on their application.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman
Secretary

On motion, the secretary’s report was approved.

Biggs vs. Hartnup: A charge of misconduct.

On motion, the secretary was instructed to procure further information.

Dr Alan E. Smith vs. Dr Albert Johnson: A charge of misconduct.

On motion, it was resolved that the defendant be instructed to file his defence in thirty days from date in writing.

Re James W. Elliot disqualified: Application for trial.

On motion it was resolved, that a copy of the application should be forwarded to the Seattle Kennel Club with a request for any further evidence that might be in their pos-
Re G. L. Meade suspended for infraction of Rule II.

No reply having been received to the notice of the Committee to show cause, it was on motion resolved, that the suspension of G. L. Meade be and is hereby made permanent, and that said G. L. Meade be disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club.

Re Dr L. W. Spriggs disqualified: Application for trial.

The applicant applying in person, it was moved and seconded, that an immediate trial be granted. Carried.

After trial had, it was moved and seconded, that Dr L. W. Spriggs be and hereby is reinstated to good standing in the American Kennel Club, and that his pro rata of the penalty due from the late San Francisco Kennel Club, be and is remitted. Carried.

Re the application of the Ladies Kennel Association of So. Cal., for membership in the American Kennel Club.

On motion it was resolved, that consideration of said application be postponed until the applicants have amended their application to show the city in which they desire to exercise a franchise.

On motion it was resolved, that the semi-annual Convention be held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, on Saturday June 8, 1912, at 2pm.
It was moved and seconded, that the Pacific Advisory Committee views with great pleasure and gratification the action of the American Kennel Club in celebrating with a banquet the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. August Belmont’s tenure of the Presidency of the Club, and that this Committee endorses such action heartily and unreservedly, and that its members regret, that by reason of geographical distance, they are compelled to forego the pleasure of testifying personally by their presence at the banquet to their appreciation of the individuals services rendered to the interests of the dog and of the American Kennel Club, for twenty-five years by Mr. August Belmont, during which period he has stinted neither time, energy nor responsibility. And furthermore, that this Committee directs the publication of this Resolution in the next issue of the American Kennel Gazette, and that a copy thereof be suitably engrossed and forwarded to Mr. Belmont.

Carried unanimously.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

ATTEST:  J. P. Norman

Secretary
THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from the Boston Terrier Club of Buffalo demanding the return of forty dollars retained by the American Kennel Club upon its refusal to hold a show at the two-point rating given to them by the License Committee.

DR. DE MUND: At that time I was Chairman of the License Committee and the Boston Terrier Club of Buffalo applied for a show at a four-point rating. The parent club passed the request under a misapprehension. At that time they thought they would have to grant licenses to any club that applied for them. When the matter came before the License Committee we investigated the previous shows held by this club, and we found that the number of dogs shown by them at their previous shows did not warrant, in our opinion, their having a four-point rating, so we granted a license for a two-point rating. They refused to accept that and demanded their money back. It properly comes up now for the License Committee to recommend what they will do in the matter. Inasmuch as they did not hold a show and did not use their license I think that it would be perfectly proper for the American Kennel Club to return their license fee, but under the rules we have no power to return the $25 which they placed as a deposit for holding the show, because they could have held a show if they wished.

Mr. Bernheimer: Did they ask for permission to hold a show or a four-point show?

THE SECRETARY: if they could not grant them a four-point show I should think they would have a right to have their money returned because they asked for a four-point show.

DR. DE MUND: They sent in and asked for permission to hold a show. The rules give the License Committee authority to grant the number of point they see fit. They must accept what they are granted.

Mr. Palmer: I understand the secretary to say that they applied for a four-point show.

DR. DE MUND: they did not apply for any number of points. They applied for permission to hold a show. They merely claimed that they had the consent of the parent club to hold a four-point show.

Mr. Sawyer: Certainly the Buffalo Club applied expecting four points and not with any idea of holding a two-point show. I am extremely familiar with the details of that. They expected a four-point show and they did not hold a four-point show. I am in accord with Dr DeMund’s remark that it was a lack of authorization that brings this matter before them. So long as they did not hold a show as they expected, I would move that the amount of forty dollars be returned to them.
DR. DE MUND: They used some pretty harsh language in their letter, threatening legal proceedings, and so on, and I do not think it would be wise to return their deposit of twenty-five dollars. They should not threaten what they will do to the American Kennel Club.

The Chairman: I do not think their interests should have any effect on us at all. If we do not consider that they are entitled to the return of this money, we certainly are not afraid of their threats, but I understand the point you make.

DR. DE MUND: They did not apply for any point show. They applied for permission to hold a show. They put their deposit down as a guarantee that they would hold that show under the rules. The License Committee can grant them the number of points they see fit, or refuse a license.

THE SECRETARY: Here I their application. It says nothing at all about four points. They filed with their application the written assent of the Boston Terrier Club that they should have four points.

Mr. Morse: Could the License Committee give the right to hold a four-point show without the consent of the Boston Terrier Club?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, on appeal

Mr. Sawyer: They do not bring out in their letter anything about four-points, but the facts are that they never had any idea but what they were going to get four-points. This was a new rule.

They had not consulted and taken the matter up, and they thought everybody could come in for four-points, and the idea of holding a two-point show never entered their heads when they wrote that letter. They sent it in under a misapprehension with the idea that just as soon as the Boston Terrier Club consented, that settled it. The License Committee at that time had never shown its hand. This was the first time it came up as to how they were going to deal with those things. Those people paid twenty-five dollars expecting to get four-points.

The Chairman: According to our rules I do not see how we can return them their twenty-five dollars. Our rule is very explicit on that point. We can return them any money that we have the power to return them.

THE SECRETARY: They have up to the 31st day of December to hold their show.

Mr. Palmer: They have not lived up to their guarantee?

THE SECRETARY: No, and further than that we could not consider for one moment that the power is taken from the American Kennel Club and delegated to any subsidiary club to say what the American Kennel Club will allow.

Mr. Hooley: I move that we return them the fifteen dollars and retain the twenty-five dollars, subject to their holding a licensed show to rate at two points at any time prior to December 31st, the same to be held as a guarantee that the show will be held.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I now bring to your attention the matter of the Sioux Falls Club of South Dakota, in which one of their officials, the judge, transferred a fox terrier from the wire-haired class in which it was entered to the smooth class, because the dog happened to be smooth. The rule distinctly stated that such transfer cannot be made, and if it is made the club must pay a penalty of $25.

DR. DE MUND: in that case the club clearly shows that they did not transfer the dog, and they have a letter from the judge admitting that he did it without the knowledge or consent of the club.

The Chairman: Is not a judge an official of the show?

DR. DE MUND: A judge is an official in one way, but it seems to me that this fine should be remitted to the club and imposed on the judge. it was not done with the knowledge of the Bench show Committee. They knew nothing about it.

THE SECRETARY: we called for the original entry form and ascertained that it was not the fault of the club; that it was the fault of the exhibitor. The exhibitor entered it in the wire-haired class, and it was a smooth-haired dog.

Mr. Bernheimer: If that entry blank is there and it is compared by an expert in handwriting as the entry of the dog.

The Chairman: Is not the club responsible for the mistakes of the judge?

DR. DE MUND: I don’t think that a club should be held responsible for a mistake like that. It is the act of the judge and without the knowledge or consent of the club. The judge did not even confer with the Bench Show Committee. I think he is the man that should be punished in that case, and not the Committee of the club.

The Chairman: It seems to me it is a case that ought to go to the Trial Board.

THE SECRETARY: The rule says that a dog wrongly entered cannot be transferred by the show officials, and impose a penalty of $25 for each offense. The question is, is the judge one of these officials or is he not? If he is, the assessment should be on the show because the show is responsible for the acts of its agent. Is the judge the agent of that show or not?

Mr. Sawyer: the secretary concurred in that when he transferred it himself in the marked catalogue.

THE SECRETARY: and they did not pay the award to the dog that was moved up.

Mr. Palmer: According to the statement made by the judge himself he takes all the responsibility. He acknowledges that he alone is responsible for the changing of the dog from one class to the other.

The Chairman: I think Mr. Vredeneburgh’s point, whether the judge is an agent of the show, covers the situation. If you decide that the judge is an agent of the show, the show is responsible for its agent. It seems to me that the show is responsible for the fine, and the Judge was very lax in having done what he did. That rule is very plain. It has been known and discussed time and time again. They certainly ought to know the rules of the American Kennel Club.

DR. DE MUND: I do not think that the judge could properly be called an agent of the show. He was asked to pass on the merits of the dogs, but I do think that if he changed it, and it went through the catalogue, then the Committee must be cognizant of that, and therefore they are liable for the fine.

THE SECRETARY: It this rule designates a judge and a paid official as one of the officials of the club, why doesn’t it apply in this case, that the judge was an official of the show? If the rule designates a judge as an official of the show it certainly means in all actions that that judge is an official of that show.

The Chairman: If the American Kennel Club designates a judge an official of the show we must hold that he is.

DR. DE MUND: I move that the Sioux Falls Club he held for violating the rule and that the judge be required to show cause before the Trial Board why some action should not be taken against him.

Mr. Palmer: I think the first part of Dr DeMund’s motion is well taken, but I do not see any reason for referring the action of the judge to the Trial Board, because he has acknowledged his part in it, and it is contrary to the rules of the American Kennel Club. I should like to offer an amendment to that motion that the judge be suspended.

DR. DE MUND: I accept the amendment.

Motion as amended seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Southern Collie Club of Memphis desires to hold an all round show for four days, to be followed on the two following days by a specialty show for collies. They say they will have separate lists and catalogues and make two deposits. In the case of the shows held on the 4th of this month there were four shows held under one rule, and each show was a specialty show and each show was held under their active membership or by virtue of a license, but in this case I did not feel warranted in consenting to such double show because it seemed to me, while it was not absolutely against the letter of the law, it was certainly against the spirit of the law, and my reason for so believing is that in the general dog show which they want to hold for four days there is no doubt that they will open classes for collies. The specialty shows to be held the two succeeding days will be for collies, and it is fair to presume that a great many of the collies, if not all, that are entered in the general show will be continued in that building for the specialty show, and therefore it would be keeping dogs in the bench for six days, which is a positive violation of our rule. I say that is the inference, and as I did not feel that I had any authority vested in me to tell them what they could do or what they could not do, I submit it to this Board for instruction.

Mr. Bernheimer: Can a specialty club hold an all round show?

DR. DE MUND: It can hold any kind of a show. Any member of the American Kennel Club can hold a show.

Mr. Bernheimer: It seems to me that the rules can be very easily broken. Take for instance the Boston Terrier Club of New York, if they want to hold a general show here, they could do it in NYC and still be within 24 miles of the Westminster Kennel Club.

DR. DE MUND: The Boston Terrier Club of NY is not a member of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Bernheimer: Take any specialty club that is a member of the American Kennel Club. Take the Bulldog Club of Philadelphia, and take the Westminster Kennel Club. There you have an example. Both of them can hold shows in Philadelphia?

DR. DE MUND: They can.

Mr. Bernheimer: Still your rule says that one club cannot hold a show within 25 miles of another club.

THE SECRETARY: I do not know. It is new to me. My opinion is, if they open collie classes in the general show and they have any specials for collies entered in the specialty show, it is a violation of our rule to keep dogs on the show bench for six days.

DR. DE MUND: I think it is a matter for the License Committee. They can refuse a license to the show if they wish.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the matter be referred to the License Committee.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I now read the finding of the Trial Board on the Texas matter:

New York, May 8, 1912

On Jan. 27, 1912, the Trial Board in the case of Branshaw & Nevitt vs. Clayton found charges not sustained and the case was dismissed.

Subsequent to this finding much correspondence was received by Secretary of the American Kennel Club from Mr. Branshaw, in which he complained of losing the case on account of not being able to be here personally with witnesses, as was Dr Clayton. He maintained that Dr Clayton was a menace to the interest of dog shows in the State of Texas, and questioned the credibility of the witness who testified for Dr Clayton.

The Trial Board recommended to the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club, that before considering the case of Clayton vs. Branshaw, which was pending before the Trial Board, the case of Branshaw vs. Nevitt vs Clayton should be reopened, and that one of the members of the Trial Board, with secretary of the American Kennel Club should go to Dallas, Texas, on as early a date as possible and summon all persons interested in the case to appear before them there, and also make a thorough examination as to the condition of affairs in the State of Texas.
It was thought by the Trial board that a thorough adjustment of affairs in Dallas would be morally felt throughout the circuit of shows held in the State of Texas, of which there are five.

The Executive Committee at its meeting held Feb 19th, 1912, instructed the Chairman of the Trial Board to investigate the case referred to and also instructed the secretary of the American Kennel Club to accompany him in an advisory capacity and also ascertain for the benefit of the Executive Committee, the present condition in the State of Texas, with regard to this circuit of shows.

The Special Committee arrived in Dallas on the morning of April 6th and started proceedings at 2pm on that day. Closed its session at 7 pm and continued on the following Monday at 9am and adjourned to 2:30pm, during which time the Committee examined, A. Branshaw, C. M. Nevitt, Mrs. W. D. Terry, B. F. Kiles, A. W. Weinert, Mrs. L. Weil, Charles F. Mills, O. A. Mangrum, Captain Ayres, Mrs. John Henderson, A. Self, John Henderson, Mrs. Cox, C. Thomas, S. J. Hopper, T. J. Ramsey, E. J. Kiest, Dr. E. T. Cox, Dr George W. Clayton, Mrs. Kate Schuford, and H. B. Guerrant.

The proceedings were reported verbatim by a stenographer and said report has been read attentively by each member of this Board. All the witnesses promised to read over their testimony and if same was not correctly reported, to correct any errors and to appear before a Notary Public and make affidavit to the truthfulness of their testimony.

Mr. Newton P. Morrison, an attorney for Branshaw & Nevitt, undertook to obtain from the above witnesses their proper acknowledgement and forward same at the earliest possible moment to the office of the American Kennel Club. The following witnesses lived up to their agreement, and their affidavits are now in the hands of this Board, C. Thomas, C. M. Nevitt, A. Branshaw, Mrs. W. D. Terry, Dr. E. T. Cox, A. Self, O. A. Mangrum, Mrs. Kate Schuford, Mrs. L. Weil, E. J. Kiest, J. Henderson, Mrs. L. M. Henderson, Capt. Ayres, A. W. Weinert, S. J. Hopper and H. B. Guerrant and Dr George W. Clayton.

We are informed by Mr. Morrison that some of the witnesses declined to make the necessary affidavit, no reason being assigned for such refusal.

During the session of your Committee testimony was taken in the case of Clayton vs. Branshaw, in that said Branshaw endeavored to boycott or prevent exhibitors from making entries at the subsequent show of the Texas Kennel Club, held in 1911.

Since the return of the Committee, the Trial Board has held two session and arrived at the following conclusion:

That after a most thorough investigation of the testimony taken by the Chairman of this Board at Dallas, said Board is firmly of the opinion that its findings on Jan. 27th, 1912, in the case of Branshaw & Nevitt vs. Dr Clayton were correct, and that the weight of evidence is still greater in the favor of Dr Clayton.

That the testimony of the different witnesses taken at Dallas goes to show that Dr Clayton did not appoint Dr Cox act in such capacity, other than that he did work to help the show along, as did many others who were interested in making it a success, and that no superintendent was appointed.

The case is therefore dismissed.

Whereas Mr. T. J. Ramsey, of Dallas, TX, swore under oath on Jan 6th, 1912, that Dr George W. Clayton did appoint Dr E. T. Cox of Dallas, TX, superintendent of the 1910 Dallas show, and that Dr Cox acted in such capacity, and whereon April 8th, 1912, in answer to questions put to him on the witness-stand testified that he did not know Dr Cox was appointed as superintendent by Dr Clayton, and whereas under Rule XXII of the Rules Governing Clubs, authority is given to this Board to discipline any person for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club it is the opinion of this Board that the said Ramsey violated said Rule, in that in his affidavit of Jan 6th he made an unwarranted statement regarding a judge in good standing in the American Kennel Club, therefore ordered that said T. J. Ramsey be and hereby is suspended from all privileges of the American Kennel Club, until such time as he shows cause why he should not be disqualified.

We believe that it was mostly through the influence of one man that Mr. Branshaw was made to believe he had been misused and badly treated and that Mr. Branshaw was used by this person as a catspaw in the case. The Board regrets that Mr. Branshaw should have allowed himself to be drawn into this case.

Dr Geo. W. Clayton :

Vs. : Re misconduct in connection with dogs shows

A. Branshaw )

It is the unanimous opinion of the Trial Board that Mr. Branshaw did try to influence many and did influence some exhibitors to withhold entries from the 1911 Dallas Show, and that by doing so, he violated Rule XXII, Rules Governing Shows, by conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club. That for so doing, he, Branshaw, shall be and hereby is suspended for ninety days, at the end of which time he shall, on apologizing to the Texas State Fair, to Dr Clayton and to the American Kennel Club, be reinstated.

The report of the License Committee was read as follows:

New York, May 21st, 1912

To the Directors of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

The License Committee begs to report that it has approved of ten licenses to hold shows under American Kennel Club rules since the Annual Meeting, held Feb 19, 1912.

Respectfully submitted,

THE SECRETARY: The bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements form Feb 29th to May 14, 1912, amounting to $31.75, has been approved by the Auditing Committee of the Pacific Advisory Committee. I recommend its payment.

On motion the same was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: I read the following resolution adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee.
RESOLUTION

The Pacific Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club at a regular meeting held on April 13th, 1912, unanimously adopted the resolution herein set forth:

Resolved, that the Pacific Advisory Committee views with great pleasure and gratification the action of the American Kennel Club in celebrating with a banquet the occasion of the 25th anniversary of Mr. August Belmont’s tenure of the Presidency of the Club, and that this Committee endorses such action heartily and unreservedly, and that its members regret, that by reason of geographical distance, they are compelled to forego the pleasure of testifying personally by their presence at the banquet to their appreciation of the priceless services rendered to the interests of the dog and of the American Kennel Club for 25 years by Mr. August Belmont, during which period he has stinted neither his time, energy not responsibility. And furthermore, that this Committee directs the publication of this Resolution, in the next issue of the American Kennel Gazette, and that a copy thereof be suitably engrossed and forwarded to Mr. Belmont.

THE SECRETARY: I have received excuses from the following named directors for not attending this meeting: Mr. Hunnewell, Mr. Brooks, Mr. Chetwood Smith, Dr F. H. Osgood, George Greer, James Mortimer and Mr. B. S. Smith.
DR. DE MUND: I move that their excuses be accepted.
Motion seconded and carried.
On motion the meeting then adjourned.

New York, June 18, 1912

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I had the honor to report at the last regular meeting the recommendation of the Pacific Advisory Committee to amend Rule V Sec. B. The recommendation was endorsed by 13 clubs on the Pacific Coast and members of the American Kennel Club.

The proposed amendment was referred by you to the Rules Committee, which met on May 28, 1912, and caused the following recommendation to be published in the American Kennel Gazette of May 31, 1912.

“The Novice Class shall be for dogs never having won a prize at any recognized show, wins in the puppy class excepted, but only dogs bred in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba shall be eligible. The entry blank must state the name of the breeder and the place of birth.”

This special meeting is called by the President under the authority given him in Article III of the By-Laws.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
On motion the same was received.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows:

New York, May 28, 1912

At a meeting of the Rules Committee held May 28, 1912, it was recommended that the following be submitted for Section B. Rule V, of Rules Governing Dog Shows:

The Novice class shall be for dogs never having won a first prize at any recognized show, wins in the puppy class excepted, but only dogs bred in the United States, Canada, Mexico, or Cuba shall be eligible. The entry blank must state the name of the breeder, and the place of birth. To go into effect August 1st, 1912.

J. E. De Mund
Chairman, Rules Committee

Mr. Collins: I move that the recommendation of the committee be adopted.
Motion seconded.
Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I move to substitute an amendment to the recommended by the Rules Committee to read as follows: “Only dogs bred on the North American Continent or the American possessions are eligible.” That will simplify the whole matter. Cuba we do not really have any use for because there are no dogs raised there, and Mexico is on the North American Continent.

The Chairman: If the gentlemen will allow me to speak from the chair as Chairman of the Rules Committee, I will state that the rule as it now stands covers all the American possessions. Mexico and Cuba were added in case at some future time a dog should be sent in from there it would not necessitate at that time a change in the rule. There is quite a number of dogs in Cuba and dogs are being shipped to Cuba, and at some future time the probabilities are that dogs will be shown at some of the Southern shows, and then they would come in and ask for another amendment. It did not seem to the Rules Committee that any harm would be done by adding that now.

Amendment seconded.

Mr. Wilmerding: Do I understand that this new rule comes under Section B of Rule V?

The Secretary: Yes.
Mr. Wilmerding: why would it not be advisable to have Section B, read that the novice class shall be for American bred dogs only, then revert to Rule VII and incorporate this in the rule in the second paragraph of Rule VII? It seems to me it would be more fitting to include it in Rule VII than in Section B, of Rule V. If we leave Section B as it is, that is that the novice class shall be for American bred dogs only, that seems to cover it. The let the interpretation of American bred come under Rule VII where it says: “Dogs bred and whelped in the United States and dogs whelped in the United States”

The Chairman: I rule that you cannot tough that section here. We are here to act on the one section that the meeting was called for. That is all that was referred to the Rules Committee, and that is all that is being reported on.

Mr. Bernheimer: There are a number of American today residing in Cuba having business interests in Cuba. There are also a number of American residing in Mexico and having business interest in Mexico. There are shows held in Texas, which is right on the border of Mexico, and there is no reason why Mexico should not be included in this rule, because the Mexicans may be sending dogs over to the Texas shows, and the same thing holds good as to Cuba, because the American may be sending dogs from Cuba to the shows here in the United States. It is only a short run from Cuba to some of the Southern cities, and I think that the rule ought to be left as reported by the Rules Committee.

Mr. Guggenheim: If we pass the amendment proposed by the Rule comm. We are going to have two conflicting rules. We are going to have two separate definitions of an American bred dog. Under one head you say the novice class is for American bred dogs only, and then you say American bred dogs in Mexico, Cuba and Canada, and under Rule VII you have a different definition of what an American bred dog is.

The Chairman: That question does not enter into the matter at all. One is merely a definition of an American bred dog. The other is a statement of what dogs are eligible in the novice class. The two rules are not in any way connected.
Mr. Guggenheim: You say the novice class shall be for American bred dogs only?

The Chairman: That is all eliminated, as you will see if you read the proposed amendment carefully.

The Secretary: The Rules Committee has by its recommendation eliminated that entire definition for the novice class and recommended a new one which say that “The novice class shall be for dogs never having won a first prize at any recognized show, wins in the puppy class excepted, but only dogs bred in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba shall be eligible.” It is practically making an entirely new rule for the novice class, because this rule, on the adoption of this proposed amendment, will be dead.

The Chairman: You will find that Rule VII merely gives the definition of an American bred dog.

Mr. Guggenheim: I want to go on record as saying that I consider that a very poor rule to make if that rule should be as it stands. Rule VII is the one that should be changed and not Rule V.
The Chairman: Under the wording of American possessions they would be eligible in the American possessions as part of the United States.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: That is all right, but let us cover it and not have any question about it. It covers everything practically except Cuba.

Mr. Guggenheim: Would a motion be in order to lay that report of the Rules Committee on the table, let the rule remain as it is at present and have the Rules Committee change the definition of the American bred class? In other words, is there any way we would get the sentiment of this Committee, whether they want to adopt that rule or to make a change in Rule VII instead of that?

The Chairman: the Committee do not wish to touch Rule VII.

Mr. Guggenheim: What I want is for this meeting to request the Committee to change Rule VII instead of Rule V.

Mr. Bernehimer: Rule VII constitutes what an American bred dog is so that the dog can compete in the Ameri-ican bred class. It has nothing to do with the novice class.

The Chairman: This is all out of order. The question is now on Mr. Muss-Arnolt’s amendment.

Mr. Collins: I have heard some objection to including Cuba. I would like to know why they object to including Cuba. We include Canada, a foreign country, and we include Mexico, a foreign country. What objection is there including Cuba? They are all a part of the North American continent.

The question was then put on the amendment and it was lost.

The Chairman: Now you will vote on the original motion.

The question was then put on the amendment proposed by the Rules Committee and the same was carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

Minutes of the Regular Meeting of the Executive Committee

August 20, 1918

H. K. Bloodgood, presiding

Present:  H. K. Bloodgood
          Dr. De Mund.
          Howard Willets
          Ralph C. Stewart
          Dwight Moore

The Secretary read his report as follows:

To the Executive Committee:

Gentlemen:

This meeting had been called pursuant to Art. II, Secretary. VI of the By-Laws.

Complaints, rumors, and Press statements, referring to the show of the Ladies Kennel Association of NJ, held at Atlantic City, NJ, August 2, 1912, are of such a nature that I am of the opinion that your Committee is not only justified but forced to recognize same, and cause a thorough investigation to be made. If the adverse criticisms are found to be untrue, you owe it to the Show Club to so declare them, if on the other hand such adverse criticisms are found to be true, you owe it to the American Kennel Club and the exhibitors to meet out such justice as may be in your opinion just and proper.

I would respectfully recommend that you appoint a Special Committee of three from your own body, with power to investigate and inquire into the organization of said Ladies Kennel Association of NJ, the conduct of its show held at Atlantic City, NJ, August 2, 1912, and also into the conduct of the Judges and Exhibitors at said show. The fact that a show is held by the sanction of, and under a license from the American Kennel Club, obligates such show to conduct same strictly within the rules of the American Kennel Club, and in a manner that will uphold the dignity of the American Kennel Club and itself. To exhibitors who pay into the treasury of a show club a money consideration, such show should be judged and conducted in a dignified manner and not as a joke. Its judges should judge seriously and intelligently, and so conduct themselves in their official positions as to impress the exhibitors and visitors that they were serious in the performance of their duties. The officers and the Superintendent should be and are responsible for the conduct of their show to the American Kennel Club, and if the investigation recommended should demonstrate the adverse criticisms to be well founded, all persons connected with said show, who may be found responsible, should be disciplined as a warning to all future shows that may be held under the rules of the American Kennel Club.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

By Dr. De Mund:--

I move you that a Committee of three, of which the Chairman be one, be appointed from the Executive Board and vested with the powers of the Executive Board, for the purpose of investigating all matters pertaining to the Atlantic City Kennel Club and the show held by that pertaining to dog shows that they may deem proper, and to bring in such recommendations for the future conduct of shows as they may find necessary. That the Secretary be authorized to furnish a stenographer for the minutes of this investigation and pay for same on approval of said Committee.

Seconded and carried.

By Dwight Moore:--

I move that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to withdraw from our official stenographer the privilege of furnishing the press with a copy of the minutes of all regular and special meetings of the American Kennel Club.

Seconded and carried.

By Howard Willets:-

I move that this Committee recommends to the publication Committee that all discussions and arguments at regular or special meetings of the American Kennel Club, be eliminated from the minutes published in the American Kennel Gazette and that said published minutes shall be confined to the resolutions, motions and the results of same.

Seconded and carried.

The investigating Committee under the DeMund resolution is composed of Dr. De Mund, George Greer, and H. K. Bloodgood.

Matters of importance were discussed in Committee of the Whole after which the meeting adjourned.

The following named gentlemen were elected as delegates to the following named clubs:

American Foxhound Club, Raymond Belmont
Spaniel Breeders’ Society, Roland P. Keasbey

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, Sept. 16, 1912

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:--

I beg to report that since our last meeting I have received notice from our Pacific Advisory Committee of the election to Active Membership of the Vancouver Exhibition Association, Pacific Coast Toy Dog Club, Pacific Coast Boston Terrier Club, and Ladies’ Kennel Association of Southern California.

I have also turned over to the Membership Committee credentials from four clubs appointing delegates to the American Kennel Club. Said Committee will report its recommendation at this meeting.

At the last meeting the delegate from the Sioux City Kennel Club presented a letter from the Secretary of the Seattle Kennel Club in reference to the penalties imposed against shows for violation of the rules, and particular mention was made of penalty amounting to $25.00 against the Everett Show, hold by the Snohomish Kennel Club, for unimportant infractions of the American Kennel Club Rules in cataloguing entries. This statement was denied by me and the matter was referred to the Pacific Advisory Committee for an explanation. The Secretary of said Committee replied to the effect that on Jan 17th, 1912, he wrote as follows: “Enclosed please find check for $28.00 to cover penalties. Colorado Kennel Club for sixteen days delay in forwarding entry blanks, Snohomish Kennel Club twelve days delay forwarding listing fees and entry blanks.” This letter was addressed to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, but was never mailed and was found by the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee in his desk on May 28th. This delay will account for my statement on May 21st that there had been no penalty imposed against the Everett Show.
The question of the Seattle Kennel Club’s complaint presented to the Semi-Annual Convention of the Pacific Coast Clubs, held in San Francisco on June 8th, 1912, and the Secretary of the Colorado Kennel Club, against whose Club the penalty of $16.00 was imposed, stated: His club had been fined twice, and he thought the system of fining was good discipline, inasmuch as it kept Secretary of club on the alert to prevent errors and was a factor in presenting undue delays in rendering of reports to the American Kennel Club.

The minutes of this convention were published in the Gazette of July 31st, 1912.

At the regular meeting of the Executive Committee, August 20th, 1912, a Committee of three was appointed to investigate the conduct of the late Atlantic City Show in particular, and such other matters pertaining to Dog Shows that they may deem proper in general. It also recommended that the privilege acting as reporter by our official stenographer for the sporting press be withdrawn and that a recom-mendment to the Publication Committee to the effect that all discussions or arguments at regular or special meetings of the American Kennel Club be eliminated from the minutes published in the American Kennel Gazette, and that said published minutes shall be confined to said resolutions and motions of same. This recommendation was forwarded to the Publication Committee and was duly adopted by the Committee.

Two recommendations to amend certain dog show rules, one from Edwin L. Boger and one from J. Bailey Wilson should be referred to the Rules Committee to report at the next meeting if possible.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

I would state in addition to this that I have received to-day another proposed amendment from Mr. James Mortimer which will likewise be referred to the Rules Committee.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, Sept 16, 1912

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:--

I beg to report the minutes of the regular meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, June 8, 1912, and minutes of the Special Meeting, July 2, 1912, and as is usual, I recommend that same be spread in full upon the minutes of this meeting.

I also received from the Pacific Advisory Committee a request to change the name of the Golden Gate Kennel Club to that of the California Kennel Club; notice of the registration of the Southwestern Kennel Club, which was duly accepted, and notice of a penalty of $25.00 imposed against the Ladies’ Kennel Association of California for its failure to include in its premium list the Rules of the Pacific Advisory Committee, adopted Oct. 1911. Also a request from the Salem Kennel Club for a return of its license fee, $15.00 date deposit, $25.00, and Secretary’s deposit of $10.00, for the reason that said club is prevented from holding its show by order of the State Board of Health of Oregon. With this request is the order of Calden S. White, State Health Officer, dated at Portland, August 21st, 1912.

The New Hampshire Fair Association filed its application for a license August 14, 1912, for a show to be held Sept 2nd and 3rd, 1912. On August 19th, I received two copies of a propose classification for some show, the identity of which I did not know. As the envelope containing this classification was stamped, E. L. Grimes Co., Falcon Press, 11 India St., without the name of the city or State, I noticed that the postmark was Boston, August 17th, 3 pm. On August 20th, I wrote these particulars to Mr. Tom B. Middlebrooke and said: “If these proofs come from you I would be glad to know it.”

On August 21st, I received the Premium List of this show, containing my certificate of approval of the classification. This classification would not have been approved by me on account of errors, and yet it was printed and mailed without my approval or consent. I therefore assumed the responsibility of holding up the license for said show and informed Mr. Middlebrooke that he had an opportunity to appeal from my action. In the meantime, the show has been held, the marked catalogue, judges’ books and listing sheets, with fees to cover same, have been received within the time granted them by our Rules.

This matter is now before you for such action as you may deem proper.

At our meeting of May 21st, Mr. George R. Cranfield, who judged at Sioux Falls, S. Dak., transferred a dog wrongly entered, and for such act was suspended by resolution adopted by your Board. Mr. Cranfield now appeals to this Board for reinstatement.

At the Ft. Worth show, 1907, the officers of said show were suspended for their failure to act on a protest filed with them. Among the officers suspended was John Sneed. He now appeals for reinstatement on the ground that he was not an officer of said Club but simply acted as press agent, although he was advertised in the catalogue as Chairman of the Committee. The title of Chairman was merely honorary and carried nothing with it. Further that he never received the communications sent from this office, giving him an opportunity to be heard in his defense, nor did he ever receive the notice sent from this office of his suspension, and is of the opinion that these notices were withheld from him for reasons best known to the Secretary of the Club, who possibly received them.

It was only a short time since that Mr. Sneed heard through Dr George W. Clayton of his suspension, which is the reason for his relay in filing his appeal.

Under date of August 27th, Mr. Thos. Grisdale appeals to the American Kennel Club for protection as a judge from an attack made on his honesty and integrity by a correspondent to the English paper, “Our Dogs.” This matter is now before you for such action as you may deem propose.

I have to report the resignation dated August 18th, 1912, of Mr. Charles D.
Berheimer, as Delegate, Director, and Member of the Trial Board.

A duplicate bill for disbursements by the Pacific Advisory Committee from May 24th to September 11th has been presented, amounting to $42.41. I would respectfully recommend the payment of same on receipt of the original bill, duly audited by the Sub-Committee appointed for that purpose.

The following excuses for absence from the Directors meeting of May 21st, 1912, have been received: William Rauch and W. C. Wilmerding. Also excuses from J. W. Appleton, George Greer, Samuel R. Cutler, F. H. Osgood, Wm. L.
Barclay, W. H. Sawyer, George Lauder, Jr., for their inability to attend this meeting.

A. P. Vredenburgh

On motion same was accepted and placed on file.
Dr. De Mund: I move to suspend the rules and take up the resignation of Charles D. Bernheimer.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Hooley: The acceptance of this resignation leaves vacancies in the Board of Directors, Trial Board and Rules Committee to be filled at this meeting.

The Chairman: If there be no further nominations the Chairman will direct the Secretary to cast a ballot for the election of Mr. A. B. Maclay as a member of the Board of Directors in the Class of 1913 in place of Mr. Charles D. Bernheimer.

The Secretary stated that he had cast a ballot for Mr. A. B. Maclay as directed.

Mr. Smith: I nominate Mr. W. S. Gurnee, Jr., to serve on the Trial Board in place of Mr. Bernheimer.

Nomination seconded.

The Chairman: If there be no further nominations the Chairman will direct the Secretary to cast a ballot for the election of Mr. W. S. Gurnee, Jr., to serve on the Trial Board in place of Mr. Bernheimer.

The Secretary state that he had cast such ballot for Mr. Gurnee, Jr., as directed.

Dr. De Mund: I nominate Mr. W. H. Sawyer as a member of the Rules Committee in place of Mr. Bernheimer.

The Chairman: If there be no further nominations the Chairman will direct the Secretary to cast a ballot for the election of Mr. W. H. Sawyer as a member of the Rules Committee in place of Mr. Bernheimer.

The Secretary state that he had cast such ballot for the election of Mr. Sawyer as directed.

Treasurer's report was then read as follows:

New York, September 16, 1912

To the Board of Directors,

Of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit the quarterly financial report from Jan 1, 1912 to date.

Balance on hand, Jan 1, 1912 ---------------- $22,963.91
Receipts to date ------------------------------- 19,097.14
Total ----- 42,061.05
Disbursements from Jan 1, 1912 to date -------- 18,986.38
Balance on hand $23,074.67

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the License Committee was read as follows:

Sept 16th, 1912
Gentlemen:

The License Committee begs to report that since the last quarterly meeting of the Directors twenty-one licenses have been granted to hold shows under the American Kennel Club Rules, two of which were granted by the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

George Greer
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Publication Committee was read as follows:--

Mr. Chairman:--

At its August meeting the Executive Committee recommended to this Committee that the publishing in the Gazette of all discussions and arguments at regular or special meetings of the Club be eliminated.

A mail vote was taken on this question and the majority having signified their assent, the Gazette will Hereafter publish only the resolutions, motions and the results of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

Dwight Moore,
Chairman
On motion the same was accepted and the recommendation therein contained adopted.
The Secretary: The Executive Committee held a meeting on August 20th at which it appointed a Sub-Committee to investigate the organization known as the ladies' Kennel Association of New Jersey and the conduct of its show, held August 2nd, 1912. I will state for that Committee that they have held two sessions and have not completed their work. The Chairman of that Committee is present and no doubt he can give you more information than I can concerning its labors.

Dr. De Mund: the Committee, as has been stated, held two sessions and examined a number of witnesses in connection with the Atlantic City show. There are several other matters that I think it would be well for the Directors to refer to that sub-Committee. On matter is the conduct of the Nashua show, and another matter is the letter of Mr. Grisdale complaining about an article that has been published. The scope of the Committee is quite broad. Its work is to investigate the general condition of dog shows, and the work already before it will probably consume a number of weeks.

Mr. Moore: I move that the action of the Executive Committee be ratified.

Mr. Smith: Would the case of Mr. Grisdale properly go before the Executive Committee or would it go before the Trial Board?
The Chairman: It would go to whatever Committee you refer it to.

Mr. Smith: Would not that naturally go before the Trial Board?

The Chairman: that is for the Directors to say.

Dr. De Mund: I did not mean to cast any reflections upon the Trial Board, but there are no charges preferred in this matter. It is merely a matter for our protection. I thought if the matter was referred to this Committee, they could investigate it, and then if in their judgment it should be referred to the Trial Board for action, that course could be taken. This Committee has not the power to try anything. It is merely an investigation Committee. There are no charges preferred, therefore we could not send this matter to the Trial Board even if we so desired. It is merely a letter asking for protection.

The Chairman: Mr. Smith, does that answer your question?

Mr. Smith: I don’t know. All I wanted to know was whether this should go before the Trial Board.

The Chairman: Nothing can come before the trial Board except it is based upon charges. An investigation would not come before a Trial Board.
Mr. Morse: Was this sub-Committee appointed for any length of time? Is it a permanent Committee?

The Chairman: no only temporary.

Mr. Morse: It seems to me that Mr. Grisdale should seek for redress at the hands of a court. I do not know that we have had any similar matter before us.

The Secretary: I told him that there was no case of a similar nature where the Press had attached a judge, and as there are no charges preferred he simply asked for protection. The Chairman of the investigating Committee is of the opinion that that Committee can call before it the party who presumed to make the attack on Mr. Grisdale and then determine whether they shall establish a precedent by referring it to the Trial Board.

Mr. Morse: Don’t you think it is rather a large proposition we are undertaking? For instance, there is an article in one of the weekly or monthly papers that attacks in a way nearly all judges at the Lenox show. If we are going to follow the newspaper when any one make any suggestion that a judge does not know his business it seems to me we are putting a tremendous burden on our shoulders.

Mr. Smith: I am perfectly satisfied to have it go before the Executive Committee and let them act as they deem fit.

Dr. De Mund: Mr. Morse referred to another article and the investigating Committee intends to summon the writer of it before them to find out the meaning of such an article. The one he refers to is the most scandalous attack that was ever perpetrated on any one. It attacks judges even before that have officiated.

Mr. Hooley: With all respect to Mr. Morse, the gentleman who wrote the article shortly after the New York show in his own paper, attached one of the judges and in an indirect way attacked Mr. Mortimer and others connected with the New York show in a scandalous manner. That was not taken up at the time. I really didn’t see why not. I do not understand now why it was not considered by this board. I understand now why it was not considered by this board. I understand that we cannot take any action, but this man is a fancier and exhibitor of dogs. He shows dogs for one or two different parties, and I also think for himself, and it seems to me that there should be some way of stopping that sort of thing either by suggestion or by making it impossible for him to show any dogs. As I understand it this Committee is supposed to attend to that matter. Therefore I think it necessary that it should come before that Committee.
The Chairman: it depends upon the nature of these attacks. As I understand it all we could take cognizance of is a question of mis-management. It is only on the question of the honesty of a judge that we can protect any one.

Dr. De Mund: This last attack is really advice to exhibitors not to exhibit at that show because the judges are notoriously incompetent, and some other word is used – men who have not officiated as yet, simply that the judges who are picked out are so and so.

The Chairman: Mr. Morse stated that they criticize a judge for not knowing his business. They have a perfect right to do that. It is only a question of honesty that we can take up.

Mr. Hooley: There was something published about a judge at the New York show to the effect that he was all right until he went out to lunch and then his mind was biased and change when he was out.

The Chairman: in that case they can say he drank too much, but that would not impeach his honesty.

(The clipping referred to was then read by the Secretary.)

Mr. Morse: It seems to me a very small matter to have a Committee summon witnesses about.
The Chairman: As I understand the motion was for sort of a blanket investigation.

Mr. Morse: I would like to have it put to a vote as to whether the directors think it is a matter of sufficient importance to refer to a Committee.

The Chairman: the motion is that the action of the Executive Committee be ratified.

    Motion seconded and carried.

The Chairman: This is a very important step we are taking and I think a very wise one, because heretofore A. P. Vredenburgh has had to take notice of anything that came up. We simply say that no charges have been made. This Committee, I should say, was formed so that if anything did come up and if they thought charges should be preferred they could authorize charges to be made. Originally no charges were made. When the papers asked why this or that was not doesn’t our only answer was that no charges were made. Now this Committee can suggest to the directors that somebody should make charges in certain matters.

    Dr. De Mund: that is the idea.

    Mr. Morse: It must first be ratified by the Executive Committee.

    The Chairman: This is a sub-Committee. If this investigating Committee think that charges should be preferred, they go to the Executive Committee for ratification.

   Mr. Moore: The Executive Committee is still the parent Committee.

   Dr. De Mund. Yes.

   The Secretary: the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee are submitted.

   The Chairman: If there is no objection the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee will be spread on the minutes.

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

On motion the minutes of the previous meeting were approved as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

Pacific Advisory Committee,

Gentlemen:--

I beg to submit for action the papers in cases as follows:

Re Ladies’ Kennel Association of So. Cal. Revised application for membership.

Re James W. Elliot, disqualified: Application for reinstatement with reply of Seattle Kennel Club to our request for further evidence if any.
Dr Alan Smith vs. Dr Johnson: A charge of misconduct. With certain personal letters in reference thereto. Dr. Johnson has filed no reply.

Biggs vs. Hartnup: Charges of misconduct. Further correspondence in reply to letters sent out according to resolution of this Committee.

Re G. L. Meade, disqualified: Request for reinstatement unaccompanied by fee of $5.00; applicant states that our letters were delayed in reaching him.

Correspondence in connection with application of Vancouver Exhibition Association for license, and with clubs and American Kennel Club in reference to amending notice class rule to admit Canadian bred dogs.

In reference to this I would state that the application for license of the Vancouver Exhibition Association was returned to them on account of insufficient deposit, and am now waiting to receive their application for membership in accordance with the telegram submitted herewith.

Letter from Mr. R. M. Palmer, Secretary of the Seattle Kennel Club, to Mr. Robert Guggenheim, their delegate in relation to fines levied for infraction of rules, said letter, being referred to us by the American Kennel Club for expression of opinion.

In connection with this matter you will notice that
A. P. Vredenburgh and Dr. De Mund stated that the Snohomish Co. Kennel Club had never been fined. As a matter of fact the club was fined twelve dollars for that number of days delay in making return of their listing fees, but the two gentlemen named were not informed of it. The check for that amount together with $16.00 penalty levied on the Colorado Kennel Club, was mailed by me on January 21st, in a letter, stamped A. P. Vredenburgh, P.O. Box, Berkeley. The letter naturally came back to me, and was pigeon holed in my desk, and would probably still be buried had I not changed my residence on May 27th and resurrected it. I mailed the original letter, envelope and check to A. P. Vredenburgh on May 28th and will submit his reply.

Respectfully submitted.

J. P. Norman Secretary

On motion the Secretary’s report was approved.

Re the application of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of So. Cal. For membership.

On motion, the application was denied, it not being in accordance with Rule V of the Rules governing clubs, and the Secretary was instructed to write to the Ladies’ Kennel Association of So. Cal. Explaining how and when application for membership could be made in accordance with the rules.
Re J. W. Elliott, disqualified: Application for trial.

On motion it was resolved, that Mr. Elliot be instructed to appear for trial at the next regular meeting of which he would receive due notice as to time and placed.

Smith vs. Johnson: Charge of misconduct.

No reply to the charges having been received from the defendant, it was on motion resolved, that an extension of 30 days be granted to him, and that the Secretary shall again call on him for an answer.

Biggs vs. Hartnup: Charge of misconduct.

On motion it was resolved, that the evidence of the former owner of the dogs involved exonerated Mr. Hartnup and that the charges be dismissed.

Re G. L. Meade, disqualified: Application for trial.

On motion it was resolved, to decline Mr. Meade’s application, he having filed no fee for a hearing.

In the matter of the application of the Vancouver Exhibition Association, the Chair stated that he had telegraphed and written Mr. Belmont’s and Mr. Hunnewell, President and Vice-President of the American Kennel Club, and had sent copies of the correspondence to all the directors of the American Kennel Club, urging that the rule governing the Novice class be amended to include Canadian-bred dogs, and that the matter had been reported to the Rules Committee.
The Chair stated further, that he and the Secretary had secured telegraphic replied from the clubs of the Northern and Central Pacific Coast endorsing such amendment, and that he had telegraphed those endorsements to the American Kennel Club.

It was moved and seconded that this Committee heartily endorse the action of the Chair, and that it is the sense of this Committee that the Novice class should be amended to allow of the competition of Canadian-bred dogs. Carried.

The Secretary read a communication from A. P. Vredenburgh referring to this Committee a letter from Mr. R. M. Palmer, Secretary of the Seattle Kennel Club, to Mr. Robert Guggenheim delegate thereof, complaining of the system of fines levied by the American Kennel Club on clubs guilty of very slight deviations from the rules, and stating that the levying of such fines was a detriment to the progress of dog shows. Mr. Plamer alluded specifically to the case of the Snohomish Co. Kennel Club which he alleged had been fined $25.00 for twenty-five slight irregularities in the catalogue.

Mr. Norman stated that the Snohomish Co. Kennel Club had been fined $12.00 for delay in making return of listing fees but that the letter announcing such fine and containing the check for same was not mailed to A. P. Vredenburgh until May 27th, it having been misdirected through using a wrong rubber stamp.

It was moved and seconded, that it is the sense of this Committee that the enforcement of penalties against clubs is essential to the proper enforcement of the rules and that the Secretary be directed to inform the American Kennel Club promptly of this resolution.

The Secretary then presented the minutes of the semi-annual convention of Pacific Coast clubs which had been held that day.

On motion it was resolved, that the minutes of the convention be spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

ATTEST: J. P. Norman

Secretary
Special Meeting of Pacific Advisory Committee

For Consideration of Membership and License Applications

Held at Monadnock Building, July 2, 1912

PRESENT

W. W. Stettheimer
Nat. T. Messer
Carroll Cook

ABSENT:

J. E. de Ruyter
Norman J. Stewart

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

On motion the meeting of the minutes was postponed to the next meeting.

The Secretary stated that he had received applications for membership from the Vancouver B. C. Exhibition Association and the Pacific Coast Toy Dog Association, and an application from the Salem Kennel Club for a license to hold a show Sept 3, 4, 5, 6, 1912.

It was moved by Mr. Cook that the Vancouver B. S. Exhibition Association be elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

Seconded and carried.

It was moved by Mr. Cook that the Pacific Coast Toy Dog Association of California be elected a member of the American Kennel Club without town of organization, with the privilege of holding shows in accordance with fourth section of rule V. of rules governing clubs.
Seconded and carried.

It was moved by Mr. Cook that the application of the Salem Kennel Club for a license to hold a show at Salem, Oregon, on Sept 3, 4, 5, 6, 1912, be granted.

Seconded and carried.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

ATTEST: J. P Norman,

Secretary
The Secretary: The Golden Gate Kennel Club requests a change of name to that of the California Kennel Club.

Mr. Moore: May I ask how many clubs there are in the State of California now members of the American Kennel Club?

The Secretary: Quite a number, but none of that name.

Mr. Moore: If there are a number of clubs in California members of this club, it seems to me they are asking for a great deal. I know we had a long discussion one afternoon some years ago about the Bay State Club.

The Chairman: I think our present rule is to leave the names of states and sections out.

Mr. Moore: Does that recommendation come through the Pacific Advisory Committee?

The Secretary: Yes. They want to know if there is any objection to it.

Mr. Morse: I move that the application be refused and that an explanation of the reason therefore be sent them, the reason being that we have always avoided giving the name of a state or city.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary: The Salem Kennel Club applied for the return of its license fee of $50.00 for the reason that the State Board of health, owing to the prevalence of rabies, has ordered them to give up their show. I have the order of the Board of Health here.

Mr. Morse: I move that the $50.00 be returned.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The New Hampshire Fair Association, conducted by Mr. Middlebrooke, had appealed from my refusal to grant a license for the reason that they took it upon themselves to issue their premium list and publish my certificate of approval when the same had never been had by them. Further, it never would have been granted because their classification was incorrectly drawn up. They have, however, held their show, and therefore letters pertaining to the show have been turned into this office in proper shape. I understand that they took their classification from a classification of the Clinton show of Massachusetts of two years ago, and which at that time was perfectly proper. Since that time the order of the classification had been changed, and they naturally fell into the error in that way. I put the matter before the Chairman of License Committee, telling him that I withheld this license notwithstanding the fact that I had the unanimous vote of the Committee to grant the license; that I had withheld it on my own responsibility, and he said he was very sorry he could not be here to-day, but he wants to state that in voting to grant the license they left it to me to see that every condition was properly complied with. Otherwise, I was not to issue the license. So it appears, as far as the Committee is concerned, that they backed me up in what I did.

Dr. De Mund: As Chairman of the investigating Committee I have already received a number of letters claiming that the rules were violated there. For instance, one of the exhibitors, after getting winners in a certain breed, went in and judged another breed of dogs. There are several other things that have been brought to my attention and we intend to summon the superintendent of that show before us at our next meeting and investigate the matter. I think this matter might be referred to that Committee.

The Chairman: I think the question here is the ratification of the Secretary’s action.

The Secretary: Would you recognize the show or not?

Mr. Moore: Are we going to take away exhibitors’ wins in such classes as were regular? That matter should be disposed of by punishing any wrong doer.

Dr. De Mund: Some 55 dogs were entered at that how. There are only two absentees marked in the judge's book. I have heard from two or three people who were there that there were not 25 dogs on the ground. It seems to me that the exhibitors should be taught a lesson so that they will be a little more careful at shows they enter and know themselves what is being done. If they enter and know themselves what is being done. If they enter at a show like that they ought to abide by the consequences.

Mr. Smith: Would it not be proper to refer this to the sub-Committee of the Executive Committee for their investigation? If so, I move that it be so referred.

The Secretary: what is the Secretary to do in the meantime?

Dr. De Mund: withhold the points until the Committee reports.

Mr. Moore: I think I can offer a simple solution. If the Chair will appoint a special Committee consisting of three member of the Executive Committee to report directly to us on this particular instance, then it might save time and not have to go through the Executive Committee’s hands. I offer that as an amendment to the motion.

Motion seconded.

Motion as amended, carried.
The Chairman: The Chairman will appoint as that Committee, Dr. De Mund, H. K. Bloodgood and George Greer.

Mr. Moore: I move that action be postponed until the sub-Committee reports.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: At the meeting of this board on May 21st, Mr. George R. Cranfield, who judged at the Sioux Falls, So. Dakota show, transferred a dog wrongly entered and for such act was suspended by resolution of your board. Mr. Cranfield now appeals to this board for reinstatement. The reason that this matter was not brought before the Executive Committee is that the suspension was imposed by the Board of Directors, and I have brought it back to the Board of Directors for them to either confirm or undo what they did at their last meeting.

Dr. De Mund: I move that the suspension of Mr. Cranfield be removed.

Mr. Smith: I second the motion.

Dr. De Mund: The Pacific Advisory Committee have written to this club asking that the suspension of Mr. Cranfield be removed. I think that Mr. Cranfield has learned a lesson and has been thoroughly punished. If the Pacific Advisory Committee wants him reinstated I think we should bow to their wishes.

Mr. Palmer: What cause does the Pacific Advisory Committee give for wishing him reinstated?

The Secretary: The hard work that Mr. Cranfield has performed in times past and the hard work that he performed at this show. I further state for your information that I have a letter from one of the Pacific Advisory Committee in which he states that Mr. Crandfield arrived at this show two nights before the show opened and found that they did not think it was necessary to have a printed catalogue and that he stayed up all night and all the next day to prevent their violation of that rule providing for a printed catalogue. I merely say that in his favor.

Motion carried.

The Secretary: At the Ft. Worth Show in 1907, there were protests filed by two men which were never acted upon notwithstanding the fact that a number of letters were sent to the Ft. Worth management insisting upon action. They never took action and the Trial board disqualified all the officers of that club. A man by the name of Sneed, in a long letter, explains the matter to me, stating that he had no connection whatever with that show other than advertising. The Trial Board tried it and sent out Notices, and this man never receive any notice whatever.

Dr. De Mund: I move that that matter be referred to the Trial Board with power to reopen the case.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I submit a bill for disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee of $42.21. I have a duplicate bill, but I have not the original bill duly audited by their sub-Committee. I recommend that this bill be paid upon receipt of a properly audited bill.

Mr. Hooley: I make a motion to that effect.

Seconded and carried.

On motion, the excuses of Messrs. William Rauch, and A. C. Wilmerding for absence from the Board of Directors meeting held May 21st, were accepted.

On motion, the excuses of Messers, Appleton, Greer, Cutler, Osgood, Barclay, Sawyer, and George Lauder, Jr., for absence at this meeting, were accepted.

The Secretary: I have the report of the Boston Trial Board of two cases. Do you want them read or shall I publish them?

The Secretary was directed to publish them.

Mr. Moore: As Chairman of the Publications Committee, I have been talking to A. P. Vredenburgh about the feasibility of printing the stud book separately, that is, various breeds, if we can receive a sufficient guarantee from the various specialty clubs taking a number of copies, and we intend to solicit advertising matter for these small pamphlets, and get whatever we can toward reimbursing us for the general loss in printing the stud book proper. In other words, there are 400 pages of collies in the stud book. We think for a comparatively small sum we might be able to put those collie pedigrees separately in a smaller book, and it may be that the various specialty clubs would subscribe for them. I think that most specialty clubs would like to have a stud book confined to their own breeds if they could give them to their members at a moderate cost. While the matter is set up in the form it could be done very economically, and I would like to have the consent of the board to take it up with the Secretary and out Committee and act if we see fit. It has got to be done now if at all. We want power to act if the Committee thinks well of it. I move that the Publications Committee take up the question of subdividing the stud book for 1912 in addition to the regular volume with power to act.

Mr. Mortimer: I should think that would entail a great deal of extra expense on the club, to publish a separate copy of each breed in addition to the original stud book. I think it would do away with sales of the regular stud book.

Mr. Moore: If the plan can be worked out it will save money. It may defray the cost of publishing the stud book as a whole. We will not do it unless it is profitable. We will not proceed with the matter unless there is a profit to the club.
The Secretary: For instance, take Airedale terriers, Boston Terriers, and Collies, we charge $5.00 a volume for the stud book in which these breeds are published. After that book is printed, if you take out these three breeds just as they are and bind them in a paper binding, you can sell them for a dollar a volume or even 50 cents a volume. There are a great many men who would not purchase the stud book to get their collie breed because it costs $5.00, but they would pay fifty cents or a dollar to get this separate book. Besides, there would be no objection that I can see to soliciting advertisements for that stud book, and if it would be popular with the Airedale men, the collie men and Boston Terrier men, so that they could see their way clear to guarantee a certain number of purchasers or a certain number of advertisements at moderate prices, it seems to me that instead of being a cost to the American Kennel Club it would be a source of revenue. I have talked this over very carefully with the Publishing Committee, and the members seem to feel the same way.

    The Chairman: I refuse to put that motion as it stands at present. I don’t think we have a right to give the Committee power over the whole surplus of our treasury. If they spent it we would have nobody to blame but ourselves.

    Mr. Moore: I suggest adding to the motion, the cost not to exceed $1,00.00.

    The Chairman: What I mean is that some limit should be put upon it. You cannot give a Committee absolute power on a matter like that.

    The Secretary: you can limit it in this way; the total extra expense not to be over $250. in other words, if the book of 1912 costs us $1,700, this extra matter could cost us $1,950.

    Motion seconded and carried.
Mr. Smith: I have been asked by a prominent breeder of the German Sheep Dog to try to get some sort of a ruling by the American Kennel Club as to how the German Sheep Dog and the Belgian Sheep Dog can be separated. They are being shown together now in all the shows, and according to my informant they are entirely different. That is, the head of the Belgian Sheep Dog is different from that of the German Sheep Dog. It is a smaller dog, and the colors in the Belgian Sheep Dog are practically unknown or might be disqualifications in the German Sheep Dog. They are being taken up quite a little now and breeders are very anxious to separate the German from the Belgian for the benefit of both. He claims it will be advantageous to both breeds if they are separated.

The Chairman: that would go to the stud book Committee.

Mr. Smith: Yes. That was my idea in bringing it up at this meeting.

The Chairman: do you put that in the form of a motion?

Mr. Smith: Yes, I make such motion.

Seconded and carried.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.
Special Meeting of the Executive Committee

          Ralph C. Stewart

The Secretary presented the following letter for the consideration of the Committee.

Sept. 26, 1912

Stewart vs. American Kennel Club

Dear Sirs:--

There is a provision of our law by which a defendant may make a written offer to allow the plaintiff to take judgment for a stated sum, with costs, and if the plaintiff fails to accept the offer within a short time, and at the trial does not succeed in getting a verdict for a larger sum than was offered him, he must pay the costs of the action to the defendant.

It seems to us advisable for the Kennel Club to avail itself of this provision, and to authorize us to make an offer of judgment to the plaintiff for the sum of $1,000 and costs, or even $1,500 and costs.

We are convinced that the plaintiff’s counsel look for a large recovery and will advise Miss Stewart to reject an offer even for $1,500 and costs. Of course, you must take the chance that the offer may be accepted, but we think that quite improbable.

If the Court should fail to sustain us in certain points of law which we shall present, and should submit the case to the jury, there is much probability that Miss Stewart will get a verdict, which we should hope would not exceed $1,500, and in that event, if you had offered that sum, the costs of the action from the time would make a difference of perhaps $100, which in itself may be wroth regarding, and, in addition, it would be a moral victory for the Club if Miss Stewart should recover less than has been offered her in settlement.

If you wish to authorize us to make an offer of judgment, we should be informed at once of that fact, and of the sum to be offered, because the time before the trial is rather short.

Of course, no one can make even a probable conjecture as to what a jury will do. That is said to be beyond even the ken of the Almighty. What we suggest is a measure of precaution, but, as we have intimated, if the offer of settlement should be accepted, of even $1,500 and costs, we should not think it a bad settlement for you.

Yours very truly,

Guggenheim, Untermyer & Marshall

After a full discussion of the subject matter of the above communication the Committee directed the Secretary to forward the following letter in reply.

Mr. A. Benedict

Dear Sir:

I beg to advise you that I presented your letter of the 26th ult. Re Stewart vs. American Kennel Club in which you deem it advisable for the American Kennel Club to avail itself of the provision of law which you quote and to authorize you to make an offer of judgment to the plaintiff for a sum not to exceed $1,500 and costs.

The meeting was attended by Messrs. August Belmont, H. H. Hunnewell, H. K. Bloodgood, W. G. Rockefeller, John E. DeMund, Dwight Moore, and Ralph C. Stewart. These gentlemen discussed your proposition very fully and arrived at the conclusion that we prefer fighting the case to a finish and would not offer any settlement whatever.

Yours truly,

The Secretary read his Executive Committee report. It is as follows:

NY, December 16, 1912

To the Executive Committee
Of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

The Special Committee appointed by your Committee at its meeting held August 20, 1912, will submit its report at this meeting and ask to be continued in order to complete its work on several matters that are still under consideration.

At the meeting of the Directors, held December 1909, the following officers of the Tri State Fair and Exposition, at Memphis, Tenn., were disqualified for holding a show without the sanction of the American Kennel Club, although the Premium List published the American Kennel Club copyrighted rules, and also a certificate of approval, with the Secretary's name attached, said certificate of approval never having been issued by the Secretary:--- D. M. Armstrong, C. E.

These gentlemen now appeal for reinstatement for the reason that the Tri State Fair and Exposition sold the privilege of the dog show to J. M. Avent and replied upon him to conduct the show properly and in accordance with the American Kennel Club regulations. They had no knowledge that the publication of the Rules and the certificate of approval were not proper, and that the show was not held by sanction of the American Kennel Club.

For the reason above-noted and adding that fact that the gentlemen named have been under suspension for three years, I would respectfully recommend that the appeal be granted and that the names above-noted be stricken from our list of persons not in good standing.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

The Secretary submitted the report of the Investigating Committee. It is as follows:

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:--

At the regular meeting of the Executive Committee held August 20th, 1912, the Secretary in his report recommended that a Special Committee of three from the Executive Committee be appointed with power to investigate and inquire into the organization of the Ladies Kennel Association of New Jersey, the conduct of its show held at Atlantic City, August 2nd, 1912, and also into the conduct of the judges and exhibitors at said show.

Agreeable to that recommendation your Committee appointed an Investigation Committee of three composed of Dr. De Mund, George Greer and H. K. Bloodgood, which Committee was vested with the powers of the Executive Committee for the purpose of investigating all matters pertaining to the Ladies Kennel Association of New Jersey, and the show held by that Club and to report its recommendations thereon, also such other matters pertaining to dog shows that they may deem proper and to bring in such recommendations for the future conduct of shows as they may find necessary.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors held September 17\textsuperscript{th}, it was resolved that the action of the Executive Committee in appointing a sub Committee to investigate the organization known as the Ladies Kennel Association of New Jersey and the conduct of the show held August 2, 1912, was duly ratified.

Pursuant to the above resolution your Committee held three sessions, September 5\textsuperscript{th}, 16\textsuperscript{th} and 25\textsuperscript{th}, at which time the official stenographer was in attendance and furnished 252 folios testimony, which has been carefully considered and discussed at various meetings held subsequent to September 25\textsuperscript{th}.
The stenographer report covers the testimony of fourteen persons who appeared personally before your Committee. Subsequent to that time twelve persons have been summoned to appear and nine persons have responded personally.

The scope of the investigation had been wide spread and the result of the investigation is summed up on the following recommendations. These recommendations have been carefully considered by your Committee and it is its earnest wish that its efforts in furthering the proper conduct of shows held under license or by membership, the conduct of judges, officials, and exhibitors of the betterment of the general kennel world, will be confirmed by your body and the amendments proposed shall be adopted and become operative.

We find that the Ladies Kennel Association of New Jersey was not a regularly organized association. Nineteen names of ladies holding office were published on the official letter paper of the association. Questions were mailed to each person so named. Sixteen replied were received, eight of which testified that they were not members. Seven acknowledged membership; one returned a blank. All testified that no dues had been paid nor had same been requested, and fifteen testified that they had never attended an meeting of said association nor had they received any noticed of any meeting. The lady advertised as Vice-president testified that she was not a member and her name had been used against her instruction to the contrary.

Notwithstanding the fact that no meeting had been held, yet a constitution and by-laws were alleged to have been adopted, and a copy of same filed with the American Kennel Club with the application for a license. The show was conducted in loose, happy-go-lucky way, and American Kennel Club rules were violated by officers, superintendent and exhibitors. One award was determined by two judges tossing a coin.

One entry form was changed the day after the closing of the show, marking the dog “for exhibition only”, for the purpose of deceit, and the perpetration of a fraudulent act. This act was done by the consent and connivance of the owner (who was a judge at said show), the superintendent and the handler of the dog.

Dogs were entered and competed that the rules declared ineligible. Taken as a whole the show was conducted in a most undignified manner, and tended to place the American Kennel Club in a most unenviable position.

In consideration of the above your Committee respectfully recommends:
1st. That Miss Lida R. Patton who was the alleged Secretary of the association, and the promoter of the Atlantic City show, be suspended for the term of sixty days.

2nd. That George F. Foley who acted as Superintendent of said show and who permitted the alternation of the entry form above referred to, be censured and warned against similar conduct at any future shows that may engage him in any official position. Mr. Foley’s offense is mitigated by his confession to this Committee.

3rd. That Mrs. M. Thorpe and B. F. Lewis, Jr., the judges who decided an award by the toss of a coin, be severely censured and warned against the like occurrence. The proper plan to pursue when two judges cannot agree is to call a referee.

4th. That M. R. Guggenheim, the owner and A. Delmont the handler of the dog whose entry form was changed after the close of the show, be disciplined as follows: Mr. Guggenheim be removed as a delegate to the American Kennel Club and Mr. Delmont warned against a second offense. The fact that Demont confessed his guilt and further appeared before your Committee at personal discomfort and expense, by leaving his dogs at the Toronto Show in care of another, and traveling to New York and return to Toronto, in order to obey the command of your Committee, is considered in a measure as a mitigation, hence the warning.

5th. The offense of Mr. Delmont and Mr. Foley are mitigated by the fact that they acted under the advice of a former official of the American Kennel Club, who interfered in an unwarranted manner with the show and show officials.

6th. That B. F. Lewis be censured for showing dogs a agent at a show at which his son was a judge, said son being an employee in the kennel at which such dogs were boarded.

In taking up other general matters in accordance with the scope granted by the resolution of August 20, 1912, your Committee finds that “Unclassified Specials” at the different shows held under American Kennel Club Rules, occasion more dissatisfaction than any other matter in connection with shows. In many cases they are farcical, meaningless, and give a false value. At many of the one day shows they are judged after eligible dogs have been removed from the show, and in many cases inferior dogs were given the award by reason of the better dogs having been removed, this receiving a false value. It is the opinion of your Committee that Unclassified Specials should be abolished and forbidden.
Your Committee has given the subject of licensing judge, superintendents, and professional handlers careful consideration and have arrived at a conclusion in favor of such an amendment, which has been confirmed in favor of such an amendment, which has been confirmed by several officials in each of these departments. It is recommended that the matter be referred to the License Committee to propose a plan of license, with conditions governing same and present same to the Rules Committee with instructions to propose the necessary amendment to cover the subject. It especially recommends that in said propose amendment, that a clause be inserted prohibiting professional handlers from judging at any show.

