The Secretary read the credentials of Messrs R.P. Keasbey, M. Wenzel, J.D. Shotwell, L.C. Whiton, Dr. H.C. Glover, W. Rutherford, and W.R. Littell, all of which were accepted.

The Secretary stated that Mr. John A. Logan Jr. Prest of the Youngstown Kennel Club, was present as a delegate from his club, that that his credentials had not yet been received – The _____ arrival of said credentials being an oversight on the part of the Sect of his club, by whom all credentials must be signed, Mr. Anthony moved that Mr. Logan be granted the privilege of the floor, but without the right to vote until his credentials comes to hand. Carried.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

The Secretary submitted his quarterly report which was received and adopted.
President Belmont stated that he had been criticized by some of the Sporting papers, and others in his action in leaving the chair, and taking part in certain proceedings, from the fact that he was not a delegate, and desired an expression of opinion on the subject from the delegates. Mr. Anthony moved that it is the sense of this meeting, that the presiding officer, way on any occasion, if he has any remarks to make, be permitted to leave the chair for that purpose. Mr. Cook offered an amendment. That it is the sense of this meeting that we unanimously sanction the action of the President heretofore, according to the spirit of the AKC Constitution. That it is also the sense of this meeting that such privilege hereafter be granted him – Amendment carried. The motion as amended carried unanimously.

The report of the Stud book committee was read and on motion adopted.

On motion of Mr. Anthony, the delegates went into a Committee of the Whole, to hear the report of the Advisory Committee, and to take such action upon it, as it deemed proper. Motion Carried. The meeting then went into Executive Session.

Upon reconvening, Mr. Winslow as chairman of the Committee of the Whole reported that said committee recommended the disqualification of C.J. Peshall by the AKC.

Mr. Cook moved that the action of the Committee of the Whole, be accepted and approved by this meeting, and that C.J. Peshall be permanently disqualified. Carried.

Mr. Leslie demanded the ayes and nays on this question, which resulted as follows.

Nays – Mr. R. Leslie
Excused from voting
Mep. Cryer, Schellhass and Vredenburgh

Dr. Cryer moved that all appeals, protest and other business reported on by the Secy be referred to the Advisory Committee, with power. Carried.

The application of the English Setter Club for membership was submitted, and on motion said club, was duly elected.

The application of the National Beagle Club of Boston was submitted, and on motion of Mr. Anthony, it was rejected, as its acceptance would tend to antagonize the American Beagle Club, whose standard has been acquiesced in by the AKC. Carried.

The application of the So. Carolina Poultry & Pet Stock Apn was submitted – Mr. Cook moved that as there already existed in the AKC, and Association from So. Carolina, in good standing of the same name and title as that of the applicant, that said application be rejected, and that they be notified that their rejection is owning only to that fact.

Carried.

The application of the Cleveland Bench Show Apn to have its name change on the AKC records, to that of the Cleveland Kennel Club was on motion granted.

Mr. Vredenburgh gave notice that at the Dec’r meeting he would propose certain amendments to the Constitution.

Dr. H.C. Glover showed that the proposed amendments be published in the next Gazette, and that the Secy be instructed to send to each delegate a marked copy of the Gazette, containing the amended Constitution.

On motion the credentials of above delegates were accepted.

A communication from C.J. Peshall dated Decr 11/90 was read, and on motion of J. Watson was received and placed on file.

The minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Mr. Wenzel state that C.J. Peshall had said to him that he had been disqualified at a meeting of which he had no official notice and no opportunity to defend himself. That he (Wenzel) asked Prest Belmont at the meeting of the Ex Comm, at which Peshall was disqualified, if said Peshall had been notified to attend, and that Mr. Belmont replied that he had, and for that reason he (Wenzel) had voted for the disqualification.

Prest Belmont replied that if he did make such a statement be considered that Mr. Wenzel’s question referred to the meeting of the Advisory Committee, which meeting he was positive Mr. Peshall had been invited to attend, and not to the meeting of the Executive Committee.
Prest Belmont withdrawn, Mr. J. L. Anthony taking chair.
The Secretary’s report was read and accepted.

The Treasurer reported as follows
Receipts from all sources
From Jany 1/90 to date 8,679.33
Expenses for same period 6,192.18
Balance on hand 2,487.15
On motion report was accepted.

Report of Advisory Committee was read and accepted.

Mr. Wenzel moved that the decision of the Advisory Committee, in the matter of special of last WKC show for best setter with Field Trial records, be overruled. Motion lost.

At this point Mr. C.J. Peshall addressed the meeting and then withdrew, the chair permitting him to proceed, there be no objection made by the delegate and no further action as had in his case.

Mr. Belmont returned and took the Chair.

Mr. J.L. Anthony after some preliminary remarks offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.
Whereas, It has pleased Divine Providence to remove from this life Mr. August Belmont, the honored father of our honored President and
Whereas, We are mindful of the high public character and worth of the deceased, it is fitting that we should place on record this token of our public appreciation of the many excellent traits that have rendered his name a synonym for honor among the business community of the world,
Resolved That we tender to our President our sincere sympathy in this the hour of his bereavement. Resolved Further that these resolutions be suitably engrossed and place on the minutes.

On motion of Mr. Watson, the decision of the Advisory Comm, in the matter of the his appeal re-reserve numbers at Rochester Kennel Club Show, 1899, was amended to read as follows
Resolved that in the opinion of this committee reserve numbers should be given in all case, but in the case of the Collie Special at Rochester in 1889, the Rochester Kennel Club having declined to accede to Mr. Watson request for a reserve number, for the reason that the judge had not awarded any reserve number, this club cannot give relief in the case.

The following applications for admission to membership were read and admitted.
Central City Kennel Club; Delaware & Susquehanna Poultry & Pet Stock Apn; Indiana State Poultry Apn; South Carolina Kennel Apn; and Bull Dog Club of America.
Concerning the conflict of dates, on which the Central City Kennel Club, and the So Ca P & P Stock Apn have arranged to hold their shows, it was Resolved, That as these clubs hold their shows in such widely separated places in the U.S. no conflict of dates on this occasion would work any injury to either of them, therefore they be permitted to hold their shows, provided there is no objecting made by the competing club.

The resignation of the Rhode Island Kennel Club was read, and on motion accepted.

On motion the Secy-Treas was granted permission to publish his annual statement in the January 1891 Gazette, and the President requested to appoint a committee to audit said accounts before publication.

On motion the President was requested to appoint a committee of three, to examine into the advisability and expediency of this club hold a bench show in connection with the World’s Fair, at Chicago Ills, and to report thereon, at the next meeting.

On motion all charged filed with the Secy, as mentioned in his report, were referred to the Advisory Committee.

On motion, the Annual meeting to be held in Feby 1891 was ordered to be called at the Madison Sq Garden during the WKC show.

On motion Mr. E. M. Oldham, was given an extension of time to Jany 1, 1891, within which to file his defense, in the matter of charges preferred against him by Mr. T. Jacobs.

On motion of Mr. Richards, all person other than the duly qualified delegates, and the members of the press authorized to represent some recognized paper, were excluded from the room.

Mr. Pershall stated that he represented the New Jersey Kennel Club – Mr. Richards, arose to a point of order, whether Mr. Peshalls name has appeared as a delegate, and if his credentials had been recognized. The credentials not having been acted upon, Mr. Richards moved, not as a matter of right, but as a matter of courtesy, that whoever presented colorable credentials as a delegate of some club which is a member of the AKC, be permitted to remain until the said credentials are taken up, and passed upon, and that unanimous consent of the members be given to the taking up of the credentials. Carried.

On motion the credentials of Messrs. Watson and Sears were taken up and accepted.

Mr. Richrads moved that the credentials of Mr. C.J. Peshall be rejected, and that the Secy be directed to inform the New Jersey Kennel Club of the rejection and also to request that club to communicate with the AKC any excuse which said club has for presenting the name of Mr. Peshall as delegate.
Motion seconded –
Mr. Wise speaking to the motion of Mr. Richards moved as an amendment, “that this club respectfully decline to receive Mr. Peshall as a delegate of the New Jersey Kennel Club. Mr. Richards accepted the amendment.

Mr. Peshall asked the privilege of addressing the meeting. The President declined to permit it. Mr. Anthony moved that after the vote is taken, to give Mr. Peshall an opportunity to be heard.

Seconded by Mr. Whiton.
Chair ruled Mr. Anthony’s motion out of order, but stated that if no objection was made that he would recognize Mr. Peshall.

Mr. Richards suggested as an amendment to suspend the rules and grant Mr. Peshall to be heard, and that all debate upon the principal motion be limited to ten minutes – Mr. Anthony withdrew his motion Mr. Whiton moved that the rule be suspended and Mr. Peshall be allowed to speak ten minutes. Mr. Watson declined to give his consent, upon the ground that Mr. Peshall should come here at the proper time with measures towards the removal of his suspension or disqualification, and called for the question on Mr. Wise’s motion.

The President, as a special committee to confer with Mr. Whiton, re, the Std book for the registry of Greyhounds, reported satisfactory progress.

Mr. Watson called attention to the J.G. Burns’ suspension which was referred to the Stud book comm, at the last meeting, upon which Mr. Whiton moved “that the suspension of Mr. Burns be removed if satisfactory to the Stud book committee after due investigation.
Carried.
The application of New York & New England Kennel Club for admission to the AKC was submitted and on motion of Mr. Anthony was admitted to membership.

The application of the American Bull Terrier Club, of Boston Mass, for admission to the AKC was submitted – Mr. W.A. Power was granted the privilege of the floor, and spoke regarding the organization and purposes of said club, urging its admission. Mr. Anthony opposed its admission, upon the grounds that it would give a place in the Stud book for dog that do no contain pure blood.

Mr. Richards moved that the club be admitted as the Boston Terrier Club, upon the condition that if files with the Secy a list of those dogs which the club recognizes as constituting the foundation stock of the breed, on or before Jan 1, 1892.

Seconded

Mr. Anthony offered as a substitute that the AKC reject the application of this club, until it has shown the AKC that is has a breed which is entitled to recognition.

Mr. Power then made application for the admission of the club under the name of the Boston Terrier Club, the dogs to be registered after the 1st of Jan next, and there only those that have an approved pedigree of three generations. Mr. Whiton moved that the application be laid on the table. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Richards a committee of three to be appointed by the chair, was appointed to collect evidence as to the existence of the breed of dogs which are referred to and described in the Standard of the American Bull Terrier Club, and to report to this club. The vote resulted in a tie, the President casting his vote in favor of the motion, declared it carried. The Chair appointed on above committee, H.T. Foote, H.C. Glover, James Watson. Referring to the recommendation of the Secy to add to the list of recognized shows, that of a list of recognized Field Trials, Mr. Child moved that a committee of five be appointed to report upon a method by which field trials and coursing should be brought within the jurisdiction of the AKC.

Seconded and Carried.

Chair appointed as said committee

An application from the American Beagle Club, to change its titled to that of the Natl Beagle Club was read and on motion granted.

At this point Prest Belmont retired, and Mr. Anthony took the Chair.

On motion the chair appointed a committee of three to act upon the appeal of the American Pet Dog Club in relation to a proper ordinance in this Club, in regard to the muzzling of dogs. It was also carried to include Brooklyn as well as New York. Chair appointed J. Van Schaick, J.T. Richards, H.F. Schellhass.

On motion of Mr. Child the Secy was directed to communicate with Mr. P.H. Bryson, Memphis, Tenn in regard to the arrears of dues for 1891 of the Southern Field Trial Club.

On motion the Worcester Kennel Club was ordered dropped from the roll of membership, for reason of non payment of dues for 1891.
A communication from Messrs Hudspeth & Collier Attys, was read enclosing an opinion from a Judge on expulsion, and requested the reinstatement of C.J. Peshall. Mr. Richards moved that the Secy be instructed to reply to Messrs Hudspeth & Collier to the effect that the action of this club as taken will stand until reversed by some competent tribunal.
Seconded and carried.

A communication from C.J. Peshall was read in which he demanded that the list of disqualified person be discontinued in the Gazette. The Secy stated that said list had already been discontinued. Also, that the demand of Peshall made in the name of each individual of the New Jersey Kennel Club, was made upon his own responsibility, and without authority from its members, as told him by a member of the club. Mr. Shotwell also stated that Peshall had no such authority to speak for the members of the club, as the question had not been mentioned at any meeting of the NJK Club. The Chair stated that long prior to Peshalls demand, the disqualified list had been dropped from the Gazette. It has been placed there for the information of our members holding shows, and as the show season had expired, the necessity of such publication no longer existed. The discontinuance of the publication was entirely voluntary.

It the matter of an appeal of Mr. Anthony, against the Pointer Special, awarded at the Washington City Kennel Club show of 1891. Mr. Child moved that the appeal be sustained, and the action of the WCK Club be reversed. Motion lost, on the ground as stated by those voting in the negative, that the entry was made in the name of the Charlottesville, Va, under the rule stating the definition of “one exhibitor, or one person”, as passed at the annual meeting in Feby 1891.

Major Taylor moved that the Chair appoint a committee of three to report at the next meeting, a rule to govern “specials” given under AKC rules. Lost.

Mr. Richards offered the following resolution, which was adopted.
Resolved That this club has learned with profound regret of the death of E. Sheffield Porter, one of its earliest members and officers, and desires to express its sense of the loss which has been sustained.
Resolved That Mr. Porters memory is endeared to the members of this club as a gentleman zealous and intelligent in kennel matters, and warm-hearted, generous, and considerate in personal relations.
Resolved That these resolution be placed on the minutes, and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The minutes of last meeting were read, and Mr. Anthony moved the adoption of the minutes as read, with the exception of the portion concerning the Pointer Special prizes at Washington, and asked that that be laid over for further consideration, for the reason that at the last meeting, it was impossible to have the original entry, blank produced which was made a the Washington show.

Mr. Richards took the ground that the motion was not in order, in that it had not been stated that the minutes were incorrectly reported. The Chair sustained Mr. Richards point of order ---

Mr. Richards then moved that the minutes of the last meeting be confirmed. Carried.

The Secretary read his quarterly report, and on motion it was approved.

The Treasurer report as follows
Receipts from all sources
From Jany 1/91 to date    9,059.61
Expenses for same period  6,069.13
Balance on hand           $2,990.48

On motion the Treasurers report was approved.

The Secy of the Stud book committee submitted his report, and on motion of Mr. Anthony the report was approved.

On motion the order of business was suspended to take up the credentials of new delegates.
The Secy reported credentials received as follows
Mr. W.E. Churchill, from NY & N E Poultry & Kennel Club, Mr. J. O'Hara Denny, from Duquesne Kennel Club, Mr. E.M. Oldham, from Am Spaniel Club. On motion the above delegates were duly accepted.

The Special Committee on Field Trials and Coursing meeting reported. Mr. Watson moved the acceptance of the report. Carried. Mr. Anthony moved to reconsider the vote just taken. Carried. Mr. Anthony moved to lay the report on the table until the next meeting. Carried.

The special committee to arrange with the Natl Greyhound Club, in the matter of a special by Stud book, reported progress.

The special committee appointed to investigate the breed of dogs to be known as the Boston Terrier, made a verbal report. Mr. Richards moved that the report be received and the committee discharged at its own request. Carried.

Mr. Richards moved that a committee of three be appointed by the chair, with instructions to report safe guards under which the Boston Terrier Club may be admitted as a member of the AKC. Carried. Appointment of above committee reserved by chair.

Mr. Shotwell moved that the action of the NJKC is electing C.J. Peshall as its President and delegate to the AKC, endorsed the course pursued by said Peshall towards the AKC, and in effect being “particeps criminis” in proceedings prejudicial to the best interests of the AKC, and that Art 9 Sec 1 of the Constitution be enforced and that the NJKC be expelled from this Apn.

Mr. Max Wenzel stated that in his opinion the NJKC should not be made to suffer on account of any action if its president, and should not be expelled without an opportunity of being heard in its own defense.

Mr. Richards then offered the following amendment to Mr. Shotwell motion. “Whereas This club is informed that the NJKC has elected Charles J. Peshall, president, and has appointed him its delegate to his club since his disqualification by the AKC. Resolved That this club consider such action prejudicial to the welfare of the AKC under Art 9 Sec 1 of the Constitution. Resolved That charge be preferred against the NJKC, based upon their election of Mr. Peshall as president, and as its delegate to this club offer his disqualification, for conduct prejudicial to the welfare of the AKC, and that it be referred to the Advisory committee, and to offer the NJKC an opportunity to be heard upon the charges.”

Mr. Shotwell accepted the amendment offered by Mr. Richards, and withdrew his original motion.

Mr. Richards resolution being seconded, was put to the meeting and carried.
At the suggestion of the chair, Mr. Anthony moved that at any public meeting of the AKC any member of a club a member of the AKC and all Associate member be permitted to be present --- Carried.

Mr. Shotwell moved that after this meeting that the Secy be instructed to discontinue the practice of furnishing official reports of the AKC meetings to the press --- Carried.
Mr. Watson requested the Secy to record his vote in the negative.

The President calling Mr. Anthony to the chair retired.

Applications for admission to membership in the AKC, were read from the following clubs ---
Mohawk Valley Poultry & Kennel Club; Omaha Kennel Club; Blue Grass Kennel Club –
On motion the applications were accepted and granted, and they were declared duly elected to membership.

Mr. Churchill moved that the recommendations of the Secy, to recognize the awards made at the show of the Blue Grass Kennel Club, now being held -- Carried Ayes 5, Nays 4.

The resignations of the Buffalo Kennel Club, and the South Carolina Kennel Apn were read and on motion duly accepted.

The Secy reported charges preferred against the La Poultry & Pet Stock Apn for non payment of certain prizes awarded at its show in Jany 1891 also charges preferred by Beatrice Wilson against Prof. L.P. Braive and Edward A. Wilson, against Charles M. Nelles.
On motion the above charges were referred to the Advisory committee with power.

A communication from Mr. W.L. Washington requesting the AKC to define the breeder of the Irish Setter bitch, Ruby Glenmore, was read. Mr. Watson moved “That the breeder of Ruby Glenmore was the Ge____ Kennels. The owner of the Kennel at the time of her being exhibited at Washington, did not own the dam at the time she was bred, and was therefore not the breeder. There is no suggestion of fraud on the part of Mr. Washington in any of his entries.” Lost.

Mr. Churchill moved that the matter be referred to the Stud book committee. Carried.

In the matter of the Secys report, concerning the practical working of the agreement made in 1889 with the Canadian Kennel Club, it was moved to lay upon the table until the next meeting – Carried.

Mr. Watson moved that the Secy be instructed to notify J.T. Pinches, Shakopee Minn, that in default of a satisfactory explanation from him in regard to the pedigree of the English Setter bitch “Ice Palace Queen”, and also to notify M.T. Mason, Northampton, Ass, that in default of a satisfactory explanation from him in regard to the pedigree of the Pointer bitch “Taylor Cleo”, that each will be suspended and subject to disqualification, if said explanations are not made within fifteen days. Carried.

On motion the Secy was instructed to ask the Washington City Kennel Club to furnish him with the original entry blank of the Charlottsville Field Trial Kennel, received for its late show. Carried.

Dr. Foote gave notice of a list of amendments that he would offer at the next meeting.

The Secy read a communication from Dr. Cryer calling attention to the careless way in which the catalogues of the shows held under the rules of the AKC and especially those held in Canada, had been compiled.

Mr. Anthony moved that a copy of this communication be sent to the CKC. Carried.

The Secy reported the suspension of John Sleawkes, Cincinnati, Ohio by the Northern Ills P & P Stock Apn.

On motion of Mr. Schellhass John Sleawkes was disqualified under the rule. The Advisory committee to have the power to remove said disqualification provided said Sleawkes can made an explanation to the satisfaction of said committee, when heard upon his appeal.

The Secy submitted the charges against the New Jersey Kennel Club as prepared by the Advisory committee as per the resolution of Mr. Richards at the meeting held Sept 24/91.

Mr. Richards prosecuted the case, and called upon any one present to represent said NJKC, to make it known. No one appearing in behalf of said NJKC, the evidence both as to records, and personal testimony was duly taken, after which Mr. Richards moved that by a 2/3 vote the said NJ Kennel Club be expelled from membership, and asked that the vote be recorded by an aye and nay vote. Carried.

Declined to vote, Messrs Wenzel, Blossom

Nays, none.

Secy declared, Ayes 11, declined to vote, 2. President declared to motion of expulsion.

Carried.

Mr. Richards offered the following resolutions. Whereas, Certain charges have been preferred to the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club, by the Advisory Committee of the AKC against the New Jersey Kennel Club charging the said NJK Club with conduct prejudicial to the welfare of this Association and charging that the membership of said NJKC in this Apn and the continuation of such membership is prejudicial to the welfare of the AKC and Whereas, The said charges have upon due notice to the said NJKC of the presentation thereof to this committee, this day come on for hearing before this committee, and evidence having bee heard in support of said charges and a vote of the members of the Executive committee heaving been taken upon the said charges after the hearing the evidence in support thereof, thirteen members being present, and voting with the following result: eleven in favor of finding the said NJKC guilty of the charges so preferred against them and in favor of the expulsion of the NJK Club from membership in the American Kennel Club; two excused from voting, and
Whereas, It is deemed advisable by this committee that a full expulsion of opinion by this Executive committee be had upon the question; therefore be it.
Resolved, That the Secretary of this club, be and he hereby is directed to send to each member of this Executive committee not present at this meeting a copy of the charges so preferred as aforesaid, and of the evidence this day heard by this committee in support thereof, and of this resolution, and to request from each of the said members that they forward their vote upon the said charges by mail to the Secretary of this Apn so that the same may be received on or before the second day of January 1892, either in ratification of the action taken by this committee, or in opposition thereto, and
Resolved, That the President of the AKC shall on the second day of January 1892 and he is hereby authorized to do so, to count the votes so forwarded to the Secretary by mail, and received by him, and announce the votes so received, and that the result be recorded by the Secretary in the minutes of this Association, as the sense of the members of the Executive Committee, who did not personally, attend and vote at this meeting.
Resolution put to the meeting, and carried.

The certificate on the above resolution as filed with the Secretary, by President is as follows. “The vote endorsing the expulsion of the New Jersey Kennel Club is –

In favor 30
Declined to vote 8

On motion of Mr. Anthony, the Secretary was directed to return to the Treasurer of the NJKC the dues of $10.00 paid by them for 1892.

The Minutes of the Special Meeting of the American Kennel Club held on December 19th, 1896, were read, and on motion accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary then read the certificate of election of officers and delegates of the Associate Members as follows:

Certificate of Election of Officers and Delegates of the Associate Members.

New York, February 6, 1896

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, representing the President of the American Kennel Club, and the President of the Associate Members, met this day at the office of the American Kennel Club, for the purpose of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, for the officers and delegates of the Associate Members to hold office for one year from February 20th, 1896.

We found the total number of Associates entitled to vote to be 125. With the total number of votes cast 74. Votes rejected on account of irregularity 3. Scattering votes 6.

Dr. R. H. Derby received the third highest vote for delegate, but filed a notice that if elected, he could not serve, and we therefore counted the next highest, in stead, as provided for in Article XI of the Constitution.

We do therefore declare the following persons, as having received the greatest number of votes, duly elected as officers and delegates of the Associate Members for the year ending February, 1897, to wit:

President, H.H. Hunnewell, Jr.
Vice President, G.W. Amory
Secretary, A.C. Wilmerding
Delegate (1) H.T. Foote
Delegate (2) A.C. Wilmerding
Delegate (3) W. Whitney

Signed, C.D. Bernheimer,
Representing the President A.K.C.,
E. Brooks
Vice President Associate Members, A.K.C.

Attest,
A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary, A.K.C.

Credentials were read of the following named delegates to represent the following named Clubs:
Binghamton Industrial Exposition, A.P. Fish
American Fox Terrier Club, H.H. Hunnewell, Jr.
Washington City Club, J.H. Gulick
Irish Setter Club, George H. Thomson
Duquesne Kennel Club, J.M. Chaplin
Brunswick Fur Club, O.F. Joslyn
New England Kennel Club, Francis M. Curtis

St. Bernard Club of America, R.H. Burroughs
New Jersey Kennel League, Frank Link

MR. VREDEURGH. According to the new Constitution, these credentials will have to be accepted by ballot.

A ballot was then taken by the Secretary, and the delegates above named to represent the Clubs above named were declared to be accepted.

The annual report of the Secretary was then read and on motion accepted and placed on file. The same is as follows:
SECRETARY’S ANNUAL REPORT.

To the Officers and Delegates
Of the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit my annual report for the year ending to-day.

Notwithstanding the business depression for the past three years, the Kennel Club has been self supporting, has paid its running expenses promptly. When due, and ended the fiscal year with a balance in the bank of $2,233.08, an increase of about $230, over that of the preceding year. In order, however, to accomplish that object, your Secretary found it necessary to reduce the clerical force. Whether it has reduced the service to our patrons or not is a question to be answered by them. The details of the business have been as great as ever, and it has entailed increased labors upon the existing force, but we have managed to cope with the work, although probably not as promptly and satisfactorily as heretofore. The visit of your secretary to your members on the Pacific Coast, is believed to have been of great benefit to the interests of that locality, and the present year ought to show a greater activity in Kennel affairs than heretofore. The amendments to the bench show rule have given the clubs in the far west a much needed relief, and your Secretary believes the legislation was timely and wise. The only question of any considerable importance that has arisen during the past year, was that of cropping. The proposed amendment to prohibit the awarding of prizes to cropped dogs, under certain circumstances, was defeated at our December meeting. This question has been very thoroughly written upon by the public press, and has developed a wide spread interest throughout our country. It will again come before you in the shape of a resolution, the outcome of which is at present an unknown quality. It is to be hoped that whatever the result may be it will be accepted by all concerned. Both sides have the right to express their opinions and votes should be respected by all. The short experience we have had under the amended constitution has been found to work well. It has fulfilled the expectations of your Committee on Rules, and the result is that the newly organized Advisory Committee has acted upon all matters that came under its province, so that to-day only routine business will be submitted to you.

The Club itself has held one regular meeting, and three special meetings within the year. The Executive Committee has held its four regular quarterly meetings. The Advisory Committee has held three meetings at which twenty-six cases have been disposed of. Our roll of active members is fifty-three, with applications from two now pending. Three resigned, two dropped for non-payment of dues, and one suspended for non-payment of prizes. The Club suspended three, disqualified nine: and reinstated seven persons during the year. Our roll of associate members consists of one hundred and ninety-five. During the year we lost by death, resignations and by being dropped for non-payment of dues, forty-three.

The gross income of the Club was greeted by $119.45 than during the preceding year, and our expenses $821.57 less.

The registrations for Volume XII of the stud book were 94 less than in Volume XI, and out listings were 74 less than during the preceding year.

While 1895 shows a decided improvement over 1894, your Secretary must again urge you to take a greater personal interest in your Club. Its publications belong to you, and certainly you owe it to yourselves to work for your own property, and not only to support it personally, but to use your influence with your friends for their support.

Your Secretary congratulates you on the result of the last year, and feels assured that with your kind assistance, we can make the present year still more successful.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

The Treasurer’s report for the year 1895 was then read and published in the American Kennel Gazette, and on motion accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary then read the report of the organization of the Pacific Advisory Committee, and on motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and is as follows:

To the American Kennel Club,
New York.

Gentlemen: -

I have the honor to report the organization of the Pacific Advisory Committee on February 7, 1896, composed of the following delegates.

W.L. Prather, Jr., Almeda County Sportsmen’s Association.
T.J. Wattson, Pacific Kennel Club
H.T. Payne, Southern California Kennel Club
F.W.D. Evelyn, M.D., Pacific Fox Terrier Club
A.T. Regensberger, D.D.S., St. Bernard Club of California

The officers of said Committee are:

F.W.D. Evelyn, Chairman
W.L. Prather, Vice Chairman
H.T. Payne, Secretary

Its place of meetings is at the office of the Secretary, 531 California Street, San Francisco.

The Committee now awaits your commands in any matter which you may see fit to entrust to its consideration.

I am instructed by the Committee to notify you of its organization, and its readiness for the transaction of business.

Very Respectfully,

H.T. Payne,

Sec.

The election of officers being next in order, Mr. Watson nominated Mr. August Belmont as President of the American Kennel Club.

Nominations seconded and unanimously carried.

For Vice President Mr. Schellhass nominated Mr. Edward Brooks, whose nomination was seconded.

On motion the Secretary was directed to case a ballot on behalf of the Club for the election of Mr. Brooks as Vice President.
The Secretary cast the ballot as directed.

STUD BOOK COMMITTEE: Mr. Burritt nominated Mr. James Watson as Chairman.
Nomination duly seconded and carried.

Mr. H.F. Schellhass and Mr. C.B. Knocker were nominated as the other two members of that Committee, which nominations were seconded and carried.

COMMITTEE ON FIELD TRIALS AND COURSING MEETINGS:

Mr. Watson nominated Mr. H.F. Schellhass as Chairman of that Committee.
Under the Constitution the other members of the Field Trial and Coursing Committee are chosen from members of the Field Trial and Coursing Clubs.

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND RULES:
Mr. Schellhass nominated Mr. Frederick S. Webster as Chairman.
Nomination seconded and carried.
On motion of Mr. Blossom, Messrs. H.F. Schellhass, James Watson and H.T. Foote, together with the Secretary (already constituting the balance of said Committee) were again elected as such Committee.

FINANCE COMMITTEE:
MR. HUNNEWELL. I move that the Committee stand as at present.
The nomination of the present Committee, consisting of A.C. Wilmerding as Chairman, J.B. Blossom and James Mortimer were seconded and carried.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE:
MAJOR TAYLOR. I move that the Committee stand as at present constituted.
The nomination of the present Committee, consisting of Messrs. E.M. Oldham, as Chairman, and C.D. Bernheimer and A.P. Vredenburg, was seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH. I desire to state that Dr. Wesley Mills has been sent here as a representative of the Canadian Kennel Club, and he would like to speak upon a subject which is familiar to all of you, and I have reported his appointment in my report of the Executive Committee Meeting. If it for you to say whether you will hear him at this meeting, or whether you will hear him during the next meeting.

MR. WILMERDING. I move that the Doctor be heard at this meeting.

DR. MILLS. I must thank you for your courtesy. I have the honor and the responsibility of representing the Canadian Kennel Club with a view of ascertaining your opinions now in regard to the relations between the two Club. I might just in a word remind you of the resemblances and differences between these two Clubs. Your Clubs are made up of Club. Ours is made up of members, and the members, individuals, not clubs, elected an Executive Committee from all parts of the country, which does our business. This Club is, however, like yours, national, truly national. We have out representatives from the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts also.

I have been following the history of both these Clubs now for some eight or ten years, and have been identified personally with the Canadian Kennel Club in its fortunes for about eight years. Formerly there existed complete reciprocity between these two Clubs, that is to say, registrations, wins and disqualifications of each clubs were recognized by the other. For the last two or three years there has been absolutely no reciprocity of any kind, and while there have been communications on this matter between the Clubs, they have really so far come to nothing. I am therefore before you to-day with a view of ascertaining whether you do not think it advisable that this state of things between the two Clubs on this Continent with the same purposes in view should not be altered. That the present state of things is at least unsatisfactory I think may be easily apparent when you consider that we have identically the same rules almost as the American Kennel Club, and that we have for example the same rules for registration. They are quite as rigid as your. It does seem unfortunate for exhibitors that the wins on one side do not count towards the challenge class across the line, and a win at our largest show at Toronto does not count for the championship here. The worst of all it seems to me is the fact that disqualifications are of no effect. This is not only theoretical, but a practical case has occurred; the individual has been disqualified on our side of the lie and has been in good standing here, and just the reverse.

At this point Mr. August Belmont arrived, and took the Chair.

DR. MILLS. Mr. President, I am privileged to speak to the American Kennel Club, ad I was just explaining to the Club the disadvantages of the existing arrangement between us, and I think that I may appeal to those present who are acquainted with the exhibitors on both side, and also gentlemen who have judged on both sides of the line here, if it is not their experience that a large body of exhibitors were pleased with the old arrangement, and perhaps certainly not quite pleased with the present arrangement, in which there is no agreement whatever in the matter. I am authorized by the Canadian Kennel Club to say that we believe that it would be in the interest of both Clubs if registrations, wins and disqualifications were recognized mutually by both Clubs. I think this is the stand that we would like to see taken.

By request, Mr. Vredenburgh, the Secretary, then explained the nature of the arrangement and agreement between the Canadian and American Kennel Club, formerly existing, and the fact that a joint committee appointed by each of the Clubs had met and that an agreement has been drawn up; that the American Kennel Club at its annual meeting in 1894 had ratified the agreement, but that the Canadian Kennel Club has refused to ratify the agreement.

Mr. Vredenburgh further stated: At least annual meeting the American Kennel Club passed a resolution requesting the Canadian Kennel Club to join with it in recognizing each others disqualifications and suspensions. At a meeting last fall I was advised by the Canadian Kennel Club that they declined to enter into such an agreement, and would wait until something better was offered by the American Kennel Club. Since then I have seen by the papers that the Canadian Kennel Club had passed a resolution by which they recognize the disqualifications of our Clubs.

DR. MILLS. That was recommended to the Executive Committee but not carried.
MR. WOOD. Will the Secretary please inform us for what reasons the compact was broken off in 1892?

MR. VREDENBURGH. The delegates seem to think that the benefits were not mutual; that Canada was receiving greater benefits than the States. That was their opinion at the time they decided to annul the compact. They seemed to think that we held 12 or 15 shows during the year, and that in Canada they held only two or three or four shows as the case might be, and that it was much easier for the Canadians to simply register in the Canadian book, and then come down and go through the whole circuit in the States if they saw fit, and therefore that the American Kennel Club received no benefit whatever from it. As to the two Committees, the agreement was that the Canadian Kennel Club should give up the publishing a stud book; that they would receive all the registrations which might be sent to them in Canada, charging whatever they pleased for it; that they should send these registrations at the end of the year to the American Kennel Club, and they would be published in the American Kennel Club’s stud book at fifty cents, half the usual rate: that the Canadian Kennel Club should be represented in the American Kennel Club by three delegates, and that all matters pertaining to Kennel Club affairs in Canada should be acted upon by the Canadian Kennel Club independent of the American Kennel Club.

MR. BELMONT. It was the general sentiment that there was no necessity for two stud books; that was the pith of the whole matter, that the Canadian interests were not large enough to warrant a stud book, and therefore a mutual arrangement was suggested, which would do away with the necessity of two stud books, all the rest of it being a mere matter of detail. I believe the same difficulty exists to-day, does it not?

DR. MILLS. The Secretary has given a correct, accurate and imperial account of what has transpired, but there was one great difficulty in the Canadian Kennel Club’s accepting that arrangement, and that was that the Canadian Kennel Club could not afford to pay for these registrations. We did not quite see that it should be said to the Canadian Kennel Club that they should not publish a stud book if they saw fit, but that was the real practically impossible to adopt an arrangement like that on account of the expense.
MR. BELMONT. You were to get so much for each registration without any expense for publication at all.

DR. FOOTE. It seems to me that it would be exceedingly advantageous to the two countries to get along with one stud book. I know nothing about the expense of the Canadian Kennel Club. I believe they do not publish a Stud book annually, but that must be to their disadvantage. Our stud book come out annually, which ought to be an advantage to those registering dogs in Canada. The arrangement of taking their registrations at fifty per cent of the cost and supplying them with stud books at fifty per cent of the retail price, I should suppose that would be an actual saving to the Canadian Kennel Club, and it seems to me that we are running right against the same barrier to-day that we broke off in 1892 and 1893, unless we can arrange to publish all registrations in one stud book in the same way.

MAJOR TAYLOR. I was one of the Committee, and it seemed to me at the time that the Canadian representatives agreed that in receiving fifty cents on the dollar, or half of it, and their not being put to the expense of getting out a stud book, that they would have really more cash for their Club on that basis than if they were to receive the full dollar and publish a stub book.

DR. MILLS. That I think does not agree with the facts. In the first place, a large proportion of people do not register. They simply list as they do here for the purpose of showing, and we are not sure of any very large number of registrations at one dollar. The members are allowed two or three registrations, and a very large proportion of them list the rest, and even the members as I say will not register, not speak of outsiders, and outsiders who do not know enough of kennel matters to join a club will probably list, so that the club is not sure of any very large number of registrations at one dollar. I think a club in the position of the Canadian Kennel Club must go slow in the matter of expense and of course this is a prudential consideration, and that is I think the feeling there that they had better be very cautious about matters of expenditure.
MR. BELMONT. Would you mind stating how that stud book was published? Was it published by the Kennel Club with some publishing company, or was it the publication of some periodical?

DR. MILLS. It was a private venture; it was really published by the publisher of the Canadian Kennel Gazette, and I think he rather lost than made money on the publication of the first volume.

MR. BELMONT. Was that a club paper?

DR. MILLS. Yes.

MR. WATSON. How many shows were held in Canada last year and the year before?

DR. MILLS. Two shows were held last year, but there have been as many as five.

MR. SCHELLHASS. If any system of reciprocity would advance the kennel interests of the United States and Canada it would be advantageous to adopt it, notwithstanding the fact that we are forty or sixty strong against two or three clubs there. I do not see why we cannot accomplish all that in another way. Last year we adopted a resolution at the annual meeting that we would recognize the disqualifications of the Canadian Kennel Club, and we suggested to the Canadian Kennel Club that they recognize ours. The Canadian Kennel Club saw fit to reject that. The Canadian Kennel Club could have obtained all this benefit by simply coming in as associate members and separate clubs. The constitution allows the Canadian Kennel Club to become a member of the American Kennel Club just as it allows the Westminster and Boston and California Kennel Clubs to become members. They can come in as associate members. They can derive the same benefit that they seek simply by coming in as our clubs come in. If the Canadian Kennel Club wanted to have an Advisory Committee on the same principle as the Pacific Advisory Committee, that would be a good idea to consider, but I feel they can derive all the benefit they want the same as other clubs do, and have but one stud book, which is better than having two.

MR. WEBTER. I think Dr. Mills has stated an important fact in connection with the matter, and that is that there are few registrations in the Canadian Kennel Club’s stud book, and possibly it may be simply because they have not published this book. Does the doctor not think that under the proposed plan of registrations in the American Kennel Club stud book that this listing process would be done away with? That the members, the registrators, would be glad to see their dogs in the American Kennel Club list so that they would be accessible to American breeders and Canadian breeders? And they would be more universally published. The fundamental principle of a stud book is that you publish one. If you accept a registration from a man, you must give him something for his money.

DR. MILLS. Replying to the gentlemen, first as to Mr. Webster’s remarks, we do give a certificate of registration which of course is signed and is therefore official and authentic, and I think Mr. Schellhass quite misapprehends the nature of our cub. As I said at the beginning our Club is not composed of clubs at all, but it is simply composed as one of the clubs is composed here, of individuals. But those individuals are scattered all over our wide Dominion, and therefore it would not be the same as another club in joining, because in doing that the Canadian Kennel Club would cease to be a national club, and whether we are wise in that or not is a matter of sentiment which cannot be overcome. With regard to this matter of registration, we do not consider that the most vital matter. We think it of far more importance that wins and disqualifications should be recognized than registrations. We think it very hard for example that a dog, say a Canadian dog, winning here at New York, that that does not count for the challenge class in Canada, and we think that this Club loses by its members among the exhibitors of this country not having their wins count at our show, so that if those clubs were strongly averse to this reciprocity in registrations, I would not be inclined to push that. I think that the old arrangement was an admirable one, and I would like to see the old arrangement again in force.
But if we could not come to an agreement on quite the old terms, I think certainly that the matter of disqualifications and wins would be considered by the Canadian Kennel Club as better than nothing at all, and it seems to me that such would be in the interest decidedly of both clubs.

MR. WATSON. The views expressed by Mr. Schellhass are exactly mine.
I have not had any conversation with him on the subject, but he has stated exactly what I would have stated if I had preceded him. Dr. Mills tells us that his club is a club composed of individuals; The fact is it does not seems as if he could get an association of clubs up there. As a matter of fact Toronto is the only show that amounts to anything, and I do not see why the Toronto gentlemen should not come in the same way as our clubs do. It is a fact that people want to see a dog’s pedigree, and they go to the stud book since that original one, and it is not likely that they will ever publish another one, because I understand the club is in arrears. As suggested by Mr. Schellhass, the Canadian Kennel Club could have an Advisory Committee. Let the clubs come in as individual members.

MR. BELMONT. It seems advisable to confine this discussion to some limit, and the question whether it is wise to make an arrangement with the Canadian Kennel Club on the ground that it will be an advantage to breeders in general – of course, it is very easy if you have a reciprocal agreement to recognize what is bad, because whatever is bad you do not want anyway, and you are quite safe to follow them in saying whatever is bad. This is in their disqualifications of any kind, but it is quite another matter when you endorse whatever they say as good, because their methods may not conform to the methods of the American Kennel Club, and unless they are strict about their registrations and about their stud book, and about their shows, and about everything of that sort, it is a serious question whether this club ought to endorse them. It would not endorse everything that the other organization does by the American Kennel Club.

DR. MILLS. The club is recognized as a national club. The Montreal show at which I was president last year was given under Canadian Kennel Club rules, and as I have I think stated, these rules are almost identical with the rules of the American Kennel Club, and the rules registrations are quite as strict if not more so; but I think they are just about the same, and all along that has been the point that the two clubs have been parallel, and why they should have been separated is something I cannot understand. Of course, I hope my friends will consider it a matter of sentiment. We have a nationality, and that we will under no circumstances have ignored. I think any remarks pointing to out being simply an individual club fail to recognize that principle.

MR. BROOKS. Have you any suggestion that you would like to lay before the American Kennel Club, on which we can take action? I do not see that we can arrive at any conclusion just at present.

DR. MILLS. The original arrangement is one that we prefer, but if the American Kennel Club will not recognize that original arrangement, I am authorized – though we would of course much prefer the original – to ask the American Kennel Club to agree to a mutual recognition of wins and disqualifications. We prefer registrations, wins and disqualifications, but if the club would not accept that, I am authorized to suggest that wins and disqualifications be mutually recognized, and I think it would be apparent that it is a disadvantage to this club if a man disqualified here can flaunt himself at our shows; I think it is a disadvantage to the American Kennel Club as well as to ourselves.

MR. WATSON. I would like to remind Dr. Mills that the National Trotting Association has entire charge of Canada. There is no rival association there, and I believe that the Jockey clubs gave the license to Toronto and Hamilton last year so that I think this feeling of nationality which you speak about is only confined to the dog men, and I think they could very well give it up.

MR. SMITH. I move the whole matter be referred to the Advisory Committee with power.

Motion seconded and carried.

The annual meeting then adjourned.
The Regularly Quarterly Meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club was held at the rooms of the Metropolitan Kennel Club No. 63 Madison Avenue on Thursday, February 20th, 1896.

SECRETARY’S QUARTERLY REPORT

New York, February 19th, 1896

To the Executive Committee of
The American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I have to report that an application for admission to membership from the Live Stock Society of America, referred to the Advisory Committee for action at its meeting held December 28th, 1895, was by it referred back to this body, for the reason that it was not clear to that Committee, whether said Society conformed to the requirements of the constitution, and was eligible to admission. The approval of the Membership Committee is therefore withheld, pending your decision. I also beg to report an application for admission from the Seattle Kennel Club, which is duly approved by the Membership Committee. An application for registration of the Kennel name “Lewanee” is made by Henry F. Lackman, of Cincinnati, Ohio. As this name does not conflict with any so far registered, I would respectfully recommend that the application be granted. The St. Bernard Club of California, the Pacific Fox Terrier Club, and the Irish Setter Club, were duly admitted to membership by the Advisory Committee under the power given to it by the Constitution. I beg to present the following resolutions offered by Dr. H.T. Foote, and published in the December issue of the Gazette, to wit:

“Whereas, the mutilation of dogs is a recognized cruelty and not necessary of justifiable, except in the cases of diseases, and whereas, the cruelty Animal Laws through out of States make such mutilation a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment and fine, RESOLVE: that all dogs born after December 31 at 1895 must be shown in their natural conditions, and if any way mutilated will be considered improperly tampered with, and subject to Artile XI of the rules governing Bench Shows.” I quote for your information Article XI above referred to.

“A judge may disqualify a dog which in his opinion has been improperly tampered with, subject to the decision of the veterinary surgeon. Should the judges disqualification not be sustained the class must be re-judged.”

I will submit for your consideration a communication from the Bull Terrier Club of January, 1896, containing resolutions adopted by said Club on January 13th, 1896. In this connection I beg to quote from the American Stockkepper of February 8th, 1896, a statement alleged [to] have been made by Mr. Frank F. Dole, the President of the Bull Terrier Club of America, to wit:

“I was surprised to see the resolution offered in the name of the Bull Terrier Club which appeared in your issue of January 29th. I knew nothing about it, and do not agree with what was done regarding Messrs. Foote and Schellhass. The special meeting was called to consider the offering of special prizes at New York, and I cannot see how any other business could have been brought before the meeting.”

Under date of December 28th, 1895, the Milwaukee Kennel and Pet Stock Association filed a notice with this Club, that at its meeting held December 27th 1895, Mr. F.S. Morrison was duly expelled from membership in that Club.

Under the rules, an expulsion by a Club as stated in Rule IX, shall mean, “under suspension by the American Kennel Club pending Appeal (see action, Pacific Kennel Club vs/ E.P. Schell). Charges of misconduct in connection with dogs have been preferred by Mr. Henry Rieman, Tunis Mills, Md. Against Mr. B. Alton Smith, North Attleboro, Mass. A copy of the specifications was mailed to Mr. Smith February 4th, 1896.

Bills for annual dues were mailed to active members December 1st 1895, and on January 16th 1896, I mailed a second bill marked final to each club that had not paid its dues up to that date. I now have to report the following Clubs as being in arrears for 1896.

American Mastiff Club
American Pet Dog Club
Cleveland Kennel Club
Columbia Kennel Club
Columbus Fanciers Club
English Setter Club
Georgia Poultry and Pet Stock Association
Great Dane Club of America
Massachusetts Kennel Club, Lynn, Mass.
National Greyhound Club
New England Beagle Club
Rhode Island State Fair Association
Southern California Kennel Club
Western Kennel Club

Article X of the Constitution says:
“The annual dues of clubs shall be ten dollars payable on or before January first. Any club failing to pay said dues within the specified time shall forfeit all right to representation in this association, and such club may be suspended or dropped from the roll.”

I am informed that the English Setter Club and the National Greyhound Club are no longer in existence, and the Western Kennel Club Co. being under suspension, I would respectfully recommend that these clubs be dropped from membership at this meeting. I will submit at this meeting correspondence with Mr. J. Herbery Watson, President of the American Coursing Board, and Mr. L.C. Whiton, Delegate from the National Greyhound Club, upon the subject of the title of one of our Committees.

A report of a late meeting of the Pacific Kennel Club in the California Press, states that a communication from this Club to that body was read and on a tie vote the President cast the deciding vote to ignore the communications. The entire correspondences is at your disposal if desired.

I beg to report the reception of protests from the American Fox Terrier Club, and the Pacific Fox Terrier Club, against the adoption of the resolution, to prevent docking of dogs.

I also beg to report a communications from Dr. Wesley Mills, representing the Canadian Kennel Club, asking the privilege of the floor, for the purpose of advocating a reciprocity agreement between the American Kennel Club and the Canadian Kennel Club.
Since writing this report I have received the resignation of the English Setter Club.

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenurgh, Secretary

The Treasurer’s quarterly report was also read, and on motion accepted and placed on file, and is as follows:

TREASURER’S REPORT.

New York, February 20, 1896

To the Executive Committee of
The American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1, 1896.

Balance on hand January 1, 1896 $2,233.08
Receipts from all sources to date, 1,301.75
Total $3,534.83
Disbursements from January 1, 1896, to date 748.26
Balance on hand, $2,786.57

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer.

The Minutes of the Advisory Committee under date of January 28th 1896, as published in the American Kennel Gazette were read and on motion accepted and placed on file.

The Minutes of the Advisory Committee under date of February 6th 1896, were also read, and on motion accepted on placed on file, and are as follows: Page [ ]

MEETING OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE.
Held at the office of the American Kennel Club, Thursday, February 6th 1896.

Vice President Edward Brooks in the Chair.

Present: Edward Brooks, E.M. Oldham, J. Watson and A.C. Wilmerding
Absent: August Belmont, H.B. Cromwell, J.M. Taylor and F. S. Webster

The Secretary submitted the following matters to the Committee.

Statements made in the Turf, Field & Farm Re Continuation of Investigation from meeting of December 28th 1895.

WHEREAS, after a most careful and searching investigation by the Committee in this case, and by the oral testimony of Mr. John Ryan, of Hackensack, N.J., the owner of the Dalmatian bitch “Flora” shown by Morris, at the Newburgh show of 1895, we find that the statements appearing in the Turf, Field and Farm of October 11th and 18th and November 1st 1895, were true and correct; that at no time did Morris become the bona fide owner of the bitch “Flora”, and we would therefore recommend that the American Kennel Club, at its meeting to be held February 20th next, take such action in the matter, as it may deem proper.

Westminster Kennel Club Re Misconduct in issuing a circular letter of attack on the W.K.C. and one of its Judges.

WHEREAS Leslie made an unjustifiable attack on one of the official Judges of the Westminster Kennel Club in a signed circular letter sent by him to the pointer breeders and exhibitors; and
WHEREAS he appeals to said pointer exhibitors to withhold their entries from the forthcoming show of the said Westminster Kennel Club, which was intended to exert an injurious effect upon the entries of a show held by a club, a member of the American Kennel Club; it is therefore ORDERED that Robert Leslie be and is hereby suspended for a term of one year from this date. And it is further ORDERED that this suspension shall remain in force, at the expiration of one year, until the said Leslie shall make a full apology to all parties concerned.

L.A. Van Zandt

Vs

Andrew Laidlaw

ORDERED that as no new evidence appear in Laidlaw’s appeal, this committee declines to re-open the case.

American Kennel Club,

Re Appeal to change date of re-instatement

Vs.

George Bell.

ORDERED that the appeal of Bell be denied.

Pacific Fox Terrier Club,

and

Irish Setter Club.

ORDERED that these applications for admission to membership in the American Kennel Club, being endorsed “approved” by the Committee on Membership, that the Pacific Fox Terrier Club, and the Irish Setter Club, are hereby admitted to membership.

Applications for Registration of Kennel names, prefixes and affixes.

ORDERED That the following applications be and are hereby granted.

James L. Anthony, The Graphic Kennels
C.S. Stuart, The Chicago Black & Tan Terrier Kennel
George Greer, Brookside Kennel

F.A. Borst and Algonquin Kennels

F.R. Dills

F.E. Miller and W.L. Prather, Jr.         Pastime Cocker Spaniel Kennels

ORDERED that the application for the registration of the American Pet Dog Kennels be refused, on account of its similarity in name to that of the American Pet Dog Club, one of the members of the American Kennel Club.

Ruling by the Committee on the following question: “Can a disqualified person, to be re-instated on and after a specific date, make entries at any show, whose date of closing of entries, occurs prior to the date of said persons re-instatement, notwithstanding the fact that the show takes place, subsequent to said reinstatement?

RESOLVED That as the date of closing of entries of any show is an official part of that show, a person eligible to make entries at that show must be in good standing at the time of the closing of the entries.

Adjourned.

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

The report of the Pacific Advisory Committee was read as follows: Page [ ]

To the American Kennel Club,
New York.

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, held on February 12th. 1896, at which were present Dr. F.W.D. Evelyn, of the Pacific Fox Terrier Club, W.L. Prather, Jr. of the Alameda County Sportmen’s Association, Dr. A.T. Regensberger, of the St. Bernard Club of California, and H.T. Payne, of the Southern California
Kennel Club, the enclosed resolutions were unanimously adopted.

It was further ordered that the Secretary immediately transmit a copy of said resolutions to your honorable body for your action thereon.

Very Respectfully,

H.T. Payne,

Sec.

RESOLUTIONS.
Adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee, Feb. 12, 1896.

WHEREAS, Mr. E.P. Schell was disqualified by the American Kennel Club nearly two years ago for assisting in the sale of a pointer puppy under false pedigree, a breed in which he never had any interest, and for which he was convicted by his own admission; and

WHEREAS, the St. Bernard Club of California, representing the only breed in which Mr. Schell is in any way interested, has asked for his re-instatement;
therefore, be it

RESOLVED that in the opinion of the Pacific Advisory Committee the punishment already inflicted has been ample to condone the offense;

RESOLVED that the removal of his disqualification will be for the interest of a rapidly growing and important fancy, to wit: the St. Bernard.

RESOLVED that the American Kennel Club be and it is hereby requested to promptly remove the said disqualification from the said E.P. Schell, and restore hi to all former rights and privileges; and accept for registration and exhibition all dogs of his breeding.

A true copy,

H.T. Payne,

Secretary.

Pacific Advisory Committee.

DR. FOOTE. I move that the report be accepted and Mr. Schell be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.
The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, and on motion accepted and placed on file, and is as follows: Page [ ]

STUD BOOK COMMITTEE REPORT.
To the Executive Committee of
The American Kennel Club.
Gentlemen:

Since your last meeting the stud book has had nothing before it outside of routine business. The complete copy of the stud book for 1895 was handed to the printer on January 15th. and good progress has been made towards its publication.

Yours Respectfully,

James Watson,
Hermann F. Schellhass,
Of the Committee.

The applications of the following named Clubs for membership in the American Kennel Club were read, and on motion accepted.
The Live Stock Society of America.
The Seattle Kennel Club.

The registration of the English Setter Club was then read and on motion accepted.

The application of Henry F. Lackman for the Kennel name “Lewanee” was on motion granted.

A communication was read from the Bull Terrier Club in connection with the attitude of Dr. Foote and Mr. Schellhass towards the cropping of dogs, which has been published.

MR. SCHELLHASS. I intended to bring this matter up, not as interesting myself. I do not ask the protection of the American Kennel Club in the matter at all, because I do not consider it necessary, but I look at the matter in this way: This communication I consider was meant to act as an intimidation to the delegates either in discussing this cropping question or as to their votes, and for that reason I felt it my duty to request the American Kennel Club to assert its protection to the delegates, leaving me out. I do not ask any protection. To show how I consider this liable to affect the delegates I want to state what my course has been. As a member... of the Committee on Rules I was one of the five who voted for the resolution at the last meeting, and I made a few remarks stating why I assumed it beneficial to do away with cropping. Now we have this resolution before us which has been read by the Secretary. I take it that this communication is intended to mean and to be considered by every delegate who has come here to-day that if their vote is unsatisfactory to the Bull Terrier Club that they will be heralded in the press from Boston to the west, and advertised throughout the country because they happen to think differently conscientiously from the Bull Terrier Club. We have in this club men who are of a retiring disposition, and men who do not like newspaper notoriety, and I say that this communication is sent to have that effect upon these delegates, and besides to influence a man's vote. The American Kennel Club requests every man that comes here not only to express his opinions but to vote as his conscience dictates.

MR. HUNNEWELL. I feel equally courageous as Mr. Schellhass in the matter, and I do not need any protection.

MR. BURRITT. Personally I must admit that I consider such a resolution as and been spread broadcast by the Bull Terrier Club not only as unjust, unreasonable, but almost a direct slap at the American Kennel Club, but for the purpose of expediting business I move that this communication be laid upon the table to be taken up and considered later in the day.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read a communication from the Milwaukee Kennel and Pet Stock Association, to the effect that Mr. F.S. Morrison was expelled at a meeting held by that Club on December 27th.

Under the rules and on motion Mr. Morrison was suspended.

On motion the matter of the charges preferred by Henry Rieman against Mr. B. Alton Smith for misconduct in connection with dogs was referred to the Advisory Committee.

The Secretary then read the correspondence with Mr. J.H. Watson, President of the American Coursign Board, and Mr. L.C. Whiton, delegate from the National Greyhound Club, upon the subject of the change of title of the Coursing Committee.

Moved and seconded that the correspondence be placed on file, and that the Committee stand a named.
Carried.

A communication was also read stating that the Omaha Kennel Club had not paid certain prizes at its show held in 1895, and on motion the same was referred to the Advisory Committee.

The Secretary then called attention to the Clubs in arrears for non-payment of dues, and Major Taylor moved that thirty days notice be given to these clubs in arrears that if their dues are not paid in that time they will be dropped from the roll without further action of this Club.

Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH. I will now lay before you the matter referred to this meeting by the Advisory Committee at its last meeting, concerning statements made in the Turf, Field & Farm against Edwin H. Morris. Page [   ]

At this point Mr. Belmont who had left the meeting at the Adjournment of the annual meeting returned an took the Chair.

MR. WATSON. In regard to this matter of charges against Mr. Morris, I desire to state that the show at which this dog was exhibited was not held under the American Kennel Club rules. At the hearing before the Advisory Committee Mr. Morris, when faced by Mr. Ryan, a witness whom we procured, somewhat incriminate himself. He appeared to be mixed up in a good many particulars, but as I said, the show was not held under our rules to begin with. It is a question whether we can go outside of our own membership to punish people for doing anything.

Mr. Morris claims that other people entered dogs in the same way as he is alleged to have done. I do no say that he substantiated that. I do not think he could, for the reason that he did not bring the proper testimony bearing upon it. The testimony in that respect was equivocal as to what people had heard and as to letters they had received, and so forth, and I have drawn up a preamble and resolution, the proposed resolution being that said Morris be notified that it is the opinion of this meeting that he did not exercise due care in this respect, and that he be censured for his action.

Mr. Link, of the New Jersey Kennel League, defended the action of Mr. Morris in entering this dog to be shown under his (Morris') name and said that he was under the same misapprehension, and that had he not been ill he would have gone to Newburgh and shown dogs in the same manner as Mr. Morris did.
MR. WEBSTER. But that is not the issue. Mr. Morris claimed that he owned this dog and Mr. Ryan claimed he did not. That is the issue. Mr. Morris is on trial as claiming the ownership of that dog when in fact he did not own the dog.

After some further discussion Dr. Foote moved that the Secretary be directed to prefer charged and that the matter be again referred to the Advisory Committee, with full power to act.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH. I have a communication here which is not signed, but purports to come from the New Jersey Kennel League concerning Mr. Morris, which is as follows: Page [

“The President reported that, in accordance with the resolution of the last meeting, he attended the Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club with Mr. Morris, that only one case was heard and that he has looked into the others. In the case of Morris v. Preston, to avoid the consequences of an unlawful act, Preston agreed to pay James Mortimer’s valuation of Morris’ dog, but paid a part only, and failed to make a defense to the action. No technical quibble or lawyer’s letter could change these facts, yet it was decided that Preston had not acted dishonorably.

Mr. Morris contested the case, not for his own good, but in kennel interests generally, after getting the endorsement of the law courts, and yet is no denied justice by the A.K.C. The $10 he deposited has not been returned. Preston’s was.

It is for us to see that if one of our members is treated thus, is denied justice, he shall have fair play otherwise.

Resolved, that this club requests its delegates to present this report at the annual meeting of the A.K.C. If necessary, making it an appeal on behalf of Mr. Morris with an application for a return of the $10 deposited.

That such resolution is not intended to reflect on the advisory committee, but as an intimation that it was misled.”

Mr. Link stated that the communication was passed upon by the members of the New Jersey Kennel League, and Mr. Brooks moved that the Secretary be directed to notify the New Jersey Kennel League that the amount of ten dollars mentioned therein was forfeited under the rules of the American Kennel Club.

The resolution offered by Dr. Foote, and published in the December number of the Gazette, was then read, and discussion invited.
On motion of Mr. Brooks each speaker on his subject was limited to five minutes.

Dr. Foote: In drawing that resolution there was no idea of carrying out the strict provisions as presented. It was an error that the words, “unjustifiable mutilation” were not used instead of “in any way mutilated.” But that can be very readily amended, so that it will not interfere with the trimming of dogs coats or docking. When it comes to the question of docking, I don’t care a straw about it. I would like to continue docking my fox terrier, because docking is not brutal, or if it is, it is too small to be of importance. In regard to the Fox Terrier Club circulars that were sent out I understand the vote was unanimous in favor of docking, but the opinion against cropping was extensive, and my only reason for bring docking into it at all was in order to make a rule which would apply to all dogs, and which would not be special legislation.

Mr. Brooks: He says he wants to make a rule.

Dr. Foote: It is a construction of a rule already existing.

Mr. Watson proposed an amendment to the effect “that all dogs born after June 30\textsuperscript{th}, 1896, must be shown with their ears in their natural condition, and if in any way mutilated they will be considered improperly tampered with, and subject to Article II of the rule governing bench shows.”

Amendment accepted.

Mr. Brooks: I do not intend to say anything for or against this resolution, but I wish to ask the gentlemen what they are going to gain by passing it. If this is a rule that has got to be listened to by our judge, it should be brought up as an amendment to the constitution. In the form of a resolution it would be blown to the winds.

Mr. Hunnewell stated that he has sent out notices to every state in the Union on the subject of docking being continued, and he had received 615 yeas, and 7 nays, (one of which was from Mr. Morris) and in addition to that had received 70 letters, all very strong against changing the custom of docking. That none of them claimed that docking was brutal or cruel.

Mr. Belmont: The real way to do anything of that kind if you want to give it the effect desired, and if you want to take it out of the hands of the judge, you will have to pass a rule prohibiting any dog show form accepting the entry of any dog with cropped ears on and after a certain date.
Mr. Brooks: At the last meeting of this club, when the committee tried to bring up this same subject as a resolution, I ruled it was an amendment, and it was so voted on. I do not see why that ruling should not hold now. Dr. Foote tried to introduce it as a resolution. I rules it was an amendment, and not a resolution and therefore required a two-thirds vote to pass it.

Mr. Belmont suggested that it would be fairer, and a better plan, as certain interest would be affected, to take a ballot vote from all the delegates of the different clubs.

Dr. Foote: That would be a capital plan if they would vote.

After considerable further discussion it appeared to be the consensus of opinion that the resolution if passed would be inoperative, and Dr. Foote withdrew the resolution.

Mr. Schellhass: I move that the matter be referred to the Committee on Rules to frame a rule to be brought up at the next meeting of the American Kennel Club to be acted upon.

At this point a motion by Mr. Loveland to adjourn was lost.

Mr. Schellhass renewed his motion, which was seconded

A called of the roll resulted in the motion being lost by the following vote:

Ayes: Dr. Foote, Collie Club of America, Gordon Setter Club, National Beagle Club, Northwestern Beagle Club, Pointer Club, six.

American Spaniel Club declined to vote.

The meeting then adjourned.
REGULARLY QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, HELD

On motion the reading the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with.
The credentials of the following named delegates to represent the following named clubs were read, and on motion the delegates duly elected.

St. Bernard Club of America, George Bargate
American Dachshund Club L.A. Klein
Rhode Island State Fair Association F.E. Perkins
City of the Straits Kennel Club A.H. Heppner

The Secretary read his quarterly report, and on motion the same was accepted and placed on file. It is as follows:

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen: -

I beg to present credentials for delegates filed by the following Clubs:

April 23, 1896, St. Bernard Club of California, appointing Mr. George Bargate of this City.

May 4, 1896, American Dachshund Club, appointing Mr. L.A. Klein, of Canada.

May 14, 1896, Rhode Island State Fair Association, appointing Mr. F.E. Perkins, of Providence, R.I.

May 16, 1896, City of the Straits Kennel Club, appointing Mr. A.H. Heppner, of Brooklyn, N.Y.

May 18, 1896, National Greyhound Club, appointing Mr. Horatio Nelson.

Pursuant to instructions given me at the last meeting, I have dropped from our membership for non-payment of dues, the Columbia Kennel Club, Portland, Oregon; Massachusetts Kennel Club, Lynn, Mass.; and the Western Kennel Club Company, Denver, Colo.

Several matters of considerable importance have been referred by me to the Stud Book Committee for its investigation, which will probably be reported upon at this meeting.

Owing to the diligence and hard work performed by the Advisory Committee, very little business will be submitted by me for your consideration and action at this meeting. Said Advisory Committee has held two meetings since the last meeting at this Club, to wit, April 11 and May 14, and has cleared off nearly all of the business that has accumulated since our February meeting. The report of both meetings will be submitted at this meeting.

I will submit rules of procedure adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee, and a lengthy communication from that body, and request your action in the premises.

As is customary at this time of the year, I ask that the associate members now in arrears for dues for 1896 be dropped from membership unless said have been paid within thirty days.

I have the pleasure to report the reception by this Club of an “Artist’s Proof” of the Fox Terrier “Lyons Sting” the gift of Mr. Fred Mansell, of London.

Your Secretary assumes all blame for over-looking many violations of our rules by our members, and exhibitors during our Spring circuit of shows, and unless otherwise directed by your body, proposes to send a circular of special instructions to the Bench Show Committee, so that with the beginning of our Autumn shows there will be no excuse for future infractions or our rules. I now give public notice that hereafter, in all cases of the change by Bench Shows of regular classifications after the closing of entries, I will prefer charged against the Club making such illegal change, and will also disqualify every dog winning in such class. Further, the transfer of a dog from one class to another after the opening of a show, being clearly a violation of the rules. I shall promptly disqualify the win of any and every dog so transferred. Another violation of the rules is the failure of challenge class entries to specify a sufficient number of winnings to entitle the entry in that class. With but two exceptions this spring, namely, Boston and San Francisco, the Club have failed to publish the winnings of dogs shown in all of the challenge classes. Such wins will therefore be cancelled, unless exhibitors can prove that the original entry sent by them did specify the necessary winnings. In a number of cases, when Clubs forward to this office the listings received by them, they fail to send the fees to cover such listings, and claim the privilege to apply the date deposit in payment of such fees. This practice is wrong, and must cease, as the rules do not warrant such proceedings. The above notice and warning are given in the hope that the Clubs and their exhibitors will profit by it, so that any action taken by this office against either Club or exhibitors, must be fully accepted as final and deserved.
I beg to submit a communication from the National Greyhound Club, to the effect that a new club has been recently organized by a number of the members of the old club now upon our roll of membership, and I would recommend the acceptance of the new Club as a member in place of the old one.

I have received an application for admission to membership form the M.A.A.C. Rod and Gun Club of Portland Oregon, and the application is in the hands of the Membership Committee, which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

I have received notice of an appeal to arrive against a decision on a protest filed with the Pacific Kennel Club. I notified the parties to forward the appeal, and deposit to this office, and at the same time serve a duplicate copy on the Pacific Advisory Committee. I also instructed said Committee to receive said appeal, investigate the same, and file the result with its recommendation with this office.

In closing I beg to call your attention to an oversight of the delegates at the last Quarterly meeting in neglecting to elect a Secretary-Treasurer of the Club.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary.
The Treasurer read his Report, on and motion the same was accepted and placed on file. The same is as follows:

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer.

The Report of the Advisory Committee was read, as published in the April Gazette, and on motion was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Vredenburgh: In connection with this report I would state that I have a telegram just received from Mr. James L. Little, representative of the Scottish Terrier Club in which he says: “I am unable to leave here. I favor all possible leniency in Bell’s case. Please state that at the meeting.”

Mr. Smith: I move that the several matters covered by the report of the Advisory Committee be taken up separately. I am willing to pass upon all these various cases in bulk.

Motion seconded, and carried.
Mr. Vredenburgh then read the first action taken by the Advisory Committee which was in the matter of the American Kennel Club against George Bell.

Mr. Smith: On what ground was he disqualified after having been reinstated on the first of March? Was there another charge against him?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes. The charge was that on the 20th day of February, eleven days before his reinstatement he entered two dogs at the Detroit Kennel Club Show.

Mr. Smith: I move that the disqualification of Mr. Bell be not approved.

Mr. Blossom: There are other circumstances bearing on that disqualification, such as dates of entries & c. by Mr. Bell.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There was a motion made and carried which reinstated Mr. Bell on March 1st. He was notified of such action. He then appealed to this Club asking it to set forward his reinstatement so that it would take place on the 15th of February, in order to permit him to make entry at the Mascoutah Kennel Club Show at Chicago, whose entries closed on February 24th. On February 6th that appeal was hurried by the Advisory Committee. It was denied and on the morning of February 7th notice was sent to Mr. Bell that his appeal was denied. Notwithstanding the action of the Committee, Mr. Bell made two entries at Detroit, whose entries, and I preferred charged against him. It was clearly a case of contempt. On the 20th day of February at our annual meeting, a definition of the rule was submitted to the Kennel Club by the Advisory Committee in which it stated that as the closing date of entries at every show was a part of an official act of that show, that a man must be in good standing at the time of the closing of the entries in order to be eligible to make entries, and consequently Mr. Bell entered on the 20th day of February, eleven days before he was reinstated, two dogs. He was not in good standing, and the Advisory Committee considered that it was a case of contempt and disqualified him until the first of May, 1897.

Mr. Smith: I have not the slightest interest in Mr. Bell personally, but I am anxious that this Club shall not make any mistakes. You cannot go beyond your rules. As I understand the matter, Mr. Bell has the right to make his entries. The folly of his performance was in not appealing, because he did not appeal. He asked for permission to do a thing which he had a right to so. There is nothing in your rule which excludes a man from filling out a paper and sending it to a Club. The Club could have refused to receive it if it chose but so long as Rule 24 exists, which provides for disqualifications, penalties, &c., you are limited by that rule. I do not care how often you get together and attempt to reconstruct your rules, you cannot say that “exhibitions” means anything but the presentation of a dog. If it is not the entering, it is not the writing a letter, it is not payment of a five dollar bill or any such thing. The rule reads: “No person under suspension or sentence of disqualification can exhibit or take a prize.” That does not prohibit a man from entering a dog. He had a right to send his entries to every club he desired. When you moved his disqualification as of the 1st day of March, you gave him on that date a clean bill of health, and I repeat my motion to disapprove of the disqualification.

Mr. Schellhass: I think every club has the right to reject any entries if they see fit. If any club has that right, on the same ground the American Kennel Club, which is a superior body to an individual club, must possess that right and on that one general rule I claim that this Club can say to Mr. Bell that he could not enter his dogs for any reason.

Mr. Bernheimer called attention to another rule which he thought had some bearing on the subject and gave it as his opinion that it was contempt to the American Kennel Club and that his disqualification under the circumstances was justified.

Mr. Watson: I am surprised that such a simple matter as this should come up. I have never heard of such a thing as that a person not in good standing can enter at a show. Apart from the fact that he was not in good standing at the time of the show, he would have to be in good standing at the time of the entries closing. Our rule say that no person under suspension shall be eligible, &c., which means that he shall be deprived of the right to enter at shows, and while he is under suspension it is improper for him to have those rights. As to this argument, there is nothing in it. It does not apply to any known sport. There is no known sport in which a person under suspension is the equal of a person not under suspension.

Mr. Burritt: I would like to ask whether our rules say that a person to be eligible to exhibit must not be under sentence of disqualification or suspension at the time of the exhibition or at the time of the making of the entries.

The Secretary read the rule referred to.
Mr. Burritt: That does not say he cannot enter. There is nothing in either of the rules which have been read which prohibits any man from making an entry for exhibition be held at a time when he will not be under disqualification. There is nothing in those rules which prevents a man under disqualification from making an entry to show a dog at an exhibition to be held at a time when that man’s disqualification will have been removed.

Other rule that says another, and they conflict, we are bound to give the man who is suffering from those rules the benefit of any question that may arise. If we have made a mistake, as Mr. Smith has pointed out to us, it does us no harm to recognize our mistake a second time. That is the only point which I wish to make. Mr. Smith holds, and I think under the reading of the rules he is correct, that Mr. Bell knew his disqualification was to be removed at a certain time. There was a show to be held after that time at which he wished to exhibit. The entries closed at a time before his disqualification was moved. There is nothing in the American Kennel Club’s rules so far as they have been produced here to-day, which says that Mr. Bell should not enter his dog for a show to be held at a time after his disqualification has been removed. That is as plain United States as I can give it to you, and we wish to close that hole, to the effect that no man under disqualification can make an entry up to a certain time, we can do so and that without stultifying the action of the Advisory Committee, or bringing any disgrace upon the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Wood: I do not know Mr. Bell at all. I do think, however, that the Club have made a mistake, and I think it best that we correct it and guard against future errors. I don’t think it makes any difference what Mr. Bell thought about his right to enter his dogs. The question of whether he did have the right or not under our rules. The rules have been read. They say he shall not exhibit a dog. A rule of that kind must be strictly construed according to the exact meaning of the English language which is contained in that rule. It is impossible, in my opinion, for the Executive Committee, or for the Advisory Committee, by a formal construction to put something into that rule which it did not contain in the first place. I think we should correct the rule, and in recognizing our mistake we do not go back upon or in anywise cast any reflections upon the Advisory Committee. We go back upon ourselves as much as we do upon that Committee, but right is right.
The motion to disapprove of the Advisory’s Committee’s action was then put, and showing of hands resulted in the motion being lost by a vote of ten to five.

The motion to accept the Advisory’s report as to this matter was then put and was carried by the vote of nine to six.

Mr. Smith: I vote for the disapproval of the Committee’s action and against its acceptance.

Mr. Burritt: The Boston Terrier Club votes against the Committee’s action on the ground that it is not in accordance with the rules of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Wood: The Great Dane Club votes the same way for the same reason.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The next matter considered by the Advisory Committee is the matter of the American Kennel Club against the City of the Straits Kennel Club for accepting entries from a disqualified person. I desire to state in connection with this matter that the City of the Straits Kennel Club wrote a letter to Mr. Bryson, President of the Chicago Club, asking his opinion whether they could accept entries from Mr. George Bell. They also wrote to James Mortimer at New York, asking his opinion; also to Mr. E.M. Oldham. I do not know what answers were made by Messrs. Bryson and Mortimer, but Mr. Oldham told me today that he replied that he had no opinion whatever on the subject, and he would advise them to get the opinion of the American Kennel Club. The fact is that at no time did the American Kennel Club receive any request for an opinion on the subject from the City of the Straits Kennel Club.

Mr. Schellhass: I move that the City of the Straits Kennel Club be suspended for one year.

Mr. Webster: I move a modification of that, that the American Kennel Club’s rules shall be abided by. It seems to me that we ought to go on record as being as lenient as possible, and that the term of suspension be fixed at sixty days.

Mr. Schellhass accepted the amendment.

Capt. Knocke: I don’t think the offense on the part of the Club was as great as that of Mr. Bell. He knew what he was doing, and it was contempt on his part, beyond any doubt, in doing what he did.

Motion as amended seconded and carried.
Moved and seconded that the balance of the matters acted upon by the Advisory Committee on April 11, 1896, be adopted.

Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There was another meeting of the Advisory Committee held on May 14, which I will read:

On motion of Mr. Hunnewell the report of the Advisory Committee of May 14 was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, and, on motion, accepted and placed on file. The same is as follows:

REPORT OF STUDBOOK COMMITTEE
New York, May 21, 1896.

To the Executive Committee
Of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen: --

The Studbook Committee has had two cases under investigation since the last report.

Information was forwarded to the committee that the pedigree of a King Charles Spaniel, registered as “Tootsie” was fraudulent and the parties who had been interested in the sale of the dog W. J. Burkart and J. P. Shea appeared before the Committee and the evidence submitted, was to the effect that Burkart gave a pedigree to Shea to copy. The bitch being one of a number purchased by Burkart and never in Shea’s possession. The only way the latter could get the pedigree was from Burkart, who make no claim that Shea did otherwise than as he was instructed, but avers that there was a mistake made inadvertently.

In the subsequent correspondence which passed between Mr. Nichols (acting as agent for Dr. Croforth) Mr. Nicholas repeatedly refers to the bitch as “Tutti Frutti” and finally in the last letters which he wrote, Burkart, he asks pointedly whether he is right in saying that the bitch is “Tutti Fruittti” and if not, Burkart was requested to at once correct him.

Burkart should by this time have become aware that there was something wrong in the pedigree sent, but he took no step to find out or rectify the error, and it is the opinion of the committee that he should be suspended for a period of six months. The cancellation of the pedigree has also been ordered.

The Committee has gone no further into the case than the question of pedigree and refer the correspondence to the club for further action.

The case of the false pedigree of the pointer bitch Kent’s Maud was again brought before the committee by H.M. Griffin of Fort Dodge. A full statement of the committee’s reasons for taking no action appears in a letter of the committee to Mr. Griffin which is published in the A.K. Gazette for April.

The Committee desired however to call attention to Mr. Bernheimer: I move that this man Burkhardt, referred to in the report of the Stud Book Committee, be suspended for six months for giving a fraudulent pedigree.
Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Bernheimber: I move that the Secretary be instructed to prefer charged against H.M. Griffin for conduct unbecoming of gentleman, and that said charged be referred to the Advisory Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read the following resolutions prepared by a special committee, and on motion the same were adopted and ordered spread upon the Minutes:

WHEREAS it has pleased an all wise Providence to remove from our midst, by death Dr. Nicholas Rowe.

AND WHEREAS, we the members of the American Kennel Club regard him, not only as having been a true and loyal friend, but also as one of the clubs most valued supporters, and especially so at a time when such support was of the greatest assistance to its welfare.

AND WHEREAS we consequently realize the extent of the great loss incurred in his death to us as a staunch supporter and friend, to his family and friends at large, and to the sportsman’s Press of the country in general.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we tender to his family and The American Field our most sincere sympathy in what we regard as our mutual loss and affliction.

RESOLVED That as a further mark of respect there Resolutions be spread upon the Official minutes of the Club, and copies sent to Mrs. Rowe and the American Field.

WHEREAS, in the death of Mr. H.B. Cromwell which occurred in April 1896, the American Kennel Club has sustained a loss of one of its most valued friends and associate members, and

WHEREAS, for two years he was President of the Associate members and one of the officers of the Club.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the sympathy of the A.K.C. be extended to his family in our mutual moss and affliction, and

RESOLVED that as a further mark of respect there resolutions be spread upon the official minutes of the Club and a copy sent to his family.
The report of the Committee on Membership, approving of the application of the M.A.A.C. Rod and Dub Club of Portland, Oregon, for admission to membership, was read, and the Club unanimously elected.

Mr. Schellhadss: I move that the Chairman cast a ballot for the election of Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh as Secretary and Treasurer of the American Kennel Club.

The Chair cast such ballot as directed, and Mr. Vredenburgh was duly declared elected.

On motion, the application for the prefix “La Belle” was granted.

On motion the application on behalf of the National Greyhound Club to transfer the membership of a former club of that name and to use the name “The National Greyhound Club” was granted.

On motion Mr. Horatio Nelson was elected as a delegate from the National Greyhound Club.

The Secretary called attention to a lengthy communication from the Pacific Advisory Committee, submitting certain rules and regulations to the American Kennel Club, and on motion of Mr. Hunnewell the matter was referred to the Committee on Rules and Constitution.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Fred Mansell, for his gift of artist proof of Fox Terrier “Lyons Sting”.

The recommendation of the Secretary that all associate members whose dues for 1896 are not paid within thirty days from this date, be dropped from the roll, was on motion adopted.

Mr. Schellhass submitted the following communication from the New England Beagle Club, which was, on motion, referred to the Committee on Field Trials, and Coursing Meetings.
H.F. Shellhass, Esq.,

My dear Sir: -

As it is absolutely impossible for me to be present at the meeting of the A.K.C. on Thursday I take the liberty of asking you to do me a favor which I assure you will be appreciated. As the delegate from the N.E.B.C. I was instructed to endeavor to have the wins of all dogs, won before the club was a member of the A.K.C., recognized by the A.K.C. I have hoped to be present at the last two meetings to attend to this matter but business has prevented. If you would kindly act in my place in this instance I would consider myself under obligations to you.

Yours very Respy & Truly,

(Signed) H.S. Joslin

Mr. Schellhass: I moved that the resolution, passed at a former meeting of this Club (June 10, 1886) “Resolved, that no member of a club shall officiate at a show as a judge of which he is a member” be rescinded.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Schellhass: I think some action should be taken in the Nicholls Burkhardt matter, as the Committee having it in charge has recommended it. I move that the matter be referred to the Advisory Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion of Mr. Schellhass, a vote of thanks was tendered to the Metropolitan Kennel Club for its courtesy and kindness to the American Kennel Club during the Westminster Kennel Club Show, and for use of its rooms for the annual meeting of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Hunnewell: I move that the Committee on Rules and Constitution be directed to prepare and submit amendments of Rules 9 and 24, referred to here today in the Bell matter so as to cover the rights to make entries by persons not in good standing.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Roby: I have been requested to bring before the Club the question of the advisability of keeping a record of champions. I understand that we have no record of past champions, and I am informed that it would not be very difficult to file a list of past champions, and I therefore make a motion that the Secretary be instructed to keep a list of champions for reference, not to go back prior to January, 1889.

Motion seconded and carried.

At this point Mr. A.H. Heppner arrived, and on being informed of the suspension of the City of Straits Kennel Club, which he represented, requested that the matter be reopened in order that he might make an explanation. Moved and seconded that the matter of the City of the Straits Kennel Club suspension be opened, so that its delegate can state the facts relative to the matter.

Carried.

Mr. Heppner: I think you very much, gentlemen. My Club instructs me to apologize for the error that has been committed, and to assure the American Kennel Club that our Club means to be loyal to it. It was not the intention of our Club means to be loyal to it. It was not the intension of our Club to do anything against the rules, but we were unfortunate in selecting as the head of the Committee for our show a gentleman who had not had any previous experience in matters of that kind, and while he used bad judgment he did not act in bad faith. The forty members of our Club are exceedingly sorry for the situation, and considering that by suspending us you are punishing an entire community for an error committed by one man unintentionally, I would ask that you re-consider the manner in which you punish the Club. I mean to plead guilty, and I accept punishment, but I ask you to make the penalty or punishment such as that the gentleman who committed the error can be punished, and not the whole Club. You might, for instance, impose upon us a fine.
We have endeavored to build up a successful club, and I ask you, instead of disqualifying us or suspending us, to give us an opportunity of paying for our error.

Mr. Bernheimer: I move that the City of the Straits Kennel Club forfeit its deposit of Twenty-five dollars, and, if the same is not paid, said Club to stand suspended for sixty days.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Edwin H. Morris, who had been present, during the proceedings of the meeting, requested an opportunity to be heard on an appeal by him from the sentence of suspension imposed upon by him by the Advisory Committee.
Mr. Oldham: I move that Mr. Morris’ appeal be heard at this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Morris submitted two communications, which he declared to be in the nature of new and additional evidence to that submitted to the Advisory Committee, and made explanations concerning his transactions in showing a bitch at Newburgh.

Mr. Burnitt advised that the matter should be referred back to the Advisory Committee and made a motion to that effect. Mr Morris gave notice that he would decline to again appear before that committee-

Mr. Linck: I move that the suspension be removed from Mr. Morris on the statement and explanations made by him.

Motion seconded and lost.

Mr. Blossom: I move that Mr. Morris’ suspension be removed, and that he be censured for his action in the premises.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Morris thanked the gentlemen for their leniency and the meeting then adjourned.
SPECIAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, HELD AT ITS OFFICES, 55 Liberty Street, Thursday, September 17, 1896.

In the absence of the President and Vice-President Mr. H.H. Hunnewell, Jr., was selected to preside.

PRESENT

American Fox Terrier Club,    H.H. Hunnewell, Jr.
American Spaniel Club,    E.M. Oldham,
Associate Members,    Dr. H.T. Foote,
Boston Terrier Club,    L.A. Burritt,
Baltimore Kennel Association,    William P. Riggs, Collie Club of America,    James Watson
Gordon Setter Club,    James B. Blossom,
National Beagle Club,    H.F. Schellhass,
New Jersey Kennel League,    Frank Linck,
Pacific Kennel Club    James Mortimer,
Pointer Club of America,    George Jarvis,
St. Bernard Club of America,    R.H. Burrows Westminster Kennel Club,    Elliot Smith.

Credentials of the following named gentlemen to represent the following named Clubs were read and the delegates duly elected by ballot:

Poodle Club of America, Henry G. Trever
American Beddington Terrier Club, Thoas Pearsall
Wilmington Kennel Club, Ernest B. Macnair,
Georgia Poultry and Pet Stock Assn., O.H. P. Scott, Baltimore Kennel Assn., William P. Riggs.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There are certain amendments to the rules proposed by the delegate of the Westminster Kennel Club which were submitted to the Committee on Constitution and Rules, and that Committee reported and published its report in the last copy of the Gazette. In that report it recommends the adoption of certain of the amendments proposed by the delegate of the Westminster Kennel Club, and it is opposed to others. The Committee also recommends which in its opinion are deemed better and wise than those now in force.

Mr. Vredenburgh then read the report of the Committee including the proposed amendments, as published in the Gazette.

Mr. Smith: I move that the report be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Smith: As two of these proposed amendments are at my own suggestion, I take the liberty of addressing you. I have only been a member a short time, and during that time I have found that there was a disposition to adopt the report of the Advisory Committee on questions where penalties had been imposed, not only without much debate, but also without any knowledge on the part of the members present, of how or in what manner that Committee arrived at its conclusions. I want to begin by saying that I have a great respect for the work of the Advisory Committee. It has worked hard and conscientiously. I think it is absurd that we should have an Executive Committee composed of each and every member of the Association, the mere change from the name of the Association to an Executive Committee, the members of which are supposed to pass upon the action of the Advisory Committee, and who cannot do it. They cannot do it intelligently because they have no opportunity to review the evidence. If a man gets up in one of our meetings and asks why Mr. so and so was penalized, he cannot arrive at the truth of the matter in any one of our meetings. We would have to sit here for days, and at the same time the Constitution at present provides that the action of the Advisory Committee shall be subject to the Executive Committee.

Secondly, the right of appeal. I am not now speaking of those cases where a Bench Show Committee imposes a penalty, but of those cases which are initiated by the Advisory Committee, which are referred to it, and acted upon by it, and reported to the Executive Committee, and there is absolutely no right of appeal. We cannot go into the evidence which in some cases takes many days to accumulate. We cannot in an afternoon look into the matter intelligently, so I suggest a committee of say five, which shall be called the Board of Appeals, and allow a person to appeal to it who has been penalized, by the Executive Board, we will say, sitting when they please, and taking in testimony, which is almost always dictated to a stenographer, or at any rate it is available, and they shall look into that, and they can act intelligently. That is the first and that is the most important amendment that I have suggested. The answer to that is that other association have not adopted similar methods. That is not to me a matter of any consequence. I do not care whether a Jockey Club or any other club of any other city has adopted any other system or not. The question is, what is right to the person who has been penalized by the Advisory Committee. I say give him the right of review. It is true, that he has a right of review at present, but it is a right of review to what? Why, to themselves. That seems to me a most ridiculous proposition. They propose to give him a right to appeal back to themselves. I repeat, that at present a man has a right to appeal to the Association, but it is of no consequence, in my opinion, because we cannot review the testimony. We cannot look into it. We know by heresay that the Advisory Committee have had sufficient evidence before it to penalize the man, but we do not know it directly by looking at the testimony.

The Chair: Then the decision of the Board of Appeals is not final?

Mr. Smith: Yes, the Club has the right to review the action of the Committee. It is final so far as individual is concerned. It is not final so far as the Club is concerned if they choose to review it.

Mr. Watson: How is this Committee on Appeals going to review the testimony?

Mr. Smith: They naturally must consult with the members of the Advisory Committee and ascertain from their records what the testimony was. The testimony must be taken and reduced to writing.

The next matter of importance is the construction of the present Advisory Committee. At present we elect a man who is an excellent field trial man as chairman of the Field Trial Committee. He may be the best man in that capacity and be entirely inappropriate as a member of the Advisory Committee, and the same way with the Finance Committee: with the exception of the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, who is the Chairman of the second most important committee, they may or may not be good men for that purpose. I propose that instead of electing them in that indirect manner we elect, aside from the President and Vice-President, the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee and the Chairman of the Associate Members, and that the other members be elected directly on their merits as members of the Committee. I do no urge this very positively. I think it is more logical than the present arrangement.

Mr. Watson: I ask for information, if we are going to elect the very best man in the Club for the investigation of testimony and the decision of cases, where are we going to get this Committee on Appeals who are going to review their findings?

Mr. Smith: It may be that you have not the material for two good committees, but I should hate to admit it. I think the material can be found. I would also suggest more frequent meetings of the American Kennel Club than we now have. I move the adoption of the proposed amendment, Sec. 6 of Art. V.

The same is as follows: “Sec. 6. At the annual meeting of the Association of Committee on Appeals, consisting of five delegates, shall be appointed by the President, or, in his absence, by the vice-president. No member of the Executive Committee shall be eligible to the Committee on Appeals. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Appeals to heard and determine all appeals taken from the action of the Executive Committee. It shall make such rules of procedure as it may deem needful, but such rules may at any meeting of the Association be altered or amended by said Association. The action of the Committee on Appeals shall be final, except that the Association may on its own motion review the over-rule its action if it deem best. There shall, however, be not right of appeal to the Association.”

Mr. Watson: I do not think we need any better argument against this than what the delegate has himself said in favor of it. He wants us to elect certain men to act upon this Executive Board, men who are specially competent to consider testimony and decide clearly upon evidence. Before this Executive Board will come all matters of investigation. They would amass all the testimony in the case before the Executive Board. There is very little documentary evidence – and these specially capable gentlemen will have the duty of rendering a decision upon the evidence before them. Then this case may be appealed to this Committee on Appeals, composed of men who are not as capable of rendering a decision in the opinion of the Kennel Club Association, without any knowledge whatever of the testimony, without hearing the evidence, without seeing the witness or understanding how the evidence was brought forward, will have the right to overthrow the decision of the Executive Committee. I do not think anything can be said in favor of such a motion in view of those facts.

Dr. Foote: I desire to say a word on this subject. This work of the American Kennel Club is largely a work of love. It takes us away from business. It takes us away from other things that would be of more interest to us. This afternoon I had a social engagement that I wanted to keep but I thought this matter important enough to set my engagement aside and come down here. It don’t seem to me that any Executive Board are going to be willing to give up their time, perhaps a whole afternoon, in the consideration of a case, and perhaps owing to the absence of some of the witnesses, the appointment of another afternoon to take further testimony, and then be subject to reversal by the Board of Appeals, and with the possibly of their Association taking it up later on and reversing both decisions in case the two Committees agree. It is asking a great deal of an Advisory Board or an Executive Board, as it is now to be termed, to work with such a prospect in view. It don’t matter whether we have an Executive Board, as it is now to be termed, to work with such a prospect in view. It don’t matter whether we have an Executive Board of seven or two dozen, we ought to be able to find enough gentlemen in this Association to act intelligently upon any case and give a final decision. It is not the same with us as it is in the government courts where judges are paid for the work they perform. We have not the time to waste. The appointment of the Executive Board should include the men thought best to fill the position, and it seems to me that a majority vote of that Board ought to be sufficient to settle any case finally. We have had hours of the present Executive Committee taken up with the reconsideration of cases already heard. At the last meeting one of the acts of the Board was set aside and a disqualification or suspension removed without any evidence being brought before the Executive Committee whatsoever. I am not a member of that Board, so I am not speaking from personal motive, but I can appreciate how I would have felt had I been now proposed I doubt very much whether you would find men who would be willing to serve upon an Executive Board. I never had the pleasure of serving on the Executive Board, and I do not want to serve under this proposed arrangement.

Mr. Schellhass: It seems to me that Mr. Smith is getting the cart before the horse. The way the Advisory Committee is made up at the present time is in my judgment the ideal way of making it up. It was formed exactly on the principle that the Board of Review of the National Trotting Association is made up. I object to the Appeal Committee as Mr. Smith suggests it. When we elect this Advisory Committee as we do, we known whom we have on the Advisory Committee. When we make up there committees we know that when we elect John Smith, for instance, as Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, we know we are electing him as a member of the Advisory Committee, and when the Advisory Committee is made up in this way we know we are putting on that Committee the very best men we have. We have a large body to act upon these cases. Mr. Smith’s suggestion is that we have a committee on appeals, which shall be made up not only of a smaller number of men, but made up of men not equal to the men on the Advisory Committee.

Mr. Mortimer: I am in favor of the motion for a Board of Appeals, and I think the every strongest argument that I can adduce in favor of the election of that Committee on Appeals is the very act of the Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee disqualified a man for an offense which he never committed and then afterwards passed a rule to cover it.

Mr. Schellhass: I would like to ask what case is referred to by Mr. Mortimer.

Dr. Foote: I can simply say if you will approve of that amendment you are going to block the machinery of the Club.

Mr. Smith: It seems to me that the only objection made to this proposition shows an inclination on the part of the Advisory Committee to retain everything in their own hands. I do not mean that in a disagreeable way.

Mr. Watson: Suppose you retract it then.

Mr. Smith: I have said nothing which calls for a retraction and I decline to retract anything. Dr. Foote’s suggestion is that because he believes that we have the very best Advisory Committee that can be obtained, and that the system is the best, there should be no right of appeal; that they should act in the case and made their complaint, act upon their complaint, penalize a man and leave him without an recourse to anything. He admits that it is impossible to have a review by a Committee at Large, the Executive Committee or the Association at Large which is of any consequence to anybody, and we agree on that point. I say that there is practically no right to appeal at all, and that a man who has been penalized by the Advisory Committee is gone forever, and when they take the further step of allowing no appeal by the Association at large but only back to themselves, I say it is doing a great injustice to the public.

The Chair: The fact is there is a right of appeal back to the Association.

Mr. Smith: Yes, and which I say amounts to nothing Mr. Schellhass, in touching upon this subject say that the best system is the system we have to-day; that we select the best men for the Advisory Committee. I say that that does not necessarily follow. I make no reflection upon any individual in the present Advisory Committee, but I say the theory is wrong, and that a direct election of an Advisory Committee would be very much better for the Club. Now, if a man has the right of appeal I should propose that he have one that is of some substance. There men say they work hard, that they take a great mass of evidence, and digest it, and make the best report that they know how to make. I believe the do, but in know they have made mistakes. I have seen enough paper to make it certain from my point of view that there have been errors, therefore there should be a right of appeal. I propose that we should have a small body of men whose duty is shall be to go to the Advisory Committee and ascertain on what they acted. They must review the testimony that the Advisory Committee has taken. If the testimony has not been reduced to writing, they must ascertain from their mouths what the testimony was and acted upon it.

Mr. Burritt: May I ask Mr. Smith if under the changes which he proposes here the action of this Committee of Appeals will be any more final than the present action of the Advisory Committee?

Mr. Smith: Surely, if the two Committees agree, it must be final. It cannot be conceived that the Association is going to overrule those two Committees.

Mr. Burritt: If the Association would overrule one committee if might overrule two.

Mr. Smith: Just as you like. I will strike out that part of the amendment. But it seems to me that an important body such as we are ought to have the power to review the action of our committees.

Mr. Burritt: Have we not that power to-day as the American Kennel Club?

Mr. Smith: Yes, and I propose to preserve that right; a right of appeal to a committee that will take the trouble to investigate what has been done by the committee that has disqualified.
Mr. Burritt: In other words, you consider the American Kennel Club as a body to be too large a body or committee in itself to reconsider the present action of the Advisory Committee?

Mr. Smith: I do.

Mr. Burritt: You would have smaller committee reconsider such action before they were taken before the body as a whole?

Mr. Smith: Yes, exactly. By that part of my amendment I simply preserve what we have to-day.

Mr. Burritt: I think this is an important matter and I must confess that my own mind at this moment is not clear enough to let me vote in such a manner that I would feel I should be satisfied with that vote in looking it over later on. I do not think there are enough members of the American Kennel Club present here to-day to voice the opinion of the American Kennel Club on such a change as this, and I would move that this whole matter be laid upon the take, and that it be aired thoroughly and discussed thoroughly before being laid before the members.

Mr. Smith: I accept that with pleasure. It is a question to be talked over and I think that the fact that these proposed amendments have only been published a few days makes it a very good reason why we should lay the matter over.

Dr. Foote objected to the matter being laid over until the annual meeting on the ground of the great volume of business to be transacted at that time, and e was seconded by Mr. Watson.

Mr. Burritt: In looking over these proposed amendments and the report of the Committee on Rules with them, I find several of the amendments approved by the Committee and several of them disapproved. Now, such portions of this report as it is necessary for us to adopt at this meeting, I think we can adopt, if so desired. Such other portions of it as we may desire to lay over for another meeting I think we can lay over, and as I read these, there are parts which in my mind at the present time conflict with other parts. I do not consider myself, speaking for myself, clear headed enough on this question.

Mr. Watson: How long will it take for you to decide it?

Mr. Burritt: That is more than I can answer. I have not studied this thing as much as the Committee on Rules have. I have not had or taken the time to discuss it with myself and examine it. The first thorough reading which they have had from me has been right here to-day. They may have been sent out, but I tell you I am not in position to vote understandingly on this question and I think there are other gentlemen around this table who are in just the position I am. Not understanding these proposed amendments I should vote against them.

Mr Linck supported the motion to lay over.

Mr. Smith: I would like to withdraw my acceptance of the proposition to lay on the table, and move that the proposed amendment to Art. IV. be adopted, also the recommendations as to the amendments to the Bench Show rules.

Mr. Burritt: My motion was that the whole of Article V be laid over.

Mr. Smith: I move that Article IV of the report on page 126, and the Bench Show rules, as they appear at page 128, be adopted.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Burritt: I offer as an amendment to that motion that we take up Article IV. Amendment accepted, seconded and carried.

Mr. Smith: I move that the Bench Show rules on page 128 be adopted.

Mr. Watson: I move that the Recommendation of the committee on the adoption of Sec. 1 of Art. V be approved.

Seconded.

Dr. Foote: I moved as an amendment that we take up the articles in their proper order.

Mr. Burritt: I move the reading of the Bench Show rules.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read the proposed amendment to the Bench Show rules.

Mr. Mortimer moved that the amendments to the Bench Show rules be taken up separately.

The first proposed amendment relative to Rule IX was adopted.

The second proposed amendment to Rule XXIV was also adopted.

Mr. Smith: I moved that the third proposed amendment to the Bench Show rules concerning the licensing of Club be laid upon the table.

Motion seconded.

Dr. Foote: I offer as an amendment that it be either carried or voted down.

Motion lost.
Mr. Burritt: I moved that we reject that proposed amendment. I shall vote against it for the reason that there is nothing at the present time in the Constitution or By-laws of the Kennel Club that gives it permission to license any Club to give a show. There is nothing that states what such license fee shall be.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Smith: I moved the adoption of the last proposed amendment to Rule IX.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Smith: I move that the balance of the Committee’s report be laid over until the annual meeting.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Watson: I offer as an amendment to that motion that we proceed to approve of the recommendation of the Committee with regard to Article V, Sec. 1. We have come here for the purpose of taking some action on these proposed amendments, and I think it is only proper to those who have come at a good deal of inconvenience to be given the opportunity to vote upon this question.

Dr. Foote: I second that motion, and in doing so say that I came here at considerable inconvenience to vote upon this very question. There proposed amendments were published two weeks ago. In adopting Article IV you have done away with an Executive Committee, and your Advisory Committee is an Executive Board. There cannot be a meeting of the Executive Committee called as matters now stand.

The vote on the amendment offered by Mr. Watson to now proceed to approve of the recommendation of the Committee with regard to Article V, Sec. 1, was given by a call of the Clubs and resulted as follows:

Ayes: Spaniel Club, Dr. H.D. Foote of Associate Member Collie Club, Gordon Setter Club, National Beagle Club, St. Bernard Club, Baltimore Kennel Association. 7

The Chair: I declare the amendment lost on the ground that it required a two-thirds vote.
Mr. Smith: I move that the whole report of the Committee on Constitution and Rules except as already adopted by us, be laid over until the annual meeting.

Mr. Waton: I move the adoption of Section 6, under the head of Quorum. Amendment not seconded.

The original motion by Mr. Smith that the balance of the report be laid over until the annual meeting was seconded, and Dr. Foote called for a vote by Clubs. A call of the Club resulted in the following votes.

Nays: Spaniel Club, Dr. Foote, Collie Club, National Beagle Club, Baltimore Kennel Association, 5.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There has been an Advisory Committee on the Pacific coast for the better part of a year. There is no provision made for it in the Constitution; simply by standing resolution and the matter was referred at the last meeting to our Advisory Committee, and the Advisory Committee referred the Rules of Procedure to our Committee on Rules to report. There should be a provision in the Constitution for the Advisory Committee on the Pacific coast, and that provision is worded as follows: Article XIII, Sec. 4. There shall be an Advisory Board composed of one representative from each Club, a member of this Association, and located west of 110th degree of West longitude. It shall meet in the City of San Francisco, California, and shall hold meetings whenever deemed necessary. Its duties shall be advisory and to attend to all matters referred to it by this Association, or its Executive Board, and it shall report the proceedings at each of its meetings to this Association. It shall act under a Code of Rules approved by this Association or its Executive Board."

Mr. Burritt: I move its adoption.

Seconded and carried.

On motion the meeting adjourned

REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, held at its offices No. 55 Liberty Street, Thursday, September 17, 1896.

PRESENT same as at Special Meeting,

Mr. Hunnewell continuing in the Chair

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with.

On motion the Secretary’s report was accepted as printed.

On motion, the Treasurer’s report was accepted as printed.

On motion of Mr. Burritt the report of the Advisory Committee was accepted as printed.

On motion, the application of the San Joaquin Valley Agricultural Association of Stockton, California, for membership, was accepted.

The following petition was received from Irish Terrier owners:

A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq., Sec. American Kennel Club,

Dear Sir:--

The undersigned, being owners, breeders and exhibitors of Irish Terriers, believe that the time is now ripe for some concerted action to be taken with a view to the abolishment of Cropping so far as this breed is concerned. No cropped Irish Terrier born after a certain date can be exhibited in Great Britain, and the breed has arrived at that state of development in America that if we are to have the natural ear – and it is bound to come sooner or later – the time is now ripe to take such steps as will serve to encourage breeding at once for natural ears. With cropping allowed the ear does not receive that decided attention it would if an anti-cropping rule was in force, as the scissors are depended upon the remedy an defect of carriage. More value than ever is now being attached to good ears, and a marked improvement is visible. A very strong feeling has grown up against cropping which was done very extensively in former years. Good ears must now be bred for and breeders will have to produce dogs that do not require cropping. Acting on the advice of the Irish Terrier Club, the English Kennel Club has passed a rule that no cropped Irish Terriers, born since December, 1, 1889, can compete at any shows under their rules.

It is the belief of the Irish Terrier owners that the American Kennel Club has power when petitioned by those directly interested to make a ruling that will debar cropped dogs born after a certain date from competing at shows held under its rules. There is no specialty club for the breed, so it was thought best to issue circulars, of which the following is a copy, to all known Irish Terrier owners:

“A number of Irish Terrier breeders having expressed the wish that cropping in that breed should be abolished, it is proposed to petition the American Kennel Club to make such ruling at their next meeting, September 17, as will debar all cropped Irish Terriers, whelped after January 1, 1897, from competing at shows held under A.K.C. rules. If you are in favor of this please sign your name and return to American Stock-keeper, Boston, Mass., before September 1.

Signed

The vote in favor is practically unanimous; all the prominent breeders are included and only two dissenting votes were received. A number of circulars were issued, but as this is intended to represent only the desire of Irish Terrier owners, signatures representing other breeds are not included.

It is entirely representative of the breed and as such may be taken by the American Kennel Club as an expression of their desire that the Club takes such action as prayed for, and believe that the Club would be entirely justified in doing so.

We hereby file with this memorial the original votes with the signatures of names found below.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Foote moved that the request be laid upon the table.

Mr. Burritt moved as an amendment that the Secretary be instructed to advise the petitioners that such action as they request is outside of the province of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Blossom moved as an amendment that the American Kennel Club has power in the premises and that the request be granted.

Mr. Watson moved as an amendment that the Secretary be directed to advise the petitioners that their proper procedure is to form a Club and adopt a standard.

The previous motions and amendments in regard to this matter being withdrawn, Mr. Watson’s motion was seconded and carried.

The matter of the appeals of Frank F. Dole and John Moorhead Jr., were brought up and the correspondence in the matter read.
Mr. Oldham moved that the appeal be granted and Mr. Dole be reinstated immediately.

Motion seconded by Dr. Foote.

Mr. Mortimer: I would couple with that motion the name of Mr. John Moorehead.

Mr. Watson moved as an amendment that the matter be referred to an Advisory Committee.

Mr. Oldham withdrew his motion

Dr. Foote moved that Mr. Moorehead in consideration of having severed his connection with the Bull Terrier Club be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Watson moved that Mr. Dole's appeal be referred to the Advisory Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

Secretary Vredenburgh submitted a communication from Mr. F. C. Nims of Painesville, Ohio, referred to in his report, and asked instructions from the Club.

Mr. Mortimer moved that the record be changed.

Motion seconded.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary be directed to notify the Columbus Fancier's Club that this Club would make the change suggested within reasonable time to received a reply from the Columbus Club.

Carried.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Mansell for his present to the Club of a photo-gravure of the Fox Terrier “Venio”.

Dr. Foote: I now move that the report of the Advisory Committee be acted upon as a whole, and that the same be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Mortimer said that the Advisory Committee in declaring the forfeiture of the deposit of the PKC was clearly its duty under the rules but that on account of the sickness of the Secretary of the Pacific Kennel Club and the consequent delay in attending to his duties he moved that the fine of twenty-five dollars inflicted upon the Pacific Kennel Club be refunded.

Motion seconded and carried.
The meeting then adjourned.

Also the credentials of G. M. Carnochan, Esq., as a delegate to represent the Metropolitan Kennel Club, were read, and he was duly elected such delegate.

The Secretary read his quarterly report, and on motion the same was accepted and placed on file. It is as follows:
New York, December 5, 1896.

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

Since our regular meeting of September 17th last the Advisory Committee has admitted the Metropolitan Kennel Club, and the Butterfly Bench Show Association to active membership, as will be set forth in its report to this body at this meeting. Subsequent to that meeting, I have received an application for admission to membership from the California State Poultry and Kennel Club, which has been duly approved by the Committee on Membership, and will be submitted at this meeting for your action. With the above named application was received claim for dates for a show to be held in Sacramento, California, on January 9th to 12th, 1897, with the required deposit of twenty-five dollars. Said claim has been duly published in the “Fixtures” in the November Gazette. I find that January 19th, 1897, will fall on Sunday, and it will be advisable to obtain the sense of this meeting on the subject of an A.K.C. show being held on that day of the week. There is no prohibiting it, but as a precedent let me direct your attention to action taken by this club September 17th, 1889, when the application of the Brooklyn Kennel Club and Pet Stock Association was rejected. Said club had advertised to hold a show, one of the days of its continuance falling on Sunday, and the unanimous sense of that meeting was that the American Kennel Club would not permit of the holding of a show under its rules upon the Sabbath Day. There is no reason why the club should not be admitted to membership, but there may be a reason why the American Kennel Club should decline to recognize a show held as proposed.

I beg to submit the resignation of the Rhode Island State Fair Association. This club is in good standing at this date, and its resignation can be accepted.

Credentials are filed from the Central Beagle Club, appointing Dr. W. E. Johnston, of Etna, Pa., as its delegate.

I submit applications for the registration of the following kennel names:

Nov. 4, 1896, Belleplain, by Dr. J. T. Kent.

Nov. 24, 1896, THornhill, by Messrs, C. M. Delfridge and Percy Ward. As these names do not conflict with any so far registered, I would respectfully recommend that they be granted.
I beg to report that a protest was made at the late Stockton Show, a copy of which was duly filed at this office. The Show Committee heard and investigated the cause and refused to sustain the protest, and promptly filed a transcript of the minutes of their proceedings with this office. No appeal has yet been taken.

At the late Mineola show, I find upon examination of the Catalogue, that in Class 42, Irish Setters, No. 92 Kenmore, Jr. and No. 95 Joe, are both entered as having won first prize in the puppy class at the New York Show of 1896. At said show there was one absolute winner of first prize under the name of Kenmore, Jr., owned by the Albany Kennel Club, T. J. Farley, Manager, and there was no entry in the puppy class at that show of any dog by the name of Joe. I am of the opinion that a fraud has been practiced in this matter, and would recommend that the matter be investigated by a special committee, and if found to be of a fraudulent character, that charges be preferred against the guilty party and referred to the Advisory Committee.

I beg to report the following:

Disqualified for violation of rules:

1. Rhode Island State Fair Association, at Providence, R. I., Fox Terrier, Hill Hurst Pearl for being transferred against the rules.
3. Milwaukee Kennel and Pet Stock Association, Beagle Bitch Kitty Clover, for being entered in open class after having qualified for and winning in a challenge class.
4. Queens County Agriculture Society, at Mineola, L.I., Blenheim Spaniel, Murillo, Ruby Spaniel, Princess Bee, for being transferred against the rules.

Black and Tan Terrier, Flora Balacy’s for being incorrectly entered as a Registered bitch.

In case No. 2 the party claims that the puppy was actually over six months of age, but both the entry in the catalogue, and the listing, gave the age as under six months of age.
In case No. 3, it is but is just to the owner to say that his bitch was entered and shown by an agent, and he had no knowledge of her having been entered at Milwaukee, until he received my notice of her disqualification.