While on the subject of judges your Committee strongly condemns the practice of persons applying to clubs for appointment as a judge, and urgently request clubs and Committees to inform the American Kennel Club of such an application and to file with the American Kennel Club any letters they may receive from persons soliciting such appointment.

We find that during the year 1911, there were fifty-eight Champion Certificates issued, and up to November 1, 1912, two hundred and three Champion Certificates were issued. Under the present system the title of Champion fails to convey what such a title is intended to mean, and measures should be taken promptly to enhance the value of the title of Champion.
The Westminster Kennel Club show, the leading show of this country, and in the number of actual dogs entered probably the leading show of the world embraced its classification 638 classes for all breeds, with 1929 dogs entered. Albany 841 classes, 330 dogs. Cleveland, 834 classes; 447 dogs. Columbus, 597 classes; 302 dogs. Chicago, 815 classes; 380 dogs. Lynn, 656 classes; 299 dogs. Indianapolis, 507 classes; 131 dogs. Wilmington, 952 classes; 271 dogs. Atlantic City, 953 classes; 361 dogs.

Eliminating the Westminster Kennel Club Show we find an average of one dog to every 2-1/5 classes. Several clubs having appreciated the fact the prevailing customs of providing such enormous classification, were going so at the expense of the American Kennel Club and the cheapening of Championship honors, have voluntarily out down their previous classification.

Prompt action should be taken to remedy this evil and we therefore recommend that the License Committee be given authority and power to arbitrarily designate such breeds as may have Winners Classes divided by sex, such breeds as may have mixed Winners Classes, and such breeds that shall not be entitled to any Winners class, until such time as the number of dogs exhibited shall demonstrate that they shall be logically entitled to same.
A general warning is hereby given to Dog Show Committees, and superintendents of shows that the rules of the American Kennel Club were made to be obeyed, and that it is the intention of the American Kennel Club to rigidly enforce the observance of all rules, by severe penalties, more particularly in regard to the duties imposed upon Veterinary Surgeon; the proper arrangement for providing fresh drinking water, especially at open air shows, and the better care of dogs sent to shows and returned from shows by express.

Your Committee advises that the License Committee should recommend rules and refer same to the Rules Committee for the better protection of the American Kennel Club and exhibitors in the matter of granting licenses to non-members, and would suggest that in addition to the names of the officers now required, that a full list of the members and their addresses, that an affidavit of the list of members and that the vote to apply for a license was taken at a regular meeting at which a quorum was present, be filed with the American Kennel Club as a part of the application for a license.

Referring to a certain article appearing in the English paper “Our Dogs” over the signature of H. W. Lacy in reference to Thomas Grisdale as judge at the late Mineola show, your Committee interviewed both parties, and find that there was absolutely no attack made upon the honesty or integrity of Grisdale as a judge and that Grisdale has no cause of complaint.

An unwarranted attack published in “international Dogs” against proposed judges at the Lenox show, and an attempt to injure the Lenox Club, was fully considered by your Committee, and the Editor of said paper was directed to appear before the Committee, which he filed to do, therefore your Committee recommends that F. T. Carlton be suspended and the case referred to the New York Trial Board for such action as may appear to be proper.

Your Committee has already referred one case to the New York Trial Board and one case to the Philadelphia Trial Board, while several matters are still pending that it will recommend to refer to Trial Boards.

Your Committee is of the opinion that it would be well to continue an Investigating Committee as a permanent Committee, to be composed of three members of the Executive Committee.

The thanks of the Committee are due to F. J. Skinner of Field & Fancy and H. W. Lacy, of American Stockkeeper for valuable information and suggestions in regard to the show.
Mr. Willets: I move that the report be approved, read to the delegates and referred to the Board of Directors for action.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I also submit a supplemental report by the same Committee. It is as follows:

New York, Dec. 16, 1912

To the Executive Committee
Of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:--

Your Committee in investigating the complaint made about a letter written by Mr. E. K. Austin, wrote to Mr. Austin on October 24th, requesting him to appear before the Committee to answer certain questions.

On October 26th he replied that it would be impossible for him to be at the meeting but gave no reasons. On October 31st they summoned him to appear before them on November 8th. In reply he stated that his business was such that he could not obtain the necessary time to attend a meeting, but was quite willing to answer any questions that we might desire to put to him. On November 20th, the Committee required him to answer four questions. Since that time nothing has been heard from Mr. Austin. We therefore recommend that Mr. Austin be suspended and his case referred to the Trial Board for further action.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. De Mund

Chairman, Inves. Committee

On motion the same was approved, order read to the delegates at the quarterly meeting and referred to the Board of Directors for action.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The following named clubs were duly elected to membership.
Fort Orange Poultry Kennel and Pet Stock Association
Islip Kennel Club
Lenox Dog Show Association
Rumson Kennel Club

The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs as delegates:

- Brunswick Foxhound Club: A. V. Huyler
- Delaware Valley Kennel Club: John H. Blackwood
- Islip Kennel Club: George A. Ellis, Jr.,
- Lenox Dog Show Association: Henry Hollister Pease
- Philadelphia Bulldog Club: Joseph A. Buchanan
- Rumson Kennel Club: G. Foster Rawlins
- Western French Bulldog Club: John N. Champion

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, Dec. 16, 1912

To the Delegates of the
American Kennel Club
Gentleman:--

Pursuant to Article X, Section IV, of the By-laws, the Membership Committee have nominated William G. Rockefeller, Dwight Moore, and B. S. Smith as Associate Delegates for 1913, and under Article X, Section V, they suggest as a Nominating Committee to nominate Directors to fill the vacancies in the Board of Directors at the annual meeting to be held in Feb, 1913, to wit. A. D. Gillette, E. H. Berendsohn, J. F. Collins, M. M. Palmer and J. Macy Willets.

The Membership Committee have approved of the following applicants for Active Membership, Ft. Orange Poultry, Kennel & Pet Stock Association, Islip Kennel Club, Lenox Dog Show Association, and Rumson Kennel Club.

This Committee also approves of the following delegates to represent active clubs: A. V. Huyler, from the Brunswick Foxhound Club; John H. Blackwood from the Delaware Valley Kennel Club; George A. Ellis, Jr., from the Islip Kennel Club; Henry Hollister Pease from the Lenox Dog Show Association; Jos. A. Buchanan from the Philadelphia Bulldog Club; G. Foster Rawlins from the Rumson Kennel Club, and John N. Champion from the Western French Bulldog Club.

I also beg to report the resignation from membership of the Monmouth County Kennel Club. This club is in good standing and I recommend the acceptance of its resignation.

Respecting submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Rules Committee was read, and it as follows:

New York, Dec. 16, 1912
To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club,
Gentlemen:--

The Rules Committee begs to report that the matters referred to it since the last meeting are now under consideration and that your Committee can only report progress, deferring full report until the annual meeting in Feb next.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. De Mund
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted.
The report of the License Committee was read and is as follows:--

New York, Dec 16, 1912
To the Board of Directors
Of the American Kennel Club.
Gentlemen:--

The License Committee begs to report that since the last quarterly meeting it has granted licenses to the following clubs:  Kennel Club of Philadelphia, El Paso Kennel

There are no applications for licenses now pending.

Respectfully submitted,

George Greer

On motion the same was accepted.

The report of the Publication Committee was read and is as follows:--

Mr. Chairman:--

The Publication Committee has recently held four meetings to arrange for publishing the 1912 Stud Book. Your Secretary has been requested to obtain sealed proposals which will be acted upon when received at the close of this month.

Respectfully submitted,

Dwight Moore

On motion the same was accepted.

The Secretary: The Membership Committee recommends the appointment of the following Nominating Committee and for directors for 1913.

It was moved and seconded that the gentlemen named above be elected.
The Secretary: The Membership Committee have nominated Associate Delegates as follows:

W. G. Rockefeller, Dwight Moore and B. S. Smith.

On motion the above named gentlemen were elected.

On motion the resignation of the Monmouth County Kennel Club was accepted.

The Secretary: I was directed by the Executive Committee to read for the information of the delegates the report of the Investigating Committee that was appointed in August last.

The report referred to was then read.

The supplemental report of the Investigating Committee was also read.

Mr. B. S. Smith: I would like to ask why if this man is suspended they refer the case to the Trial Board.

The Chairman: They recommend his suspension.

That is to be ratified by the Directors.

Mr. B. S. Smith: Why do they refer to the Trial Board? It will be left to the Directors, and if they suspend him why should it be left to the Trial Board?

Dr. De Mund: I might reply to Mr. Smith that the Board of Directors have only the power to suspend for sixty days. Then the person suspended must come up for trial before that time elapses. We cannot suspend anybody indefinitely without giving him a chance to be heard.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read his report which is as follows:

New York, Dec. 16, 1912

To the Board of Directors
Of the American Kennel Club
Gentlemen: --

I beg to report the receipt of minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of its meeting held Sept 5, 1912 and Sept 28, 1912.

Also report of a Special Committee, appointed by the Board of Directors, in the matter of the late New Hampshire Fair Association Show. Mrs. Emeline L. Green, an exhibitor at the late New Hampshire Fair Association Show, also acted as judge at said show, and this office has imposed the penalty of $25.00 as provided for in the Rules. Mrs. Freen expressed her sorrow that she acted as judge in violation of our rules and says that it was due to ignore-ance on her part to the existence of such a R. That Mr. Middlebrooke, the superintendent, knew the rules better than she did and it was at his request that she acted, and asks that the penalty be remitted.

I will submit the correspondence between President Belmont and Mr. Javier de Beranger, the Vice President of the National Kennel Club of Spain.

The Special Committee appointed to confer with the English Kennel Club on the subject of reciprocity between our two clubs have reached a conclusion mutually satisfactory and will report the terms of reciprocity at this meeting and would ask that the same be confirmed, so that the agreement can go into effect on January 1st, 1913.

A duplicate bill for disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee from Sept 20, 1912 to Dec. 5, 1912, has been presented, amounting to $26.78 I would respectfully recommend the payment of same on receipt of the original bill duly audited by the Sub-Committee appointed for that purpose.

The following directors have filed excuses for absence from the meetings of this board: William Rauch, absent Sept 17, 1912. August Belmont, Samuel R. Cutler, W. H. Sawyer, Dwight Moore, Edward Brooks, Dr. F. H. Osgood, absence from this meeting.
At the show of the La Crosse Kennel Club held Sept 24th to 27th, 1912, the judge, Dr. Charles A. White, of Chicago, Ill., transferred a dog from the Poodle class to the class for Toy Poodles, which is violation of the rules.

In a letter from the Secretary of the La Crosse Club, Mr. Harry Dell, under date of Oct 17th, 1912, he states: “I asked him (Dr. White) at the time he has discretionary power to transfer this dog and he replied that he had. This being the facts of the matter, the officers of the Club are a unit in considering an imposition of a fine on the Club as decidedly unjust.”

In a letter from this office to Dr. White, under date of Nov 7th, we beg to quote the following: “We wrote you a letter on Oct 21st as follows: “At the La Crosse Show held Sept 24th to 27th, 1912, you transferred a dog entered in the Poodle class other than Toy, to the Toy Poodle class. This is against the Rules of the American Kennel Club and we will be glad if you will inform us if there is any reason why action should not be taken in the matter.” To which we have never received any reply from Dr. White.

I therefore beg to direct your attention to a precedent by which a judge was indefinitely suspended for a similar act.

The Western Kennel Association held a show under License Oct 2\textsuperscript{nd}, to 5\textsuperscript{th}, 1912. The marked catalogue was received by this office Oct 15\textsuperscript{th}, 1912. the judges’ books and listing sheets and the listing fees have never been received by us.

Letter on this subject were written to the President under date of Oct 29\textsuperscript{th}, and the Secretary under date of Oct 17\textsuperscript{th}, and the Treasurer under date of Nov 11\textsuperscript{th}.

Under date of Nov 14\textsuperscript{th}, we received a letter from the Treasurer that the Secretary had told him some days ago that he had forwarded us the listing and judges’ books immediately after the show was held and further he will take the matter up with him against and try to find out where the difficulty arises.

Under date of Nov 16\textsuperscript{th}, the President writes that he saw their Secretary and had his promise that he would answer and attend to the matter at once, and further says: “It is evident there is something wrong with out Secretary’s doings and the club wants to know absolutely what it is and where the mistake is.”

This letter was answered by us on Nov 19\textsuperscript{th}, to which no reply has ever been received this club undoubtedly collection the listing fees which belong to the American Kennel Club, and up to date we have failed to receive any of said fees.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read and is as follows:

New York, Dec 16, 1912

To the Board of Directors
Of the American Kennel Club
Gentlemen:--

I beg to submit the quarterly financial report from Jan 1st, 1912, to date.

Balance on hand, Jan 1st, 1912 ------------------------  $22,963.91
Receipts to date -------------------------------------------     26,030.88
Total ------------      48,994.79
Disbursements from Jan 1st, 1912, to date --------      25,293.60
Balance on hand -----      23,701.19

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary: I submit the minutes of two meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

On motion said minutes were ordered spread on the minutes of this meeting. There are as follows:

Special Meeting of Pacific Advisory Committee
Held at Monadnock Building, San Francisco
Sept 5th, 1912

Absent: Carroll Cook

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

On motion, the minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read.

The Secretary presented a communication from the Salem Kennel Club, requesting the return of all fees, as by action of the State Board of Health of Oregon, said club was unable to hold its show on Sept 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th.

On motion, it was resolved, to recommend to the American Kennel Club the return of all fees as requested.

In the matter of the resignation of the Southwestern Kennel Club from membership in the American Kennel Club, said club being in good standing, it was moved and seconded, that the resignation be accepted. Carried.

On motion, the application for membership of the Ladies Kennel Association of Southern California with headquarters at Los Angeles, was approved.

On motion, the application for membership of the Pacific Boston Terrier Club was approved.

It was moved and seconded that a penalty of $25.00 be assessed against the Ladies Kennel Association of California, for having omitted in their Premium List the publication of the rules governing clubs adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee, Oct 21st, 1911. Carried.

On motion, the date of the next regular meeting was set for Saturday, Sept 28th, at 1L30 PM in room 712, Clunie Building, San Francisco.

There being no further business, the meeting than adjourned.

Attest: J. P. Norman,
Secretary
Meeting of Pacific Advisory Committee
Held at Clunie Building, San Francisco
Sept 28, 1912

Present: W. W. Stettheimer, J. E. de Ruyter, Norman J. Stewart.
Absent: Nat T. Messer, Carroll Cook

W. W. Stettheimer in the Chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
The Secretary read his report as follows:

Sept 28, 1912

Pacific Advisory Committee,

Gentlemen:--

The papers in re James Elliott, disqualified: Petition for trial and reinstatement, and re Dr. De Mund. Alan W. Smith vs. Dr A. C. Johnson: Charge of misconduct are before you.

In reference to the application of the Golden Gate Kennel Club for change of name to California Kennel Club. The Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club to whom the application was referred have voted against it, on the ground that to grant the name would be an injustice to the other Kennel Clubs in the State.
The recommendation of this Committee to return the fees of the Salem Kennel Club was acted upon favorably by the Board of Directors.

I beg to submit a letter from a member of the Committee and an application for membership from the Northwestern Boston Terrier Club of Seattle, Wash.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman, Secretary

On motion, the Secretary’s report was approved.

In re James W. Elliott disqualified; petition for trial and reinstatement. After trial had, in which the petitioner appeared before the Committee, and duly examined.

It was moved and seconded that this Committee cancel the disqualification of Mr. Elliott and reinstate him to good standing on the ground that the punishment of one and a half years disqualification was sufficient discipline for the offense committed, as reported by the Seattle Kennel Club, whose Secretary and members have since suggested and recommended such action in his favor. Carried.

In re Dr Alan Welch Smith vs. Dr. A. C. Johnson; charge of misconduct; After trial had, it was moved and seconded that the charge be dismissed and Dr. Johnson exonerated. Carried.
On motion, the application of the Northwestern Boston Terrier Club for Membership in the American Kennel Club, was denied, until accompanied by the approval of the Pacific Coast Boston Terrier Club.

On motion, the application of the Golden Gate Kennel Club for change of name to California Kennel Club was denied in accordance with the ruling of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club.

It was moved and seconded that the application of the Senoma County Kennel Club for membership in the American Kennel Club be granted. Carried.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Attest: J. P. Norman

Secretary
The report of the Special Committee appointed by the Board of Directors to act in the matter of the New Hampshire Fair Association was read and is as follows:

New York, October 31, 1912

To the Board of Directors
Of the American Kennel Club
Gentlemen:--

The Special Committee, appointed by the Board of Directors at its meeting held September 17, 1912, to act in the matter of the New Hampshire Fair Association respectfully reports as follows: --

First:-- It affirms the action of the Secretary in holding up the license for said show and as the superintendent, Mr. Tom B. Middlebrooke, published the Premium List of the show with the certificate of approval of the Secretary, which had not been granted, not would not, on account of the glaring errors and omissions in said Premium List, it has preferred formal charges against said Middlebrooke before the New York Trial Board.

Second:-- That as the classification had not been approved by the Secretary, it has decided that no American Kennel Club Show was held, therefore no rating can be recognized at the above show.
Third:-- It has also preferred charges before the same Board against Mrs. Emeline Green for violation of the rule which prohibits an exhibitor at a show from acting as judge at the same show.

It recommends the forfeiture of the $25.00 date deposit, and the return of the $15.00 license fee and $10.00 Secretary’s deposit.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. De Mund

It was moved and seconded that said report be accepted and that the recommendations therein contained be adopted.

Carried.
The Secretary: This Mrs. Green referred to in this report asks that the fine be remitted. She said she was ignorant of the fact that there was such a rule; that the superintendent of the show evidently was posted but it was at his solicitation that she acted, and she says not that she has learned such a lesion that she will know better in the future.

Dr. De Mund: I move that the fine be remitted in this case.

Motion seconded.

Dr. De Mund: The Investigation Committee sent the case to the Trial Board. The only charge against Mrs. Green was judging at a show where she had no right to judge. Mrs. Green has explained the matter to us, and out Committee in considering it, found that she was one who was not familiar with the methods of dog shows, and that she only judged at the solicitation of Mr. Middlebrooke, and I think that the mere imposition of the fine will do as much good as if collected.

Motion carried.

The Secretary: I have quite some correspondence from the Vice President of the Spanish Kennel Club and our President, Mr. Belmont. The Spanish Club desires to affiliate with the American Kennel Club.
Mr. Mortimer: Is there a Kennel Club in Spain?

The Secretary: I should imagine so from this correspondence.

Mr. Mortimer: You never heard of any?

The Secretary: Yes, I have heard of it. Mr. Goldenberg said he knew all about it. He said there was a National Kennel Club there, and he brought over some papers from the President of the club, a Count, but the papers were lost when the Titanic went down. Evidently he has communicated with him and they would like to have somebody in this country represent them.

The Chairman: they have been officially recognized by the Kennel Club of England.

Mr. Willets: I move that the Secretary be instructed to take up the matter with the Spanish Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I submit the bill of disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee and recommend its payment as soon as a properly audited bill comes to hand.

The Chairman: if there is no objection the bill will be ordered paid.
The Secretary: The next subject in order is the matter of the La Crosse Show, where a judge transferred a dog in direct violation of our rules. We have a statement from the Secretary of that club that he had asked this judge if he had discretionary power and the judge replied that he had, and therefore transferred the dog. We cannot get any reply whatever from the judge notwithstanding the fact that we wrote him and then sent a letter to him under cover of the Secretary of the La Crosse Club, who states that he forwarded it to his proper address.

Mr. Mortimer: Did you send a registered letter?

The Secretary: no.

Mr. Mortimer: It may be that he be suspended and that the matter be referred to the Trial Board.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Stewart: I move that he be suspended and that the matter be referred to Trial Board.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Mortimer: I think some further effort should be made to notify this judge by sending to his address a registered letter.

Dr. De Mund: the judge transferred the dog. There mere fact that he had not replied to our letter does Not enter into the question. We have already disciplined one judge for a similar offense, and in view of that fact I think we should follow the same course in this case.

Mr. Van Schaick: I think this man ought to have the benefit of a registered letter. He may have thought he was acting within his rights when he transferred this dog.

Dr. De Mund: It does not seem to me that this is anything against the judge himself. He is not put on his defense now. This is a case where a judge wrongfully transferred a dog, and he is suspended until such time as it can be determined what further punishment should be meted out to him.

The Secretary: That is demonstrated in the catalogue and also in the form of the entry blank which we have.

Mr. Mortimer: Your charge as preferred there seems to make the judge the principal defendant. That is the important feature in that particular case, and if I am not now out of order I move as an amendment that the Secretary be instructed to send the judge in question a registered letter informing him of the charges.

Seconded by Mr. Chetwood Smith.
Dr. De Mund: I am opposed to that amendment because at the present time it is not a question of the judge; it is a question of fact that he transferred a dog in violation of our rules. If we are going to try him he ought to be given an opportunity to defend himself, but there is no question that he violated the rules.

The Secretary: The President of the Vice President, on the evidence before us, has the right to suspend that man without any action by this Board.

Mr. Hooley: Is he under sixty days suspension now?

The Secretary: No.

Mr. Hooley: As the matter stands now there is nothing against him?

The Chairman: No. Our precedent is that if a rule is broken the offender is suspended because that rule is so violated, and he must show why he did it.

Mr. Hooley: In other cases we have not notified the offender by registered mail or in any other way?

The Secretary: No.

Mr. Hooley: then why notify this man?

Mr. Mortimer: I understand that this man is under suspension now?
The Secretary: No, he is not.

Mr. Mortimer: Why should he not be given a change to make an explanation to this club?

The Secretary: There is no necessity whatever to notify any judge when we have the absolute proof that he violated a rule. The President, or in his absence, the Vice President has the right to suspend that man. Then he has the opportunity to come and show cause why that suspension should be removed. That has always been our custom. Where a rule has been violated we can act and then give the respondent the opportunity to show cause why he should be reinstated.

Mr. Mortimer: It appears to me like holding a man guilty without proof.

The Chairman: No, not in this particular case.

Mr. Mortimer: The rule as it is now is a little bit strict. As I understand this, the entry was made of a Poodle, and it was transferred from the Toy Poodle Class into the Poodle Class. That is to say, the judge when this dog was brought in, saw that it had no right in this class and therefore he transferred the dog to the class he should have been entered in. It is very possible that the judge thought that he was going perfectly right, that he had that power, and therefore I would be willing to make some excuse for him and give him an opportunity of sending in an explanation of the reason he did so. In that way we get his explanation before we proceed to suspend him.

Dr. De Mund: The Investigating Committee in its investigations came across not just such a case, but similar cases where the rules were violated and the excuse given, ho, it is always done; we took up on judge very sharply on this matter. In this case the fine is automatically imposed on the club because it wrongfully transferred a dog. The club afterward came back and said that they did not do it but that the judge did it against their wishes. We suspended one man for three months for that same offense. Now I do not see how we can go back and let another man off, because they will come back with the same excuse.

Mr. Mortimer: I had not intention of letting the judge off, as the doctor says. I simply wanted him to have an opportunity to make an explanation of the reason he violated this rule.

Mr. Van Schiack: Yes, especially in a case where a man might possibly have been acting in good faith.

Mr. Bloodgood: When a man judges at a show he should understand the American Kennel Club rules to a certain extent. As I understand it this man violated our rules. The only excuse that he can give so far as I have heard is that he had no knowledge of that rule. He is hardly excusable for that. Of course, he may be a new comer, but if we are going to violate our precedents and do one thing to one man and not to another we are liable to be criticized for our inconsistency.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I withdraw my second to the amendment.

Mr. Van Schaick: I will second the amendment. I have been a delegate and have been judging for 19 years and I did not know it was wrong to do that. If a dog was entered in the wrong class and it was evidently done through the ignorance of the exhibitor I think it is only right and proper that he should be given the privilege of showing in another class.

The Secretary: There are two rules on that subject. One is that the exhibitor must abide by the consequence of his own mistake, and the other is that a judge cannot transfer a dog from one class to another.

Mr. Maclay: Is it necessary to suspend this gentleman before his case is referred to the Trial Board?

The Chairman: It is not necessary. It is only a matter of precedent.

Mr. Maclay: What is the object of suspending him and referring his case to the Trial Board?

The Chairman: We have always done that in cases of this kind.

Dr. De Mund: The rules provide that no one can be disciplined permanently without a trial. We have power under the rules to suspend. This was a plain infraction of the rule, and the original motion was made to suspend him and refer the matter to the Trial Board. That gives him the right to appear and defend himself. Suspension is not a punishment; it is not like a disqualification. We have done this same thing before, and as Mr. Bloodgood said, if we change now and make fish of one and flesh of another, it will look very strange on our part.

Mr. Mortimer: The Secretary has already communicated twice with this man, or three letters have been written to him that were not registered, and we do not know whether he has received them or not. What is the objection to sending a registered letter to this judge asking him for an explanation. Then you will know that he has received your letter when you see his signature.
Mr. Hooley: What is the idea of sending any letters?

The Secretary: As a matter of courtesy, that is all.

Mr. Hooley: It would not be any more a matter of courtesy if the letter had been registered. There is no reason why the letter should have been sent.

The Secretary: No, not at all.

The Chairman: Instead of wasting any more time in discussing this matter why not refer the matter directly to the trial board.

The question was then put on the amendment and lost.

The original motion that the judge be suspended and that the matter be referred to the Trial Board was carried.

The Secretary: The next matter is that of the Western Kennel Association. We have not been able to obtain the judges’ book, the listing sheets or listing fees of their show held October 2nd to 5th, 1912. Letters have been sent to the president, the Secretary and the Treasurer/ We have replies from the President and the Treasurer, but no reply from the Secretary.
Mr. Chetwood Smith: I move that the matter be referred to the Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion, the meeting went into Committee of the whole.

Mr. Hunnewell resigned the Chair to Mr. Bloodgood.

On motion, the Committee of the whole arose.

Mr. Hunnewell: The Committee of the whole reports that they have accepted the recommendations of the Special Committee.

On motion, the excuse for absence from meetings of this Board from William Rauch, Samuel R. Cutler, W. H. Sawyer, Dwight Moore, Edward Brooks and Dr F. H. Osgood, were accepted.

The Secretary: Now I call your attention to the report of the Investigating Committee which was read to the Executive Committee and by it directed to be read for the information of the delegates and referred to this Board for action with approval.

Mr. Stewart: I move that the report be accepted and the recommendations therein contained adopted.
Mr. Mortimer: I would like to ask the object of licensing judges, superintendents, &c.

Dr. De Mund: The proposal there is a recommendation. To carry that out it will have to be referred to the Rules Committee and printed in the Gazette and brought before the delegates where full discussion can be had and where reasons can be furnished. The adoption of this merely reasons can be furnished. The adoption of this merely adopts the report. It does not carry into effect any of the provisions for licensing judges of anything else. That is all provided for, so I think the proper time to discuss that would be when the matter is properly before us. The idea was not to examine any man as to his qualifications for judging a dog, of his knowledge of any breed of dog; it was merely to issue a license to proper people; not to go into the knowledge of the points of this dog or of that dog, but simply to go into their general fitness to act as judges.

The Chairman: You understand there are some things here that will take the ordinary routine course, and others will go to the Trial Board.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: Does the doing away with unclassified specials become operative?

The Chairman: No. That will have to go before the Rules Committee.
Mr. Smith: the Secretary stated that certain parts of that report became operative at once.

The Secretary: They recommend that certain person be suspended for sixty days.

Dr. De Mund: There is absolutely no part of that report which refers in any way to a change of rule or that can become operative.

Mr. Mortimer: You cannot have any more power than you already got. You have the power of suspension and I do not see the object in licensing them.

Mr. Bloodgood: There seems to be a good many other people. In regard to all these matters you say we did not get any communication from the Westminster Kennel Club, but I am inclined to believe that when the matter is thrashed out the Westminster Club will agree with the rest of us. Nobody has been consulted. We had suggestions sent to us.

The Chairman: As I understand, these are suggestions made by your Committee of suggestions made to you?

Mr. Bloodgood: yes. We were not consulting others. We have had any quantity of suggestions sent to us and we have gone over them and acted on what we thought were good suggestions. We may be absolutely wrong. The delegates may think we are wrong. If they are wrong they will not be carried out. We have simply done what we though best to do.

Mr. Mortimer: I claim in doing away with unclassified specials you are eliminating one of the most important features of the show, a feature which is more attractive than an other one thing.

Dr. De Mund: You have adopted one recommendation that will have to follow a little different course than the other. The Committee recommended that Mr. Guggenheim be removed as a delegate. To do that the Board of Directors must suspend Mr. Guggenheim and refer the matter to the Committee for trial. In order to comply with out constitution and by-laws I move that such action be taken.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I move that hereafter when notices are sent out to judges calling attention to violations of the rules by them, that such notification be by registered mail.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary was authorized to procure a copy of the Stud Books of the American Field.

Mr. Hooley offered the following resolution:

That the Committee on Constitution and rules be requested to take into consideration the advisability of redistricting the country for rating in winners classes and granting concessions where advisable upon the same principle as has built up shows and kennel interests under the ratings granted the Pacific Coast and far west states.

On motion, the same was referred to the Rules Committee.

Mr. Hooley also offered the following resolution:

That the Stud Book Committee be requested to consider the question of a revision of nomenclature of the breeds now recognized, where there is any difference from that in use by the English Kennel Club, more particularly with regard to the advisability of substituting the term miniature in place of the word toy to define a limit for what shall be placed in that division by weight.

On motion, the same was referred to the Stud Book Committee.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.
Notice to Directors

Dear Sirs:--

A special meeting of the Boarding of Directors is hereby called to be held at the American Kennel Club office, on Friday, Jan 17, 1913, at 3pm.

The object of this meeting is to discuss the libel suit just decided in favor of Miss Stewart, and to confer with our attorneys on the subject. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

Respectfully,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
Special Meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club Held at its offices, No. 1 Liberty Street, NYC, On Friday, Jan. 17, 1913

Stewart vs. American Kennel Club

Dear Sirs:--

This case was tried on the 6th, 7th and 8th inst., and this morning the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of $10,000, and the trial Justice denied our motion for a new trial. A stay of executive of thirty days after entry of judgment was granted.
The Court took from the jury the consideration of all questions in the case, except the amount of damages, and instructed the jury that they must render a verdict for the plaintiff in some amount. One of two of the jurors have told us since the conclusion of the trial that several of their numbers were favorable to a verdict for the defendant, but consideration of that subject was precluded by the instructions of the Court.

We believe that the Court seriously erred, not only in these instructions, but also in various rulings during the trial, and that the errors necessitate a new trial, and advise that an appeal be promptly taken to the Appellate Division. That Court will consider the entire case upon the law and facts, and deal not only with the errors above mentioned, but also with the amount of the verdict, which is undoubtedly grossly excessive.

In order to stay execution pending trial, it will be necessary for the Kennel Club to give an undertaking in twice the amount of the judgment. The judgment has not yet been entered, but will include costs of less than $200 in addition to the verdict. The amount of the undertaking, therefore, must be about $21,000. This, of course, may be given by two individuals or by a surety company.
We understand from A. P. Vredenburgh that a special meeting of your Board will be held to consider the subject, at which Mr. Benedict will be present.

Yours very truly,
Guggenheim, Untermeyer & Marshall

Stewart vs. American Kennel Club

Dear A. P. Vredenburgh:
I have your letter of to-day, enclosing a copy of an order for the examination of the American Kennel Club on the 16th inst. At 10:30 am, in proceedings supplementary to execution upon a judgment against Miss Stewart.
I will talk with the attorneys for the judgment creditor in the meantime, and if they insist upon an examination I will go with you to the court.

This is of course, an effort upon the part of one of Miss Stewart's creditors to get the benefit of the judgment she has recovered against the Kennel Club. If she has other judgment creditors, no doubt they will take a similar course. It does not in any wise affect the interests of the Kennel Club, and I fancy it will be some time before Miss Stewart's creditors profit much by her recovery against the Club.

Yours very truly,

A. Benedict

Mr. Benedict will be here and he will go into the entire case with you, and it will then be necessary for you to determine whether you will carry this case up to the Applegate Division, and if so, how the bond for $21,00 is to be given.
Mr. Willets: In order to expedite the matter, I move in case a bond is given in this matter that the American Surety Company be asked to give the bond. I think I can arrange it on very reasonable terms with them. If any of the other gentlemen are interested in any surety company – I am not interested financially in this company at all, have absolutely no interest in it, but it has gone on my bonds for very large amounts and also on my father’s bond, and we have very friendly relations with them, and I think that they would undertake the matter and we probably would not have to put up any collateral or any security. Unless some other gentleman desires some other surety company to provide this bond I move that the America Surety Company be approached on the subject.

Motion seconded and carried.

At this point, Mr. Benedict arrived.

The Chairman: I take pleasure in introducing to you Mr. Benedict, our legal representative and advisor. We would like to hear what you would advise us to do.

Mr. Benedict: Oh, appeal, by all means. While it is not the business of lawyers to give absolute assurance – and of course no lawyer can give an absolute assurance with regard to the outcome of a litigation – in my opinion the reversal of this judgment is about as certain as that result could be in any case that I have ever had. It is not very unusual in all courts to get an adverse and entirely erroneous result. I do not know how much you have been told by A. P. Vredenburgh and Dr. De Mund, who were present as to the course of this trial. It was tried before Judge Hasbrouck, of Kingston, a newly elected Supreme Court Judge, and this was the first case that he tried. I think that Judge Hasbrouck had sat in the Supreme Court a few months previously by appointment some years ago, but this was his first case here. He remarked to me afterwards that it was a pretty difficult case to put up to a new judge. He expressed himself with emphasis and profanity on that point. It was a very difficult case involving a great many interesting questions of law. I suppose it is hardly useful to advert to them now. I spent a great deal of time in the preparation of the case, both on the facts and on the law. Dr. De Mund and A. P. Vredenburgh can tell you that the trial proceeded in a way not calculated to arouse the prejudice or animosity of the jury against the defendant unnecessarily, and it was a case in which it was necessary to prepare oneself pretty carefully in order not to have that affect.

At this point Mr. August Belmont arrived and took the Chair.

Mr. Benedict (continuing) The plaintiff in this action sued on two counts, as we say; two causes of action in her complaint. She demanded $80,000 damages. At the close of all the evidence I moved to compel her to elect on which count she would proceed, because the first count which related to the publication of Dr. De Mund’s remarks at the meeting of Nov. 30\textsuperscript{th}, 1908, was repeated in the second count with additional matter. In other words, the second count was the same as the first court with additional matter. The Court did not have occasion to rule on my motion because the plaintiff voluntarily elected to proceed on the second count, and the additional matter in the second count was the publication of the fact that the plaintiff had been suspended and disqualified, which she alleged was a reflection upon her and equivalent to charging her with fraud and trickery. I asked the Court to instruct the jury that the additional matter in the second count outside of the statement made at the meeting of Nov 30\textsuperscript{th} to the effect that she had been charged with taking money belonging to the Toy Spaniel Club was not actionable; she could not recover anything for that, and the Court refused so to charge, and in my opinion my exception to that ruling is a perfectly good one, because it was decided a good many years ago in the Gallup Case, with which Mr. Belmont is familiar, that it published a list of members of a subsidiary organization who had been disqualified is not libelous. I also brought that Gallup Case to the attention of the Court. In fact at the beginning of the trial I handed to the Court a very elaborate trial brief discussing all the questions in the case. I called his attention again on the argument of this matter to the Gallup Case. He said he had looked at it but he did not agree with my view of it. So he let that case go to the jury. In my opinion the case is full of holes. I think there is not the slightest doubt that the verdict of $10,00 is grossly excessive, and if the Appletate Division did nothing else I think they would very substantially reduce it; but I do not believe that the Appletate Division, the higher court, can escape the entire reversal of the case for a dozen reasons depending upon various questions of law, which I said it would hardly be useful to discuss here. In the first place the verdict is accounted for in this way: The Judge instructed the jury that they must find a verdict for the plaintiff; that the only question for them to consider was the amount that the plaintiff should receive, and they she could get anything up to $30,000 which was the amount demanded in her second count on which she elected to proceed. Some of the jurors told me afterwards that some of them wanted to give her $30,000. Organizations of this kind are not favorites with juries, as you may imagine. On the other hand, some of the jurors told me that three or four of their number were in favor of a verdict for the defendant, but of course the question of rendering such a verdict was not discussed in the jury room because the Court had excluded it.

Mr. Willets: May I ask on what ground the Judge charged that they must bring in a verdict for Miss Stewart?

Mr. Benedict: Yes. First there is always this question in a libel suit. The complaint sets forth the matter complained of as libelous. It is a question of law preliminarily for the Court whether that is a libel. A court may take one of three views. It will say this publication is not libelous; that is to say, it is not fairly susceptible of a meaning which renders it defamatory in that case. In that case the case is thrown out of Court; or it may be susceptible in the opinion of the Court only of a defamatory meaning and in that case the Court says it is libelous, and the only question is one of damages and that is for them to determine. The third of them, and the correct one, in my opinion, is that these words are susceptible either of a defamatory or of an innocent meaning, and I asked him to submit that question to the jury, and if the jury had concluded that they were reasonably susceptible only of an innocent meaning they must take into account all the surrounding circumstances, and their verdict would be for the defendant. The Court took that first question away from the jury, and if I am right it means necessarily the reversal of the entire case. Then there were a good many points which cannot be intelligently discussed except with lawyers. For instance, a very gross error in my opinion—and it seems to me no argument can be made on the other side—was this: Miss Stewart was permitted to testify that after its publication various of her friends who has been pleasant to her socially, who had been useful to her professionally, and who had furnished information of the kind she was publishing, turned against her and refused to have anything to do with her. She was permitted to testify what those friends had said to her, and she mentioned the names of two or three women and I think one man who had said: I don’t want anything more to do with you Miss Stewart; I have seen this article published in the American Kennel Gazette and I know that Mr. Belmont and gentlemen of that sort would not allow such a thing to be published if it were not true. That is the sheerest hearsay evidence. It is excluded by every Judge and I was utterly astonished when Judge Hasbrouck let it in, but in view of that I am very glad he did. There were various other things, more technical perhaps, in the way of errors at the trial. The judge refused to charge nearly all of my requests, and some of them were perfectly well founded in my opinion. We had the fundamental question whether this Kennel Club is liable for a defamatory publication made by the old organization under the statute of 1908 which provides that this club shall assume all the debts and liabilities. There is not the remotest doubt that the legislature intended that they should take over every liability of every kid whether it was embraced within the technical meaning of the word liability or the word itself because, as may be very justly said, you are really the same men, simply changing your organization or perfecting it; but that is not the legal view. The intention of the legislature must be gathered from the language it used. It used two words, debts and liabilities, and those words have been construed pretty frequently by the courts, and it is open to question at least, and I cited a case from the Supreme Court in Louisiana which was the only one in the books directly in point, to the effect that the assumption of debts and liabilities, even of a newspaper—in that case it was somebody who had bought the newspaper and assumed all the debts and liability, and the Supreme Court held that neither term embraced the liability assumed by the former owner. I would not like to say that the court as it was at the trial. There were other things appearing on the trial which were erroneous, and in my opinion the case is as full of holes as a skimmer, and as we had to be beaten under the ruling of the Court I am rather glad the verdict was so large because it will induce the Appellate Division to take cognizance of errors which it might otherwise refuse to reverse upon. The court rules that there was no privilege and so instructed the jury.

Dr. De Mund: I should like to ask Mr. Benedict it he would state whether he raised the point of the incorporation of the club after two years—
Mr. Benedict: that is a very technical point. I don’t think we overlooked any points. I raised the point that the old organization which published this article was not a corporation because it had not organized within two years after the filing of its certificate and of course the Court paid no attention to it. It is a very technical argument and I should not like to say that there is anything in it, but as I say, we did not overlook any points.

Mr. Cutler: What is your opinion about that question of privilege?

Mr. Benedict: I doubt very much that there is any privilege, to be frank, but it was argued at great length and with reference to all the authorities on the subject.

Mr. Cutler: We have a case in Massachusetts where the question came up in connection with the education of a young man who attended a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society, where certain remarks were made claimed to be defamatory, and they were held to be privileged.

Mr. Benedict: The remarks of the young man in that case as I recollect were the remarks of a member of the association made to his fellow members. The only way were could drag Miss Stewart within the purview of the doctrine of privilege was the fact really that while she was a non-member of this association she had appealed to it to take action favorable to her. The Court did not take that view of it. There is an interesting case, by the way, and more like this case than any other in the books, in an old report of the London Times, the law reports of the London Times of England, the case of Hope vs. De Anson, where the racing calendar contained an account of the action of some local stewards on a charge of assault made against the plaintiff, and in that case it was held not to be privileged, but it was put largely on the ground that the local stewards had not jurisdiction and that the plaintiff had constantly objected to their having jurisdiction. I sought to distinguish the present case on the ground that Miss Stewart did not object to the jurisdiction of the American Kennel Club, but actually appealed to it. She clearly appealed to you. There is no dispute about that; that is to say, appealed to you to remove your own automatic suspension. She was appealing to you to undo the action of the Toy Spaniel Club which you had no power to do.
Mr. Cutler: The question was before us whether we could remove that. The Christian Endeavor case was somewhat similar. To be sure he was a member, but he had brought the question up, and that does make a difference. We had another case where the application made by a constable was the subject of discussion and they called the applicant a good many unpleasant names, and he brought suit.

Mr. Benedict: Yes, the books are full of them, but there are very few cases applicable to these circumstances. There is not the slightest doubt that you should and of course you must appeal. There is nothing else to do, and I am very confident that this judgment will be reversed. I don’t see how it can possibly stand. I wrote in a letter to A. P. Vredenburgh of the necessity of giving a bond to stay execution, and I stated that it occurred to me afterwards that possibly my language was subject to misconception, that you would have to give a bond for twice that amount of the judgment. What I meant was that the form of undertaking is to be twice the amount of the judgment with costs. No amount is specified for it, but the sureties, if individual sureties, must justify in twice the amount of the judgment; that is to say, any two men who sign the undertaking here would have to swear that they were worth twice the amount of the judgment. They may be real estate owners or merely householders within the City of New York, one way or the other.

   Mr. Belmont: Isn't there a company that can do that?
   Mr. Benedict: Yes, but you will have to pay a premium of $115 or $120.
   Mr. Willets: we passed a resolution to have the American Surety Company go on the bond.

   Mr. Benedict: That is a simple thing to so if you want to spend money for a premium. You may do it either way.
   Mr. Willets: The filing of the notice of appeal and filing of the bond stays execution?
   Mr. Benedict: Yes, absolutely stays it until the appeal is decided.
   The Secretary: Will you tell about how long it will take in your opinion for this appeal to be held and judgment rendered?
   Mr. Benedict: The Court gave us sixty days to make a case, as we call it, a record on appeal. The stenographer is working on the minutes and will have them ready within the next week or ten days. They will have to be reduced to narrative form, which involves considerable work, and have to be printed, and then the preparation and printing of the brief. If the matter were hurried I should say we could argue it about May. The plaintiff probably will not consent to very much delay unnecessarily. I have some doubt that we could throw it over the summer vacation so as to postpone it until October. I am inclined to think we should have to argue it about June, but I don’t see the advantage of delay. We might just as well go ahead and find out where we stand, but even with the utmost expedition it should hardly be argued before May I should say. I don’t know whether A. P. Vredenburgh mentioned it, but a day or two after the judgment was entered, or the verdict was given, a judgment creditor of Miss Stewart’s to the amount of the some $350 turned up with an order of A. P. Vredenburgh examination, which of course is merely formal, to show that she had got the judgment, and the creditor intends to apply for the appointment of a receiver to take that judgment. I presume that Miss Stewart will manage to raise the money and pay off the claim because she would not want a receiver to collect that judgment.
Mr. Belmont: What about those statements? They only go up challenged as to their relevancy, but not as to their accuracy.

Mr. Benedict: What do you refer to?

Mr. Belmont: Those statements that she made with regard to her ostracism, and all that sort of thing, they go unchallenged as to fact.

Mr. Benedict: We had no witness to contradict her on that subject. Our point is not that they were not true, but that they were not competent evidence. So far as the fact is concerned it is unchallenged.

Mr. Belmont: I don’t think they are true.

Mr. Benedict: That may be but we had no time for investigation then, to question these women, and that does not affect the legal points at all. The question is whether the Judge made a mistake in allowing such testimony to go in, and the very fact that it is not contradicted demonstrates to the Appellate Division that it must largely have influenced this extraordinarily verdict.

Mr. Willets: If the Appellate Division decides in favor of Miss Stewart is there any other court you can take it to?
Mr. Benedict: Yes, you can go to the Court of Appeals. If the Appellate Division should decide some of the points in out favor it would have power to order judgment absolutely against her and prevent a new trial, but that would be only upon fundamental points. For instance, if they hold that this corporation did not assume the responsibility for this libel, or that the words themselves were not libelous, something of that sort – if it held merely that the Judge erred in his charge of admission of evidence, matters of that kind it would simply be sent back for a new trial.

Mr. Belmont: I presume the action to be taken here would be the authorization to take the case up on appeal. It is for you gentlemen to determine.

Mr. Willets: I move that the Delegates be instructed to appeal this case and carry it up to the Appellate Division, and do all they can to get a verdict in our favor.

Mr. Benedict: It is merely an authority to appeal to the Appellate Division.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Do you want a formal letter to that effect?
Mr. Benedict: you may as well send me a letter.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read the correspondence had between himself on behalf of the American Kennel Club and Mr. M. Robert Guggenheim.

The Secretary: Under the constitution he was suspended at that meeting, and he has thirty days within which to appear before the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will then take such action as it deems proper and refer such action to the next meeting of the American Kennel Club for final action. I have his acknowledgement that he would come here, and here is the entry form, for altering which he was suspended. It is acknowledged that these words “for exhibition only” were placed upon the blank the day after the show closed. He was a judge at that show. He was told that he had gotten himself into trouble, but instead of acknowledging that it was a mistake on the part of his handler and allowing the club to assess a fine of $25, subject to remission subsequently by the action of this club, he directed his handler to take this blank home with him and use the same ink that was used in writing the blank in inserting the words “for exhibition only”, which the testimony before the investigating Committee showed was done the day after the show closed.

The chairman: This dog was not shown?

Dr. De Mund: The evidence shows that Delmont entered the dog at the show, not thinking at the time that Mr. Guggenheim would be a judge there. When Delmont prepared the entry, Mr. Bernheimer came up to him and told him that he had gotten himself into a bad muss by entering this dog, and they had to get out of it some way. That is as far as Mr. Bernheimer was concerned. Then Guggenheim was told of the fact that the dog was there, and he went to the handler, Mr. Delmont – this is the testimony – and Mr. Delmont told him to add to the entry blank the words “for exhibition only.” That also one of the superintendents of the show asked him to have it added to the entry blank. That is the testimony of Mr. Foley. He went to the several times. That is about all of the evidence in the case, except Mr. Gugenehiem testified before our Committee that he knew nothing about this change. I will ask A. P. Vredenburgh to state what happened over the telephone.

A. P. Vredenburgh: The only thing that made me suspicious was that Mr. Guggenheim called me up on the phone in relation to a different subject, and when he got through I said: “You have gotten yourself in trouble.” He asked How? I said “In showing that dog at the same show that you were a judge at.” He said “You had better get the blank and look at it and see if you do not find the corner “For exhibition only.” That made me suspicious. So I sent for the blank, and when these people were brought before the Committee to give testimony, they testified that it was done the day after the show closed by Mr. Delmont at his home at the request of Mr. Guggenheim, with the connivance of the superintendent of the show, Foley, who got out the blank very kindly and gave it to me.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think the evidence of Delmont and one or two of the witnesses here, as I recollect it, was to the effect that Guggenheim knew about it, and Mr. Foley’s evidence was that he came to him half a dozen times and asked him if it had been changed yet, and to be sure to have it done. You have the evidence of three of the Committee that were here.
Mr. Greer: They made it a point not only to change the blank, but to be careful to use the same ink with which the original entry was written.

The Secretary: That evidence is in the possession of the investigating Committee.

At this stage Mr. M. Robert Guggenheim appeared and stated as follows:

The Chairman: You are aware of the charges here, are you not?

A. P. Vredenburgh: here is a copy of the letter he received, the receipt of which he has acknowledged.

The Chairman: You received that letter, didn’t you? Would you like to read it again?

Mr. Guggenheim: Yes, I would like to read it (Reads letter).

The Chairman: Is there anything you would like to say in regard to the matter? You understand what the charges are?

Mr. Guggenheim: I think I do, yes. Is there anything you want to ask me about it? I did not know that I had been brought up on charges until I got this letter – that I had been suspended.

The Chairman: That letter states it. The charge is that a change was written in after the show was over, this “for exhibition only”, in the corner, and that you
Mr. Guggenheim: As I say, the first I knew about it was when I got that letter.

The Chairman: How about this?

Mr. Guggenheim: I have never seen that entry blank. May I see it?

The Chairman: Yes (Showing the entry blank).

The Chairman: When do you say that was written in there?

Mr. Guggenheim: I am prepared to tell you what I know about it. I went down to the Atlantic City show. I was judging bulldogs down there. After I got in the show several people came up to me and said, “You know there is hell to pay,” if you will excuse the expression – “There is hell to pay about your entry.” I said “What do you mean?” They said “You General Kompolite is entered here and you are judging.” I said “What of it?” They said “Don’t you know that there is a rule which has recently been passed prohibiting any one from judging and showing at the same show?” I said “In the first place I didn’t know the dog was entered,” which is the fact. Mr. Delmont had the dog for some time, and he had been showing him with a string of other dogs. He entered this dog among other dogs and showed him. I did not know the dog was entered at all. I went up to Mr. Delmont and asked him if the dog has been entered for that particular show. He said yes; he had not noticed in looking over the entries that I was done to judge, but the dog was not at the show, and as soon as he got there that morning and he had been told that I was judging, he had shipped the dog away. The dog was not at the show at all. he was over at the hotel. I did not think any more about it at all. that was as far as I was concerned – the matter was at an end, until the later in the day I was told that there was a fine of $25 for showing a dog at the same show you were judging at, and I made inquiries, and they told me I had nothing to do with the fine, that the club was liable to pay the fine for having accepted an entry of a judge. So far as any fine could be imposed upon myself, that was not taken into consideration by me at all. I told Delmont afterwards--- I said to him “What about this thing?” He told me just what had happened, what I had repeated here, that the dog was entered at the show I was judging at, but that the dog was not entered under any specific instructions from me. I said “Can't we do anything to remedy this?” I don't know whether they were the exact words, but that was the extent of the conversation. “I don't know what we can do,” he said; “I have been told to put on the entry blank ‘for exhibition only.’” He said “I think that will obviate the whole thing.” That is about what tool placed, but as far as giving any specific instructions for Mr. Delmont to put that on the entry blank –

The Chairman: you knew he was going to put them on the blank?
Mr. Guggenheim: Candidly, yes, I did. I want to be perfectly frank about the thing. It was not a question of trying to get out of a fine on myself because I understood there was no fine to me.

The Chairman: Who does the fine go to, A. P. Vredenburgh?

The Secretary: That would have gone to the club for accepting an entry from a judge.

Mr. Guggenheim: I mean to say I had nothing absolutely to gain assuming I had asked Mr. Delmont, which I do not assume – that I had asked Mr. Delmont to change this entry blank. I had nothing to gain by it in any way.

The Chairman: You say the dog was not there?

Mr. Guggenheim: I did not see that dog. Mr. Delmont told me that the dog was not there.

Dr. De Mund: Ask Mr. Guggenheim if several people did not come to him and tell him that the dog was in trouble?

Mr. Guggenheim: I don’t remember that. Several people made a remark of that kind, or words to that effect.

The Chairman: Don't you remember your testimony before the investigation Committee?

Mr. Guggenheim: I do not now know what I said them. I assume I said exactly what I have said now.

The Chairman: Did you have any conversation with Mr. Foley in regard to changing the entry blank?

Mr. Guggenheim: I did. I had one conversation with Mr. Foley in which I said to him regarding this dog, I understood he had been entered, and while it was nothing to me one way or the other, that I had nothing to do with it, at the same time he had better see if he could not arrange something about it so that the club would not be fined $25, and the thing was done instantly.

The Chairman: Did you or did you not know that that was to be placed on the blank?

Mr. Guggenheim: Yes, I knew that that blank was going to be changed.

The Chairman: Didn't you know it was against the rules to do that?

Mr. Guggenheim: I did not give any instructions to do it. I did not change it myself.

The Chairman: You are responsible for what your agent does, you know.

Mr. Guggenheim: Yes, under those circumstances, but, as I say, I had absolutely nothing to gain by the changing of it in any way.

The Chairman: That is perfectly evident, but the question is, why did you allow a thing like that to be done?

Mr. Guggenheim: Why did I allow it? The only excuse that I have for it at all, as I say – I don’t really know. I did not give it much thought one way or the other. I will say this, that if I thought there was going to be a question of a fine to myself, or a benefit to me in any way, I certainly would not, if I had known about it, had the thing done.

Mr. Willets: Mr. Foley, the superintendent, called your attention to the fact that you would have to get that out of his files, removed, and he ought not to do it. Did he say anything of that kind at all, or anything about that?

Mr. Guggenheim: No, I don’t recollect anything of that kind.

The Chairman: Nobody called your attention to the fact that that could not be done?

Mr. Guggenheim: What do you mean, that it could not be done?

The Chairman: it cannot be done.

Mr. Guggenheim: You mean it is against the rule to do it?

The Chairman: Yes.

Mr. Guggenheim: No, I am pretty sure there was nothing discussed of that kind.

Mr. Bloodgood: How long has that rule been in force A. P. Vredenburgh?

The Secretary: It went into effect Jan 1, 1912, I think.

The Chairman: The question is that anybody that shows a dog knows that the entry blank cannot be changed after it is once put out?

Mr. Willets: It is generally printed on all blanks.

Mr. Bloodgood: You must have been cognizant of that.

Mr. Guggenheim: Yes, I was fully aware that no entry blank should have been changed.

The Chairman: That is what we do not understand, that knowing that you had it done.

Mr. Guggenheim: I did not have it done. I knew it was going to be done.

The Chairman: You knew it was going to be done?

Mr. Guggenheim: I meant to say I did not do it.

The Chairman: You were cognizant of it?

Mr. Guggenheim: Yes, I was, frankly.

The Chairman: That is what we do not understand, why you should allow a think like that to be done.

Mr. Guggenheim: If I had stopped to give it any thought at all I would have argued that it was not a question of doing any one any harm. It was a think that had been done – the entry had been made innocently.

Mr. Willets: And the easiest thing to do was to say this was a mistake and take the dog away.

The Chairman: The dog was not at the show at all.

Dr. De Mund: He was never at the show.

Mr. Guggenheim: That is what I understood.

Dr. De Mund: There is no question about that. He was removed early that morning, and then all this trouble came up about the entry blank.

The Chairman: You were cognizant then that it was going to be done and you did not object to it.

Mr. Guggenheim: Yes, I think that is a fair statement, that I knew it was going to be done and didn’t object to it. I did not give the matter a great deal of thought one way or the other, and secondly, I figured that it was not really doing any one any harm, and I therefore --- I mean to say I would like to make this statement, supposing the dog has been entered under a wrong name, I don’t think – in fact I am quite sure I would not have permitted the changing of the entry blank for one moment.

Mr. Willets: It seems to me if that dog was entered for exhibition only, there was no use taking him out of the show.

Mr. Guggenheim: The dog had already been removed.

The Chairman: That was added afterwards.

Mr. Guggenheim: there is no question that that was added. I know that that was added. I admit that.

Mr. Willets: The intent of your agent was to show the dog.

Mr. Guggenheim: When he made the entry, yes.

The Chairman: That was done entirely through ignorance.

Mr. Guggenheim: Yes, I think you gentlemen will admit there has not been any tendency to do anything – there had been something done technically that was not right, but there was not any tendency I don’t think on anybody’s part connected with this particular incident to try to show a dog and then not show him, or do anything that one would look at as wrong from a showing standpoint.

Mr. Bloodgood: The wrong part of it is the alteration of the blank.

Mr. Guggenheim: Technically, yes.

Mr. Bloodgood: Well, it is not only technically so, but it is so. It was an evasion by doing such a thing, and the fact that a good many people say they are cognizant of that situation, it looks exactly as if it was – three or four people willing to make the alternations there.

Mr. Guggenheim: I never ordered the alteration made. I knew it was going to be made, and the dog was my dog and I am responsible.

Mr. Bloodgood: That is the mistake. There was no necessity to have done such a thing any way.

Mr. Guggenheim: The only reason I permitted letting it be done was a to save the club.

Mr. Bloodgood: Why should you save the club? If it was the fault of your handler, if you wanted to save the club instead of saving the handler, why not put your hand in your pocket and pay the $25? You should certainly know that you had no right to alter the blank. You are a director in this club, and you ought to know the rules of the club.

Mr. Guggenheim: I am not a director but I am a delegate.

Mr. Bloodgood: You ought to know the rules of the club.

Mr. Guggenheim: I admit that I knew that to be a rule of the club. I did know it was a rule, although I do not say that it is anything special, that a man is not allowed to judge at a show, but I had nothing to so with that. I am very sorry the thing happened, and I want to repeat the remark that I am quite sure I would not have made a change if I was in any way to gain it.

(At this point Mr. Guggenheim left the room.)

Dr. De Mund: I move that Mr. Guggenheim be requested by this Committee to resign as a delegate, and that if he fails to resign that we recommend his removal as delegate.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Mr. T. B. Middlebrooke has appealed from the decision of the Trial Board, which disqualified him on charges. He has paid his $25. At his request I accepted that deposit. That is a request instead of an appeal, that is, a review by the Executive Board will send the case back to the Trial Board with orders to reopen is so he can appear and furnish additional evidence.

Dr. De Mund: I move that the case be referred back to the Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary then read his report to the directors as follows:

New York, Feb 17, 1913

To the Board of Directors
Of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:--

I be to report the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee at its meeting held Dec 14, 1912, and if agreeable, will have same spread upon our minutes as is usual.

The North Dakota Kennel Association held a show at Fargo, N. Dak., and violated Rule XIV, Governing Clubs, from which I quote: “The catalogue must also contain a list of all officers under whose management the show is held.” The catalogue of this show did not contain the list of officers, nor did it publish the name of the judge or judges. The excuse for this violation from the Secretary of the North Dakota Kennel Club is as follows: “The name of the judge, George W. Clayton and list of officers in the catalogue were to be identically the same as in the Premium List, but unfortunately were left out due to the printer’s mistake, and they had a correct copy and full instructions regarding the printing of same.” This matter is now presented to you for such action as you may deem proper.

At the initial show of the American Foxhound Club held at Baltimore on the 15th inst., General Roger D. Williams was advertised as the judge. General Williams arrived at the show early in the morning and was taken ill so that he found it impossible to officiate. The President of the club called me up by long distance phone, stating that owing to the illness of the judge there was but one other person at the show who was considered capable of officiating as judge, namely, Dr. E. Lester Jones. This gentlemen, was however, the Show Secretary and the rules positively prohibit an official acting in that capacity to officiate as judge. I, of course, could not afford any relief. Dr. Jones did act as judge and owing to the circumstances of the case, the club now asks for such relief as you are willing to afford.

I have a communication from Mr. Charles D. Bernehimer, taking exception to a portion of the report of the late Investigating Committee and asks that an opportunity be afforded him to appear before the proper Committee, for the purpose of further investigation of the matter.

I have a communication from the Boston Terrier Club, asking that the disqualification of D. C. A. White be referred to the Trial Board to consider his reinstatement to good standing.

A communication from Mr. F. T. Carlton to President Belmont was referred to our Legal Committee and the opinion of said Committee has been filed, which if you desire, will be submitted to you.

I have a bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from Dec 23rd to Feb 11th, amounting to $26.50. As this bill has not been audited, I recommend that upon the receipt of a properly audited bill for this amount, I be authorized to pay same.

The following directors have filed excuses for absence from this meeting, W. H. Sawyer and F. H. Osgood.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:
New York, Feb 17, 1913

To the Board of Directors
Of the American Kennel Club,
Gentlemen:--

I beg to submit the quarterly Financial Report from Jan 1^{st}, 1913 to date.

Balance on hand, ------------------------------- $24,462.14
Receipts to date ---------------------------------- 4,339.40
Total 28,801.54
Disbursements ----------------------------------- 5,564.82
Balance on hand ---- 23,236.72

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

The Secretary: The disbursements in this report cover the entire legal expenses, that is, the counsel fees, the disbursements of counsel, the expenses of the transcript of the stenographer’s minutes of the Stewart Trial, and the premium on $21,000 indemnity bond.

On motion, the treasurer’s report was accepted and placed on file.

The License Committee report was read as follows:
New York, Feb 17, 1913

To the Board of Directors
Of the American Kennel Club
Gentlemen:--

The License Committee beg to report that since the last quarterly meeting it has granted licenses to the following clubs: Airedale Terrier Club of Long Island, Lawrence Kennel Club, Central Ohio Kennel Club, St. Paul Boston Terrier Club, for a general show, Norfolk-Portsmouth Kennel Club.

There is a license pending applied for by the Delaware State Fair for a show to be held at Wilmington, Sept 10 and 11, 1913. The Wilmington Kennel Club has held three shows under license. It is alleged, however, that the said shows were financed by the Delaware State Fair.

It will therefore be necessary to hear both sides before your Committee can decide to whom a license should be granted for a 1913 show.

Respectfully submitted,
George Greer.

On motion, the same was accepted.
(At the stage, Mr. August Belmont arrived and took the Chair.)
The report of the Publication Committee was read as follows:

Feb 17, 1913

American Kennel Club
1 Liberty Street
NYC

Report of Publication Committee

Mr. Chairman:

The change of method in publishing the Stud Book for 1912, now in printer’s hands, has entailed considerable work and many meetings have been held by the Committee.

We believe the experiment of dividing the Stud Book into sections will lead to better results in future editions and great increase of circulation among breeders owning to its reduced cost per section.

Yours very truly,

Dwight Moore,
Chairman, Pub Committee

On motion, the same was accepted.

The Secretary submitted the minutes of the meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee held December 14, 1912.

On motion of Mr. Moore, said minutes were ordered spread upon the minutes of this meeting and published in the Gazette. They are as follows:
Present:  W. W. Stettheimer, J. E. DeRuyter, Hon. Carrol Cook, Nat. T. Messer
Absent: N. J. Stewart

W. W. Stettheimer, in the Chair.

In the absence of Mr. J. P. Norman, the Chair appointed Mr. DeRuyter to act as Secretary.

The Chair stated that the meeting was called to investigate certain statements alleged to have been made by Mrs. C. Hall. Biggs, and published in a local newspaper as an interview with that lady, which statements appeared to reflect on the honesty and integrity of the management of the show lately held by the Pacific Coast Toy Dog Association. As the statements in question affected most particularly the Secretary of the Association, Mrs. C. J. Lindgren, and the judge of the show, Mr. John Bradshw, all the parties at interest had been summoned and were present.

Mrs. Biggs was utterly unable to substantiate the charges contained in the newspaper articles, which, she stated, did not conform to her statements made to the newspaper reporter.
Several witnesses called by Mrs. Biggs failed to assist her in giving any testimony confirming the charges contained in the articles.

Mrs. Biggs was called upon to sign a retraction, prepared by the Committee, stating that she had not accused the judge of dishonestly, and denying that she had made the statement that a frame up existed.

The statement was duly signed in the presence of the Committee, Mrs. Lindgren and Mr. Bradshaw, as follows:

“Being questioned by the Committee in the presence of her husband, Mrs. Biggs stated that her expression quoted in the press wherein she stated that the judging at the Pacific Toy Dog Association Show was rank, did not reflect on the honesty of the judge. Her meaning was that the judging did not agree with her views how the awards should have been placed. She furthermore, denied having made the statement as contained in the press that a “frame up” existed between the management and the judge.

Signed by Mrs. C. Hal. Biggs, Dec 14, 1912”

On motion, it was resolved that a properly certified copy of Mrs. Biggs statement be furnished both to Mrs. Lindgren and Mr. Branshaw.

On motion, it was resolved that the statements contained in the interview alleged to have been made by Mrs. Biggs were untrue and without any foundation.

ATTEST:  J. P. Norman
Secretary

On motion, the communication from Mr. Charles D. Bernheimer, taking exception to a portion of the report of the late Investigating Committee and asking an opportunity to appear before the proper Committee for the purpose of further investigation of the matter was referred to the New York Trial board.

On motion, the communication from the Western Boston Terrier Club, asking that the disqualification of Dr. C. A. White be referred to the Trial Board to consider his reinstatement to good standing was also referred to the New York Trial Board for action.

The Secretary:  At the initial show of the American Foxhound Club, held last Saturday, General Williams, of Lexington, Kentucky, the advertised judges, reached the show building about 9 o’clock in the morning and was taken very ill. The officials waited until half-past eleven, but he was not able to judge at that time. They got into communication with me over the phone and stated the circumstances and said there was only one present in the show building who was capable of judging American Foxhound and that was Dr. E. Lester Jones. As he was the show Secretary, our rules prohibited him from officiating as a judge. I replied I was not in a position to give any relief, but if they saw fit to appoint this gentlemen they could apply to this club for such action as it might deem proper. I submit to you the correspondence in the matter.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I move that the American Foxhound Club be fined $1.00.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. B. S. Smith: I move that a fine of $1.00 be also imposed on Dr E. Lester Jones for his action in the matter.

Motion seconded and carried.

In the matter of the show held at Fargo by the North Dakota Kennel Association, which, it was alleged, had violated Rule XIV, governing clubs, in that the catalogue of this show did not contain the list of officers, not did it publish the name of the judge or judges, Mr. Hooley moves that said club be fined $10. for their carelessness.

Mr. Collins moved to amend the motion by imposing a fine of $25, instead of $10.

Amendment seconded and lost.

The original motion was then put and carried.
On motion the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from Dec 23 to Feb 11, amounting to $26.50, was ordered paid upon receipt of a properly audited bill.

On motion the excuses of Messrs. W. H. Sawyer and F. H. Osgood for absence at this meeting were granted.

On motion of Mr. Willets the Salary of Mr. Day was increased to $2,200, a year and the salary of Mr. McCarniss was increased to $1,700, a year, said increases to date from the first of Jan of this year.

Mr. Chetwood Smith moved that the Secretary be directed to procure the Stud Book of the Harriers and Beagles.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary read the opinion of the Legal Committee and correspondence in the matter of F. T. Carlton.