In case no. 4, the superintendent of the show transferred both dogs when his attention was called to them while in the ring. Under the rules show officials cannot transfer any dog from a wrong class to the correct one, provided the error has been made by the person making the entries.

There are several cases at the late Brooklyn show that I shall investigate and decided later.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vrendenburgh,
Secretary.

The Treasurer's report was read, and on motion accepted and placed on file. It is as follows:

New York, December 5\textsuperscript{th}, 1896.

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1896:

\begin{align*}
\text{Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1896,} & \quad $2,233.08 \\
\text{Receipts from all sources to date,} & \quad 6,475.37 \\
\text{Total,} & \quad 8,708.45 \\
\text{Disbursements from Jan. 1, 1896, to date,} & \quad 6,343.82 \\
\text{Balance on hand} & \quad 2,364.63
\end{align*}

I beg to report that bills for annual des for 1897 were mailed to all of our clubs on November 30\textsuperscript{th}, and I would urge them to remit promptly, as all clubs failing to pay such dues before January 1\textsuperscript{st} next are deprived of representation, and may be dropped from membership at the following meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer.
The report of the Advisory Committee was read as published in the Gazette, and on motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The application of the California State Poultry and Kennel Club for membership in the American Kennel Club was read, and the same having been approved by the Membership Committee, was duly elected.

The Chair: You may now take up the question of whether this club shall be permitted to hold its show on Sunday, as proposed.

Mr. Mortimer: Although I am a strict observe of the Sabbath myself, I think the surroundings possibly are so different in California from what the are here that I don’t know why we should be called upon to prevent them holding their show on Sunday if they deem proper. I know that they hold coursing meetings in San Francisco and different parts of California on Sunday, and I should be in favor of leaving the matter entirely to the option of the club. There is no law against holding a dog show on Sunday that I am aware of, neither have we anything in our constitution prohibiting it.

Mr. Burritt: Is not that a question which should come under the jurisdiction of the Pacific Coast Advisory Committee?

Dr. Foote: I think they are the proper people to act upon it, and I move that the advisability of including Sunday in bench show dates be referred to the Advisory Committee of the Pacific Coast, with power.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the resignation of the Rhode Island State Fair Association was accepted.

On motion, the applications for registration of kennel names were granted as follows:

Dr. J. T. Kent, Bellplain

Messrs. C.M. Selfridge and Percy Ward, Thornhill

Concerning the recommendation of the Secretary in regard to fraudulent practices at the Mineola show, Mr. Mortimer said: As I understand the matter, this man Farley entered two Irish Setter puppies. I can’t tell the date of birth, because I don’t recollect it, but I believe we have those original entry forms on file, and with on of these puppies whose name was Kenmore, Jr., he won first prize in the puppy class, and sold this dog to a man by the name of Harley. Afterwards, on the second day of the show, he sold another dog to Mr. Wakeman, which he represented to be the dog Kenmore, Jr., which won the first prize, he moved that dog to stall occupied formerly by a dog which had won a minor prize, and moved the other dog up to the first prize stall. Mr. Wakman came along and bought the second puppy, and when the entries were made at the Mineola show, the first entry was made by Mr. Harley of Kenmore, Jr. Then I received an entry from Mr. Wakeman of Joe, formerly Kenmore, Jr., giving the same pedigree and winner of the first prize, puppy class, New York, 1896. I wrote to Mr. Wakeman to send me all the circumstances, &c., and also to Mr. Harley. Of course these letters will be put in as evidence when the case comes up. I have no doubt but what Farley has perpetrated a fraud on one of those purchasers.

Mr. Schellhass: I move that the Chair appoint a special committee to investigate this matter, and report.

Motion second and carried.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Mortimer, Burritt and Blossom as such committee.

Relative to the disqualification at the Queens County Agricultural Show, Mr.
Mortimer explained that he ahs made the transfers referred to without thinking that it was in violation of the rules, and called attention to the hardship upon exhibitors of the rule as at present enforced, and moved that the last line of Rule II for the Government of dog shows be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Rules for modification, and that such committee report in time to be published in the next number of the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

St. Bernard Club of California, George Bargate

The following certificate of Election of Associate Members was read:
Certificate of Election of Officers and Delegates of the Associate Members for the year 1897.
To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, Edward Brooks, representing the President of the America Kennel Club, and H. H. Hunnewell, Jr., the President of the Associate Members of the American Kennel Club, met this day at the office of the American Kennel Club, for the purposes of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, for the officers, and the delegates of the Associate Members of said club to hold office for one year from February 24th, 1897.

We found the total number of associates entitled to vote to be 129. Total number of votes cast, 80. Total number of votes rejected on account of irregularity, none. Total number of votes scattering, 20.

We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greatest number of votes to be duly elected as officers and delegates of the Associate Members for the year ending in February, 1898, to-wit:

President  H. H. Hunnewell, Jr.
Vice President  H. G. Trevor
Secretary  F. E. Lewis
Delegate (1)  A. C. Wilmerding
Delegate (2)  H. K. Bloodgood
Delegate (3)  G. W. H. Ritchie

Signed,

Edward Brooks,
Representing the President A. K. C.

H. H. Hunnewell, Jr.,
President Associate Members A. K. C.

Attest,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary, A.K.C.

Credentials were read of the following named delegates to represent the following named clubs, and on motion accepted:

Brunswick Fur Club,                    Noel E. Money
Westminster Kennel Club,               B. R. Kittredge
Irish Terrier Club                     W. L. Beadleston
New England Field Trial Club           Arthur E. Sharp

A letter was read from the President of the Duquesne Kennel Club, appointing B. S. Horm to represent that club at this meeting of the American Kennel Club was read, and declared by the Chairman to be not proper in form.

On motion the minutes of the last annual meeting, were accepted as published in the Gazette.

On motion the financial report was accepted as published in the Gazette.

The election of officers now being in order, Mr. Schellhass nominated Mr. August Belmont as President.

Mr. Burritt: I move the nominations close.
Seconded and carried.
Mr. Burritt moved that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for Mr. Belmont as President.
Seconded and carried.

The Secretary cast the ballot as directed, and Mr. Belmont was declared duly elected President of the Club.

Mr. Edward Brooks was nominated for the office of Vice President, and on motion the nomination were closed.

On motion, the secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Mr. Brooks as Vice President.

The Secretary cast such ballot, and Mr. Brooks was declared duly elected.
Mr. Schellhass nominated Mr. James Watson as Chairman of the Stud Book Committee.

On motion the nominations were closed, and the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Mr. Watson.

The Secretary cast such ballot, and Mr. Watson was declared elected.
Mr. Burritt moved the nomination of the retiring members of the Stud Book Committee, Messrs. Schellhass and Knocker.

On motion the nominations were closed, and Messrs. Schellhass and Knocker were declared elected as members of the Stud Book Committee, on the casting of a ballot by the Secretary, as directed.

Mr. Vredeburgh: There is only one member of the Field Trial and Coursing Meetings Committee to be elected, and that is the chairman. The others become members by virtue of being delegates of Field Trials or Coursing Clubs.

Mr. Schellhass was nominated as the Chairman of such committee, and on motion the nominations were closed, and the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for the election of Mr. Schellhass.

The Secretary cast such ballot and Mr. Schellhass was declared elected.

Mr. Schellhass nominated Mr. H. K. Bloodgood as chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Rules.

On motion the nominations were closed, and the Secretary directed to cast one ballot for the election of Mr. Bloodgood.

The Secretary cast such ballot, and Mr. Bloodgood was declared elected.

Mr. Watson nominated Mr. G. W. H. Ritchie as a member of the Committee on Constitution and Rules in the place and stead of Dr. H. T. Foote.

On motion the nominations were closed, and the Secretary directed to cast a ballot for the election of Mr. Ritchie.

The Secretary cast such ballot, and Mr. Ritchie was declared elected.

Messrs. James Watson and H. F. Schellhass were nominated for re-election as members of the Committee.

On motion nominations were closed, and the Secretary directed to cast a ballot for their election.

The Secretary cast such ballot, and Messrs. Watson and Schellhass declared elected.

For members of the Finance Committee Mr. Schellhass nominated the present committee, with Mr. A. Clinton Wilmerding as Chairman, and Mr. L.A. Burritt in the place of Mr. James Mortimer.

On motion nominations were closed, and the Secretary directed to cast a ballot for their election.
The Secretary cast such ballot, and Messrs. Wilmerding, Blossom and Burritt were duly declared elected as members of the Finance Committee.

Capt. Knocker nominated as members of the Membership Committee Messrs. Oldham and Bernheimer.

On motion nominations were closed, and the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for their election.

The Secretary cast such ballot, and the above named gentlemen declared elected.

Mr. Vrendenburgh: The only new business that I have to place before you are the credentials from the Canadian Kennel Club, which I will read:

"Toronto, February 18th, 1897.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee on Saturday last Mr. McEwen was appointed a delegate to confer with the American Kennel Club as to terms of reciprocal agreement, and failing better terms to finally close with the American Kennel Club on the basis of the agreement rejected by the C.K.C. three years ago."

Mr. McEwen is present, and has associated with him Dr. Mills, and I would like to state that I have received a letter from Mr. Donovan, Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, a week or ten days ago, notifying me of the appointment of Mr. McEwen, and I suggested that it would be better for him when he has done, and filed with me. It now rests with the delegates whether they will receive Mr. McEwen as the representative of the C.K.C.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I move that Mr. McEwen and Dr. Mills be given the privilege of the floor.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. McEwen: I have no idea of addressing you at any length with regard to C.K.C. matters. You are all cognizant of the facts in regard to the relation which exists between the two clubs, but I wish to impress upon you the fact that it is to the advantage, I am sure you will agree with me, of both clubs that some agreement should exist between them. I do not look upon it in the light that I might. Make any suggestions here in regard to what would be to the interests of our club, or what agreement we should enter into but if you thought it advisable to appoint a committee to confer with representatives of our club, I am sure we would be very much pleased to meet with you, and endeavor to come to some amicable arrangement.

Mr. Taylor: I move that the chairman appoint a committee of three to confer with the committee form the Canadian Kennel Club to see if we can come to some amicable arrangement.

Motion seconded and carried.

The chairman appointed as such committee Messrs. J. M. Taylor, James Watson and A. P. Vredenburgh.

The report of the Committee on Constitution and Rules, as published in the August and January numbers of the Gazette, regarding the amendments that were put over form the September meeting, was read, and after considerable discussion, unanimously adopted.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I think it would be well for the club to fix a date for these rules to go into effect, so that we can go on with our business and not be hampered by the new constitution.

Mr. Burritt moved that the changes in the constitution take effect March first.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh ; There is a matter I would like to bring up as coming from the committee on rules. The Bull Terrier Club is a suspended club. They have no right to representation here. They sent me a letter probably six weeks ago, asking what rights they had in offering prizes at different bench shows, and whether the bench shows could accept such prizes from a suspended club. I told them that I could not give them any ruling. There was no rule in existence on the subject, and no precedent, and the only thing I could do was to refer it to the next meeting of the club. I think this matter can be arranged by passing a resolution.

Mr. Brooks resigned the Chair to Mr. Hunnewell and offered the following resolution: That no special or regular prize can be accepted from any person or club under suspension or disqualification.

Resolution seconded and carried.

The annual meeting then adjourned.

On motion the minutes of the last meeting of the Executive Committee were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary then read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, February 23rd, 1897.

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

Since my last report three applications for admission have been received. As the report of the Membership Committee to be read at this meeting will fully cover all that is to be said regarding them I will not trouble you with any of the details of the matter.

I beg to submit the following resignations:
Jan. 2, 1897, Northwestern Beagle Club.
Jan. 26, 1897, Live Stock Society of America.
Jan. 26, 1897, Washington City Kennel Club.

The following credentials have been duly filed:
Feb. 5, 1897. W. L. Beadleston, from Irish Terrier Club.
Feb. 23, 1897. B. S. Horn, from Duquesne Kennel Club.

Application has been filed for registration of the Kennel name “Rambleside,” by Mrs. William Bloodgood. This does not conflict with any registration so far accept and I would therefore respectfully recommend the granting of the same.

I beg to submit the following communications: A circular issued by the Canadian Kennel Club, setting forth its arguments and reasons why there should be reciprocity between it and this club. A letter from the Secretary of the C.K.C., advising us of the appointment of two gentlemen as representatives of said club, to confer with the delegates of the A.K.C. on the subject of reciprocity.

A request from the Bull Terrier Club of America for a ruling as to whether the suspension of said club effects its offering special prizes at shows held by our members.

A recommendation from Mr. Samuel Hammond on the subject of making a new rule, compelling specialty clubs to file each year a correct list of accepted judges, and roll of membership with the A.K.C.

A recommendation from Mr. Charles M. Byrant, on the subject of making a new rule to govern all breeds of dogs where divided by the weight limit.

I beg to submit an appeal from Fred J. Rommell, Chicago, Ill., for reinstatement. He was disqualified upon the recommendation of the Stud Book Committee, Oct. 27, 1893, for giving out false pedigree.
The New England Beagle Club has filed a certified list of awards when at the Field Trials in 1893 and 1894, requesting the A. K. C. to recognize them. This matter was referred to our Field Trials and Coursing Meetings Committee at the last meeting, which committee will report its recommendations at this meeting.

I have to report that at the last show of the New England Kennel Club, at Boston, there were seventeen violations of the rules of the A.K.C. Rule XVII of the dog show rules provides that exhibitors shall specify on entry forms to shows a sufficient number of first prizes wins to show that the entry is eligible to compete in the challenge class. I called for the original entry forms, and upon examination I found that the following violations were the fault of the exhibitors:

Class 60, Challenge Pointers, “Alice Leslie” Reserved.

- 85, Spaniels, “Woolton Baron” Reserved.
- 86, “Scandal” Reserved.
- 91, “Middy” Second.
- “Commodore” Reserved.
- 92 “Woodland Princess” Second.
- 93 “Goldie S” Reserved.

Class 163 Challenge, Fox Terriers, “Warren Safe Guard” Reserved.

- 164 “Warren Captious” First.

The above eleven cases I have disqualified, and where necessary marked up the dog receiving the award next in order of merit, under the rules.

The following violations were the fault of the New England Kennel Club, in not publishing a sufficient number of first wins that the exhibitor had specified on his entry from, as per rule XIV regulations governing clubs.

Class 4, Challenge, Bloodhounds, “Nenus’

- 102 Cl[j]umbers, “Glenwood Greeting.”
- 117 Fox Terriers, “Thornfield Knockout”
- 182 Scottish Terriers, “Rhudunan.”
- “Wankie Tam.”
- 183 “Wankie Diana.”
The above six entries having been correctly made by the exhibitors, I have forfeited the deposit, $25. made by the New England Club, under rule II governing clubs, and the awards stand as made by the judge.

Respectfully submitted.

A.P. Vredenburgh.

On motion the same was received and placed on file.

The treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, February 23rd, 1897.

To the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1, 1897.

Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1897, $3,256.97
Receipts from all sources to date, 1,946.25
Total, 5,203.22
Disbursements from Jan. 1, 1897, 664.16
Balance on hand, $4,539.06

I beg to report the following clubs now in arrears for dues for 1897, which were due and payable on or before January 1st, 1897.

Alameda Co. Sportsmans Association
American Mastiff Club
City of the Straits Kennel Club
New Jersey Kennel Club
Queens County Agricultural Society
Rensalaer Kennel Club
San Joaquin Valley Agricultural Association
Seattle Kennel Club
Wilmington Kennel Club (Since paid)

In the matter of the arrears of the Seattle Kennel Club I beg to submit a communication, advising us of the suspension of the bank in which its funds were deposit, and promising to liquidate as soon as possible.
I would suggest that the usual method heretofore adopted by this body is to notify the clubs in arrears that in case the dues were not paid within 30 days their names would be dropped from the roll of membership. This plan I would recommend at this meeting, except in the case of the Seattle Kennel Club above referred to.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer.

On motion the same was received and placed on file.

The report of the Advisory Committee was read, and is as follows:

Meeting of the Advisory Committee, held at 55 Liberty street, New York, Feb. 6, 1897.

Absent: Messrs. A. Belmont, J. Watson and E.M. Oldham.

Meeting called to order at 1:30 P.M., with Vice President Edward Brooks residing.

The following matters were submitted and acted upon:

American Kennel Club
Vs. Re misconduct in connection with
T. J. Farley. Dogs.

In this case Farley, it is alleged, sold two Irish Setter puppies, at the W.K.C. show at New York, in Feb., 1896, representing both to be named Kenmore Jr., and that both were winners of the first prize in the puppy class at said show. From the evidence produced before the investigating committee appointing to make its investigation in the above fraudulent sale, one of the puppies did win the first prize, and was sold as Kenmore, Jr., and thereafter removed from his stall, and the other puppy was placed in the vacant stall, having the award card of the first prize still upon it, and said puppy was sold later, also as Kenmore Jr., and winner of the first prize in the puppy class at said show. From sworn statements of the purchasers it appears that Farley sent to one of the purchasers the first prize diploma issued by the W.K.C., and to the other purchaser the first prize card and ribbon. Upon the recommendation of said investigation committee charged were prepared and forwarded to Farley by registered mail, and his receipt was duly returned mail, and his receipt was duly returned by the post office authorities. Farley made a written denial of the charges, but failed to confirm it by affidavits or personal appearance.

Ordered, That said Farley be and is hereby disqualified.

Active Membership: Re Application for Admission.

Ordered, That as the following applications are duly approved by the Membership Committee, the clubs so applying are hereby declared active members of the American Kennel Club, and as such are entitled to all the privileges.

Irish Terrier Club of America
Kansas City Kennel Club
Kentucky Kennel Club

Kennel Names and Prefixes Re Application for Registry.

Ordered, That as the claims do not conflict with any so far registered, the following applications are hereby granted:

Abaco, Mrs. M.P. Dawson
Briar Cliff, E.J. & F. Becker
Bristol, Oliver Ames
Cherokee, W. S. Applegate
Diamond, M.M. Mitchell
Hudson, C.H. Mantler
Rodney, C.C. Hopton
Shiloh, Wm. Le Monnier
Woodbine, Frederick Jacobi

Recommendation by Re Salaries for 1897

Finance Committee

Ordered, That the recommendation of the Finance Committee under date of January 26, 1897, be and is hereby approved.

Adjourned,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.
On motion the same was received and placed on file.

The report of the Field Trial Committee was read, and is as follows:

Field Trial Committee meeting held December 7th, 1896, at the office of the American Kennel Club, 55 Liberty Street, New York City.

Application of the New England Beagle Club to have the wins of their first and second Annual Field Trials held respectively in 1893 and 1894 recognized, was referred to this committee. It was the sense of the committee that whereas the American Kennel Club has no code of rules regarding classification in Field Trials as it has of the Bench Shows, the same prejudice against the admission of past wins does not exist in the former case as it would in the latter. More particularly there being no American Kennel Club compulsory rule of classification as regard Field Trials, the quality and number of the entries was not adversely influenced by the fact that the wins did not count as a qualification for championship honors as would have been the case in a bench show.

Other mitigating circumstances were held to be that at the time these trials were held Beagle Field Trials were in their infancy, only one Beagle Field Trial Club being a member of the American Kennel Club. Again, the Field Trials in question in point of number and quality of entries, were fully up to the standard of the other trials held at that time.

In view of the above facts the committee beg to recommend the recognition of the wins applied for, upon the payment to the American Kennel Club of one-half of the usual annual dues for the time in question; that is to say, the sum of $5 for the year 1894.

Respectfully submitted,

Herman F. Schellhass,
Chairman Field Trials and Coursing Meetings.

Feb. 24th, 1897.
On motion the same was accepted, and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

Mr. Vredenburgh: At the September meeting there was referred to the Pacific Advisory Board the question of whether or not the California State Poultry and Kennel Association could hold their show on a Sunday. I have here the report of the Pacific Advisory Board on that subject, which I will read:

San Francisco, December 29th, 1896.

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh,
Sec. A. K. C.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your instructions the Pacific Advisory Board held a meeting on December 29th, 1896, to consider the question of the California State Poultry and Kennel Association holding its bench show on Sunday, Jan. 10th, as referred by the A.K.C. to this Board. After a canvas of the subject, the following resolution was adopted:

“Whereas, the California State Poultry and Kennel Association has already completed arrangements for holding its bench show on certain dates, therefore be it

Resolved, that the best interests of said association demand that the dates claimed, viz., Jan 9, 10, 11 and 12, 1897, be granted it, notwithstanding the fact that one of these dates falls on Sunday.

Resolved, that the Pacific Advisory Board, by the authority in it bested by the A.K.C. does hereby consent to the holding of said show in the city of Sacramento on Jan. 9, 10, 11, and 12, 1897.

Very respectfully,

H.T. Payne,
Sec. Pac. Ad. Board.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Vredenburgh: At the Stockton Show there was a protest made by a man of the name of Heller, against an award to a Bull Terrier named “Harper Whiskey.” The ground of the protest was that the dog belonged to the Judge; that the dog was shipped to the judge; that Mr. Heller had the shipping tag; that he took off the tags, and he also protested on the ground, that the dog was deaf. The Stockton club did not sustain the protest. Mr. Heller then appealed from their decision, and I sent the papers out to the Pacific Advisory Board to investigate and to send forward their investigations. Here is their report:
San Francisco, February 12, 1897.

To the American Kennel Club,

New York.

Gentlemen:

The case of the appeal of E. S. Heller from the decision of the Bench Show Committee of the San Joaquin Valley Agricultural Association on the protest against the bull terrier dog “Harper Whiskey” was taken up by the Pacific Advisory Board at its regular meeting held on Feb. 2d.

All parties were notified to appear and the accompanying papers and evidence were submitted, both parties stating that they had no further evidence to submit. After a careful reading of the evidence submitted by the parties, and a careful consideration and examination of dates, the Board was yet unable to form any conclusion regarding the charge of deafness, and therefore a recess was taken until Friday, Feb. 12th in order that the members of the Board might make a personal examination of the dog and give his hearing a thorough test. When the Board again convened a thorough test of his hearing was made. The members of the Board present were F.W. D'Evelyn, J. G. Barker, Dr. A.C. Davenport, J.W. Keene, and H.T. Payne, and they are unanimous in submitting for your consideration the following findings and recommendations.

We find that the dog Harper Whiskey was the bonafide property of J. J. Sparrow at the time of his entry in the Stockton show, and that the money was paid for the dog in the day before the entry was made, and that said entry was made within the legal time. We find that at the present time the dog Harper Whiskey is so deaf that he cannot hear the ordinary method of command, but we can procure no evidence as to whether this condition did exist at the time of the Stockton show, further than the evidence presented to the Bench Show Committee at the time of hearing the protest, which is herewith submitted.

In View of this inability to determine the dog’s condition at the time of the show, we would most respectfully recommend that the appeal be dismissed and the award allowed to stand.
In consideration of the conflicting testimony on the point of deafness, and our inability to ascertain whether the dog was actually afflicted at the time of the show to an extent sufficient to disqualify him, and our certain knowledge that he is deaf at present, we would further recommend that the forfeit money put up by Mr. Heller be refunded to him.

Very respectfully submitted,
Pacific Advisory Board,
By H.T. Payne,
Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There is another report from the Pacific Advisory Board, as follows:

Resolutions adopted by the Pacific Advisory Board at its regular monthly meeting on Feb. 2d, 1897.

Whereas, the death of the Pacific Kennel Club opens the door for the organization of a first class bench show association, composed of a better element that has heretofore been connected with the management of kennel exhibition in San Francisco, and

Whereas, the Olympic Gun Club, an organization to which bench shows will be only a secondary consideration, is a seceding faction from the largest and most popular Athletic and social club in the State, and is held by said athletic club in disrepute and distrust; and

Whereas, should the said Olympic Gun Club become a member of the A.K.C. its bench shows would be under the control of the same men whose efforts have not been employed to better the welfare of kennel matters --- in fact being detrimental instead of beneficial, therefore be it

Resolved, that in the opinion of this Board it would be a stroke of bad policy on the part of the American Kennel Club to grant a franchise to the said Olympic Gun Club, or to any other organization whose very objects and purposes would necessitate the making of bench shows a secondary and minor feature.

Resolved, that the American Kennel Club be, and it is hereby requested by the Pacific Advisory Board – in the fulfillment of what it deems to be its duty – to refuse admission to the Olympic Gun Club, in order that a kennel club, pure and simple, may be organized and admitted to membership, and the holding of annual bench shows placed in the hands of an organization whose best efforts will be exerted in the advancement of the kennel interests of San Francisco and the whole coast.

Resolved, that the Secretary of this Board be instructed to forward at once a copy of these resolutions to the American Kennel Club.

Attest,

A.T. Payne,
Sec. Pac. Ad. Board.

Mr. Burritt moved that these resolutions be laid upon the table.

Mr. Vredenburgh: In connection with this I will read the report of the Committee on Membership:

New York, February 23d, 1897.

To the American Kennel Club.

Gentlemen:

Your committee begs to report the reception of three applications for admission to the American Kennel Club from clubs located in California, to-wit: The Olympic Gun Club of San Francisco; the San Francisco Kennel Club, of San Francisco; the Santa Clara Valley Poultry and Kennel Club, of San Jose.

Two of these applications are approved by your committee, namely the San Francisco Kennel Club and the Santa Clara Valley Club. In withholding its approval from the application of the Olympic Dun Club, it deems it best to state its reasons to your body, to enable you to act intelligently in casting your votes for the clubs you believe will best serve the kennel interests on both the Pacific Coast and the American Kennel Club. The Pacific Kennel Club, through its Secretary-Treasurer, wired under date of January 19th, as follows: “Pacific Kennel Club disbanded, endorsing Olympic Gun Club, see letter.” This was followed by a letter confirming the telegram, and signed by C.A. Haight, Secy-Treasurer, which was in turn followed by a letter confirming both the foregoing, and signed by Horace W. Orear, Secy. The Olympic Gun Club wired January 27th: “Olympic Gun Club applied for membership A.K.C. Letter to follow. Reserve dates.” Signed M.C. Allen. The Pacific Advisory Board wired February 2d: “Reserve action on Olympic Gun Club application, resolution mailed.” The San Francisco Kennel Club wired February 4: “San Francisco Kennel Club organized, formal application, constitution and money forwarded by mail. If admitted, wire, as pressed for time.” Signed J.F. De Ruyter, Prest. On February 6th the formal application of the Olympic Gun Club was received, which, however did not comply with our rules, in that no copy of its constitution was filed. Notice was promptly mailed to its secretary requesting a copy of said constitution, which has just come to hand, but in it there is no provision for holding of dog shows. On February 11th the formal application of the San Francisco Kennel Club was received, complying in all particulars with the requirements of your club.

On February 6th the Pacific Advisory Board forwarded a copy of the proceedings of its regular meeting held February 2d, recommending that the admission of a kennel club, pure and simple, would best advance the interests of San Francisco, and the whole coast. As the report of the Pacific Advisory Board on this subject will be submitted at this meeting, it would be unnecessary to quote from it. Several letters are also on file favoring the admission of a kennel club, in preference to a gun club.

Your committee therefore report that technically it can do nothing else than disapprove of the admission of the Olympic Gun Club, for the reason that its application is not complete. It does approve of the admission of the San Francisco Kennel Club, for the reason that it being a club organized solely for the purpose of holding bench shows in the City of San Francisco, and endorsed by the Pacific Advisory Board, it is deemed to be the best for kennel interests.

The application of the Santa Clara Valley Poultry and Kennel Club of San Jose, Cal., being filed in proper form, its admission if therefore recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

E. M. Oldham,
Chairman.

A.P. Vredenburgh
Chas. D. Bernheimer.

Mr. Bargate said the feeling was very strong in San Francisco over this matter; that he had been written to by members of the old Pacific Kennel Club to use his best endeavors in behalf of the admission of the Olympic Gun Club, and that he thought is was wrong to characterize it exclusively as a gun club.
MR. KNOCKER: It is exclusively a gun club.

The Chairman: The committee on membership has reported that their constitution is not in form with the requirements of the A. K. C.

Mr. Vredenburgh: As the application now stands the Olympic Gun Club is not eligible to election in this club.

Mr. Schellhass: In view of those facts I move the adoption of the report of the Membership Committee.

The Chairman: The first business in order is the adoption of the letter of the Pacific Advisory Board.

Captain Knocker asked that the correspondence on both side be read.

Mr. Schellhass: I desire to state that this matter is thoroughly understood by the Membership Committee. They had all the details of the controversy that has been going on before them, and they have thoroughly thrashed the matter out. They recommend the admission of the San Francisco club, and they had the report of the Pacific Advisory Board, which recommends the same thing, and Captain Knocker favors the San Francisco Kennel Club.

The Chairman: I don’t think it is necessary to go into that, particularly as we have the report. It was not organized for the purpose of giving bench shows.

It is moved and seconded that the report of the Pacific Advisory Board be accepted and placed on file.

Carried.

Mr. Burritt moved and acceptance of the report of the Membership Committee, and the adoption of its recommendations, upon the ground that the Olympic Gun Club is not eligible to membership.

Seconded and carried.

The applications of the San Francisco Kennel Club and the Santa Clara Valley Club for admission were then balloted upon, and subsequently declared elected to membership.

The election of a Secretary-Treasurer now being in order, Mr. Burritt nominated Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh.

Seconded by Mr. Schellhass.

On motion the nominations were closed, and Mr. Vredenburgh was duly declared elected Secretary-Treasurer.
On motion the application for the registration of the Kennel name “Rambleside” was granted.

The resignations of the Live Stock Association, the Washington City Kennel Club and the Northwestern Beagle Club were read, and on motion accepted.

On motion the two communications referred to in the Secretary’s report as received from Messrs. Hammond and Bryant, were referred to the Committee on Constitution and Rules.

On motion the appeal of Fred J. Rommel was referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Mr. Blossom moved that the recommendations contained in the report of the committee on Field Trials be adopted and placed on file.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have only one more thing to refer to, and that is the very unpleasant duty that I felt called upon to perform in the matter of the violations of the rules by exhibitors and by the New England Kennel Club. I do not make the rules. As I understand my duties, I am elected to see that the rules are lived up to. In the case of the New England Kennel Club I had to disqualify, under those rules, the wins of dogs which belonged possibly to some of closest friends that I personally have in the dog world, and there is no club that is a member of the American Kennel Club that I feel warmer toward or in which I think I have so many personal acquaintances and friends than the New England Kennel Club.

The Chairman: What was the violation, that they were not properly entered in the challenge class?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes. I called for the original entry form, and I found that [a]ll of them were the fault of the exhibitors, which compelled the disqualifications of those wins. I found six cases where the exhibitor had recorded on his entry blank a sufficient number of wins to entitle him to entry in the challenge class, but the New England Kennel Club, in printing its catalogue, failed to print the wins to show that they were eligible for that class. I had no discretion. I do not want any discretion. It is simply whether the rule as it now exists ought to be changed, or, if it is not changed, whether this club will instruct me not to put them in force, or to see that they are enforced. If there is nothing said about it, if it hits friend or foe, I have to carry them out. Unfortunately in looking over the official catalogues that are sent to me discover errors, and undoubtedly there are many errors that I do not discover. I have within a few days discovered that notwithstanding the original entry forms that I had called for from the Metropolitan Kennel Club, which held its show in Brooklyn, there were several violations of the rules, or apparent violations of the rules, or apparent violations of the rules that I had overlooked. I called for seven and found that seven were the fault of the exhibitors. I disqualified the dogs. I now find that I overlooked violations that appear to be the fault of the Metropolitan Kennel Club, and I shall certainly call for those entry forms, and unless instructed to the contrary, I shall do as I did with the New England Kennel Club, disqualify the dogs or forfeit $25. from the Metropolitan Club.

Mr. Oldham asked the Secretary a number of questions for information, one of which was whether a club is liable at any time to have its $25 forfeited on account of a printer’s error.

Mr. Vredenburgh: No. Anything that you can show or will say is a printer’s error, so far as I am concerned, I will take a man’s word for it. If you will make the statement now, or send me an official communication that these changes were printer’s errors I will send a check for $25, to you at once.

Mr. Little: In the rush and hurry of business which come before committees printer’s error will occur, and I would ask the A.K.C. to reconsider the mater with a view to removing the penalty.

Mr. Watson: Under the new constitution we have a penalty provided of $5 for each offence. I think that this enforcement of this $25 penalty is rather severe, and I move that the $25 penalty or forfeit be returned to the New England Kennel Club.

Motion seconded.

The Chairman: Our bench show committee made errors in making up their catalogues, and I think they should be punished jus as much as any other club in the circuit.

Mr. Knocker: I move that the whole thing be condoned with regard to the New England Kennel Club.

Mr. Brooks resigns the chair to Mr. Hunnewell, and moves that the recommendations contained in the Secretary’s report be adopted.

Mr. Little: In my letter I omitted to state that the club did not wish to evade any responsibility that belongs to it.
Mr. Hunnewell: If we are going to impose penalties on other clubs, and we have enforced our $25 fines on small clubs, then the New England Kennel Club, being a large club, should be held to the fine of $25 if they have violated any rule.

Mr. Brooks’ motion for the adoption of the recommendations contained in the Secretary’s report, was seconded and carried.

Mr. Little: I desire to submit the following, If certain specials are voted and set apart by any properly qualified club for award at a special bench show, and the Secretary fails to notify the management that such specials are to be offered, can such specials be awarded at that show if no proper notification has been sent previous to the judging of the breed?

Mr. Vredenburgh: In answer to that I refer you to this rule: “No special prize shall be offered except for dogs of established breeds, and none can be offered unless publicly announced before the regular judging has been commenced.

On motion the Secretary was directed to notify the clubs in arrears for dues that if such dues were not paid within 30 days from date they would be cropped from the roll.

The meeting then adjourned. A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary.
REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, HELD AT ITS OFFICES, NO. 55 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK CITY, MAY 20TH, 1897.

Vice-President Edward Brooks presiding.

Present:

Boston Terrier Club, L.A. Burritt
Butterfly Bench Show Assn. D. E. Waters
Collie Club James Watson
Irish Terrier Club W. L. Beadleston
Metropolitan Kennel Club G. M. Carnochan
New England Kennel Club Edward Brooks
Pointer Club G. Jarvis
Southern California Kennel Club C. D. Bernheimer
Poodle Club H. G. Trevor
National Beagle Club H. F. Schellhass
Gordon Setter Club J. B. Blossom
Associate G. W. H. Ritchie
Do A. C. Wilmerding

On motion, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with.

Credentials were read of the following named gentlemen to represent the following named club:
San Francisco Kennel Club, C. B. Knocker

Mr. VREDENBURGH: I will state that Captain Knocker is now the delegate of the Pacific Fox Terrier Club, but he has informed me that when his credentials arrived here in connection with the San Francisco Kennel Club, he would withdraw as delegate of the Pacific Fox Terrier Club.

Capt. Knocker was duly accepted as the delegate of the San Francisco Kennel Club.

The Secretary then read his quarterly report, and the same was on motion accepted and placed on file. It is as follows:
New York, May 19th, 1897.

To the American Kennel Club,

        Gentlemen: --

        I beg to report the following applications for the registration of Kennel names:

        Bayonne   - Mr. Leslie A. Burritt
        Beaumaris - Mr. Bulkley Wells
        Bridge    - Mr. J. H. Mullins
        Dorchester - Mr. C. C. Kammerer
        Fashion   - Mr. H. Shearman
        Golden    - Mr. J. B. Martin
        Scalbey   - Mr. John A. Detweller
        Shadyside - Messrs. Fredk. S. Stedman and W. F. Render Tippecanoe - Mr. Jos. Meisenheimer
        Verona    - Mrs. P.A. Hearts and Mr. J. E. de Ruyter

        As these names do not conflict with any now registered, I would respectfully recommend the granting of the same.

        I have to report that charges of misconduct have been preferred by Mr. W. L. Washington, against Mr. Alfred von Catzhausen of Milwaukee, Wis. A copy of said charged has been sent to the defendant by registered mail, and a receipt for its delivery is now on file at this office.

        A complaint from Mr. F. P. Kirby in behalf of Mr. Walter D. Griscome, has been made against the National Greyhound Club for non payment of the Club medal won at the late New York Show. I notified the National Greyhound Club of this complaint on May 1, 1897, but no reply has yet come to hand.

        I am advised by Mr. D. A. Hamburger of San Francisco Cal., that be believing that Mr. A. Russell Crowell, represented the American Kennel Club as its California Agent, paid to said Crowell the fee for the registration of a St. Bernard bitch, and took his receipt therefore; that he has never received his certificate. The dog he mentions has never been registered by us under the name he applied for, neither does his name, not that of Crowell appear on our books as having made any registration subsequent to the date of his receipt. I have therefore directed the Pacific Advisory Board to investigate the matter and report the result, and its recommendations.

I have an appeal from Mr. Harry Malcolm for reinstatement to good standing, and I would recommend the granting of said appeal.

I reported to the Stud Book Committee the fact of the general distribution of equal prizes at Pacific shows, believing that the judge had abused his powers. The general equality of dogs on the Pacific coast, as shown by the official awards, is remarkable, and is not borne out by the records of any other shows in the country. The Stud Book Committee examined the several official catalogues, and reported to me as follows:

May 8, 1897.

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh, Secy.

Dear Sir: --

In looking into the rule regarding placing dogs in connection with judging at some of the Pacific coast shows, we do not think it a subject calling for action by the Stud Book Committee. The rule in placing dogs behind “equal” first is explicit, and we think it your province to see that they are properly placed, without any action on the part of any Committee or the Club. The case is similar to that of improper entry, and comes within your direct attention as recipient of the officially marked catalogue.

James Watson,

Chairman S.B.Com.

I desire explicit instructions from this club on this subject.

We are accumulating a large collection of pen and ink drawings by Mr. G. Muss-Arnolt, which represents a large sum of money. Undoubtedly a number of owners of the dogs so illustrated would gladly avail themselves of an opportunity of purchasing these originals, and I would recommend that said originals be offered for sale, at sums ranging from $10.00 to $25.00, and if such is your pleasure I would suggest that the option is first given to said owners to purchase, and if not taken advantage of within a specified time, to sell to the first applicant.

The special committee to which was referred the matter of an agreement with the Canadian Kennel Club, has taken the matter up, and given it careful consideration. Your Secretary visited Toronto and conferred with the Canadian Executive and with the fanciers at a general meeting held April 21\textsuperscript{st}, 1897, and arrived at a mutually satisfactory agreement. The memorandum agreed upon, was submitted to the Executive of the C.K.C. at a meeting held May 7\textsuperscript{th}, 1897, after which an amended memorandum was filed with this club, which will be submitted to you at this meeting.

I beg to report that in accordance with the instructions of our Executive, I notified the Bull Terrier Club of America, through its Secretary to show cause why it should not be expelled for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club, to which no reply has yet come to hand.

The Executive referred to you the matter of giving relief to the clubs hold shows Subsequent to September 1896, which have their deposits declared forfeited, in a number of instances, for mere technicalities. Your action in this matter is earnestly requested.

The Seattle Kennel Club has so far failed to pay its dues for 1897, and has not replied to my communications on the subject. I would therefore recommend dropping the club from our roll of membership.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

The Treasurer then read his report, which, on motion was accepted, and placed on file, and is as follows:

New York, May 19\textsuperscript{th}, 1897.

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen: -

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1, 1897:

\begin{itemize}
  \item Balance on hand Jany. 1, 1897, $3,256.97, \item Receipts from all sources to date, \textbf{3,734.71}
  \item Total, $6,991.68
  \item Disbursements from January 1, 1897, \textbf{2,973.02}
  \item Balance on hand, $4,018.66,
\end{itemize}
Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vrendenburgh,
Treasurer.

The Report of the Advisory Board, held April 6th, 1897, was read, as published, and on motion accepted and placed on file.

The Report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:

New York, May 19, 1897.

To the American Kennel Club

The Stud Book Committee begs to submit the following report upon matters which have passed before it since the last meeting.

Re the pedigree of the Black and tan terrier Application of W. H. Davis.
Pittsburgh Ben. 38,175

The application, W. H. Davis, of Pittsburgh made a request for the cancellation of the registration of the black and tan terrier Pittsburgh Ben, 38,195 on the ground that his pedigree was not as represented in the Stud Book. He presented no evidence in support of his statement although he asserted that the owner and breeder were aware of his application, making it appear as if he was acting with their consent and approval. He was advised that as it was his application, it was necessary for him to procure the statement of the breeder to support what he said. Meanwhile the breeder had written to the Secretary asserting that the dog was trying to break the pedigree down, had no personal knowledge whatever on the subject. Davis replied to the application for further information by saying that he was advised that B.T. Kahle had written to the club about the breeding and that if his statement was different to the claim made by him (Davis) then to give a verdict of “not proven”. The original statement seem to have been activated by some difference between some of the parties connected at some time with the dog. As this is the case in quite a number of applications it would not be too much to provide some punishment for those who make such statements without reasonable ground to support what they allege, but are actuated by desire to damage other parties.
As to the breeder of the Deerhounds Dunrobin Ossian, Oswald, Noel and Torfrida

Mr. Robert Walker, the owner of the dam of the deerhound named drew attention to the error in the cataloguing of Mr. Albion L. Page as the breeder. Upon the latter being advised of the charge he at once explained the reason why he had presumed he was the breeder, but as he now knew he had no claim under the A.K.C. rule he asked that the correction be made, and at same time he gave the names of two others of the same breeding which were not mentioned by Mr. Walker. The committee recommends that the original entries be cancelled as they are wrong and that Mr. Page register them correctly, paying the fee the same as for an original entry. The wins and records of Dunrobin Ossian and Dunrobin Oswalk to stand.

Application of Fred J. Rommell Removal of suspension.
Of Chicago, Ill

Fred J. Rommell was suspended for failing to answer requests for information as to a false pedigree given by him. He now asks whether the suspension can be removed. He was advised that the suspension was for failing to answer letters sent him by this committee, and the case can only be re-opened by his giving the information asked for. To this he has made no reply, and the committee recommends the dismissal of the application.

Re the pedigree of The fox-terrier Alleged false pedigree
Dixie II, 37,322

The attention of the American Kennel Club was called to the pedigree of Dixie II by Mr. Belmont, it being given as by Blemton Valiant out of Belgrave Viola. It is Mr. Belmont’s opinion that this is not correct, and in this he is supported by Mr. Hopkins.
No reply having been received from the owner, Joe Saks, 1715 Massachusetts Avenue, Washington, D. C., it is recommended that he be suspended till he gives the required information.

Re the breeder and pedigree
Of the corded poodle Black Prince, 39,424

Complaint of William Grebe

The complainant in this case alleged that Mr. S. C. Hodge, owner of the corded poodle Black Prince, 39,424, had improperly described himself as the breeder and also given an extended pedigree when none existed. Mr. Grebe had sold the dog when a puppy to Mr. Hodge and owned the dam when she whelped and also shortly after bought the sire, both parents having at one time been owned by C. Priem. Mr. Grebe alleges that Priem never knew anything beyond the sire and dam of the dogs from which Black Prince was bred, but Mr. Hodge claims to have got Priem to write to Germany and after some months he got a further generation thus securing admission of Black Prince to the Stud Book. Mr. Grebe questions both the fact of the pedigree and the obtaining it from Germany, and as Priem committed suicide some time ago your committee has had to weigh the probabilities, and has come to the conclusion to permit the registration of Black Prince, but not with the pedigree as it is now in the Stud Book. Priem owned the sire Champion Tell and entered him as bred by A. Priem. He also owned Flora, and in 1892 bred from her the bitch sometimes named Flora, Flora I, or Flora II. The latter is the dam of Black Prince. Priem entered this Flora I, as by Tell out of Flora and she like Tell is a well known prize winner. Mr. Hodge in his application for registration gives the pedigree of Flora II as by Tello-Flora, Tello by Hamlet-Fanny Erste. This is too manifestly an error to escape notice and Tello is beyond question Tell, by Othello-Desdemona. There is nothing inconsistent with probabilities in the statement of Mr. Hodge that Priem got the pedigree from his brother or some relatives in Berlin for we have A. Priem as breeder and Priem was a German. Old Flora he owned himself and if he did not know her pedigree he at least knew where he got her from. He also knew the sire and dam of Tell and knew his breeder. The answer to the equiry was not forthcoming at once but according to Mr. Hodge’s statement was the work of months. He made not offer of compensation for the information and there is every reason to place credit in the claim that Priem did write abroad and get the information Mr. Hodge was so anxious to procure. But there is undoubtedly an error in giving the sire of Flora II as Tello, by Hamlet- Fany Erste. As to the question of the breeder it is not now disputed that Mr. Grebe is entitled to that credit. It is recommended that the present registration of Black Prince be cancelled and that permission be given Mr. Hodge to make proper entry in accordance with the facts as set forth above.

There are two other cases upon which your committee is not prepared to report at present. In each the origin of a false pedigree has been traced to Miller of Westchester, Pa.; who was disqualified last year for a series of most flagrant frauds. Efforts to obtain the necessary evidence upon which the postal authorities could act have in previous cases failed, but it is hoped that in one of the two cases now under investigation the required affidavits may be secured. This man Miller sold dogs all over the country and the warning as to his methods of doing business cannot be too widely published.

Jas. Watson,
Chairman

Mr. Burritt moved its acceptance with the adoption of its recommendations.
Motion seconded and carried.
The Report of the Committee on Rules was read, and on motion the same was received and placed on file. It is as follows:

The Committee reports, that it now has under consideration general amendments to the rules, governing Dog Shows and Clubs holding such shows. It will conclude its labors so that its recommendations will be published in the Gazette, as provided for in the Constitution, in July or August, so that the amendments may be legally acted upon at the meeting of the Club in September next.

Mr. Vredenburgh, on behalf of the special committee appointed to confer with a committee from the Canadian Kennel Club, reported as follows:

At the annual meeting representatives of the Canadian Kennel Club, as you are all aware, came before us, and requested that a Committee be appointed by the American Kennel Club to confer with it in regard to a satisfactory agreement of reciprocity between the two clubs. The Hamilton Kennel Club sent a demand to the Canadian Kennel Club that they should call a meeting of the fanciers to be held in the City of Toronto, during the Toronto Show in April, and notified this Club to that effect, and invited this club to send a representative to be present at that meeting. The Canadian Kennel Club’s executive committee called a meeting of the fanciers, and also sent an invitation to the American Kennel Club to send a representative. The special committee that was appointed by this club held two meetings at this office, and came to a unanimous conclusion as to the conditions of such an agreement that this committee would be willing to recommend at this meeting, and also recommended that I should be appointed as the representative of this Club to be present at this meeting in Toronto. I sent this recommendation to members of the executive board, whom I would find here in New York, and they concurred with the recommendation and consequently I went up there as the accredited representative of the Club. I was in session with the Canadian Executive Committee for two hours, and stated to them as plainly as I could upon what conditions the American Kennel Club would recognize the Canadian Shows. We finally had a meeting of the fanciers after this session of the Executive Committee, and they aired their views. The following morning there was an adjourned meeting of the Canadian Executive Committee, at which I was present, and we finally arrived at this conclusion, which was exactly what the special committee of this Club had agreed upon, that the Canadian Kennel Club should be the Canadian Advisory Board of the American Kennel Club; that all questions relating to Canada should be acted upon by that Committee, or that Board, subject, however, to confirmation or appeal to this Club; that every show held in Canada must be held in Canada must pay to the American Kennel Club the sum of Ten Dollars, the same as we exact from our members; that the Canadian Kennel Club must cease receiving money for registrations; that all listings for Canadian Shows must be made with the American Kennel Club. That was agreed upon by the Canadian Executive, they adding to it a few conditions, viz: that so far as challenge classes are concerned we should make the same exception in their favor that we did upon the Pacific Coast; that Canada should be entitled to a representative in the American Kennel Club, with three delegates, one of which was to be chairman of the Canadian Executive Board, and by virtue of that position, he was to have a seat upon our Executive Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: Where do the other two come from?
MR. VREDENBURGH: They are to be appointed by the C.K.C.

THE CHAIRMAN: What became of the registrations in the Canadian’s Stud Book?

MR. VREDENBURGH: The question of registrations was touched upon and settled in this way, that all living dogs that had been registered with the C.K.C. could be registered with the American Kennel Club free of charge, provided the application for said registration was made within a stated period of time, and was certified by the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, that that dog was living, and has been registered with them. The question was then asked as to whether we would recognize the wins made under Canadian Club Rules, subsequent to the rescinding of our reciprocity treaty, of 1892. I told them that that was out of the question, and so far as I was concerned as a member of this special committee, I should certainly oppose it, and they finally abandoned that question. That was practically the agreement that we arrived at, and which this special committee was ready to recommend for adoption at this meeting. They promised to send me a memorandum of this agreement immediately. Upon my return to New York, I received a letter from the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, saying that they thought best to call a regular meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club, and have it formally adopted by them before sending to us. They held that meeting on May 7th, and two or three days thereafter sent me the memorandum, but this memorandum is not what we agreed upon. They had changed it materially, and the Committee – of at least Mr. Watson and myself, - Major Taylor being on the Pacific Coast – thought best to simply make this statement that I have made, to read the memorandum that they sent us, and to leave it to the delegates at this meeting to do as they saw fit without any recommendation whatever from your special committee. That will properly come up under the head of new business.

Mr. Schellhass moved that the report of the special committee be received and placed on file.
Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the following Kennel names were granted:

“Bayonne”, Mr. Leslie A. Burritt; “Beaumaris”, Mr. Bulkley Well; "Bridge", Mr. J. H. Mullins; “Dorchester” Mr. C. C. Kammerer; “Fashion”, Mr. H. Shearman; “Golden”, Mr. J. B. Martin; “Scaleby”, Mr. John A. Detweller; “Shadyside”, Messrs. Frederick S. Stedman and W. F. Render; “Tippecanoe”, Joseph Meisenheimer; “Verona”, Ms. P. A. Hearst, and MR. J. E. de Ruyter.

On motion the charges of misconduct preferred by Mr. W. L. Washington against Mr. Alfred von Cotzhausen, of Milwaukee were referred to the Executive Board.

On motion the complaint of Mr. F. P. Kirby made in behalf of Mr. Walter D> M. Griscome, against the National Greyhound Club for non-payment of the Club medal won at the late New York Show was also referred to the Executive Board.

Mr. Vredenburgh state that a delegate of the Masoutah Kennel Club called upon him to-day, and that as he was not able to be present at the meeting he left a letter, which the Secretary promised to refer to the Club. The letter was read, and on motion referred to the Committee on Rules.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I think my quarterly report covers the question of A. Russell Crowell accepting money on behalf of the American Kennel Club, and forgetting to send the same to the A.K.C. I have sent that to the Pacific Advisory Board with a request to investigate and report.

I have a letter here from Harry Malcolm in which he appeals for reinstatement. Mr. Malcolm has been suspended for a number of years, since November 16th, 1890. He was connected with the Maryland Kennel Club, and it was owing to trouble between the American Kennel Club and that Club, when they sent a delegate here whom we refused to accept.

Mr. Watson moved that the penalty of suspension be removed.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Wilmerding and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I desire to bring to your attention the question of the liberality of the judges upon the Pacific Coast. It looks very much as though the judge simply filled his had with equal firsts and second and third, closed his eyes and threw them, and wherever they struck, that dog received a record of equal first or second. The record shows who the judge is. As all these awards are published in the Stud Book, I thought I might get some instruction from the Stud Book Committee. This generous distribution of equal prizes only happens on the Pacific Coast.

Some discussion followed, in which the opinion was freely stated that the practice referred to was reprehensible, and that some action should be taken, if possible, to stop it.

MR. WATSON: I think it would be a good idea to pass a resolution to refer it to the Committee on Rules. That would draw the attention of the Committee on Rules to the kind of judging at California Shows, and they will be confronted with the question whether or not they can devise a rule which will meet the case. I make such a motion.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: At the last meeting of the Executive Board, I was directed to notify the Bull Terrier Club of America to show cause why they should not be expelled, their membership being considered prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club. That notice was sent before the tenth of April, and there has been no reply to it. They do not see fit to show cause. They have been suspended now for year. I would state that there is a new Club now, known as the American Bull Terrier Club.

Mr. Hunnewell moved that the Bull Terrier Club of America be dropped from the roll of membership, and that their forfeit of Ten Dollars be returned to them.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then called up the question of the proposed relief to the Dog Show clubs whose forfeit of Twenty-five Dollars have been forfeited by the American Kennel Club under the rule for violations of the rule.

Mr. Bernheimer moved that the moneys be refunded with a warning.

Motion seconded by Mr. Burritt.

Mr. Bernheimer withdrew his motion on Mr. Watson moved to lay the matter on the table pending the report of the Committee on rules.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Seattle Kennel Club is in arrears for dues. We gave them extra tie for the reason that they notified us that their money was tied up in a Bank that failed. I have written them twice since the Annual Meeting and the Pacific Advisory Board has also written them, and they pay no attention whatever to It. I think after an interval of three months, they have had sufficient time, and I recommend that they be dropped the same as the other Clubs were in February.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the Seattle Kennel Club be dropped for non-payment of dues.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Now we come to the Canadian Kennel Club. I think you are familiar with the action that was taken at the Toronto meeting.

The memorandum of agreement drawn by the representatives of the Canadian Kennel Club after the conference with Mr. Vredenburgh on behalf of the special committee appointed by the American Kennel Club was read.

MR. BURRITT: It appears that in the drawing of that proposition they have endeavored to keep as conspicuous as possible the words “Canadian Kennel Club”, whereas, as I understand Mr. Vredenburgh’s proposition to them, they should be known as the Canadian Advisory Board of the American Kennel Club.

MR. VREDENBURGH: That was it exactly. The Club is composed of individuals, and they pay Two Dollars a year dues. In consideration of that they are allowed so many free registrations in the Stud Book.

THE CHAIRMAN: We do the same thing. Why can’t they come in under the same rule?

MR. VREDENBURGH: They cannot under that agreement. How would they hold their organization? They say we have go to offer some inducement to the members to retain their membership. I told them they would have to devise some means for doing that. Here is the Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book for three years. It is composed of fifty-five pages, and they have not published a Stud Book for six years. Their Secretary told me that a most liberal estimate of their yearly registrations would be two hundred and fifty, and how they can expect to publish a Stud Book annually on an income of $250. I am unable to see. They give nothing for the price of registration. They simply give the dog’s sire and dam, and there it ends.

MR. BURRITT: I move that as the proposition submitted by the Canadian Kennel Club is totally at variance with the report made to us by our Special Committee appointed to confer with them, that the proposition be returned to the Canadian Kennel Club with the advice that we cannot accept it, or any proposition which is not entirely in line with the report made to us by our Committee, a copy of which is enclosed herewith.

Motion seconded by Mr. Hunnewell.

Mr. Watson did not favor sending this memorandum of agreement back to them, but advised further consideration of the matter.

MR. BURRITT: It seems to me that the Canadian Kennel Club is still fighting for its existence and its individuality. The proposition which was brought here by our Committee to-day thoroughly wiped them out, and as I look at the situation, either the Canadian Kennel Club accepts such an agreement as was laid down by our representative, or the day is coming when the individual bench show club of Canada will solicit membership in the American Kennel Club the same as any other bench show club in the United States. If that day comes, we receive a delegate from Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal, or any other bench show club that pleases to organize, and secures membership here, and we get their membership fee and they are under our control just the same as any United States club. I think Canada recognizes that fact, and does not want to see such a situation. In the proposition which they have sent here to-day, they refuse to sink their individuality. In every word and in every line of that contract which they offer us, they force to the front as prominently as they can the Canadian Kennel Club. They ignore the title, “Canadian Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club”, which they should be known. I fail to see what we have to gain. They have everything to gain: We have nothing to lose, we are in the position where we can offer to these gentlemen, “You take our terms, or you stay out of the game.” We do not need them. They need us, and I think we can afford to stand squarely on our feet and tell them so.

Mr. Burritt’s motion was then carried.

MR. WATSON: I would like to submit an article that appeared in the Sun this morning, and a preamble and resolution which I have prepared on the subject.

The article referred to, and the preamble and resolution are as follows: “They don’t want our dogs.” London, May 19th. The White Star Line Steamer Majestic which sailed to-day from Liverpool for New York, has on board copies of an order issued by the British Board of Agriculture in consequence of the hydrophobia scare arising in part from the practice of bringing dogs to Great Britain from American ports. The order will be posted throughout the United States. Its enforcement is likely to cause trouble, as it is the most stringent precautionary measure of the kind ever adopted here. It provides that no dogs shall be allowed to enter Great Britain after September without a special license issued by the Board of Agriculture, which can be obtained only after going through many formalities. Details for the identification of the dog must be given, as well as the address of the owner, where the animal going to land, the route by which it is to travel, etc. In case of violation of any of the provisions of the order, the dog will be liable to six months quarantine at the expense of the owner.”

Whereas, it is reported in the public press that the British Board of Agriculture has issued orders restricting the importation of dogs from America, based upon the idea that rabies is prevalent here; and

Whereas, it is well known to those most closely connected with dogs as owners and breeders that rabies is practically unknown in this country, and that alleged cases of hydrophobia arising from the bites of dogs claimed to be rabid are in nearly every case published for sensational purposes, and with no knowledge of the actual condition of the dog, and the alleged cure of such persons is therefore purely imaginary and mercenary, be it therefore.

Resolved, that a special committee may be appointed by this Club, whose duty it shall be to obtain information of a reliable nature regarding the existence of rabies in the United States, by communicating with dog owners throughout the country, and by such further steps as it may deem necessary.

Resolution seconded and adopted.

The Chairman stated that he would within a short time appoint a committee of five, three of whom would be well known expert veterinarians, and two members of the Club.

The meeting then adjourned.

M. A. A. C. Rod and Gun Club. W. F. Hobbie
The Secretary read his quarterly report, which on motion was accepted and placed on file. It is as follows:

New York, Sept. 22, 1897.

To the delegates of the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last meeting I have received the following applications for admission to active membership, and present them duly approved by the Committee on Membership.

June 2 – Victoria Kennel Club
July 17 – Pacific Mastiff Club
July 20 – Bull Terrier Club of America
July 22 – Pointer Club of California
July 22 – Cocker Spaniel Club of California
July 31 – Rhode Island Kennel Club
Sept 13 – California Collie Club

The following credentials have also been filed with me, all prior to twenty days previous to this meeting, as provided for in our constitution.

June 1 – M. A. A. C. Rod & Gun Club, appointing Mr. Wm. F. Hobbie as its delegate.
June 7 – Pacific Fox Terrier Club, appointing Mr. Bernard Waters, as its delegate.
June 17 – Milwaukee Kennel & Pet Stock Assn., appointing Mr. James Mortimer, as its delegate.
July 8 – American Dachshund Club, appointing Dr. C. Motschenbacher as is delegate.
July 17 – American Spaniel Club, appointing Mr. Marcel A. Viti, as its delegate.
I have also to report the following claims for Kennel names, duly filed with me, and as they do not conflict with names already registered, I would respectfully recommend the granting of the applications:

July 24 – Highland View, by Geo. N. Clemson
Aug 10 – Providence, by Harry J. Bascom
Sept 18 – Fenton, by H. T. Cousins
Sept 23 – Banner, by H. E. Smyth

I submit a notice from the St. Bernard Club of America, to the effect that at a meeting of the Governors of said club, held Sept. 15, 1897, it was ordered that said Club be disbanded and notice sent to this club of such action. I would recommend that the St. Bernard Club of America be dropped from the roll.

I have a communication from the American Spaniel Club, informing us of its action in suspending from its membership Messrs. R. Toon and George Thomas acting under the firm of Toon & Thomas, for dishonorable practices in connection with bench shows.

Mr. John P. Cameron, Graham, Va., has filed notice that the Kentucky Kennel Club has failed to pay him a prize won by his dog, at its late show March 17-20, 1897. Notice was sent by me to Mr. F. J. Hagan, Secretary, to the above effect, and a reply dated September 15, 1897, was received that the prize had been sent but must have miscarried, and that another medal would be forwarded at the earliest possible convenience. A later letter, dated September 20th, has been received, informing me that a second medal had been sent.

A Great Dane registered as "Osceola Chummie" No. 26303 has been shows, and winning, throughout this years circuit, under the name of "Chummie", No. 26303. Its owner appeals to this Club to permit the winnings to stand as records, and states that the dog was entered at all shows by his agent, J. B. Lewis, and that he has no desire or intention of violating the A.K.C. rules by dropping the prefix "Osceola." That in all cases his stud book number was correctly given, and that he did not know that a prefix was part of a name. I advised him that I would refer the matter to the A.K.C. for its decision, and would further state that this dog’s previous winnings still stand to its credit, pending the decision of this meeting.
By direction of your Executive Board, I went to San Francisco, to hear an charges that might be brought forward, that needed investigation on the Pacific Coast, and to act in connection with the Pacific Advisory Board, in the matter of charges brought against H.T. Payne by the St. Bernard Club of California, and to hear the evidence, in support of statements made against James Mortimer, in his official capacity as a judge at the late Oakland Show. Mr. Payne filed a demurrer against the right of the A.K.C. to order an investigation, and in view of the action of the Pacific Advisory Board, the St. Bernard Club of California, withdraw its charges. The meetings at San Francisco were reported by a stenographer, and I will present a verbatim report of the proceedings for your consideration. I will also present a statement receive from Mr. Payne since my return, in connection with the report.

As you are all aware, the Executive Board executed an agreement with the Canadian Kennel Club, which took effect July 17, 1897. The late Toronto show was held subject to that agreement. Under Art. VIII, either club had the right to cancel said agreement, upon serving six months notice of a desire for such cancellation. Under date of Sept. 11th, 1897, the Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, served a notice on this Club that at the end of six months said agreement shall be cancelled, by direction of the Canadian Kennel Club, at its meeting held September 9th, 1897. I would recommend that a resolution be passed at this meeting, waiving the six months notice, and that the existing agreement of July 17th, 1897, be cancelled at once. In connection with this matter, I would state that the Toronto show, deposited $25.00 with its claim for dates, that the Secretary C.K.C. advised me of its receipt by him, and that up to this time he has failed to forward said amount to this office. Art. IV. Of the agreement provides that the C.K.C. shall be held responsible for the fulfillment of all requirements of the A.K.C. by clubs holding shows under C.K.C. recommendation, and one of the requirements of Rule I and II, A.K.C. rules is that “Application for dates must be filed with the Secy. A.K.C.” x x x and that “Application for dates must be accompanied by a fee of $25.00. x x x I advised the Secretary C.K.C. that I was astonished to find that upon my return from the west, said deposit had not been forwarded to this office, and requested a prompt remittance. Mr. Donovan’s reply will be presented to you.

Throughout this years circuit, clubs having violated any of the A.K.C. rules, had their deposits of $25.00 forfeited under the rules. The violations in some cases were trivial, but as the rules made no distinction, all were alike treated. The amounts thus forfeited remained in our treasury. As I understand the matter, the A.K.C. has no desire to profit by the mistakes of its members, but as a cure for carelessness or negligence, a penalty was provided. I believe the lesson taught has had the desired effect, and that in the future more care will be exercised by show officers and committees in following the rules adopted for their guidance. I would therefore recommend, that in all cases, where the deposit has been declared forfeited on account of the violations of the rules during 1897, that the Secretary be directed to transfer said deposits, to apply to the credit of deposits for claims for dates for shows of 1898, and in a case a club whose deposit having been forfeited, fails to hold a show in 1898, then in that case that the said deposit be absolutely forfeited to the A.K.C.

A request from the Sportman’s Review for a complimentary completion of its set of Stud Books has been received, and I would recommend that the same be granted.

The Special Committee appointed at the last meeting to investigate the subject of the existence of Rabies in this country, not having been able to complete its labors, respectfully report progress.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH,
Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH,
Treasurer.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have the report of the Executive Board of July 17th, 1897, which was published in full in the July Gazette.

The Chairman: If there is no objection the report of the Advisory Committee will stand as published in the Gazette.

The report of the Pacific Advisory Board was read, and

San Francisco, Aug. 27, 1897.

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secy. A. K. C.,
New York,

Dear Sir:

The following is a report of the Pacific Advisory Board’s meetings of Aug, 3, 18th, 23rd, 24th and 25th, the first date was our regular meeting, the other four special.

F. W. D. Evelyn, elected Chairman
W. M. Gibson, “ vice :
R. K. Gardiner secretary.

The Secretary then read two letters from Mr. Vredenburgh, Secy. A. K. C. in regard to receiving money (5.00) from Mr. Crowell, also resolutions adopted by the A.K.C. in regard to charges against H. T. Payne by the St. Bernard Club and Mr. Mortimer asking the Pacific Advisory Board to investigate.

We then adjourned until the arrival of the Secretary of the A. K. C. from New York and fixed next meeting August 18.
Aug. 18 – Present, Dr. Evelyn De Ruyter, Keene, Gray, Gibson, Cluness and Gardiner.

Mr. Vredenburgh put question is the board legal as the July meeting was postponed by the Secretary (Payne) and Aug. notices did not state for annual election. All members stated that as a matter of fact they all knew that on Aug. 3, the election would occur, and the election of present officers confirmed by vote 7 – 0.

Mr. DeRuyter moved that charges against H. T. Payne be brought up MOndau, Aug. 23, seconded by Gibson, vote 7 – 0.

By vote Mertin Allen was permitted to represent Mr. Mortimer. Then adjourned until Monday, Aug. 23.

Aug. 23rd – Mr. Gibson moved that we proceed with all matters referred to us by the A.K.C. and find a verdict. Vote Yes, 5 – No. 2.

Payne on being called upon stated that he had no charges to make, and no evidence to give. Mr. Gibson then offered the following which was adopted.

RESOLVED: That the Pacific Advisory Board, having called upon H.T. Payne to supply the evidence to substantiate the publish statements made by him regarding James Mortimer as Judge at the late Oakland Bench Show in accordance with the Resolution and direction of the American Kennel Club, and the said H.T. Payne having refused to present or supply any evidence to substantiate said public statements.

RESOLVED: That the Pacific Advisory Board finds as a fact that the said H. T. Payne has failed and refused to supply the evidence which the American Kennel Club has called upon him, through the Pacific Advisory Board, to supply.

We then adjourned until Aug. 24.

Aug 24th – Mr. H. T. Payne was asked again to give the proofs he had against Mr. Mortimer, on refusing to do so, the following was adopted:

WHEREAS, There appeared in a paper, FIELD SPORTS, - May 27th, 1897, an article making certain grave charges against JAMES MORTIMER, as Judge at the late OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, Bench show, and

WHEREAS: Mr. H. T. Payne has admitted before this Pacific Advisory Board that he was the author of said article and charges; and

WHEREAS: The American Kennel Club holds to the policy that it is the absolute duty of any one belonging to any Club under the jurisdiction of The American Kennel Club and having personal knowledge of any improper act or acts committed by an Judge of any show, to prefer formal charges against such person to the end that the same may be properly investigated and the truth or falsity of the charges ascertained; and

WHEREAS: The said H. T. Payne has publicly stated, that he stands ready, willing and anxious to sustain the said charges made by him against the said Mortimer, and

WHEREAS, when the said Payne was called upon by this Board under directions from the American Kennel Club to bring forward his proof to substantiate his said charges, refused so to do, basing his refusal upon the ground that in as much as the charges were published in a newspaper, the matter as not the subject or investigation by this Board, or the American Kennel Club for want of jurisdiction, and

WHEREAS, this Board is willing and anxious to afford the said Payne an opportunity of proving said charges made by him, and

WHEREAS: This Board concurs with the American Kennel Club in the belief that is Mr. Payne has knowledge of any fraud perpetrated by Mr. Mortimer as judge of said Oakland Show, or any unfair or dishonest act performed by him, that then it is his bounden duty as a dog fancier to regularly prefer charges against Mr. Mortimer, and that in the present condition of affairs he cannot, with honor to himself and credit to his good name, refuse so to so. Therefore be it RESOLVED: by the Pacific Advisory Board, that Mr. Payne be, and he is hereby requested to file charges, if any he have, against James Mortimer, as Judge of the late Oakland Bench Show, so that the same may be properly investigated to the end that the truth may be ascertained.

RESOLVED: That we request that at this time Mr. Payne will give this Board a positive answer as to whether or not he will comply with this request.

Mr. Payne answered that the American Kennel Club has no jurisdiction whatever over the press. The following resolution was passed:

WHEREAS: Mr. H. T. Payne has by resolution of this Pacific Advisory Board been requested to present charges against James Mortimer as Judge of the late Oakland Bench Show of any misconduct of the said Mortimer which has come to the knowledge of the said H.T. Payne, and
WHEREAS: The said H. T. Payne has refused to present any charges, and has utterly failed to substantiate the charges made by him in FIELD SPORTS, on May 27th, 1897, and
WHEREAS: This Board was directed by the American Kennel Club to investigate said matter, and WHEREAS: This Board has no evidence before it to prove said charges. Therefore be it.
RESOLVED: That the Pacific Advisory Board finds as a fact that the charges made by Mr. Payne in the columns of FIELD SPORTS against Mr. Mortimer are untrue and without foundation is fact.

---------
The case of the St. Bernard Club against Payne, as Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Board was dropped as Payne is not now a member of the Pacific Advisory Board, so there could be no charge.

Adjourned then until August 25.

Chair read. Charges against B. Strauss and Wade Collins, as follows:

Geo. S. Fife
Vs Fraudulent pedigree of St.
B. Strauss, and Bernard dog pup.
Wade Collins

Collins said he knew pedigree to be false at time of sale.

Strauss was given time to refund the money to Mr. Fife, as he (Strauss) claims he did not know the pedigree was false. The meeting then adjourned; our next regular meeting will be Sept. 7.

Respectfully
A. P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,

Secty, Am. Kennel Club.
55 Liberty St.
New York.

San Francisco, Sept. 9, 1897.
Dear Sir:

Our monthly meeting of Sept. 7th was adjourned without any business being transacted, on account of no quorum present.

I am,

Yours truly,

R. K. GARDINER,

Secty.

Pac. Ad. Board,

Of the A.K.C.

Mr. Burritt moved that the report be laid on the table and taken up under the head of new business.

Motion seconded and carried.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:

New York, September 22\textsuperscript{nd}, 1897.

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

The difficulty in obtaining replies in two cases now under consideration, and absence from the City of members of the Committee since a third case has been submitted, renders the present report a brief one.

The Committee has been requested to decide whether giving a kennel prefix to a dog previously registered is an alteration of the dog’s name such as is prohibited by the rules, and it has decided that it is not allowable. The case is this: Mr. S. P. Martin of Aux Vasse, Mo., has the registered prefix “Missouri”. He bought the bloodhound Lincoln and wished him registered as “Missouri Lincoln.” The Secretary wrote him that it could not be done, and Mr. Martin asked that it be passed upon by the Committee.

Yours respectfully,

JAS. WATSON

On motion the report of the Stud Book Committee was received and its action confirmed.
Mr. Vredenburgh: I have a long report here from the Committee on Rules, which has been published.

The Chairman: If there is no objection it will be laid on the table and taken up under the head of new business.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have applications of Clubs for admission to membership, among them the application of the Victoria Kennel Club of British Columbia, which was filed with me on June 2nd. In negotiating with the Canadian Kennel Club, before we brought about the existing agreement, we made an exception in the conditions of that agreement, so that the British Columbia Club should be excepted. It did come within the Dominion of Canada, but it belonged to the Pacific Coast, and as such it ought to be entitled to representation on the Pacific Advisory Board. The Canadian Kennel Club objected to that exception, and the agreement was apt to fall through, and it would not waive that exception. In the mean time I wrote to the Victoria Kennel Club, laying the case before it, and I have a reply, which I will read, in which it protests very strongly against any such action. The Committee, in order to meet the views of the Canadian Kennel Club, gave them the entire Dominion of Canada, including British Columbia, and the Show to be held next month by the Victoria Kennel Club would have been held under American Kennel rules, but as a member of Canada. The notice that we have received from the Canadian Kennel Club, advising us of their desire to cancel the agreement, I think if we adopt the recommendation that I have made to waive the six month’s notice and cancel it at this meeting, we can then elect this Victoria Kennel Club as a member of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Watson: I move that the matter be laid on the table and taken up in connection with the Canadian Kennel Club matter.

Motion seconded and carried.

Applications from the following named Clubs for admission to membership in the American Kennel Club were read, and such applications being proper form, and having been approved by the Membership Committee, said Clubs were duly elected: California Collie Club, Cocker Spaniel Club of California, Pointer Club of California, Pacific Mastiff Club, Rhode Island Kennel Club and Bull Terrier Club of America.
The applications for kennel names were on motion granted as follows:

On motion the St. Bernard Club of America was dropped from the roll, it having served notice that the Club has disbanded.

Mr. Hunnewell moved that the report of the Committee on Rules for consideration at this time.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the proposed amendments to the rules.

The Chairman stated that if there was no objection to the rules as they were being read, they would be considered adopted.

Mr. Watson moved that rule 4 of Classes be amended by inserting in the third line, after the word, “puppy”, “and novice.”

Mr. Blossom said that he could not see why the classifications should be changed at all; that he had never heard of any call for it, and that it seemed to him that it would result in upsetting all previous classifications, which he did not approve, in view of the fact that in his opinion there was no demand for it, and moved that the whole subject be deferred until the Annual Meeting.

Mr. Hunnewell advocated the propose change, and said that there was considerable demand for it as evidenced to him by meetings with a large number of dog men and the receipt of letters and also a telegram from the Westminster Kennel Club in favor of after some further discussion Mr. Blossom’s motion to defer action upon the proposed changes in the Classifications was put and lost.

Mr. Waters moved that rule be dropped entirely from the Classification.

The motion made to amend Classification rule No. 4, that novice class be excepted was then put and carried.

Classification Rule No. 5, was read, and there being no objection, was adopted.

Classification Rule 6, was read.

Mr. Garnachan moved to amend the same by inserting that three wins in the free for all class shall constitute the title of champion, and that one of those three wins in the free for all class must be at a show where cash prizes exceeding $1,000., are offered.
Motion seconded and lost.

Major Taylor said he considered the rule as published was sufficient for all purposes.

Mr. Hunnewell: I move to amend Rule 6, so that it shall read, three first prizes, instead of four.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Little moved to amend Rule 6, by adding at the end of the first paragraph the words, “No entry free shall be charged for exhibits in the winners’ class.”

Motion seconded and carried.

Classification No. 7, was read and adopted.

On motion the sixth paragraph of Rule XXII., “When a dog has been pronounced by the Veterinary Surgeon as suffering from any contagious or objectionable disease,” was stricken out.

The 13th paragraph of Rule XXII was amended to read as follows: “When a dog by authority of its owner is led into the judging ring by, or is in charge or, a person not in good standing.”

The rules of the American Kennel Club governing Clubs holding Shows were then brought up and on motion the words in the first paragraph, “or that may be recommended by the Canadian Advisory Board” were stricken out, and Mr. Watson moved that the rules be adopted as a whole.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The American Spaniel Club has appointed a new delegate in the place of Mr. E. M. Oldham, and he has been elected. That makes a vacancy in the Chairmanship of the Membership Committee, and also by virtue of that Chairmanship, a member of the Executive Board. That Championship should be filled at this meeting Chairman of the Membership Committee.

Major Taylor: I haven’t the slightest objection to Mr. Carnochan, but I think as Mr. Viti succeeded Mr. Oldham as delegate, it would be proper that he should be named to fill that vacancy, and I therefore nominate him.

Mr. Viti declined, and Mr. Carnochan was duly elected. The Secretary then read the following:

Toronto, September 11th, 1897.
Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secy. A.K.C.,
New York,

Dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that the following motion was passed with but one dissenting vote at the annual meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club, held here on Sept. 9th. “Moved by Mr. Gibson, seconded by Mr. Bennett, and carried, That the agreement entered into between the A.K.C. and the Executive Committee of the C.K.C. be not sustained by this meeting, and that due notice be given the A.K.C. that at the end of six months is shall be cancelled.”

Kindly accept this as the required notice and govern yourself accordingly.

Yours truly,

H.B. DONOVAN

Mr. Jarvis moved that the notice be accepted.

Mr. Burritt: I would like to amend that by moving that the letter be accepted, and that the Secretary of this Club be directed to notify the Canadian Kennel Club that with their concurrence we will not wait the six months, but will terminate the agreement at once. I do not think we want to do anything ungentlemanly, and while they undoubtedly deserve having all our contempt rubbed in on them just as hard as we know, still they have given us the six months notice in accordance with the agreement, and it rest with them, I think, to say whether it should be earlier or not, if we concur. Undoubtedly they will be glad to terminate it at the earliest possible date, or they would not have taken the action that they have. I think it is no more than due to the dignity of the American Kennel Club’s position that they have given the Canadian Kennel Club the opportunity to say whether that agreement shall endure six months longer or not.

Major Taylor: I see but one objection to Mr. Burritt’s motion, and that is it will not leave us free to act upon the application of the Victoria Kennel Club at this meeting.

Mr. Bernheimer: According to their resolution the agreement has not been sustained by the Club. Then the question arises was the agreement made to be sustained by that Club? Did they give their Committee full power to act to make the agreement, or did they instruct their Committee to make an agreement and submit it to the Club. If that is what they told their Committee to do, and it has not been sustained, there has been no agreement, and it could be waived.

Mr. Vredenburgh: This is simply a question of dollars and cents. From this time out the Canadian Kennel Club has the whip hand. If we have to wait the six months, they are going to take advantage of the terms of the agreement and agreement and get in all the registrations, and the registration of prefixes at the discount of fifty per cent. We have nothing to gain from now on because there are to be no Shows, and they have everything to gain. They get the Stud Book.

Mr. Carnochan: I move an amendment to the motion that the notice be accepted and that they be notified that we waive the six months notice.

Amendment accepted, seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh then read the following:

Toronto, Sept. 20, 1897.

A. P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,
Secy, A. K. C.
New York.

Dear Sir:

This has not yet been received by me. I have notified the Sup’r. that it must be sent me at once when I will immediately forward it to you.

Toronto made deposit. I am instructed by Mr. Sweetman to say that his and the committees reading of Article IV. Of the A.K.C. – C.K.C. agreement was that $10. was all the necessary money to be forwarded the A.K.C. under this rule. He is still of this opinion.

Yrs. Truly,

H. B. DONOVAN,
Secy. C.K. Board

Mr. Carnochan: I move that the Secretary be directed to write to the Canadian Executive Committee, saying that they will be held responsible for penalties incurred by the Toronto Kennel Club in their catalogue, if any exist.

Motion seconded and carried.
Mr. Vredenburgh: I have a communication here from the Spaniel Club, notifying us of the suspension from membership in that club, of Messrs. R. Toon and George Thomas for dishonorable practices in connection with Bench Shows.

Mr. Watson moved that it be referred to the Executive Board.

Mr. Viti asked for immediate action, if possible, For the reason that they, since their suspension, have continued to exhibit, and had in a way repeated the same offenses for which they had been suspended.

The Chairman: The Vice-President, having the power to suspend, will take the matter under advisement.

The application of the Victoria Kennel Club was then brought up, and the same having been approved by the Membership Committee, the Club was elected.

In the matter of showing the dog, “Osceola Chummie” No 26,303, under the name of “Chummie”, fully set out in the Secretary’s quarterly report, Mr. Little moved that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

In the matter of the notice filed with the American Kennel Club by Mr. John T. Cameron, of the failure of the Kentucky Kennel Club to pay him a prize won by his dog at its March Show, it was moved and seconded that the same be referred to the Executive Board.

Carried.

On motion of Mr. Burritt the recommendation contained in the Secretary’s quarterly report as to clubs having violated any of the rules, and whose deposits of $25.00 had been forfeited, that in all such cases the Secretary be directed to transfer said deposits, to be applied to the credit of deposits for claims for dates for Shows of 1898, was adopted.

On motion the request of the Sportsman’s Review for a complimentary completion of its set of stud books was referred to the Executive Board.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have here a hand full of typewritten mater relating to the meetings of the Pacific Advisory Board, in the Payne-Mortimer – St. Bernard matter, at which I was present.

On motion it was referred to the Executive Board.

On motion the report of the Pacific Advisory Board was taken from the table, and referred to the Executive Board.
Major Taylor: I want to call attention to a matter that came under my observation at the Oakland Show and get from the Club an expression of its view. It was a case where a dog had been entered in the small pointer class, and he proved to be too large and over weigh, and was therefore disqualified. The question came up whether or not that dog could compete for a special prizes for the best pointer in the Show. I ruled that he could; that he could not be disqualified from competing for a special prize, because he was ineligible to compete in his class.

It was moved and seconded that it is the sense of ________________ with the conditions of the class in which he is shown, that does not disqualify him from competing for specials offered in its breed to which he may be eligible.

Carried.

The Vice-President issued a notice of suspension against Messrs. R. Toon and George Thomas, the same to remain in force until the charges preferred against them by the American Spaniel Club can be heard by the Executive Board.

The Meeting then adjourned.
REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

French Bull Dog Club W. W. Watrous
Gordon Setter Club J. B. Blossom
Metropolitan Kennel Club G. M. Cornochan
National Beagle Club H. F. Schellhass
Oakland Kennel Club Elliot Smith
Pacific Fox Terreir Club B. Waters
Pointer Club George Jarvis
Rhode Island Kennel Club W. C. Codman
Southern California Kennel Club C. D. Bernheimer
Mascoutah Kennel Club C. F. R. Drake

Credentials were read of the following named delegates to represent the following named Clubs, and were duly elected by ballot, Mr. Schellhass acting as teller:

French Bull Dog Club, W. W. Watrous; Bull Terrier Club of America, Arthur Thompson; Pacific Mastiff Club, Eratus Hamilton; St. Bernard Kennel Club of California, G. B. Sykes; Rhode Island Kennel Club, W. C. Codman; Oakland Kennel Club, Elliot Smith.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, such minutes having been published in the Gazette, was dispensed with, and approval as published.

The secretary read his report, as follows;

New York, December 15, 1897.

To The American Kennel Club,
Gentlemen:

The following credentials have been filed, and approved the Membership Committee:

September 17, 1897. Oakland Kennel Club, appointing Elliot Smith
October 13, 1897. Rhode Island Kennel Club, appointing W. C. Codman
October 18, 1897. St. Bernard Club of California, appointing G. B. Sykes
October 22, 1897. Pacific Mastiff Club, appointing Erastus Hamilton
November 1, 1897. French Bull Dog Club, appointing Walter W. Watrous
November 24, 1897. Bull Terrier Club of America, appointing Arthur Thompson

I also present the following claims for the registration of kennel names, and as they do not conflict with any registered, would respectfully recommend the granting of the same:

Holroyd, by William L. Andrus
Norfolk, by George H. Gooderham
Royal Blue, by F. H. Von Waffernstein
Westchester, by F. M. McWilliams

I beg to report the filing of charges by Robert Hoodless against the Kentucky Kennel Club for non-payment of a prize won by his dog at the late Louisville Show. Notice was sent to the Secretary by registered mail, and his receipt through the Post Office is on file, but up to this time he has made no reply to said notice.

I have to report that one P. F. O’Neil entered an Irish setter named “Hunter”, at the Westminster Kennel Club Show of 1897, giving his date of birth as March 31, 1896, and again entered the same dog at the Metropolitan Kennel Club Show of 1897, giving the date of birth as February 28th, 1895. I have called upon him for an explanation, and have his reply, and would recommend that the matter be referred to the Executive Board for investigation.

At the late Milwaukee Show which opened September ______ 1897, the Beagle “Sova”, was entered as owned by Lewis & _______. On September 23, 1897, George I. Thomas, once of the owners, was suspended by this Club, and as a sequence the dog “Sova” was likewise suspended. At the Danbury Show the entry was made by same owners, and declined as not being eligible, owing to said suspension. At Brooklyn the same dog was entered and shown by Anna Lewis, as owner, and at Washington it was entered and shown by Anna B. Lewis as owner, I have cancelled both wins made at Brooklyn and at Washington, and notified Joseph Lewis to whom I understood the dog was transferred at Washington, that he must not again show the dog. I think the matters of these transfer should be looked into.

I have also cancelled the winnings of the pugs “Otteburn Penrice”, and “Otterburn Treasure”, for having been entered at Brooklyn and Washington in classes in which they were not eligible, and notified their owner, C. Y. Ford to explain the matter. His reply is at hand, and will be submitted to the Executive Board, if the matter is so referred.

The Russian wolf hound, “Olaf”, owned by George M. Keasbey, was entered at Brooklyn with a wrong pedigree given. The owner discovered his mistake and promptly notified the superintendent of the Brooklyn Show, stating that he had made his entry while away from his home, and not having his records with him relied solely upon his memory. Mr. Keasbey is well known, and I would therefore recommend that no blame be attached to him for the violation other than the cancellation of the win at Brooklyn, which I have done under the rules.

I beg to report that in the Brooklyn catalogue, I found seven apparent violation of the rules, and having examined the original entry forms, found the violations to be established facts. Explanation if noted in each case in the catalogue by the Superintendent, attributing the blame to the printer. I have deferred acting in the matter for forfeiture of the deposit owing to said explanations, and refer the matter to this meeting for its pleasure.

The Executive Board having decided to award A.K.C. medals to all dogs becoming champions of records on and after January, 1898, it has been requested by an exhibitor that all present champions can obtain one of these medals upon application and the payment of a sufficient amount to reimburse the Club for the cost of the silver and stamping of the medals. The cost to this club would be covered by $3.00 for each medal, and as there can be no possible harm in complying with above requests, I would recommend that all “champions of records” up to January 1st, 1898, living or dead, shall be entitled to a champion medal, and that the same will be supplied upon application from the owner, and the payment of the sum of $3.
00 to cover expenses.
I would respectfully ask permission to purchase another oak case for protesting or tin boxes of records, the one we now have being filled to its limit. I have an estimate of $_______ to cover cost of such a case, to correspond in every part _______ with the one we now have.

Mr. James B. Blossom, the delegate representing the Gordon Setter Club has filed the following notice of amendments to the rules, which will go into effect on January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1898: “By-laws, Sec. 3, rule 12, class 6, after the words, “one of which must be in the free-for-all-class”, add the words, “and one the senior class.” And after the words, “No class winner can be withdrawn from competition in the winners’ class”, add the words, “except those does which have already won their championship.”

The original pen and ink drawings of the dogs that have been illustrated in the Gazette since 1889, are now ready for sale, at prices ranging from $5.00 to $15.00. Under the resolution to sell the option will be given to the owners of the dogs so illustrated to purchase same at the prices marked until March 1, 1898, after which time they will be sold to any applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH,
Secretary.

On motion, said report was accepted as read.

The Treasurer read his report, as follows:

New York, December 15\textsuperscript{th}, 1897.

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1, 1897:

\begin{itemize}
    \item Balance on hand, January 1, 1897, \ldots \ldots \ldots $3,256.97
    \item Receipts from all sources to date, \ldots \ldots \ldots \ldots 9,030.44
    \item Total \ldots \ldots \ldots \ldots $12,287.41
    \item Disbursements from January 1, 1897, \ldots \ldots \ldots 8,102.46
    \item Balance on hand, \ldots \ldots \ldots \ldots \ldots \ldots \ldots $4,184.95
\end{itemize}
I would also report that all bills for active and associate dues for the coming year were sent out November 30th, last, and prompt remittance is requested.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. VREDENBURGH,
Treasurer.

On motion, said Treasurer’s report was accepted as read.

The report of the proceedings of the Executive Board was read as published, and on motion the same was accepted.

The Report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:

New York, December 9th, 1897

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

The Stud Book Committee reports as follows on cases submitted to it by the Club.

In the Matter of L.A. UTTRICH

For giving false pedigrees of the English setter, “Ty-I.”

This seems to be one of the clearest cases of knowingly giving false pedigree, and the defendant mainly relies as a defense upon his not having sworn to the pedigree or sent in the registration of “Ty-I”. The Committee recommends his disqualification and the cancelling of the entry.

In the Matter of Affecting pedigrees of the bloodhound Dogs sold by LEWIS “June II”, and certain English setters.

MILLE R of West Chester, Pa.

There are two cases with but one origin, the dogs being purchased with pedigrees furnished by Miller of West Chester, Pa., who was some time ago disqualified for a number of fraudulent transactions. The dogs were sold to third parties in good faith, and there seems to be nothing to recommend beyond the cancelling of any Stud Book entries that may be affected.

In the matter of Application for a ruling as to terms
The breeder of the Great Dane Leo G. of a contract.

Messrs. Losen and Gerhart, of Kansas Cit, Mo., exhibited a Great Dane named Leo G. this year giving themselves as breeders, which claim is disputed by W. H. Everts. Applicants submitted the original of a contract with said Everts which is as follows.

Kansas City, Mo. July 30, 1894.

The following agreement is this day made by and between Losen and Gerhart, of Kansas City, Mo., and W. M. Everts, of Topeka, Kansas. Mr. Everts agrees to keep, feed and breed Losen & Gerhart’s two Great Dane bitches, whelped October 9, 1894, by Prince Victor, dam Bauschau. One of the bitches is brindle in color, named Bessy, the other fawn, names Queen. In consideration Mr. Everts is to have (one-half) ½ of each litter of pups. Losen and Gerhart are to be at no expense whatever. Losen and Gerhart must not take these dogs from Mr. Everts while same are in whelp.

Losen and Gerhart.

W. M. Everts.

W. M. Everts agrees to keep the bitch Polly under same agreement as he keeps the bitches Queen and Bessie for Losen and Gerhart.

W. M. Everts

This contract is not a leasing of the bitches, but merely for the keep and care of them, and the manner of Everts’ remuneration.

It is therefore held that Losen and Gerhart, as the owners of the dam at the time she was bred for the Leo litter, are the breeders of that litter.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. WATSON,
Chairman Stud Book Committee.
Moved and seconded that the report of the Stud Book Committee be accepted and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

Carried.

The Report of the Pacific Advisory Board was read, as follows:

San Francisco, November 8th, 1897.

A. P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,
Secy. Am. Kennel Club,
New York

Dear Sir:

The Pacific Advisory Board did not have a meeting on November 2nd, as there was not a quorum present. I myself was sick in bed, at the time. We will try and get them all together for the December meeting.

Your truly,

R. K. GARDINER,
Secty. Pacific Ad. Board.

On motion, the following Kennel Names were granted: Holroyd, to William L. Andrus; “Norfolk”, to George H. Godderham; “Royal Blue” to F. H. von Waffenstein; “Westchester” to F. M. McWilliams.

On motion the charges filed by Robert Hoodless against the Kentucky Kennel Club for non-payment of prize won by his dog at the late Louisville Show was referred to the Executive Board.

In the matter of the discrepancy in the date of the birth of the Irish Setter, “Hunter” owned by P. F. O’Neil said dog having been shown at the Westminster Kennel Club show and the Metropolitan Kennel Club show under different dates of birth, it was moved and seconded that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Carried.

Concerning the Beagle “Sova”, which was entered at different shows under different alleged owners, as will more fully appear by reference to the Secretary’s Report, it was moved that the same be referred to the Executive Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the matter of the disqualification of the pugs “Otterburn Penrice”, and “Otterburn Treasure”, was also referred to the Executive Board for investigation.
In regard to the matter of the Russian wolf hound “Olaf”, owned by Mr. George M. Keasby, entered at Brooklyn with a wrong pedigree, Mr. Moritmer said: “Mr. Keasby came to me during the Brooklyn Show, the second or third day, -- after the judging was over, in regard to the matter, and I asked him to write me the particulars, which he did, and which are contained in the letter which I have handed over to our Secretary here, and which he has read. I think that all it is necessary to do under the circumstances is to cancel the dog’s win.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Keasby told me he would at once return the prize that had been paid him.

MR. WATROUS: I move that Mr. Keasby be exonerated from any intentional blame in the matter of the pedigree of the Russian wolf hound “Olak”, shown at the Brooklyn Show.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: In the matter of the violations of the rules at the Brooklyn Show, in going over the catalogue, I found seven apparent errors. Each one was explained in writing by Mr. Mortimer, the superintendent. I called for the blanks and found that they were correct. Originally it is simply a matter on my part to declare the date deposit forfeited, but in this case, Mr. Mortimer, whom we all know, has explained to us that the errors were one entirely to the printer.

MR. MORTIMER: In explanation of those errors, which occur in the book and catalogue I would like to state that they are entirely the fault of the printer. There is no question about it. I paid particular attention to the copy, knowing the penalties that attend any mistakes and errors that were made, upon the keen security of the Secretary of the Club, and I will assure you on my word of honor there was not a single error in that proof so far as the wins were concerned, but the proof so far as the wins were concerned, but the proof sent in by the printer for me to correct, left out all heading of classifications, and all wins were left out. He was very late in sending over his proof. The last copy of the proof of the catalogue which I received, I did not get until late on Saturday, and some of it didn’t come at all. I never saw it, but he declared that he would see that every one of those winnings and every one of those headings went in, but when we received our catalogues we found some of them were omitted. We therefore ask the leniency of the Club in this matter.
MR. CARNOCHAN: It is a wonder to me, knowing the printer and the trouble we had with him that there are not more of these errors.

MR. RITCHIE: I think the explanation is quite satisfactory to the delegates. We had, if I am not mistaken, 735 entries, and it is a wonder to me there were not 735 errors, owing to the trouble we had with our printer. It was absolutely impossible for us to do anything with that printer at such a late date, and when he sent his copies --- or failed to send his copies the last time, it was impossible for us to know what we could do. I joined with Mr. Mortimer in asking for leniency in this matter.

MR. BLOSSOM: I moved that the Metropolitan Kennel Club be excused from the imposition of any penalty, in view of the explanations which are furnished to the Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

In the matter of medals to be awarded to champions of records referred to by the Secretary in his report, Mr. Carnochan moves that on payment of $3.00 all owners of champion of records may obtain a championship medal.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion of Mr. Schellhass the Secretary was authorized to order oak case for the protection of the records of the club at a cost not exceeding $16.50.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Blossom, the delegate from the Gordon Setter Club has given notice of the following amendments, to be acted upon at the next meeting of the Club, and in the meantime they will go before the Committee on Constitution on Rules, so that its report will be forthcoming at the meeting: By-Laws, Sec. 3, Rule 12, class 6: After the words, “one of which must be in the free-for-all class, add the words “and one in the senior class”. And after the words, “No class winner can be with can be withdrawn from competition in the winners class”, add the words, “except those dogs which have already won their championship.”

MR. WATROUS: I desire to state, knowing Mr. Mortimer as we do, and having considered the charges as made against him by people in California, we would like to give Mr. Mortimer a complimentary exoneration of those charges.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think the motion, put in that way, would be out of order, because of the action that the Executive Board took, which you ratified that there were no charges made against Mr. Mortimer. There were publish statements made derogatory to his character, and we called upon the man who made these statements to prefer charges. This man refused to back them up with testimony, and then, further than that, found a verdict for Mr. Mortimer that he was innocent of the charges, when there were no charges before the Board to be investigated, and that part of it the Executive Board refused to ratify. It is in order for this Club [or] pass a vote of confidence in Mr. Mortimer, if it sees fit to do so.

MR. MORTIMER: I am extremely obliged to you, but the action of the Executive Board seems to cover everything.

MR. VREDENBURGH: It has been suggested by several members that in all cases where the Membership Committee meetings for the purpose of approving the credentials of delegates public notice should be given of that meeting, so that any delegate may come before the meeting and state any objections he might have.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that hereafter public notice shall be given to all members of meetings of the Membership Committee at which the applications of delegates for admission shall be considered.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I have notice of an amendment to the rules by Mr. Carnochan, as follows: “That at Bench Shows all dogs having won a prize in one class, shall not carry the ribbon showing such win into any subsequent class at the same show.” That will come before the Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: You will remember in May that you adopted a resolution giving the Chairman authority to appoint a Committee to investigate the subject of rabies. The Chairman appointed a Committee of nine veterinarians throughout the United States, and they have been at work in their investigation since about the middle of June. The reports from all sections, but one, I think have been received, and been forwarded to Dr. Huidekoper for him to edit and consolidate into one report. I have received a telegram from him during this meeting, which is as follows: Reports on rabies appear to show more rabies than I believe exist, require considerable verification. I beg for delay until the next meeting to submit full report signed R. S. Huidekoper.

The meeting then adjourned.

Great Dane Club, G. Muss-Arnolt; Brunswick Fur Club, J. H. Van Don; and they were duly elected as such, Mr. Schellhass acting as teller.

The Secretary then read the following certificate:
New York, February 7th, 1898.

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, Edward Brooks, representing the President of the American Kennel Club, and Henry G. Trevor, representing the President of the Associate members of the American Kennel Club, met this day at the office of the American Kennel Club for the purpose of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, for the officers and the delegates of the Associate Member of said Club to hold office for one year from February 23rd, 1898. We found the total number of Associates entitled to vote to be 128. Total number of votes cast, 73. Total number of votes rejected on account of irregularity, two. Total number of votes scattering, 19. We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greatest number of votes to be duly elected as officers and delegates of the Associate Members for the year ending February 1899, to wit: President, H. H. Hunnewell, Jr., Vice-President, Robert Dudley Winthrop; Secretary, James L. Kernocha...

H. G. Trevor
Representing the President
Associates A.K.C.

Attest.
A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary, A.K.C.

On motion the minutes of the last annual meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his quarterly report, as follows:
New York, February 23rd, 1898.

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that the following credentials have been approved by the Membership Committee at a meeting held the 19th inst., at which all persons interested were invited to be present by a publish notice published in the January Gazette:

January 21. G. Muss-Arnolt to represent the Great Dane Club
January 25. J. H. Van Dorn to represent the Brunswick Fur Club

Credentials from the American Pug Club, and the Central Beagle Club came to hand too late to be acted upon at this meeting, and therefore the approval of the Committee was withheld.

An application for active membership from the Cedar Rapids Kennel Club was received January 29th, and has the approval of the Membership Committee. Its admission as a member is recommended.

I beg to submit the following resignations:
December 24, 1897. Rhode Island Association
January 4, 1898. Erie County Society Prevention of Cruelty to Animals

These resignations are in order, and I would recommend their acceptance.

The delegate from the Oakland Kennel Club handed I a notice of his resignation as such delegate on February 3rd, 1898. No notice has been received from the Oakland Kennel Club on the subject.

I beg to submit an appeal from George S. Thomas, Salem, Mass., on behalf of his partner, Richard Toon, Sheffield, England, asking for the removal of the penalty of suspension imposed by the Executive Board upon the firm of Toon & Thomas at its meeting February 7th, 1898.

I have had filed with me the following charges for misconduct:
February 1, 1898. T. A. Howard vs. Ally Eberhart
February 7, 1898. Mrs. H.E. Smyth vs. Fred P. Kirby February 14, 1898. John Tilbury vs. John Whelan
February 23, 1898. John H. Parrott vs. E. H. Moore
Notice has been filed with me by the New England Kennel Club of the suspension by it of Dr. Frederick A. Davis 80 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass., under rule XVIII. Sec. 3, for removing his dog from the show of said Club against the protest of said Club, and your confirmation under the rules is hereby recommended.

At the late meeting of the Executive Board the Kentucky Kennel Club and its officers were suspended for failure to pay to an exhibitor at the Louisville Show of 1897, a medal awarded to him, and for which requests for its delivery had met with no response. Upon notification form me of said suspension, the officers promptly forwarded medals to the exhibitor, his agent, and to the A.K.C. office, so that one at least would reach entitled to it. Although the sentence of suspension was not conditional, I assumed the responsibility, and reinstated the Club and its officers, following many precedents already established in similar cases. I therefore request an official confirmation of my action.

I would call your attention to the case of a confession of uttering a fraudulent pedigree by Wade Collins, for a St. Bernard dog he sold to George S. Fife. The parties in question live in San Francisco, Cal., and the charges were made and heard at said city in August last at a meeting at which I was present. No action has been ever taken by the Pacific Advisory Board in the matter and said Collins has been in good standing ever since his confession of fraud, now six months, and is in good standing to-day. The negligence of the Pacific Advisory Board makes it possible for this man Collins to exhibit at any A.K.C. show.

I have a communication from the Great Dane Club, recommending that in all registrations, listings and entries for Shows, that the name of the dog represented by said Club be known under the title Great Dane (Deutsche Dogge).

I have a communication from the Central Beagle Club asking that if its constitution be so amended as to read: “to promote the interest of beagles in the field and on the bench,” whether in that case it can hold a bench show. The location of said show would be Pittsburgh, Pa. The Central Beagle Club assures us that no disrespect is intended towards the Duquesne Kennel Club, and the only object to be gained would be that Pittsburg should have a show, which appears to be demanded by exhibitors in that locality.

Several communications between the Great Dane Club, the Westminster Kennel Club, and your Secretary have passed on the subject of a protest in 1895 that has been acted upon. The said protest and deposit are in my hands pending a mutually satisfactory agreement on the subject. The delegate of the Great Dane Club assures me that such an agreement will be necessary. My only object at all in reporting on the matter is, that I have no discretion in withholding any official correspondence.

I hereby submit an appeal from the Hempstead Beagles from a decision of the Bench Show Committee of the New England Kennel Club, in sustaining a protest lodged by the Sunset Hill Kennels.

Under date of February 21, 1898, the New England Kennel Club filed a notice of the disqualification of a dog and suspension of its handler, John Simpson, Cambridge, Mass., for striking the Judge, Mr. Lambert Stansfield, while discharging his official duties as Judge. The owner of said dog, Dr. William Ferguson, promptly repudiated the action of his handler, Simpson and apologized therefore. So far as said owner is concerned, the New England Kennel Club is satisfied, and did not suspend him, but is prepared to do so, if it is considered necessary to sustain the rules.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

On motion the report was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s Report was then read, as follows:

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that the certified financial statement of the American Kennel Club for the year ending December 31st, 1897, was duly published in the January Gazette, as is customary.

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all monies received, and disbursed by me since January 1st, 1898:

Balance on hand, Jan. 1, 1898, . . $4,276.49
Receipts from all sources to date, . . 1,563.66
Total, . . $5,840.66
Disbursements from Jan. 1, 1898, to date, . . 845.49
Balance on hand, $4.994.66

I beg to report the following Clubs as being in arrears for dues for 1898, which were due and payable on or before January 1st, 1898: American Bedlington Terrier Club, American Pet Dog Club, Binghamton Industrial Exhibition, Bloodhound Club of America, Bull Terrier Club of America, Cocker Spaniel Club of California, Des Moines Kennel Club, Irish Terrier Club of America, Kentucky Kennel Club, Mohawk Kennel Club, Pointer Club of California, Southern California Kennel Club, Stockton Kennel Club, Victoria Kennel Club, Washington City Kennel Club.

Under the provisions of the Constitution the above clubs cannot be represented at this meeting, and they may be suspended or dropped from the roll, as this meeting may deem expedient.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer.

On motion the Treasurer’s Report was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary then read the report of the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club, as follows:

Meeting of the Executive Board held Monday, February 7th, 1898.
Called to order at 2:15 P.M.

Absent: August Belmont, H. H. Hunnewell, Jr., and A. Clinton Wilmerding.

The Secretary presented the following matter to the Board:

American Spaniel Club, Vs. Re fraudulent entries at Shows.
R. Toon and Geo.S. Thomas

George S. Thomas present in his own defense.

Ordered, that R. Toom and George S. Thomas, as individuals, and being and comprising the firm of Toon & Thomas, be and are hereby suspended until January 1st, 1899.

Robert Hoodless,
Vs. Re unpaid prize at Show 1897.

Kentucky Kennel Club

In the absence of any reply to a registered notice of above claim, it is hereby Ordered, that the Kentucky Kennel Club and its officers, John . Castleman, President; R. D. Williams, Vice-President; H. J. Cary-Curr, Vice-President; Luke O.
Cox, Treasurer, and Francis J. Hagan, Secretary, be and are hereby suspended under the rules.

Metropolitan Kennel Club, Re wrong date of birth of Irish Vs. Setter “Hunter”
Peter F. O’Neill.

Ordered that the win of first prize in the open class at Brooklyn to the Irish setter “Hunter”, having been cancelled under the rules, and there having been no object to be gained in mis-stating the age of said dog, no action will be taken against the owner.

American Kennel Club,

Vs. Re improper entries in Wilmington Kennel Club
And Butterfly Bench Show Association.

There being no provision permitting the use of the letters “reg,” following an entry at a Show, and the rules distinctly stating that a dog must be marked “listed”, or its registered number given, it is hereby Ordered, that all dogs being so catalogued and winning at said shows, said wins are hereby ordered cancelled, and the penalty against the Club, as prescribed by rules be enforced.

Henry Jarrett --- Re, appeal against cancellation of win at Wilmington Show.
Ordered that appeal be not allowed, for the reason that the cancellation was made under the rules.

Toronto Ind. Association, - Re deposit with date clam for Show of 1897.
Ordered, that in consideration of the non-membership of the Toronto Association, the Secretary is hereby directed to return to said Association the amount deposited with its claim for dates for its Show of 1897.
E. S. Gordon,
   Vs.   Re misconduct in connection with dogs.
Julius Herold

In this case, Herold advertised an English setter for sale with a certain pedigree. The owner of the alleged sire filed a notice that such pedigree was false, and named another dog, his property, as being the correct sire. The defendant appeared and stated positively that the dog represented in the advertisement as the sire, was correct; that he knew both dogs mentioned, saw the service, and claimed the breeding as he had set forth. A letter from the defendant written September 12th, 1896, was produced, in which he acknowledged the sire to be the dog named by Gordon, and not the dog as set forth in said advertisement. It was therefore Ordered, that said Julius Herold be and is hereby suspended.

Kennel name and Prefixes, - Re, applications for registration.

Ordered that as the names do not conflict with any so far registered the following applications are herby granted, to wit:

Ardenia to John Lorillard Arden
Clifton to Robert S. McCreery
Imperial to Dr. Louis G. Knox
Iroquois to L. Loring Brooks
Meadows to Kernochan & Stevenson Round Plain to John Caswell
Summit Ridge to Fred W. Dickson
Wood Haven to L. C. Whiton, and R. F. Little, Jr.

Whereas, Weeks & Turner’s fox terrier “Springhill Daisy” has one first prize in novice class at St. Louis, 1897, before the entries at Louisville had closed, the said bitch was not eligible to compete in novice class at Louisville, it is therefore

   A. P. Vredenburgh,
   Secretary.

On motion the report of the Executive Board was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary then read the report of the Pacific Advisory Board, as follows:

   San Francisco, December 10, 1897.

Mr. A. P. Vredenburgh,
   Secretary American Kennel Club,

Dear Sir:

   The Pacific Advisory Board failed to meet on the 7th inst., there only being four members present. It was a very stormy night, hence the non-attendance. I trust that our January 1898 meet will be a full one.

   Your truly,
   R. K. Gardiner,
   Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Watson, Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, report for that Committee as follows:

To the American Kennel Club:

   Your Stud Book Committee has no case on hand on which to make a report.

   Good progress is being made with the Stud Book, and there is every indication that it will be ready for distribution next month.

   In view of the fact that the American Kennel Club has authorized the issuing of Championship medals, your Committee recommends that these medals be confined to such breeds as are recognized as entitled to registration, or may be so recognized.

   Yours respectfully,
James Watson,
C. B. Knocker,
Herman F. Schellhass.

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE CHAIRMAN: The election of officers is now in order.

CAPTIAN KNOCKER: I move that all the officers be re-elected as they stand for the ensuing year.

MR. RITCHIE: I move to amend Captains Knocker's motion to the effect that the Secretary be instructed to cast a ballot for the re-election of the old Board of officers, and the Committees as they are now constituted.

Amendment seconded and carried.

The Secretary cast a ballot for August Belmont, President; Edward Brooks, Vice-President; James Watson, Chairman of the Stud Book Committee; the other members to be Herman F. Schellhass and C. B. Knocker.

Herman F. Schellhass to be Chairman of the field trial and coursing Committee; the other members to be Horatio Nelson, H. S. Joslin, Arthur B. Sharp, J.H. Van Dorn.

H. K. Bloodgood to be Chairman of the Constitution and Rules Committee; the other members being James Watson, H.F. Schellhass, and G. W. H. Ritchie.

A. Clinton Wimerding, Chairman of the Finance Committee; the other members being James B. Blossom and Leslie A. Burritt.

G. M. Carnochan, Chairman of the Membership Committee, the other members being C. D. Bernheimer.

THE CHAIRMAN: According to the resolution, a ballot having been cast, I therefore declared the names just read as duly elected.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I desire to call your attention to the fact that the Field Trial Committee regulated itself, the delegates of the various field trials representing that Committee.

THE SECRETARY: The next thing in order is the report of the Committee on Constitutions and Rules, in which, as you probably all aware, they recommend a change in the present classification. I suppose, you all having read the report, it will not be necessary for me to read any of it except the classification. The Committee, to state briefly, were not willing to accept the responsibility of initiating the present classification, although it met with approval of the Committee, but there being objection to it from the east and from the west, they felt that it was their duty to try and meet the popular demand, and consequently report the following classification and recommend its adoption at this meeting:

The first is the puppy class, which is precisely the same as it has been heretofore.

The novice class, likewise the same. The third is to-day called the limit class. Instead of the junior class, as now in force, the limit class shall be for all dogs never having won four prizes at any recognized show, wins in the puppy and novice classes excepted. They cut out entirely from the classifications what is now known as the senior class, and they change the free for all class and name it the open class; that shall be for all dogs of a age over six months. The winners’ class shall be open only to the winners of first prizes at any show, giving at least three of the before mentioned classes, one of which must be the open class, and the winner of three first prizes in this class will thereby become a champion of record, be so registered by the American Kennel Club, and will be entitled to an American Kennel Club champion medal. Before awarded “Reserve” in this class, the dog or dogs having been placed second to the winner in any of the regular classes must be brought before the Judge for competition with the remaining dogs in said winner’s class. No class winner can be withdrawn from competition in the winner’s class, and no entry fee shall be charged for said competition in this class. A dog that has already won one or more first prizes in the late challenge class shall retain these wins to its credit, towards becoming a champion of record, the remaining qualifying wins to be gained in the winners’ class. The winners’ class can be divided by sex, provided the required three classes, as advertised are also divided by sex. Winners’ classes must be provided in all cases when the regular classification will warrant them.

Those are the only amendments that are proposed to the rule, with the exception that they are to go into effect at once, and that any part of the rule conflicting with this new classification must be stricken from the existing rules. Your committee recommend a matter in connection with the Pacific Advisory Board. In its advertised statement here they recommend striking out from the Constitution in its entirety, the Pacific Advisory Board. It sent a copy of this resolution, together with the rules, to every club upon the Pacific Coast, requesting that Club, to immediately call meetings of their Club, and report their suggestions. We have received letters from nearly every Club, and instead of recommending the striking out of the clause that brings into being the Pacific Advisory Board, the Committee, at a meeting held on Saturday last, recommends this amendment: Article XIII, Section, amended to read:

There shall be an annual convention of delegates representing the several clubs, members of this association, located west of the 110th degree west longitude. It shall meet in the city of San Francisco, Cal., on the 2nd Tuesday of February in each year. At said meeting the delegates from each Club shall have the right to cast a ballot for four delegates, representatives of Bench Show Clubs, and three delegates representatives of specialty clubs, and the seven delegates elected shall constitute the Advisory Board of the Pacific Coast for the ensuing year, and shall hold office for one year, or until their successors are elected. Immediately after the above mentioned election the Board shall organize by electing a chairman and a secretary. The duty of said Board shall be to attend to all matters referred to it by this Association, or its Executive Board, and it shall report the proceedings at each of its meetings to this Association, by registered mail, within two days thereafter. It shall hold regular quarterly meetings on the second Tuesday in May, August and November, and shall call special meetings on notice from this Association. It shall further act under a copy of rules approved by this Association, or its Executive Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: The report of the Rules Committee is before you. What is your pleasure?

CAPTAIN KNOCKER: Am I in order to state what I have been instructed by my Club to bring before the Committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: To be strictly in order, there should be a resolution before the house.

CAPT. KNOCKER: The Clubs in the west, as I think they have instructed their delegates here, are anxious to return to the old classification, and simply add a winners’ class, and as I am requested to act for my Club, and I believe others have been requested the same way, I move that we return to the old rules, adding a winners’ class.
Motion seconded by Mr. Blossom

THE CHAIRMAN: It is moved and seconded that the American Kennel Club shall adopt the old classification that was in force up to December 31st, 1897. That means the puppy and novice classes as they are at present, the open class, in which a dog, after winning four first prizes going into the challenge class, and can no longer compete in the open class, and then the challenge class, in which a dog can win after winning three firsts in the challenge class, the title of champion. Those are the old rules.

MR. RITCHIE: It seems to me, if we have two sets of rules, governing the winning of title of champion, one for the west, and another for the east, it would be liable to confuse matters as regards the relative merits of the two dogs. While I am not prepared to say that I don’t think the suggestions is a good one, I think that it would be well for us to know why it is better that we should have this confusion than that we should have one set of rules governing the judging over the entire country.

CAPTAIN KNOCKER: There is another matter, there must be four wins for the winners’ class instead of three to become champion of record.

THE CHAIRMAN: There is an amendment to these amendments proposed by the Committee to substitute the word “four” for “three”.

MR. D. E. WATERS: I should like very much to see the rules changed so that each win of a dog with the exception of the novice class might count for a championship. Let the challenge class be open to all, so that dogs that are still eligible for the open class might compete in that, and have an open class, or a free for all class, so that any dog could go into it.

MR. SCHELLHASS: That is exactly the classification proposed only that the name is “open class”. That is exactly what is proposed.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Committee tried to obviate the mis-naming of classes. We thought a class should not be called an open class that was not open, and in having the challenge class, we wanted to do away with many advertising their dogs, and sending out their pedigrees as “Ch.” in front of it, that anybody could take for champion, and nine men out of ten would naturally say it was champion, when the dogs were simply challenge.

MR. D. WATERS: As I understand it now, there is a motion to amend the Committee’s report, to make it the same as the old rules?
MR. VREDENBURGH: That is the motion before the house.

MR. D. E. WATERS: I was speaking against that and in favor of the report of the Committee, if that is exactly what it is. I believe that is the substance of it. I should like to have all wins that a dog might make tend towards making that dog a champion, that is, with the exception of a novice and puppy class, as it is now, or as it would be, as it is proposed to amend the report of the Committee, the wins in what used to be the old open class would count nothing.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The resolution before the house now is to go back to our old rule of 1897, which means that a dog that wins one first in the open class is advanced one step towards the challenge class.

MR. D. E. WATERS: But that has been amended by adding a winners’ class, which shall be made up of dogs that win in the various classes.

CAPT. KNOCKER: Wouldn’t it be still better to leave the open class to all dogs and do away with the challenge class and have a winners’ class?

MR. VREDENBURGH: That is precisely the recommendation of the Committee.

MAJOR TAYLOR: My objection to Capt. Knocker’s motion, to accept the old classification and add a winners’ Class is that it makes a perfectly superfluous class. To adopt the old classification, and then add a winners’ class, would seem to make it ridiculous.

MR. MORTIMER: I believe that the proposed new classification is now quite in line with what was originally intended to be none when the new classification was proposed, but in order to avoid imitating our English cousins too closely, instead of calling the class a limit class, we call it a junior class. Instead of calling a class an open class, we call it the free for all class, which is somewhat misleading. The senior class, as we have it now seems to be the class that is not wanted. It does not fill. Our senior class corresponds with the class that is known in England as the winner’s class. There is no such thing as a winners’ class, because there is no such classification. We simply take the winners out of the puppy, the novice, the junior and the free for all classes, and we judge them for a special prize. I do not see what object there can be in called that a winners class at all. I do not see the object of making the classification. You are judging for a special towards the championship and why call it a winners’ class.
MR. VREDENBURGH: What would you call it.

MR. MORTIMER: Call it nothing, but simply take a championship certificate. I think that would be better. You can’t make the class. It is a post entry.

MR. VREDENBURGH: After the entries are made, is it not a class of winners?

MR. MORTIMER: You can call it a class if you want to, but it is just like judging a breed for the best of its breed.

MR. VREDENBURGH: That is what it is, but the committee believes there should be a name for them as a matter of convenience, if you please.

MR. B. WATERS: Does the definition that the Club gives to that class govern it?

MR. VREDENBURGH: That governs the class. The only thing is that we want a name for the class.

MR. SCHELLHASS: There has got to be some name. We have got to call it something or other. A winners’ class is as good a name as any other. It is made up of winners. If we have no names for it, we cannot make a record of it. It is made up of winners, short and to the point.

MR. D. E. WATERS: I should like to suggest, if the report is adopted, that it be arranged so that a dog having won a championship could be withheld from competition in that winners’ class if the owners desired to withhold it from competition, if he had already become a champion. There is nothing more for him to gain, and if the owner desired to withhold him, I think he should be allowed to do so.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would like to state that the views of the Committee are opposed to such an amendment for this reason: The Committee was not willing to recommend anything by which a man could, after winning his championship build a great big wall around his dog, and still show the dog in other classes, but nobody could look over that wall. The idea is that a dog that has won his championship, if he gets so old, or if he goes off, it is possible so that he cannot compete with younger and newer dogs, the owner then has the privilege of holding that dog from competition in any class.

MR. BLOSSOM: When I seconded Capt. Knocker’s motion, perhaps I didn’t understand what he wished to propose. I would like to have him state it again. I supposed he was proposing the re-establishment of the old rules that were in force previous to the 1st January, 1898, with the old nomenclature and a challenge class, not to count three wins towards the championship until confirmed by winnings in an additional class which we shall call a winners’ class. If that is his proposition I second it. If not, I would like to make one of my own.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is the way the Chair understands it.

MR. BLOSSOM: The old rules say that three wins in the challenge class shall constitute a dog a champion. If we are going to have a winner’s class in addition to the old classification, we must add an additional requisition to enable that dog to win his championship, because it is not right to leave it that way. Therefore I should say that we should say so many wins in the winners’ class in addition to the wins in the challenge class shall constitute champion. How many wins would he indicate in the winners’ class, which would be anew class added to the old classifications – how many wins does he suggest with the wins in the challenge class to constitute a champion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is not willing to entertain any motion for an amendment to these rules unless, if there are any changes whatever from the rules of 1897, they are put in writing, so that if they are adopted we will know what is adopted.

MR. BLOSSOM: They are all printed.

THE CHAIRMAN: I cannot agree with you there, because in connection with that is a new class to be called the winners’ class. Of what use is a winners’ class if a dog has got to win its championship in the challenge class, and three wins constitutes a champion?

MR. BLOSSOM: Add more wins in the winners’ class, and then it might count. We flourished under the old rules, but we do not flourish under the present rule. A good many have expressed a preference for the old rules, but the old rules are defective in one respect, and that is, there can be walkovers from the challenge class. There is a desire to have a challenge class. If I have a dog so good as to win fairly four firsts, I want the privilege of winning four first, and then putting them in the slop jar, called the free for all. Because somebody puts a “Ch.” Before his advertisement, I don’t see that that is any proper reason why we should reject the name. It is a good name.
THE CHAIRMAN: I call your attention to the fact that there is nothing in this discussion which brings up the free for all class; that is not before the house. No such class is mentioned in the report of the committee.

MR. WATSON: I think that we ought to approach this question in a more practical way, and recognize what has been done during the present season. Men who have been giving shows and drawing up prize lists are the men who understand how they have to protect themselves. Exhibitors are very fond of writing to Bench Show Committee, saying “Give us more Classes”, and they want classes for their own dogs, and a challenge class. They will not send on any open class entries, unless you provide a challenge class for them, and encourage them to send them, and they will take up a lot of money through the Bench Shows by that means. We have had this year several shows under these rules. What those practical men have show you is that they don’t want challenge classes, that they are unproductive and unremunerative. They have dropped off the senior class, which was practically the challenge class. My own opinion is that we will eventually have to come around to this challenge class. When I came back from England I was told at once that there was a tremendous kick against this classification; that everything was upset, and that we must go to work, and conform to the views of all there people and clubs. I was very much impressed with what I was told, thought we must do something, and I agreed with the Committee. My experience during the last two shows that we have had teaches me that we will have a great many dogs forced out of the junior class very quickly, and there will be a demand for a senior class or for a challenge class before you know very much about it. Any good dog is forced in two shows into the senior class. Previously the dog could not get out of the old open class until he had been to at least four shows. He can be forced out at two now. A Show Committee can put on that class if it see fit. If exhibitors want a class the same as the challenge class, all they have got to do is to go to the Bench Show Committee to get it.

MR. BLOSSOM: Is that so according to the rules.

THE CHAIRMAN: The rules distinctly say that you can “Dog Show Committees may provide such classes for recognized breeder as they choose, provided they do not conflict with the conditions of the under mentioned classes.”
We give six classes. The Westminster Kennel Club could have made twelve classes for every breed of dogs in this building, provided they did not conflict. The Westminster Kennel Club did it two or three years ago, under the rules. They made a veteran class in collies, and in fox terriers, they made one or two extra classes; they had the right to do it. They have the right to-day to do it.

MR. WATSON: What is meant by not conflicting with the class conditions is that you cannot for instance make a novice class for dogs that have won a first. The novice class has to be for dogs that have not won a first. You cannot make it for a dog that has not won two. You cannot alter your junior class or your senior class, but you can put on as many other classes as you like. After your limit class which is confined to three first prize wins, you can go on and make four firsts or five or six, or as many as you like.

MR. MORTIMER: I quite agree in the statement that any Bench Show Committee can make all the classes they want, or they deem expedient, but the wins in those classes would not count. That is to say, the wins in those classes would not be barred out from going into the junior class.

MR. VREDENBURGH: It says here “The junior class shall be for all dogs never having won four first prizes at any recognized shows, and they make two exceptions, the wins in the puppy and novice classes. IF you committee opened an extra class that did not conflict with the six laid down in these rules, that would be a class at a recognized show of a recognized breed, and consequently would have to be recognized by the American Kennel Club, and the winner of that class would have to be sent into the ring to be judged with the winners, and if the winner of the veteran class, that we have made no mention of can go in the winners’ class, and get a first over the free for all, and the senior and junior classes, that dog is clearly entitled to his step towards a championship. The whole idea is to bring forward the best dog.

MR. MORTIMER: The matter which I wanted to be sure about it this: Suppose we made a maiden class, and we made a veteran class. There are dogs which would be eligible for both of those classes. For instance, you could take a dog that was never shown before, and he might be eight years old. He is eligible for the maiden class, and also the veteran class. Would winnings in those classes prevent him from going into the junior class:

MR. VREDENBURGH: If he had enough of them, year. Now, the motion if that we amend the rules by substituting the classification that was in force up to January 1st, 1898, removing the condition in the challenge class, by which a dog is made a champion and by adding to the rules a winners’ class, that will take in the winners of all the classes.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I would like to request that the last report of the Rules Committee, which was sent to the California Club be read to this meeting here. That will give the Club to understand what the Committee has proposed and you can see how much objection there has been made to that report preparatory to this meeting. They can then see how much objection there is to the acceptance of that classification as adopted by the Committee, and how much objection there was previous to the adoption of the preceding one.

MR. MORTIMER: I don’t think that anybody takes the motion that was made by the delegate from the San Francisco Kennel Club seriously. I don’t think Capt. Knocker is in favor of that motion. Why not take it up and vote on it.

THE CHAIRMAN: It was a motion, and the Chair is unwilling to entertain that motion in its present condition. The report of the Committee of rules has been read. The only way you can act upon Capt. Knocker’s motion is to make that as an amendment to this report.

CAPT. KNOCKER: That is what I intended.

THE CHAIRMAN: Otherwise you have to dispose of this report first.

MR. MORTIMER: Why not take a vote on the report of the Committee on rules?

MR. RITCHIE: I call for the question on the rules. As I understand there has been no amendments offered on the rules. I call for the question on the Committee’s report.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I intended this as an amendment to those rules. I am adding another class. The challenge or senior class is left out. We are asking to go back to the old rules adding a winners’ class.

THE CHAIRMAN: This is the amendment offered by Capt. Knocker to the classification recommended by the Rules Committee to the effect that we go back to the old classification that was in force up to January 1st, 1898, adding thereto a class to be known as the winners’ class, and so amending the challenge class that the three wins specified in that does not entitle a dog to championship.

CAPT. KNOCKER: That is it.
The question on the amendment was then put, and the amendment lost.

MR. VREDENBURGH: We now come to the report of the Rules Committee, in which they provide five classes, the puppy, the novice, the limit, the open and the winners.

The classifications recommended by the report of the Committee were then adopted.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The new classifications now having been regularly adopted, I desire to state that the Committee also recommend that the above classifications go into effect at once. That has also been adopted. There should be some special legislation that will protect clubs who have already gotten out their prize lists, but whose shows have not yet taken place.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the rules shall not go into effect with the Clubs whose prize lists have already been published, or to be published prior to March 1st, 1898.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The amendment to Article XIII, Section 4, is before you, in providing for the Pacific Advisory Board and of the manner in which it shall be provided. If there is no discussion, I will put the question. The question was then put and the amendment adopted.

MR. VREDENBURGH: In the absence of the Vice-President of this Club, I want to bring something forward in his behalf. I had some correspondence with him on the subject. He feels that the title of the American Kennel Club should be changed to make it more comprehensive than it is now, and he was prepared, if he could get here to-day, to offer an amendment that the title should be changed so that it should be officially known as “The Association of American Kennel Clubs.” If any of the delegates agree with him as to that, the opportunity is now afforded them to present that amendment. Of course we will always be known as the American Kennel Club, but the title suggested is more comprehensive, and it states to everybody, even if he is a novice what it is; that it is an association of clubs.

MR. WATSON: stated that he had had some conversation with Mr. Brooks on the subject; that the idea was to endeavor to do away with an alleged feeling on the part of a large number of people that the club was a clique, a small corporation by itself, with which outside clubs had no chance; that if the name was changed to “The Association of American Kennel Clubs, or some name of that kind, reflections of that kind would be prevented; that he thought it was a first rate idea and was perfectly willing to vote for it.

After some discussion, in which it was noted that there had been no publication of this propose amendment, it was decided that action on the matter could not properly be taken at this meeting.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I believe the committee reports unfavorably on my proposed amendment; I should like to have that put to a vote.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The amendment recommended by Mr. G. M. Carnochan read as follows: “That at all Bench Shows, dogs having won a prize in any class shall not carry the ribbon showing such win in any subsequent class at the same show.

Mr. Carnochan spoke in favor of his amendment, saying that he had received a letter from Mr. Brooks, the Vice-President, stating that he had noticed that the Committee had not approved of the amendment: that he informed him that a very good proof of the amendment proposed was the result of the Boston show, where instead of giving ribbons, they gave cards, which prevented the bringing in of dogs with ribbons attached to their collars and chains, and that the system of giving cards worked with perfect satisfaction. Mr. Carnochan advocated the card system to be used hereafter which he thought would be more satisfactory than the present system of giving ribbons.

Mr. Carnochan then moved that the amendment be adopted and that the clubs give cards instead of ribbons.

Motion seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion is that the recommendation of the Committee be not approved and that the clubs hereafter shall use cards instead of ribbons to be handed to the winners.

Amendment lost.

MR. MOTCHENBACHER: moved that the report of the Committee on Rules be approved.

Seconded and carried.

The application of the Cedar Rapids Kennel Club for membership was granted, Mr. Schellhass acting as teller.
On motion the resignations of the Rhode Island Poultry Association and the Erie County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals were accepted.

On motion of Mr. D. E. Waters, the communication of Mr. Elliot Smith, former delegate of the Oakland Kennel Club, stating that he had resigned from that club some weeks ago, was placed on file.

The communication of Mr. George S. Thomas, on behalf of his partner, Richard Toon then came up for consideration and Mr. Carnochan that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Mr. Drake moved as an amendment that the report of the Executive Board, in the suspension of Messrs. Toon & Thomas, be confirmed.

Mr. Carnochan withdrew his motion, and the amendment was seconded and carried.

On motion the following charges were referred to the Executive Board:
T. A. Howard vs. Ally Eberhard
Mrs. H. E. Smyth vs. Fred P. Kirby
John H. Parrott vs. E. H. Moore

In regard to the matter of the suspension by the New England Kennel Club of Dr. Frederick A. David, Major Taylor moved that the action of the Club be endorsed.

Motion seconded and carried.

Concerning the matter of John Simpson, handler for Dr. William Ferguson, Mr. Ritchie moved that it be referred to the Executive Board.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Taylor moved that the handler be disqualified and that the dog be reinstated.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion, as now made, is that the action of the New England Kennel Club in disqualifying the dog, “Dr. Jim,” be not sustained, and that the suspension of the handler, John Simpson be changed to disqualification.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I would like to ask the Committee to confirm my action in reinstating the Kentucky Kennel Club and its officers.

Mr. Waters moved that the Secretary’s action in this respect be approved.
Motion seconded and carried.
It was moved and seconded that Mr. Wade Collins, of San Francisco, be suspended pending the report of the Pacific Advisory Board.

Carried.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I would like to also move that they be instructed to take up the matter, and take immediate action.

Motion seconded and carried.

In the matter of the communication from the Great Dane Club recommending that in all registrations, listings and entries for shows, that the name of the dog represented by said club be known under the title “Great Dane: (Deutsche Dogge), was, on motion of Mr. Schellhass referred to the Stud Book Committee.

In the matter of the communication from the Central Beagle Club, asking permission to amend its constitution in order to permit it to hold shows, and asking whether it can hold a show in Pittsburg, on motion of Mr. Ritchie, the same was referred to the Executive Board.

The appeal from the Hempstead Beagles against the decision of the Bench Show Committee of the New England Kennel Club was, on motion, referred to the Executive Board.

Dr. Huidekoper, Chairman of the Committee appointed by the American Kennel Club at its meeting in May, 1897, for investigation and report as to the prevalence of rabies, submitted the following report:

154 East 57th Street,

New York, February 18th, 1898.

A. P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,

Secretary American Kennel Club

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to submit the following report on behalf of Doctors Austin Peters, of Boston, Mass.; Leonard Pearson, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Richard Price, of St. Paul, Minn.; J. C. Roberts of Agricultural College, Mississippi; Wesley Mills, of Montreal, Canada, and myself, who were appointed as members of a committee to report on the prevalence of rabies. The other members of the Committee, Doctors T. G. Sherwood, New York; Harold C. Ernest, Boston, and Charles W. Dulles, Philadelphia, have made no report.
During last summer and autumn we issued several hundred of the circulars (sample enclosed A) to prominent veterinarians, health officers and State officials throughout the United States and Canada. In reply to these we received answers from all the States and territories of the United States and provinces of British America, either directly or through veterinarians who had been residents of them, some 150 replies in all.

The country was divided into several sections, and each member of the Committee investigated the source and accuracy of each reply and summarized those of his own section as follows:

- Dr. Peters, the New England States,
- Dr. Huidekoper, New York and New Jersey,
- Dr. Pearson, the Middle States,
- Dr. Price, the Western States,
- Dr. Roberts, the Southern States,
- Dr. Mills, British America.

I submit a table (B) which summarizes the result of the report from the various States, and a map (C) marked with red in the localities affected.

It will be seen that in the New England States rabies is unknown North of Massachusetts and in Rhode Island. There is a small area in Eastern Massachusetts were occasional outbreaks occur. In Connecticut only isolated cases have been recognized. In New York and New Jersey only isolated and rare cases are seen.

In the Middle States, Pennsylvania has an infected district, extending for some fifty miles west and south of Philadelphia, which originated in the suburbs of Philadelphia about 1870, and had gradually spread, but in it only about 200 cases have occurred in twenty years, and of there over 100 have been half dozen localities. For the remainder of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia and Virginia, the disease has only been known in rare and isolated cases.

There is little proof of the existence of rabies in the Southern States, and in the States bordering the Eastern banks of the Mississippi River.

From Dr. Price’s report it appears that less than 100 cases have been recognized in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Colorado, Oklahoma and Kansas. The disease is unknown west of the Rocky Mountains.
In Canada a few cases have appeared in the Province of Ontario, and rabies is unknown in the other provinces.

It will be seen then with the exception of two limited areas where there have been a few outbreaks, one in Pennsylvania, and one in Massachusetts, that rabies is a rare disease in this country.

With the file of answers I submit the special reports of Doctors Peters, Pearson, Price and Roberts, which cover in detail their investigation. I also submit a file of letters in which twenty accounts of accidents with rabid dogs were reported in the New York newspapers during the last two years, and upon investigation were found to be based absolutely upon imagination. In over half of them the street and number and the persons described could not be found by the City directory, the U.S. Mail or personal search. Last June one of the best known newspapers in New York gave half a column to a case in Jersey City and minutely described the killing of the dog which had bitten a physician. The dog has been in my possession for three days previous to his reported death absolutely well and healthy. I write the Editor of the facts which he inclined to publish. The sensational articles in the papers concerning attacks by rabid dogs can be invariably class as false.

Without any reflection upon the honesty of the opinion of some of our colleagues who have reported isolated cases, we are convinced that many of these cases are errors of diagnosis, and that our report covers fully the extent of the disease in North America.

I am, sir,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

Rush Huidekoper.

MR. RITCHIE: I move that a vote of thanks be extended to the Committee for the work they have done in behalf of the Club.

Motion seconded and unanimously carried.

MR. WATERS: I move that the report be accepted and printed in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: As treasurer, I report the arrearage of some 17 Clubs in their annual dues.
MAJOR TAYLOR: I move that we give them the usual thirty days in which to respond, and if in that time they do not pay their dues, that they be dropped from the roll.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. SCHELLHAS: I should like to ask for some information. I have been told by outside parties that the Canadian Kennel Club has stated in its official publication, and severely criticized the alleged method of the American Kennel Club of giving out cheap medals, for which it charges $3.00; and then again, I saw it stated in the “California Field Sports” that the American Kennel Club proposed to give to every champion dog, living or dead, a 75¢ club medal, for which the Club charged $3.00. If the medals do no cost more then 75¢ it strikes me that $3.00 is a little too high. I would like to ask whether it is true or untrue, and ask what the facts in the case are.

MR. VREDENBURGH: In answer to the question asked by the delegates, I will say that each medal costs the American Kennel Club, I will say that each medal costs the American Kennel Club, in case an order for fifty is given, $2. a piece. Assed to that it 35¢ for engraving, 13¢ for registration, the medal being sent by registered mail. Then to be added to that is the prorata share of the cost of the die, and the time that is taken to run around to get them engraved and take them to the Post Office. $3. just about covers the actual cost to the American Kennel Club.

MR. WATSON: I move that all applications for affixes and prefixes hereafter be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. WATSON: I am informed that out Executive Committee is composed of eight members. Two gentlemen live at Boston. They are elected by the Club to do the Club’s duties. They are not elected as delegates are, and I think it is only right that the Club having sufficient funds should pay the mileage expenses of the members of the Executive Board for the ensuing year.

It was then moved and seconded that the members of the Executive Board living out of town be paid mileage during the ensuing year for their attendance at the meetings of the Executive Board.

Carried.

The annual meeting then adjourned.

THE SECRETARY: The minutes of the last meeting were published, and they comprise forty-seven pages of type-written matter.

Moved and seconded that the minutes be accepted as published in the Gazette.

Carried.

The Report of the Membership Committee was read, as follows:

New York, May 18th, 1898.

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting upon the credentials of delegates filed with the Secretary, since the last meeting, your committee respectfully submits the following report:
February 18th, 1898, credentials were filed by the American Pug Club, appointing Mr. T. A. Howard as its delegate. For good and sufficient reasons, which are matters of record, the committee’s approval is withheld. Your Committee approves of the acceptance of the following named delegates.

Feb. 21, 1898. Theodore Bollje, from the Central Beagle Club
Feb. 28, 1898. L.C. Whiton, from the National Greyhound Club, Mar. 10, 1898. Singleton Van Schaick from the Irish Terrier Club
Apl. 12, 1898. S. C. Hodge from the American Pet Dog Club
Apl. 28, 1898. A. D. Lewis from the Oakland Kennel Club
Apl. 30, 1898. H. T. Foote, from the Metropolitan Kennel Club

Credentials were filed by the Western Pennsylvania Kennel Club, appointing Mr. G. M. Carnochan as its delegate, but owning to the fact that such appointment has not been on file, the required time as provided for in the Constitution action cannot be taken by your Committee.

G. M. Carnochan,
Chairman Mem. Com.

The following named gentle were then elected to represent the following named Clubs as delegates, Mr. A. C. Wilmerding being appointed Teller.

Metropolitan Kennel Club, Dr. H. T. Foote
Oakland Kennel Club, A. D. Lewis
American Pet Dog Club, S. C. Lewis
Irish Terrier Club, Singleton Van Schaick
National Greyhound Club, L. C. Whiton
Central Beagle Club, Theodore Bollje

On motion the report of the Membership Committee was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary then read his report, as follows:

New York, May 18th, 1898.
To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

As you will be informed by the report of the proceedings of the Executive Board, you will be relieved of a vast amount of work at this meeting, the same having been attended to and closed by said Board, and as a consequence my Report will be brief, and the matters to be brought before you few and unimportant.

Acting under instructions by our last meeting, a final bill for dues for 1898 was sent to the Eighteen Clubs in arrears. Before the thirty days given them within which to pay said dues had expired, seven clubs paid. At the expiration of the thirty days, the following Clubs having failed to pay, were, on the 24th day of March, dropped from the roll of membership:

I beg to submit the following charges:

Klee & Dean vs. Albert Shira. Re misconduct in connection with dogs.

I respectfully request a ruling and interpretation of the meaning and intent of the dog show rule relating to the making of winners classes and competition therein. The Santa Clara Valley Poultry and Kennel Club issued its premium list providing for a full classification in all breeds. Owing, however, to a large number of said classes failing to fill, it appears from the certified catalogue that in several instances but one dog of a breed had been entered, and in several instances but one class in a breed had filled. Notwithstanding winners classes had in every case been opened and awards given. The intent of the rule was that competition must be had to make a dog eligible to win in the winners class, so that walk-overs in qualifying for a championship would be obviated. I have refrained from recording the wins at this show pending your instructions.
As is usual at this meeting, I request permission to drop from our list of associate members all persons in arrears for dues for 1898.

I have to report that by reason of the dropping of the name of a club from membership, and the appointment of a new delegate from another club, the delegates from both being members of one of our standing committees, and one a member of our Executive Board, it leaves vacancies in both Committee and Board which may be filled by an election at your pleasure. I would, however, recommend that the election to fill such vacancies be laid over until our next meeting, for the reason that there is now on file at this office, the appointment of one of these gentlemen to represent another club, and I am informed that there is a probability of a reorganization of the club that has been dropped and again applying for reinstatement.

It gives me pleasure to announce that Mr. Fred Mansell of London, England, has added to our collection of pictures in presenting to the club an artist's proof of a brace of Dandie Dinmont Terriers from the painting by Arthur Wardle.

I beg to report that I have just received the following charges:

May 12th, 1898, San Francisco Kennel Club vs. J. B. Martin, re misconduct in connection with dog shows.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. Vredenbrugh,
Secretary.

On motion said report was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was then read, and is as follows:

New York, May 18th, 1898.

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1, 1898:

Balance on hand, January 1, 1898, $4,276.49
Receipts from all sources to date, 3,675.41
    Total, $ 7,951.90
Disbursements from January 1, 3,242.64
    Balance on hand, $ 4,709.26

Respectfully submitted,
    A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary.

On motion said report was received and placed on file.

The report of the Executive Board was then read, as follows:
Meeting of the Executive Board held May 14th, 1898.
Meeting called to order at 1:10 P.M.
H. H Hunnewell, Jr., in the chair.
Present:  H. H. Hunnewell, Jr., H. K. Bloodgood, G. M. Carnochan, J.
Watson, H. F. Schellhass, and A. C. Wilmerding.
Absent: A. Belmont, E. Brooks.

The Secretary presented the following business to be acted upon by the Board:

E. O. Damon
    Vs.    Re misconduct in connection with dogs.
Eldred Kennels

Charges were not prove, and no misconduct shown, it was therefore Ordered, that the case be and hereby is dismissed.

American Kennel Club,
    Vs.    Re cancellation of wins.
Cedar Rapids Kennel Club

Whereas, the additional classes made in bull terriers, fox terriers and Italian greyhounds were illegally made, it was therefore Ordered, that the action of the Secretary of the A.K.C. in cancelling the wins in said classes be and hereby is approved and confirmed.
Sterling P. Martin
Vs. Re Appeal from decision on protest.
Kansas City Kennel Club

The question of the breed of a dog shown in any class at any show can only be decided by the official Judge at said show.

Ordered, that the Fox Hounds Trumpter and Piccolo, shown in class 45 at the late Kansas City Kennel Club Show, and winnings last and 2\(^{nd}\) respectively, be and hereby are disqualified for the reason of wrong dates of birth having been given; and the Fox Hounds Big Ball winning the reserve, and Lincoln, winning V.H.C. be and hereby are marked up to 1\(^{st}\) prize and 2\(^{nd}\) prize under the rules.

J.H. Parrott
Vs. Re Appeal to reopen case
E.H. Moore

Whereas, as no new or additional evidence has been brought forward with the appeal, it is therefore Ordered that the appeal be and hereby is dismissed.

Mrs. H. E. Smith
Vs. Re Appeal to reopen case.
F. P. Kirby

Ordered, that suspension will stand until proofs be brought forward, and appeal made in a proper and respectful manner.

New England Kennel Club,
Vs. Re appeal from former decision
J. L. Kernochan

Ordered, that appeal be dismissed, as no additional evidence appears.

F. B. Grout,
Vs. Re Appeal from decision on protest
Westminster Kennel Club

Ordered, that request to withdraw appeal be and hereby is granted.
James Tilbury,
Vs.
John Whelan

Whereas, Whelan having failed to obey the orders of this Board, as laid down by its last meeting, therefore be it Ordered, the said Whelan be and hereby is, suspended, and to remain so until he returns the purchase price of the Bull bitch Grosvenor Lass to the appellant.

John M. Trendley,
Re Request for ruling on collie
St. Louis, Mo.
Judging at Grand Rapids.

Ordered, that the records in free for all, junior and winners classes, be corrected to read: Major Domo 1st, Major Victor, Reserve. Owing to certain circumstances it is the sense of this Board that the decision arrived at shall not be considered a precedent.

Webster Jones,
Re Application for reinstatement
San Francisco, Cal.
Of English setter, Count Herold

It is the sense of this Board that it can find no good reason to depart from precedents already established that a dog owned by a suspended or disqualified person cannot be exhibited by any subsequent purchasers until the person under discipline shall have been reinstated. The application is therefore denied.

Wade Collins
Re recommendation for his reinstatement.
San Francisco, Cal.

By Virtue of the recommendation and endorsement of the St. Bernard Club of California, and four members of the Pacific Advisory Committee, it is therefore Ordered, that Wade Collins be and hereby is reinstated.

American Kennel Club
Vs.
Re pug entries at W.K.C. Show of
C. Y. Ford
1897.
Ordered, that C. Y. Ford be and hereby is directed to return prize money awarded to Otterburn Penrice at the late Brooklyn Show to the Metropolitan Kennel Club.

American Kennel Club

Vs. Re Conduct prejudicial to interests
Pacific Mastiff Club of the A. K. C.

Ordered, that the action of President Belmont in suspending the Pacific Mastiff Club and its officers for the adoption of a resolution prejudicial to the interests of the parent body, and his subsequent reinstatement of said Club and officers, upon receipt of notice of the rescinding of said resolution, be and hereby is approved and confirmed.

Texas Kennel Club Re Application for Membership
    Dallas, Texas

    The above application having been duly approved, by the Membership Committee, it is Ordered, that said application be and hereby is granted, and the Club be admitted to full active membership.

Report of Stud Book Committee, May 14th, 1898 to the Executive Board A. K. C.

Gentlemen:

    The Stud Book Committee reports favorably on the following applications for Kennel names:

    Bellefield to T. J. Woodward, Jr.
    Dunollie “ C. E. Tilford
    Fordham “ J. C. Ford
    Hampton “ Mrs. W. E. Warner
    Indian Mound “ S. E. Waters
    Irving “ J. Conway
    Landseer “ T. C. Moxham
Laurelton " S. Van Schaick Queset " Hobart Ames

It is expected that several cases will be ready to be reported upon at the club meeting next week.

Yours respectfully,
James Watson, Chairman

Ordered, that above report be accepted, placed on file and recommendations adopted.

Adjourned.
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion the report of the Executive Board was received and placed on file.
The Report of the Stud Book Committee was then read as follows:

New York, May 19th, 1898

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentleman:

Your Stud Book Committee has the following cases upon which to report, with two others not yet complete. Re the pedigrees of the St. Bernard bitch Miss Lady de Land.

Lloyd Miller Hallenbeck, of Catskill Station, N. Y. purchased the St. Bernard Bitch, Miss Lady Gilmore from Mr. Schleicher of Baltimore, and received it form him on May 4th, 1897. On July 23rd, she had a litter of puppies of which Miss Lady de Land was one. Mr. Hallenbeck registered her as by Sir Alberton for the reason that he had not bred her to any dog, and he supposed that as Mr. Schleicher had written as f e owned and kept Sir Alberton, that the letter must be by that dog. The correspondence on file suggests nothing but great ignorance on the part of Mr. Hallenbeck regarding the breeding of dogs, and the Committee does not think it necessary to go beyond the cancelling of the registration, which is has ordered.

Re the pedigree of the Bulldog

Venus de Milo
Upon the statement of J. H. Bolton, of Canton, Ill., who made the registration that the pedigree be sent, was not that of a bulldog, but a mixture of terrier and possibly unknown breeds, the entry was cancelled in the stud book. Mr. Bolton claimed in his letters that he relied upon the club’s accepting the pedigree he sent in, as a verification of its correctness, and apparently felt aggrieved when he subsequently found that his pedigree was not that of a pure bred bulldog. He apparently now understands that he cannot blame the club for his own negligence in properly verifying the pedigree, and sees that the acceptance of a pedigree is based upon the statements furnished, when, as in this case, the ancestors’ names are not those of registered dogs.

Your Committee suggests that a standing rule be passed requiring owners of dogs whose registration is cancelled to return the registration certificate upon the request of the Secretary which request should be made upon notice of the cancellation furnished by the Stud Book Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

James Watson,
Chairman.

Moved and seconded that the report of the Stud Book Committee be received and placed on file, and the recommendations therein contained be adopted.
Carried.

On motion, the charges preferred by the American Kennel Club against Frank J. Ross; the charges by Klee and Dean against Albert Shira, and D. S. Wadsworth against Milwaukee Poultry & Pet Stock Association were referred to the Executive Board.

MR. VREDENBURGH: In regard to the Santa Clara alley matter, which is fully referred to in my report, I desire to say that the classification of the rules, Number 5, says: “The winners class shall be open only to the winners of first prizes at any show giving at least three of the before mentioned classes, one of which must be in the open class, ad the winner of three first prizes in this class, will thereby become a champion of record.” The San Jose Show sent out its premium list, giving a full classification for every breed of dog. In several cases, there was one single dog entered and shown. None of the rest of the classes filled. That dog was very promptly taken into the ring and judged in the winners class and awarded first, which is the first step of the three towards making him a champion. In another instance where the same dog was entered in two classes, the only entries in the show, that dog was also awarded first in the winners class. They even went so far as to award first in the winners class in the miscellaneous class. I have not made a record of any of the wins at the San Jose show, and shall not until I get instructions from this meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN: What qualifications did the have to fill at the show besides giving the three classes?

MR. VREDENBURGH: That is all. The intent of the Rules Committee was that in the winners classes, there must be competition. Whether the Rules Committee framed its rules to cover that technically, I am not saying, but it reads:
“The winners class shall be open only to the winners of first prizes in this class will thereby become a champion of record.”

MR. WATSON: I hardly agree with Mr. Vredenburgh in saying that it was the intent and meaning of the Rules Committee that the win should count only where there was competition. I think it might be more proper to say that it is was the intent to induce competition, to provoke competition, to take every step toward bringing about competition. That was the fact when we had the prize money. Then when this outcry was raised against money prizes, they were done away with in deference to the request more particularly of these California clubs, but I am quite sure it must have been perfectly evident to every person that is was opening the way for exactly what there people did. Then I think, unfortunately we opened the way good deal further by passing the resolution that a winners class must be provided for all breeds where there were three classes, including the open classes. I don’t see how at this late date we can cancel any of the wins under our rule. No matter what the intent of the committee was, or what our wishes were, we are simply here to discuss what the rule says, and the rule says that the winners class shall be provided for all breeds where there are three classes given, one of which is the open class. That being done, we can stop no wins under that rule, and I can see nothing to do but just go ahead and recognize those wins and turn the matter over to the Rules Committee; we are practically at the end of the season, and from the results of this season, we can find out what has been done at the various shows, and then in the winter time, and before our December meeting, we can make such recommendations as we think necessary.

MR. MORTIMER: I think that that would be waiting too long. I contended from the first in this new classification that there should be no such thing as a winners class. The winners class does not exist until there are winners, and therefore no dog show should have the power to put in its premium list a winners class. The American Kennel Club has adopted rules and conditions allowing a Bench Show Committee to provide certain classes. There must be a winners class and there must be a championship award. So you see that at the present time, if a bench show committee provides a novice class, and puppy class, and there is only one dog entered in that class, that dog is put in the winners class, and he qualifies for a championship. I believe with Mr. Watson that the Committee on rules never intended that sort of thing to happen. I believe that the Committee on rules intended that there must be competition, and therefore I have contended all through from the first that there should be no such thing as a winners class, and I think the winners class should be wiped out entirely from our classification. The English Kennel Club, who have the same classes, have no winners class in their premium lists. In this way, we are simply making champions out of dogs that have nothing in the world to entitle them to become such except the fact that they are the only ones that are entered in there classed. I have had exhibitors come to me and say: Why can’t I enter my dog in this winners class without entering him in the other classes; your rule V says it shall be open for all winners of first prizes at any show. I have had exhibitors come to me and contend that they had a perfect right to enter their dogs in the winners class alone without competition in these other classes. I contend, as I have said, that the winners class is a class that does not exist. They cannot be winners unless these other classes are filled. I mean to say there must be competition in the winners class; that is to say, the other classes which are necessary to make a championship should be filled, and there must be competition in the winners class.

THE CHAIRMAN: There must be two first prize winners.

MR. WATSON: Suppose one dog wins in all the classes?

MR. MORTIMER: Then he wins by default. He has beaten everything in the other classes.
THE CHAIRMAN: I think the point is how we are going to rule on this case.

MR. SCHELLHASS: The point is as to whether we shall, or whether we can call the wins at this show in question void. I am a member of the Rules Committee, and helped to frame these rules, and I can see that the door has been left open to very cheap wins. We have the rule as it exists, and we cannot go behind the rules as they exist. There is no restriction in the rule, and I don’t know see that we can do anything but accepts those wins. I make a motion to accepts these wins, because I don’t see any other way out of it.

MR. RITCHIE: I hardly think it is necessary to put any such motion as that. I think the fact is evident in itself that they have complied with the requirements of the rules, and those wins should be ordered.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I withdraw the motion I made and move that the Secretary be instructed to recognize the wins.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is moved and seconded that the Secretary be instructed to make a record of the wins.

THE SECRETARY: Does that mean I shall make a record of a winner in miscellaneous classes? They give everything in the miscellaneous class.

MR. WATSON: How many classes did they give for miscellaneous?

MR. VREDENBURGH: It was full. While we are on this question, I would like to ask if I shall make a record of the breed of dogs, puppies, bitches, novice dogs, limit bitches, open dogs with winners, also in both the dog and bitch classes of a breed of dogs known as the California bull dog.

MR. MORTIMER: Has that breed been recognized by the Stud Book here?

MR. VREDENBURGH: No such breed has been registered.

MR. WATSON: I think it would be well to take this matter up, and add that no winners class should be recognized.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think the sense of the meeting is that awards be allowed to stand except in the miscellaneous classes and the California Bull dog.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I think there ought to be instructions given to the Stud Book Committee to make a list of recognized breeds.

The motion that the wins at the San Jose Show be awarded with the exceptions of those in the miscellaneous class and in the California Bulldog class was carried.
MR. MORTIMER: Would it be in order to give notice of an amendment to our rules?

THE CHAIRMAN: I should think it was just the right time to do it. I think you might cover the two things in a motion.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to ask the Secretary whether there has been any French bulldog registered as such?

MR. VREDENBURGH: No. There has been an effort to have a French Bulldog registered.

MR. WATSON: I think in this case it would be well to pass an arbitrary resolution. I think there are certain breeds, such as Russian Terriers, California Bulldogs and miscellaneous that should be omitted.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I think the best way to get at it would be for this meeting, by resolution, to instruct the Committee on Constitution and Rules to take that matter up at its earliest convenience, and to try and wore the rule applying to the winners qualifying for championship so as to remedy this, and at the same time the Committee can recommend this question of awarding medals to recognized breeds, and specify what, in its opinion should be a recognized breed of dog.

MR. MORTIMER: I think you would get at it quicker by specifying what should not be recognized.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Yes, that is so. There are several members of the Committee on Rules present, and they have now a pretty good idea of the opinions of the members, and I think with that knowledge and any further information that any of the delegates might be pleased to give them, the committee could do something during the early summer that could do something during the early summer that could be acted upon at the September meeting, and make the rule stronger and plainer.

MR. WATSON: I think if this matter were agitated in the Gazette, showing the need of these changes, the Committee will take it up. I think the Committee would be perfectly willing to take it up on suggestion.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like the Committee on Rules to take into consideration a matter that I have referred to many time before, and that is that the winners class should be entirely left out of the premium list.

MR. SCHELLHASS: Not announced?

MR. MORTIMER: Not announced
MR. SCHELLHASS: You mean it ought to be compulsory not to announce it?

MR. MORTIMER: Yes. Another condition that I would like the Committee on Rules to make of to take into consideration would be that there should be, there must be competition in order to become champion, that is to say if a show committee make a puppy class, a novice class, a limit class, an open class, that at least two of those classes should be full. I think the Committee on Rules should take all these matters into consideration, and settle this thing at once. The shows will be held early in the Fall.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is whether this ought to come up in the form of a motion or whether it should come up in the form of a suggestion.

MR. BLOSSOM: I would like to ask whether this Committee is going to consider the subject, among others, so as to report to the next September meeting, because the shows are held in September and October. Will they consider the fact that when these changes in the rules are made, that part of the reason given for making the change were that the championship had previously been won too easily? I think the result of what few shows we have had has been to show that championships are won too easily now. I don’t want to make a motion if it is not necessary, but if it is necessary, I should make it, that a dog, to be considered champion has got to win five in the winners class.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I think that the suggestion is sufficient for the Rules Committee to take it up.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I would like to state in reply to Mr. Blossom that it can be legally acted upon at the September meeting. The only think necessary is that public notice in the Gazette should be given. We cannot amend the constitution, but we can amend the rules, because the rules are part and parcel of the By-Laws. Notice has to be given, but I think upon this suggestion there is no question but that the Rules Committee will look into this matter, and as soon as they have formulated a report, they will publish it in the Gazette prior to the September meeting, and then at the September meeting action can be had.

MR. MORTIMER: Another suggestion has occurred to me, as it possible has occurred to some of you, that something should be done in order to throw safe guards around the winnings of championships. For instance the American Kennel Club might nominate championship shows, on the Atlantic Coast, in the Middle States, and at other places. I think that would throw a safe guard around the winning of championships.

MR. WATSON: I don’t think there is anything before the meeting. I think all of these suggestions have been thoroughly thrashed out during the last three or four months.

MR. BLOSSOM: Is it necessary to make a motion that these matters be left to the Rules Committee, or will they take charge of it so it will come legally before the meeting?

CAPT. KNOCKER: I make the suggestion to drop from the roll of Associates all members in arrears for dues for 1898.

Moved and seconded that such Associates be dropped.

Carried.

Different Kennel papers some pretty severe criticisms of the alleged hard heartedness of the American Kennel Club in exacting fines from the Butterfly Bench Association, owing to the fact that the said Club Show was given in aid of some charitable purpose. All the proceeds of the show, I believe were given to some charitable institution. So far as the American Kennel Club is concerned, there has only been one course to pursue, and that was for the Secretary to inflict whatever fines there were in connection with said show, but in view of the fact that the show was given for the benefit of charity, under the circumstances, I think it would be well for the American Kennel Club to remit those fines with the understanding that the money be applied to the purposes intended by the show in question.

Motion seconded.

MR. MORTIMER: I perfectly agree with what Mr. Schellhass has said, but I am afraid in passing that resolution we may be establishing a precedent which we may be sorry for hereafter. It has become the fashion to donate the proceeds, or a certain amount of the proceeds of shows to charitable institutions; for instance, we have the San Francisco Kennel Club, which announces that 75% of their profits shall be donated to charitable purposes in the city of San Francisco, and if we rescind the rule for one show, we may probably have to do it for others. That is the only objection to it I have. I am very much in favor of rescinding fines of that sort, and am in the case of the Butterfly Bench Show Association, but we have other Associations which also donate a certain percentage of their proceeds to charity.
MR. SCHELLHASS: Here was a show that gave its entire proceeds for the charitable purposes mentioned, and it was publicly announced that the show was given for that one purpose. Under the circumstances I should be very much in favor of remitting those fines.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I should like to correct the statement made by Mr. Schellhass. I have not seen any adverse criticism of the American Kennel Club on this score. The only person who has been criticized has been the Secretary of the American Kennel Club. I am not very large, but I have shoulders broad enough to stand that criticism, and I do not ask any protection from the American Kennel Club in that case.

MR. RITCHIE: I will offer as an amendment to Mr. Schellhass’ motion that this be not considered as precedent in any future show.

Amendment seconded.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I accept that amendment.

The motion as amended was then put and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The question of branching out somewhat in the Gazette has been debated and talked about, and I think it might be well to refer the matter to the Executive Board for it to take up and consider.

THE CHAIRMAN: In what way?

MR. VREDENBURGH: In making it more of a paper, instead of simply a record.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is to say, if we made it more on the lines of the English Kennel Gazette, which is newsy, and also contains the reports of the Judges.

MR. RITCHIE: I think there are possibilities in the Kennel Gazette that are unthought of now. As it is now, it is a mere record. I believe that that paper can be made a readable and newsy journal, and a think to be looked forward to, and not to be taken as a matter of course. I think if the Executive Board will take that matter up, they will find there are a number of ways in which the Journal might be improved, and I move that the Executive Board take up the matter of the improvement of the Kennel Gazette.

Motion seconded.
MR. MORTIMER: I don’t know whether any of the delegates here understand the manner in which the English Kennel Gazette is edited. If we are going to make a newspaper, or a newsy journal of the American Kennel Gazette, we should want to have it properly edited. It, of course means an additional expense, a big expense as a matter of fact. That has probably not been taken into consideration.

MR. VREDENBURGH: In line with that I would state that it would be perfectly impossible for this office to conduct the American Kennel Gazette on any other lines than it is now being done. I suppose we are two months behind in our work. We cannot keep up with it, and if any further duties are put upon the Secretary, the Secretary will tell you he cannot attend to them. If the Kennel Gazette is changed, it means man to do it; a man that is qualified to do it. That means expense, and if the Executive Board looks into this matter, they have got to go into the question of ways and means very thoroughly before they can come to a decision. The American Kennel Club cannot afford to do it, unless they can be assured of an increased income from it, and that is the reason I suggest that it be left to the Executive Board to consider it well, and to go into the question and see what they think they can do with it.

DR. FOOTE: This question of a Gazette, has been one that we have figured on it times past, I think. Every since my first experience as a delegate here, there has been a good deal of complaint about the condition of the Gazette. I appreciate the fact that the office in its present state is not in a condition to improve it, and in improving the Gazette, in having an Editor take charge of it, there will be of course an increased expense, but to offset that we have a thousand or more different people that register dogs every year in the stud book.

MR. VREDENBURGH: About 3500 entries is a fair average.

DR. FOOTE: It is fair to presume that we have close to a thousand people that register dogs. Anyone that registers a dog ought to be interested in kennel affairs, and sufficiently so to become an associate member, if we give him a fair return. Now, there is no return practicably beyond the two free registrations in the stud book. The Gazette need not be made a newspaper in the same sense as the stock keeper, The Turf Field and Farm and the Forest and Stream, but simply as a report for us which we want to keep on file. If that were done, and I believe that a very large proportion of those who now register dogs could be brought into the associate membership, it could be increased and possibly sufficiently to cover the expense of editing the Gazette. Furthermore, the editor will be a feature of it. Instead of the small amount of advertising, that we now have, with some one in control of the Gazette that could solicit advertising, the profits from that source could be largely increased. I believe if the members will refer this to the Executive Board, we can show something vastly superior, both in our Gazette and in our Associate Membership and general interest in the American Kennel Club than anything we have heretofore had.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I think it would be better if the chair appointed a Committee of three, of which the Secretary would be one, to look into the matter, and report to the Executive Board in the matter, and report to the Executive Board in the matter.

Amendment accepted by Mr. Ritchie.
The amendment was then put and carried.
The Chairman appointed as such Committee, James Watson, James Mortimer and A. P. Vredenburgh.

The Meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and the minutes accepted as published in the May Gazette.

The credentials of Mr. G. M. Carnochan to represent the Western Penn. Kennel Club were read, and he was duly elected as its delegate, Mr. Schellhass acting as teller.

The Secretary read his quarterly report, and the same, was, on motion, accepted and placed on file. It is as follows: -

New York, September 21st, 1898

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen: -
Since our May meeting I have received one application for membership, credentials of delegates from two clubs, and a withdrawal of credentials from one club, all of which will be reported upon by the Membership Committee at this meeting.

Four applications for the registration of Kennel names have been received and referred to the Stud-Book Committee, to be reported upon by said committee at this meeting.

There has been a full meeting of the Constitution and Rules Committee, at which the report on amendments to the classification were submitted and duly published in the August Gazette, which made any action on said amendments at this meeting constitutional. The report of your Committee will be submitted at this meeting.

The following charges for mis-conduct have been filed at this office:
July 13th, 1898, Alan W. Wood, vs. Andrew Laidlaw.
September 7th, 1898, Frank Kruse vs. Klee & Dean

The Rhode Island Kennel Club requests a ruling on the following question: “Are we as members of the American Kennel Club bound to pay specials, offered by individuals and advertised as such in our catalogues?” This request was submitted to the Executive Board at its July meeting, and laid over pending particulars. The question as above is the reply to the questions of the Executive.

An appeal from Motschenbacher & Klein against the decision of the judge of Scottish Terriers at the Bull Terrier show has been received. The Terrier “Tambourine” entered at said show, was the only one entered and shown, and the judge declined to judge said dog in a winner’s class for the reason that no competition had occurred in any of the regular classes the appeal is made at the suggestion of the judge, as a test case so that a precedent can be established.

It has come to my notice that in a number of cases judges have given two “reserves” to dogs in the same class. Such awards certainly do not come within the letter not spirit of the rules, and as the reserve is given solely for the purpose of moving a dog up in the money in the case of cancellation of higher awards, it necessitates giving equal prizes in case such moving up becomes necessary. This practice should be stopped, and judges should be warned against it.
The discussion at our last meeting relative to the enlarging and increasing the scope of the Gazette was taken up at the last meeting of the Executive Board, and I was authorized to take such steps as might be found necessary to carry the project into effect. This I have done, making the matter an experimental one until January 1st, 1899, at which time it can be intelligently determined whether it will be self-supporting, and its continuance advisable.

I have to report the receipt of a notice from the Pacific Mastiff Club, withdrawing the credentials of its delegate, Mr. Erastus Hamilton, for the reason of the expiration of the term for which he was appointed.

An appeal from Toom & Thomas has been received, applying for reinstatement, with an endorsement by Mr. Charles W. Keyes. I would state for your information that the suspension of said firm expires by limitation on January 1st, 1899.

I have received the resignation of Mr. James Watson as Chairman of the Stud-Book Committee with which has been identified for many years. With its acceptance it will be necessary to elect his successor, in order to fill the vacancy this occasional in the Executive Board.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenbrugh,
Secretary.

The Treasurer's report was read, as follows:

New York, September 21st, 1898

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1st, 1898.
Balance on hand January 1st, 1898 $4,276.49
Receipts from all sources to date, $5,773.21
   Total $ 10,049.70
Disbursements from January 1st, 1898 5,681.08
   Balance on hand, 4,368.62

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Executive Board was presented, and on motion accepted as published, and placed on file.
The report of the Stud-Book Committee was then read, as follows: -

New York, September 22nd, 1898
A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,
Secretary A.K.C.

Dear Sir:

For reasons assigned in the accompanying report of the Stud-Book Committee, please cancel the registration of the English Setter Knights Sport, 42,784, and Knight Shade, 45,138, together with any others by Knights Sports that may have been registered.

Your truly,
Jas. Watson Chairman

New York, September 22nd, 1898

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

Your Stud-Book Committee reports as follows on all matters placed before it with two exceptions, they being in an incomplete condition.

In the Matter of the Pedigree of the English Setter “Knights Sports”
Klee & Dean sold an English Setter named Knights Sport to C. L. Thudichum, of Philadelphia, early in 1897, and the latter registered the dog with the pedigree given by the vendors, the number being 42,784. In April of this year Mr.
THudichum received a communications form Albery Shira, a discharged employy of Klee & Dean, and was informed later on by Shira that his dog has no such pedigree, but that if there was any mistake they would rectify it. At this stage Klee & Dean preferred charges against Shira, evidently with the view of showing that he was unreliable and so affect his evidence. This case the Executive Board dismissed upon the ground that it was a case of an employee failing to carry out instructions and not one that the A.K.C. has any right to take cognizance of. Your Committee held their report in abeyance pending the other case being decided and also to permit Klee & Dean to have the opportunity to have the dog identified. Since then they have taken back the dog, thus acknowledging that they sent it out with a wrong pedigree. Further than that they now write that they cannot supply or determine its pedigree. Your committee has therefore ordered the cancelling of the registration and all affected thereby.

With regard to Klee & Dean, your Committee has had several cases before it in which the firm has been accused of improper dealings. So far it has succeeded in upholding its side of the case, but there has been evidence of carelessness in one or two cases, and as your Committee is informed that there is a very similar matter to the Knights Templar one to be presented at this meeting, it would seem to be advisable to make this form part of the same general inquiry into the conduct of the kennel.

Papers in two cases are returned for filing, without mentioning names. It not unfrequently happens that a dissatisfied purchaser seeks the medium of the American Kennel Club to get out of the trade by asserting that the seller deceived him as to pedigree, &c., presuming either that their evidence will be accepted without investigation, or that we will hunt up sufficient evidence on their behalf to have the trade declared off. When called upon to offer some evidence in support of the statements the reply, if any, is as vague as the charges, and it would not be proper to assist these complainants by publishing names of persons against whom not a particle of evidence has been presented, but who might suffer by a doubt being created through a statement of the case.

Your committee report as follows on the applications for Kennel names and prefixes:
Recommended favorably: Rockwood, to Roger D. Williams, of Lexington, Ky., to whom the name has been relinquished by Mr. J.C. Froliger.

Montane to Ernest M. Crocker, of New Kensington, Pa.

Guyasta, To James McAleer and W. E. Johnston of Etna, Pa.

The applications of Messrs. Stewart and Son, of Aromas, Cal., for the prefix "Ormskirk" is objected to as it is the well known prefix of Mr. T.H. Strech, of Ormskirk, England, and dogs with that prefix are known to come from that kennel. The fact that the applicants have the dog Ormskirk Blucher in their kennels is not sufficient warrant for the use of the name.

Mr. Forliger, who relinquished the name of Rockwood to Mr. Roger D. Williams, has asked "Miami" as a substitute provided there is not likelihood for confusion with any other kennel. No such kennel name has been registered, but there is such a kennel in existence, or was a short time ago, and as this might leas to the confounding of the two, which Mr. Froliger desires to avoid, his application is therefore reported upon adversely.

Respectfully submitted,

Jas. Watson,
Chairman

On motion the report of the Stud-Book Committee was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Membership Committee was read, as follows:-

New York, September 21\textsuperscript{st}, 1898

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen: -

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day, for the purpose of examining and reporting upon applications for admission to membership, and upon credentials of delegates filed with the Secretary, your Committee respectfully report as follows: --

An applications for membership from the St. Bernard Club of America, filed July 27\textsuperscript{th}, 1898, having fully complied with all requirements, is duly approved, and its admission recommended.
The credentials of Mr. G. M. Carnochan filed by the Western Penn. Kennel Club as its delegate, is hereby approved and its acceptance recommended.

The credentials of Mr. A.B. Bagley, filed by the St. Bernard Club of California, did not come to hand until September 12th, 1898, and therefore cannot be considered at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

H.T. Foote
Chairman

On motion the said report was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Committee on Constitution & Rules was read, as published, and the following telegram was read in connection therewith: --

New York, September 19th, 1898

Dated San Francisco, Cal., 19.
To V. P. Vredenburgh,
55 Liberty Street,
New York.

Frisco apparently only loyal show. Increase winners wins would work incalculable hardship to all shows. Knocker particulars mailed.

Carlton and DeRuyter.

On motion the report was accepted and placed on file.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The first matter in the report of the Committee on rules is the amendments that were submitted by the five clubs on the Pacific coast, recommended by the Committee on Rules, that it insert after the word “Class” on the fourth line of Rule XII, Class 5: “OR five first prizes at shows held west of 110 degrees west longitude.”

MR. ARNOTT: I move the matter be laid over for further consideration, pending the receipt of particulars.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next is, the request that a win in the winners’ class shall not count as regular class win. The Committee on Rules withheld their approval of that amendment, for the reason that a win in the winners’ class is the most important win that a dog can made and should be counted against the dog the same as a win in the open, limit or novice classes.

Capt. Knocker: Would it not be better to lay over the Pacific Coast matter until I receive my instructions? I have not received any instructions up to this time.

Mr. Schellhass: I was going to make that motion. I move that those matters be laid over for further consideration.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The next matter for your consideration is the proposed amendment to Rule XI. Following the word “weighing” in the seventh line, to add “or measuring”.

After some discussion it was moved and seconded that the recommendation of the committee of the proposed amendment to Rule XI by adopted.

Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The next proposed amendment is to Rule XII, following the words “under mentioned classes” to add “It is optional to provide such of the following classes as may be desired.” The cause of that recommendation on the part of the committee was that a number of show committees seem to interpret these rules to mean that they must provide every class that we define in this classification.

The Chairman: I do not see how they can possibly misinterpret that. It is very plain.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I don’t either, but to make it doubly sure the committee recommends the addition of that clause.

Mr. Arnett: I move the rejection of that clause.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Also, following the work “and” at the beginning of the sixth line, to add “if registered in the stud-book”.

Moved and seconded that the above recommendations be adopted.

Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Also, in the same rule, same class, strike out the last clause, to wit: “Winners’ classes must be provided in all cases when the regular classification will warrant them.”

Mr. Arnett: What is the reason of that?
MR. VREDENBURGH: According to the rules now they must provide a winners’ class. They have the puppy novice, limit and open classes in a breed, and they will have one entry in that breed, and they cannot expect more than a couple, because the classes never fill. Here we say they must make a winner’s class. The third clause of this classification, which includes the open class, warrants the opening of a winner’s class. Now we make it optional with the shows, just as the Westminster Kennel Club, and all the other large shows in every important breed did, that it, opened a winner’s class because they are going to get entries by opening a winner’s class.

MR. WATSON: I make the suggestion that we take the other proposed amendment in conjunction with this and then we can explain it better. In another place we offer an amendment whereby there should be not winner’s class in addition to what was actually specified in the premium list. The object of that was to protest the title of Champion. That was the prize which the club has given, a championship medal, and we were making that addition ourselves. If they said, ‘winners’ classes must be provided in all cases when the regular classification will warrant them, “The regular classification would warrant a winner’s class, provided these class were subdivided at the last minute, giving one individual an opportunity to make his entry and excluding other people.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The other propose amendment is that “the classification shall be confined to established breeds, which may be divided or limited by variety, weight, color, height or sex, and otherwise as provided in the dog show Rules. No change in classification not covered by the published regulations of the show in the premium list will be allowed unless announced in the Kennel press before the date of closing entries. This, however, does not permit of any change in winners’ classes from those announced in the premium list.”

After some further discussion Mr. Schellhass said that the committee had thrashed this matter out pretty thoroughly; that the committee saw objections to the Rules in this form, but it saw less objection to this form than in any other form they could put it. He thought it better that the delegates should make their suggestions to the Rules Committee.

MR. SCHELLHASS moved that the amendment be adopted as recommended by the committee.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next proposed amendment is to Rule X, strike out the words on the fifth line “registration or.” The object of that a club in St. Paul receive registrations for dogs, and after the show is over, they send on registrations to this office, and we have to reject them. It is not right for anybody to receive registrations for the Stud-Book except this office. We can appoint them as agents for us to accept the listings, but it is not proper that anybody should receive a registration except this office.

Mr. Schellhass moved that the proposed amendment be adopted.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Now we come to the last one, after the word “disqualification”, in Rule XIV, add the words “or suspension”.

MR. Viti: I move that the recommendation of the committee be adopted.
Motion seconded and carried.

The St. Bernard Club of America was admitted to membership in the American Kennel Club by election, Mr. Schellhass acting as teller.

On motion the recommendations of the Stud-Book Committee were approved.

On motion the charges for mis-conduct filed by Alan W. Wood against Andrew Laidlaw, and by Frank Kruse against Klee & Dean, were referred to the Executive Board.

MR. VREDENBURGH: As I stated in my report, the Rhode Island Kennel Club desires a ruling on the question: “Are we as members of the American Kennel Club bound to pay specials offered by individuals and advertised as such in our catalogue?” In other words, if I send to the Westminster Kennel Club a notice that I will donate five dollars as a special for the best of a certain breed, and the Westminster Kennel Club publishes that in their premium list, is the Westminster Kennel Club responsible for the special that their premium list was the medium of advertising.

MR. MORTIMER: I should say yes to most emphatically. I take it that the Westminster Kennel Club, or any other club, would not accept specials unless they knew from whom they received them. I think it is a good thing to make clubs responsible for those specials because a number of these specials are offered simply for the sake of advertising purposes. For that reason I think clubs should be held responsible for anything that they offer in their premium list or catalogue. I make such a motion, that all clubs be held responsible for all special prizes which are published in their premium lists or catalogues.

    Motion seconded and carried.

    CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that it be entered in the Dog Show Rules, that all specials offered in premium lists or catalogues of shows held by the American Kennel Club must be guaranteed by said club, and said club will be held responsible for their payment.

    Motion seconded and carried.

In regard to the appeal from Motschenbacher & Klein against the decision of the judge of Scotish Terriers at the Bull Terrier show, the Secretary read the correspondence relating thereto.

    Mr. Carnochan moved that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

    MR. MORTIMER: I can settle this matter, I think, in a very few words. I happened to be the judge in question. There was no competition at all, and my rendering, or my construction of the A. K.C. Rule was that where there was no competition there could be no winners’ class, but possibly I was wrong. I did not withhold the prize. I gave the dog the first prize in the class in which he was entered. I did not withhold it because I didn’t think the dog was worthy of winning, but simply that there was no competition, and I said to Mr. Klein that I didn’t think the American Kennel Club intended that a dog should win in any winners’ class unless he had some competition. I advised Mr. Klein to being the matter before this club. So far as the merits of the dog is concerned, he certainly has merit enough to be awarded first, if there was any competition. You understand my reason for not judging the dog. I did not withhold the dog. I simply declined to judge the dog in the winners’ class because my construction of the rules was there where there was no competition there should be no winners’ class. I put my rendering on the rule without knowledge probably in the case, and as the ruling is that the winners’ class depended entirely upon the classification, I should recommend that the dog be awarded the first prize to which he was entitled.
THE CHAIRMAN: I should like to have it understood in deciding this case that we are dealing with the judge and if the judge requests us to award him the first prize, we can do it.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I moved that, whereas, the judge has informed us that he withheld the prize not from any lack of merit, but owing to a misinterpretation of the rule, and whereas he deems that the dog is worthy of the prize, that the prize be awarded at his request.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MORTIMER: The dog was entered in two other classes, in both of which classes I gave him first prize.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I should like to have instructions as to what I shall do when there are two reserves in the same class.

MR. MORTIMER: There cannot be any such thing. The reserve card is given in case the winner of the third prize, or the winner of any of the prizes, first, second or third, or whatever the number of the prize may be, in disqualified: that this would be moved up, the reserve is the best V.H.C.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I had two or three cases in the last San Francisco show, where there were two reserves in the same class, and I have not compiled those reserves for the winners in the stud-book. We wrote to San Francisco and asked them to designate which was the reserve, and they wrote back that they could do nothing; that the judge’s book said two reserves, and they couldn’t go behind the judge’s book and they could not reach the judge to determine at this late day. I think it ought to be most emphatically stated that the judges are not to give two reserves, as a reserve was meant for a purpose, and there could only be one reserve. For instance, if there were three prizes given there have got to be four dogs named. I would recommend that a resolution be adopted that it is the sense of the American Kennel Club that judges should not give two reserve cards in the same class.

MR. MORTIMER: I think that would be somewhat of a reflection on the intelligence of judges. I think it should be specific, that whereas a certain judge had given two reserves in various classes at a certain show, that it should be distinctly understood that only one reserve can be given. Every intelligent person knows that there can only be one reserve card given.
MR. CARNOCHAN: How would it do to strike out those reserves and send them notice.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I have done that. I simply ignored the reserves.

It was moved and seconded that the action of the Secretary in this matter be ratified.

Carried.

On motion, the Secretary was granted permission to strike the name of Mr. Erastus Hamilton from the records, for the reasons stated in his report.

The appeal of Messrs. Toom & Thomas for re-instatement was read.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I would state that when this matter came up last year, I remember we went into the matter very thoroughly as to what effect the disqualifications would have if it were made until about the present time, and what effect it would have it made at the end of the year, and after considering the matter we concluded that the first of January, all things considered, was the best time to make it. For that reason I move we do not consider the appeal.

Motion seconded.

MR. MORTIMER: I do not want to appear as a special advocate on behalf of Messrs. Toom & Thomas, and I also concede that the punishment was just and well merited, but it seems to me that there are times when it would be advisable to temper justice with mercy, and I offer an amendment that the suspension of disqualification of Messrs. Toom & Thomas be removed at this meeting.

Amendment seconded.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I do not accept the amendment.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I should like to state that as one of the members of that Executive Committee, as I remember, we let Messrs. Toom & Thomas off with as mild a sentence as we could give them. We decided then that we were doing them a great favor to given them only one year, but in additional to that I have something else to say with regard to a statement in Mr. Tomas' letter. He states that he is missing his livelihos by not being able to take dogs to shows. I was at the Baltimore show after he was suspended, and I can inform the members of this committee that he brought his dogs there, and did everything but take them in the ring. That he took his dogs out at night and attended to them I have no doubt, and that he got paid for doing so. So I do not see that he is losing his livelihood by not taking his dogs in the ring.

THE CHAIRMAN: The amendment is before the house, that Messrs. Tooms & Thomas’ appeal be granted.

Amendment lost by a vote of eight to four.

The original motion, that the appeal be not granted, was then put and carried.

The Secretary then read Mr. Watson’s resignation as follows:

“New York, September 21\textsuperscript{st}, 1898

A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,

Secretary American Kennel Club

Dear Sir:

Having accepted the position of Editor of the Gazette, it becomes necessary for me to relinquish my membership of the Stud-Book and Rules Committee. I will also present to the Collie Club at its first meeting my resignation as its delegate, when my successor will be appointed.

I need hardly add that it is not without much regret I thus sever my long association with my associates on these committees and as a delegate.

Your very truly,

James Watson”

It was moved and seconded that the resignation be accepted with regret.

Carried.

MR. SCHELLHASS: I desire to call attention to the fact that Mr. Watson has been a delegate here longer than any other one man. He was a member of the Stud-Book Committee in 1890; in 1891, he was made Secretary, and in 1892 he was made Chairman of it. Only two other men, I believe, have been in office continuously as long as Mr. Watson, namely, President Belmont and Mr. Vredenburgh. I would like to say that I have had a great deal of close association with Mr. Watson in committee business, covering a long period, and I believe I have seen a great deal more of Mr. Watson’s work than any one else, and I can cheerfully say that no member among us has had the interests of the club more at heard, or has done more work than Mr. Watson. I therefore move that this club extend a vote of thanks to Mr. Watson for his long and meritorious services as Chairman of the Stud-Book Committee.

    Motion seconded and carried.

    MR. SCHELLHASS: For the vacancy caused by Mr. Watson’s withdrawal I nominate Mr. Viti. In nominating him I will say that I have considered the matter very carefully, and I thought that it was particularly advisable to have a lawyer on the Executive Board, as by virtue of being Chairman of the Stud-Book Committee he will be a member of the Executive Board. The Board, as at present constituted, has no lawyer on it, and as the danger to the American Kennel Club of damage suits being instituted against it is to be found in the actions of the Executive Board, which tries all our causes, I think it is a very proper thing for us to have the advantage of the advise of an attorney in connection with the Executive Board. It is unnecessary for me to say that this club has had experience in damage suits and that it has expended large sums in its defense.

    Mr. Carnochan was also nominated to fill the vacancy.

    Mr. Lewis moved that the nominations be closed.

    MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to state that I am no lawyer, and I think Mr. Viti is much the best man to put on the Executive Board, and I therefore withdraw my name. I move the Secretary cast one ballot for Mr. Viti for the vacancy stated.

    MR. VITI: I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me in giving me this nomination. While it has come to me unsought, my services are at the disposal of the club. I feel that the club is a loser by Mr. Watson withdrawing.

    The Secretary states that he had cast one ballot for Mr. M.A. Viti as Chairman of the Stud-Book Committee.

    THE CHAIRMAN: I declare Mr. Viti to be elected Chairman of the Stud-Book Committee.

    The meeting then adjourned.
REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, HELD AT ITS OFFICES, 55 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8th, 1898

San Francisco Kennel Club C. B. Knocker

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and the minutes approved as published in the Gazette.

The report of the Committee on Membership was read as follows:

New York, Dec. 7th, 1898

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:
At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting upon applications for admission to membership, and upon the credentials of delegates filed with the secretary, your committee respectfully reports as follows:

The application for membership from the New Orleans Fox Terrier Club and the Joliet Kennel Club, having fully complied with all the requirements, are duly approved, and their admission hereby approved.

The credentials of Mr. A. P. Bagley, filed by the St. Bernard Club of California, laid over at the last meeting for the reason that the notice of his appointment did not arrive in time to be acted upon, are hereby approved and its acceptance recommended.

The credentials of Mr. E. M. Oldham, filed by the St. Bernard Club of America, are hereby approved.

H.T. Foote,
Chairman

Mr. Vredenburgh: I desire to state in connection with the credentials of Mr. Oldham I received a letter and telegram from him in which he declines to act, saying that he has neither the time or inclination to serve in any such honorable office. The only delegate to be voted for is Mr. Bagley to represent the St. Bernard Club of California.

The ballot was then taken, and the Chairman declared Mr. Bagley duly elected.

The Secretary read his quarterly report, as follows:

New York, Dec. 7th, 1898

TO the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I have received two applications for admission to membership, and three credentials for delegates since our September meeting and have referred same to our Membership Committee, which will report on same at this meeting.

Ten applications for the registration of kennel names have been filed, and referred by me to the Stud Book Committee, which will report on same at this meeting.
The resignation of the Poodle Club of America and the New England Field Trials Club have been received. There clubs are in good standing, and as they have disbanded I would recommend that their resignations be accepted at this meeting.

By authority given the Vice President by the Executive Board, I beg to report that he has appointed the following gentlemen to constitute a special committee to represent the American Kennel Club on the Pacific coast: John E. de Ruyter, chairman; H.H. Carlton, W.R. Cluness, Jr., J. P. Norma, G. M. Grey, M.C. Allen and C. A. Haight. These gentlemen have duly accepted the appointments, have organized and elected J. P. Norman as secretary of the Committee. The committee has made a requisition for supplies consisting of minute book, stationery and any other articles necessary for the proper conduct of the committee. In this regard I would recommend that permission be given the Secretary of the Committee to purchase the necessary supplied and charge same to the club.

The minutes of the organization meeting of this committee will be presented to you at this meeting. The California State Poultry and Kennel Club, the Santa Clara Valley Poultry and Kennel Club, and the California Collie Club, having become member of an organization called the Pacific Kennel League, and having adopted rules for the holding of Dog Shows on the Pacific coast distinct from those of the American Kennel Club, I, by direction of Vice President Brooks, called upon said clubs, they being members in good standing of this club, to show cause why Sec. 1, Article IX of our Constitution should not be enforced. I beg to submit replies from all of the clubs referred to, and such action as may be deemed expedient by the delegates is recommended at this meeting. Pending your action I have refrained from sending these clubs the usual bills for dues for the year of 1899, which, under ordinary circumstances, are due and payable prior to January 1st, 1899. In connection with the above matter I felt it my duty to advise you that letters have been received from prominent breeders and show officials on the coast recommending that no action be taken by the American Kennel Club against these clubs. It is, however, a question of good taste and propriety on the part of these clubs to affiliate with an organization, known to oppose the authority of this club, while enjoying the benefits and privileges accorded its members. Possibly it might be advisable to refer the whole matter to our Pacific coast committee.
I have to report the reception from the New England Kennel Club of the official catalogue of the show at Braintree, held October 14 and 15, 1898. Upon an examination I find that through a wrong interpretation of the rules of the American Kennel Club, and of the special rules made by the New England Kennel Club, that said rules have been violated in the following classes: Winners classes were wrongly divided by sex, as per American Kennel Club rules, and open classes were wrongly divided by sex, as per New England Kennel Club additional rules, R.C. St. Bernard, Pointers, English Setters, Irish Setters, Collies, Poodles, Dachshunde, Scottish Terriers, Japanese Spaniels and Airedale Terriers. I have not as yet cancelled these illegal wins, in the hope that in your wisdom some plan may be thought of by which the innocent exhibitor may not suffer. In an interview with the officers of the New England Kennel Club at Boston, on Nov. 23rd last, the illegality of the classes was conceded, and it was suggested that while said illegal wins must of a necessity be cancelled as American Kennel Club records, yet the New England Kennel Club would make no claim for the return of the prize money paid out for them, and that it would send a circular to each winner, explaining the circumstances, and assuming all blame and responsibility in the matter. At said chow I found that a dog owned and exhibited at Toronto by a firm of person not in good standing, and therefore being a disqualified dog, has been conveyed to a new owner subsequently, and shown by him. I notified the new owner that I had cancelled all of said dogs wins at the Braintree show, and received in reply a notice from his attorney that if such as done he would test the case in a court of law. I replied to same, stating our position in the premises, which brought forth a second reply from said attorney. Upon my refusal to carry on any further correspondences on the subject with any person except the principal, I received further letters from the owner in which the intervention of the law was each time suggested. The New England Kennel Club acting as the agent of the exhibitor, forwarded to this office the listing blank and fee, which I promptly returned, declining to list the dog, which thus became the primary cause for the cancellation of the wins. The last letter I received on the subject is date Nov. 15, 1898. The correspondences is now at your disposal.

By authority of the Executive Board the American Kennel Club increased the scope of the Gazette, which entailed an addition to the clerical force of the office. The scheme was experimental, and to be tried until December 31st, 1898. The improvement in the Gazette is certainly a marked one, and had received the hearty support and commendation of many persons interested. The Board expressed the opinion that if the Gazette account held its own in the financial point, it would be satisfied with the result of the venture. It gives me pleasure to report that the account has not only held its own, but has paid us a profit, and I would therefore recommend that the plan be continued for another year. Several matters were referred to the Executive Board at the September meeting, but it was not considered advisable to hold a session of said Board until after this meeting, and therefore the cases thus referred are still in abeyance.

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report, as follows:

New York, Dec. 7, 1898

I beg also to report on all bills for dies for 1899 were duly mailed to active members on Nov. 30, 1898, except to the three clubs in California referred to in the report of the Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,
A. P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, and the same was, on motion accepted and the recommendations therein contained adopted. It is as follows:

To the Secretary of the American Kennel Club:

The Stud Book Committee begs to report the following business since the last meeting:

Applications for Kennel names received:

Apache, Lewis Barret; Brookside Farm, C. L. Stewart, for Collies only; Dixie, A.E> Shaw; Fairland, W. J. Baughn; Kalwala, Mrs. Clara W. Sherman; Miami, J.C. Borgstede; Walworth, J.M. Rumsay; Wildhurst, S.C. Hodge. As none of these conflict with those previously granted, it is recommended that they be allowed.

Re application by Burton Cassaday to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club for the pedigree of Pointer Croxteth Lilly, said Cassaday claiming to be owner of the dog. The Secretary obtained the pedigree from Klee and dean, the former owners, who claimed that the dog was not the property of said Cassaday. Subsequent facts obtained from Klee and Dean in support of their claim showed, on the contrary, Cassaday to be the owner. Therefore, recommended that said Cassaday be furnished with a copy of the pedigree alleged by Klee and Dean to be that of the bitch in question.

Re application of L.F. Hart, Baton Rouge, LA., to have registration of Pointer Tom D. 47965 registered and owned by him cancelled on the ground that he apparently had been imposed upon by having been sold said dog with a fictitious pedigree.

The committee has only this week succeeded in locating the accused, and until he has had an opportunity to offer a defense, judgment is withheld.

Re Boston Terrier Alpha, 47619; fictitious pedigree claimed. Although this case has been pending since June 21st, 1898., it has been delayed owning to the slowness of the parities interested, and the mass of conflicting and contradictory evidence. The committee has done all possible to settle case promptly, and expects to do same within about one month.

Stud Book Committee,
Per Hermann F. Schellhass,
Sec.
The Secretary then read the report of the meeting of the Pacific Committee as follows:

November 10th, 1898

Meeting of the Special Committee of American Kennel Club, held at Occidental Hotel, San Francisco.

Present: John E. de Ruyter, Chairman; W. R. Cluness, Jr., M.C. Allen, H.H. Carlton and J. P. Norman.

Mr. de Ruyter called the meeting to order and appointed Mr. Norman as Secretary pro tem. The Chair then read the following letter:

Office of the American Kennel Club, New York.

Mr. John E. de Ruyter, San Francisco

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to advise you that by power given Mr. Edward Brooks, as Vice President of the American Kennel Club, he has appointed yourself as Chairman in connection with Messrs. H.H. Carlton, W. R. Cluness Jr., J. P. Norman, G.M.B. Gray, J.W. Keen and M. C. Allen, to constitute a special committee to care for the interests of said American Kennel Club in all matters concerning it on your Pacific coast. Your committee should be called together and arrange for the holding of such sessions as may in its wisdom be deemed desirable. Will you kindly notify each member upon the authority given you by this letter, which will be your credentials.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

American Kennel Club,
By A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

The above letter constituting the credentials of the individual members of the committee, as well as of the President, further credentials were waived.

Moved and seconded that the temporary officers be permanent. Adopted. Moved and seconded that Chairman be authorized to ascertain if Mr. Clarence Haight be willing to serve on committee in place of Mr. J.W. Keen, absent from California, and if so, to submit his name for approval to American Kennel Club. Carried.

Moved and seconded that:

Whereas, it appears that much dissatisfaction has existed on this coast, due to delays in correspondence with the American Kennel Club on account of geographical considerations, and to diversity of interests between the east and the far west, therefore, be it.

Resolved, that it is the sense of this committee that in order to be in a position to effectively perform the duties for which it has been created, it is necessary that it be endowed with authority:

First: To grant dates for holding shows, and to receive and hold, temporarily, (subject to the order of the American Kennel Club) all funds that may come into the possession of said committee in the discharge of its official functions.

Second, to decide protests from rulings of Bench Show Committee, or such other matters as may arise in connection with dogs, dog shows or field trials.

Third: To initiate proceedings or to entertain complaints against any person or club in the matter of frauds or other misconduct perpetrated in connection with dogs, dog shows or field trials, and to inflict on such person, or club, if found guilty, such penalty as would be within the province or power of the American Kennel Club.

Fourth: To adopt general measures not in conflict with the Constitution and by-laws of the American Kennel Club, to protest the interests of said club and its Pacific Coast members, and to act as intermediary between the former and latter.

Fifth: All acts and decisions of this committee shall become effective, subject to appeal to the American Kennel Club, to be under the rules and regulations of that club, provided that, where such appeal is not taken, the acts and decisions of this committee shall be final.

Sixth: Vacancies on this committee shall be filled by appointment of the American Kennel Club, the committee by majority vote to select candidate and submit his name for appointment to the American Kennel Club. Such selection shall, however, not be binding on the American Kennel Club, and the latter shall at all times have the power to fill the vacancy, regardless of the selection of the majority of the committee.
Seventh: The expenses of this committee shall be borne by the American Kennel Club, and the Secretary-Treasurer of this committee shall render semi-annual statements of his receipts and disbursements to the American Kennel Club. Carried.

And be it further

Resolved, that it is the sense of this committee that Article XIII, Sec. 4 of the Constitution of the American Kennel Club be repealed at the next annual meeting of the club, and that a new section be substituted therefore in accordance with the recommendations contained in the foregoing resolution. Carried.

And be it further

Resolved, that this committee be authorized by the American Kennel Club to adopt a Constitution and by laws, which upon approval by said club, shall become the governing law of this Committee. Carried.

Attest, J. P. Norman, Secretary

Mr. Vredenburgh: I desire to state that in August of last year during my visit, it was the general consensus of opinion of the men whom I met there that if we continued an advisory Board on the coast, it would be better to have that Board appointed from the New York office than to have it elected by the Californians. That was entirely unofficial.

Mr. Viti: The Club is guaranteed a representation?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Not necessarily. We tried to put it in that way.

Mr. Schellhass: We don’t know whether the different clubs will endorse that.

Mr. Mortimer: It is almost a certain thing that a number of the clubs won’t endorse it because a number of the clubs have seceded. They are all members until they are either expelled or dropped from the rill for non-payment of dues.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The recommendation of this committee comes from the leading clubs on the Pacific coast.

Mr. Viti: what I want to know is whether this comes from these clubs or from these gentlemen.

Mr. Vredenburgh: It comes from this committee.

Mr. Viti: We don’t know whether or not that has the approval of the clubs that they represent.
Mr. Vredenburgh: No. Neither do we know that they plan of electing and Advisory Board out there has the approval of the clubs. That was done at this office, hoping that it might meet with their approval. I would suggest as they ask a great deal of power out there, unless you feel like giving the time to dissect all their requests, that it might be better be referred to the committee to go through this; simply accept the report and refer it to the Executive Board for it to discuss it.

The Chair: I think the matter ought to be gone through in piece meal.

Mr. Viti: How many clubs are there that have not joined the Pacific Kennel League?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Two

It was moved and seconded that the report of the Special Committee be received and referred to the Executive Board.

The New Orleans Fox Terrier Club and the Joliet Kennel Club were duly elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

The resignations of the Poodle Club of America and of the New England Field Trial Club were read, and on motion of Dr. Foote the same were accepted.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The question of the requisition by the Special Committee of the Pacific Coast for the necessary articles for the proper conduct of the office is now before you. They ask us to purchase them and forward them. I recommend that they be given authority to purchase these supplies and forward the bill here.

The Chair: If there is no objection that course will be taken.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The next question is the matter of calling upon the clubs joining the Pacific Kennel League to show cause why they should not be dropped from membership.

The Chair: Have they replied to your letter?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes, all three clubs made reply claiming that in joining the Pacific Kennel League they in no way antagonized the American Kennel Club, nor was it in their opinion prejudicial to the interests of this club.

The Chair: I do not see any reason why they should not be dropped from the A.K.C. I don’t see how two clubs are going to work on the same ground with different classifications and rules. I don’t see how they can belong to two associations. I don’t see how we can recognize any wins not obtained under our own rules.
Mr. Mortimer: It seems to me only a question of time when they will be dropped. They are not going to hold on to their membership in the A.K.C. In a very short time they will be dropped for non-payment of dues. I don’t know that it required any recognition on our part.

Mr. Schellhass: There is no question but what this is prejudicial to us. It is bound to be. They will hold shows there under their rules.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Their rules are entirely separated and distinct from ours. I will instance a case. A member of the Pacific Kennel League certainly ought to abide by their rules. We will take one rule for instance; that states that a breeder of a puppy is the person owning the bitch at the time of whelping. The American Kennel Club says entirely different. If they live up to their own rules how can they come here and register a dog under our rules. They are two diametrically opposite rules on the same subject and if they abide by their rules they must necessarily break our rules; and how can we accept their registrations. If they abide by our rules they must necessarily break their own rules.

Mr. Watson: We have no jurisdiction over them in any way. If you recognize such a body as that, you will have a little company down east with rules of their own: a company down south, and if we recognize this, we would have to recognize all.

Mr. Ritchie: It seems to me that what they are going is what we have got to consider now. They may make all sorts of rules to govern themselves. I don’t see that it matters what rules they make so long as they don’t interfere with our rules. They can make their rules and break them if they please, but so long as they live up to the rules of the American Kennel Club I don’t see what right we have to say whether they join other and independent associations. While it might be detrimental to the interests of the American Kennel Club, yet all this is problematical. There is nothing absolutely that you can put your finger on here form what I have heard to show that it is detrimental to the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Blossom: When these different clubs that joined this Pacific Kennel League become members of this association, didn’t they either impliedly or expressly agree to abide by the rules of this association. If they did I don’t see why we should waste any time about it. It is the same thing as in the old 1861 war. If they are members and they don’t abide by the rules which they have explicity or impliedly agreed to abide by, I should say the only thing to do is to expel them.
Capt. Knocker: I think there is no question but that it is prejudicial to the best interests of the A.K.C. for one very great reason that in forming this antagonistic association, they are going to hold shows under those rules. They will hold shows in places that have previously shows under A.K.C. rules, therefore it is decidedly against the interests of the A.K.C., and I think decidedly they ought to be dropped.

Mr. Mortimer: I think that as the American Kennel Club has gone so far as to ask these clubs to show cause why they should not be dropped, we ought not to stultify ourselves by sitting down and allowing the Pacific Kennel League, the members of it, to still remain members of the A.K.C. It seems to me that some action should be taken now instead of waiting for them to hold a show. Their prospectuses for holding shows are already out.

Capt. Knocker: I move that the matter be referred to the Pacific Special Committee.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Schellhass: I move as an amendment that the three clubs, the California State Poultry and Kennel Club, the Santa Clara Valley Poultry and Kennel Club and the Collie Club of California, be notified that it is the sense of the meeting that they being members of another similar organization, is detrimental to the interests of the American Kennel Club, and that if they remain members of the Pacific Kennel League they must cease to be members of our organization.

Amendment put and lost.

The original motion, that the matter be referred to the Pacific Special Committee, was then put and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The next matter for your consideration is the Braintree Show lately held. At the Braintree Show on October 14th the New England Kennel Club issued its premium list and sent it out on the 8th day of September. The classification was correct in every respect. On the 22nd day of September, 14 days thereafter, at a meeting held by this club, the American Kennel Club amended its rules after having given a month’s notice in the Gazette, that winners’ classes after having been published in the premium list, could not be changed. 22 days after that meeting the show of the New England Kennel Club was held at Braintree, and in the classes that I have enumerated, amounting to ten classes, they changed the winners’ classes from those advertised in the premium list and divided them by sex, which was clearly in violation of the then existing rules of the American Kennel Club. Further than that, if those rules had not been amended, the rules adopted last February said that a winners’ class may be provided in case three regular classes, one of which shall be the open, and in case all these classes are divided by sex, then in that case the Winners’ class may be divided by sex. The classes that I have reference to were then divided—the winners’ class by sex. Even under that rule it would be a violation. The New England Kennel Club made one of its own rules, and that was that classes not provided would be made in case three entries were guaranteed, or three entries were received, and in all cases where they had the necessary number of entries, three being the number, they would divided classes by sex. The open classes in these cases that I have instanced had in some cases four entries, three bitches and a dog. The New England Kennel Club divided those classes by sex. It was clearly against their own rule. I deferred making any record, or doing anything following the awards at Braintree until I received instructions from this meeting. It is a question in my mind whether this meeting can legalize an illegal win. The exhibitors who won in these classes are the sufferers because they lost their record. We cannot make a record of them certainly. The New England Kennel Club say that they are quite willing to send circulars to these exhibitors saying that so far as the awards are concerned, they will stand; so far as the prize money that they paid to them, that that will stand, but so far as the record of the American Kennel Club is concerned, they concede it was a misinterpretation on their part, and it could not stand. That is the position of affairs. Several members of the New England Kennel Club are present, the chairman of the show is here, and if he has anything to say on the subject I have no doubt it will be very interesting to the delegates.

Mr. Little: It might be very interesting to the delegates, but not to the exhibitors. It was a piece of stupidity pure and simple in making up the classes as we did. I have nothing to say further than that there was no intentional violation on the part of any one; but I think the least said, the more it will be to the credit of the A.K.C. I think it would have been better for the Secretary to have carried the thing through in the regular way, disqualifying the wins instead of bring it before the meeting. That is, to have done what would have been done with any other club, disqualify the wins, and not put it before the meeting to deal leniently with it.

The Chair: I don’t see that anything can be done to save the exhibitors here.
Mr. Vredenburgh: If I am not mistaken I heard that some of these winners’ classes were divided without your consent, Mr. Little?

Mr. Little: Only the one case.

Mr. Mortimer: I believe Mr. Little is willing to bear the onus of this matter, and that he is not to blame. I believe the blame should rest on the stewards who officiated there. In one instances, in one class that I judged the steward came to me and said: “This class has got to be divided; there are more than three entries in this class, and the natural consequent was that there must be a winners’ class for dogs and a winners’ class for bitches.” I said: “I don’t think that is right,” but this steward said to me that it has been done in the other rings, and it was done repeatedly in every breed. He said he was sure he was right.

Mr. Watson: I move that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I don’t see that there is anything to be gained by referring it to the Executive Board. The rules must be carried out or they must be stretched.

Mr. Viti: I moved that the Secretary be instructed to carry out the rules.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Carrying out the rules simply involved the cancellation of all illegal wins and nothing more.

Mr. Vredenburgh: What is your pleasure about the continuation of the Gazette as it now exists?

The Chair: I suppose you have all noticed the change in the Gazette since we have had Mr. Watson assisting Mr. Vredenburgh. Financially it has been more than a success. The club has not lost money by it, and in fact has made money by it.

Dr. Foote: I move the arrangement concerning the Gazette be continued for another year.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.
ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICA KENNEL CLUB HELD AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22\textsuperscript{ND}, 1899, AT 2 P.M.

Vice-President, Edward Brooks, presiding

Attest:

A. P. Vredenburgh, Secretary A. K. C.

The Secretary then read the report of the Membership Committee, as follows:

New York, February 21, 1899

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen: -

At a meeting of the Membership Committee, held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting upon applications for admission to membership, and upon the credentials of delegates filed with the Secretary, your committee respectfully reports as follows:

The applications for membership from the Rhode Island State Fair Association, Providence, R. I., and the Bloomington Kennel Club, Bloomington, Ill., having fully complied with all the requirements of the constitution, are duly approved, and their admission hereby recommended.

The credentials of G.M. Carnochan, filed by the Duquesne Kennel Club, of Western Pennsylvania, and Norvin T. Harris, filed by the New Orleans Fox Terrier Club, are duly approved, and their acceptance is hereby recommended,

Respectfully submitted,

Singleton Van Schaick,

A. P. Vredenburgh

Mr. Vredenburgh: I would suggest that the credentials referred to in the report of the Membership Committee be read later, as a matter will come up in connection with the consolidation of the Pittsburgh Club, which ought to be acted upon before the credentials are approved.

The Chair: If there is no objection, the credentials will be taken up later.

The Secretary then read his report as follows:

New York, February 21, 1899

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last meeting I have received two applications for admission to membership; credentials from two clubs of delegates to represent them in the American Kennel Club, and applications for the registration of eight kennel names. These matters have been referred by me to the proper committees, and their reports will be submitted to you at this meeting.

I submit for your consideration resignations from the Pointer Club of California, and the American Pug Club. Both clubs were in good standing at the time their resignations were received by me, and I would therefore recommend the acceptance of the same.

Notice has been filed with me, signed by the secretaries of both clubs, of the consolidation of the Duquesne Kennel Club and the Western Pennsylvania Kennel Club, under the title of the Duquesne Kennel Club of Western Pennsylvania, and you are requested to accept the consolidated club as a member in place of the two clubs heretofore existing in Pittsburg, Pa. Each club having paid its dues, and having made the necessary deposit for the claim of dates for shows to be held in 1899, it is requested that the deposit made by the Duquesne Kennel Club be returned to the consolidates club.

I beg to report that the dates claimed by the Duquesne Kennel Club in May, 1898, for a show to be held February 28th, 1899, having been withdrawn and filled by the Grand Rapids show, and the dates claimed by the Western Pennsylvania Kennel Club having been claimed by the consolidated club, no harm nor conflict has arisen, and as there can be in my opinion no good reason advanced against granting the request above referred to, I would therefore recommend that I be officially directed to return to the Duquesne Kennel Club of Western Pennsylvania the sum of $25.00, and thereby cancel the date claimed by the Duquesne Kennel Club. The dues paid by said clubs were due and payable on or before January 1st, 1899, and as the two clubs existed as separate members until the date of their consolidation on January 16th, 1899, the dues to either club cannot be refunded, but I am of the opinion that if in your judgment it would be fair to instruct me to give the consolidated club credit for dues for 1899 without calling upon it to pay another $10.00.

I regret to be obliged to call to your attention the fact that the report of the Pacific Advisory Committee was published in the American Field of January 21, 1899, prior to its reception by this body. Said report is presented to you today for the first time, and although in reply to my demand for an explanation, said Committee disavows any intent to treat the A.K.C. with any discourtesy, which I fully believe, yet the fact that an official report to this body was published by the Committee in an unofficial paper before received by you is certainly irregular, unusual, and to say the least, ill-advised. I would suggest that a proper resolution be passed at this meeting, which will make a like occurrence impossible.

The Rhode Island Kennel Clubs has filed protest with me against the A.K.C. enforcing one of its own rules, namely, the holding a club responsible for the absolute closing of entries on the dates so announced in its premium list. It will be unnecessary for me to enlarge on this subject, as I am advised that the delegate will bring the matter up at this meeting for your consideration.

I also have to report that the Mascoutah Kennel Club has filed a protest against the action of the Executive Board at its meeting held December 29, 1898, and appeals to your body for a revision of same. Although under the constitution an appeal from the action of the Executive Board can only be made to said Executive Board, based upon new evidence, I will submit said appeal to this meeting, with the evidence accompanying it, and would suggest that said evidence is all in support of the late action of the Executive Board.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion said report was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was then read, as follows:

New York, February 21, 1899

To the American Kennel Club,
Gentlemen: -
I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1, 1899:

I have the honor to report that we closed the year ending December 31, 1898, with a most gratifying business result, as may be found in my financial statement as published in the January Gazette, which was duly examined and certified to by the Finance Committee.

I would report the following clubs as being in arrears for dues for the year 1899, and until the same shall have been paid said clubs shall forfeit all right to representation in this Association, and may be suspended or dropped from the roll of membership without further notice:

- Bloodhound Club of America
- California Collie Club
- California State Poultry and Kennel Association
- Cedar Rapids Kennel Club
- Columbus Fanciers Club
- National Greyhound Club
- Northwestern Kennel Club
- Oakland Kennel Club
- Pacific Fox Terrier Club
- Philadelphia Kennel Club
- Santa Clara Valley Poultry and Kennel Club
- Wilmington Kennel Club

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Chair: It is now in order to nominate officers for the ensuing year, a president, vice-president and the standing committees.

Capt. Knocker: I move that the names be accepted in the same standing as they were last year – that the same officers be elected.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There is one name that will have to be dropped; that is, Leslie A. Burritt, who is no longer a delegate. He was one of the members of the Finance Committee. It will be necessary to elect someone in his stead. I would also submit that the Membership Committee, under the old constitution, made it obligatory to have the Secretary of the Kennel Club as a member. At the meeting of the Committee on Rules and Constitution I requested the committee to report in favor of taking the Secretary off of that committee and making it an elective office. I think there are very good reasons why the Secretary of the American Kennel Club should not be on a committee that has to recommend or act upon applications for membership, and the committee acquiesced in my suggestion, and amendments will come up later which will recommend that the Secretary be left off of that committee. I suggest the nomination of someone else in my place.

Capt. Knocker: We can elect the same officers, leaving out those two names, as they stood.

The Chair: I can see no objection to that. Do you want to nominate those two genlemen, and then elect the ticket?

Capt. Knocker: I nominate Mr. August Belmont as President

Mr. Waters: I move that the Secretary be directed to cast a ballot for

Mr. Belmont as President.

Capt. Knocker was nominated to fill the vacancy in the Membership Committee.

Mr. G. M. Carnochan was nominated to fill the vacancy in the Finance Committee.

Capt. Knocker: I move that the Secretary be authorized to cast one ballot for the entire ticket.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chair: The Secretary will cast the ballot.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I beg to report that I have cast a ballot for the following: For President, August Belmont; Vice-President, Edward Brooks. Standing Committees:
Stud Book, Marcel A. Viti, Chairman, Hermann F. Schellhass and C. B. Knocker.
Field Trials and Coursing Meetings, Hermann F. Schellhass, Chairman, L.C. Whiton, H.S. Joslin, J. F. Van Dorn. Constitution and Rules H. K. Bloodgood, Chairman,
Finance, A. C. Wilmerding, Chairman, James B. Blossom and G. M. Carnochan.

It was moved and seconded that the reading of the report of the Executive Board, as the same was published in the January Gazette, be dispensed with.
Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have a supplemental report of the Executive Board, which I will read:

Madison Square Garden, February 22, 1898

PRESENT: H.K. Bloodgood, H.F. Schellhass, A.C. Wilmerding and M.A. Viti.

Frank Kruse -vs- Re misconduct in connection with dogs.
Klee & Dean!

Ordered, that Klee & dean be and hereby are suspended by default. The case may be reopened upon appeal by defendants.

Meeting adjourned.

A. P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

On motion said supplemental report was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:

New York, February 22, 1899

The Stud Book Committee begs to report as follows:

Applications received for registration of kennel names, prefixes and affixes, as follows:

Ballhaise, by T. F. Alley, Ipswich, Mass.
Homestead, by J. R. Steers and J. A. G. Beales, Mamaroneck, N. Y.
Kenwood, by W. C. Hunter, St. Louis, Mo.
Narrowsburg, by Geo. And H. C. Goetting, Narrowsburgh, N. Y.
Premier, by Francis Henwood, New York City.

None of these conflicting with those already granted, it is recommended they be allowed.
Attention has been called to the fact that the intent of condition “b” of rule I of “Rules governing Registration”, as printed on the registration blanks has become inoperative owing by the adoption of the New Bench show classification. This rule reads: “If it has won two first prizes in open classes at a recognized show”. The new classification makes the “limit class” practically the old “open class”, while the new “open class” is virtually the former “challenge class”. Hence, the committee recommends that this will read “limit or open classes”. In Rule 5 of same rules it is ordered that in blanks hereafter printed the last sentence be stricken out and rule VII, Sec. II, Dog Show Rules, be substituted, namely, the breeder of a dog is the person owning or leasing the bitch at the time of her being bred.

Application of L. F. Hart, Baton Rouge, La., to have registration of Pointer Young Jingle, 47965, registered and owned by him, cancelled on the ground that he apparently had been imposed upon by having been sold said dog with a fictitious pedigree;

The evidence consists of the pedigree furnished and signed by one David Davis, Fishersberg, and late of Noblesville, Ind., a former owner of the dog; also of a postal card written by him saying pedigree has given was correct; also statements by the owner of the sire and dam claimed which satisfies the committee that the breeding claimed is false. A registered letter was sent said Davis September 29th, 1898, addressed to the P. O. where he was located May, 1898, as evidences by postal in our possession, which said Davis when wrote and mailed. Said registered letter was returned some thirty days later as called for. It was again mailed about December 9th, 1898, and returned some two months later as before. This letter contained a notification of the charges and ordered Davis to put in his defense. Although the committee have not succeeded in notifying him, they feel that, being satisfied that said David falsified the pedigree in question, taken in connection with the fact that said David evidently thinks so little of his own standing that he is at least willing, if not desiring, to have his identity hidden, they recommend that said Davis and his dogs, if any, be disqualified. The registration in question has been ordered cancelled.

Curt L. Gruner

-vs-

Mrs. O. Ceders.
The charge being that fictitious pedigrees of the Great Danes, Ajax II, 49170, and Aida, 49171, had been given the complainant. The matter has been straightened out, the committee being satisfied that no intentional wrong had been committed.

Had the complainant and complaining witness pursued a proper course, the case would have been easily settled without coming before this committee, which consequently was put to a vast amount of trouble.

The complainant led off by writing an impertinent letter to the defendant, as evidenced by his later writing an apology. The defendant resented said letter, where a proper letter would have probably resulted in the error being corrected without the matter having come before the A. K.C. This is primarily the trouble of many cases that this needlessly appear before the A. K. C. and take the time of its members. The evidence in this case was furnished by the complaining witness who, the committee believes, could have easily corrected the error.

Stud Book Committee,

Per Hermann F. Schellhass, Secretary.

Mr. Watson: I have an amendment to offer to that suggestion, putting in the word “limit” in the place of “open”. We do not have limit classes in all the breeds. I suggest putting in “limit or open”.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have just ordered 10,000 new application forms, and knowing that this was coming, I changed it to read “limit or open”.

The Chair: Will you accept that amendment?

Capt. Knocker: Yes.

Mr. Riggs: I move that the report be accepted and placed on file, and that the recommendations therein contained by adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The Committee on Rules printed its report, as required by the constitution, in the January Gazette. In Article IV the present rule provides that a delegate can be elected by a majority vote, and the acceptance can be withdrawn by a two-thirds vote. It is proposed to make each vote a three-fourths vote, and such acceptance may be withdrawn by a three-fourths vote by a ballot in any meeting of the Association.

Article IX, the present rule provides for the discipline of clubs or individuals, but in Section 3 it is only required that individuals should receive due notice before disqualifications. It is proposed to insert “club” in this section.

Article IX, page 5 read: No club or person shall however be disqualified without due notice and formal charges, with specifications having been made and an opportunity having been given him to be heard in it or his own defense.

Article XII, Section 5, at present reads: “Any person who is proved, to the satisfaction of the Board, to have been guilty of fraudulent or discreditable conduct of any kind, may be suspended or disqualified; in either case such person is ineligible to make entries at, or to compete or win a prize at any show under the rules of this Association during the term of said suspension or disqualification”. The amendment proposed is to eliminate the balance of that section, and add, “And shall during the term of his suspension or disqualification be deprived of all privileges of this Association”.

Mr. Watson: I was thinking of what would be a proper place to put that propose amendment. Wouldn’t it be well to add that as one of the penalties connected with disqualification? I think we ought to have judges that are free from any old associations or anything like that. We have had one or two cases where men have been disqualified for very bad offenses, and subsequently they have been put in the judge ring, and I think that penalty for disqualification ought to attach to a man; that is, I think some penalty ought to attach to him so far as his judging is concerned. I don’t know where exactly to pit it in, but when you were reading that, it struck me that that would be a good place to put that: That not person who shall have been disqualified should be permitted to act as a judge.

Mr. Schellhass: A man might be disqualified according to the rules of this club, and yet be innocent of any specific evil action. The mere fact that a man has been disqualified does not say that he has been guilty of any offense or crime.

Mr. Vredenburgh: You can qualify that very well by saying that no person that has ever been disqualified for fraud can officiate thereafter as a judge at any show held under these rules.

The Chair: I think that is a very good condition to add to that.
Mr. Vredenburgh: The next is on page 10, Article V: “A Membership Committee, composed of three members, one of which shall be the Secretary-Treasurer of the Association.” The amendment is to strike out the words “one of which shall be the Secretary and Treasurer of the Association.”

On page 11, Section 4, it is proposed to strike out of the entire section and substitute: “There shall be an Advisory Committee on the Pacific Coast, with headquarters at San Francisco, Cal., to be appointed by the President of this Association, or, in his absence, by the Vice-President. Said Committee shall act under a code of rules as adopted by the Executive Board of this Association.”

Then in the rules there are two or three proposed amendments. On page 13: “Every dog shown under these rules must either be registered in the Stud Book or listed in the Gazette. The fee for registration is $1.00, and for listing .25¢” The proposed amendment is to add to that: “This listing of a dog gives the privilege of exhibition for the year in which it is issued.” The object of that amendment is this: That listing has not been used as the intention of the A.K.C. was originally in that direction. The A.K.C. had its famous Rule 2, which stated that every dog shown under its rule must be registered. When the conditions of registrations were changed, making it necessary to have an unbroken pedigree for three generations in order to become eligible for registrations, the A.K.C. saw that by keeping the old Rule 2, making it necessary for those dogs to be registered, it would be necessary to throw out from the different shows a great number of dogs who could not be registered, and therefore could not be shown. Consequently that rule was rescinded, and the system of listing was put in its place so that a dog could by being listed be shown under the American Kennel Club rules; and the listing was only intended for dogs that were not eligible for registration. We found after the last nine years of experience that many dogs, in fact, I might say, almost the majority of the dogs that are listed are eligible to registration, and they are taking advantage of the listing clause and thereby saving .75¢. There is nothing in the rules that says that a listing is good forever. The A.K.C. could have said every time a dog is shown it must be listed. I can say that form the American Kennel Club office today, because there is no rule to the contrary, but we have always accepted a dog once listed as always listed, which was simply a courtesy on our part and not an obligation. The idea is, for the good of the general dog public, that as many dogs as can be registered should be registered, and by making it necessary that after the 31st days of every December a listed dogs must be re-listed in order to be eligible to be shown. The committee hopes that it will compel a number of these dogs to be registered instead of listed. Therefore they recommend that the listing of a dog gives the privilege of exhibition only for the year in which it is issued. That is, if a dog is listed on the 2nd day of January, it is good for that entire year until the 31st of December, but if a dog is listed on the 30th of December it is only good for one day.