The Secretary: This matter was referred to the Legal Committee, and the Committee quotes from “International Dogs” two items on the question of the attack on judges, &c.

Mr. Belmont resigned the chair to Mr. Hunnewell and said:

I want to explain to you gentlemen what my purpose was in referring this matter to our Committee for legal advice. I cannot say surely whether that is a correct opinion, but my feeling was this in the matter --- I went over the subject rather more carefully than I have any case that has come before us recently because of the experience which we had with the Stewart case. It is unfortunate for dog shows that there should be any criticism of the judges before the show, that they should be called incompetent or dishonest. At the same time this is a public newspaper, and it is a serious question whether the American Kennel Club should undertake to discipline writers for any criticism as a matter of policy. As a matter of law I do not know whether he could recover from us in case we really did him any damage. I am satisfied that we did not do any serious damage. I am satisfied that we did not do any serious damage to Miss Stewart, and yet it is a fact that the verdict against us is $10,000, which is far in excess of anything that was ever heard of in years. This is open to the same sort of thing. Out Committee summoned him to appear before it and show cause why he should not be disciplined for having written an article. That is all he has done. He has committed no offense which is specifically described in the rules at all. You have only got to go a little further and say it is a bad thing for dogs in general that the unjust criticism should come after. It is equally as unjustifiable. The object of Mr. Carlton might have been the same. It would hurt before and why wouldn’t it injure them afterwards. If you go into the field and try to protect shows by disciplining writers who attack their judges you are going to enter upon a field which in one respect you have tried to avoid. Just before this matter came up I received a letter from Chicago. The situation there is that the better elements are taking care of the kennel interests and they want to bring about a better atmosphere, and they wanted advice as to judges, and it was meant to be personal but at the same time it was referred to the American Kennel Club for advice, and I recollect that A. P. Vredenburgh told me that we never undertook to give advice as to the selection of judges, that it is one of the things that we avoid particularly and the reasons are so any it was considered hardly worth while to state them. I asked A. P. Vredenburgh, however, to name some judges, and when I wrote in reply I said it was our practice never to give advice on that matter and I naturally would not give any advice in this matter. But I was willing to tell him privately and personally that such and such men were considered competent with reputations as being competent, and they could select them if they so desired. We are so delicate about the matter that we do not recommend judges, but yet we summon the writer of a newspaper and we propose to punish him because he did not appear. Suppose you did that to a writer of the “American Field”, I think you would be in pretty serious trouble, and probably they would attack us on the ground that we were claiming that we did not want him to influence the people in general about judges, or that we wanted to stifle criticism. They could say that with some degree of color, and I feel that we have got into a rather awkward position. I think you have gone rather far in assuming to discipline any writer for anything he had done, and I say this for the purpose of asking you to discuss the matter as to whether such action should be considered as a part of the duty of our Committee to look up publications. I think we are venturing on very dangerous ground. Whether this man could recover damages or not I do not know; but I suppose I would be subjected to cross examination, and I think in this case I should not show such lamentable ignorance as I did in the case just tried. From what he wrote in the beginning I think that he expected you to ask him to make good his charges. If you read between the lines you will see, I think, that this conception of coming before you was to make good or not for your information on the making good of judges, and he expressed a wish to co-operate, but when he found you punished him he turned around and said you had no right to do it; and I have no doubt that the echo of the Stewart Case was in his ears when he said that his lawyers told him he could recover. I do not know that I can suggest just how to proceed in this matter. If a man does a wrong thing, whether he is connected with the Kennel Club or not, if he is a party to some fraud, something that was seriously an offense, you have a perfect right by our rules to discipline him. In the Gallup suit there was quite a different question. I do not understand the similarity there. In the Gallup suit what happened was that in Albany in order to give standing to their show they invited Mr. Gallup and others of position to act as President, and they were practically honorary officers, and it was conducted by professionals. It was not a successful affair, and when the time came they did not pay their premiums, but there was a direct breach of our rules, and we very properly disciplined them, and at that time we published a disqualification list for the information of every one concerned in breeding dogs. On this list their names appeared and they sued the Kennel Club and the individuals, and I think there must have been fifty or more that went in, all of whom were sufficiently prominent to be uncomfortable about it, and we defended that suit and we established the right to publish and it was held not to be libelous. They had acted as officers and while I am no lawyer and I do not want to question this opinion, I do not see how it is parallel with this case. In any event, because Carlton is not a successful publisher and that he is not a strong man &c., I think that if he chooses he could proceed and make it appear that we were endeavoring to stifle the press. That idea is constantly urged by the daily press. If there is any offer made by anybody to hush up a matter for any good reason the cry is immediately raised by the press that you are trying to stifle comment. You have trodden on very dangerous ground I think. It is a simple case, and I do not think the man is strong enough or wants to have a fight, but I think the com ought to consider it very carefully, and you ought to consider very carefully whether that sort of think ought to be done at all.

DR. DE MUND: Mr. President, I would like to say that Mr. Carlton, in one of his unsuccessful attempts to publish a paper, advocated in copy after copy that the American Kennel Club must punish Mr. Lacey of the “Stockkeeper” for criticizing judges, just the reverse of what he claims for himself.

Mr. Belmont: I understand, but of course we ought to be guided by what we think best. I am only saying what are my personal views. I feel it my duty to bring before you the importance of considering this matter carefully. If we did it in his case why shouldn’t we do it in all others?

Mr. Willets: May I ask secretary if the Lenox Club took any action in this matter?
THE SECRETARY: No, but the judge, Mr. Spring, did.
Mr. Willets: Was he a member of the Kennel Club?
THE SECRETARY: No.
Mr. Bloodgood: Was he a member of any Kennel Club?
THE SECRETARY: I can’t tell you that. He was to be the judge at the Lenox Show. He took exception to it.

Mr. Hooley: Was he the only judge?

THE SECRETARY: I am not certain. I think there was another judge.

Mr. Willets: Was he connected with an Kennel Club that took exception to those remarks?

THE SECRETARY: The only thing I know about it is what has been stated here, that this statement was made in the paper, and then this Mr. Spring, who was to be a judge, and who was the judge, came out in the paper and took exception to this criticism, and then this investigating which was investigating everything that came under their notice, called upon Mr. Carlton to come here and show cause why he should not be disciplined for taking this action again a judge who had not yet officiated and whose reputation was good.

Mr. Willets: I do not see what right the Investigating Com had to investigate someone who was brought before them that had no connection with the American Kennel Club or any member of the American Kennel Club.

DR. DE MUND: In that connection, Mr. Spring is a member of several clubs that are members of the American Kennel Club.
Kennel Club. He is a member of the Eastern Dog Club and the Fox Terrier Club, and a man of very good standing, and he took exception to this article and made complaint to the Investigating Committee. The Lenox Club was also going to bring the matter up, but I told Mr. Spring that it was not necessary to do that, that the matter would be investigated on his complaint.

Mr. Belmont: It is one thing to call on a man to substantiate charges for the purpose of clearing or making a public statement, or anything of that kind, but it is quite different thing when you discipline him.

Mr. Bloodgood: The Trial Board did not uphold the Investigating Committee. They did not suspend this gentleman, they simply denied him the privileges of the American Kennel Club. Haven't we the right to deny anybody the privilege of our club?

Mr. Belmont: What does that mean?

Mr. Bloodgood: It means they are denied the privileges of the club?

Mr. Belmont: Call it disqualification or suspension or what not, the moment you deny privileges you disqualify. It is merely a different way of expressing it.
THE SECRETARY: The act of the legislature refers to it as suspension or expulsion from membership or suspension or denial of any or all of the privileges of the said corporation. We have the right to do that. You may recall that quite a number of years ago a man by the name of Payne of San Francisco, made certain statements against Mr. Mortimer as a judge, and stated that he had practically been in collusion with an exhibitor and had fraudulently given a prize at a San Francisco show that he should not have done. You will also recall that the Old Advisory Committee at that time sent me to San Francisco to investigate. We had this Payne before us and told him that he must substantiate his statement by proof or what he considered proof. He declined to so it and fell back on the privileges of the press. We had three meetings in regards to the matter which were steno-graphically reported. I brought the report back and handed it to each member of the Advisory Committee, and they suspended Mr. Payne until such time as he did produce the proofs that he said he had. That is somewhat similar to this case.

Mr. Belmont: That is a very different thing. Carlton apparently was perfectly willing to come before the Committee in that sense; at least he said so. I understand he did not come, and just why I do not know. I did not want to take this matter up with Mr. Carlton or reply to his letter without first having an opinion from the Legal Committee, nor second, before I understood how you gentlemen felt about it.

Mr. Keyes: Isn’t this case very similar to the Fox Terrier case in which some members questioned the honesty of the judges, the Carnochan Case? He denied the quotation in the papers, in the New York Telegram, he denied he was correctly quoted. He apologized and resigned from the club.

Mr. Belmont: He was a member of the Fox Terrier Club. This case in the West was a personal charge, a charge of fraud, a very different thing, and in this case this man was a member of the club and it was a personal matter. I do not understand that this was a signed article.

THE SECRETARY: It was an editorial and he was the editor.

Mr. Belmont: It is a very different thing. The publication is impersonal. I think in the interest of dog shows a man of that kind ought to be made to substantiate or retract, and if he does not wish to retract after being unable to substantiate, it might be a different thing, but don’t you see what you have done here, you have disqualified a man for criticizing the judges, and after all what he said was that they were incompetent. He did not say they were dishonest. I want you to understand that nobody is anxious to discipline more than I am, and nobody appreciates your seal more than I do, but this is a peculiar instance. You have disciplined a man who has not made any greater attack than to say that those judges were notoriously incompetent, and that he had to put them under the microscope. As for me, I have been criticized as notoriously incompetent. Do what you think best for the benefit of dog shows.

Mr. Palmer: Isn’t he entitled to criticize a man from his point of view which is that he is incompetent? He has not attacked his honesty. I think pretty nearly every man here has an opinion that people who are judging to-day are not competent, still I do not know that it is doing that man any particular harm.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: It seems to me it would better at this time to state what our course in the future is to be in regard to the press and then settle this case one way or the other the best we can. This is a thing that is going to come up right straight along. If we are going to fight everything that appears in a paper, we will have our hands full, and if we are not going to do it then the best thing is to get out of it the best way we can.

Mr. Belmont: This is a personal matter because There is not here a single word as to the honesty of the management or judging.

Mr. Collins: Had Mr. Carlton appeared either before the Investigating Committee or the Trial Board, the possibilities are that he might have been exonerated, and it seems to me that the action of both the Investigating Committee and the Trial Board was simply to discipline him for failing to appear. Therefore, to show our fairness toward the press I would move that the matter be reopened and be referred to the New York Trial Board, and then let him appear and explain what he intended to say, or what was in his mind, or anything he pleases, and then the Trial Board can act accordingly in their best judgment.

Mr. Belmont: I second the motion for the purpose of discussion. I should like to ask, if this motion should prevail, what I should say to Mr. Carlton. If such a motion should prevail I would be tempted, with your approval, to write to him and say that I had not replied to him fully without first ascertaining the details, and also as to the legal aspect of it, and that personally I thought he was very much to blame for not appearing, because I found in the correspondence that he had expressed a willingness to appear, and the fact that he did not appear, and in that way flouting the authority of the Committee; that they had felt incensed and had really disciplined him for that, and as he had been connected with dogs; that they felt it was very bad as a mere finding of criticism --- it was nothing but a method that I did not think that they could be held liable or we could be held liable provided we considered the full effects contrary to the best interest of dogs, so I thought I could write to him and advise him to appear, because there is no use in referring this matter to the Committee unless he is going to appear; it would subject the Committee to further insult if he did not appear. If the matter were referred – I make this suggestion – if the matter were referred to the President with power to report, or referred to the President with instructions to report, and if in his opinion it was necessary to refer the case back to the Committee, or something of that kind --- in other words to get it into my hands first so I could draw Mr. Carlton out, and if I found he was willing to come before the Committee, say, now you must come before the Committee and if you clear yourself that is all right; they have no desire to cut you off, but you must remember that you cannot refuse to come because you have passed criticism on these judges, and all they want is for you to make good or not, and if you should not, you make some reparation for it.
DR. DE MUND: I think we are making a mountain out of a mole hill. A great many of the directors here know this man and know his character. You would only subject yourselves to insult if you attempted any such thing as that. This man has started two papers and both of them failed. He started another one which I understand he is going to carry over the New York Show, and then he is going back to England. I do not take any stock in his threat to sue or anything else. I do not think it would be compatible with the dignity of this club to attempt to compromise with a man of that character.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I think just the reverse. I feel that the American Kennel Club has gone beyond what it ought to have done, and I think it ought to be decided whether we are going by this line in the future or not. If we decide not to go on with it then I think the easiest way to clear this matter up is to let it drop. I do not think we ought to take up everything we see in the papers and fight it out.

Mr. Bloodgood: It was on the complaint of Mr. Spring, and we had to take it up.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: We can take up the complaint and we can say to Mr. Spring that we are sorry, but it is out of our jurisdiction.
Mr. Hooley: It seems to me it is very easy for a newspaper man to severely injure a club, or to injure a show, I do not care whether it is the Field or what paper it is, if they write articles derogatory of the judges or show management, who are the people that have put their money and interest into the show and are liable to a good deal of loss. A number of people might give a show and invest some money in it and hope to get it back again. A newspaper man deliberately writes this show up and attacks the judges and attacks the management and everything else – he can injure that show very much, and in that way I think it is a very serious thing. I think Mr. Belmont right in wanting to settle this matter, and I move we put it entirely in his hands for settlement. I think Mr. Belmont, if he will allow the suggestion, that he can see if this thing went on and judges were attached at different shows, it might become dangerous in the end, and it will be a very serious thing in regard in the end.

THE SECRETARY: You will undoubtedly recall many cases when you used to be active on the Advisory Committee that when men were cited to appear before us to give testimony which we felt sure they could give, and they declined to appear, they were suspended until they did appear.
Mr. Belmont: I would have nothing to say if the Committee had disqualified him pending his coming before that Committee.

Mr. Bloodgood: He not only failed to appear before the Trial Board by the failed to appear before the Investigating Committee.

THE SECRETARY: I think the decision of the Trial Board shows it was because he failed to appear before them that they disciplined him.

Mr. Hooley: They also fixed the dates that he should come, either Monday or Tuesday which was convenient for him to come, and he would be pleased to come on those days. Part of that Committee did wait here for two whole days and he never came near us or showed any courtesy whatever. It seems to me in talking with him you might use some of these facts.

Mr. Palmer: Might I ask the Secretary if he was notified by telephone?

THE SECRETARY: No, he was notified by mail, and then he was telephoned to that one of the Committee was here waiting for him. He was notified by mail and he replied to that letter and said he would be very glad to come.

Mr. Willets: Did Mr. Calton write why he failed to appear before that Committee? He says he would be very glad to appear, and then in a letter to Mr. Belmont he said his dignity would suffer if he did appear.

Mr. B. S. Smith: As our findings say there, the only reason we disqualified Mr. Carlton was for the reason that he paid no attention whatever to our summons to appear. He was written to and the letter was registered. That letter was returned here as not having been received by Mr. Carlton. Then there was another letter written him which he did receive and which he claims it would hurt his dignity to appear before any Trial Board, and he was in no way under the jurisdiction of the Kennel Club; that they had no right to summon him to appear before them because he was not a member of the Kennel Club or any other dog showing club, and it seems to me that were the course adopted by Mr. Belmont, were he willing to see Mr. Carlton and tell him that he believes that if he would give consideration to the summons of the Trial Board to appear before them again the matter might possibly be adjusted – that if he would come here and show the Trial Board that he meant nothing by these articles, we would not have to lower our dignity in any way, and I think the matter could be very readily thrashed out in that way.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not approve of the suggestion that the matter might possibly be adjusted satisfactorily. to the dignity of the American Kennel Club. If Mr. Carlton came before this board he certainly would get justice, but to say that we might possibly adjust it with him, does not sound dignified.

Mr. B. S. Smith: If he were asked to appeal wouldn’t he assume the same attitude, that we had no right to do this thing in the first place, therefore he had no right to appeal.

Mr. Belmont: There is an except of a letter written by James W. Spring, to the effect that he was requested by the Lenox Dog Show Association to judge Airedale dogs and Irish Terriers, and he asks whether in your opinion he comes under the head of judges notoriously incompetent.

DR. DE MUND: That was a letter he wrote to Mr. Carlton. Mr. Spring personally complained of the attack and wished the American Kennel Club to take it up at the time the Investigating Committee was appointed. He also stated at that time that the Lenox Show Association was going to request him to take it up, but I told him it would not be necessary as long as he made the complaint, we would investigate it any way.

Mr. Belmont: To whom did he make the complaint?

DR. DE MUND: To me verbally.

Mr. Belmont: He came to you and personally complained against Mr. Carlton.
That is a very different thing. The Trial Board initiated this at the request of a judge, and if that was put in, on charges which are charges made by Mr. Spring ---

DR. DE MUND: You know the Investigating Committee was created for certain purposes and certain powers given them. The usual form --- charges are made by mail or by letter and the money accompanies it. The investigating Committee were given power to investigate anything that came to their notice. Mr. Spring came to the Investigating Committee and practically preferred these charges and requested them to take it up. They did so. Then they referred it to the Trial Board.

Mr. Belmont: Then why shouldn't this read that the Investigating Committee, at the request of Mr. Spring, a judge a the Lenox Show, preferred charges against Mr. Frank T. Carlton?

DR. DE MUND: The Investigating Committee made a full report to the Board of Directors in which they recommended certain things. That was adopted by the directors, a written report and the recommendations ordered carried out.

THE SECRETARY: The Investigating Committee requested this to go to the Trial Board, and when their request was granted it was sent in the usual written form to the Trial Board.

Mr. Belmont: I am trying to suggest that they be put in that form, as if it did come up by an outside party, and then we asked him to appear, and he did not appear.

Mr. Moore: Was anybody else summoned for an explanation?

THE SECRETARY: That is all.

Mr. Moore: There was not a witness for him or against him?

THE SECRETARY: No.

MR. Belmont: I would suggest that the Trial Board revise that language. Has he been sent a copy of this?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, it has been published.

Mr. Bloodgood: Only the finding.

Mr. Belmont: I mean the working of this resolution.

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

Mr. Belmont: Then we cannot amend that. We can say we interpreted it in that way. In the case of Miss Stewart we said that was only a question of information we gave here and yet we were held for libel. I thought perhaps that might be amended so as to merely recite it as the complaint that he was summoned and did not appear, and for that reason he was disqualified. We will have to take the ground that it was entirely on the ground that he did not appear; that whereas he published an article and that complaint was made, and that he was asked to come and make an explanation, because he did not appear he was disqualified.
Mr. Collins: If we re-open the case we can do that. We can amend or we can re-write a final finding and publish it in those words so as to avoid censuring him for what he wrote, but censure him simply for his failure to appear.

Mr. Belmont: You would approve of my replying to Mr. Calton’s letter that the action of the Kennel Club was purely and simply because he did not appear and there could be no reversal of this decision?

DR. DE MUND: I would make a motion that a copy of the legal opinion be sent to him at the same time.

Mr. Willets: I would suggest that the legality of the thing be left out of it altogether. We will simply assume that he has no standing in law. The minute we begin to talk about legal opinions Mr. Carlton will have a chance to say, you go look at the legality of it.

It was moved that Mr. Belmont be empowered to do as he may see fit in this matter in answering the letter and then report to the directors.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Collins: I will withdraw my motion to reopen the case.

Mr. Belmont: Isn’t it necessary for this meeting to confirm the action of the Trial Board or otherwise?

Tellers

On motion, the minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The following named clubs were elected to membership: Kennel Club of Philadelphia and Devon Dog Show Association.

The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Boston Terrier Club        Frank A. Teeling
Lynn Kennel Club          Dr F. H. Osgood

The secretary read the following communication with reference to the election of directors:

For a vacancy in the class of 1914, Charles W. Keyes
In place of F. H. Osgood. In the class of 1918, Rowland P. Keasbey, Ralph C. Stewart, Alfred B. Maclay, Charles R. Wood, W. S. Gurnee, Jr., and J. F. Collins.

Mr. Moore: I move that the secretary be directed to cast one ballot for their election.

Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary stated he had cast a ballot for the gentlemen named, and they were declared duly elected.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the [text ends abruptly]

The balance on hand on Jan 1, 1912, was $22,963.91. Receipts from all sources for the year 1912, $28,263.51. The disbursements for the year were $26,765.28, leaving a balance on hand of $24,462.14. This balance includes the date deposits and the secretary’s deposits held in trust amounting to $2,080.

On motion, the same was accepted.

The secretary read his report as follows:

New York, Feb 17, 1913

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:--

I beg to report that since the last meeting I have received applications for Active Membership from the Kennel Club of Philadelphia and the Devon Dog Show Association, credentials from the Boston Terrier Club and the Lynn Kennel Club, all of which have been referred to the Membership Committee which will report at this meeting.

I have also received credentials from the Washington Kennel Club, the Plainfield Kennel Club and the Kennel Club of Philadelphia. These credentials will go over until the May meeting, for the reason that they were not filed in time to advertise same in the Jan Gazette according to rule.

The votes of the Associate Subscribers were opened by the secretary and Board of Tellers on Feb 4 and resulted in the election of William G. Rockefeller, Dwight Moore and B. S. Smith as the Associate Delegates for the year 1913.

I beg to report the notice for the semi-annual convention of clubs under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, which was held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, on Feb 8 and at said meeting Mr. Chas. W. Conlisk was the unanimous choice of the convention and nominated by the Committee to fill the vacancy on said Pacific Advisory Committee, occasioned by the expiration of the term of Norman J. Stewart.
The Committee appointed at the meeting of the American Kennel Club held Sept 17, 1912, for the purpose of nominating directors for the expiring class of 1913 and to fill such other vacancies as may occur, met on Jan 14, 1913, and made the following nominations. For a vacancy in the class of 1914, Charles W. Keyes in place of F. H. Osgood. In the class of 1918, Rowland P. Keasbey, Ralph C. Stewart, Alfred B. Maclay, Charles R. Wood, W. S. Gurnee, Jr., and J. F. Collins.

Also the report of the Rules Committee on amendments to the By-laws, to the rules governing clubs and to the rules governing dog shows. These amendments were duly published in the Jan Gazette.

Under date of Jan 30, 1913, Mr. M. Robert Guggenheim filed his resignation as a delegate to the American Kennel Club.

The following clubs have been automatically dropped from membership for non-payment of dues for the year 1913, under the provisions of Article XVI, Section III, of the By-Laws: Alameda County Kennel Club, Altoona Kennel Club, Butterfly Bench Show Association, Hartford Show Association, Irish Wolfhound Club, North Jersey Kennel Club, Old English Sheep Dog Club of America, Orange County Agricultural Society, Sioux City Kennel Club, and Vancouver Exhibition Association.
The action of the American Kennel Club some few years past in favor of the rating of shows held under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee had been the means of building up the show circuit in that territory in a very gratifying manner. It appears to me that the Middle West requires the held of the American Kennel Club in a like manner in order to encourage the holding of shows in that territory, and I would therefore recommend, if approved by the Rules Committee, the following amendment to Rule III, Governing Dog Shows: “All authorized shows held in the territory between the easterly boundary of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, and New Mexico, and the easterly boundary of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Louisiana, shall be rated as follows: 599 dogs and over, five points, 400 dogs and over, four points, 300 dogs and over, three points, 200 dogs and over, two points, under 200 dogs, one point.”

In order to save time in reading over various items in the Financial Statement of 1912, I have had some printed which will be distributed to the delegates on request.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary
On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The License Committee reported as follows:

Annual Report of the License Committee
New York, Feb 17, 1913

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

The License Committee begs to report that since the last annual meeting it has granted fifty-one licenses, thirty-eight of which were for general shows, twelve for specialty shows, and one for field trial.

These shows were distributed in the following states as follows: New York, 11; Illinois, 4; Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Ohio, and North Dakota, 3 each; Iowa, Tennessee, Minnesota, Massachusetts and Washington, 2 each; Nebraska, Kentucky, New Hampshire, Oregon, Delaware, South Dakota, New Mexico, Alabama, Texas, and Virginia 1 each.

Respectfully submitted,

George Greer
Chairman

On motion, the same was accepted and ordered published in the Gazette.

The following report of the Field Trial Committee was read as follows:
Annual Report of the Field Trial Committee

New York, Feb 18, 1913

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

The Field Trial Committee beg to report that the Beagles, “Nordley Spot” and “Belray Blue Boy” having made the required number of wins are not Field Champions of record.

Respectfully submitted,

Chetwood Smith
Chairman, Field Trial Committee

On motion, the same was accepted and ordered published in the Gazette.

The report of the Rules Committee was as follows:

New York, Jan 8, 1913

To the Delegates of the
American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Rules Committee, held Jan 3, 1913, present George Greer, H. H. Hunnewell, B. S. Smoth and J. E. De Mund, the following amendments to By-laws and Rules were adopted, and are now referred to you for action.
Amendments to the By-Laws

Amend Article I of the By-laws as follows:

Add, the President shall be ex officio member of all Committees.

Amend Article II, Section V

Add, it shall have all the powers of the Board of Directors between the meetings of the said Board.

Add to the Article XI: -- It shall have power to arbitrarily designate such breeds as may have winners classes divided by sex, such breeds as may have mixed winners classes, and such breeds that shall not be entitled to any winners class, until such time as the number of dogs exhibited shall demonstrate that they shall be logically entitled to such classes.

Amendments to the Rules

Rule XII, Governing Clubs

Add, In the case of special prizes offered by others through the show giving club, the club shall not be responsible unless a claim is filed with said club within sixty days. See addition.

Rule IV, Governing Dog Shows

Add, The License Committee shall have power to arbitrarily designate such breeds as may have winners classes divided by sex, such breeds as may have mixed winners classes and such breeds that shall not be entitled to any winners class, until such time as the number of dogs, exhibited shall demonstrate that they shall be logically entitled to such classes.

Rule XIV. Governing Dog Shows.

Insert after the words “appointed for that breed” unclassified specials shall not be offered at any show (this shall not apply to specials now existing that require more than one win, which may be continued until won.)

Rule XVII. Insert after the words “In good standing with the American Kennel Club,” A professional handler shall not be eligible to act as judge (A professional handler is a person who handles, boards, conditions, or shows dogs for money as a means of livelihood.) This does not apply to Pacific Advisory Committee.

Rule XIII, Governing Clubs

Add. All specials offered must be described or value stated.

The following proposed amendments were disapproved:

Amendment proposed to Rule XIV by Mr. James Mortimer, inserting the words “in competition” after the words “that have previously beaten it.” The reason for disapproval of this being that your Committee have approved an amendment abolishing unclassified specials

Amendment proposed by Mr. James Mortimer which reads: A judge shall not award any prize to any dog which he or she has shown, handled or prepared for exhibition within a period of six months prior to the opening day of the show at which he or she officiates.

If this amendment were adopted it would cause endless confusion as the Bench Show Committees would have no way of informing themselves as to the handling, showing or preparing of a dog by the judge.

Proposed amendment to Section A, Rule V, proposed by Mr. James Mortimer, which reads as follows: “No puppy shall be eligible to compete in any class or for any prize, competition for which is limited to exhibits not exceeding a certain size, weight or heights, unless such class or prize be confined to puppies only.

There seems to be no demand for this rule on the part of the Specialty Clubs or the exhibitors of any of the breeds affected, which are Pointers, Beagles, Bulldogs, French Bulldogs, Boston Terriers, Pomeranians and Bull Terriers.

We have a resolution from the Boston Terrier Club protesting against such rule, and in conversation with various members of the other clubs mentioned, have been able to find no one who advocates such rule.

Respectfully,

J. E. De Mund
Chairman, Rules Committee

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:--

It has been decided by the Rules Committee to substitute the following amendment in place of the one passed at the meeting held Jan 17.

A Chairman of the Board of Directors who 'in the absence of the President and Vice President' shall preside at all meetings of said board and shall have all powers of the President of the club, except that of calling meetings of the Club and executing contracts."

Yours truly,

J. E. De Mund
Chairman, Rule Committee
New York, Feb 18, 1913

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:--

Your Rules Committee recommended that the License Committee be directed to submit to it within thirty days its recommendations for the licensing of judges, superintendents and professional handlers to enable the Rule Committee to formulate a rule covering the conditions of such licenses to be submitted to the delegates for action at the May meeting.

Respectfully,

J. E. De Mund
Chairman, Rules Committee

THE SECRETARY: I am in receipt of communications from the Ladies' Kennel Association of America and from the Dog Show Committee protesting against the proposed amendment to Rule XIV.

On motion, the report of the Rules Committee was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the nomination by the Pacific Advisory Committee of Charles W. Conlisk to fill the vacancy cause by the expiration of the term of Mr. Norman J. Stewart.

Mr. Moore: I move that said nomination be confirmed.

Motion seconded and carried.
On motion, the resignation of Mr. M. Robert Guggenheim, as a delegate, was accepted.

THE SECRETARY: I submit my recommendation of a lower scale of points for the middle west, in order that that section of the country which is not well represented by shows may have some encouragement. At present our shows held East of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico, must be rated exactly the same as we rate the Westminster Club, the leading show of the country, and it appears to me it would be well if we should make this concession to the middle west for the purpose of building it up as the Pacific Coast was built up by giving that portion of the country special rates. I recommend this if approved by the Rules Committee. I will read the recommendation in full.

RULE III.

Section A. Every show is guaranteed one point toward a Championship except as hereinafter stated. All Shows are to be rated on actual number of dogs benched (dogs “for exhibition only” not to be considered benched); 1,00 dogs and over, 5 points; 750 dogs and over, 4 points; 500 dogs and over, 3 points; 250 dogs and over, 2 points; under 250 dogs, 1 point. Such Shows as do not offer money prized in every breed mentioned in their Premium List shall no have a rating unless they have 250 dogs benched, when they shall have the regular rating as specified in this rule.

Section B. All authorized shows held in the territory between the easterly boundary of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico, and the easterly boundary of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Louisiana, shall be rated as follows: 500 dogs and over, 5 points; 400 dogs and over, 4 points; 300 dogs and over, 3 points; 200 dogs and over, 2 points; under 200 dogs, 1 points.

Section C. The Pacific Advisory Committee shall have jurisdiction in all States west of the easterly boundary of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico. All applications for membership and dates and all communications, shall be addressed to the Secretary of said Pacific Advisory Committee.

All shows authorized by them to be rated as follows: 400 dogs and over, 5 points; 300 dogs and over, 4 points; 200 dogs and over, 3 points; 100 dogs and over, 2 points; under 100 dogs, 1 point.
Section D: Specialty Club Shows confined to the breed represented by their club shall be rated at 4 points.

Specialty clubs not active members may be licensed with the written consent of the parent club, and will be rated at two or four points.

Mr. Moore: I move that the recommendation be adopted subject to the approval of the Rule Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

Taking up the amendments reported by the Rules Committee, the delegates adopted the proposed amendments to the By-Laws without further qualification as follows:

Article I of the By-Laws
Add, “The President shall be ex officio Member of all Committees.”

Article II, Section V.
Add, “It shall have all the powers of the Board of Directors between the meetings of the said Board.”

Add to Article XI: “It shall have power to arbitrarily designate such breeds as may have winners classes divided by sex, such breeds as may have mixed winners classes, and such breeds that shall not be entitled to any winners class, until such time as the number of dogs exhibited shall demonstrate that they shall be logically entitled to such classes.”
The Secretary: Rule XII, Governing Clubs, provides for adding: In case of special prizes, offered by others through the show giving club, the club shall not be represented unless a claim is filed with said club within sixty days.

DR. DE MUND: There is an amendment proposed to that rule by the Westminster Kennel Club, and I know of no better place to insert it than at this point. In the matter of cancellation they wish a rule to be made that no cancellation can occur of a win for sixty days. So I would move you that we do that and that all cancellations must be made by the American Kennel Club within the period of sixty days in regular classes after the closing of the show.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: It is proposed to amend Article XIV of the rules governing dog shows by inserting after the words “appointed for that breed,” and at the end of the second line of the second paragraph, to be substituted for the balance of the rule, “Unclassified specials shall not be offered at any show. This shall not apply to specials not existing that require more than one win which may be continued until won.”
Mr. Rauch: You have heard the protest that has been read by the secretary, and it comes, as you know, from the largest dog show in this country, and the Ladies’ Kennel Club Show is the second largest. We are both very much opposed to this amendment, and we hope you will give it very serious consideration before acting upon it. We have looked into it very carefully and protest against it.

DR. DE MUND: I move that that amendment be laid on the table until the next meeting of the club.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Mortimer: I do not see any valid reason why it should be laid over until the next meeting. My impression is that there are enough delegates here to give an intelligent vote on that matter. I think it would be better to decide it now.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to state for the information of Mr. Mortimer that I am in receipt of a telephone communication from Mr. Belmont to-day starting that he would not be able to be present at this time; that he had given this subject quite some thought, and rather than have it go through at once he thought it best to lay it over until it has received more publicity and in order that the different delegates may consult their clubs and consider the matter more intelligently than they could since the publication of the proposed amendment eighteen days ago.

DR. DE MUND: My only object in moving to lay it on the table was this, that while the Rules Committee have received two protests against this proposed amendment, it has been endorsed almost unanimously by every one who has been spoken to about it, and I thought it might be better to let it go over so that the delegates will have a better opportunity to get instructions from their clubs, than to bring it up hurriedly today.

Mr. Mortimer: I withdraw my objection. I second the motion.

Motion to lay on table was carried.

THE SECRETARY: It is propose to amend Rule XVIII by inserting: “A professional handler shall not be eligible to act as a judge. The definition is, a professional handler is a person who handles, board, conditions or shows dogs for money as a means of livelihood.”

DR. DE MUND: At the request of the Pacific Advisory Committee I move to amend that as follows:
“This rule shall not apply to shows held under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee.”

Motion seconded.

Mr. Mortimer: I do not see why the rule should not apply to the Pacific Coast as well as the this part of the country, but I am opposed to the amendment altogether. I think we are shutting out a class of men who are thoroughly up in dogs, and it is a great pity to restrict the number of resident judges. I do not think we should shut out all handlers from judging. I do not think we should shut out all handlers from judging. I know there are cases where it has proved objectionable where a handler has been asked to judge a dog that he has been handling at previous shows, but I think if my proposed amendment had met with the approval of the Committee it would have done away with that trouble entirely, and there would be no trouble in finding out what dogs were in possession of such handlers because the exhibitors would be keen enough to inform upon that point at once. I mean to say that such a rule would not make any trouble for the American Kennel Club. As the rules stands at present we are shutting out a great many good breeders from judging. For instance, we shut out a man like Mr. Rutherford who breeds fox terriers.
The Chairman: Not for a living.

Mr. Mortimer: Why should we shut him out from being a judge?

The Chairman: We are not doing so by this proposed amendment.

Mr. Mortimer: He cannot judge Fox Terriers at any show where he exhibits them.

The Chairman: This proposed rule has nothing to do with that case at all.

THE SECRETARY: This refers entirely to professional handlers and defines what a professional handler is.

Mr. Mortimer: But the amendment to the proposed amendment is that it shall not apply to shows held on the Pacific Coast. Why it should be recognized here and not on the Pacific Coast I cannot see any valid reason for.

DR. DE MUND: I make this motion only because I was requested to do so by the Pacific Advisory Committee. They approve of the rule, but they say it is almost impossible to get judges out there without calling on professional handlers, and that the conditions there are not the same as they are here. I am merely offering that as a suggestion, but I would like to say on behalf of the Rules Committee and also the Investigating Committee, that this proposed rule originally was heartily endorsed by several professional handlers themselves who act as judges. They say they would like to have it passed.

The Chairman: One of the members of the Pacific Advisory Committee spoke to me about it, and he said that the number of judges out there is very small and they had to rely on some of these handlers to judge their dogs; if they could not avail themselves of professional handlers as judges, they could not get anybody. That is the reason they ask for this exception.

Mr. Mortimer: I think it would be a great absurdity is we pass any such rule as that.

Mr. Hobbie: What is to prevent sending a dog West to get so many points toward the championship? Some handler might be out there with a strong of dogs. I think if you cut the handlers out in the East you ought to cut them out in the West.

Mr. Keyes: If it is in order I should like to move that this motion be applied also to the Pacific Coast as well as to the East.
The Chairman: All you have to do is to vote the amendment down.

The amendment providing that this rule shall not apply to the Pacific Coast was put and lost.

Mr. Frothingham: I think you are going to have some trouble in defining a professional handler. There are a great many men who work in stores for a means of livelihood who are perfectly willing to show a dog once in a while and receive $5.00. You are also going up against the proposition of a professional handler who runs a dog kennel and has a head boy under him. The boy does not receive money for handling dogs and yet he earns his livelihood by working in a kennel. Is he going to be a professional handler or isn't he?

Mr. Mortimer: What about the owner of this big kennel?

Mr. Forthingham: He is the one who gets the money; the boy does not get the money.

Mr. Earnshaw: Do I understand that this question of licensing judges goes over to the next meeting?

THE SECRETARY: It must come up at the next meeting. The License Committee was directed to formulate rules to govern it and submit them to the Rules Committee, and it will come up at the May meeting.

Mr. Earnshaw: There seems to be no objection to a man judging dogs providing he is not boarding or showing dogs.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I think this is covered by the other rule that the only people we can recognize as professional handlers are those who are to be licensed as professional handlers. One who is not licensed as a professional handler is not one so far as we are concerned.

The question was then put on the proposed amendment and it was carried.

THE SECRETARY: It is proposed to add to Rule XIII, governing clubs: All specials offered must be described or value stated.

On motion the same was adopted.

THE SECRETARY: It has been decided by the Rules Committee to substitute the following amendment in place of the one passed at the meeting held Jan 17: “The Chairman of the Board of Directors who, in the absence of the President and Vice Presidents shall preside at all meetings of said board and shall have all powers of the President of the club except that of calling meetings of he club and executing contracts.

On motion the same was adopted.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were adopted as published in the Gazette.

The secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, May 19, 1913

To The Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:--

I beg to report that since the last meeting I received applications for Active Membership from six clubs, two of which, namely: the Newark Kennel Club, and the Empire Beagle Club came to hand too late to publish their application in the April 30th Gazette, and one of which the Bulldog Breeders’ Association of America, at its heading before the Membership Committee which reports that the application be returned to the Bulldogs Breeders’ Association of America for consent of the parent club, under Rule IV. As the parent club (The Bulldog Club of America), has refused to grant its consent, the application and fees will be returned to the Bulldog Breeders' Association of America.

Thirteen Clubs have filed credentials for delegates, two of which came to hand too late to be published in the April Gazette, therefore, will lay over until the next meeting, one of which, the New England Collie Club appointee informed the Membership Committee that he declined to act.

It has been the custom to present the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee to the Board of Directors, but owing to adverse criticism by said Pacific Advisory Committee and the Public Press, I deem it advisable to present these minutes to the Delegates at large.

In order that they may thoroughly understand the condition of affairs, I would particularly request the privilege of reading at length the minutes of that Committee of its meeting of April 4, and an informal meeting of May 2, for the reason that your secretary has been adversely criticized for his conduct in reference to a telegram received by him on the morning of the annual meeting, Feb 18 last. The telegram reads as follows:

“A. P. Vredenburgh, 1 Liberty Street. NY: Charles W. Conlisk, unanimous choice Convention Coast Clubs and endorsed by Committee and nominated to Board of Directors for election to vacancy on Committee caused by expiration of Stewart’s term. Convention unanimously urges Pacific Coast be exempted from amendments to Rule IV governing clubs and Rule XVIII governing shows. Sentiment very strong that serious injury Coasts interests would result from those amendments. Twelve clubs represented at Convention and request you notify their delegates as follows: Golden Gate, Western Fox Terrier, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Ladies’ Toy Airedale, Del Monte, Sonoma, Pasadena, Northern California.

J. P. Norman

If your secretary was willing to take advantage of a technicality, he would respectfully call attention to the fact that the above telegram was a personal one. It was neither addressed to him as secretary, nor signed by Mr. Norman as Secretary, however, there is no desire to plead that technicality

The nomination of C. W. Conlisk, was reported by me from the information given me by the above telegram. The request to me to notify the Club Delegates of the instructions of the different Clubs present at the above mentioned Convention was ignored by me purposely upon the ground that I declined to act as a messenger between the Coast Clubs and their Delegates.
In my opinion, the proper course to have been pursued was for them to telegraph direct to each delegates. The above telegram was handed by me to the Chairman of the Rules Committee and that Chairman reported in behalf of his Committee to the effect that the amendment to Rule XVIII governing shows should not apply to Coast Clubs. I either committed an error in declining to act as a messenger between the Coast Clubs and their delegates or I acted properly in the course that I pursued, and I would respectfully request an expression of opinion and a vote at this meeting as to whether I acted properly or improperly.

The following clubs were admitted to Active Membership by the Pacific Advisory Committee. At the Feb meeting, the Bay Side Kennel Club of Southern California and the North Western Boston Terrier Club. At the April meeting, the Oakland-Alameda County Kennel Club, and the Pacific French Bulldog Club.

On April 16, Clarence Sackett filed his resignation as a Delegate to represent the Seattle Kennel Club.

A communication from the Golden Gate Kennel Club, and the delegates from twelve Coast Clubs, on the subject of reconsideration of certain amendments adopted at the annual meeting has just been received, and will be presented at this meeting for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and the action of the secretary was unanimously endorsed.

The report of the Membership Committee was read as follows:

Report of the Membership Committee

The applications before the Committee for Membership and for Delegates were considered by the Committee and the application of the Bulldog Breeders’ Association of America was declined in consequence of their not having received the consent of the parent Bulldog Club to their admission, as is necessary under Rule IV, of the Membership Committee Rules.

Deeming it inadvisable to elect any delegates until after the May meeting, Mr. Smith declines to vote on the applications of the delegates before the Committee.

Howard Willetts, Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Moore: The Publication Committee would like to announced to the delegates that the new stud book is ready for distribution. It is printed in five sections instead of one volume as heretofore, and each section is one dollar per volume.

Mr. Moore: I should like to ask that the Old English Sheepdog Club be reinstated as a member of this club, said club having been dropped from the roll last Feb for non-payment of dues.

Failure to pay its annual dues was due to the neglect of the secretary of that club, who has resigned.

Mr. Howard Willets: I move as an amendment that said club be reinstated on payment of its dues, dating from the 1st of Jan.

Motion was seconded and carried.

Mr. B. S. Smith: I desire to call attention to a mistake which was made at our last meeting. The secretary’s report reads as follows:

“The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs: Boston Terrier Club – Frank A. Teeling; Lynn Kennel Club -- Dr F. H. Osgood.

The secretary read the following communication with reference to the election of directors:

“For vacancy in the class of 1914, Charles W. Keyes

Mr. Moore: I move that the secretary be directed to cast one ballot for their election.

Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary stated he had cast a ballot for the gentlemen named, and they were declared duly elected."

It would seem that the delegates made a mistake at that meeting in electing to office Mr. Keyes to a place already filled by Dr. Osgood. The point is that Mr. Keyes was elected to fill a vacancy which did not exist. Dr. Osgood still remained a director because his term did not expire until 1914. He had previous to the election of the directors been elected a delegate by the Lynn Kennel Club. Therefore, there was no vacancy to fill.

The Chairman: He would have to be a delegate in order to qualify as a director.

Your contention is that he had already been elected as a delegate to another club?

Mr. B. S. Smith: That is the case according to the record.

Mr. Hunnewell: When did Dr. Osgood cease to be a delegate?

The Chairman: He did not cease to be a delegate at
Mr. Hunnewell: He was transferred from one club to another without any lapse in that club?

The Chairman: So I understand. The withdrawal of his credentials must be submitted. It states here on the credentials, this is to certify that at the meeting of the credentials, this is to certify that at the meeting of the Scottish Terrier Club for example, so and so was regularly elected as a delegate to represent such club at all meetings of the American Kennel Club, the same to remain in force until these credentials have been duly elected and accepted by the American Kennel Club. As I understand it, in the case of Dr Osgood, whatever took place with regard to his resignation from one club and his election as a delegate to the other, took place between meetings, and then naturally the withdrawal of his credentials form one club, and being substituted for another at one and the same meeting, he did not cease to be a directors.

Dr De Mund: It seems to me it would be a question of when his successor was elected. If his successor as a delegate was elected first, Dr Osgood would cease momentarily from being a delegate and therefore a director.

Mr. Palmer: You elect your delegates before you elect your directors. When you voted on your delegates and you elected Mr. Teeling and you elected Dr. Osgood, you then came to the election of directors, and then you elected Mr. Keyes, but Dr. Osgood was still a delegate and a director. The election of delegates comes before the election of directors.

Mr. Sawyer: When Dr. Osgood was elected delegate from his present club, he could not at that time be a delegate from the Boston Terrier Club. Therefore there was a short time in which he was not a delegate. After he was dropped as a delegate of one club, he was elected as a delegate of another club. Being dropped as a delegate of one club, he would be automatically dropped from the Board of Directors, as I understand it.

The Chairman: No necessarily. It depends on the order of the action.

Mr. Hunnewell: Dr. Osgood was a delegate all the time. His going from one club to the other occurred in the infinitesimal fraction of a second.

Mr. Teeling: The Boston Terrier Club voted after they had heard that the Lynn club had voted for Dr. Osgood to represent them, and they sent a message to the secretary withdrawing their former delegate’s credentials, and the secretary must have that letter.

THE SECRETARY: That is the fact.
Mr. Bloodgood: I don't think there is any rule that prevents anybody from being a delegate to more than one club.

THE SECRETARY: You cannot be a delegate from two clubs.

Mr. Keyes: I would like to place my resignation before the delegates to act upon as they see fit, as it is apparent that I was elected under a misapprehension.

Mr. Cutler: I think this question ought to be decided properly, and I think there is only one way to decide a question of this kind, because it is going to be a precedent. There was a vacancy, there was not any chance to elect a successor. At the time that the question came before this Board, to elect a successor to Dr Osgood he was a director. He was a delegate at that time, and there was not any reason for saying that he had not resigned his office as director. He had not been removed. How can you elect a successor to a man who is already in office? It seems to me that there is the whole nub of question. It does not matter whether he did not cease momentarily to be a delegate. The question is whether it came before the body. Was there a vacancy in the directors in the Class of 1914?
The Chairman: It depends entirely upon the record. If, as was stated, the credentials were withdrawn officially by the club, if Dr Osgood's credentials were withdrawn and received by the secretary, and there was no other notice of his election as a delegate of any other club, then Dr Osgood did, under the rules, cease to be a director. If, after that, he was elected a delegate, he could only become a director provided that a vacancy still remained open. He ceased then, and there was a vacancy, and the secretary reported that as a vacancy. The secretary will have to stated the sequence of events in order to satisfy the delegates whether they are right or wrong in any action they may take.

Dr Osgood: If the secretary would read once more what is required for the election of a delegate, you will see that a delegate, remains in office until he is removed at a meeting of the club. Any letter sent prior to a meeting is not considered until the next meeting.

The Chairman: This is a certification that so and so was regularly elected as a delegate to represent a certain club at all meetings of the American Kennel Club, the same to remain in force until these credentials have been withdrawn by said club at any meeting, or until his successor has been duly elected and accepted by the American Kennel Club.
Dr Osgood: I raise the point that the credentials, if withdrawn, must be withdrawn at a meeting according to our rule which you have just read.

Mr. Hunnewell: I object to a ruling of that kind on this basis: Supposing delegate was disqualified by the president under our present rule, he would not serve as a director pending the time between that time and the next meeting.

The Chairman: The club would have the right under its consideration to disqualified him as a delegate.

Mr. Hunnewell: Dr Osgood brought up the point that the action did not become effective until the meeting took place. I claim that a delegate could be disqualified by the President, and he could not serve as a director or delegate in the meantime, until the next meeting. He would be barred from being a director or delegate during that time.

The Chairman: Each club is governing by its own constitution.

Mr. Hunnewell: You have a right to disqualify anybody.

The Chairman: You mean by the President of the American Kennel Club?

Mr. Hunnewell: yes.

Dr Osgood: No, that is not the question. It is simply the removal of a delegate from office at any other time by withdrawing credentials. There is nothing about disqualification whatever.

The Chairman: The meeting in these credentials does not refer to a meeting of the American Kennel Club, or a directors’ meeting, but a meeting of the club itself.

Dr Osgood: Our meeting is held, we will say, three months from now. Tomorrow a club withdraws its delegate and send the secretary notice. That notice distinctly states that he shall hold office until those credentials are withdrawn at a meeting of the American Kennel Club.

The Chairman: The Chair will rule that the interpretation refers to the club electing the delegate and not to the American Kennel Club.

Dr Osgood: I take exception to being removed from office. The secretary can state that this action was not taken at a meeting of the Boston Terrier Club.

Mr. Lauder: Some years ago when the question came up, I had been the delegate of the Scottish Terrier Club. The Scottish Terrier Club appointed another delegate, and in the meantime I was carried on as a director, having been nominated as a delegate by the West Highland White Terrier Club. I was carried on as directors in the interim. I simply state that for your information, if that has any bearing on the question.

The Chairman: It depends on the manner in which it was done. For example, as I interpret the rule with regard to that, if at a meeting of a club a member of the American Kennel Club the credentials of a delegate are withdrawn, and the notification of that withdrawal were filed with the secretary of the American Kennel Club, then and there that delegate ceases to be a delegate of that club.

Mr. Lauder: But I still remained a director.

The Chairman: He ceases under the rule to be a director at the same time.

Mr. Van Schaick: It seems to me that it is simply a transfer from one club to another.

The Chairman: Mr. Cutler makes the point that you should decide this matter today because that is the way you have acted on it, isn’t it? You did know that a vacancy existed at the time of your receiving the withdrawal of the credentials of Doctor Osgood.

THE SECRETARY: The fact is that when the Boston Terrier Club sent notice withdrawing Doctor Osgood as their delegate, they had no delegate under that withdrawal until the following meeting of the American Kennel Club, when Mr. Teeling was accepted.
Mr. Chetwood Smith: It states very directly that this man continues in office as a delegate until his successor is appointed and qualifies. The man is still a delegate until the next meeting.

THE SECRETARY: No, not if he is withdrawn.

The Chairman: It says he ceases to be a delegate when those credentials have been withdrawn or until his successor has been duly elected.

Dr Osgood: Might I ask if it does not say, “At a meeting.”

The Chairman: The Chair has rule that as referring to the club itself, and not to the American Kennel Club.

Dr Osgood: It must have been, according to the Chair’s ruling, at the meeting of the Boston Terrier Club that my credentials were withdrawn. I ask the secretary for a copy of the letter withdrawing my name as a delegate, and ask him to state to the delegates whether that action was at a meeting of our club or not.

THE SECRETARY: I cannot answer it without getting the letter.

Dr Osgood: I make a motion that the secretary be requested to get that letter.

The Chairman: This association acted on the report of the secretary that a vacancy existed, and naturally it is impossible for you to decide this question until you have learned the facts on which he based his report that a vacancy existed. It looks at the moment as if these credentials were withdrawn and an official notification was given to the secretary. Now, Doctor Osgood claims that his withdrawal as a delegate was not according to the prescribed method in his credentials, and that he was withdrawn simply by a notice from an officer without action at any meeting of the club, and therefore he must establish lack validity. If that is the case, but he would still be a delegate from the club from which they claim he had been withdrawn as a delegate. If Dr Osgood’s club is wrong, he is a delegate from that club and they have not elected a successor.

Mr. Cutler: Here is another point: Is not the proper body to decide this question the Board of Directors themselves? That is to say, both of these gentlemen, we assume, claim a seat in the Board of Directors? This Board of Delegates assumes that they were elected, that one was. The other man claims that the present man was not properly elected. There is not any vacancy and we cannot elect anybody. One of the men is properly elected. Is not the body to which they seek a seat the one to decide who is entitled to it?
The Chairman: Yes, it is going to take some time to decide this question here, and I would suggest, as we have a great many questions to pass upon this afternoon, that it might be well if a committee of three were appointed to investigate the record here and then report a little later. That will save time.

Mr. Hunnewell: I think this question is one of committee work, and the question of the credentials should be referred to the Membership Committee or to the License Committee. I move that it be referred to the proper committee.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Frothingham: It seems to me that this question is purely one of technicality, in other words, legal business. I move that it be referred to the attorney, or whom ever you might employ, to be decided.

The Chairman: Your motion is out of order. The motion before the house now is that the matter be referred to the proper Committee.

Dr Osgood: I move that the secretary be requested to read the letter which he has brought forward in accordance with a previous motion.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Sawyer: I renew the motion that it be referred to a Committee.
Dr Osgood: I would like to move as an amendment, and preface my remarks by stating that I feel that I would be debarred from the meeting of the Board of Directors which I feel I am entitled to attend. I was elected according to the constitution to hold office until 1914. I have never ceased to be a delegate, and if you so rule, that upon removal as a delegate I ceased to be director, I would like to ask the Chairman to call my attention to the section in the constitution that so provides.

The Chairman: I stated, Dr Osgood, that if your credentials have been withdrawn you ceased to be a delegate. The question is whether they have been properly withdrawn. The question as to the validity of that withdrawal we now propose to refer to a Committee.

Dr Osgood: I take exception to being ruled out of the Board of Directors, even though I had ceased to be a delegate, and I ask the Chairman to show me the rule in the constitution that provides that a director ceasing to be a delegate shall cease to be a director.

The Chairman: As I recall, he has got to be a delegate to be a director. Up to the present time the directors have been elected from the delegates. In my own case I understood that I qualified by being elected by some other club which went out of existence. The reading of it is an inference which has been acted upon so far as I can see, and it was upon that that I based my statement that that has been the accepted method of action. I understand that there have been no directors elected outside of the delegates, and this is the provision: “The incorporators shall constitute the Board of Directors until the annual meeting in 1909, or until their successors are elected. At the annual meeting in 1909, or any adjournment thereof, the delegates, and shall elect thirty directors, six of whom shall hold office until the annual meeting in 1910, six of whom shall hold office until 1911, six of whom shall hold office until 1912, six of whom shall hold office until 1913.” And so forth, enumerating the classes, and at each annual meeting thereafter the delegates shall elect six directors to hold office for five years.” There is not anything in that which specifically states that a director must be a delegate. That has been assumed or inferred. Doctor Osgood claims that not being the case, that there is nothing to prevent his remaining a director after he has been elected at the expiration of his term, whether his credentials as a delegate have been withdrawn or not. It is for you to decide this question. I ruled according to the practice as I understood it, but there is nothing in the constitution which provides that the directors are to be elected entirely from the delegates. If that is not to be the case, then the entire Board of Directors need not necessarily be delegates. You could elect six directors at the next annual meeting who were not delegates.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: Did he not always represent a club? He was never in a meeting here where he did not represent a club?

THE SECRETARY: Always.

The Chairman: There is no question raised as to that. If his credentials were withdrawn in the proper way and were lodged officially with the American Kennel Club, he did not cease to be a director because he ceased to be a delegate. If he was elected afterwards, the vacancy would still exist until the following meeting.

Dr Osgood: The constitution distinctly stated here “The club shall be governed by a Board of Directors of thirty members.” It further stated that they shall elect six members of certain classes up to 1914. I was elected in 1909, to the Class of 1914. There is absolutely nothing in that constitution that shows that the failure to remain a delegate disqualified me as a director, and further, there is a motion before the house that Mr. Vredenburgh be asked to procure and read a communication from the Boston Terrier club withdrawing my credentials and the Chair has ruled that those credentials must be withdrawn at a meeting of the club. The Chair has ruled that
It should be a meeting of the show giving club. We take no exception to that. I simple ask the secretary to read the letter in accordance with my motion and say whether it was taken at a club meeting.

Dr Osgood’s motion that the letter referred to be read was seconded carried.

The secretary then read the letter in question.

Mr. Teeling: I have waited patiently until the letter wad read, and I wish to state here now the form that we have of electing a delegate in the Boston Terrier Club. The Executive Committee elects the delegate to represent the Boston Terrier Club at the American Kennel Club. The club has no right whatever to withdraw a delegate. It can not elected a delegate, neither can it withdraw a delegate. The body that elects the delegate must withdraw him if he is going to be withdrawn. That motion was passed at an Executive Committee meeting, and the notice was sent here and filed all right in every particular, and that is the only way that a delegate can be withdrawn or elected in our club.

Dr Osgood: As a member of the Boston Terrier Club, a past president, who has held every office in the club, I want to assure everyone of you gentlemen that every action of the Executive Committee is subject to the approval of the club, and that this motion, as having been put to the club --
Mr. Hunnewell: We are talking a great deal about the Boston Terrier Club and our own rules. I move that this matter be laid on the table pending action by the proper Committee.

Motion seconded.

Dr Osgood: I move as an amendment to that motion that in view of the fact that it bars me from the meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chair rule upon the evidence submitted whether the notice as sent complies with the ruling he has made, or whether by the constitution the mere fact that I was dropped as a delegate disqualifies me as a director.

Amendment seconded.

The Chairman: The Chair declines to rule because it would be deciding the question, not of fact as to the credentials, but as to the manner in which the credentials were passed upon, and that the Chair cannot rule upon.

Mr. Hunnewell: If Dr Osgood would put his amendment in such shape that it would empower him to act as director until the Committee had put in its report, I should accept that amendment, and not the statement that you have made any ruling.

Dr Osgood: I accept that. I offer an amendment that I the interim until this matter is decided I still act as a director.
Dr Osgood: The constitution provides for thirty directors. We have thirty directors, and I do not see by what right we can have thirty-one directors.

Mr. Palmer: Inasmuch as this matter was decided by the delegates at the last meeting, I think that it is up to the delegates to assume the responsibility and to settle it now and not refer it back to any Committee.

Mr. Bloodgood: It seems to me that this should be referred to the Board of Directors. It seems to me that it is out of order here.

Mr. Teeling: I would like to ask a ruling if a man is not a member of the American Kennel Club can he be a director?

The Chairman: By inference that is the action that has been taken, but it will be necessary for you to pass upon the interpretation of the constitution in that matter, and the Chair has ruled, and the only way to interpret it is to take an exception to the ruling of the Chair. If you vote not to sustain the Chair, that would interpret the constitution to the effect that there is no provision that a director must be a delegate, and that question is removed altogether, because it is only by implication. I suggest therefore that somebody take exception to my ruling in order to test the question.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: I make such a motion, that the ruling of the Chair be sustained. Dr. Osgood was one of the original incorporators of the club, and according to the constitution, as far as I can see he is a member for life, therefore be never ceased to be a member of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Van Schaick: I second the motion that the ruling of the Chair be sustained.

The Chairman: The motion is made, and I understand seconded. If you do not sustain my ruling you will not be offending the Chair. This is done for the purpose of bringing the question to your attention and for you to interpret the constitution. If you vote against the ruling of the Chair you interpret the constitution to mean that a director necessarily does not have to be a delegate, and the constitution has been read to you, and I will read it again. If you take exception to the ruling of the Chair, you interpret that as giving you the right to elect a director from anyone in the club whether a delegate or not.

Dr. Osgood: I would like to speak on the motion before it is put. I think, gentlemen, this is a very important matter. It is not a matter of whether we want to elected directors from outside the body, but it is a matter of what the constitution says. You deprive me of the rights which the delegates gave me in 1909, to remain on this directorate for five years. I ask by what right --- and there is absolutely not one word in that constitution that gives you the right to bar me from the Board of Directors. Not I recognize Mr. Belmont does not want to make the ruling. He wants the matter discussed here because it is an important matter, and some amendment to this constitution should be made whereby a director must be a delegate, which is not at present in there. I was one of those who drew up that constitution, and I know pretty well what is in it. The only thing that qualifies the removal of anybody is Section 6: “In the event of an incumbent of office (excepting secretary and Treasurer and members of the Pacific Coast Advisory Committee) ceasing to be a director, his term of office, or as Committeeman, shall then and there cease.” That is the only qualification in that constitution that puts anybody out of office, and that is a man ceasing to be a director or ceasing to be a Committeeman, and I would like to call the Chair’s attention to that. I feel really that the Chair does not want to be sustained in a ruling that is not right, and it seems to me that we should not sustain the Chair in this ruling, but that we should make an amendment in proper form and have it published and reported to the next meeting that a director must be a delegate.

The Chairman: If you do not sustain the Chair then Dr Osgood naturally remains a director. He never ceased to be a director and the election of his successor is void. That is a very easy way to dispose of it.

Mr. Howard Willets: In view of the fact that this constitution says absolutely nothing about who the delegates shall elect as directors, it is plain that we may elect anyone we choose. You cannot read into the constitution anything else. Custom may have changed it, but you can not change it. We as delegates elected Dr Osgood as a director to serve until 1914, and we cannot put him out simply because he is not a delegate. He is a director under that constitution. When we elected him last yes, or whatever year it was, we elected him, and it makes no difference whether he was a delegate or not. Under that constitution this club has the right to elect anybody, and Dr Osgood has never ceased to be a director, and he is a director until 1914, and the club did what it did unconsciously in electing Mr. Keyes to fill that vacancy, because there was no vacancy. I think this discussion is entirely outside of the matter. That is one reason what I think the Chair ought not be sustained in this ruling.

Mr. Cutler: I think this is one of the most important questions we have had come before us, and ought to be discussed in all seriousness. I remember very well when the question came up before. I think it was Mr. Willets at that time who argued very similar to the manner in which he is arguing now. Gentlemen, as I understand it, it was said at that time that there was no provision in the constitution which provided that a director need be a delegate. The spirit of that constitution is, it seems to me, that the delegates shall select the directors and shall select them to serve five years, and any other interpretation of that constitution would mean that we cannot have our way about governing our own club; that some local difficulty in a local club may prevent the American Kennel Club from having the most valuable member perhaps in our whole organization from serving on our Governing Board. It is a good deal of a question whether it is wise to day that the Board of Directors should be the same as the Board of Delegates. It would not be, it seems to me, at all out of accord with the real spirit of the constitution of the American Kennel Club to say that they should be made up of a different personnel. The delegates come here elected to represent different clubs, clubs having various interests, specialty clubs, show giving clubs, clubs of local interest and clubs of general interest throughout the country, and the local club of course would be the best judge of what person could represent it best. But when those delegates come here and elect a Governing Board, it seems to me that it would be a wiser provision to have the delegates select the directors wherever they may find them and get the best talent available in the dog fancy. It does not seem to me, to restate the question, that the delegates when they have chosen a board of thirty directors to serve in five sections, five classes, each class to serve five years, that its will expressed by that election ought to be invalidated by some local quarrel that may exist in some little club, we know not where not we know not how it may have arisen. I can well conceive of a man who was the most valuable person that we could have in the American Kennel Club and the most valuable person that the American dog fancy could have, his services being rendered unavailable simply because one majority out of a club of give or six did not want him here. It only turned on a clause or a sentence that made that decision in the first place, and we have now come to a point where it is before us again, and it is a good deal of a question in my mind whether we ought to sustain that precedent. There is something to be said on both sides, I know, but I have often thought – I considered it at the time that the original decision was made, and I have though of it a great many times, and I had a great deal to do with the drawing of that constitution. I have doubted many times whether we ought to have decided in the way we did, and I do not think there is one word in that constitution which says, either expressly or impliedly that the directors should necessarily have to be delegates. I therefore think it would be a fair interpretation of that constitution and much more to the good of the American Kennel Club and the dog fancy and to have the best talent in the country to serve on that Board rather than have local clubs decide whom we will have.

DR. DE MUND: I rise to a point of order. Our rules expressly provide how every question of interpreting the constitution and by-laws must be judged. If you will turn to that rule you will see that the Rules Committee are the sole arbitrators at first as provided for in the By-laws.

Mr. Keyes: As I seem to be mixed up in this unfortunate affair, I think, as I said before, that I should be very glad to place my resignation before the delegates, as I was elected through a misinterpretation of the rule.

A roll call vote was then taken on the motion to sustain the ruling of the Chair, which resulted in the ruling of the Chair being not sustained by twenty-six to eighteen votes.

The Chairman: The vote on the roll call was twenty-six noes and eighteen ayes. The Chair is therefore not sustained. The result of the vote is that Dr Osgood, being a director was not disqualified from his directorship by reason of the withdrawal of his credentials as a delegate. It will be now in order to move the correction of the record to conform with that direction.

Mr. Howard Willets: I make such a motion.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Howard Willets: I would like to amend the constitution by proposing an amendment which shall read that the Board of Directors shall elect as a Board of Directors from their own number, consisting of thirty members.

Motion seconded.

The Chairman: I understand that this will have to go to the annual meeting, and therefore no action will be taken until then.

Motion carried.

Mr. Hooley: I think that the club should take some action in some way in regard to the gentlemen who was elected. He has certainly been very gracious in the matter, and we should express some regret for our action in putting him in the position he has been put in.

Mr. Moore: I move that the club express its regret to Mr. Keyes in placing him in this unfortunate position.

Motion seconded and carried.

The following named clubs were elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: The Bulldog Breeders’ Association of American has been refused approval until such time as the Bulldog Club of America shall file its consent to its membership.

The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs as delegates:

Scottish Terrier Club    William H. Mulford
Eastern Dog Club    George S. West
Kennel Club of Philadelphia    J. Chandler Barnard
Toy Spaniel Club of America    Daniel P. Ritchie
Plainfield Kennel Club     Rupert W. K. Anderson
Manchester Terrier Club of America    William P. Wolcott
Greyhound Club of America    Robert Sedgwick, Jr.
Washington Kennel Club     Emory M. Wilson

THE SECRETARY: I ask the privilege of reading the report of the Pacific Advisory Committee of April 4, and May 2

MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco
April 4, 1913

PRESENT: W. W. Stettheimer, J. E. deRuyter, N. T. Messer, C. W. Conlisk
ABSENT: Carroll Cook

Mr. Stettheimer in the Chair.
The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The secretary stated that he was in receipt of a letter from Mr. Cook, announcing that illness was the cause of his absence from this meeting, and on motion, Mr. Cook was excused.

It was moved and seconded that the rules be suspended, in order to hear the appeal of G. L. Meade: Disqualification for infraction of Rule II. Appeal for reinstatement, on trial being made – It appeared that G. L. Meade acted as an official at two certain shows held under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, while in ignorance that the shows were so held, and on his signing an engagement to support only shows held under American Kennel Club rules:

It was moved and seconded, that said G. L. Meade be and is hereby restored to good standing. Carried.