Capt. Knocker: Couldn’t you get around that by not allowing dogs that could be registered to be listed?

Mr. Vredenburgh: It would create a great howl to the effect that we were abusing our privileges, and all that sort of thing. This covers it I think in a measure.

The Chair: After four years it will be cheaper for the dog to be registered.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes, in three years. The fourth year be would be registered dog.

Mr. Waters: We do not hold the Bench Show Committee responsible for a registered dog; we hold the exhibitor responsible. For instance, if this rule were now in operation, and this catalogue came in, we would know that every dog in that catalogue that had not been registered must have been listed between January 1st and February 6th, when the entries closed, and we can keep tab on it very easily. If there is a show just before the first of the year a man has got to list then, and if he has just purchased a dog, he has got to list again the first of the year.

The Chair: If you have a thousand dogs entered, and of those thousand dogs entered five hundred of them are listed, you say you have got to go all the way back? That would be cumbersome.

Mr. Vredenburgh: No, it is cumbersome now. We will list the dogs differently then we do now. We will say the rule is now in operation. Listings at the New York Show; keep that by itself. Next week is the Grand Rapids show. Listings at the Grand Rapids Show. We will take the Beagles, for instance. It is a very easy thing to look over the Beagles; probably twenty at New York, and probably ten or fifteen at Grand Rapids. It is very easy; you have got it right there before you.

Then on page 17, Rule XVIII: “The disqualification of an owner shall apply to all dogs owned by him or connected with the perpetration of a fraudulent act”. The Committee recommends the addition of this: “And no dog so disqualified is eligible for entry at any show under any ownership”. It is practically that now, but it is simply emphasizing it.

On page 19, at the top of the page, it says: “Such approval, however, shall be subject to the subsequent endorsement of the Premium List,” and the Committee recommends striking out the balance of that clause and adding: “a proof of which must be submitted to the American Kennel Club before publication.”

Mr. Watson: I have little suggestion to make in regard to that last one. There is no actual penalty, and there is no means of letting an exhibitor know whether the club has gone through the formality of getting their approval or not, and I was going to suggest that in some place where the exhibitor could prove to his own satisfaction that the show has been approved, that a notice be placed at the head of the dog show rules to the effect that this show to be recognized by the American Kennel Club must have at the head of the classification of the premium list an official notice that it has been approved by the American Kennel Club, with the signature of the Secretary attached thereto. The Secretary could have his signature electrotyped and sent around, and then a person can turn back and find out whether the show has been approved. That would compel the club to do that. There is no penalty upon it. We do not want to penalize the exhibitors, as it were; we have got to penalize the club.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I should like to say why the Committee thinks that is necessary. The rule has always been that clubs must receive the endorsement of the American Kennel Club to their classification. The New York show, probably the most important in the country, has never felt itself too large to submit its manuscript to the American Kennel Club to go over it and see if there is anything that conflicts with the American Kennel Club rules, and one or two other clubs have done the same thing. The majority of the shows have never enforced it until this year. You will see that now the Grand Rapids, the Boston Terrier show that has just been held, the Pittsburgh show that is coming out, and one or two others have started at the top of their Premium List that the classification has been endorsed by the American Kennel Club.

The Chair: The whole book or just the classification?

Mr. Vredenburgh: The classification. Milwaukee did not do it. Here is how it reads: “Note. This classification has been endorsed by the American Kennel Club.”
The Milwaukee Club failed to send on for endorsement. They gave a classification with five hundred classes, and had entries averaging less than half a dog to a class. The gave a classification – we will take for instance Dalmatians: there are possibly half a dozen Dalmatians shown throughout this broad land, and they gave every known class in Dalmatians, puppy dogs, novice dogs, limit dogs, open dogs, etc., and it was simply ridiculous. Those clubs will send out their premium lists with specials, winners for blacks, winners for reds and winners for every other color. If they had sent on to us that classification, we would have crossed that out and shown them where they had made a mistake. The Committee have no idea of attempting to dictate beyond its power to the American Kennel Club. It simply wants to prevent the cheapening of championships, where it becomes necessary to strike out an over-classification, and we Can do that very well. Our Chairman will recall in connection with the last Braintree show if there premium list had been sent to us for endorsement, it would have saved the exhibitors at that show a great deal of disappointment.

Capt. Knocker: Ought you not to put a time limit in there?

The Chair: The Committee would have to send it out early enough so that if there was a mistake, they could get out another book.

Mr. Schellhass: I want to make a suggestion, if we do that that we ought to embody in this rule the fact that these rules, to be recognized, must have that endorsement at the head of the premium list.

Mr. Watson: I offer this amendment: No premium list is to be considered as endorsed unless it has at the head of the classification an official notice of such endorsement signed by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club.

Amendment seconded and adopted.

Capt. Knocker: - Ought there not to be added to that rule 19: - “Such endorsement shall not be accepted unless put at the head of its premium list.”

Mr. Watson: -- A notice to this effect must appear at the head of the rules governing Dog Shows. There is only one thing that occurs to me in connection with this; and that is, at the California shows, it is not a matter of a day or two, it is a matter of two weeks.

The Chair: - They can send a proof out here a little earlier.

Mr. Vredenburgh: - How shall we act on these?
The Chair: - You have heard these amendments as suggested by the Committee on Rules. Do you want to take them up each rule by itself, or do you want to act on them as a whole?

Mr. Waters: - I would like to suggest the addition of another rule, and that is making a rule that we compel clubs holding shows to bench kennels of dogs of the same breed, exhibited by one owner, together, for various reasons. First, that it is much easier on a number of dogs --- much better for them if they can be bench side by side instead of being divided up and scattered all about among strong animals. Second, it is a great convenience to the exhibitor. For instance, an exhibitor has a large number of dogs, and they are scattered about the show, and he has to run from place to place to look after them, whereas if his dogs were benched together, it would convenience him a great deal, and he could watch them better. He may have a vicious dog here and another one there, and it requires him to have extra help to look after them. The third reason is, I think it would be of benefit to the clubs holding shows, as often times it would induce exhibitors to increase their entries. They might intend to enter two or three dogs, and if they thought they could get them together by entering four, they would do so. It would make better shows, and the shows would present a better appearance if the dogs were benched in that way. I don’t see that it is any great inconvenience to anyone, but on the other hand it is a positive convenience to a great many. If such a rule could be drafted I should like to see it passed by the American Kennel Club.

Capt. Knocker: - Am I right in understanding that you want the different breeds together?

Mr. Waters: - No, say four dogs of the same breed exhibited by one owner.

The Chair: - Don’t they naturally go together? In making up a man’s entries the clerk would begin to number one, two, three, and so forth.

Mr. Vredenburgh: - I see what Mr. Waters means. For instance, we will take pointers. There may be a dozen dogs entered and a dozen bitches entered. Mr. Waters comes here with two dogs and two bitches. They will put the two dogs at one end of the dozen and the two bitches in between. It is not the same as though all four of his dogs would come in right next to each other.

Mr. Waters: - Take St. Bernards. The owner has four dogs entered, the same breed – four rough-coated St. Bernards. The are scattered in two different isles.
The Chair: - Aren’t they numbered continuously?

Mr. Waters: - No. They might get them a little nearer together, and there is no serious objection as I can see to making this rule.

Mr. Watson: - It seems to me that that is merely a matter that the club themselves could attend to.

Mr. Schellhass: - I think there is this much in favor of it. We have limited our shows to four days on the ground of humanity to the dogs. There is no question whatever but what where you bench two or more dogs together it is a great saving to those dogs, to the wear and tear on them, on their mental dispositions; take dogs like terriers and bench them beside strange dogs and they are fighting and barking and awake all night. The exhibitors are very much in favor of it.

Mr. Watson: - The exhibitors can bring weight to bear on the dog show Committees. It is simply a mere matter of dog show Committee work. If the Committee chooses to do that, it will do it. If they do not choose to do it, I don’t see how you can make them do it.

Mr. Waters: It simply entails a little more work on the Committee in getting up their catalogue, and it would be such a great benefit to the exhibitors that I think it should be made a rule, so that an exhibitor can always look forward to that; he can be sure, if he is going to Pittsburg, for instance, that his dogs will be benched together. In Chicago they did it and there was no objection to it. I had my dogs benched together here last year and there was no difficulty about it. I have talked with a large number of exhibitors, and those belonging to different specialty clubs, and I thought maybe it would be better to let it go until some later date when it could be more thoroughly talked over, but Mr. Vredenburgh said that now was the time to bring it up if at all.

Mr. Vredenburgh: - There is ample notice given that amendments will come up at this meeting, and an amendment to an amendment can be offered.

Mr. Riggs: - I think the New York show Committee stated in their premium list that they would not do it.

Mr. Watson: - I move that the amendment be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Rules.

Mr. Vredenburgh:- As I am a member of that Committee I think it would be proper for me to say something in connection with this. The American Kennel Club has a very fair balance but if we have to reprint our rules every three or four months, it is going to cut down that balance. We amended our bench show rules last September, and I did not have new ones printed for the reason that I knew amendments were coming up at this annual meeting and I wanted to wait and get a clean copy printed. The consequence was that when all of these shows called for rules I had to take up the time of the Kennel Club and write out every one of the amendments. It costs us Forty Dollars every time we get out these rules. We have been getting them out regularly once a year, and that is the reason I suggested to Mr. Waters if he was going to bring the matter up it would be better for him to do so today, so I can get a clean copy of the Constitution and Rules printed, and let the bench show clubs know just exactly where they stand.

Mr. Watson: - There is not objection to what Mr. Waters wants done being done, but I think it is objectionable for us to force the clubs to do that which do not care about doing that sort of thing. It is a matter of courtesy for clubs to offer that inducement to exhibitors, and if the clubs found that it is of great advantage, they will follow it. Some exhibitors do not care about that; they don’t want it; they are not particular about it. Look at the trouble it would make if an exhibitor comes to a show and says:- “I want my dogs benched together.” You have got to re-arrange all your classes.

Capt. Knocker:- It seems that the rules that are made by the American Kennel Club are made for the best interests of the dog, and it is a well known fact that dogs that know each other and that belong to the same owner will remain much more quiet and show much better than dogs that are separated and causing a great deal of unnecessary row. Besides it is detrimental to the people looking at bring them, and I think it would save a great deal of trouble if the rule were adopted, that an owner’s dogs should be benched together.

Mr. Riggs: - While I think it is for the good of the dog, yet I am not prepared to vote for it if it comes up today. The New York Show Committee said positively this year they would not do it, and we recognize them as the largest show.

The Chair: - What is your pleasure in regard to Mr. Water’s amendments? Do you wish to take it up now?

Mr. Waters:- I offer the amendment.

The Chair:- Will you draft it?
Mr. Vredenburgh: - It shall be the duty of dog show officials to bench all dogs of a breed together when owned and entered by one exhibitor, provided a request for same be entered on the entry form.

Mr. Waters:– That will cover it exactly.

The proposed amendment was seconded by Mr. Schellhass, and the same was adopted.

The Chair:– We now come to the matter of accepting the amendments of the Committee on Constitution and Rules as amended at this meeting. Those in favor of the amendments as reported by the Committee, and those amendments as reported by the Committee, and those amendments proposed at this meeting, will say “Aye.”

Carried.

The Secretary read the report of the Committee on Rules as published in the January Gazette, and on motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Pacific Coast Special Committee was read, as follows:

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 6, 1899

A. P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,
Secretary American Kennel Club,
New York.

My dear Sir:

By Resolution of the Pacific Coast Special Committee of the American Kennel Club, carried unanimously at the meeting held January 5, 1899, adjourned from the December 26, 1898, said meeting having been called to consider your letter of 12th ult., relative to the Collie Club of California, California State Kennel and Poultry Association, and Santa Clara Valley Poultry and Kennel Association, which, being members of the A.K.C., have affiliated themselves with the Pacific Kennel League, I am directed to inform you that:

The Pacific Coast Special Committee of the A.K.C. acknowledge receipt of your favor of 12th ult. Referring to this Committee for action and report the case of the three clubs which, while holding membership in the A.K.C., have also formed a connection by membership with the Pacific Kennel League. The Committee has to say in response that it has made this matter the subject of serious discussion extending through two sessions. It has been considered in all possible lights, the Committee keeping constantly in view two objects:– first, the interests of the A.K.C., and second, the best interests of dog men, dog clubs and dog shows upon the Pacific Coast.

This Committee, by virtue of appointment from the A.K.C., represents in a territorial sense, large interests. It is, within certain limits, the A.K.C. on the Pacific Coast, its representative in all matters pertaining to kennel affairs in the extreme West. Because of that fact the Committee has considered the existence of A.K.C., and its relation to the so-called Pacific Kennel League as a question, which whether grave or trivial, should be regarded in a light of absolute truth and fairness, and simply with a view of arriving at a conclusion that would serve to the fullest degree the best interests of all parties concerned, more especially such interests as are best represented by the A.K.C., both in fact and through this Committee which it has itself created.

The conclusions of your Committee have been reached after mature reflection and may be briefly stated. We do not believe that the Pacific Kennel League or its existence is of sufficient importance to serve even passing notice. It does not event as a matter of pretense represent substantial opposition or hostility to the A.K.C. We regard the A.K.C. as representing all that is substantial or the value in kennel affairs. It is a dignified body, and the appeal it makes to kennel organizations and dog fanciers is based on merit. It can afford to ignore a purely local organization, no matter what conditions or circumstances may have called the latter into an ephemeral existence.

With the causes responsible for the existence of the Pacific Kennel League this Committee has nothing to do. We take the League as we find it, a small organization in California, (for its membership is confined to this State) formed for the purpose of giving bench shows independently of the rules of the A.K.C. It matters little what may call an organization of this nature into being; it cannot thrive or prosper unless there is substantial reason for its existence --- some benefit greater than any offered by the A.K.C. Without such merit the Pacific Kennel League cannot exist. Grant it such virtue and it will of necessity grow and prosper despite all opposition from external sources. In the view of your Committee the Pacific Kennel League is no menace to the A.K.C. on this coast. We believe that it exists without reason and that its failure is certain. For all that, however, it must be borne in mind that several well known fanciers, whose motives cannot be questioned, have given the movement support, because they believe it to be to their interest. Time and experience alone can demonstrate to them their error. Let the fact once be established and the League be deprived of their support, and it will fall to the ground of its own weight.

It has been called to the attention of this Committee that membership in the A.K.C. has been retained by the three above named clubs belonging to the Pacific Kennel League. The question is asked as to whether the retention of these clubs in the A.K.C. is not prejudicial to its interests, and it has been suggested that they should be compelled to resign from one or the other.

As the matter now stands before this Committee, we say to your Honorable body, “take no action, treat these clubs meantime and the Pacific Kennel League, so-called, as you would any individual organization that sought to give shows under its own rules.” The success of the League up to the present has been wholly and solely on paper, and one club intends to disavow the action of its delegate. The first show under League rules was held in Oakland last month. It was a failure both in point of entries and attendance, and aroused among the principal fanciers of the coast not even a ripple of interest. Another show is being held this week at Sacramento, with less than one hundred entries, including duplicates, between fifty and sixty dogs being benched. Many league adherents recognize the futility of the enterprise already, especially when brought face to face with the fact that the wins are not of record and represent nothing of value. Our advice to the A.K.C. is to let the League alone. We are satisfied that a short time will end the brief span of its existence. Fanciers in the movement with honest and disinterested motives will not be long in perceiving their mistake. When that happens, as it must, all that will be left to represent the League will be an empty shadow of selfish interest and an expensive monument of failure. In the past the A.K.C. has been at a disadvantage in its relation to Pacific Coast affairs. It has been handicapped by distance, difficulty of communication and lack of knowledge of certain classes and conditions in the far West. Feeling has been engendered on the part of certain men now connected with the Pacific Kennel League, and the remedy for this condition does not lie in drastic measures, but rather in a continuance of the policy represented in the appointment of this Committee. We honestly believe that adherents to this will restore good feeling and bring all elements of the fancy on this Coast to realize that the A.K.C. seeks to promote their interests in every manner possible.

This letter will serve to acquaint your Honorable body with the views to this Committee. We trust you may be brought to view the matter in the light here reflected. By so doing you will render certain the future ascendancy of the A.K.C. in this section, while at the same time gain for this Committee a position to be of substantial service in the cause in which we are all interested.

Yours very truly,

Pacific Coast Special Committee, American Kennel Club,

J.P. Norman, Sec'y

Capt. Knocker: -- I move that the report be accepted as read.

Motion seconded and read.

Mr. Vredenburgh:- Now we come to the matter of the Pittsburgh Club. There were two clubs; they have consolidated, and they apply to be recognized here under the name adopted by the consolidated club. Then they request the return to the consolidated club of the deposit made for date claims by one of the clubs in its individual capacity. There is no reason that I can see why the request of the Pittsburgh Club should not be granted. There is the question of dues; they both paid their dues when they were payable, as individuals. After the dues were payable they consolidated. Under the circumstances we cannot return the dues to either of them but you can instruct me to give the consolidated club the credit for one of the dues.

Mr. Schellhass:- And return them the Twenty-five Dollars deposit that was made a year ago. I move that that be done.

The Chair:- We have got to accept them as a member of this association first.

Mr. Schellhass:- I make that motion, that the Duquesne Kennel Club of Western Pennsylvania be accepted as a member in place of the heretofore existing Duquesne Kennel Club and the Western Pennsylvania Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

It was also moved and seconded that it be credited with its dues without further payment.

Carried.
Mr. Vredenburgh:- It is also recommended that the Twenty-five Dollars deposit of the old Duquesne Kennel Club for dates for 1899 be returned to the consolidated club, the Duquesne Kennel Club of Western Pennsylvania.

It was moved and seconded that the recommendations of the Secretary last referred to be adopted.

Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh:- Now we have the question of the publication of an official report by any committee of the American Kennel Club before its reception by this Club. I think it ought to be stopped. The case was brought about by my attention being called to the publication of the Pacific Advisory Board’s report, the one that I just read. It was reported in the American Field on January 21.

Capt. Knocker:- And in a San Francisco paper previous to that.

Mr. Vredenburgh: - I called their attention to it and asked them to send me the names of the person or person responsible for such an act. They wrote back disavowing any intention of treating the American Kennel Club discourteously, but that they had observed that meetings of the Executive Board and of the Rules Committee had been published in the Gazette and copies in other papers before reporting to the American Kennel Club, and they supposed they had the same privilege. They did not understand that the report of the Executive Board was final; that it did not have to be confirmed by the American Kennel Club, and further, they did not understand that a great many of these reports that are published are gathered by reporters and are not given out by the American Kennel Club, that is, not official. Then they claim, as there was quite some excitement on the coast in regard to what could be done regarding these clubs, they thought it would allay that excitement by having it published rather then to wait for two months to have it officially recognized by this club. I believe implicitly the reasons that they assign, but I think there should be a resolution passed that would prevent a like occurrence.

Capt. Knocker: - Would you make it a rule?

Mr. Vredenburgh:- No, just simply the sense of the club.

Mr. Schellhass:- I move that it is the sense of the American Kennel Club that any Committees which may have any reports to make, or which may have made any report to the American Kennel Club, shall, so far as they themselves are concerned, consider them strictly confidential, and that the American Kennel Club should be the only medium by which they should be made public.

Motion seconded by Capt. Knocker and Carried.

On motion of Mr. Waters the resignations of the Pointer Club of California and the American Pug Club were accepted.

Mr. Vredenburgh: - The Rhode Island Kennel Club wishes to protest against the American Kennel Club holding them fast to the date of closing of entries as announced in the premium list. They think that the dates of closing should be entirely in the hands of the Committee of the show, with the power to extend such dates if necessary, provided same is announced in the papers. To quote from their letter “We had to refuse over sixty entries on this account, which would have helped us out considerably towards making our show a better one. Our delegate, W.C. Codman, will bring this matter forward at your next meeting.”

Moved and seconded that said protest be laid upon the Table.

Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh:- I have an appeal from the Mascoutah Kennel Club. The facts of the case are these: In 1897, under the ten existing rules, a club violating any of the rules of the American Kennel Club had its entire deposit of Twenty-five Dollars forfeited. I remember at the annual meeting in regard to your club, Mr. Chairman, the New England Kennel Club, I recommended that the violations be condoned by the American Kennel Club, and that I be empowered to return the fee, and Mr. Hunnewell, of your club, strongly objected to that, and said if his club had violated the rules, and it called for a forfeit of the deposit, that his club would not accept a return; that it was one of the leading clubs of the country and could not afford to be placed in that position. I waited until the latter part of the year when I again recommended that as so many clubs had had their deposits forfeited, I would recommend that I be empowered to transfer those deposits to cover shows for the succeeding year, but in case a club did not hold a show the succeeding year the deposit should be absolutely forfeited. The Mascoutah Club had its deposit for 1897 forfeited. By an act of courtesy on the part of this club we said we would permit that deposit to cover their claim for 1898 provided they held a show, but if they did not hold a show. Very good reason was given, but that don’t cut any figure. The deposit had been forfeited the year before, and it was only courtesy on our part that we did not ask for a second deposit. They made a claim for 1899, and insist upon the Twenty-five Dollars that we hold to apply to the 1899 show. I declined to accept their claim, or to recognize it, or to publish it in the Gazette unless they sent a second Twenty-five Dollars. Now they come before us and ask for a return of a deposit that was forfeited two years ago for violation of the rules. I will admit that this is entirely irregular, because there is only one way an appeal can be taken from the action of the Executive Board under Constitution, and that is to the Executive Board itself. The American Kennel Club as an association cannot reverse the action of the Executive Board, but in order to satisfy the Mascoutah Kennel Club, I have consented to bring it up before this meeting.

Mr. Schellhass:- Did any of these other clubs whose deposits were forfeited fail to give shows last year?

Mr. Vredenburgh: - Yes, four.

Mr. Schellhass:- They have not asked for it?

Mr. Vredenburgh:- No.

The Chair:- If this matter does not properly come up before us, the Executive Committee has already taken action:

Capt. Knocker:- Why not endorse the Committee’s action?

Mr. Waters:- Why not refer this appeal to the Executive Board?

Mr. Riggs:- I endorse all that the Secretary has said, because our association was one of the clubs that suffered in the same way.

Mr. Schellhass:- I moved that it be referred to its only channel, the Executive Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh:- With the consent of the majority of the Executive Board the American Kennel Club has removed from its old office on the third floor of 55 Liberty Street, and has taken a lease for a suite of offices on the fourth floor. It is the most convenient and best set of officers the American Kennel Club has ever had. We secured it at a very trifling advance in rent, only one hundred and fifty Dollars over what we were paying, and we have an office for the stud book business; another separate office for the Gazette business; another offices for our customers and patrons, and then a separate office again in which our Board meetings and association meetings can be held; so that whatever department is being used for business purposes, it does not conflict with any of the other departments. As you are all aware we have added to our force another man. That makes it necessary that we should procure some additional furniture. I suppose there would be nothing said if I should have procured the necessary furniture and sent in a bill, but I prefer the permission of this Club to get whatever is necessary. So far as I can see now we will need a desk, a few chairs and an additional safe. Our office matters have grown to such an extent that our safe capacity is not sufficient to care for the papers that absolutely must be kept in a safe, and I think that possibly we might be able to get a second-hand safe for a very small amount of money that would cover everything that is necessary, and therefore I would ask permission to procure those necessaries for the business of the office and the safe-keeping of the papers.

Mr. Waters:- I move that the Secretary be empowered to make such purchases of furniture and fixtures as he may require in the office.

    Motion seconded and carried.

    The Rhode Island State Fair Association and the Bloomington Kennel Club were duly elected to membership in the A.K.C.

    The credentials of G.W. Carnochan and Norvin P. Harris to act as delegates at this meeting were read and accepted

    The Meeting then adjourned.

New England Kennel Club Edward Brooks

On motion the Minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his regular quarterly report, which was, on motion accepted and placed on file, It follows:

New York, May 24, 1899

To the American Kennel Club,
Gentlemen:—

I beg to report the reception of three applications for admission to membership; credentials from three clubs, of delegates to represent them in the American Kennel Club; and applications for the registration of three Kennel names, all of which have been referred to the proper committees, and their reports will be submitted in their order at this meeting.

The Cincinnati Kennel Club filed a notice to the effect that it had transferred all its rights, and privileges to the Dog Owners Protective Association of Cincinnati, as its successor, and requests the American Kennel Club to ratify and approve said action, and recognize the new Association as a member in place of the old club. The late show at Cincinnati was held by the new club, and was a very successful one. I would respectfully recommend the granting of this request, with permission to substitute in our list of members the title of the new Association for that of the name now on said list.

A request from the Milwaukee Kennel and Pet Stock Association to charge its title to that of the Milwaukee Kennel Club has been filed, and I would recommend the granting of same, with permission to change our records in accordance therewith.
I beg to report the following charges for misconduct in connection with dogs, and dog shows;

A.K.C. vs. George R. Preston, Jr. Case, showing a dog not his property.

A.K.C. vs. G.N. Phelps. Case, showing dogs at several shows in classes in which they were not eligible.

J.C. Grogan vs. W.J. Higginson. Case, illegal retention of a silver cup, the property of the complainant.

Geo. T. Lee vs. Ben. F. Lewis. Case, retention of a dog the property of the complainant.

James L. Little vs. New England Kennel Club. Protest against the appointment of one of its judge, and for misrepresentation in its show advertisements in the papers.

James L. Little vs. Westminster Kennel Club and the Life Publishing Co. Protest against misrepresentation in Advertisement, offering on sale fully marked catalogue when same were not marked as represented.

L.A. Van Zandy, appeals from the decision of your Secretary, in the cancellation of the award made to his Irish Setter bitch Biddy Finglas, at the late New York show. The case briefly stated, is that said entry was made in the Limit Class for dogs although the sex was specified on said entry, in the first edition of the Catalogue the bitch was published in said Dog Class, but was thereafter transferred by the show Superintendent to the bitch limit class. The Secretary cancelled said award in said bitch class, for the reason that the owner committed an error in wrongly specifying the class, for which under the rules he alone is held responsible, and the Club was penalized for transferring the bitch in violation of the rule. The bitch being entered in the dog class could not compete therein, and being illegally transferred to the bitch class, could not therefore compete in said bitch class, hence the Secretary’s action from which an appeal is taken.

The Treasury regulations regarding the importation of dogs, into this country free of duty have been recently enforced. It is now necessary to file with the collector of the port of entry a certificate showing the registration of the dog imported, and in addition thereto certifying to the registrations of said dogs sire and dam and their sires and dams, with their several stud book numbers, Heretofore a certificate of registration, and a certified pedigree sufficient to permit said registration was all that was required. Your Secretary has been in correspondence with the Department of Agriculture on this subject in which he has made a strong effort to obtain a modification of the regulation, but unfortunately he has not been successful, and therefore it should be generally known that in order to import a dog in this country from any foreign country, free of duty, it is now absolutely necessary that the dog to be imported and each individual dog in its pedigree for two complete generations must have been registered, and the stud book numbers of each of said registered dogs specified.

One of our advertisers had been adjudicated a bankrupt, and notice was given us to file our claim with the Referee in Bankruptcy. Owing to the fact that the American Kennel Club is not an incorporated association, certain complications arise that make it difficult to properly define our position as a creditor, and in order to simplify the matter I recommend that the claim of the American Kennel Club against Stephen Hasbrouck, in the sum of $75.00 and the contract given and signed by him for said advertisement for said consideration be assigned and transferred to James Watson in consideration of one dollar so that said assignee can file a claim with said Referee, as an individual creditor.

At the meeting at which the amendment was adopted requiring that all listings of non-registered dogs would be good only within the year ending Dec., 31, in which said listings were made, no time being specified, the rule necessarily went into effect immediately on its adoption. The premium lists of all the shows up to and including Pittsburgh had been printed, and the most of them distributed, and as a consequence the amended rules did not appear in said lists. We found that about two hundred dogs had not been relisted. Your Secretary felt that it was not the intention of the American Kennel Club to strictly enforce a rule that was not generally known or understood, and thereby took the liberty of exercising a certain discretion, and gave each owner the opportunity to list his dogs that were shown and found not to have been listed prior to the show at which they were entered. The two shows following Pittsburgh which completed the spring circuit were treated in like manner, practically all of the unlisted dogs were subsequently listed, and probably ten to twelve dogs will fully cover all disqualifications whose owners fail to comply with our request to forward the necessary fees to make their entries good. In the opinion of your Secretary the amended rules are now thoroughly understood by exhibitors, and with the shows to be held hereafter, the new rules will be published, and notice is hereby given that the listing rule will be rigidly enforced. The permission to show a dog that was eligible to registration, and owners should in all cases register their dogs if eligible. The listing with a show Secretary, does not protest a dog in case through an oversight said listing is not returned to this office.

The entry forms sent out by show committees have been on the same plan for years, and are not suitable for the present classification. A new form has been prepared by this office, which is thought may save exhibitors from the errors they make in Class numbers and otherwise, and Spratts Patent which supplies a large majority of the shows with their entry forms, has signified its readiness to print the form and style as may be recommended by the American Kennel Club.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secy.

The Treasurer read his report, and the same was on motion, accepted and placed on file, and is as follows:

On motion the Secretary was duly elected to succeed himself as Secretary of the A.K.C. for the ensuing year.

Adjourned.

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

Mr. Vredenburgh: The stud book committee held a meeting on Monday last, and also one on Tuesday. The Secretary of the Committee, Mr. Schellhass, I am sorry to say, is seriously ill, and he has all the papers at his residence, so the Committee is not in a position to report beyond a recommendation to approve the applications for Kennel names, as follows: “Random,” claimed by C.W. Rodman, Jr.; “Roseland,” claimed by Alexander Seruntine; “Hawthorne,” claimed by John C. Bone.

The Chairman: Will you accept such part of the Studbook Committee report as we have here and give them further time? If there is no objection, these applications for prefixes will be accepted and the Stud-Book Committee given further to report.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have the reports of the Pacific Advisory Committee of March 28th and April 19th. The letter-press copy of the minutes of the meeting held on March 28th, 1899, being practically illegible, it will be impossible to spread the same on these minutes. The report of the meeting held April 19th, 1899, is as follows:

Meeting held at Occidental Hotel
San Francisco, April 19, 1899

W.R. Cluness, Jr., M.C. in the Chair.

Present: Carlton, Cluness, Haight, Norman
Absent: Allen, de Ruyter, Grey

Moved, seconded and carried that minutes be taken as read.
Committee on by-laws reported progress.

Moved and seconded that this Committee approves proposed change in classifying Bench Shows. Approved.

Letter from Norman J. Steward, Secretary, Cal., Collie Club protesting against report of this Committee to A.K.C., on ground of erroneous statements concerning Oakland specialty show and Sacramento Bench Show. As regards letter, the report complained of alleged that between 50 and 60 dogs were benched, whereas catalogue shows benching of 79 dogs.

Moved and seconded that the reply of the Secretary of this Committee, already sent be deemed sufficient and that Mr. Stewart's letter be ordered on file.
Carried.

Letter read from G.B.M. Grey resigning from Committee Resignation accepted and letter ordered filed.

Letters from A.P. Vredenburgh permitting acceptance of registration fees of T.F. K.C. Letter ordered filed, with approval of this Committee.

Letter from John E. de Ruyter thanking this Committee for resolutions of sympathy on death of his mother. Ordered filed.

Letter from J.B. Martin, declining to serve on Committee. Ordered filed.

Moved and seconded that Secretary be instructed to explain to Mr.
Vredenburgh that the resolution carried at last meeting was that this Committee is in favor of extending disqualification to the progeny of disqualified dogs and bitches, if that be practicable; and that it is the sense of this Committee that this course is the only one by which disqualification can be rendered really effective. Carried.

In the matter of nominating to the A.K.C., a candidate for the vacancy left by the resignation of Mr. Gray;

Mr. Norman nominated Dr. E.N. Lowry, but in view of the sentiments expressed by other members withdrew the name and placed in nomination Mr. N.H. Hickman.

Mr. Haight nominated Mr. Thomas Watson; Dr. Cluness nominated Mr. Thomas Browne, but withdrew the name and supported Mr. Watson. Mr. Carlton seconded Dr. Lowry and on the withdrawal of his name, seconded Mr. Hickman.

On motion of Dr. Cluness, consideration was postponed until next meeting.

Adjournment.

Attest, J.B. Norman,

Secretary

The Chairman: If there is no objection they will be made a part of the proceedings of this meeting and spread upon the Minutes.

The Secretary then read an extract from the Minutes of the Cincinnati Kennel Club showing that said Club had transferred its membership in the American Kennel Club to the DOG OWNER’S PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION, and asking that its name be changed to THE DOG OWNER’S PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION of Cincinnati.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I will state that the Dog Owner’s Protective Association gave the Cincinnati show during the Spring Circuit, but in order to make a record show it was held under the auspices of the Cincinnati Kennel Club. They paid all their dues and everything that was required here.

The Chairman: Have they filed Constitution and By-Laws with you?

Mr. Vredenburgh: No.

The Chairman: Isn’t that customary?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes.

The Chairman: Can we accept that transfer, under the circumstances?

Mr. Arnott: Didn’t we do so with the two Pittsburgh Clubs?
Mr. Mortimer: I suppose in transferring the rights of the Cincinnati Kennel Club they also transferred the Constitution and By-Laws?

The Chairman: They don’t say that. They simply want to transfer their membership. We don’t know what we are accepting under that.

Mr. Mortimer: I would suggest that they be written to for the Constitution and By-Laws.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I think we can save time by referring the matter to the Executive Board at its next session, and in the meantime, I will write for their Constitution and By-Laws.

It was then moved and seconded that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Carried.

On motion, the applications of the Milwaukee Kennel and Pet Stock Association to change its name to the Milwaukee Kennel Club was granted.

Mr. Vredeburgh: I beg to report the charged that this Club has preferred against George R. Preston for misconduct in connection with Dog Shows.

Mr. Mortimer: What is the charge?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Showing a dog not his own property at two or three Shows in 1898.

The Secretary then read the charges, and Mr. Arnott moved that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary also reported the charged of the American Kennel Club against George H. Blackmar, and on request read the same.

The Chairman: IF there is no objection we will refer this matter to the Stud Book Committee for it will have to go to them eventually.

The charges against G.N. Phelps were also read, and on motion of Mr. Mortimer referred to the Executive Board.

The charges filed by J.C. Grogan against W.J. Higginson were read, and on motion referred to the Executive Board.

The charged filed by George T. Lee against Ben. Lewis were read.

Mr. Watson: Mr. Lewis is here to defend himself, and he has the original correspondence in the matter.
The Chairman: Under our rules, it would seem that there was no other course except to refer the matter to the Executive Board.

Mr. Mortimer: Then the delegates have no voice in the matter at all. Here is a case that I think can be brought up and settled now as a matter of justice between the contending parties. Lewis, it appears, holds this dog, which is the property of Mr. Lee, and in holding the dog, of course he has put himself under considerable expense. It is a St. Bernard dog, and naturally would cost $10 or $12 a month to board him, and he won’t give up the dog, because he considers that he has not been paid what is his due. On the other hand the complainant says that Lewis’ bull is an overcharge. It seems to me that the delegates here assembled could settle this matter just as well as the Executive Board, it is constitutional.

The Chairman: I think under the rules we would have to refer it to the Executive Board. They will have to take action on it.

Mr. Watson: Supposing we should find, acting as a sort of Grand Jury, that there is no ground for the charges, no ground for investigation? Mr. Lewis is here. This man states that Mr. Lewis made a specific agreement with him. Mr. Lewis can show by that man’s letter that there was no agreement. If that be so, we could say that there is no foundation for the charges; not that the charges are not sustained, but that there is no foundation for charges. He is holding this dog for the money due him, and the dog might die, and Mr. Lewis have nothing to fall back upon. Suppose Mr. Lewis comes in and shows this letter, and shows there is no ground for the charges, can’t we throw them out?

Major Taylor: If this matter is referred to the Executive Board, Mr. Lewis will be compelled to keep this dog during that time, and it is possible that the dog might die on his hands.

The Chairman: I understand the justice of your remarked, but here is Article IX which has been adopted by the Club. I don’t see why we are not bound by the rules.

Mr. Mortimer: Then I withdraw my request in every case.

Mr. Watson: In this case, if I can show you that what this man says in his charge is absolutely incorrect, then would you not decline to refer it to the Executive Board on the ground that there is no charge in the letter? Will you allow me to call for this letter and have it read to you? He makes an absolute mis-statement which is a ground for the charges, but if that statement is false, there is no ground for the charges.

Mr. Mortimer: I don’t think this is a case for the American Kennel Club at all.

The Chairman: The ruling I make is that charges of this kind cannot come before the delegates. They must go to the Executive Board. That is the only body that can consider these charges primarily, and any discussion on this matter, I rule out of order.

Dr. Foote: The delegates don’t seem to understand that the action of the Executive Board has to be confirmed by the delegates at large. It is simply a primary action by the Executive Board.

Mr. Mortimer: Dr. Foote very properly says that they can be an appeal, and that all these actions of the Executive Board have got to be ratified by the delegates, but I want to call attention to the fact that whatever the action the Executive Board may take in this matter, cannot be ratified until the next meeting of the delegates, which won’t be held for three months. During that time Lewis may have possession of the dog. The dog may die. At any rate he is boarding the dog at his own expense. It is a complicated matter in which expense will be incurred all the time, and which will be an injustice to both parties, and if there is any possible way of settling this matter now, it should be done.

Mr. Vredenburgh: All charges under the Constitution have got to be tried by the Executive Board. They are simply reported here so that they can be officially referred to the Executive Board. In case of an appeal, the appeal had got to go to the Executive Board, and the report of the Executive Board to this meeting is simply a report giving information of what has been done. This meeting is not called upon to ratify or otherwise the action of the Executive Board. I will tell you why the Constitution was so worded for I happened to be on the Committee. The idea is that very often charges are preferred against men without foundation, and if they were tried in the open meeting here, they would naturally be reported by the stenographer and become a part of the official proceedings of this meeting, and it would do an injustice to the man that was proved innocent. Very often there is a great deal of dirty linen to be washed, and it is preferred to wash that in a committee of eight, where the proceedings are never made public, and nothing is ever made public except the finding. That is the reason that that rule is in this Constitution.
Mr. Arnott: What has this man got to do with the American Kennel Club? This Club does not want to try and get the man’s money back. There is no other charge against the man. There is nothing fraudulent about it.

The Chairman: That is a matter for the Executive Board to determine. I shall rule that this matter is out of order before this meeting. I don’t see how under Article IX we can discuss the matter. It may be a hard case but it is only opening the door to other cases.

Mr. Watson: I move that everything done with regard to this case be struck from the minutes. If we have the right to refer, we certainly have the right to refuse to refer.

The Chairman: One of the delegates requested that the charges should be read, and they were read.

Mr. Watson: Then I move that everything with reference to referring these cases to the Executive Board be struck from the minutes and that we proceed to other business.

Mr. Mastick: Section XII of Article II says we have the power to act.

The Chairman: There is no business before this meeting.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I would like to know whether hereafter I am in my report to make any reference to charges that are pending and have never been acted upon by the Board.

Mr. Hunnewell: These charges appear in the Secretary’s report simply stating that they are coming up before the Executive Board, so that if any delegate wishes to find out about a certain charge he will be informed that it is before the Board, and whether it has been acted on or not. Otherwise the delegates would not know what charges were pending.

Mr. Vredenburgh: If this charge should come to me within the last week, and it is stated in all the sporting papers that we held a meeting to-day, and there is no reference made by me that I have received such charges, and as the Executive Board only meets at its convenience, and should not meet in the next two months, you would find papers filled with statements that I was withholding papers.

Mr. Mortimer: When is the next meeting of the Executive Board?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Whenever they order it, and I don’t know when that will be.
Major Taylor: I don’t see any objection in the future to having these matters brought up and read by the Secretary. It would simply avoid the motion to refer them to the Executive Board. They go over by the rules.

Mr. Vredenburgh: If that is the sense of the meeting I will do it.

Mr. Mastick: I second that motion.

It was moved and seconded that in the future these charges be simply read by the Secretary for information and no action taken up them.

Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have an appeal here from L.A. Van Zandt against my action in cancelling the win of his dog at the New York Show. The dog was catalogued in the first issue of the New York catalogue in Class 87, which was the limit dog class. In the next issue of the catalogue the dog had been transferred to the limit bitch class. I cancelled the win that was awarded to that dog in the limit bitch class, and the Westminster Kennel Club made a demand on Van Zandt for the prize money. Mr. Van Zandt wrote several letters here and I replied to them giving my reasons for cancelling the dog’s win. He now sends an appeal. The rule especially states that the Exhibitors must abide by their own errors in making out their entry form. All entries are catalogued by the different shows according to their class numbers. Here is the original entry, class 87, limit dogs. This bitch was entered in the limit dogs’ class; consequently, being a bitch she could not compete in the limit dog class and therefore it had to be cancelled if it was illegally transferred. The rules also say: Show officials cannot transfer a dog that has been wrongly entered.” This bitch was transferred to the limit bitch class. The bitch evidently --- it is a fair inference --- was transferred the day of the show. There were three bitch classes and the mere fact that the dog was erroneously entered in the dog limit class is no proof positive that they intended that it should have been in the bitch limit class; it may have been the bitch open class or it may have been the bitch novice class. So the entry must have been transferred the day after the show opened, and she could not win in a class in which she was illegally transferred, and therefore the Secretary in the discharge of his duty, cancelled that award.

Mr. Mortimer: In regard to this matter of the transfer, the statement of our secretary is perfectly correct in so far as he says that the bitch was transferred on the day of the show. The fact that the bitch was entered in the wrong class was not found out until she was brought into the class. She was entered in class 87, it is true, and the owner, who is Mrs. Van Zandt, then of course discovered that the class called for was a dog limit class and that the bitch had been entered in the wrong class, but I, as the Superintendent of the Show, took it upon myself to make the transfer on the ground that in her original entry – I went and got her entry form and looked it up, it was distinctly stated, Biddy Finglas, “Female. There is a division among the sexes as you will find on the original entry form there, and she distinctly stated in her entry form: “Biddy Finglas, female” but the unfortunate part of that was that Class 87 was for Limit Dogs. She intended to enter the bitch in the Limit Bitch Class which was No. 91. I took that into consideration. I though I was taking a commonsense view of the case. I knew that there was no intention on Mrs. Van Zandts part to commit any fraud. She has stated distinctly Biddy “Finglass”, female, and upon those grounds I took it upon myself to transfer this bitch from the Limit Dog class to the Limit Bitch class where she should have been entered. It is simply a question whether I was justified in making that transfer, seeing that under the head, “Sex,” she has distinctly stated, Female, and I took it upon myself that we had been guilty of carelessness, or we should have entered the dog in its right class, so I transferred it from the dog class to the bitch class. I am not in the least finding fault with the secretary. I realize that it is a matter in which he must act strictly according to the rules, but this was straining the rule and carrying out the very letter of it.

Mr. Vredenburgh: If Mrs. Van Zandt has asked you to transfer that bitch to the Open Bitch Class, you would have been just as likely to have done it, as to have transferred it to the Limit Class, wouldn’t you?

Mr. Mortimer: No

Mr. Vredenburgh: Why not?

Mr. Mortimer: Because she didn’t enter it in the Limit Class. 87 was the class for Limit Dogs, but when she put down the name, Biddy Finglas, female, she evidently intended to enter it in the class for Limit Bitches. It seemed to me that I was justified in using that amount of discretion which I thought was vested in me, to put the bitch in the class to which she rightfully belonged. I am not defending my action at all, neither am I finding any fault with the action of the secretary. I am leaving the matter to the Club.
Mr. Vredenburgh: I will give you my reasons for not taking into consideration what Mr. Mortimer has just stated. If exhibitors will make a mistake in putting down the No. of a Class, they are just as liable to be in error in regard to the name of that class. A person entered a bitch in the Limit Dog Class. He finds he has made an error. He does to the Secretary after the show has opened, after that exhibitor has had an opportunity to examine the different classes. He goes through the limit class and knows that there is a bitch in the Limit class that can beat his bitch, so he puts her in the Open Class or the Novice Class. He says: “That is a mistake I want my bitch transferred to the Open Class or the Novice Class. The whole thing was a mistake.” I am not referring now to this case. I am referring to the possibilities of the case, that it is quite within the scope of possibility, I will say to draw it mild, that an exhibitor could do such a thing. You can all see how the door is left open to a thing of that kind and consequently I think it was clearly within my province to cancel that win.

Mr. Clarkson: Why shouldn’t you fine the club instead of cancelling the win?

Mr. Vredenburgh: We did.

The Chairman: The object of the rule is perfectly apparent, but I think the Bench Show committee ought to have a little freedom or discretion.

Mr. Mortimer: I might say also that Mrs. Van Zandt making the entry in the Limit class was simply because the bitch in question was not eligible in the Novice Class.

Mr. Vredenburgh: She could have gone into the Open Class.

The Chairman: I think we ought to adhere to our rules until we change them. I think I have had enough experience in Bench Show matters to know that this rule works a hardship. It is perfectly apparent that it was a slip of the pen that made it 87 instead of 91.

Mr. Hunnewell: We went all over this a year ago, and we decided the only way out of the matter was that an exhibitor had to abide by his mistakes, and the Show Committee had to abide by its mistakes. That is the only fair way we could get out of it.

Mr. Mortimer: You see it is evident that Mrs. Van Zandt had no intention of entering that dog in dog class when she said female on her entry.

The Chairman: The question is whether you want to adhere to your rules.
Mr. Hunnewell: I move that the secretary’s action be ratified.

Motion seconded and carried.

In the matter of the protest of James L. Little against the Westminster Kennel Club, the Secretary read a letter from Mr. Little.

Mr. Vredenburgh: In the matter of the bankruptcy case to which I referred in my report, I desire to state that I received a notice from the Referee to call and prove our claim. He did not seem to understand exactly what the American Kennel Club was, and I could not very readily make him understand that it was a voluntary organization, not incorporated, and it possibly would be called a co-partnership. I have talked with two or three lawyers on the question, and they say it would simplify matters very much if we would assign our claim to some individual. I wrote to the Referee asking him if he would grant us until the 27th of this month to file our claim and he write me back yes. As I will have to sign the assignment as Secretary, I think rather than have it assigned to me it would be better to assign it to Mr. Watson. He procured the advertisement and knows all the parties, and I recommend that this claim be sold to Mr. Watson.

Mr. Hunnewell: I move that we sell our claim to Mr. Watson.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There are three applications for membership, the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Massachusetts; The Philadelphia Dog Show Association, and The Fanciers’ Club of Sharon, Pennsylvania. They have all been approved by the Committee.

Said Clubs were duly elected.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have a resolution offered by Mr. G. Muss-Arnolt, as follows: “Resolved, that it is the sense of this Club that a transfer of a registered kennel name, prefix or affix will only be recognized, and consent thereto given, by the American Kennel Club when made by the original owner by a proper written instrument.”

Mr. Arnolt: I wish to bring this up so as to get a ruling. Most of the gentlemen here have prefixes or affixes and make a reputation by them. Anyone of those may die and the executors may sell the name. They are not dog men. Perhaps a man under suspension might buy them and travel on that reputation, and I think we should provide against such an emergency.
Mr. Vredenburgh: I don’t think it should be considered as part of the assets of an estate, so that it could be sold without the consent of the American Kennel Club. They grant this kennel name only to a man whom they are satisfied to permit to have such a trademark. The executors may sell that to a man that the American Kennel Club would not be willing to grant a prefix to.

Mr. Viti: It is a personal grant. It is to that individual only. He cannot assign it. I should think the application would have to be made here for it.

Mr. Mortimer: I think that is a very good proposition. Some person who is actually disqualified by the American Kennel Club might buy that affix or prefix. I should second the resolution.

The resolution was adopted.

The report of the stud book committee was then read, as follows:

New York, May 25, 1899

Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary, A.K.C.

Dear Sir:-

The Stud Book Committee begs to report as follows:

Franklin G. Bixby          Re breeding Boston Terrier
Vs.        Alpha 47619
Jno. A. Stewart

The charge being that said Alpha was not sired by complainants Toney Boy, although so registered by the defendant.

The complainant was received June 21st 1898, and case closed Feb. 23, 1899.

The delay was caused, partly, by the tardiness of the complainant in replying to the Committee’s letters to him, and also owning to the great mass of contradictory testimony received, much of it being in the form of affidavits and making the case difficult to determine.

At the New York show the Committee had an opportunity to interview many disinterested Boston Terrier men, and, as a result were able to quickly dispose of the case to their perfect satisfaction, finding as follows:-

Said Boston Terrier was not sired by Tony Boy.
According to the testimony of two apparently disinterested and reputable parties, one Daniel Manley of Charlstown, Mass., owned said Alpha before the defendant and claimed the sire to be as registered by the latter.

Other testimony given was to the effect that said Manly also claimed other breeding for the dog, and as evidenced in an affidavit he submitted to this Committee.

After due consideration of the case it is recommended that said Manly and his dogs if any be disqualified.

The Committee desires to say here that in two recent cases regarding the alleged giving of fictitious pedigrees they have called upon the specialty clubs interested, or there Pedigree Committee, said clubs being members of the A.K.C.

In both cases no assistance whatsoever was received.

Many of the cases of the kind above received for investigation are very difficult and apparently impossible to solve, but with the assistance of those intimately connected with the breed in question a solution of the difficulty, and consequently a just and correct decision can usually be arrived at.

This Committee considered that any such assistance asked should be promptly and also heartily granted, particularly as the ones profiting the greatest in cases of this kind are those directly interested in the breed in question.

Re-appeal of Geo. Brown, Hartford City, Indiana, to have progeny of King’s Peer - Cincinnatus Pride registered as English Setters.

The dam shows an Irish cross in the fourth generation.

It is the sense of the Committee that no setter showing an outcross should be registered as pure bred. The request is therefore denied. The progeny in question may, however, be registered under Cross-bred setters.

Re- G. R. Thompson Vs. The complainant wrote the Registration of certain English Settersby Dr. O.T. Schoff

O.T. Schoff intended registering certain English Setters and alleging that the breeding in question was false.
Also that he could produce corroborative evidence in support of his charge.

Your Secretary waited until the breeding in question was sent in for registration, when the complainant, upon application, refused to furnish any of the testimony he had offered to, and to render any assistance.

This Committee stated to him fully the necessity of his assistance and demanded same under penalty of action being taken against him, all of which he now entirely ignores.

Therefore it is recommended that said G. R. Thompson, of Vassar, Mich. Be suspended and his dog Gladstone Dash, 46,353, and his other dogs if any be disqualified pending his substantiation of the charge in question.

Respectfully submitted,

Hermann F. Schelass, Sec.,
For Stud Book Committee

Mr. Arnolt: I want to amend the report of the Stud Book Committee in this manner, that where there is no out-cross shown within the three generations required for registration, the dog shall be registered as a pure breed.

Said amendment seconded and adopted.

The Chairman: Now comes the question of the Stud Book Committee’s report as amended.

It was moved and seconded that said report be accepted and placed on file, and that the recommendations therein contained be adopted.

Carried.

Mr. Viti: I have a matter which I desire to bring up. The Executive Committee of the Spaniel Club have instructed me as its delegate to bring before this Club the question of winners’ classes in Cocker Spaniels. Recently Bench-Show Committee have refused the right to open winners’ classes for parti-colored Cocker Spaniels. Originally they were in the habit of opening them. It seems to the Spaniel Club that inasmuch as winners’ classes are allowed for each variety of St. Bernards, poodles and fox terriers, there should be winners’ classes for solid colored and parti-colored cockers. In St. Bernards the difference is in the coat. I think the standard is the same whether they are smooth coated or rough coated. I think the same thing applied to poodles and fox terriers. These are two distinct varieties, and heretofore we have had two winners’ classes, and this present volume of the stud book shows that a winners’ class was recognized for solid colors and for parties, and that since those classes were recognized there has been no change or amendment in the rules that would preclude their being opened in the future. This volume 15 shows two classes wherein they were recognized. I bring the matter before the Club because the Spaniel Club is anxious to have an expression of opinion from the delegates at large.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have made a distinction since the last annual meeting.
The annual meeting placed the classification under my supervision, and just taking the common sense view of it, it seemed to me that it was hardly right for us to permit champions that were simply designated by color, and consequently since the annual meeting, in the classifications that they have sent to me I have cut out the winners’ classes where they are simply divided by color, and insisted that a cocker spaniel was a cocker spaniel no matter what color it might be, and while the shows permitted the classification under our rules of opening classes for variety, or weight, color or sex, it had no intention of saying that because a cocker spaniel was black it should have a championship as a black cocker spaniel, or that another cocker spaniel, red and white, that it should have a championship because it was red and white, but that a cocker spaniel was a cocker no matter what color it was. Since this matter has been put in my hands it have cut out the winners’ classes by color, making all of the winners in several colors come together in one winners’ class and compete for the winner of cockers.

Mr. Carnochan: I have not heard the delegate from the Spaniel Club say anything about red. Does he propose to have a separate winners’ class in reds?

Mr. Viti: There is a well recognized variety of parti-colors. It is a question of color.

The Chairman: Wouldn’t it be well to refer this matter to a committee?

Mr. Mortimer: I don’t think there is any Bench Show Committee that would have any objection to making those classes, but it seems to me it is almost absurd to do so. A champion should be a champion no matter what the color is. By and by the word champion will, have no value if we are to have a champion black cocker spaniel and a champion red cocker spaniel. The difference between rough and smooth coated St. Bernard is distinct, as it is also in regard to poodles, and the same as with wire haired fox terriers and smooth.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The Spaniel Club is not alone in this matter. I struck out in every instance where they have made winners’ classes for heavy pointers and winners’ classes for light pointers upon the same idea that a pointer is a pointer whether he weighs over or under 50 pounds. Therefore I make them confine themselves to one winners’ class.

Mr. Carnochan: I move that the action of the Secretary in having only one winners’ class in cocker spaniels be sustained.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Viti: I move as an amendment that we have hereafter only winners’ classes in every breed.

Amendment seconded and lost.

The original motion was then withdrawn.

Mr. Hunnewell: I move that it be referred to the Rules Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Viti: Mr. Schellhass has sent in a matter that he desires brought before this meeting. He has asked me to call the Secretary’s attention to it.

The Secretary then read the article referred to, the same being an article published in the American Field under date of April 8th, entitled “Plain Speaking”.

Mr. Vredenburgh: We had a similar case at the Newark Dog Show. The American Kennel Club forced the Newark Club to prefer charges against this veterinary, and he was disqualified. I would like to state that in the case of Mr. Mortimer, a certain man made charges against him in the papers. The American Kennel Club sent me out to San Francisco to get that man to substantiate those charges. He declined to do it, and the American Kennel Club thought it was its duty to suspend that man until he produced the evidence.

Mr. Carnochan moved that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Mr. Hunnewell: I move that the Secretary be directed to inform Mr. Howard to prefer charge. The Chairman: It is suggested that he Secretary be instructed to call upon Mr. Howard to substantiate his article in the American Field of April 8th. What is your pleasure?

Motion seconded and carried.
The meeting then adjourned.
REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, HELD AT ITS OFFICES, NO. 55 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK CITY, THURSDAY, SEPT. 21ST, 1899.

In the absence of the President, Vice President and President of the Associate Members Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh was elected Chairman.

On motion the minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the May Gazette.

The report of the Membership Committee was read. It follows:

New York, Sept. 20th, 1899

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee, held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting upon applications for admission to membership, and upon credentials of delegates filed with the Secretary, your Committee respectfully reports as follows:

Applications for membership were filed by the Vermont Kennel Club of Rutland, Vermont, and the George State Agricultural Society of Atlanta, Ga. The
The gentlemen named in the foregoing report were duly elected as delegates to the Club to represent the Clubs specified.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I would like to state for your information that there was a special meeting of the Executive Board called for August 21st to elect the Vermont Kennel Club. Two of the members were present about an hour and a half before the time of the meeting, and two other signified their intention of voting for the admission of this Club. I was absent on my vacation, and Mr. Watson who had charge here, obtained the signatures of the two members who were present, and of the two members who were not present. That made four votes in the affirmative and no votes in the negative. There is no provision in our Constitution for electing a club in that way, but their Show was to take place before this meeting was to be held, and before we could hold another meeting of the Executive Board. On the strength of these signatures the American Kennel Club endorsed their classification so they could hold their Show under the American Kennel Club rules, and it is suggested that this meeting confirm the action of a majority of the Executive Board.

Mr. Waters: I move that the action of the Executive Board in the election of the Vermont Kennel Club be confirmed.

Seconded and carried.

The Georgia State Agricultural Society was elected to membership.

The Secretary then read his quarterly report, which follows:

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to report the reception of two application for admission to membership, credentials from one Club of a delegate to the American Kennel Club; applications for the registration of nine kennel names; and requests for the transfer of two kennel names, all of which have been referred to the proper Committees, which will report on same at this meeting.

Appeals have been filed by J.R. Thompson, Vassar, Mich., and J. Fred Rommell, Chicago, Ill., for reinstatement to good standing. Both parties were disqualified for refusing to given certain information to the Stud Book Committee and now explain the reasons for such refusals. I would respectfully recommend the favorable consideration of the appeals.

I beg to report for your information that the following case are now pending before the Executive Board:

T.A. Howard vs. George W. Clayton
A.H. Nelson vs. D.E. Rose
H.T. Cousins vs. G. H. Blackmar
A.K.C. vs. George S. Thomas
A.K.C. vs. G. N. Phelps

Fred P. Kirby, as agent for Walter D. Griscom, has filed the complaint to the effect that the National Greyhound Club has failed to pay him medals won by his dogs at the shows of the Westminster Kennel Club for the years 1898 and 1899. The rules hold the National Greyhound Club responsible for the former, and the Westminster Kennel Club responsible for the latter. I called personally on Mr. Whiton of the Greyhound Club, on the subject, and also notified him by letter. His promise to pay had not been fulfilled on the 12th inst., as per advise on that date from Kirby. A notice was also sent to Mr. Mortimer, Superintendent of the late Westminster Kennel Club Show, and in his reply he informed me that he had sent a demand to the Secretary of the Greyhound Club to pay the 1899 medal over to the winner. The rules provide that, “the officials of a show shall be held responsible for the payment of all prizes within sixty days of the last day of the show, in default of which said officials shall be suspended or disqualified for such times as the American Kennel Club shall determine.” (Rule V Governing Clubs).

The application of the Vermont Kennel Club was acted upon and the Club admitted by the signature of a majority of the Executive Board, it having been found to be inconvenient to hold a meeting of the Board at the time the application was filed. It was held that the classification could not be officially endorsed until some authority existed by which the show could be held under our rules, hence the above action. The application is in the regular form, and is endorsed by the Membership Committee, and I would recommend that this meeting would confirm the admission of the Club to membership.

The win of the field spaniel Saybrook Popcorn, in the limit class at the late St. Louis Show was cancelled by the A.K.C. as said dog was not eligible to compete in said class. The prize money was paid by the St. Louis Club, and upon the cancellation of the award, a demand was made for the return of the money by the St. Louis Club. It would appear by the entry form that the owner entered the dog in its proper class and stated on said entry form that “Frank Dole has charge, etc.” The agency was transferred by Dole to George S. Thomas without the owner’s knowledge or consent, and Thomas entered said dog in the limit class in which the dog was not eligible, and the winnings paid over to him. The case was submitted to me for adjustment, but I declined to act as an official of this Club, but gave my personal opinion to the St. Louis Club Secretary that as the owner of the dog had not authorized the transfer of the agency, nor of the illegal entry, nor had he received the prize money, he should look to the person to whom the money was paid for its return.

The Harvard College Library has solicited a donation of a complete set of the Stud Book, and in my reply informed the Library that I would present the request to the Club at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, to be taken up for action later.

The treasurer then read his report, which is as follows:

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1, 1899.

Respectfully submitted
A.P. Vredenburgh, Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary: The report of the Executive Board was published in the June Gazette. Will you have it read?

Dr. Foote: I move that it be accepted as published and placed on file.
Seconded and carried.

The report of the Pacific Advisory Committee was read as follows:
San Francisco, August 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 1899

A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,
Secretary A.K.C. New York

Dear Sir:

I beg to report herewith that the above Committee held a meeting on the 1\textsuperscript{st} inst., at 2026 Buch Street, San Francisco, J.E. de Ruyter in the Chair.

Present, de Ruyter, Carlton, Norman.

Resolved, that Dr. E. N. Lowry be nominated to A.K.C. for membership in this Committee, vice G.W.N. Grey, resigned. Carried.

Letters read from Dr. W.R. Cluness and Mr. C. A. Haight, resigning. Resolved that resignations be accepted.

In re protest of William N. McCarthy, appealing from decision of S.F.K.C., resolved that consideration of same be deferred until next meeting, and that Secretary be instructed to invite Mr. McCarthy’s attendance.

The foregoing is a complete synopsis of the minutes.

Yours truly,
J.P. Norman, Secretary

Mr. Vredenburgh: I would like to say that according to the Constitution there is no specified number for the Pacific Advisory Committee and the appointment of it is in the hands of the President of the Association, or in his absence, the Vice President. The Vice President appointed the original committee of seven, and the Committee recommends that its number be reduced to five. Three have resigned, and they nominated for our consideration Dr. Lowry, and as I know Dr. Lowry personally, it was at my solicitation that they worked very hard to get the Doctor to consent to act, because he is a representative man of San Francisco. He is not what you call a dog man, but he is a practicing physician and he will be a great acquisition. I don’t image that anything is necessary to be done with this report, other then to receive it, because it is within the province of the Vice President to carry out their wishes, unless you should designate the wishes of this meeting, which would be perfectly proper.

It was moved and seconded that the report of the Pacific Advisory Committee be accepted, placed on file, and that this meeting recommends to its President that the Committee be reduced to five and appointment of Dr. Lowry as a member of it.

Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The report of the Rules Committee, with your permission, I think had better be left over until new business, so that we can take up the proposed amendments.

Mr. Viti: On behalf the Stud Book Committee, I have just learned that Mr. Schellhass, the Secretary of the Committee in whose possession all the papers are, has suddenly been taken rather seriously ill, and therefore we have not the papers. He has to go home this morning from his office, so I am without the papers on which to make any report. There are some matters which ought to be brought up, but owing to his illness cannot be done, as I have not the papers.

The Chairman: Can you given an idea of what has been done verbally?

Mr. Viti: So much has been done and so many different cases acted upon that I don’t think I could recollect them all, and the facts and the disposition that was made in each case. I could tell you those which I recollect, but I do not see the value of an imperfect report.

The Chairman: The Chair would suggest for the convenience of this office that so much of the action of the Stud Book Committee as you have a written report of it might be well to present, leaving the balance of your work in abeyance until the next meeting, so that this office can act on that.

Mr. Viti: We passed upon the list of prefixes.

The Chairman: I have that here.
Mr. Viti: That is part of the report.

Another case before us was the protest of Mr. Blossom against the registration of a Gordon Setter pup, which was sired by his dog, Mr. Blossom claiming that the pup was his property in accordance with the terms of the breeding contract, which is in the papers, but I recollect the material parts of it. Mr. Reynolds brought a certain bitch to the dog and four pups were whelped, three bitches and one dog. According to the contract the parties were to toss for choice, but in any event Mr. Blossom was to receive a pip. About eight weeks after the whelping, but one pup was living. This was a dog pup. Mr. Blossom then called upon Mr. Reynolds to make his selection. Mr. Reynolds said there was only one pup and that he wanted it and Mr. Blossom could not have it. Mr. Reynolds further said then that after the written contract had been signed Mr. Blossom said if there was only one pup whelped Mr. Reynolds could have another service free of charge. Mr. Blossom denied this. This point the committee considered immaterial as four pups were whelped. It could only apply, if it were made in the event of their being one pup whelped. Mr. Reynolds admitted in July, and was willing to adhere to it, but for the fact that he thought it was an unfair arrangement that he had made with Mr. Blossom. The Committee held a meeting on the 20th of September at which Mr. Blossom and Mr. Reynolds were present, and Mr. Reynolds then stated that he would not be bound by the contract and requested the committee to consider a series of transactions which go back, I think, three years or so, and which finally led up to the execution of the written contract which was in full settlement of all their difficulties. The Committee refused to consider these prior transactions because the contract was worded that it was in full settlement of all disputes between the parties, and that the only material part of it was the question of the ownership of the pups under the agreement. The agreement was signed in December, 1897, and in the following July Mr. Reynolds wrote to Mr. Blossom saying that if he adhered to the terms of that contract Mr. Blossom would get the dog pup, and he wished to make some arrangement whereby he, Reynolds, could keep the pup. Mr. Blossom refused to agree to that proposition, and when Mr. Blossom called to make his choice, which the Committee think was within a reasonable time -- it was about eight or nine weeks after the whelping --- there was but one pup living. In accordance with the terms of the contract Mr. Blossom was to have a pup in any event. The Committee did not consider that the question of the merits or the disadvantages of the contract with the agreement after the service was had, Mr. Blossom was entitled to the pup in question, and his protest should be sustained.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I would state that this case arose in this way: Mr. Blossom filed a protest against registering such a breed in Gordon Setters, and later on Mr. Reynolds presented his application for registration of that dog, and paid me the money. I have held this in abeyance until the Stud Book Committee could act upon it, and could have action at this meeting. You say that your Committee acted favorably upon all applications for Kennel names?

Mr. Viti: Yes, all applications for prefixes and Kennel names were acted upon favorably. Another question acted on was one submitted by the Secretary of the A.K.C. in regard to a ruling which was made at the last meeting of this Club. At that time a case was pending before the Club where in the fourth generation there was an out-cross of a different breed of setter. I think it was an English setter, and in the fourth generation there was an Irish introduced. The A.K.C. made a ruling saying where no out-cross appeared in the generation required by the entry blank that dog was to be registered as a pure breed. The dog in question they asked to have registered as an English setter. His sire is registered as a cross-bred setter. As long as the dam is registered as a cross-bred setter, and the dam of that bitch is registered as a cross-bred setter, the actual cross does not appear in pedigree. The question is, how is the ambiguous ruling to be construed, whether it means that the actual outcross has to be shown, or whether the result of that cross may appear in the application blank. The Committee were of the opinion that where the blood of a different breed appeared in the pedigree of a dog, that dog should not be entitled to registration as a pure bred dog, and we offered a resolution to that effect and also that all rulings inconsistent with that be annulled and repealed, but where we know that there is some other breed in the pedigree, that dog shall not be registered.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I will read the Kennel names which were granted:

Endcliffe, George S. Thomas
Falmouth, H.R. Duval
Hastings, A.D. Cochran
Hazelhurst, J.H. Santee
International, now vested in the name of Charles N. Daly, as owner.
Montebello, T.D.M. Cardeza
Niola, E.H. Ingwersen
North Fork, R.T. Judd
Prospect Park, H.C. Winther
Rock Ridge, W.G. Rockefeller
Tamanend, E.B. Douglass
Westchester, now vested in the name of J.A. Montgomery, as owner

The Kennel name “Westchester” was owned by Mr. F.M. McWilliams and James A. Montgomery, Mr. McWilliams asked to have the name transferred to Mr. Montgomery, the remaining partner, and says he has sold all his right, title and interest in it to him, and he wishes to authorize it.

Mr. Waters: I move that the report be accepted, place on file and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

Mr. Watson: I would like to say something before the recommendations are approved. I think those two transfers mentioned are on an entirely separate basis and ought to be considered separately. The Daly and Curzon transfer, that I understand was given to them originally, and Mr. Daly, having paid his pro rata share, carried on the business. The transfer from McWilliams to Montgomery is entirely different. McWilliams first of all claims that name “Westchester”. He then took into partnership Mr. Montgomery, and the Club accepted Mr. Montgomery as a partner, and gave those two a right to the name. Now Mr. McWilliams retires, and Mr. Montgomery, who never paid anything, and did not make the original claim, now gets the title. Isn’t that equal to Mr. McWilliams transferring the name to Mr. Montgomery?

(At this point Mr. H.H. Hunnewell, Jr. arrived and took the Chair).

Mr. Waters: Is there any objection to making such transfer of a Kennel name?

Mr. Watson: I think so. I think you will find that at the last meeting it was declared that a person has a life interest in such a name. I have already said that was special legislation and likely to cut both ways.

Capt. Knocker: Wouldn’t it be better not to make a precedent of it, but let him make an application for the prefix in the ordinary course. Let him go through the ordinary course and pay his fee and have it registered in his name. It is not, as Mr.
Watson says, like the other case, where one of the partners died, and then the name continued in the possession of the other partner.

Major Taylor: It is only a question of making the man come here and make an application and pay for it. He is certainly a part owner of it.

Mr. Water’s motion, that the report be accepted and placed on file, and the recommendations of the Committee concurred in was then carried.

Concerning the appeal filed by Mr. J. Fred Rommel, after the correspondence in the matter was read and discussed, Major Taylor moved that his disqualification be removed.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have now to report the case of a man by the name of Thompson, of Michigan, who sent a protest here against the registration of any English setter that might come to us from a man by the name of Dr. Shoop, and said that the English setter was simply a mongrel, and he proposed giving a good pedigree for the dog. Later on an application came from this Dr. Shoop. I looked it over and so far as the pedigree was concerning it fitted exactly with our records. I registered the dog and notified Mr. Thompson that I had done so, and now if he had his proofs that he had, to forward them and we would put them through the proper channel. The Stud Book Committee tried repeatedly to get those proofs, and the man seemed to think that all that was necessary for the Stud Book Committee to do was to take his word, and he would not furnish the proof, and the Stud Book Committee recommended that he be disqualified until such time as he furnished the proof. Them Thompson wrote to the Committee and told them he had been somewhat previous; that he had offered to present the proofs and he could not get the proofs; that he had acted in good faith; that these people had told him these things, and when he went to ask them for affidavits, they would not give them to him, and he acknowledged his mistake and wanted to be re-instated. The Committee sent him word that it had no authority, that he must appeal to the Club. He now appeals to the Club.

Major Taylor: I want to say in regard to Dr. Shoop that I consider him as honorable a man as there is in the country. In attacking Dr. Shoop, Mr. Thompson has attacked the wrong man.

Dr. Foote: I move that Mr. Thompson be re-instated.
Seconded and carried.

In regard to the complaint filed by Mr. Fred P. Kirby, as agent for Mr. Walter B. Griscom, Mr. Vredenburgh said: I called on Mr. Whiton of the National Greyhound Club, and made a demand on him. He said he would attend to it. I wrote him on the 16th of June, to which he paid no attention. The medal for 1899, the Westminster Kennel Club is responsible for under the rules. I wrote to Mr. Mortimer on June 16th. Mr. Mortimer replied that he had written the Secretary requesting him to send the medal to Mr. Griscom or to me. Under the rules the payment of all prizes must be made within sixty days, or the officials who are responsible for these prizes, can be suspended or disqualified in the discretion of the Club. I received word from Mr. Kirby on the 12th of this month that the medals were never paid.

Major Taylor: I move that Mr. Whiton be given a fixed time in which to pay over the medals before any definite action is taken.

Mr. Mortimer: I wrote to Mr. Whiton. You are aware that there was a resolution passed here some time ago whereby the Club of Show Committee accepting specials is made responsible for them. I wrote to Mr. Whiton asking him to send on the medals either to me or to Mr. Griscom, or to the Club here. I have received no reply. The question is what is that medal worth? How is the Westminster Kennel Club going to make it good? What are we to do in a case of that kind? It is rather a peculiar question. If we are responsible for that medal we will have to have a die cut and a medal made.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Well, the die is on the other side.

Mr. Mortimer: The Westminster Kennel Club would be very glad to settle this matter if it knew how to settle it. I might state that the Westminster Kennel Club had no idea that the medals offered formerly before that resolution was passed by the A.K.C. had not been paid over, or it would not have accepted its last offer. The Westminster Kennel Club is perfectly willing to make good the monetary value of the medal, if that can be decided upon.

Mr. Waters: Is the National Greyhound Club in good standing now?

Mr. Vredenburgh: No, it has been dropped for non-payment of dues.

Capt. Knocker: The Westminster Kennel Club ought to have been notified that they had not paid the medals for the previous year, then they would not have given them credit this year.
It was moved and seconded that the officers of the National Greyhound Club be suspended until the medals are paid.

Carried.

In the matter of the win of the field spaniel Saybrooke-Popcorn, in the limit class at the St. Louis show, cancelled by the American Kennel Club, referred to by the Secretary in his report, Capt. Knocker moved that no agent shall have the power to transfer an agency without the written authority of the owner of the dog.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Now to whom shall the St. Louis Club look for the return of the $7.00?

Mr. Mastick: I move that the $7.00 shall be returned by Mr. Thomas.

Seconded and carried.

On motion the request of the Harvard College Library for a complete set of the Stud Book was granted.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Next in order are the proposed amendments to the rules, which are contained in the report of the Committee on Constitution and Rules, which has been published on the Gazette.

After a very full discussion in which most of the delegates took part, the proposed amendments as recommended by the Rules Committee were thoroughly gone into and thrashed out, and resulted in the adoption by a two-thirds vote of practically all of the recommendations made by said Committee, subject however to the adoption of amendments to the amendments suggested. The following are the amended rules as finally decided upon.

Rule II: Every dog shown under these rules must either be registered or listed with the American Kennel Club previous to being exhibited.

Rule V. Striking out the words “together with a list of all prizes won by the dog” and adding a new paragraph “The name of a registered dog cannot be changed after having been published in the Stud Book.”

CLASSES.

1. The puppy class shall be for all dogs over six months and under twelve months of age, and no entry can be made of one under six months or whose date of birth, breeder, sire and dam are unknown.
3. The Limit Class shall be for all dogs never having won four first prizes in said class at any recognized show, but no dog having acquired the title of champion shall be eligible to this class.

5. The Winners Class shall be open only to the winners of first prizes at any show giving at least three of the before mentioned classes, one of which must be the open class, and the winner of ten points in this class will thereby become a champion of record, be so registered by the American Kennel Club upon application, and if registered in the Stud Book will be entitled to an American Kennel Club champion medal. Before awarding “reserve” in this class, the dog or dogs having been placed second to the winner on any of the regular classes, must be brought before the judge for competition with the remaining dogs in said winners class. No class winner can be withdrawn, or with held from competition in the winners class, and no entry fee shall be charged for said competition in this class. A dog that prior to December 31st, 1899. has won once in the winners class shall qualify as a champion by two additional wins, and a dog that has won twice qualified with one win in any winners class. The winners class can be divided by sex, provided the required three classes announced in the premium list are also divided by sex.

Cancellations for violations of rules.

When a puppy is entered, being under six months of age, or his date of birth, breeder, sire and dam unknown. When a dog is entered in the Limit Class, having previously won four or more first prizes in said class.

When a dog has been improperly transferred by the show officials.

RULES GOVERNING CLUBS

IX. No entry shall be accepted of any puppy under six months of age, or marked “date of birth, breeder, sire and dam unknown”, either for competition or exhibition.

X. Striking out the first paragraph.

XI. Striking out the words, “together with a copy of the dog show rules and such other regulations as were announced in the premium list.”

PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS

For accepting entries for puppy classes under six months of age, or marked “date of birth, breeder, sire and dam unknown,” $5.00
For failure to file with the American Kennel Club a marked catalogue certified to by the Secretary or Superintendent, making a return of all listings and fees for same within seven days after the closing of the show $1.00.

XVII. Adding the words “governing clubs holding shows.”

BY-LAWS

Section 4. Striking out the words “Executive Committee” and substituting the word “Association”.

ADOPTION OF NEW RULES

Puppies may be permanently removed from a show at any time after their classes have been judged, whatever those classes may be, provided, however, that puppies may be so removed only after the close of a show in any evening.

A dog which has won a championship at a show under English Kennel club rules cannot be exhibited in the novice class.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS

The following scale of points was adopted to regulate the values of winners’ classes at A.K.C. shows; all shows to be rated upon the actual number of dogs entered not including local classes: 1250 dogs or over, 5 points; 750 dogs and under 1250, 4 points; 500 dogs and under 750, 3 points; 250 and under 500, 2 points; under 250 dogs, 1 point.

On the Pacific Coast.

400 dogs or over, 5 points; 250 dogs and under 400, 3 points; under 250 dogs, 1 point.

Specialty clubs holding shows confined to their own breed, 4 points.

Specialty clubs holding shows not confined to their own breed will be rated as regular shows.

New clubs holding inaugural shows, having no previous records, shall be rated 1 point as a minimum.

The Secretary shall publish in the Gazette for December of each year the ratings of shows for the following year.

The Secretary then read the following from the report of the Committee on Rules: “Your Committee begs to report that the amendment in Section 3, governing dog shows, Rule XII, adopted at the annual meeting held February 22, 1899, ‘It shall be the duty of dog show committees to bench all dogs of a breed together, when owned and entered by one exhibitors provided a request for same be made in the entry form, was acted upon in violation of Section 4, By-Laws, relating to amendments, is therefore illegal and cannot be enforced. Said Section 4, specifically provides that Section 3 cannot be altered or amended until after notice of such alteration or amendment has been published. The amendment above referred to was made to Section 3 without any published notice prior to the adoption of the same. In order to rectify the omission your Committee now moved the adoption of the amendment as above set forth.”

This was the subject of a long and animated discussion. Messrs. Waters and Knocker advocated the passage of the clause, setting forth all the reasons which were stated at the last annual meeting in support of the same, while Messrs, Mortimer, Watson and Foote opposed its adoption.

Mr. Watson called for the ayes and nays on the motion to adopt.
Mr. Waters moved that said clause be stricken out.

The Chairman: Your motion is not a proper one. Under the Constitution it requires a two-thirds vote, and to put your motion will not bring out the fact whether there is a two-thirds vote or not.

Capt. Knocker: I move it be laid over until the next annual meeting.

Mr. Waters: I move that this special mater be laid on the table until the annual meeting.

Mr. Watson: I move that this special matter be laid on the table until the annual meeting.

Mr. Watson: I move the previous question and call for the ayes and nays on the original motion. This motion must prevail.

The Chairman: The original motion is before the house. It is moved and seconded that this clause be adopted.

The vote on the motion resulted as follows:
Ayes, 4; Nays, 5.

The Chairman: The motion is lost.

Mr. Vredenburgh then read the following from the report of the Committee on Rules:

“The question relating to winners’ classes in Cocker Spaniels (any other variety) referred to this Committee at the last quarterly meeting of the Club is in its opinion not within its jurisdiction, and respectfully refers the matter back to the Association for its action.”

Mr. Viti: I have communicated to the Club which I represent the action of the Rules Committee, and they have asked me to renew my protest which I originally made before this body. Feeling that we are entitled to the same consideration as any other breed, we think your rule should be uniform and consistent, and that we should be entitled to the same privileges by virtue of our membership in the American Kennel Club, as it is in their Specialty Club, and the spaniel should be treated the same as any other breed. We therefore think that the request made by the Spaniel Club that we shall have variety and solid color classes for winners be allowed.

Mr. Mortimer: In this matter of having a winners’ class for Cocker Spaniels other than black I have heretofore voted against it, I have since reconsidered the matter, and I have come to the conclusion that it is just as reasonable for the America Spaniel Club to ask for a winners’ class for Cocker Spaniels, other than black, as it is to make a distinction between wire haired fox terriers and smooth haired fox terriers, or between rough and smooth coated St. Bernards. The difficulty in breeding a parti-colored, or any other color than black, seems to be almost as great as anything else, and we all know that the blacks have always had the advantage. They are the older variety, and it is very difficult to breed to color, and I think that the request of the American Spaniel Club should be granted. I see in England they have a heavy weight pointer championship and a light weight pointer championship; also a heavy weight bull-dog and a light weight bull-dog championship. They have various other champions for practically the same breed, but a different strain. For instance you take the smooth coated collies and the rough coated collies, and they are exactly the same except as to coat, and there is no reason why there should not be a winners’ class for Cocker Spaniels other than black.

Dr. Foote: I see no reason why they should not have their division as well as the rest of us in different breeds. All those things are purely imaginary, that ought not to exist, but so long as they have all those divisions you might as well go ahead with them.

Mr. Mortimer: It seems to me that this would add to the interest in dogs. I don’t know that there can be any objection to it, except it might entail a little more expense on the American Kennel Club. I move that there be a winners’ class for Cocker Spaniels other than black, to take effect after January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1900.

Motion seconded and carried.

Dr. Foote: I move that the matter of bench show committee offering money to exhibitors to induce them to show their dogs, which has come to our attention, be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Motion seconded and carried.

Dr. Foote: I move that a dog acquiring the title of champion shall be entered with that title on the entry, and that is shall so appear in the catalogue. It is really part of the dogs name after it becomes a champion. I find that in making entries and putting your title before your dog, the dog does not appear with that title in the catalogue.

On motion the matter was referred to the Committee on Rules.

Dr. Motchenbacher: I moved that there be two winners’ classes for Dachshunde, one for black and tans and another for any other color.

Motion seconded and carried.

Dr. Foote: I move that all this matter of division of winners’ classes in breeds be referred to a Committee of three to be appointed by the Chair.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Watson: I move that separate winners’ classes be given for black, and tan collies, and for collies of any other color.

On motion in was declared that the rules amended at this meeting shall go into effect on January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1900.

The meeting then adjourned.
REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, December 21st, 1899

To The American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that I have presented to the Stud Book Committee eight applications for kennel names and one request for change of ownership, all of which will be reported upon by said Committee. I have also handed to the Membership Committee credentials present by three clubs, which will also be reposted upon at this meeting. A report from the Pacific Advisory Committee has been received, and will be duly submitted. I have to report the reception of resignation from the Wilmington Kennel Club. This club is in good standing, and I recommend the acceptance of said resignation.

I have receive notice from the American Pet Dog Club that for good and sufficient reasons it has suspended William Routley, of Providence, R.I. I promptly notified said Routley of his suspension and gave him the opportunity to appeal. I now direct your attention to Rule XIV Governing Club to the effect that the Executive Board must at its first meeting either remove the suspension or impose a penalty of disqualification for such a period as it may decide upon.

I have an appeal from James Gerard, against the cancellation of all wins to the Toy Black & Tan bitch “Fannie”, No. 51614, extending over a period of one year at eight different shows. The present owner recently discovered that said bitch was stolen one, and that in entering her at different shows her date of birth was wrongly given, and is now found to be between one and two years older then was given. Rule IV says, “The date of birth must be given in an entry, if known.” And Rule VI says, “If a dog is entered without being identified as directed in Rule IV, it shall be disqualified and forfeit any prizes awarded to it”. The Rule is very plain, and I have no discretion and hence the appeal.

I beg to submit a request from Mr. Carnochan for the privilege of two medals for the same dog, one of which has been won, and the other to be obtained by purchase. The dog has been sold, and the previous and present owners both desire to have medals. I informed Mr. Carnochan that I had no authority to issue two medals to any one dog, and the request is therefore made for your decision, which will establish a precedent.

I beg to request a ruling regarding entries to be made in the limit class as it will take effect on January 1, 1900. The present rule forces all dogs out of said limit class after having won three firsts at any recognized show, excepting wins in the puppy and novice classes. The rule now coming into force permits a dog to be shown in the limit class until it has won three firsts in that class, regardless of any other wins, except a championship. The ruling desired is, can a dog after January 1, 1900, continue in the limit class until it wins itself out, notwithstanding the fact that it may have won its way out before the new rule takes effect.

Gentlemen, it devolves upon me to officially inform you of the loss of one of our most valued members by death; a member beloved and respected by all; and enthusiastic, conscientious, hard working, loyal delegate and committeeman of many years; a man whose place cannot easily be filled. I refer to our friend Hermann
F. Schellhass. I would recommend that the vacancies in the Executive Board, Chairmanship of the Field Trial Committee, and member of the Stud Book & Rules Committees, occasioned by his death, be not filled until the annual meeting, as a mark of respect to his memory, and that suitable resolutions be adopted and spread upon the minutes of this association.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Vredenburgh then read the report of the Membership Committee, as follows:

New York, December 20, 1899

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting upon applications for admission to membership, and upon credentials of delegates filed with the secretary, your Committee would respectfully report:

That there have been no applications for admission filed since the last meeting.

That the credentials of Mr. James Barrett, Augusta, Ga., filed by the Georgia State Agricultural Society; Mr. D. F. Summers, Dowington, Pa., filed by the Central Beagle Club; and Mr. Charles W. Rodman, Jr., New York City, filed by the Dog Owners Protective Association of Cincinnati, are found to be in accordance with the constitution, and they are hereby duly approved and their acceptance recommended.
Signed,

H.T. Foote,
Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and the delegates named therein to represent the clubs mentioned were duly elected.

Mr. Vredenburgh read the Treasurer’s Report, as follows:

New York, December 20, 1899

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1899.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The Executive Committee report was published in the Gazette.

The Chairman: Do you wish the reading of the Executive Committee’s Report? If not, we will dispense with it?

The Report of the Pacific Advisory Committee was then read as follows:

San Francisco, October 3, 1899

A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,

Secy. Am. Kennel Club

New York

Dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that this Committee met on the 2\textsuperscript{nd} inst for the consideration of the McCarthy protest and other business. The rules were suspended and the protest first taken up. The rules were suspended and the protest first taken up. It appearing from a supplement to the protest originally filed with the S.F.K.C. that Mr. McCarthy alleged, as new evidence, that Sam’s Bow Obtained the special by reason of his having been removed from the bench exercised during forbidden hours, in contravention of the additional rules of the S.F.K.C., as published in their catalogue; it was ordered that the protest be remanded to the S.F.K.C. to determine the new allegation and such evident as may be brought to support it. Mr. McCarthy was present at the meeting, and was directed to advise the S.F.K.C. when he had obtained his evidence.

The Committee then went into the executive session. The Secretary was instructed to write to Merton C. Allen with a view to obtaining an explanation of the latter’s absence from the meetings.

Yours very truly,

J.P. Norman
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:

New York, December 20, 1899

The following applications for kennel names have been filed, and the granting of the same is hereby recommended.

Abbotsford, to Edward A. Burdett, Radnor, Pa.
Bancroft, to Charles E. Detweiler, Toledo, Ohio
Belvidere, to Edwin A. Hardin, Atlanta, Ga
Donnybrook, to R.D. Burnham, Champaign, Ill
Echo, to W.B. Hearn, Pine Bluff, Ark.
Indian Hill, to E.O. Hurd, Plainville, Ohio
Marlborough, to Alfred G. Clark, Cleveland, Ohio
Powhatan, to H.G. Hemebright, San Francisco, Cal.

The application of Mr. Thomas J. Woodward, Jr., to vest the Bellefield Kennels in the firm name of Woodward & Born, is approved.

C.B. Knocker
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

On motion the resignation of the Wilmington Kennel Club was accepted.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have a communication from Mr. G.M. Carnochan requesting the privilege of two medals for the same dog. His application to me I refused on the ground that I had no right to issue two champion medals to the same dog. On the strength of that refusal he has sent this request to the club. Whatever you do now will be regarded as a precedent for future action.

The Chairman: I think it would be a very bad precedent to establish, allowing a dog to have two prizes for the same win.

Capt. Knocker: Would it be possible to have one and let him pay for it and have it marked duplicate?

The Chairman: I think that is a matter of arrangement between the buyer and the seller. If he chooses to make any such request as that of Mr. Carnochan, that is a matter of arrangement between themselves. That is like having a horse win a plate, then some one buys the horse and wants the plate to go with him. In this case the dog is credited with a win, but as to the trophy, they can settle that between themselves. I think we had better refuse Mr. Carnochan’s request, as it might lead to complications in the future. What is your pleasure in regard to this request?

Mr. Rodman: I move it be denied.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read a communication from Mr. S.C. Hodge, Superintendent of the Rhode Island Kennel Club Show, advising the American Kennel Club of the suspension of Mr. William Routley, and also the correspondence in reference to the matter, and said: I would state that I at once wrote Mr. Routley giving him the opportunity to appeal, and telling him what the result of suspension was, and I received his appeal in this morning’s mail. I have not read it yet, but it is a long letter. This letter was shown to Mr. Codman who was judging the class. Mr. Codman refused to judge the class, and finally Routley’s dogs were withdrawn, and then Mr. Codman judged the classes. While it is not here in this letter, yet Mrs. Gerard came direct to this office and told me that when this man Routley passed her she stopped her and told her that he would get event with her if he lived long enough, and The American Pet Dog club considered that his threat was of such a character that when ever Mrs. Gerard left her cages they stationed a man there to watch them.

The Chairman: You say he has been suspended by the American Pet Dog Club?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes, and thereby suspended by the American Kennel Club. This appeal has got to be heard at the very first meeting of the Executive Board, and the suspension either removed or change to disqualification.

Mr. Rodman: I move it be referred to the Executive Board.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Mrs. Gerard purchased a toy black and tan terrier, “Fannie”, registered her and sent her around to the different shows, eight in all, Dallas, Texas, Toledo, Milwaukee, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, second Dallas, Texas and the New York Pet Dog Show, winning all of them. The bitch was in charge of T.A. Howard, and he received the winnings for his taking charge of her. At the Pet Dog Show the dog was claimed by a lady living in New York as her property; the dog has been stolen, or had strayed from her one or two years ago. She recognized the dog, the dog apparently recognized her, and she substantiated her claim to the satisfaction of Mrs. Gerard, the owner. Mrs. Gerard had purchased the dog from Mr. Senn. Mr. Senn was brought up, and he was convinced that the dog belonged to this claimant, and they came to a mutually satisfactory agreement, the three, Mr. Senn paying over some money, Mrs. Gerard turning the dog over to this claimant, putting the dog in her charge, but still retaining the ownership of the dog for the kennels, which was agreeable all around; but she discovered that the dog was between one and two years older than had been stated to her, and consequently the dog was shown at these different shows with a wrong date of birth. Mrs. Gerard came directly to this office and reported the circumstances to me, and I told her that I would have to cancel all the previous wins of the dog. I had no discretion; the rule says so. I told her that is was a hardship, that she was an innocent person, and instead of trying to hide it had come directly here and laid the case before us, and I would be very glad to submit any appeal she might make from my decision to this club. She has made the appeal with the letter that she originally got one year ago from Mr. Senn. It rests with you what should be done in the matter.
Maj. Taylor: Mrs. Gerard told me, in speaking of the matter, that Mr. Senn held her absolutely blameless in the matter, which, no doubt she has been. If the dog is disqualified she would have to refund all these wins, and she, being blameless, it seems to me it would be a great hardship on her. It looks as if she ought to have relief in some way.

Dr. Foote: It is also a matter of entry fees. She has paid all the entry fees.

Mr. Rodman: It is conceded, is it not, that if that dog was entered, date of birth and breeder unknown, or date of birth unknown, the win would have stood?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes.

The Chairman: But it was not so entered.

Mr. Rodman: Is she responsible for that?

The Chairman: I should think she was.

Mr. Rodman: You cannot expect impossibilities of her. Suppose a man had misinformed her, isn’t he the guilty party and not she. It is conceded it is not a requisite. If she had not given the date of birth the win would have still stood. She gave as much information as she possessed, and to the best of her ability she not that information. She could have said date unknown. She gave whatever information she had received, and she had a right to rely upon that man’s statement to her. Is it a material error?

The Chairman: It is just as much a material error as giving a false sire and dam.

Mr. Rodman: If done unintentionally?

The Chairman: According to your line of argument an entry form is unnecessary.

Mr. Rodman: No, my argument is that the Kennel Club does not require those things as absolutely essential. You concede that the date of birth, breeder and pedigree might have been put unknown, and yet the win would have been good. I say so far as three-fourths of those were correct, one-fourth being absent, or being erroneous, yet that erroneous portion being furnished to her, the only information which she had, the only evidence she had as to that dog’s age, which she put down as it was given to her, under those circumstances is she guilty of an omission which is vital?
The Chairman: The purpose is to identify the particular dog. If this dog never had any other date of birth, or any other pedigree, or any other breeder, that dog is identified. If we punish her for this, we punish the innocent party, and the person who gave her that information, is not punished at all. If she had given this dog's date of birth unknown we could have punished her because she had the date of birth given her, and she was entitled to use that date of birth until it was proven to have been wrong, and then we would have instructed her to give the proper date of birth. It is one of those cases cropping up every now and then where we would be very apt to do something which would be a hardship. Mr. Vredenburgh knows cases of several dogs that have been disqualified for some such reason as this, and the person who misinforms the innocent party is not punished at all.

Mr. Rodman: Isn't the sole object of the rule the identification of the dog? In so far as Mrs. Gerard could honestly identify that dog she has done so, and if there is any error in the identification of that dog she cannot be held responsible because she gave what was given to her. The party who sold the dog to Mr. Senn is the guilty one, and he should be punished.

The Chairman: It does not appear where Mr. Senn got his information.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Mr. Senn got his information from the man from whom he bought the dog. He said when he sold the dog to Mrs. Gerard that he did not have the dog's date of birth or breeder, but he would endeavor to get those particulars from the man from whom he obtained the dog. After a time he saw this man, and this man gave him the pedigree, breeder and date of birth. Mr. Senn then sent that to Mrs. Gerard, and Mrs. Gerard registered the dog on that information and showed the dog accordingly.

Capt. Knocker: Is the pedigree correct?

Mr. Vredenburgh: That we do not know.

Capt. Knocker: It seems to me it would be an act of injustice towards Mrs. Gerard to cancel her wins. The only party that should be made to suffer is the man who sold the dog to Mr. Senn. I think it is an injustice because it does not really affect the win, the dog having been judged on its merits. It seems to me that the rule was made to prevent willful misstatement in regard to a dog, and in this case there was no willful misstatement. It was an error that might happen to any one of us, and it seems to me that the wins ought to stand.
Mr. Vredenburgh: I would like to state that there is no question of punishing Mrs. Gerard for giving a false date of birth. The only question is whether the record, the dog having won, shall stand, or whether the rules, which are mandatory, shall be enforced. So far as I am concerned I have no discretion whatever with any rule. I carry out these rules as they are printed. If the Kennel Club can find any way by which it can help Mrs. Gerard and direct me not to cancel the wins, that is the question at issue.

Mr. Rodman: It seems to me that in view of the fact that those rules allow us to state that the date of birth is unknown, that the pedigree is unknown, that the breeder is unknown, that there is a leeway, and my contention is that there has been a substantial compliance with the rules of the American Kennel Club. I think, if we find cause where circumstances arise which are similar to these, in justness to all it is a good precedent. I think that here is a case that calls upon us as men to right a wrong. We have the facts before us, and I think in this case justice should be done.

Maj. Taylor: I move that he wins of that dog be allowed.
Capt. Knocker: Are those wins to go in the stud book if this motion prevails?
The Chairman: I understand that is the intention.
Mr. Viti: Well, I do not know where it will end.
Maj. Taylor: I believe under all the circumstances all those wins should be allowed.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I do not see how this club can possibly permit those wins to remain on the record. The only way that I can see is for the American Kennel Club, in its wisdome, to evolve some plan by which she may be exempted or relieved from returning the money that she won on account of this error, and also that the dogs winning second to this dog should not be moved up. If it is possible to do that, that is the only way I can see out of it. I don not see how it is possible for you to make a record of these wins.

Dr. Foote: Do not the rules say that if the dog is disqualified the second dog should be moved up?
Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes
Capt. Knocker: I cannot see why it is necessary for a dog to be of a certain age or to have a certain pedigree to win. The Kennel Club has made that rule to disqualify if a wrong are or wrong pedigree is given, to prevent willful misinformation being given to mislead the Kennel Club and the public. This dog was not judged on his pedigree, and it seems to me that there ought to be a way out of this so as to allow those wins to stand, for I fancy Mrs. Gerard cares more for her wins than for the money. That ought not to affect the dog’s standing at all, his age or pedigree, or anything like that; it ought to be allowed to stand when it was not done wilfully, and that is what is meant by this rule.

The Chairman: It affects the dog and the public in this way: Here is a dog of a certain pedigree as stated on the blank, and a certain age. That dog has won a certain number of prizes. A breeder, looking for a certain dog, buys him, and subsequently discovers that there is an error in that pedigree, and he does not then want that dog.

Capt. Knocker: I think the pedigree and age ought to be cancelled, and the reasons give. If it is possible to avoid it we ought not to cancel the wins, because they had nothing to do with the pedigree or nothing to do with the age. It was simply a misstatement made by mistake, by malinformation, and then we should get after this man who gave this wrong information and punish him.

The Chairman: But we do not want to deceive the public.

Capt. Knocker: I do not see any deception. The dog has won on its merits as a dog. It cuts no figure as to its pedigree or age, but it does cut a figure to have a false age and false pedigree in the stud book. Cancel those, but at the same time I think the wins ought to stand if possible.

Mr. Viti: Take the case of a puppy, where it is shown of a wrong age, and it wins the first prize, then if you let these wins stand you must let that dog’s wins as a puppy stand when he might be a dog two years old.

Capt. Knocker: That is a different case. In such a case the dog would be affected by age. In every other class it is not. A puppy is shown as a puppy of a certain age, and if he is shown over that age that fact itself cancels the win. In this case these wins were all made, as far as I know, by a dog which was already aged; that is, he was not a puppy. His age and pedigree cut no figure in it.

Mr. Rodman: It is a very difficult thing for us to know, when we buy a dog, what the age of that pup is, or what that dog’s age is. We have got to rely, in all our business transactions, upon the statement of the breeder. Suppose a man buys a dog and shows that dog extensively, and that dog is registered in the stud book at such and such an age, and it turns up six or seven years afterwards that that dog was not of such an age; isn't that working a very great hardship? Is it not better to say that there has been a substantial compliance with that rule? I understand that the pedigree of this dog is not in question. The simple point is the date of that dog's birth. The rule admits on its face that we can eliminate all three of them. It seems to me that in the future the best way to do is to say, date of birth unknown, then the Club could find no fault, because he could say, I don't known what the dog's age is. Then I think a substantial compliance with that rule will have been made.

The Chairman: We have pretty definite rules here which we have followed for a good many years, and I think it is much safer to stick by our rules even though it might work a hardship in one or two instances then to be constantly changing them. If I was the lady in question I would throw myself upon the mercy of the various clubs where she has won prizes and seek relief there, and not ask us to be constantly making changes in our rules in relation to dog shows.

Maj. Taylor: I believe I have a motion before the house, and that is that these wins be allowed, and I will add to that further that Mrs. Gerard be required to re-register the dog.

Motion seconded and carried.

Capt. Knocker: Is it too late to make an amendment? I think there ought to be an amendment, to add to that the reasons underlying this action.

Maj. Taylor: I am perfectly willing to accept that.

The Chairman: Do you wish to reconsider your vote and add an amendment?

Mr. Vredenburgh: I should think that a resolution now should be passed that the reason the Kennel Club voted in this case as it did is as follows: The above action was taken upon the ground that during the ownership of this dog by Mrs. Gerard up to and during the American Pet dog Show of 1899, she had given the date of birth as all Shows in which she had entered the dog according to the information furnished her by the person from whom she purchased the dog, and believed the same to be correct until the original owner informed her at said Pet Dog Show, or her error, and in view of that fact, that Mrs. Gerard immediately reported the above circumstances to the American Kennel Club, thereby showing that she had no desire whatever to misrepresent the age of the dog, the American Kennel Club decided as it did.
Capt. Knocker: I make a motion to that effect, that the Secretary give the reasons for passing the vote that was passed allowing the wins to stand.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I think we ought to go a little further in this case. If the date of birth was wrongly given there is no guaranty that the pedigree is correct. I think this case ought to be referred to the Stud Book Committee for it to investigate and report whether that registration should be cancelled or whether it should stand.

Mr. Rodman: I will make a motion to that effect as stated by Mr. Vredenburgh.

Mr. Viti: I understand that our Committee is not to consider the date of birth?

The Chairman: Yes, everything; this whole question in regard to this dog's standing, date of birth, pedigree &c. shall be referred to the Stud Book Committee for a thorough investigation of the standing of the dog.

Maj. Taylor: I move that, and let her register the dog according to the information given her then.

Mr. Mortimer: Do I understand that this dog is already registered?

The Chairman: Yes

Mr. Mortimer: I moved that that registration be cancelled.

Mr. Viti: If we decide that this pedigree is erroneous, and you have already decided the wins should stand, the dog is to be registered on the wins notwithstanding there is a fraudulent pedigree.

The Chairman: It is moved and seconded that the matter of the entry of the toy black and tan terrier "Fannie" No. 61614, be referred to the Stud Book Committee for investigation.

Carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have a communication from the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee relative to the death of Mr. Schellhass, and in connection with that I would like for you to consider the recommendation that I make in my report. There will be suitable resolutions presented here to-day, but I would like to have considered at the same time the advisability of not filling the vacancies occasioned by Mr. Schellhass' death until the coming annual meeting which will be held in February.

Capt. Knocker: The Secretary has already drawn official notice to the death of our late friend and fellow delegate, Mr. Hermann F. Schellhass. Although not the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, Mr. Viti, the Chairman, had kindly insisted as an older friend and fellow committeeman that I should prepare and offer the following resolution which I ask may be engrossed and placed on the minutes as a small farewell token of regard and respect.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from this world Mr.
Hermann F. Schellhass; and, whereas, we can all testify to the nobleness and upright of his character, be it.

Resolved, that this Club has learned with deepest regret of their heavy loss through the death of Mr. Schellhass, one of its oldest members and one who has always taken an active interest in its welfare, and being desirous of expressing its sense of the sad loss, be it.

Resolved, that Mr. Schellhass’ memory is endeared to the members of this Club, and especially to the members of Committees with whom he was brought in constant contact; that he was always a most courteous, obliging and energetic gentleman, and one whose equal is hard to find, and to find his superior is impossible.

Resolved, that this resolution be placed on the minutes and a copy, with proper condolences, be sent to this widow.

The Chairman: you have heard Capt. Knocker’s resolution in regard to the death of Mr. Schellhass. What is your pleasure? If there is no objection it will be accepted and spread upon the minutes.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have only one thing more to bring up at this meeting. We have experienced considerable difficulty in years past in getting together a proper representation of delegates of this Club at our annual meeting. We have held that meeting for many years at and during the Westminster Kennel Club show. I find that the delegates are very busy at that time, and the few that we can get together are in such a hurry and so anxious to get away that we very often do things that if we had more time we would not think of doing. I instance a rule that was passed at the last meeting that was entirely unconstitutional, and still remains on our books. I have this suggestion to make: That I be directed to call the next meeting the afternoon of the Monday preceding the opening of the New York Show at this office. All of the delegates who are coming from a distance to attend this Show will certainly be here on Monday, and if they are going to make their arrangements to come Monday evening, they might just as well make their arrangements early in the day. There is nothing to call them to the Garden until Monday night, and I think we can hold a fuller meeting and a very much better meeting down here on the Monday preceding the Show then we could during the Show at the Garden.

Dr. Foote: I move that the next annual meeting be held on the Monday afternoon preceding the Westminster Kennel Club Show, at this office. Seconded and carried.

Dr. Foote: I believe at the last meeting I said I would offer a resolution at this meeting that in putting in the entries or in the catalogue, the title of champion shall be given as the entry is made out.

Mr. Vredenburgh: That should be made in writing to the Rules Committee.

Mr. Mortimer: I do not think any secretary or superintendent of a show would object to putting in the title of champion wherever it is given by the exhibitor. I think that if you make the request as you have done about your order of classification --- you have made the request or you have stated in the Gazette that in order to meet with the approval of the secretary, the following classification must be followed out. I take it that it is not absolutely necessary, still I think if the same request was made, all secretaries or superintendents of Dog Shows would be very willing to put in the title champion wherever it is put in the entry form by the owner or exhibitor.

Dr. Foote: I will make the motion then that the American Kennel Club request clubs holding shows to give dogs the prefix of champion when so stated on the entry. I put it as a request.

Mr. Mortimer: I do not think any secretary or superintendent of a show would object to putting in the title of champion wherever it is given by the exhibitor. I think that if you make the request as you have done about your order of classification --- you have made the request or you have stated in the Gazette that in order to meet with the approval of the secretary, the following classification must be followed out. I take it that it is not absolutely necessary, still I think that every secretary will be inclined to follow out your order of classification as nearly as practical, and I think if the same request was made, all secretaries or superintendents of Dog Shows would be very willing to put in the title champion wherever it is put in the entry form by the owner or exhibitor.
Dr. Foote: I will make the motion then that the American Kennel Club request clubs holding shows to give dogs the prefix of champion when so stated on the entry. I put it as a request.

Mr. Mortimer: I think as a request it will be generally followed:

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Mortimer: Our secretary has just admitted that rules are often passed hurriedly at the annual meeting when the delegates want to get away. There was a resolution passed at the last annual meeting whereby Bench Show Committees are compelled to bench all dogs of a breed together when requested to do so by the exhibitor; and that rule still stands although it was discovered that the rule was unconstitutionally and illegally passed. I am now preparing our premium lists, and I simply ask for information whether the Show Committee would be allowed to add to the end of that rule a statement of the fact that this rule is illegal and therefore void. What is the use of printing the rule in every one of our prize lists when the rule is null and void? Exhibitors read this rule and they think we are compelled to bench their dogs together. We are not compelled to do so yet.

The Chairman: I do not think you have any right to do that; I think you would exceed your authority.

Mr. Mortimer: Then what is the use of the rule? It is illegal and unconstitutional and void. That being so why should it be published in the rules?

Reference to the minutes of the last meeting, held in September, showing that by the action of the Club the rule referred to had been rescinded, Mr. Hodge moved as follows: Inasmuch as that is not a rule, the American Kennel Club be not required to print it.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Mortimer: There is another matter that I would like to bring before this meeting, and that is the matter of listing dogs for the Rhode Island Kennel Club Show. The entries for the Show close on 27th of December, and no entries can be accepted unless the dogs are either listed or registered. Dogs then listed would be listed for only four days, the last four days in December, and I move that all dogs listed for the Providence Show to be held January 11th, hold good for the year 1900. I think it is a very great hardship to have to list a dog for four days and then have to relist him again on the 1st. of January.
Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There is a matter which I have referred to in my report concerning which I would like to have a ruling. Under the present rules a dog winning in the limit, open, winners and possibly one more in the open has won its way out of the limit class. January 1st and thereafter, a dog can remain in the limit class provided he has not won his championship until it has won four wins in the limit class regardless of what other wins it may win in other classes. The question has arisen, if a dog has won its way out of the limit class to-day, when the new rules go into effect, can that dog go back in the limit class and stay there until it has won its way out. According to the new rules a dog that wins his championship under existing rules, no matter what other conditions may come up, you cannot take that dog's championship away from him, but the question is, can’t you permit a dog to win more under the new rules? You are taking nothing away from him; you are giving him something. There is a diversity of opinion on this subject, and this rules must be interpreted so that I will know what to do.

Mr. Mortimer: As I understood the rule when it was passed it simply applied to dogs that had not become champions. As long as a dog has not become a champion he can go back in the limit class until he has won four wins in that class. I do not think there is any doubt about the spirit of the resolution, or of the rule as it was passed, and you are not going to prevent a dog from going back into the limit class if he has not become a champion. If he has won three wins in the limit class, and has not become a champion, he can still go back in the limit class until he has go that fourth win. That was our understanding of the rule when it was passed.

Mr. Viti: That is the way I understood it.

Mr. Vredenburgh: If there is not ruling on the subject, and it comes before me to decide, I should decide that a dog having won its way out of the class, cannot go back again. I want to get the sense of this meeting what you want done.

After some further discussion Mr. Carnochan moved that the secretary be instructed to interpret the rule with regard to wins in the limit class as follows: That any dog having won in the open and winners classes be still eligible to complete the required number of wins in the limit class, provided he is not a champion.
On motion of Dr. Motschenbacher, the minutes of the last meeting were corrected in respect of winners classes for dachshund as follows: A winners class for reds and a winners class for any other color.

The meeting then adjourned.
THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB WAS HELD AT ITS OFFICES, 55 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK CITY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19TH, 1900.

The Secretary read the following certificate:

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, James Watson, representing the President of the American Kennel Club, and Charles W. Rodman, Jr., representing the president of the Associate Members of the American Kennel Club, met this date at the office of the American Kennel Club for the purpose of opening and canvassing the vote received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club for the officers and delegates of the Associate members of said American Kennel Club, to hold office for the term of one year from February 19th, 1900, or until their successors be elected.

We found the total number of Associates entitled to vote to be 190. Total number of votes case, 97; total number of votes scattering, 17; total number of irregular votes, and thrown out, 4.

We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greatest number of votes to be duly elected as officers and delegates of the Associate Members for the year ending in February, 1901, to wit:
President, H.H. Hunnewell, Jr.; Vice-President, Frederick S. Stedman; Secretary, John Lorillard Arden; Delegate (1) A. Clinton Wilmerding; delegate (2) H.K. Bloodgood; Delegate (3) Henry Jarrett.

(Signed) James Watson,
Representing the President A.K.C.

C.W. Rodman, Jr.,
Representing the President Associates A.K.C.

Attest:

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary A.K.C.

The Report of the Membership Committee was read, as follows:

New York, Feb. 19th 1900.