The secretary read the following report:

San Francisco, April 4, 1913

Pacific Advisory Committee

Gentlemen:

I take pleasure in advising you that the nomination of Mr. Charles W. Conlisk to the vacant seat on this Committee was unanimously confirmed by the American Kennel Club.

The Pacific French Bulldog Club of San Francisco and the Oakland and Alameda County Kennel Club of Oakland, Cal. have applied for membership; the Spokane Kennel Club has applied for a license to hold a show at Spokane on Sept 15, 16, 17, 18, 1913, and the Ladies' Kennel Association of So. California, for a license to hold a second show at Los Angeles on Nov 27, 28, 19, 1913.

All these applications are in conformity with the rules, and I recommend that they be granted.

The case of Smith vs. Bonham has been postponed to this meeting.

I submit the application of G. L. Meade for retrial, the appellant has presented himself for trial.

Mrs. J. Tremble complains of treatment accorded her at the L.K.A. show on November 1912.

The Tacoma Kennel Club has been obliged to cancel their show on account of rabies scare. They have issued their premium list, but now request the refund of deposits and license fees. As the Committee granted a similar application from the Salem club, I would recommend the same course in this case.

Dates for eleven shows have been approved to date, and the two applications for license before this Committee, will, if granted bring the total to thirteen.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman, secretary
On motion, the report was approved.

The following clubs were elected to membership on the American Kennel Club:
The Pacific French Bulldog Club of San Francisco, Cal.
The Oakland and Alameda County Kennel Club of Oakland, Cal.

The following applications for license were approved:
Spokane Kennel Club to hold a show at Spokane, Wash. on Sept 15, 16, 17, 19, 1913.

Ladies Kennel Association of So. Cal. to hold a show at Los Angeles, Cal. on Nov 27, 28, 29, 1913.

On motion, it was resolved that the case of Smith vs. Bonham referred to this Committee by the secretary of the American Kennel Club, be laid on the table.

In the matter of Mrs. J. Tremble, complaining of various matters at the Los Angeles show of November 1912, it was resolved that the secretary inform the writer as to the rules.

In the matter of the application of the Tacoma Kennel Club for the return of their deposits and license fees; it was moved and seconded, that inasmuch as the Tacoma Kennel Club through no fault of its own is unable to hold its contemplated show by reason of a serious rabies scare and the consequent wholesale shooting and poisoning of dogs:
This Committee do hereby recommend to the American Kennel Club, all deposits and fess of said club be returned to it. Carried.

The Chair made the following statement:

“I deem it my duty, however disagreeable, to place before you the circumstances connected with a recent decision of the delegates of the American Kennel Club.

I refer to the annual meeting held on Feb 18, 1913, where an adverse vote was cast on the proposed amendment to amendment of Rule 18, Rules Governing Shows.

The proposed statement originally read:

“A professional handler shall not be eligible to act as a judge. The definition of a professional handler is a person who handles, boards, conditions or shows dogs for money as a means of livelihood.”

A request has been made originally by me and later on by the Pacific Advisory Committee unanimously endorsed by twelve clubs under our jurisdiction at the semi-annual convention of delegates held in San Francisco Feb 14, 1913, which request asked to have the amendment amended to read:

“This rule shall not apply to Shows held under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee.”

When I first heard of the proposal of this amendment #18 I felt convinced that the adoption of same would result in unnecessary hardships for the coast and impair its natural growth, and therefore made it my business when in New York last Jan., to protest in person against the adoption of same to the First Vice-President of the American Kennel Club, to the Chairman of the Rules Committee, and to the secretary of the American Kennel Club, and pointed out following objections in detail, which in my opinion, were worthy of more serious consideration than they ultimately received at the meeting.

Firstly. The show giving Clubs under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee, number 26, and during 1912, 19 shows were held.

Secondly. The distance from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast is about 3,000 miles, the return railroad fare including Pullman and Meals and other incidentals, figures roughly $250.00, and the traveling time from coast to coast consumes from four to five days each way.

Thirdly. The greatest difficulty confronting a show giving Club on the coast is the booking of a judge who can act as an all rounder. The compensation asked for usually runs between $350.00 and $600.00, which figure is not out of the way from a judge’s standpoint, it being practically a two weeks trip, but on the other hand this figure confines the Coast Show giving Clubs to the selection of one judge.
for the entire show who must be capable of passing on all breeds. It is practically out of the question owing to the huge expense, to select specialists. To my knowledge, nearly every show held on the coast is a money losing proposition.

Fourthly. Notwithstanding the prevalent idea that there are a number of all round judges to choose from, the Coast has found it no easy matter to secure same, and I have definite data that it is sometimes necessary to wire to as many as a half a dozen different judges before being able to make connections. It is practically a matter of impossibility to sign up any judge during the months of Jan, Feb or early in March, due to the Westminster and Boston Shows which require their presence either in capacity of exhibitors, superintendents, handlers or reporters, etc.

Fifthly. By eliminating handlers as judges, the choice of all rounders would be restricted to very few men, and it has been the experience of show giving Clubs on the Coast, that no all rounder draws well, if brought out too often. I quotes Mr. Mortimer, beloved by all as a most capable judge, who visited the Coast in 1912 after three years absences; drew an entry of over five hundred dogs in San Francisco during March was requested to judge Santa Cruz four months later, and while this town is situated but 90 miles from San Francisco and easy of access by railroad, the entry there dwindled down to about 150 dogs, consisting chiefly of the late San Francisco winners and some Santa Cruz local dogs.

Sixthly. The subject of local judges was thoroughly gone over, and the development of same on the coast was pointed out as rather slow, chiefly due to the fact that the opportunities of studying the breeds is restricted to those few fortunate ones who have embraced the opportunity of visiting our large Eastern and Foreign Shows regularly. Above fortunate ones are mostly kennel owners or breeders who do not want to deprive themselves of the few opportunities of showing their own dogs, and the recently enacted rule preventing judges from exhibiting has deprived the Coast in most instances of securing certain amateurs as judges, whose services formerly could be counted upon.

Seventhly/ I pointed out the very important fact, especially to the Chairman of the Rules Committee, that the professional handlers were held in high esteem by the various Coast show giving Clubs and the bulk of the fancy. The catalogues of the various Shows at which these professional handlers acted as judge, bore out my statement. I also stated that from what I was able to gather from many active fanciers in the East, the ability of professional handlers to act as competent judges was fully recognized and accepted. In discussing the subject, I was not ready to accept the theory advanced, that their proposed elimination as judges in the East was a popular move in the right direction, and I could not reconcile myself to the action of the Investigating Committee whose report was printed in the American Kennel Gazette, December 31, 1912, from which I learned that two professional handlers had been summoned for infractions of rules, had been found guilty, were merely censured, also warned against the second offense.

The report continues with a recommendation prohibiting professional handlers from judging at any show, and I did logically infer that this recommendation was entirely due to infractions committed by two men, therefore, expressed myself that it appeared a grace injustice to legislate a body of experienced dog judges out of office because two men had committed infractions, which the Investigating Committee did not deem sufficiently grace to place before a Trial Board, and I furthermore, criticized what seemed to me an undemocratic move in the wrong direction, and pure class legislation, viz.: the denial of judging privileges to men in good standing with the American Kennel Club, whose worldly possessions were small, thereby obliging them to condition and handle dogs for the purpose of being able to follow the game.

Eighthly. I was assured of the support of the chairman of the Rules Committee that the Coast would be exempt from the rule, and had all reasons to believe that the proper consideration would be given to my arguments; in fact, I felt that the work had been practically accomplished. I may quote as a precedent, that when the rule was proposed three or four years ago, denying all Ribbon Shows with less than 250 dogs benched, any points towards Championship, I protested to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club against the application of this rule to clubs under our jurisdiction, and without any amendment to the rule, the Coast was exempted on the grounds that we were operating under a different schedule of points towards Championship than the East. I may add, that at the same time I argued that this rule would be a great hindrance towards building up in the middle West, a very much neglected territory, where no Show could muster over 200 dogs, and yearly thereafter I made a plea towards the abolishing of this rule so that all territory west of Chicago and east of the Coast line could be developed, but it was only this year after the territory unfortunately, had been invaded by an outlaw league, that action was finally taken.

You gentlemen will remember that at the official semi-annual convention of members of the American Kennel Club, in San Francisco on Feb 14, 1913, with 12 delegates representing their clubs present, I outlined the conversation had in New York for the purpose of receiving your approval as well as the endorsements of the various show giving clubs; same was unanimously given and substantiated by a telegram forwarded to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club reading as follows:

A. P. Vredenburgh, #1 Liberty Street, New York.

Charles W. Conlisk unanimous choice convention Coast clubs and endorsed by Committee and nominated to Board of Directors for election to Committee caused by expiration of Stewart’s term. Convention unanimously urges Pacific Coast be exempted from amendments to Rule four governing shows, and Rule 18 governing shows. Sentiments very strong that serious injury Coast interests would result from those amendments. Twelve clubs represented at convention and request you notify their delegates as follows: Golden Gate, Western Fox Terrier, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Ladies, Toys, Airedale, Del Monte, Sonoma, Pasadena, Northern California.

In explanation of the protest to Amendment of Rule IV governing Shows, will state that the proposed new rule was to empower the License Committee to withhold winners classes etc. The Coast Delegates disapprove of the ruling, on the grounds that same would cause more harm than good on the coast, - and the objection was included in the telegram, although the Delegates understood that the application of same would not be enforced on the Coast by the Pacific Advisory Committee, which in its agreement with the American Kennel Club, was granted the powers of the license Committee.

I now turn to the stenographer’s transcript of the annual meeting of the Delegates of the American Kennel Club, Feb 18, 1913, and call your attention to the fact that the Secretary’s report contains no mention of an official telegram of instruction sent him by the Pacific Advisory Committee and 12 members of the American Kennel Club with a request to notify their respective delegates nor were the contents of this telegram mentioned during the discussion of amendments 4 and 18. That the telegram was received was clearly shown by the appointment of Mr. Charles W. Conlisk to the pacific Advisory Committee which was portion of same, and I furthermore was informed last week that the telegram was turned over by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club to the Rules Committee. Had it been intended for the rules Committee it would have been addressed to the Chairman of this Committee.

I will now read you the discussion on the Amendment, and if after hearing same, you gentlemen, can conclude that our request was given the slightest consideration or even the proper amount of courtesy, I am at your disposal to be convinced.

(Chairman read Stenographer’s transcript of meeting of delegates of American Kennel Club Feb 18, 1913.)

I shall leave the verdict to you gentlemen, regarding the proper manner of proceeding, but for myself, I will simply say that the time has evidently arrived when the parent body has seen fit to disregard a most earnest request made by a Committee specially appointed for the purpose of guarding its interests on the Pacific Coast, and I personally feel that my usefulness on the Committee is ended, as I cannot reconcile myself to the parent body’s recent action.

On motion of Mr. Conlisk, it was resolved to take a recess for the purpose of considering the Chairman’s statement.

On reconvening, Mr. de Ruyter moved and Mr. Messer seconded:

“After listening to the clear exposition of the history of this unfortunate matter by our chairman, two results of it become directly apparent and demand out immediate attention.

1st. The American Kennel Club, by refusing to act in accordance with the request of 12 show-giving clubs on this Coast endorsed by the unanimous vote of their Advisory Committee, have in my opinion clearly shown that they are not in sympathy, harmony or accord with the requirements of the Kennel world of the Pacific Coast.

2nd. That in refusing to be guided by the unanimous and unequivocal advice of this Committee, it becomes apparent that we as a Committee are placed on the impossible position of advising the American Kennel Club when our advice is neither wanted nor heeded.

Therefore I offer the following resolution:

This Committee views with both alarm and regret the refusal of the American Kennel Club to heed their strongly expressed wish and advice that the Pacific Coast be exempted from the operation of the law forbidding clubs to employ professional handlers as judges at their shows, believing that this law will ultimately end the existence of a large number of our Coast shows; moreover, this Committee declines further to occupy the undignified position of advising where their advice is neither potent nor vailing and, while expressing all loyalty and regard for the Parent body, they and their Secretary hereby resign individually and collectively as members and Secretary respectively of the Pacific Advisory Committee, said resignation to take effect immediately. In order, however, that neither the Kennel interests of the Coast nor the American Kennel Club in New York shall be embarrassed by our action, I suggest that we continue to care for such business as may require our attention until April 30th, next; after which all matters shall be referred to the home office in New York.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Stettheimer yielded the Chair to Mr. Messer and moved that a vote of thanks be accorded to Mr. J. P. Norman for his long services to the Pacific Advisory Committee and American Kennel Club.

Mr. de Ruyter seconded and the motion was Carried.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

INFORMAL MEETING OF FORMER PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at Palace Hotel, San Francisco, May 2, 1913

Present: W. W. Stettheimer, Carroll Cook, J. E. de Ruyter, Charles W. Conlisk, Nat T. Messer, J. P. Norman

Mr. Stettheimer in the Chair.

The following resolution was moved, seconded and Carried.

WHEREAS, the Pacific Advisory Committee resigned from the American Kennel Club on April 4, 1913; same resignation to take effect immediately, and due notice thereof was sent by registered mail to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club in April 7, 1913, same resignation being accompanied by an offer to take care of any business needing immediate attention until April 30, 1913, so that neither the kennel interests on the Coast not the American Kennel Club in New York would be embarrassed, and

WHEREAS, to date May 2, 1913, no communication has been received by this Committee from the AKC indicating that any official action had been taken to acquaint the Clubs under former Pacific Advisory Committee jurisdiction that all matters should in future be referred to the home office in NYC.

BE IT RESOLVED, that for the purpose of avoiding unnecessary delay to Coast Clubs, the members of the former Pacific Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club hereby request Mr. J. P. Norman, their former Secretary to immediately notify all Clubs interested of the resignation of the Pacific Advisory Committee by forwarding a copy of the minutes of the meeting held on April 4, 1913, and be it furthermore

RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club for his information and guidance.

MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Held at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco
Feb 15, 1913

Present: W. W. Stettheimer, N. J. Stewart, J. E. de Ruyter, N. T. Messer, C. Cook

W. W. Stettheimer

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and on motion approved.

The Secretary read the following report:
Feb 15, 1913, Pacific Advisory Committee

Gentlemen:

Three clubs have failed to pay their 1913 dues, and are therefore, suspended; they are, Alameda County, Snohomish County and Vancouver Exhibition Association.

I submit application for membership in due form from the Northwestern Boston Terrier Club of Seattle and they Bay Side Kennel Club of Southern California, of Venice, Cal.

Various communications are submitted, including appeal from W. G. Cox to reopen case vs. Colorado Kennel Club, accompanied by deposit of $10.00.

Papers in re George W. Smith vs. Mrs. S. L. Bonham, charge of misconduct, Cause of action took place in Chicago and St. Louis, and case is remanded to this Committee by the AKC because the defendant lives at present in San Francisco.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. Norman, Secretary

On motion the report was approved.

On motion it was Resolved, that the Northwestern Boston Terrier Club with headquarters at Seattle, having made the consent of the Pacific Boston Terrier Club a part of its application, be and is admitted to membership in the American Kennel Club.

On motion it was Resolved, that the Bay Side Kennel Club of Southern California, with headquarters at Venice, be and is admitted to membership in the American Kennel Club.

Re Cox vs. Colorado Kennel Club: an appeal to reopen
It was moved and seconded that appellant’s appeal be denied and deposit returned. Carried.

In the case of Smith vs. Bonham, referred to this Committee by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, it was Resolved that consideration be postponed to next meeting.

The Secretary reported that the semi-annual Convention of Delegates had unanimously recommended Charles W. Conlisk, to this Committee for the vacancy caused by the expiration of Mr. N. J. Stewart’s term of office.

It was moved and seconded that this Committee do hereby approve such recommendation, and that Charles W. Conlisk is hereby unanimously nominated to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club, for appointment to the vacant seat on this Committee. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that this Committee views with the utmost regret, the retirement of Mr. Norman J. Stewart from its ranks, and extends to him the sincere thanks of the Committee and the American Kennel Club, for his services unselfishly and unremittingly rendered to the Kennel interests of the Coast, and for the sacrifices of time and energy involved in those services, Carried by standing vote.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

We have a communication from the Seattle Kennel Club, asking that American Kennel Club or Pacific Advisory Committee, furnish at cost, the rules governing dog shows printed ready for insertion in the premium lists.

The Ladies Kennel Association of So. California, writes endorsing the proposed new rule of the AKC, abolishing all unclassified specials.

J. P. Norman
Secretary Pacific Advisory Committee

On motion, the report was approved.

Mr. Cook brought up the notice given at the previous meeting of a motion that future conventions be held annually instead of semi-annually, and moved that said motion be adopted. Mr. Russell seconded the motion, which was Carried.

The Chair stated that Mr. Norman J. Stewart’s term on the Committee had expired, and that it would be in order to nominate a successor to the vacancy, which nominations would be forwarded by the Committee to the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club for election at the annual meeting in New York on the 18th inst.

Mr. Russell nominated Mr. Charles W. Conlisk and Mr. Collins seconded, and the nomination was unanimously Carried.

It was moved seconded and carried, that this Committee recommend to the American Kennel Club that the clubs in the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee be exempted from the operating of the proposed amendments to Rule IV, on the ground that serious injury would result to Pacific Coast interest.

Rule XVIII. On the same ground, as the Coast by reason of its geographical position, is unable to secure judges, who are not handlers, except at prohibitory expense.

It was moved seconded and carried, that the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee be requested to forward the following telegram to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club:

A. P. Vredenburgh, 1 Liberty Street, NY

Charles W. Conlisk unanimous choice Convention Coast Clubs and endorsed by Committee and nominated to Board of Directors for election to vacancy on Committee, caused by expiration of Stewart’s term.

Convention unanimously Urges Pacific Coast be exempted from amendments to Rule IV, governing shows and Rule XVIII, governing shows. Sentiment very strong that serious injury Coast interests would result from those amendments. Twelve clubs represented at convention, and request you notify their delegates as follows:

Golden Gate, Western Fox Terrier, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Ladies, Toys, Airedale, Del Monte, Sonoma, Pasadena, Northern California.

The suggestion of the Seattle Kennel Club that the American Kennel Club furnish at cost the printed rules for insertion in premium lists, was recommended to the American Kennel Club for favorable consideration.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

Attest:  J. P. Norman,
          Secretary
At a meeting called by the Golden Gate Kennel Club on the 13th day of May, 1913, at Room 402 Humboldt Bank Building, to which meeting the various delegates of members of the American Kennel Club under former Pacific Advisory Committee jurisdiction were invited to be present, the following resolution was unanimously adopted to be forwarded to the American Kennel Club to be read and made part of its official minutes at the meeting to be held May 20, 1913.

WHEREAS, at the semi-annual convention of members of the American Kennel Club under Pacific Advisory Committee jurisdiction held in San Francisco on Feb 15, 1913, and official telegram was forwarded to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club in New York, instructing him to inform all delegates representing members to vote against the adoption of proposed amendments to Rules 4 and 18 governing shows at meeting to be held in NYC, Feb 18, 1913, and whereas, the contents of said telegram were not made part of the official record of Feb 18 meeting, nor the receipt of same with voting instruction disclosed to any of the Coast delegates causing them to remain in ignorance of the wishes of their clubs, and whereas due to this lack of knowledge, our delegates voted against our specific interests.

BE IT RESOLVED, that we protest against the adoption of amendments to Rules 4 and 18, and call for a reconsideration of the votes on same at the meeting to be held May 20, 1913, and

BE IT FURTHERMORE RESOLVED, that the American Kennel Club at its May 20th meeting be requested to select a delegation to visit San Francisco, and meet a convention to consist of delegates representing various members under former Pacific Advisory Committee jurisdiction, at which convention a draft of some government rules for the Coast in accordance with the constitution and by-laws of the American Kennel Club will be submitted to said Eastern delegates for adoption.

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
NYC

Dear Sir:--

I am in receipt of several communications from the P. A. C. touching the matter of its ceasing to exist, by reason of resignation, also a call for a meeting for May 13th, at San Francisco, which was not mailed from San Francisco until May 9th, and received by me May 12th. The Seattle Kennel Club is vitally interested in this whole matter, and would have had a representative at the meeting if notified in time.

At this distance we may not know just all the facts that go to make up the incident, but have some information by letter and other sources. The Seattle Kennel Club is in accord and heartily favors the new rule prohibiting handlers from acting as Judges.

We find no difficulty in securing satisfactory Judges, or at least as satisfactory as is possible.

We think the action of the P. A. C. in this matter insubordinate, hasty, ill considered, and to say the least childish, and think a change in the personnel and location of the Committee would work to the advantage of the entire Coast.

Very respectfully,

W. B. Bailey, Secretary

The Secretary: I submit the resignation of Clarence Sackett, as a delegate representing the Seattle Kennel Club.

On motion the same was accepted.

Mr. Howard Willets: I have been instructed by the San Mateo Kennel Club, which I represent, to bring before the delegates the question of the amendment to rules 4 and 18, in regard to the clubs formerly under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee being exempted from such rules and I have been instructed to give notice to this meeting that I must bring that up at the proper time and try to have it passed, and I now give such notice, so that it will go before the Rules Committee at the next meeting.

The Secretary: The rule went into effect on the 18th of this month, which includes the whole country.
Mr. Mortimer: I proposed an amendment to the Rules Committee, which I think would obviate that rule altogether, and I will ask Dr. De Mund, as Chairman of the Rules Committee, if he will read that amendment of mine, if the Chair is willing to have it read.

Dr. De Mund: I would state that Mr. Mortimer’s amendment was proposed and brought in after the Rules Committee had adjourned, and it could not be acted upon because that was the last meeting of the Rules Committee prior to the publication of the Gazette. Under the rules, a new rule, or an amendment must go first to the Rules Committee to be acted upon by them, published in the Gazette and then appear before the Delegates. The last meeting of the Rules Committee was held just before the Gazette went to press, and Mr. Mortimer’s amendment was proposed after the adjournment of the meeting of the Committee, after some of the Committee had gone home, and it was impossible to consider it under our By-laws, and therefore, it cannot be acted upon at this meeting.

Mr. Mortimer: I simply ask that my proposed amendment be read before the delegates here.

Proposed amendment by Mr. Mortimer read as requested.

Mr. Bates: I want to protest. I have received instructions from the Western Fox Terriers Breeders’ Association to protest against the handlers’ rule, with the same instructions as Mr. Willets has received.

Mr. Mortimer: It was rather unfortunate that my letter containing these amendments was too late. I first thought of mailing the letter enclosing the proposed amendments, but knowing that the Rules Committee were meeting on this particular afternoon I brought the letter here myself and handed it to Mrs. Lewison, and asked her to at once hand it to Dr. De Mund. She told me that the Rules Committee was sitting at the time, and the letter was taken in. Of course, I do not know whether the Committee had got through with their meeting or not, but I know that Dr. De Mund and all the members of the Rules Committee were present; that is, all that were originally present were present at that time.

Dr. De Mund: I beg to say that that statement is not so. The Rules Committee had adjourned and the members were not present. There was not a quorum of the Committee present, and it could not be considered.

Mr. West: As I understand, if a delegate is instructed by his home club to vote a certain way, he must vote that way. There were twelve votes, telegraphed on here by 12 clubs from the Pacific Coast instructing their delegates to vote a certain way, and when that amendment was put those 12 delegates did not vote for it. I think they are voting contrary to the way their clubs instructed them to vote.

The Secretary: They did not receive the instructions.

The Chairman: The Secretary of the American Kennel Club was instructed to notify the delegates, and he declined to convey those instructions, not being a messenger. It was unfortunate that that happened to be the fact that they chose A. P. Vredenburgh to convey that information, but of course, it is very possible that they thought that that was the shortest way to reach their delegates, because their delegates were here. I would like to say for the American Kennel Club that it is a great misfortune that this has occurred. We have had three different rumpuses here, and in each instance we have endeavored to keep the whole kennel world under proper discipline and under the control of the American Kennel Club, but by delegating to the Pacific Advisory Board the full powers there, we were satisfied, and it has turned out to be for the best interests there.

You can well understand if you were connected with dog interests out on the Coast and you requested the American Kennel Club to exempt you because your conditions were different there than they are here, conditions under which you really should think you should receive some consideration – they would feel in this instance if you did not listen to them, that you do not represent them. They are better interpreters of their interests than you would be. They gave a very clear statement of their position, and this is an opportunity offered to you to rectify that. You will not expect to have any official relations with the Pacific Coast if you do not yield in this one matter for the reason that you make their shows inoperative. They are not situated as you are here, and whether you like it or not, whether you think it is for the best discipline of dogdum or not, is not the question. What good is a rule for protecting kennel affairs, if those rules cannot be enforced. Therefore, if you do not yield on that subject, you will enforce no rules there of any kind. I think it is of vital importance that somebody should go, if it is necessary to pursue it, and confer with those clubs. They have published this matter far and wide. It has been sent to every single club out on the Western Coast, and to the newspapers. The first think you know you will have the Middle West making a similar request. We have had trouble with the Middle West. We have had trouble with Chicago. Chicago always gave trouble. I have never known a time when it did not, es-especially when questions arose between New York and Chicago. We had it 25 years ago. You have the Pacific Coast to deal with. Once they are organized there you will have them reaching out to the Middle West or to Canada for reciprocal arrangements, particularly if they are active. I do not want to suggest to you that the American Kennel Club do anything undignified, but if you really want – not want, because that is not the proper spirit, but if you really feel that it is for the best interests of dog affairs that you should exercise jurisdiction all over the United States, you ought to proceed to try to do it in the proper way. That particular concession clearly has got to be made. They naturally feel that what they want should be conveyed through their delegates; that their delegates here are supposed to act for their interests. It does not make any difference about their motives, they did not want to have any votes weighing against them. There was no such spirit, as I recall from what I have gathered with regard to the subject; there was no such spirit at all. The spirit that prevailed here was that it was for the best interests of kennel affairs that professional handlers should not judge. I do not agree with that at all. there is the sort of method of conduct which prohibits; for instance, to stop drunkenness you must stop drinking. You simply presuppose that professional handlers are prejudiced and therefore, it must be that they have a commercial interest to serve, and you do not want them on that account. All you do is to enforce your rules and your discipline against those that you discover to be inconsistent for judging behind a chain instead of in front of you. You passed that rule, and you have brought about a very awkward state of affairs. I think and I want to say this to you in all sincerity, I think we have over-refined the American Kennel Club’s method of discipline. You have so many rules and amendments and suspicions that you have got the dog world in a ferment. This is an over-refinement. It is not practiced elsewhere, and it was only on the supposition that the professional handlers were not trustworthy. That is not a proper interpretation to put upon it. I have in mind a professional handler speaking to me about it and he felt that it was a sort of reflection. As you presiding officer I do not want to influence you and do not intent to try to influence you with regard to thin, but I want to point out to you that there has been an atmosphere created of a kind which makes for discomfort, similar to that last subject we had here about that publication disciplining a newspaper or publication, and I think we all agreed that we had no business to do that, and we all saw the error, but you know if you try to over-refine and over-do your restrictive rules – make rules too restrictive, you are going to do more harm than good, and in the case of your will go on until you finally have another uprising and for no particular reason other than that they get a little too much government.
Mr. Howard Willets: I quite agree with what you have said, and I move that the action of the delegates in regard to professional handlers be rescinded so far as it affects the clubs formerly represented by the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Frothingham: I have listened with great interest to what you have said, and I think it is one of the best things I have ever heard said as far as the dog game goes. I think what you said about pointing suspicion towards the handlers not only applies to the handlers, but I think that it applies to some of the best amateurs that we have. I do not want to mention any names, but I can see absolutely no reason why Mr. Rutherford should not judge Irish Terriers at New York and shows Fox Terriers in New York. We have a great many instances of that kind. We have Mr. Offerman, who is a great amateur judge who is in the same position. I think it would be a very good think to absolutely abolish the rule, if it is possible to do so in regard to the showing and judging business. I also think it would be a good thing to abolish the handler rule, not only so far as the Pacific Coast is concerned, but as far as we go, and if there is any possible way to do it without putting it up to the Rules Committee and waiting six months or three months or something like that, I should like very much to put the motion in the way of being carried here.

The Chairman: I started to ask for information from the Secretary if there was any precedent for an amendment being reconsidered at a subsequent meeting. I should dislike to assume to consider a motion in order of the kind you suggest unless there was a precedent for it. Your Committee have reported, and of course the Constitution only provides that all amendments shall be carefully considered before they come to you for action, and in order to save your time. That question has therefore been properly considered, and you passed upon it and confirmed it.

Mr. Hunnewell: It is not a fact that any motion can be reconsidered if the prosper and the seconder votes for the motion? If they voted no, they could not vote for reconsideration, but they voted for the motion, therefore they have the right to reconsider. If they could do it in an hour, could they not do it at the next meeting?

The Chairman: I presume that the delegates could claim that they votes under a mis-apprehension and request a reconsideration of the motion that affected any subject at the preceeding meeting. The question is as to the rules.

Mr. Hunnewell: There is nothing new that came from the Rules Committee. We are voting on it as we voted on it that day. Suppose the two members who voted for it moved for reconsideration, I think they have the right to do so.

Mr. Bloodgood: We had many communications disapproving of the handlers judging and we formed our opinion from those communications and from our own ideas, and I think that if A. P. Vredenburgh had communicated to the Coast delegates, the telegraphic instructions, he would have been called down by a good many members of this club. The should have communicated with their own clubs. Their desires were urged by the Chairman of the Rules Committee, and the delegates voted unanimously. I do not think there were more than three or four of the Pacific delegates here at that meeting.

Mr. Champion: We heard from the Pacific Coast. I am a delegate from the French Bull Dog Club. I recollect how they wanted this vote taken, and they wrote back that they would like to have you object to and vote against the barring of professional handlers, as they – and particularly in the middle and far west-must depend upon them to act as judges, and several of them are too good men to lose as judges. You have referred to the Middle West, and I have a letter from the Middle West on the subject.

Dr. De Mund: You spoke of the handler rule not being desired, and there has been a great deal of talk throwing the responsibility of the rule on one person or two persons. When the investigating Committee first took up the matter they were in receipt of numerous letters from all over the country asking that that rule be made. They reported it to the delegates a their suggestion. It was unanimously adopted. It was adopted by the directors and then it came up from the Rules Committee and then it was unanimously adopted. Since that time it has not appeared here by we have received communications from the Coast, from thirty exhibitors are the last Golden Gate Show requesting that we not rescind that rule. The rule seems to be popular all over the country. Personally I do not care one way or another about it, but think it is only fair that we should understand the situation and I think that the majority of the delegates here know that the sentiment all over the country is in favor of that rule. That is what the investigating Committee went by, not by the wishes of any man on the Committee or member of it; merely the sentiment we received.

Mr. Frothingham: I think when Dr. De Mund speaks about it being adopted unanimously, that that is not quite true. At the last meeting I votes against it. I think there were a great many people who had it sprung on them suddenly, and did not fully consider it. When he speaks about a letter which was written from the San Francisco Show by thirty disgruntled exhibitors, I think you could get that letter from almost any show. I lived out there for a while and I know that three of four of the exhibitors who signed it did it simply because they were beaten without any thought of anything else. It seems to me in regard to this discrimination against handlers as well as judges and against a man judging at a show when showing at a show that you have the remedy in your own hands. If a man does anything wrong you can disqualify him. There is the remedy. If anything is proven or anything comes up, your Rules Committee or License Committee or whatever it is has the power to stop him and drive him out of the game. I was well aware when this came up, and in fact every one is who has shown very much, but it seems to me just because two or three handlers have gone around at one day shows and one man would show the dogs of another, and the next day the other fellow would judge and the other man would show the dogs, it seems to me it is rather unfair to rule out all the other men just because there were two or three or four or five or six or twenty or thirty at fault. I see no reason why they should be discriminated against, and I think the Chairman’s remarks when this discussion started about being suspicious and causing all this friction, which is absolutely unnecessary, were very well timed and you have the remedy in your own hands, and I can not see any sense in it.

Mr. Hooley: Before this discussion goes any further I want to make a suggestion in regard to Mr. Frothingham’s remarks. There is something that we do not want to go on record. Mr. Frothingham may know some of these exhibitors were disgruntled but they should be treated with just as much courtesy as other exhibitors who were satisfied. Mr. Frothingham probably knows thirty exhibitors who were disgruntled, and that they were poor losers, but I think we ought to be very careful how we speak of Coast people. These may be particularly good exhibitors so far as I know. I have a number of friends on the Coast and there were several in that list that I do not think were several in that list that I do not think were in that class. I also suggest that something be done today in some form in regard to appointing a trial board for the Middle West just in line with this matter; also one on the Coast is our Coast Committee has resigned as a solution of this trouble; say for instance two from Seattle, two from San Francisco, one from Los Angeles and two from Chicago and one from some other place, so that they could have their meetings in St. Louis or Chicago. This is with the understanding that they have absolutely refused to serve any more, and that our Advisory Committee out there is a think of the past.

Mr. Mortimer: I claim that my proposed amendment would do away with all this difficulty. I ask you to read it.

The Chairman: I understand that amendment perfectly well. It precludes the possibility of a man judging a dog if he has a special interest in it within a certain length of time, but I want to give you an experience of mine on this very subject when I used to show. My kennels were conducted on the regular commercial principal, not because I cared anything about the cost, but because I thought it was the only proper way to encourage the spread of the breed, so that any body could buy at my kennels, and anybody could approach my kennels just as they could professional kennels, and in that way I thought the blood would be better distributed; so I was just as much a professional breeder as my employee. I sent two terriers, one an imported one and the other a home bred one, to Providence, and the judge was not an owner and was not a breeder. He was connected with a certain newspaper and he did not know what to do. He knew these two, and he was judging behind the chain. So he gave the ribbon to this third one that happened to be mine, and he turned to my kennel man and said: “I didn’t know that was yours.” That gave that absolutely away. There was the case of a man who had no interest in dogs. That was followed by another in contrast. A very prominent breeder sent to England to beat my dog, Champion Victor. He bought a dog and bitch from a certain prominent professional breeder, and he judged often there. Whether he had any influence in the matter or not I do not know, but he was very much pleased to learn that the Westminster Kennel Club had engaged this man to come and judge at the show. That was a professional breeder and judge and owner who certainly could have a commercial interest in the result of the competition and much to this gentleman’s surprise he put Victor over his own former two dogs. I want to say that it is not so that you must judge a professional always by the standard of personal interest, and I repeat there is my own experience, and that is why I feel that way about it. I think that a professional has a greater incentive to sustain his reputation for good judgment and impartiality sometimes more than the amateur – more than the man who is currying favor by reason of being connected with some newspaper. He has a reputation to sustain, and whole such a thing may occur as illustrated, most of them in England where I have been and where Mr. Mortimer has been, those men are above suspicion and always stood on an equal footing with Mr. Redmond and Mr. Tinne good amateurs, amateurs who have conducted their kennels on absolutely amateur lines. There is no greater compliment to a breeder whether amateur or otherwise, than to secure a big price for his dogs. I do not care what these exhibitors say, it is a very unfortunate thing to put too much confidence in them. I do not always agree with the judges. I am no longer a breeder or an exhibitor, but I have been a judge and a breeder, and I do not admit that at the time I was not up with the rest of them. Everybody growls after a disappointment. It is human nature and too much weight ought not to be attached to what you call the disgruntled exhibitor, and particularly a reformer who thinks that everything is absolutely rotten. You will find some people that do not thinking it is possible for things to be conducted decently. That is not true and when a man whose living depends absolutely upon his fair dealings and who knows that irregularity will cost him his livelihood, you can trust to that man as well as you can trust to your rule.

Mr. Cutler: I am heartily in sympathy with what the chairman has said. It does seems to me that we ought to have some way of letting the public know that we intend to be fair to the professional members of our own fancy. I think this resolution is an insult to a large body of dog fanciers. The fact that a man follows the dog as a livelihood does not discredit him. If an amateur lacks the moral quality which makes him a fit person to judge, he ought to be debarred from judging. If a professional lacks the moral fibre which is necessary to make him a judge, he ought to be debarred from the ring, but I do not think that the line ought to be drawn between one who is a professional and one who is not a professional. I wish I could think of a way to bring it up at this meeting. You have been kind enough to refer to me as thinking about it and I was trying to think of a precedent. I doubt very much if there is a rule that requires that the matter must be laid on the table and we could reconsider it ---
The Chairman: This amendment is universal.

Mr. Cutler: Mr. Mortimer’s proposed amendment is no more than laying down as a rule what every honest man should appreciate and follow with a rule, but if it is a fact that there has been some infringement of that rule, I should think that that would be a proper rule to follow, but I do not understand that has come before the Board.

The Chairman: It can only be referred to the Committee on Rules. It is a very good amendment, but there is always this danger, any position you put a man in, if he has an interest, he is just as liable to do injustice in leaning away as to go forward. If a man is supposed to have an interest in a dog or has had one that has gone to his friend, the danger is when he comes into the judges ring that he feels that perhaps there might be some reflection on him if he gives his support to that dog because he has owned him, he is just as likely to go wrong by leaning away. Therefore it would be a good thing to debar everybody from judging or awarding a prize to a dog that he has any interest in.

Mr. Cutler: I wonder if we could not refer the whole matter to the Rules Committee with a recommendation that they will bring the matter before the next meeting in proper form, and with an intimation to the public that we want them to bring in something in favor of the rule that will do away with the so-called Handler’s Rule.
Mr. Hunnewell: Referring to Mr. Mortimer's proposed amendment, in case the Westminster Kennel Club gave a show, the dogs come into the ring and the judge finds he handled one of these dogs three months before, what is going to happen?

Mr. Moritmer: He could not judge it. You would have to withdraw the dog. This rule when published, would become public property and every exhibitor would know about it, and every man that acts as a judge will also know about it and the conditions in respect to it.

Mr. Hooley: There seems to be a feeling here that this rule applies to professionals entirely. That rule does not debar any professional who is not a handler. There will be hundreds of professional judges. Mr. Mortimer is recognized as one, Mr. Watson is recognized as another, and many others, but they are not debarred from judging. It is simply the question of a man combining the handling of dogs with judging.

Mr. Howard Willets: I made a motion sometime ago. Do I understand that it is not in order, that we cannot rescind our action?

The Chairman: It is the sense of this meeting that you cannot rescind a rule.

Mr. Howard Willets: That this body cannot rescind any previous action of its own? I did make a motion that the action of this body in regard to the handlers judging at shows be rescinded so far as it applies to the clubs under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee. It seems to me that any body can rescind its own action.

Dr. De Mund: While I am heartily in favor of the Pacific Coast begin exempt, I do not see how we can rescind any action that we took that is embodied in the by-laws. We passed a certain rule; it has gone into effect. In order to rescind or alter or change it in any way, it must be done in the manner provided by the by-laws. That is now a rule of the American Kennel Club and I do not see how we can rescind it off-hand.

The Chairman: I ask the Secretary if there is any precedent for any such action on the part of the Kennel Club?

The Secretary: I do not recall any.

Dr. Osgood: I think Mr. Hunnewell put it very clearly, that two persons who voted in the affirmative on the motion would have a right to ask for a reconsideration.

The Chairman: I think the ground for reconsideration must be some error or something of that kind.

Mr. Cutler: I do not think the ordinary rule of parliamentary order applies here. It is a rule here, but it has got to be laid over a certain time before it can be considered. As has been said that is equivalent to the changing of a rule and you do not change it because you put it in the form of a reconsideration or recission. It is in substance the changing of a rule, and I do not think it would be fair because there may be a great many other delegates who would like to vote on that who are not here. They receive notice now, and in three months it will come up and they can vote on it.

The Chairman: The motion is that an exemption be authorized and referred to the Committee on Rules to report at the next meeting.

The Secretary: This amended rule is now a rule, and therefore to consider it there must be an amendment to it.

Mr. Frothingham: May I put my proposed amendment in that, that the rule shall not only cover the Pacific Coast, but the whole country?

Amendment seconded.

Mr. Frothingham: I move that the rule covering that clause be abolished. I would also like to take in that rule that any exhibitor cannot judge at the same show.

The Chairman: That is a different matter altogether. You are amending a motion in a certain way. You can follow that by proposing any word or amendment that you wish afterwards. The amendment as you proposed it was seconded. All in favor of the amendment to make this exemption apply to the whole country which would be tantamount to its recission, please say aye.

Motion as amended carried.

Mr. Morse: I move that an amendment be made to rule 20 which shall read:
That anyone acting as a judge at shows is absolutely disbarred from judging simply because the big shows, the Westminster Kennel Club and Eastern Dog Club and other big shows, do not put them up to judge because they lose their entries.
I think that sort of question is absolutely up to the Show Committee. I have never seen it abused except in very small shows which do not amount to anything at all, and I think it is absolutely wrong to confine amateurs and gentlemen whom everyone considers authorities on breeds from judging simply on that account.

Motion lost.

The Secretary: The question of unclassified specials was laid over at the last meeting to be brought up at this meeting in order to give every club the opportunity of instructing its delegates.

Mr. Mortimer: I am instructed by the Ladies Kennel Association of America, whom I represent here as a delegate, to strongly oppose the passing of that amendment, on the ground that it will act as a detriment to their shows; that it is a usurpation of the right of shows that are in good standing; shows in good standing should be permitted to offer any special that they think proper so long as it does not conflict with existing rules of the American Kennel Club. The proposed amendment against unclassified specials would rob the Committee of the power to make the show an interesting feature to the public. Our shows everybody knows are dead enough and very few of them pay therefore no prize which is calculated to bring the public to the show to see the dogs. The special would be for the best dog in the show which assembled all the winners in their respective breeds, and for that reason I mean to say it is not only spectacular but it is educational, and I move that the amendment to that rule be done away with.

Motion seconded.

Dr Osgood: I am instructed the same way as Mr. Mortimer is, to vote against it.

Dr. De Mund: I think that most of the delegates are instructed by their clubs how to vote, and I ask for a roll call on that.

Mr. Chetwood Smith: There has been a precedent in the American Kennel Club that it took no cognizance of the specials except to see that the same were paid as offered in the premium list.

Mr. Mortimer: The club has never made any record of specials. Superintendents of shows who think it will help them to be permitted to offer unclassified specials should be permitted to do so; those who do not, need not offer them.

The Chairman: If you vote aye on this question you vote for the amendment, but if you vote no you vote the amendment down.

A roll call vote resulted in 34 nays and 9 ayes.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, HELD AT ITS OFFICES, NO. 1 LIBERTY STREET, NYC, TUESDAY, MAY 20, 1913

President August Belmont in the Chair.

W. S. Gurnee, Jr.

On motion, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, May 19, 1913.

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my usual quarterly report on matters that require your action at this meeting.

At the annual meeting Mr. John Burke was elected a member of the Boston Trial Board. Under date of April 24, 1913, Mr. Burke for business reasons declined to accept the position and therefore it is in order at this meeting to appoint another member of said Trial Board.

Under date of April 16, 1913, W. S. Gurnee, Jr. filed his resignation as a member of the New York Trial Board; that vacancy should be filled at this meeting.

Under date of April 19, 1913, W. H. Sawyer, filed his resignation as a member of the Rules Committee; that vacancy should be filled at this meeting.

According to the action of the P.A. C. It is recommended that the license fee and deposits received from the Tacoma Kennel Club be returned as said club will not be able to hold their show on account of a rabies scare in that city I would recommend that the request be granted.

Tom B. Middlebrooke requests the return of the listing fees amounting to $8.75 which he paid on account of the show held by the New Hampshire State Fair Association at Nashua, N. H. on the ground that the AKC refused to recognize that show.

A communication was received from the Maltese Terrier Club requesting a ruling on the following question:

“A number of specials which have been offered by the club and seem to have no chance of being won owing to stipulated conditions. The Club wishes to know whether the Members which have won legs on same give a written withdrawal of their claims, can these specials be abolished."

A communication from H. P. J. Earshaw, dated March 30, 1913, relative to a case before the Boston Trial Board in which he was the defendant, requests that inasmuch as said Boston Trial Board refuses to act, the AKC will refer the case to the New York Trial Board.

Under date of March 29, 1913, The Zoo Kennel Club appeals for a remittance of a fine of $25.00 imposed by this office for its failure to publish in its catalogue of the show of 1912, the name of the Judge of unclassified specials. The communication is at your disposal.

Dr M. Carey Corkhill protested a dog shown at the Westminster Kennel Club show in Feb last, on the ground that said dog was deaf. This protest was file within the limit of seven days after the closing day of the show, and on March 14 following the dog was examined and pronounced deaf at that time. The decision of the Westminster Kennel Club was that there was no evidence that the dog was deaf at the time of the show, therefore did not sustain the protest. The protestor now appeals from that decision.

At the meeting of December 17, 1912, it was ordered that a permanent Investigating Committee consisting of three Members of the Executive Committee should be appointed. Up to this date, said Committee has never been appointed and I would respectfully request that the same be acted upon at this meeting.

The P.A.C. has presented a bill for disbursements from Feb 26 to April 30 amounting to $35.03, and same has been duly audited by the Auditing Committee, and I would respectfully recommend the payment of same.

At the meeting held Sept 17, 1912, the Publication Committee was given power to publish certain sections of the annual Stud Book, and a sum amounting to $250 in excess of the cost of printing the annual Stud Book was approved. The Stud Book of 1911 cost $1,616. The stud Book and five sections of 1912 cost $2,773.73 an offset to which is the sum of $185 less commission of $46.25 on the advertising account.

I have paid on account the sum of $1,875, leaving a balance due of $898.73. This bill should be audited by the Publication Committee and I will not be authorized to pay the said balance until that authorization has been given me officially by this meeting.

Pursuant to a resolution at our annual meeting to obtain a file of the “Field Dog Stud Book”, I wrote to Mrs. Howe the proprietress of these books, offering to pay for same and in reply Mrs. Rowe forwarded a full file of said books and courteously advised that she was pleased to present the American Kennel Club with the “Field Dog Stub Book”. I sent a personal acknowledgement of thanks for the gift and would be very glad to be directed to forward her the official thanks of the club.

At a meeting of the Directors held May 16, 1911, Mr. S. L. Goldenberg was appointed an agent to represent the American Kennel Club on the then proposed Organization of an International Federation of National Clubs. This Federation has been duly organized and I have a letter from Mr. Goldenberg, dated April 6, 1913, stating that special conditions had been adopted by said International Federation to enable the American Kennel Club to become a member of said Federation and he requests to be informed whether the American Kennel Club desires to affiliate.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit the quarterly Financial Report from Jan 1, 1913 to date.

Balance on hand ........................................ $24,462.14
Receipts to date .......................................... 11,335.18
Total ..............................................$35,797.32
Disbursements ........................................ 12,813.53
Balance on hand ...................................... $22,983.79

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Nominations being in order for Member of the Boston Trial Board, Mr. B. S. Smith nominated MR. Samuel R. Cutler as such member.

On motion nominations were closed.

It was moved and seconded that the secretary cast a ballot for the election of Mr. Cutler as a member of the Boston Trial Board.

The secretary stated that he had cast a ballot for the gentlemen named, and he was declared duly elected.
Mr. Palmer: I should like to ask your permission to ask the secretary why, at the time that Mr. Burke’s name was proposed in place of Judge Cutler’s, he made no mention of it or no criticism of it?

The secretary: The secretary did not think it was his business to object at the meeting. I did protest against it when it was talked of before the meeting, but when it was brought up at the meeting I did not think it was my business to interfere.

Mr. Palmer: I would like to ask why, after Mr. Burke was elected, he was so advised not to serve on that Board.

The secretary: Immediately on the notice to the Boston Trial Board that Judge Cutler had been superseded, both members of the Trial Board sent in their resignations to take effect at once, and returned to this office the papers that they then had under consideration. It was thought that there had been a great mistake made, unjust to Mr. Cutler, and there was a special meeting of the Executive Board called for the purpose of trying to undo what had been done at the annual meeting. The meeting did not eventuate because we were one short of a quorum.

Mr. Howard Willets: May I interrupt one moment? Was
Mr. Burke ever officially notified that it would be unwise for him to accept that office?

The Secretary: Not by me.

Mr. Howard Willets: Then I do not see what this has got to do with it. I think this discussion is out of order.

Mr. Palmer: I understand that Mr. Burke has sent in his resignation, or has declined to serve. The vacancy, as I understand, exists. I understand the man was elected.

Mr. Howard Willets: But I understand the question is whether he was officially notified that it was unwise for him to accept.

Mr. Palmer: Yes.

The Chairman: I sustain Mr. Willets objection to a discussion on that subject, as the Secretary stated he was not officially notified to that effect.
The Secretary: Mr. W. S. Gurnee has resigned as a member of the New York Trial Board.

Mr. B. S. Smith: I would like to nominate Mr. George Lauder jr. to fill the place of Mr. Gurnee, resigned.

Motion seconded.

On motion the nominations were closed.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary cast a ballot for Mr. George Lauder, Jr. as member of the New York Trial Board in place of Mr. Gurnee, resigned.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Lauder was declared duly elected.

The Secretary: I submit the resignation of W. H. Sawyer as a member of the Rules Committee.

Mr. Sawyer: As a retiring member of the Rules Committee I would like to nominate Mr. W. S. Gurnee, Jr..

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations declared closed.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary cast a ballot for the election of Mr. Gurnee as a member of the Rules Committee.

The Secretary stated that he has cast such ballot, and Mr. Gurnee was declared duly elected.

The Secretary: The Tacoma Kennel Club asks for the return of its license fee and deposit amounting to $50 on account of their not being able to hold their show because of a rabies scare.

On motion of Mr. Van Schaick the recommendation of the Tacoma Kennel Club that its money be refunded was granted.

The Secretary: Mr. Tom B. Middlebrooke requests the return of the listing fees amounting to $8.75 which he paid on account of the show held by the New Hampshire State Fair Association at Nashua, in 1912, on the ground that the American Kennel Club refused to recognize the show. Mr. Middlebrooke claims that he paid these listing fees out of his own pocket.

Mr. Chetwood Smith moved that the amount referred to, $8.75, be refunded.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The Maltese Terrier Club request a ruling. The Club wishes to know whether the members which have won legs on specials and give a written withdrawal of their claims, can these specials be abolished.

On motion the matter was referred to the Rules Committee.

The Secretary: I am in receipt of are request from Mr. H. P. J. Earnshaw relative to a case in the Boston Trial Board, that the American Kennel Club refers the case to the New York Trial Board. I would like to state that upon the resignation of the members of the Boston Trial Board they returned the papers in this case to us.
Dr. Osgood: That case has been thoroughly gone over, and it would not take five minutes to decide if it is referred back to the old Board.

On motion the matter was referred back to the old Board.

The Secretary: The Zoo Kennel Club appeals for a remittance of a fine of $25.00 imposed by this office for its failure to publish in its catalogue of the show of 1912, the name of the Judge of unclassified specials.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the fine be $1.00, and that $24.00 be remitted to said club.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Dr. M. Carey Corkhill protested a dog shown at the Westminster Kennel Club on account of deafness. I think it was just within the seven days after the close of the show that she entered her protest. The Westminster Kennel Club heard it on the 14th day of March, and at that time the Vet declared the dog deaf. The Westminster Kennel Club decided that there was no evidence produced that the dog was deaf at the time of the show, and therefore did not sustain the protest. The protestant now appeals from that decision.

Mr. Palmer: I move that the matter be referred to the Trial Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from Feb 26 to April 30, amounting to $35.03, was ordered paid.

The report of the Publication Committee was read as follows:

Mr. Chairman:

Your Committee begs to report that the gross cost of issuing the separate parts of the Stud Book exceeds the amount allotted for that purpose at the Sept meeting and is informed that the Finance Committee refuses to instruct final payment to publisher for that reason.

We ask the Directors to take action on the matter at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Dwight Moore
Chairman

Mr. Moore: We proceeded with this matter, as we supposed, in a very intelligent manner. We were not printers and we were not publishers and if we committed an error it was not intentional, but certainly the bill for the Stud Book is very much in excess of last year. The advertising matter did not come in as we had every reason to believe it would from what we had been told, and the cost of publishing the regular book seems to be more in some particulars, although it does not account for any such excess sum as is shows; but we have contracted the debt and
I presume the club will have to pay it in the first instance. I ask this meeting to authorize the Treasurer to pay it and trust the experience will not be as costly as now indicated. We have 1700 copies which we hope there will be a demand for.

The Secretary: I recommend that the bill be sent to the publication Committee for auditing.

Mr. Van Schaick: I move the bill be paid.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: At the last meeting it was ordered that a permanent Investigating Committee, consisting of three members of the Executive Committee, should be appointed. There has been no appointment yet made.

It was moved and seconded that the matter be laid on the table.

Mr. Palmer: I move to amend by nominating Messrs. Ralph Stewart, Howard Willets and George Greer as members of the Investigating Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I take pleasure in submitting the names of the following as members of the Chicago Trial Board: John C. Eastman, James A. Pugh and William C. Thorne.

It was moved and seconded that these three gentlemen be appointed as members of the Chicago Trial Board.

Carried.

On motion of Mr. Hooley, an official vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Rowe for presenting the American Kennel Club with an entire file for the Stud Book.

The Field Trial Committee reported as follows:

To the delegates of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

The Field Trial Committee begs to report that no field trials have been held.

Respectfully submitted,

Chetwood Smith
Chairman

The following communication was submitted by Mr. Chetwood Smith, president of the Massachusetts Kennel Club:

New York, May 20, 1913

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary of American Kennel Club
1 Liberty Street, NYC

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that Mr. August Belmont was recently elected Treasurer of the Massachusetts Kennel Club.

Very truly yours,

Chetwood Smith, president

The report of the License Committee was read as follows:
New York, May 20, 1913

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

The License Committee beg to report that 11 licenses have been granted since the last annual meeting, and 2 licenses are pending.

The matters referred to this Committee at the annual meeting are now in progress.

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. Hooley

Chairman

On motion the same as accepted.

The matter of the differences of the Pacific Advisory Committee, was thoroughly discussed with the result that it was resolved to request the Pacific Advisory Committee to send a representative to New York with power to act, to consult with the American Kennel Club at any time that it suits their convenience.

The Secretary: There is a question whether the American Kennel Club will join the International Federation of National Clubs.

On motion the matter was referred to the Stud Book Committee.

On motion William G. Rockefeller was excused for absence at this meeting.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB

New York, July 15, 1913

The regular monthly meeting of the Executive Committee was held at the offices of the Club at 2:00pm this day.

New York, July 15, 1912

To the Executive Committee
American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to report the following matters to this meeting for its action.

An appeal from John McGough against the decision of the Trial Board sitting in New York. I am informed that the attorneys for both parties in this case will be present to argue against the finding of said Trial Board.

An appeal from T. J. McGovern against the decision of the Long Island Kennel Club in a protest made at its late show.

An appeal from C. D. Bernheimer from the decision of the Trial Board sitting in New York, and a communication on the same subject from the Chairman of said Trial Board.

The suspension of James Watson by the Committee of the Boston Terrier Club of New York and his defense.

A communication from Dr. De Mund.

Communication from clubs on the Pacific Coast, in reply to a letter to said clubs be direction of the Board of Directors at its meeting in May last.

Charges of misconduct preferred by George W. Smith of Chicago against Mrs. L. L. Bonham of San Francisco. There charges were sent to the PAC, and returned to this office by said Board at the time of its resignation.

A communication from Andrew MacKnight requesting the loan of an original entry form made at the late St. Paul Boston Terrier Club Show.

I beg to announce the death of Singleton Van Schaick, which occasions a vacancy in the Board of Directors, Class of 1914, and also on the Stud Book Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
On motion the above report was accepted and same was ordered on file.

The appeal of John McCough against the decision of the New York Trial Board was then presented for consideration. The original charge and finding of said Trial Board was read to the meeting. B. S. Smith and C. R. Wood, members of the New York Trial Board were called upon to give the facts brought out at the late trial of Wood vs. McGough. Mr. Lederer, counsel for Mccough, and Davison. Counsel for Wood, argued the appeal. On motion the case was adjourned until Sept 24, 1913. The counsel for Wood was granted the privilege to file a cross appeal. On motion the principals in the case will be considered.

On motion of J. W. Appleton, the meeting went into election for a member of the Stud Book Committee to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Singleton Van Schaick. A. C. Wilmerding was nominated for such office, and there being no other nomination, the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Mr. Wilmerding, said ballot being cast, Mr. Wilmerding was duly declared elected a member of the Stud Book Committee.

George S. West was nominated as a Director of the Club of 1914 to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Singleton Van Schaick, and there being no other nomination, the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Mr. West, and he was duly declared elected a Director for the Class of 1914.

A resolution was offered by Dr. De Mund and upon his withdrawal from the meeting, the following resolution was offered as a substitute and adopted:
“Whereas, at the last regular meeting of the Directors of the American Kennel Club, held the 20th of May, 1913, serious charges against Dr. De Mund, a resolution calling for his resignation from said club, and from divers Committees of said club were read and offered by Messrs. B. S. Smith, and M. M. Palmer; and Whereas, the said Messers. B. S. Smith, and M. M. Palmer were then and there advised by the President that the Executive Committee and not the Board of Directors, was the proper forum for presentation of such charges and resolutions. Now be it Resolved that the said B. S. Smith and M. M. Palmer be, and hereby are ordered and directed to file for hearing by this Committee, such charges in proper form against the said Dr. De Mund, and also to produce and file therewith the same paper, or a true copy thereof, setting forth the said charges as was produced and read by the said B. S. Smith and M. M. Palmer at the said meeting of the Board of Directors on the 20th of May, 1913; And it is further Resolved that he said B. S. Smith and M. M. Palmer duly prefer said charges on or before August 20, 1913.”

An appeal from T. J. McGovern against the action of the Dog Show Committee of the Long Island Kennel Club, in its failure to sustain protest made by said McGovern, was on motion referred to the New York Trial Board.

Charges against James Watson, preferred by the Boston Terrier Club of New York was referred to the New York Trial Board.

A request by two members of the New York Trial Board that the case recently before said Board against C. D. Bernheimer be reopened and investigated by the Executive Committee designated Sept 24, 1913 for said investigation.

Charges preferred by George W. Smith, Chicago, Ills, against Mrs. L. L. Bonham San Francisco, Cal. for misconduct in connection with dogs was referred to the Chicago Trial Board.

The request of Andrew MacKnight, St. Paul, Minn for the loan of the original entry form for his Collie “Laddie” at the late St. Paul Boston Terrier Club Show was refused. The Secretary, however, was directed to send said entry form to John F. Selb, Secretary of the said St. Paul Boston Terrier Club with permission for said Selb to exhibit the entry form in question to Mr. MacKnight with the understanding that said Selb will be held personally responsible for the return of said entry form to the office of the American Kennel Club, in its original condition.

On motion, the resignation of the late Pacific Advisory Committee were duly accepted. Communications from several clubs under the jurisdiction of the late Pacific Advisory Committee were read and in accordance with recommendations, it was resolved that C. W. Conlisk, Thomas R. Collins, and F. R. Dutton be and hereby are appointed as a temporary Trial Board sitting in San Francisco, also that J. P. Norman, be and hereby is appointed temporary agent for the sale purpose of approving of all classifications of Shows by Clubs located within the jurisdiction of the late Pacific Advisory Committee.

On motion the Secretary of the American Kennel Club was directed to prepare and submit a resolution on the death of the late Singleton Van Schaick.

On motion the meeting adjourned.
MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Dr. De Mund
F. H. Osgood
On motion Mr. Parker was permitted to bring a matter before the directors.

Mr. Parker: The question is that I preferred charges against James Watson before the Trial Board, which body suspended him, and the understanding was that I was to withdraw the charges. The Boston Terrier Club also withdrew charges against Mr. Watson providing the letter which I dictated and which he signed was accepted by Mr. Smith, to be published in two papers, the Stockkeeper and Field and Fancy. This letter has not been presented by either the Trial Board or by Mr. Watson. He has also submitted a letter to the Field and Fancy of which I have a copy here, which is in no way in keeping with the letter that was given to the Trial Board.

The Chairman: Why does that not go back to the Trial Board?

Mr. Smith: Mr. Parker came to me today in regard to this matter and I told him that I had not heard from Mr. Watson since the meeting of the Trial Board when he was asked what he meant by putting me and the Trial Board in such a position, and I gave him a letter, of which I also gave this gentlemen a copy and told him exactly how things stood. Why he should bring this matter before this meeting is more than I can understand.

Mr. Palmer: In order to get action since July 19th.
Mr. Bloodgood: Why was Mr. Watson reinstated if he did not conform to the decision?

Mr. Smith: The decision of the Trial Board was, with Mr. Parker’s consent and also the consent of Mr. Waterhouse, that Mr. Watson should do certain things, and he has not done them. I went to our Secretary and asked what I should do with Mr. Watson for not complying with the instructions of the Trial Board. I wrote Mr. Watson a letter asking why he did not comply with the conditions imposed, and telling him that they must be done within the next two weeks or we would publish the affair in the Gazette.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not see why Mr. Watson should be reinstated if he has not conformed with the decision.

Dr. De Mund: I was going to say that I had a long conversation with Mr. Lauder, the other member of the Trial Board, before he sail for Europe. Mr. Lauder told me that his understanding of the case was the Mr. Watson should not be reinstated until this letter had appeared. Mr. Watson had been reinstated.

Mr. Smith: I can should you that Mr. Parker and Mr. Waterhouse and the other two gentlemen were willing to withdraw their charges provided Mr. Watson complied with this request and put this letter in the papers.

Mr. Parker: That is true, but the article has not appeared.
Mr. Smith: I cannot hold that.

Mr. Bloodgood: The American Kennel Club can control him.

The Chairman: If the Trial Board suspends him, he has the right of appeal.

The Secretary: As I told Mr. Parker before the meeting, if he would send me a communication stating that Mr. Watson had not complied with the mandate of the Trial Board, I would hand that letter to the Trial Board and the Trial Board could then act without any further action. When the Pacific Advisory Committee had a case like this, and ordered a man to do a certain thing, they always added to their findings that if it was not done within a certain time the man shall either stand suspended or disqualified. When that time arrived and he had not done what he was ordered to do, he was automatically suspended or disqualified. In this case the Trial Board failed to add that ryder that if it was not done within a certain time he would be automatically suspended. He has not done it, and the only thing is for the complaint to come before us on the 24th, and if it is placed before the Trial Board it is for them to suspend him for not obeying their decision.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Parker fails to state that both he and Mr. Waterhouse came before this Trial Board and expressed a felling of regret concerning Mr. Watson owing to his long experience in the Kennel Club, and they wanted him to get off as light as possible
The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, Sept 15, 1913

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to present my usual quarterly report on matters that require your action at this meeting.

The following communication have been received.

June 9th, D. O. Lively, requesting recognition of the Dog show to be held by the Panama Pacific International Exposition.

August 6th, Joseph Homes, on the subject of his Membership in Wisconsin Kennel Club.

June 21st, decision of the Appellate Division in the matter for Sept 4, Guggenheim, Mutermyer & Marshall bill for legal expense of the Stewart Suit.

Sept 10th, J. P. Norman, Special delegate of the Pacific Coast.

Sept 15th, James Watson, to be presented in Executive session.

Under date of July 29th, Mr. A. C. Wilmerding, who was elected at the last meeting as a member of the Stud Book Committee, begs to withdraw his name as a member of said Committee, for the reason that he finds it impossible to give the necessary time from his business to attend to the business of that Committee. This leaves a vacancy to be filled at this meeting.

Under date of August 6th, Mrs. Morris Mandy, who acted as Judge of Pekingese Spaniels at the late Ladies Kennel Association of America Show at Mineola, protests against the awards in her classes as presented in her Judge’s book.

I regret to announce the reception of the resignation of Mr. Dwight Moore as a Director. Mr. Moore is the Chairman of the Publication Committee and upon the acceptance of his Committee, who will automatically become a member of the Executive Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read, as follows:

New York, Sept 15, 1913

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit the quarterly Financial Report from Jan 1, 1913 to date:
Balance on hand Jan 1, 1913 $24,462.14
Receipts to date .......................... 22,262.23
Total ........................................ $46,744.37
Disbursements ......................... 27,303.53
Balance on hand ....................... $ 19,440.84

Respectfully submitted

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted.

The Secretary read the communication for Mr. D. O. Lively, requesting recognition of the Dog Show to be held by the Panama Pacific International Exposition.

The Secretary: Every International Exposition has been a failure so far as dogs are concerned. At the St. Louis Expo we agreed to recognize their awards, it being stipulated, however, that this should not be taken as a precedent. The show as an absolute fizzle, and they never sent the awards, and they have never been recognized.

On motion the matter was referred to the License Committee.

The Secretary: A man by the name of Joseph Jonas complains that having paid his dues to the Wisconsin Kennel Club. When that club consolidated with another club in Milwaukee, his name was dropped for no reason at all, and he asks the American Kennel Club to take the matter up. I replied to his communication to the effect that the American Kennel Club never interfered in domestic matters of clubs, and that in my opinion it was clearly a case for the Civil Courts. He continued to inundate the office with letters from himself and his attorney, and finally I notified him that I would get an official opinion at the next meeting of this club.

Mr. Gurnee: I move that the opinion of the Secretary be sustained.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The Appellate Division has set aside the verdict of $10,000 award by the jury to Miss Stewart, but gave her the privilege of either accepting $2,500 damages of having a new trial. She decided that she would accept the $2,500 which I have paid with the sanction of the Finance Committee. The final bill or our attorneys for services in Stewart vs. American Kennel Club is $500 with disbursements, [illegible] $682.54. This bill is before you now for payment.

On motion the bill was approved and ordered paid.

The Secretary: After receiving a communication from Mr. C. Y. Ford, Special Delegate of the Canadian Kennel Club I had an interview with him in which it transpired that his idea was that Canadian Kennel Clubs would be permitted to join the American Kennel Club in holding their shows, and hold them under both codes of rules, so that the Canadian Club would recognize the American Wins and the American Club.
would recognize the Canadian Wins. He said these rules are practically identical; that although the wording may differ, their meaning is the same. It was also the case in nearly all of our amendments to the rules, and he cited the instance of the Toronto Club which is the leading club of the Dominion of Canada, as being ready to become a member of the American Kennel Club is such a thing was possible.

Mr. Collins: I move that that communication be referred to the Membership Committee, to report at the next meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Relative to the communication from Mr. J. P. Norman which read I refer you to Rule V governing clubs, page 17, paragraph 3. This applies strongly to the coast where dogs are so few and where a conflicting date spells ruin for one or both shows, and where above all, both clubs would want the date of one refused if they knew of the selection by the other club. With regard to my appointment as agent, if it is for the sole purpose of approving classifications, I must say that it would be too trivial for me to continue in, but if the American Kennel Club saw fit to have me act as its special agent with the understanding that all communications from and to the clubs pass through my office, and give me the power to approve dates and transmit applications for licenses and membership to you with proper recommendations, I would be glad to continue to serve the American Kennel Club as in the past.