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting upon applications for admission to membership, and upon credentials of delegates filed with the Secretary, your Committee would respectfully report:

An application from the American Pomeranian Club has been received, and the same being filed in accordance with the Constitution, it is recommended that said Club be duly admitted to active membership.

That the credentials of Mr. F.J. Bristol, filed by the French Bull-dog Club; Mr. L.C. Campbell, filed by the Brunswick Fur Club, are found to be in regular form, and their acceptance is hereby recommended.

Credentials from the Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts, appointing Mr. Henry Jarrett, were not filed in proper form. Mr. Jarrett, having been elected as a delegate by the Associate members, and having accepted said office, notice to that effect was duly mailed to the Ladies Kennel Associate.

Credentials from the Vermont Kennel Club, appointing Mr. George F. Chaffee, not having been filed within the time specified in the Constitution, sail credentials are laid over until the next meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

C.B. Knocker,
Singleton Van Schaick,

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The delegates then proceeded to ballot and elected the American Pomeranian Club as a member of the American Kennel Club; and Messrs. F.J. Bristol, to represent the French Bull-dog Club, and L.W. Campbell to represent the Brunswick Fur Club.

The Secretary then read his quarterly report, as follows:

New York, February 17, 1900

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that all matters under the jurisdiction of the Stud Book and membership committees have been turned over by me to said Committees, and their reports will be presented at this meeting.

I submit resignations from the Joliet Kennel Club and the Pacific
Mastiff Club, and would respectfully recommend their acceptance.

Notice from the Philadelphia Dog Show Association was duly filed with this office of the suspension of Charles Busch, 23 Union Square, New York. I promptly notified Busch of said suspension and advised him of his right of appeal to this Club. Pending action, if appeal is lodged, said Busch is now under suspension by the A.K.C.
William Stuber and Robert Irvine lodged complaints with this Club against the American Pet Dog Club for non-payment of prizes awarded to them at the late show of said Club in November last. In connection with said charges, I beg to submit a request from the American Pet Dog Club for an extension of 60 days within which a promise is made to liquidate all outstanding prize money. I would inform you that in many cases the Club has voluntarily given an additional 30 days time in similar cases.

I have a communication from the San Francisco Kennel Club in reference to registration, and will submit same for your consideration.

The volume of work at this office during 1899 was so great that I found myself unable to cope with it, and am now over 60 days behind with the work of last year. The business of this office since January 1st last has been even greater than at any period of the last year, and with out present force I find it impossible to keep our current work even, let alone finishing the unfinished work of 1899. Heretofore I have been able to turn over to out printers all copy for the annual Stud Book about January 20th, but have been unable to do so this year, and at this writing
We have about 700 uncompiled pedigrees for last year’s book. Much as I dislike to ask for additional help, I am forced to do so, and would request permission to add to our present clerical force until such time as we can bring out unfinished affairs up to date, which can probably be accomplished by May 1st next.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary’s Report be taken up under the heading of New Business.

Carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I have a financial statement for the year 1899. It was published in the January Gazette. Do you wish it read?

MR. WATSON: I move it be accepted as published in the Gazette.

Seconded and carried.

The Treasurer’s Report was read, as follows:
New York, February 17th, 1900

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report of all moneys received and disbursed by me since January 1, 1900.

Balance on hand, January 1, 1900 $6,824.33
Receipts from January 1, 1900 to date 1,967.86
TOTAL $8,792.19
Disbursements since January 1, 1900 828.53
Balance on hand $7,963.53

I beg to report the following Clubs as being in arrears which were due and payable January 1, 1900:

Bills were duly sent to above Clubs on November 30, 1899, and second bills on January 23rd, 1900, to which no replies have been received.

The Fanciers Club of Sharon, Pa. held a show under our rules in January last, and the dues being unpaid, places
That Show in a position that you will have to determine. I still hold its deposit of $25 and deferred returning same, having no authority to deduct the dues therefrom.

The Clubs now in arrears cannot be represented at this meeting, and I respectfully request your action regarding the continuance of their names on our list of members.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer.

It was moved and seconded that the Treasurer’s Report be laid upon the table and taken up under the head of New Business.

Carried.

The Report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:
The Stud Book Committee beg to report as follows:
Since the last quarterly meeting applications have been made for the registration of the following Kennel names and prefixes:

“Dartmouth” by R.F. Monahan, Dayton, Ohio
“Lakewood Pomeranians” by Mrs. C. Hartley, Williamson, 44 West 84th Street, New York City.

“Montmarte” by S.L. de Fabry, Red Bank, N.J.

“Pembroke” by Mrs. W.W. Green and Garrett Lyndecker, Englewood, N.J.

“Cloverly” by Charles Sinichson and Richard G. Park, Westchester.

“Auburn” by Stanley H. Kidd

“Hollywood” by Dr. J.P. Randall

“Springfield” by Louis A. Biddle, Chestnut Hill

As the above applications do not conflict with any names already registered, the Committee recommend that the applications be granted and the names registered.

Applications have been filed asking for a transfer in ownership of registered kennel names as follows:

“Hudson” now vested in the name of C.H. Mantler, to be transferred to the firm of Mantler & Perpende.

The Committee recommend that the above applications for transfers be allowed.

Respectfully submitted,

Marcell A. Viti
Chairman

C.B. Knocker
Stud Book Committee

New York, February 1900

It was moved and seconded that said report be accepted and the recommendations there in contained adopted.
Carried.
The Report of the Pacific Advisory Committee was read, as follows:

San Francisco, January 23rd, 1900

A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,
Secty Am. Kennel Club
New York

My dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that a meeting of this Committee was held on 22nd inst., J.E. de Ruyter presiding. Present, J.E. de Ruyter, Merton C. Allen, J.P. Norman. The McCarty protest was called up, the same having been referred back to this Committee by Secretary of San Fran-Cisco Kennel Club, Mr. McCarty having failed to produce evidence in support of his allegation that the handler of the respondent. Dog won the special by reason of an infraction of the rules of the Bench Show Committee. It was therefore moved and seconded that it be resolved that the appellant has failed to show any reason for reversing the decision of the judge in the case of the special awarded to the heavyweight pointer dog Sam’s Bow at the San Francisco Bench Show of 1899, and that the said decision should be and hereby is confirmed and the deposit of $10 made with this Committee on appeal by Mr. McCarty is hereby forfeited to the American Kennel Club.

Yours very truly,

J.P. Norman
Secy.

San Francisco, January 24th 1900

A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq.,
Secy. American Kennel Club,
New York.

My dear Sir:

Supplemental to my letter of 23rd inst., containing report of the decision of this Committee with reference to the McCarty appeal, I beg to communicate the following resolution passed at the same meeting on 22

Whereas, it has been brought to the attention of this Committee that the organization known as the Pacific Kennel League issues in the prospectus of shows held under its rules the following announcement: “A circuit of 10 P.K.L. shows is promised for the coming season. If you have a good dog you can make a champion of him in one season. On the other hand one show is the grand total of shows to be held under A.K.C. rules on this coast during the coming season, and its wins will not be recognized right here at home where one wants them most. It is little satisfaction to tell a man that his dog’s win made at San Francisco will be recognized at New York. What the exhibitor wants is to have it recognized by the official kennel organization of the Pacific coast. That can only be done by showing your dog under Pacific Kennel League rules.” And,

Whereas, this Committee desires to place on record with the Honorable parent body its sentiments as hereinafter expressed, and

Whereas, the foregoing paragraphs printed in the Premium lists of the P.K.L. are on a par with the usual behaviour of that organization, and are unworthy of notice by any dignified body, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Secretary be instructed to communicate to the American Kennel Club that it is the sense of this Committee that the above announcements of the P.K.L. and its authors be entirely ignored.

Respectfully submitted,

Pacific Coast Special Committee,
American Kennel Club

J.P. Norman
Secretary.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that the report be accepted and placed on file.

Seconded and carried.

The delegates having decided to take up the election of officers at this point, Mr. Viti nominated Mr. August Belmont as President of the Club.

DR. FOOTE: I move the nominations be closed.

Seconded and carried.

MR. RODMAN: I move the Secretary be instructed to cast one vote for Mr. Belmont as President.

The Secretary announced that he had cast the vote and the Chair announced the election of Mr. August Belmont as President of the Club for the ensuing year.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that Mr. Edward Brooks be continued as Vice-President for the ensuing year.

On motion the nominations were closed.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that the Secretary be directed to cast one vote for Mr. Brooks as Vice-President

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary cast the vote as directed, and the Chairman announced the election of Mr. Edward Brooks as Vice-President.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next is the Stud Book Committee. I would like to state for the information of the members that in voting for the Chairman of each one of the Committees, they are likewise voting for a member of the Executive Board of the Club. They become members of the Executive Board of the Club, which meets at intervals between regular meetings.

MR. RODMAN: I nominate Mr. Viti as Chairman of the Stud Book Committee.

On motion nominations were closed.

MR. RODMAN: I move that the Secretary be directed To cast one ballot for Mr. Viti.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary cast the ballot as directed, and the Chairman announced the election of Mr. Viti as Chairman of the Stud Book Committee for the ensuing year.

MR. VREDENBURGH: There are two members of this Committee to be elected in the place of Mr. Herman F. Schellhass and C.B. Knocker. There is a vacancy on that Committee owing to the death of Mr. Schellhass, which has never been filled.

MR. RODMAN: I nominate Capt. Knocker as one of the members of that Committee.

On motion, nominations were closed.

It was moved and seconded that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for C.B. Knocker as a member of the Committee.

Carried.

The Secretary cast the ballot as directed, and the Chair announced the election of Capt. Knocker.

Mr. C.W. Rodman was nominated as the other member of the Stud Book Committee.

On motion, the Secretary was directed to cast one Ballot for Mr. Rodman.

The Secretary cast the ballot as directed, and the Chair announced the election of Mr. Rodman.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Next is the field trials and coursing meetings Committee. The outgoing members are Mr. Schellhass, Chairman, Mr. Joslin, and Mr. Van Dorn.

Under the Constitution the Chairman only is to be elected. The other members of the Committee become members by virtue of their credentials of the Field Trial Club. I would like to state for your information that Mr. Appleton, one of the Vice-Presidents of the National Beagle Club, has been approved as Mr. Schellhass’ successor as a delegate to represent that Club, and it is within your province to postpone the election of the Chairman of this Committee until such time as he can become a candidate.

MR. RODMAN: I move that the nomination be held until Mr. Appleton qualifies. Carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next is the Committee on Constitution and Rules. The outgoing members are Messrs H.K. Bloodgood, Chairman, Mr. James Watson, Mr. H.F. Schellhass, Mr. D.W. H. Ritchie, and Mr. Vredenburgh, who continues on the Committee by virtue of his office as Secretary.
Of the American Kennel Club.

MR. RODMAN: I nominate Mr. Bloodgood to succeed himself.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that nominations be closed.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary cast the vote as directed, and the Chair announced the election of Mr. Bloodgood as Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Rules.

MR. WILMERDING: I nominate Mr. James Watson to succeed himself.

Nomination seconded.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I nominate Mr. Rodman on that Committee.

Nominations seconded.

Mr. Henry Jarrett was also nominated as a member of the Committee.

Mr. J.M. Carnochan was also nominated.

Nominations seconded.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I would like to state that all notices of amendments that are sent in here have got first to be acted upon by that Committee in session before they can be acted upon by the American Kennel Club, and it will be necessary for the members to be present at such meeting.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I respectfully decline that nomination.

It was moved and seconded that nominations be closed.

Carried.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for the three gentlemen mentioned.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary cast a ballot for Mr. James Watson, Mr. C.W. Rodman Jr., and MR. Henry Jarrett, as directed, and the Chair announced their election as members of said Committee.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next is the Finance Committee. The retiring Chairman is Mr. A.C. Wilmerding.

Mr. Wilmerding was nominated for re-election as Chairman, and on motion of Mr. Carnochan the nominations were closed.
On motion, the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for Mr. Wilmerding.

The Secretary cast the ballot as directed, and the Chair announced the election of Mr. Wilmerding as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

MR. RODMAN: I nominate Mr. Carnochan and Mr. James B. Blossom to succeed themselves as members of the Finance Committee.

Nominations seconded.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for Messrs. Blossom and Carnochan.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary cast the ballot as directed, and the Chair announced their election as members of the Finance Committee.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next is the membership Committee.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I nominate Dr. H.T. Foote, as Chairman of that Committee.

On motion, nominations were closed and the Secretary directed to cast one ballot for Dr. H.T. Foote.

The Secretary cast the ballot as directed, and
The Chair announced his election.

Messrs. C.B. Knocker and Singleton Van Schaick were nominated as members of the Membership Committee by Mr. Rodman, and on motion nominations were closed.

MR. RODMAN: I move the Secretary be directed to cast one vote for the gentlemen named.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary cast the vote as directed, and the Chair announced their election.

On motion, the Secretary’s Report was taken up and the resignation of the Joliet Kennel Club read.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that the resignation be accepted.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I don’t think we should stretch the rules all the time. Those Clubs know the time of expiration. I make a motion to drop the Club. I offer that as an amendment.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I think it is very scant courtesy to drop them from the roll when they have written simply to say they have resigned as members. I think it would be more courteous to accept the resignation.

Amendment withdrawn.
The resignations of the Joliet Kennel Club and the Pacific Mastiff Club were accepted.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next matter to come before you is a communication from the Philadelphia Bench Show Club dated January 19th. Immediately upon the receipt of that, I sent notice to Mr. Busch of his suspension here with the American Kennel Club, and notified him of his right to appeal. Mr. Busch called here in company with the Secretary of the Great Dane Club and wanted to appeal. I asked him upon what grounds his appeal was desired, and the only ground that he had was just exactly what it was claimed he did, and that he would like to be re-instated. I told him there was no ground for appeal there; that he had to show that the Club was wrong. He said he could not show that the Club was wrong because the Club was right, and he finally left here with the promise that he would send to the judge whom he insulted and make an apology to him, and ask that judge to communicate with the Philadelphia Show asking them to remove his suspension. To-day I received this letter, Date February 17: “A.E. Vredenburgh, Secretary. Dear Sir: I beg to notify you that at a meeting Of the Executive Committee of the Great Dane Club of America, Mr. Charles Busch, New York, has been suspended from membership in the Club on account of misconduct during the late Philadelphia Bench Show.” The Constitution provides that at the next succeeding meeting of the American Kennel Club after the suspension of a man at any Bench Show the A.K.C. must either remove that suspension of change it to disqualification.

MR. WATSON: I move that he be disqualified. There is no other course to take.

Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Under date of February 5th, Mr. William Stuber lodged a complaint that his dachshund at the American Pet Dog Club Show was awarded the second prize. The prize has not been paid. Under date of February 10th, Mr. Robert Irvine claims that he won a prize with his Scottish terrier at the American Pet Dog Club Show, and the same has not been paid. By to-day’s mail, which I have not included in my report, her was a letter December 28, sent to Mr. S.C. Hodge, Superintendent of the Pet Dog Club Show: “Dear Sir: Referring to your former communication, would say that as yet I have heard nothing in reference to Prize cups or premium won at your late show. I shall be pleased to hear from you, and awaiting your favor, I remain, Your very truly, Edwin W. Fiske,” on which is endorsed: “Dear Sir: No cups or medals have yet been sent out owing to out inability to get the cups engraved during this holiday rush. They will all be sent out next week. Your truly, Hodge.” Under date of the 17th, Mr. Fiske sends this letter: “My cocker spaniels won $50 in prize money at the Show held under the auspices of the American Pet Dog Club, December 29, 30 and 31, 1899, but as yet I have not received any payment from the above Club, although I have received two medals I won at the same time. Kindly inform me what can be done in this matter, and oblige, Yours truly, Edwin W. Fiske.”

In connection with these charges I would like to read this letter: “The American Pet Dog Club having had trouble with the management of the Show, have been compelled by force of circumstances to delay the payment of a portion of the prize list, but hope to have all difficulties arranged and all obligations paid within the next 60 days. It there should be any complaint entered against the Club for non-payment of Prizes I would request that judgment be postponed for that period of time. In the meantime please cancel any dates that may have been taken for the Show of 1900.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: What is the limit of Bench Shows to meet their obligations?

MR. VREDENBURGH: 60 days. That expired on the 1st of February.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move the Pet Dog Club be disqualified.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move to amend that by giving the Pet Dog Club 60 days more in which to settle this matter.

Amendment seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is moved and seconded that the Pet Dog Club be granted an extension of 60 days in which to pay their prizes. I would like to state that in every instance I can recall when charges have been preferred against a club for non-payment of its prizes, that the Kennel Club have voluntarily passed a resolution to this effect: That 30 days additional be granted to pay the prizes and if the same be not paid within that 30 days, then the officials be disqualified and the Club suspended.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I will amend my original motion to that effect.

Seconded.
MR. CARNOCHAN: My only reason for making this motion is this: I was also quite a large prize winner at that show, and I of course like many other prize winners have not been paid the prize moneys that I am entitled to. I am also a member of the club. I believe I am the only life member of the Club, and from all I have heard about the various troubles in the Club it seems to me that it is only fair to the Club to let them wash out their own affairs, which I believe will be done in the next thirty or sixty days.

I believe that there is no question but what the prize money due will all be paid, and on that account, while I say I have not any interest in the matter except as a member of the Club, I should feel very badly at seeing that Club thrown out of disqualified on account of the internal troubles which are in it, which, as I say, I think will be settled in a short period. Another thing, I received the other day a notice of a meeting of the Club which is to be held I think this Wednesday, and it does not seem right to disqualify a Club without letting them get at the bottom of it, and ascertaining where the trouble is.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I really cannot see that the Pet Dog Club should be treated any better than any other Club. I have no affiliation with anybody in the Club. I cannot see how the American Kennel Club can make flesh or fish of it. They should be able to wash their dirty linen in thirty days.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I accept the thirty days.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: A Club of that prominence should have been able to settle their obligations before that time.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I simply named sixty days because that was the time mentioned; what I meant was to give them the customary time allowed in such cases.

MR. HODGE: Thirty days from February 1st, or thirty days from this meeting? I think it should be thirty days form February 1st if granted at all. There is no reason why the Club should be granted this delay at all. The Club is abundantly able to pay, and had the money and not paying, these prize exhibitors are forced to wait. They have waited ninety days now. I think something is due them. I think in the interest of square dealing and justice the American Kennel Club should take a hand and force those that are back of this delay to pay these prizes in the interest of the people who have in good faith paid their Entrance money and gone in there. I beg to state that while I do not wish to go into the personalities of the matter, that I have done almost nothing for the last two months but answer the inquiries of exhibitors. I had nothing to do with the finances of the show, and that money is being retained by one person designed by the Club. He says now there is a slight loss. Nevertheless there are $3,000 of debts not paid, and he is retaining this money, and I think that this Club should take it up and discipline it. I have no desire to recommend disqualifying innocent parties, because there are innocent parties who are officers of this Club, but something should be done to force it to pay these prizes, and to prevent such things as this occurring in the future. Mr. Vredenburgh will bear me out in justice to myself come here and represent a Club, and stand for that, and I would not be here as its delegate, but heard that there was to be a request for sixty days additional time in which this matter could be straightened up, and then I made up my mind that I would come here, and exercise my prerogative and fight it. It was made over my head and without any authority from me. I think the American Kennel Club should say to the officers of the American Pet Dog Club to pay these prizes at once. They have had ninety days now nearly. The sixty days were up on February 1st. At a meeting of the executive committee of the American Pet Dog Club, at his house on January 19th, it was ordered that a copy of his report be given to me at once so that I could go over it and check it up and report upon it, so that the Club could get at the bottom of it. I have never been able to get that report from him although it was ordered to be delivered to me over a month ago. I have written to him; I have written to his attorney, and I have written to the officers of the Club, and have never gotten it. At the annual meeting of the Club held on January 31st this man jumped up immediately after his wide had made a report, and ordered that the meeting be adjourned without date. There was immediately a storm of protest; one member got up and wanted to know where the report of the finances was, and this party said “nothing has been stated about finances.” The member allowed that it was high time that something was said about the finances of the club. He asked him where the funds of this show were, in what bank deposited, and to whose credit, and he refused to answer, and to this day the American Pet Dog Club knows absolutely Nothing officially of the finances of that show. I put in my report as superintendent of the show at the meeting of January 31st, and swore to it, and it was accepted unanimously by the Club. A copy of it is filed with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club. It can be read here if needed. It shows my connection with the show. I oppose this delay in the interest of the exhibitors. I do not think it is right to grant a further extension. As I have stated, the American Pet Dog Club is abundantly able to pay these prizes.

MR. CARCOCHAN: As I have already said, I am not interested in this think at all. I do not want to go into it in any show or form, but it seems to me it is only courtesy to allow the extra period of time. We have done it in the past. I have heard both stories. I have heard the statement of Mr. Hodge, also that of Mr. Stanton, and apparently so far as I can judge as an outsider, it is more or less a personal matter between Mr. Hodge and Mr. Stanton. It is very advisable, it seems to me, to hold this matter for thirty days so as to let this meeting be held when something will be done. I desire to say that I have not feelings in the matter at all. I am simply stating what has been told to me and with regard to the finances of the show as I understand it there is a deficit balance which under the circumstances as a proprietary matter is between Mr. Hodge and Mr. Stanton. I understand that they were together to stand any deficit or take any profit, and it would seem as if the Club which is the innocent party in the matter and which allowed these two gentlemen to take the matter of running the show in their hands should not be made to suffer. It would seem to be more a matter of arrangement between Mr. Hodge and Mr. Stanton. I do not stand for the truth of any of these statements whatsoever, but that is the way I understand it as a member of the Club, and I am in favor of allowing the thirty days additional time.

MR. HODGE: If it be the wish of the delegates I would like to have my report read.

MR. RODMAN: It would seem to me that we are losing sight of one question that comes before this question. It is not a question of internal difficulties of the Pet Dog Club, but it is a question of the payment of prize money, and the good standing of the American Pet Dog Club in the American Kennel Club. I can see no objection to extending, if it will do any good, the time in which the payment of the prizes and the cups offered may be made. There is a note written
To the Secretary, I don’t know by whom not by what authority the writer had in sending it, but I cannot see how the American Kennel Club can suffer in extending to that Club thirty or sixty days towards settling its difficulty with the American Kennel Club, but not its difficulties with its own members. That I think should be eliminated from this meeting. I am a member of the American Pet Dog Club, but like a great many other members I have not the first conception of what it has ever done. I am only speaking personally now, but I do not think that seventy-five per cent of the members of the American Pet Dog Club know anything about its affairs, and it seems to me that if by giving that Club thirty or sixty days we can get them to effect a settlement of the differences between themselves and the exhibitors, and it is in out province to do so, and if they will do what they say they will do, it will remove all further trouble. Let the American Pet Dog Club effect a settlement of its own difficulties, and I would speak in favor of granting the extension of thirty or sixty days, whichever the case may be.

CAPT. KNOCKER: Is it not creating a precedent? We have allowed sixty days to Club to settle up and pay their prizes, and this would be going beyond our usual time allowed for settlement.
MR. VREDEBURGH: Clubs are usually allowed thirty days additional time.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I do not see why the American Pet Dog Club should get any privileges not granted to any other Club unless you are going to make a precedent in the matter of the Pet Dog Club.

MR. CARNOCHAN: As I understand it, I think you are laboring under a slightly wrong impression. A club has sixty days in which to settle up their prize money at their own convenience. It has been the custom that the American Kennel Club when the sixty days were up, would allow a club thirty days more, and that is my motion that we allow them thirty days more. That is the regular custom, and all I ask is to allow them the same customary privilege of thirty days from this meeting.

MR. VITI: I submit that is we give them thirty days time to-day we are giving them 49 days more.

MR. CARNOCHAN: You cannot allow the thirty days until there has been a complaint, and a complaint has just come in.

MR. VREDEBURGH: The first complaint cam in on February 5th.

MAJ. TAYLOR: I move in order to end the discussion
That the American Pet Dog Club have thirty days, and if their affairs are not settled in that time they stand disqualified. That is thirty days from the end of sixty days.

MR. VREDENBURGH: There is a motion already to that effect before the house.

MAJ. TAYLOR: Has the motion attached to it that the Club shall stand disqualified if they have not settled up by that time?

MR. VREDENBURGH: I would like to state for your information, and I think the delegates will bear me out when I make this statement, that it was never the intention of the American Kennel Club to permit any one, two or three members of a Club to run a show and make good a deficit or take a profit. The intention of the American Kennel Club was true sportsmanship on the part of the Club and not on the part of individuals. There is no definite rule to that effect, but I believe it will be borne out that that was the intention of the rule. If I am wrong just call me down. This last show was held. Mr. Stanton, the husband of the President, stated to me that Mr. Hodge and himself had been made trustees by the Club to carry on this show, they agreeing between themselves which department each one would assume control over. Mr.
Hodge was to superintend the show, and Mr. Stanton was to attend to the finances. Mr. Hodge made the statement that they never were appointed trustees for the show, that they entered into the agreement between themselves, which was a partnership, that they would assume responsibility for the show, pay the deficit if any occurred, and as I understood it if any profits accrued that they were first to take from those profits a sufficient amount to reimburse the persons who had made good the deficit of the previous show of 1898. Am I correct?

MR. HODGE: Yes.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Then the net profits would be equally divided between Mr. Stanton, and Mr. Hodge. Before you come to a vote on this subject you have got to take into consideration one point, and that is in the internal arrangement of this Club, that these gentlemen say we ought not to take into consideration--- the Chair thinks to the contrary, and will state his reason. The ladies and gentlemen, mostly ladies, I believe, having the utmost confidence on the two gentlemen who undertook to run this show did not bother themselves in the least about the outcome of it, and if you disqualify the persons that the rules say you must disqualify, you have got to disqualify these ladies who had nothing to do
With and know nothing about the affairs of the Club. Of course, you can reach Mr. Stanton and Mr. Hodge. They were both officials of the show, but at the same time you have got to take in Mrs. Stanton and Mrs. Green, who was an exhibitor of greyhounds, who came here to this office and protested against the action of Mr. Stanton. She said she insisted upon the payment of these prizes, but she was powerless, and she could not compel it. You have got to take in Mrs. Stokes, who knows nothing about it, and one or two other ladies who are really innocent. Mr. Stanton called at this office to-day to get some information about some prizes that he was going to pay, and he asked me if there were any complaints lodged. I told him there were two small ones. He said “If you give me their names I will pay them their prizes.” He said “I assure you we are going to pay every single penny of outstanding indebtedness of this Club within the time that we have asked. We are moving heaven and earth to do it.” He also told me he had $1,100 in his possession, though the outstanding prizes amounted to about $1,400. I may be mistaken in the figures, but he said that he had to call a halt there until they could find out just where they stood. I want to tell you this so that you can Vote intelligently on this matter.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It has already been stated that by this rule we have nothing to do with the internal affairs, and I say those matters are none of our business. That is their affair absolutely. We have got nothing absolutely to do with those matters. The Club must fulfill its agreements, and must stand by them. If we come down to sift these internal matters every time there is a matter of this kind up for consideration I think you will find a half a dozen or a dozen of clubs themselves know nothing about these affairs. There are a lot of shows run in that way in this country which you do not know of, but practical exhibitors do know about.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion before the house now is that the American Pet Dog Club be granted an extension of thirty days from the date of the first complaint, February 5th, and if the prizes are not paid within that time the Club shall stand suspended, and the officials connected with the show disqualified.

Motion seconded.

MR. WATSON: I offer an amendment that the date of February 5th be stricken out. We have never done that before. It has always been thirty days from date to the [illegible].
THE CHAIRMAN: An amendment if offered that the extension of time shall begin from this meeting. The vote is on the amendment.

The amendment was then carried by a vote of 12 to 5.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is now on the amended motion that the American Pet Dog Club be granted thirty days extension of time from this date to pay the outstanding prizes, in default of which the Club will be suspended, and the officials disqualified.

Carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from the San Francisco Kennel Club in reference to registrations. The Secretary writes: “I would like to be able to receive registration with application in lieu of listing. Would such a course be feasible? Supposing a man enters a dog a day before the entries close and wants to register his dog. There is absolutely no way in which he could get the registered number on the catalogue in time. Do you not think in view of the geographical distance between you and us that it would be beneficial to the Club and to the exhibitors also if the executive committee were to pass a special rule allowing us to insert on the entry blank registration applied..." for, in cases such as I have mentioned. It would go a very long way towards strengthening the hands of this committee, and consequently the American Kennel Club on this coast. You can have no idea of the amount of dissatisfaction caused last year by our inability to accept registration fees provisionally in the case of dogs eligible to be registered.” etc.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that that be referred to the proper committee.

MR. VREDENBURGH: It is a matter that needs immediate attention.
They are six days from here and they are getting out their premiums lists now, and what I want to know is just what to do.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It looks very feasible, and I think it is very desirable that we should grant such a request. If there is the proper committee appointed there to accept applications with the power to repudiate in case the applications are improper.

MAJ. TAYLOR: Are they printing their lists?

MR. VREDENBURGH: They ask permission to accept a fee for registration to inset in the catalogue registration applied for to take the place of the word “listed”, or the stud book number, and then for them to send on the money
Here. The American Kennel Club does not permit any show to accept a single registration. They have passed a resolution that the only place to apply for registrations is at the home office. Now we take for instance this California Club. A man applied for registration of a dog that he will call Jack. The dog is entered in the catalogue as Jack. They accept the registration of the dog, take the man's dollar and name of Jack. We have got to send back to him, and when we register the dog it is registered by an entirely different name from what appears in the catalogue. Is that right? I do not care how careful the Club are when they used to accept registrations they would send them here, and we had to return them. They were not eligible.

CAPT. KNOCKER: Couldn't this matter be arranged by the San Francisco Kennel Club telegraphing to the American Kennel Club with regard to the name that they wished to register. A man that applied for registration if he is anxious to get the registration will spend a dollar for it.

MR. VREDENBURGH: That same man can get the same thing by an additional expense of 25 cents by listing his dog. That is where the kick comes in. That man can list his dog and immediately send on for a number, and the number is sent to him the same day the application is received.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I think the matter is such as important one that it ought to be referred to the committee on rules.

The Secretary then read the rule covering the matter in question.

CAPT. KNOCKER: They have paid their dollar and they have applied for registration. Isn’t that registration?

MR. VREDENBURGH: There is no registration until the certificate has been signed.

DR. FOOTE: It seems to me it was for that purpose of a listing to meet such an emergency. The fact is that any dog that is good enough to show is good enough to be registered long before the show. The chances are in favor of it. It strikes me that as the rule is one of long standing and one that has done good work while it has been in force it should remain.

MR. VITI: I do not see how we can get away from the rule.

MR. HODGE: It does not occur to me that it is necessary to change the rule at all, if you deem it wise to adopt any such system. Have a form printed for such applications, and have that form state that they enclose one dollar for registration if possible. If not possibly 25 cent are
To be deducted for listing the dog. Then the dog is either registered or listed, and make him sign his name.

MR. VITI: I simply state that there is a rule which seems to me is very hard and fast, and I do no see how you can do anything in this case unless you amend of abrogate the rule. The rule says every dog must either be registered or listed with the American Kennel Club previous to being exhibited. How can you take it to be listed when the rule says he must have been registered? You have also held that making the entry was part of the exhibition of the dog. I rise to a point of order.

DR. FOOTE: I move it be referred to the Committee on Rules.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair rules that the point of order raised by Mr. Viti is good.

The motion to refer the matter to the Committee on rules was seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh then read the report of the Committee on Rules as published in the Gazette.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I want to make a motion with regard to benching dogs. I move that dogs of the same owner and same breed shall be benched together.
MR. MORSE: I second the motion.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I think the rules are made for the benefit of dogs and for the benefit of the exhibitors of dogs. I think it is a very necessary rules, a rule that ought to have been in force long ago. Dogs are worried and often get sick, and not only that, they make a most infernal row if benched next to strange dogs.

The motion resulted in a vote of 9 in favor and 8 against.

THE CHAIRMAN: It requires a two-thirds vote, and the amendment is therefore lost.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next is that dog show committee cannot offer moneys or other inducements to exhibitors to influence entries.

Motion seconded.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: How are you going to find that out? I think the motion is frivolous. That is beyond our powers.

MR. CODMAN: I consider it a very wrong thing that any club should offer any dog exhibitor any inducement of money to bring dogs to a dog show. That is against the interest of dog shows. I am speaking with great feeling on this matter, because at the late Rhode Island Kennel Club show, three or four handlers went so far as not only to write Letters to the press, but made it a business to protest because they could not be treated with in that matter. We have had handlers saying if they cold get so many dogs they would give thirty dollars or some such sum as that. I consider that when gentlemen put themselves in committee and hold a dog show, and it is the hardest thing in the world to make it pay financially outside of New York, and then get together money to bring in dogs, then dog shows will soon go to the ground. It is not to the benefit of any man that has the dog's interest at heart.

DR. FOOTE: It is not only a matter that concerns bench show management, it also concerns the exhibitor. If one considers the amount of entrance fees and the prize to be won, and figures that he cannot afford to send more then a term of two to a show, he may have to come in competition with some one else who sends a team of four or half a dozen, because he is getting his dogs in for less. He is getting a rebate, and the man who sends a paid is at a great disadvantage. That was my idea in offering this amendment, knowing that bench show managers were continually bored with bids for money.
MR. VREDENBURGH: I would like to state for your information that there is nothing in the world in the rules of the American Kennel Club that forces any Club to charge any entrance fee. That is purely a domestic matter. The Club holding the show can invite entries and they can charge one, two, three, five or ten dollars, just as they please, whatever they can demand. If there is no rule to that effect how are you going to prevent a club saying to any exhibitor, “we will allow you your entry free.” There is no rule which says there must be an entry fee. If you want that amendment you have got to have it in such a shape that you can enforce it, because it would be silly to have a rule that you cannot enforce. Then again how are you going to find out whether there is any inducement offered? If you pass such a rule, and the handler says to Mr. Jones, “I will give you fifty dogs if you will give me my entrance fees back,” as was offered in this office to take a team of fifty dogs out to San Francisco, a man that gets that money is not going to tell of it, not is the show going to tell of it, and the American Kennel Club cannot be on the ground and act as a detective. If you cannot prevent it, is it good sense to have a rule on your books that you cannot enforce? Then there is a question that the committee thought of, that it Was a domestic matter entirely, and that if a club determined that it was a good investment to offer an inducement to get a lot of celebrated dogs there because it was going to help their gate receipts, there is no way of preventing it.

MAJ. TAYLOR: It seems to me that this is a matter that is wholly in the province of the Club giving the show. If they want to do it let them do it. Let there be a perfect understanding between exhibitors and committees.

The amendment was then put and lost.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next recommendation is in regard to Article XIV. after the word “meeting” on the fifth line, to add the words, “and can only be filed by a member in good standing through its delegate, such notice however, must be officially signed by the member’s secretary.” In other words if the Philadelphia Dog Show Association should bring up an amendment that they think proper to the rules, passed it in their Club, then their secretary sends an attested copy of that amendment to its delegate, and then the delegate can officially bring the matter up here, and we have got to publish it in the regular course.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I object to the amendment for this reason: A delegate is not going to bring his personal feelings or his personal matters in the case; if he does he Is not fit to be a delegate. When he makes a motion or amendment it is under the authority of the Club he represents. If he is going against the wishes of that Club it is that Club’s business to call him down, and therefore I think it ought to be taken for granted that when a delegate makes a motion he is making it as his club’s representative, and therefore it is not necessary to make it compulsory that he should show written authority for his motion. I represent my Club, and my Club calls upon me when they choose. If I bring up a motion I am doing it for my Club, and I think the amendment is entirely unnecessary.

Proposed amendment lost.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next is section IV, after the word “been” on the 7th, line to add the words “filed in like manner as is provided for in Article XIV of the Constitution”, and after the word “published’ on the 8th line of the section to add the words “in the American Kennel Gazette.”

Proposed amendment adopted.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I would like to state here that the Capitol City Kennel Club of Washington D.C. has made an application for admission to membership. Everything is In proper form with one exception. The application came in on the 17th day of February, last Saturday. The Constitution says it must be in my hands at least ten days prior to any meeting at which it can be acted upon. They are to hold a show next month or possibly early in April. I wrote them telling them that it was too late for action at this meeting, and that the next regular meeting of the Club would be held in May next, and I did not care about putting their check through the books until they had bee informed what they might expect and let me know. I got a telegram from them to-day saying “Would be of no avail for us to wait until May; let the letter written to you in December stand as application.” They wrote a letter in December saying they wanted to apply, but they did not apply. The only possible way for that Club to become a member is to wait until ten days have elapsed and then have the membership committee look over their application, and if correct approve it, and then have a meeting of the executive board. I have a similar case here with the Hoosier Poultry & Kennel Club of Logansport. That application did not arrive until February 15th. I simply report these cases to you so that you may now what is going on.
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that it be referred to the membership committee and referred to the executive board with power to act.

THE CHAIRMAN: You request a meeting of the executive committee in time to act upon this so that this Club can be admitted so as to hold its show at the time it desires?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Yes.

MAJ. TAYLOR: I think similar action should be taken on all applications of the kind. I happen to know the Youngstown Club made application, and it was a little too late. There should be some arrangements made. Kennel Clubs do not always know when to make their applications. It is a good thing to have as many members as we can get. This Club may prove to be one of the very best members of the American Kennel Club, and there should be something done to meet their wishes in this matter.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Chair would like to state for your information that on two occasion the Committee on Rules recommended an amendment to the rules that we cover just such a case, and both times it was votes down. The delegates would not listen to it. The proposition was that the American Kennel Club could license a club to hold a show, which would cover just this case. The American Kennel Club would not have it. The question to be decided is whether it is advisable, whether it is expedient for the American Kennel Club to call a special meeting for the purpose of admitting any Club that applies for membership. The rules are very explicit that they can be elected at any regular meeting of the American Kennel Club or at any regular meeting of the executive Board. The executive board have not any stated time to meet. They are called together whenever there is sufficient business. We have members from Boston, Wellesley and Philadelphia. Is it well to call those gentlemen here to New York for the sole purpose of voting upon the admission of a club to membership. If clubs did not wait until the last minute, as is usually the case, they could be regularly admitted without this extra trouble. Isn’t it somewhat lowering to the dignity of the Club to call special meetings as suggested? That is a question for you to decide.

MR. CARNOCHAN: It does seem right that we should go a little out of our way to grant a Club the power to hold a show. If our meetings happen to be one in February and one in May, it is taking out the whole show season, and any Club that may want to become a member and hold a show, is barred unless it comes in ahead of the time appointed for Its show. Sometimes Clubs cannot fix their finances so they can hold a show until shortly before the time they wish to do so. It seems to me that it would be right to make every concession, but it always seems a useless gathering together of the officers, of men who have other matters to attend to, to attend a special meeting of the executive board, and I would suggest that as to clubs coming in and desiring to hold a show in this way, that a vote be taken by mail; that is to say if the executive committee men are agreeable that that club should be allowed to hold a show, then they may send in their votes by mail. That seems to me to be a clear solution of the difficulty and would prevent the great expense attached to bringing the members of the executive committee together.

MAJ. TAYLOR: I move that it is the sense of this meeting that a meeting of the executive board shall be called in time to elect these clubs so they can hold their shows next month.

MR. CANOCHAN: I would move to amend that by adding that the ballots be taken by mail. I make the motion that the applications for membership from various clubs be acted upon by the membership committee, and then refer to the Executive committee for action, and that the vote of the executive committee may be taken by mail or otherwise.

MR. RODMAN: I would suggest just one thing. I do not see the necessity of limiting it to mail. I think the rule as it stands is broad enough to cover a vote by mail, and why limit it or let it go on record as accepting a mail vote.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The reason is this—This is not a reflection on you, Mr. Chairman, but I am speaking of a case where the Secretary was unfriendly to a certain club. He would call an executive committee meeting, and inform this committee of what was going to come up, merely the application of a club for membership. The members out of town would say, “This is very unimportant, I won’t attend that meeting,” and the result is you have not got a sufficient number of persons present to decide whether it is a two-thirds vote or not.

MR. RODMAN: I think you are answered by that rule. It says by a ballot. Therefore it is necessary to send them a ballot. They must cast it one way or another.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Well, by a mail ballot or otherwise.
MR. VREDENBURGH: During my absence on vacation last summer the Vermont Kennel Club sent in their application, and their was practically a signed vote. The meeting was not regularly convened, and the members that could be gotten out constituted a quorum, and every one of them signed this application and voted in the affirmative. As it was entirely irregular, so far as custom might have been at the September meeting, if you recall, I returned it, and asked a confirmation of that act. I did not want any question to arise. All I want to know is what the sense of this meeting is. If the sense of the meeting is that a mail vote should be taken that settles its. The mail vote will be taken.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I am in favor of Mr. Canochan’s motion to settle this question once for all.

Mr. Carnochan’s motion was then repeated.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would suggest that is wrong because that take it out of the hands of the regular meeting. I would say applications received during the intervals between regular meetings.

MR. CARNOCCHAN: I accept that.

Motion seconded and carried.
MR. VREDENBURGH: I have stated pretty fully in my report that the experience since 1887 up to 1889, has been that by the 25th day of January at the outside, usually the 20th my copy for the stud book of the preceding year has been in the hands of the printer. To-day in the 19th day of February, and their are about 700 registrations still in the other office uncompiled, which means continuous work of a man that is thoroughly familiar with it as least twelve days from nine o'clock to five, without doing another thing. The first of this month I took Mr. Watson off of his Gazette work and put him on the cash book. I took Mr. Day from the cash book and put him upon compiling registrations, and we kept that up for seven days. Finally I has to change. There have been days this year for the first time in our experience that we have not been able to complete that day's work during that time. For the last two weeks I doubt whether there has been a single registration for 1899 compiled. We have three men working here from early in the morning until late at night. I hate to ask for extra held, but there is the matter before you. I must do it. We cannot cope with the work. 1899 was the record year of this association, and up to date from January 1st, of 1900, is way ahead of the biggest months of 1899. I do Not see any relief. It is the effect of good times I suppose, but in every single registration that comes in here there is an immense amount of detail, and every one of them has got to have just so much time expended upon it. I just say for your information, the other morning when I arrived here about half past nine, I found on this desk 91 letter. That was my first mail. The letters kept coming in right straight until five o’clock. I lost count of them during the day, but there were 91 when I arrive in the morning. No letter that comes here is filed that is not answered. I do not care how trivial it is. If that continues we cannot get at out stud book for 1899 without extra help. I believe that I may be able to get up even with one more assistant by the first of May; it may be the first of June before I can do it. I have nearly a thousand registrations on the new book. We cannot do anything to them except send out the numbers. I have not been able to this month’s entries compiled for the Gazette. We can only put in a portion of them. We agreed to publish in the Gazette every registration received by 20th of each month; we sent the registrations for the Gazette to-day, and I imagine only about 75% were sent. I want to give you an idea of the state of affairs here.
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Is this assistance to be permanent?

MR. VREDENBURGH: No, temporary, although I could have used in 1899 another man permanently. There is one thing that handicaps me terribly. Men come in here and want to talk to me. I cannot bar them out of the office. I have got to listen to them and when they talk it take up just so much of my time away from current business. Dog men from all over when they strike New York they are bound before they leave New York to come here, and of course a great deal of their talk is personal. They tell me of the magnificent dog they have, and I cannot ask them to excuse me. I have got to entertain them; got to be courteous to every one of them. If a man steps in here for an hour, that is an hour gone out of my day’s work.

MR. RODMAN: I do not think there is any member present who would not be in favor of lightening the burdens of the Secretary.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The only thing I ask for is the right to engage somebody until we get even in our work.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the Secretary be empowered to engage temporary help until such time as the unfinished work in the office can be caught up, and to engage extra help as long as the work in the office warrants it.

Motion seconded and carried.
Capt. Knocker: I move that it is the sense of this meeting that all shows held under American Kennel Club Rules shall be held by the Bench Shows themselves, and they cannot delegate their right to any person or body.

Maj. Taylor: I think it occurs very often where Clubs do not want to hold shows, but where two or three members agree to hold it, and I do not see any reason why they should not do it, because if they don’t pay their prizes the whole official list is disqualified. It comes right back on the Club.

Mr. Carnochan: Isn’t it perfectly legitimate for members of the Club to form a guarantee fund? Wouldn’t the passage of this resolution tend to discourage certain members of the Club from making a guarantee fund? I think a great many clubs hold shows where certain influential members of the Club come forward and guarantee it.

Mr. Vredenburgh: It strikes me that the motion is not worded as was intended. I infer that the intention and meaning of this motion is, that no single person, or one or two persons, can get the use of the name of a Club for the purpose of holding a show for their own benefit.

Capt. Knocker: That is it.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: Has ever any such case arisen?

Maj. Taylor: I imagine it is a case where the American Pet Dog Club would not have given a show if these two members had not come forward and guaranteed it.

Mr. Viti: You eliminate all elements of sport when you allow private members of the Club to give the Shows. They were going to take the profits.

Mr. Carnochan: It is a perfectly legitimate thing for a number of persons, members of a club, when the club is thinking of holding a show to form a guarantee fund.

Mr. Viti: Yes.

Mr. Carnochan: So far as we know officially, the matter concerning the Pet Dog Club may have been a guarantee fund, made up only of two people instead of half a dozen. I do not see how we can act upon that. I do not see that this is a case of syndicate holding, but if you word your motion so as to meet that particular Instance which you have in your mind, why don’t you also meet the question of forming a guaranty club in every show?

Mr. Viti: In the first place, allow me to correct you by saying it is not my motion. In the second place, I am not hitting at any particular club. You said a while ago that the two gentlemen were to run this show, and if there had been any profits they were to take them.

Mr. Carnochan: I only know what I was told. I am not responsible for that statement.

Mr. Viti: Assuming that that is a fact.

Mr. Hodge: I would be glad to answer any questions.

Mr. Viti: Well, then is that so.

Mr. Hodge: That is why I asked that my report be read. That was owing to bills not being collected at the previous show, for advertising and various things of that kind. Although the show, on its face, showed a very small profit the year before, there was, in the finish, a loss on the previous show. Mr. Walter Stanton and myself put our hands in our pockets and paid those Debts. I drew my check to Mr. Stanton for $297 and he was to settle all the bills with that $297. The constitution of the American Pet Dog Club, provided that the Executive Committee would have complete jurisdiction over making such arrangements as it thought fit for all dog shows to be given by the Club. Mr. Stanton claimed that he entered into a contract with the Executive Committee whereby he would be allowed to get back the money that he had paid out of his pocket on the previous loss, and then Mr. Stanton individually, and Mr. Hodge individually, signed a written contract between ourselves that we would divide equally any loss or any win, that is, any profits, on account of the money that we had put up out of our pockets at a previous show. The Club endorsed the whole thing, and Mr. Stanton claims that the Executive Committee appointed him and me trustees to conduct the show, and the show was conducted in the name of the Club, and all contracts were signed in the name of the club. There was no such thing as the firm of Hodge & Stanton, or a corporation, or anything of that kind. It was conducted for the Club, and the Club received the benefits in so far that it did not have to pay the loss.
On its first show.

Maj. Taylor: I see no reason why these men who went in there, paying the deficit of the year before, saying if there was a deficit they would stand by it, should not, if they have gone into this guaranty, have the profits, if any, being members of the Club.

Mr. Viti: Leaving aside the question of the Pet Dog Club, do you think an active member of this Club, that is, a Bench Show Club, has a right to sublet its rights which the American Kennel Club gives it. For instance, that you can go out on the street and say “I am a member of the American Kennel Club, you agree to reimburse me”, etc. It is something similar to the possibility of prefixes being hawked around the street. I am leaving out entirely the question of the Pet Dog Club. I am speaking in general terms. Are they allowed to do that sort of thing. Is it proper that they should go forth in the streets and sell to the highest bidder the right to show under the American Kennel Club.

Maj. Taylor: I said explicitedly that it should not be done outside of members of the Club.

Mr. Viti: I know of instances where shows
Have been guaranteed by persons who were not members of the Club.

Maj. Taylor: If there was a membership of eighty in the Club, and ten men guaranteed the loss, isn’t it one and the same thing in fact.

Mr. Viti: They guaranteed that there was not to be a loss, and if there was they should make it good.

Mr. Watson: If this resolution had been in existence a year ago, two shows would have been off our roll for this last year; one, Cincinnati, the other, Providence. The shows legitimately transferred their rights to another body to manage for them. If you aim to get at something else, you ought to amend your resolution and not hit legitimate transactions between Clubs.

The motion was carried by a vote of ten to seven.

On motion the Clubs reported by the Treasurer as being in arrears were given thirty days within which to pay their dues, in default of which they will be dropped from the roll.

In the case of the Fanciers’ Club of Sharon, Pa., in arrears for dues, having held a show during 1900, the Secretary was directed to deduct from the date deposit a Sufficient amount to pay their dues for 1900.

The meeting then adjourned.

The report of the Membership Committee was read, and on motion accepted and placed on file. The same is as follows:
New York, May 16th, 1900

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen: -

At a meeting of the Membership Committee, held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting on applications for admission to membership, and upon the credentials of delegates filed with the Secretary, your Committee would respectfully report:

An application from the Ladies Kennel Association has been received, the same having been filed in accordance with the constitution, it is recommended that said Club be duly admitted to active membership.

An application has been filed by Messrs. Oliver Ames and Henry Brooks, and concurred in by Mr. James L. Little, the sole remaining members of the American Scottish Terrier Club, requesting that said Club be dissolved and its name dropped from active membership in the Club. This application is duly approved by your Committee.

The following credentials of delegates are on file and duly approved, and their acceptance recommended to wit: Capitol City Kennel Club, appointing Thomas J. Sheubrooks; Danbury Agricultural Society, appointing Dr.
John R. Bacon, National Beagle Club, appointing Mr. James W. Appleton; New England Beagle Club, appointing Mr. John Caswell; Vermont Kennel Club, appointing Mr. George T. Chaffee.

Respectfully submitted,

H.T. Foote, Chairman
C.B. Knocker

The following named gentlemen were then elected as delegates to represent the following named clubs: Dr. John R. Bacon, Danbury Agricultural Society; James W. Appleton, National Beagle Club of America; John Caswell, New England Beagle Club; Thomas Sheubrooks, Capitol City Kennel Club; George T. Chaffee, Vermont Kennel Club.

The Secretary read his quarterly report, as follows:

New York, May 16th, 1900

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

I beg to report that all matters under the jurisdiction of the Stud Book Committee, and the Membership Committee, have been turned over by me to the said Committees.
And their reports will be presented at this meeting.

Pursuant to instructions at our last meeting, final bills were mailed to all Clubs in arrears for dies on February 24th, and at the expiration of the additional thirty days extension allowed said Clubs by your body, I dropped from membership the following clubs: Bloomington Kennel Club, George State Fair Association, Omaha Kennel Club and Rhode Island Fair Association.

Under the ruling of the last meeting, that a mail vote for the admission of candidates to membership was constitutional, the following clubs were duly admitted, a full vote of the Executive Board being received in the affirmative: Atlanta Kennel Club, Capitol City Kennel Club, Hoosier Poultry & Kennel Club and Washington Kennel Club of Seattle, Wash.

The San Francisco Kennel Club, through its delegate filed a notice of a proposed amendment to the rules. The same was considered by the Rules Committee, and its report duly published in the Gazette, in which it withholds its approval of said amendment. The matter can now be taken up and be disposed of by this meeting.

The Austin Kennel Club made a loss at its late show, and appealed to you for an extension of time within which to settle its outstanding claims for prize money. The appeal is made upon the ground that owing to the late floods by which a granite dam of 60 x 1200 feet was carried away, thereby depriving the City of water, light and power, that the people are greatly demoralized, and no one is in a condition to attend to affairs beyond the actual necessity of the time.

The St. Louis Kennel Club suspended Mr. L.F. Whitman for obtaining access to its Show on a non-transferable ticket, after he had been warned against such a practice. Said notice was duly filed with this office, and suspension pending appeal issued by this office, and notice of same duly mailed to Whitman. An appeal has been made, and under the rules this meeting must either remove the suspension of change same to disqualification.

The Westminster Kennel Club has filed charges against W.B. Wells, Chatham, Canada, for refusing to comply with the rules, and also requests a ruling on the question of a special prize paid to said Wells, who, owing to the cancellation of the awards by the American Kennel Club, is not entitled to it, but refuses to refund it. This man Wells refuses, and has refused, to list his dogs. At the Chicago Show of 1899 we gave him an opportunity to make his listing, but received an impertinent letter in reply, and were obliged to cancel his awards. At the New York Show of 1900, we again cancelled his awards for non-listing, and the request of the Westminster Kennel Club for the return of $90.00 paid him through error has been curtly and positively refused, and he still retains money belonging to the Westminster Kennel Club, which is now called upon to pay to the dog moved up.

There has come to my notice that the Northwestern Kennel Club is practically two clubs trading under one membership, and I now submit the matter to you to decide if such a state of affairs should be allowed to continue.

At the last meeting of this Club the election to fill the Chairmanship of the Field Trial Committee was laid over to be acted upon at this meeting.

I beg to inform you that the bills for dues for 1900 were mailed to all associate members on November 30, 1899. Final bills were mailed to members in arrears on May 7th, 1900. At this writing there are thirty-eight members still in arrears. I would respectfully recommend that all members in arrears after June 7th, 1900, which is 30 day from the mailing of the final bills, be dropped from the roll.

I beg to report an error made in the entry of the Irish Terrier “Royal Sportsman” at the St. Louis show of 1900, by the show officials, and recommend that this meeting correct the award.

President Belmont felt obliged to undo the action of Mr. E.D. Brown, who took it upon himself to suspend two persons for the non-payment of a personal debt. Mr. Brown was Secretary of the Northwestern Kennel Club, and after its show in 1899 advanced to W.A. Hodgins, the sum of $25.00. Said amount was not repaid, and nearly one year after suspended and disqualified said Hodgins and W.R. Dobson, and took it upon himself to notify the Chicago Show of their suspension and disqualification. President Belmont suspended the penalty and directed me to wire Chicago of his action, and to report the case to this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary
On motion said report was accepted and placed on file.
The Treasurer’s report was read, as follows:

New York, May 16\textsuperscript{th}, 1900

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

I herewith submit my quarterly report:

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh

Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Executive Board was read as published in the Gazette, and it was moved and seconded
That the action of the Executive Board be confirmed.

Carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next report is from the Committee on Rules. This was published in the Gazette. The report is on the amendment offered by Capt. Knocker to the Rules, by which he wants to make it obligatory upon all Club to bench dogs of one breed together when applied for by the owner.

On motion said report was accepted and placed on file.

MR. VREDENBURGH: At the annual meeting the election of a Chairman of the Field Trial Committee was left open. The reason given was that although the National Beagle Club has appointed a delegate, his credentials had not reached this office within the time prescribed by the constitution, so that they could be acted upon, and a resolution was adopted that the matter should go over until this meeting so that the delegate from the National Beagle Club could have the opportunity of becoming a candidate for that office.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I nominate Mr. J.W. Appleton as the Chairman of that Committee.
MR. RODMAN: I move the nominations be closed.
Seconded and carried.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the Secretary be authorized to cast one ballot for Mr. Appleton, as Chairman of the Field Trial Committee.

Motion seconded and carried. The Secretary casts the ballot as directed, and Mr. J.W. Appleton was declared to be elected.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Next in order is the matter of the dropping of Clubs from active membership that did not pay their dues within the thirty days allowed them. It was provided that if they did not pay within the thirty days given them I was to drop them. They have not paid and I dropped them.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the Secretary’s action be endorsed.
Motion seconded and carried.

The application of Messrs. Oliver Ames and Henry Brooks, concurred in by Mr. James L. Little, the remaining members of the American Scottish Terrier Club, was considered, and Dr. Foote moved that the resignation of said Club be accepted.
Motion seconded and carried.

The Ladies Kennel Association was duly elected to active membership in the American Kennel Club.

The Appeal of the Austin Kennel Club for an extension of thirty to sixty days in which to arrange to pay prize money in full, won at its late show, was read.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that said Club be given sixty days from April 10th, as requested.

Motion seconded and carried.

In regard to the suspension of Mr. L.F. Whitman, by the St. Louis Kennel Club, the Secretary read the correspondence in the matter, and said that he had notified Mr. Whitman on April 26th, that by virtue of his suspension by the St. Louis Club, he was suspended by this Club and that he had an opportunity to appeal; that he then wrote to Mr. Long, and told him that he would like to have the name of the man to whom the ticket was originally issued, and asked why he was not included in the suspension; that he had received a reply from Mr. Long in which he stated that he had no positive knowledge whose ticket Mr. Whitman used.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: That whole transaction looks Like a piece of spite work, and I do not think that the American Kennel Club should be used in the matter. I do not think we should be asked to act in a case like this.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Wouldn’t that properly come before the Executive Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not see how we are going to disqualify people simply because they do not use proper tickets.

MR. WATSON: The ticket was given to the exhibitor. The penalty is printed on the ticket. The penalty is taking the ticket from the man and showing him to the door. It looks very much, as Mr. Arnolt says, like a piece of spite work.

DR. FOOTE: I move that the suspension be removed, and that it is the sense of the American Kennel Club that clubs holding shows should make their own rules governing the use of their tickets; that they have their own redress in forfeiting the ticket and in ejecting the man using it.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh then read the correspondence in the matter of the charges filed by the Westminster Kennel Club against W.B. Wells for refusing to comply with the rules of the American Kennel Club, and said: I would like to state that last year during the Spring circuit we gave every person the opportunity after the closing of a show, to list their dogs that had not been listed for that show, for the reason that we felt that possibly they were not thoroughly posted on the amended rule, which required a dog to be listed each year; so, after the catalogue came in, we made a memorandum of all that had not listed their dogs and sent them a notice asking them if they had listed, and if not, to send the listing, and we would accept it and hold their awards good. Mr. Wells received one of these letters, and if I am not mistaken he received a second letter from us, to which he replied in a very impertinent way, a sample of which you can see in his reply to the request of the Westminster Kennel Club. At the New York show this year he has done the same thing, entered his dogs without registering or listing them, and we cancelled the awards. The Westminster Kennel Club, acting under the rules, asked him to return the fees.

Mr. Watson gave particulars of the difficulty with Mr. Wells in regard to the entry of his dogs at the Chicago Show of 1899.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Has he been notified of the charges filed against him by the Westminster Kennel Club?

MR. VREDENBURGH: He has not.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think according to our rules he must be notified of the charges against him.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that charges be preferred against him on the counts stated, by the Secretary, and that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

MR. VITI: I would further suggest that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club if possible, ascertain how this gentleman made out his entries. If he made out his entries fraudulently, is there not a third count against him? If he has stated in his entry blank that the dog was listed, he has committed a fraud. If he has neglected to put in that column which is placed at his disposal on the entry blank, either the registered number or the word “listed”, it seems to me that then there is some question as to whether or not the gentleman had not a right to show his dog. If a Secretary of a show accepts an entry blank, without its being properly filled in, is that to be laid en-tirely to the door of the exhibitor? I grant it may, if his attention is called to it, and subsequent opportunity is offered him to make reparation, or to conform to the rules, but it seems to me that if he has willfully put down a false number, or willfully stated that the dog was listed when he was not, then he is guilty of a greater charge than that of not conforming to the rules in refusing to return money which he has won.

MR. HUNNEWELL: He has paid the penalty by his dogs being disqualified. I change my motion, and now move that the Secretary be authorized to prefer charges against him for not returning that money which he unlawfully holds, and that he be suspended pending investigation.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Westminster Kennel Club received $25.00 in cash for a special, and supposing that Mr. Wells had legally won it, paid over this $25.00 in good faith. The dog next to the winner was moved up in place of the cancelled dog, and its owner of course claims this special. The Westminster Kennel Club now desire a ruling whether it can be held liable for again paying that prizes out of their own pocket in case they are unable to collect it from Mr. Wells.

MR. BLOODGOOD: I should say it was liable. It is the business of the Club to see that it is paid to the right man.

THE CHAIRMAN: They are responsible under the rules.

Considerable discussion followed on the subject, in which Mr. Rodman, Mr. Hunnewell, Dr. Foote and others, contended that the Westminster Kennel Club having accepted the entry of Wells, even if improperly or fraudulently made, was liable for the payment of the $25.00 special to the owner of the dog moved up in the place of the cancelled win of Wels, while Mr. Watson strenuously insisted, that when the prize was paid in accordance with the judge’s decision, the Westminster Kennel Club should be relieved from liability in the matter.

Mr. Hunnewell moved that the request of the Westminster Kennel Club for a ruling in regard to the $25.00 special be referred to the Executive Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: At the St. Louis show the Irish Terrier “Royal Sportsman” was by error of the Club placed in the novice class instead of the open class. We have the entry here in which is was entered in the open class. The St. Louis sent advices of the award with a marked catalogue and requested that it should be rectified by this office. He was advised that is was impossible for that to be done in the office, but that the matter would be referred to the American Kennel Club at its May meeting. Since that time a communication was received from the owner of “Royal Sportsman”, enclosing a letter from Eberhard, who had charge of the dog at St. Louis. From Eberhard’s letter it was learned that he, being aware that the dog was not eligible for the novice class, had the entry looked up and it was found that the error was made by the St. Louis Club and he received from that Club the amount of prize in the open class. On receipt of this information the St. Louis Club’s Secretary was written to and asked why it was that when the error was discovered during the show, no attempt was made to have it rectified by the Judge, or, if he had left, by one having authority to do so. The Secretary’s reply to this letter acknowledges that the error was discovered before the show closed but after the judge had left for his home.

The Secretary then read the correspondence in connection with the matter.

Dr. Foote moved that the dog be recorded as winning in the open and winning classes.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I offer an amendment that it shall not in any way be considered as a precedent.

DR. FOOTE: I accept the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is moved and seconded that this dog “Royal Sportsman” be recorded as having won first in the open and first in the winners classes at the St. Louis Show, and Mr. Hunnewell’s amendment has been accepted that this shall not in any way be considered as a precedent.

Carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I was rather puzzled during the last year to know exactly who the officers of the Northwestern Kennel Club were, as at one time I would receive a letter signed W.A. Moore, Secretary, and at another time one signed E.D. Brown, Secretary; so I wrote them letters on May 12th, asking about this. I received a letter written by the superintendent of the show, concurred in by Mr. Moore, and all this correspondence I will submit to you.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I think the Northwestern Kennel Club should be disqualified. They have no right to do business under any such arrangement as that.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: The next question is relative to the action taken by the president in regard to the suspension of Messrs. Hodgins and Dobson, by the Northwestern Kennel Club.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I submitted this case to Mr. Belmont. Mr. Belmont removed the suspension at once and directed me to wire Chicago that the suspension imposed by the Northwestern Kennel Club as inoperative, and to notify Mr. Brown to the same effect. This is the first case I ever heard of where notices of suspension were sent around to all the different clubs by any other club except the American Kennel Club. The matter is now before you for your determination. The question is, is it proper for this Club to be organized that way? It is practically two Clubs.

DR. FOOTE: I move that his action be sustained.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: It seems to me we should take some action as to whether we are going to allow the Secretary of any Club to send information to other Clubs about what they have done in the way of suspension.

After some discussion it was declared that it was the sense of the meeting that the Secretary of the Northwestern Kennel Club should be reprimanded for his violation of the rules in taking it upon himself to forward notices of suspension to other clubs, as such notices can only be sent out by the American Kennel Club, but no action will be taken at this meeting, as it is, under the Constitution, a matter that must be acted upon by the Executive Board.

It was moved and seconded that the recommendation of the Secretary that all members in arrears after June 7th, 1900, said date being thirty days from the mailing of the final bills, be dropped from the roll, be adopted.

Carried.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was then made by Mr. Viti, its Chairman, as follows:

The Stud Book Committee begs to report that since its last meeting the following applications for regis-tration of Kennel names has been received, and as they do not conflict with any names already registered, the Committee recommends that they be allowed:

Charlottesville Field Trial Kennels, Hobart Ames, Northwestern, Mass.
DeVon-Hill, Seth Bunker Capp, Devon, Pa.
Huron, Sanborn & Shields, Port Huron, Mich.
Nestledown, Boudinot, Keith, New York City
Also two transfers as follows:
Prospect Park, transfer from H.C. Winther to Mrs. H.C. Winther, Brooklyn, N.Y.
Hastings, transfer from A.D. Cochran to Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Cochran, Hastings on the Hudson, N.Y.

At a meeting of the Committee held on April 11th, at which all the members were present, a number of suggestions in reference to proposed changes in the methods of registration, including several proposed by E.D. Brown, of Minneapolis, Minn., was discussed, but all appeared to the Committee to be grossly impractical, and inadequate to reach better results than under our present rules. While the Committee considered that the present rules may be inadequate, the plans submitted in no way bettered the situation, and tended simply to encumber the method of registration and subjected owner to considerable extra expense in the matter of procuring a large number of affidavits. The Committee therefore recommend that the rules continue in force as at present. In the matter of the registration of the English setter, “Doctor Mack”, the Committee have held in abeyance pending correspondence with a view of obtaining necessary information from the breeder. We have recommended that a similar disposition be made of the matter of the Great Dane, “Bertha”, and two collie bitches. We have been in active correspondence with the parties in interest, whom we believe to be in possession of the necessary information, but we have not been enabled to get what we consider sufficient facts to enable us to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion. We would also recommend that the application for the name “Oakwood” be held in abeyance until the applicant complies with all the rules of this association.

The matter of next year’s Stud Book, or the publication of next year’s Stud Book, was considered at a Meeting held at twelve o’clock to-day. The present Stud Book is the largest that the Club has ever published, and the indications are that the volume for the current year will contain probably heretofore. The registrations to-day are coming in at a rate of a hundred per month greater than the average for any previous year. The Committee were [illegible] to recommend that the Stud Book should be published in two volumes, as that would necessitate two indices for the one year, but we find that by using a lighter paper we can publish a volume of the same size as this year and yet have twelve hundred more names in it. The sample of the paper has been submitted, and it seems to the Committee advantageous to utilize that hereafter.

Respectfully submitted.

Marcel Viti, Chairman
C.B. Knocker
Charles W. Rodman, Jr.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Now, gentlemen, the next and the last matter to come before you, will be the report of
The Rules Committee. As amendment is now before you to amend Section 3, Rule 12, covering dog shows, as follows: “It shall be the duty of dog show committees to bench all dogs of a breed together, owned and entered by one exhibitor, provided a request to do so be made on the entry form.” You heard the report of the Rules Committee read earlier in the day, in which they disapproved of the adoption of this amendment. The matter is now in your hands.

At this point Chairman Brooks resigned the Chair to Mr. Vredenburgh.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I am placed in a very peculiar and awkward position. I have been pushing this matter to a vote, backed up and endorsed by my Club, the San Francisco Kennel Club, both by letter and telegram, up to this last week, when my Club withdrew its endorsement of it, and I received a notice that they have passed a resolution that it is not good to force bench show committees to take action in the matter. Now, gentlemen, this takes the wind out of my sails. I am only a delegate of the Club. I am supposed to have no personal wishes. I have aired this as a delegate of the Club heretofore pretty fully, in favor of benching dogs together, and making it a Rule. As I now stand, I cannot take any further steps in the matter. I shall not vote one way or the other, and I suppose it will be decided at this meeting what is to be done. I have to apologize for ever having brought the matter up.

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you wish to withdraw the amendment, or do you wish to put it before the meeting?

CAPT. KNOCKER: I have no power to withdraw it. I think in justice to the Club it ought to be put before the meeting and let the delegates decide what they will do in the matter.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Hasn’t this question been up three times?

THE CHAIRMAN: This is the third time.

MR. HUNNEWELL: And every time we voted that the American Kennel Club had no jurisdiction in the matter?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, that we deemed it inexpedient.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the report of the Committee be confirmed.

Motion seconded.

THE CHAIRMAN: You understand what this vote
Means. If you confirm the recommendation of the Rules Committee, the proposed amendment to the rules will be declared lost. It is a great deal better, though, in the opinion of the Chair, to move the question itself, that the rules be so amended and then you vote just as you please. It takes two-thirds of the votes of this meeting to carry this amendment. That is a better way to bring it before the meeting.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that we put it before the House.

THE CHAIRMAN: You move that the amendment offered by Capt. Knocker, to wit, that it shall be the duty of dog show committees to bench all dogs of a breed together, owned and entered by one exhibitor, provided a request to do so be made on the entry form, be adopted.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Yes.

DR. FOOTE: I second the motion.

The vote on the motion resulted in the loss of the proposed amendment unanimously.

The meeting then adjourned.

The report of the Membership Committee was read, as follows:

"New York, September 19, 1900

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee,
Held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting on credentials of delegates, filed with the secretary, your Committee would respectfully recommend the acceptance of the following:

James Mortimer to represent the Ladies Kennel Association.
D.D. Jennings to represent the Milwaukee Kennel Club.
F.S. Stedman to represent the American Pomeranian Club.
J.L. Arden to represent the St. Bernard Club of California.
R.P. Keasbey to represent the San Francisco and San Mateo Agricultural Association.
S.D. Brandt to represent the Hoosier Poultry & Kennel Association.

Respectfully submitted, H.T. Foote
C.B. Knocker
S. Van Schaick

On motion, the report was accepted and placed on file, and the delegates named therein duly elected by ballot.
It was moved and seconded that the reading of the minutes of the last meeting be dispensed with and that they be accepted as published in the May Gazette.

MR. VREDENBURGH: Before that is done, I would like to state that in my report I call attention to what I consider an error in those minutes, and I would like to have those minutes laid over until the matter can be properly reached.

Motion to accept the minutes as published, withdrawn.

The secretary read his report, as follows:

“New York, September 19, 1900

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

Since the last quarterly meeting four applications for admission to active membership have been filed, and in accordance with the ruling of this club at its meeting held February 19, 1900, a mail vote of the Executive Board was taken, which resulted in the unanimous election of the San Francisco and San Mateo Agricultural Society, West Virginia Exposition & State Fair Association and the Vicksburgh Fox Terrier Club.

I have submitted all matters under the jurisdiction of the Stud Book Committee and the Membership Committee to the respective committees, and their reports will be present-Ed in the usual manner. At the last quarterly meeting of this Club a resolution was adopted by which the Secretary of the Northwestern Kennel Club was reprimanded for violation of the rules. Said resolution was improperly worded, as the person who it was undoubtedly meant to reach was the ex-secretary of that club. Mr. E.D. Brown, ex-secretary of said club, had appealed and protests against said reprimand, and I respectfully ask that the whole matter may be taken up at this meeting and finally settled, as my veracity in the case has been questioned.

The Executive Board at its meeting held June 27, 1900, passed the following resolution regarding the present organization of the Northwestern Kennel Club, to wit: “It is the sense of this Board that two separate clubs are acting under one title, and that the same is contrary to American Kennel Club usage and prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club.” A copy of said resolution was mailed to W.A. Moore, Secretary, who replied under date of July 20, 1900, denying the allegation of the Executive Board, and asked for particulars. My reply was mailed July 26, 1900, to which no reply has been received. In this connection I would respectfully ask for an interpretation of the resolution of the Executive Board for my future guidance.

Charles Busch was suspended by the Philadelphia Dog Show Association for insulting one of its judges, and said action was duly reported to the American Kennel Club at its meeting of February 19, 1900, at which time the American Kennel Club changed the suspension to disqualification. Busch now appeals for re-instatement.

The Executive Board passed a resolution to the effect that if W.B. Wells, of Chatham, Canada, did not return the prize money illegally held by him, to the Westminster Kennel Club on or before July 27, 1900, he shall stand permanently disqualified for fraudulent conduct. On July 27, 1900, the Westminster Kennel Club notified me that said Wells had failed to return said money, upon receipt of which I disqualified him in accordance with the orders of the Executive Board.

Complaint has been filed by the Montebello Kennels against the Kansas City Kennel Club for its failure to pay over two silver cups, won by said Montebello Kennels. Notice was sent to the Secretary of the Kansas City Kennel Club on August 23, 1900, requesting it to give the matter its prompt attention. No reply has been received by this Club.
Charges have been filed by the St. Louis Kennel Club against George Morris, Jr., Mexico, Mo.; Joseph Meisenheimer, Milwaukee, Wis.; A.M. Roth, St. Louis, Mo.; Charles L. Krause, St. Louis, Mo. And D.P. Redd, Milwaukee, Wis. for their refusal to refund prize money paid for winnings that had been subsequently cancelled by the American Kennel Club. The complaint sets forth that repeated requests had been made of these persons for the return of said money, but without success. I have called upon them to show cause why they should not be disqualified. One of the parties accused, Joseph Meisenheimer, has deposited with this Club the amount claimed by said St. Louis Kennel Club, together with his protest, which will be submitted to you.

For my own protection I am obligated to report that the California State Fair Association and the West Virginia State Fair Association published a certificate of their classification and their winners class ratings over my signature, without having received such a certificate, and wholly without my knowledge or consent. The first named club published a rating of five points when it was only entitled to one point, and both clubs published said certificate without having claimed dates, without having made the necessary deposit, and without having submitted their classification for approval. The omission have been rectified, and were apparently due to a misunderstanding of the rules. I hold, however, that it is rather serious to publish an official notice over an official signature that has never been obtained.

The Pacific Advisory Committee has filed a request to be furnished with a complete file of the Stud Book.

The Public Library of Boston has filed a request for a donation of a set of the Stud Books for Volume VIII to date.

Since writing the above report I have received replies from George A. Morris, Jr., A.M. Roth, Charles L. Krause, in defense of the charges filed by the St. Louis Kennel Club.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s Report was read as follows:

“New York, September 19, 1900

To The American Kennel Club,
Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my quarterly report:

Balance on hand January 1, 1900  $6,824.33
Receipt from January 1, 1900 to date 8,884.54
15,708.87

Disbursement since January 1, 1900 8,391.57
Balance on hand $7,317.30

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the proceedings of the Executive Board of June 27, 1900, was read, which was published in the July Gazette, and on motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, as follows:

“New York, September 20, 1900

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

Your Committee beg to report that they have, at a meeting this day held, allowed the following prefixes:
Columbia, to Dr. & Mrs. Jennings
Blue Grass, to Nelson J. Edwards
Claybrook, to Arthur Perrin
Fernleigh, to F. Ambrose Clark
Plumeria, to E.C. Plumb
Stafford, to Henry D. Riley
The Duffers, to E. Hicks Herrick
Venlo Farm, to L.A. Klein

Your Committee also grant to P.J. Peckham and to William C. Augheimbauch, to the former the right to register with the prefix of Royal-Kreuger, and to the latter the prefix of Royal-Nugget, upon their severally registering the names as kennel prefixes, using a hyphen in each case.

In the matter of Charles W. Gilbert your Committee direct the Secretary to notify said Gilbert that he must return the certificate of pedigree sent to him, and upon receipt of same a new certificate will be forwarded to him, and in case of his refusal so to do, your Committee recommend his disqualification.

Your Committee report progress with relation to the matters of the English Setter bitch of Pet of Vassar and Great Dane bitch Bertha, and expect to report in full upon same at next meeting.

C.W. Rodman, Jr., Secretary
On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Report of the special meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee was read, as follows:

“Special Meeting Pacific Advisory Committee, A.K.C. August 17th, 1900.

PRESENT:  H.H. Carlton, M.D. Allen, J.P. Norman
ABSENT:  J.E. De Ruyter, Dr. E.N. Lowry

The meeting was called to order in Room 90, Palace Hotel, San Francisco, by the Secretary, J.P. Norman.

Moved Carlton, and seconded that Mr. Allen take the chair.

Carried.

Mr. Allen then took the chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Moved (Carlton) and seconded, that as it appears to this Committee that Dr. E.N. Lowry, by reason of physical disability and consequent absence from the city, is unable to attend the meetings of this Committee, and that this Committee is thereby seriously embarrassed in the performance of its duties, be it therefore.

RESOLVED, that this Committee does hereby declare vacant the position of the said Dr. Lowry, by reason of physical disability and consequent absence from the city, is unable to attend the meetings of this Committee, and that this Committee is thereby seriously embarrassed in the performance of its duties, be it therefore.

RESOLVED, that this Committee does hereby declare vacant the position of the said Dr. Lowry, and the Committee hereby extends to him its best hopes for his speedy and complete recovery.
Moved (Carlton) that Arthur J. Allen be nominated to the A.K.C. to fill the vacancy.

Moved (Norman) that R.H. Rountree be nominated to the A.K.C. On the statement of the chair that the Executive of the A.K.C. preferred to see the Committee constitution in part at least of members who were not affiliated with clubs, Mr. Norman withdrew the name of Mr. Rounree and seconded the nomination of Mr. A.J. Allen. Mr. A.J. Allen was nominated unanimously to the American Kennel Club for appointment on this Committee.

The following letter was read by the Secretary:

“Aromas, Monterey County, Cal. March 18, 1900

To J.P. Norman, Esq.
Sec. P.C.A. Board, San Francisco.

Dear Sir:

My attention has been drawn to a report of the P.C.A.B. in last month’s A.K.C. Gazette. The report states that Pacific Kennel League Clubs have published in their premium lists an article regarding a ten show circuit of P.K.L. Clubs, and a one show circuit of A.K.C. Clubs. I regret to inform you that that statement is absolutely untrue and is likely to injure P.K.L. Clubs. The article in Should be ignored by the A.K.C. And it is further resolved that the above communication be placed on file.

The following communication was read by the Secretary:

“San Francisco, June 20, 1900

To J.P. Norman,
Sec. P.C.A.C, A.K.C.

Dear Sir:

At several meetings of the delegates of the Specialty Clubs of this coast held recently, discussion as to the limited powers of your Committee was had and the unanimous opinion is that your Committee should be empowered with authority to receive and act upon applications for membership to the A.K.C. of all clubs upon Pacific Coast, to grant dates for the holding of shows and to pass upon the premium lists submitted. There has been some suggestion made as to provisional registration. This is a matter that requires thoughtful consideration, and we are not prepared to offer any advice upon the matter at present. The Pacific Coast, as you know, has been unfortunate for the past three years in not having any A.K.C. shows outside San Francisco. At present there are prospects this fall of two shows under its rules, Sacramento and Tanforan. The princi-Pal opposition to the A.K.C. upon this coast has been made upon the ground that there was no authority vested in your Committee that was of any moment or consequence, and that we were ruled by a New York clique. Now, if the A.K.C. take a favorable view of those matters and grants the changes asked, it will strengthen its organization upon this coast and give no reason for the continuance of the Pacific Kennel League.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) J.B. Martin

Chairman Special Clubs’ Delegate

Moved and seconded that a copy of the above communication from Mr. J.B. Martin be transmitted to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, and that it is the sense of this Committee that this Committee be empowered to receive applications for membership, to pass upon premium lists submitted, and to receive such further powers as may tend to benefit the interests of the A.K.C. upon this coast. And it is further the sense of this Committee that the matter of registration should be dealt with in the same manner as at present, as there is nothing, in the opinion of the Committee, that would necessitate any radical change from the method at present in vogue. Carried unanimously.
In the matter of the appeal of A.F. Colvin.

From the decision of the bench show committee reversing the decision of Judge Mortimer in the matter of the cup offered by the Pacific Coast Field Trials Club for the best pointer or setter in the Field Trials Class, as per the complaint of Mr. Colvin on file, it appears that no conditions were specified as to the said class in the premium list of the Fourth Annual Bench Show of the San Francisco Kennel Club, and that in answer to an inquiry from Mr. Colvin, he received from the office of the S.F.K.C. a letter signed J.P. Norman, per B.T.B., which was written by Mr. Bromfield, a paid attaché of the Club, who stated that he wrote it at the dictation of D.J. Sinclair, the official clerk of the Show; this letter stating that the Field Trials Class was open to any dog that had been entered in any Field Trial regardless as to whether it had been placed or not; it appears further from the record that the Bench Show Committee of the S.F.K.C. confirmed the award to Mr. Colvin’s pointer bitch, Lady C. over the protest of J.W. Flinn, the owner of the reserve dog, Senator P., and that the said Bench Show Committee did illegally reverse their decision. Therefore, be it resolved that this Committee decides that the decision of the judge should stand, and that Lady C. is rightfully Entitled to the cup, and the Secretary is hereby instructed to request the Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club to place Mr. Colvin in possession of the same. The deposit of ten ($10.00) dollars on this appeal reverts to the appellant. Carried unanimously.

As it appears to this Committee that the management of the Sacramento Show have announced five points in their premium lists, whereas the Show as an initial one is only entitled to one point, it is the sense of the Committee that this mistake should be called to the prompt attention of the Secretary of the A.K.C., who, it is known to this Committee, has granted to the said Show, subject to release, a certificate for one point; and the Secretary of the A.K.C. is requested to take such steps as will rectify the error made by the Sacramento management. It is further the sense of this Committee that the present is an instance in point where authority to handle such errors would redound if placed in the hands of this Committee to the interests of the A.K.C. in particular, and to the dog interests of the Pacific Coast in general.

There being no further business the Committee, on motion, adjourned.

Attest,

J.P. Norman, Secretary
The Secretary read an appeal from E.D. Brown from the reprimand imposed upon him as Secy of NWK Club.

MR. VREDEBURGH: In my report at the last quarterly meeting I made the following statement:

“President Belmont felt obliged to undo the action of Mr. E.D. Brown, who took it upon himself to suspend two persons for the non-payment of a personal debt. Mr. Brown was Secretary of the Northwestern Kennel Club, and after its show in 1899 advanced to W.A. Hodgins the sum of $25. Said amount was not repaid, and nearly one year after suspended and disqualified said Hodgins and W.R. Dobson, and took it upon himself to notify the Chicago Show of their suspension and disqualification. President Belmont suspended the penalty and directed me to wire Chicago of his action, and to report the case to the meeting.”

I also beg to quote from the official minutes of said meeting the following:

“The Chairman: The next question is relative to the action taken by the President in regard to the suspension of Messrs. Hodgins and Dobson by the Northwestern Kennel Club.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I submitted this case to Mr. Belmont. Mr. Belmont removed the suspension at once, and directed me to wire Chicago that the suspension imposed by
The Northwestern Kennel Club was inoperative, and to notify Mr. Brown to the same effect. This is the first case I ever heard of where notices of suspension were sent around to all the different clubs by any other club except the American Kennel Club. The matter is now before you for your determination. The question is, is it proper for this Club to be organized that way? It is practically two clubs.

Dr. Foote: I move that his action be sustained.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: It seems to me we should take some action as to whether we are going to allow the secretary of any club to send information to other clubs about what they have done in the way of suspension.

After some discussion it was declared that it was the sense of the meeting that the Secretary of the Northwestern Kennel Club should be reprimanded for his violation of the rules in taking it upon himself to forward notices of suspension to other clubs, as such notices can only be sent out by the American Kennel Club, but no action will be taken at this meeting, as it is under the constitution, a matter that must be acted upon by the Executive Board.”

Mr. Brown denies the truthfulness of my statements, and appeals. He inundated this office with so many letters,
And couched them in such an offensive manner that I at last was obliged to decline to reply to any further communications from him, and turned his subsequent letters over to Mr. Watson, who was likewise obliged to discontinue the correspondence. The matter has now resolved itself into a question of veracity between Brown and myself, and I now propose to submit to you the papers on which I based my report of last May and my remarks at same meeting, and ask this meeting to declare whether my statements were statements of fact or otherwise. In the first place, I beg to submit the Minneapolis catalogue of 1899, by which it will appear that the show was held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 24th.

Second: I submit Brown’s letter of March 2nd, 1900, in which he says: “One W.A. Hodgins arrived at Minneapolis, as he claimed ‘busted’. He hoped to win enough at our Show to get him and his outfit back home, but when he cam to settle, we were owing him $4.75 only, which we paid him.” I submit that the payment of above amount on the closing day of the show, and that said show did close on Friday night, March 24th 1899, that all official connection between the Northwestern Kennel Club and its exhibitors ended. In same letter Brown continues: “The next day, Saturday, and depend-Ing on his (Hodgins) representatives as to financial standing of Dobson (owner of some of Hodgins’ dogs) we paid Hodgins $25, and took his receipt. We have been trying ever since to collect of Dobson and Hodgins, and they simply give us the laugh.” I submit that I stated the fact when I reported that the unpaid loan was a personal debt, it having been contracted one day after the closing of the show, and after all official connection between the Club and its exhibitors had ceased.

Third: In same letter Brown notifies the A.K.C. “That by virtue of Rules 18 and 19, the Bench Show Committee of the Northwestern Kennel Club has disqualified and suspended both of the above parties, and I have this day sent notice to that effect to the Mascoutah Club. If the matter is not settled at once we propose also to send similar notice to other clubs that are to hold shows this season.”

Rules 18 and 19 of the A.K.C. are as follows:

“XVIII: A person or club guilty of misconduct of any kind in connection with dogs, dog shows of field trials may be suspended by the President of the American Kennel Club, or in his absence by the Vice-President, or by the Committee of the show or trial where the offense was committed. The disqualification or suspension of an owner shall apply to all dogs owned by him or connected with the perpetration of a fraudulent act, and no dog so disqualified is eligible for entry at any show under any ownership.”
“XIX: No person under suspension or sentence of disqualification can make an entry, exhibit or take a prizes act as agent for an exhibitor, or take a dog in the judging ring at any show held by a member of the American Kennel Club. The privileges of the Stud Book are withheld from all persons under suspension of disqualification, for registration of dogs owned or bred by them.”

I also quote Rule XIV. Under which clubs can act:

“XIV: In the event of the suspension by a Show Committee of any person for misconduct as provided for in Rule XVIII. Of the Dog Show rules, notice of such suspension shall be forwarded within twenty-four hours ot the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, who shall at once notify the President, or in his absence the Vice-President, who shall investigate the case, and if he see fit, suspend the penalty until the next meeting of the Executive Board. The Executive Board must, at its first meeting thereafter, either remove the suspension or impose a penalty of disqualification for such period as it may decide upon.”

I submit that the Northwestern Kennel Club, through its Secretary, violated the rules above quoted, first, in disqualifying, a penalty that can only be imposed by the American Kennel Club itself; and second, by sending notices to other bench show clubs, a prerogative only to be assumed by the American Kennel Club.

Fourth: I have evidence that E.D. Brown, Secretary, did notify the Mascoutah Club, and have his statement that he would notify all other shows, as above quoted.

Fifth: The letter from which above quotation are taken is signed “E.D. Brown, Secy. Northwestern Kennel Club, 1899.”
Sixth: I beg to submit a letter dated March 2, 1900, to the Secretary Mascoutah Kennel Club, as follows: “This is to notify you that Mr. W.R. Dobson, 299 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich., and W.A. Hodgins, Circle P.O., Oakland County, Mich., have been suspended and disqualified to enter, exhibit, or act as agent for any exhibitor, or take any dog in the ring at any show held by a member of the A.K.C. The above suspension and disqualification is made by the Bench Show Committee of the Northwestern Kennel Club by virtue of the provisions made in Rules XVIII. And XIX. of A.K.C. Rules governing dog shows.” This notice is signed by William B. MacLean, Chairman, and by E.D. Brown, Secretary. As no year is stated other than the date the notice was written, to wit, March 2, 1900, it is to be presumed that Brown was then Secretary of the Club.

Seventh: I beg to submit a letter signed by W.S. Moore, Secretary, dated February 16, 1900, which is fourteen days prior to Brown’s notice of March 2, 1900, signed as secretary; also another letter dated March 31, 1900, signed W.A. Moore, Secretary, which is twenty-nine days subsequent to Brown’s notice of March 2, 1900, signed as Secretary, which is presumptive evidence that Brown exceeded his authority in sending out any official document signed as secre-
Eighth: I also submit that at the annual election for offices of the Northwestern Kennel Club all unfinished business should have been turned over to the new officers, for any official act of the Club. This is usage.

Ninth: I also submit that after new officers and committees have been elected in any organization, to call together the members of any committee that has ceased to exist, and for said committee to attempt to exercise any official act, the same is illegal and void. And in like manner, for any person to sign an alleged official paper as an officer when he has ceased to hold that office, is reprehensible, and should subject such a person to severe discipline.

I now beg to hand to your Chairman all of the papers referred to in my statement so that he may verify them and attest that my statements have been solely statements of fact, and leave the whole question of veracity between Mr. Brown and myself in your hands.

MR. VITI: I move that the minutes of the meeting of May, 1900, be so amended as to read that E.D. Brown should be reprimanded for his violation of the rules in taking it upon himself to forward notices of suspension to other clubs, as such notice can only be sent out by the American Kennel
And that the statements made at the May meeting by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club have been found to be fully substantiated by the evidence submitted; also that a copy of the evidence read at this meeting be sent to Mr. Brown.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. RODMAN: I move that the minutes of the last meeting be accepted as amended and placed on file.

Motion seconded and carried.

In regard to the request of the Secretary for an interpretation of the resolution passed by the Executive Board at its meeting held on June 27, 1900, that “It is the sense of this Board that two separate clubs are acting under one title, and that the same is contrary to A.K.C. usage, and prejudicial to the best interests of the American Kennel Club,” it was, after some discussion, moved and seconded that the Secretary be instructed to send out his bills as usual.

Seconded and carried.

Concerning the appeal from Charles Busch, Mr. Vredenburgh said: I wrote Mr. Busch acknowledging the receipt of his appeal, and that the original action was taken by the Philadelphia Dog Show Association, and that that was the club
That was insulted, and if he cared to make an apology it should be made to that club. However, here is his appeal; it has never been withdrawn and I submit it.

MR. VITI: Mr. Busch wrote a letter to the Philadelphia Dog Show Association on, I think, the week commencing September 10\textsuperscript{th}, this year, in which he said he desired to apologize to the American Kennel Club for his ungentlemanly behavior at our show. I thought that that was a very meritorious desire, but inasmuch as he had not apologized to the Philadelphia Dog Show Association, to our steward or judge, I wrote him that I could not see how under those circumstances he could expect me to intercede for him. He then wrote me again on September 15\textsuperscript{th}, a letter which I received on the 17\textsuperscript{th}, saying that he had apologized to the Philadelphia Dog Show Association. The offense occurred in November of last year. I acknowledged the receipt of the letter, and at the same time I wrote to Mr. Muss-Arnolt telling him that inasmuch as he was one of the persons who was offended jointly with the Association, I felt it would be improper for the Association to take any action in the premises whatsoever until we had heard from Mr. Arnolt. I have not as yet received a letter in reply, excepting to-day Mr. Arnolt told me he had a letter on file, and that he thought
That would answer both purpose. I did not know the contents of Mr. Arnolt’s letter until Mr. Vredenburgh read it. This sentence was imposed by the Bench Show Committee. A number of our members are still absent upon their summer vacation, and as I told Mr. Busch, I would bring it to the attention of the Committee at its next meeting. As an individual I certainly do not wish to express any opinion. The letter has only been in my hands since Monday of this week.

On motion of Mr. Rodman, the matter was laid on the table until some action can be taken by the Philadelphia Dog Show Association.

The charges filed by the St. Louis Kennel Club against George Morris, Jr., Josephe Meisenheimer, A.M. Roth, Mrs. G.H. Goddard, Charles L. Krause and D.P. Redd for their refusal to refund prize money paid for winnings that had been subsequently cancelled by the American Kennel Club, were then considered, and on motion of Mr. Carnochan were referred to the Executive Board.

In relation to the complaint filed by the Montebello Kennels against the Kansas City Kennel Club for failure to pay over two silver cups won by said Montebello Kennels, Mr. Carnochan moved that the Kansas City Kennel Club be given thirty days in which to pay those prizes, and if not paid within what time said Club should be disqualified.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I want to bring up this matter of the California State Fair Association and West Virginia State Fair Association. As I reported, they published my certificate over my signature at the top of their classification, when they had never claimed dates, had not paid their deposits, had not sent their classification for approval, and had not received my approval. The California Club published their rating as five points. On my return from my vacation I received a letter from a gentleman in which he said he refused to send his entries to Tanforan because they rated only one point, but that he did go to the expense of sending his dogs to Sacramento because there he could get five points. He asked me if I would be kind enough to inform him why I discriminated between the two shows, both being initial shows, and both being probably about the same sized shows. Well, I could not answer him; I didn’t know anything about it; but it appears that during my absence on my vacation that this office received a communication on the subject from somebody else, and we immediately sent a letter to the Sacramento Show, and they published that letter, which set the exhibitors straight on the subject that They would only win one point if they won there. The Wheeling Show, at West Virginia, wrote me that they supposed that an old club like it of twenty years standing would not be required to claim their dates and pay their deposit, and supposed that that was only intended for a club that was gotten up by a lot of gentlemen who were inexperienced in dog show matters, and that some secretary of a club, I think the Milwaukee Club, had sent them their premium list and told them they had better copy that and they copies it, and copied it with my certificate. They wanted to know how they could square the matter. I told them they would have to claim the dates, make a deposit and then I would report the matter here. I received their claim for dates and their deposit just one day before their show opened, which was probably a week after their entries closed. I am perfectly willing to admit that this action on their part was due to a misapprehension of the rules, but it is rather serious to have such a certificate appear over my signature, because people might think I was discriminating. I want to make it a matter of record that these certificates were published without my knowledge or consent. I don’t know whether you want to do anything in the matter or not.

MR. WATERS: It would be rather hard on the exhibitors if all wins were to be disqualified.

DR. FOOTE: I move that the two clubs be censured and cautioned.
Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDEBURGH: The Pacific Advisory Board had asked for a complete file of the Stud Book. I cannot give it to them, as Volume V. is out of print.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I move that their request be granted so far as possible by sending all we have.
Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDEBURGH: The Publish Library of Boston asks for a donation of Volume VIII. and all volumes published since of the American Kennel Club Stud Book.

MR. WATERS: I move that it is the sense of this Club that it makes no further donations of the Stud Book.
Motion seconded and carried.

On motion of Mr. Carnochan the meeting resolved itself into a committee of the whole.

Upon reassembling Mr. Vredenburgh reported as follows:

Mr. Chairman, as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole I beg to report that it was moved, seconded and carried that the chair appoint a committee of three, of which the Secretary of the American Kennel Club shall be one, to consider a project that was debated by the committee of the whole and confer with the parties in interest, and report later on the result of its consideration and conference.

Mr. Carnochan moved that the report of the Committee of the Whole be now brought up for action, and the same was seconded and carried, and the chair appointed Mr. Rodman and Mr. Carnochan in connection with Mr. Vredenburgh as the special committee recommended by the Committee of the Whole.

The meeting then adjourned.

In the absence of the President and Vice President, Capt. Knocker nominated Mr. Vredenburgh as the Chairman of the meeting.

Nomination seconded and carried.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Membership Committee report was read as follows:

New York, Dec. 17, 1900

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

At a meeting of the Membership Committee, held this day, for the purpose of examining and reporting on applications for membership, and credentials of delegates, filed with the Secretary, your committee would respectfully recommend the acceptance of the following:

--APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP—

Memphis Kennel Club
Scottish Terrier Club of America
To take effect January 1, 1901

--CREDENTIALS OF DELEGATES—

B.S. Smith, to represent the Welsh Terrier Club
Frank R. Story “ “ “ Chicago Pet Dog Club
Respectfully submitted –

H.T. Foote, Ch.)
: Membership

S. Van Schiack )
: Committee

C.B. Knocker )

On motion the report was accepted and placed on file, and the Clubs applying for admission elected; also the gentlemen named therein, presenting credentials to represent the Club therein mentioned were elected as such.

The Secretary then read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, Dec. 17, 1900

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:-

Since the last quarterly meeting four applications for admission to active membership have been filed, two of which, namely, the Louisiana Kennel Club, and the Welsh Terrier Club were duly elected by the Executive Board at its meeting held Nov. 14, 1900. The other applications, and the credentials for delegates will be duly reported at this meeting by the Membership Committee. Applications for the registration of six Kennel names will be reported at this meeting by the Stud Book Committee.

I beg to report the reception of a resignation, from the Butterfly Bench Show Association, and would recommend the acceptance of same, as said club is now in good standing, having discharged all obligations to the A.K.C. to Dec. 31st,
The Ladies Kennel Association applies to have its title changed to that of “THE LADIES KENNEL ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA”, to prevent any confusion or conflict with the name of one of our members, Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts. I recommend the change as requested.

The officers of the Kansas City Kennel Club were duly disqualified at our last meeting, for having failed to pay special prizes to the Montebello Kennels and to L. Loring Brooks. These prizes have been paid and notice to that effect filed by the parties who made the charges. An official notice from the Kansas City Kennel Club to the effect that all prizes have been paid, has been filed with this office. I would recommend that the appeal for reinstatement be granted.

An appeal from William Routley for reinstatement has been filed, and his letter will be duly submitted at this meeting. I believe that the appellant has been fully punished for his offense and would recommend his reinstatement.

I have a notice from the Philadelphia Dog Show Association that so far as it related to that Club, it has removed the suspension it imposed against Charles Busch. Said Busch was disqualified by the A.K.C. by virtue of his suspension by the Philadelphia Dog Show Association, and I would recommend his reinstatement by the A.K.C. at this meeting.
A. R. Castagner has filed charges against the Northwestern Kennel Club for non-payment of Seven Dollars ($7.00) on account of prizes won at its late show. By reason of cancellation made by the A.K.C., Castagner’s dogs were moved up under the rules, and his demands on the Northwestern Kennel Club of the moneys due him, have not been honored.

The Philadelphia Dog Show Association has filed a notice with the A.K.C. that its Bench Show Committee has suspended Edwin H. Morris for conduct at its show prejudicial to the best interests of dog shows. This meeting must either remove said suspension, or change same to disqualification. In either case either party has the right of appeal.

The Cleveland Kennel Club duly claimed Feb. 26, 27, 28, and Mar. 1st, 1901, for a Dog Show, and made the necessary deposit. Under date of Dec. 9, 1900, said Club applied for a cancellation of said dates, it being its intention not to hold a show during 1901. Other clubs have claimed dates based upon the dates granted Cleveland. I beg to request instructions relative to the amount deposited here, with the original claim.

Mr. H.H. Carlton, has appealed against my decision in cancelling the award given to his Boston Terrier Tremont (47976), shown at the last San Francisco show as Oakside Tremont (47976). Said cancellation was based upon the fact that there was no registration of a Boston Terrier under the name of Oakside Tremont No. 47976. One reason of said appeal is that said dogs win the year previous, was allowed by me, although similar circumstances prevailed. That fact has been acknowledged by me. The win of 1899 was permitted to stand, owning to the non-discovery by this office of the error. The question I take it, has been settled by former rulings of this Club that giving a registered dog a prefix after such registration is a change of name, and no change of name is permitted after a registration have been published in any volume of the Stud Book. The question as I understand it, shall the win of said dog be reinstated, or shall it remain cancelled, and if the latter, what disposition shall be made of the win of 1899 that was overlooked by this office.

The Pacific Advisory Committee has rendered a Bill for disbursements from July to December, amounting to Eleven 40/100 Dollars ($11.40) which requires your approval or otherwise.

In closing my report, I beg to congratulate the A.K.C. upon the most successful year in its history. All records have been broken, and the condition of the Club is in a most satisfactory state.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Treasurer read his report, as follows:

New York, Dec. 17, 1900

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:-

I hereby submit my quarterly report:-

Receipts from Jan. 1, 1900, to date --------------------- 11,909.68
  Total.                                           18,734.01
Disbursements since Jan. 1, 1900 --------------------- 10,552.83
  Balance on hand $ 8,181.18

All bills for Active and Associate dues for 1901, were duly mailed on Nov. 30, 1900.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

It was moved and seconded that the minutes of the meeting of the Executive Board be accepted as published in the Gazette.

Carried.
The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:-

The Stud Book Committee beg leave to report as follows:

Applications have been duly made for the registration of Kennel names as follows:-

- Bayside  G.S. Haliwell, Wollaston, Mass
- Crosswicks  Mr. & Mrs. Clement B. Newbold, Phila
- Lorna  Dr. Leon H. Jastremski
- Massasoit  Fred. A. Bearse & Chanming de Frate
- Montez  J.P. Norman, San Francisco
- Vancroft  J.B. Vandergrift, Pittsburgh

As they do not conflict with any names already registered your committee recommend that they be allowed.

Application has been made for the transfer of the name Lemington from J.B. Vandergrift to E.P. Young of Pittsburgh, and as the transfer has received the Endorsement of Mr. Vandergrift, your committee recommends that the transfer be allowed.

In reference to other matters pending before the committee, the committee beg to report that they have not concluded the correspondence necessary to a proper investigation of the same, and therefore ask that action be deferred until the next Meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Stud Book Committee
C.W. Rodman, Jr.
Marvel A. Viti
C.B. Knocker

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

The report of the Pacific Advisory Committee was read, as follows:-

Adjourned Special Meeting of the Pacific Coast Special Committee of the American Kennel Club, Held in Room 61, Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, November 23, 1900.

Minutes of previous meeting read and adopted.

The Secretary read the following communication from the American Kennel Club:
New York, November 15, 1900

Mr. J.P. Norman, Secretary,
San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir:-

I beg to advise you that at the meeting of the Executive Board held the 14th inst., that Mr. A.J. Allen, as nominated by your committee, was duly appointed as a member of said committee in place of Dr. E.N. Lowry, resigned. Your request for a greater scope of authority and more power to be accorded to your committee was carefully discussed but the Board did not deem it expedient to accede to said request.

Yours truly,
(Signed) American Kennel Club,
By
A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion, the letter was ordered on file, and it was resolved that a copy of same be placed on the minutes.

Mr. Merton C. Allen read the following communication to the committee:

Mr. Chairman, and Fellow Members of the Committee:

It occurs to me at this time that there is occasion for some decided action on the part of this committee. The present grant of power which we hold from the A.K.C. is utterly insufficient to justify our existence. We exert in Dog affairs on the Pacific Coast no influence of substantial value to the interests we are supposed to subserve. We represent in theory a large and important territory holding claims upon the interest and attention of the A.K.C. In point of fact, however, we are so circumscribed in authority that in the eyes of dog owners and exhibitors we appeal as mere figure-heads. Our position is anomalous and unsatisfactory. Instead of promoting harmony between the A.K.C. and dog owners on the Pacific Coast the mere fact of the committee’s existence under existing conditions accentuates and aggravates points of differences between the A.K.C. and a great body of dog fanciers, differences, which, under a different arrangement, might be readily adjusted.

It does not please me, Mr. Chairman, that this committee should continue to act under such conditions. Unless this committee can be put in position to profitably serve dog interests on the Pacific Coast it should go out of existence. After nearly two years of trial we are in position to thoroughly understand the situation. We know that never since the creation of this committee has it been able to serve the commendable purposes for which it was called into being. For this fact we are in no wise responsible. We lack power to accomplish for kennel interests on the Pacific Coast that which interests demand and require. The sooner we recognize that fact the better for this committee and the A.K.C.
Mr. Chairman, in justice to kennel interests, we should present the existing condition fairly to the A.K.C. We should ask that our existence be justified by more positive authority, or, failing in that request, that the A.K.C. terminate our existence as a committee and take to itself the imaginary authority we are supposed to hold. The sympathy of the members of this committee with the A.K.C. is well known. We are anxious to serve the interests of the organization in every manner possible but at the same time we are not able to close our eyes to the physical facts by which we are confronted. Both in theory and fact the committee stands for all that the A.K.C. is on the Pacific Coast. Candor and truth, however, call for an admission that because the committee is small in power and authority the A.K.C. appears small and is subjected to a petty opposition and rivalry for which under a more generous arrangement there would be not cause or excuse.

Let us not, Mr. Chairman, and Fellow Members, deceive ourselves as to the truth. Let us recognize the fact that the Pacific Advisory Committee, as now organized, is of no substantial value to the A.K.C. or to dog interests on the Pacific Coast. To be of real value this committee should be to all intents and purposes the A.K.C. on the Pacific Coast. It should have power to do on this Coast all things that the A.K.C. can do. This proposition carried with it the idea that the committee should receive and act upon applications for dates, receive for transmission to the A.K.C.
(subject to confirmation) registrations and fees for listing approved rules of bench show clubs, -- in fact have original and complete jurisdiction in all matters connected with and arising out of kennel affairs on the Pacific Coast, subject of course to the rules of the A.K.C. and to such right to appeal as may be necessary at any time to correct error and mistake.

The geographical distance separating the Pacific Coast from New York renders it impossible that the A.K.C. exercise direct control, through its general officers, over kennel affairs in the far West. That has been proved in the past by various happenings which have contributed to the embarrassment of Coast shows. The A.K.C. has made mistakes due entirely to a lack of knowledge and has thereby jeopardized its own interests, and paved with obstructions the pathway of supposed usefulness mapped out for this committee. It is justly claimed that the kennel interests of the Pacific Coast are of such character and importance as to justify a reasonable measure of home government. Exhibitors demand that to the fullest extent possible their interests be governed here and their rights determined by men able to act promptly and with full knowledge of all the facts involved.

I have in mind, Mr. Chairman, two cases arising out of the last San Francisco show. In one case a win was cancelled because a registered dog was shown under a name other than a registered name; in the other case the Secretary of the
A.K.C. cancelled the win of a dog because, through a clerical error on the part of the show management, the name of the dog was omitted from the listing blank forwarded to the A.K.C.

As to the merits of these cases there need be no argument. In the first case the Secretary of the A.K.C. was technically correct. His decision came in such a way, however, as to leave room for bad feeling. Had the case been decided here in the same way, by a local committee fully understanding the equities, all feelings would have been avoided. The owner of the dog would have been made to fully realize the legal aspect of the situation and would have been able to accept the committee’s judgment without question.

The moral of the second case is none the less apparent. If the Pacific Coast Committee were allowed to accept listings for all shows within its jurisdiction such mistakes could not occur; -- innocent owners would not be made to suffer for the mistakes of others. Under such an arrangement a rule could be made that all listings be submitted to the Committee in advance of the show or shows to which they might apply. The Committee would then have opportunity to observe and correct mistakes. The show would be the gainer; there would be equal gain for the exhibitor, and by reason of the principle of home government involved there would follow an immeasurable benefit and gain to the A.K.C.

In citing the above-mentioned cases, Mr. Chairman, my only idea has been to emphasize the proposition that this Committee to serve any useful purpose must enjoy added powers. I believe fully that were this Committee clothed with full power from the A.K.C. to regulate A.K.C. shows on this Coast that all local opposition to the A.K.C. would cease, that conflicting interests could be reconciled, and this Committee could become an agency of far-reaching benefit to all the interests it is intended to represent. In a word, Mr. Chairman, this Committee should be created the absolute agent of the A.K.C. for the purpose of transacting the business of the national organization, on this Coast, and I would go to the extent of saying that the A.K.C. should take no action in a purely Pacific Coast matter until it has first been referred to and acted upon by this Committee. With such a power of agency this Committee would be able to accomplish much for kennel interests in this jurisdiction. Lacking this power the Committee is of absolutely no value and may as well as not go out of business.

My views as here expressed I have reduced to writing in order that they may be of record on the minute of this meeting. I submit them to the Committee for such action as may be deemed proper. Personally I am much dissatisfied with the status of this Committee. Should the other members share in my views I favor such action as will promptly advise the A.K.C. of our position. In this spirit I leave the matter in your hands.

Respectfully submitted
(Signed) Merton C. Allen

San Francisco, November 23, 1900
After some remarks by all the members, in which the consensus of opinion was that the concessions of the powers asked would result in a Pacific Coast, once more united under the aegis of the American Kennel Club, it was

Resolved, that the foregoing statement submitted by Mr. M.C. Allen be spread upon the minutes and transmitted to the American Kennel Club as expressing the unanimous views of this committee, and it was further

Resolved, that should the American Kennel Club in its wisdom not see its way clear to grant the additional powers requested, the members of this committee herewith respectfully tender their resignations and request that the future discharge of the duties of this committee in its present form be entrusted to other hands, and be it further

Resolved, that it be spread on the minutes of this committee that this resolution has been unanimously carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned on motion, subject to the call of the Chair.

Attest:

J.P. Norman

Secretary

On motion the said report was laid upon the table, to be taken up later under the head of new business.
THE SECRETARY: The first business will be the resignation of the Butterfly Bench Show Association.

MR. MORTIMER: I move it be accepted with regret.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I desire to state that at a previous meeting the officers of the American Pet Dog Club were disqualified for default in the pavement of their prizes, and that was done under the rule. At the last meeting of the executive board, held on the 14th of last month, the question was brought up by one of the members of that board how it would be possible to re-instate some of the officers who had been disqualified, who were practically figure-heads, who had nothing whatever to do with the management of the show, and therefore the non-payment of prizes was not due in any way to their negligence or desire to avoid payment. The matter was not discussed officially by the board, but the member who raised the point was told that they thought that a disposition shown by any of these disqualified persons to pay his or her share toward the liquidation of these unpaid prizes might carry some weight with this meeting. In line with that unofficial discussion I replied to an inquiry the other day; I extended an invitation to one of the parties under discipline to be present at this meeting and state his case. If it is your pleasure to hear the gentleman I think it would be well to do so.

Capt. Knocker. I move that he be heard.

Motion seconded and carried.

At this point Mr. Green entered the room and was introduced to the members of the club.

Mr. Vredenburgh: This is Mr. Green, who is the husband of one of the ladies who unfortunately came under our disqualification. If you would like to make a statement we would be glad to hear you.

Mr. Green: With the permission of the board I should be glad of the opportunity to remark briefly in regard to this matter. I suppose that it is hardly necessary for me to go into the question of the organization of the club, or what transpired anterior to the time of the disqualification of the officers, among whom my wife was one, but I might state that prior to that time, and as soon as she was informed that there was any likelihood of a default, or that there had been any default in the payment of the prizes, she used every endeavor at her command to bring about their payment. She called upon the President, Mrs. Stanton, and also Mrs. Horace Stokes in an endeavor to get the prizes paid. It was rather difficult at that time, and has been ever since, to ascertain the exact amount of the indebtedness of the club, including the prize money in default, and also including other outstanding debts. She had constant assurances from Mr. Stanton, and I think from Mr. Hodge, who was associated with him in the position of trustees to manage the show, the whole matter being turned over to them under contract by the club, that they would obtain first the payment of these claims, and, secondly, at least a statement of the amount of the claims, in order that the persons responsible actively, or by negligence, might be able
To come together and contribute at least their pro rata share so as to make up the amount necessary to remove the disqualification. I advised her that so far as the outside debts of the club were concerned, that was another matter, and that that was a matter which would have to be determined by the legal position of the club. Of course those I shall resist in every way. I took the matter up with Mr. Stanton and told him that Mrs. Green was then, and she is now, perfectly willing to contribute any fair pro rata share of the amount of the claims outstanding which this Association might recognize, and I obtained from him all the books of the club that he had, which consisted merely of the minute book, which contained no information whatsoever as to the amount, and a copy of the contract between himself and Mr. Hodge and the club. I had an interview with him and a Mr. Wood who, he said, was representing the club and representing himself in an endeavor to get together all these claims. I could get no definite statement from him as to the amount of prize money which was outstanding and unpaid, but he said that it was in the neighborhood of $700., or 800., - -- he thought nearer $700., than $800., He promised us that since last June. He said that they would obtain a statement of the amount, and I told them at that time that Mrs. Green would be very glad to co-operate with any one in paying these claims to the extent of her share. He sent me those books in July, and he said he wanted them for the purpose of having Mr. Wood prepare this statement. I have heard nothing
From him since, but Mrs. Green had a letter written to him in October last, a copy of which I have here, asking that he furnish some statement of the amount of money due for prizes, and in answer to that she got the same reply that I had got before, that the matter was in the hands of Mr. Wood, and that he would prepare, or would have prepared and sent to her a statement of the total indebtedness of the club, and outside of various claims which Mr. Stanton said he had assumed, the matter stands in that position. As I said before, Mrs. Green is perfectly willing to pay whatever is fair and right under the circumstances, and has used her best endeavors to that end, and I submit to the Association whether or not under the circumstances, if she will pay what you consider is her fair proportion of the outstanding prize money so far as it can be ascertained, for which I will send you a check at once, she might be re-instated so that she can show her dogs.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I wish to state for your information that the American Kennel Club has no knowledge whatever of the outstanding indebtedness of the Pet Dog Club. We have on file here but two claims for non-payment of prizes and those two claims I think amount to in the aggregate of about $250 or $300. I know of another party who has not filed a claim, who has a claim of over $100., but Mr. Hodge told me that he had taken a poll of all of the exhibitors who had received their prizes, and who had not, and that it figured up in round numbers about $800., but that is the only knowledge the club has in that regard. We know there are unpaid prizes. They ought to be paid within sixty says after the close of the show, which opportunity they did not avail themselves of, and hence, under the rules, every officer is responsible, and they were disqualified. That is the position so far as we are concerned. As I understand it, Mrs. Green was the Vice-President of the Club and took no active part whatever in its affairs.

Mr. Green: I believe she attended one meeting about eighteen months ago, or some time before that.

Mr. Vredenburgh: She has endeavored to get hold of the financial man and has not succeeded?

Mr. Green: She has tried and I have tried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: And she stands ready to pay her share of the indebtedness?

Mr. Green: Entirely so.

Mr. Vredenburgh: And under those circumstances she appeals for re-instatement?

Mr. Green: Yes. Of course it is an important matter with her to be able to show her dogs, and I told her if it came down to a question of what should be done I would remit the whole thing myself, but that she preferred I should not do. I would rather do that than have this disqualification hanging over my head, but I thought that it might be possible if she offered to pay what in your opinion would be a fair pro rata of the indebtedness, the disqualification as to her could be removed.

Mr. Rodman: Have legal proceedings been taken to compel an accounting by these gentlemen?

Mr. Green: No, I believe not.

Mr. Rodman: You think, as a matter of fact, they could be, could they not.

Mr. Green: I think possibly they might.

Mr. Rodman: Don’t you think an accounting might be compelled in that matter?

Mr. Green: I doubt from the statement of the gentleman whether you could get any more definite information from them.

Mr. Caswell: Is the check book of the prize money available to Mrs. Green?

Mr. Green: I have endeavored to get that from Mr. Stanton, but I have not been able to. He said some of the money was paid in cash and some of it was paid out of her personal account.

Capt. Knocker: Would it not be possible to get the information you want by either writing to the exhibitors, which would be rather difficult, or by an advertisement in the papers requesting all those who had claims for prizes against the club to send in their claims within a certain time in order that they might be acted upon?

Mr. Green: I understand that Mr. Hodge, who was one of the joint trustees with Mr. Stanton, prepared and sent to all of the exhibitors in the catalogue return postal cards. I know the Pembrook Kennels received one, and Mr. Hodge has written to Mrs. Green to the effect that he had sent those postal cards to every exhibitor.

Capt. Knocker: Couldn’t the matter be published in the Kennel Gazette, drawing attention to the fact that a list is wanted of the prize holders at that show, which all the exhibitors would receive, and then you might arrive at the very data you are hunting for.

Mr. Mortimer: I would hazard the opinion that if Mrs. Green deposited her check in trust with the American Kennel Club in payment of her pro rata share of this prize money, she would be re-instated.

Mr. Green: She does not know what that pro rata is.

Mr. Mortimer: We will assume that the total liability of prize money amounts to $800. How many executive officers were there?

Mr. Vredenburgh: The disqualified officers were Mrs. Walter Stanton, Charles F. Spaulding, Mrs. George W. Carr, Mrs. W.W. Green, Mrs. Horace Stokes, Mrs. R.K. Pritchard, Walter Stanton and S.C. Hodge, eight in all.

Mr. Mortimer: Which would make the indebtedness about $100 each.

Mr. Caswell: I do not see how we can assume that the unpaid prize money amounts to any certain sum. Would it not be better to simply take the statement of Mr. Green, signed by Mrs. Green, that she will assume her pro rata share of the unpaid prize money, and pending the amount being accurately ascertained she be allowed to exhibit, as it were, on probation.

The Chair: I would have to rule that that would be contrary to the rules, which state that a suspended or a disqualified person cannot exhibit dogs.

Capt. Knocker: Can’t you remove the disqualification temporarily?
The Chair: Then it is removed.

Mr. Rodman: It seems hardly necessary for me to state that I regret as much as any one here that an innocent person should be compelled to suffer for the wrong doings of others, and I for one would be delighted to see these ladies who occupied the positions of officers of the Pet Dog Club be re-instated, those who were innocent of officiating, but at the same time the American Kennel Club is one which states and makes precedents, and the thought has just occurred to me that although our sympathies might predominate in this case, and although the justice of this case may appeal to us as men, yet at the same time let me put this case to you and see what dangerous ground we are treading on. Suppose, for the sake of argument, that a club south, composed of a number of ladies, was to fall in this same unfortunate position. It might be possible that some one of the officers of that organization was not blessed with as much of this world's goods as certain others, and you said in this meeting that the American Kennel Club has withdrawn the suspension on the ground that those members of the board of officers each contributed his or her pro rata share toward the liquidation of the debts of the organization. It might be that one of those parties, entirely innocent, was unable to meet the proportionate share of the obligations --- what are you going to do in a case of that kind?

Capt. Knocker: The others would settle it.

Mr. Rodman: That is a case to be decided by them and not by us. It seems to me that under the rules of the American Kennel Club we are, in the first place, bound to act as we have acted. It seems to me with all due respect to the statements that have been made here to-day, and I appreciate to a certain extent the enormity of the task imposed upon these people in their endeavor to get at the bottom of the facts as they exist, yet, at the same time, there is a method which as yet has not been called into use which might bring to light the evidence and information which is now desired, and of which the American Kennel Club has no knowledge. There is a law which can compel Mr. Stanton to produce the books of the American Pet Dog Club; there is another law which can compel him to use his best endeavors to present to the officers of the organization all the information which he has in his possession, or any other officer has in his or her possession. If that is done I am not sure but what the American Pet Dog Club may find that it has more information regarding the indebtedness of the organization than it has at present. I only speak in this way because I see ahead if this is made a precedent, a chance for opening the door where we may not be in the possession of as many facts as we are at present, but yet, by reason of our having made the precedent, would have to live up to it.

Mr. Mortimer: In reply to Mr. Rodman I might say that this club has already established a precedent in matter of this sort. I recollect some years ago when the Bull Terrier Club was disqualified. I wish you would call attention to that case, Mr. Vredenburgh.
The Secretary: The Bull Terrier Club’s officers, consisting of four, were suspended. We demanded of that club that it should rescind a certain resolution which was passed, and to give it the same publicity that they gave the original resolutions. They found it impossible to get a quorum present in order to carry out our instructions. Mr. Dole was president. He called meetings. They would not attend. He then called a meeting here at this office in order to show the American Kennel Club what he was doing, and he attended, coming down from New Haven. There were no other persons present. The president appealed for re-instatement on the ground that he had done everything in his power to bring about the rescinding of this obnoxious resolution. On the strength of that his appeal was granted and he was re-instated. Mr. John Moorhead Jr., who was Vice-President, said he knew nothing about this resolution and was not present at the meeting, and that as he could not get a meeting of the club he resigned from the club; resigned as an officer and as a member, saying that he would not be willing to continue in a club that would pass such a resolution and then refuse to rescind it. Upon the strength of that he was re-instated. Mr. W.D. Breweton, the Secretary, sent an apology for the part he took in the transaction and he was re-instated; so that at the present time the second Vice President, Mr. J.O. Horn, of Pittsburgh, is the only disqualified person because he would not apologize, or do anything.

Mr. Rodman: I ask what rule of the American Kennel Club was broken by the Bull Terrier Club.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Sending out an official communication to the sporting papers insulting the members of this club in criticizing the remarks that were made while exercising the prerogatives of their positions as delegates.

Mr. Rodman: Then as a matter of fact no rule was broken, but because they saw fit to use language which the American Kennel Club considered improper they were disqualified. I think there is a distinction between that case and this.

Capt. Knocker: They did break a rule, didn't they. Will you read the rules in regard to the payment or non-payment of prize money? I think there is a specific rule on that point.

The Secretary then read rule Five.

Mr. Green: In regard to the suggestion of a possible suit against these trustees, outside of the question of what practical results could be obtained by it, the question in my mind is, who is entitled to bring that suit. Mrs. Green certainly is not; she is not a member or officer of that club, she resigned, and I suppose her resignation has been accepted by this time.

Mr. Rodman: There is no doubt but that a creditor has a right to bring suit?

Mr. Green: I do not know whether a creditor could bring a suit, to bring an accounting between the trustee and the club. In regard to the amount, if it be proper and fitting, I would state, whether it is $800/ or a $1,000. I am willing to sign my check for Mrs. Green's share.
Mr. Van Schiack: I move that Mrs. Green be now reinstated upon the condition that she agrees to pay her pro rata share of the indebtedness of the Pet Dog Club of prizes when that amount is ascertained.

Mr. Caswell: Not when the whole amount is ascertained, but as it is ascertained.

Mr. Rodman: I move as an amendment that this matter be referred to the Rules Committee.

Mr. Viti: If the persons who are on the inside, so to speak, and are supposed to have control of the books and papers of the club, after an investigation consuming over a year, are not able to ascertain the liabilities of this Association, is the American Kennel Club to undertake it?

The Secretary: I would like to state for your information, that if you look back at the records in my report I particularly mentioned the case of Mrs. Green before the disqualification, as I happened to know something about the case, and knew that she had never taken any active interest in the club, simply permitting her name to be used in the club as an officer, - - - I think it is a hardship, there is no question about that, but I would suggest this, that I will give Mr. Green the address of Mr. Hodge and Mr. Hodge can furnish him with a full list so far as he was able to obtain it, and he told me that it was a very full list of the indebtedness of the club. I just throw that out as a suggestion.

Mr. Rodman: I think, if the Chairman please, that this is opening the door for another member of that board of officers to come in here and ask leave to pay his or her pro portionate share of the indebtedness on an assumption, for it is purely and simply an assumption, that by fulfilling that one condition, namely, the payment of his or her proportionate share they will be in a position to ask for the same terms that are allowed in this present case.

The Chair: There is no doubt about that, and if the eight came in and did the same thing, it would not be very long before the entire indebtedness would be paid.

Mr. Rodman: Is the American Kennel Club to use its endeavors to settle the outside business of the American Pet Dog Club? If this indebtedness or these liabilities can be liquidated by the co-operation of eight members of that organization, why is not that done, and then why does not the Pet Dog Club come before this club with clean hands and ask for re-instatement? Why should we re-instate one member and not all the members?

The Chair: The American Kennel Club ought not to determine the indebtedness of the Pet Dog Club. That is a domestic matter, and it is their business to do it; but if after making attempts for the better part of a year to obtain information by which a person could pay his share, or do all in his power to pay this indebtedness, and he cannot do it, it shows the American Kennel Club that that person under discipline is anxious to do it, and the only way he can show that he is willing to so it is by coming here and assuming a debt greater than it is supposed to be, and he will deposit with the American Kennel Club his prorate share of that assumed debt, it Shows that that is the last resource.

Mr. Rodman: I think that it has been conceded here to-day that the last resource has not been exhausted. The most effective measure of all, the demanding of an accounting, has not been employed.

Capt. Knocker: Who is going to sue?

Mr. Rodman: A creditor. I look at this matter from a legal stand-point. I can see breakers ahead if this is permitted to go through, but at the same time the most effective measure which could be employed toward the ascertainment of the full indebtedness of the organization has never been employed.

Mr. Viti: You must recollect another point, and that is, we must consider the exhibitor. Very frequently exhibitors are attracted to a show by the statement of who compose of board of officers. They may see there the name of one person that they know is thoroughly responsible personally, and they make entries, because the American Kennel Club rule say that all the officers shall be responsible, and therefore in view of the fact that the name of this one individual appears as an officer, they make their entries, knowing that under our rules this person is responsible for this prize money. Our rules are very hard and fast on the subject.

Capt. Knocker: Yes, but the rule is that the American Kennel Club is to determine the length of time these people are to be disqualified the length of time these people are to be disqualified, and if they wish to re-instate them that settles it.
Mr. Viti: The Executive Committee, when they decided this case, said they would not hear a recommendation for re-instatement unless upon a clean balance sheet, and then after that was shown we would determine whether or not these persons were negligent or whether they were deliberate in the non-payment of the prize money.

Capt. Knocker: Doesn’t it look as if they had done everything they could to get that statement, and could not get it? Mr. Rodman says a creditor can sue. The creditors are the exhibitors. How are you going to force creditors to commence suit? It is a totally different thing where a party comes in and claims that they are willing to do all that is right. We are not anxious to punish innocent people. If that is making a precedent, I think it is a good precedent where people are willing to come forward and pay their share of the prize money, or more than their share. It seems to me that it is a very simple thing and ought to be allowed.

Mr. Mortimer: We have a case here where an exhibitor, or an officer who is disqualified unfortunately, an officer that has taken no active part in the actions of the club, and that officer is willing to deposit a check here for the amount of the full indebtedness of this club, if it comes to that --- at least I will say is willing to put up a check for the pro rata amount, or more than the pro rata amount; isn’t it a very hard thing that that exhibitor should be kept out?

Mr. Van Schaick’s motion was then repeated as follows: I move that Mrs. Green be now re-instated upon the condition that she agrees to pay her pro rata share of the indebtedness of the Pet Dog Club when that amount is ascertained.

Mr. Rodman: I offered an amendment to refer to the Rules Committee. I offer my amendment in the form of a motion that he matter be referred to the Committee on Rules of the American Kennel Club.

The Chair: We will take the vote first on the amendment. The vote resulted in the amendment being carried by seven to six, and the Chair declared that the matter is left to the Committee on Constitution and Rules.

The Secretary: The next matter of business before you is the request of the Ladies Kennel Association to have its title changed to that of “The Ladies Kennel Association of America.”

On motion said application was granted.

The Secretary: The Kansas City Kennel Club defaulted in the payment of two special prizes. They paid them after hearing from us, and I have a notification from the recipients that they received their prizes. Here is an appeal for re-instatement.

Moved and seconded that the appeal of the Kansas City Kennel Club for re-instatement be granted.

Carried.

In regard to the appeal of Mr. William Routley for re-instatement, Dr. Foote moved that it be not granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The Philadelphia Dog Show Association has sent here a communication stating that the suspension im-Posed by it against Charles Busch has been removed.

Mr. Mortimer: I move that the disqualification be removed.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The next matter is the charge made by A.R. Castagner against the Northwestern Kennel Club for unpaid prizes at its late show. If there is no objection it will be referred to the Executive Board. It was so referred.

The communication from the Cleveland Kennel Club, asking for cancellation of its show dates in March, 1901, was received and filed.

The Secretary: I have a communication here from the Philadelphia Dog Show Association notifying this club that it has suspended Edwin H. Morris for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of dog shows.

The Chair: If there is no objection this will be referred to the Executive Board.

Mr. Carnochan: I beg to differ with the Chair in that regard.

The Chair: The Chair decides that owing to custom the Secretary shall report to every meeting of the American Kennel Club such cases as come before it that must be acted upon the Executive Board. If there is any appeal from that decision now is the time to make it.

The Secretary: I will state for the information of this meeting that Mr. Morris has appealed and has filed his defense with me, and before the Executive Board meeting I will call upon the Philadelphia Kennel Association to produce its minutes and testimony upon which it acted, so that both sides of The case can be heard by the executive board. The case was referred to the Executive Board, under the rules. –

The Secretary: I call attention to the appeal of Mr. H.H. Carlton against my decision in cancelling the award given to his Boston terrier Tremont (47976) shown at the late San Francisco show as Oakside Tremont (47976).

Mr. Rodman: I move that in view of the extenuating circumstances surrounding this case the win be allowed to stand, at the San Francisco show of 1900.

Capt. Knocker: I think that he ought to get the benefit of that win. He was not warned in 1900 that he made a mistake in 1899. He had been granted a win, with a prefix that year and he naturally supposed that he had the right to use it. I did not know that the stud book committee had made a rule that an affix or prefix was a change of the name of the dog.

Mr. Carnochan: I think Capt. Knocker is absolutely right. I think it would be a great injustice to this exhibitor if after the American Kennel Club had allowed the one win, to not allow him the second. It may be said that we should not allow him the second. It may be said that we should not perpetuate a mistake, but I think that we having acquiesced in that mistake should not make him suffer for it.

The Secretary: I cancelled this win according to the rules. If you vote to sustain his appeal against my action you are voting against the rules. I simply want to tell you that so that you can vote knowingly. If you open the door to this, somebody from California or Mississippi, or some other State will send me word that he has purchased such a dog and ask if he is registered? I look in the records and send him back word, No, he is not registered; the dog is not registered under that name, if you use a prefix after he has been registered.

Mr. Viti: I make the point that the motion is out of order because it abrogates a rule of the American Kennel Club.

The Chair: The point of order has been raised that by the adoption of this resolution it abrogates a rule of the American Kennel Club. The Chair is bound to sustain that point of order because the Chair, as Secretary, acted in accordance therewith in cancelling this win.

Mr. Rodman: Now I rise to object to the objection made to my motion. My motion has never been referred to the registration of that dog; the distinction has been lost sight of. My motion is with relation to permitting a win to stand, not the cancellation of a registration, and I demand with all due respect that my motion be allowed.

Mr. Rodman’s motion was then put and carried.

Dr. Foote: I move that the Secretary be instructed to write this gentleman that in the future his dog must be shown as “Tremont”, for he may labor under the mistaken idea that he can go on with the prefix “Oakside”.

Motion seconded and carried.

The bill for $11.40 rendered by the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from July to December was on motion approved and ordered paid.

The Chair: Now, gentlemen, this report of the Pacific Advisory Committee is on the table.

Capt. Knocker: I move that it be taken from the table and considered.

Motion seconded and carried.

Capt. Knocker: Mr. Chairman and gentlemen: the Pacific Advisory Board has written me a letter and asked me to give some attention to this matter. It seems to me there are reasons for as well as reasons against granting what they ask. When it is possible to grant it I leave it to the Board. I would like to read an extract of a letter what I have here:
With regard to the Special Committee of the A.K.C., we held an adjourned meeting last Friday, at which Vredenburgh’s letter was read, announcing the refusal to grant the extension of power sought by the committee. It was decided that the existence of the committee in its present form was a farce, and a resolution was passed asking the A.K.C. again for the powers needed, and in the event of their repeated refusal, tendering the unanimous resignation of the members of the committee. There can be no doubt that with a reasonable amount of home rule, the P.K.L would at once cease to exist, and I am assured of that by the leading lights thereof. It certainly does seem ridiculous, that a club that wants to hold here under A.K.C. rules has to spend at least three weeks or a month in obtaining the necessary permission from New York, and is frequently prevented from holding a show under those rules by reason of that very circumstance. Such was very nearly the case with the late Sacramento show. A club that wants to give a show here under the A.K.C. rules has to start in with the arrangements at least three months in advance of the show, and it is therefore impossible to arrange on its side. As for the committee, its sole function is to decide protests and appeals, and for that it is not worth while prolonging its existence. The powers sought by the committee are as follows:
G.2.

To receive and act upon applications for dates; to receive, for transmission to the A.K.C. (subject to confirmation) registrations and fees for listing; to approve rules for bench show clubs; in short to have original and complete jurisdiction in all matters connected with and arising out of kennel affairs on the Pacific Coast, subject of course to the rules of the A.K.C. and to such right of appeal as may be necessary at any time to correct error and mistake. It is impossible for the A.K.C. to govern this coast at the geographical distance by which they are separated. It is my firm belief, that if these concessions are refused in toto [total], the time will come, and at no distant date, when the whole coast will be united under a reorganized P.K.L. with a stud book of its own, and a complete jurisdiction over all kennel matters from the Rockies to the Sea, and from the burning sands of San Diego to the Frozen frontier of British Columbia (You will please notice the original and brilliant eloquence contained in the foregoing sentence). It can not be denied that the territory and population of this extent of country are sufficient to make a very respectable kennel association, which would be at least as large as that of Canada. The only obstacle in the way of the formation of such an association has heretofore been the S.F.K.C., and if that fell away from the A.K.C. there would be nothing left of the latter on the Coast.
G.3.

On the other hand, with a certain amount of home rule, the Coast would be solid for the parent body, and would be the source be weighed before finally rejecting the demands made. I have written A.P.V. that if these powers were granted, de Ruyter would allow us the free use of his private wire to New York, whereby a close supervision could be kept over the operations of the committee, and a ready reference facilitated to New York.”
Now, gentlemen, that is about all there is in the letter that refers to that matter and they seem to feel, and I think with a certain amount of justice, that being on the other side of the continent as they are, if it is possible it may be well to give them some power. They of course want to refer everything to the parent body. At the same time there is a great deal to be said as to the fact that they are laboring under very great difficulties, and that unless something is done they will drop away and cease from getting people to come in and belong to the American Kennel Club. I believe I have heard it said that the American Kennel Club would rather be without the Pacific Kennel clubs than with them. Personally I should be very sorry to see it, because it would drop me out and that would be my loss. I would like you gentlemen to think the matter over and give it your careful attention. I do not know whether it will be referred to a committee, probably will, but I think that the matter ought to be sifted thoroughly and both sides of the question looked into.

The Chair: The Chair would state that this matter came before the Executive Board, and the Executive Board acted. Now it has come to you as an appeal from their action, and I trust that you will not refer it to any committee, but that you will settle it right here.

Mr. Mortimer: I think that is where it ought to be settled.

Mr. Rodman: It seems to me that this is an important question which should be well weighed, and it seems to me
That for this reason it would be better to refer it to a committee to be appointed by the Chair, to report at the next meeting its conclusions in regard to this matter. I make that in the form of a motion.

Mr. Carnochan: I second the motion.

The Chair: A special Committee of five?

Mr. Rodman: Yes.

The Chair: I now state the motion: It is moved and seconded that the report of the Pacific Advisory Committee be referred to a special committee of five to be appointed by the Chair, said committee to report back its recommendations at the annual meeting to be held in February.

Carried.

The Chair: The Chair will appoint Mr. Rodman, Capt. Knocker, Mr. Bloodgood, Mr. Carnochan and Mr. Mortimer as the members of the committee.

Mr. Viti: I should like to include the Chair as a member of that committee ex-officio. I make that as an amendment, if it is not too late, that the Chair be added to that committee.

Mr. Vredenburgh: That is not at all necessary. If the committee would care for any suggestions from me I would be more than delighted to give them to it. I have a very decided opinion on the subject, and I would be very glad to express that opinion to the committee.

The meeting then adjourned.

The report of the Membership Committee was read, and on motion accepted and placed on file. It follows:
New York, February 16, 1901

To the American Kennel Club;

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee, held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting on applications for admission to membership, and upon the credentials of delegates filed with the secretary, your Committee would respectfully report:-

Applications from the Airedale Terrier Club of America and the Pan-American Exposition Association have been received, and the same being in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, it is recommended that said applications be approved and said clubs duly admitted to active membership.

The following credentials of delegates are on file and duly approved, and their acceptance recommended.

Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts, appointing Mr. Henry Jarrett.
Scottish Terrier Club of American, appointing Mr. J.B. Brazier
Bull Terrier Club of America, appointing Mr. F.H. Croker
St. Bernard Club of America, appointing Mr. D.E. Waters Brunswick Fur Club, appointing Mr. R. Crompton
Airedale Terrier Club, appointing Mr. A.D. Cochrane

Respectfully submitted,

H.T. Foote
Singleton Van Schaick
C.B. Knocker
The following named gentlemen were elected as delegates to represent the following named clubs:

Henry Jarett to represent the Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts.
    J.B. Brazier to represent the Scottish Terrier Club of America.
    F.H. Croker, to represent the Bull Terrier Club of America.
    D.E. Waters to represent the St. Bernard Club of America.
    R. Crompton to represent the Brunswick Fur Club.

The following named clubs were elected to membership in the America Kennel Club:

    Airedale Terrier Club of America.

    Mr. A.D. Cochrane was elected as the delegate representing the Airedale Terrier Club of America.

    The Secretary then read his quarterly report, which, on motion, was accepted and placed on file, and is as follows:
New York, Feb 16, 1901

To The AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,)

Gentlemen-

Since my last quarterly report, two applications for membership have been received, and application for the registration of nineteen (19) kennel names have been filed. These matters have been referred to their proper Committee, which will report their recommendations at this meeting.

I beg to report the reception of the following resignations:

Dec. 28, 1900, New Orleans Fox Terrier Club
Dec. 31, 1900, St. Louis Kennel Club

Both of the above clubs were in good standing on the dates that their resignations were received at this office, and I recommend that said resignations be accepted.

The Capitol City Kennel Club of Washington, D.C. filed a notice of its disbandment. I would therefore recommend that said club be ordered dropped from membership.

The following charges have been duly filed and will be referred to the Executive Board for investigation.

Frank J. Lenoir vs Rhode Island State Fair Association, for unpaid prizes at show of 1899.

Boston Terrier Club vs. Rhode Island Kennel Club, for providing classes for Boston Terriers contrary to the standard adopted by the said Boston Terrier Club.

These matters do not come under your jurisdiction, but are hereby reported for your information, in compliance with instructions laid down at a former meeting.
Appeals for reinstatement to good standing have been filed by H.F. Peck, Akron, Ohio, and J.E. Miller, Atlanta, Ga. The former was disqualified June 1894 as an officer of a club that defaulted in prizes. The latter, was disqualified Nov. 1900, by virtue of his suspension by the Atlanta Kennel Club for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of dog shows. These matters will be referred to the Executive Board for its action.

At a meeting of the Committee on Constitution and Rules, held January 21, 1901, certain amendments were recommended, and in accordance with the Constitution duly published in the January issue of the American Kennel Gazette. These amendments are now before you for action at this meeting.

This meeting is the annual meeting of the Club, at which time the terms of office of the President, Vice President and the Chairman, and the members of the several standing committees will expire. A new election must be held to fill said offices.

The following clubs are in arrears for dues for 1901, and therefore, in accordance with Art.X. Sec. I., shall forfeit all right to representation in this Club, and any club so in arrears may be suspended or dropped.

American Pet Dog Club
Austin Kennel Club
California State Agricultural Society
Chicago Pet Dog Club
Cleveland Kennel Club
Columbus Fanciers’ Club
M.A.A.C. Rod and Gun Club
Northwestern Kennel Club
San Francisco and San Mateo Agricultural Association
St. Bernard Club of California
Vermont Kennel Club
Vicksburg Fox Terrier Club
Washington Kennel Club

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh, Sec’y
The Treasurer's report was read, and on motion accepted and placed on file. It is as follows:
New York, Feby 16, 1901

To the American Kennel Club;

Gentlemen:

I hereby beg to submit my quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1901 ----------------------------- $ 8,735.00
Receipts from Jan. 1, 1901 to date 2,377.24
Total $11,112.24

Disbursements since Jan. 1, 1901 -------------------------- 883.56
Balance on hand $10,228.68

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh

Treasurer
The election of officers and committees being next in order, Mr. Viti nominated for President Mr. August Belmont.

It was moved and second that the nominations be closed.

Carried.

On motion the secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Mr. Belmont as President of the American Kennel Club for the ensuing year.

The secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Belmont was duly declared elected President.

Mr. Rodman nominated Mr. H.H. Hunnewell, Jr., for Vice President.

Nominations seconded.

MR. VREDEBURGH: I would like to state that Mr. Brooks has been the Vice President of the American Kennel Club for a number of years, and while it was not stated by the gentleman who nominated his successor, I thin it is only due to Mr. Brooks that it should be publicly stated that Mr. Brooks withdrawn as a candidate to succeed himself. He feels that he cannot give the time required to the office, and for that reason he thought it was in order for another gentleman to be elected in his place.

MR. RODMAN: I was going to say that in putting Mr. Hunnewell’s name in nomination for the office of Vice President I had been informed that Mr.
Brooks had declined a renomination. Therefore I placed Mr. Hunnewell’s name in nomination. I desire further to have it placed on the rev[c]ord that it is the sentiment of this organization that Mr. Brooks’ withdrawal as a candidate be accepted with regret, and I move that a vote of thanks be expressed to Mr. Brooks for his efficient and at the same time faithful services to the American Kennel Club during his term of office as Vice President.

Motion seconded and unanimously carried.

MR. RODMAN: I move that the secretary be instructed to cast a ballot for Mr. H.H. Hunnewell, Jr., as Vice President of this club.

Second and carried.

The secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared Mr. Hunnewell elected Vice President.

THE SECRETARY: The next business is that of electing the standing committees. The first is the Stud Book Committee. The retiring members are Marcel A. Viti, Chairman; C.B. Knocker and Charles W. Rodman, Jr.

CAPT. KNOCKER: I nominate the chairman of that committee to succeed himself.

Second.

Moved and second that the Secretary be instructed to cast a ballot for Mr. Viti’s election as chairman.

Carried.

The secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared Mr. Viti elected.

It was moved and second that the present members of that committee, Messrs. Knocker and Rodman, be nominated to succeed themselves as the members of that committee.

Carried.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot
For their elections.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared them elected as such members.

The Secretary: Next is the Committee on Constitution and Rules. The retiring members are H.K. Bloodgood, Chairman; James Watson, Charles W. Rodman, Jr. and Henry Jarett. Mr. Bloodgood being a member of the Executive Board now by virtue of his election as President of the Associate Members, will not be a candidate.

Mr. Carnochan was nominated as chairman of the Committee.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. Rodman. He being the senior member of that Committee is my reason for nominating him.

Nominations seconded.

Two candidates being in nomination for the office of chairman of the committee, the delegates proceeded to ballot, which resulted in the election of Mr. Rodman by a vote of 14 to 3.

Messrs. Carnochan, Jarett and Watson were nominated as members of the Committee on Constitution and Rules.

Nominations seconded.

On motion the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for their election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared them duly elected.

Mr. VREDENBURGH: The next is the Committee on Field Trials and Coursing Meetings. The retiring Chairman is J.W. Appleton.

Moved and second that said chairman be nominated to succeed himself.

Carried.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for his election.
The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared him elected as such chairman.

The retiring members were declared duly elected to succeed themselves under the rules.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Finance Committee is at present composed of A.C. Wilmerding, Chairman, James B. Blossom and G.M. Carnochan.

Mr. Rodman nominated Mr. Wilmerding to succeed himself as chairman. Nominations seconded.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for his election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the chair declared Mr. Wilmerding duly elected as such chairman.

Messrs. J.B. Blossom and G.M. Carnochan were nominated to succeed themselves as members of the Finance Committee. Nominations seconded.

The Secretary was, on motion, directed to cast a ballot for their election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared them duly elected as members of such committee.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The retiring members of the Membership Committee are Messrs. H.T. Foote, Chairman, Singleton Van Schaick and C.B. Knocker.

Dr. Foote was nominated to succeed himself as the chairman of the committee. Seconded.
On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for his election as such chairman.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared Dr. H.T. Foote duly elected.

Messrs. Van Schaick and Knocker was nominated to succeed themselves as members of the Membership Committee.

Seconded.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for their election, and he having stated that he had cast such ballot the Chair declared them duly elected as such members.

At this point Mr. Brooks resigned the Chair to Mr. Bloodgood.

The report of the Executive Board was read as published in the Gazette, and on motion accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Stud Book Committee was then read as follows:

In the matter of E.D. Brown’s attempt to secure the registration of pedigrees of certain English Setters. As there was no proof forthcoming, that the said pedigrees were fraudulent, it is recommended that the matter be dismissed.

In the matter of the registration of the Boston Terrier “Bunker Hill II”.

This dog is registered, dam, Vogel’s “Bessie”, and dam’s dam, as “Belle”, (Manley’s). Dam’s grand sire “Ned”, dam’s grand dam, “Snuffles”. The complaint was made by E.J. Vogel. He filed an affidavit stating he owned the dam “Bessie” and that she was out of Gallagher’s “Nellie” and not Manley’s “Belle”. Your Committee sent a copy of this affidavit to F.G. Bixby, who sold the dog in question, and made an affidavit of pedigree upon which the dog was registered. In reply thereto, Mr. Bixby has furnished a counter-affidavit stating that he gave the dam’s dam as Manley’s “Belle”, in view of the said Vogel having identified a photograph of Manley’s “Belle” as a bitch he knew as Gallagher’s “Nellie. He said that upon the identification and believing that Gallagher’s “Nell” and in writing the pedigree. There is nothing to show that Bixby did not act in good faith in writing the pedigree as aforesaid.

In the matter of the attempt of E.R. Baker to secure a fictitious pedigree for English Setter, in this case, E.R. Baker of Smethport, Pa. wrote to Mr. Henry Klee, of New Castle, Pa., that he had an English Setter bitch which he wished to breed but that she had no pedigree, and asked if Mr. Klee could do anything
For him in the way of looking up her breeding. He gave her age as eight years, and her name as “Shadow”; he further stated that Mr. Klee could change her name if necessary and it would not hurt her to make an alteration in the age; he also stated that the only thing that must remain as it is, is the fact that she is black and white, and that she is a bitch, that those facts could not be changed. He further requests Mr. Klee to destroy his letters and asked that the same be done with his. In reply to this request, Mr. Klee promptly wrote him that he deemed it his duty to forward the letter to the A.K.C., which he thereupon did.

Your Committee wrote Mr. Baker informing him that complaint had been made to the A.K.C., of his attempt to secure a false pedigree for his bitch, and giving him an opportunity to be heard in his defense. In reply thereto, he wrote confessing having written the letter, to Mr. Klee, but stated that at the present time he was not at liberty to give any reasons but if we could wait until the proper time came, we could hear from him and he would surprise us with his reasons for writing the letter, but that things had not just shaped themselves for a complete disclosure to the A.K.C., Your Committee feels however, that the time has arrived for at least punishing Mr. Baker for his attempt to procure a false pedigree, and they therefore, recommend that he be disqualified.
Applications have been made for the registration of the following Kennel names, none of which conflict with any already registered, and your Committee therefore recommend that they be granted.

Aelwold    Charles Wheeler and Richard M. Elliot
Back Bay     John F. Murray
Bloomfield    George C. Thomas, Jr.,

Chairman, S.B. Committee

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file, and recommendations therein contained adopted.
The report of the Committee on Constitution and Rules was read as published, and on motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Special Committee was read, and on motion accepted and placed on file, and the recommendations therein contained adopted. It follows:
New York, January 4, 1901

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

               Gentleman:

Your “Special Committee” to which was referred the communication of the Pacific Advisory Committee asking for greater powers for said committee, respectfully reports that it has given the matter careful consideration, and begs to recommend that said committee be accorded authority to act as the agent of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB in the following matters.

All such acts to be subject to appeal to, or to correction by the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB.

1st: Receiving applications for admission to membership in the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB

2nd: To approve of show dates.

3rd: To approve of classifications.

4th: To fix the value of winners classes.

5th: To receive and transmit all listing fees.

All communications from, and to, clubs or exhibitors, to be transmitted through the Pacific Advisory Committee.

The office of Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee to be honorary.

Nothing in the aforementioned recommendations shall be construed so as to impair or interfere with any rule of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, or with any existing agreement between the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, and its Pacific Advisory Committee.

C.W. Rodman, Jr., )

C.B. Knocker ) SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Jas. Mortimer )
MR. VREDBURGH: That is all with the exception of the amendments to the Rules, which I read:

RULES GOVERNING DOG SHOWS.

An additional rule No. XXII in place of the present rule XXII, to read: In default of the payment of prize moneys within sixty days of the last day of a show, the officials of such show, except paid employees, shall be suspended or disqualified for such time as the American Kennel Club shall determine. No claim against a club for unpaid prizes shall however be valid unless filed with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club within six months of the last day of the show held by such club.

Change the present Rule XXII and make same XXIII.

RULES GOVERNING CLUBS HOLDING SHOWS.

Amend Rule V by adding thereto

“Excepting, however, that all claims against a club for unpaid prizes shall be outlawed after the expiration of six months from the last day of the closing of such show.”

To amend the resolution under which the value of winner classes are determined by adding to the clause relating to Specialty Clubs:

“No specialty club can delegate its right to any other club or person to hold or manage a show in its name.”

Signed,

H.K. Bloodgood,

Chairman
MR. BROOKS: What is the object of that last statement?

MR. VREDENBURGH: It is for this reason: The value of a winner’s win at a show held by a specialty club confined to its own particular breed of dogs counts four. The idea is to prevent a small specialty club that is not a member of the American Kennel Club from holding a show under the auspices of a specialty club in the same breed, and thereby get four points in winners classes.

MR. VITI: Why not say that no show club or member shall delegate its rights to any individual or individuals. I make that as an amendment, that no active members of this association can delegate its right to another.

MR. RODMAN: As a member of that Committee I would date that while I have no objection to the amendment, it seems to me that the amendment as presented in the report covered that point. I will concede that your proposed amendment is broader in phraseology, but I think the amendment as reported by the committee reaches the same thing.

THE CHAIRMAN: (Mr. Bloodgood) As Chairman of that committee I accept the amendment.

The question was then put on the amendment and carried.

The amendment as amended was then put and carried, the same being: “No active member can delegate its right to any other club or person to hold or manage a show in its name.”

MR. VREDENBURGH: The first amendment to the rules is an additional rule to Rule XXII: “In default of the payment of prize Moneys within sixty days of the last day of a show, the officials of such show, except paid employees, shall be suspended or disqualified for such time as the American Kennel Club shall determine." So far that is already a rule in force. Added to this is the following: "No claim against a club for unpaid prizes shall however be valid unless filed with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club within six months of the last day of the show held by such club."

MR. BROOKS: I move the amendment be adopted.

Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The next is to amend Rule V of the rules governing clubs, in order to harmonize with the amendment just adopted, by adding: "Excepting, however, that all claims against a club for unpaid prizes shall be outlawed after the expiration of six months from the last day of the closing of such show."

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move the amendment be adopted.

Seconded and carried.

On motion the resignations of the St. Louis Kennel Club and the New Orleans Kennel Club were accepted. And the Capitol City Club dropped from the roll.

The charges preferred by Frank J. Lenoir against the Rhode Island State Fair Association for unpaid prizes at show of 1899, and the charges preferred by the Boston Terrier Club against the Rhode Island Kennel Club, were sent to the Executive Board under the rules.

The appeals of Mr. H.F. Peck and Mr. J.E. Miller for re-instatement were also referred to the Executive Board under the rules.
MR. VREDENBURGH: In regard to the clubs in arrears for dues, it has been our custom heretofore after reporting these clubs at the annual meeting to pass a resolution granting them 30 days from the date of this meeting within which to pay their dues, and if not paid by that time the Secretary is instructed to strike their names from the roll.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that 30 days from the date of this meeting be given them within which to pay their dues, failing to so which the secretary be instructed to strike their names from the roll.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that 30 days from the date of this meeting be given them within which to pay their dues, failing to do which the secretary be instructed to strike their names form the roll.

Seconded and carried.

A communication from Mr. Edwin H. Morris was received and filed.

The meeting then adjourned.

Pointer Club of America George Jarvis
Rhode Island Kennel Club W.C. Codman
The Ladies Kennel Association Of America James Mortimer
Welsh Terrier Club of America B.S. Smith

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were accepted as published in the Gazette and placed on file.

The report of the Membership Committee was read as follows:

New York, May 15th, 1901

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting on applications for admission to membership, and upon the credentials of delegates filed with the Secretary, your Committee held this day for the purpose of examining and reporting on application for admission to membership, and upon the credentials of delegates filed with the Secretary, your Committee
Would respectfully report: An application for the American Eng. Setter Club has been received, and the same being in accordance with the provisions of the constitution it is recommended that said application being approved shall be duly granted and the said club admitted to active membership. The following credentials had been filed, is duly approved and its acceptance recommended: Texas Kennel Club, appointing Dr. George W. Clayton as its delegate.

Respectfully submitted,

H.T. Foote, Chairman
C.B. Knocker

Dr. George W. Clayton was duly elected as delegate to represent the Texas Kennel Club.

The American English Setter Club was duly elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:
New York, May 16th, 1901

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to report the receipt of one application for membership; four applications for the registration of kennel names, and the receipt of credentials appointing a delegate to represent the Texas Kennel Club. These matters have been referred to their proper committees, which will report their recommendations at this meeting.

I will submit reports from the Executive Board and the Pacific Advisory Committee in their order.

It gives me pleasure to report the reception of letters of acceptance from Mr. August Belmont and Mr. H.H. Hunnewell, Jr. of the offices of President and Vice President of the Kennel Club to which they were duly elected at our last meeting.

The following charges have been duly filed and will be referred to the Executive Board for investigation, and now reported to you for your information in compliance with instructions laid down at a former meeting: S.O. Smith vs. E.R. Wilbur. Jr. for misconduct in connection with dogs.

I also beg to submit an appeal from R.E. Westlake, affecting the winners class in Pointers at the Baltimore Show of 1899.

I have to report that I was directed by the Executive Board, at its meeting held April 23rd last to disqualify the officers of the R.I. State Fair Association for non-payment of a prize of eight dollars to F.J. Lenior. Rule V of the rules governing clubs states: “The premium list must contain the dog show rules of the American Kennel Club, also a list of the officials under whose management the show is to be held, and who shall be held responsible for the payment of all prizes, in default of which the said officials shall be suspended or disqualified.” In my examination of the premium lists of the said R.I. State Fair Association I found the announcement that the show would be held under the management of the R.I. Kennel Club, followed by a list of its officers and a Bench Show Committee composed of its members. I advised Mr. W.C. Codman, President of the R.I. Kennel Club, of the above facts. I will submit his letter of reply which appears to be a protest, and the statement that his club did not in any way assume any responsibility in the management of the show. I have therefore deferred making any disqualification pending instructions from you.

At the last Boston Show I found that the management had divided several classes contrary to rule, and I have therefore been obliged to cancel such classes with all of the awards made therein. I am advised that the New England Kennel Club will instruct its delegate to ask for your action in this matter.

I will submit at this meeting a communication from Mr. S.C. Hodge, in reference to his connection with the Pet Dog Club Show of 1899 and of his disqualifications in consequence of the non-payment of prizes and other matters connected with the Club.

In will also submit for your consideration a communication from the delegate of the Collie Club in reference to the action of the Mascoutah Kennel Club, in changing one of its judges who Was present at the show and ready to fulfil his engagement.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, May 16, 1901

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I hereby beg to submit my quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand on June 1st, 1901 ........................................ $8,735.00
Receipts from Jan. 1st, to date ............................................. 4,988.97

Total, $13,723.97
Disbursements since Jan. 1st, 1901................................. 4,641.69
Balance on hand.................. $9,082.28

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Executive Board was read as follows:

Held April 23rd, 1901

Present: August Belmont, H.H. Hunnewell, Jr., H.K. Bloodgood, A.C. Wilmerding, M.A. Viti, H.T. Foote, C.W. Rodman, Jr.

Absent: J.W. Appleton

Chairman: H.H. Hunnewell, Jr. followed by August Belmont.

The following cases were presented and disposed of:
Camilo E. Pani : Vs. : Re misconduct in connection with dogs
George M.A. Fecke :

Whereas Pani purchased the R.C. St. Bernard bitch “Grand Duchess,” upon the condition that she must be in whelp before shipment, agreeing to pay therefore $175; and

Whereas Fecke sold said bitch agreeing to the stipulation that she was in whelp, and that he received a draft for the purchase money and thereafter shipped said bitch to said Pani; and

Whereas, said bitch was received by said Pani and kept by him for one week after she was due to whelp, and failing to whelp or showing any signed of being in whelp, returned said bitch to said Fecke and demanded the return of the purchase price; and

Whereas, said Fecke received said bitch and filed to respond to several letters from said Pani, and likewise failed to return said purchase price; and

Whereas, said Pani waited nearly three months for a satisfactory settlement without success, it is hereby Ordered, that George M.A. Fecke be given thirty days from the date of this meeting to return the purchase price fixed at $175 for the St. Bernard bitch “Grand Duchess.” In default of which the Secretary of the A.K.C. is hereby directed to disqualify the said George M.A. Fecke.

Atlantic K. C. :
   vs.         : Re appeal for re-instatement
J.E. Miller    :

   Appeal not granted.

E.D. Brown.    Re appeal to reconsider resolution of reprimand.
                Appeal not granted.

H.F. Peck      Re appeal for re-instatement.

   Said Peck, one of the officers of the Akron Poultry and Kennel Club, was disqualified June 3, 1894, for defaulting in the payment of a prize to W.L.
Washington, at its show in 1894. Subject to a ruling of this Board that no appeal for reinstatement will be considered unless based upon the fact that all claims for prize money has been paid. The appeal was not granted.

S.C. Hodge.    Re proposition for the payment of the unpaid prize money of the A.P.D.C. show of 1899. For similar reason that prevailed in the case of H.F. Peck, as above, this Board declines to discuss the proposition.

Philadelphia Dog Show Ass'n :
   Vs.         : Re appeal for re-instatement
E.H. Morris    :

   This matter was laid over for consideration at a later meeting, said Morris to be given ample notice of the time and place of the meeting at which his case will be heard.

A.K.C.
   Vs.         Re misconduct in connection with dog
Mrs. F. Senn
Shows extending from 1897 to 1901. This matte was laid over pending an examination of all of the original entry forms made by Mrs. Senn during the time.

Boston Terrier Club:

Vs. : Re Boston Terrier classification

R.I. Kennel Club:

This matter was laid over until a letter meeting and the Secretary was directed to afford an opportunity to the delegate of the Boston Terrier Club to be present at the hearing.

N.E. Kennel Club:

Vs. : Re appeal from suspension

Shirley Marston:

Whereas, the N.E. Kennel Club suspended Marston for forcibly removing his dog from its show, and for an assault upon one of its employees; and

Whereas, Marston’s appeal for re-instatement showed no good reason why it should be granted, it is therefore ORDERED, that Shirley Marston be and hereby is disqualified under the rules.

F.J. Lenoir:

Vs. : Re unpaid prizes at show of 1899

R.I. State Fair Ass’n:

Whereas, the Secretary of the R.I. S.F. Ass’n makes no
Other defense than the statement “no funds and out of business,” it is therefore Ordered that the officials of the R.I.S.F. Ass’n at the show of 1899 be and hereby are disqualified under the rules.

Application for a ruling.  Re, can a dog only shown in the Senior Class compete in the winners class?  In this case the Verona Kennels entered its Collie, Old Hall Admiral in a Senior class only, and as the winner of first competed and was accorded first in the winners class, said win was cancelled by the Secretary of the A.M.C. for the reason that a Senior class was not one of the regular classes specified in the rules.

Ordered, that the action of the secretary in cancelling the winners award of the Collie Old Hall Admiral hereby is confirmed.

The following clubs were dropped from membership for non-payment of dues for 1901, as per resolution of the A.K.C. Feb. 18, 1901.

A.P.D. Club  Northwestern Kennel Club
Austin Kennel Club  San Francisco and San Mateo Ag'l Ass'n
California State Fair Ass’n  St. Bernard Club of California
Columbus Fanciers’ Club  Vicksburg Fox Terrier Club

The Columbus Fanciers’ Club having subsequently paid its dues, on motion said club was re-elected to membership.

The Secretary of the A.K.C. was directed to send final bills to all associates in arrears for dues for 1901, and to drop all such associates that failed to pay dies within thirty days from the mailing of said final bills.

Resolutions:

Moved that a committee of five, including the Chairman, be appointed by the Chair to consider the advisibility of recognizing the standards of Special Clubs in connection with dog shows so far as weights and measurements are concerned.
The members of the Committee are Messrs. H.H. Hunnewell, Jr., Chairman; M.A.
Viti, J.W. Appleton, G.W.H. Ritchie and A.P. Vredenburgh.

Moved that the Committee on Constitution and Rules be requested to consider an amendment so as to provide that the winners of firsts in all classes except local classes that may be opened, at dog shows, shall be eligible to compete in winners classes. Carried.

Applications for Kennel names:

Upon recommendations of the Stud Book Committee the following applications for kennel names were considered and the same ordered registered:

“Buckeye” to James Follan          “Red Brook” to Miss Lucille Alger “Carleton” to Edward H. Carle      “Sabine” to F.H. Farwell
“Clonmel” to O. Dufresne          “Sunshine” to M.D. MacNab
“Exmoor” to E.A. Weimer
And Theo. Jaeger                   “Van Dyke” to Mrs. Wm. Allerton
“Van Dyke” to Mrs. Wm. Allerton
“Waveland” to Ernest L. Jones
On motion the said report was accepted and placed on file.

The Stud Book Committee reported as follows:

May 16th, 1901

Applications have been made since their last report for the registration of the following kennel names, and as they do not conflict with any names already registered, they have been approved by your committee and their allowance recommended.

"Buster" S.W. Adams, Chicago, Ill
"Tioga" W.P. Austin, Mansfield, Pa.
"Waterside" T.P. Mallorie, Tunis Mills, Md.
"Waverly" George Dunn, Woodstock, Canada

In the matter of the breeding of the Cocker Spaniel Eclipse Patsey or MacKie, according to the statements of the owners of the alleged sire and maternal grand dam of the dog in question the pedigree is fraudulent.

The dog was offered for registration by Charles T. Cornman, Carlisle, Pa. He did not write the pedigree however, he having bought the dog from F.G. McIntosh, Frankling, Pa., from whom he received the pedigree with the dog. Mr. McIntosh in turn purchased the dog from Mr. A.G. Rigby, Independence, Iowa. Mr. Rigby has Informed the Committee that the dog and the pedigree were sent to him by a cousin of his who was then living in Chicago, and who informed him that he had purchased the dog from a dealer in the latter city. Mr. Rigby however has lost the name and address of this dealer. He furnished the Committee with the name and last address of his cousin from whom he obtained the dog, Mr. E.E. Johnson. Your committee wrote Mr. Johnson at his address, Nagasaki, Japan, on March 29th, 1901, but as yet hardly sufficient time has elapsed in which an answer could be received. The Committee believe that all of the above named persons are quite innocent of fraud, as they accepted in good faith the pedigree furnished them, but they believe from the evidence of the owners of the alleged sire and maternal grand dam that the pedigree is incorrect and should not be registered.

In the matter of the Boston Terrier Bunker Hill II.

The accuracy of this dog’s breeding was questioned some time since by E.J. Vogel, who stated that the breeding of the Grand dam (Nellie) was not as given. In answer to this Mr. Boxby, who made out the pedigree, stated that Mr. Vogel had identified a photograph of Nellie as being the same bitch as he knew as Belle, and consequently he gave the latter’s breeding. Since your Committee reported upon the case at the annual meeting Mr. Vogel has filed an affidavit denying that he ever so identified a photograph, and alleges on the contrary that the said photograph was not of Nellie. The matter therefore narrows down to a question of veracity between the two parties, there being simply oath against oath, and no corroborative proof or circum-Stances offered by either side, each of the parties reflecting upon the credibility of the other. Your Committee therefore feel that the order to determine the matter it should be held in abeyance until either of the parties can produce some further proof.

Your Committee have also been furnished with an affidavit in which the accuracy of the breeding of the bitch Belle is denied. This is furnished by the owner of the alleged dam. Your Committee have sent a copy of the affidavit to Mr. Boxby, and when his answer is received your Committee will report upon the case.

A request has been received from Mr. H.L. Atkins for the registration of a bitch as a pointer which admittedly contained Setter blood. Following the decision in a similar case which was confirmed by the A.K.C. your committee declined to allow the said bitch to be registered.

Respectfully submitted,

Stud Book Committee.

On motion the said report was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Pacific Advisory Committee was read as follows:

Meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, A.K.C.

March 11th, 1901
Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman. H.H. Carlton, M.C. Allen, J.P. Norman
Absent: A.J. Allen

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.
Communications read: From A.P. Vredenburgh, dated December 20th, 1900, advising that the request of this committee for an extension of powers had been referred by the A.K.C. to a special committee of five with instructions to report at the annual meeting of the A.K.C. Letter ordered to file.

From A.P. Vredenburgh as follows:

“New York, February 20th, 1901

Mr. J.P. Norman, Secretary
Pacific Advisory Committee,
San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that at the meeting of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, held on the 18th inst., the Special Committee appointed to consider your appeal for greater powers, reported with its recommendation, which was received, ordered filed and its recommendation duly adopted, to wit:— “That the Pacific Advisory Committee of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB be accorded authority to act as the agent of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB in the following matters, and all such acts to be subject to appeal to, or to correction by, the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB.

1st. Receiving applications for admission to members in the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB.

2nd. To approve of show dates.

3rd. To approve of classifications.

4th. To fix the value of winners classes.

5th. To receive and transmit all listing fees.

All communications from and to clubs or exhibitors to be transmitted through the Pacific Advisory Committee. The office of Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee to be honorary. Nothing in aforesaid recommendations shall be construed so as to impair or interfere with any rule of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, or with any existing agreement between the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB and its Pacific Advisory Committee.”

Yours truly,
American Kennel Club
By A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary”

Letter ordered filed and adopted as part of the constitution of this Committee.

A discussion then ensued on the methods to be employed in using the extended powers of the Committee in such a manner as to remove the discord existing on the Coast in kennel affairs, and it was moved and seconded that the Chair appoint a committee of one to draft a letter according to the sense of the Committee as expressed in the discussion, such letter to be sent to the different specialty clubs and all the show giving clubs on the Coast, with the object of inducing there to hold their shows under A.K.C. Rules; the committee to report at the adjourned meeting. The resolution was carried and the Chair appointed M.C. Allen a committee of one to draft the said letter. On motion the meeting adjourned to Tuesday, 19th inst. To give the committee of one the time necessary to draft the report.

J.P. Norman,
Secretary
Meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, A.K.C.
March 19th, 1901
Adjourned from the 11th inst.

Present:  J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman.  M.C. Allen, J.P. Norman
Absent:  H.H. Carlton, A.J. Allen

The Secretary stated that the absence of Mr. A.J. Allen was due to a family affliction, in the death of his wife, and it was resolved that the sympathy of his fellow members of this committee be extended to him.

The committee on communications submitted a report, which was laid on the table by resolution, to be considered as unfinished business.

The Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club applied for the approval of winners class in Scottish Terriers; on the statement that Puppy, Novice, Limit and Open Classes had been opened in the breed for each sex, it was Resolved, that this Committee do hereby approve a winners class for Scottish Terriers in the premium list of the Fifth Annual Bench Show of the San Francisco Kennel Club.

It was moved and seconded that this committee do meet regularly on the third Tuesday of each month.  Carried.

It was moved and seconded that settlements of receipts and disbursements with the American Kennel Club be henceforth made quarterly, instead of semi-annually, as heretofore, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club.  Carried.

The report of the Committee on Communications was then taken from the table and considered as unfinished business. After lengthy discussion and emendation by the Committee as a whole, the following letter was drawn up as being the sense of the entire committee, and it was Moved and seconded that the following letter be sent to every show giving organization on the Coast, and also to every Specialty Club, as embodying the views of this Committee on the speediest and best manner of promoting harmony in kennel affairs.

Carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

J.P. Norman
Secretary
San Francisco, March 19th, 1901

To the Officers and Members of the Pacific Coast Kennel Specialty Clubs

Gentlemen:

The Pacific Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club hereby calls the attention of your club to a few facts, in the consideration of which will be found food for thought and opportunity for profit.

It is the desire of this Committee to serve kennel interests by uniting all clubs under the auspices of the American Kennel Club. In the recent past, this has been not only difficult but impossible, on account of the A.K.C. method of governing Coast Clubs and Coast Shows. The points of objection urged in this behalf have now been so far removed, that this Committee feels justified in asking general support of the A.K.C. on this Coast and the holding of all Coast kennel shows under A.K.C. rules.

The Pacific Advisory Committee came into existence with certain powers, deemed by many prominent kennel enthusiast insufficient to overcome objections of long standing to A.K.C. rule on the Coast. In time the Committee came to realize the inadequacy of these powers to meet the requirements of the situation. The result was an appeal to the A.K.C. for additional powers, which would constitute the Committee the absolute agent of the A.K.C. in all kennel matters in the extreme West. This request was considered by the A.K.C. at its annual meeting in New York on February 18th last, and resulted in the granting of all powers asked. An official communication from the A.K.C. conveyed notice of the adoption of the following recommendation:

“That the Pacific Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club be accorded authority to act as the agent of the American Kennel Club in the following matters, and all such acts to be subject to appeal to, or correction by, the American Kennel Club.

1st. To receive applications for admission to the American Kennel Club.
2nd. To approve of show dates.
3rd. To approve of classification.
4th. To fix the value of winners classes
5th. To receive and transmit all listing fees.

All communications from and to Clubs or Exhibitors, to be transmitted through the Pacific Advisory Committee.”

These added powers supplement the original authority of the Pacific Advisory Committee to hear and determine all protests and appeals arising in this jurisdiction.

The effect of the action taken at New York is to give the Kennel Club of the Coast absolute “Home Rule”, the one all important point, for which the Clubs or the Coast have striven during many years. It seems to the Committee, that by this action, there has been effectively removed all good reason for continued opposition to A.K.C. control of Coast kennel affairs. The Committee would respectfully call this fact to the attention of your Club and request that your members consider the manifold Advantage of an A.K.C. affiliation and the holding of future shows under A.K.C. auspices and control, which will insure harmony of wins, a condition of special importance in view of the fact, that the A.K.C. cannot recognize any wins, past or future, not gained under its own rules.

“Home Rule” has been the one all important right for which Coast Clubs have contended. To all kennel organizations on the Coast this right is now assured. Arrangements for shows may now be made with the Committee direct, thereby removing the objection urged on account of the time required to communicate with New York. Under the present arrangement, the Advisory Committee is to all intents and purposes the A.K.C. on the Pacific Coast.

It is constituted the Court, in which all Coast matters are to be considered and determined, and more than this the Coast surely cannot ask. The Committee feels that kennel interests can best be served through the A.K.C. We adopt this means to invite the co-operation of your club, and in similar manner of all other Club interested in Pacific kennel affairs. The Committee, as now constituted, represents no faction or special interest. It has but one object in view – the best interests of Coast dogdom. Should a vacancy hereafter arise in the Committee, through death, resignation, or otherwise, all A.K.C. vacancy. The Committee will certify to the Clubs a list of eligible candidates, from whom choice may be made, and the candidate receiving the highest vote will be certified to the American Kennel Club as the one who should be appointed to eh place.

Good government is absolutely necessary to kennel club success in the holding of shows. We feel that this government can best be supplied through the A.K.C. A consideration of the facts above outlined, we are satisfied, will lead your club to the same conclusion. Bearing in mind the best interest of Dogdom on the Pacific Coast, we urge these facts to your attention and request that your Club take steps to hold its future shows under the auspices of the A.K.C. An union of Coast Clubs on these lines means much for the future of kennel interests, and we feel safe in counting on your co-operation and support.

Respectfully Submitted,
The Pacific Advisory Committee
of the American Kennel Club
J.P. Norman,
Secretary

J.E. deRuyter,
Chairman

On motion said report was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Vredenburgh: At the Baltimore show of 1899 the report came to us giving the pointer “Daisy Bell” as winning first in the winner’s class, and “Belle Westlake: as winning the reserve. In looking over the report we found that in the open classes “Belle Westlake” won over “Daisy Belle”, and in the winners class, the following class, the judge gave the beaten dog first, and the dog that won over the beaten dog reserve. Mr. Watson, who was then with the American Kennel Club, wrote to Mr. Oldham, who was superintendent of the show, and asked for an explanation of such judgment. Mr. Oldham wrote back that it was a mistake; that the winner should have been “The Widow” and the reserve “Belle Westlake” a dog that won first in the light weight limit class. Mr. Westlake appeals from that decision, and he says he has been the greater part of two years trying to straighten the matter out. I have a mass of correspondence here, in some of which Mr. Oldham says that “Daisy Belle” did win first and “belle Westlake” second, and when they applied for the judge’s book Mr. Riggs, the secretary of the club, said he did not know the books were, but he thought that Mr. Oldham had them; and Mr. Oldham says he has not got them and promised to send me a written statement. He sailed for England yesterday. I sent over to the ship to get this statement from him, and he sent word back that he was not able to get it as he could not find the judge’s book, and has was quite certain it was down at Baltimore. In the certified catalogue under Mr. Oldham’s correction it is stated that “The Widow” was given first; “Belle Westlake” was given reserved in the winners. In their respective classes the judge reserved that, “Belle Wes[t]lake” beating “Daisy Belle” in the open class, and the question is, can a judge place a beaten dog first in the winners class over the dog that beat it in the open class.

Mr. Mortimer moved that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.

Mr. Vredenburgh: In the absence of the judge’s book how am I to understand it? Am I to reinstate “Daisy Belle” as 74 as originally marked on the catalogue?

Mr. Brooks: Isn’t the marked catalogue supposed to be a transcript of the judge’s book?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes.

Mr. Brooks: Failing to get the judge’s book you have got to stand on the marked catalogue. In a case of this sort we ought to let the award stand as it has been recorded in the marked catalogue until we can bring proof from the judge’s book that that catalogue is wrong. I make a motion to that effect.

Mr. Rodman: I ask that this matter be laid over until the next meeting, giving the aggrieved party the opportunity of obtaining the judge’s book, and in case of his failure to obtain it at the next meeting of the American Kennel Club then to allow the marked catalogue, which is the best evidence, to stand. I put that in the form of a motion, that the matter be laid over until the next meeting of the American Kennel Club, affording the owners of the two dogs an opportunity to produce the judge’s books at said meeting.

Seconded and carried.
Mr. Vredenburgh: The next matter in order is that of the Rhode Island State Fair Association. The stake at issue is $8. I write to the Secretary of the Rhode Island State Fair Association, and he sent me word back that they had gone out of business; that they had no funds and consequently they could not pay the $8. The Executive Board directed me to disqualify the officers. The rule is very plain. It says that the show must publish in the premium list its bench show rules and the officers under whose management the show is held, and such officers will be held personally responsible for the payment of all prizes after sixty days have elapsed, and if they did not pay them in that time they should be disqualified. When I turned to the premium list to get the names of the officers I naturally supposed I was going to find the names of the officers of the Rhode Island State Fair Association, but very much to my astonishment I found in the premium list a special announcement: “The bench show to be held in connection with the 79th Annual Rhode Island State Fair Association on October 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, 1899, will be held under the management of the Rhode Kennel Club Bench Show Committee.” Then follows the names of such committee and officers. I did not want to proceed to disqualify the officers of the Rhode Island Kennel Club without some explanation, and I wrote to Mr. Codman, whose reply have, and which I will read.

Mr. Mortimer: I would like to know whether the Rhode Island Kennel Club knew that its name was being used in the premium list.
Mr. Codman: No, it did not. The State Fair Association had run numerous shows, and they did not amount to much for the last few years, but they thought they would hold another and apply here for a charter and pay for their license, and it was run entirely under the license of the Rhode Island State Fair Association. Mr. Perkins came and asked us to help him out and give him some assistance on the understanding that we were to have nothing to do with the management of any of the financial business, or anything whatever. What we did we did as a matter of courtesy to help make the show a success, and gave them our name. They printed that list unknown to us; they had no authority to do that, and we had a written agreement from Mr. Perkins that we were not to be responsible for any financial business whatever. We were not consulted about the management; we were never consulted about the judges or anything at all. We merely loaned them the stewards and they put those name down.

The Chair: What do you mean by lending them your name?

Mr. Codman: That we would assist them in any way we could as a matter of courtesy, which we did. We were never consulted about the management of the show.

Mr. Viti: When did you first learn that your name appeared in connection with the management of the show?

Mr. Codman: When the catalogue came out.

Mr. Viti: Did you see it in the prize list?

Mr. Codman: Yes.

Mr. Viti: Did you complain against it?
Mr. Codman: We complained but that would not alter it.

Mr. Rodman: Who paid the fee for the show?

Mr. Vredenburgh: The State Fair Association. The Rhode Island Kennel Club, so far as we were concerned, had nothing whatever to do with that show until I was directed to disqualify the officers of the Rhode Island State Fair Association, and, as I have said, when I came to get the names of the officers under whose management the show was held I found it stated in their premium list that the show would be held under the management of the Bench Show Committee of the Rhode Island Kennel Club.

Mr. Appleton: I understood Mr. Codman to say that he had a written agreement with the State Fair Association that the show was not to be under their management.

Mr. Codman: That we were not to have anything to do with the financial end of it. We made a stipulation to that effect before we said we would help them out or give them our name. If $8 will fix the matter up I will pay it, but there may be other claims arising out of this same transaction.

Mr. Viti: I understand you loaned them the use of your name on the condition that you would not be financially responsible?

Mr. Codman: Yes. We did not see that printed. We made it a stipulation that we were not to have anything to do with the management. Mr. Oldham was the whole management of the show,
Your charter and license were granted to them; it was not granted to us, and we had nothing whatever to do with it; it was not given under our charter.

The Chair: The only evidence we have is this premium list. We have to go on what evidence we have, and this is the evidence.

Mr. Rodman: Before we take action on this matter I think it would be well to understand thoroughly the position of the American Kennel Club; there may be other claims against this organization, and if those other claims are presented the same ruling must apply as applies now, and for that reason I think it is well to have it thoroughly understood before the motion is made and carried. I only suggest this so as to place the American Kennel Club in a position which is perfectly in compliance with its rulings.

Mr. Codman: I have nothing more to say. You make the ruling that we are responsible, although I do not see how we can be responsible, because it was not held under the management of the Rhode Island Kennel Club; it was under your charter, under your own license.

The Chair: You understand our position, which is that until we have evidence that this is erroneous we will have to stand on this premium list?

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I think we ought to give Mr. Codman an opportunity to get this agreement with the State Fair Association which he says they have. If the President of Rhode Island Kennel Club would furnish the agreement it might let them out entirely.
The Chair: The Secretary acted according to the rule. The only question is, are there other claims that will arise.

Mr. Rodman: Have we as a body representing the American Kennel Club the right to defer or prevent the action of the Executive Committee being carried out?

The Chair: No.

Mr. Rodman: As I understand it, the Executive Committee has directed the Secretary to disqualify the officers who managed that show pending the payment of those claims. Is that correct?

Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes.

Mr. Rodman: Then I move that this dog show committee or the officers of the Rhode Island Kennel Club be permitted to deposit with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club the amount of the claim pending the filing in this office by the President of the Rhode Island Kennel Club the written agreement which he had with the Rhode Island State Fair Association, or any other evidence relative to the management of the show held in 1899.

Mr. Brooks: I second the motion.

Carried.

The Secretary reported the receipt by him of a communication from Mr. S.C. Hodge, asking for removal of disqualification in connection with the non-payment of prizes by the American Pet Dog Club.

Mr. Rodman: I move the Chair that this communication is out of order. If it is to be treated as an appeal, as I understand the rule, it goes to the Executive Board. If it is not an appeal, what is it. There I move it is out of order.
Mr. Carnochan: I move to amend that motion that it be referred to the Executive Board for answer.

Mr. Rodman: I accept the amendment.

Dr. Foote: I offer an amendment to the amendment that Mr. Hodge be informed that upon depositing sufficient funds to liquidate the indebtedness of the American Pet Dog Club for unpaid prizes with the Treasurer of this club his application for re-instatement will be considered.

The amendment to the amendment was lost.

The motion as amended, that the communication is out of order, and that it be referred to the Executive Board for action, was carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I have a communication here from the Collie Club. In substance it states that Dr. Niven, of Canada, was invited to judge spaniels with other breeds at the Chicago show. He accepted, and, as I understand it, he went to the show ready and prepared to judge all the classes that had been assigned to him. He then found that without his knowledge they had taken the spaniels from him and given them to Mr. Mortimer, and had so announced in their premium list.

Mr. Mortimer: I think you are mistaken there, if you will pardon an interruption. The facts are these: Dr. Niven, of London, Canada, was invited to Judge spaniels at Chicago, and he accepted the invitation, and his name was published as the judge in the premium list as well as announced in the press. Some exhibitors who did not feel inclined to have their dogs judged by Dr. Niven, wrote to Mr. Wakem, Chairman of the Bench.
Show Committee, telling him that they would not show under Dr. Niven but that they would show under some other judge, mentioning my name. Mr. Wakem, as I am informed by him, write to Dr. Niven asking him to have his name withdrawn as judge of spaniels, and Dr. Niven consented, and these exhibitors who were unwilling to show under Dr. Niven made their entries with the understanding that I was going to judge the spaniels at Chicago. The Bench Show Committee of the Mascoutah Kennel Club did not write me or inform me or hint to me in any way that they wished me to judge spaniels, and I went on to Chicago not knowing that it was to judge spaniels at all, but when I got there I ascertained from some exhibitors that I had been appointed judge of spaniels and my name appeared in the catalogue. I at once sought out Mr. Wakem and told him that I could not under the circumstances accept that position, that Dr. Niven was down to judge them, and that many entries had been made with the understanding that Dr. Niven was going to judge them, and that no notice had been given to the public, and that I declined to judge these spaniels. The following morning I saw Dr. Niven when he arrived from Canada and shook hands with him and talked with him on the subject, and told him that I would not judge spaniels, and he said neither would he. Dr. Niven knew all about it because he was written to by Mr. Wakem about it and Dr. Niven agreed to withdraw his name, but no announcement was made of that fact; that is, no public announcement. A communication to the Spaniel Club is not a public announcement. I hadn’t the slightest idea that they had me down to judge spaniels until I arrived on the ground at the building in Chicago.
The Chair: You were to judge other dogs there?

Mr. Mortimer: Yes.

Mr. Carnochan: I think we ought to have some sort of a motion in regard to this, and I move that the officials of the Mascoutah kennel Club be censured for changing their judges without making public announcement of their action.

Motion seconded and carried, Mr. Viti voting no.

The Secretary: The next matter is in regard to the New England Kennel Club’s violation of the rules. In their premium list they advertised that they would divide classes by sex providing there were four entries of each sex made. I find that they divided the open class, blood hounds, the open class in mastiffs and the puppy class in pointers. They did not have the necessary number; they would have four dogs and three bitches, or they might have five dogs and three bitches, but at no time did they have the necessary number that they provided for in their rules, so I was compelled to cancel the classes that I considered were illegal. I notified the New England Kennel Club, and they in my presence instructed their delegate, Mr. Brooks, to come here and make an appeal from that ruling on that point.

Mr. Brooks: I wish to appeal from that decision on this ground: When we were making up the entries after the premium list was out Dr. Lougest, the only exhibitor in our section of the country, said he would guarantee the entries if we would divide those open classes, so the secretary in making up the catalogue did so. I will admit it was carelessness in not seeing that the doctor did not have in four of each sex. He had four in one Case and three in another. He was the only exhibitor; there were no other exhibitors; nobody is hurt by it at all, and in fact the club as a loser because we were offering double the amount of money and not getting the corresponding amount of entries, and while it was a direct infringement on the rules of the American Kennel Club, we did not do it in a fraudulent way; in fact we were injuring ourselves, and we thought that this Association would probably let the matter go. In regard to the pointer classes, in the pointer puppies, there the exhibitors got together and they went to the Bench Show Committee and said they wanted these classes divided, and the superintendent of the show gave the authority if they were all willing; nobody was to be hurt by it, and we offered extra prize money for the division. Although technically we admit we violated the rules of the American Kennel Club we have worked no injury; we have not disappointed and exhibitor; we did not decrease our premium list, but in fact we added to it. The harm that has occurred will occur to our treasury and not to anybody else. You are not hurting the New England Kennel Club if you sustain the ruling; the exhibitors get their money. If some one would come along and say: [“If I had known those classes were to be divided I would have gone in”] he probably would have appealed to you. He cannot say that. He had a chance to go in there on the gamble of their being four or five more entries. No such question has come up, and we do not consider that we have done anything more than a slight violation of the rules.

Dr. Foote: I move the club be censured.
Mr. Brooks: My motion is that the awards stand as made by the judges at the New England show.

Dr. Foote: I offer an amendment that the Club be censured for its action.

The Chair: Do you accept the amendment, Mr. Brooks?

Mr. Brooks: I will accept that amendment.

Motion carried and seconded.

Mr. Mortimer: I move that the Secretary be instructed to notify exhibitors of the disqualification of the wins of their dogs.

Mr. Carnochan: I move as an amendment that the Secretary notify the various exhibitors of the loss of their wins.

Amendment seconded and lost.

The original motion was carried.

Mr. Rodman: I move that a committee be appointed by the Chair to consider the advisability of incorporating the American Kennel Club.

Seconded and carried.

The Chair appointed as such committee Messrs, Rodman, Viti and Vredenburgh.

Mr. Viti: I move that a committee of seven be appointed to consider the advisability of the American Kennel Club holding a show.

Seconded and carried.

The Chair appointed as such committee Messrs. Vredenburgh. Viti, Croker, Watson, Rodman, Muss-Arnolt and Hunnewell.

The meeting then adjourned.

The report of the Membership Committee was read, and on motion accepted.
It is as follows:

New York, September 16, 1901

To the American Kennel Club :
  Gentlemen:

  At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day, the application of the Colorado Kennel Club for admission to membership in the A.K.C. was duly considered, and your Committee recommend the admission of said Club to active membership.

  Respectfully submitted

  H.T. Foote, Chairman
  C.B. Knocker
  Membership Committee

  The Colorado Kennel Club was then duly elected a member of the American Kennel Club.

  The Secretary read his quarterly report, as follows:

  New York, September 16, 1901

To the American Kennel Club
  Gentlemen:

  I have the honor to report that the Middlesex Agricultural Association applied for admission to the America
Kennel Club, under date of August 10\textsuperscript{th}, and as said Club intended holding its Show, September 24\textsuperscript{th}-27\textsuperscript{th}, 1901, it was requested that a mail vote be taken upon said application, to enable the Club to distribute its prize list containing our rules. Pursuant to precedent, I requested said mail vote by the Executive Board, and the same was unanimous in favor of the admission of the Club.

I also beg to report an application from the Colorado Kennel Club, for membership. Also fourteen applications for the registration of Kennel names. These matters will be fully reported upon by the proper Committees to which they were referred.

By a vote of the Pacific Advisory Committee, the Sixth District Agricultural Association of Los Angeles, Cal., was duly admitted to membership, date were assigned to it and its classification approved. The above action by the Pacific Advisory Committee, is recognized by the A.K.C. by virtue of the power recently given to said Committee.

At our last meeting a vote of censure to the Mascoutah Kennel Club was passed. This has occasioned quite some correspondence, and resulted in an explanation of the question upon which the censure was based. In a letter dates August 31\textsuperscript{st}, 1901, from John L. Lincoln, the Secretary of the Club, although written in his individual capacity, he requests that at this meeting something will be done to exonerate the Club. In this connection
The Collie Club of America, advises us through its Secretary that its delegate had no authority to act in its behalf, and requested me to make a correction in the next issue of the “Kennel Gazette”. I will say for your information that the complaint upon which we acted was signed “James Watson, Delegate the Collie Club”, and I so advised said Collie Club, and added that it was not within my power to make any correction whatever, even should one be necessary, as the matter has passed out of my hands, and had become the property of the Club. While on this subject, it may not be out of place for me to say that Mr. Watson was quite certain that he had made the complaint as an individual and not as a delegate, and was surprised when I exhibited to him the letter signed as said delegate.

At a recent meeting of the Executive Board, Mr. G.M. A. Fecke, was disqualified upon charges preferred against him by Mr. Camilo E. Pani. Under date of July 20th, 1901, Mr. Pani advises us that Mr. Fecke has settled his claim in a satisfactory way. It is now for this Club to decide whether the penalty of disqualification should be removed or otherwise.

Mr. E.R. Wilbur was disqualified in default of a defense upon charges made by Mr. G.O. Smith. Permission was granted Wilbur to re-open this case in his defense if applied for with thirty days. This he has done, and the matter should be referred to the Executive Board.

A request from Mr. Henry Jarrett to amend the definition of what constitutes an American Bred Dog, was submitted at the last meeting of the Executive Board. It was the sense of the Board that a rule that has been in force for so many years should be referred to the Club for consideration of any proposed amendment or alteration, and said Board therefore declined to take any action in the matter. It is now referred to you for consideration.

Under date of June 27th, 1901, Mr. A.D. Cochrane advises us that his Airedale Terrier Bitch “Howling Doris” was shown at the late Chicago Show, in Mr. L.A. Klein’s name as owner, with the further information that since that time he could get no trace of the whereabouts of his bitch. This bitch won “first” in “limit”, open and winners classes at the Chicago Show, and although the rules direct that in such a case the win must be cancelled, I had no knowledge that Mr. Klein was not the bona fide owner, and did not cancel said winnings, and they still remain a record to the credit of said bitch. I find that this same bitch was shown for “specials” only at the late San Francisco Show, and again entered in the name of L.A. Klein as owner.

I beg to report an itemized bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from February 26th to July 3rd, amounting to $14.95. The same will be paid if approved by this meeting.

I beg to report the following matters relative to The Pacific Coast.

An appeal from John I. Sparrow against the decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Charges against the San Francisco Kennel Club, by I.W. Horton, for non-payment of prizes won by him in 1899.

Charges preferred by Mrs. A.A. Roi vs. Mrs. John McCullough. The latter case was forwarded to this office by the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee but I am not advised whether or not the charges were preferred in accordance with the Constitution. Owing to the powers granted to the Pacific Advisory Committee, I am of the opinion that the above cases, except that of Mr. Sparrow’s appeal should be acted upon by the Pacific Advisory Committee.

I have the honor to report that I have just received a cablegram from Mrs. Ellen Oughton Giles, Stokenchurch, England, expressing her “deepest sympathy with America”, in the loss of its late President.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:
New York, September 16, 1901

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I hereby beg to submit my quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1901 .................. $8,735.00

Receipts from January 1\textsuperscript{st} to date ..................... 7,544.63

\begin{align*}
\text{Total} & \text{..........................} $16,279.63 \\
\text{Disbursements since January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1901} & \text{..................} $7,660.83 \\
\text{Balance on hand} & \text{...............} $8,618.80 \end{align*}

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The reading of the report of the Executive Board was, on motion dispensed with, and accepted as published in the June “Gazette”.

The Secretary read the reports of four meetings of the Pacific Advisory Board, which were on motion taken up seriatim and accepted as read.
Special Meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee of the A.K.C., Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, May 29, 1901

Present: J.E. De Ruyter, Chairman; A.J. Allen, J.P. Norman Absent: M.C. Allen, H.H. Carlton.

Moved and seconded that the rules be suspended to take up protests, and that executive business be postponed to the next regular meeting. Carried.

The protest, as here opposite attached from Mr. John I. Sparrow, was read. It appeared from the same, that at the Fifth Annual Bench Show of the San Francisco Kennel Club, held at San Francisco, May 8th to 11th, 1901, in class 168 for bull terriers, puppy bitches, the judge, Mr. J.J. Lynn, awarded to the protestant in the ring, the first prize in said class for his bitch, “Edgewood Jean II”, and handed him the blue ribbon, the token of such prize; but that the Judge in marking his official record of awards, inscribed therein number 446, the catalogue number of Mr. Joseph’s bitch, “Imp”, whereas the catalogued number of protestant’s bitch was No. 447. The appellant in support of his claim, further cites the fact that his bitch was taken into the ring to compete for the winners prizes and was awarded reserve in said class. And further that his bitch obtained the special for the best bred California bull terrier in the Show.
On examination of the judge’s book, it appears that number 446 “Imp”, is inscribed as winning the first prize in Class 168 for puppy bitches, bull terriers. In the award of the trophy of the Pacific Bull Terrier Club for the best puppy bitch, number 447, “Edgewood Jean II” is inscribed as winning the same, but this has been erased and number 446 substituted, with the notation, “Correct, J.J. Lynn”. In view of the entry in the record of the awards in the regular class, and of the notation in the award of the special in the judge’s own handwriting, it was Moved and seconded, that the entry in the judge’s book, be deemed the correct entry, and that the protest be rejected. It was further moved and seconded, that in view of the fact that Mr. Sparrow was led to take his dog into the ring for the Winners Class, by reason of being the recipient of the blue ribbon, and that Mr. Joseph, the recipient of the red ribbon, thought his bitch had only taken a second prize in the Puppy Class, it would appear from his statement made to this Committee, that Mr. Sparrow had great justification for his protest, and his deposit of ten dollars be not forfeited. Carried.

The protest as here opposite attached, from Mr. P. C. Meyer was read. It appears from the same that the appellant’s smooth coated St. Bernard bitch, “Miss Barry”, catalogue number 76, was entered in the judge’s official record as having won the Eppinger Trophy for the best St. Bernard of opposite sex to the winner of the President’s trophy. It appears further that Mr. Meyer’s representative was handed this trophy in the ring on the presentation of the special prizes, but that afterwards, Mr. Fately, the owner of the rough coated bitch, “Melba”, catalogue number 67, came up to the protestant, accompanied by the judge of the breed, Mr. J.J. Lynn, and claimed the cup, and that Mr. Lynn informed the appellant that the cup had been awarded to “Melba”. The appellant thereupon ceded the cup to Mr. Fately, but on subsequent examination, found that the official record of the judge bore the number 76, that of his smooth-coated bitch, “Miss Barry”. The judge’s book, as submitted by the San Francisco Kennel Club, bore our the statement of the appellant. The defendant, however, produced the following letter from Mr. J.J. Lynn:

San Francisco, May 29, 1901

To Dog Show Committee

Dear Sirs:

My attention has been called to an error in the award of special for the best bitch in the Show (St. Bernard). The award was made to number 67—and not to 76.

Jas. J. Lynn

In view of the foregoing statement of the judge of the breed in question, it was Moved and seconded, that the appeal of Mr. Meyer be denied, and it was further moved and seconded that in view of the fact the appeal was justified by the official record of the Club holding the Show, that the appellant's deposit be not forfeited.

Carried.

There being no further protests, all other business was postponed to the next regular meeting, and the meeting on motion was adjourned.

Attest: J.P. Norman

Secretary

Meeting adjourned from regular meeting of June 18th, 1901. Held at the office of Mr. J.E. de Ruyter, San Francisco, July 2nd, 1901.

Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman; J.P. Norman, A.J. Allen

Absent: H.H. Carlton, M.C. Allen

On motion, the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was deferred to the next meeting.

Moved and seconded that business be confined to consideration of the following letter from Mr. Vredenburgh, which was read by the Secretary.

New York, June 11, 1901

Mr. J.P. Norman, Secretary

Pacific Advisory Committee,
San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir:
I beg to hand you herewith a communication received from the San Francisco Kennel Club and would request your Committee to investigate the same and arrive at a conclusion why the judge took upon himself to correct awards already given and marked in the judge's book. The American Kennel Club has established precedents governing such conditions and do not permit a judge after having made awards and dismissing his class to subsequently change these awards. As we are at present at work on the catalogue of the late San Francisco Show, you will oblige me by calling a meeting of your Committee at once and forwarding to this office promptly the result reached at that meeting. In the deliberations of your Committee, kindly have in view at all times the precedent above referred to, as in my opinion it would be very unfortunate if the American Kennel Club were obliged to disapprove of your action.

Yours truly,
American Kennel Club,
By A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

The communication contained in the above letter was as follows:

San Francisco, June 5th, 1901

Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary,
American Kennel Club
New York
Dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that Mr. J.J. Lynn has corrected the entries in his Judge’s book in the following classes:

No. 252, Maltese Terriers, Open Dogs and Bitches:
First, Mrs. S. Rand, “Queenie R”, No. 601.
Second, Mrs. A.A. Roi, “Margie B”, No. 600.

Will you please correct the marked catalogue in accordance and oblige.

Yours truly,

J.P. Norman, Secretary

Per H.D. Laidlaw, Cashier

Mr. Laidlaw, Cashier of the San Francisco Kennel Club was in attendance, and submitted his letter to Mr. Lynn setting forth that both exhibitors of Maltese Terriers were dissatisfied with the awards as published in the catalogue, and were both in accord that the judge had awarded the ribbons as subsequently corrected, and were both anxious to have the error rectified. For these reasons, the judge was invited to settle the matter satisfactorily to all parties concerned.

Mr. Laidlaw further stated that Mr. Lynn called and sated that it was a mistake on his part, and that the dogs were placed as he awarded the ribbons, and he therefore corrected the book accordingly. The Secretary stated that he had invited the Judge to attend the meeting or give a written explanation of his action in changing his awards, and that Mr. Lynn had answered a previous invitations to a meeting by saying that he would be unable to attend a meeting held in the evening and suggesting that a written communication should be forwarded to the Committee, if he were informed of the exact nature of the explanation required.

An examination of the Judge’s book shows that No. 600 had originally been entered as winning first therein and No. 601 as winning second prize, and the entries had been reversed over the signature of J.J. Lynn.

In view of the fact that the explanation requested of Mr. Lynn had not yet been received, and that the Committee was therefore unable to arrive at a conclusion, or to the reason of the change, it was Moved and seconded that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to communicate with Mr. Lynn and to request him to furnish this Committee with an explanation of above reversal prior to July 9th, failing the receipt of which, this, as well as other reversals will be brought before the American Kennel Club in the nature of a complaint from the Pacific Advisory Committee.

The chair thereupon declared the meeting adjourned to the following Tuesday, July 9th, 1901, at the same place and time, 5 p.m.

Attest:

J.P. Norman
Secretary
Regular Meeting of Pacific Advisory Committee
July 9th, 1901, held at the office of J.E. de Ruyter

Adjourned from July 2nd, 1901

Present: John E. de Ruyter, Chairman; Merton C. Allen, J.P. Norman,
A.J. Allen

Absent: H.H. Carlton

Minutes of regular meeting of May 29th read. It was moved and seconded that he same be amended by inserting, prior to the motion in the matter of the Meyer protest, after the words “Statement of the judge of the breed in question”, the words, “And the statement made to this Committee by Mr. Fately, that he erroneously gave the number of his bitch as 76, instead of 67, to the judge at the time the award was made, it was moved and seconded”, etc. Carried.

The following communications were read by the Secretary:

A notice from Mr. J.I. Sparrow, that he was about to protest to the American Kennel Club, against the decision of this Committee in the matter of appeal against the award of second to his bull-terrier bitch, “Edgewood Jean II”.
Ordered filed.

From the Vancouver Island Kennel Club, in which under date of April 12th, the Club acknowledges the receipt of the circular issued by this Committee on March 19th, and regrets that it is too late to change the rules of the Show then shortly to be held, and promising to discuss the matter with the Committee before holding any future show. Ordered filed.

From Norman J. Stewart enclosing copy of resolutions passed by the Pacific Kennel League to join the American Kennel Club. Ordered filed.

In the matter of the change of awards made in the judge’s book by Mr. Lynn on June 3rd in Maltese terriers, the same having been referred to this Committee by the American Kennel Club for investigation and report, the Secretary reported that he had received no explanation of the change from Mr. Lynn. It was from Mr. Lynn as to the reason for changing the awards in Maltese terriers in the judge’s book, this Committee can see no reason for making the change, and recommends that the awards stand as originally entered in the book. Carried.

It was further moved and seconded, that this Committee respectfully calls the attention of the Executive Committee to the numerous changed in awards made subsequently to the judging by Judge Lynn, and would ask the Executive Committee to lay down such rules as would obviate a repetition of these conditions in the future. Carried.

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned.

Attest: J.P. Norman
Secretary
Pacific Advisory Committee,

Regular meeting, August 20th, 1901, Occidental Hotel, San Francisco

Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman; H.H. Carlton, J.P. Norman, A.J. Allen
Absent: A.J. Allen

Minutes of previous meetings read and approved.

Application was read from the Sixth District Agricultural Association, Freeman G. Teed, Secretary, dated July 25th, 1901, for admission to membership in the American Kennel Club and for approval of dates for a Bench Show to be held at Los Angeles on October 2, 3, 4 and 5, 1901. The application cited that the officers of the Association were E.T. Wright, President; Farmers and Merchants Bank, Treasurer; Freeman G. Teed, Secretary. Directors, C.E. DeCamp, S.N. Andrus, G.B. Barham, Caspar Cohn, M.A. Covaribias, Martin C. Marsh, H.J. Fleishman, E.T. Wright. The dues of the Association having been duly paid, and the Constituting meeting with all the requirements of the rules of the American Kennel Club, it was moved and seconded that the Sixth District Agricultural Association be and hereby is admitted to membership in the American Kennel Club. Carried.

The deposits of the Sixth District Agricultural Association having been duly received with their application for approval of dates, it was moved and seconded that the dates of October 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th, be and hereby are approved for the Bench Show to be held by the Sixth District Agricultural Association at Los Angeles. Carried.

The Secretary stated that, acting under the advice of the Chair, he had issued on July 22nd, subject to release, a certificate of approval for the premium list of the above Association, and a certificate for the minimum value of one point for the winner’s classes, in advance of the application of the Association for membership. This was done as the managers of the Association were most anxious to get out the premium list early, and the Secretary sought confirmation for the irregularity of the action. It was in accordance with the precedent set by Mr. Vredenburgh in connection with the Sacramento Show of 1900. It was moved and seconded that the action of the Secretary be herewith confirmed and approved / Carried.

A letter was read from Mr. L.A. Klein enclosing copy of one to Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, asking the good offices of this Committee in the matter of the cancellation of the wins of several of Mr. Klein’s dogs for not having been listed prior to the San Francisco Show. After some discussion, it was Resolved, that the Secretary ascertain from Mr. Klein how many dogs he entered, how many were registered or listed elsewhere prior to the show, and how many and what dogs he ordered Listed at San Francisco. The Secretary was further instructed to procure from the San Francisco Kennel Club, Mr. Klein’s entry blanks and to make a careful examination of the same, and to report to the Committee at the next meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

The Secretary then read the report of the Special Committee on the advisability of holding a Dog Show by the American Kennel Club, as follows:

New York, September 17th, 1901

Absent, H.H. Hunnewell, Jr., Frank Croker

M.A. Viti, in the Chair

The object of the meeting having been stated by the Chairman, a full discussion was had.

The following resolution was adopted:

That the matter be laid over for report until the annual meeting. Mr. Rodman voted in the negative.

Adjourned. A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary Committees
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Viti, Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, then read the report of that Committee as follows:

The Stud Book Committee begs leave to report as follows:

Applications have been filed for the granting of the following prefixes, which as they do not conflict with any already registered, this Committee recommends should be allowed:

Acorn, by Fred L. Seager
Bozzie, by George B. Clason
Den, by J. Edward Cowles
Emerald Hill, by John R. Flinn
Glendale, by Harold W. Gould
Iona, by Dr. and Mrs. W.W. Hadley
Sachusett, by Miss Alice Brownell
Stenton, by Mr. and Mrs. S. Boyd Carrigan
Vine, by E.F.J. Goldsmith
Beaver Brook, by Tyler Morse

In addition to the foregoing, applications were filed for the granting of:

Dakota, by Charles Brewer
Texas, by W.H. Ordway
Scottish, by A.C. Gilbert
King, by Gilbert M. King
This Committee did not approve the granting of the names Dakota and Texas as they are the names of States, and too general; Scottish was declined following the precedent of not allowing the name of any breed to be used as a Kennel name; the name King was also refused as it conflicts with one already registered.

Communications have been received from Dr. John R. Daniels and E.F. Smith in reference to a certain letter of pointer puppies reported to have been sired by Plain Sam, which was doubted owing to their lack of intelligence, but after a careful consideration of the correspondence, the Committee has concluded that they have no jurisdiction in the premises.

In re Brookdale Lilly (55837). A protest against the registration of said bitch registered by E.A. Throckmorton claiming to be breeder and owner of said bitch was filed by Miss Helen M. Caldwell and W.S. Le Mon.

After due notice to the parties in interest they appeared in person before this Committee of two meetings and also submitted certain affidavits in support of their contention, which are herewith submitted.

The evidence shows that on or about March 26, 1900, E.W. Throckmorton filed an application for the registration of the pointer bitch “Brookdale Lilly”, claiming to be the breeder and owner
Thereof. Miss Caldwell from her affidavit and testimony showed to the satisfaction of this Committee that she had had possession of the dam of “Brookdale Lilly” viz: (Elkwood Mate) from 1895, and that the said latter bitch was still in her possession, This statement was substantiated by the affidavit and testimony of W.S. Le Mon and was not contradicted nor denied by said E.W. Throckmoeton whose contention was that Miss Caldwell was merely a custodian and not an owner or lessee of said Elkwood Kate[]. Numerous affidavits from disinterested parties were filed and from a consideration of all that were submitted, this Committee is of the unanimous opinion that Miss Caldwell’s contention that said “Elkwood Kate” had been given to her by E.W. Throckmorton in 1895, and that she still owned said bitch, should be sustained. She therefore is the breeder of said “Brookdale Lilly” and any and all litters the Committee therefore recommends that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club be directed to correct and enter all progeny of said. “Elkwood Kate” whelps subsequent to 1895, naming Miss Caldwell as breeder of the aforesaid progeny as long as the ownership of said bitch continues in her. This Committee further finds from the testimony of said W.E. Throckmorton that at the date, namely on or about March 26, 1900, of the making of said application by him for the registration of said “Brookdale Lilly” he was not the sole owner of said last named bitch and should be censured for ascribing
To himself such sole ownership.

This Committee further recommends by reason of the aforesaid conclusions reached that the application of Miss Caldwell filed on or about May 1st, 1901, for the re-registration of said “Elkwood Kate” be allowed upon complying with the rules of the American Kennel Club.

In reference to the Field Spaniel Heather, this Committee finds that the objections to the combination of its date of both breeder and pedigree as given at the W.K.C. Show is well founded, as a letter from the breeder placed the date of birth as October 26th, 1897, and not January, 1898, as stated.

In the matter of the Cocker Spaniel “Varney” the Committee reports that John Midwinter who filed an objection to the dog’s pedigree has since neglected and refused to pursue his objection, although frequently requested to do so. The exhibitor of the said dog promptly furnished this Committee with an affidavit giving his reason for giving the pedigree as stated but the complainant, although six months have elapsed and he has been frequently requested to furnish his evidence, has neglected to do so. The Committee believes that it is against the best interests of this Association for anyone in the possession of knowledge of wrong doing to file an objection and refuse to pursue the same and therefore recommends that said John Midwinter be suspended.
Mr. Vredenburgh: The first matter to which I call attention is a communication from Mr. John L. Lincoln in regard to a vote of censure of the Mascoutah Kennel Club passed by the American Kennel Club; also a communication from Mr. William C. Hunter in regard to the same subject.

Mr. Watson: As I was the one to bring up this matter, I think it is quite proper that I should make a statement, prefacing my remarks by saying that I am not authorized to make any statement whatever, but I think I am justified as a delegate to make a few remarks on this subject.

My idea in called attention to the matter was to prevent its recurrence. I had no intention of asking that any very grievous censure be passed upon the Mascoutah Club, but, however, the club thought fit to do so. I wish to call the attention of the club to this point, that this vote of censure was passed upon the Mascoutah Kennel Club without allowing it any opportunity to respond to the accusation, and I think that is fair ground for asking a reconsideration of the vote and passing it through in the proper way. If it Should turn out that the Club has no defense to offer, then the vote of censure would stand; but as I have said I think the action of the club is passing this vote of censure, without allowing the Mascoutah Kennel Club to say anything in its defense was hardly proper. I was not present at the last meeting so I hardly know whether I ought to make any motion.

Mr. Mortimer: I think it would be a good thing to re-consider this matter, not because I think the vote of censure was severe, but because I think it would give the Club an opportunity of putting in a defense, or an excuse, or whatever it may deem proper. They evidently labored under a mistake, an impression that the American Kennel Club would force them to change their judge because he was not on the official list of the American Spaniel Club. I think you will agree with me in that respect. So far as my contract with them was concerned, I think you will agree with me, that as soon as the judges’ names and the breeds assigned to them were published, that settled the contract; they could not go on and put me in to judge spaniels, because in my letter I told them that I would judge any breeds they were prepared to give me. They should not bring that up as a breach of contract. Dr. Niven was assigned to judge spaniels. That fact was announced in all their papers. I think Mr. Lincoln is wrong in his idea. I don’t think that I committed any breach of contract at all, because as soon as the judges’ names appeared in their premium lists, with the breeds assigned to them, that settled the contract. My breeds were assigned, and so were Dr. Niven’s. My refusal to judge spaniels, because they had taken them away from Dr. Niven, certainly does not mean that I committed a breach of contract, so far as I can see. I think, as I said, that they have been laboring under a misapprehension.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I would like to ask if that is an official communication from the Mascoutah Kennel Club.

Mr. Vredenburgh: This is a communication from Mr. Lincoln in his individual capacity. The other letter from the Collie Club is an official communication.

Mr. Carnochan: In view of the fact that the Mascoutah Kennel Club, through its Secretary, while writing as an individual, asks us to reconsider the vote of censure, I wish to make this motion, that the American Kennel Club reconsider the vote of censure on the Mascoutah Kennel Club passed at the last meeting, and that the matter be referred to the Executive Board for action. That will give them an opportunity, officially, to go before the Executive Board.

Mr. Drake: As the delegate of the Mascoutah Kennel Club, I would ask that this vote be reconsidered. I believe that the Secretary of the Mascoutah Kennel Club desires to have this matter brought up again, and I ask leave to bring it up now for discussion. I am not informed on the subject myself.

The Chair: I believe, unless there is some official application from the Mascoutah Kennel Club to the American Kennel Club in regard to this matter, that the motion made by Mr. Carnochan is out of order, and I shall rule that the motion is out of order.
We have no right to determine this question here if it has once been determined by the Executive Board.

Mr. Mortimer: No notification was made to me whatever, either officially or unofficially that I was to judge spaniels. I knew nothing of it except from one exhibitor, who wrote me a letter congratulating me on having been appointed to judge Spaniels in the place of Dr. Niven, and I replied that I had received no communication from the Club officially, or otherwise, that they wanted me to judge spaniels, and I certainly would not judge them. I am very sorry that this vote of censure cannot be reconsidered. I should like very much to have it reconsidered, and I think if Mr. Drake makes an application for a reconsideration there could be no good reason why the Executive Committee should not take the matter up.

Mr. Vredenburgh: At the last meeting of the Executive Board, Mr. G.M.A. Fecke was disqualified upon charges preferred against him by Mr. Camillo E. Pani. On July 20th, Mr. Pani wrote me a letter to the effect that Mr. Fecke had settled his claim in a satisfactory way, and it is now before the Club to decide whether the disqualification should be removed or not.

On motion the matter was referred to the Executive Board.

In regard to the disqualification of Mr. E.R. Wilbur, in default of the defense upon charges made by Mr. G.O. Smith, it was moved and seconded that the matter be referred to the Executive Board. Carried.
The Secretary called up the request of Mr. Henry Jarrett to amend the definition of what constitutes an American bred dog, which was submitted to the last meeting of the Executive Board, and by it referred to the club. After some discussion in which the opinion was freely expressed that many dogs were exhibited as American bred which were not entitled to that distinction under the existing definition, Mr. Mortimer suggested a definition of what should constitute an American bred dog.

The Chair: The secretary suggests that if the definition which you would recommend is to be published by the American Kennel Club in our show rules, it would be necessary to give notice as required by our rules, and then it would go through the proper channels to the Committee on Rules and Regulations. Just serve a written notice in the exact phraseology you desire and that will be submitted to the rules committee.

The Secretary then called attention to the communication from Mr. A.D. Cochran in regard to his Airedale Terrier Bitch, which was shown in the name of Mr. L.A. Klein as owner at the late Chicago show, since which time he had not been able to find any trace of the bitch.

Mr. Carnochan: I move that the secretary be directed to inform Mr. Cochran that his only redress is to prefer charges against Mr. Klein.

Seconded and carried.

On motion the bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for Disbursements, amounting to $14.95, was approved.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Here is a charge against the San Francisco Kennel Club for non-payment of prizes, filed by Mr. I.W. Horton; also another one which the Pacific Advisory Committee sent to me. These two cases in my opinion ought to be sent back to the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Mr. Carnochan: I move that they be sent back to the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Here is an appeal from John I. Sparrow from the decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

Mr. Carnochan: I move it be referred to the Executive Board in accordance with the rules.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the Secretary was directed to cable to Mrs. Ellen Oughton Giles, of Stokenchurch, England, who expressed “deepest sympathy with American,” in the loss of its President, the high appreciation of the members of the club for her expression of sympathy.

Mr. Viti: I desire to move to correct the minutes as published. I see that Mr. Rodman is reported as saying: “I move that a committee be appointed by the Chair to consider the advisability of incorporating the American Kennel Club.” I thin that motion also included authority to the committee to have the club incorporated. I move that the minutes as published be corrected in that respect.
Motion second and carried.
On motion of Mr. Carnochan the delegates went into a committee of the whole.

Mr. Viti: As chairman of the committee of the whole I beg to report that at its session a motion was seconded and carried that the report of the sub-committee on reciprocity, with the English Kennel Club, be accepted.

On motion report of the Committee on the whole was accepted.

Capt. Knocker: I move that a vote of thanks be extended to the sub-committee of the American Kennel Club for the hard work that they have done in England.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Viti: I move that it is the sense of this meeting that it is to the best interest of the American Kennel Club for the secretary to attend in person the more prominent dog shows in this circuit, and that this should be done at the expense of the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Before we adjourn I would like to make a statement: The Executive Board, at its meeting held on June 18th, paid me a very handsome compliment, one that was beyond my deserts. They voted me a testimonial of $500 to pay my expenses abroad to attend to its business, and at the same time giving me a sufficient margin to have a pretty good time. I appreciated that beyond expression. I can Not express to you the feeling that I had that the American Kennel Club would give me a testimonial for simply doing my duty. Several friend in the American Kennel Club who knew nothing about this testimonial, but out of pure friendship for me, sent me a letter of credit and told me to go to the other side and have a good time with it. That was another unexpected pleasure to me. I want to express to this club and to these gentlemen who sent me this personal testimonial my appreciation, my thanks, for their courtesy, not only for the physical gift, but for the spirit that prompted them to think of me in the handsome manner that they did. I want to say now that I used $200 of the $500, which covered my transportation to London and back, and having no occasion to use the other $300 I have returned it to the credit of the American Kennel Club. At the same time I thank you most heartily for the spirit that prompted you to make me such a present.

The Chair (Mr. Rodman): It seems proper that I should be permitted to say a few words in reply to what Mr. Vredenburgh has said, and may I say that I think the spirit in which the testimonial, as he is pleased to call it, was given is equaled in the way in which it was accepted, and that the American Kennel Club made no mistake in giving Mr. Vredenburgh that small testimonial as a token of appreciation of his efficient services for all these long years to the American Kennel Club; and never were Mr. Vredenburgh’s services of greater practical use and value than during the past summer.
The meeting of the two committees owe to a great extent their successful termination to Mr. Vredenburgh's through knowledge of the subjects which they discussed, and I feel sure that Mr. Carnochan, who was my fellow-committeeman, will bear me out in the statement that we as two fellow members of the same committee felt that with Mr. Vredenburgh near us we could not go astray, and that was demonstrated time and time again, not only to our satisfaction, but also to the satisfaction of the English Kennel Club, whose sub-committee repeatedly in Mr. Vredenburgh's presence and in ours paid tributes to him and showered compliments upon him, showing that he was not only appreciated in his own country, but that he was also appreciated abroad.

I apologize for doing something which the chairman is not as a rule expected to do, and if I have transgressed forgive me for my ignorance and not from any wilful desire so to do, not to take up your time.

Capt. Knocker: It seems to me that when the American Kennel Club asked Mr. Vredenburgh to accept the testimonial it did not do so with the idea that he was going to return the greater part of it to the club, and I cannot see what right the American Kennel Club has to accept such a thing from him, and although it is very just and very kind of him to tender it back I should say that the club should ask Mr. Vredenburgh to accept that $300 as it belongs to him.

The Chair: Do you put that in the form of a motion?

Capt. Knocker: I would like to put that in the form of A motion: That Mr. Vredenburgh be asked to accept the money which was handed to him for a purpose; he was not supposed to give an account of what he did with it. If for any reason Mr. Vredenburgh has not found it necessary to use that money in the way he was supposed to use it, that is no reason why he should not retain it; it was given to him as a token of appreciation of his service, and I move that he be asked to keep it.

Motion seconded and unanimously and heartily carried.
The meeting then adjourned.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with, and they were approved as published in the Sept Gazette.

The report of the Membership Committee was read, as follows

New York, December 16, 1901

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:—

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day the application of the New Jersey Kennel Association for admission to membership in the American Kennel Club was duly considered and your committee recommend the admission of said club to active membership. Credentials from the Westminster Kennel Club appointing Mr. Richard H. Williams as its delegate were duly considered and your committee recommend the acceptance of the same.

Respectfully submitted,
S. Van Schaick
C.B. Knocker

On motion said report was accepted.

The New Jersey Kennel Association was duly elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

Mr. R.H. Williams was elected to represent the Westminster Kennel Club.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, December 16, 1901

TO THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB:

Gentlemen:-

I have the honor to report an application from the New Jersey Kennel Association for admission to membership. Also applications for the registrations of Kennel Names. These matters were referred to their proper Committees, which will submit their report at this meeting.

By virtue of the power conferred upon the Pacific Advisory Committee the Oakland Poultry Association, of Oakland, Cal. was duly Admitted to membership by said Committee. Dates were assigned to it for a show, the classification approved, and the show held.

I beg to report that Mr. G.N. Phelps, of Boston, Mass. filed a protest against the recording of winnings awarded to the dog “Newcastle Zizi”, and against its owner for showing same as a French Bulldog, having the knowledge that it was a first cross of a Boston Terrier Bitch to a French Bulldog. I have duly notified the owner, Mr. James L. Little of the protest and invited him to file his answer or to appear in person at this meeting.

Under date of June 6, 1901 Mr. Henry Jarrett filed a communication on the subject of a proper definition of the term of an “American Bred Dog.” This matter was submitted to the Executive Board, and by it referred to the full meeting of the Club, and was considered at the September meeting, at which time the delegate of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of America agreed to submit his views on the subject in writing, so that the same might be considered by the Committee on Constitution and Rules. Your Secretary has not received any communication whatever upon the subject, and is therefore obliged to again present the matter for your consideration.

I will submit at this meeting a communication from James M. Pulley, asking legislation on the subject of breeds divided by height. His contention is that a puppy not fully grown may be exhibited in novice, limit and open classes, and may win in said classes, but such puppy when fully grown may develop into a size that would make it ineligible to compete in a class in which it had won as a puppy, with the possibility of being ineligible to compete in any class of its breed. The writer states that it is a matter of interest to Beagle men particularly.