Dr. De Mund: I move that the request of Mr. Norman be granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr Watson made an offer to the American Kennel Club, which was accepted with thanks, and the matter referred to president Belmont for final action.

On motion the matter of the protest by Mrs. Morris Mandy, who acted as judge of Pekingese Spaniels at the late show of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of America at the Mineola, was referred to the New York Trial Board.

A communication from Mr. A. C. Wilmerding, withdrawing as a member of the Stud Book Committee, was read.

Mr. Bloodgood: I move that his resignation be accepted with regret.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Bloodgood: I nominate Mr. John G. Bates as a member of the Stud Book Committee in place of Mr. Wilmerding whose resignation has just been accepted.

On motion the Secretary was directed to pass one ballot for Mr. Bates as a member of the Stud Book Committee.

The Secretary stated he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Bates was declared duly elected.

    The Secretary: I have a communication from Mr. Dwight Moore resigning as a director from the American Kennel Club.

    On motion the same was accepted.

    The Chairman: The Secretary is empowered to draft appreciate resolutions outlining Mr. Moore’s valuable services to the club, as well as his long experience and advise in connection with its affairs, and expressing the deep regret that we all feel at his withdrawal.

    Mr. Palmer: I would like to nominate Mr. Rowland P. Keasbey as Chairman of the Publication Committee.

    Mr. Hooley: I move that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for his election as Chairman of the Publication Committee.

    The Secretary stated that he had cast such a ballot, and Mr. Keasby was declared duly elected.

    Mr. Smith: There is one vacancy on the Publication Committee by reason of Mr.
Keasby’s election as Chairman.

    Mr. Bloodgood: I nominate M. George S. West to fill that vacancy. It was moved and seconded that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for Mr. West’s election.

    The Secretary stated he had cast such ballot and Mr. West was declared duly elected.

    Mr. Gurnee: I nominate Mr. A. D. Gillette as director to take the place of Mr. Dwight Moore. I move that the Secretary be empowered to cast one ballot for Mr. Gillette.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Smith: I would like to nominate Mr. Samuel R. Cutler to fill that position.

Dr Osgood: I second the nomination.

On motion nominations were closed.

The directors then proceeded to ballot for Messrs. Gillette and Cutler which resulted in Mr. Gillette’s election.

Mr. Collins: I desire to call attention to one matter before we adjourn. Here is a notice in the Gazette of a case of McGovern vs. Long Island Kennel Club. The point is that this notice makes it appear as if there is a case of T. J. McGovern against the Long Island Kennel Club, whereas as a matter of fact the case is McGovern against a Mrs. Harry Owens on appeal from the decision rendered by the Long Island Kennel Club. This notice gives the impression that there are charges against the Long Island Kennel Club when no such charges exist, and it is further made apparent in that way because it follows charges against the Boston Terrier Club for non-payment of specials. I would move that a notice be published in the next issue of the American Kennel Gazette explaining this to the effect that this case is between McGovern and Owners on appeal from the Long Island Kennel Club’s decision.

Motion seconded.

The Secretary: In this matter the Trial Board followed the custom that has been in vogue since we have been organized and have heard cases. The original case before the Long Island Kennel Club was McGovern against Owens. The Long Island Kennel Club decided the case. McGovern appealed from the decision of the Long Island Kennel Club, and the case was thereafter McGovern against the Long Island Kennel Club on appeal, and the Secretary of the Long Island Kennel Club was cited to appear and give his version. He did not wait for the meeting, but he came here and explained as much as he could to me, and I conveyed that information to the Trial Board. This procedure has been followed in many cases in the past. It is not an action of one litigant against another, but it is an action against the club on appeal.

Mr. Collins: Well, it creates a false impression. If people read in this paper that there is a case against the Long Island Kennel Club, and they had any intention of joining that club, they will not do so, and the next time we hold a show, they read this paper and figure out that the Long Island Kennel Club failed to pay its special, I claim it creates a false impression. I think all these cases should be published in a way to place the club in a proper position.

  Motion carried.

  On motion the meeting then adjourned.
Mr. Gurnee: I rise to a point of information. Just prior to the annual meeting I was one of the tellers for the election for associate delegates. I was lax. I did not pay sufficient attention to see whether all the people who were elected were eligible. Mr. B. S. Smith was elected, and looking over my list I find that the only Smith that was eligible on it was Mr. L. W. Smith. I ask whether he is eligible on it was Mr. L. W. Smith. I ask whether he is eligible to be a delegate as an associate subscriber and therefore a director.

The Chairman: What is your point?

Mr. Gurnee: It would seem from a list that was issued at the time that as Mr. B. S. Smith was not on that list he was not eligible to represent the associate subscribers as a delegate and therefore he was not a delegate or a director.

Mr. Wilmerding: In what way was he not eligible?

Dr. De Mund: There is a rule that an associate subscriber who does not pay his dues within ten days after the 1st of Jan is not eligible; that if he fails to pay his dues he can only be reinstated by coming before the Membership Committee. Mr. Smith did not pay his dues within the time prescribed, and he was not eligible, and he has never appeared before the Membership Committee to be reinstated. Therefore he is not eligible to be elected a delegate. The list that was sent out did not contain his name as being eligible to vote or hold office.
Mr. Smith: My dues are paid, are they not, for the years? They were accepted for the year, my dues, for this year.

The Secretary: Yes.

Dr. De Mund: If you read that rule you will find that the Secretary has no power to accept dues after the 10th of Jan, and I will ask the Secretary if the dues were paid within the ten days.

The Secretary: If that rule prevailed, I suppose out of the 300 or 400 associate subscribers 75 per cent are not associate subscribers.

Dr. De Mund: That is not the point. It is a question of the constitution and by-laws.

The Secretary: I will tell you exactly when those dues were paid.

Dr. Osgood: As I take it from reading that, it does not state the he must be reinstated by the Membership Committee, but may be; it is not necessary that he must be, but he may be.

Dr. De Mund: It never came before the Membership Committee. It says here: Shall be dropped from Membership.”

The Secretary: Mr. B. S. Smith paid his dues on the 7th of Feb.

Mr. Wilmerding: It seems to me that this a matter of technicality entirely. I have no doubt that you will find a large percentage of members who did not pay their dues within the time prescribed. I think if you will look at my account you will find that I was delinquent, and also a good many others. It seems to me there is a precedent that makes it possible for the Secretary to accept the dues that come in late, and if that is the case, as it apparently is, I think that bringing this matter up is a mere technicality that ought to be waived. I will make a motion that the point that has been brought up in regard to Mr. Smith’s late payment of dues be waived owning to the fact that the precedent has been established twenty times over that dues have been accepted from members who have been delinquent even for a greater length of time.

Mr. Gurnee: I want to ask if precedent can brush aside the by-laws and constitution of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Dawyer: I rise to a point of order on that. My point is that my motion this Board of Directors can not supersede the constitution and by-laws.

The Chairman: Mr. Rockefeller is in the same category. I am afraid I shall have to rule your motion out of order.

Dr. Osgood: I would like to ask whether it is not the fact that by the acceptance of those dues a man becomes instated. The Secretary, who is an officer of the association has accepted those dues and held them for eight months, and I think the acceptance of the dues alone is sufficient to reinstate.

Mr. Gurnee: I move that by accepting dies after the date specified the Secretary exceeded his powers.

The Chairman: I think before you do anything like that you certainly want to change that rule, because nobody pays his dies until the next month.

Dr. Osgood: I move that if this applies to Mr. Smith, it shall apply to every associate member, Mr. Rockefeller whom you speak of and every associate member who did not pay his dies within the ten days specified, and I would like to ask what date Dr. De Mund paid his dues.

Motion seconded.

The Chairman: According to your motion then, all the associate members who failed to pay their dies by the 10\textsuperscript{th} of Jan are dropped from membership.

Dr. Osgood: I move that a notice be sent to each of these associate members whose dues were not paid by Jan 10\textsuperscript{th} that they have been dropped, giving the cause of their being dropped.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Sawyer: There is a motion before the house which was seconded.
Mr. Bloodgood: I want to say that this is a very unfortunate thing.

Mr. Palmer: I consider it not an unfortunate thing, but I consider it an absolutely disgraceful thing.

The Chairman: The original motion, as I understand it, was Mr. Gurnee’s motion that all should be dropped whose dues were not paid by the 10th of Jan.

Mr. Hooley: Before that motion goes any further, there is a power that you have as Chairman and this association has, to ask that that does not go through, that it be laid on the table, or in some other way gotten rid of. I do not think the matter as brought up need go that far. I do not think that men who have been members of the club for years and whose names are a credit to any club, should be subjected to anything of that kind. I think it is very detrimental to the Club, and I leave it to you as Chairman to decide what is best to do. If the gentleman will not withdraw his motion I will move that it be laid on the table. I move that the whole matter be laid upon the table. I move that the whole matter be laid upon the table, that this affair be taken from the minutes. A great deal of this happened very quickly. Possibly it was right and possibly it was very quickly. Possibly it was right and possibly it was wrong, but it was unnecessary. I move that it all be removed.

Motion seconded.

Dr Osgood: I think an affair of this kind comes up purely on account of spite, that those members who are not present are entitled to know what goes on at these meetings, and I don’t believe in suppressing part of it and leaving the rest out.

The Chairman: The motion before the house is to lay on the table.

Dr. De Mund: The question is, Mr. Smith’s right to sit here as a delegate.

Mr. Hooley: You know what this means to the American Kennel Club. It is a very serious thing that this matter foists out in this form. It will do a great deal of harm and it is absolutely necessary. I do not take anybody’s part in this think, but I move that we expunge the entire matter including the original request of Mr. Gurnee be entirely eliminated.

Dr. Osgood: I did not understand Mr. Hooley’s motion. I second it that the whole matter be dropped and laid on the table.

Dr. De Mund: I object to that because I object to a man sitting in this Board of Directors who is not legally entitled to do so.

Motion to lay on the table carried.
Mr. H. H. Hunnewell in the chair.

The credentials of Mr Mowbray to represent the Pacific Coast Toy Dog Association were presented and voted on.

On inspection of the ballot box the Chairman declared that Mr. Palmer was not elected.

Mr. Cutler: I move that another ballot be taken.

Mr. Smith: I second the motion.

Mr. Cutler: Some years ago I remember this sort of thing was started. If we are going to begin now to blackball delegates who are regularly chosen by their clubs I think we ought to have it well understood what we are going to do. I, for one, did not suppose there was any question about a man who has been elected as a delegate by his club, and unless we know something against him he should not received this kind of treatment. I cannot remember a single instance where a man has been thrown down like this. I have known Mr. Palmer a good many years. I never supposed one with the long experience he has had with us would be thrown down without any cause whatever. I move another ballot.

Doctor Osgood: I believe the constitution says that four-fifths of the members present is sufficient to elect. I would ask the Chair to ask every man to vote.

The Chairman: They can vote or not as they please. If person does not vote, his vote does as aye.

Mr. Osgood: I should like to state as a precedent for this ruling that when I came into this club I had but one white ball and the rest were black. Another vote was called for, and then the balls were all white.

Mr. Collins: Article 7, Section 2, covers this subject I think. No delegate can represent more than one member. If a delegate fails of election he shall not again be eligible for election within one year, and I think that precludes a second ballot.

The Chairman: That clause refers to another meeting. I see no reason why another ballot should not be taken and so rule.

Mr. Berendsohn: I appeal from the ruling of the chair. That is the constitution of the American Kennel Club, and how you are going to get around that I cannot see.

The Chairman resigned the chair to Mr. H. K. Bloodgood.

Mr. Hunnewell: The ruling I made was that under that clause of the constitution I considered a reconsideration of of the vote proper.

Doctor Osgood: As I read the constitution, four-fifths of the members present is necessary to elect. There were certain members who did not vote. I would like to ask the Secretary whether they were counted as ayes.

Mr. Cutler: I suggest that the chair is right and ought to be sustained. It has been the precedent of this body ever since I have been a member of it that it is the final vote and not an accidental vote that counts. Mistakes have been made in this organization before, and I sincerely believe there has been one made now. What is the sense of trying to crow anything through here? We are here as sportsmen. Some of us have come from a long distance, and I, for one, do not propose to sit here and see anything unfairly pushed through on a technicality. If this constitution contains what the objectors say it does, this body has not anything to do with it. If it is a sensible rule such as the chair has laid down, let us sustain the chair. If a mistake has been made in a ballot, if going along here is a merely perfunctory manner we wake up to the fact that we have thrown a man down unfairly, do you mean to say that we have not the right to correct our own errors? The Supreme Court of the United State can do that. Any body, when it sees that it has done wrong, can correct the error. If this organization has its hands tied behind it so that when it has made an obvious mistake it cannot correct its own errors, then I think there is no use of our coming here.

A vote by a show of hands resulted in sustaining the chair by thirteen to seven.

Mr. Hunnewell resumes the chair,

The credentials of Mr. H. Ray Snyder to represent the Collie Club of America were presented and voted on, and on an inspection of the ballot box the chairman declared that he was not elected.

Mr. Smith: I believe according to our by-laws that a delegate remains such until his successor has been appointed. As the successor to Mr. Palmer as a delegate from the Collie Club was black balled I would like to ask if Mr. Palmer is not still entitled to a seat in this room. He having retired from the room I now move that Mr. Palmer be asked to come back into this room as a delegate.

Doctor Osgood: I second the motion.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: Can a delegate be a delegate of two clubs at the same time? I think he must resign from one club before he can represent another club.

Mr. Smith: When the roll was called Mr. Palmer answered as delegate from the Collie Club of America.

Dr. De Mund: When he came up for election to represent some other club he severed his connection with the Collie club. A man cannot represent three or four clubs in the American Kennel Club. When he appeared as a delegate for another club, that ended his connection with the Collie Club.

Mr. Cutler: I supposed it was well known, a principle that everybody understood, that a man stays in office until his successor is elected. That is the constitution and common sense and ordinary practice. Anybody that knows anything about a corporation knows that a member of such corporation stays in office until his successor is elected, unless there is something contrary to that in the constitution. When another delegate is elected Mr. Palmer would immediately go out of office, but the Collie Club has a right to be represented here, and they are represented here, and until a successor is elected Mr. Palmer remains a delegate, and he having absented himself from this room under a misapprehension I think the motion is proper that he be invited to return.

Dr. De Mund: Are we going to force a delegate down the Collie Club’s throat? They have sent in a nomination as a delegate. We rejected him. Are we going to say that they must have a man that they do not want? I do not think the American Kennel Club was founded for any such purpose.

The Chairman: The credentials read as follows: “Was regularly elected a delegate to represent said club at all meetings of the American Kennel Club, the same to remain in force until these credentials have been withdrawn by said club at any meeting, or until his successor has been duly elected and accepted by the American Kennel Club.” As I understand it, the credentials have not been withdrawn and no successor has been appointed. I should so rule.

Dr. De Mund: I will appeal from that ruling.

Chairman Hunnewell resigns the chair to Mr. H. K. Bloodgood.

Chairman Bloodgood: The motion is to sustain the chair or not.

A vote by a show of hands resulted in the chair being sustained by a vote of eleven to seven.

Mr. Hunnewell resumes the chair.

The Chairman: As I read these credentials Mr. Palmer is still a delegate of the Collie Club of America.

The Secretary: The credentials of the Central Beagle Club, the International Toy

Poodle Club, the Bull Terrier Club of America, the Pekingese Club of America and the Poodle Club were held over by the Committee for the reason that the candidates were not known to any member of that Committee, nor were they vouched for by any person known to any member of the Committee.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, Sept 15, 1913

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:
Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since the last regular meeting, I have received four applications for Active Membership, and fourteen credentials appointing Delegates, four of which were laid over from the last meeting. These applications and credentials have been turned over by me to the Membership Committee which will report at this meeting for action.

I would also submit the report of the Rules Committee on the several amendments approved and disapproved by it. The same having been duly published in the August Gazette.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows:

“The meeting of the Rules Committee was held July 2, 1913, present, H. H. Hunnewell, Walter S. Gurnee, Jr., B. S. Smith and Dr. De Mund. The following Amendment proposed by Mr. Willetts was approved.

Article VI, Section 1 of the By laws.

Amend by inserting between the words “elected and thirty” the words “from their own numbers,” so the section shall read the club shall be governed by a Board of Directors of 30 members. The Incorporators shall constitute the Board of Directors until the annual meeting in 1909 or until their successors are elected. At the annual meeting in 1909 or any adjournment thereof, the Delegates shall elect from their own number, thirty Directors, six of whom shall hold office until the annual meeting of 1910, six of whom shall hold office until 1911, six of whom shall hold office until 1912, six of whom shall hold office until 1913, six of whom shall hold office until 1914, and at each annual meeting thereafter, the delegates shall elect six directors to hold office for five years, or until their successors are appointed or elected. A Director who shall cease to be a delegate, shall thereby cease to be a director.”

Dr. De Mund: I move its adoption.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The following amendment proposed by Mr. Willetts was approved.

Amend Rule XVIII by adding after the word “Livelihood” the words, “This rule shall not apply to shows held by clubs in the location formerly under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Advisory Committee.”

On motion the same was adopted.

The Secretary: Rule XXI, Dog Show. Proposed by Mr. Watson. Approved by the Committee. Insert after the words; “Lodged by the Secretary of the American Kennel Clubs,” the following: “Provided, however, that a protest calling for a decision as to the physical condition of a dog and determined only by the Vet must be made before the closing of a show, and in case a show lasting for three or four days, it must be made before 6 o’clock on the last day of the show. A protest made in the ring and previous to the judge rendering his decision does not require a deposit.”

On motion the same was adopted.

The Secretary: Amendment to Rule XIV, Rules Governing Dog Shows. Introduced by Mr. Mortimer was approved. Substitute for the words, “regular classes”, the words “in competition”.

On motion the same was adopted.

The Secretary: The following amendment to Rule V, Section A, introduced by Mr. Muss-Arnolt, was not approved by your Committee, but submitted to the Delegates for their action: “No puppy shall be eligible to compete in any classes or for any prizes where competition for such is limited to exhibits not exceeding a certain weight or height in breeds where there are more than two weights and size classes, unless such class or prize be confined to puppies only.” This rule has been before the American Kennel Club on two previous occasions. The first was submitted to the Delegates and defeated by them; on the second occasion it was disapproved by the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee have written to the Secretaries of all Specialty Clubs affected by such a rule. They have received only one reply, and that from the Boston Terrier Club. This club protests against the passage of the rule. It is now brought before you for your consideration.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: The idea is this, that if you put a puppy in a weight or limit class, he certainly has no show in all fairness to compete with dogs which are legitimately in the weight or height classes, You can shove a puppy into a light weight class any time, but he will never stay there. They compete under false colors entirely.

Mr. Mortimer: As I understand it, a puppy, is he is shown in a class where there is a limit of weight or height – take Beagles for instance, or Boston Terrier, or any other breed of dog where there is a limit of weight, that dog is liable when he gets fully developed to be above the weight and above the height of these prescribed limit classes, not limit classes in the sense they are used in the American Kennel Club, but where there is a limit as to height or weight, and I do not think it has a fair chance. The puppy may win in his class, day he is under twelve pounds or over twelve pounds, or under 15 inches and yet when he comes to be a year old he may be over 15 inches. That is the height that is prescribed by the Beagle Club.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: There is a class made up for dogs of such weight and such a height. This is meant for a specimen of that weight and height. Of course you can shove a puppy in, but is it legitimate?

The Chairman: It is voted down by the delegates once, and we thought that it would be a great deal better for the delegates here to decide the matter for themselves. Specialty Clubs apparently do not take any interest in it.

Dr. De Mund: I have not anything further to state than what is contained in our report. If that rule goes through it will cut out a great many entries from the Boston Terriers, and they embrace over a fifth of all dogs benched. I think it disapproved of the rule. It has been before the delegates once, and it was decisively defeated by them after considerable discussion.

Mr. Bloodgood: It does not seem to me that the question of entries has anything to do with it, whether right or wrong. These dogs should be entered in these classes. Whether the shows suffer or not, that is outside of the question it seems to me.

Mr. Parker: Wouldn't it be possible to specify the breeds? Boston Terriers have never been judged according to height. This says height or weight. Many a puppy in the Boston Terrier Club has gone through to winners, and according to this it could not compete for the best in the show.

Mr. Collins: It would reduce the number of entries. I cannot see where it makes any difference, allowing the puppies to compete in any limit class, but if you are not going to allow the puppies in any limit class, but if you are not going to allow the puppies to compete in puppy classes, at the smaller shows you take that number of entries away from the show.

Mr. Bloodgood: What has that to do with it, whether it is right or wrong. The point is whether this dog is eligible to those classes that are made in height and weight. If the puppy is not going to conform to those classes, and nobody can tell what the puppy is going to be, it does not seem to me that he ought to be in those classes. The question of whether the dog shows are going to suffer or not does not enter into it at all in my mind. It is a question of whether it is right or wrong.

Mr. Mortimer: A puppy could not go in any class where there is a height and weight limit.

Mr. Boger: As I represent the Bulldog Club of America, which is one of the oldest Specialty Clubs in the country, want to state that I have never yet heard of a complaint where a puppy have been entered in weight classes, and all the bulldog exhibitors seems to be perfectly satisfied with the rule as it is at the present time. So far as the bulldog exhibitors are to be considered, they appear to be perfectly satisfied to allow puppies to compete right down along the line, and I should not like to see the rule changed from its present condition.

Dr. De Mund: I have no special interest in this rule one way or the other. I had spoke with a great many exhibitors in regard to the rule when it was up before, and they all wanted to see it left as it was. This is special legislation, and we are interfering with something that there does not seem to be any popular demand for. We have heard from the Bulldog Club and we have heard from the Boston Terrier Club, two clubs that will be affected by this rule, and I do not see why we should go into any special legislation when there is no demand for it.

Mr. Vedder: I have discussed this matter with quite a number of the members of the Specialty Clubs in America, and they all seem to be in favor of letting this rule remain as it is. If a puppy on form under 22 pounds, which we make as a limit weight, can be beat any dog, everybody seems to be satisfied to have him do it. Three months from that time he could not compete in that class, but if under twelve months his form was good enough to win, I do not think there is any objection to it.

The proposed amendment, on being put to a vote, was lost.

The Secretary: The following statement was introduced was to be amended. It is not approved by your committee, but is referred to you for such action as you may deem proper: “No person acting as judge shall award any prize to any dog which is or she has owned, shows, handled or prepared for exhibition during a period of three months prior to the opening day of a show at which such person acts as judge. The penalty, cancellation of all prizes won and the suspension of such person officiating as judge as well as such dog or dog owners awarded such prizes.”

Your Committee think that it would be almost impossible to enforce such a rule.
The penalty suspending the owner seems unjust as the owner might well make an entry in good faith not knowing that they judge had handled or owned the dog three months previous. In a great many cases it would be almost impossible for a person making an entry to know if the dog had been handled or prepared by the judge three months previous to the opening day of the show. The rule is referred to you for your action.
Mr. Mortimer: In moving this amendment my idea was that a handler might be the judge --- there was a rule passed here a the last meeting that handlers were to be allowed to judge everywhere.

The Secretary: Were not to be allowed.

Mr. Mortimer: There was a motion made by Mr. Frothingham at the last meeting which was carried.

The Secretary: IT has not been before the Rule Committee.

Mr. Motimer: At any rate, I thought of the trouble there was out on the Pacific Coast where they wanted handlers to judge, and I thought this would be a good rule to prevent a handler judging a dog that the had handled within three months from the date of the show. I have spoken to every handler of note in the east, and everyone of them without exception thought it was a good amendment. I think the reasons for not accepting the amendment are trifling; they do not seem to carry any weight. No man purchases a dog without asking questions about him, and I think the reasons stated here are trifling for refusing the amendment. The reason for this amendment seems to have been removed to a very great extent. There are handlers that judge out in California, and a motion that was made by Mr. Frothingham at the last meeting was to allow handlers to judge anywhere, and to the best of my recollection that motion was passed.

The Secretary: It cannot be passed. It was not referred to the Committee even. He made the motion and there it ended.

The Chairman: It never came up before the Rules Committee.

On the proposed amendment being put to the vote it was lost.

The Secretary: The following is recommended by your Committee: Rescind all rules pertaining to the Pacific Coast Advisory Committee as they have resigned and their resignation accepted, and in place of them a trial Board and Agent appointed.

On motion the said recommendation was adopted.

The Secretary: Rescind Rule III governing Dog Shows, Secretary. A & B, and substitute the following:

Section A. Every show is guaranteed one point toward a championship except as hereinafter stated. All shows are to be rated on actual number of dogs benched, except as hereinafter stated (dogs “for exhibition only” not to be benched); 1,000 dogs and over, 5 points; 750 dogs and over, 4 points; 500 dogs and over, 3 points; 250 dogs and over, 2 points; under 250 dogs, 1 point.
Such shows as do not offer money prizes in at least three classes in every breed mentioned in their premium list shall not have a rating unless they have 250 dogs benched when they shall have the regular rating as specified in this rule.

Mr. Collins: I would move to amend the last paragraph of section A by inserting after the words “offer money prizes” “of at least one dollar each (except where percentage prizes are offered.”)

Amendment seconded and carried.

The last paragraph of Section A as amended reads as follows:

“Such shows as do not offer money prizes of at least one dollar each (except where percentage prizes are offered) in at least three classes in every breed mentioned in their premium list shall not have a rating unless they have 250 dogs benched, when they shall have the regular rating as specified in this rule.

The Secretary: Section B. All authorized shows in States west of easterly boundary of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, to be rated as follows: 400 dogs and over, 5 points; 300 dogs and over, 4 points; 200 dogs and over, 3 points; 100 dogs and over, 2 points; under 100 dogs, 1 point.
Section C. All authorized shows held in states east of the Mississippi River and south of the northerly boundary of Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia to be rated as follows:
400 dogs and over, 5 points; 300 dogs and over, 4 points; 200 dogs and over, 3 points;
100 dogs and over, 2 points; under 100 dogs, 1 point.

Section D. All authorized shows held in states between the easterly boundary of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico and the easterly boundary of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana to be rated as follows: 500 dogs and over, 5 points; 400 dogs and over, 4 points; 300 dogs and over, 3 points; 200 dogs and over, 2 points; under 200 dogs, 1 point.

- Rescind Act VI Section 5 By Laws
- Rescind Act XIV of By Laws (Referring to P. A. Conin)
- Rescind Rule V last Section Gov. Clubs
- Rescind Rule VIII last Section Gov. Clubs
- Rescind Rule XVI last Section Gov Clubs
- Rescind Rule XXII last Section Governing Dog Shows
- Amend Rule V Section F. Gov. Dog Shows, by adding the words “only to undefeated” after the word “open” on second line.

On motion the recommendation to take effect immediately were adopted.

The Secretary: Rule XVIII – Governing Dog Shows: Make first paragraph to read:

“On and after Jan 1, 1914, no person shall be eligible to judge at any show held under there rules until he or she shall have been licensed by the American Kennel Club, thought its License Committee.

In the event of an advertised judge being unable to fill his or her engagement, and no licensed judge being present at a show who may be available, the Dog Show Committee of such club shall have the power to appoint a temporary non-licensed substitute judge, provided however such person had never been refused a license by the American Kennel Club.

The License Committee may, upon request of the show giving club, issue a temporary license to any recognized judge residing in a foreign country, without the formality of filing a regular application upon the blanks adopted by the License Committee.

Mr. Vedder: It seems as if we are stretching our hands out a little too far to extend this control over the judges and to force men to come up and make application for licenses before they can judge at the shows. They are put in a very embarrassing if not humiliating position. We know in our breeds that there are men who are very competent to judge, who will do it rather reluctantly, and if we are going to put this weight on them and compel them to come and ask the privilege of judging, they will not do it at all; and we might lost the services of judges who are in every way competent, who would not humiliate themselves to ask the privilege of being licensed as judges. I think it is proper and right extend the licenses to superintendents and handlers, but I do not believe we ought to try and exercise too much supervision over the judges when the rules of this association are so stringent and can be relied upon to protect exhibitors so far as judges are concerned.

Mr. Parker: There is another rule here which says that a judge can be suspended for six months who is found under the influence of intoxicants or drugs. It would be very easy for people to say the judge was drunk if he happened to give their dog the gate. I do not think it would be fair to the judge, because they can say he was under the influence of some stimulant.

Mr. Bloodgood: If a man is drunk when he is in the ring, six months is far too little for him.

Mr. Cutler: I am wondering if there is a Committee that can be appointed by this organization which would be qualified to examine applicants for licenses. I wonder if we are not setting ourselves up quite a task, if the license Committee is going to be qualified to examine judges and pass upon their qualifications. Are we not biting off a good deal more than we can chew?

The Secretary: This does not cover that.

Mr. Cutler: What is the use of a licensing Committee if there is not going to be somebody to pass on those qualifications? The purpose of a license is to insure quality in judges. We do not want to put a collar on the judge. We do not want to go through the scene of having some day the delegates taking a vote, the same as we take on seated members and blackball judges because we do not like them. What we want is a man that knows dogs. He may be the poorest politician in the room; he may not be able to go about at all when it comes to parliamentary law, but he may know the points of some one breed, and I do not care if he knows nothing except judge the points of that breed. I do not believe we will gain anything by requiring a man to submit himself for examination before he is going to be allowed to judge. All any man needs to be is to be a gentleman and go into the ring and pick out what he believes to be the best dog, and not what some Committee thinks is the best dog. No man who is a real judge is coming up here to ask to be licensed. Most men are somewhat modest about the things they really know. A good many men can talk about the things that they do not know, but it has been my experience that the men who know the most about subjects are the last ones to proclaim it. You will find a good many blatant men who think they know it all who would be going around with a license form this association proclaiming to the world that they are all-round judges of dogs.

Mr. Motimer: There does not seem to be any reason brought forward for proposing this rule. It struck me that it was for the purpose perhaps of protecting exhibitors, that judges may misbehave themselves in some way or other, and that means the exhibitor may suffer, but your rule XXIII fully covers everything of that sort and gives you the amplest protection, and also gives the American Kennel Club the all control that it can possibly want over any judge. That rule covers every mis-deed that I can think of, or any man who commits a mis-deed in any way at all. The English Kennel Club had been in existence for something over 70 years, and they have never found it necessary to license judges. There are no licensed judges for horse shows, for cattle, for poultry or any other kind of live stock that you can possibly mention at the present time, and I do not see that there is any good reason for this rule at all.

Mr. Hooley: Mr. Mortimer states that he does not believe there is any reason for this rule. I want to say in justice to the Committee that they were asked to formulate some rule whereby in some way they could get up an application for a license not only for judges, but for superintendents, handlers and everything else.

The Chairman: I think it came originally from the delegates.

Mr. Hooley: I do not know whether Judge Cutler has read this rule or not. He rather made the license Committee look as if they were not familiar with the facts. I think if the judge would read it through he would find there is a great deal there which would help to determine whether a man was competent to judge. I have found a great many people who speak very favorably of it. I am only speaking of this in justice to my Committee. I want to state that the Committee had done judge what they thought you desired, and of course it is entirely in the hands of the delegates whether it shall or shall not be adopted. Committees usually do the best the can in these matters, and I think the Committees should be recognized as doing that, and not beheld up to ridicule, although I do not think that was intended.

Mr. Cutler: I want to disclaim any purpose in criticizing the Committee. What I meant to say was that I did not believe that there was a Committee anywhere that could be picked out to qualify judges.

The proposed amendment being put to vote, was lost.

The Secretary: Amend the last paragraph to read: “A professional handler may be licensed and shall not be eligible to act as a judge,” etc.

Mr. Mortimer: I object to the licensing of a professional handler on the same ground that I objected to the licensing of a judge. It is unnecessary because Rule XXIII covers everything. There is no necessary for it. You are making rules to such an extent that the time will come when we will not know one rule from another. You will have too many rules altogether. I do not think there is any reason for licensing a superintendent or a handler any more than there is for licensing a judge.

Proposed amendment being put to vote, was lost.

The Secretary: Rule XX – Governing Dog Shows. Make first paragraph to read:

“On and after Jan 1, 1914, no person shall be eligible to act as superintendent of any show held under these rules, until he or she shall have been licensed to act on that capacity by the American Kennel Club through its License Committee.”

Mr. Mortimer: I do not think that proposed rule is any more necessary than the other two amendments that have been passed upon. As I said before, Rule XXIII covers everything. There is no necessity to license superintendents. You are making more trouble for yourselves.

Proposed amendment being put to vote, was lost.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
IN RE APPEAL OF JOHN MCGOUGH:

Dr. De Mund: There was one plain question came before the Trial Board in this matter, and they put in all this matter about contingent interest, and so forth, which was not raised, and that is what he is appealing from.

The Chairman: The Trial Board held that he had an interest in it, but as he had not seemed to look after the registration, he waived it. The cross appeal does not mean anything.

Mr. Hooley: How long a period elapsed between the time the bitch was registered and the time that the action was brought, a period of years or months?

Dr. De Mund: Two or three years.

The Secretary: A year or two.

Dr. De Mund. More than that. This puppy “Gold Heels” was shown as one of the puppies. He is a grown dog now. He is about two years old.

The Chairman: The cross appeal is the same as the other appeal.

Mr. Bloodgood: They have made their finding, and we have got to either accept it or reject it. The question is whether we agree to it.

The Chairman: The matter came down to a question of a verbal agreement between two men, and we wanted the tow men to come here and tell us about it.

The Secretary: The two principals were given the privilege to come here and make their statements.

Dr. De Mund: It seems to me that it would be a very dangerous state of affairs to have the American Kennel Club say that if a man sent a bitch to another one to be kept, and she was to have six puppies, to divide those puppies and sell them, which this agreement was – such puppies were sold and to divide the money – to pass a law that any bitch that was sent up on a contingent agreement like that, that sold, it was the joint property of these two people. If it has been sold the proceeds would have been divided equally. It was not sold, and that was the contention on the original case.

Dr. De Mund: But the agreement was not to divide the puppies. Six puppies were sold. The agreement was to divide the money. There was no agreement to divide the puppies.

The Chairman: Who registered it, the man who owned the bitch or the one that kept it?

Dr. De Mund: The one that owned it did the registering.

The Chairman: How did the other man own half of the bitch?

The Secretary: Because it was unsold.

The Chairman: How did they own the first bitch originally?

Dr. De Mund: It was owned by Mr. McGough, and he sent it to Mr. Woods’ kennel under the agreement that all the puppies that she had, if they were sold, they were to divide the money they brought. Mr. McGough registered the dog, and he registered the bitch, and it was not sold.

Mr. Keasbey: The bitch was in his possession when she had the puppy, the bitch puppy who had Gold Heels.

Dr. De Mund: In Mr. Woods’ kennel under this agreement ment.

Mr. Appleton: Woods registered it?

Dr. De Mund: No. Mr. McGough has shown Gold Heels as quite a noted Airedale Terrier, and it did a great deal of winning, and for several years no question was raised. When he becomes valuable, then Mr. Woods raised this point that he owned half of it. He never objected to the registration, nor to Mr. McGough showing the dog before that time.

Mr. Hooley: He had full knowledge of that?

Dr. De Mund: Oh, yes, he has been to shows where the dog was shown.

The Chairman: It is all a verbal agreement between those two men.

Mr. Hooley: It seems that this man was perfectly aware that this dog was shown in the other man’s name and acquiesced in it in every way, and there was no dispute about it.

The Chairman: That is what the Trial Board thought about it.

Mr. Appleton: Is it necessary for us to commit ourselves on the obiter dictum of the Trial Board that any dog bred by a contingent owner – that they are owners in common?

The Chairman: I do not think we need to go into that question. I think we ought to find out what is the verbal agreement between those two men and decide on that.

Mr. Appleton: That is the very thing that is appealed from. That is the very thing we have to take up on appeal.

The Chairman: We do not know what the verbal agreement is.

Mr. Appleton: They say, make a rule that will cover everything in the future. It seems to me that in most of these cases it is better to judge each individual case, and not to have a hard and fast rule like that. There may be all sorts of contingencies.

Dr. De Mund: Could we not strike that paragraph out and let the original decision stand.

The Secretary: What are you going to do with the wins made by that dog, and the registration?

The Chairman: Let it stand as it is.

The Secretary: I think that was the sense of the Board at the last meeting, that the were not going to disturb that.

Dr. De Mund: That does not disturb the wins; it leaves it as Mr. McGough’s dog, as they have decided it, and then strike out anything that binds on him.

Mr. Appleton: The decision will stand as it is.

The Chairman: It will stand as the Trial Board gave it, without their opinion.

(The Secretary read the finding of the Trial Board.)

Mr. Appleton: They do not make any reference to the dam of the dog.

The Secretary: No, they dismissed the case. They did not come to any decision on the original blank.

The Chairman: They allow McGough to own the dogs and register it.

Mr. Appleton: I think we ought to stand by the decision of the Trial Board, with the exception of that paragraph which binds us in the future.

Mr. James K. Foster and Mr. Lederer were admitted into the room as counsel for the respective parties.

Mr. Foster: I thought you would wait until tomorrow noon when Mr. Davidson would arrive. I understood that there were other cases on the calendar. Mr. Woods lives up in Central Valley. He cannot be here until tomorrow morning. Can you not adjourn the matter until some other time when Mr. Davison can be heard?

The Chairman: We have decided to hear it now.

Mr. Foster: Won’t you give us an opportunity to be heard later on?

The Chairman: If you will each state your case just as briefly as possible. I think it is the sense of the meeting that it is much more important to have the principals here than the lawyers. We want to get at what agreement the principals made.

This matter was then adjourned until the next meeting of the Executive Committee.
In the Matter of the Charges preferred.
By Mr. B. S. Smith
-against-
Dr. De Mund

The Chairman: The next matter before us are the charges preferred by Mr. B. S. Smith against Dr. De Mund. The Secretary will read the charges against Dr. De Mund, and I will ask Dr. De Mund to leave the room.

Dr. De Mund: I think I am entitled to be present at the preliminaries of the case. There are certain points I wish to raise in this matter. If you gentlemen want me to leave, I shall leave, but I would like an expression of opinion of the Board on that, because there are certain points there which I wish to raise, and I cannot raise them if I am not in the room.

Mr. Appleton: Dr. De Mund has had a copy of the charges?

The Secretary: Yes.

Dr. De Mund: No, I have not; I have never had a copy of the charges as directed by the Executive Committee.

The Secretary: I furnished Dr. De Mund with a copy of Mr. Smith's charges, and I have a letter signed by Dr. De Mund acknowledging receipt of it.

Dr. De Mund: I have not received the charges directed by this Committee. The Secretary furnished me a copy of the alleged charges which were not as directed by this Executive Committee. I sent a letter there, if the Secretary will read it, which will explain my position.

(Letter referred to read by the Secretary.)

Dr. De Mund: I wish to say about that that I should like to read the original resolution as offered when I was not in the room: “That whereas the said B. S. Smith and M. M. Palmer were then and there advised by the President of the Executive Committee that the Board of Directors was the proper forum for the presentation of such charges and resolution, now, be it resolved, that said, B. S. Smith and M. M. Palmer be and they are hereby ordered and directed to file for hearing by this Committee such charges in proper form against said Dr. De Mund and also to produce and file therewith the same paper or a true copy thereof setting forth the said charges as produced and read by B. S. Smith, against said Dr. De Mund at said meeting of the Board of Directors.” That was the resolution that was offered by this Board of Directors and has not been complied with.

(The Secretary read a communication under date of July 18th).

Mr. Bloodgood: I think that Mr. Palmer is perfectly correct in his contention that we had no power to direct him to prefer charges. I think that is a constitutional right; that no court practically has that right, but in regard to Mr. Smith here, what is it that he has not complied with?

Dr. De Mund: That he has not produced that paper. He has not produced the original paper and the original charges consisting of six charges. These consist of eight. Three or four of these charges, I don’t remember exactly now, are not the same. He has omitted three of the original charges. He has not filed them in this paper. And he has added four new ones.

The Chairman: What has that to do with it? He was told to put them in form.

Dr. De Mund: He was told to produce the charges that were read. He was directed to produce those and file them.

Mr. Bloodgood: Mr. Palmer’s point is that we have no right to direct him to prefer charges. We have not such right. But that is not the point. Admitting that, you raise a point here that you want that paper produced. We have asked for it in that resolution.

Dr. De Mund: Yes.

Mr. Bloodgood: What hasn’t it been filed?

The Secretary: I do not know. I have eight charges here preferred by Mr. Smith.

Mr. Bloodgood: The resolution says he must produce that paper.

The Secretary: yes.

The Chairman: Mr. Smith attacks Dr. De Mund. Dr. De Mund asks for the production of these charges, and he has a right to ask Mr. Smith to prove what he charges against him.

Dr. De Mund: I want to take an exception to that in this way: Mr. Smith got up and read a paper against me in the Board of Directors of this club. Mr. Palmer immediately jumped up and seconded that paper. According to any legal practice that makes him part of that matter, and therefore Mr. Palmer is just as much concerned in those charges as Mr. Smith. This Board directed Mr. Palmer to join with Mr. Smith in substantiating those charges, and all I am asking for is that they be compelled to do so. I think I am entitled to some protection from this body. Those charges were brought about in a cowardly and underhanded manner.

The Chairman: Don’t you want those charge brought before the Committee?

Dr. De Mund: Yes, but that is not the question. I think I am entitled to this, that both those men should be compelled to substantiate their charges made before the Board of Directors; that if a third party had joined in them, he should be compelled to substantiate that charge, and I state there in my letter that I am perfectly willing to waive and allow this paper to go in if they produce the original paper also, because there were three charges in that original paper which I wish to have them produce now.

The Chairman: that is perfectly right; they should be produced, but there is no reason that they cannot put in any other charges that they wish to.

Dr. De Mund: This resolution directed those particular charges of that time to be produced, but I am waiving that. If they will produce that original paper I am satisfied.

Mr. Appleton: They evidently have not complied with our instructions, but charges have been presented and been served by Mr. Smith.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not believe that Mr. Smith wants to produce that original paper that was read, and yet that may not be the fact at all. When we pass a resolution and demand a thing, that should follow it up. That resolution is absolutely clear. I do not agree with Dr. De Mund. I have taken legal advice on this question of our right to make a man prefer charges. From that advice I do not believe any court can make a man do that, but Mr. Palmer did second this thing. There may be some other form in which we could do this, but having seconded it he tried to crawl out and say he is not in this thing, that is another proposition. However, I think Mr. Palmer’s contention is correct from the advice I have had.

Mr. Hooley: If it is the sense of this body that that original paper be produced, wouldn’t Mr. Smith produce it?

The Chairman: I think according to our resolution it should be produced – that original paper should be produced, and they have a perfect right to file any other charges they see fit to file.

Mr. Hooley: Dr. De Mund waived that.

Mr. Appleton: Whether they produce that original paper or not, there are certain charges before us which must be considered.

The Secretary: I think before you go any further you should hear these charges read. It was all expunged from the minutes of that meeting of the Board of Directors by resolution. We have no record whatever that there was ever such a discussion. We know it occurred, but we have no record of it.

Mr. Bloodgood: The point you made at the last meeting was that no man, a member of this body, can get up and accuse a man the way Mr. Smith did without substantial proof in some way or other. I agree with that absolutely.
The Chairman: I do not think we should allow that sort of thin to go on.

Mr. Hooley: Don’t you think, in justice to Mr. Smith, he should be asked to produce that original paper? That will eliminate that part of it, and then we can proceed. Perhaps he hadn’t got it. Perhaps he has destroyed it.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think according to that resolution we ought to demand it.

The Secretary then read the following communication from Mr. B. S. Smith.

August 20, 1913.

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary American Kennel Club
1 Liberty Street
NYC

Dear Sir:--

Pursuant to resolution of the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club, adopted on July 15, 1913, I am enclosing herewith charges against Dr. De Mund, to be presented by you before the proper tribunal.

I notice that the resolution directs the filing of the charges for hearing by the Executive Committee. Although I am willing to have these charges tried before the Executive Committee, it is my opinion, after reading the By-laws carefully, that the Executive Committee has no jurisdiction to try Dr. De Mund, or any other delegates or officer of the American Kennel Club. Article XX of the By-laws provides that the charges must originate before the Board of Delegates, and by them be referred to the Executive Committee for investigation, and the result of said investigation be against submitted to the Board of Delegates to be found and passed upon by them.

It seems to me therefore, that nay other method of trying Dr. De Mund would be illegal, and might possibly involve the Club in litigation in the future. However, if the Executive Committee is willing to decide that they have such jurisdiction and to take the responsibility of such a trial, I shall submit to their decision and present proofs of the charges herein submitted, and of some others, which at the present time we have under consideration, but have not sufficient proofs thereof to satisfy ourselves of their truth.

Will you kindly inform me of the decision of the Executive Committee as to the tribunal before whom these charges shall be tried and the method of trial.

Respectfully yours,

B. S. Smith
Mr. Bloodgood: When did he write that?

The Secretary: August 20th. He was given until Aug 20th to file his charges, and this came in with his charges, to which I made no reply.

The Chairman: Is it to the Board of Directors or delegates?

The Secretary: the delegates.

The Chairman: Then in this case we are not a final body at all.

The Secretary: The constitution says that charges against a delegate must be preferred before the delegates and by them referred to the Executive Committee for investigation. The accused must have thirty days’ notice to appear before the Executive Committee. After the Executive Committee has investigated the charges they must be again referred for further recommendation to the Board of Delegates, and a majority of the delegates present shall then vote on the subject.

Mr. Bloodgood: that was all drawn for the benefit of a delegate. As I understood it, Dr. De Mund was willing to waive those rights of going to the directors and delegates. Otherwise we would have no right whatever to consider this matter.

The Chairman: By that Dr. De Mund does not accept this as final. He waives the right to appear before the delegates first. I do not think he waives the right to have this go back to the delegates. He waives what has past. He waives the fact that this has not come before the delegates and has not come to us directly. He does not waive the fact that this should go back to the delegates.

Mr. Bloodgood: If this were brought up before the directors they would have to refer it to the delegates. Then it takes a two-thirds vote to substantiate those charges, or at least to show that he stands to be tried; but when it is first brought to the delegates it takes a two-thirds vote to bring it to us.

The Chairman: He has waived that.

Mr. Rockefeller: Mr. Smith questions our right to hear it.

The Chairman: Dr. De Mund waives the right that he should have them come before the delegates.

Mr. Rockefeller: They have both got to waive it.

Mr. Appleton: Does Smith waive it?

Mr. Rockefeller: No; he questions our power.

Mr. Hooley: If Mr. Smith and Dr. De Mund are willing to waive it, we can proceed and try the matter?

The Chairman: Yes.

Mr. Appleton: As I understand the constitution, the delegates have power to suspend by a two-thirds vote or to permit or continue the action of the directors.

The Secretary: That is ex parte. They hear the charges by the delegates, and they can by a two-thirds vote suspend such delegate, and send the matter before the Executive Committee with thirty days notice. We have a precedent in the Guggenheimer matter, when charges were preferred against him. They came before the delegates and the delegates suspended him from his office as delegate and gave him thirty days’ notice to appear before the Executive Committee.

Dr. De Mund: I am ready to go on. I merely raise that point, and I do not think there is any further discussion.

The Chairman: The point is, we must act according to the constitution, and as far as I can make out, you and Smith must waive the right to go before the delegates.

Dr. De Mund: I will read you the rule that governs that case. It is distinctly covered in these rules: “Executive Committee. It shall have general supervision of the standing Committee of the club, and if it shall appear to any meeting of the Committee that any standing Committee, through inability to obtain a quorum or for any other reason, have failed to hold a meeting or has neglected to perform the duties imposed by these by-laws on such Committee, then
In any such event the Executive Committee shall be, for the time being vested with and may exercise all the powers of an act as such delinquent standing Committee, and any action of the Executive Committee so taken shall have the same force and effect as if taken by the standing Committee whose functions it is exercising. It shall have power to hear, review and finally determine any appeal which may be taken from the decision of a Trial Board. It shall consider and have power to determine any matter which may be referred to it by the Board of Directors.” This was a matter that was referred to it by the Chairman of the Board of Directors. I knew that question was to be raised, and it is not a question of waiving that right.

The Chairman: Here is another point to be considered: “The club shall have the power, by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present at any regular meeting, to suspend any member or delegate, or remit or continue the suspension imposed by the directors, for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the club or for violation of its constitution, by-laws or rules.” That is a club. “The order of suspension must then be referred to the Executive Committee who shall investigate the charges and report on same at the next regular meeting of the club, when the delegates shall act upon such report and by a majority vote.
of those present reinstate, continue the suspension for a stated time, or expel such member or delegate."

Dr. De Mund: That is where a suspension occurs. This is not a question of suspension. This is something that the president of the club said at the time that that matter was brought to the attention of the directors. His words were that it should be referred to the Executive Committee; that that was the proper place to bring those charges, and it was referred to the Executive Committee under the new section which was adopted last year, that it should have all the powers of directors. I have not been suspended or disqualified. These men have made certain charges or alleged charges to the Board of Directors, which were referred to the Executive Committee, and the Executive Committee passed a certain resolution. I am ready to answer those charges; in fact, I have demanded it, and I think that there is no question at all about the delegates.

The Chairman: You are perfectly willing to waive the question of coming before the delegates.

Dr. De Mund: yes, I am willing to waive anything.

Mr. Appleton: These charges were never referred to us by the Board of Directors as such.

Dr. De Mund: Yes; we referred them back to ourselves, and now we have all the power of the Board of Directors during the interim between meetings. The president told him that the proper place to bring these charges was before the Executive Committee.

The Chairman: That is true, but the Board of Directors has no more to do with those charges than the Czar of Russia; it is the delegates.

Dr. De Mund: It says maybe suspended, not charges originally there, but any member who is suspended; he may be suspended by the delegates. I have waived that already by demanding that they be heard. I do not think it is a question for discussion at all.

Mr. Hooley: Is it the sense of the Chairman that Mr. Smith should be asked to waive now?

The Chairman: I think it would be on the safe side, so there will be no further question about it. I think both sides should waive this matter going before the delegates.

Mr. Hooley: One of the law Committee of the club is here, Mr. Stewart. It might be well to hear from him.

Mr. Stewart: According to the way the By-Laws read I do not think the delegates have anything to do with it.

The Chairman: If Mr. Smith and Dr. De Mund are willing to waive that question, what is the use of discussing it any further?
Mr. Stewart: My own opinion is that the delegates have nothing to do with it so far as this case is concerned. The whole matter was brought before the directors before, and it was decided by the president of the club and acted on by the directors at that time that the proper place for it was before the Executive Committee, and it was voted on, as I understand it.

The Chairman: What is the sense of the meeting about it?

Mr. Bloodgood: It is a question whether that last waiver covers the constitution. That is the point in my mind.

Dr. De Mund: That only provides for final punishment; it does not provide for hearing charges. Any club can hear charges against any of its members at any time. It is the question of the punishment that is provided for there. If I am found guilty, there will be no question of punishment. I will get out very quickly.

Mr. Bloodgood: The point with me is whether we really want to refer it to the delegates.

Mr. Stewart: I still think we have the right to hear the whole matter and not refer it back again to the delegates.

The Chairman: The question is whether we get a waiver from both of them.
Mr. Rockefeller: I believe we have the right to proceed with this matter. This is a matter that originated before the Board of Directors. The delegates have no knowledge of it. The Board of Directors have been asked to furnish protection if they think it is proper. The Board of Directors have referred it to us. The delegates are not in it at all. The charges are not against anybody as a delegate.

Mr. Hooley: If Mr. Rockefeller puts that in the form of a motion, I will second it.

Mr. Rockefeller: Yes, I make that as a motion.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the charges as filed.

Dr. De Mund: That was not the original paper that was read.

Mr. Appleton: I would like to request Dr. De Mund to kindly leave the room for a moment.

Dr. De Mund: I would like to ask that this case go right on. I have a number of witnesses here who have been detained from their business.

(Dr. De Mund retired from the room.)

Mr. Bloodgood: I think we might as well take these charges up and consider them informally.

The Chairman: I think it would be well for us to consider each of them informally. The first charge, has Dr. De Mund answered this?

The Secretary: Yes.

The Chairman: But he has not answered them specifically.

The Secretary: No.

The Chairman: In regard to this first charge I do not think that that is any of Mr. Smith’s business. It seems to me that the Boston Terrier Club should be the one to take that up.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the matter be take up, and the charges considered seriatim, and discussed informally here.

The Chairman: the question is whether that first charge in regard to Doctor Osgood should be taken up.

Mr. Rockefeller: Smith says that Dr. De Mund said that.

Mr. Appleton: Suppose he proves that he did say it, is it a matter that is prejudicial to the club?

Mr. Bloodgood: That is a matter between Doctor Osgood and the Boston Terrier Club.

Mr. Appleton: Is Doctor Osgood a delegate now?

The Secretary: Yes

Mr. Rockefeller: If Doctor Osgood did not call upon him to account for it, I do not see that it is any of our business.

Mr. Hooley: Doctor Osgood is an able-bodied man.

The Chairman: He has legal redress. I think it is a personal matter.

Mr. Rockefeller: I cannot see how it affects the American Kennel Club in any way.

MR. Hooley: The further presumption is – I do not know Doctor Osgood well, but I presume any such statement was absolutely false and a joke – serious joke – so I do not think it ought to be dignified by any further action or notice unless the Doctor sees fit to take it up.

The Chairman: It seems to me that is a question for Doctor Osgood to take up. Is it the sense of the meeting that we dismiss that as a personal matter?

Mr. Appleton: Yes, I think we should dismiss that charge. I do not think it is necessary for us to give any reasons for our actions. I move that that article be dismissed.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the second charge.

Mr. Appleton: That is very general. That will have to be proven.

The Secretary then read the third charge.

Mr. Hooley: I think that is a reflection upon the
The Chairman: How can they pick out one of that Committee?
Mr. Bloodgood: The Committee acquiesced in everything that we did. Our report was adopted by the Committee unanimously.
Mr. Appleton: You do not know of anything Dr. De Mund did?
Mr. Bloodgood: No.
The Secretary then read the fourth charge.
The Chairman: That is none of our business at all.
Mr. Appleton: It might be if his accusations are improper.
Mr. Rockefeller: We should hear them on that.
The Secretary then read the fifth charge.
The Chairman: I think we should dismiss that. There is no use of asking any questions about that.
The Secretary then read the sixth charge.
The Chairman: That must be proven.
The Secretary then read the seventh charge.
The Chairman: I do not know that that has anything to do with us. He was a judge. That should be questioned.
The Secretary then read the eight charge.
Mr. Hooley: I did not know that there was any trouble between the Canadian Kennel Club and the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Bloodgood: The trouble with the Canadian Kennel Club existed before Dr. De Mund was ever here.

The Secretary: I suppose I know what he refers to there. The reciprocity agreement between the English Kennel Club and the American Kennel Club has been confirmed by both clubs with the exception of one clause that has been held up by the English Kennel Club in that the Canadian Kennel Club, being an affiliated club with the English Kennel Club – that we suspended its Secretary, and that he was suspended on charge by Dr. De Mund in reference to some remarks that this Secretary said he overheard at the Buffalo show.

Mr. Bloodgood: That case was tried out and settled.

The Secretary: But that has held up that particular article in the reciprocity agreement.

Mr. Bloodgood: Yes, but we settled that. We suspended him.

The Secretary: The facts in that case were these: It was published in the Canadian Kennel Gazette that this man was ready to furnish affidavits. The Trial Board called on him for affidavits and he declined to furnished them, but said that he and the other gentlemen who heard the remark made by Dr. De Mund would come on here and testify before the Trial Board on the subject if we allowed their expenses. The Trial Board considered that their expense were excessive – they were about $105 for the two of them to come from Toronto here and testify and go back to Toronto, and they declined to allow the $105, and suspended him on the ground that he refused to furnish affidavits.

Mr. Bloodgood: I remember when that case was brought up here and discussed here, and the man was suspended, and his suspension was upheld by the Board of Directors.

The Secretary: I do not know about that because we never refer those things to the Board of Directors unless there is an appeal from the decision of the Trial Board; they would go to the Executive Committee. The remark alleged to have been made by Dr. De Mund was: “I will fix it with the judge,” and Mr. Albright said all right. A few minutes after that Albright gave a prize to Dr. De Mund’s dog, and Dr. De Mund gave a prize to Albright’s dog, and the question of the dogs being worthy of them did not occur unquestionable it was, but the Canadian gentlemen who overheard it took it as a very serious matter and insisted that it was a cut and dried thing.

The Chairman: I do not see why we should have anything to do with that last charge.

The Secretary: I believe the charge was that Dr. De Mund said “See me fix it with the judge”, and went over and spoke to the judge, and the judge did as the doctor said he would. Then this man published this, and that he and another man had overheard all these remarks, and Dr. De Mund brought charges against this man, and the Trial Board called on him to produce his affidavits or not I do not believe anybody else knew, but he declined to furnish the affidavit, and said he would come on and testify if we paid the expenses. Dr. De Mund said he did make that remark and told that to the Trial Board, but said it was a joke.

Mr. Bloodgood: It seems to me that was all settled. I do not think we can take that up at all.

Mr. Hooley: I move that that charge be dismissed informally. Is it the sense of this meeting that Mr. Smith be asked to produce these former charges now?

Mr. Bloodgood: Our resolution directs him to produce them.

The Chairman: Of course what Mr. Smith has done was to put the original resolution in form and has added something more to them.
Mr. Hooley: If the gentlemen has it, I think we should insist on its production. If he has destroyed it, that is another thing.

Mr. Stewart: The Chair’s point is that there are three more charges in that other paper that are not in these charges.

Mr. Hooley: And which might be very pertinent to the case.

(At this stage Mr. Smith and Dr. De Mund entered the room.)

The Chairman: Mr. Smith, have you the original paper which you read to the Board of Directors at a recent meeting?

Mr. Smith: I have not the original. I have practically the same thing that I read that day, but as that case was expunged from the minutes, I destroyed the original paper and haven’t it in my possession at all. I have practically the same thing just as nearly as I can remember it.

The Chairman: Have you it with you?

Mr. Smith: Yes.

(Producing paper.)

I have it in this form. I simply took the case as I remembered it, and these are practically my charges here. I have taken up each case singly as I remember it from my
The Chairman: Do you want to hear these original charges read?
Dr. De Mund: I would like to hear them.
Mr. Bloodgood: When did you destroy that, before you saw the resolution?
Mr. Smith: No; I destroyed that after I got home that night. I destroyed that at my home.
Mr. Appleton: When was that?
Mr. Smith: Directly after the meeting where I read the paper.
The Chairman: What is the difference between these charges and that paper?
Mr. Smith: In this I have enlarged upon it and given my evidence and affidavits and that sort of thing. These are my charges. There is no such paper as I read the day because I never made a copy of it. I have the one copy of that paper and that is all there was in existence. That is practically my case.
The Chairman: They are not the original charges?
Mr. Smith: No.
Dr. De Mund: I would like to have my lawyer, Mr. Lederer, to conduct my case for me.
Mr. Bloodgood: I object to lawyers trying a case before us. If the lawyers want to sum up and make a plea to us and then go out, that is another proposition, but no club in the world will permit lawyers to try matters before it.

Dr. De Mund: I decidedly object to that. I am not asking for his appearance here as a lawyer for me, but I am asking him in as a friend. In every case that has ever been tried by the American Kennel Club we have allowed lawyers/

The Chairman: yes, by courtesy.

Dr. De Mund: I think it is courtesy now that is asked. Mr. Lederer has prepared my case. I have not the data here myself. He has it all, and he has examined the witnesses. I am not familiar myself with the witness' testimony, and I cannot go on in this case. Mr. Smith got up in a meeting and attacked me out of a clear sky. I won't say that. I knew three days before that paper was read the copies were in the possession of the New York Herald and of the “Dogs Weekly”. I heard the gist of the charges. He says he does not remember. He remembers perfectly well what was in those charges. I demand the right to be represented here, as it has always been accorded before.

The Chairman: There is no such right.

Dr. De Mund: Then I ask as a courtesy of this meeting to be represented by counsel, as my case has already been prepared, and I am not familiar with it myself, not as a legal proposition.

Mr. Bloodgood: I would like to ask Dr. De Mund in what way he wishes to be represented. Is it his idea to have a lawyer come in here to cross examine the witnesses?

Dr. De Mund: Only in a way to bring out the testimony of the witnesses, in the same way as my witnesses; he will ask them the questions. I cannot ask them the questions because I am not familiar with the case. It seems to me very strange that a member of the Executive Committee is denied the courtesy which has been accorded by the American Kennel Club to other people for years. I want to bring out the testimony of my own witnesses.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not want to deny Dr. De Mund the courtesy that has been extended to other members here, but I think there has been a mistake if we have allowed lawyers to come in here and cross question and act as a court of law here.

Dr. De Mund: I do not want you to act as a court of law. I want to the assistance of counsel in this matter. If it is the wish of the Committee I will ask the questions myself, but as I told you, I have not prepared this case myself and am not familiar with it. I did not think There would be any question raised, as it never had been raised before.

    Mr. Bloodgood: I suppose we could allow that courtesy and have the right to stop any questioning that we wish.

    The Chairman: Yes.

    Mr. Hooley: May I ask what your idea is as to the rule of procedure, simply to take up those charges one by one?

    The Chairman: Mr. Smith must prove these charges.

    Mr. Hooley: If these charges are sustained or dismissed, that is the entire question. If any of them are sustained, then the doctor has a right to answer.

    Dr. De Mund: haven’t I got to answer all these charges? Haven’t I the right to bring witnesses to answer these charges? I understand they have to be proved, but this matter is more than this proof here. These men have gone out broadcast to the newspapers. I have been accused of crimes. They bring up these charges. I am willing to waive every point, but I want to get them on the record. I want them to add those charges, whether they are proven or not. I want them to answer them.

    Mr. Hooley: Supposing any of these charges are not considered of sufficient dignity for investigation by this Committee, should they be brought up?

    Dr. De Mund: I still wish to answer them.
The Chairman: If we dismiss them there will be no necessity of proving them.

Dr. De Mund: This matter has been spread by Smith and Palmer broadcast, that I was to be driven out of the American Kennel Club, and so forth. I purpose to prove that, and I wish to have my witnesses testify for that purpose.

Mr. Bloodgood: It is Mr. Smith’s place first to prove the charges, is it not?

The Chairman: Yes.

Mr. Bloodgood: Then Dr. De Mund’s evidence comes after, as I understand it.

First we proceed with Mr. Smith.

Dr. De Mund: May I have my attorney present under those conditions?

The Chairman: I think it is a very bad precedent to have an attorney here.

Dr. De Mund: I would like to ask a ruling on that.

Mr. Smith: May I have the same privilege?

The Chairman: If both lawyers are here, and they will refrain from saying anything, yes.

Dr. De Mund: I wish to make another motion then. If the Secretary is not a member of this Committee, I ask that he be excused from the room during the taking of the testimony until such time as he may be called upon.

The Chairman: I rule that out of order. It is not a
Mr. Smith: Mr. Guggenheimer has prepared this case for me. He has some question in regard to whether this is the proper court where this matter should be tried. I also have the opinion of Judge Cutler of Boston, on the same matter.

The Chairman: We have been all through that.

Mr. Smith: May I ask what your ruling is about that?

The Chairman: You brought these charges here to be heard by this Committee.

Mr. Smith: Yes, on demand of the directors. I am rather at a loss how to proceed in this case because I fully expected to be represented by counsel, and I did not think there was any question but that that courtesy would be extended to me, because in the trial board parties have always been represented by counsel.

The Chairman: When you ran the trial board, you ran it to suit yourselves, but when you are in Executive Committee, you are here to suit us.

Mr. Smith: I have been advised that I need pay no attention whatever to the command of the Executive Committee to bring in these charge against Dr. De Mund, but on the advice of counsel, I did so, they thinking all the time that according to rule 20 of the By-laws it was entirely out of order, and should not have been brought before this tribunal, and that is what Mr. GUggenheimer wanted to say, because, supposing this case were to go against me or for me, it might afterwards be decided it had come before the improper tribunal, and the case could not stand on the record no matter what the decision might be.

Mr. Bloodgood: We discussion that point among ourselves, and the Chairman has ruled that we could try this case, did you not?

The Chairman: Yes.

Mr. Hooley: I move that we proceed with the case.

The Chairman: The first charge, as follows: I do hereby charge that Dr. De Mund is guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman, and prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, in uttering the following remarks concerning Doctor Frederick H. Osgood, which I believe to be slanderous and untrue, to wit: That Doctor Osgood was mentally deficient and that he appropriated moneys of the Boston Terrier Club for his expenses as a delegate to attend meetings of the American Kennel Club and had not attended said meetings.”

Mr. Smith: May I further say that I had fully understood that as Mr. Bernheimer’s case was the first case on the calendar, that would be the one taken up to-day. There are several witnesses whom I want to call, two of whom are in Boston, and there are some witnesses in Chicago. I did not imagine for one moment that this matter would come to trial today.

The Chairman: What have you to say about this first charge?

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not see that that is in order at all. It does not seem to be any of Mr. Smith’s business. That is a matter between Doctor Osgood and Dr. De Mund.

Mr. Rockefeller: It does not appear to me how it affects the American Kennel Club in any way.

Mr. Smith: If you will let me read what I have on this first page here: At the May 20th meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club I offered the following resolution. I have not that resolution because it was destroyed. In taking up my first claim I merely say in this case that Dr. De Mund was very unpleasantly prominent in the charge made by Doctor Boultlee, of Canada.

The Chairman: What have you to say about this first charge?

Mr. Smith: As I understand that Doctor Osgood is about to bring charges against Dr. De Mund, and as this case and one I touch upon later, namely, the cause for the resignation of the Boston Trial Board, is the basis for Doctor Osgood’s charges, I shall not dwell, unless ordered to do so by this honorable Board, upon what is really the propery of another person.

The Chairman: What have you to say in regard to the second charge: “I hereby charge Dr. De Mund as being guilty of conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club in his actions in the controversy between the Boston Terrier Club of America, and its New England rival.”

Mr. Smith: This touches on both these cases.

The Chairman: What have you to say in regard to the third charge: “I hereby charge that Dr. De Mund is guilty of conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club in his actions as a member of the Investigating Committee appointed to investigate the Atlantic City Dog Show given by the Ladies Kennel Association of New Jersey.”

Mr. Smith: I claim that the conduct of Dr. De Mund as a member of the Investigating Committee was reprehensible. It will take me some time to establish all the facts in relation to this charge, so I will, with your permission, take it up last.

Mr. Bloodgood: Since we must take it up any how, we might as well do it now.

Mr. Smith: That is the case of Mr. Bernheimer. I want to call attention to the second claim I have made. I claim that Dr. De Mund’s conduct, especially in the cases of Mr. Bernheimer and Mr. Middlebrook was reprehensible. I know positively that the report of this Committee in regard to Mr. Bernheimer, as published in the Kennel Gazette was not written by Dr. De Mund or by any other member of the Committee, with the exception of the fifth paragraph in the report in connection with the Atlantic City Show, and that was written verbatim by Dr. De Mund. The fifth paragraph is the one which states that the offense of Foley and Delmont is mitigated by the unwarranted conduct of Mr. Bernheimer.

Mr. Bloodgood: I would like to ask what you mean in your statement that this was not written by the Investigating Committee.

Mr. Smith: I mean that one clause.

Mr. Bloodgood: You say the whole thing was not written by Dr. De Mund or by the Investigating Committee.

Mr. Smith: I say that one clause was not written by the Investigating Committee, but was written by Dr. De Mund.

Mr. Bloodgood: And you go on to say that nothing was written by him?

Mr. Smith: No, I did not.

Mr. Bloodgood: You say you know positively that this was not written, and so forth. Who was it written by?

Mr. Smith: This was written by Dr. De Mund.

Mr. Bloodgood: You say you know positively that this report was not written by any one of the Investigating Committees?

Mr. Smith: No; I claim that the only part that was not written by the Committee was the fifth paragraph which was written by Dr. De Mund alone and afterward inserted in that finding.

Mr. Bloodgood: The Secretary whipped that report into shape, didn’t you, A. P. Vredenburgh?

The Secretary: Yes, I write the entire report from headings given to me by Dr. De Mund, chairman of the Committee.

Mr. Bloodgood: And handed it to the Investigating Committee to sign and agree to?

The Chairman: The Investigating Committee signed the report.

The Secretary: They did.

Mr. Smith: I claim that the fifth paragraph of the report of that Committee was written solely by Dr. De Mund, and A. P. Vredenburgh, the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, write the rest of the report from notes that Dr. De Mund had given to him.

Mr Hooley: Do you mean to say that Dr. De Mund wrote
I have before me. It seems to me that Mr. Smith is bringing in whatever Mr. Smith chooses to. I am prepared to meet these charges.

Mr. Appleton: What heading does this come under?

Mr. Smith: I am trying to prove that Dr. De Mund acted with malice in his conduct on that Committee of which he was Chairman.

Mr. Appleton: But you must stick to those charges.

Mr. Smith: I brought those in as part of my charges. I cannot prove any malice if you rule out everything indicative of it.

The Chairman: What did the Mississippi Valley Kennel Club have to do with St. Louis?

Mr. Smith: It is an introductory remark leading up to how Dr. De Mund first started after a man who was his friend at one time –

The Chairman: You cannot go into all that.

Mr. Smith: Then I do not see that there is any use in my trying to do anything at all. I think I should have an opportunity to make good on my charges.

The Chairman: Your charges are that his conduct was prejudicial to the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Smith: My charge is that he showed malice in his conduct in the Bernheimer case. I have a sworn affidavit.
I claim he acted with malice in regard to that fifth paragraph and I propose to show how this malice started.

Mr. Hooley: We have just had a ruling on that. I want to be perfectly fair with Mr. Smith, and I am sure everybody in this Committee does but that fifth paragraph, which it is claimed was inserted in the report of the other members of that board, it is said by a member of that Committee that they stood for that absolutely, and it was all right.

Mr. Bloodgood: They all signed it an acquiesced in it.

Mr. Hooley: I do not think Mr. Bernheimer is in any way connected with this matter.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Bloodgood, even though you were a member of that Committee, if I can show that Dr. De Mund insisted on this one paragraph which the Secretary objected to going into that report on the ground that if it did not go in it would be a white wash, which the papers claimed Mr. Bernheimer would get – I think if I can show that he showed malice –

Mr. Bloodgood: that was all settled by the Investigating Committee. We discussed the situation.

Dr. De Mund: I would like to ask you if every paragraph of that report was not discussed in Committee after the that it shows that Dr. De Mund was using his office in the American Kennel Club to exert malice, and that sort of thing, whenever he felt he could do it.

   The Chairman: The Investigating Committee do not stand for that. The Committee signed the report unanimously. They are responsible.

   Mr. Smith: Which do you wish me to take up next?

   The Chairman: The fourth charge: “I hereby charge that Dr. De Mund is guilty of conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, in his affiliations and connections with Field and Fancy.”

   Mr. Smith: My fifth claim is that Dr. De Mund has been too closely connection with Field and Fancy to hold office in this club any longer, Field and Fancy being a paper owned by a man whose antagonism to the American Kennel Club, and more especially to the president, is a matter of history. So far as this claim goes, I wish to present my sworn statement, which reads as follows: After Mr. Bernheimer’s resignation from the American Kennel Club, it became Dr. De Mund’s habit to report to me every time Mr. Bernheimer came to the American Kennel Club to see its secretary or every time he and A. P. Vredenburgh were seen together any where. One day at the American Kennel Club, Dr. De Mund said to me: “I will tell you right now A. P. Vredenburgh has got to stop this going around with Bernheimer! it has got to stop,” I asked what he was referring to. “Well”, he said, “they were uptown together again last night, Skinner ran right into them.”

The Chairman: What has this to do with Field and Fancy?

Mr. Smith: He said they were uptown together again last night; Mr. Skinner ran right into them, and continuing he said, “Now, I am going to tell you something; there is today in the office of Field and Fancy a certain cartoon which represents Bernheimer as being kicked out of the American Kennel Club and A. P. Vredenburgh in the uniform of adjutant standing in the door of the Old Guard Armory with his arms open to receive him; they want to publish that cartoon down there, but have agreed not to do so until I say the word. If this thing don’t stop right short I am going to tell them to go ahead and publish it.” I claim that when a director of the American Kennel Club is so closely connected with a paper antagonistic to said club that he can at will publish or withhold a cartoon of an officer of the American Kennel Club, he has become too closely connected with said paper to hold office in the American Kennel Club any longer.” That is an affidavit which I have sworn to and which is in the custody of Mr. Guggenheimer.
Dr. De Mund: Am I to answer these now or at the finish?

The Chairman: at the finish.

Dr. De Mund: I deny that absolutely. I deny that I have any connection with Field and Fancy, and would offer this statement “I. F. J. Skinner, do hereby make the following statement of fact and certainly to the truth thereof:

For upwards of 12 years I have been employed as business manager and editor of the weekly sporting paper called “Field and Fancy”. I am, and have been, for a like period acquainted with Dr. De Mund. I know and state of my own knowledge that the said Dr. De Mund has never had any financial interest, connection by way of employment or otherwise, or affiliation of any sort with the paper. He is a personal acquaintance of mine, but in no way interested in the paper excepting as a member of the community interested in the breeding and exhibition of thoroughbred dogs.

Dated, NYC, 18 Sept 1913

F.J. Skinner

Signed in the presence of John E. Hourax

I would like to state further in connection with this matter that Mr. Smith has got a very much garbled statement there. At the time of the Bernheimer case, Field and Fancy were publishing little squibs in regard to Mr. Bernheimer. I did go to Mr. Skinner as a personal matter and request him not to publish those things. I said they would do no good to the American Kennel Club or anybody else. I asked: “Can’t you keep them out? Justice will be done to everybody in case you do.” That is the only connection I had. I do not consider that Mr. Smith has offered any proof that I have any connection with Field and Fancy whatever. I offer that statement of Mr. Skinner’s in the form of an affidavit.

Mr. Smith: I would like to ask Dr. De Mund if it is not a fact that this statement that I have just made in regard to his telling me that this cartoon stood in the office of Field and Fancy, and that it could be withheld and could be published according to whatever he said, is not a fact.

Dr. De Mund: It is not a fact. The statement was that such a cartoon was contemplated in Field and Fancy, and I requested the suppression of it; that is all. It came out just about the time that Mr. Belmont was cartooned as a parrot and the Secretary putting him in the chair here, and I want at that time and requested them to stop that sort of thing; it was merely a personal request and not in any way an official matter.

  The Chairman:  you have no connection with Field and Fancy?
  Dr. De Mund:  Absolutely none.
  Mr. Smith:  Isn’t it a fact that you told me that unless the Secretary stopped going around with Bernheimer you would have that published?
  Dr. De Mund:  It is not.

  The Chairman:  The fifth charge reads:  “I hereby charge that Dr. De Mund is guilty of conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club in the remarks made by him concerning one Rosalie Stewart which resulted in a judgment being obtained against the American Kennel Club caused solely by the said remarks.”

  Mr. Smith:  I claim in connection with this charge that Dr. De Mund’s remarks at a meeting of the delegates caused an expense of thousands of dollars which the American Kennel Club has been compelled to pay, damages and for legal fees.  Such a statement without a single fact to sustain it was in my opinion prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club. Has Dr. De Mund ever at any meeting held since that time expressed any regret that he was the cause of such a heavy loss to the club?

  Mr. Appleton:  Where was that statement made?
Mr. Smith: Made in open hearing, and I can show you that statement in the American Kennel Gazette.

Dr. De Mund: I do not deny that statement.

Mr. Rockefeller: I think we are all familiar with that matter.

Dr. De Mund: May I answer that now? I do not deny that statement. I think you are familiar with the case referred to. I did make those remarks. They were privileged remarks at a meeting of the delegates. I made them at the time as much in favor of the accused as anybody else. The judge ruled that it was not the making of those remarks, but that it was the publication of them in the Gazette that constituted the libel.

Mr. Bloodgood: We are all aware of that situation.

The Chairman: The sixth charge: “I hereby charge that Dr. De Mund is guilty of conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club in his attempt to interfere with the internal organization and the election of officers of various clubs which are members of the American Kennel Club,” What do you refer to by that?

Mr. Smith: I am in a very unfortunate position in regard to that. I have relied entirely upon my counsel, and I have been taken completely off my guard in this matter, and I am not prepared to go ahead with it.

Mr. Hooley: I move that Mr. Smith have an opportunity to consult with his counsel for a few minutes.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Smith: In order to substantiate that charge I would like to call Mr. Palmer as a witness.

Dr. De Mund: I would like to ask which case he refers to. This is general. I would like to know which club, so I can be prepared to call a witness if necessary.

Mr. Rockefeller: He wants Mr. Palmer to come in and give some evidence.

The Chairman: Ask Mr. Palmer to come in.

Mr. Smith: I have eight witnesses that I had made arrangements to call in this case.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not care if you have 100 witnesses. You are bringing charges here. You should bring them in a definite way so we can get at them.

Mr. Smith: But you do not give me a chance to substantiate any of them. I want Doctor Osgood and Mr. Cutler in regard to that case. In Mr. Bernheimer's case I want to call Mr. Palmer and Mr. Guggenheimer in regard to something which transpired which they know about. Where I do have a chance to substantiate my charges, then you want to deny me the privilege of calling these witnesses.
Mr. Bloodgood: No, you must not say that we want to deny anybody anything here, but we want these things in definite form.

The Chairman: Yes, we must have something definite.

Mr. Bloodgood: You make a statement of a charge, and we want to know what the charge is.

Mr. Smith: I have read what the charge is, and then I want an opportunity to prove it, and it seems as if I was denied that privilege. I want to ask that Mr. Palmer be allowed to state the conversation which occurred between him and Dr. De Mund in regard to the election of president of the Collie Club.

Mr. Palmer: To the best of my recollection it was prior or I am more inclined to think after the annual meeting of the American Kennel Club, that Dr. De Mund met me outside this door and inquired as to whether Doctor C. Y. Ford was to be a candidate for the Collie Club of America. I told him that he was to be, and he told me: “That is not the man that you want and it is not the man that I want; furthermore, he is not a qualified doctor; he is nothing more nor less than a trained nurse for pay.” It struck me that he was going into things that absolutely did not concern him in trying to throw his influence into a specialty club.

The Chairman: Is that all the evidence you have on that charge?

Mr. Smith: Yes.

The Chairman: Any other cases?

Mr. Smith: Yes; there are some charges here, seven and eight.

Dr. De Mund: May I answer that charge now?

The Chairman: Yes. I think Mr. Palmer has the right to hear the answer too.

Mr. Rockefeller: Could I ask that these outsiders leave the room for a moment?

Mr. Hooley: If that is a motion I second it.

(The counsel and others not directly interested then left the room.)

Mr. Rockefeller: Supposing it is all true as stated, what of it?

The Chairman: I do not know what it means. Suppose Doctor Ford is not a doctor.

Mr. Hooley: The point I make is that Mr Smith is a delegate, and as a member of the Club feels that he has a grievance, whatever we may think of it.

Mr. Bloodgood: That is all very nice and very kind, but that is not what this Board is here for. This Board is here to listen to proper evidence and proper charges.

Mr. Hooley: I move we go on to No. 7.
The Chairman: Have you any other internal organizations that you wish to peak of?

Mr. Smith: Yes, I have other internal organizations. Last year, when it came time for the annual meeting it seemed that Dr. De Mund and I had some way or other a great deal to do with it. We were appointed the nominating Committee. Take this case of Doctor Osgood and Judge Cutler. They were left off of this Committee simply by Dr. De Mund making absolutely false statements about them. He made them to me. He made them to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club and it was substantiated afterwards. Mr. Palmer went to Boston and saw these men and told them about all these things that Dr. De Mund had said about Doctor Osgood being mentally deficient and having appropriated money from the Boston Terrier Club which did not belong to him to pay his way over here to meetings, and that he never came to the meetings, and there is a whole lot of that sort of thing. That is the first charge. I wasn’t to call Doctor Osgood, Mr. Cutler, and Mr. Palmer, and in the Bernheimer case I want to call Mr. Guggenheimer, one of the most important witnesses that I have to call in substantiating my claim. Dr. De Mund treated Mr. Bernheimer unfairly in that matter. That is all I have in regard to internal organization.

The Chairman: What have you to say in connection with the seventh charge: “I hereby charge that Dr. De Mund is guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman and prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, in that he did say before several members of the Kennel Club that I was intoxicated during all the time that I was in Chicago at the last Chicago show, and on the train returning from Chicago, which statement is absolutely false.” You were a judge at that time?

Mr. Smith: I was and I can bring witnesses to prove that the only thing that I had in the way of an intoxicating drink from the time I left New York until after I got to Chicago was one bottle of beer which I had on the train between New York and Chicago.

The Chairman: The point is if he said so.

Mr. Smith: I can prove that by Mr. Hooley and everybody who was there. I do not know whether Mr. Stewart was here that day or not. Mr. Bloodgood was here. It was at an informal meeting which Mr. Hooley thought it advisable to call, and Dr. De Mund, after having given Mr. Palmer his word that no personalities would be indulged in, got out of his chair like lightning out of a clear sky and brought out the statement that he had heard from five or six persons that I was intoxicated from the time I left New York until I got back to New York, and more specifically that I was intoxicated on the train coming from Chicago to New York.

   The Chairman: Where is he supposed to have said this.

   Mr. Smith: At an informal meeting which was attended – I can only see Mr.
Hooley and Mr. Bloodgood and Dr. De Mund here who were at that meeting. I propose to bring Mr. Eastman, the president of the Chicago Kennel Club, here and Mr. Pugh, the Secretary of that club.

   Mr. Hooley: Dr. De Mund and Mr. Smith have had abundance of time to prepare their cases, and I do not think we should be asked to hear all these witnesses. I think we must eliminate all that absolutely.

   Dr. De Mund: At an informal meeting of some of the directors – to go back a little bit, I would like to make a certain statement. During my absence in the West, Mr. Smith and Mr. Palmer were going around black guarding to various people. This informal meeting was had at the suggestion of one or two, so that Mr. Smith could bring up the matters that we were talking about. While at that meeting Mr. Smith made the remark that he heard certain things about me in Chicago.

   Mr. Smith: I object to all this as being out of order.

   Dr. De Mund: I said that I had heard that Mr. Smith was intoxicated at Chicago.
That I had heard.

   Mr. Smith: From five or six people.
you gentlemen? Didn’t you understand it that way; that that meeting was not called excepting as a confidential meeting of a lot of friends to try to straighten out a lot of matters, and we talked that over?

The Chairman: It was not a directors meeting. It was an informal meeting of a lot of gentlemen.

Mr. Hooley: There were very unpleasant things said there, and they should not be repeated here.

Mr. Smith: I remember Dr. De Mund getting up and making that statement about me, and if it were not for that, I never should have brought the charges against him in the Kennel Club that I have brought. You know perfectly well that before that meeting was over that day, I was the goat. I had to stand up and try and prove that I was not drunk at Chicago.

Mr. Hooley: There was no such attempt made, and, as the Chairman of that meeting said, I said emphatically that nothing of that kind would be allowed.

Mr. Smith: Am I not to have the privilege of calling witnesses to prove that I was not drunk?

Mr. Bloodgood: I came to that meeting with the idea that it was thoroughly understood that it was to be a confidential meeting. Mr. Smith says there was no nastiness brought out by him. I do not know who began it, but everybody was calling each other a liar from the time we were in there until we went out.

Mr. Smith: I take exception to that. I never did that.

Mr. Bloodgood: You did not say he was a liar but you said he was stating what was not true.

Mr. Smith: Yes.

The Chairman: I do not know what you are going to do with a meeting that was supposed to be confidential.

Dr. De Mund: I am perfectly ready to answer these charges. I acknowledge that I said that I heard it. I would like to call two or three witnesses who also heard it from exhibitors there. I did not say it was so, but that I was told by three exhibitors that Mr. Smith was drunk in the ring, but since then I have been told by four witnesses. I do not state it of my own knowledge, merely that I was told so.

Mr. Smith: Might I have the names of those exhibitors?

Dr. De Mund: No.

Mr. Smith: Don't you think it is fair that Dr. De Mund should give the names of those exhibitors?

Mr. Stewart: So long as these words were said in this confidential meeting I would ask Mr. Smith to withdraw that.

Mr. Smith: I do not think I can. The confidence of that meeting was betrayed, but not by me. It was betrayed long before I opened my mouth.

Dr. De Mund: May I call witnesses in regard to this? I will ask Mr. Bloodgood if I did not make the remark that I had heard it at the Suffolk Show?

Mr. Bloodgood: I don’t remember exactly what was said.

Dr. De Mund: You said it was only fair to Mr. Smith that I should say what I had heard. If I am allowed to, I will call those witnesses to prove that so as to substantiate my position that it was rumored that that was the fact.

Mr. Hooley: I think the Committee is willing to take Dr. De Mund’s word that he has four witnesses who will swear to that.

Mr. Smith: May I ask you a question? Are the decisions of this Board to be given after the meeting which we are holding today, and may I not be given the privilege of calling witnesses to substantiate the charges? I have tried to get Doctor Osgood and Judge Cutler to come on here, and they said there was no possibility that this case would be called today. The Bernheimer case was the first on the program. That should have been taken up first naturally.

Mr. Hooley: I rise to a point of order. This Committee never sits but one day. It has never sat to my knowledge two or three days. It is difficult enough for me to come here one day. It is called for a certain date.

The Chairman: The question is whether we can hear any witnesses in regard to this charge.

Mr. Smith: Owing to the fact that this was confidential meeting where this think occurred, and after absolutely where this think occurred, and after absolutely denying that I was under the influence of liquor in any way, shape or form, at Chicago, or going there, or coming here from Chicago, I will withdraw that charge on the ground that I do not want to betray the confidences which were supposed to be imposed upon me on that day, but they had been betrayed long before I said anything about it. I do not want to be a party to it, and therefore, I withdraw it.

The Chairman: Now, the eighth and last charge: “I do hereby charge that Dr. De Mund’s presence as an officer and director of the American Kennel Club is prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, in that it is the cause of the ill feeling now existing toward the American Kennel Club, by the English Kennel Club and the Canadian Club.”

Mr. Smith: This matter I was ready to prove by Doctor Ford, who is not here today. I cannot do anything without him and notes which Mr. Guggenheimer has on hand down there. It is a fact, and I think admitted by Dr. De Mund
Mr. Hooley: Who was the Chairman of the Trial Board?

Mr. Smith: I do not know. Whether I was the Chairman or not I do not know; I am not positive.

Mr. Hooley: You passed on that?

Mr. Smith: Yes, and I passed on it for this reason: We did everything we could to get Doctor Boulting to come here and testify. He would not come unless he was allowed an amount for expenses which the Secretary refused to grant. He wanted to come with another man, and demanded $105, and he would not send affidavits, and I claim that all I said in my article on that say was that Dr. De Mund was unfortunate in having made that remark. I think he himself admitted that he was unfortunate in having made it.

Mr. Bloodgood: You were on that Trial Board?

Mr. Smith: I was.

Mr. Bloodgood: And that was the ruling of the Trial Board? It was put in the general meeting, was it not?

The Secretary: No.

Mr. Bloodgood: It was reported in the Gazette.

Mr. Smith: Reported in the Gazette.

Mr. Bloodgood: And accepted by the American Kennel Club?

Mr. Smith: Yes

Mr. Bloodgood: Don’t you think that this is rather a late date to bring that up?
Mr. Smith: No, I think not. The idea was that we had nobody here by Dr. De Mund and Dr. De Mund as he had done on one or two other occasions, in regard to the case of Ben Lewis, for instance, tried to conduct things with a very high hand and partially succeeded, but the fact remains that it was an unfortunate remark for Dr. De Mund to make, and for a member of the American Kennel Club to be sitting around at the ringside making bets as to what dogs was going to win, so they could be overheard by people around the ring. Doctor Boultree was practically disqualified because he would not come before the Trial Board. We could not do anything else with him.

Mr. Hooley: Did you not at the time of the Trial Board, when we talked that matter over with you, say that Dr. De Mund was absolutely innocent of any wrongdoing in that matter?

Mr. Smith: I did.

Mr. Hooley: You felt there was no wrongdoing, but possibly it was an unwise and silly thing to say?

Mr. Smith: Yes, and unfortunate.

Mr. Hooley: But you did not believe there was any malice or attempt at any crooked work in regard to it?

Mr. Smith: I did not believe that Dr. De Mund did any crooked work in regard to that case, but I say that Dr. De Mund made a very unfortunate remark, “See me fix
“this thing with the Judge”, which brought him very unpleasant prominence.

Dr. De Mund: First, there is no proof that there is any ill feeling between the English Kennel Club or Canadian Club. I wish to ask the Secretary if there is any ill feeling between the two clubs at the present time.

The Secretary: Not that I am aware of.

Dr. De Mund: At the time this happened, Doctor Boultlee was not Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club and Mr. Smith made a mis-statement in regard to dates. Doctor Boultlee made a statement that I had said certain things. I demanded an investigation by the Governors of this club. It was referred to the Trial Board, the same was Mr. Bloodgood had demanded an investigation of another proceeding. I brought seven or eight witnesses here. The Trial Board found unanimously that the remarks were uncalled for. Then I preferred, with Mr. Albright, charges against Doctor Boultlee for making false and malicious statements. Doctor Boultlee said he would send affidavits, and then declined to sent them, but demanded $105 to come on here.

The Chairman: We have been all over that.

Dr. De Mund: It came before the Trial Board twice.

Mr. Smith: When I was on this case of Dr. De Mund, investigating the Atlantic City Dog Show, I understood that I would not be given the privilege of calling witnesses.
I wanted to call Mr. Palmer and Mr. Guggenheimer as witnesses in regard to proving malice.

   The Chairman: We do not care anything about that.

   Mr. Smith: Mr. Guggenheimer is the most important witness I have in regard to that case.

   Mr. Bloodgood: That is a question. We signed that report on which we acted on the evidence we had before us. I want to say that Dr. De Mund did not influence Mr. Greer or myself in any way whatever, and that we are not puppets to be influenced by anybody. We acted on the evidence that was before us purely and simply.

   Mr. Hooley: I think Mr. Bernheimer asked to have his case brought up again before this body some time, and I think in connection with Mr. Bernheimer’s case this might prejudice that case. I do not think it should go further.

   Mr. Bloodgood: I have always liked Mr. Bernheimer, and in the beginning of this thing I told A. P. Vredenburgh that I was very sorry because I had seen Bernheimer in here for a long time, and he talked very well at the meetings, but that the Board acted on the evidence before it and had no business to act on anything else except the evidence.

   Mr. Smith: I should feel very bad if I am not allowed to call Mr. Guggenheimer as a witness to prove on thing, that before the case was taken up by the Committee, Dr. De Mund did a certain thing that I want to bring out by calling Mr. Guggenheimer. I will guarantee it will not consume over five minutes in doing it.

Mr. Bloodgood: What is your objection to stating what that is?

Mr. Smith: I would rather bring it out by Mr. Guggenheimer. Mr. Guggenheimer knows what I refer to.

Mr. Rockefeller: Has Mr. Guggenheimer personal knowledge of it?

Mr. Smith: Yes

Dr. De Mund: What charge has this to do with? I cannot see that this has anything to do with it. Is this a personal matter between Bernheimer and Dr. De Mund or something to do with the American Kennel Club?

Mr. Smith: Something which I should think had to do with the American Kennel Club.

Dr. De Mund: A matter of personal animosity between two delegates has nothing to do with the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Smith: It would not take more than a minute.

Mr. Hooley: I cannot see why Mr. Smith cannot state it.

Mr. Bloodgood: Is it in regard to this charge at Atlantic City?

Mr. Smith: yes

Mr. Hooley: I move that the gentleman be heard.
Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Guggenheimer: Mr. Chairman and gentlemen: I believe it was some little time after the motion was made that an investigating Committee be appointed, and I believe the investigating Committee had been appointed, and Dr. De Mund came over to my office one day and said to me: “I have advised Bernheimer to resign”. I said: “Why?” “Well”, he said “I know that he has not done anything wrong, but I also know that the Committee will find him guilty.” I said, “Do you mena to say that when you know, as you say to me, that he has not done anything wrong, you have the nerve” --- I did not use that word --- “that you say you will find him guilty.” He said: “The Committee will find him guilty.”

Dr. De Mund: I went to Mr. Guggenheimer’s office at Mr. Bernheimer’s request. He had already resigned as a delegate and a member because there was so much matter coming up against him that he felt that he had to get out. I did advise him as a friend. I said: “If I were you I would get out”. Mr. Guggenheimer asked me a great many questions. I went there as Mr. Bernheimer’s friend, at his request, and I told Mr. Guggenheimer that if Mr. Bernheimer – he was talking of withdrawing his resignation – I said “If he withdraws his resignation certain matters will come up that will not come up before the Committee.
otherwise, that are very bad for Mr. Bernheimer”. That is the statement that Mr. Smith told me Mr. Bernheimer had done. That was the statement I made to Mr. Bernheimer, not that the Committee would find him guilty, but they would have to fine him on other things on his own admissions which did not come before the Committee and which we did not go into at all.

Mr. Hooley: I move that nothing else be said now about Mr. Bernheimer’s affairs.

Dr. De Mund: There is on point I would like to raise now, and that is that three charges have not been presented as Director and Member of Executive Committee, the one that I was seeking to be President of the club, and another one the charge that I was seeking the office of Chairman of the Board of Directors, which was created, originated in the Field & Fancy. I would like to answer those two charges. The third was the paragraph which is here. Am I entitled to those?

The Chairman: You have stated once that you had nothing to do with the Field & Fancy.

Dr. De Mund: I want to prove the utter falsity of those matters. I have four witnesses out there who can prove that Mr. Palmer and Mr. Smith went to them and tried to get them to go against me – tried to frame up this thing.
(Dr. De Mund and Smith and their counsel left the room.)

The Chairman: I do not see anything specific in the matter.

Mr. Bloodgood: I think on what we have heard that they all fall to the ground.

The Chairman: The first charge was dismissed on the ground that it is none of our business.

Mr. Hooley: Is that necessary? Can we not dismiss these charges as a whole, finding that the charges are not proven?

Mr. Keasbey: They may say they were not allowed to prove them; that their witnesses are outside.

Mr. Bloodgood: We do not have to listen to their witnesses if we do not think it is necessary.

The Chairman: Mr. Smith’s witnesses are not here. It seems to me that the best thing to so would be to dismiss the charges on the ground that no specific charge has been proven.

Mr. Hooley: I would like to make a suggestion that these charges be dismissed. That when so dismissed the Chairman of the Board takes it upon himself to express himself how the Board feels towards both these gentlemen, and after telling them what he thinks, to suggest to them to get together if they can. I think Mr. Hunnewell is competent to do it. I have no doubt he has come a good many miles to listen to these charges.

The Chairman: I think that the Board might direct me to say that a great deal of time has been wasted in listening to the personal animosities between two men, and I think they had better come to the end of their troubles, and that they should not bother us any more.

Mr. Bloodgood: We dismiss the first one because that is Doctor Osgood’s business.

The Secretary: You can dismiss all eight charges on the ground that there is nothing specific that affects the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Bloodgood: I do not think Mr. Smith has nay right to bring in a lot of charges against a man which do not affect the club. We find nothing in them.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the charges be dismissed and the Chairman make a little address that he should make to these gentlemen.

The Secretary: You made that these charges be dismissed on the ground that there are no specific charges made or proven?

Mr. Hooley: Yes, if that meets with the approval of the other members.

My motion is that the charges be dismissed on the ground that no specific charge has been made or proven.
which affects or pertains to the American Kennel Club; and further, the Committee feels that Dr. De Mund should be cleared of these charges.

Motion seconded and carried.
In re Application of Charles D. Bernheimer
For reinstatement to membership in the
American Kennel Club

The Secretary read a communication from Mr. Guggenheimer in behalf of Mr. Bernheimer.

The Secretary: This matter was sent to this Executive Committee to ascertain whether the fifth paragraph of the Investigating Committee’s report was true or otherwise. The club of which Mr. Bernheimer was a member, has resigned and is out of existence.

The Chairman: Mr. Bernheimer’s resignation is expunged from the record.

Mr. Bloodgood: As a member of the Investigating Committee I am perfectly willing to reopen that situation, and if there is any other evidence that Mr. Bernheimer can offer, I, for one, should be glad to hear it. He questions the Investigating Committee. I have no recollection about Mr. Bernheimer going before a Trial Board or anything at all. That was his own request.

Mr. Guggenheimer: I want to take up the legal aspect so far as your own Constitution is concerned.

Mr. Bernheimer: In regard to the Investigating Committee, in the event that the case is reopened and I am vindicated, that somebody cannot come in and say I have no right here. We bring up the legal aspect whether they have the right.

Dr. De Mund: It did not go before the Trial Board. We simply made a report which was adopted by the delegates and by the Board of Governors. Then Mr. Bernheimer himself requested that an investigation Committee be appointed.

Mr. Bloodgood: That Committee had no right to do anything except to make a report.

Mr. Guggenheimer: But it made findings. They made the finding which you published in the Gazette. They made findings that such and such was the fact. In the first place, the Investigating Committee was appointed by the Executive Committee, as I understand. The Executive Committee had no power to appoint an Investigating Committee.

Dr. De Mund: That was afterwards ratified by the Directors.

Mr. Guggenheimer: The Executive Committee, under a recent ruling, has power to do whatever the Board of Directors can do. I do not think it was held that that power was in the Executive Committee at all, but take it as an extreme case that they did have a right to appoint this Investigating Committee.

The Chairman: We have the right to appoint an investigating Committee to investigate anything that may come up.
Mr. Guggenheimer: Not according to your Constitution. Your Board of Directors has a right to appoint an investigating Committee.

Mr. Bloodgood: On the evidence before us we had no power to do anything at all. This Board ruled that Mr. Bernheimer should come before this Board, and it was the ruling of this Board that they should like to have it come here. As a matter of act, as he has written out his resignation, he has no right as a delegate in this club.

The Chairman: We waive that.

Mr. Bloodgood: When a man resigned from a club, he resigns. We want to be perfectly fair with Mr. Bernheimer in every way we can. If Mr. Berneheimer has any evidence that will controvert the evidence that we had before us, I am only too willing to hear it and would be glad of the opportunity.

Mr. Guggeheimer: I will make it clearer on the evidence than it was then.

Dr. De Mund: It seems that this is practically an appeal from the Trial Board. The Investigating Committee is out of this.

The Chairman: I do not see what the Executive Committee has to do with it.

Dr. De Mund: The Investigating Committee reported, and its report was accepted. The resolution was adopted by the Directors and by the delegates. They went out of existence. It was referred to the Trial Board. The Trial Board made a finding. Now this appeal is before us, and I would like to move you that the minutes of the Trial Board which were taken be sent to each one of the Executive Committee. Then we can intelligently consider the appeal that is before us.

The Chairman: You are appealing against the decision of the Trial Board?

Mr. Guggenheimer: But the Trial Board took into consideration the testimony taken before the Investigating Committee. There were never any charges brought of any kind. I am first challenging the jurisdiction to have it expunged from the record. If you gentlemen want to assume the jurisdiction, very well.

The Chairman: You want a trial before a Trial Board?

Mr. Guggenheimer: After charges have been properly brought.

Mr. Berheimer: You see I have asked for a re-hearing.

The Chairman: Are you perfectly willing to have the hearing before this Committee?

Mr. Bernheimer: Yes. There was an argument whether the Executive Committee had a right to hear this case. If the Executive Committee decide that they have the right to hear the case, I do not see any reason why you cannot go ahead with it.

Dr. De Mund: Mr. Bernheimer requested a re-hearing. He had a re-hearing, and practically it was sent to a Trial Board. Now the question is we review the action of the Trial Board. We are not reviewing the action of the Investigating Committee. He requested an investigation.

Mr. Bernheimer: My information was that the Investigating Committee would give us a re-hearing, and we would be faced by our accusers.

Mr. Bloodgood: Then, under those circumstances, you acknowledge the right of the Investigating Committee to hear it?

Mr. Guggenheimer: To what extent?

Mr. Bloodgood: He asked for a re-hearing.

Mr. Guggenheimer: He asked that the charges be re-heard before the Investigating Committee. I had never looked at the By-Laws and Constitution and knew nothing of the procedure here, and it was after that I saw it. Then I saw this whole business was irregular in my opinion.

Mr. Bloodgood: There is no intention here to do Mr. Bernheimer any injustice, and if that is what he wants, I do not see why he should not have it.

The Chairman: He is entitled to it. If he wants to appeal from the finding of the Investigating Committee, he has a right to do so.

Mr. Bloodgood: If he and his witnesses can show me that I am wrong in my report, I am perfectly willing to say that I am wrong. If I am wrong I want to know it.

Mr. Guggenheimer: At this stage I should think the only procedure would be to go back and let charges be regularly made. I think, however, it would be most unfair to us to have the charges heard before Dr. De Mund again.

Dr. De Mund: I do not see why. I have nothing against Mr. Bernheimer at all.

Mr. Bloodgood: You can rest assured of one thing, that Mr. Greer and myself will not be influenced by Dr. De Mund or anybody else. It seemed to me, with the evidence before us, that our findings were correct. If they were not correct I would like to know it. I would like to be shown that I was wrong.

Dr. De Mund: I would like to ask Mr. Bloodgood one question. Did I at any time attempt to influence anyone in this investigation here against Mr. Bernheimer?

Mr. Guggenheimer: Was Mr. Bloodgood here at these hearings?

Mr. Bloodgood: Not all of them.

Mr. Guggenheimer: I further wish to say in regard to that, that I still hold the point that according to your Constitution the Executive Committee has no right to appoint a Committee to investigate this Dog Show. I want the matter to be regularly brought about. I want a regular charge to be brought, and that it be heard regularly. This is only according to the procedure as I see it. If you gentlemen find that it is proper to have the Investigating Committee appointed by the Executive Committee, and you want Mr. Bernheimer to come before that Committee on a re-hearing, I say he is perfectly willing to do it. It is only in order to have the procedure regular that I am making these points.

Mr. Bloodgood: Personally I would rather have it before this Board. In fact, it is before this Board now.

The Chairman: Yes, it is before this Board now.

The Secretary: Sent here at the last meeting.

Dr. De Mund: Did Mr. Bernheimer have a chance to call his witnesses before the Trial Board?

Mr. Guggenheimer: He did.

Dr. De Mund: He gave all the evidence he wished before the Trial Board?

Mr. Guggenheimer: Yes.

Dr. De Mund: And we have the stenographer's notes?

Mr. Guggenheimer: Yes.

Dr. De Mund: Then I make the motion that those notes be sent to all the members of this Committee. Then we could each go over the testimony.
The Chairman: If there is new evidence it can go back to the Trial Board.
Mr. Guggenheimer: I do not think Dr. De Mund ought to be in the appeal if it is considered at all.

The Chairman: Would it be perfectly agreeable to you gentlemen to be heard at the next meeting of this Committee?
Mr. Bernheimer: Yes.
Mr. Guggenheimer: The Trial Board cannot do anything until charges are brought.

The Chairman: We will try it before this Board at the next meeting.
Mr. Guggenheimer: When is that?
The Secretary: The third Tuesday in October.
Mr. Hooley: If it is the pleasure of the gentlemen I will make a motion to that effect, if that is in order.

Motion seconded and carried.
The regular meeting of the Executive Committee was held at the office of the American Kennel Club Tuesday, October 21, 1912.

The following members answered to the roll call:

August Belmont
H. H. Hunnewell
H. K. Bloodgood
J. E. De Mund
A. G. Hooley
R. C. Stewart
R. P. Keasbey

Vice President Hunnewell presided until the arrival of the president who then took the chair.

----------------------

The Secretary presented the following cases set down for this meeting.

( John McGough )
( and            ) Re Appeals
( Wilford Wood  )

Both appellants were present and gave their understanding of a verbal agreement between them relative to the Airedale Terrier Gold Heels. The clause in the decision of the Trial Board sitting in New York at its meeting held May 20, 1913 was the question to be decided by this Committee, and is as follows:
“In this case the Trial Board wishes to state that it believes a contingent interest in any bitch at the time of breeding makes the person holding such interest a Joint breeder of any puppies which that bitch may whelp”

On motion duly seconded, the clause above set forth is hereby ordered to be and hereby is reversed, on the ground that only that which constitutes actual ownership shall be considered as joint breeding.

In the opinion of this Committee, Wilford Wood did not establish what constituted joint ownership.

Charges D. Bernheimer—Appeal
On motion of H. K. Bloodgood, duly seconded A. G. Hooley, it was Resolved – That we recommended to the Board of Directors that it strike from the minutes of Dec 17, 1912, paragraph 5 of the report of the Investigating Committee, and also from the files of the American Kennel Club is requested:

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The following named clubs were elected to membership, having been approved by the membership Committee:

Empire Beagle Club, California Scottish Terrier Club, Pacific Cocker Spaniel Club and the National Fox Hunters’ Association of Kentucky.

The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Airedale Terrier Club of New York    W. F. Patterson
Pasadena Kennel Club     Freeman Ford
Pekingese Club of America     M. E. Harby
Central Beagle Club       James P. Van Dyke
Pacific French Bulldog Club     Thos M. Turner
Devon Dog Show Association     John Sinnott
Poodle Club       Wm. W. MacLeod
International Toy Poodle Club     Thomas Hartman

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

December 15, 1913, New York

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that I have received four (4) applications for Active Membership and Credentials from twelve (12) Clubs appointing Delegates to represent them in the American Kennel Club. These papers have been turned over to the Membership Committee, which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

I beg to call your attention to Article XXIII, Section 1 of By-Laws which reads as follows:

“The Constitution of by-laws may be amended at the annual meeting of the Club only, and notice of any proposed amendment must be filed sixty days prior thereto. The proposed amendment with report of the Rules Committee to which it must be referred, shall be published in the Gazette at least two weeks prior to the annual meeting."

The following amendment to the By-Laws was recommended by the Rules Committee at the quarterly meeting held Sept 16, 1913 and was illegally adopted at said meeting. Action should therefore be taken at this meeting to rectify the error made at the Sept meeting.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows:

The meeting of the Rules Committee was held July 2, 1913. Present, H. H. Hunnewell, Walter S. Gurnee, Jr., B. S. Smith and Dr. De Mund. The following amendment proposed by Mr. Willets was approved.

Article VI Section 1 of By-Laws.

Amend by inserting between the words, “elect and thirty”, the words “from their own number”, so the section shall read “the Club shall be governed by a Board of Directors of thirty members. The Incorporators shall constitute the Board of Directors until the annual meeting in 1909 or until their successors are elected. At the annual meeting in 1909 or any adjournment thereof, the delegates shall elect from their own number, thirty Directors, six of whom shall hold office until the annual meeting in 1910, six of whom shall hold office until 1911,” six of whom shall hold office until 1912, six of whom shall hold office until 1913, six of whom shall hold office until 1913, six of whom shall hold office until 1914, and at each annual meeting thereafter, the Delegates shall elect six Directors to hold office for five years, or until their successors are appointed and elected. A Director who shall cease to be a delegate, shall thereby cease to be a Director.”

Dr. De Mund: I move its adoption.
Seconded and carried.
Rescind Article VI Sec 5, By-Laws
Rescind Article XIV By-Laws (Referring to P. A. Committee)
I beg to report that Mr. Howard Ehrich has filed his resignation as the Delegate from the Airedale Terrier Club of New York.

At a meeting of the Membership Committee, held Nov. 25, 1913, said Committee recommended as a nominating Committee for Directors in place of the expiring class of 1914 the following: George Greer, Chairman, A. C. Wilmerding, William Rauch, A. G.
Hooley and Ralph C. Stewart.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Chairman: I want to state to you that A. P. Vredenburgh asked me whether he should include in his report any reference to the reciprocity agreement, so-called. One analysis of the constitution seems to be that the Kennel Club decided to put in the hands of the Board of Directors the government of the Kennel Club in the interim, but it failed to treat the Board of Directors as a standing Committee; that is to say, to cover the Kennel Club in the interim and not clothe it with the power to act independently, but oblige it to have its acts confirmed at a meeting of the delegates. They did not do that at all. Therefore no acts of the Board of Directors are really reviewable by the Delegates as far as I can see. I presume you could criticize their acts, but not review them. For that reason this subject is not touched upon at all. It is for you to decide. I think, before you do very far in your course hereafter, you should take some steps, some action, as to what class of subjects you propose to keep under your control. The Board of Directors acted on the subject of a reciprocity agreement with the English Kennel Club. What occurred was that a Committee was appointed to take up the subject and report to the Board. They did that and did report to the Board and the Board approved of their actions. It was not approved as a completed document, or as a contract. It was not viewed apparently as a contract. It was approved simply, and such portions of the agreement as had been mutually agreed upon were put in force by the officers of the club, and the agreement, as far as it had gone, was signed by the Secretary and by myself as president, believing that to be ample authority. That subject is either reviewable by the Board or by the Delegates. There are certain gentlemen who have taken exception to the action of the officers on the ground that it belonged to the Rules Committee to pass upon and report and be treated as a change in the rules. The agreement made no change in the rules as applied in this country by the American Kennel Club at all, and it is an open question whether that is a correct version to place upon it. Whether that is a correct proceeding or not, I do not know, but so far as I can see, it has no place under the constitution before the Delegates unless it is to be treated as a rule, and unless it should have then been transferred to the Rules Committee and brought finally for ratification to the Rule Committee and brought finally for ratification to the delegates. It was taken up by the Board of Directors. It was studied and reported on by a Committee. Their action was ratified at a meeting of the Board of Directors, and there is no provision under which the acts of the Board of Directors is reviewable by you. That is the situation. It has caused a great deal of comment. It has caused a great deal of unfavorable criticism, and as soon as you have finished such business as you feel you must pass upon, I shall ask the privilege of taking that question up on the floor --
Mr. Willets: There is one subject I would ask permission to bring before the Delegates. It has been customary to publish our minutes in the Gazette, and there have been quite a number of criticisms as to what has been published, and I would like to bring the matter up here for discussion and action as to what should be published and what should not be published of our transactions here. It has also been the habit of the stenographer to furnish reports to the sporting papers of such parts of our transactions as are proper, and there has also been a question raised about that, and I would like to bring that matter up also. I have no recommendations to make.

The Chairman: For the information of the Delegates, I desire to say that there appears no resolution at all in the minutes of the Board of Directors specifically disposing of that subject. At the same meeting there was considerable discussion on this very point, but no action was taken. The impression intended to be left with the Secretary was that he should omit general remarks and whatever took place outside of actual voting on the very subjects that came up. That was not made a matter of specific directors so far as I can ascertain.

Dr. De Mund: I beg to state that at a meeting of the Executive Committee a year ago last Summer it was passed that nothing but the actual results be published in the Gazette, and that was ratified afterwards at the meeting of the Directors.
The Secretary: I could not find any record in the meeting of the Directors of the Delegates to that effect. I have been over it very carefully, but I could not find any such record. I knew there was such an understanding.

Dr. De Mund: That was passed at the same time that the Investigating Committee was appointed.

The Secretary: The first time that that matter was mentioned was immediately after the Stewart case, when I was directed to edit the minutes so that nothing actionable might appear in those minutes, and after that, about a year, I should imagine, I understood that there was an understanding between the Directors and the Secretary that nothing should be published except the resolutions and the results.

Dr. De Mund: May I ask the Secretary to get the minutes of the Executive Committee meeting that was held at that time which appointed the Investigating Committee?

The Secretary: August 1912, I think.

(At this point Chairman Belmont resigns the chair to Mr. Hunnewell.)

Dr. De Mund: The President rather anticipated me in bringing up the question in regard to reciprocity, and I would like to bring that up now. I know something about it, being a member of the Committee. The Committee was appointed by the Board of Directors to take up this question of reciprocity with a similar Committee of the English Kennel Club. It did so and arrived at a satisfactory conclusion with that Committee. The understanding was that they were to report back to the English Kennel Club, and we would report back to the American Kennel Club. Last December we reported back to the Board of Directors, which created us, and they confirmed our action. The understanding then was at a later date to report to the Rules Committee, and the Rule Committee would report to the Delegates, to put the rules into effect, as it practically amounted to a new rule. Since that item the rule has been put into effect that any dog imported from England cannot be registered in this Country except by using the English name. That is entirely a new rule, and I would ask for a ruling of the Chair how that can be made a rule without coming before the Delegates under Articles 17 and 23. The former rule that any dog could be registered by complying with the rules that were in force at that time --- that rule has been changed now so that a man cannot register a dog that is registered in England. It seems to me that is a distinct change in the rule, and therefore was not legally adopted except by the general delegates of the American Kennel Club.

Chairman Hunnewell: I think while the President is here, he should rule on that, as he knows more about that than I do.
Mr. Belmont: I desired, inasmuch as this matter surrounds the action of myself as President, and A. P. Vredenburgh, so far as the signing of it is concerned, the privilege of taking part in the discussion. I do not think the Chair would be competent to rule on this question. The very language used by Dr. De Mund is that as it is equivalent to a change of rule it would not be accepted. Inasmuch as I do not quite agree with that, to rule on a subject of that kind—it is not a question of fact, it is a question of interpretation. There are certain acts of the Stud Book Committee which do not go to the Rules Committee, and I think that the Secretary, on that question, is probably more competent than I, or the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, as to the latitude that they have in deciding questions of registration. It is for the delegates at large to interpret that, whether that is change of rule. A dog comes out here with a certain name. It possesses that name. There is no rule on the subject at all. It is not covered, but for the purpose of identity it is certainly very important that a change of names should not take place of that kind. Therefore, the Stud Book Committee—and I understand decided that question—I will ask the Chair to ask the Secretary to report as to that.

The Chairman: My memory is entirely different from Dr. De Mund’s. I understand that we handed that one point over to the Stud Book Committee. We considered that that was a part of their duty. It was a registration and nothing to do with the rules, and that is my impression of the way it was done.

Mr. Smith: A. P. Vredenburgh who was also a member of that Committee, was out of the room when Dr. De Mund was speaking. I understood Dr. De Mund to say that at one of our meetings, that is a meeting of this Reciprocity Committee of Three, A. P. Vredenburgh, Dr. De Mund and myself, it was held that after we came to our conclusion we were to hand this over to the Rules Committee. I do not remember any such agreement, and I would like to ask A. P. Vredenburgh if he understood it in that way.

The Secretary: That is the first I ever heard of such an agreement.

Dr. De Mund: I did not state that there has been any such agreement. I said it was understood, and when I recalled to A. P. Vredenburgh’s mind how it was understood I spoke to him about the matter, and he himself suggested that it had not come up for the present, as we should wait until the English Kennel Club had adopted the matter, because they had backed out of a former agreement, and I knew nothing about that because it was before I was connected with the American Kennel Club, and he told me that he was one of the Committee that entered into a former agreement with the English Kennel Club, and they had backed down, and it would be as well to wait until they had adopted the proposed agreement.

The Secretary: The reciprocity agreement is not an addition, an amendment or taking from any rule in our book of rules either governing clubs or governing shows, not does it affect anything in our by-laws. The rules governing registration were made by the Stud Book Committee, and that Stud Book Committee referred the rules that they had made for approval. They were approved, and the only place that you will find the rules governing registration is on the registration blank. Therefore, it is not necessary for this agreement to come before the Rules Committee, because that Committee had nothing whatever to do with it. It ought to be satisfactory, however, to the Stud Book Committee. The reciprocity agreement was brought up by me at the Board of Directors meeting on the 17th of December, 1912, at which all members of the Reciprocity Committee were present. That agreement was unanimously approved at that meeting by the Directors. After the meeting, in correspondence with the English Club, they agreed to everything but the mode of procedure in the 3rd article. They agreed to the facts, but how should we get at them. The Committee changed the articles so that it said we would not act upon Kennel names until after the 20th day of the month, which the English Kennel Club agreed a member of the Committee, and myself during Dr. De Mund’s absence in California, discussed this matter after we had received these communications, and we determined for the general benefit of the dog public in America that it would be advisable to put in force two articles of that agreement, namely, that a registered dog in the English Stud Book, if imported here and applied here for registration in the American Book, it had to be registered in the identical name that it was registered in the English Stud Book, with the letters Eng. In parenthesis after it, to show it was an English registration. The other article which we determined to put in force was that we would not grant a Kennel name which conflicted with a Kennel name that had already been granted by the English Kennel Club. The English Kennel Club evidently thought as we did, because they put in operation one of the articles. I had been directed by the Trial Board in case of an Englishman who had been before this Board 2 or 3 times, to inquire from the English Kennel Club certain matters relating to his standing on the other side. The English Kennel Club positively declined to furnish me with that information, and when Mr. Walter Glynn, who suggested this reciprocity agreement, was here last he told me that they did not dare to send us the information we wanted, because there was no agreement between the two clubs, but after this agreement went to them, they did send me a confidential communication referring to a man who was coming out here to take charge of a very large kennel, who had been ruled off by the English Kennel Club for life. On the return of Dr. De Mund from the West, I told him exactly what had happened, and he then suggested this way out of it, to get Doctor Boultbee to simply send a letter expressing regret at what had happened, and it would be a very easy thing then to reinstate Doctor Boultbee when the objection to that clause will be removed. Doctor Ford was asked to see Doctor Boultbee to see if he would do it, and Dr. De Mund asked me several times if we had heard what Doctor Ford has done. All I can say in conclusion is this, that there was no objection made whatever to the action of the Reciprocity Committee. There was no objection made to the question of the approval of that reciprocity agreement last December until this Fall.

Dr. De Mund: I do not see what all this has to do with it. It has nothing to do with the question whatever. No rule can be changed except by the Delegates. A. P. Vredenburgh referred to the Stud Book Committee. Since the incorporation of the American Kennel Club the various Committees have made rules. You, as a member of the Rules Committee, probably will recollect that every rule that the Committee made was referred to the Rules Committee and then reported to the Delegates. At our last meeting the License Committee made a number of rules which were referred to the Rules Committee and reported to the Delegates. At our last meeting the License Committee made a number of rules which were referred to the Rules Committee and reported to the Delegates, and the Delegates turned them down. No rule has ever gone through this club since the incorporation of any Committee that has not been referred to the Delegates. The Stud Book Committee rules originally were referred to the Delegates and passed on some six years ago when they were first made, and this is a change in a rule, it seems to me. I may be wrong, and I ask the expression of the Delegates.

Mr. Cutler: It does not seem to me that this is a rule at all. If it is in force, it gets its force from the fact that there is an agreement between the American Kennel Club and the English Kennel Club. That is very different from a rule made by this club. This agreement, as you call it, will be binding on both parties. The term which you have designated it by, a reciprocal agreement, shows that there are two parties, and that each party is conceding certain things, and giving certain things, and it gets its force from that fact that it is an agreement. In my opinion this matter belongs to the Board of Directors under their general power as the governing body of this corporation. I am well aware that it is no ordinary branch of the law of corporations that a corporation in another country, by two corporations may agree. Two corporations may enter into one of those understandings, agreements, which we hear now so much about in the public press. If it takes place between two nations then it is called a treaty; if it takes place between two public service corporations, it is called by various ugly sounding names, sometimes a gentleman’s agreement. As I look upon this transaction it is one of those understandings which takes place between two great organizations, and each is bound to respect that agreement, and what we call in law giving due faith and credence between two States or comities between two nations renders it necessary for each to respect the agreements and understandings which they have entered into, and any part of that agreement will be enforced with as much sanction as a law, contract, rule or a by-law, but it is not a rule of a by-law. Perhaps I am taking this too seriously, but I think it is one of the greatest questions that we have ever had before us. I did happen to be a Delegate, and I begin to feel as if I was one of the old timers when I realize that I was a delegates when this reciprocal agreement fell through some years ago which has been referred to. I felt then that I hoped that I would remain a delegate of this Club until a successful reciprocal agreement should be perfected between these two great Kennel Clubs, and that this Kennel Club’s functions and powers would not be limited by this convenience, but that it might be a world power, and I believe that today we are on the verge of making this agreement which will make the dog fancy on both sides of the Atlantic one governed to a very great extent by the reciprocal understanding.
agreement between the two great parties. We would call them high contracting parties if we were dealing in the language of diplomacy. I have tried to make my point plain because I recognize that it is perhaps a little subtle, but I hope we will not get mixed up with any question of changing rules. It transcends rules. We could not make any agreement which would be a violation of our Constitution, but I take it we can made any agreement which we can carry out which is not in contravention of the Constitution, even though it is in contravention of a rule.

Mr. Collins: I have heard this matter spoken of as a reciprocal agreement, but I think that name is wrongly used in connection therewith. In the first place, the English Kennel Club simply accepted what they saw fit to accept and rejected what they did not want. So far as the Kennel Club is concerned, and so far as registering a dog under the same name here as in England, that would affect the English about as much as chicken people here in this country would be affected, because dogs are never exported from this country to England because of the rules of the English Kennel Club. It seems to me that the original makers of the Constitution had the right idea in mind when they put the clause in to the effect that the Delegates shall have supervision over the changing of the rules. If you are going to continue with the technical ideas of what rules are and what they are not, it will not be very long before it will not be necessary to have a Delegates meeting, because the Board of Directors can meet here once or twice a year or month, as they please, and do as they please. It seems to me that the Delegates should have something to say about this matter as to whether it is a rule or not. Suppose we take this reciprocal agreement unto ourselves and agree to it. Suppose I have a kennel name registered and paid for in this country. I buy a dog on the other side and I am precluded from the benefit of using my kennel name in connection with that dog. On the other hand, you say, according to this agreement, that we cannot use the kennel names of England.

Then if I import a dog with a kennel name or a prefix of an English kennel, how can I register that name here under that kennel prefix or kennel name? I buy a dog from Mr. Smith whose prefix or kennel name is registered. Your rule says I must name that dog over here a certain name, and yet your rule also says I cannot because I cannot use that kennel name. I think it is a good idea since I have every confidence in your Rules Committee and in your various small Committees, but there are a great many people in this club, members of the Board of Directors, and so forth, who are not exhibitors at the present time and who, through not being closely connected with the dog matters and the shows and so forth, lack light on those small matters, and it is only fair when you bring a matter as important as this is up for consideration that you should give the delegates who represent the clubs in this country, an opportunity to have a voice in such a matter.

Mr. Lederer: I had intended originally to rise and ask the question for my own enlightenment as to what this reciprocity agreement really is. The Chair remarked in the first place that it is not a rule and then observed that it could not be an agreement because every term of it was not agreed upon. But it was the speaker before the last one who really suggested to my mind what this reciprocity agreement is, and to my mind it is nothing short of this: It is an agreement to make a rule. The American Kennel Club proposes to agree with the English Kennel Club to make a rule affected registrations. It seems to me then that whether it is to be looked upon as a rule or as an agreement is not the question before us, because it seems to me very clear that this is an agreement to make a rule, and that in that respect it is too large a subject for any Committee to deal with alone, in that it is a question involving as act of the delegates in making a rule. It looks to the making of a rule.

Mr. Belmont: We are playing upon words, calling a rule a Stud Book regulation, because the Stud Book Committee has made regulations with regard to registrations which do not appear in the rules, never been required to appear in the rules, and they have a certain latitude with regard to that which other minds than those of the speaker consider that they were acting fully within when they adopted this portion of the agreement as a part of their regulations. If we use the word “Rule”, then what this speaker said might be so, but it is not the rule any more than any of the other regulations of the Stud Book Committee, and that is the way it was accepted. The whole difficulty is this: The Board of Directors were either, for the sake of promoting the good government of this Association, clothed with powers for that purpose, or they were not, one of the two. The Kennel Club had grown so large that when we incorporated and a new Constitution was adopted, the idea was to make the government as effective as possible, and that to govern through delegates as in former years was not possible, and therefore, they appointed a Board of Directors, and they clothed them with certain powers. I was not on the Committee which framed this Constitution, but Dr. De Mund, I believe, was, and there are a great many delegates present, I believe, who had to do with the framing of that constitution. They went so far as not to provide a confirmation of their acts, and either the Board of Directors were empowered under the Constitution to act in this matter, or they were not. If they were, there is no review apparently. That is where we stand, and it is for you to say now whether you consider any, or this particular regulation of the Stud Book Committee, one which should have been reported to the Rules Committee, and should have taken its course as a change of the rule. As a matter of definition I do not mean to say that it was not a change of rule. I mean to say this, however, that there is precedent for the Stud Book Committee making such changed as that and such regulations as that, without calling them rules, according to their own regulations or rules of registration, if you like; not rules of the American Kennel Club, but rules of registration; and considering that their Committee had entire charge of the supervision of that subject without any necessity of having them go through the form prescribed by the Constitution for change of rule. Unfortunately, the trouble with this whole question is that they all revolved around personality, and that is why I want to speak to you today. We are all the time getting into trouble. When you come to these meetings you are not called upon half the time to act upon questions which really concern the welfare of the American Kennel Club, but you are asked to act upon things that concern the personal relations of your members, of your committeemen, of your officers, or something of that kind. This very question of Doctor Boultbee – he has not offended against the rules of the Kennel Club. He has not done anything that would bring him under the rules of our club or the Canadian Kennel Club or the English Kennel Club. He has done nothing in violation of the rules. What he did was to give currency to certain talk about a member of your Committee, an officer we will say, not one of your Executive officers but practically one, because I want to say that he practically exercises the functions of an executive officer most of the time. I do not mean to say that he exercises them technically under the rules, but he exercises them really in that he succeeds in centering upon himself every complaint, every question that is to come up for your decision. Doctor Boultbee’s case revolves simply upon the liberty that one man took to speak of another’s personal affairs. What has that to do with the rules of the American Kennel Club? In his capacity as an officer, had he been as associate member, had he been anything but an ordinary member, that action against Doctor Boultbee would never have carried anywhere; but it was brought up as an offense and then the discipline of the American Kennel Club was applied to Doctor Boultbee, and it immediately brought us into conflict with the feelings and the opinions of the English Kennel Club, and it is not necessary for me to go through the details of that, but that is the fact, and then, mind you, the rectification of that is not that this Doctor Boultbee comes to the American Kennel Club to make reparations for breach of the rules of what would be necessary with anybody who committed a fraud in registration, or breach of the rules which rendered them liable. No, he does not do that. This officer of the American Kennel Club sends somebody to tell him that if he apologized to him it will be all right. Is that the way to administer the rules and the government of the American Kennel Club? It is unthinkable. The difficulty is that we are surrounded with that sort of thing at every step. You have seen in the Kennel press things that you ought to never have seen. You have seen in the kennel press reference to this reciprocity agreement, whereas, we have had meetings of the Directors, and we have had meetings of the Delegates, but the question is never raised until when? Now. A. P. Vredenburgh said in the Autumn. How? Not on this floor: not at all. They were raised on the floors of dog shows, among the exhibitors, among the Delegates, among the reporters, among the editors of the different kennel journals, and they publish articles on the subject, and then we have taken no action; have not reviewed the action of A. P. Vredenburgh or myself, the action of the Directors, the action of the Committee, or anything of that kind, I am prepared to come here and to be reviewed if I have done anything wrong, but here only, or before the Board of Directors; not among the exhibitors, not on the outside. I do not propose to go to the press to discuss the affairs of the American Kennel Club. That is what has taken place. Besides that, there has been in the atmosphere talk about an investigation. Who has mentioned an investigation? Have the delegates mentioned an investigation? Have the Board of Directors? Has any Committee? I know of none at all. I have spoken with outsiders about it. Such knowledge as I had on the subject I kept fully to myself and consulted those who are in authority and those whom I thought I was not only justified in consulting but who I ought to consult. I was asked by Dr. De Mund to take steps to have the office of the Kennel Club investigated. I submit to you whether I would have had a right, even if I had found the contention of Dr. De Mund absolutely correct and supported in every particular, to proceed with him, or to proceed at his request to order an investigation of this office. I would not be justified in taking a step of that kind unless I was backed up by much more than the request of one gentlemen, (whether he was a member or whether he were next to me right in together.) I would have felt that I must establish thoroughly to my own satisfaction first that these charges, whatever they might be, had a correct foundation, and then I would have felt that it was my duty to bring the subject before the Executive Committee. It was so serious because charges against the office are serious. I should bring them before the Executive Committee, perhaps in special session, lay them before it, or if a meeting of the Directors was going to take place shortly, not too long in the future to make it a waste of time, I should bring it before them; or if the delegates were going to meet I should bring them before them. Instead of that, I have read in the papers about it. Insinuations have been such that you cannot tell exactly what they mean, but you all knew that something was impending. I have been criticized by one of the papers, and suppose that I took the same course that had been taken before with regard to the preceding matters and requested you to call to account some writer because he happened to abuse me improperly. Supposing I did that? Yet that has been done before. You remember we had a meeting here once – or was that the Directors – the Executive Board will recollect that we came near having a lawsuit against because a journalist was called to account for criticizing the judges. Why shouldn’t he criticized them? Of course, he can criticize them. The American Kennel Club has not anything to do with the question of whether he criticizes the judges in a manner that is detrimental to a particular show, or anything of that kind. We must have freedom of discussion. You cannot undertake to muzzle the press. In the first place, it would not be desirable, besides you would fail to succeed if you tried it. Every time that a personal matter comes into the kennel life – I am going to be open, Dr. De Mund – every time that comes to the intelligence of the American Kennel Club, you try to reach that person through the American Kennel Club. That is what happened.

Now, I am going to read to you the correspondence I had with Dr. De Mund, and after that correspondence I had a conference with Mr. Gurnee, Dr. De Mund and certain portions of it were explained, and I have that as well, but nevertheless the thing in itself – I will paint you the picture and you can judge for yourselves as to that. Listen to the language in a letter addressed to me is justified or not. If it is justified, this Kennel Club is in a rotten condition, and if it is not justified when I submit to you that we must begin to arrange our affairs so that these sort of one thing, a constant turmoil, if not the disruption of the club. It is powerful enough, but you are contributing to the machinations of anybody who wants to disrupt the club, or who wants to share with you the very well earned authority which you have here in the United States. Mind you, gentlemen, I have no personal feeling or axe to grind in connection with Dr. De Mund. He has done yeoman work for the Kennel Club, but it is my duty, even if I were an intimate friend, to save himself as well as the Kennel Club from going to a point where we really might come to a serious disagreement.

I want to say, in connection with some part of this correspondence, by way of parenthesis, that I see no difference between a paid employee and any of your officers. The fact that a man receives a salary makes no difference. The duties are just the same to the Kennel Club. You may not demand all his time, but you have just as much right to criticize, whether he is paid or not, and I wish to subject myself to that class.

Dear Sir:

I have not heard from you since our interview at my office on Nov 25, when I believed it was understood between us, that I would hear from you again and that you would lay before me some documentary evidence to sustain your charges against the office of the American Kennel Club, which you requested me to order an investigation of, in a letter addressed to me on Oct 21.

I now ask you formally and officially, to lay before me at my office, 43 Exchange Place, New York, the proof asked, either on Wednesday, the 10\textsuperscript{th} instant or Thursday the 11\textsuperscript{th}, at the latest.

When you have done this I will proceed forth with to officially take the necessary steps to bring about what you demand, if the evidence warrants it.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding between us as to what has taken place in the time intervening; between the receipt by me on October 24\textsuperscript{th}, of your letter of October 21\textsuperscript{st}, and the present time, including our conference on Nov 25\textsuperscript{th};
I have prepared the subjoined statement reviewing certain facts and my understanding of them, in the hope that they will accord with yours and your understanding of them as well.

Should, however, any statement I make differ from you conception of the facts and my expression of them to you, I will be glad to re-adjust them, so that there will be no question between us as to the correctness of what I am stating.

Your letter of October 21st, which I quote herewith, calls upon me to join with you in causing an investigation to be made of the office of the American Kennel Club. This request is based upon mist sweeping charges, without, however, any specifications.

October 21, 1913

August Belmont, Esq.
President, American Kennel Club
43 Exchange Place, New York

Dear Sir:

Having of late read the criticism by the entire kennel press of the country and also of two of the large daily papers directed against the office of the AKC, also being in receipt of a great number of complaints officially laid before me by directors, delegates, exhibitors, dog fanciers and others from all sections of the country against certain paid employees of the AKC, in regard to interference with Committees, trial boards directors and delegates, the usurpation of powers of Committees, officers and delegates, the defiance of the rules and resolutions of the AKC by certain paid employees, the arbitrary and contradictory letters written to exhibitors and fanciers, I deem it my duty to bring these matters before you. I view with alarm the widespread and rapidly growing dissatisfaction of fanciers of the whole United States and the distrust manifested by them of the AKC due to mistakes and carelessness in the office. Knowing personally that many of the criticisms are only too well founded, I ask you to join with me to devise some method to investigate the office and paid employees and try and restore the AKC to the confidence and respect of the American fancier and place it back on the plane where it belongs.