I beg to report for your information that all bills for associate and Active dues and for advertising accounts were made out and duly mailed to our members and advertisers the latter part of November.

It gives me pleasure to state that the present year has been the most successful one in the history of this Association. In the matter of registrations the preceding year was the record, but with the ending of this ear I am quite certain that I will be within the limit in stating that the registrations will exceed those of the previous year by over four hundred. While the number of dog shows will not be as great as in 1900, yet the average entries at said shows were much greater, and several of the important shows not being held until nearly the close of the year, it has entailed more work for the office, and in order to successfully cope with that work in time to publish it in the forthcoming volume of the Stud Book, I must again ask your consent to secure the services of an additional clerk for at least the three months of January, February and March.

Pursuant to a recent resolution of the Club, your Secretary has visited in his official capacity the shows held at Buffalo, Toronto, Atlanta and Philadelphia, and desires to express his appreciation of the hospitality and courtesy extended to him at all of these shows. He is of the opinion that after the completion of the Spring Circuit the object of his visit shall have been attained, and he would therefore respectfully suggest that the practice be discontinued.

Your Secretary would recommend that the Chair appoint a special committee with the object of considering the advisability, and suggesting ways and means toward the purchase of a suitable home for this Association. This would keep us in line with other national organizations, which are of no greater importance in their particular departments than is THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted as read.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, December 18, 1901

TO THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit my quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1901 $8,735.00
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date 11,285.21
Total $20,020.21
Disbursements from Jan. 1st, 1901 $10,465.17
Balance on hand $9,555.04

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted as read.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The proceedings of the Executive Board were published in the November Gazette.

Mr. Rodman: I move that they be accepted as published in the November Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the report of the Pacific Advisory Committee, as follows:

PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Regular Meeting, October 15th, 1901

Absent: J.E. de Ruyter
The Secretary called the meeting to order, and Mr. Carlton was elected to the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The application of the Oakland Poultry Association for membership in the American Kennel Club was read by the Secretary. The Association having complied with all the requirements and the constitution being satisfactory, it was moved and seconded that:

The Oakland Poultry Association be, and hereby is, elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

Carried.

The application of the Oakland Poultry Association for approval of the dates of December 4, 5, 6, and 7, 1901 was granted, and the deposit of the Association as guarantee for holding a bench show on those dates accepted.

The Secretary stated that he had approved and certified with a minimum of one point the premium list of the Oakland Poultry Association, in order to enable the latter to get out the list for publication. It was moved and seconded that the action of the Secretary be, and hereby is, confirmed. Carried.

In the matter of the appeal of L.A. Klein for the good offices of this Committee on his behalf with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, to rescind the cancellation of the wins of certain of his dogs made at the San Francisco show for non-listing, it was moved and seconded that the same be laid on the table, Mr.
Klein having appealed to the Executive Board and so taken the matter out of the hands of this committee. Carried.

In the matter of Roi versus McCullough:

It appearing from the evidence and correspondence presented to this committee that Mrs. McCullough, by her own acknowledgement, did not fulfill her contract and agreement with Mrs. A.A. Roi, wither as to the condition of the Maltese terrier bitch, “Poots,” or as to the forwarding of the pedigrees of the pups and of their sire, or as to the prepayment of the express charges as agreed by her in her latter of February 9th. It was moved and seconded that the said Mrs. John McCullough, of Indianapolis, proprietor of the Linden Kennels, be, and hereby is, suspended for the period of sixty (60) days from date, and that unless she fulfill her contract and agreement with the said Mrs. A.A. Roi to the satisfaction of the latter and of this committee before the expiration of that period, she be permanently disqualified, under Article XII., Section 5 of the Constitution and By-Laws of the American Kennel Club.

Carried.

In the matter of Horton versus the San Francisco Kennel Club, a complaint for the non-payment for prizes won in 1899, it was moved and seconded that the same be referred to the San Francisco Kennel Club for investigation, with the suggestion that if the prizes be found to be unpaid, they be duly paid to the complainant.
In the matter of W.E. Meek versus the San Francisco Kennel Club:

The complainant alleges that the judge, J.J. Lynn, awarded him in the ring the red ribbon, in token of the second prize for his mastiff dog, “Sharkey,” in the open class for mastiffs, and that the slips handed to the official stenographer of the club were so marked, and that the award was so published in the marked catalogue; that the Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club refused to pay him the second prize and tendered him the third prize, on the ground that the official slip retained by the judge for the use of the club was so marked. The official judge’s book and the slips marked by Mr. Lynn for the stenographer were submitted by the San Francisco Kennel Club, and the same were found to be as alleged by the complainant. In view of the record showing that “Sharkey” was awarded the second prize in the open class for mastiffs on two slips, and received the same award in the ring, it was moved and seconded that the awards made in the ring be sustained, that the Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club be order to pay the second prize to M.E. Meek, to change the official record, and that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club be requested to change the official records as printed in the Gazette accordingly.

After some discussion of American Kennel Club affairs on the Pacific Coast, there being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Attest:

J.P. Norman,
Secretary
On motion the same was accepted as read.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, and on motion accepted, and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

SUBSTITUTIONS

Shawmut to be cancelled and Aquehung substituted therefor
R.H. and M.L. Hunt, Port Chester, N.Y.

Approve,

Marcel A. Viti
C.W. Rodman, Jr.,
C.B. Knocker
Mr. Vredenburgh: I have a protest from G.N. Phelps, of Boston, against James L. Little, of Brookline.

Mr. Carnochan: I move that the matter be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The question now arises on the subject of a proper definition of the term of “An American bred dog.” You will remember that at the September meeting this question was discussed, and Mr. Mortimer gave notice that he would file an amendment to be submitted to the Rules Committee. That has not been done. Whether or not the Rules Committee shall take that matter up of their own volition is for you to decide.

The Secretary then read the definition contained in the rules.

The Chair: I think there ought to be some definition made, because several cases have come up in which it has been shown that it was a difficult matter for Secretaries of specialty clubs to decide whether dogs entered at their Shows were American bred or not.

Mr. Rodman: Have not most specialty clubs their own rules governing that question? I think I am safe in saying that the Irish Terrier Club has a definition which covers that interpretation of American bred dogs. I think I am also Safe in saying that the Bull Dog Club has such a definition; also the Spaniel Club.

Mr. Viti: You are not quite correct with regard to the Spaniel Club. We have a custom but not a definite rule.

Mr. Rodman: The definition made by the Irish Terrier Club is this: That a bitch owned in the United States or Canada, and sent abroad to be bred, and then returned prior to whelping, its produce whelped in this country would be considered as American bred, and I was of the opinion that the American Kennel Club’s definition was broad enough to cover Canada, but I am informed that that is not so. As a matter of fact I know that there are a number of specialty clubs which have their own definitions, and it seems to me if this question is to be decided, it would be best to have the matter referred to the Rules Committee, and have the Secretaries of the different clubs present at the hearing. I do not see how we can define for special clubs, their definitions of an American bred dog.

Capt. Knocker: I move that the matter be referred to the Rules Committee.

Motion seconded.

Mr. Viti: Then if the Rules Committee report a rules that is in contradiction to the terms of the rules of the specialty clubs, they will be abrogated and all those wins Cancelled? It seems to me it is a matter for the specialty clubs to legislate on. You would have a dog winning in a class for American bred dogs, under American Kennel Club rules, and another dog that was barred from that class winning a special prizes for the best America bred specimen in a specialty club. Why not request the specialty club to communicate with the Rules Committee on this subject?

Mr. Carnochan: I was going to suggest that the Secretary write to the various specialty clubs for the definitions as held by them. I move that as an amendment to the motion which has been made.

Seconded and carried.

On motion the communication from James M. Pulley, asking legislation on the subject of breeds decided by height was referred to the Rules Committee.

Mr. Vredenburgh: Next in order is my request for authority to engage temporarily another clerk in the office for the months of January, February and March.

Mr. Rodman: I move that the Secretary be empowered to employ such clerical assistance as shall be necessary for his purpose.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I recommend that with the completion of the coming Spring circuit, the American Kennel Club will have been sufficiently introduced to the exhibitors throughout the country, so that the practice of sending the Secretary to the different shows, may be discontinued.

Capt. Knocker: May I ask why the Secretary recommends that?
Mr. Vredenburgh: In the first place, I think it is putting the American Kennel Club to a great deal of unnecessary expense.

Mr. Rodman: In response to the Secretary's statement, I beg leave to call the Secretary's attention to a resolution which was passed at a former meeting, requiring him to visit different shows. It was left to his good judgment and discretion as to when he went and when he should remain at home. If I am correct as to that, this motion is out of order.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I desire to state that it is difficult to use any discretion in this matter. The officers of the different shows seem to think that that discretion ought to be used in their favor. For instance, it was thought that the Secretary discriminated between Dallas and Atlanta. The Atlanta Kennel Club held a special meeting when they saw the publication of this resolution, and invited the Secretary to visit the Atlanta show. I accepted the invitation and visited their show, but the Dallas Club, which held its show on the same date, seemed to think that the Secretary used his discretion against them, and for that reason it placed the Secretary in rather a difficult position, and I thought that it would be best, after the completion of this circuit, if the American Kennel Club should pass a resolution authorizing me to discontinue these official visits and thereby relieve me of that embarrassment.

Mr. Rodman: My motion is still before the house that it is out of order.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Vredenburgh: It has been my pet hobby for a number of years to see the time when the American Kennel Club could occupy its own quarters, and for that reason I have worked hard to get an accumulation toward that object. The other National organizations throughout the country either have or are getting their own homes, and I believe that none of them are of greater importance in their particular lines than is the American Kennel Club in its line. I therefore recommend that the Chair at this meeting appoint a special committee to go into this subject, to look into the advisability of it and devise ways and means towards obtaining that object.

Mr. Morse: I move that a Committee of Five be appointed for such purpose, one of whom shall be the Secretary.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chair appointed as such Committee Messrs. August Belmont, H.K. Bloodgood, M.A. Viti, G.M. Carnochan and
A.P. Vredenburgh.

Mr. Rodman: It has come to my ears that one or two members of the American Kennel Club differ to a certain extent with the decision which the Stud Book Committee made some time since, relative to the denial to a certain party of an application for a prefix. As a member of the Stud Book Committee I desire to have this matter brought to the attention of the club as a whole, and for my own personal information should be glad to get form the members present an expression of opinion as it is requested to go by the party who made the application. I would have it on the record that I am speaking now, not as a member of the Stud Book Committee, but as an individual, for the reason that if the question was to be presented to the Club officially from the Stud Book Committee, it should come from the gentleman who occupies the position of Chairman of that Committee. Inasmuch as he was not present to-day at the meeting of the Stud Book Committee, I was unable to broach this to him, and therefore I take the liberty of presenting it as an individual and not as a member of the Committee, and therefore it is not official. The question is this: Did the Stud Book Committee err in the exercise of its discretion, or was it justified from the facts in doing what it did, and what I seek is a confirmation or declination on the part of the club of our action in the matter. A short time since two applications were presented to the Stud Book Committee for prefixes. The prefixes were for “Dacotah” and “Texas”. The Stud Book Committee refused the applications. Subsequently applications from each party came in the following form: The gentleman who applied for “Dacotah” cut off the latter “h” in the spelling of the word and substituted either a “c” or “k” as the case may have been, for the letter which he used originally. The gentleman who applied for the prefix “Texas” cut off the letter “s” from the word “Texas” and applied for the word “Texa”. The Stud Book Committee, feeling that by granting these applications, it opened the door to possible fraud in the future, denied both applications. It seems to me that in relation to the forms of the terms, the spelling of the words differing only in the actual letters used, the pronunciation of the words being the same, the Committee was justified in its action, and I take it that the Club as a whole will substantiate the action of the Stud Book Committee with relation to the word “Dacotah” at least. With relation to the word “Texas” I am willing to concede there is some ground for argument. “Texa” is not “Texas”, but at the same time it having come to us in the form in which I have submitted it, we felt justified in declining to grant the word “Texa” for a prefix, by reason of the fact that in the future using that as a precedent, someone might apply to the Stud Book Committee for a prefix which might be used in a similar manner.
But which as a matter of fact might be pronounced in such a way as to give the impression that we were granting a prefix which covered a large extent of territory, which is, as the members of the Club know, opposite to our expressed intentioned and purposes. Now, I submit to the club that it is only fair that the Stud Book Committee, who act as your very humble servants, should have some idea as to what your pleasure in this matter may be, and I would like to have for the committee an expression of opinion from the members present as to whether or not it is the wish of the American Kennel Club that the Stud Book Committee should proceed on the lines which they have adopted, or whether or not we were wrong in the action we took. I ask this not for the Committee, but personally for my own personal guidance in the future in acting as a member of that Committee.

Capt. Knocker: I put in a minority report on the requests to grant those names as prefixes, for the reason that in the first place there is no State known as Dacotah, however it may be spelled; there is South Dakota and North Dakota, but there is no such State as Dacotah. Therefore, in granting that as a prefix, you are not interfering as a matter of fact, with the name of any State, because Dacotah as a State does not exist. With regard to the application for the prefix “Texa”, it seems very plain to me that could not be confounded or mistaken in any way with “Texas”. In fact, I submit that had we been Asked to pass upon the word “Texa” before having been requested to grant the prefix “Texas” we would have granted it without the slightest hesitation. I think that the party who applied for the prefix “Texa” undoubtedly ought to have had it granted. In regard to the prefix “Dacotah” I cannot see how that is infringing on the name of a state when there is no such state, sell it any way you like.

Mr. Morse: You surely would give the name of “York”, wouldn’t you?

Mr. Rodman: I should refuse it without a moment’s hesitation.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I believe I started this discussion by finding fault with the Stud Book Committee’s action in this matter. The original idea in granting prefixes was to identify the dog registered and to give a kennel the right to register in the kennel name instead of the individual’s name. In the registration of some 64,000 dogs, it is very difficult in some of the breeds to find a name that does not conflict with a name already registered, without having a prefix, and it was determined by the then existing Stud Book Committee that it would grant the sole right to a prefix on the payment of a certain fee. I maintain that the pronunciation of a prefix has nothing whatever to do with that prefix; we do no care how it is pronounced; it is the record that we go by. In regard to the word “Texa”, the argument was made that you might speak of a registered dog as “Texa Straightaway”, that could be easily called “Texas Straightaway” in pronunciation. I maintain the pronunciation in that case would have nothing whatever to so with it; it is the record as it is written, and “Texa” with a capital “S” for straightaway, could not possibly be misunderstood. Referring to the word “Dacotah”, the man distinctly stated that his kennel was named after an old Indian tribe called “Dacotah”. There is no such state and there never has been such a state; of course there is a North Dakota and a South Dakota, and in my opinion the Stud Book Committee did not treat the applicants for these prefixes for kennel names fairly in refusing their applications. I quite agree with the Stud Book Committee that it should refuse to grant a prefix named after a state, for a state is a very large territory, and a great many breeders live in a state, but when the word is not actually spelled like a state, or intentionally misspelled, I do not agree with the Stud Book Committee in refusing it. I think that my argument with the members of that Committee is what brought this argument up, and therefore I think I am privileged to give my views on the subject.

Mr. Rodman: It seems to me that the Stud Book Committee must be limited in its privilege to grant prefixes to some rules which will give the residents of large cities or large States an equal right. It seems to me that it is unfair for the Committee to grant to one man who happens to reside in the City of New York, the prefix “New York” spell it how you may. It seems unfair that a man should be allowed to sue the prefix “Massachusetts”; if he sees fit it spell it “Massachewsetts”; it is fair to grant him that because it is pronounced almost exactly if not quite the same as the word properly spelled? If so, every man in Massachusetts has an equal right to that word; and it seems to me that the Stud Book Committee must be guided and must be governed in the future by some rules with relation to the territory described under the single name. Now, mind you, as I said before, I am asking for information to guide me in my endeavor to do my duty as a member of that Committee, and what I desire particularly is an expression of opinion from the members present. If this Club thinks we have erred, I am willing to grant in the future “Massachusetts” if the applicant in his application spells it “Massachewsetts”, but it seems to me we would be doing that which is unfair.

Capt. Knocker: I am really sorry that this discussion occurred outside of a meeting of the Stud Book Committee. We have never had a change to talk over this matter before. I agree with my colleague in his remarks about the similarity of names. I think that both of them ought to be granted. In these two cases before us, I do not think it is a question of spelling. As I have said before there is no such state as Dacotah; therefore the applicant is not making a claim for the name of a state. In the other case, I do not think anyone can say that “Texa” has anything to do with “Texas”.

Mr. Carnochan: Suppose a man asks the Committee to register the name “Texas”, would you consider it just the same?

Capt. Knocker: No, that would be a little closer but still you couldn’t pronounce that “Texas”. In the case of “Texa” I cannot myself see that it has anything at all to do with Texas, and I really believe had the matter been brought before the Committee in the first place as “Texa” and not “Texas” we would have allowed it.

Mr. Viti: There is another point in this matter that seems to have been overlooked, and that is whether or not the spelling of a name has been claimed by an individual. There is a very well known prefix that is spelled “Mepal”, pronounced “Maple”. Why shouldn’t we allow “M-a-p-e-l”? They are pronounced the same, but they are spelled differently. I think this matter has been passed upon by the American Kennel Club, was disposed of at the September meeting when you adopted the Stud Book Committee’s report, which stated that the names “Dacotah” and “Texas” should not be allowed because they were the names of States. Are not there other application infringements on those names? The Committee recommended that the names of breeds could not be claimed, and the American Kennel Club said that was right, that they could not be claimed because they were too general, and we thought that the name of a state was too general. There is no question at all but that Dacotah is the name of a state. My friend says it is not the name of one State, but I think it is the name of two states, because there are unquestionably two Dakotas.

Capt. Knocker: If you send a letter addressed to Dakota, where would it go to?

The Chair: For the information of Capt. Knocker, I will say that a telegram was addressed to me at Aiken, Carolina, and I received it.

Capt. Knocker: If you were not a well known man, and a letter is addressed to any Knocker in Dakota, who do you suppose would get it?

Mr. Rodman: As a matter of fact the word Dakota has for years and years been a legal term applied to a large extent of territory. It embraces a very large extent of territory, and it was known for years as Dakota. It was a territory, and it had a legal entity, and if we undertake to grant prefixes of Texas and Dakota, any one has the right to come in and apply for North Dakota, any one has the right to come in and apply for North Dakota and South Dakota, and Middle Dakota, and before we get through we will have so many Dakotas we will not know where we stand.

Mr. Carnochan: I offer the following resolution:
RESOLVED that the action of the Stud Book Committee in refusing
To grant the applications for the prefixes “Dacotah” and “Texa”, be sustained, and that it is recommended to the Committee that the names of the states, breeds of dogs, or any infringement thereof, be not allowed by the Committee as prefixes or affixes.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Morse offered the following resolution:
RESOLVED that hereafter no dog accepted for registration in the American Kennel Club Stud Book can subsequently be registered in another name.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Carnochan: We were talking of the advantage of having prefixes registered and having the sole use thereof. Is there any way to prevent such a thing as this happening: An unscrupulous person wishes to show a dog at a show, and he goes to the Secretary of the show and entered the dog. He lists the dog under the name of my prefix, shows that dog and sells it. He is then using my prefix, isn’t he? What is to prevent him from doing that?

Mr. Viti: I am very glad indeed that you mentioned that. That is the actual fact. It happened at the Philadelphia show. I declined fifteen entries of listed dogs made out in three kennel names. I happened to know the names and knew they were registered, and declined them and sent them back to the exhibitors.
Mr. Carnochan: I have reference to their being listed by the Club Secretary. He does not know whether they are properly listed or not. About ten days after the show is held, he send down the dogs’ names to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The only remedy I can see is that a rule be passed directing the Secretary to cancel the awards, if any, to any dog bearing a registered prefix used without authority.

Mr. Viti: In that way you would injure thousands of innocent persons. The persons were sorry that they made these entries. They took the names because they liked them.

Mr. Carnochan: It seems to me that he proper way would be for the Secretary to disqualify any dog shown with a registered kennel prefix, the owner of which prefix is not the breeder of the dog. However, as this appears to be a matter which requires some considerable attention, I move it be referred to the Stud Book Committee for report at the next meeting.

Seconded and carried.

The Meeting then adjourned.

The certificate of election was read as follows:

New York, February 6, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, Charles W. Rodman, Jr., representing the President of the American Kennel Club, and H.K. Bloodgood, the President of the Associate Members of the American Kennel Club, met this day, at the office of the American Kennel Club for the purpose of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club for the officers and delegates of the Associate Members of said American Kennel Club, to hold office for the term of one year from January 18, 1902, until their successors be elected.

We found the total number of Associates entitled to vote to be 220; total number of votes cast, 124; total number of votes scattering, 20; total number of irregular votes and thrown out 3.

We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greatest number of votes to be duly elected as officers and delegates of the Association Members for the year ending February, 1903, to wit:

President, H.K. Bloodgood
Vice President, Oliver Ames
Secretary, Henry Jarrett
Delegates (1) A.C. Wilmerding
(2) J.B. Vandergrift
(3) G.H. Gooderham

Signed, C.W. Rodman, Jr.,
Representing the President, A.K.C.

H.K. Bloodgood,
President of Associates A.K.C.

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary A.K.C.

The report of the Membership Committee was read as follows:

New York, February 17th, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,
Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day the applications of the Twin City Kennel Club and the St. Louis Collie Club for admission to membership in the American Kennel Club were duly considered, and your committee respectfully recommends their admission to active membership.

Credentials from the Sixth District Agricultural Association appointing S.C. Mastick; the Boston Terrier Club, appointing Dr. H.E. Owen; The Chicago Kennel Club, appointing Charles W. Rodman, Jr., as delegates, were also considered and approved, and your committee recommend the acceptance of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

H.T. Foote
Chairman

On motion the report was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary then read his report as follows:

New York, February 17, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to report the applications from the Twin City Kennel Club and the St. Louis Collie Club for admission to membership. Also 23 applications for the registration of kennel names, and credentials from three clubs for delegates. These matter have been referred to their proper committees, and reports from said committees will be submitted at this meeting.

Resignations have been duly filed by the Metropolitan Kennel Club and the Baltimore Kennel Association. These clubs were in good standing until December 31, 1901, and as their resignations were tendered prior to that date I recommend their acceptance.

I beg to report that the Logansport show was held January 8th to 11th, 1902, and although this office has made repeated requests for their official catalogue of awards, we have been unsuccessful in obtaining it, and as a consequence no award at said show has been recorded. The penalty of one dollar per day has more than exhausted the date deposit. The neglect on the part of said club is a hardship to exhibitors at its show, as the awards cannot be recognized.

I will submit a request from Miss L.C. Moeran for a ruling on the following case. At the Rhode Island Kennel Club show a special prize was given by the Gorham Manufacturing Company for the best dog and bitch of any one breed owned and exhibited by any one person. Miss MOeran showed her Toy Spaniels the Blenheim Spaniel Rollo and the Prince Charles Spaniel Darnell Kitty, and was awarded the prize. A protest was lodged that a Bleinheim and a Prince Charles Spaniel were two separate breeds. Said protest was allowed by the judges and Miss Moeran was given the privilege of competing with another paid, which she did, showing two Prince Charles Spaniels, and was then beaten.
The ruling desired is, are Blenheim Spaniels and Prince Charles Spaniels one breed or otherwise.

The semi-annual bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee has been rendered, amounting to $17.48. I recommend its payment.

I beg to report that charges for misconduct have been preferred by James T. Willis against A. Burlingame, and the case will be referred to the Executive Board for investigation.

Also charges by T.D.M. Cardeza against E.A. Ruthman, which will take a similar course.

Mr. C.O. Smith, of Woonsocket, R.I., applies for an amendment to the puppy class in Beagles. His communication will be submitted to you.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion said report was accepted and placed on file.

S.C. Mastick was elected to represent the Sixth District Agl Assn. Los Angeles as delegate, and Dr. H.E. Owen was elected a delegate to represent the Boston Terriers Club, and C.W. Rodman Jr was elected to represent the Chicago Kennel Club.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, February 17, 1902
To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit my quarterly financial report.

Jan. 1, 1902, balance on hand $10,323.40
Feb. 17, 1902, receipts to date 2,314.97
Total 12,638.37
Feb. 17, 1902 Disbursements from Jan. 1, 1902 1,111.74
Balance on hand, $11,526.63

I also report the following clubs in arrears for the annual dues for 1902:

American English Setter Club
Cleveland Kennel Club
Columbia County Agricultural Society
Kansas City Kennel Club
Louisiana Kennel Club
M.A.A.C. Rod and Gun Club
Memphis Kennel Club
Oakland Poultry Association
Pan-American Exposition Association
Vermont Kennel Club
Washington Kennel Club of Seattle

Bills for above dues were mailed on Nov. 27, 1901, and second bills were mailed on Jan. 13, 1902.

I would respectfully request that the usual action be taken regarding the clubs now in arrears except that of the Pan-American Exposition Association, which Longer exists, and should be dropped from membership.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenbrugh
Treasurer

On motion said report was accepted and placed on file, and the recommendations contained therein adopted.

The election of officers being in order Mr. Viti nominated Mr. August Belmont to succeed himself as President.

Mr. Rodman: I move that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for his election.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Belmont was declared elected President of the American Kennel Club for the ensuing year.

Nominations seconded, and on motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for their election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and they were declared duly elected.
Field Trials and Coursing Meetings:

Mr. Rodman: I nominate Mr. J.W. Appleton to succeed himself as Chairman of that Committee.

Nomination seconded, and on motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for his election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Appleton was declared duly elected.

Finance Committee:

Mr. A.C. Wilmerding was nominated to succeed himself as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

Nominations seconded, and on motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for his election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Wilmerding was declared duly elected.

Mr. Viti nominated Messrs. J.B. Blossom and G.M. Carnochan to succeed themselves as the other members of such committee.

The nominations being seconded, the Secretary was, on motion, directed to cast one ballot for their election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and they were declared duly elected.

Membership Committee:

Mr. Vredenburgh: Dr. Foote cannot be a candidate for re-election as chairman of this committee, as the club which he represented as a delegate has resigned its membership.

Mr. Rodman: I nominate Mr. G.M. Carnochan as the chairman of the Membership Committee.

Nomination seconded, and on motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for his election.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Carnochan was declared duly elected.

Mr. Viti: I nominate Messrs. S. Van Schaick and C.B. Knocker to succeed themselves as the other members of that committee.

The nominations being seconded, the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for their election.

The Secretary state that he had cast such ballot, and they were declared duly elected.

The report of the Executive Board under date of January 7th was presented. The same having been published, its reading was dispensed with, and it was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Executive Board held on February 18th, 1902, was read as follows:

February 18, 1902

Absent: H.H. Hunnewell, Jr.

H.K. Bloodgood in the Chair, succeeded by August Belmont. James T. Little.

Re appeal for reversal of suspension. Ordered that the action of the Executive Board of January 7th, 1902, be sustained. The appeal is denied.

Meeting adjourned. A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary.
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Stud Bok Committee was read as follows:

Transfers
Salamonie Valley   To O.H. Foust, Warren, Ind.
Meadowmere   to Mrs. H.G. Trevor, Southampton, L.I.

The Committee recommend that they all be granted with the exceptions of “Ohio Valley” and “Old Glory”, and that the name “Southampton” be not granted to Mr. Trevor unless the transfer of “Meadowmere” be allowed to Mrs. H.G. Trevor, this being in violation of the custom not to allow more than one registered prefix to any one person at any given time.

In reference to the protest in regard to the breeder of the fox terrier “Bank Note”, your Committee finds from the correspondence that the dam of “Bank Note” was originally owned by Douglas W. Ogilvie, and that he sold her to Charles Thompson. Thompson subsequently bred to “Encliffe Banker”, and one of the progeny was named “Bank Note”. Mr. Ogilvie, upon being communicated with by the Committee, stated the he considered that Thompson did not become the legal owner of the dam at the time she was purchased by him inasmuch as he had not paid for her in full, and again, that before he exhibited her he agreed with Mr. Thompson that the breeders should be known as Ogilvie & Thompson, which, however, is in violation of the American Kennel Club rules, Charles Thompson having been
The owner at the time she was mated. Your Committee therefore finds that the breeder of “Bank Note” is Charles Thompson, he having been the owner of the dam at the time she was bred to “Encliffe Banker” and that all wins accorded to the dog when entered as having been bred by any one other than Charles Thompson be cancelled of record.

MARCEL A. VITI
C.B. KNOCKER
CHARLES W. RODMAN Jr.,

On motion the report was accepted and the recommendations therein contained adopted.
The Secretary read the proposed amendments to the rules, and on motion they were taken up seriatim.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The first proposed amendment is to make the first clause of Rule XV read: “No dog entered for competition, and actually in the show building, can be withdrawn from competition, except in case of sickness or accident. In either case a certificate of the veterinary surgeon of said show shall be sufficient cause for its withdrawal.” To be followed by present Rule XV as the second clause.

Mr. Morse: I move that that addition be accepted.

Mr. Viti: I understand then that the sole judge of the condition of the dog is the veterinarian. The owner has no say as to whether or not in his judgment the illness or accident is such as to justify the dog being kept out, but the opinion of the veterinarian of the show is substituted, a man who may be a specialist in horses.

Mr. Vredenburgh: If the dog is in the building he can only be withdrawn from competition on the certificate of the veterinarian anyhow.

Capt. Knocker: Suppose a dog is taken suddenly sick just before it is time to take him into the show ring, and he damages his coat, and the owner does not wish to take him in the ring, it seems he has got to hunt up the veterinarian to get him to pass on the question of whether or not that dog shall be judged.
Mr. Carnochan: That is the very point. We don’t want to leave anything in the hands of the owner. It is to close the door against any possible fraud that that amendment was added, and I think it was a very necessary one.

Mr. Verdenburgh: I will state for your information one of the reasons that lead the committee to recommend this rule. It is that in many cases a dog being entered in more than one class may be defeated in the first class he is shown in, and in the second class he is marked absent because his owner takes him off the bench, puts him in his crate and takes him down stairs. This rule is intended to stop this practice. There was a case in point at Providence. A man entered his dog in the puppy class and open, also in the novice class. He had heard that it would be more to his advantage to win in the novice class at Boston than at Providence, because there was more money up, and he therefore decline to have his dog shown in the novice class at Providence and the dog was marked absent. This proposed amendment is to compel a dog that is in the building, and is not sick, or has not met with an accident, to compete in every class in which he is entered.

Mr. Gooderham: This is the first time I have been at a meeting of the American Kennel Club, and upon a point of this kind I feel quite diffident about speaking. Still I want to protest very strongly against the passing of this rule. I think it is quite impossible to get a competent veterinarian to attend a dog show to pass on a point which an exhibitor, who knows about the dog, it not allowed to determine.

Mr. Rodman: To the best of my recollection this amendment was suggested to the Rules Committee to cover this point: a case where a dog had already competed, for instance in the puppy and novice class, that then, being entered in the subsequent classes, they being the limit and open, the dog must compete in those classes.

Mr. Viti: My understanding of this rules is that where an exhibitor brings his dogs to a show building, and once gets in that show building, there is no power under heaven barring his dogs out of the ring, and the veterinarian is the judge of the condition of his dogs, and of the question whether or not his dogs ought to compete in any classes.

Mr. Caswell: The veterinarian must pass on every dog that does into the building any way.

Mr. Viti: The rule provides that after a dog gets in if the owner for any reason of his own, either that the dog has the veterinarian may term a trivial accident or illness, he has no right to withdraw him from competition.

Mr. Vredenburgh: I think this is a most excellent rule, and it is going to put a stop to a great deal of abuse, and I do not think it is giving any more power to the veterinarian of the show than he has under the existing rule.

Mr. Gooderham: I would have no objection to that rule if we could get competent veterinary surgeons to look after our shows, but I have been around sufficiently to know that we have not competent veterinarians. I have seen dogs go into the ring rotten with distemper, and win prizes too. Why should you leave a matter of this kind in the hands of a man who passes a dog in that shape?

Mr. Caswell: I suggest an amendment to this effect: that if an exhibitor exhibits in one class, and the dog is entered in another, and he does not exhibit in that other class, he forfeits all prizes won by that dog at the show.

Mr. Morse: I do not accept the amendment. I move the proposed amendment.

The question was then put and the amendment lost.

The Secretary: The next proposed amendment is to Rule XIII, clause 5. After the word “prizes” on the second line add the words “in nay class at the”. Also after the word “class”, on the fifth line, add the words “The judge shall withhold the awards of first in this class should he be of the opinion that there is no dog of sufficient merit to justify such award.” Also strike out the word “regular” on the 13th line.

Mr. Gooderham: I move the adoption of that amendment.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Rule X. Make the second clause of this rule to read: “In the event of an appointed judge not officiating it shall be optional to the exhibitor, before commencement of judging the breed, to withdraw his dog, or dogs, from competition, or from the show building, as he may elect, in which case he forfeits his entrance fees.” To be followed by balance of present Rule X.

In other words, one of the conditions of the contract may be in the premium list that a certain man is appointed judge. The exhibitor entered his dog because he is perfectly willing to show under that judge. The judge cannot for some reason fulfill his engagement, and under the rules the club has the right of appointing another judge, and the exhibitor is permitted to withdraw his dog from competition under that judge, but he forfeits his entrance fee.

The proposed amendment was adopted.

The Secretary: Rule 20. Strike out the first paragraph of this rule and substitute therefore. “No entry can be made in a kennel name unless there name has been registered with the American Kennel Club.”

Mr. Vandergrift: I move the adoption of the proposed amendment.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Rule XXII. Add at the end of said rule the words “When a dog has been entered in a kennel name that has not been registered.”

That is a penalty. It is in keeping with the rule we have just adopted.

Mr. Gooderham: I move it be adopted.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Rule I. After the word “proof” in the fifth line of page nine add the words “in duplicate”.

That has been out custom for several years, but for some Unknown cause was left out of the rule.

On motion the same was adopted.

Mr. Carnochan: A number of gentlemen around me here have said that they were in favor of some changes in Rule XV. I think it would be better if we could reconsider out action in regard to this rule. Some of the gentlemen have said that it refers only to special prizes. Why not add something like this, that a dog having been shown in one class, or having been shown in any class, cannot be withdrawn from competition in subsequent classes. I move that the matter be reconsidered.

Mr. Viti: I suggest that the gentleman having voted in the negative he cannot move for a reconsideration.

Mr. Morse: I move for a reconsideration then.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Carnochan: I move to add this clause to Rule VX: “Any dog having been placed in competition in any class cannot be withdrawn from competition from any subsequent class in which he is entered.”

After considerable discussion Mr. Viti moved the following amendment: That where an exhibitor exhibits a dog in any class he be compelled to exhibit the dog in all subsequent classes, or be subject to a fine of equal in amount to the amount of the entrance fees for each subsequent class in which he declines to compete.

Seconded and lost.
Mr. Gooderham: I move as an amendment, that any dog entered for competition and received at the building, must compete in all classes in which he is entered, and for all specials for which he is eligible, and failing to do so shall be subject to a fine equal to the entrance fee for each class.

Seconded and carried.

The resignation of the Baltimore Kennel Association and the Metropolitan Kennel Club were, on motion, accepted.

The Secretary read the following report:

The committee appointed to consider the advisability of the American Kennel Club holding a dog show begs to report: That they consider it unadvisable for the American Kennel Club to hold a show at present, and therefore recommend that the matter be postponed.

On motion the report was accepted.

Mr. Gooderham: I move the suspension of the club and officer of the club and officers of the Hoosier Poultry and Pet Stock Association until such time as they comply with the rules.

Seconded and carried.

Relative to the request made by Miss Moran for a ruling by the American Kennel Club on the question of whether or not Blenheim Spaniels and Prince Charles Spaniels are one breed or otherwise, Mr. Rodman moved that Miss Moran be informed that according to the rules they are two separate and distinct breeds.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Rodman: I move that the Treasurer be directed to pay the bill rendered by the Pacific Advisory Committee Amounting to $17.48.

Seconded and carried.

The communication of Mr. C.O. Smith, of Woonsocket, R.I., was submitted, and Mr. Carnochan moved that it be received and placed on file, and that the Secretary be instructed to notify Mr. Smith that it is the sense of the meeting that the matter referred to is one in which the club declines to take jurisdiction.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Caswell: I have heard recently some talk about the entering of packs for competition in connection with the question whether or not it is necessary to list them or not. The matter has been talked over with the Superintendent of the Westminster club. We would like to know what is the sense of the meeting on this question.

Mr. Vredenburgh: The rule says: Every dog shown under these rules must either be registered or listed with the American Kennel Club previous to being exhibited.

Mr. Viti: I would like to ask what authority there is for allowing a show to receive the entries of a pack of hounds after the close of the entries? This is the first intimation that I have had that this has been done, and I was horrified to learn that such a thing could happen. The rules of the American Kennel Club say that every dog entered at a show for any purpose, be it only for exhibition, must be registered. I move that in all cases the name of each exhibitor, be it an individual or a hunt, and the number of couples of hounds, must appear in each catalogue returned to the American Kennel Club by the secretary of the show.

Seconded and carried.

Mr. Rodman: I desire to call attention to a resolution which was passed at a previous meeting which is palpably unconstitutional, and yet it stands on our minutes, and it stands as a rule. It is a motion made by Mr. Morse at the meeting of December 17th that “hereafter no dog accepted for registration in the American Kennel Club Stud Book can subsequently be reregistered in another name.” That question came before the Committee on Rules, and it was submitted to the secretary and discussed, and it was shown to be unconstitutional. It seems to me that the matter should be removed from the record.

On motion the matter was referred to the Committee on Rules.

The meeting then adjourned.

Westminster Kennel Club    Richard H. Williams

---------------------:o:---------------------
On motion, the minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, May 21, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to report that since the last regular quarterly meeting, the Montreal Canine Association filed its application for membership and received an unanimous mail vote of the executive board, and was declared duly elected.

Applications from six additional kennel clubs have been received and submitted to the membership committee. Credentials appointing delegates were received from six clubs, which were also submitted to said membership Committee, which will report its recommendation at this meeting.

Applications have been received for the registrations of thirty-seven kennel names, a list of which was duly submitted to the Stud Book Committee, which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

Acting under instruction given me a the February meeting, I dropped from membership nine clubs for non-payment of dues for the year 1902. The Louisiana Kennel Club and the Columbia Country Agricultural Society of the number dropped, forwarded their dues and asked for reinstatement, which I recommend.

At the last meeting the Secretary was directed to suspend the Hoosier Poultry & Kennel Club, and the officers of same, for failing to file with this office a list of the awards at its show in January. The penalty of $1.00 per day was enforced by your secretary, using up the entire amount of the deposit in his hands. The report of said club came to hand one week after the February meeting, and I am fully convinced that the Club should be excused for its delay and its forfeit of $25 returned to it, for the reason that its secretary, who had the entire management of the show, was taken ill the third day of the show, which developed into a severe case of pneumonia, and immediately upon his recovery forwarded the delayed report. I would recommend that the resolution suspending the club and officers be rescinded at this meeting, and that I be authorizes to return the $25 forfeit.

The following charges have been preferred, alleging misconduct in connection with dogs, and the same will be submitted to the executive board for investigation:
I beg to report the receipt of the following:

"Memo. For A.K.C. to file.

The above memorandum was enclosed in a letter from Mr. James L. Little, under date of February 21st. I informed Mr. Little of his rights under the constitution and gave him the opportunity to file formal charges. This he declined to do under date of February 25th. I informed Mr. Little by letter dated February 28th, that I would submit his memorandum at the next meeting of the American Kennel Club, to which he replied under date of March 1st: “I desire specially to be understood that I bring no charges against Mr. Carnochan nor anyone else, Etc.”

I have heretofore declined to report any matter for your consideration that was not filed in accordance with the provision of the constitution, but the above information furnished by Mr. Little affected a delegate to, and a member of the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club, under which circumstance I was unwilling to withhold the information furnished me or lay myself liable to the imputation of shielding one of our own members.

An application for a ruling was submitted by Miss L.C. Moeran at the last meeting of the Club, from which a request for reconsideration have been made, and will be submitted to you at this meeting.

A request has been made for a recognition by the American Kennel Club of the so-called American Bloodhound, with the suggestion that if so recognized as a breed, they shall be known and registered under the name of American Mantrailers.

For the best interests of all concerned in the registrations published in each annual volume of the Stud Book, it is desirable to give as wide spread publicity to each applications as possible, and in view of the fact that all the records in this office have been heretofore considered as open to the public, I shall, unless otherwise directed, permit the sporting press free access to all registrations that have been accepted for the purpose of pub-Lishing same, if they desire to do so.

In closing I beg to report that I have attended all of the shows with one exception that have been held during the winter and spring circuit, and I desire to publicly express my appreciation of the many courtesies extended to me by the officers of the different shows. I appreciate that these courtesies have been shown to the American Kennel Club, which body I had the honor to represent, and it give me great pleasure to report that from personal observation the shows have been well conducted, and there has been demonstrated by not only the show managers, but by the members and the exhibitors, the best of feeling and loyalty toward the American Kennel Club. The result of my visits has given me a valuable experience and also an opportunity to meet many of the exhibitors and breeders personally with whom I had only come in contact through correspondence, and I believe that these personal meetings will eventually be beneficial to all concerned, binding more firmly a friendship that only personal contact can bring about.

Respectfully submitted

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion, the report was accepted as read.
The Secretary read the report of the membership committee, as follows:

New York, May 21st, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee, held this day, applications for membership were submitted from the following clubs:

Aurora Kennel Club
Bay State Bench Show Association
Branford Driving Park Kennel Club
Coshocton Kennel Club
Haverhill Kennel Club
Wissahickon Kennel Club

The above clubs filed their applications according to the provisions of the constitution, and being eligible to membership, your committee respectfully recommends their admission.

Credentials from the Atlanta Kennel Club, appointing Dr. H.T. Foote; Collie Club of America, appointing M.M. Palmer; Middlesex East Agricultural Association, appointing Charles W. Keyes; New Jersey Kennel Association, appointing C.G. Hopton; Scottish Terrier Club of America, appointing Richard F. Perkins; Colorado Kennel Club, appointing James Watson, were also considered. The credentials from the first five named clubs are approved, and your committee recommends the acceptance of the same. The credentials of the Colorado Kennel Club were not received until the 12th inst., and therefore under the provisions of the constitution, they must be put over until the next meeting, not having been in the possession of the Secretary the required twenty days.

Respectfully submitted,

G.M. Carnochan
C.B. Knocker
S. Van Schiack

The members then proceeded by ballot to elect the following named gentlemen to represent as delegates the following named clubs:
Dr. H.T. Foote, to represent the Atlanta Kennel Club. Richard F. Perkins to represent the Scottish Terrier Club. C.G. Hopkins, to represent the New Jersey Kennel Association. Charles W. Keyes, to represent the Middlesex East Agricultural Association. M.M. Palmer to represent the Collie Club of America.

The following named clubs were elected to membership: Aurora Kennel Club, Branford Driving Park Kennel Club, Coshocton Kennel Club, Haverhill Kennel Club and Wissa-Hickon Kennel Club.

The application of the Bay State Bench Association was presented.

Mr. Carnochan: The Membership Committee received a protest from the New England Kennel Club against allowing this club to join, on the ground that it would infringe the rights of the New England Kennel Club to show in Boston. On reading the by-laws of this new club, the committee saw that it did not conflict in any way, because paragraph 2 of the by-laws states that the shows to be held by this new club are only to be held in towns and cities in New England where no previous American Kennel Club show had ever been held. Therefore it could not conflict in any way with the New England Kennel Club holding a show in Boston.

Mr. Viti: Do I understand the gentleman to mean that they have a blanket franchise for the whole of Massachusetts? I understand now that they can show throughout the whole of New England.

Mr. Carnochan: In a place where no previous show has been held.

Mr. Viti: Have we ever given any club such jurisdiction?
Mr. Vredenburgh: Yes. It appears to me that if they made a claim for dates to hold in any city or town throughout New England, and they did not conflict wit any of our members in that location, I would approve their application and grant them dates.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I think you will open the door to a very dangerous precedent.

Mr. Viti: It has always been the custom of the American Kennel Club, as I understand it, to limit the jurisdiction of show clubs to some city of some locality. Now I understand that this club is only limited by the confines of New England; that it may show throughout New England except in such towns and cities as have held American Kennel Club heretofore.

Mr. Carnochan: That was one reason why I brought the matter up before the vote was passed. I wanted to have the opinion of the delegates on this subject, but it did seem to me that even if this was a brand new thing, we should encourage it for the reason that the more shows that are held, the more interest is taken in the animal, and it seems to me a very commendable venture on the part of these people. I do not know any of the officers except Mr. Murray. It is only within the last two years, if my memory serves me right, that we allowed a second club to show in New York City.

    The Chairman: They do not say they will do so; they simply ask for the right to do so.

    Mr. Carnochan: It is presumed that they will do so.

    Mr. Viti: What is to prevent this precedent being followed, and another application being made at our next meeting for authority to show in Canada or anywhere in the country where there have never been any shows?

    Dr. Foote: I don’t believe there is anything in the Constitution to prevent our electing this club to membership and giving them the privilege they ask. They promise not to infringe on any ground occupied. I think it would be a capital thing. At the time of our Brooklyn shows I agitated the subject of getting up a general club and holding shows throughout the country, and all the exhibitors seems to think it was a capital scheme. I believe it is a very popular thing to do.

    Mr. Muss-Arnolt: That may be very good for dog shows, but I think it will be too loosely drawn.

    Mr. Carnochan: Suppose this Bay State Bench Show Association holds its show in some places where there never has been a show held, and that that show is a great success,
why aren't they entitled to the proprietary right to that show in that town.

Mr. Viti: Following that thought, if they held shows in ten different towns annually, then no shows can be held in those towns if they should not feel disposed to show there.

Dr. Foote – Is not Wissahickon within Philadelphia

Mr. Viti – Yes, it is entirely within the city limits.

Mr. Rodman – Has any objection been filed against its admission by the Philadelphia Dog Show Association.

The Secretary – No, none has been filed with me –

The Chairman – We will proceed to a ballot.

The question was then put to a vote, which resulted in a vote of seven to six.

The Chairman: The application of the club is rejected, because it requires a two-thirds vote to elect.

Dr. Foote: I move that the club be notified of the cause of the objection so they can make a new application if they desire.

Seconded and carried.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, May 21\textsuperscript{st}, 1902

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my quarterly financial report.

January 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1902, balance on hand $10,323.40

May 21\textsuperscript{st}, 1902, receipts to date 5,610.27

Total $15,933.67
May 21st, 1902, disbursements from January 1st, 1902 $4,813.66
Balance on hand $11,120.01

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh, Treasurer

On motion, the said report was accepted as read.

Mr. Vredenburgh: On March 19th, I dropped nine clubs from the roll of membership, pursuant to the instructions I received at the February meeting. Two of them since that date sent their dues and asked for reinstatement, the Louisiana Kennel Club and the Columbia County Agricultural Society. The latter club has claimed dates for their Autumn show, and New Orleans expects to give a show.

Mr. Carnochan: I move they be reinstated.
Seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the report of the Stud Book committee, as follows:

Brandane, from Black & Hunter to John Black.

We have no objections to the list submitted with the following exceptions:

First, Kenilworth, because the name is already registered.

Seconded, Cocker Home, following our precedent in refusing to prefix Airedale.

Third, Harvard, for the reason that the name in the sense in which it is universally adopted has too broad a Meaning, and we do no consider it proper to grant same.

Marcel A. Viti
C.W. Rodman, Jr.
C.B. Knocker
Stud Book Committee

Dr. Foote: I think the exception to the name of Harvard is going a little too close. You permit the name of a city or town to be used, which is pretty general. I don’t quite see why you should object to the term Harvard.

Major Taylor: That name was used by Luther Adams for many years, and he, being dead, his successor, A.M. Tucker, and old friend, desired to have the name adopted in his behalf.

Dr. Foote: I move that all the prefixes be granted including Harvard, and that the other two names to which exception was made, be not granted.

Mr. Rodman: As a member of the Stud Book Committee, and one of these who oppose the application, may I be permitted to say that the Stud Book Committee, took into consideration the fact that while we might be denying to the individual what might seem his rights, yet when we took into consideration the thousand and one men who are graduates of Harvard University, and who might desire the name, but knowing its full meeting and its full import to them, they would never think of applying for it. The committee thought it preferable, in view of the fact that no precedent had ever been set, to deny the application. My friends present may say that Columbia and Princeton have both been permitted as prefixes. That is correct, but in each case they have the name of a town or village, as also the name of the University, and taking it in connection with the town or village in which the kennels are located, and further, in relation to the former of the two names which I have mentioned, the word “Columbia” is personified, and has a very much broader and more diversified meaning than either Harvard or Princeton or Yale. The committee heretofore have seen fit to grant the two names which I have just mentioned, namely Columbia and Princeton, but with relation to Harvard so far as the committee knew, there was no territorial limit or geographical area bearing that name, and taking that into consideration, as I have said, it seems to us the strongest argument against granting it, feeling that it would arouse thousands of men who would not think for one moment of applying to the committee for it. We thought it better, while the matter was fresh, and no precedent had been set, to decline the application.

Mr. Carnochan: I graduated from Harvard. As I told
Mr. Rodman, when we spoke about this a few hours ago, while I would prefer very much not to see it, I could see no objection to granting it. The very argument he makes about Princeton is in favor of it. Princeton is the name of a place or city or town. Harvard is simply the name of a place that has no spot on the map except in the city of Cambridge. I can see no objection to it.

The Chairman: The name has been granted before.

Mr. Rodman: Not of record, and I am not sure that Princeton or Columbia is of record.

Mr. Viti: I think if it had been granted before that would be the very best reason for refusing it. To grant it the second time would be to cause the greatest confusion in the minds of persons. They would not know who bred the dogs bearing the prefix.

Mr. Vandergrift: Suppose a man named “Harvard” applied for that prefix, could there be any objections to it?

Dr. Foote: It is the name of Harvard College. Suppose somebody applied for the prefix “Washington”, could we say that is the name of a big city and refuse it on that account? It seems to me we are drawing a very close line.

Mr. Carnochan: I second Dr. Foote’s motion, that the list be accepted including “Harvard” and excluding “Kenilworth” and “Cocker Home” for the reasons given by the Committee.

The vote on the question resulted in a tie, 7 to 7.

The Chair cast the deciding vote against the application.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I moved that the report of the Stud Book Committee be accepted as read, and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The next in order is the matter affecting the Hoosier Poultry and Kennel Club. At the last meeting the club was ordered to be suspended and its officers suspended. By the Article in the Rules I forfeited the $25 for their neglect to furnish us with the certified awards within seven days. They were delayed over two months. I have a letter from the Secretary of the club and also from others who know of the case, telling me that on the second day of the show the secretary went there against the doctor’s orders, and on the third day of the show he had a cot put up in his office and conducted the business of the show from his bed. He contracted pneumonia and was very ill for almost two months, and as soon as he was able to get out he sent the awards and made everything right. I believe under those circumstances the resolution of the February meeting should be rescinded, and that I be directed to return the money declared forfeited.

Mr. Carnochan: I make such a motion

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary: The three cases for misconduct in connection with dogs will go to the Executive Board. They are reported here for the information of the delegates only.

Mr. Rodman: How about the exception where no charges have been preferred?

The Secretary: That I am going to bring up now. Here is a matter that belong to this meeting, it being the first meeting held. It is a most unusual case, and is stated in my report. That memorandum filed here was against not only a delegate but a member of the Executive Board before which all cases of misconduct must appear. Under those circumstances I was not willing to adopt my usual course of refusing to bring the matter before the Kennel Club that id not come before it in a formal way as called for in the constitution. This paper that was sent to me is most peculiar one. It reads as follows: “Memo for A.K.C. to file. See Phila. Catalogue1899, Class 178, “Terence.”
G.M. Carnochan (Delegate and Officer A.K.C.) cross between Wire Haired Fox, Thornfield Knockout, and Irish Terrier Bitch, Fenton Peggy. People who live in glass houses should not throw stones. Respectfully submitted.” Of course there is no name signed to it, but it was enclosed in a letter of February 25th signed by James L. Little.

Mr. Viti: Same handwriting?

Mr. Vredenburgh: I wouldn’t say it is exactly, but it is similar. I wrote to Mr. Little, telling him his rights, and that if he would send the matter in a formal way in the shape of charges I would bring them up at the next meeting of the Executive Board or the American Kennel Club. Mr. Little replied that he declined to do anything of the kind; that he would not prefer charges against Mr. Carnochan nor anybody else, and that we could do as we pleased with him. He implies a charge, but at the same time he says he will not make any charge. He does not specify at all, and consequently it is a matter that I cannot take up, but here is the case just as I have submitted it. It has not come before us in the formal way that charges of misconduct should come.

Mr. Vandergrift: I move that no notice be taken of it at all.
The Chairman: It seems to me it has not been brought before the club properly.

Mr. Carnochan: I should be delighted to give a history of the case.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: At the last meeting there was a ruling made that different varieties of toy spaniels constituted different breeds. That ruling was made at the request of Miss Moeran? She now appeals for a second ruling.

Mr. Carnochan: I move that it be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Now was to the suggestion I make in my report. I think I had better explain why I made it. As you all know, I have just completed a trip of about 9,000 miles, and while away I met and talked with a great many exhibitors and breeders and officers of clubs. A very warm friend of the American Kennel Club at New Orleans said that the only objection he had to the American Kennel Club Stud Book was that there was not sufficient publicity given to the applications, the different generations of the pedigree, until it finally appeared in the Stud Book, and then, as in all books, errors would creep in, and while it might be Corrected I the next stud book, the very person that got the stud book with the errors in it might not get the next stud book, and look a the one he had as correct. That struck me with a great deal of force, as good hard common sense. We should give as much publicity to our applications as possible. We publish the sire and dam, the date of birth, name and sex, the owner and breeder in the Gazette each month; that Gazette is sent to every man that registers a dog during that month; it is sent to every associate, every subscriber; it is sold through the American News Company; it is sold over the counter of the office, and each secretary of a club and each delegate of a club receives it. So far as the machinery of the American Kennel Club is concerned, I think it is all put in motion, but possibly it is not enough. I have taken the ground for years that any representative of a newspaper that comes in here and asks for information, the records being public records, they can see them; they can consult them; they can take copies of them if they please. It struck me that it would be advisable to throw our registers open to the sporting press; that if they desire to make use of them and publish them as news we should give them the privilege; if they did not, there was no compulsion, and for that reason I make this suggestion in my Unless I am instructed to the contrary, if any duly accredited representative of any of the sporting papers come here and want to look at any of our applications for registration that have not been published in the Stud book, I feel it is to the best interests of all concerned that I should give them that privilege.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I move that we endorse the recommendation of the Secretary in this regard.

Seconded and carried.

The request for recognition by the American Kennel Club of the so-called American Bloodhound, to be known and registered under the name of American Man-Trailers, was, on motion of Mr. Carnochan, referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Mr. Vredenburgh: There is only one other matter that I have to suggest, and that is the kind way in which the American Kennel Club has been received all over the country, even at a show held by the Pacific Kennel League. I am convinced that the courtesy shown to me was due entirely to my official position representing the American Kennel Club, and therefore the courtesy was really shown to the club. I think that it would be fitting that a resolution by the American Kennel Club expressive of its appreciation of the courtesy shown throughout the country should be offered.
Mr. Carnochan: I make such motion.

Seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB HELD AT ITS OFFICES, NO. 55 LIBERTY STREE, NEW YORK CITY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16TH, 1902

Vice-President H.H. Hunnewell, Jr. presiding.

Present:

Associate Member          A.C. Wilmerding
American Fox Terrier Club  H.H. Hunnewell Jr.
American Spaniel Club      M.A. Viti
Collie Club of America     M.M. Palmer
Columbus Fanciers' Club    J.M. Taylor
National Beagle Club       J.W. Appleton
San Francisco Kennel Club  C.B. Knocker
Scottish Terrier Club      R.F. Perkins
Sixth District Agricultural Association  S.C. Mastick

On motion, the reading of the minute of the last meeting was dispensed with, and the same were approved as published.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:
New York, September 15th, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to report that since our last regular meeting the following clubs were duly elected to membership by a mail vote of the Executive Board, namely:

Bar Harbor Kennel Club
Maryland Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animal
Massachusetts Kennel Club
Orange County Agricultural Society
Spaniel Breeders’ Society

Credentials have been filed by four clubs appointing delegates to represent them in this association, and have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report at this meeting.

Applications have been received for the registration of thirty-three kennel names, which were referred to the stud book committee, which will report its recommendations at this meeting.

I will submit for your consideration two reports from the Pacific Advisory Committee of meetings held by that body August 19\textsuperscript{th}, 1902, and September 2\textsuperscript{d}, 1902. A bill for disbursements amounting to $17.60, covering a period from March 10\textsuperscript{th}, to September 2\textsuperscript{d}, 1902, has been received from the Pacific Advisory Committee, and I would recommend that the same be ordered paid.

The Texas Kennel Club has asked the privilege of a postponement of its 1902 show, to that of 1903, for the reason of the destruction by fire of its buildings, and the Colorado Kennel Club has asked for a postponement of its dates to some time not specified. I take it that the object of these clubs to obtain official sanction to a postponement is to save the deposit of $25.00 which they deposited with their original claims. Rule II, (Rules governing Club holding shows), says: “Applications for date must be accompanied by a fee of $25.00, which will be forfeited in the event of the show not being held.” I have no authority to apply these deposits to cover a postponed date, but possibly you can find a way to grant the request, and I therefore leave it in your hands.

At the last Wakefield Show held in 1901, the officially marked catalogue, placed Mr. C.E. Keyes, Fox Terrier Hillside Foiler, as first in the Winners Class, and same was so recorded and published in the Stud book of 1901. Under date of July 23rd, in a letter from Mr. D.E. Loveland, Supt., I am informed that the name of the dog winning first in the Winners Class, should be corrected to read Hillside Fencer, and that he judge at said show, Mr. H.W. Lacy, had changed his book to show the change of name. I would ask you to give me such instructions as may be proper toward the correction asked for.

The Rhode Island Kennel Club has filed charges against Dr. C.C. Kammerer, for his failure to return prize money, paid to him for his dog that was subsequently disqualified by me, for not having been registered or listed. Mr. Kammerer wrote me under date of August 9th, 1902, that he had written the Secretary about the matter, and as soon as the reply came to hand, the money would be returned. Nothing further on the subject had been received by me, and as the charges have not been withdrawn, they are before you for such action as may be deemed proper.

Appeals have been received by me, and as they all come under the jurisdiction of the Executive Board, they will be submitted to that body at its first meeting. They are as follows:

Henry Jarrett, appeal for a ruling against the action of your Secretary. This appeal is addressed to the Executive Board.

James L. Little  Appeal for reinstatement; Mascoutah Kennel Club – Appeal from former decision of Executive Board.
I will submit for your consideration, a letter from H.B. Donovan, Secretary Canadian Kennel Club, suggesting a plan for closer relations between his club and ours:

The case of Cochrane vs. Klein, that has been before the Executive Board, since December 14, 1901, and had had several postponements to obtain further evidence, and particulars, has been dismissed by me, under instructions given me by the Executive Board at its meeting held June 25, 1902, namely: “Laid on the table, Complainant granted 30 days, within which to comply with the letter to him of January 19, 1902. In default of which, the Secretary is hereby directed to dismiss the case without further references.” As Mr. Cochrane has not complied as above directed, the case has been dismissed, and the incident closed.

The delegate of the Ladies Kennel Association of Massachusetts has filed a formal objection to Rule XV, and infers that I have illegally incorporated it in the rules, I would therefore respectfully ask that the matter be fully investigated.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

“New York, September 15, 1902

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my quarterly financial report:

Jany. 1 1902 Balance on hand $10,323.40
Sept. 15, 1902 Receipts to date 9,849.79

Total, 20,173.19

Sept. 15, 1902 Disbursements from Jany. 1, 1902 9,434.52
Balance on hand $10,738.67

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer”
On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Membership Committee was read as follows:

“New York, September 15, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day, as application for admission to membership, was submitted from the Binghamton Industrial Exposition, and an amended application from the Bay State Kennel Club. The above clubs filed their applications according to our requirements, and being eligible to membership, your committee respectfully recommends their admission.

Credentials have been filed by the Colorado Kennel Club, appointing James Watson, by the Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals appointing Robert B. Hansell, and by the Spaniel Breeders Society, appointing Marcel A. Viti and Branford Kennel Club, appointing Dr. J.E. Hair, as delegates to represent said clubs at the meetings of this Association, all of which are hereby approved, and their acceptance respectfully recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

S. Van Schiack
C.B. Knocker

Membership Committee
Mr. VREDENBURGH: The application of the Bay State Kennel Club is again before you. That application was recommended by the Membership Committee at our last meeting, but the members were not disposed to grant it because they thought the club covered too much territory. The Bay State Kennel Club has amended its application so that the matter is again before you. Their plan is to go into towns and cities where no shows have been held, or where no kennel clubs exist.

MR. KNOCKER: I might say that the Committee thought it a very good idea to have such clubs, as they encourage shows and also encourage the breeding of dogs, especially in places where there are no kennel clubs. We could not see any harm in approving the application, but on the contrary thought a great deal of good would come from it, especially with that addition they have made to their constitution.

The Bay State Kennel Club was the duly elected to membership, as was also the Binghamton Industrial Exposition.

Credentials were read of the following named gentlemen to represent the following named clubs:

James Watson, the Colorado Kennel Club; Robert B.
Hansell, the Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals; Marcel A. Viti, the Spaniel Breeders Society, and Dr. J.E. Hair, the Branford Kennel Club.

MR. APPLETON: I move that the Secretary be empowered to cast one ballot for their election.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Secretary has cast the ballot in favor of the gentlemen and carried.

The Secretary reported that the proceedings of the Executive Board of June 25\textsuperscript{th} and July 15\textsuperscript{th} were published in the July Gazette.

MR. WILMERDING: I move that the reading of the same be dispensed with and that they be accepted as published.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the minutes of the Pacific Committee’s meeting held on August 19\textsuperscript{th}, 1902 as follows:

\textbf{MINUTES OF MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB}

Held at the Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, August 19, 1902
Absent: M.C. Allen

Carnochan v. San Francisco Kennel Club: In re the awarding of the International Trophy at the sixth annual bench show of the A.F.K.C. An appeal from decision of the Bench Show Committee.

It was moved and seconded, that in view of the fact, that this Committee is not yet in receipt of the statement of Mr. George S. Thomas, the possession of which would be a material aid in determining the merits of this appeal, and in order to obtain further evidence in this case, further consideration of the same be deferred until the next meeting of this committee, to be held at the same place on Tuesday, the second of September. Carried.

And it was further moved and seconded, that the Secretary be instructed to obtain from Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, the Secretary of the Amer, and from Mr. L.A. Klein, the Honorary Secretary and Manager of the 6th Annual Bench Show of the San Francisco Kennel Club, severally, their affirmation or denial of the statements made by the Appellant, as to the various conversations in which they were alleged to have taken part. And that their replies be filed with the Secretary on or before the last day of the current month.
Carried.

The evident produced in the foregoing case being the original protest filed with the San Francisco Kennel Club by the Appellant, the denial thereof by the Bench Show Committee, as transmitted by the Secretary of the Club, the Appellant’s appeal to the American Kennel Club, a copy of the resolution of the Executive Board of the A.K.C. referring the Appeal to this Committee, and copies of letters and their replies passing between the Secretary of this Committee, and officials of the San Francisco Kennel Club, in relation to the obtaining of the Appellant’s original protest.

Resolved that the Secretary be instructed to call on the Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club to show cause why he and the other officials of the Sixth Annual Bench Show of the San Francisco Kennel Club should not be suspended for non-payment of prizes, in accordance with paragraph XXII of the Rules of the American Kennel Club governing Dog Shows, the reply to be placed in the hands of this Committee on or before the last day of the
In the matter of the frequent absence of M.C. Allen from the meeting of this Committee:

Resolved, that the persistent absence of Mr. Merton C. Allen from the deliberations of this Committee is an inconvenience to the other members of the same, and the source of detriment to the influence of this Committee and the Secretary is hereby instructed to request Mr. Allen to signify, on or before the last day of the current month, whether it is his intention to attend the meetings of this Committee in the future.

There being no other business before the meeting, the Committee adjourned until the first Tuesday in September.

Attest:

J. P. Norman,
Secretary

On motion, the same was received and placed on file.

The Secretary also read the minutes of the meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee of September 2, 1902, as follows:
Minutes of meeting of Pacific Advisory Committee held at Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, September 2, 1902.

Absent: Merton C. Allen

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Resolved that unfinished business from the last meeting be taken up in the same order.

In re Carnochan v. San Francisco Kennel Club. An appeal from ruling of Bench Show Committee.

The Secretary read a communication from the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, confirming the allegation, that the former owner of the wire-haired fox terrier, Endcliffe Bristles, winner of the International Trophy at the last San Francisco Show, acknowledged in the writer’s presence, that the ownership of the dog had passed to the appellant before the awarding of the said trophy. But the writer did not remember, that Mr. Klein had acknowledged in his presence having received from the appellant any notice that the ownership of the dog had so passed.

The Secretary also read a communication from Mr.
L.A. Klein, the honorary Manager of the said show, in which he stated, that he received no notice from the Appellant, that he had purchased the dog, other than possibly casual mention of the fact. The writer further alleged, that the whole transaction was a private matter between the appellant and Mr. Thomas, the vendor of the dog, in which neither the San Francisco Kennel Club not any of its officials were interested, and that the Club in paying the prize to the holder of the identification ticket, according to its printed rules, had ceased to have any interest in the matter.

The Secretary informed the Committee that he had received no reply to the communication sent to Mr. Thomas, although it was announced in the sporting papers, that that gentleman had returned from Europe. After some discussion, it was moved and seconded, that appellant’s allegation was sustained, that the dog, Endcliffe Bristles, was actually the property of the appellant at the time of the awarding of the International Trophy, and that G.S. Thomas received the Trophy as the appellant’s agent, and that the said G. S. Thomas be and hereby is ordered to place the appellant immediately in possession of the said Trophy. Carried unanimously.
It was moved and seconded, that in view of the fact that G.S. Thomas has seen fit to ignore the communications officially sent from this committee, the said G.S. Thomas be and he hereby is suspended from all benefits of the American Kennel Club until such time as this Committee is satisfied that he has complied with its orders. Carried.

It was further moved and seconded that the Chairman be requested to telegraph the gist of this resolution to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club. Carried.

In re the absence of Mr. M.C. Allen.

The Secretary informed the Committee that Mr. Allen had not replied to the communication calling on him for an explanation of his continued absence.

It was moved and seconded, that the position of Mr. Allen be declared vacant. Carried.

After some discussion it was moved and seconded that Charles K. Harley be nominated to the American Kennel Club for appointment on this Committee. Carried unanimously.

In re the complaints of McCormick, Tromboni et at v. The San Francisco Kennel Club, for non-payment of prize money within 60 days from close of show.
The Secretary read a communication from N.H. Tickman, stating that the late show had resulted in a deficit, that the Directors of the Club had levied an assessment, that the said Hickman had been unable to collect same, but now had the money, and that he would at once begin to pay off the outstanding claims.

It was moved and seconded that the San Francisco Kennel Club was clearly in contravention of Rule XXII of the Rules of the American Kennel Club, governing Dog Shows, and that the officers of the said Club and of the Sixth Annual Bench Show should be and hereby are suspended, until such time as this Committee has information that the San Francisco Kennel Club and its officers have complied with the rules of the American Kennel Club.

The published catalogue of the Sixth Annual Bench Show of the San Francisco Kennel Club, gives as officers of the Club liable to suspension, and hereby suspended: A.B. Spreckels, President; John E. de Ruyter, 1st Vice-President; E. Courtney Ford, 2nd Vice-President; N.H. Hickman, Secretary-Treasurer; Charles K. Harley, Director; L.A. Klein, Honorary Secretary and Manager of the Show.

MR. de Ruyter then left the chair, and tendered his resignation from the Committee.
It was moved and seconded, that this Committee views with regret the loss of Mr. de Ruyter's counsel and services during the period of suspension of the San Francisco Kennel Club, and refuses to accept his resignation. Carried unanimously.

Mr. Carlton was then elected temporary chairman.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Attest:

J.P. Norman,
Secretary

On motion, the same was received and placed on file.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The first matter to which your attention is directed is the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee in declaring Mr. Carnochan the winner of the International Trophy and the suspension of Mr. George S. Thomas until he turns over such trophy. Mr. Thomas called at this office this morning and stated to me that he was in England at the time that the communications were sent to him; that his wife received one of them, which she forwarded to him but which did not reach him until some time after he had returned to America, so that he had no charges are preferred or an appeal is sent here, to send notice to the defendant at his last known address and when we hold our meeting, if we have not heard from him, the case goes against him by default, and it strikes me that in all such cases the defendant ought to have, it he can give a good reason for no putting in a defense, an opportunity to open the case and be heard. If, after Mr. Thomas has had his day in court, the Pacific Advisory Committee, confirms its former action, then he has a right to appeal here for the consideration of this club.

MR. MASTICK: I move that the penalty imposed by the Pacific Advisory Committee against Mr. George S. Thomas be suspended until such time as he has had an opportunity to file his defense with such Committee, and that it is the sense of this meeting that the Pacific Advisory Committee shall re-open the case and decide it on its merits on or before October 1st, 1902.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDEBURGH: The next matter in order for your attention is the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee in declaring the position of Mr. M.C. Allen vacant by reason of his continued absence and his failure to file a reason with the Committee, and its nomination of Mr.
Charles K. Harley for appointment by this club to fill the vacancy. I find later on, in the suspension of the officers of the San Francisco Kennel Club for non-payment of prizes that Mr. Charles K. Harley’s name, as director, is on the list of suspended officers. I would like to state that last Spring when I was out there I heard complaints from different members of the Pacific Advisory Committee to the effect that it was impossible to get Mr. M.C. Allen to attend meetings. I saw Mr. Allen nearly every day at the Show held by the San Francisco Kennel Club, so that I know he was in the City of San Francisco. At one time we found it necessary to legislate the entire committee out of office because of the continued absence of the members who purposely absented themselves in order to prevent the carrying on of our business on the Coast. I think it is now before this meeting to determine that position vacant or not.

MR. KNOCKER: I move that the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee in declaring the position held by Mr. M.C. Allen vacant be confirmed.

Seconded and carried.
MR. VREDENBURGH: The nomination that the Pacific Advisory Committee has made of Mr. Charles K. Harley to fill the position declared vacant is before you.

MR. VITI: In view of the fact that he is under suspension I do not see how he can possibly be elected.

MR. VREDENBURGH: That is the very reason why Mr. John E. de Ruyter, who is one of the most valued members we have out there, unfortunately, being Vice-President of the San Francisco Kennel Club, immediately resigned from that Committee. He has been the Chairman of that Committee. He has been the Chairman of that Committee for a number of years, and as he came under the ban of suspension by reason of the non-payment of some of the prizes at that show, he tendered his resignation, which I see from the report the Committee refused to accept. According to the rule, a Bench Show Club has sixty days within which to pay its obligations for prizes. There were two or three charges filed with the Pacific Advisory Committee by men who had not received their prizes. It appears from this report that the Secretary said they had levied an assessment to make up the deficit, but had not been able to collect that assessment. Late on, the report says that the Secretary was now in funds and would proceed to pay off the indebtedness of the club, but as he had not done so this Committee passed a resolution suspending the San Francisco Kennel Club and its officers whom they named. That is according to our procedure here. The rules says that at the first meeting of the American Kennel Club or the Executive Board a suspension must either be removed or changed to disqualification.

    MAJOR TAYLOR: I move the usual sixty days be allowed.
    MR. VREDENBRUGH: They have had the sixty days. They say they have the money but they have not paid it.
    MR. APPLETON: Is there anything for us to do but to disqualify them?
    MR. KNOCKER: I was under the impression that we very often gave an extension of time in such matters.
    THE CHAIR: We can give them an extra week and disqualify them if they do not pay up within that time.
    MR. VREDENBURGH: I believe you could suspend the penalty until a stated time, and if the prizes have not all been paid by that time, then the penalty of suspension could be changed to that of disqualification.
    MR. APPLETON: I move that the suspension be continued for thirty days, and if the prize moneys are not paid within that time, the San Francisco Kennel Club be suspended, and it officer be disqualified.

Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The nomination of Mr. Charles K. Harley to fill the vacancy on the Pacific Advisory Committee is now before you.

MR. APPLETON: I move the matter be referred to the Executive Board. My motion covers the nominations of Mr. Harley and the resignation of Mr. de Ruyter.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I have to report the receipt of applications for the registration of thirty-three kennel names, the same having been recommended by the stud-book committee, as follows:

Somerset Kennels      George B. Post Jr. Bernardsville, N.J.

All of these names have received the approval of a majority of the Stud-Book Committee with the exception of one, “Leeds”.

MR. VITI: I desire to say that I approve that name in order to conform to the custom of the American Kennel Club. As I understand, we have been in the habit of recording such names as are registered with us. “Leeds” of course is a well known prefix in England, but the American Kennel Club has recently allowed the registration of many other English names equally well known, and I do not see why such a name as “Clonmel” which is just well knows as “Leeds”, should be allowed and “Leeds” refused.

MR. MASTICK: I move that the entire list of thirty-three names be granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Texas Kennel Club has asked for the privilege of postponing its Show for one year because of the destruction by fire of their buildings on their show grounds, thereby making it necessary, if the application is granted to apply their deposit of $25 to cover their new claim.

MAJOR TAYLOR: I move that the Texas Kennel Club be allowed the extension of time asked for.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Colorado Kennel Club also asks for a postponement of its show, but has not specified any date. I wrote them about a month ago to the effect that they must specify a date, to which they have not replied.

MR. VITI: I move that the Secretary be authorized to apply the deposit of $25 by the Colorado Kennel Club to any claim for dates said club may make to hold a show within the calendar year.

Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: At the last Wakefield Show, held in 1901, the officially marked catalogue placed Mr. C.W. Keyes’ Fox Terrier “Hillside Foiler” first in the Winners Class. It appears that “Hillside Foiler” was not present at the show. The dog that was there was “Hillside Fencer”, and the Judge and Superintendent at the request of the owner, changed the awards about eleven months after
The show to read “Hillside Fencer” instead of “Hillside Foiler”. I desire instructions as to what course I shall take, whether I shall change it accordingly or not.

   MR. KNOCKER: I move the matter be referred to the Rules Committee, and that some time be fixes for the change in the record with regard to the entry.

   Seconded and carried.

   MR. APPLETON: I move that the records be corrected.

   Motion seconded and carried.

   MR. VREDENBURGH: The Rhode Island Kennel Club preferred charges against Dr. C.C. Kammerer, who failed to return prizes awarded to a dog that was disqualified by the American Kennel Club. Dr. Kammerer received the prize money, and when the matter came before us we disqualified the dog because it was neither listed or registered. He said he had written to the Secretary, and as soon as he had heard from him he would settle. I have not heard anything from him and the Rhode Island Kennel Club has not withdrawn its charges. He has had ample time, as it is now about five weeks since I write to him, and he received the money last January.
MR. KNOCKER: I move that he be given thirty days in which to return such prize money after receipt of the Secretary’s notice.

Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I have here a communication from Mr. Donovan of the Canadian Kennel Club.

MR. APPLETON: I move that the communication be laid on the table.

Seconded and carried.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The Wissahickon Kennel Club held a show last June. It appears that the Club advertised that all dogs owned by exhibitors living within a radius of fifty miles of the City Hall of Philadelphia would be registered by the Wissahickon Kennel Club at its own expense. When they sent their listings in to me at the end of seven days, I found that the wins of a great number of dogs had to be cancelled because they had not been listed or registered. The Secretary of the Wissahickon Kennel Club took me to task for doing so and told me it was clearly my business to inform him how many dogs had not been listed so they could send the listings to me. I tried to explain the matter to him. I hold him it was not the province of the American Kennel Club to do the bookkeeping of any club; that the Rules Committee in granting a club seven days after the close of its show to send in its listings, considered that they had ample time in which to attend to the matter properly and correctly; that I had for the past year declined to accept any supplemental listings. They took exception to my right to do that, and I told them that I interpreted the rules according to my own judgment and that until competent authority changed my interpretation I should enforce the rules according to that interpretation. Then the secretary wrote me that he was glad to learn for the first time that I treated a club of gentlemen who gave a show with no intention of making money on the same ground that I treated a money making club with a full corps of clerks at their disposition to do their bookkeeping properly. I wrote him in reply that the rules were not elastic, that I certainly did treat a club of gentlemen the same as I treated a money making club; that they all stood on the same ground so far as I was concerned. He dropped the question the, although a little later he sent me a letter of apology for the manner in which he had written. Mr. Jarrett, who was at the time in England, returned and it appears that he took up the cudgels for the Wissahickon Kennel Club, and he has made my life quite a burden since then in answering the many letters that he sent to me on these subjects. Finally, I told him that I wished he would appeal from my action and have the matter decided. He did appeal, but he said that he wanted that appeal to go before the Executive Board. Yesterday, I received a letter from him in which the inference is clear that I had illegally inserted in our code of rules a rule that does not belong there. At the February meeting of this Club the report of the Rules Committee was as Mr. Jarrett suggests in his letter, but their recommendation was amended. Mr. Gooderham offered the resolution: “I move as an amendment that any dog entered for competition and received at the building must compete in all classes in which he is entered and for all specials to which he is eligible, and failing to do so shall be subject to a fine equal to the entrance fee in each class.” That rule has been incorporated in our code of rules, and Mr. Jarrett objects to the rule and infers, as I say, that I placed that rule in our code without authority. I think that is an uncalled for letter. I decline to accept any supplementary report of listings. It has been the custom that after a club has had seven days and has sent in its listings, which are supposed to be final, it may be one or two months after it is reported in the Gazette that the wins of certain dogs are cancelled for that or some other reason, non-listing for instance; then these clubs want to send in the listings of these dogs that have been cancelled so that I will reinstate them. As there would be no limit to that custom until every dog was finally reinstated I would never know where my records are. At one time when this present listing rules went into effect, which became operative in February after the shows had commenced, and as it was not generally known that a listing was only good for the calendar year, I had notices printed and sent out to every person who had failed to list his dogs, and asked them if they had listed their dogs, and to give their reason for not doing so if they had not. In that case we would permit them to list because of the fact that he rules as a new one, but subsequently I advertised in the Gazette, after the summer circuit and at the beginning of the autumn circuit, that I would not do that, for by that time exhibitors would be accustomed to the rule, and since that time I have declined to accept any supplemental listings after the seven days. It is now for you to say whether I was right in the course I adopted or not.

MR. APPLETON: I move that the Secretary’s action in connection with this matter be sustained in all respects.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VITI: There is a matter that was omitted from the written report of the Stud-Book Committee, which I will now state. One Daniel H. Manley, who was suspended or disqualified some three or four years ago made an application for reinstatement. The Committee feels unable to recommend that such action be taken. The case was serious one. We went into it at great length, procured affidavits from a great many persons and the Committee recommended that he be disqualified. He was disqualified some three years ago and is still disqualified and the Committee do not think that he has offered any additional evidence of such weight that it would warrant the American Kennel Club in removing that disqualification, as he requests.

MR. APPLETON: I move that the supplemental report of the Stud-Book Committee be accepted and placed on file.

Seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

The report of the Membership Committee was read as follows: -

New York, December 16th, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

At a meeting of the membership committee, held December 15th, the following credentials were submitted:-

American Spaniel Club, appointing H.K. Bloodgood; Aurora Kennel Club, appointing D.W. Goddard; Massachusetts Kennel Club, appointing J.H. Hillens; New England Kennel Club, appointing W.B. Emory; Orange County Agricultural Society, appointing W.G. Davis; Pointer Club of America, appointing Dr. Allen Fitch; San Francisco Kennel Club, appointing R.. Keasbey; Wissahickon Kennel Club, appointing D. Murray Bohlen. These credentials were duly approved and their acceptance recommended. The credentials of the Bar Harbor Kennel Club, appointing Miss Ruth Lawrence, were not approved, as the committee does not deem it advisable to admit a woman as delegate to this Association.

Respectfully submitted,
G.M. Carnochan, Chairman
S. Van Schiack

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

Delegates to represent the following named Clubs were elected as follows:

American Spaniel Club    H.K. Bloodgood
Aurora Kennel Club       D.W. Goddard
Merrimac Valley Kennel Club  J.H. Hillens
New England Kennel Club  W.B. Emory
Orange Co. Agricultural Soc.  W.G. Davis
Pointer Club of America   Dr. Allen Fitch
San Francisco Kennel Club  R.P. Keasbey
Wissahickon Kennel Club   D. Murray Bohlen
Massachusetts Kennel Club  Dr. W. Peterson Jr.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the report of the Membership Committee, disapproving of the credentials of the Bar Harbor Kennel Club, appointing Miss Ruth Lawrence, be endorsed.

Motion seconded and carried.
DR. FOOTE: I move that the reading of the minutes of the last meeting be dispensed with and that they be approved as published in the Gazette. Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read his Quarterly Report as follows:-

New York, December 16th, 1902

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:-

I have the honor to report that since the last regular quarterly meeting, the Oakland Kennel Club, has been admitted to active membership by the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, and December 17/20/1902, granted said club for a show to be held under our rules.

Credentials appointing delegates were received from ten clubs which were referred to the Membership Committee to be reported at this meeting. Applications have been received for registrations of kennel names, a list of which was referred to the Stud Book Committee, and a report to be submitted at this meeting.

A copy of the proceedings of the Pacific Advisory Committee at its meeting held November 21st has been filed at this office, and will be submitted at this meet-
A protest from Philip W. Moen, against the action of your Secretary has been filed, and the same will be submitted at this meeting.

An application to change the title of the Louisiana Kennel Club, to the SOUTHWESTERN KENNEL CLUB, will be submitted for your consideration.

An application from the Colorado Kennel Club to transfer their deposit made for claim of date for a show in 1902, to February 19th-21, 1903, will be submitted for your approval.

Copies of a preamble, resolution and correspondence between the Secretary of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of America, and Richard H. Hunt, Treasurer and Secretary of the French Bulldog Club of America, asking this Club to reverse the decision of the judge at the late Ladies’ Show of New York. The same will be referred to you at his meeting for your action.

I beg to submit a communication from H.B. Donovan, Secretary-Treasurer Canadian Kennel Club, asking what arrangement can be arrived at for a mutual recognition that will meet with your approval.
The nomination by the Pacific Advisory Committee of C.K. Harley to fill an existing vacancy on that committee, was not acted upon at the last regular meeting of this Association, and is now before you for confirmation.

In closing, it is my privilege to congratulate you on the continued growth and prosperity of this Association. We are not closing a year that is the record year of the organization and notwithstanding the additional work, imposed upon the office, I take pride in informing you that the work is almost completed up to date, without asking additional clerical force. This has been done however by hard work, and entire month of night work. Notwithstanding the fact that our registrations are about 700 in excess of the previous year, I feel certain that the copy for the Stud Book will be ready for the printer at the usual time.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary

On motion, the same was accepted as read.

The Treasurer then read his report as follows:

New York, December 16th, 1902

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my quarterly financial report,

Jan. 1st, 1902   Balance on hand   $10,323.40
Dec. 15th    Receipts to date   13,579.89

Total $23,903.29

Dec. 15th, 1902, Disbursements from January 1, 1902 12,550.84
Balance on hand $11,352.45

I beg to report that on November 26th all bills were mailed for dies to Active and Associate Members, and for Advertising Accounts.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

MR. RODMAN: I move that the reading of the Report of the Executive Board be dispensed with, it having been published in the October Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:-
New York, December 16th, 1902

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

The Stud Book Committee beg leave to report as follows:-

The following applications for Kennel Names and Transfers thereof have been filed and as they (with one exception) do not conflict with ones already registered the Committee recommend they be allowed. The exception referred to is that of Chatauqua, F.R. Dutton, owner, and as it is already registered in the name of another owner, it cannot be allowed.

TRANSFER

Leeds, Delmont & Keen to A. Delmont.

In the matter of the distinction of Toy Spaniels by varieties or breeds your committee have carefully considered all correspondence submitted to them, have informed themselves by examination of the witnesses as to the conditions governing the breeding of the varieties, and from the overwhelming proof of the evidence, they are forced to conclude that at present the different specimens are not produced through unbroken pedigrees of the same variety of ancestors, and they therefore recommend that KING CHARLES, PRINCE CHARLIE, BLENHEIM and RUBY SPANIELS be registered on and after January 1st, 1903, as Toy Spaniels of BLACK and TAN, TRI-COLORED, ORANGE and WHITE and RED TOY SPANIELS varieties.

In the matter of the report of the Massachusetts K.C. in re FANNIE KAKAS, this matter was heard by the Bench Show Committee after the expiration of the period within which they may determine such matters, and your Committee therefore feel that the proceedings are not in proper form as the said Committee was then without jurisdiction. We are aware that the parties to the proceeding agreed to waive this A.K.C. Rule but we believe that they were without power to waive any rule of the A.K.C. The proceedings in their present form should therefore be dismissed but the Complainant has the right to institute new proceedings before this Club.

(a) There are several cases still pending before this Committee which must unavoidably be held over as the Committee have not completed their investigations but expect to be able to conclude them before the end of the year.
At present there is no charge made for the transfer of a Kennel name, but as such action necessitates a re-publication of the Name and requires clerical attention and expense, the Committee feel that there charges should be borne by the applicants, and recommend that hereafter a charge of $1.00 be made for all transfers.

Respectfully submitted,

Marcel A. Viti, Chairman
C.W. Rodman, Jr.

On motion, the same was accepted.

It was moved and seconded that the applications for Kennel Names and prefixes as reported by the Stud Book Committee, be granted.

Carried.

On motion, of Mr. Rodman, consideration of the matter of the distinction of Toy Spaniels by varieties or breeds, was laid over to come up under the head of General Business.

On motion, the action of the Stud Book Committee in the matter of the report of the Massachusetts Kennel Club in re FANNIE KAKAS was endorsed.
DR. FOOTE: I move that a fee of one dollar be charged for transfers of Kennel Names.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Report of the PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE was read as follows:-

Meeting held at Occidental Hotel, Nov. 21, 1902. Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman, H.H. Carlton, A.J. Allen, P. Norman. The Secretary having invited Mr. C.K. Harley to attend the meeting, by direction of the Chairman, Mr. Allen moved, by direction of the Chairman, Mr. Allen moved the suspension of the rules, and that Mr. Harley be allowed to remain during the meeting. Seconded and carried.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Communications read by the Secretary:

From A.P. Vredenburgh, announcing that the nominations of Mr. Harley to fill the vacancy on this Committee would be acted on by the Executive Board at the next meeting in December.

Ordered filed.

From A.P. Vredenburgh, announcing that the minutes of the meeting of this Committee, held October 4th, had been presented to this Committee, held October 4th, had been presented to the Executive Board at its meeting of October 15th, and that the action of this Committee in restoring the officers of the San Francisco Kennel Club to good standing was confirmed. Also that the decision of this Committee in the case of Carnochan versus Thomas had been reversed. On motion, consideration of this letter was postponed until all the other business before the Committee had been disposed of.

From the Oakland Kennel Club, William Eisen, President; T. Gregory, Vice President; John Bradshaw, Secretary-Treasurer, applying for admission to the American Kennel Club, and for license to hold a show in Oakland on December 17, 18, 19, 20, 1902. On motion, the application was granted, and the Club duly admitted.

From M. Tromboni, complaining that the medal he had received from the Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club did not correspond to the prize won by him at the last show held by that Club. On motion, the Secretary was instructed to refer the complaint to the Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club.

From A.P. Vredenbrugh, requesting copies of certain documents in the case of Carnochan v. Thomas; the Secretary announcing that he had complied with the request, the latter was ordered filed.

The Secretary announced that he had certified the premium list of the Oakland Kennel Club for a minimum of one point in the winners class in advance of the action.
Of the committee on the application of said Club. On motion, the action of the Secretary was confirmed.

The action of the Executive Board in the matter of the case of Carnochan v. Thomas, as laid down in the letter of A.P. Vredenburgh of October 15th, 1902, was then taken up and discussed. The past of the said letter reading as follows:

“Re Carnochan v. Thomas, your decision was reversed and the action of the San Francisco Kennel Club on the original protest sustained. By this action the precedent is established that the person holding the dog at the time of the closing of the entry continued as the owner during the continuance of the show, so far as the winnings of that dog are concerned at that show.”

After considerable discussion, it was Moved, that whereas the appeal of G.M. Carnochan from the decision of the Bench Show Committee of the San Francisco Kennel Club was referred to this Pacific Advisory Committee by the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club in a letter from Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh under date of September 18th, 1902, as follows:

“I beg to advise you, that at a meeting of the American Kennel Club, held the 16th instant, the following resolutions were adopted: 1st. That the penalty imposed by the Pacific Advisory Committee against George S. Thomas be and hereby is suspended until such time as he has had an opportunity to file his defense with such Committee, and that it is the sense of this meeting, that the Pacific Advisory Committee shall reopen the case, and decide it on its merits, on or before October 1st, 1902. Mr. Thomas, who was present at the meeting, promised to mail his defense to you within one week, which will give you ample time for the reconsideration of the case within the time specified.”

And that the case was decided by this Committee strictly on its merits as directed in said letter, as presented in the evidence submitted by the appellant and defendant, therefore be it

Resolved: That this Committee views with regret the reversal of its decision in the case of Carnochan v. Thomas by the Executive Board without an appeal having been taken to said Board according to the Constitution of the American Kennel Club; such reversal being an infringement of said Constitution, as laid down in Clause 4 of the Resolutions of the American Kennel Club, adopted at its meeting held February 22nd, 1899, confirming the authority delegated to the Pacific Advisory Committee, which clause reads as follows: “All acts and decisions of said Committee shall become effective, subject to appeal the American Kennel Club, to be made under the Rules and Registrations of that Club, provided that, where such appeal is not taken, the acts and decisions of said Committee shall be final.”

And that this Committee does not admit, that the Executive Board have the right to reverse the decision of this Committee without an appeal having been taken to the Executive Board under said Clause 4, and that further, while this Committee is in entire harmony with the Executive Board in desiring to establish the precedent, that the person holding the dog at the time of the closing of the entry continues as the owner during the continuance of the show, as laid down by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club in his letter of October 15th, 1902, to the Pacific Advisory Committee, yet this Committee deprecates the hasty action of the Executive Board in ignoring the Constitution of the American Kennel Club, and it is the sense of this Committee, that the Executive Board should have awaited an appeal from
The decision of this Committee before reversing that decision.
    Seconded and carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned on motion.
    Attest:
        J.P. Norman,
        Secretary.
    On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE CHAIRMAN: The first matter in the report of the Pacific Advisory Committee is the election of the Oakland Kennel Club.
    MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that this Club endorses the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee in electing the Oakland Kennel Club.
    Motion seconded and carried.
THE CHAIRMAN: The next matter for our attention is the resolution of the Pacific Advisory Committee relative to the reversal of the decision in the case of Carnochan v. Thomas by the Executive Board without an appeal having been taken to said Board according to the Constitution of the American Kennel Club.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Isn’t that pretty strong language on the part of the child to the father, that we are at fault? If they cannot comprehend the plain rules of the American Kennel Club that is their fault.

DR. FOOTE: Are they not right? If they are in the right they certainly are warranted in depreciating the action taken.

THE CHAIRMAN: If I understand the case, the Pacific Advisory Committee gave its decision, which was appealed from to us, and it all comes down to the question as to whether an appeal can go to them at all. I should think the appeal should come to us.

MR. VREDENBURG: Mr. Thomas came here and said he never had an opportunity to be heard in his own defense because the letter which had been sent to him notifying him to appear with his defense reached his wife while he was in England, and that the decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee was reached before he could reply, so we directed the Pacific Advisory Committee to reopen the case, giving Mr. Thomas an opportunity to be heard, which they did, and Mr. Thomas was heard. Then they again decided the case against Mr. Thomas in favor of Mr. Carnochan. Then the matter came to us for confirmation. Now, there is no question about it, according to the agreement between the American Kennel Club and the Pacific Advisory Committee, that any act of the Pacific Advisory Committee is final unless set aside by the American Kennel Club on an appeal. There is only inference, and that is that the acts of the Pacific Advisory Committee must be the acts according to the rules of the American Kennel Club. Under those circumstances an appeal is absolutely necessary for the case to be reopened before this club, but if the Pacific Advisory Committee rules that black is white and it comes here for confirmation, we cannot confirm that, because we know better, and it is not necessary for an appeal to be taken before we can say that black is black. There are several precedents in the American Kennel Club where a decision has been given that the closing of entries is a part and parcel of the show itself. It is not contradicted that Mr. Thomas was the bona fide owner of this dog in question at the closing of the entries at the show at San Francisco. He paid his money to compete for everything that that dog was eligible to compete for. It was conceded by the American Kennel Club Executive Board that there as a bona fide transfer of that dog during that show from Mr. Thomas to Mr. Carnochan, but from other precedents that have been established here, the American Kennel Club said that there was only one official owner of that dog until the closing of the show, and that was Mr. Thomas. If in the transfer of this dog Mr. Thoams had agreed that further prizes that the dog might win would follow the new ownership of the dog, it is very clear to my mind that the decision of this Club was that the Club could only recognize Mr. Thomas, and then Mr. Thomas, after the close of the show, would have to turn over the prize that the dog had won after Mr. Carnochan became the owner, and in case he did not, then Mr. Carnochan would have a claim for breach of contract. As I have said, the closing of the entries is a part and parcel of the show itself, and I think upon that the Executive Board decided the case, and it was not necessary to wait for an appeal, because this decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee was against the precedent established by the American Kennel Club.

DR. FOOTE: I move that the Secretary be requested to explain that matter to the Pacific Advisory Committee, and that the action of the Executive Board be upheld.

MR. VREDEBURGH: I have explained it to the Chairman by letter and to the Secretary by letter.

MR. RODMAN: What constitutes an appeal from the decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club?

MR. VREDEBURGH: The person whom they decided against can file an appeal here from that decision.

MR. RODMAN: Is it distinctly stated how it should be done.

MR. VREDEBURGH: No.

MR. RODMAN: Then nothing further is necessary. No application of any kind, either verbal or written, was made to you subsequent to the decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee?

MR. VREDEBURUGH: No.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think you quite catch the point of this.
should after a recommendation which we as a Club overruled. Under the same rule, or upon the same theory the Pacific Advisory Committee are acting on in this case, the American Kennel Club would have to appeal to the Stud Book Committee.

MR. RODMAN: At the same time there is a statement made in our agreement with them which is unequivocal: “All acts and decisions of the said Committee shall become effective subject to appeal to the American Kennel Club, to be made under the rules and regulations provided that where such appeal is not made the acts and decisions of said Committee shall be final.”

THE CHAIRMAN: They are contrary to our precedents.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: That is a question, if they are beyond our rules.

MR. RODMAN: Suppose they had made a decision absolutely contrary to the American Kennel Club, how could the matter be brought before us? How could we take that matter under our cognizance without an appeal. Our agreement prescribes exactly how the appeal should be made. There is our agreement with them, and I am inclined to think they are right and that they have cause to find fault with the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I do not thing if the made a mistake and misinterpret our rules that we should let that go until an appeal comes. The Executive Board is here to see that our rules are correctly enforced, and to see that everything is right.

MR. RODMAN: There is no question of sympathy in this case. We are dealing with an organization that we have given co-ordinate powers with ourselves, and when they act under our rules and do as we have empowered them to do, they should be upheld. We have granted to them of our own volition the power that in case no appeal is taken from their decision it should be final, just as final as if made by our Executive Board. It is a question now of agreement between the American Kennel Club on the one hand and Pacific Advisory Committee on the other.

MR. CROKER: How long does the American Kennel Club have to wait for an appeal from the ruling of this Pacific Advisory Committee?

MR. VREDENBURGH: There is no limit of time?

MR. CROKER: They can confirm this action when they see fit. The American Kennel Club receives the decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee, and after receipt of that the party against whom this decision was made has a right to appeal?

MR. VREDENBURGH: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: According to that agreement we have nothing whatever to do about it.

MR. RODMAN: I move that this matter, in view of the fact that it refers to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club, be referred by this meeting to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club and that such Board report at the Annual Meeting of the Club to be held in February; also that the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee be informed that action has been taken upon their letter, and that a report will be rendered by the American Kennel Club at the Annual Meeting to be held in February.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I would like to ask a ruling from the Chair. In the absence of an appeal from the decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee, even under that agreement that we have made with them, can the American Kennel Club confirm or allow to stand as a law what it considers illegally done by that Club? Is it not a fair inference that in allowing that power to the Pacific Advisory Committee it meant that their acts must be in accordance with the rules and regulations and precedents laid down by the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIRMAN: I should think so.

MR. RODMAN: How can an inference be drawn where there is no ambiguity? You have stated in a proviso that has absolutely no qualification whatever just exactly the power you have given them. You have stated in black and white what you have given them. Unless it is ambiguous you cannot draw an inference from it.

MR. VREDENBURGH: It is the context. Can the American Kennel Club legalize an illegal act? Mr. Rodman: You have given them the power, and you have got to admit, as I take it from the statements that have been made here today, that there was no appeal to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club.

MR. VREDENBURGH: None.

MR. RODMAN: Therefore our act was illegal.

MR. CROKER: Has the Executive Board acted in accordance with their agreement with the Pacific Advisory Committee?

MR. VREDENBURGH: They decided against precedents established by the American Kennel Club.

DR. FOOTE: It seems to me our only course in a case of this kind is to get them to reverse their decision or else to get the parties interested to appeal, or else we have got to revise our agreement with them, but certainly on the agreement we have made with them we have not carried out our part of it.

THE CHAIRMAN: The third clause in the agreement says they may adopt general measures not in conflict with the bylaws and rules of the American Kennel Club.

MR. RODMAN: We left the decision with them. The Executive Board expressly left with the Pacific Advisory Committee the determination of the question. It was left to us and we refused to accept it. We referred it back to them with full power to act. Power to act was given to them when we sent it back for their determination.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The decision was made by the Bench Show Committee.

MR. RODMAN: At the same time that was left by us to them. It is the same result. They had power to act, not only given to them by that contract between Them and us, but by us when we left it to them for determination.

THE CHAIRMAN: The fourth clause says: “All acts and decisions of the said Committee shall be effective subject to appeal to the American Kennel Club, to be made under the rules and regulations of that Club provided that where such appeal is not made the acts and decisions of said Committee shall be final.” The part that is important there is the sentence “to be made under the rules and regulations of that Club”. I do not see why under that they are not forced to act according to our rules and regulations.

MR. RODMAN: So they are, but the only way it can be brought to our attention is by appeal.

MR. VITI: The American Kennel Club can appeal.

MR. RODMAN: It does not though. The Board of Delegates have the right to appeal to the American Kennel Club. If the Pacific Advisory Committee by that decision has aggrieved the American Kennel Club, the delegates can appeal to the American Kennel Club for reversion of that decision, but it must be done by appeal.

DR. FOOTE: I second Mr. Rodman’s motion, that the matter be referred back to the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club, it to report at the Annual Meeting to be held in February, the Secretary to be directed to inform the Pacific Advisory Committee that this action has been taken on its letter.

MR. VREDEBURGH: I would like a ruling by the Chair on this question: Can the American Kennel Club confirm or legalize an illegal act by a subordinate body?

THE CHAIRMAN: In view of Art. 3 in the authority delegated to the Pacific Advisory Committee the Chair rules that no general measures adopted by the Pacific Advisory Committee which are illegal are final.

MR. RODMAN: I now call for the question on my motion.

Motion carried.
Under the head of General Business the protest from Philip W. Moen against the action of Secretary Vredenburgh was taken up.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: May I ask if there has been a protest lodged against the win of that bitch?

MR. VRENDENBURGH: No. The breed of dog was not stated.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It is stated as an “old fashioned Scotch Collie”. I think it is beyond the scope of this office – that it is a revolutionary proceeding on the part of this office when it undertakes to define breeds. I think I am one of the oldest delegates here. I do not think that it lies with this office to say that this is not a breed. Without attempting to detract from our Secretary’s knowledge of dogs, I never knew yet that he was an authority on breeds, and that he could say a smooth coated Collie was a rough coated collie when he was not there. I think it ought to be left to the Officiating Judge. If there is no protest lodged I do not think that the Secretary has the right to say that is a rough coated collie when it is not. This dog was as far from being a rough coated collie as is a smooth coated collie, and he is an acknowledged breed of bearded collie.
I move that the protest of Mr. Moen be allowed and the cancellation of the Old Fashioned Scotch Collie may be and is hereby annulled.

Motion seconded.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The rules say that the miscellaneous class shall be open to all dogs of established breed for which no regular class has been provided in the premium list. Mr. Muss-Arnolt says that the Judge who judged the regular class of rough coated collies also judged the miscellaneous class. I would like to ask how that Judge knew that this dog was entered as an Old Fashioned Scotch Collie.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Because there was no Judges Books and he had to go by the Entry Book, and it was shown to him what it was, and it was entered in the miscellaneous class, Philip W. Moen, “Old Fashioned Scotch Collie-Made Mabel.” Our rules demand that the breed be given, and that covers everything. We have not any established number of breeds here. I know a number of breeds well, 40 or 50 breeds in Europe and possibly 40 or 50 on the Continent, but I would not have the courage just from reading a thing like that to say that that is a rough coated collie. Under what precedent, under what rule?

MR. VREDENBURGH: I bow with all humility to Mr. Arnolt as the judge and to Mr. Arnolt’s knowledge of the different breeds of dogs throughout England. I do not pretend to have any such knowledge. I did not see the dog. I know nothing about the dog. I have to go by the records. The Claim has been made by Mr. Arnolt that the Secretary has nothing to do with it. Before he can say that he has got to have these rules amended. Here is a rule which says that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club must cancel all wins when he has satisfied himself that these rules have been violated in the following instances, and one of the instances is when a dog is entered in the miscellaneous class and the breed is not specified or recognized. If the breed is not recognized he certainly has got to know whether he can recognize that breed, and I claim here that the words “Old Fashioned” is not a breed. If Mr. Moen had entered that dog as “Bearded Scotch Collie” or “Bearded Collie”, that would have been one thing, but “Old Fashioned” does not designate a breed. They had collies; they had collie classes; there were rough coated collies. Here is a rough coated collie and it is designated as an Old Fashioned Scotch Collie. They might just as well have said “A New Fashioned Yellow Dog”, but if they had said “Bearded Collie” it would have been a different thing, and in order to be absolutely certain that he did not say that, I sent for the original entry blank, and there is nothing said on that about the dog being a Bearded Collie. It simply said “Old Fashioned Scotch Collie”. I claim I did perfectly right and acted within the rules when I cancelled the win of that dog. It is immaterial what that dog was, I go by the record. The rule says that an exhibitor must be responsible for his own errors, and Mr. Moen made an error in designating that breed as an Old Fashioned breed and not as a Bearded Collie.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: By what proof does the Secretary make the claim that the breed is not known?

MR. VREDENBURGH: The breeds are in the American Kennel Club stud books, and there is no such thing in that book as Old Fashioned Scotch Collie. I took the trouble to look through the English Stud Book, and I did not see any classification for Old Fashioned dogs of any breed. The Secretary is directed to act under certain contingencies. The only thing he can act upon are certain records. I want to call your attention to a case that was decided, where a puppy was entered at one of the Milwaukee shows. I cancelled the win of the puppy and fined the Club five dollars for entering a dog under age. It was proven conclusively that the man making that entry had made a mistake of about tow or three months; that the dog was fully within the age at which he could be shown, but as we had the original entry blank, and it said the dog was under age, the Kennel Club ruled that it did not make any difference what the facts were as to the age of the dog. I have not disputed the question at any time that it was a bearded collie, but I do dispute that there was any breed of dog known in the world as an Old Fashioned Fox Terrier of Old Fashioned Pointer.

MR. VITI: It seems to me that the matter narrows sown to a definition of the miscellaneous class. It seems to me that it is a question of how breeds are established; whether the writing of the name of any breed at all on the records of the American Kennel Club is an establishment of a breed. If that is so, and the name “Bearded Collie” has never been put upon that list, then that is not an established breed.

DR. FOOTE: I have had the pleasure of showing in the miscellaneous class for a number of years, and if we are going to hold any hard and fast rule on that class,
the class might just as well be cut out. We find all sorts of things put down there: Fiji Island Terriers and South American dogs, Siberian Bloodhounds and the like. It seems to me that the judge ought to be allowed a little liberty, and that the Secretary's duties ought to be somewhat curtailed so far as cutting out wins in that class is concerned.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to ask the Secretary one question which may perhaps solve the difficulty: suppose a dog was entered in the miscellaneous class, and he was called an Old Fashioned English Terrier, would he allow that dog first if it won first?

MR. VREDEBURGH: It is all owing to whether or not there was a classification for English Terriers.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Suppose the dog was entered under the title "Old English Terrier", would he allow that?

MR. VREDEBURGH: What is an Old English Terrier?

MR. CARNOCHAN: I picked up a stud book of 1890 and saw that at one time there was some difficulty among the Welsh terrier exhibitors, and they did not like the type, and they formed another Club and called themselves, “Old English Terrier Club” and in this old stud book I found old English terriers with pedigrees. They are now all merged back into Welsh terriers again. I ask the question for the reason that I think if a man who had entered an old English terrier as a Welshman for instance, you would order him back to the Welsh terrier class, yet at the same time he might be eligible to the old English terrier class.

MR. VREDENBURGH: It is for this meeting to decide whether the two words “Old Fashioned” constitutes a breed in any dog.

MR. MORTIMER: Old Fashioned does not designate a breed, but the words “Old Fashioned” are used in connection with a breed; then it does designate a certain breed. It is a well known fact that throughout the British Islands an old fashioned Scotch Collie is a bearded Collie. That has been recognized. I do not mean to say it is in the stud book, or anything of that sort, but it is generally known as such.

MR. RODMAN: Is not the Secretary correct in what he has done at least to this extent: the miscellaneous class is for dogs that have no class provided for them. It does not make any difference whether a dog is a bald headed collie or a bearded collie; there was a class established for collies; why wasn’t the dog put in the collie class?

THE CHAIRMAN: Under the present rule of the American Kennel Club
Mr. Vredenburgh has a right to decide whether it is a recognized breed or not.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move as an amendment to the motion already before the house that the matter be referred to the Stud Book Committee until it finds out whether the Old Fashioned Scotch Collie is a recognized breed or not. My reason for referring it to the Stud Book Committee is that a great many of us have never heard even of a bearded collie. Some of us know nothing about collies at all, and it seems to be a very easy matter for the Stud Book Committee to find out whether those two terms are used for that breed. If they are used, then the Stud Book Committee will report at the next meeting, and we will annul the decision.

MR. ARNOLT: I accept the amendment.

The motion as amended was seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There is now before you the application of the Louisiana Kennel Club to change its title to “the Southwestern Kennel Club”.

MR. ARNOLT: I move that the application be granted.
Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I report the application by the Colorado Kennel Club to transfer their deposit made for claim of date for the show of 1902 to that of February 19th, 1903.

MR. WATSON: I have an application to make. I would like first of all, if you will allow me, to make some remarks about my standing before the Club. I do not think that I am properly entitled to act as a delegate on account of my election at the last meeting. It was my intention to get here early at the time of the roll call and ask that my name be passed until the end of the roll call, and my reason was this: at the last meeting three delegates, two others and myself, were put up for election, and we were elected by one vote of the Secretary. That, I submit, is unconstitutional, and I will give you the facts. Some three or four years ago we had that custom. The constitution was altered for the exact purpose of presenting that. In other words, when a person came up for election we wanted to have it on the individual vote of the delegates as to whether that person should be elected or not. At the last meeting I was elected on the vote of the Secretary, and I say that was thoroughly illegal, but in view of the fact that this is the December meeting, and that at the next Annual Meeting the matter can be altered, although I have here in my hand my resignation, I will accept the election as it was passed at the last meeting, but only with that explanation.

MR. WATSON then gave the reasons which actuated the Colorado Kennel Club to apply for change of date of its show.

MR. RODMAN: It is the province of the American Kennel Club to encourage shows, and if as a matter of fact there is no fraud in this case, and if as a matter of fact they were unable, through circumstances, to hold their show, I cannot see why the American Kennel Club should not grant them this privilege. What difference does it make whether they hold their show in November or in January? They have paid their money, and I move that that privilege be granted to them. I want it understood in the matter and therefore the American Kennel Club grants the application.
Seconded and carried.

MR. VITI: I would like to answer an intimation that was made a moment ago to the effect that the election of delegates at the last meeting was not valid. I was one of those. If the American Kennel Club thinks that there should be a re-election I would respectfully ask that it should take place now. I do not wish to hold any office as to which there is a shadow of doubt as to the validity of the election. I take it under the rules that there was every reason why one ballot was sufficient, or I should not have accepted. I should like the American Kennel Club to rule upon it. I would like the Chair to make a ruling as to the validity of that vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: The past of the rule that applies to this reads: “An election by ballot shall be held at the next meeting of the Association or Executive Board”. The ballot was cast and it was cast by the Secretary.

MR. RODMAN: At the same time when the question came up, the sense of this meeting as in absolute opposition to the statement made by Mr. Viti. I registered my objection against the Secretary being empowered to cast one ballot for the election of delegates. It is my privilege as a member of this organization, and that of each and every one of us individually to cast his white or black ball as he sees fits, and I say you deprive me of one of my privileges as a delegate to the American Kennel Club when you empower the Secretary to take from me my right to cast a black ball or a white ball, and I object just as vigorously as I did before, and ask for the sense of this meeting on this question.

THE CHAIRMAN: The usual custom is, if there is any objection from any one single person, the Secretary cannot cast the ballot. That is usually done when everybody is unanimously in favor of it.

DR. FOOTE: That very objection on the past of one signifies his unwillingness to cast a ballot for a delegate that may be named. We put that rule in force at a time when we had a delegate that was decidedly persona non grata, and as the only way in the future to avoid electing such delegates. I think we ought to conform to the rule.

MR. RODMAN: No man should be constrained to express his opinion when he casts his vote. As Dr. Foote has said, a man has got to place himself on records as one who opposes it.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the delegates who Were elected at the last meeting be balloted for to-day.

    Motion seconded and carried.

MR. RODMAN: To expedite matter will the Chair permit me to make a motion before the balloting commences?

    THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, certainly.

MR. RODMAN: I move now that henceforth every delegate balloted for by the American Kennel Club be balloted for by the members individually and severally.

    Motion seconded and carried.

The delegates then proceeded to ballot for the delegates who were declared elected at the last meeting by the vote cast by the Secretary as follows:-

American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals                          Mr. Hansell
Spaniel Breeders’ Club                        Marcel A. Viti
Branford Park Kennel Club                     J.E. Hair
Colorado Kennel Club                          James Watson

    THE SECRETARY: The Secretary-Treasurer of the Canadian Kennel Club asks if any arrangement can be made for mutual recognition that will meet with the approval of the delegates to the American Kennel Club.

    On motion the same was referred to the Rules Committee.
THE SECRETARY: The nomination of Mr. C.K. Harley to fill the existing vacancy on the Pacific Advisory Committee is before you.

MR. RODMAN: I move that the nomination be confirmed.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I second the motion. I would like to state that it is well for us to say what we know about him. I know him. This Spring I met Mr. Harley on the Pacific Coast, and a more courteous and pleasant gentleman I never met. He is intensely interested in the matter of dogs, and I am sure he stands for the best interests of kennel men on the coast.

Motion carried.

The Secretary then read copies of a preamble resolution and the correspondence between the Secretary of the Ladies Kennel Association of America and Richard H. Hunt, Treasurer and Secretary of the French Bulldog Club, asking a reversal of the decision of the judge at the last Ladies’ Show of New York.

MR. VITI: I would like to say that it seems to me that this is a very simple matter, and one exclusively within the jurisdiction of the French Bulldog Club. The American Kennel Club has repeatedly declined to take cognizance of specials. These specials are unquestionably offered according to the letters, to be judged in accordance with certain standards, namely the standard of the French Bulldog Club. If they were not so awarded the French Bulldog Club has a perfect right to cancel any such win that may have been sent to it by the Secretary of the Show Club and to ask the winner to return to the French Bulldog Club any prize he may have received that was not awarded to him under the contract that the French Bulldog Club entered into with the Show Club, and upon the failure to do so, then the French Bulldog Club could bring the matter to the American Kennel Club, because he would be guilty of dishonorable conduct in withholding a prize he had not properly won. I think it is exclusively within the jurisdiction of the French Bulldog Club, and that they have a perfect right to nullify that win, and then give the prize to the reserve dog. If no reserve dog was selected then they can offer the Club as some subsequent Show.

MR. BRISTOL: The Club did not understand it that way. The protest was made to the Bench Show of the Ladies' Kennel Association, and they understood that that protest was not sustained on account of information given by Mr. Vredenburgh to the effect that we did no have any writing that Mr.
Foxhall Keene would judge according to our standard. We have given the Secretary of the American Kennel Club proof of that, that we did have that in writing, and if it is so that the French Bulldog Club can withdraw that award, we should be very glad to know that we can do so. We thought it was a matter that should be brought before the American Kennel Club.

MR. VITI: I move that it is the sense of this meeting that the French Bulldog Club have exclusive and unlimited jurisdiction in the matter.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion of Mr. Mortimer, the recommendation of the Philadelphia Dog Show Association, expressing their disapproval of the practice which unfortunately seems to be prevalent of allowing one dog to attack another in the ring, was referred to the rules committee for their action.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to bring up that question of classification referring to Toy Spaniels, reported by the Stud Book Committee. As I understand it now, Mr. Vredenburgh, the Secretary sayd that if the matter is referred to him he would disallow any winners classes for Toy Spaniels except one; that he would not allow winners classes for the different varieties of Toy Spaniels. In the Westminster Kennel Club's premium list, a copy of which is already in the printer’s hands, we have made four winners classes. We have a winners class for King Charles Spaniels, a winners class for Prince Charles Spaniels, a winners class for Prince Charles Spaniels, a winners class for Ruby Spaniels and a winners class for Blenheim Spaniels, and I would like to know whether those classes are to stand or not. I think there are entries enough and exhibits enough to warrant each variety having a winners class.

THE CHAIRMAN: By whom was the authority given to make two winners classes in Fox Terriers.

MR. VREDENBURGH: That was a custom. I am empowered by the Board of Delegates. After the Spaniel Club asked for variety and color being divided in winners classes the Dachshund Club asked for winners classes divided by color, which was granted, and then the representative of the Collie Club wanted I think two or three winners classes, the Black and Tan, the Sable and Tri-Color. It was then stopped and it was said there would be no further divisions in winners classes by variety unless by special act of the American Kennel Club, and that is the reason now that the Committee has decided at this meeting that after January 1st all these different spaniels that have been called by their names should be known as Toy Spaniels. I do not feel at liberty to recognize the Blenheim, King Charles, Prince Charles and Rules for winners classes unless there is special legislation.

MR. MORTIMER: From time out of mind almost in the English Kennel Club the different breeds of Toy Spaniels have been recognized, and there have been championships awarded and won for different breeds — or we call them now the different varieties, and we also in this country for years past have made winners classes for different varieties of Toy Spaniels, and it would seem a little later in the date now to prohibit those winners classes. I may say that at the Westminster Show we have a very large number of different varieties of Toy Spaniels, and we think that each variety is entitled to a winners class. I only ask now whether that precedent shall stand. I would suggest that they be called English Toy Spaniels. They are breeds that originated in England, and if they are called English Toy Spaniels they will then be separated from the Japanese or other breeds of Toy Spaniels.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move to reconsider the report of the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.
THE CHAIRMAN: The motion before the house now is Mr. Mortimer’s motion that the words “English” be prefixed to the words “Toy Spaniel” in the Stud Book Committee’s report. The recommendation of the Stud Book Committee will then read as follows: “And they therefore recommend that King Charles, Prince Charlie, Blenheim and Ruby spaniels be registered on and after January 1st, 1903, as English Toy Spaniels of Black and Tan, Tri-Colored, Orange and White and Red Toy Spaniels varieties.”

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that winners classes be allowed to the four varieties of English Toy Spaniels, naming the varieties.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I find that the accommodations we have here are inadequate. We required the three rooms that we have for the purpose for which they are used. We have in the seventh story, in the loft, a small space uncovered, unprotected, where we keep our stock that is of the value of several thousand dollars, and whenever we have call for any of the stock we have to light a candle, go up there through the dirt and filth and walk over the stock and ferret it out. I have an opportunity now that I have conditionally accepted, of getting the adjoining office to mine at $300 per annum rental beginning May 1st. I would like very much for this meeting to confirm my action in securing it.

MR. RODMAN: It seems to me that it is pennywise and pound foolish not to grant the Secretary’s request in this respect, and I move that the Secretary’s request in this respect, and I move that the Secretary be empowered to add such addition to the American Kennel Club as may make his quarters to the American Kennel Club as may make his quarters adequate for the purposes of his business.

Motion seconded and carried.

DR. FOOTE: I want to add another expense on to the American Kennel Club, and that is a telephone. I think it would be a very great convenience to the delegates to be able to call up this office, and for $75.00 a year it can be accomplished. I move that he Secretary be ordered to put in a telephone forthwith.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we the undersigned in accordance with Article XI Section 6, of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB CONSTITUTION, met this day at the offices of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB for the purpose of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, for the officers and Delegates of the Associate Members of said Club, to hold offices for the term of one year, from this date, or until their successors be elected.

We found the total number of the Associate Members entitled to vote to be 215; total number of votes cast 114; total number of votes scattering 13; total number of irregular votes and thrown out none.

We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greatest number of votes to be duly elected as Offices and Delegates of the Associate Members of the year ending in February, 1904, to wit:-

“New York, February 9th, 1903

Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary, American Kennel Club,
New York City

Dear Sir:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 6th instant which notifies me of my re-election as one of the Associate Members’ delegates to the Club, but regret to say that while I appreciate the honor in its fullest sense, yet feel I have really served my time as an official of the American Kennel Club, and knowing that there are other members equally if not better fitted for the position that I have occupied on your Board, and with considerably more freedom and time at their disposal, I herewith ask to have my name withdrawn, and another substituted in its place.

Thanking you for your uniform courtesy toward me, and the members, for the compliment of re-election, I am,

Respectfully yours,

A. Clinton Wilmerding.”

MR. VREDENBURGH: Mr. Joseph Vandergrift received one vote less than Mr. Wilmerding. According to the rules he stands elected in place of Mr. Wilmerding.

THE CHAIR: It seems to me that Mr. Wilmerding has served the Club a great many years, and it might be appropriate to make some mention of it on the minutes.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I should like to move that Mr. Wilmerding’s disinclination to serve is viewed by the Club with great regret, and that the thanks of the Club are tendered to him for all he has done for the Club in the past.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I second the motion.

Motion carried.

The report of the Membership Committee was then read, as follows:-

“New York, February 7th, 1903
To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day the application of the Long Island Kennel Club was duly considered, and your committee recommends the admission of said club to active membership. The following credentials are duly approved, and their acceptance recommended:

BRUNSWICK FUR CLUB appointing L.W. Campbell
BOSTON TERRIER CLUB " Dwight Moore
MONTREAL CANINE ASS’N " Jos. A. Laurin

Respectfully submitted,

G.M. Carnochan, Chairman”

The following named gentlemen were duly elected delegates to represent the following named Clubs:-

BRUNSWICK FUR CLUB L.W. Campbell
BOSTON TERRIER CLUB Dwight Moore
MONTREAL CANINE ASS’N Joseph. A. Laurin

The Long Island Kennel Club was duly elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary’s report was then read as follows:-
“New York, February 7th, 1903

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that an application from the Long Island Kennel Club, and credentials appointing delegates from three clubs, have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report at this meeting. Applications for the registration of kennel names have been referred to the Stud Book Committee, which will also report at this meeting.

I will submit the minutes of the Executive Board; the Pacific Advisory Committee; and the report of the Committee on Constitution and Rules; at this meeting.

The protest of Philip W. Moen, against the cancellation of his dog at the Massachusetts Kennel Club Show, and entered thereat, under the breed of an OLD FASHIONED SCOTCH COLLIE, was referred by the last meeting to the Stud Book Committee, and no doubt that Committee will report its recommendation at this meeting.

The Ladies’ Kennel Association of America has preferred charges against Mrs. Richards, Michael Reus, Mrs. William Routley, for declining to return prize money for winnings to dogs whose wins were subsequently cancelled by the A.K.C. After these charges were filed notice was sent to each person charged, by this office, to file their defense if any they might have, and the matter is now before you for final action.

Champlain Kennel Club has referred to this Association the matter of the Rules of the Treasury Department, on the question of bringing dogs into the United States from Canada for exhibition purposes. I will submit the correspondence at this meeting.

The Southwestern Kennel Club has filed a request to change its show dates from April 1st to March 19th. I recommend the granting of this request.

The Fanciers Club, Sharon, Pa. has reorganized under the name of the Sharon Kennel Club, and requests that our records be amended accordingly, which I recommend.

The Hoosier Poultry and Kennel Association held its show, in January last. It failed to file a printed catalogue, and in the place of one did send a written list of the winners only. We have no knowledge of the names of the dogs that were entered, nor any of the particulars in connection therewith, not have we been able to ascertain the number present or the number absent. We wrote for these particulars on January 16th and up to this date no reply has been received. I beg to state for your information that we experienced the same trouble with this Club, at its show held in 1902. I am not willing to assume the responsibility of making this last show a record owing to the meager report filed here, and must ask for instructions from this meeting.

The Middlesex East Agricultural Society was given thirty days within which to pay the claim of Robert Leslie by resolution of the September meeting. Under date of February 2nd Mr. Leslie reports that said Club had paid all prizes to which he was entitled.

The American Spaniel Club, has filed a protest against the classification of the New England Kennel Club for Cocker Spaniels, the same being contrary to a standing resolution of this Club. This protest is founded on fact, and your Secretary must assume all blame for approving a classification contrary to the rules of this Club. It was certainly an inexcusable oversight on his part, and he therefore submits this matter to you for such action as you may deem proper.

I submit the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements, amounting to $24.48.

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s Report was read, as follows:-

New York, February 7th, 1903

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report:-

I beg to report the following Clubs in arrears for dues for 1903:-

Texas Kennel Club
Dog Owners’ Protective Society
Atlanta Kennel Club
West Virginia State Fair Association
Columbia County Agricultural Society
Middlesex East Agricultural Association
Sixth District Agricultural Association
Oakland Kennel Club
Bar Harbor Kennel Club
Bay State Kennel Club
Binghampton Industrial Exposition
Branford Driving Park Kennel Club
Massachusetts Kennel Club

I would recommend that final bills be sent to the above clubs with the usual notice that if the same be not paid within thirty days, that the Secretary be directed to drop their name from membership without further reference.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary – Treasurer

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

Under the head of election of Officers, Mr. Hunnewell nominated Mr. Marcel A. Viti as Temporary Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The first officer to be selected is a President in the place of Mr. August Belmont.

Nomination seconded.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that nominated be closed.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Chair declared Mr. Belmont to be elected President of the American Kennel Club for the ensuing year.

MR. BELMONT: I want to thank you very much for the honor I feel in regard to the position of President. I have always considered it a great honor to serve, although really during the year I found very few opportunities to attend to the duties of the office the attentions perhaps that they should receive. However, Mr. Vredenburgh has always called upon me when he considered it necessary, and so long as you have found no fault with the administration as it is, I will try and give it as much attention as I can, but as I have a great many duties to perform I naturally cannot devote as much time to it as I should like.

Mr. Belmont resumed the Chair.

THE SECRETARY: The next officer in order is a Vice-President in the place of Mr. H.H. Hunnewell, Jr.

MR. RODMAN: I nominate Mr. H.H. Hunnewell, Jr. as Vice-President of the American Kennel Club.

Nomination seconded.

MR. RODMAN: I move the Secretary be instructed to cast one ballot in favor of Mr. Hunnewell's election.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and the Chair declared Mr. Hunnewell duly elected.
THE SECRETARY: The first Committee to be elected is the Stud Book Committee. The present outgoing members are Marcel A. Viti, Chairman; C.B. Knocker and Charles W. Rodman, Jr. The Chairman is to be elected first.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I nominate Mr. Viti as Chairman of the Stud Book Committee.

Nomination seconded.

There being no other nominations, Mr. Viti was elected Chairman of the Stud Book Committee.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. Knocker has left this country, and this Committee has been acting through only the two members left, and he is not therefore eligible for re-election, as he is no longer a delegate.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I nominate Mr. Rodman.

MR. RODMAN: In the place of Mr. C.B. Knocker I nominate Mr. James W. Appleton as the third member of the Stud Book Committee. Mr. Appleton has been spoken to in the relation to occupying the position, and says he believes he will be able to fill it.

THE CHAIR: Mr. Appleton is a members of the Beagle Club, and is therefore eligible.

Nominations seconded, and there being no further nominations Messrs Rodman and Appleton were declared elected as members of the Stud Book Committee.
THE SECRETARY: Next in order is the Committee on Constitution and Rules. The Chairman of this Committee is Charles W. Rodman, Jr.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. Rodman to succeed himself.

Nomination seconded.

There being no other nominations Mr. Rodman was declared duly elected.

THE CHAIR: The other members of this Committee are Mr. James Watson, and Mr. G.M. Carnochan, Henry Jarrett, and Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I am a constitutional member.

THE CHAIR: If there are no changes to be suggested, it would expedite matters to re-elect all three of those members.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move the three gentlemen named be continued as members of the Committee on Constitution and Rules.

Motion seconded ad carried.

THE CHAIR: The next Committee is that of Field Trials and Coursing Meeting.

THE SECRETARY: You will only have to elect a Chairman for that Committee because the others are constitutional members.
THE CHAIR: The present Chairman is Mr. J.W. Appleton.

MR. RODMAN: I nominate Mr. Appleton to succeed himself.

Motion seconded and carried.
There being no further nominations, Mr. Appleton was duly declared elected, as Chairman of such Committee.

THE CHAIR: The next Committee is the Committee on Finance. Mr. A.C. Wilmerding having resigned, I suppose it will be necessary to elect somebody in his place.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. Blossom was not able to attend at the last Audit, and he has not attended a meeting of the Kennel Club for over a year.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I should like to nominate Mr. William G. Rockefeller, as Chairman of that Committee.

Nomination seconded.
There being no further nominations, Mr. Rockefeller was duly declared elected.

THE CHAIR: The other members are Mr. Carnochan, and some other name in the place of Mr. Blossom.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. Frank H. Croker in the place of Mr. James B. Blossom.

Nomination seconded.
MR. VITI: I also nominate G.M. Carnochan to succeed himself as a member of the Committee on Finance.

Nomination seconded.

There being no further nominations Messrs Croker and Carnochan were declared duly elected.

THE CHAIR: The next is the Membership Committee. Mr. Carnochan is the present Chairman.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. Carnochan to succeed himself as Chairman of that Committee.

Nominations seconded.

There being no further nominations Mr. Carnochan was declared duly elected as Chairman of such Committee.

THE CHAIR: Mr. Singleton Van Schaick and C.B. Knocker are the other members of that Committee.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. Van Schaick to succeed himself.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I nominate Mr. R.H. Williams as a member of that Committee.

Nominations seconded.

There being no further nominations Messrs Van Schaick and Williams were declared duly elected.

THE CHAIR: I am very sorry to state that I have been called to an important appointment which I cannot very well postpone, at a quarter before three, and I am going to ask you to permit me to call Mr. Hunnewell, the Vice-President to the Chair.

Mr. Hunnewell takes the Chair.

MR. RODMAN: I think while the Secretary is arranging the necessary details it might be well for the Chair. I take pleasure in expressing how much the members of the American Kennel Club appreciate the uniform courtesy he has shown us, how he has borne with patience becoming a martyr the many long and troublesome scenes which we have gone through the last year, and I certainly ought to convey to him in behalf of the members, whose sentiment I echo, the congratulations of the American Kennel Club upon his re-election to this important position.

THE CHAIR: I thank you all, and Mr. Rodman particularly, for his kind words, and I wish to acknowledge myself the courtesies which I have received from you all for more than a year, several years in fact. It has been a great pleasure to be here and preside at these meetings when our President has been so unfortunate as not to be able to be here, and I promise that it will be my best, my only endeavor to have the interests of the American Kennel Club at heart and do the best I can for all of you collectively and in-

Pacific Advisory Report of Meeting
Nov. 21, 1902
-------------------------------

On motion, the action taken by this Board at its meeting October 14, 1902, on the finding of the Pacific Advisory Committee of October 4th, 1902, in the Carnochan vs Thomas case, was re-considered.

Said report of October 4th, 1902, now being before the meeting, the Secretary of The American Kennel Club, appealed from the decision of the Pacific Advisory Committee, in its finding in the case of Carnochan vs Thomas. On the ground that said action was contrary to precedent established by the American Kennel Club, in that, Thomas entered the dog as his property and although he sold said dog to Carnochan during the Show, he, Thomas, was entitled to all the prizes that said dog was eligible to compete for at said Show. Action on the above appeal was taken as follows:-

Whereas, it is the sense of this Board that the sale of the dog Endcliffe Bristles, by Thomas to Carnochan during the San Francisco Kennel Club Show, in May, 1902, has not denied, and

Whereas, the said dog having been entered at said Show by Thomas, and there being no evidence offered that Thomas was not the bona fide owner at the time of making his entry, this Board holds that said Thomas was the owner of record of said dog during the continuance of said Show so far as competition, and the compliance of the regulations of said Show, and the American Kennel Club are concerned, and

Whereas, the evidence submitted by the Pacific Advisory Committee that the sale carried with it any prizes the said dog might subsequently win, at said Show being insufficient, it is hereby,

Ordered: That the appeal is sustained and that George S. Thomas be reinstated from the date of the Executive Board meeting October 14th, 1902. It was further, Ordered: That the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, be instructed to communicate to the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, the decision of the Executive Board, that is had erred in reversing the finding of the Pacific Advisory Committee in the appeal of Carnochan vs Thomas by reason of the same, not having been properly brought to it by appeal, as provided in Article IV of the agreement between the American Kennel Club, and the Pacific Advisory Committee; and to express its regret at having so disregarded the aforesaid agreement; and the Secretary was also directed to send to the Pacific Advisory Committee, a copy of the minutes pertaining to this matter of the meeting of the Executive Board, held this January 13th, 1903.

Robert Leslie
Vs Re Unpaid Prizes
Middlesex East
Ag'l Society
-------------------------------

In this case Leslie claims the sum of Ten dollars ($10.00) and silver cup for his pointer dog RED BANK, said dog having been moved up by reason of the cancellation of the wins of the Pointer Young Lynn.
Ordered: That the Middlesex Club is hereby directed to pay over to Robert Leslie, such money and special prize due him, and that said Club be given thirty days from the date thereof to comply with the above order in default of which the Secretary is hereby directed to suspend said Club.

W.G. Kugler
Vs Re appeal for re-instatement of cancelled Sec’y A.K.C. wins.
---------------------------

In this case certain dogs were entered at the Danbury and the Ladies’ Kennel Club Shows. The entry form being signed Clinton Hill Kennels, W.G. Kugler, Manager. The Secretary cancelled the wins of the said dogs, for the reason that the Clinton Hill Kennels were not registered Kennels, and that the word “Manager” referred to an agent instead of the bona fide owner of the dogs, as provided for in the rules. It was therefore Ordered: That the action of the Secretary in the above case, be and hereby is confirmed, and the appeal dismissed.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Pacific Advisory Committee was read, as follows:-
Meeting of Pacific Advisory Committee,
Held January 16th, 1903, at 2775 Fillmore St., San Francisco.

Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman, J.P. Norman, C.K. Harley.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
The following communications were read by the Secretary.
Telegram from Carleton, announcing inability to attend.
From A.J. Allen, tendering resignation, on the ground of lack of time.
On motion, the resignation was accepted with regret, and the Secretary was instructed to convey to Mr. Allen the expression of the Committee’s sentiments.
From Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, referring to Oakland Kennel Club, date
December 1.
From Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, dated December 4th, enclosing protest against S.F.K.C. for non-payment of prizes.
From Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, dated December 15th, referring to same complaint.
From A.P. Vredenburgh, dated December 19th, announcing appoint of C.K. Harley to this Committee, and the action of the A.K.C. directing Executive Board to make report of their action, reversing the decision of Pacific Advisory Committee.

All ordered filed.

From Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, dated January 3rd, calling for infliction of fine on Oakland Kennel Club, for accepting entry in Puppy Class without giving name of dam. Ordered file, the Secretary announcing that he had replied.

From A.B. Truman to A.P. Vredenburgh, dated November 16th, 1902, complaining that the San Francisco Kennel Club had not paid him his regular and special prizes, won at the late show of that club. He had spoken to H.H. Hickman, Secretary-Treasurer of the Club, and that gentleman had told complainant that the matter would be attended to immediately. That was the last that the complainant had heard on the subject.

The Secretary stated that he had communicated with Mr. Harley, at present Secretary of the S.F.K.C., an dread the following communication, dated December 31, 1902; Mr. Harley stated that he had furnished Mr. Truman with an order on Clabrough Golcher for the value of the special prize, which the complainant had accepted as satisfactory. He had further tendered to the complainant the medals won by the latter as regular prizes, but the same had been refused as unsatisfactory. He had offered to the complainant two first prize medals instead of one first and one second prize, not having any more second prize medals in hand, but complainant had refused to accept them.

Mr. Harley then rose and stated that since the date of the above letter, he had met Mr. Truman, the complainant, and had settled the entire affair to the latter’s satisfaction. It was moved and seconded that Mr. Harley’s statement be considered satisfactory, that the complaint be dismissed and the letters ordered filed. Carried.

Nominations for the vacant seat on Committee were declared in order and it was moved that Tudor J.A. Tiedmann be nominated to the American Kennel Club for appointment to this committee. The Chair spoke in favor of the nomination as being calculated to advance the interests of the American Kennel Club and of Pacific Coast Kenneldom. Seconded and Carried.

There being no further business before the meeting adjournment was taken on motion.

Attest:

J.P. Norman,
Secretary
On motion, the Report was accepted and placed On file.

THE CHAIR: It is in order to take up the nomination of the Pacific Advisory Committee, which is that Mr. Tudor J.A. Tiedemann be nominated to the American Kennel Club for appointment to this Committee in place of A.J. Allen.

MR. RODMAN: I move his nominations be confirmed.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VITI: The Stud Book Committee begs to report that the following applications have been filed for Kennel names:-

- BAY VIEW  Mrs. Jessie A. Sully
- GLENVIEW  Paul J. Fink
- LORD ARUNDEL  E.E. Gallup
- MONADNOCK  George F. Higgins
- OLD BELFRY  A.M. Tucker & H.C. Wheeler
- PIONEER CITY  W.H. Cox & Son
- RIVERSALE  B.R. & O. A. Knapp
- STOUGHTON  Caleb West

Change of Owner’s Name

- ANDOVER  Mrs. E.E. French to Mrs. Wm. F. Butz

TRANSFERS
The Committee feel that all of these applications and transfers should be allowed with the exception of the latter two. Mrs. W.E. Warner applied for BELLE ISLE and HAMPTON and they were both granted any number of names to a single individual, but a year or eighteen months ago, if my recollection serves me correctly, the American Kennel Club decided that an individual should only have one, and we feel that by granting a transfer of the two it would be in fact allowing two new names. We therefore think that Mr. and Mrs. Warner should be allowed to select which they would like to have.

MR. RODMAN: I think Mr. Viti’s statement might be considered as perhaps meaning that Mr. and Mrs. Warner should elect as to which of the two names they would hold. It is to this effect. The Committee has no power, nor can be find where the American Kennel Club has power to deprive Mrs. Warner of her two names in their joint name.

MR. VITI: Mr. and Mrs. Warner would like to have them transferred. They are both in the name of Mrs.
Warner at present. They were changed, I think, from Miss Griffin to Mrs. Warner.

In the matter of the appeal of Philip W. Moen, the Committee recall that Mr. Moen entered a dog in the Miscellaneous Class at the Worcester Show as an Old Fashioned Scotch Collie, and which was awarded first Prize, but was disqualified by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club upon the theory that there is no such breed. Your Committee is willing to concede that the probabilities are that the Secretary is correct in his conclusion in regard to the nonexistence of such a breed, but does this warrant disqualification in view of the settled practice of the office? An Old Fashioned Scotch Collie may not be as universally common as modern Russian Pugs, Cuban Fox Terriers, Toy Silk Poodles, China Hounds, Teneriffe Terriers, Belgium Setters, Mexican Terriers, Danish Lion Dogs, Police and trick dogs, not to mention dogs simply identifiable by color as black and white fawn with a black hear, mouse color, etc., but they nevertheless should be accorded the same recognition as the latter assortment, all of which (and may even more rare) are inscribed upon the records. Your committee therefore reports that in their opinion the award in said Miscellaneous Class should be allowed to stand, but they recommend that hereafter no winnings shall be recorded excepting of such breeds as are now or may hereafter become eligible for registration in the Stud Book.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the report of the Stud Book Committee be accepted and placed on file.

Motion seconded and carried.

It was moved and seconded that the reading of the financial statement for 1902 be dispensed with, and that it be accepted as published in the Gazette.

Motion carried.

THE CHAIR: You have heard the recommendation of the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee as to the variety of breeds of dogs, and your pleasure in regard to that is in order.

MR. CROKER: I move that recommendation be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VITI: We ought to consider the matter of determining what breeds are eligible for registration in the Stud Book. It seems to me that some committee should prepare a list of dogs that are eligible for registration in our Stud Book, and that a copy of that list should be sent to the Secretaries of Shows with the rules of the Kennel Club, and then they should be notified that they are only to accept breeds of dogs designated on that list, because all sorts of curious animals are creeping in to Shows as dogs.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the Stud Book Committee make up a list of the breeds that are to be recognized in the Stud Book, and submit it to the next meeting of the Board of Delegates.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Ladies' Kennel Association of America has preferred charges against Mrs. Richards, Michael Reus and MRS. William Routley for declining to return prize money for winnings to dogs whose wins were subsequently cancelled by the American Kennel Club.

MR. RODMAN: What are they?

THE SECRETARY: They refused to return prize money paid by the Ladies' Kennel Association upon the wins of these dogs, which wins were subsequently cancelled by the American Kennel Club. The rules say that they have got to return this money on application, and if they do not, it is a good ground before the American Kennel Club for discipline.

MR. RODMAN: I move that the matter be referred to the Executive Committee, and that the full particulars in each cast be presented to that committee.

THE SECRETARY: I have the particulars here.
I would like to state that the delegates have always acted on cases like this.

MR. RODMAN: The reason I make this motion is this: The Board of Delegates assemble here and after hearing the charge of the Ladies’ Kennel Association, read by the Secretary, as against the three parties whom they say have grieved them, act without knowing the particulars or the facts. I conceive that we have no right to summarily dismiss these complaints without substantiation. I think that in the past the American Kennel Club has been, if I may say so, with all due respect, rather amiss in taking up without a full investigation the various charges that are presented to us at our quarterly meetings. My object in having this matter referred to the Executive Committee is that there is can be thoroughly sifted, and such evidence as these three people may have may be presented. We hear nothing from them. There may be a good reason as to why we have not. They may have a perfectly good and sufficient defense. I can conceive that that defense should be offered to us. If they do not upon sufficient notification, see fit to give to the American Kennel Club the information which we desire, then I claim their day in court has gone past, but for us to take the statements furnished us by a Kennel Association that somebody has failed to comply with the rules of the America
Kennel Club, and have that statement summarily say such and such will happen, I think it is an injustice, and it is simply that the matter may be laid before the Executive Board who may sift the matter from beginning to end that I make this motion.

THE SECRETARY: The Ladies Kennel Association made a demand, and I have copies of the letters, on these persons. These persons have replied, declining to return the money. The Ladies’ Kennel Association then sent a charge to the American Kennel Club, I notified them, Mr. Reus, on January 9th, Mrs. Reutley on January 21st, and Mrs. Richards on January 21st. I notified nine in all, and all but three have responded and paid their money.

MR. RODMAN: I am perfectly willing to withdraw that motion if the Secretary will put before us sufficient evidence to warrant our action. I have not heard of any evidence sufficient to warrant this action.

THE SECRETARY: The Secretary’s Report clearly stated that notices were sent to each one of these people; that they had an opportunity to defend the charges.

MR. VITI: I agree with Mr. Rodman. I think these charge are no different from any other charges. They are serious charges, and the person or the defendants have a right to receive a copy of the charges in accordance with the Constitution; and the time and place of the hearing. If these person have been informed that to-day at two o'clock the charges against them will be heard, them I think we can proceed upon the consideration of the evidence. It seems to me that this is similar to the case of that man who sold a Bull Terrier and refused to give it back; and charges were preferred against him, and we had a hearing after he was notified.

MR. RODMAN: The Secretary has substantiated my position. If he has such a letter to produce to this meeting, I say that letter is in itself sufficient evidence for us to base our judgment on, but I would like to hear the letter; then we have something to act upon.

THE SECRETARY then read the correspondence in relation to the matter.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I think we ought to take the customary course in these matters. The customary course has been to give these people thirty days in which to return the prize money.

MR. RODMAN: There is no reason why this woman should be given thirty days or sixty days. There is no reason why any penalty should be imposed upon here until she has had her say, has had her day in court. I cannot see form what has been presented to us to-day that this woman knows anything about this matter at all. We have two statements: the statement of her husband first that she is not in this country. We have the further statement that he will not pay it to there people until the American Kennel Club has taken hold of the matter. Why should the American Kennel Club take hold of the troubles of the L.K.A., or any other association, until the L.K.A. has satisfied us that they performed the obligations imposed by our Rules, and secondly that the parties have had an opportunity to either acquiesce or to decline to live up to the spirit of the law? There is no evidence here to warrant our findings that this woman should be suspended.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would agree to refer this matter to the Executive Board but for one thing, and that is, I do not see what defense a person can put in. According to our rules if a person received the prize money and the dog is disqualified they must return it. It is not a question of having any defense to that. There is the bald fact.

After considerable further discussion Mr. Rodman moved that in the case of Mrs. William Routley the matter by referred to the Executive Board, and that in the cases of the two other parties, Mrs. Richards and Michael Reus, they take the course which has been heretofore held to be good by the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. RODMAN: May I ask what that custom has been?

THE SECRETARY: Suspended until paid.

MR. RODMAN: I move that Mrs. Richards and Michael Reus be suspended until the prize money is returned by them, and that pending the investigation by the Executive Board of the case of Mrs. Routley, she be and hereby is suspended from showing her dog under the rules of the American Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read communications from Congressman Foster and Secretary Show in connection with the reference by the Champlain Kennel Club to this Association of the matter of the rule of the Treasury Department on the question of bringing dogs into the United States and Canada for exhibition purposes.

MR. VITI: I move it be placed on file.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move the matter be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded.

THE CHAIR: I think, it I might be permitted to say it, that it seems to me to be a very important question, and I should think it would be well that a special committee should handle this matter and go to Congress about it. It seems to me that Mr. Belmont should be on that committee, or give it to the Stud Book Committee, adding Mr. Belmont as a member of it.

THE SECRETARY: There should be included in that motion something that would bring about an effort to get some legislation from the Secretary of the Treasury on the importation of dogs for breeding purposes.

MR. VITI: I have had considerable experience in the last two or three years with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Agriculture in regard to this subject. I know the instructions that are issued to the Collectors at every port in this country, and I think the Treasury Department is perfectly justified in being as stringent as it is in view of the fraud that has been practiced in the past and which is being practiced at the present moment. The provisions, if they are properly understood, will admit any dog that I swell bred into this country for breeding purposes, and we have not right to ask that a dog that is not well bred should be admitted into this country for breeding purposes, for that is not what Congress intended. The idea was to improve the breeds of dogs and kennels in this country, and there is no proof that dogs that do not conform to the requirements of the United States Treasury Department are well bred, and as such they ought to be kept out, and I think it is the duty of this Club to do what is can to elevate the standard of dogs in this country, and not try to have inferior specimens sneaked in free of duty. I think if the owner cannot prove that his dog is well bred he ought to pay 20% duty. In view of the suggestion of the Chair that Mr. Belmont should be a member of that committee, I move as an amendment that the Chair appoint a committee of five.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I accept the amendment, but I would state that my reason for referring it to the Stud Book Committee is that that committee to my knowledge has been working on this matter for the last two years, and therefore I thought it eminently proper, not to interfere with their work which they are doing, but to do the whole work together.

THE CHAIR: The motion is that the Stud Book Committee ____ in this matter, and the amendment to the motion is that the Chair appoint two additional members to the committee.

Motion as amended seconded and carried.

THE CHAIR: I appoint Mr. Belmont and Mr. Vred-enburgh as the two additional members of that committee.

On motion, the request of the Southwestern Kennel Club to change its show dates from April 1st to March 19th was granted.

On motion, the request of Fancier’s Club to change its name to that of The Sharan Kennel Club was granted.

THE SECRETARY: I would like some instruction about this matter of the Hoosier Poultry and Kennel Association. They simply sent me a written copy of the winners. I do no know anything about their Show and cannot get anything else from them. We had the same trouble before with that Club. They did not send their catalogue for about two months.

MR. CROKER: I move the matter be referred to the Executive Board.
Motion seconded and carried.

On motion of Mr. Rodman the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements amounting to $24.48 was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: The next matter in order is the communication from the American Spaniel Club. I stated in my report that the blame is on my shoulders.
protest of the Spaniel Breeders Society. We expect our membership here to be treated the same as any other active member, and our parent body, the American Spaniel Club, was denied the very rights which were granted to this Show.

MR. EMORY: The New England Kennel Bench Show, according to the rules of the American Kennel Club, sent on their classification. There was no desire on its part to change any rules whatever. The classification came here and was received with the signature of the Secretary. We thought inasmuch as they demanded that we send them our classification – when it had been approved we thought it was sufficient to do on and publish said classification, which was done, and the prize list sent out, and the entries closed. At this late day, after our entries have been received, protests appear. I think the New England Kennel Club, in seeing the signature of the Secretary of this Association, and knowing that it was final, should be backed in its classification. If the Secretary’s signature is not, what assurance have we or any other Association that our classification will not be cut to pieces. We fulfilled all the requirements that we know of, and got the signature of the Secretary. I do not see why now, having had the guarantee and the O.K. of the American Kennel Club, we should be called to order for any misdoing or anything should be brought up which in any way should disqualify our Show.

THE SECRETARY: In the Secretary's report he took the whole blame on his shoulders. He is very sorry. Of course you can well understand it was not an intentional error or oversight, and whatever censure you have I thin should all come on my shoulders and not on the New England Kennel Club.

MR. VITI: The Secretary emphasized at our last meeting that a certain committee of this Club could not legalize an illegal act. I apply that in this case. We cannot legalize an illegal act. I apply that in this case. We cannot legalize an illegal act. If the Secretary of the American Kennel Club allowed winners' classes without the three classes that are necessary in order to open a winners' class, we cannot allow a winners' class. There is no question about that. The classes can only be divided in accordance with the resolution of the Club, with the rules and regulations of this Club. If the Secretary goes beyond the rules and regulations of this Club we cannot legalize his action. We cannot do something that is unconstitutional. We cannot suspend our constitution. I think that the New England Kennel Club is in an unfortunate position, but the American Spaniel Club has certain rights in the premises. It has filed its protest deliberately, and it asks that it be considered most seriously. The American Spaniel Club has been a member of this Association for nineteen years. It has been in existence for 22 years, and it comes to the American Kennel Club and simply asks that it be given the same rights as every member of this Club. We were absolutely denied these parti-colored winners’ classes. I came here myself and asked for them and was told we could not have them. I was told that we could not have solid classes, as they had been opened at Boston, and now we find them at another Show.

MR. RODMAN: It is a difficult matter to handle now, because you can see the position the New England Kennel Club is placed in. There is no blame attaches to them. Did the Spaniel Club notify the New England Kennel Club of the error or their intended protest?

MR. VITI: Certainly not. We were under no obligation to notify them.

MR. EMORY: I would like to move that the classification as approved by the American Kennel Club and printed and published by the New England Kennel Club be allowed.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I do not think that is necessary. We are not on the protest of the American Spaniel Club. I think the proper motion is that the protest of the Spaniel Club be disallowed.

MR. EMORY: I accept that amendment.
MR. VITI: The New England Kennel Club were strangers to the American Spaniel Club. The American Spaniel Club was not communicated with, and all we saw was the classification. If there was a winners’ class for tri-colored dachshunds, I would have considered it my duty to come in here and call the attention of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club to that fact, that this Association has only two winners’ classes for dachshunds, black and tans and reds, and if I saw a classification has been allowed for spotted bull terriers I would have called the attention of this body to that fact, that an illegal class had been granted and asked that that be cancelled.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I think if this had happened in time, so some action could have been taken before the entries closed, we could have taken such action, but they are closed, and unfortunately if there is any change made in the present classification it will work an injustice to a large number of exhibitors who have made their entries under the belief that the classification had been approved. Therefore, it seems to me looking at the matter in a charitable light, it is best to make an exception in this particular case, and it should then be a personal matter between the Secretary and Spaniel Club, and for him to write, saying he regretted the matter.
MR. CARNOCHAN: Is it within the province of an committee here to allow the New England Kennel Club an opportunity to make the correction in the Spaniel classes? That I think would help us out of an unfortunate position. This is a slip of the pen, and I do not see why we should not correct it if we have the power to do it, and I think if this meeting can allow the New England Kennel Club to reopen its entries and make the corrections according to the rules laid down in the premium list I see no reason why that course should not be taken, and the American Spaniel Club withdraw its protest.

THE SECRETARY: The only thing to do is to strike out the two winners’ classes.

MR. CARNOCHAN: That would be very unfair to the people who have entered. Isn’t it within the province of this meeting to have that correction made? It is the annual meeting.

MR. RODMAN: I think the American Kennel Club has the power to say to-day, at a meeting of its members, that it will permit by reason of the facts and circumstances the New England Kennel Club to reopen its classes of Spaniels with a proper classification of Spaniels as laid down by the American Kennel Club.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I will accept any amendment or anything else. I move to amend the motion that the rules be suspended in this particular, and that the classes be allowed to be reopened so that the proper classification can be made.

MR. VITI: I object.

After further discussion Mr. Cochrane moved that owning to the illegality of winners' classes in cocker spaniels at the New England Show, under the error of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, the same be cancelled and that it be suggested to the New England Kennel Club that they send a notice to each exhibitor of cocker spaniels of that fact in order to give such exhibitors an opportunity of withdrawing his entries if he sees fit to do so.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I second the motion, and I move an amendment by adding to it that as the mistake has been made by our representative, it is the sense of the meeting that it is not fair for the New England Kennel Club to suffer for it, and that it is proper for the American Kennel Club to make good to the New England Kennel Club any entrance fees which it has to return to exhibitors should they make that request.

Motion as amended carried.

THE SECRETARY: I call attention to the Clubs which are in arrears for dues for 1903. The usual course is to send them final notice and give them thirty days in which to pay their dues, and if not paid at the expiration of that time, to drop them from the roll of membership.

MR. RODMAN: I move that course be pursued as heretofore.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have now the report of the Rules Committee: At meetings of the above Committee, held in New York, November 14, 1902, at which G.M. Carnochan, James Watson, Henry Jarrett and A.P. Vredenburgh were present, and at Philadelphia, November 26, 1902, at which G.M. Carnochan, C.W. Rodman, Jr., Henry Jarrett and James Watsch and A.P. Vredenburgh, were present, the following proposed recommended: Constitution. Proposed by G.M. Carnochan. Article IX, Section III, end of last paragraph, strike our the words “the Executive Board shall alone have power to consider all appeals for the removal of penalties imposed by said Board and substitute therefore the following: “An appeal from a decision of the Executive Board shall be made at any regular meeting of the delegates, but a four-fifths vote of the delegates present at such meeting will be required to change any decision of said Executive Board on such appeal.”

Mr. Rodman dissented.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to state that this matter has been in my mind for over a year, and had I been able to give notice in time--- I did not realize about the time limit to put it in the papers, it would have come up at last year’s meeting. It seemed to me after I had been elected on the Executive Board and had looked into the matter thoroughly, that it was an absolute injustice, in case of an appeal from the action of that Board to have that appeal go back to the same Board for reconsideration. It was practically having the same Judge and Jury try the case, and the motion that I made at the last meeting of the Rules Committee was simply to bring the matter up here for discussion, my motion being that an appeal could be made here from the rulings of the Executive Board, and I made it four-fifths so as to have the majority practically a unanimous one, because I think the rulings of the Executive Board are such that they should be considered seriously and not changed by a majority vote, but to have four-fifths of the members present in favor of it would express the general opinion of the delegates of this Club in regard to any change in the decision of the Executive Board. I thought that possibly it might be better to make some changes in the motion, but we are at liberty to do it here after the matter has been brought up in a proper way, and I have in my pocket a substitute motion if so be it you do not like this one. I will read it and you can then discuss the two together. I think we ought to do something to change this very unfair proceeding. My substitute motion is as follows: I move that a Standing Committee be added to the American Kennel Club, to be known as The Committee for the Trial of Complaints, to have original jurisdiction over all protest and complaints made to or lodged with or against the American Kennel Club, to consist of either three or five members, two of whom, in case the Committee shall consist of three, or three of whom, in case the Committee shall consist of give, shall be attorneys at law, and that none of the members of said Committee shall be members of the Executive Board of the American Kennel Club, with the single exception of the Chairman of said Committee, who shall be a member of the Executive Board, and that said Committee shall be elected by the American Kennel Club in accordance with the rules now governing the election of the present standing committees of the American Kennel Club, the Field Trial Committee alone excepted.

That would make a Trial Committee which would hear these cases, and it seems to me we ought also to take up in this connection the fact that we should have some sort of minutes taken of the Executive Board work. If trials came before this Standing Committee, there should be a stenographer present.

MR. RODMAN: The reason for my dissenting to the original motion is this: The Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club is not a fixture. The Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club is elected annually, and if the Executive Committee should so far forget its duty to the American Kennel Club as to render a decision which to the delegates at large was not in accordance with justice, then the American Kennel Club would have its solution of the trouble by electing the following year a new Executive Board. That does away with what might follow in the case of a disregard of duty which the Executive Board owes to the American Kennel Club. Secondly, the object of referring questions form the Executive Board to the delegates at large takes from the Executive Board its powers as a court of last resort, which the Executive Board its powers as a court of last resort, which the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club has always possessed so far as I know. The answer to my proposition may sound to some as reasonable when you say, why shouldn’t the American Kennel Club have the deciding voice in determining a question which has already been submitted to and determined by the Executive Committee. Gentlemen, if, as a matter of fact, the American Kennel Club had not that power I should not oppose the motion, but you will notice that the motion states distinctly that the question is to be left, not to four-fifths of the American Kennel Club, but to four-fifths of the delegates present. As a matter of fact, if we were to have an appeal from the Executive Committee brought to us to-day, we would have our voice in the matter overru ed perhaps by the half dozen or dozen men who are present, who have not had the opportunity of looking into the matter as the Executive Committee has, because the matters are thoroughly thrashed out before them, and instead of having the American Kennel Club act as the Appellate power, with the power of veto, we should have perhaps six or eight members of the American Kennel Club who happened to constitute the four-fifths of the majority of the members present sitting as the Appellate Court with the power to veto that which we had already done. It seems to me, and I say this without fear of being accused of criticism, that the decision of the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club are sufficiently numerous to warrant me assertion that they have been almost uniformly applauded by the American Kennel Club as a whole. The fact that year after year the same members are returned with the exception of perhaps one or two who have been fit to resign, or who have been obliged to leave the City so that they could not attend the meetings, have been elected to membership in that Committee, thereby showing the confidence that the American Kennel Club has reposed in its Executive Board, is substantiated, and that which was done has met with their approval. The power to veto held by anybody is a dangerous power, and one which should be used with great discretion and with great care, and to sum up my argument, I do not believe that it is possible for the American Kennel Club delegates sitting here as we do quarterly or semi-annually, as the case may be, to look into the facts of the cases which are presented to us, and by “us” I mean the Executive Committee with the same thoroughness and with the same freedom for discussion that we now have in our Executive meetings, and for that reason I have dissented to the application for the change of rule.

THE CHAIR: Gentlemen, I do not know that it is exactly right for me to say this, but I would like to say that this matter has all been thoroughly thrashed out. It has been talked over hour after hour. The whole question came up on the question of appeal back to the American Kennel Club, and it was then brought forward more or less as stated in Mr. Rodman’s argument here to-day. Also the fact that every decision will be appealed to the American Kennel Club. We changed it so we could appeal back to the American Kennel Club, and it simply resolves itself into this, that the Executive Committee opinions amounted to nothing because everything they did was appealed back to the Club. The other question of having another Committee was also broached and discussed, and it was also thought that if that was the case, the Executive Committee then amounted to nothing, and this other committee would become the Executive Committee, and there was no reason why you should appeal from the Executive Committee to this other committee.
MR. CARNOCHAN: You missed a point in this last substitute motion, which was that I did not say that an appeal should go from the Executive Committee to this other committee, but that the appeal should come from this other committee who tried the case to the Executive Committee, which would be the last court. In other words, the first committee, which would try the case, would be like one of our regular committees, such as the Stud Book Committee and Rules Committee, for instance.

THE CHAIR: Your idea is to have a trial committee, and have it referred back?

MR. CARNOCHAN: I simply brought this matter up for discussion. If it is the unanimous sentiment of the meeting here that this is what should be discussed, I want to present this as an amendment to my motion.

THE CHAIR: A motion is in order to discuss this present recommendation.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I make that motion, that the other be dismissed, and the alternative motion be taken as a substitute.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Carnochan’s proposed substitute motion was repeated.

MR. RODMAN: I can see a certain amount of force in the proposition.

The Constitution of the American Kennel
Club as it exists to-day constitutes the Executive Committee not only the Court of original resort, at least, original jurisdiction, but also the same body of men is the Court of last resort. In other words, if the Executive Committee of the American Kennel Club sits upon a question and thrashes it out and subsequently that matter is appealed to the American Kennel Club with some new evidence which may have been obtained, the question goes right back to the same men who decided the case when it was first presented to them, and as a matter of fact, it seems to me if a means could be found whereby its inception, and then make their ruling, submitting to the Executive Committee the testimony and the evidence upon which would be in a better position to render a decision, which might be more equitable and more just perhaps than if they were to occupy the Chair in both cases. The proposed amendment seems to me to have a certain amount of force in its favor. Whether or not it is practicable, I cannot say.

MR. VITI: This seems to me would make the deciding of cases more difficult than now. We have had our experience without half-way house out on the Pacific Coast. Every case that amounted to anything must be appealed to the Executive Board, and I venture to say that the Executive Board would hear exactly 100% of every case that was brought before the other Committee.

MR. CARNOCHAN: That may be all very true, but I cannot get over the fact that an appeal must go back to the same people who rendered the verdict.

MR. VITI: Would not the final judgment be given by the Executive Board who would render the verdict?

MR. CARNOCHAN: The Executive Committee would not hear it.

MR. VITI: It would hear it finally.

MR. CARNOCHAN: They hear it twice now. In the new way they would only hear it on appeal.

MR. VITI: If you can show me that it would take some work away from the Executive Committee, I would be inclined to vote in favor of your proposition. You are going to have the jurisdiction of the two committees over-lap each other?

MR. CARNOCHAN: Yes.

MR. VITI: Then I cannot see any use of it.

MR. RODMAN: A complaint may be lodged with this Committee if the American Kennel Club saw fit to appoint it, it would take testimony; that testimony taken by a stenographer present, would be submitted to the Executive Board, and instead of having statements made to the Executive Board, as have been made in the past, and instead of relying upon copies, or upon statements made by various people to other people which amount, in most instances, to hearsay evidence, the Court which would now be substituted as the Court of original jurisdiction could require the attendance, if the parties interested saw fit to accede to their request, and the testimony verbally given could be taken down, and a fuller record of the facts contained in the case could be presented to the Executive Board than is now presented. I cannot say that I am prepared to say to-day that I am willing to second the motion as presented, because it seems to me we are still in a position where it might be difficult to put in working order at once a committee of that kind, but I can see that where the parties involved in the controversy had the opportunity of coming before this new committee, or this proposed committee, and submitting their case, and that the same might be taken in a quasi or semi-legal way, the record which contains the evidence of the facts adduced before this committee might then be presented to the Executive Committee, who would be to a certain extent, more enlightened in the ultimate determination of that question than they are at present, because it is seldom that the Executive Committee requests or requires the attendance of the parties who are interested in the controversy.

THE SECRETARY: I have sat at this desk, or the other desk, and have seem witnesses give their testimony when the whole board felt that they were lying. They would say yes and no to certain questions in such a way, that they paid no attention to what their answer was, but it was the way they gave their answer. If you have a stenographic report of the proceedings before this committee which shows yes and no only to certain questions, how will the Executive Board know what weight they are to give those answers yes and no. As it is at present, they know just exactly what value to give such evidence.

MR. VITI: I agree entirely with Mr. Vredenburgh in that respect. The credibility of witnesses is very often determined, as you know, by matters outside of answers, and I have judged witnesses in their testimony before the Executive Committee by the manner in which they answered, by the way in which they sought to evade the questions. If you have simply a stenographic report before you, you are depending upon the impression that is made upon somebody else. I want to judge for myself. The Executive Board, if there is a hald way house to hear all complaints and examine all witnesses, which will return that testimony to the Executive Board, together with the report of the impression it produced upon this first committee---- then I say the Executive Board might as well go out of business. I think a person that has a complaint is entitled to appear before the body that is going to try his case. It has always been the practice in the American Kennel Club to let the Executive Committee examine the witnesses, and not simply have before them someone else’s impression of what was said.

THE SECRETARY: I can cite two cases that the Executive Board, which was then called the Advisory Committee, decided directly against the testimony simply because they all said afterwards that the men were lying.

MR. VITI: There was one thought that I neglected to express, and that is that the Executive Committee are absolutely restricted by the testimony that is taken before the junior committee. If there is a line of thought opened up by any testimony, the Executive Committee is powerless to follow it out, unless it has occurred to the committee below to exhaust every line of inquiry.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I disagree with you. In my motion I see no reason why testimony should not be brought up, new testimony, before the Executive Board.

MR. VITI: Then it is going to be re-tried?

MR. CARNOCHAN: Certainly. We are trying to give justice to these people who come before us, and it seems to me if you have two courts you are more liable to get the truth than if you have only one.

MR. CAMPBELL: It would seem to me as if it was sufficiently difficult now to get good men on the Executive Board without trying to hunt up more. I think that the committee could properly handle the business.

MR. CARNOCHAN: If you had a case before the Executive Board, and it was decided against you, and you discovered new evidence, and you wanted to appeal your case, you would have to come back to those same judges whom you had before, and who had said your case was wrong.

THE SECRETARY: If you bring in new evidence, those men are men enough to change their decision.

MR. MOORE: I agree with Mr. Carnochan in that, and I think it would show greater fairness towards the people brought here on charges if it went before two bodies rather than one.

THE SECRETARY: I was on this committee. I believe the rule as it stands to-day is good rule, and that rule was formed by consulting the rules of the different national associations in the country on different sports, for instance, the Jockey Club, the National Racing Association, the Association of Amateur Oarsmen and Amateur Athletic Union; the committee took the trouble to send for all their constitutions, and the board of governors of the different clubs had original jurisdiction, and appeals could only come to them, and we modeled ourselves on that, and I think we have found it always worked very satisfactorily.

The question was then put and the motion lost ten to two.
THE SECRETARY: The next is proposed by A.P. Vredenburgh, Article XI Section 1. Strike out the entire Section and substitute therefore the following:

“Any person in good standing may file with this Association an application for membership with Five Dollars annual dues, and his name shall be announced as an applicant for membership in the following issue of the Gazette, and no objection being filed within ten (10) days of the date of publication he shall thereby be accepted.”

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Section III, same article, strike out the words “Associate members” on the 11th line and substitute the word “Association.” Also strike out the words “Upon the endorsement of the application by either of the two Presidents, as hereinbefore provided” on the 15th, 16th and 17th lines.

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Section VI, 5th paragraph. Add the words “Of the Association” following the word “meeting” on the 4th line.

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: (Reading) Rules governing dog shows. Rule II. Acting on the suggestion of the Executive Board, this rule be changed by adding a new paragraph to read: “Except where a club states in its premium list and on its Entry blank, “This club assumes the collection and forwarding to the American Kennel Club, of all listing fees.” In this event the show club is responsible for any fees not collected, and the dog is not liable to disqualification.”

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Rule XV. Add the words “By the American Kennel Club” after the word “fine” on the sixth line.

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Rules governing clubs. Rule I. Add a new paragraph to read: “The entire blank must be in accordance with the form adopted by the American Kennel Club and copy of said blank must also be submitted for approval with the premium list.”

Seconded and lost.

THE SECRETARY: Rule X. Strike out the first paragraph and substitute therefore the following: “If a club assumes the responsibility of collecting and forwarding to the American Kennel Club any listing fees, it must state on its entry blank and also in the premium list ‘this club assumes the collection and forwarding of listing fees to the American Kennel Club.’ In which case returns for such listing must be made to the American Kennel Club within seven (7) days from the date of closing of the show. Upon notification from the Secretary of the American Kennel Club that there are still unlisted dogs, the Show Club must pay same within fourteen (14) days after such notice, in default of which said Club shall be suspended and the wins of the unlisted dogs as above referred to shall not be cancelled.”

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: (Reading) Referring to the suggestions of the Executive Board “to consider the present method of competing for Championship” and “to suggest a rule to prevent discrimination in entry fees, in regular classes, at an open show”, your committee is constrained to withhold its consent to any amendments on these subjects. It believes that the championship rule is popular, and it deprecates any change of said rule. In regard to discrimination in entry fees it is of the opinion that it is not within the province of this Association to control. Your Committee recommends that in the event of the adoption of any or all of the above amendments, that the same shall go into effect on May 1, 1903.

Respectfully submitted,

C.W. RODMAN, Chairman

THE SECRETARY: I now read the report of the second meeting of the Committee on Constitution on Rules:

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the above Committee, January 23, 1903, at which C.W. Rodman, Jr., G.M. Carnochan, and A.P. Vredenburgh were present, the communication of the Philadelphia Dog Show Association, referred to this Committee by the A.K.C. relative to sharp practices in the show ring, was duly considered, and your Committee beg to make the following recommendation:

“Add to Rule X, Governing Dog Shows”, the following paragraph: “A judge, upon the complaint of any one actually engaged in the handling of showing of a dog during the judging of a class, may if in his opinion the complaint is warranted, order from the ring any person guilty of intentional or deliberate interference with any dog therein competing. Any person ordered from the ring as aforesaid, shall be prohibited from further handling or showing, in any class, during the continuance of said show.”

Seconded and carried.

It was moved and seconded that this rule should become effective on May 1st with the other rules.

THE SECRETARY: (Reading) The communications received from H.P. Donovan, Sec'y-Treas. C.K.C. relative to recognition by the A.K.C. and referred to this Committee at the meeting of September 16, 1902, were duly considered, and your Committee recommends that provided the A.K.C. has three or more active members in Canada, that the same powers conferred upon and now existing with the Pacific Advisory Committee be granted to a similar Committee in Canada.

Respectfully submitted,

C.W. Rodman, Jr., Chairman
G.M. Carnochan
A.P. Vredenburgh

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that that recommendation of the Rules Committee be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Fanciers Association of Indiana was elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

The following named delegates were elected to represent the following named Clubs:

Buffalo Kennel Club, appointing George Bleistein
Long Island Kennel Club, appointing Joseph M. Dale
Pointer Club of America, appointing A.H. Ball
Rochester Kennel Club, appointing W.J. Gram
Southwestern Kennel Club, appointing N.T. Harris

MR. RODMAN: I move that the minutes as published in the Gazette be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:-

New York, May 19th, 1903

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that an application from the Fancier’s Club of Indiana, and credentials appointing five Delegates, have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report at this meeting.

Applications for the registration of Kennel Names, have been referred to the Stud Book Committee, which will also report at this meeting.

The minutes of Executive Board of April 22nd and also of an adjourned meeting of said Board of May 19th and the minutes of the meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, of March 23rd and May 4th will be submitted to you at this meeting.

The following communications have been filed, and will be referred to you for consideration:

“From a Committee of the Portland Kennel Club”. A communication from the Canadian Kennel Club.

I beg to call your attention to Rule 1, governing Clubs holding shows, namely:

“Application for dates must be filed with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club for approval by the Executive Board, or such sub-committee as may be empowered to grant dates. Such approval however shall be subject to the subsequent endorsement of the Premium List as being in accordance with the requirements of the American Kennel Club, a proof in duplicate of which must be submitted to the American Kennel Club before publication, and no premium list is to be considered as endorsed, unless it has at the head of the classification an official notice of such endorsement signed by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club and a notice to this effect must be printed at the head of the rules governing Dog Shows.”

The following is the notice above referred to:-

“No Show is recognized unless the official en-endorsement of the Premium List, together with the rating of the Show in winners classes signed by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, is published at the head of the classification.

My interpretation of the above rules and notice, is that the American Kennel Club gave its Secretary discretionary power to approve of winners' classes, in such breeds as in his judgment were popular enough to warrant winners' classes. Your Secretary has up to this time acted according to his interpretation of this rule, and on a number of occasions has refused to approve of winners' classes in such breeds as were not generally shown throughout the country. The withholding of his approval more generally occurred at what is known as “Ribbon Shows”. At such Shows where money prizes are not given, your Secretary found that the Show Committee were very free in giving a full classification for almost every known breed. On the other side, it has been held that whenever a necessary classification was provided, namely, the giving of at least three classes, one of which must be the open class, that the Secretary is bound to approve of a winners' class. Your Secretary would therefore respectfully appeal to you for an official interpretation of this rule, so that he may be guided thereby. In all classes where approval of winners classes has been withheld, it has always been for the reason that the breed in question was confined to two or three exhibitors throughout the entire country, and the promise that if winners’ classes were granted that a certain number of entries would be guaranteed, was not considered sufficient to obtain your Secretary’s approval. But he was always willing to approve of winners’ classes in these breeds at subsequent shows, if the owners would demonstrate the fact that there were sufficient exhibitors to entitle their breed to winners’ classes.

I beg to submit communications from the French Bulldog Club and the Boston Terrier Club, just received.

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the meeting of the Executive Board was read, as follows:

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

Held April 22, 1903

ABSENT:  August Belmont, G.M. Carnochan

H.H. Hunnewell Jr. in the Chair.

Mrs. E.E. Bedford
Vs.
Mrs. F. Senn

Re misconduct in connection with dogs

The contention in this case is based upon the vendor’s guarantee, that an Eng. Toy Spaniel bitch named “DORA”, was a breeder and good mother. Said guarantee being based upon the fact that she had whelped two litters of pup-Pies. The complainant purchased said bitch which had been bred to a dog by the name or “Young Romeo” just prior to the consummation of the sale. The bitch did not prove in whelp. The complainant subsequently sent the bitch to be bred to Mrs. Senn’s kennels in December 1902, and to the Swiss Mountain Kennels May 1902, both times without result, and therefore demanded the return of the purchase prize for the reason that the guarantee was not fulfilled. Mrs. Senn in her defense claims that in the three services above referred to, the conditions were unfavorable owing to the condition of the bitch and the long journey immediately after service, and this Board desirous of giving Mrs. Senn an opportunity to prove her guarantee that said bitch was a breeder, Ordered,    That the bitch DORA be returned to Mrs. Senn, at such time as may be satisfactory to her, but not later than June 1st, 1903, and to be held by her until the bitch next comes in season, and then to be bred and returned to Mrs. Bedford, and if she does not prove in whelp as a result of said service that then the said Mrs. Senn, shall be required to return to Mrs. Bedford the sum of $75.00 being the original purchase price or said bitch, and thereupon Mrs. Bedford shall be required to return said bitch to Mrs. Senn. All expense incurred in complying with the aforesaid shall be defrayed by Mrs. Senn.

B.B. Lathbury
Vs.    Re appeal for reinstatement for a cancelled win.
A.K.C.

In the above case the Irish Setter “GOLDREME” was registered as having been bred by a man by the name of FENN, and was shown at Providence, New York, 1903 in accordance with said registration. Subsequently it was found that Mr. FENN was not the breeder. J.S. Wall was the owner of the dam of said dog, and had leased her for breeding purposes to Robert Hoodless, and while under said lease was bred, and whelped a letter of puppies, of which the said GOLDREME was one of said litter. The registration was therefore cancelled and in view of the misstatement regarding the breeder, the Sec’y of the A.K.C. under the rules cancelled the win made under this incorrect statement. This Board believing that the appellant had an undeniable right to believe that the registration was a correct one and relying on a certified pedigree, feels that it would be unjust to deprive said dog of its winnings, and therefore it is ORDERED,    That the wins of the Irish Setter GOLDREME at Providence and New York 1903, be and is hereby reinstated, as the Registration of said bitch was cancelled until after the closing of the last named show.

W.F. Kenrick
Vs.                    Re appeal for reinstatement for cancelled win.
A.K.C.                 In this case the Bull Terrier, BRIGHT LIGHT, won first price in the local class at Philadelphia, 1902, and was entered in the novice class at New York, 1903, winning first therein. Said win was cancelled upon the ground that any dog having won a first in any class except puppies classes, is not eligible to compete in a novice class. The appeal was based upon the ground that local classes were not recognized by the A.K.C.

It was ORDERED, That the Sec'y's action in cancelling the novice win of the Bull Terrier BRIGHT LIGHT at New York, 1903, be and hereby is confirmed in view of the fact that the A.K.C. recognizes all wins in local classes, as shown by records in the annual Stud Book.

L.C. Moeran
Vs.                    Re appeal for recovery of penalty.
A.K.C.                 at the ORANGE SHOW the appellant declined to allow one of her dogs to compete for a special prize to which it was eligible. Notice to this effect was filed with the Sec'y. of the A.K.C. who imposed a penalty of three dollars ($3.00) fine as provided for in rule XV. Said fine was paid under protest.

WHEREAS Miss Moeran violated Rule XV of the A.K.C. as published in the premium list of the New Jersey Kennel Club, to-wit, “NO dog eligible for special prices can be withdrawn from competition unless it has been stated on the entry blanks will not compete for special prizes.” However, as said Rule does not contain an penalty for said violation it is hereby ORDERED, That the amount of the fine imposed namely $3.00 be returned to Miss Moeran.

The New Jersey Kennel Club violated the Rule by failing to publish in its premium list the A.K.C. Rules, which is the ground for remitting the above fine.

And Texas Kennel Club, Re appeal for reinstatement for membership

The above Clubs having failed to pay their annual dues for 1903 within the time granted them by resolution at the meeting
Of the A.K.C. held in Feb. last, were dropped from membership, subsequently they did remit said dues. It was therefore ORDERED, That the Sec’y of the A.K.C. be and hereby is directed to reinstate said club to active membership.

RESOLUTIONS
ORDERED, That the Rhode Island Kennel Club, the New Jersey Kennel Club, the Twin City Kennel Club, and the Chicago Kennel Club be and hereby are censured for their failure to publish the rules of the A.K.C. in their respective premium lists for their shows held in 1903 and that they be and hereby are each fined in the sum of $25.00 for said violation under the authority of Rule XVI, Paragraph 9, of the RULES GOVERNING CLUBS HOLDING SHOWS.

ORDERED, That the Sec’y be and hereby is directed to drop from membership all Associates who failed to pay their dues for 1903 within thirty days from the date hereof.

On motion this meeting adjourned to meet again on Tuesday, May 19th, 1903,

W.H. Simpson
ORDERED That the above case be and hereby is laid over until the next meeting of the Board.
Adjourned to July 1, 1903 A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Secretary then read the Report of the Pacific Advisory Committee as follows:-

490 California Street, March 13th, 1903.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Communications read:

T.J.A. Tiedmann, giving reasons for inability to serve on Committee at present time. On motion, consideration deferred.

A.P. Vredenburgh, under date January 15th, containing extract from minutes of meeting of Executive Board of January 13, advising action taken in case of Carnochan v. Thomas, on appeal. Ordered filed.

San Francisco Kennel Club, dated March 2nd, claiming dates for Show, April 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 1903. Secretary having taken action, letter ordered filed.

Mrs. John McCullough, Indianapolis, dated February 17th, to Secretary American Kennel Club, requesting removal of disqualification. As no evidence was presented to warrant reconsideration of sentence imposed, it was moved that letter be ordered filed, pending the presentation of further evidence.

Seconded and carried.

A.P. Vredenburgh enclosing above appeal form Mrs. McCullough. Ordered filed.
John McCormick, Proprietor Winter's Kennels, protesting against disqualification of Collie bitch puppy, Dixon Moll, entered at Oakland in Class 132, No. 65, with date of birth, name of breeder, sire, and that of dam as “Unknown”. The appellant alleges that said dam was named “Unknown” by reason of not having been named before death, she having died three weeks after birth of pups. Dam in question was out of Cleo.

Demand having been made on the Secretary of the Oakland Kennel Club for the entry blank, reply was received from him, John Bradshaw, dated March 13th, that said entry blank had been destroyed with the other records of said show, as soon as the Gazette was published, in which the awards of said Show were certified. Mr. Vredenburgh, to whom the appeal of appellant had been referred, advises under date of March 5, that to be in conformity with rules, said dam might have been named “Unnamed”, and so entered in entry blank.

Mr. Norman stated that during a visit to Dixon in October last, Mr. McCormick had informed him of the circumstance of this bitch having died shortly after the birth of the pups, and that she had never been named in her lifetime. Mr. McCormick had also stated at the time his impression that the pups were good ones, and that he proposed to exhibit them at the next Show.

It was moved that, whereas it was evident, that appellant had acted in good faith, and that his reputation for fair and honest dealing was well known to the Chairman, Secretary, and other members of this Committee, and that his character precluded the idea of his having any ulterior motive in making his entry as he did at the Oakland Show, and

    Whereas, the evidence of the Secretary of this Committee showed conclusively that the facts were as stated in the appeal of appellant,

    Therefore be it resolved, that this committee do recommend to the American Kennel Club, that the disqualification of Dixon Moll at the Oakland Show be removed, and that the said bitch be placed on record as possessing the wins awarded to her. Seconded and carried.

    It was further moved and seconded, that this committee recommend to Mr. John McCormick, proprietor of the Winter's Kennels, that in entering the progeny of said “Unnamed” dam at future Show, he state “Unnamed” on the entry blank, and furnish name of sire and dam of said Dam. Carried.

    In the matter of the membership of T.J.A. Tiedemann:

    It was moved, that whereas Mr. Tiedmann had been elected to this committee under a misunderstanding of his ability to serve, his seat on this committee be declared vacant. Seconded and carried.

    It was moved that the Chair appoint a committee on Membership to consist of two members, to report to the next meeting the names of person eligible to serve. Seconded and carried.

The Chair appointed Messrs Norman and Harley as such committee.

There being no further business, the committee adjourned.

Attest:

J.P. Norman,
Secretary

---------

490 California St., April 27th, 1903.

Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman, C.K. Harley, J.P. Norman
Absent: H.H. Carlton

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
The Committee on member for vacant seat reported progress.

After some discussion, it was moved and seconded, that the Chairman be instructed to call on the Secretary of the American Kennel Club in New York at or about the end of May next, and to agree with that official as to certain recommendations to be made to the American Kennel Club in certain matters of importance. Carried.

It was further moved, that the Chairman be endowed with plenary power to act and speak on behalf of this committee.
Seconded and carried.

There being no further business before the meeting, adjournment was taken to await the call of the Chair.

Attest:

J.P. Norman, Secretary.

On motion, the same was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Viti, Chairman of the Stud Book Committee, reported as follows: -
The Stud Committee begs to report that the following applications have been made for kennel names, and as none of them conflict with any already registered, the committee recommends that they be allowed: -

Coila, W. Ormiston Roy, Montreal, Canada
Ho-Ho-Kus, Mrs. H. T. Blodget, Hoboken, N.J.
Hyde Park, Berthing & Hin riches, Atlanta, Ga.
Kiski, Taylor & Richards, New Kensington, Pa.
Moss Brook, W. H. Saxton, Middletown, N. Y.
Silverlea, Mr. & Mrs. Frank L. Weston, Medford, Mass.
Silkwood, John I. Sparrow, San Francisco, Cal.
Tioronda, Mrs. Henry C. Kelley, Fishkill, N. Y.

Transfer:
Auburn, Stanley H. Kidd to C. H. Mower.

There are a number of other matters pending before the committee, some of which the committee are ready to report upon, and in others they have not as yet finished their investigations.

I wish to read a letter that was forwarded to the American Kennel Club by the Strafford Kennels and referred by the American Kennel Club to the Stud Book Committee.

Buffalo, N.Y. December 4, 1902

Strafford Kennels,

Gentlemen:

I have a very fine Boston terrier dog. This dog I was told was a registered dog and he looks it. The party I secured the dog from has departed for parts unknown after promising me to furnish the dog’s breeding which he failed to do.

This dog of mine is ten or ten and a half months of age. Could you furnish me with a pedigree so I could have him registered, if so, at what price.
Whatever done by you will be strictly confidential.

Respectfully yours,

Albert W. White

We sent a notice to Mr. White stating that our attention had been directed to this letter and giving him an opportunity to show cause why he should not be permanently disqualified for conduct prejudicial to the best interest of dog shows and to this Association. In reply to that we received the following letter:

Buffalo, N.Y. May 18th, 1903

Marvel A. Viti, Esq.,

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of yours of the 16th. Contents noted. Very much surprised, yet do not deny the fact that I made a great mistake. I was too zealous for another’s interest to whom I am much attached. A chum of mine who owns a Boston terrier regrets that he was unable to obtain the dog’s pedigree. He desires this paper for no commercial use, but simply to give the dog a standing. A third party suggests that we write to a couple of Boston terrier breeders whose Ad we saw in one of the several dog magazines for which I subscribe. We did and the replied we received were a credit to the men who wrote them. My friend still has his dog at his home, and he told me months ago that I had done wrong, as he wanted no pedigree so badly as to have me try to obtain one the way I did.

Respectfully yours,

Albert W. White

The committee recommend that Mr. Albert W. White be disqualified for life.

In the matter of pedigrees which was referred to the American Kennel Club by the Great Dane Club, the committee begs to say that they have entered into correspondence with the parties in the case, but as yet have not received all the evidence they seek.

The same disposition they ask to be made of the protest of Dr. J. Fletcher Lutz. We have letters from some of the parties, but not from person that we think are responsible for the error.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think in this case a notice should have been sent to you by the Great Dane Club relative to new evidence which would throw a different light on the affair, and I am surprised it is not here. I gave the evidence to the Secretary and asked him to notify you.

MR. VITI: Mr. B.B. Lathbury, the owner of the Irish Setter Rockwood, Jr., has protested against the registration of the Irish setter dog “Ned Earl” No. 71066, stated to have been sired by Rockwood, Jr. Mr. Lathbury says that his dog cover served the bitch Ruby who is stated as the dam of Ned Earl. Mr. Lathbury furnished us with affidavits which I submit.

We thereupon communicated with Dr. R.M. Irwin who registered the dog. He was the owner of the dog in question and we also communicated with Mr. Williams Dawson, of Sewickley, Pa., who is stated as being the breeder of Ned Earl. We received a letter from Dr. Irwin, which I submit, and recommend the cancellation of the registration.

The committee also received the following letter from Mr. Charles W. Keys:
To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I wish to protest against the use of the word Meersbrook as a kennel prefix or affix, as granted in the registration of Meersbrook Caddie, 71,333,
A.K.C. I protest for the following reason:-

1. “Meersbrrok” is a well known recognized kennel name in England, this name being used exclusively by Sam Hill of Sheffield, England.

2. I applied to the American Kennel Club for registration of this name and was refused, the Secretary saying that it was so well known as being the name of dogs from Sam Hill’s kennels.

3. The name “Meersbrook” is so well known in connection with Fox Terriers that its common use in connection with registrations to-day is liable to mislead.

4. The dog “Meersbrook Caddie” (71333) was not bred by Sam Hill, but by J.A. Caldwell, Jr., of Philadelphia; and, as I understand from your Secretary, was allowed to be registered as above because “Meersbrook” “Bristles” is his grand sire.
5. I protest simply to present the promiscuous use of a prefix that is so well known to all fox terrier breeders. I request also that the prefix “Meersbrook” be protected and allowed to be used only in connection with dogs known to have come from Sam Hill’s kennels. I also request that the name “Meersbrook” be granted to me; so that I may turn it over to the American Kennel Club to be used only on dogs from Sam Hill’s kennels.

“Meersbrook” is a name made famous by “Meersbrook Bristles”, and I do not like to see it hawked about the country.

Yours very truly,
Charles W. Keyes

The committee feel that they could hardly grant Mr. Keyes’ application for the registration of the name “Meersbrook” so he could turn it over to the American Kennel Club on the theory that the American Kennel Club is not authorized to accept as its property the registration of any prefix.

THE CHAIR: Does the committee make any recommendation?

MR. VITI: It has always been customary to allow the registration of any prefix that is not registered with the American Kennel Club. We have always felt that if the owners of prefixes did not think enough of their name to protect it by registering it with the American Kennel Club, we were not required to go to that extreme.

THE CHAIR:  Does the committee refuse to allow it?

MR. VITI:  No, but Mr. Vredenburgh refused to register it according to letter.

MR. RODMAN:  And the reasons given by the Secretary were that Mr. Keyes already possessed the prefix of “Hillcrest”. Those prefixes were granted before the rule went into effect. The rule of the American Kennel Club to-day is that no man can have two prefixes.

MR. VITI:  There are some other cases which the committee ask leave to hold pending their investigation. They have not completed their correspondence with the parties interested.

On motion, the report of the Stud Book Committee was accepted and placed on file and the recommendations therein contained adopted.

The Secretary then submitted a communication from the Portland Kennel Club.

MR. RODMAN:  It seems to me that in courtesy to the Pacific Coast Advisory Board which we recognize as our representative on that coast the matter should come through them. The communication received by the Secretary should be respectfully returned with the suggestion that it come through the proper channel, namely, the Pacific Coast Advisory Board. I make that in the form of a motion.

Seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read a communication from the Canadian Kennel Club.

DR. FOOTE: I think this is about the fourth time the Canadian Kennel Club has come to us for the purpose of a mutual arrangement to govern Shows. If my memory serves me right, on two occasions we came to an agreement with them, and after a short time they disregarded those agreements and went back to their present status. On the last occasion committees were appointed as they request now. Our committees met and came to terms. Our committee granted pretty much all that they requested, and their committee reported back to the Canadian Kennel Club with the result that the whole thing was thrown down. It seems to me we have had enough of that tomfoolery, and I for one am opposed to any other arrangement with the Canadians beyond what we grant to the Pacific Coast committee. I move that the report of the Rules Committee which was subsequently endorsed by the American Kennel Club at the meeting of February, 1903, be adhered to and reaffirmed by the present meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary submitted a communication from the French Bulldog Club.

MR. VITI: It seems to me we have already sufficient legislation on that point. It is unquestionably conduct prejudicial to the best interests of dog shows to have persons by false pretenses seek to sell their dogs, and it is a false pretense when they tack up awards, as I have seen done, which they have not won. I think there is this to be considered, that they have a right to tack up awards of prizes that they have won at other shows provided they put the name of the Show upon them. I do not see any objection to a man putting a sign over his dog showing that his dog has won first at New York in 1900 and second at Boston in 1901, but I do not think anything should be hung up which would lead to the inference that the prizes were won at the show in question. My motion would read that it be deemed conduct prejudicial to the best interests of dog shows for prizes that his dogs have not won at that show, unless it is specifically stated on that card the name of the show where the prize was awarded and the year in which that show was held.

Motion seconded by Mr. Keasbey.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: What procedure can we adopt to stop it? I have seen prominent exhibitors protest to the superintendent of the Show, and his answer was that he should attend to it himself.

MR. VITI: I think you could get at that in this way: If you saw such an offense committed, and you were to lodge a complaint with the Bench Show Committee, and the Bench Show Committee refused to take any action, and refused to enforce our rules and regulations, then I think they would become answerable to us for not enforcing the resolutions of this Association.

MR. BRISTOL: This resolution is only in regard to prizes. These card awards that are given at different shows, many exhibitors have been in the habit of removing them that they have won in the past. I do not say it is done by club members. It is done a great deal by me that sell dogs. For instance there was a great display of cards down there at Atlantic City. They displayed a lot of first prize tickets and special cards, and I think some of the delegates were witnesses to that display. Several persons' attention was attracted to it, and in investigating the matter we found that no first prizes had not been awarded to those kennels at all.

MR. VITI: I heartily endorse what Mr. Bristol has said, not that it needs any endorsement. I was a witness to what he refers to. I saw more first prizes tacked over the exhibits of a kennel than were offered at that Show for that breed of dogs.

DR. FOOTE: It seems to me this rule ought to be embodied in the Bench Show rules of all Bench Show committees so that there could be no question on the subject if it is brought up at any Show. They should be familiar with this rule and it ought to be embodied.

MR. RODMAN: I agree with Dr. Foote that a specific rule to that effect should be made. I concede that what Mr. Viti has said is correct, that it is prejudicial to the best interests of dog shows. I believe that were a specific rule to be made on that particular point, Bench Show superintendents and Bench Show committees should be more willing to use their influence in discouraging an act of that kind than they would if they had a broad and uncertain and indefinite rule under which it is desired to leave this particular motion.

MR. VITI: Why cannot this resolution that I have offered remain in force until the Rules Committee, on their own motion, present such a rule for adoption by the American Kennel Club? This resolution that I have suggested could be published and sent to each Show Committee by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club. If you simply refer the matter to the Rules Committee, then we are powerless to take any steps to stop it until next September, the next meeting of this body.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: If there should be a specific rule framed, as Mr. Rodman suggested, I think it would go much further, and then the superintendents and Bench Show committees would be careful not to hand our those cards.

MR. VITI: I wish to make it as a standing resolution. I move it be printed with the rules.

MR. BRISTOL: I second the motion.

Carried.

The Secretary then read a communication from the Boston Terrier Club.

MR. MOORE: I move that be referred to the proper committee.

Motion seconded.

MR. RODMAN: I think that while it may be eminently proper and fit to refer that matter to the Rules Committee, at the same time I think the American Kennel Club should give some expression of opinion with relation to that before it goes to our committee. That is a novel proposition that you ask the Rules Committee to act upon. I think it requires some discussion. The Rules Committee is not trying to shirk its duties, but we do have some pretty tough problems to work out, and we like to be guided to a certain extent by the American Kennel Club. Before that motion is put I am going to make a motion, which is to this effect, that the communication for the Boston Terrier Club be considered out of order.
MR. MOORE: The minimum weight for a Boston terrier except for a puppy is 15 pounds. What is the rule under which they acted.

THE CHAIR: The motion that it is out of order is before the house.

MR. MOORE: There is a special class of dogs under 15 pounds, called a Toy Class, and I believe that is not recognized by the American Kennel Club; that is, they cannot compete in winners classes.

MR. RODMAN: In support of my motion that this matter be considered as out of order, I beg leave to address you for a few moments. The American Kennel Club specifically defines for what dogs the novice class is organized. Now we have an organization coming to us and – informing us, not asking about it nor suggesting that the change be made, not applying to the Rules Committee that their suggestion be adopted, but notifying the American Kennel Club that hereafter a Boston terrier that does not weigh 20 pounds cannot come into a certain class, or a Boston terrier that weighs over 20 pounds cannot come into a certain class which is defined. If that is so, any dog that has not won a first, perhaps puppy class excepted, is eligible to compete under the rules of the American Kennel Club in the Novice Class, and now you are informed without ever being asked to do it, or to modify it, or to amend it – you are asked to accept the resolution of a Club which says that hereafter Novice Classes are not to be opened to dogs that weigh a certain weight. What is to prevent any other Club doing the same thing in other breeds. The matter is not brought up here properly, and for that reason I made the motion.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There is only one other matter that I have to bring before this meeting, I would like to have an official interpretation of the rules under which I am required to approve or disapprove of classifications. As I stated in my report, in the majority of cases the very full classification, particularly of dogs that are not generally shown throughout the United States, where there may be one of two exhibitors throughout the entire country, and where they may guarantee a Class, at the same time only one or two or three specimens of the dogs shown during the whole year, and they take issue with me because they did make a full classification, and that I have no right to strike out the winners classes. I claim that according to the rules that matter was left to my discretion. Not long ago the sense of the Executive Board was that I did have discretion in this matter. Assuming, as I have, this discretion, I cannot recall a case where I have mis-used that discretion. I have no favorites
in breeds, and am perfectly willing to accord a full classification to one breed just the same as another, if I am convinced, or if they will demonstrate to me that the breed is of sufficient importance and popularity that it will be shown in fair numbers and distributed among a fair number of exhibitors. That is the ground that I have taken, and I have been assailed for doing it. My right has been questioned. The particular Shows that give the greatest scope to classifications are the Shows that do not risk one dollar in prizes – what are generally known as Ribbon Shows. Take the New York Show, the Boston Show, the Philadelphia Show, and Shows of that class, where they put a large amount of money in prizes, they are governed, I believe, by statistics. They know what they have done in certain classes in previous years, where they have lost money, where they have made money, and they make that classification accordingly, but the Shows that do not risk a dollar, which simply give our a blue, read or white ribbon, it is immaterial to them what classifications they give, and they generally give the fullest classifications that come to me during the entire year. In those cases I have used my discretion, and I have disapproved of winners classes in certain breeds which to my knowledge are not owned by more than one or two exhibitors throughout the length and breadth of this country. If this meeting will put on record that it is at my discretion, I am perfectly willing to assume that discretion and to take all the knocks they want to give me. If it is the sense of this meeting that I must approve of a winners class wherever the necessary number of classes are entered regardless of whether the Show is to pay out Ten thousand dollars in premiums or about Two dollars and a half in the cost of ribbons, I am altogether satisfied, but I would like to have it stated and put on record just exactly where I stand and where the different Shows stand, and whatever that may be I will see that it is carried out.

MR. RODMAN: Mr. Carnochan, before the Secretary’s request is taken up, I would respectfully ask, in view of the fact that I have an inkling that he may be answered to-day by the American Kennel Club as a body, a motion having been promulgated and formulated and I hope tabulated sufficiently to explain the position of the party who makes the motion, which will answer to the fullest extent the question put by the Secretary, or if it does not answer his question, at least relieve him in the future from all responsibility, and from an exercise of that power of discretion which so many of us have suffered under, and for that reason I ask that this question be allowed to remain in abeyance until the motion is made, which I think will obviate our answering his question.

MR. VITI: Referring to the question of winners classes,
I should like to call attention to the present system of scoring points. I have discussed this afternoon with some members the amounts that were offered at different Shows, and found that the Westminster Kennel Club, which was a five point Show, offered $8,400 in prize money, and the Ladies Kennel Association offered $9,000 in prizes, and that is only a four point Show, a smaller Show according to the ratings than the Westminster Kennel Club Show which offered $600 less. The Philadelphia Club offered $5,640, which was a three point Show; Boston offered $5,150 and was also a three point Show; while Atlantic City, with $3,438; Providence, with $2,968; Newark, with $2,396, and Pittsburg, with $2,250, were also all three point Shows. Buffalo, which gave $2,180, a little less than Pittsburg, was a two point Show. These figures have been taken mostly this afternoon from the prize list and may not be the full amounts as the catalogues may show, because very frequently classes are added after the prize list has gone out. It was my thought that it would be a much fairer way to determine the rating of Shows if the amount of the prize money was considered the criterion; that Shows that go to the expense of putting up large sums of many and offer prizes which induce competition form all parts of this country, should be considered as larger Shows than Shows that have a larger number of local dogs entered, and our thought was to have a rating in accordance with the prize money offered; for instance, a Show that offered $2,000 should be rated at one point; a Show that offered $2,500 should have a rating of two points; a Show that offered $3,000 should have a rating of three points; a Show that offered $4,000 should have a rating of four points, and a Show that offered $5,000 and over should have a five point Show.

DR. FOOTE: How does that control the number of winners classes?

MR. VITI: Then there should be an unlimited number of winners classes.

DR. FOOTE: I think it has been generally considered that the financial question should govern the Championship record. We tried that some years ago, and we found complaints from Shows in small sections, for instance, on the Pacific Coast, where they wanted to work that basis, and in other sections of the country they complained that if we demanded that they should put up a certain sum in order to be allowed to offer winners classes or Championship classes, they could not hold a Show. I think Mr. Viti’s idea is a good one, but I am very much afraid it would give rise to a tremendous amount of opposition and be discouraging to the smaller Shows.

MR. VITI: I mean that they should be allowed to hold American Kennel Club Shows no matter what they may offer, but they cannot hold winners classes unless they offer substantial prizes. I stated those amounts as a suggestion, and base it upon the amount of money that Shows have been in the habit of offering.

MR. RODMAN: I do not think it is Mr. Viti’s intention to have it understood that specialty Shows or Specialty Club Shows are included in that statement. Specialty Club Shows are to be left on their present basis. Take the condition of affairs as they exist to-day. They certainly do not give satisfaction. Take the condition which is perhaps to be expected from what is here suggested. If you take the number of dogs as the basis upon which the winner’s points shall be founded we are met with this proposition. Take, for instance, a Show like the New England Kennel Club, and the Show of the Ladies Kennel Association of America. We have there two illustrations which are apt in explanation of my argument. The New England Kennel Club has for years given an open air Show. The Ladies Kennel Association of America is giving an open air Show. The present rating of the Ladies open air Show is that based upon their entries received at the New York Show, and the present basis of the New England Kennel Club open air Show at Braintree is founded upon their Show held in Boston last February. After carefully looking into this I state to you only what my personal investigations have proven to my satisfaction, and that is we cannot base this proposition on the number of entries which each Show has, for the reason that if that Show gives an open air Show, when that Show has given its open air Show, at which only a few entries comparatively are received, the next time they hold their Show in the city where they are expecting to receive the great number of entries which they are entitled to expect, they have got to go before the public standing, not on the basis of the Show they held the year previous in such cities as Boston and New York, but on the basis of their open air Show, which may make Boston next statement that Boston may not have more than the minimum rating, which is one point. It is true with relation to Boston. It seems to me on the basis of entries we cannot make a rule which can be considered as equitable and fair, and the only way that the Committee who have worked over this and give it their best consideration and thought, and which is both ready and willing to receive any proposition or suggestion from any member of the Club to assist us in determining upon some plan whereby justice can be done, because we all know that the present rule is entirely inadequate and is certainly most unsatisfactory, we cannot find any other plan than that of basing our estimate of winners points on the financial end of the Show. We cannot find any other plan, and if a Show does give, as we have suggested, a certain amount of money, it is entitled to have so many points towards winners classes. With relation to this suggestion which has been made here to-day, what are you going to do about winners classes, we say open winners classes to every breed of dog. Why? Because it is optional under our rules with the Judge as to whether or not he awards that prize, and if a Judge goes around the country awarding winners prizes to inferior dogs, it will not be long before he is asked to decline the position of Judge. It is in the hands of the exhibitors. I do not believe there is nay other way in which this matter can be solved and solved to the satisfaction of all.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I may be permitted to say a word here. I am one of the fathers of the present system of the rating of Shows. I thoroughly believed in it. Sometime last Fall, or in the early Winter, there was suggested to me this very question which Mr. Viti has now brought up. I was very loath to give an opinion at that time, but I slept over it and thought upon the subject, and I have come to the conclusion that it is the fairest thing that has been presented yet towards the making of champions. The small Shows say: Our only salvation is to have winners classes. It will rest entirely with them whether they have winners classes or not. If they are willing to put up their money to get the entries which they claim that they will get if they have winners classes, then they ought to have winners classes, and it will also rest entirely with them whether their Show rates is at one, two, three, four, or five points. It does not rest with them; it rests with the exhibitor how many actual dogs will be entered. The Show itself can determine before they issue their premium list just exactly the rating of their Show, and I have come to the conclusion that it is the fairest plan that has yet been suggested. If a Show is not willing to put up $1,000 or $2,000, and simply wants to give a ribbon, let them give all the classes they please except winners classes. They cannot lose very much because they do not give much. If you send this to the Rules Committee, I think you ought to consider it very well and consider it long enough to consider it favorably.

THE CHAIR: I would like to ask Mr. Rodman two questions. One is according to your idea of rating, the open air Show would be rated on its own bottom?

MR. RODMAN: Yes, and the Show held in the City on its own bottom.
THE CHAIR: In all these Championship classes from $2,000 up, winners classes are added on everything?

MR. RODMAN: On everything. A Show that will give a proper classification for certain breeds that they embody in their premium list, and will also put up their $2,000 guarantee for prize money, is entitled to three points. The Show that will put up $2,500 and obey the rules of the American Kennel Club relative to classifications is entitled to four points, or as the case may be; I may perhaps be a point out of the way – whatever has been stated here. I suggest that this plan would take the matter of winners classes entirely out of the Secretary’s hands.

MR. EMORY: I would like to say a word in favor of the suggestion made by Mr. Viti. Take for instance, our coming Show; winners classes are allowed three points. In our open air Show we will have somewhere in the neighborhood of 300 entries. There may be one winners class, for instance, and a dog would be accorded three points, and it is a false representation, for if that dog appeared in New York or Boston, he might not be anything more than a third prize dog. It is an injustice to the other exhibitors, and I think it would be an injustice to our coming Show in February, 1904, where we can only advertise one point. I want to state that I am in favor of Mr. Viti’s suggestion of having winners points according to the amount of money offered.

MR. MOORE: It seems to me as if Mr. Viti’s suggestion was the fairest one of all.

MR. VITI: My resolution is: RESOLVED, That after August 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1903, the schedule of points to regulate the values of winners classes be as follows: That at Shows giving as least $2,000 prize money in regular classes, the rating shall be one point. At Shows giving at least $2,500 the rating shall be two points. At Shows giving at least $3,000 the rating shall be three points. At Shows giving at least $4,000 the rating shall be four points. At Shows giving at least $5,000 rating shall be five points. That Specialty Clubs holding Shows confined to their own breeds, the rating shall be four points. That upon the Pacific Coast one-half of the amount shall substitute the above amounts of money. That the opening of winners classes at all Shows shall be a matter entirely within the discretion of the Bench Show Committee of said Club, subject of course to the rules governing winners classes. The following resolution is as an amendment to and a substitution for the present standing resolution.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think we should be a little slow about a matter like this. It will affect small Shows very decidedly who cannot pay $2,000. That knocks them entirely out, and I do not think it is our object to limit our Shows. I think the general welfare of the dog is to give as many shows as possible. It will simplify the matter to a great extent to satisfy the majority, but I do not know how it will affect the general exhibiting public, and we ought to know that before we go into this and take the risk of adopting it.

MR. VREDENBURGH: It will be beneficial to the exhibitor.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I cannot see that except those permanent shows that are not able to give that much money are cut out.

MR. VITI: I do not think there can be any better answer to that suggestion than the statement which Mr. Emory has made, who is Secretary of a very important small Show, the Show at Braintree, and yet he has expressed himself as being heartily in favor of this change. As far as having a general discussion does, I think the meeting this afternoon is a very representative gathering of those who are familiar with Dog Show conditions in this country. We have here breeders and exhibitors and those representing Specialty Clubs and Show Clubs. I do not think you could thrash the matter out before a more representative gathering of delegates.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I should like to have the time extended.

MR. VITI: I do not wish to unnecessarily occupy the time, but the reason I suggested, and I merely make this as a suggestion, was so that this would not interfere with the Fall Shows. If we make it later then you will have two classes of ratings during the Autumn. If we make it earlier it may interfere with some Shows that are going to be held during the month of June. I suggested the month of August because it would take effect during a period of the year when no prize lists at all are being issued, and there would be sufficient time to promulgate it throughout the country and have the Secretaries perfectly familiar with it before the Autumn Shows commence.

The motion was carried, Messrs. Muss-Arnolt and Bohlen voting in the negative.

MR. EMORY: The question of possible errors which may be made by Dog Show Committees has been brought up of late rather strongly, and I would like to make this motion: That the Secretary be instructed to print with his Constitution and Rules for Dog Shows every standing resolution which is now in vogue and applicable to a Dog Show in order that in the future no possible error can be made. As I understand it, there are several resolutions which are binding in the government of members of the American Kennel Club which are so far back in the history of the club that the ordinary up-to-date Bench Show Committee is not familiar with it, and possibly errors occur, and in order to prevent any possible errors on the part of the Bench Show Committees, and also relieve our Secretary from possible error on his part, I think if everything is printed it certainly would be advantageous. I would suggest that some of our legal members look into some of the rules of the Club in order to determine their validity.
For instance, the question which was brought up yesterday was a very strong question. I think it best to have our rules looked into a little more thoroughly in order that we might keep out of any possible trouble in the future.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. KEASBEY: I move that the Chair appoint a Committee of not more than five to revise the present Constitution and Rules of the American Kennel Club, said Committee to present said proposed Constitution and Rules at the September meeting of the Club.

MR. RODMAN: I second that motion. A motion has been made here to-day to revise the Constitution and the Rules of the American Kennel Club, and it strikes me that never was a motion made in the American Kennel Club that was more required or really needed. The Rules Committee have been perplexed since I have been the Chairman of it by the absolute inconsistencies that exist in the Rules and in our Constitution. It is almost impossible to us to attempt to give a decision or to lay down a rule or to submit a ruling to the American Kennel Club as to many matters that is not in some way hampered or interfered with by some rule that has been passed at some prior or subsequent time, which is absolutely inconsistent with the rule on which we tried to stand. Any man who will take the Rules of the American Kennel Club to-day and read the same, I guarantee to say that at the end of his perusal of those Rules he will not know where he stands nor where we stand. No greater illustration of the absurdity of our Rules as they exist to-day in part is necessary than the recent trouble we have had with the New England Kennel Club. We attempted to define our position with them, and what has been the result? We have been hampered by Rules that honestly I do not think the party who framed them or the man who suggested them knew what he was talking about, or else if he did, he was misunderstood, and the rule has gotten into print in such form that no man living can interrupt what it means. It seems to me there is a crying need for the resolution which has been offered.

   Motion carried.

   The Chair appointed as such Committee Messrs. Rodman, Carnochan, Vredenburgh, Viti and Bloodgood.

   The Chair gave notice that hereafter all motions must be presented to him in writing.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE SECRETARY: This meeting was called for a special purpose by a letter received from the President of the Club dated July 1st, 1903. This meeting must be confined to the particular business for which the call has been issued. The courtesy of this meeting will be asked in accordance with the resolution adopted at the late Executive Board Meeting, at which a special committee was appointed submit resolutions regarding the death of one of our members.

MR. VITI: Mr. Chairman, I ask that the courtesy of this meeting be extended for the purpose just outlined. We have sustained a great loss since our last meeting, and It was only fitting that proper action should be taken commemorative of it. Personally I had the good fortune to serve with Mr. Charles W. Rodman, Jr., on many committees. In fact I think the Stud Book Committee was the first committee to which he was elected, and I now wish to bear testimony to the aid he constantly rendered; the unselfish and untiring manner in which he invariably performed his duties, to his courtesy and generally to the attraction and admirable qualities which drew so many to him. Much may be said in praise and appreciation of his character and the services he has rendered to us, and in the expression of our loss and sorrow, but the greatest eulogy that could be pronounced finds its strongest utterance in the universal grief keenly felt by each of us.

At the Executive Board Meeting held upon July 1st, 1903 formal announcement was made of the sorrow that has fallen upon us through the death of Mr. Rodman, and the Board appointed Messrs Marcel A. Viti, Chairman, August Belmont, H.H. Hunnewell, H.K. Bloodgood and A.P. Vredenburgh, a committee to present an appropriate minute and resolution to be acted upon by this meeting.

M i n u t e.

The career of Mr. Charles W. Rodman, Jr. in the American Kennel Club was most brilliant and useful. No matter in what position he appeared he always discharged the duties entrusted to him conscientiously, fearlessly and impartially. As a delegate he served the clubs he represented most faithfully; as a member of the various standing committee and as Chairman of the Rules Committee he freely gave the many advantages of his legal training and accomplishments, while as a member of the Executive Board he was constantly in attendance devoting his time and ability to the service of the Association. He probably was best known as a kennel club officer by the Executive Board, as its members who had the good fortune and privilege to sit with him for several years watched him fulfilling his whole duty with unflagging industry and singleness of purpose, and they and each one of them, deeply deploring his loss, gladly avail of the valuable services he has constantly rendered this Association from the time of his election, and to testify that the many admirable and attractive consideration for others and his marked ability made him liked and respected by all.

Resolved:

That through the death of Charles W. Rodman, Jr., the American Kennel Club has sustained a great and distinct loss. The committees a capable and industrious member. The members a valued delegate and the delegates a sincere friend. That his career in this Association is an example for which we all should strive.

That we tender to the members of his family our heartfelt sympathy in their great loss.

And that a copy of this minute and resolution, attested, by the officer, be sent to Mr. Rodman’s family.

Marvel A. Viti, Chairman

The resolutions were seconded by Mr. Carnochan and unanimously carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: This communication from the President has been read calling this meeting, and we are now here to act upon it.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the resolution with reference to the value of the Winners’ Class as passed at the meeting of the American Kennel Club held May 20th, 1903, be rescinded.

MR. VITI: I second that motion.

Motion carried.

MR. CARNOCHAN: It seems advisable that as the matter of the value of Winners’ Classes is regulated by a standing resolution, and liable to be tinkered with at any meeting of the Board of Delegates, while the number of winnings required to make a dog a champion under the rules governing Dog Shows can be changed at the Annual Meeting, some changes should be made at this meeting which may place the entire matter under the rules governing Dog Shows which could only be amended at the Annual Meeting. Almost all of the Clubs that have replied to the call, and I may say that I have in addition received enough to make the number of Clubs wishing to have this Special Meeting some forty-five, seem to be in favor of some change in the matter of champions which would make it harder for a dog to obtain a title than under the present method, but all are in favor of having equal rights on this matter. With this in view I offer the following resolution:-

Resolved: That the Rules Committee be instructed to report the following at the Annual Meeting as an amendment to the Rules.

That each Show be guaranteed one point towards championship. All Shows to be rated on the actual number of dogs entered as follows: 1,000 dogs or over, five points; 750 dogs and under 1,000, four points; 500 dogs and under 750, three points; 250 dogs and under 500, two points; under 250 dogs, one point. On the Pacific Coast, 400 dogs or over, five points; 300 dogs and under 400, four points; 200 dogs and under 300, three points; 100 dogs and under 200, two points; under 100 dogs one point. The total number of points required for a Championship to be 15, by the dog must make one win at a Show whose rating is three points. Specialty Clubs holding shows confirmed to their own breed, four points.

    Motion seconded.

    MR. MORTIMER: That is practically the same as it was before the last resolution was passed.

    MR. CARNOCHAN: They stand on the number of dogs entered. The number of dogs at the Show make the amount of points for the winners’ classes. The main change is that 15 points must be made towards a Championship, and that a dog must win one of those at a Show which will give three points, which makes it considerably more difficult.

    MR. VITI: I seconded the motion to rescind because after the last meeting I conversed with a number of representatives from other Clubs, and I felt that there is no doubt but what the substituted resolution has not received general endorsement and therefore it should be reconsidered; but I desire to point out that if we adjourn without taking any further action in the matter there will be no scoring for Championship wins. The resolution that was passed was an amendment to the other one, which was abrogated. Now it we merely rescind and do nothing further, we have no means of determining how a championship shall qualify, because it does not follow that the old rule comes into life again because the substitute was rescinded. I think it is necessary for us to take some action. That resolution is an instruction, as I understand it, to the Rules Committee to do something which would take effect hereafter, but we must not be without legislation between now and the Annual Meeting.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I looked up that very point in the Gazette. There was nothing in the new rule which changed the old one.

MR. VITI: I must respectfully qualify what Mr. Carnochan has said. It is quite true that there is absolutely nothing in the minutes, but those minutes have not been confirmed and approved. The resolution was offered with the distinct understanding that it was a substitute for the other; there is no question about that at all. I think the safest thing for us to do, for the old method seems to be the popular one, is to offer that as a substitute, but do not leave us handing like Mahommet’s coffin.

MR. CARNOCHAN: It is immaterial to me, but I speak from having read the last minutes. I looked at that point very carefully to see, if the new rule was rescinded whether we would not go back to the old one. What have we to go by except the minutes?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: What have we got out minutes recorded by a stenographer for if we do not get them correctly printed? We go by that, and I think the point as Mr. Viti now suggests is very incorrect in that respect.

THE CHAIRMAN: The minutes are accepted as published in the Gazette.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: But there are sometimes left our whole sentences so as to alter the entire meaning.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that we return to the old method that was in force before the May meeting.

Motion seconded.

At this point Mr. Belmont arrived and took the Chair.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I call for the question on the motion that we return to the old form before the resolution was passed a the May meeting.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Do I understand correctly that we go back to the condition we used to have, so as to stand on the actual entry, and not on its figuring of the previous Show?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes. For instance, if the Westminster Kennel Club has 100 entries to goes back.

MR. HUNNEWELL: According to that, if a man enters a dog, he cannot tell what rating he has until the Show is over?
MR. CARNOCHAN: He is guaranteed one point at every Show.

MR. MOTIMER: As soon as the entries close that point could be determined; the rating could be published in the catalogue.

MR. VITI: That odes not answer the objection that he could not know before the Show; after he enters his dog he cannot cancel his entries and get his money back. The idea was to have a method by which a man before he goes to the Show could know that he was going to win.

MR. MORTIMER: I think that is a very poor method. I think it is a very good idea that every Show shall stand on its own bottom; that the number of points shall be decided by the entry and not by any previous wins. That is embodied, as I understand, in that resolution?

THE CHAIRMAN: Almost all of the Shows have an average rate of entries.

MR. MORTIMER: I think the reason for embodying that in the resolution was, the New England Kennel Club held a show in which they had four points. That Show was held in Boston. They afterwards held a Show at Braintree, at their Club House, where they had 250 entries about. That Show also counted four points according to the previous ruling.
The Show of 250 entries counted as much as the Show of 1200 entries, which they had in Boston, which does not seem right, and then next year when they hold their Show in Boston again they will go back there with the same counting as they got at Braintree; they go back to Boston with one point instead of four, or whatever the rating was.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think, however – of course I have no suggestion to make, not representing any Club – but it would appear to ma, if you wanted something that would entitle for instance a Show to be called first-class, no matter what its number was, after once having established its right to be called first-class, unless it fell for a number of times below a certain standard. For instance, the Westminster Kennel Club has for years averaged a certain number, and so have other of the principal Shows. If some such arrangement were made as this, that if any Show averaged, say three consecutive Shows, above a certain number, that then they shall be considered in the first class until the have fallen below that number for three consecutive Shows, or two consecutive Shows – something of that kind; otherwise they might run the risk of having a first-class Show spoiled. I simply make that suggestion, that you could establish a class that way and they would not forfeit their title unless they had fallen below a certain number of times.

MR. CARNOCHAN: that would not obviate the Summer show difficulty. That would not take care of the case of the Ladies’ Kennel summer show. You would have to have special legislation for the Summer shows and for the Winter shows. This resolution covers it all. A very small show held in the Summer, according to your theory, would have to be rated on the same basis as the first-class show, as the winter show of the big Clubs. It would require special legislation to do it, one show as against the other.

MR. HUNNEWELL: After all, what we want on this question is discussion, and we have all thought over this matter pretty seriously. I agree entirely with what Mr. Mortimer said about every Show standing on its own bottom. I agree with what the president has said about the question of average. The rating of a show changes with 500 dogs. The entries might be 400. It would be a grave temptation to anybody in the show to enter a pet dog to make it up to the 500. It is an entry which would not be made, and at the same time it is an entry that he is perfectly right in making. Still the question of two or three dogs might run the show from one class into another. It seems to me that the amount of money offered by a show to a large extent gives the value of the show in the way of entries, ect., and the question of how big the show is and what its importance is, and all that sort of thing, it seems to me you would act on the same principle, using a money value instead of entries, and then we would arrive at the result better. I state this merely to provoke discussion.

MR. VITI: Why could not the numbers be used up to a certain point and take your values from them?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I do not think it is in our province to have anything to do with the internal affairs of Clubs, and the monetary matters, that is their affair. I don’t think that everybody goes out to win the money. Every one is at liberty to Show for nothing but a ribbon or for the money, as he pleases, and I have seen Shows where that was done that brought about some of the best competitions. I don’t think the Club should meddle in that. Here we have to see how much according to the prize money, and everything else we would have to risk. I think we should leave that to the Clubs. We have to run the risk, but let them have it. Besides, special legislation in regard to Shows is very good, but it is very undemocratic.

MR. HUNNEWELL: May I ask Mr. Muss-Arnolt a question?
Do you consider a ribbon show with the same number of entries equal to a show where money prizes are given?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Not necessarily in toto. I do consider a big show where there is a certain class of dogs of a certain breed entered, just as much in a small show as where there is a big entry.

MR. HUNNEWELL: It is for the little show that we seek protection; the big shows can take care of themselves in either case.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: You are killing the little show.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Do you think a prize winner at a ribbon show should stand on an equal basis with a prize winner at a show where an entrance fee was charged?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Certainly.

MR. HUNNEWELL: What do they compete against?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Dogs; the number of dogs.

Mr. Carnochan motion to return to the old method was carried.

MR. CARNOCHAN: One of the delegates has brought up the point that by rescinding the motion made at the meeting of May 20th we are now left without anything in the way of deciding the value of winners’ classes at shows. I may state that on reading over the minutes of the last meeting I can only say that if