Yours very truly,

Dr. De Mund
Chairman of the Board of Directors of
The American Kennel Club.

To this I replied to you on October 31st, as follows, holding myself in readiness for a conference at which you could lay before me proofs, which, from your letter I presumed would not only be documentary, but voluminous. I was prepared to give you the necessary time and go over the matter thoroughly.
Dr. De Mund

Brooklyn, NY

Dear Sir:

Press of business has prevented my answering sooner your letter of October 21st.

I will be greatly obliged to you if you will place before me the criticism by the “entire Kennel Press of the country” and also those of the two “large daily papers” which you state you have read, directed against the office of the American Kennel Club.

You have, as I understand, in your possession, a great number of complaints “officially laid before you by Directors, Delegates, Exhibitors, Dog Fanciers, against certain paid employees of the American Kennel Club in regard to interference with “Committees, Trial Board, Directors and Delegates, the usurpation of powers of Committees, officers and delegates, the defiance of the rules and resolutions of the American Kennel Club.”

You ask for an opportunity to lay these matter before me.

I am prepared by appointment at a mutually suitable hour and place, to meet you and review this subject with
I regret that I am in ignorance of this widespread dissatisfaction so far as it has been in any way conveyed to me as President of the American Kennel Club. I would have expected, unless the criticism is leveled at me as well, that such communications should at least in part have been addressed to the Executive Officer of the Club.

I remain,

Yours truly,

August Belmont
President
American Kennel Club

Three days elapsed before receiving your reply, which I herewith quote:

Nov 3rd, 1913.

Mr. August Belmont, President
American Kennel Club
43 Exchange Place
New York

Dear Sir:

I am leaving town today and will return on the 10th, and will be pleased to meet you at any time convenient to you and place before you the matters contained in my letter of October 21st.
I have not heard criticisms leveled at you but possibly the reason that communications have not been addressed to you, is because of the belief among fanciers that any letter concerning AKC matters are forwarded by you to the Secretary.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

Dr. De Mund

Chairman Board of Directors

And on Nov 13th, received another communication from you under date of Nov 12th, as follows:

Nov 12th, 1913

Mr. August Belmont,

Dear Mr. Belmont:

I am at your service in the matters concerning the AKC this week or Monday, Nov 17, after that will be free at any time after Nov. 23.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. De Mund

I was unable to reach you over the telephone, but on November 24th secured your attention with the following letter proposing a conference:
November 24, 1913

My dear Dr. De Mund;

I tread to get hold of you on Tuesday, Nov 18 and it was said from your home that you had gone to the Kennel Club. I left word there to put yourself in communication with me. Later in the afternoon your office stated that you would be away until Saturday.

I presume you were informed that I was trying to get hold of you to make an appointment.

Can you meet me tomorrow at 11:30 AM?

I am trying to get you on the telephone at this time of writing, hoping to settle definitely on a time and place when we can meet and go over the matter of the Kennel Club promptly.

This letter is written to you in case I am unable to reach you on the telephone.

I remain,

Yours truly,

August Belmont

You came to my office on Nov 25th. You did not bring with you a single scrap of paper of any kind, or even a prepared statement reciting specific instances in support of the allegations contained in your letter of October 21st.
I listened to your complaint, which was entirely verbal, couched as before, in general terms only.

You stated to me that you had no clippings of newspapers and were not prepared to support your statements as to the publications referred to in your letters of October 21st, with clippings or excerpts of such publications. Furthermore you told me that the complaints, in the main, came to you verbally; some were in writing, but you had not brought any of the letters with you. I drew from you, however, that the major portion of the complaints were from exhibitors, judges and people interested in dog shows, conveyed to you verbally at dog shows.

I called to your attention the necessity of your substantiating your charges and insisted that you carry them to the American Kennel Club at the next meeting of the Delegates, or place them before me to be brought to the attention of the meeting of the Board of Directors on December 16th.

In reply to a request for specific charges, you mentioned the reciprocity agreement, in connection with which you claimed that A. P. Vredenburgh had acted in an unauthorized manner, which included as well, my signature to the reciprocity agreement between the English Kennel Club and the American Kennel Club.

I drew your attention to a letter which you had written to the “American Fancier and Stockkeeper” in reply to one addressed to you on the same subject. I stated to you that I considered your doing this an improper method of securing both attention to and correction of the action of A. P. Vredenburgh and myself, and that matters of this sort should be first threshed out within the walls of the Kennel Club itself. You said that you had not considered that view of it, but you upon reflection, realized that I was right and expressed yourself as sorry that you had been led to answer the letter of the “American Fancier and Stockkeeper.”

Another definite charge was the part taken by A. P. Vredenburgh and his office in giving currency or making statements, with regard to some alleged personal relations of yours, which you very much resented.

The third definite complaint was your reference to the verbatim publication in the Kennel Gazette by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, of the discussions which take place at our meetings, and which at a meeting of the Board on May 20, 1913, had by resolution been ordered discontinued.

The proper place for the correction of a violation of instructions of this kind, is a succeeding meeting of the directors, and in default of this, of the Delegates.

Touching against upon the reciprocity agreement; I gave you to understand that I had been satisfied with the authority from the American Kennel Club for the signature attached to it by the proper officers, but that the subject could well be brought before the Kennel Club and it alone would decide as to that question.
With regard to the second subject; I stated to you that it could not be made an American Kennel Club matter; that I was purely personal and had nothing to do with the business of the Kennel Club.

You conveyed to me no other specific charges outside of the above three.

With regard to my course respecting your letter of Oct 21st; I stated to you that I had immediately written the following letter to the gentlemen whose names are given below:

October 31, 1913

Dear Sir:

Very serious complaints have been brought to my attention as having been addressed to certain officials of the American Kennel Club touching upon the usurpation of the powers of “Committees, Officers and Delegates”, and the “defiance of the rules of the American Kennel Club by certain paid employees.”

As President of the Club, I have received no direct complaint of this nature, and as Chairman of the Committee, I will thank you very much to communicate with me as to whether you have been the recipient of any such complaints.”

Yours very truly,

The answers were varying, but in every instance there was a distinct denial that complaints of the nature you state, had been brought to their attention.
I went on to tell you that the act ratifying the reciprocity agreement had been committed in the Spring of the current year and as you had taken no steps with regard to it in the intervening period such as you were taking today, when the time is short and just as we are approaching the mid-Winter meeting and our annual meeting, I stated to you frankly that it bore the earmarks of a purpose to create confusion and dissatisfaction as the time of the election drew near.

I said to you that it was my understanding that you had made attempts to have placed in the hands of the Committee over which you presided, and among the duties of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, powers properly belonging to the Chief Executive of the American Kennel Club, and if you really desired those powers, it was you who should be President and not I.

In proof of this, the following proposed amendment was published over your signature as Chairman of the Rules Committee in the Gazette of Jan., 1913:

“Amend Article VI, Section IV by inserting after the words, “annual meetings of the Club”, the following; “A Chairman of the Board of Directors who shall preside at all meetings of said Board and shall have all the powers of the President” of the club, except that of calling meetings of the club and executing contracts.”

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. De Mund, Chairman Rules Committee

The following substitution was published and later adopted by the delegates:

New York, Feb 13, 1913

To the delegates of the
American Kennel Club
Gentlemen:

It has been decided by the Rules Committee to substitute the following amendment in place of the one passed at the meeting held Jan 17.

“A Chairman of the Board of Directors who ‘in the absence of the President and Vice-Presidents’ shall preside at all meetings of said Board and shall have all powers of the President of the club, except that of calling meetings of the club and executing contracts.”

Yours truly,
Dr. De Mund

You were subsequently a candidate for and became the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

What I said in this connection you immediately interpreted as an accusation that you were plotting to take my Place. This I refuted at the time and do again. What I did intend to convey was, that I believed you wanted, not the office of the President, but the powers of the office.

This brought out your assurance to me that you not only did not wish any such duties, but that you had contemplated for some time your resignation; that you wished to leave the club with the good feelings now existing; that you always had regard for me and desired my regard for you to continue; that you had always worked for the interests of the American Kennel Club and had no idea of working against them.

I now learn that instead of your proceeding to put me in possession of the facts with regard to your accusations against the office of the American Kennel Club, you have been instrumental in circulating a petition for signatures among dog fanciers, exhibitors and others associated with the dog world, demanding an investigation of the offices of the American Kennel Club.

Such demand could only be made as a result of statements by you to them of conditions warranting an investigation. Unless these statements which you are making to them are better founded than those which you made to me, your seeking their signatures is unjustifiable and in my opinion, in direct violation of your assurances to me.

Such a petition could only be calculated to stir up hostility and feeling against the management of the American Kennel Club. I cannot but draw from it the natural conclusion, after reviewing the letters from the Chairman of the various Committees and the responses to my inquiries at the office of the club, that the wide dissatisfaction which you claim exists, does not emanate from what the various Committees and Officers of the Kennel Club have done, but what you have evidently taken great pains to instill in their minds.

Let me say to you in conclusion, that if you carry out your intention to resign at the present time, and fail to push to a finish before the Board of Directors and Delegates, this effort of yours to cause an investigation of the office of the American Kennel Club, it will be impossible for anybody conversant with all the facts, not to question the sincerity of your motives.

Ever since you have been connected with Kennel Club officially, you have never found the door close to any effort on your part to bring questions you desired before the club or its officers, and that door is quite open now.

I remain,

Yours truly,

August Belmont
President
American Kennel Club
That statement I will continue to make until I have proof that this is not the fact. I cannot find from this gentleman where this dissatisfaction comes from. I take this simple question of reciprocity agreement. It has been put in a wrong light. So far as the action of the officers are concerned, it looks exactly as if we had taken a step which was absolutely unwarranted. There is no mention of the Board of Directors. They certainly have some powers, and we thought we had received them properly from that Board. If we have not, it is essential that we should. At all events I have found no one who is more responsible for the spread of this matter than Dr. De Mund.

Gentlemen, I have not had another word since with Dr. De Mund. He emphasizes the statement that there is general dissatisfaction with the office. A. P. Vredenburgh takes it upon himself to decide questions and do things, but when it came down to when and how this was started, why, Dr. De Mund conveyed to me that everything was all right. I submit to you if everything had gone all right up to within a year --- I do not know if you are all satisfied that there has been a great change in this office; that matters are conducted differently than they have been for the last 25 years, let us have it out. If you want an investigation of the office of the Kennel Club, of course it should be had. I did not feel justified in ordering it, and I want to say that when A. P. Vredenburgh came to me to request it, I said that I should not do it until I had brought the subject before the American Kennel Club. I thank you for your patience in listening to me.

Mr. Belmont takes the Chair.

Dr. De Mund: I think that as the President has very closely turned this into an attack on me and put me on the defensive, although I decline to take that position—because he has made a personal matter of it, I wish to say a few words in my defense. I ought to call the attention of Mr. Belmont to certain matters which a great many delegates sitting here know to be true. I do not think there is any question in the minds of a great many of you, particularly those who are familiar with the past, that there is great deal of dissatisfaction among the dog public at present with the American Kennel Club as it is conducted. The interview as read by Mr. Belmont, is substantially correct. There are a few matters there that I do not quite accord with, but they are immaterial. One of the principal things though, Mr. Belmont did not state that I told him that I could not furnish evidence to him, but that I furnish evidence of the matters with which I was personally acquainted before a Committee at any time, and I stood ready to do so. He has passed the matter over to the Secretary and myself, having some personal differences. I have no personal difference with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, and as a man I like the Secretary but I do not approve of his actions in a great many respects as Secretary. The matter that I referred to Mr. Belmont was not a personal one, but when an attack was made on me by two members of this Club, which was afterwards proven to be absolutely false, I had to demand an investigation to get them to bring their charges. They did bring their charges and they were tried by the Executive Committee, and the Executive Committee found that they were absolutely unfounded. At that time I was not allowed to testify, but I had proof of several Directors of the American Kennel Club that those charges, if not actually instigated, were aided and abetted by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club. I did not make it a personal matter, but I made it a matter of an attack of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club on an official, and I claimed to Mr. Belmont that it was unwarranted. It was not to best interests of the American Kennel Club for the Secretary to ally himself against any Director of the club. It was not a personal view at all of that. I did mention one or two other matters to Mr. Belmont that I said I could furnish proof of. Of course, I am at a disadvantage. Mr. Belmont had a type-written copy, and I did not expect—in the first place, I always intended to bring this matter up before the delegates.
I did tell Mr. Belmont that I had contemplated resigning for sometime, and I had intended to do so because I was not in accord with certain matters. I came to Mr. Belmont as an official of the American Kennel Club for the good of the American Kennel Club. There was nothing personal in the matter at all. I simply asked an investigation of these reports that are all over the country, and they are all over the country. Mr. Belmont says they are not true. An investigation would settle it. I did not consider it then the time nor the place to furnish the proof, and in my letter I merely stated that some of them I knew to be true, and those I still know and still stand ready to furnish the proof of. The others are a great deal of them hearsay, a great many of them complaints, but I can furnish the names of the complainants to any Committee. I told Mr. Belmont at the time that I did not pose to act as prosecuting officer, but I would merely testify and bring forth the proof.

Mr. Belmont: I do not think that Dr. De Mund can divest himself of the prosecuting officer mantle; but he makes statements of this kind, and they must be substantiated, it seems to me. It is not right to set an investigation in motion and then withdraw it and allow all the odium of an investigation under such general charges. If you will take my word for it, everyone of these so-called complaints are trifling compared with the mass of really good work that is being done, not only by the doctrine of the American Kennel Club, but by every Committee connected with it. There is a tremendous among of it, and that there should be things done that are open to criticism, yes, of course; that A. P. Vredenburgh is not the most amiable person at times, yes, of course. We went all through that once before. I thin that he might not be willing to deny that himself. I am no saint myself if a man comes in accusing me of improper conduct. I know of one instance, the addressing of a letter by A. P. Vredenburgh to somebody who took exception to it, and he wrote in very curt language that the American Kennel Club ordered him, and he obeyed the orders of the American Kennel Club. It was not particularly polite, perhaps; it was perhaps unnecessary; it was referred to Mr.
Bloodgood. It was raised and not considered wise to make that statement, if it was not polite, if it was not diplomatic, if it was not in the line of treatment that you think people should receive. It certainly was out of line with your wishes. If A. P. Vredenburgh considers the orders of the American Kennel Club paramount to any opinion of his own, I do not think that is much to find fault with. There was another question about the rule with regard to exhibitors judging. I would rather Mr. Vredenburgh should make his own statement about that. I do not see very much in it.
It is referred to. It is one of the few inconsistencies, because after all, Dr. De Mund, as you stated in your letter, not only was it your duty to prepare that and bring it along with you, but it could not be covered with a conversation twice as long. This matter was inconsistent because in the case of one exhibitor the rule was fatal, he thought, as applying one way, and in the other the rule was quoted, as he thought, applying in another way. So far as the practical rules are concerned, Mr. Vredenburgh had no authority over the entry that was made, or to, at the place of the show in connection with that, express an opinion on the bearing of the rules. If he was wrong in his opinion, and this person, whoever it was, violated the rules, the rules of the American Kennel Club would reach him. Those are the sort of things that we are in turmoil about. Of course, the dog fanciers all over the country, if they are told that the American Kennel Club’s office is badly managed—and the few who want to spread the dissatisfaction can do ten times more damage than those who want to try and progress the interests of the American Kennel Club without constantly calling attention to it faults, or trying to improve its authority by speaking about the good that it does. I hope that Mr. Vredenburgh will ask for an investigation because I think in view of his long service it is much better that you should grant him an investigation.
and that you should accept general statements and order one as a reflection upon him. In the same way I ask you for an investigation of this matter of reciprocity – not an investigation because that is not one, but I ask you to consider as to whether this Stud Book com action with regard to English nomenclature should be considered a rules or one of their regulations on the subject to be referred to the delegates. That disposes of that. As to the confirmation or otherwise of the reciprocity agreement, I do not know how you are going to reach that unless you pass a resolution requesting a report from the Board of Directors; I have no doubt if you find that there is general dissatisfaction that they would order at their meeting a report to be made on the subject, but as to any disposition on the part of one Committee to override the other, or one Board to override the other, or the Board of Directors to over ride the delegates, or anything of that kind, I do not think that it exists at all, and if we cannot manage our affairs in an amicable way, and in a regular and orderly way, at our meetings, why really, then it is time for us to give place to somebody who can, because there is no difficulty about it. It simply wants a disposition to do it. If I conclude correctly, it is because there has been a falling out. Do men have a falling out because of great differences of policy?
It has not been my experience. My experience of fallings out is that they usually result in something personal. So it is all the time and everywhere, and if these gentlemen that agree in the management of the American Kennel Club, as a sort of a voluntary Committee, you might call them, who have been in the habit of helping Mr. Vredenburgh, and who then stopped, you find something more than a mere disagreement as to policies and as to enforcement of the rules. It is a question usually about somebody's authority that has not been observed quite as it should be. Dr De Mund has occupied several positions of authority in this club. As the result of the revision of the Constitution the various Committees with which he has been associated have been increased, and what is it for? I repeat precisely what I said in my letter, that if all these complaints were lodged in Dr De Mund's hands and were given to him and to nobody else, then it must be that a substantial part of the Kennel world considered him the proper person to whom to go. It must be so. There is no other person to whom to go. It must be so. There is no other rational interpretation of it, and if that is the case, then it is he who has taken it upon himself, and not the individuals and Chairmen of the Committees or anybody else, the powers and the authority of the American Kennel Club. If there is anybody in this room who can reply to that letter to me of Dr De Mund and say, yes, I have been overridden, I think it is time for him to say no.

THE SECRETARY: If I am permitted to speak, I want to answer Dr De Mund as to one single matter. He said that I aided and abetted Mr. Smith and Mr. Palmer in formulating charges against him. I deny that absolutely. On the contrary, I worked against it. I heard that there was something like that going to happen, and I advised Mr. Smith over the telephone not to create a scandal in the American Kennel Club, and not to bring the matter up. His reply was: I have taken your advice since I have been in the American Kennel Club, and you have always given me good advice, but this time I am going it alone. The night before the meeting he showed me for the first time the statement that he read at that same meeting, and I advised him strongly not to do it. Mr. Palmer was present and can corroborate what I say. Nevertheless he read it, and when he was directed to prefer charges against Dr De Mund, and the copies of the charges came to me, one for the Kennel Club and one to send to Dr De Mund, I then told Mr. Smith that he has made a great mistake in preferring these charges; that he did not have a leg to stand on. If in that way I aided and abetted Mr. Smith in the formulation of his charges, then I must have done so. After that time Dr. De Mund and myself had a conversation, and he said: “I am going to refer to this matter for the last time; after that it will be a closed book.” We talked it over and I then told him that I had advised Mr. Smith not to read that statement; that is the only answer I have to make at present, but I would like to say before I sit down that nobody craves a most thorough investigation of the management of the American Kennel Club so far as this related to me, than I do. I have asked Mr. Belmont to order such an investigation. I asked him if he would not appoint such men on the Committee as that the result of their labors would be taken by the entire dog community as truth. I now request a most thorough investigation of the way secretary has managed the American Kennel Club for the last 28 years. There has been no change whatever, and up to last April Dr De Mund and myself had almost daily intercourse. We conferred together and everything that was done had his sanction, and I was not aware that there was any feeling existing between Dr De Mund and myself until I was informed of his letter to the President and to the Vice-President demanding an investigation of this office.

Mr. Palmer: Last March, upon my return from Chicago, Mr. Vredenburgh, Mr. Smith, Dr De Mund and myself were present here. Dr De Mund asked me how I found conditions in the middle West. I told him: “They are rotten.” He said” “What do you mean?” I said: “The sentiment is entirely against the American Kennel Club, entirely against you, and the impression is that there is too much big stick being swung by one man.” To which he replied that I was entirely wrong; that he had just followed me the week after to Chicago, where everything was for the American Kennel Club; he had come from the far West and everything was for the American Kennel Club. Now, gentlemen, that goes back to last March, when everything was, according to Dr De Mund, for the American Kennel Club. Today we have the statement from Dr De Mund that there is great feeling against the American Kennel Club, against the Committees of the American Kennel Club, and I ask you how and when and why did it start, now? Just as soon as I gave Dr DeMund advice that he did not want to take, just as soon as anyone opposed Dr DeMund in anything he wanted to put through such a person must be wrong. At that time Dr De Mund asked me why I had made this a personal attack. I assured him it was not. He did not believe me. I said: “I have a suggestion to make to you and the best thing you can do is to go away back and sit down,” and I think the time has come when I may repeat that request.

Dr De Mund: First, I wish to state that Mr. Palmer’s account is entirely erroneous, absolutely false, in other words, and that if I had been allowed to produce my witnesses when I was bring investigated on charges, I would have proved that anything against me in the West was carried there by Mr. Palmer. I had plenty of witnesses to prove it.

Mr. Palmer: Is Mr. Wood in the room? I am sorry he is not. If what I have stated is false, I ask Mr. Vredenburgh, who was in the room at the time when I passed that remark to Dr De Mund, also Mr. Smith, as to whether I have stated accurately what I said.

Mr. Belmont: I move that in order to test the question as to the validity of the action of the Stud Book Committee, that the delegates consider by vote that the regulation of the Stud Book Committee with regard to the registration of foreign does that they should be registered in the same kennel names that they have on their side, is not considered by the delegates as a change in the rules of the American Kennel Club.

The secretary: I would like to state before that motion is put, that I have the minutes here from the Stud Book Committee which touches on that subject. They recommend that as part of the rules governing the Stud Book.

Mr. Appleton: Then I was chairman of the Stud Book Committee. The Stud Book Committee made their own rules with regard to registrations and kennel names. I think under the old club a rule was made that we should not accept the names of cities, states or universities. That is the only rule I ever heard of that was passed by the Directors or Delegates or anything governing the registration of kennel names. The Committee has always made its own regulations, and has done what it could to keep the names from interfering with each other, and have changed those regulations from time to time without authority. If we have wrong, it has been because we had a wrong precedent set for us.

Mr. Belmont: Then I move that the action of the Stud Book Committee in putting into effect that regulation is approved and is not considered by the delegate as a change of the American Kennel Club rules.

Mr. Bernard: I want to know if this reciprocity agreement had anything in it besides the registration of dogs.

The secretary: That is the particular article that is held in abeyance on account of the disqualification by is of Dr Boultbee.

Mr. Ritchie: The point on which I ask information on behalf of the club which I represent, is, as we understand, that there was an agreement, or as it appears to me, certain resolutions taken up and forwarded to the English Kennel Club for their approval, and they picked out one section that they were willing to accept.

The Chairman: Just the reverse.
Mr. Ritchie: The next point is, not knowing any of the members of the Stud Book Committee by name or from memory, does the passage of a resolution of this kind, bring about a conflict with the Rules Committee? The point I want to make clear is this, that it is all right to cooperate with the English Kennel Club, or with anything else that promotes the interests of the dog as long as we cooperate within ourselves first, but if we have a conflict within the American Kennel Club and its officers, wouldn’t it be better to have a report from the rules Committee?

The Chairman: The Rules Committee have nothing whatever to do with the Stud Book. The Rules Committee have no rights whatsoever to do anything that pertains to the Stud Book on the question of registration.

Mr. Ritchie: Is that rule determined by our By-laws?

The Chairman: Yes. There might be a question, as Mr. Belmont said, as to whether the Rules Committee might have something to say about the clause that the English Kennel Club will not ratify.

Mr. Ritchie: On the general report then, would there be any reason why the Rules Committee should conflict with the Stud Book Committee?

The Chairman: The President took the stand that the Rules Committee had nothing to do with this agreement because it was not a change of the rules. It had nothing to do with the rules; it was an agreement between the American Kennel Club and the English Kennel Club.

Mr. Ritchie: I would like to know if these is harmony among ourselves as to the approval of that sort of thing.

The Chairman: I should not consider that we had any jurisdiction of it. It is an agreement between the American Kennel Club and the English Kennel Club. It does not affect our By-laws; it does not affect our rules.

Mr. Ritchie: Do we get any benefit in return?

The Secretary: The benefit is mostly ours.

Mr. Dawyer: May I ask what was the date of the recommendations of the Stud Book Committee just read?

The Secretary: The say before yesterday, it was the first meeting of the Stud Book Committee in over a year.

Dr De Mund: I would like to ask if the Stud Book Committee only recommended that say before yesterday, why the Secretary has put it in force since the 12th of last March?

Mr. Appleton: The Stud Book Committee have merely brought this up for the information of the Directors. We put those rules into effect ourselves. We did it for the protection, as we thought, of the American Kennel Club rules.
Dr De Mund: Mr. Appleton states they have put those rules into effect. Every rule that the Stud Book Committee or any other Committee has put into effect have been passed upon by the delegates originally.

Mr. Belmont: It resolves itself into this with regard to rules. I said to these gentlemen when we met, that there are three authorities that the dog man is afraid of. The Stud Book Committee is one and the Trial Board is another. They are the principal ones. Now as a matter of fact, the Rules Committee, Trial Board and Stud Book Committee with the Trial Board, has put into effect rules which make the Rules Committee paramount to almost anything else; I mean in disciple. I do not understand that the Rules Committee was intended originally to do anything more than to revise rules and present their recommendations for their change to the American Kennel Club, but in doing this they finally practically hold a veto power over almost everything that the American Kennel Club does. Everybody would have to run to the Rules Committee or to the Trial Board to do anything. An investigating is referred to the Trial Board. The Rules Committee take every question that concerns the registration of the dog. You concentrate into a few hands the whole government of the Club.

The secretary then read Article VIII of the By-laws.

Dr DeMund: This bears out my contention. I do not claim that the Rules Committee has any authority or any power whatever. I have not claimed so. I merely claim that to change or alter a rule of this club it must be submitted to the Rules Committee.

Mr. Sawyer: Do I understand that the Stud Book Committee had not passed on this matter or determined this matter, which is a question of registration, as referred to in the By-laws just read, until day before yesterday they had no meeting?

The Chairman: Mr. Appleton told you that it had been in force for the past eight months.

Mr. Sawyer: My question was whether the Stud Book Committee had as a Committee passed on this question, or determined it, before say before yesterday, or whatever date that was.

Mr. Appleton: The Chairman has acted on it in the absence of the members, as had always been the custom. The other members have agreed with me since then.

Mr. Belmont: The objection is raised in connection with the reciprocity agreement, the very subject that is before us now. That is to say, that the reciprocity agreement is not in force because of one of these particular features – that should have been referred to the Rules Committee and therefore that is not in force. This resolution disposes of
Mr. Lederer: Has the reciprocity agreement been signed by the other side?
The Secretary: It has not, although they are acting under it.
Mr. Lederer: What is the conception of the officers of the club as to the reciprocity agreement? Is it a contract between the American Kennel Club and the English Kennel Club, or what? I think we should know that before we vote on this motion.

Mr. Belmont: No, it is not a contract. There are certain instructions to formulate a method of co-operation, to enforce certain regulations, and they agreed by letter to enforce a certain one, and they have been enforcing certain portions of that agreement, and we have been doing the same, but the agreement as a whole has not been signed; that is to say, I signed our part of it because we had agreed to everything. They did not sign it, but put into operation this portion which they considered they were prepared to.

Mr. Sawyer: Do I understand that the question at issue is the one that covers disqualification?

Mr. Belmont: That turns on Dr Boulbee, and he was disqualified for making a personal attack upon Dr De Mund. That is the difficulty of the whole thing, and that only so far as I can see.

Dr De Mund: May I correct you there. The President is misinformed. Dr Boultbee did not make a personal attack on me. Dr Boultbee made an attack in the papers that he could not substantiate, upon the two Directors of this Club, another gentleman and myself, and we demanded an investigation, the same as Mr. Bloodgood demanded an investigation when an attack was made upon him. He set the precedent for it. We were investigated by the Trial Board, and the Trial Board found there was absolutely nothing in that attack; that it was unwarranted and unfounded. We then preferred charges against Dr Boultbee before the Trial Board, and the Trial Board disqualified him.

The Secretary: He did not come before the Trial Board.

Dr De Mund: No, he refused to come. He said he would send affidavits, and then refused to send any affidavit, and he refused to come unless his expenses were paid, and exorbitant sum, with his informant, were the words he used. The question of the personal attack of Dr Boultbee was disciplined for refusing to come before the American Kennel Club and make good.

Mr. Belmont: I ask for information as to that attack. That was the subject of it?

The Secretary: I would like to correct Dr De Mund. An editorial in the Canadian Kennel Gazette stated that Dr Boulbee was ready to make affidavit to his published statement. I wrote to Dr Boulbee, and the first communication I had from him was, “I positively and absolutely refuse to send affidavits.” That was the investigation, not a trial, and then when the charges were preferred by Mr. Albright and Dr De Mund, they called upon Dr Boulbee to send affidavits in which he said that he repeated what he said in his letter, that he declined, but he would come here to the office at our convenience with his informant and testify, if we would pay his expenses, and then he enumerated what the expenses would be, it was thought to be excessive; and further than that, there is only one body in the American Kennel Club that can appropriate money to bring witnesses here, and that is the Executive Committee on appeal, and they declined to pay the $105 for two men to come on here from Toronto, and then they disqualified Dr Boulbee because he refused to furnish affidavits.

Dr De Mund: If there was any attack, it was on the Trial Board that investigated it and disqualified Dr Boulbee. They had all the evidence before them, and they are the ones who are responsible. I am not responsible in the matter in any way, shape or manner.

Mr. Belmont: I ask again what was the nature of those attacks.

Mr. Sawyer: I rise to a point of order that we are now digressing from the question before the house.

At this point Mr. Belmont's motion was carried.

Mr. Belmont: I move that Mr. Vredenburgh's request for an investigation be granted, and that the Chair (H. H. Hunnewell) appoint three members of the Kennel Club in his discretion to investigate Mr. Vredenburgh's actions and report on the same at the annual meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Mortimer: As it seems a very important thing that we should have Dr Boultbee's evidence in order to procure perfect reciprocity, would I be out of order in moving that the case of Dr Boultbee be re-opened and he be sent for?

Dr De Mund: I rise to a point of order. The By-Laws prescribe how a case can be re-opened.

THE SECRETARY: It prescribes how an appeal can be made.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I should like to say that it would be necessary for Dr Boultbee to come here that the American Kennel Club should defray his expenses, and there is no authority other than the authority that you may give at this meeting to appropriate the proper amount of money to pay those expenses.

   Mr. Mortimer: I move that the American Kennel Club pay the expenses. It does not seem so very extravagant, $105 for two men to come from Toronto.

   Dr Osgood: I second the motion.

   Carried.

   Chairman H. H. Hunnewell appointed Messrs. H. K. Bloodgood, Howard Willets and Ralph Stewart as a Committee to investigate Mr. Vredenbrugh’s actions in the management of the American Kennel Club.
THE SECRETARY: The only business of importance is the question of the illegal adoption of an amendment to the By-laws at the Sept meeting. That should be corrected in some way by this meeting. It can only be acted upon next Feb. Under the By-Laws no amendment to the By-laws can be adopted or acted upon except at the Annual meeting which his held in Feb.

The Chairman: This makes this agreement partly inoperative until the Feb meeting. You can take no action in confirmation of it. If you action was contrary to the provisions of the constitution at the outset, you cannot correct it by rescinding it or otherwise.

THE SECRETARY: Ought it not to come up at the annual meeting for re-adoption?

The Chairman: Yes, certainly. Unless something of that kind were done it would fall by the wayside. It would be in order to move that the Rules Committee recommends that it be referred to the annual meeting for adoption.

Mr. Sawyer: I move that the action taken at the Sept meeting be considered as null and void, and that it be brought up again at the annual meeting in Feb.

Mr. Holton: Do I understand that it is necessary to take notice of the provisions just sixty days in advance?
THE SECRETARY: The notice was properly given in the Gazette.

Mr. Holton: I second the motion.

Carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Membership Committee, in conformity with the By-laws, met on Nov 25th and they recommend the following nominating Committee to name and nominate directors to fill the expiring class for 1914: George Greer, Chairman; A. C. Wilmerding, William Rauch, A. G. Hooley and Ralph C. Stewart. They are nominated now for election.

Mr. Gurnee: I move that the secretary be empowered to cast one vote for the election of the gentlemen named.

Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary stated that he had cast a ballot for Messrs. Greer, Wilmerding, Rauch, Hooley and Stewart as a Nominating Committee of the Club of 1914.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the resignation of Mr. Howard Ehrich as a delegate representing the Airedale Terrier Club of New York.

Mr. Stewart: I move his resignation be accepted with regret.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The secretary read his report to the Board of Directors. It is as follows:

New York, Dec 15, 1913

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

The following Standing Committee have handed in their reports which will be presented to you at this meeting. Membership Committee, License Committee, Publication Committee, and Stud Book Committee.

There is a vacancy on the San Francisco Trial Board, and Mr. J. P. Norman, our Western Agent, recommends the appointment of Mr. E. C. Rand, who is President of the Sonoma County Kennel Club, which is one of the members of the AKC.

I have bills for disbursements by our Western Agent amounting to $34.15 which covers from the date of his appointment up to and including Dec 8th. Under date of Oct 27th, Mr. Norman presented a bill for $14.25, and I assumed the responsibility of sending him a check for that amount rather than deprive him of the money that he had already advanced so that he would no be compelled to wait an additional two months for your approval. This will make our present indebtedness $19.90.

I beg to recommend the payment of this bill and to ask your approval of my first payment of Oct 27th amounting to $14.25.

I have a communication from the Kodak City Kennel Club, a member of the AKC and the Genesee Valley Kennel Club setting forth a resolution that was made and passed by a vote of 71 in favor and 26 against to wit:

“That the Kodak City Kennel Club instructs the AKC to transfer its franchise and its Membership to the Genesee Valley Kennel Club, in consideration of which the Genesee Valley Kennel Club agrees to assume and pay all indebtedness of the Kodak City Kennel Club up to and not exceeding the amount of $250.00, and that the receipt of these bills be sent to the Treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Lamouree. Also the following bill of sale was drawn up at said meeting:

Oct 27, 1913

“In consideration of the amount of $1.00, the Kodak City Kennel Club relinquishes and surrenders to the Genesee Valley Kennel Club its Membership in the AKC by a regular motion adopted at a Special Meeting held for that purpose, Received $1.00

Mrs. C. E. Lamouree.”
This communication is signed by the President First Vice-President, secretary, and the Treasurer, and acknowledged before a Notary Public.

Referring to the gift to the AKC by James Watson of his Sporting Library, the same having been left to Mr. Belmont, President of the AKC for his approval, I beg to report that I will read the correspondence on the subject.

Under date of Nov 10th, 1913, the American Field asked for Volumes VII to XVI inclusive of the Stud Book, and inquired the best price that we could make on these Volumes. I had no authority to give a better discount than 25% and I therefore promised to present this communication to this meeting. In the meantime, I shipped the books leaving the amount to be paid therefore in abeyance.

At the late show of the Kennel Club of Philadelphia, held at Byberry, Sept 20, 1913, the English Setter “Roger’s Kelly”, was marked in the catalogue and judge’s book as first limit, “Medford Rex,” second limit, and “Sporting Extra”, who also showed “Roger’s Kelly” for its owner Mr. William Zeigler, claims that he received the blue ribbon for “Sporting Extra: from Mr. G. Muss-Arnolt the Judge, who confirms same a the bottom of our letter to Mr. Weiler. On account of this win of “Roger’s Kelly” as given in the catalogue and judge’s book at Byberry, the first limit win at Danbury has been cancelled. The question is, can the catalogue and judge’s book be changed.

I have a communication from James Watson in reference to the judging at the Bulldog Show, Nov. 4th, which I will read for your information.

It is with deep sorrow and regret that I have to report the death of Mr. Edward Brooks on Dec 4th, 1913. Mr. Brooks served us as Vice President, Delegate Director, and Chairman of the Rules Committee for many years.

The following Directors have filed excuses and regrets for inability to attend this meeting: Chetwood Smith, William Rauch.

I would respectfully recommend that the Stud Book Committee be requested to consider the advisability of adopting a regulation to the effect that on and after Jan 1, 1915, the Stud Book shall be closed to all American Bred Dogs that are not the progeny of registered parents.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read, as follows:

New York, Dec 15, 1913

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit the quarterly Financial Report from Jan 1, 1913 to date.

Balance on hand --------------- $24,462.14
Receipts to date --------------- 28,775.75
Total -------------------------- $58,237.89
Disbursements ------------------ 33,508.20
Balance on hand --------------- $19,729.69

I also report that all bills for Active Dues for 1914, for Associate Subscription for 1914, and for Advertising for 1914 were mailed on Nov 29, 1913.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Membership Committee was read and is as follows:
October 28, 1913.

Membership Committee Meeting

Present: Howard Willets, Chairman
        H. K. Bloodgood
        B. S. Smith

Moved and seconded: That all Associate Subscribers who failed to pay dues on or before Jan 10, and who have since paid their subscription for 1913, be and hereby are reinstated in accordance with Article XVIII Section 3.
Carried. Mr. Smith excused from voting.

Howard Willets, Chairman
        H. K. Bloodgood

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the License Committee was read, as follows:
License Committee Meeting.
Held October 21, 1913

Moved and seconded that the entire matter of the International Dog Show at the Panama Exposition be referred to the President Mr. Belmont with all the correspondence for his opinion on the question. We feel as a Committee that if the sanction of the American Kennel Club is wanted by the Panama Exposition authorities, that the Show must be given under the rules of the American Kennel Club, and that these rules must be lived up to; as the American Kennel Club is the recognized dog Club in the United States.

A. G. Hooley
Chairman of the License Committee
Ralph C. Stewart.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:

“To the Board of Directors of the Kennel Club:

This Committee reports that imported dogs registered in English Kennel Club stud book are now accepted for registration in our stud book under the English registration name only, with the affix (Eng.).

The Committee proposes to allow a kennel name registered with us to be used in connection with the English registered name and asks the opinion of the Directors on this point. The Committee reports also that no kennel name identical with one registered in the Kennel Club Stud Book is now accepted for registration.

In the matter of the breeding of the Chihuahua dog “Concourse Decoration” referred to the Stud Book Committee by the New York Trial Board, your Committee reports as follows:

We have carefully considered the evidence submitted, and find nothing connecting the dog “Concourse Decoration” with Black & Tan Terrier parentage, or with any former owner, who knew said dog as a Black & Tan Terrier. All evidence submitted has to do with the appearances of the dog and his dam “Mamby Bonita.”

Mrs. Owens the exhibitor of the dog claims that the dam “Mamby Bonita”, pedigree unknown, was imported by William Artz from Mexico. The bitch was black and tan in color and was bred to Mr. Stevenson’s Chihuahua dog “Don Pedro” and “Concourse Decoration” was the result of this mating.

Concourse Decoration has to his credit first prize in Winners classes at Brighton Beach, Mineola, Newark; 1st open at Sheepshead Bay, and Reserve Winners at Devon, Long Beach and Islip Kennel Club 1913.

Rule XVIII of the Rules Governing Shows make the appointed judges decision in all matters regarding the merits of the dogs final, and we, therefore, cannot go back to their decisions in any matter affecting only the appearance of the dog.

We have testimony from one of the judges, that these dogs do not breed true, and that specimens Black & Tan in color are occasionally met with. No new evidence has been furnished to your Committee other than that considered by the New York Trial Board, and we therefore accept Mrs. Owen’s statement that the dog “Concourse Decoration” is by a Chihuahua dog out of her Chihuahua bitch, imported from Mexico.

We therefore recognize this dog as a specimen of the breed Chihuahua until proof of Black & Tan Terrier parentage of the bitch “Mamby Bonita” is produced.

In the matter of the application for classification of Butch Sheepdogs, your Committee finds that there are not more than one or two representatives of this breed in this country. We therefore recommend that the matter be laid upon the table until such time as the breed shall be more fully represented.

The protest of the win of the bitch Ella shown in the Islip Show as a Belgian Sheepdog claiming that this bitch is a German Sheepdog.

The owner of the dog now states that she entered this dog in this class believing it to be a Belgian Sheepdog, and before she had received the pedigree of the dog. She is now satisfied that the dog is a German Sheepdog and so states.

The bitch won in the class for Belgian Sheepdogs at the Islip Show, and we recommend that this win be cancelled on the ground that the bitch “Ella” was not eligible for the classes in which she competed.

In view of the fact that kindred breeds are all known as Sheepdogs, and that this breed is called German Sheepdogs in Bylandt’s book, we do not think best to make the change requested.

In the matter of the Boston Terrier “Rex G. II,” we find that the pedigree and the name of the breeder given by R. T. Graff, who registered the dog, is incorrect, and the registration has been cancelled.

We recommend that the matter be referred to a Trial Board for investigation.

On motion the same was accepted and the recommendation to allow a kennel name registered with the American Club to be used in connection with the English name was adopted.

The Secretary: There is a vacancy on the San Francisco Trial Board and our Western Agent suggests Mr. E. C. Rand for that position.

On motion Mr. E. C. Rand was elected to fill said vacancy.

On motion the bill of #34.15 for disbursements of our Western Agent was ordered paid.

The Secretary: The Kodak City Kennel Club, a member in good standing of the American Kennel Club, has sold out to the Genesee Valley Kennel Club, the last mentioned club taking over their debts not to exceed $250. The Genesee Valley Kennel Club is composed of business men of Rochester. They ask that the membership of the Kodak Club be transferred to the Genesee Valley Kennel Club. They have already applied for and been granted a license to hold a show in the Spring, but they want to show in the Autumn as a member instead of under license.

It was moved and seconded that said application be approved.

Carried.

The Secretary: The American Field sent this communication to me:

“Our copies of your Stud Book for the years 1890 to 1899 inclusive, are the worse for wear, and we wish to inquire what price you can make us on these volumes.”

In consideration of the fact that on our request the American Field furnished us with an entire file of their Stud Book, and presented it to us, I did not feel like requesting 25 percent discount, which is the trade discount, but I sent to them the books and informed then that I had no authority to give greater discount than 25 percent. I feel, however, that the Kennel Club should determine the cost, if any, for these books.
Mr. Palmer: I move the books requested be presented to them.

Motion seconded and carried.

The secretary submitted the correspondence in connection with the gift by James Watson of his sporting library to the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Willets: I move that the Treasurer be authorized to accept the gift of books from Mr. Watson, and that $50 be appropriated as requested.

Motion seconded and carried.

Regarding the late show of the Kennel Club of Philadelphia, held at Byberry on Sept 20, 1913, at which the English Setters Roger’s Kelly was marked as first limit in the Catalogue and Judges book, “Medford Rex”, second limit and “Sporting Extra” third limit, in connection with which the question arises, can the Catalogue and Judges book be changed. Mr. Hunnewell moved that in consideration of the length of time that has elapsed between the date of the show and the time when the consideration of the American Kennel Club is asked, that the award stands as recorded in the Judges book.

Seconded and carried.

The secretary submitted a communication from Mr. James Watson in reference to the judging at the Bulldog show held Nov 4.
On motion the same was laid on the table.

On motion the excuses filed by Messrs Chetwood Smith and William Rauch for not being able to attend this meeting, were accepted.

The Secretary: I submit the following recommendation: That the Stud Book Committee be requested to consider the advisability of adopting a regulation to the effect that on and after Jan 1, 1916, the Stud Book shall be closed to all American bred dogs that are not the progeny of registered parents.

Mr. Stewart: I move that it be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The death of Mr. Edward Brooks was reported.

Mr. Hunnewell moved that the proper resolutions be drawn up and sent to his family by the secretary.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: At the last meeting of the Executive Committee it recommended to the Board of Directors to strike from the records of the American Kennel Club the fifth paragraph of the Investigating Committee’s report of last August.

Mr. Hunnewell: I move that the recommendation of the Investigating Committee be adopted, and said paragraph be stricken from the records.

Motion seconded and carried.
The secretary submitted the resignation of Messrs A. D. Gillette, W. H. Sawyer, W. S. Gurnee, Jr., and J. E. De Mund as Directors of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Willets: I move that their resignations as Directors be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion Mr. Belmont was requested to submit the correspondence which he had with Dr De Mund, and which he read at the Delegates meeting to this Board. After discussion it was resolved that Mr. Belmont be requested to permit the publication of the same in the American Kennel Gazette, with the exception of such parts to which Dr De Mund excepted.

The report of the Publication Committee held at No. 1 Liberty Street, Monday, November 24, 1913

Present --- Rowland P. Keasbey in Chair
M. Mowbray Palmer
A. Clinton Wilmerding

The matter of the form in which the Stud Book for 1913 shall appear was taken up, and after going into the matter carefully, on motion of Mr. Wilmerding, seconded by Mr. Palmer, it was resolved to return to the former style of 1909, i. e. the book appear in one volume and not in sections as printed last year.
Moved and seconded that the secretary (American Kennel Club) be instructed to prepare specifications and invite sealed bids from various printers for the Stud Book for 1913 and the Gazette for 1914 and submit same to the Publication Committee at its next meeting.

(Carried) On motion adjourned.

A. Clinton Wilmerding

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

The Certificate of Election was read, as follows:

New York, Feb 4, 1914

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to Article XVIII, Section 4 of the By-laws of the American Kennel Club, the secretary of said club duly opened the ballots of the Associate Subscribers entitled to vote, in the presence of the tellers appointed by the President of said club, and the undersigned tellers certified as follows:

Associate Subscribers entitled to vote
On Jan 10, 1914 ----------------------------- 164
Number of votes cast ------------------------------- 63
Scattering ------------------------------------------ 13
Irregular and thrown out --------------------------- 1

We therefore declare the following candidates, having received the highest number of votes, to be duly elected as delegates to represent the Associate Subscribers for the year 1914, and until their successors shall have been elected.

William G. Rockefeller
A. G. Hooley

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

Tellers
John G. Bates
M. M. Palmer
Allison M. Lederer
The application of the Central New York Kennel Club for election to membership was read.

Mr. Willets: I would like to state in connection with these applications that owing to the resignation of two of the members of the membership Committee and the absence of one other member in Europe, it has been possible to get only two of the members together, Mr. Bloodgood and myself. We have considered these applications and signed the papers, but it is for the delegates to say whether they will accept the signatures of only two members of the Committee.

Mr. Lederer: I would offer a motion then that the delegates accept the report of the two members of the membership Committee as the report of the Committee, and ratify it and act upon it accordingly.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Central New York Kennel Club was duly elected.

The Secretary: The Pacific Coast Collie Club made its application on Dec 19, 1913, for membership, but owing to some irregularity in hearing from the Collie Club of America, it was not able to send official approval of the admission of this club, and therefore the matter will have to lay over until the next meeting.
The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Plainfield Kennel Club    Edmund L. Mackenzie
Lehigh Valley Kennel Club    M. H. Horn
Newark Kennel Club    John L. Whealan
New England Collie Club    E. W. Dwight
Nassau County Kennel Club    Theodore Crane

The report of the Nominating Committee was read as follows:

The Nominating Committee elected to name individuals to be elected as Directors to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors report the following nominations:

Class of 1914:
August Belmont
J. W. Appleton
George S. West
John G. Bates
Robt. Sedgwick, Jr.
C. W. Keyes

Class of 1915:
In place of A. D. Gillette
Judge Samuel R. Cutler
Classes of 1916:
In place of Edward Brooks & W. H. Sawyer
Theo. Offerman
Henry T. Fleitmann

Class of 1918:
In place of W. S. Gurnee, Jr. and J. F. Collins
Joseph A. Buchanan
J. Macy Willets

Nominating Committee
George Greer
Chairman

Mr. Hooley: I move that the nominations be closed and that THE SECRETARY:
cast a ballot in favor of the gentlemen named.

Motion seconded and carried.
The secretary stated that he had cast a ballot as directed.
The Secretary’s report to the Delegates was read, and is as follows:

New York, Feb 25, 1914

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:
Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since the last meeting, I received applications for Active Membership from the Central New York Kennel Club and the Pacific Coast Collie Club. The latter has not been approved by the Membership Comm for the reason that the written consent of the Collie Club of America has not yet come to hand.

I have also received credentials from the Nassau County Kennel Club appointing Theodore Crane, the Newark Kennel Club appointing John Whealan, the New England Kennel Club appointing E. W. Dwight, the Plainfield Kennel Club appointing Edmund L. Mackenzie, and the Lehigh Valley Kennel Club appointing M. H. Horn.

The votes of the Associate Subscribers were opened by the Secretary and the Board of Tellers on Feb 4, 1914, and resulted in the election of William G. Rockefeller and A. G. Hooley as the Associate Delegates for the year 1914.

The Directors to be elected at this meeting are six for the class expiring in 1914, one for the class of 1915, two for the class of 1916, and two for the class of 1918.

By resolution at the Dec meeting, the amendment to Article VI, Section 1 of the By-laws illegally adopted at the Sept Meeting, must be acted upon at this meeting.
The following clubs have been automatically dropped from membership for non-payment of dues for the year 1914, owing to provisions of Article XV, Section 3, Genesee County Kennel Club, Massachusetts Kennel Club, Northern California Kennel Club, Northwestern Boston Terrier Club, Snohomish County Kennel Club, Souther Collie Club of Memphis, St. Clair Kennel Club, and the Trenton Kennel Club.

Final bills were mailed to these clubs on Jan 27, 1914, and no dues have been paid for same.

Resignations as delegates dated Dec 16, 1913, are now before you for acceptance.

I beg to present the financial statement for the year 1913. This statement has not been audited by the Finance Committee, but by direction of said Committee will be audited by a duly chartered auditor.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s Report to the delegates was submitted, and on motion accepted and ordered spread upon the minutes.

The resignations of Messrs. A. D. Gillette and W. S. Gurnee, Jr., as delegates and Directors, were read and on motion accepted.

The Secretary: Article VI, Section 1, of the By-laws was at the last meeting directed to be submitted to this meeting for adoption:

“Amend by inserting between the words, ‘Elect and thirty,’ the words ‘From their own number,’ so that the Section shall read: ‘The Club shall be governed by a Board of Directors of thirty members. The incorporators shall constitute the Board of Directors until the Annual Meeting in 1909 or until their successors are elected. At the Annual Meeting in 1909 or any adjournment thereof, the Delegates shall elect from their own number thirty Directors, six of whom shall hold office until 1910, six of whom shall hold office until the annual meeting in 1911, six of whom shall hold office until 1912, six of whom shall hold office until 1913, six of whom shall hold office until 1914, and at each Annual Meeting thereafter, the delegates shall elect six Directors to hold office for five years, or until their successors are appointed and elected. A Director who shall cease to be a Delegate shall thereby cease to be a Director.” That is an amendment that was illegally adopted at the Sept Meeting and ordered to be brought up at the meeting.

Mr. Teeling: I move that the amendment be accepted.
Motion seconded and carried.

Dr. De Mund: I would like to speak, if I may, to a question of personal privilege relative to an error in the report published in the Gazette of Dec 31st. I will read the remarks of the President at that time: “Doctor Boulbee’s case resolves itself simply into the liberty that one man took to speak of another’s personal affair. What has that to do with the rules of the American Kennel Club? In his capacity as an officer he prepared the case. Had he been an associate member, had he been an ordinary member, that action against Doctor Boulbee would never have carried weight anywhere. It was brought up as an offense and then the discipline of the American Kennel Club was applied to Doctor Boulbee. This immediately brought us into conflict with the feelings and the opinions of the English Kennel Club. It is not necessary for me to go through the details of that; but that is the fact, and then, mind you, a proposed rectification of this trouble is not that Doctor Boulbee shall come to the American Kennel Club to make reparation for breach of the rules as would be Necessary with anybody who committed a fraud, say in registration, or breach of the rules which rendered them liable for discipline. No, he does not do that. This officer of the American Kennel Club sends somebody to tell Doctor Boultbee that if he apologized to him, the officer, it would be all right. Is that the way to administer the rules and the government of the American Kennel Club? It is unthinkable.” It seems very strange to me that the President of this organization should be so ignorant of the facts of the case that he should date that it was a personal matter. It is not a question of the President’s word or of my word. It is a question of the record. The act of Doctor Boultbee was a criticism of two judges at an American Kennel Club show, an accusation of fraud, an accusation of dishonesty at one of those shows, not as an individual, not as against me. The accusation was made against the judge who officiated at that show at which Doctor Boultbee was an exhibitor. I do not know Doctor Boultbee. I would not know him if I should see him, and that statement made by the President is absolutely and emphatically wrong. Furthermore, it says: “This officer of the American Kennel Club sends somebody to tell Doctor Boultbee that if he apologizes to him, the officer, it would be all right.” That statement was not made. The President of this club makes that bald statement. That is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. I have letters in my possession from the gentlemen who were supposed to act as messengers denying absolutely that anything of that sort took place, and I appeal now to the delegates of this club in all justice and fair play, to have that statement retracted in the Gazette, and I challenge the president to prove that I sent anybody to Doctor Boultbee with any such message.

The Chairman: The statements which I made there were made to me, and I am perfectly willing to have a correction made to the extent that there was my information.
Beyond that I want to say that I shall not retract the statement excepting in the sense that it was made by me on information and belief.

Dr. De Mund: I challenge you to prove that statement. You did not say it was made on information. You made the statement positively that I sent somebody to Doctor Boultbee with that message.

The Chairman: I have already stated that I am perfectly willing to have that expression inserted there, because those are the facts, and if there is objection to my having stated it as a fact I am perfectly willing to state that. As to the necessity of my proving the correctness of the statement, I decline to so that. The burden is upon Dr. De Mund to prove that it is not so.

Dr. De Mund: May I speak about the first statement, that is was a personal matter entirely. There was nothing personal about it. The records of this Club will prove that.

The Chairman: They will if they do.

Mr. Bloodgood read the report of the Investigating Committee appointed at the last meeting, as follows:

Feb 25, 1914

August Belmont, Esq., President, American Kennel Club &
Delegates of American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

Your Committee appointed at the meeting of the American Kennel Club on Dec 16, 1913, to investigate the Office of the American Kennel Club, beg leave to submit their report as follows:

We have held numerous meeting since the meeting in December, and have had before us quite a number of witnesses and have listened to all the charges which have been brought to our attention.

From the evidence submitted to us, we find that in the matter of the Toy Dog Club of New England Show, held on May 31st, 1913, that the office of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club erred when they took away the points from the show. We feel that under the peculiar circumstances of this case, the wins should have been allowed to stand and we would recommend that they be given a one point rating for their show, held at that time, owing to the error made by the office of the American Kennel Club.

In regard to the “Reciprocity Agreement” which has been brought to our attention, we find no contract or agreement, has as yet been entered into with the English Kennel Club, as the agreement has never been executed by both parties.

We do recommend that hereafter all minutes of the meeting of the Delegates, Board of Directors, or Executive Committee, be passed upon, and edited by the Publication Committee, before being published in the Gazette.

We do find that in the case of Mr. James Watson, the New York Trial board did not in its final report, or written decision, live up to the actual findings in the case, and that it should have compelled the publication of the Watson letter of apology, or else held Mr. Watson suspended until such time as the letter was published. In this matter we would recommend that the original letter as agreed upon by the New York Trial Board, be published, in the AKC Gazette, or that Mr. Watson be held suspended until he publishes the letter as was agreed upon at the trial of the case. We do not feel that the Trial Board did right of the case. We do not feel that the Trial Board did right in dropping the charges which had been preferred until some final action had been taken in the matter.

We would also recommend that the New York Trial Board in the future be authorized and directed to have stenographic minutes of all its meetings, such minutes to be taken by one of the stenographers employed in the office of the American Kennel Club.

In regard to the running of the Secretary’s office, we have made a thorough investigation, and we believe that the office is doing god work for the benefit of those interested in dogs.

Your Committee has suggested to the Secretary some minor charges in policy, and we hope that with the putting into effect of these charges, that much of the discord between the Secretary’s office, and the public, will hereafter be eliminated.

Respectfully submitted,

H. K. Bloodgood
Howard Willets
Ralph C. Stewart
Mr. Wilmerding: I move that the report be accepted and the recommendations therein contained approved.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Hooley: I move that a vote of thanks be extended to the Committee for their very arduous labors in connection with this matter.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Willets: Now that the Publication Committee is required to edit the minutes before they are published, I move that the Publication Committee be requested to print that report in full in the next issue of the Gazette as a part of the action of this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.
MEETING
OF THE
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
OF THE
AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB
HELD AT ITS OFFICES, NO. 1 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK CITY

J. Macy Willets
On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

President Belmont resigned the Chair to Mr. Willets.

Mr. Wilmerding: I nominate Mr. August Belmont for President of the American Kennel Club for the ensuing year.

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations were closed.

Mr. Wood: I move that the Secretary cast a ballot in favor of Mr. Belmont.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot.

Mr. Belmont: I thank you very much for your confidence. I had intended to ask you to relieve me this year. I shall serve you to the best of my ability the coming year, but I hope that you will recognize the fact that the time has come when somebody should take my place who is in more active touch with kennel affairs.
My son has become interested in beagles, and the kennels consist of them only, and he is the owner. I do not exhibit any more. I have a few dogs that I use in the south, and I have had one or two on the bench, which does not mean anything, and I think that a man to be the President of the club should be an exhibitor and an active worker, because it is impossible for one to know what is going on during the year except by association with the Kennel world, so that when matters arise such as the case of Dr. De Mund, I have to take my information and buckle down and bone up on these subjects, and I made a slip there, as you see, with injustice to Dr. De Mund. I suppose I should have stated that as merely what I had been told, or that I stated it on information and belief, and for that reason, believe me, I shall appreciate it just as much as my service to you for the last twenty-six years, that you should express those thanks in your own way when I am free and will put in my place an active man who is constantly on the job. It is beg enough and ought to be.

(Mr. Belmont resumes the Chair.)

The Secretary read his report to the Directors as follows:

New York, Feb 25, 1914

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club;

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to report the following matters that have come to hand since our last meeting.

The Cornell University desired to purchase 22 volumes of the Stud Book, and I offered them the usual 25% discount. Under a communication from H. H. Wing, Professor of Animal Husbandry in that University, he quotes a former sale for which the Kennel Club granted a discount of 50%, and requests that the Cornell University be granted the same discount.

I have no authority to grant a greater discount than 25% but promised to present the proposition at this meeting for your consideration.

I have communication from the American Humane Association setting forth the following preamble and resolution at its annual meeting, held in Albany, Jan 26, 1914,

Whereas: The Royal Kennel Club of Great Britain, at the request of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of Great Britain, has stopped the exhibiting of dogs with cut ears:

Be it Resolved: That the American Humane Association ask the American Kennel Club to take like action in the interest of the humane treatment of dumb animals in regard to all dogs not now under registration.

The Western Beagle Club failed to file their catalogue until 51 days had elapsed after the close of their show. I was therefore obliged, under the rules, to assess a penalty against this Club for $44.00. An appeal is made that this penalty should be remitted upon the ground that the Club was not familiar with the rules, and also from the fact that the supply of rules in this office has been exhausted, thereby being impossible to send the rules until the new ones were printed. As a further reason, they stated that the one member of their club that knew anything of the rules was ill and has resigned. I therefore recommended that under these circumstances, that the penalty be remitted.

James Cole, Kansas City, Mo. Was disqualified for judging at a show held under rules antagonistic to the American Kennel Club. His disqualification was ordered by the New York Trial Board on May 20, 1913. Cole has appealed for reinstatement with a promise that, under no circumstances, will he ever take part in any show other than one held under American Kennel Club rules. His appeal was followed by a petition signed with 27 names requesting his reinstatement.

The Southern Collies Club of Memphis failed to pay premiums amounting to $16.00 won by Doctor O. P. Bennett, Washington, Ills., and said Club and its officers were disqualified by the New York Trial Board on Oct 24, 1913. This club has now been dropped from Membership for non-payment of dues, and I report the action of the New York Trial Board in the disqualification of the officers.

The Bourbon Kennels made a mistake at the Westminster Kennel Club show now is progress. The date of birth given on the entry form was Jan 24, 1913, while the correct date of birth is Feb 24, 1913. It is claimed that this was purely a clerical error and a request that the correction may be made in the catalogue when same is received by this office.

I beg to report the following resignations: B. S. Smith, from the Rules and Membership Committees, and the New York Trial Board. George Lauder, Jr., from the New York Trial Board, and John F. Collins as a member of this Board of Directors.

I have a communication from Chetwood Smith which I will read for your consideration.

The bill for disbursements made by our Western Agent from Dec 28, 1913 to Feb 13, 1914 inclusive, amounting to $28.81 has been presented. This bill appears to be correct, and I recommend the payment of same.

The San Francisco Trial Board at a meeting held Jan 28, 1914, acted on the evidence before it in a charge made by Mrs. Lula Wilson against the Ladies' Kennel Association of Southern California, found in favor of the Show Giving Club. Mrs. Wilson, through her attorney, has appealed from this decision on the ground that evidence forwarded to said Trial Board was delayed, owing to the delay in the United States mail, due to washouts on the railroad lines. Said evidence was not received by the Trial Board until after it has closed the case and the registered mail containing said evidence was returned to the petitioner by the Secretary of the San Francisco Trial Board unopened. The request of the petitioner is that the case may be returned to the San Francisco Trial Board to be re-opened to enable it to consider the new evidence. The necessary deposit has been made in the case.

At the December meeting, it was ordered that the Boultbee case be re-opened. I would suggest and recommend that the Board of Directors shall resolve itself into a Trial Board and consider the case at this meeting. Doctor Boultbee and his witness have promised to attend.

A proposed amendment to Rule X of the Rules Governing Dog Shows has been filed and same should be referred to the Rules Committee.

Mr. H. H. Hunnewell and Mr. W. G. Rockefeller have sent their regrets and will not be able to attend this meeting and ask to be excused for their absence.

In closing this report I beg to announce that I have just received a communication from E. M. Shaw announcing the death Doctor F. H. Osgood, which occurred on the 21st inst.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s Report was also read, and is as follows:

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit the Financial Report from Jan 1, 1914, to date.

Balance on hand ----------------- $20,803.01
Receipts on date ----------------- 4,015.92
Total --------------------------------- 24,818.93
Disbursements ------------------- 3,433.18
Balance on hand ----------------   $21,385.75

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the License Committee was read as follows:

New York, Feb 25, 1914

To the Directors

The License Committee, after most carefully considering the request of the “Panama Exposition” in reference to the Dog Show to be held by the Exposition, regrets to say that they feel that the original position taken by the Committee is correct and that your Committee cannot in any way, in justice to the clubs on the Coast who are affiliated with our Association, recognize the “Panama Exposition Dog Show” unless it is held and conducted under the rules and regulations of the American Kennel Club.

Yours very truly,

A. G. Hooley
Chairman of the License Committee

The Chairman: Before asking your action on this report I would suggest that there be added to the resolution adopting it that the Secretary be instructed to notify the authorities of the Pacific Exposition of the decision of this Board.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the report be accepted and placed on file, and that the Secretary notify the officers of the Pacific Exposition of the decision of this Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chairman: Before asking your action on this report I would suggest that there be added to the resolution adopting it that the Secretary be instructed to notify the authorities of the Pacific Exposition of the decision of this Board.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the report be accepted and placed on file, and that the Secretary notify the officers of the Pacific Exposition of the decision of this Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chairman: I want to say to you in connection with this matter that as to the point decided by the Directors, I believe there has been some misunderstanding on the Western coast about the attitude of the American Kennel Club. It has been assumed that I have committed the American Kennel Club to some sort of recognition of the Show. That is not so. Mr. Levy, who is a promoter out there, assumed something to have been settled when he was here, which was not the fact at all. The Secretary simply informed him of the recommendation that I had made when asked my opinion on the subject. It was simply a suggestion, and that suggestion was somewhat in line with what we tried to do at the time of the St. Louis Exposition, and I said very distinctly of course that the position of the Committee was absolutely correct and that we could assume no responsibility for a show held there which was not held under American Kennel Club rules. I suppose that the Californians are naturally very anxious to have a successful show and to win popular support, and my thought was that if we were actually opposed to there being any sort of record whatever of it, it would look as if we were trying to force ourselves upon the Exposition and did not want them to succeed. I suppose that the Kennel World out there would prefer to assume a position of that kind, and therefore I suggested simply that a record, without giving them any standing, of the wins would be published in the Stud Book. That is as far as my recommendation went, but our friends out there evidently thought that we were going to take some action which they considered hostile to their interest, and I thought perhaps you might hear some talk of that kind. There is nothing in it at all.

The Secretary: In regard to the request of the Cornell University for a 50% discount in the price of 22 volumes of the Stud Book, I desire to state that we did make that discount to one or two Universities. First we donated the Stud Book to Harvard and Columbia. Then when Yale asked for it we passed a resolution that we would not continue to furnish the Stud Books gratis to any University, and the Kennel Club, on another solicitation, directed me to sell the Stud Books to this University at a discount of 59%. It is for you to determine whether we will follow that precedent in connection with the request of Cornell University.

The Chairman: Does that represent a loss?

The Secretary: Yes, every book we sell is at a loss.

Mr. Keyes: I move that we allow Cornell University 50% discount.

Seconded and carried.
The Secretary: I submit the request of the Humane Society to the American Kennel Club to pass a rule preventing the showing of dogs whose ears have been cropped and have not yet been registered.

On motion of Mr. Hooley the matter was laid on the table.

The Secretary: I have the appeal of the Western Beagle Club to remit their fine of $44. I think it is no more than just that we should do it. The entire lot of printed rules have become exhausted just about the time they were getting ready for their show, and we were waiting until certain amendments were adopted so I could have a new set of rules, and there was no one in the club who knew anything about the rules except one man who was ill and could not attend to the matter, and they ask that the $44.00 fine be remitted.
Mr. Wood: I move that the Western Beagle Club be fined one dollar.
Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I submit the appeal of Mr. James Cole, of Kansas City, for reinstatement.

Mr. Hooley: I know perhaps more than anybody else here about this case, and I move that Mr. Cole be reinstated.

Mr. Wood: I want to state as a member of the Trial Board that I believe it would be a good thing to reinstate Mr. Cole. I second the motion.

Mr. Palmer: I met Mr. Cole last March in Chicago, and he told me that the reason that he had judged at this show was that he needed the money very badly; it was a matter of dollars and cents to him, but if he was reinstated he would never judge anything but a show held under our rules.

The Secretary: He reinstates that in his appeal. Attached to his appeal for reinstatement is a petition signed by 27 men of Kansas City asking that he be reinstated.

Motion carried.

The Secretary: In regard to the mistake made by the Bourbon Kennels in the date of birth of a French Bulldog entered at the Westminster Kennel Club, Mr. Bloodgood moved that the Secretary be empowered to correct the mistake.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I do not suppose it is necessary to report the resignation of John F. Collins, because his place was filled, but I announce that he has resigned as a director.

Mr. Willets: I move that his resignation be accepted.

Seconded and carried.

On motion the bill for disbursements made by the Western agent from Dec 28, 1913 to Feb 13, 1914, amounting to $28.73, was ordered paid.

The Secretary: In the matter of the appeal of Mrs. Wilson against the Ladies Kennel Association of Southern Association, the appeal is to send all this new evidence that is under seal with you to the San Francisco Trial Board and ask that Board to reopen the case and consider the new evidence. This evidence was in the washout, and it was a number of days reaching San Francisco from Los Angeles, and it was not received until after the meeting had closed. I have also received a letter from Mr. Norman, our western agent, to the same effect, that it had been received after the case had been settled, and he had returned this unopened.

    Mr. Hooley: I move that the Secretary be empowered to return the papers as requested, and to reopen the case.
    Seconded and carried.
    On motion the excuses of Messrs. H. H. Hunnewell, Chetwood Smith and W. G. Rockefeller for absence at this meeting were accepted.
    On motion the proposed amendment to Rule 10 was referred to the Rules Committee.

    The Secretary: I regret to have to report the very sudden death of our old director and member of the Boston Trial Board, Doctor F. H. Osgood.
    Mr. Cutler: I move that the Secretary be requested to send to Doctor Osgood’s family a copy of appropriate Resolutions which may be passed by the Board of Directors in regard to his death. As you know, my acquaintance has been that of a Kennel Club acquaintance. He came from the same part of the country that I came from. My time here antedated his. It is a sad incident that while we sit here today his funeral is going on at Littletown in Massachusetts. His relations with his fellow members of the Trial Board always had been very pleasant. His relations with all of the delegates from Boston and that vicinity have been those which exist between sportsmen and gentlemen. He was a man, as you all know, of decisive opinions. He had no hesitancy in expressing them. He was quick to discern the weakness of an adversary and equally as quick to forgive and be convinced of his own error. It gives me a feeling of paid to come here and make this motion. I have felt depressed during this meeting owing to the fact that I have so often been by his side. I think no one here misses him more than I do.

The Chairman: All that Judge Cutler has said about Doctor Osgood we all know is true, and in my experience here I have always found that Doctor Osgood was on hand when there was anything serious up for consideration and took a useful part in our deliberations. His death certainly will be a great loss to the club.

Mr. Cutler’s motion was seconded and carried by a standing vote.

The Secretary: I have the papers here relative to the investigation requested by Dr. De Mund against Doctor Boultbee and the records in connection with the action of the Trial Board in which Dr. De Mund and Mr. Albright preferred charges against Doctor Boultbee. At the meeting in December by resolution the Kennel Club was directed to re-open the case, and I communicated with Doctor Boultbee and asked him to fix a time that would suit his own convenience to come here. He fixed some time during four o’clock today. I have just received a message that he is here.

Mr. Hooley: I move that the Board of Directors resolve itself into a Trial Board to hear this case, but before that motion is voted on, I want to state that I think the Board should be very careful in this matter. I think there is a lot of things back of this which may come to the surface later on, and may not; something that might be disagreeable, and it would seem to me from my knowledge of the facts – I was a member of the first Trial Board – that it might be a wise thing for the directors, if they see fit, to in some way reinstate Doctor Boultbee without any further consideration of this old matter. I am not holding any brief for Dr. De Mund or Mr. Albrignt or Doctor Boultbee, but we have had considerable trouble in the way of law suits, and so forth, and possibly this could be avoided.

Mr. Cutler: I went over this matter very carefully this morning and read all the papers, and it seems to me that this Kennel Club has been trying to do something which it cannot do. This Trial Board has been trying a citizen of Canada and a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, for an offense which was committed in Canada – the publication of this alleged criticism, or statement, whatever it is, was made in Canada. His observation as to what he saw, or what he purports to have seen, was in Buffalo, but the thing that is complained of is a publication in a Canadian paper, and it is a matter entirely within the jurisdiction of the Canadian Kennel Club. I do not believe that the American Kennel Club or its Trial Board has any jurisdiction to disqualify a man who is not a member of the American Kennel Club for an alleged irregularity in connection with dogs which took place in Canada, and therefore it seems to me that the most that can be done in this case would be for this Board of Directors to declare that the Trial Board which purported to disqualify Doctor Boultbee, did not disqualify; that their action was a nullity, and he is in good standing today as he ever was. If we wish to have an investigation to ascertain the truth or falsity of the statements, but in the papers Doctor Boultbee has set forth the contention which I am now making, that this club had no jurisdiction to disqualify him. It had no jurisdiction to put him on trial. If we resolve ourselves into a Trial Board, we are trying him. It does not seem to me that we have any right to try him. The difficulty, it seems to me, with the alleged judgment of the New York Trial Board was, that they drew an inference from the fact that he did not come here that he assented to the charges against him, and I think he was not bound to come here. We cannot summon a man from Canada and because he does not come, and because he questions our jurisdiction therein, say that we default him, or take his statements as confessed, or say that he is guilty, and therefore we will disqualify him. It seems to me the sooner we recognize the fact that his defense was correct, and that we cannot call his acts in question here, the better it will be for us, and it seems to me that we cannot go any further than to do what he has consented to do, investigate the matter and receive his statement. He comes here now to make a statement, and I do not know but what we ought to hear him, but I do not think we ought to consider and I do not think we ought to give him to understand that we are trying him.
It is an unfortunate affair and the less said about it I think the better.

Mr. Hooley: I will ask the Board of Directors to rescind my motion to resolve yourselves into a Trial Board, and would move tha the be given the full privileges of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Wood: I second the motion.

Mr. Bloodgood: I would like to ask Judge Cutler if we, being a New York organization, would not have any jurisdiction over Canada, how is it going to work out in other states?

Mr. Cutler: We have a right under the New York Corporation Law, and the other states are bound to respect that law, but other countries are not. I am looking at it as what I conceive to be the jurisdiction of the National Dog Association, the English Kennel Club and the Canadian Kennel Club. If we attempt to disqualify their members for things they do within the jurisdiction of their own clubs, it seems to me we are stepping over the boundary line between the two dog clubs.

The Chairman: Doctor Boulbbee has been invited to come here, and he is here.
It would seem as if you were rather running away from a dignified position if you hurry up and reinstate him before you have had an opportunity to meet him at all. If he intends to come before the Kennel Club and make a statement to you, which it is likely he will make, that he did not consider we had any jurisdiction, on the strength of that you can proceed and take the course suggested by Judge Cutler, but you do not exactly know the reason now, do you, if it is not contained in the papers?

The Secretary: It is contained in the papers. Judge Cutler went all through them this morning.

Mr. Cutler: I think we ought to invite him in, but not command him to come in. We ought to invite him to come in here in the spirit of investigation and in the spirit of fair play, give him a chance to be heard.

Mr. Wood: This matter is a little more serious now. Perhaps we will recognize it. Certain people are waiting to see whether the Board of Directors will re-open the Boultbee case. That is the reason I do not want to see it re-opened. Have we any right to re-open the case?

Mr. Cutler: I think after we have given him permission to make his statement, and we have heard it, then we can make some proper motion. I have not heard what he is going to say, but I feel now, and I think I should feel then, that we had no jurisdiction to disqualify him, and then we can move that it is the opinion of this Board that the action of the Trial Board did not amount to a disqualification; something of that kind.
Mr. Hooley: If Doctor Boultbee should confine himself to that statement I would consider that there would not be any question about our proceeding with the matter, but I think Doctor Boultbee is not very friendly to certain people for bringing him here. He may make some remarks, or there may something come up that we, as a Board, may consider necessary come up that we, as a Board, may consider necessary to go further. The American Kennel Club has had a lot of this sort of thing, and I still move that we reinstate Doctor Boultbee, and then he can come in and make such statement as he sees fit.

Mr. Hooley’s motion, that the privileges of the American Kennel Club be restored to Doctor Boultbee was carried.

Doctor Boultbee then appeared before the Board of Directors.

The Chairman: I want to say to you that we are sorry to have kept you waiting so long, but the Board has passed a resolution extending to you again the privileges of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Cutler: I was asked by one of the delegates to bring a matter before the Board, and upon reflection it seems to me it is a very good suggestion, and that is that the meetings of the Board of Directors, and I believe of all meetings of the American Kennel Club, or its Trial Board, and of its Executive Committee, unless otherwise specified, should be considered public. The suggestion which was made to me by one of the delegates is that the delegates come here, many of them, and they are asked to retire, and they go out, and the doors are shut and whatever is done takes place behind closed doors, and it is of very little interest to the delegates to come here to New York just to sit at a meeting of the Board of Delegates and then are not allowed to come in and hear what takes place before the Board of Directors. There is not anything that occurs that is at all secret. There is not anything that happens that the delegates and the public should not know about. We might as well apply this to the Trial Boards. The Boston Trial Board at its very inception inaugurated the plan of having its meetings public. We have invited the Dog Press to come, and at our first trial they were represented there. If there is anybody who wishes to come to our meetings, he is welcome, and at the last trial we had there were several spectators present. We have never seen any ill results from it. Everybody has the right to exclude the public when it is criticism which has been indulged in at the expense of the American Kennel Club has been criticism of things that do not exist; criticisms growing out of the fact that the public are excluded from our meetings, and they are led to believe that we are doing something here that we do not want them to know about. We are engaged in a quasi-public business, and the public is paying the bills, and while we are a private corporation we are still in many respects a public service corporation and we ought to realize that the public should be informed as to what we do. In all the time I have been engaged in the business of this organization there has been nothing that would suffer by being made public with the exception of a few incidents now and then. I cannot see any harm in having the press here any more than at any meeting of Board of Alderman, or any court, and we would do away with that feeling on the part of many that we are doing things behind closed doors and having star chamber proceedings and that the light of day cannot be let in on our actions. I have not given this matter a good deal of consideration. I am not dogmatic about it, but I think something should be done about it. It is perfectly proper at times for us to go into executive session. Boards of Aldermen and courts very often exclude the public when it is necessary. It is perfectly proper on occasions for us to close our doors and go into executive session, but except it should be ordered I think at meetings of our Board, if people want to come in here they ought to have the privilege. The usual experience is that when you open the doors people are not so anxious to come in as when you close them. The way to make a demand for admittance is to tell people they cannot come in. I move that unless otherwise specified by motion or order, all meetings of the American Kennel Club be considered public.

Mr. Wood: I second the motion.

Mr. Willets: There is only one Committee that I can think of where such a rule would operate badly, and that is the Membership Committee.

Mr. Cutler: I did not intend to apply it to that. I think the meetings of Committees are essentially private because their decisions do not affect the public.

The Chairman: You would leave it in the discretion of the Committee as well to go into executive session?

Mr. Cutler: Yes, they always have that right. Unless otherwise specified our meetings be considered public with the exception of standing and special Committees.

Carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

Chairman Belmont: Before reading the minutes of the last meeting, I desire to call attention to a resolution which was passed at a previous meeting offered by Mr. Samuel R. Cutler as follows: “I move, unless otherwise specified by motion or order, that all meetings of the American Kennel Club be considered public. Motion seconded and carried.” I am informed that the “Field & Fancy” has sent a representative here to report the meeting. It is for the delegates to decide. If these sessions are to be open, if that is the idea, of course, that would mean that representatives of the press would take notes of whatever was said at the meeting. If the delegates desire to go into any subject which they do not wish to have made public until they had discussed it, they could go into executive session. That would exclude everybody except the delegates. As you know, any motion that you may make with regard to the subject will be open for discussion; but there is a publication Committee which passes on everything before publication is made in the Gazette, and of course if you open your sessions so that stenographic notes can be made of the proceedings, something may be published that you would not wish published. It is for you to pass upon whether you wish to have invited guests to be present.

It was moved and seconded that the representative of “Field & Fancy” should be granted the privilege of being present at this meeting.

Carried.

Mr. Smith: I move that the minutes of the last meeting be approved as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his quarterly report. It is as follows:

New York, May 19, 1914

To the Delegates of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last meeting, I have received two applications for Active Membership.
Both are approved by the Membership Committee.

I have also received credentials from ten clubs, six of which are approved by the Membership Committee, three were laid over for the reason that they did not arrive in time to be published in the April Gazette, one was laid over because the nominee was not known by any member of the Committee, not vouched for by any person known to any member of the Committee, and one was withdrawn.

At the annual meeting held Feb 25, 1914, I reported the financial statement for the year 1913, and stated that the same had not been audited by the Finance Committee, and by direction of said Committee, the audit would be made by a duly chartered auditor. The audit was made by Messrs. Townsend and Dix, of 45 Nassau St., NYC, and was published on page 173 of the Gazette of April 30th.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The following named clubs were elected to membership:

Salinas Kennel Club of California
Newfoundland Club of America
The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs:

American Foxhound Club    Walter W. Stokes
Bull Terrier Club of America    Doctor A. P. Northridge
Chow Chow Club of America    Franklyn L. Hutton
French Bulldog Club of America    Grant Notman
Golden Gate Kennel Club    August Belmont

Mr. Berendsohn: Is no Mr. Belmont a delegate?
Chairman Belmont: Yes.

Mr. Berendsohn: How is he in the Chair?
Chairman Belmont: By virtue of being elected president at the last annual meeting.

Mr. Berendsohn: I saw that your club was dropped, and that makes you cease as a delegate and as one of the Board of Directors.
Chairman Belmont: That may be your opinion, but that is not the opinion of lawyers who have passed on the question.

Mr. Berendsohn: I have no opinion on the subject. Of course I may be wrong.
Chairman Belmont: If anybody raises the question, it can be disposed of in the proper manner, for I am advised that it is not retroactive, and I have a proper opinion to submit to you on the subject.

Mr. Berendsohn: I simply heard your name announced.
as a delegate, and I thought it was strange. I have no opinion about it.

Chairman Belmont: I have no desire to occupy this chair if I am not entitled to, but it is equally my duty to occupy it if I am, notwithstanding any opinion that might be expressed to the contrary.

Mr. John G. Bates was elected as a delegate to represent the Irish Terrier Club of America.

The report of the Publication Committee was read as follows:

New York, May 19, 1914

Mr A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary of the American Kennel Club
1 Liberty Street, NYC

Dear Sir:

The Publication Committee beg leave to report that the Stud Book for 1913 has been published and distributed, and the cost of same was $2,186.59.

Yours truly,

R. P. Keasbey
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as follows:
REPORT OF RULES COMMITTEE

May 19, 1914, New York

A communication from the Pekingese Club of America in reference to Pekingese Club Championship, the Rules Committee feel that the American Kennel Club has no jurisdiction feel that the American Kennel Club has no jurisdiction in the matter.

A communication received from M. E. Harby in reference to who is the breeder of puppies under conditions stated in the letter of Oct 21, 1913, the Committee’s decision is that the owner of the bitch is the breeder, unless there is a specified lease for breeding purposes.

Amend Rule X of the Rules Governing Dog Shows. On the first line following the words “Name of”, strike out “A”, and add the words “An unregistered”. A second paragraph of said Rule, add the following: Extract IV of Reciprocity Agreement with English Kennel Club.

“That every registered dog imported from the one Country to the other must be re-registered in its adopted country in its own name, and in every particular as registered in the country of its birth, and that if its own name be already registered in the country of its adoption by a dog of the same breed, it must still be re-registered in its own name, to be followed by the abbreviation “Eng.’ Or “AM’, as the case may be, and that no dog imported from either England or American that has been registered in accordance with this rule can be re-named.”

A proposed amendment to Rule X, referred to this Committee at the annual meeting had been considered and the Committee is of the opinion that the matter is fully covered by the existing rule.

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. Hooley

Chairman Rules Committee

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Boger: I believe it says something about a dog being registered in the land of its birth. A dog might have been brought here registered in England, and yet England would not be the country of its birth.

The Secretary: That is its adopted country. That is simply adding to the present rule clause IV of the Reciprocity Agreement with England.

Mr. Lederer: It occurs to me that possibly Mr. Boger's objection is really to this point: Suppose a dog is born in France, is then exported into England, and there registered, and then re-sold into America; the question to be presented to us on registration would be that the dog’s registration, as an English registered dog, though born in France – if that is the point, it would seem to me there is a possible objection to the phraseology. The question of its exportation would be the point aimed at by the rule.

Mr. Wood: Under our by-laws this rule cannot be adopted until published in the Gazette, and therefore it cannot be adopted until the next meeting. Why wouldn’t it be well to simply discuss it in order to make clear to ourselves what the rule means, and ascertain whether we all want it adopted or not. We cannot do anything with it at this meeting except to order it published in the next Gazette. The Rules Committee has a perfect right to change the reading of it and then publish in the Gazette for adoption at the next meeting.

Chairman Belmont: It would be necessary for you to make some motion in order to bring it before this meeting.

Mr. Wood: I move that those amendments by published in the Gazette for action at the next meeting.

Mr. Hooley: That proposed amendment is the direct wording of the Reciprocity Agreement. I can’t see how you can change that at the present time. As to the use of the words or changing of the phraseology, I do not see that it is advisable.
Chairman Belmont: That might jeopardize the Reciprocity Agreement, but it is quite within the power of the delegates to do it if they see fit.

Mr. Hunnewell: We could get around that by taking that as a part of the Reciprocity Agreement, and go further. It has never been considered by the Rules Committee or the Reciprocity Committee. It is only an agreement with the English Kennel Club that we have had anything to do with, and that we have taken out of the agreement. It is not an amendment of the rules because it is a rule. It is a rule of the American Kennel Club today. We simply added it to our rules. It was not printed in our rules.

Chairman Belmont: It is a regulation of the Stud Book Committee.

Mr. Hunnewell: It is an existing rule. We simply propose to put it in so that anything that applies to an exhibitor or dog show, they can look into the rules and see it instead of looking into the Reciprocity Agreement.

Chairman Belmont: Then I do not see how that can be acted upon at this meeting.

Mr. Wood: We cannot incorporate anything into our rules except under certain definite regulations. It has to be published in the Gazette first.
Chairman Belmont: It is in the rules.

Mr. Wood: That is a pretty technical point. Is the Reciprocity Agreement a part of the American Kennel Club rules?

Chairman Belmont: It was originally a regulation of the Stud Book Committee referring to our registrations here, and then at either the last meeting or the meeting before that it was decided to make that a part of the rules.

The Secretary: That was at the December meeting, so I think Mr. Hooley’s point is well taken, that that being a rule it is simply being incorporated into the Reciprocity Agreement. There is only one amendment that is not in the rules. That is by adding the words “An unregistered dog”; that is absolutely an amendment. The other is simply making public in our printed rules what has already been adopted.

Chairman Belmont: Then that amendment will have to pass to the next meeting.

Mr. Wood’s motion that the proposed amendment be published in the Gazette for action at the next meeting was seconded and carried.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:
It has come to the notice of this Committee that several dogs, lately imported from England, have been exhibited in this country under difference names than those under which they have been exhibited in England. As these dogs have been listed and not registered, we would recommend that the Rules Committee formulate a rule for the proper identification of all dogs which have been exhibited prior to being shown in this country.

In the matter of the application of the Miniature Bulldog Club of America, for championship ratings for miniature bulldogs, with the subsequent application of this club for Active Membership in the American Kennel Club. We can take no action on this matter until we receive the written consent from the Bulldog Club of America, covering these applications.

In the case, Robert Irick vs. Ed. Rubel – From the indefinite nature of the application, we do not see that any reasonable doubt is shown against any particular registration and therefore ewe take no action in this matter.

We recommend that the breed of Cairn Terriers be recognized.

At the December meeting of the Directors the suggestion to close the Stud Book to all American bred dogs whose parents were not registered with the American Kennel Club, was referred to this Committee.

We report as follows on this suggestion.

During the year 1913 over 10,000 registrations were made in our stud book, a very large percentage of which were American bred dogs scattered over all parts of the United States. The present method of registration has been in effect for fifteen years. It was put in effect at a time when the number of thoroughbred pedigreed dogs was very much smaller than is now the case and accordingly a closer and more thorough supervision over registrations was possible than has been the case during the last years. Our registrations now total over 180,000 and we believe the Kennel interests of the country have outgrown the present method of registration and that it would be advisable to discontinue the use of the present registration blank after Jan 1, 1915.

We would recommend that after that date registrations be accepted in our Stud Book under the following conditions.

(A) All dogs imported from England which are entered in the English Kennel Club Stud Book (not registered in English Stud Book).

(B) All dogs imported from other countries that are registered in a recognized Stud Book or whose pedigrees can be certified to by a signed certificate by the breeder of the dog to be registered.

(C) All American bred dogs whose sire and dam have been registered in the American Kennel Club Stud Book.

(D) All American bred dogs having one parent registered with the American Kennel Club, the correctness of whose pedigree can be certified to by the breeder of the dog to be registered and the owner of the unregistered parent.

(E) All American bred dogs of unregistered parents the correctness of whose pedigree is certified to by the breeder of the dog to be registered by the owner of the sire and the owner of the dam.

It will be noted that in case this method of registration is put into effect by far the easiest and simplest way to secure eligibility to registration will be for breeders every where to see that the breeding stock is registered and therefore ample notice should be given to the breeders of the country in order that they may have an opportunity to register their breeding stock and by so doing secure eligibility for registration to the progeny.

It often happens that dogs of well established pedigree are bred by non-exhibitors and those not conversant with kennel affairs who do not care to register their breeding stock. Such dogs subsequently coming into the ownership of exhibitors, often prove themselves to be not only among the best specimens of the various breeds, but also of great value to the fancy at large as producers or good stock. Such dogs owing to their quality, performances and prepotency will constitute a real addition to the American Stud Book, and it is with a view to allowing such dogs to become eligible to registration that we have suggested the method of entry into the Stud Book by certificate signed by the breeder and owner of sire and dam.

We anticipate that be far the greater proportions of American bred dogs registered will be by registered sire and dam, and that in the course of a years or two by far the greater portion of the breeding stock for show purposes will have been registered.

We believe that if the above method of registration is put into effect on Jan 1, 1915, that for a few years there may be a falling off in the number of registrations owing to the stricter requirements and consequently a loss to the club of registration fees.

How great such loss may be it is impossible for us to estimate and we therefore ask the approval of the Directors before we take any action in this matter. We believe that every much larger number of registrations of brood bitches will partly make up for any possible loss in the total number of registrations.

At present each unregistered dog must be listed at each show at a cost of $0.25. Many dogs at present are registered in order to be exhibited without payment of listing fees at every show. Some of these dogs will be ineligible for registration, if these stricter requirements go into effect. We would therefore recommend that a permanent system of listing or recording the names of these ineligible dogs be instituted at a cost of $1.00 per dog. In this way the loss in registration fees may be lessened, and the exhibitors will not be burdened with the expense of an increased number of listing fees.

We make these suggestions for the 1915 Stud Book at this time and submit them more as a working basis than as a finished plan, and during the remainder of 1914 we would welcome a thorough discussion by the fancy at large of this important matter in order that the best method of registration and of safeguarding the accuracy of our growing Stud Book may be arrived at.

We are, however, convinced that all American bred dogs whose sires and dams are registered in our Stud Book should be eligible to registration without further certificate, as we have our own records of their owners and pedigrees which will make investigations easy in case the question of the correctness of any registration is raised.

If we have the approval of the Directors in this matter, we would recommend that notice be given in the Gazette for May 31st that such requirements in regard to American bred dogs will be in effect on and after Jan 1, 1915.

W. L. Barclay
Chairman, S. B. Comm

Mr. Smith: It seems to me very advisable to have two charges for registration in this connection, a charge of $1.00 for registration where the sire and dam are registered in the American Kennel Club Stud Book, and a charge of a larger fee, whatever you want to make it, $5.00 or $10.00 or even more, for the registration of a dog where the sire or dam is unregistered. That would allow us an opportunity of looking into the matter with the view of getting a certificate from the breeder of the sire or dam, and pay for any office expense that might be incurred in more or less verifying these unregistered dogs that are up for registration, or dogs of unregistered parents.
It would also tend to make owners register any dogs that they have.

Mr. Bloodgood: It would seem to me that that would put the American Kennel Club to a tremendous amount of work. If I were to register a dog it is my duty to see that he was registered that way. It is not the question of a charge.

Mr. Wood: I move that the report of the Stud Book Committee be accepted and published in the Gazette in order that we may all have an opportunity to read it over and consider it carefully.

Motion seconded and carried.

Chairman Belmont resigned the Chair to Mr. Hunnewell.

Mr. Belmont: I rise to a question of personal privilege. I desire to detain the delegates as short a time as possible. You gentlemen have been made familiar in a certain portion of the kennel press with the correspondence that has taken place between Dr. De Mund and myself in which I declined to enter into a correspondence with him, and stated to him that the proper place to consider that subject was here before the delegates. That is a position which I deemed not only I should take as your executive officer, but I should follow that course with regard to any question.
that I might have at issue with any other delegate or any member of the Kennel Club. I think it unwise, if not to a certain extent contrary to the best interests of the club, that every subject of contention between two individuals be debated in the public press prior to bringing it before the meeting of the delegates. It makes for the appearance of lack of harmony in our organization when perhaps that does not exist at all. Certainly it does not exist so far as I am concerned, and therefore I have declined, and in this particular instance it was for this reason: You have seen fit to place in the hands of a Publication Committee discretion as to what should be published of our proceedings, and it appears that they omitted to publish certain remarks that I made at the time which covered sufficiently, in my opinion at all events, the question that Dr. De Mund raised in his letter, and it was for that reason that I felt that here was the place, if what I said did not prove to be satisfactory, and it was your wish that any further statement on my part should be made, that I was prepared to do that in a manner that I felt justified. That was my reason and I shall in the future adopt the same course. I cannot, after all my association with this Kennel Club, be persuaded that it is good for us to constantly have debates in the newspapers on questions which are really to come up before you for decision. Any one who indulges in that method I feel is not acting for the best interests of this club, because it gives the public the idea that we are disagreeing. For instance, it has brought out a telegraphic offer from the coast and another letter from some other club offering me the position of delegate to represent them, they thinking that I had ceased to have any connection with this organization. As I stated from the chair in answer to a query as to my eligibility for office, that is subject to counsel. It is for you to take up the subject of eligibility under our rules. In the meanwhile I have to be guided by Judge Cutler, whom I have consulted in the matter.

Dr. De Mund: I should like to speak to a question of personal privilege. I quite agree with Mr Belmont that the public press is not the place to take matters. I have never gone to the public press, but when the president took it upon himself to get up in this body and make certain absolutely and unqualifiedly false statements about me, and at the next meeting of the American Kennel Club when I denied those statements, the publication Committee cut out my denial and would not give me ordinary justice or fair play, the only pace that was left to me to go to was to the public press, and that was the reason I took it up there. Mr. Belmont’s statements concerning me at that meeting that I have referred to were absolutely false (They were a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end.)

Mr. Belmont: I object to that. You have no business to make any such statement as that. They were not false. I stated in this meeting that they were made on information and belief, and I now state that so far as my information goes I still believe them. I believe what I was told, and it is necessary for you to prove otherwise.

Dr. De Mund: It is not necessary for me to prove otherwise. Mr. Belmont makes statements which are, I say, a tissue of falsehoods, and the records of the American Kennel Club will prove it. It is not a question of his word or mine. As I stated to him at this time, the records of the American Kennel Club are here. They will prove the falsity of those statements.

Mr. Belmont: I must ask that these remarks be stricken from the record because the language used is unparliamentarily.

Motion seconded and carried.

Dr. De Mund: It is easy enough to strike these remarks from the record, but no action has been taken on the remarks of the President about myself which were true; and also no action was taken about striking my remarks out at the last meeting.

Chairman Hunnewell: What remarks are you referring to?

Dr. De Mund: My replies to the President. They were not stricken from the record as being unparliamentarily at the Feb meeting where I replied to the President. I do not think I have said anything unparliamentarily, if there is justice and fair play of the American Kennel Club.

Chairman Hunnewell: I do not know what you are talking about, so I do not know what you want brought before the meeting. If you will make some definite motion we can discuss it.

Dr. De Mund: I have stated that my reply to the President was stricken out, not by order of the delegates, but were just cut out ----

Chairman Hunnewell: (Interrupting) Why don't you make a motion that they should be restored?

Dr. De Mund: Because I don't care.

Mr. Belmont: I think a resolution should be offered at this meeting to cover this subject properly. Dr. De Mund addressed me on a certain subject to which I have replied. I have replied in great detail. In my letter I called upon every Chairman of Committees to furnish you the information which would prove the allegations of Dr. De Mund. I brought this subject before the Kennel Club. The result of it was that the Kennel Club was ordered to investigate Dr. De Mund’s charges, and that Committee’s report did not sustain the charges. It sustained some minor feature of them. I do not think in all my experience that I have ever read such sweeping charges against an organization with so little to sustain them as those of Dr. De Mund. The particular exception that Dr. De Mund made to my statement was that I said something to the effect – I cannot give you the exact words – that the question which he had with Doctor Boultbee was a personal one. That is according to my understanding of the matter and as reported to me and as since explained to me, personal because the remarks were personal to him; referred to him. The question at issue between Doctor Boultbee and Dr. De Mund was personal. One charged the other with certain remarks that were insulting, and then they were taken to the American Kennel Club. I still believe those were personal remarks. My statement was based on information and belief. Everybody knows who was present, who could make the statement, even the Committee that reported it, had no actual information such as Dr. De Mund intimates, and I think that it is time for this Association to take some action with regard to Dr. De Mund’s method of doing things, because they are subversive of the discipline that you should wish to exercise over your organization. For instance, I am unable to extract from Dr. De Mund just what he means after all, and I doubt if any Committee can. In all this jumble of accusations against the Secretary, against this, that and the other, all you have to do is to read those letters and my reply, and I hope and trust that somebody will plan a way to have those remarks of mine, whatever they were, published. There was no reason why they should not be published. I should be very glad to repeat them. I still believe them. I cannot make them assertions as facts because I was not there, but I have no reason to change my opinion, and there, but I have no reason to change my opinion, and they were sustained in a great measure by the report of the Committee. If this controversy is to be made personal —- because I cannot permit a man to tell me that I speak a falsehood, for it is impossible for me to admit it — it requires me to submit to you ruling with regard to it. If Dr. De Mund should say that to me anywhere else where the privilege of an ordinary man exists, of course I would have to answer for that, but here in your deliberations and as your officer it is my duty to do certain things, and I reported to you the facts as I understood them and as they were reported to me. To cover Dr. De Mund’s complaint, it would have been unthinkable if I had not brought this subject to your attention. It would have been wrong if I had not done it. I took the time and trouble to try and find out if there was any basis for what Dr. De Mund said, and I rehearsed the situation and rehearsed his connection with all these matters. If we have to descend to Billingsgate in these meetings – I do not believe that you will submit to it for a moment. I trust that when we come here for debate, we can come here as gentlemen; that if we make statements that we cannot sustain, we will be willing to retract them. I have nothing to retract. I simply had the explanation to make that those statements were upon information, and I cannot retract that unless I make those who informed me retract what they said. Otherwise I would state what is not true. I said what is true because I said what was said to me. Gentlemen, I think I have explained the matter fully, and I am willing to submit to anything with regard to an explanation that you desire me to make in connection with this matter, but I do not want to take your time. I think it is high time, however, that you should do one thing or the other; oblige delegates to conform themselves to the rules and regulations of this club; that if they have accusations to make to bring them before it, and then when they have had the subject of their accusations brought before a Committee, passed upon by a Committee, that that should be the end of it. I am certainly in favor of the most active debate on any question. I think it would be unfortunate if our interests lagged by reason of the fact that we did not discuss them sufficiently, and I believe that when a man has an opinion as to the policy of this club, as to the meaning and bearing of a rule, or anything of that kind, that it is his duty to go on and go on until he has to stop and give it up – continue in his endeavors to carry out what he thinks is for the best interests and bring about any amendment of change that he thinks ought to be brought about. That is proper. But the perversion of our powers here, the use of powers which should not be in it, the dragging in of personal matters before you, I think it is time that you should take some action, because it looks to those who are outside as if there was something radically wrong. Perhaps there is. I cannot see it. I have been unable to find out from any one that there is anything radically wrong with this organization. If there is something radically wrong in Dr. De Mund’s opinion, and he was not satisfied with what had taken place, but tried to drag me into a correspondence which would open a subject which I am not at liberty to discuss in that way, that would be radically wrong.

Dr. De Mund: First, I would like to say that when I spoke of a tissue of falsehoods I did not refer to Mr. Belmont, -- I say this for my own sake -- that he himself knew they were, but that he had been informed, as he says he was informed to that effect, that he had been informed that way. Now Mr. Belmont has again tried to becloud the issue a little bit.

Chairman Hunnewell: What is the issue?

Dr. De Mund: I am speaking to a question of personal privilege in answer against the Secretary, and so on. They have been settled. An Investigation Committee was appointed, and those charges were brought before them and their report was final. I have nothing to say about that. I have said nothing to Mr. Belmont about it. What I take exception to is Mr. Belmont dragging in at a meeting that he took part in, Doctor Boultbee, and accusing me of sending a message to Doctor Boultbee, when I got up in this meeting and said I had letters in my pocket from the gentleman who was supposed to act as the messenger, that I would produce them, that no such thing occurred, that no such message was sent to Doctor Boultbee by me. I had no correspondence. I don't know Doctor Boultbee. Mr. Belmont said that Doctor Boultbee made a personal attack upon me. As I explained at that time, it was not personal. Doctor Boultbee attacked two judges of the American Kennel Club officiating at a show in their judicial capacity. He says as an officer of this organization I brought charges against Doctor Boultbee as an individual, put up my $10.00 the same was anybody else. The Trial Board found that Doctor Boultbee's statements were absolutely unfounded, and they disqualified Doctor Boultbee. Those are the remarks that I take exception to that Mr. Belmont made, not any question in regard to what happened before that. That is settled and over with, and I am not going into that. I did not speak about that at that time, but Mr. Belmont made three separate and distinct statements in regard to myself and Doctor Boultbee which were not so, which were absolutely false, and that is what I ask to have retracted.

Mr. Belmont: If my letter which was alluded to is read, it will be seen that it does not state what Dr. De Mund said. That language is not used, and the reference to this subject is quite immaterial. So far as I am concerned I state again that such information as I received I have no reason to retract, because I made those statements upon information. Notwithstanding Dr. De Mund’s denial, I cannot say that it is not so because I had no information beyond what I was told; but there is no reason why what I said at that meeting should not be published, and I trust someone will bring the subject up so that my remarks may be published.

Mr. Lederer: I came to this meeting instructed by the Colorado Kennel Club, whose delegate I have the honor to be, to refer to the very matter now under discussion. I hesitated to touch upon it earlier because it was more or less of a delicate matter, but the general discussion having led right up to the matter, I beg your leave to present the following proposed resolution on behalf of the Colorado Kennel Club.

“WHEREAS, the report of the regular meeting of the Delegates held on the 25th day of Feb, 1914, as published by order of the Publication Committee in THE AMERICAN KENNEL GAZETTE of 28 Feb 1914, omits setting forth certain statements of the Chairman, the President of the Club and of Dr. De Mund, a delegate to Boultbee by me. I had no correspondence. I don't know Dr. Boultbee. Mr. Belmont said that Dr. Boultbee made a personal attack upon me. As I explained at that time, it was not personal. Dr. Boultbee attacked two judges of the American Kennel Club officiating at a show in their judicial capacity. He says as an officer of this organization I brought charges against Dr. Boultbee. I did not. I brought charges against Dr. Boultbee as an individual, put up my $10.00 the same as anybody else. Those are the remarks that I take exception to that Mr. Belmont made, not any question in regard to what happened before that. That is settled and over with, and I am not going into that. I did not speak about that at that time, but Mr. Belmont made three separate and distinct statements in regard to myself and Dr. Boultbee which were not so, which were absolutely false, and that is what I ask to have retracted.

MR. BELMONT: If my letter which was alluded to is read, it will be seen that it does not state what Dr. DeMund said. That language is not used, and the reference to this subject is quite immaterial. So far as I am concerned I state again that such information as I received I have no reason to retract, because I

Notwithstanding Dr. DeMund's denial, I cannot say that it is not so "because I had no information beyond what I was told; but there is no reason why what I said at that meeting should not be published, and I trust someone will bring the subject up so that my remarks may be published.

MR. LEDEKER: I came to this meeting instructed by the Colorado Kennel Club, whose delegate I have the honor to be, to refer to the very matter now under discussion. I hesitated to touch upon it earlier because it was more or less of a delicate matter, but the general discussion having led right up to the matter, I beg your leave to present the following proposed resolution on behalf of the Colorado Kennel Club:

"WHEREAS, the report of the regular meeting of the Delegates held on the 25th day of February, 1914, as published by order of the Publication Committee in THE AMERICAN KENNEL GAZETTE of 28 February 1914, omits setting forth certain statements of the Chairman, the President of the Club, and of Dr. DeMund, a Delegate to the Club representing the Russian Wolfhound Club, which statements appear at length in the original stenographer's minutes of the said Meeting; and

WHEREAS, it is the sense and opinion of the Colorado Kennel Club, an active member of the American Kennel Club, that the ends of justice will best be served by the appearance of the said statements of the official report of the said meeting;

NOW, THEREFORE, the said Colorado Kennel Club hereby offers the following resolution, to wit:-

BE IT RESOLVED that the official report of the proceedings at the regular Delegates' Meeting of 25th February, 1914, as published in THE AMERICAN KENNEL GAZETTE of 28 February, 1914, be, and the same hereby is, emended by adding thereto the following matter, extracted from the stenographer's minutes of the said meeting:-

'Dr. De Mund:  x  x  x Furthermore it says: 'This office of the American Kennel Club sends somebody to tell Dr. Boultbee that if he apologizes to him, the officer, it would be all right.' That statement was not made. The President of this Club makes that bald statement. That is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. I have letters in my possession from the gentlemen who were supposed to act as messengers denying absolutely that anything of that sort took place, and I appeal now to the Delegates of this Club in all Justice and fair play, to have that statement retracted in the Gazette, and I challenge
Mr. Belmont:  I second that motion.
   Carried.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

Mr. H. H. Hunnewell, in the Chair.

Upon motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows;

New York, May 19, 1914.

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel club. Gentlemen:

I have the honor to report the following matters that have come to hand since our last meeting.
The decision of the Boston Trial Board in the case of Grierson vs. Earnshaw, and the decision of the San Francisco Trial Board in the case of Wilson vs. The Ladies’ Kennel Association of Southern California. The above decision will be published in the current issue of the Gazette.

A communication from the Toy Dog Club of New England on the subject of the conflict of show dates. This matter should be referred to the License Committee.

A request from the National Fox Hunters Association for an amendment to acknowledge the All Age Stake of said Club for Championship honors. I would recommend that this matter be referred to the Field Trial Committee.

Communications from Philadelphia in reference to the organization known as The Quaker City Allied Kennel Association. These letters and the Constitution and By-Laws of said Association will be read for your further information.

An appeal from Edwin Main Post for the reinstatement of his Kennel Name "Empost", the same having been cancelled for reason of the non-payment of maintenance fee.

I was obliged, under the rules, to impose a penalty of $28.00 against the Minneapolis Kennel Club for its failure to remit the listing fees during the expiration of twenty-eight days, after the seven days allowed by the Rules. The Secretary excuses the delay, giving as a reason, the illness of the President and a death in his family.

I have correspondence between Prank T. Carlton and President Belmont on the subject of Mr. Carlton's disqualification.

I beg to submit the bill for disbursements from our Western Agent from February 21st to May 11th inclusive, amounting to $30.13. This bill appears to be correct and I would recommend the payment of same.

Our Vice-President, Mr. H. K. Bloodgood, recommends that the entry forms for the several shows held under American Kennel Club Rules should be uniform, and has submitted a form for consideration. I recommend that same be referred to our License Committee for its consideration with instructions to report at the next meeting of the Club.

Excuses have been received from Messrs. George S. West, Howard Willets, Charles W. Keyes, and S. R. Cutler, who find it impossible to attend this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Treasurer was read as follower

TREASURER'S REPORT.

To the Board of Directors of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit the financial report from January 1, 1914 to date:-

BALANCE - Jan. 1. 1914 $20,803.01
RECEIPTS TO DATE . 11,157.59
TOTAL $31,960.60
DISBURSEMENTS 11,285.35
BALANCE ON HAND . $20,677.25

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: The first matter is the question of the decisions of the Trial Board. As a rule they are never reported. They are published in the Gazette, and then anyone has the right to appeal within thirty days. Then it comes "before the Kennel Club; but in this case of the Boston Trial Board, they have a recommendation to make which I think it would be well for you to hear. This was a charge of A. M. Grierson vs. Earnshaw. The case came before the Board upon a claim of an unpaid special which the plaintiff contends the defendant had offered, and although she had properly won the same, he had failed, to deliver it to her in accordance with the terms under which the same was offered. I submit the correspondence in the matter to you.

MR. WOOD: I move the matter be referred to the Rules Committee for further action.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the communication from the Toy Dog Club of New England on the subject of conflicting show dates was referred to the License Committee.

It was moved and seconded that the request from the National Pox Hunters Association for an amendment to acknowledge the All Age Stake of said club for Championship honors, be referred to the Field Trial Committee.

Carried.

The Secretary read the correspondence in relation to the organization known as the Quaker City Allied Kennel Association.

MR. WOOD: I would suggest that the Secretary write to these gentlemen, calling their attention to our rule which prohibits the holding of any show antagonistic to the rules of the American Kennel Club, and that further than that we have no jurisdiction.
Chairman Hunnewell: They claim they are not antagonistic. That is a question for us to decide.

THE SECRETARY: As I understand the matter, these clubs cannot become members of the American Kennel Club, nor can they be licensed by the American Kennel Club to hold shows. Therefore they have formed this organization.

MR. SMITH: I would like to know why they cannot become members of this club, or be licensed to hold shows?

THE SECRETARY: Because they have to get the written approval of the Kennel Clubs in Philadelphia to hold a show.

CHAIRMAN HUNNEWELL: I do not see how we can take cognizance of anything like that.

MR. HOOLEY: We could not stop them from holding a show if they decided to do so.

MR. BLOODGOOD: It seems to me that it means practically the formation of another American Kennel Club. I do not think that we should take cognizance of them. We cannot recognize any organization which proposes to pass rules and have Trial Boards and pass on these different offences, and so forth. If they are going to do that we want to understand it,

MR. BOGER: I belong to about four or five of those clubs today. They are clubs that give monthly shows. They are held by men who work in mills, and they breed these dogs, and they keep them in their kitchens and in their dining rooms and bring their dogs out to these shows where they may have an opportunity to sell their puppies, and I know dogs that they have raised and brought out that way which have received championships. At some of these shows there has been a rough house, and that is what these people want to get at. Their blacklist does not mean what our blacklist means. They mean if when Judging goes on a man comes up and starts a rough house, he would not be permitted to come up and show at the next meeting. It is a good thing for the game. We have control of all matters. They could not do anything at any show that we would not control, because our rules reach dogs, dog shows, and so forth. I do not think it is a matter for the Kennel Club at all, so long as they have no rules which conflict with the American Kennel Club.

MR. HOOLEY: Why is this matter brought up to this club, and what have we got to do with it? The formation of a club down there, even if it very small, is a nucleus which might grow into something. It may be a small thing now, but it may be Pittsburgh next, and they may have a State Association.
MR. BOGER: It seems to me that we are only picking someone else's chestnuts out of the fire. I have gone into this matter thoroughly, and that is one reason I wetted to be at the Directors meeting today. I think the whole thing has fallen through by this time. There have been many resignations because they could not get along with one another.

MR. KOOLEY: I think it would be a very dangerous expedient for this club to recognize in any way a club or group of clubs in that way, because we do not recognize any other organization. The National Dog Breeders do not recognize it, and the question is whether a man judging under that rule- would not be disqualified by the American Kennel Club.

CHAIRMAN HUNNEWELL: The National Breeders Association has been antagonistic to the American Kennel Club.

MR. WOOD: As a matter of courtesy to a dog man who perhaps may be an associate member of the American Kennel Club, I think it would only be necessary to send them a copy of the American Kennel Club rules.

MR. HOOLEY: I think we should go on record to the effect that we do not recognize them.

CHAIRMAN HUNNEWELL: We might inform them that we could not acknowledge any such formation of clubs, but that so long as they choose to hold their shows in a manner not antagonistic to us, we have nothing to say. If there in no objection the Secretary will be so empowered to write.

THE SECRETARY: The Stud Book Committee has had a rule for many years in regard to the granting of an annual kennel name, which carries with it a maintenance fee to be paid within thirty days of the first day of January. I sent out the bills on the 30th day of November for January payment, and instead of cancelling those unpaid on the 1st of February, I sent out a final bill in the middle of February, and those that had not paid on the 1st of March, I cancelled their kennel name. I have received a communication from Mr. Edwin Main Post, stating that he had not received the notice that his kennel name was cancelled, and asking that it be restored to him. He took the Kennel Club to task for not ignoring his address on the kennel blank, the only address of record we had. He said we might have known he had an office at Ho. Ill Broadway, and that it should be sent there. I showed him that his bills for the two previous years had been sent to Babylon, and he had paid them, and this time we had sent two bills, and neither one of them had been returned as not being found, and that his kennel name, together with about thirty others, was cancelled.

MR. SMITH: I move that Mr. Post be instructed that he can renew his kennel name by making out a new application, on the payment of $5.00.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then brought up the matter of the penalty of $28.00 imposed by him under the rules against the Minneapolis Kennel Club for its failure to remit listing fees within the time prescribed, and read the correspondence in regard thereto.

MR. STEWART: I move that the Secretary be instructed to write to this club and ask what connection the President of the Club has with the sending of the check.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary submitted the correspondence between Mr. Frank T. Carlton and President Belmont, on the subject of the former's disqualification.

THE SECRETARY: You will recall that Mr. Carlton threatened to commence suit against the American Kennel Club, and you will probably also recall that at the December meeting the matter was turned over to Mr. Belmont to see if he could not arrange the matter to the mutual satisfaction of both Mr. Carlton and the American Kennel Club. Mr. Belmont saw Mr. Carlton and his proposed action was temporarily suspended. He now writes to Mr. Belmont demanding that action be taken on this disqualification, and Mr. Belmont sent it to me to bring up at this meeting and notify Mr. Carlton that he would bring it before the American Kennel Club at this meeting. If you take any action on this request or demand, I will state that the usual action is to send the cage back to the Trial Board with directions to reopen the case. Otherwise the only way this matter could be acted upon would be for it to come up on appeal to the Executive Committee. There is no appeal.

MR. WOOD: I move that the matter be referred to the New York Trial Board for investigation, not to take any action, but refer the matter back either to the Board of Directors or to the Executive Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bill for disbursements from the Western Agent from February 21st to May 11th inclusive, amounting to $30.13, was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: At the last meeting of the Kennel Club Mr. Robert Sedgwick, Jr., was made a director. The question was raised at that meeting by Dr. Berendsohn that he understood that Mr. Sedgwick had resigned as a delegate, and at that time Mr. Sedgwick had not resigned as a delegate, but some little time after the February meeting he sent in his resignation as a delegate, and I understand from him that he desires to retire as a director. That being so, there is a vacancy on the Board of Directors in the class expiring in 1919.

Mr. Stewart: I nominate Mr. Edward L. Boger for that vacancy.

On motion, nominations were closed.

On motion the secretary was directed for the class expiring in 1919. The secretary stated that he had cast such vote.

THE SECRETARY: I submit the recommendation of Mr. Bloodgood to prepare a uniform form for entries at dog shows to be used all over the country where shows are held under American Kennel Club rules. He sent to me a form that has been adopted by the English Kennel Club, in which there are some very excellent ideas in my opinion, and I would like to state in this connection that some six years ago I suggested the same thing, and it was voted down by the delegates, the idea of the opposition being that it was purely domestic matter; that the clubs could make up any form of entry blank that they pleased. I am now very glad that it has been brought up by one of the Vice-Presidents.

Mr. Wood: I move that it be referred to the License Committee, and the publication Committee jointly, to draw up a proper form of entry blank, to be submitted to the Board of Directors.

    Motion seconded and carried.

    On motion the excuses of Messrs. George S. West, Howard Willets, Charles W. Keyes and S. R. Cutler, for absence at this meeting, were accepted.

    MR. HOOLEY: On several occasions the question has been asked of me in regard to the Judges at some of the shows, the possibility of their being professional handlers. I think we all know one or two cases where being professional handlers are Judges, and I do not think the men have ever made any suggestion or pretended that they were not, and now the question is whether it is the Secretary's duty to write to these shows. I certainly think something should be done. The rule is now that we do not allow professional handlers to judge, and the question is whether the shows who allow them to judge should be the sufferers or whether we can in any way prevent their being put on the list.

    On motion the matter was referred to the License Committee.

    On motion the meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The following named clubs were duly elected to membership:

- Pacific Coast Collie Club.
- New Jersey Beagle Club.
- New Bedford District Kennel Club.

The application of the Peninsula Kennel Club was not approved by the San Mateo Kennel Club, and is not therefore approved by the Membership Committee.

THE SECRETARY: The application of the Southampton Kennel Club was received too late for publication in the Gazette, and therefore cannot be acted upon at this meeting.
The following named gentlemen were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Empire Beagle Club: George A. Flammer.
Chicago Collie Club: H. B. Hungerford.

The credentials from the Chicago Kennel Club, appointing Mr. M. M. Palmer its delegate, were read, and upon a ballot being taken Mr. Palmer failed of election.

The Secretary: There are two credentials here that came in proper time, but the candidates were not known to any of the members of the Committee, nor were they vouched for by any person known to any member of the Committee, so these credentials will have to be laid over until the next meeting. There are two other credentials that came in on September 3rd, too late for publication in the Gazette, and therefore they must be laid over until the next meeting. There was one credential that came from the far west, and the delegate therein named has sent notice that he must decline to serve.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

September 15, 1914.

To the Delegates of The American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

Since my last quarterly report, I have received five applications for Active Membership and several Credentials from Clubs appointing Delegates, all of which have been turned over to the membership Committee for its action.

Several amendments to the Rules have been proposed. The same were duly published in the Gazette, as were also the minutes of the Rules Committee held August 11, 1914 withholding its approval of the proposed amendments.

Mr. A. M. Lederer filed an appeal from the decision of a protest of the Southampton Kennel Club which was not sustained.

The New York Trial Board has filed a communication asking the Delegates to consider three alternative propositions as Rules for its guidance with the request that the matter be acted upon at this meeting.

In the matter of Frank T. Carlton, which was referred to the New York Trial Board for its consideration, I beg to say that the Board has acted on same, and its report will be submitted to you at this meeting.

I will submit the communication from Mr. Walter W. Stettheimer on the subject of affairs on the Pacific Coast.

Notice has been received from the California
Airedale Terrier Club that it has accepted the resignation of Mr. G. A. Wertheim as its Delegate.

A communication from the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee has just been received, and you are notified that their proposed change in the registration regulations will be reported upon fully at the December meeting.

A communication from the Pekingese Club of America to Doctor S. F. Goldwater regarding the section known as 80A of the Sanitary Code will be presented, as will also communications referring to the proposed amendments to the Rules.

On motion the same was adopted.

The Secretary: The matter of the Frank T. Carlton disqualification by a former Trial Board was referred to the present Trial Board for further action in the case of Mr. Carlton’s appeal to remove the action of the original Trial Board from our records. I read the report of the Trial Board that acted on the matter:

A MEETING OF THE NEW YORK TRIAL BOARD.

Held August 18, 1914

In the matter of Frank T. Carlton.

This matter has been referred to the New York Trial Board, by resolution of the Board of Directors under date of 19th of May, 1914. It arises upon correspondence from the said Carlton asking that his disqualification be deleted from the records of the Kennel Club. The matter is referred to this Trial Board, “for investigation, not to take action, but to refer the matter back either to the Board of Directors or to the Executive Committee”. This Board acting merely within the instructions of the aforesaid resolution of the Board of Directors, has carefully considered all the evidence in the case afforded by the records on file, and has come to the following conclusions hereon:-

It appears that the respondent Carlton was cited to attend before the Investigating Committee in the month of September 1912 in connection with an attack published in his publication, "International Dogs", against the list of judges proposed for the Lenox, Mass. show. The said Carlton failed to appear before the Investigating Committee and action was taken, as published in the American Kennel Gazette of the 31st of December 1912, suspending the said Carlton and referring the case to the New York Trial Board or such action as might appear proper. This report of the Investigating Committee was accepted and its recommendations adopted by resolution of the Board of Directors at a meeting held the 17th day of December, 1912. On the 18th of December the said Carlton was cited to appear before the New York Trial Board. This he also failed to do, and the said Trial Board on the 31st of December 1912, upon due consideration of the evidence before it, found said Carlton guilty of conduct prejudicial to the welfare of dog shows and “ordered that all the privileges of the American Kennel Club be denied him”.

This Trial Board, upon a further careful consideration of the evidence, is of the opinion that the aforesaid disqualification was well founded upon the facts submitted, and should stand.

A. C. Wilmerding,
Chairman.

MR. BOGER: I move its adoption.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: This matter is really one to be referred to the Directors for action, but it was laid before the Delegates for their general information.

THE SECRETARY: Under the circumstances, as it will be impossible to obtain a quorum of the Board of Directors today on account of the number of absentees, will that necessitate withholding this from publication?

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: Not in my opinion. I think it should be published in the next month’s Gazette as a part of our proceedings.
MR. WOOD: I would like to know why it must go before the Board of Directors if the delegates have power to act on it.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: It was the direction of the Board of Directors that the matter should be reported back to them, not to take the usual action of disqualification or otherwise.

MR. WOOD: Am I incorrect in understanding that the delegates, desiring to take certain action, can take up a matter and say what they think should be done about it? They can tell the Board of Directors to adopt it or not.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: Yes. As it is unlikely that a meeting of the Board of Directors will be held today, if it is the pleasure of the delegates to pass on the report of this Trial Board, I think there is nothing to prevent their doing so.

MR. BARNARD: I move that this report be approved.

MR. COLLINS: I move as an amendment that the delegates recommend to the Board of Directors the adoption of this report.

Amendment seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have here a report from the New York Trial Board asking the decision of this meeting on three alternative propositions or suggestions as rules for its guidance and request that the matter be acted upon at this meeting.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: As a member of the Trial Board I desire to state that the Board felt that it had here a large question to deal with, and it prefers to act upon the guidance of the delegates and the pleasure of the delegates in the future. The three possible alternatives are presented in this report, and it is for you gentlemen to adopt or to advise the Trial Board as to which of the three you think should be the law. We have acted, as a matter of fact, in the case of Mr. Laurin, who was a Canadian, and the question arose upon charges filed by an American officer and resident of the City here against Mr. Laurin, a Canadian. It appeared that some charges had been filed prior thereto with the Canadian Kennel Club, and had been dismissed by the Canadian Kennel Club. The complainant filed the charges with the American Kennel Club, and the Trial Board was placed in the position of either having to entertain the charges and possibly coming to a decision different from that which the Canadian Kennel Club had arrived at in spite of the reciprocity agreement, or agreeing with the decision of the Canadian Kennel Club. The Trial Board held that it should not take jurisdiction in such a case, but under the agreement a man might be regarded as innocent in one of the countries within the terms of the agreement, and as guilty and disqualified over here, which would be an anomaly. We should like by motion and action of this board of delegates some guidance as to what rule is to be adopted in such a case.

MR. BARNARD: I would like to ask whether a Canadian coming to a New York show, if there was a charge of misconduct brought against him, would that have to be brought before the Canadian Kennel Club?

THE CHAIRMAN: That would be a matter for the show-giving club to deal with. Of course, you would have jurisdiction of the man who would be here and showing at the time the wrong was committed. This case is one where the wrong was alleged to have been committed in Canada in the sale of a dog.

THIS SECRETARY: The rules provide that any misconduct at any show held under American Kennel Club rules must first be acted upon by the show-giving club at which the misconduct occurred, and it cannot come before the American Kennel Club until that club has acted.

DR. DE MUND: Do I understand the Secretary to say that any charges of misconduct must be preferred first to the club that is holding the show before they can come state that the members of the San Francisco Trial Board have resigned, and after some correspondence I received telegraphic communication yesterday and today, in which they have suggested the names of three men who are very well known, men of affairs and men of social standing who are willing, although much against their desires, to serve the Kennel Club if the club desires to elect them on that board. They are Mr. C. W. Conlisck, N. T. Messer and O. F. Vedder. I do not know Mr. Conlisck, but I know the others very well, and I think it would be to the advantage of the American Kennel Club, so long as they are willing to serve us, to accept their services. Further than that I have persuaded Mr. Vedder to accept the appointment as permanent western agent for the American Kennel Club. I think most of the delegates here know Mr. Vedder. He was the Secretary of the French Bulldog Club for a number of years, and he was a delegate here with you for a number of years.

MR. WOOD: May I ask if Mr. Vedder, who has been our temporary agent out there, recommends these other men.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, very highly. I should also state in that connection that in these wires, both from Mr. Vedder and from Mr. Stettheimer, it is stated that these two gentlemen were persuaded to accept positions on that Board provided that Mr. Vedder should tie the third man.

MR. COLLINS: In the case of Mr. Vedder we know he is familiar with dog matters, but I would like to ask if the other two gentlemen are sufficiently acquainted with dog matters to act intelligently.

THE SECRETARY: I should say so. Mr. Conlisck was also on the Board. It was moved and seconded that the Secretary's action be confirmed, and that these gentlemen be duly appointed the Trial Board on the Pacific Coast.

Carried.

It was also moved and seconded that Mr. 0. P. Vedder be appointed western agent of the American Kennel Club at San Francisco, with the usual jurisdiction.

Carried.

DR. DE MUND: I move that the matter of the compensation of the western agent be referred to the Finance Committee with power.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: If I remember right, Mr. Norman had to step out as an active member of the Pacific Advisory Committee because he was a paid employee.

DR. DE MUND: There is no longer any Pacific
Advisory Committee.

THE SECRETARY: The duty is entirely dissimilar. I would like to state that the duties of the western agent are simply to approve of classifications and to transmit such communications as come to him from the Coast to this office. The Pacific Advisory Committee were entirely different. They were actually the American Kennel Club on the Coast, and anything they did was binding unless there was an appeal from their decision within thirty days.

THE SECRETARY: I received the following communication from Mr. Stettheimer dated July 29th, 1914:

"When the Advisory Committee resigned a year and a half ago it did so because it was convinced its utility was ended and that a different form of government was necessary if the development of the Coast was to be progressive. The action of the delegates in appointing a Trial Board and an agent to replace the old committee was, in my opinion, a step backwards and subsequent results have borne out that I was correct in my contentions. It is a matter of comparative ease for the American Kennel Club to develop a territory directly adjacent to its headquarters, and for that reason the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts are a source of prosperity to the AKC because you have done excellent work in creating and developing interests. The balance of the country is practically undeveloped. The AKC is especially weak in the Middle West, and the entire south is Virgin country, excepting when Dr. Clayton passes through occasionally and gives a few shows of his own. When I went on the Advisory Committee in 1905 there were three or four clubs on the entire coast. When we resigned in 1913 there were something like twenty-five. They are getting less and I fear they will not increase unless more strenuous efforts are made on your part. Without knowing the conditions of the Middle West and the South, it is safe to say that unless you have more active sub-committees in different parts of the United States you will not get the desired results.

THE SECRETARY: I now bring to your attention the proposed amendments to the Rules:

"We, the undersigned delegates to the American Kennel Club, urged by many breeders and exhibitors, request that the following be added: A paragraph to the Rules governing shows: 'No dog born after January 1, 1915 whose ears have been cropped shall be eligible for competition at shows held under these rules.' We further request that this be considered as a motion presented by us, and that it be brought before your Committee at the next meeting. We are desirous that the greatest publicity possible within the province of your Committee be given to this motion. To this end we trust your Committee will see its way to having the motion together with this motion published in the next current issue of the American Kennel Gazette".

Theodore Offerman,
John G. Bates,
Theodore Crane

I received a similar one on June 5th addressed to Mr. A. G. Hooley, Chairman of the Rules Committee. I received still another proposed amendment to the Rules on May 25th. These proposed amendments were duly published in the Gazette and referred to the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee held a meeting on August 11th and their report was also published in the Gazette. We now have an amendment to the amendment which was published:

"August 15.
American Kennel Club.
To the Rules Committee:

Gentlemen:

I desire to offer the following amendment to our Rules regarding dogs on exhibition at various shows:

"No dog born on or after January 1, 1915 shall be eligible for competition whose tail has been cut, coat plucked, ears cropped or in any way mutilated or changed from his form at birth."
MR. WOOD: In order to save a lot of time, if the delegates want to save it, I move that the question of cutting dogs ears, tails and various other things referred to, be laid on the table.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the following proposed amendment:

“The American bred class shall be for all dogs bred in the United States of America”.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: There are not more than two or three breeds which have actual competition in the champions. We show very few dogs for that very same reason in the American bred class. If it was open to all we would have a much larger number in the classes.

DR. DE MUND: I do not think that the Rules Committee gave that amendment proper attention. I find that in shows I have been connected with that the American bred classes never fill. On inquiry from exhibitors as to why that is so, I receive the answer: My dog is a champion; I cannot compete in that class. Another thing, a great many of the shows are trying to make the American bred class a money class, offering money in that class.
They cannot do it very well because champions are barred from the class, and it is a class that does not fill. As for encouraging the novice, I cannot see how it does that. They have not taken advantage of it. I simply state that at the request of a great many exhibitors.

MR. HARBY: In the Pekingese there is the keenest competition to get leading dogs that are American bred. American bred classes in Pekingese are fully patronized. The complaint is always made among exhibitors that they have not a leading dog to compete with, but they must compete with dogs who have not won other honors. They desire to compete with champions, and they do not want to compete with dogs which have not won their honors. I have talked with a great many of them. By reason of the perfection of that breed elsewhere than here, competition in the American bred class has become particularly fierce. Just as soon as a dog becomes a champion American bred, everybody desires to compete with that particular dog for honors at the next show. As the Rules now stand the best American bred among Pekingese may not be the best American bred dog at all, because he has not competed with last year’s champion. My opinion is that all people who raise and exhibit dogs solely for sport desire to be thrown into competition with the best dogs.
instead of the worst dogs, and they actually resent it when the best dogs are not entered. I have heard them ask why they are not entered. I know of a prominent exhibitor who was remonstrated with last year because the best dogs owned by that exhibitor were kept from competition for the expectant purpose of encouraging other dogs to be shown. It had the effect of discouraging it. I do not believe that the Rules Committee really understand, as we who have been secretaries of these specialty clubs understand, that there is an earnest desire among people who really go into this thing for sport to have real competition, and they can only get this competition by opening the American bred class to all American bred without any exception whatever, and for that reason I am going to vote in favor of this motion.

MR. HOOLEY: I want to say that the Rules Committee worked very hard on this matter. As to dogs shown in the American bred class not having a chance to compete, I cannot agree with Mr. Harby about that. Personally I have a few dogs, possibly some seven or eight champions, and as an exhibitor have been fairly successful. If I should show my champions in the American bred class as in the open class, it looks like a good deal like sewing up the American bred class. The dog who receives the open winners or limit first, and then comes into the winners and wins, certainly beats the American bred dog, whether there is one or a dozen of that class, and I still feel and believe that you encourage the novice, and the win in the American bred, by leaving that class -- that is, by taking another class away from him, which you do the moment you put these champion dogs into that class. If a man knows that John Smith or Brown has the best Pekingese, if they were shown in the open class, well and good. If they go back into the American bred class I doubt whether he will get the competition he desires. People know these dogs all down the line. They know the winning dogs. I do not believe that the American bred class should be thrown open, and the committee does not feel that way, and I assure you that the committee gave it a great deal of attention.

MR. KEYES: I believe that the American bred class should not be open to champions. I think that if any Pekingese is entered at any show for the best American bred dog, I do not see why that Pekingese is not eligible for it, but, as I said, it does not have to be in the American bred class necessarily. I think the American bred class should be kept just as it is.

MR. RITCHIE: I want to voice the same sentiment as an exhibitor. I have been fortunate in establishing a few champions through the records of the American Kennel Club, and only in one case have I ever shown a champion in general competition where I thought someone else had a chance to come in, and that was through some misunderstanding; but I think the American bred class will grow from the novice. The open class is provided for all kinds of competition, and a dog can appear in the open class and prove whether he is best by reaching that class. I am certainly in favor of keeping champions out of the American bred class as long as you have the open class.

MR. WOOD: The whole question is whether you want to make more classes for champions or more classes for dogs that are coming up the line. If the champions haven't got enough classes to compete in, let us give them another class. The question being put to a rising vote, the proposed amendment was lost.

THE SECRETARY: At the last meeting there was a resolution offered to adopt a uniform entry form for all shows held under American Kennel Club Rules. This matter was referred to three committees, first, to the License Committee, then to the Rules Committee, and after that to the Publication Committee. Here is the combined report.
“Report of the Publication Committee, September 10, 1914:

In the matter of a uniform form for entries at dog shows to be used at all shows held under American Kennel Club Rules, the Publication Committee recommends that such a form be adopted and be similar to the one now in general use, with the following change:

To insert in said form 'I hereby declare that to the best of my belief there is no case of distemper nor has there been one in my kennels for the period of six weeks previous to this date'.

The Committee further recommends that the spacing in the entry blanks be made considerably wider.

R. H. Keasby,
Chairman, Publication Committee.

A. Clinton Wilmerding,
Chairman, License Committee.

A. G. Hooley,
Chairman, Rules Committee.”

MR. WILMERDING: I move its adoption.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It is possible that a man’s dog may be kept with some professional handler, and in case he signs a blank like that, that there is no distemper in his kennels, there may be distemper in the handler’s kennels, and you may not accomplish the result after all.

CHAIRMAN LEDERER: You mean provided the owner makes the entry himself.
Do you propose an amendment that the Committee entertain the suggestion?
MR. BARNARD: I would suggest that the Committee revise it, so that it specifies that the kennel from which the dogs come to the show has been free from distemper for a specified time.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from the Pekingese Club of America, addressed to Dr. S. F. Goldwater, 14Q Centre Street, which they desire me to read:

September 9th, 1914.

Dr. S. F. Goldwater,
149 Centre Street,
New York City.

Dear Sir:
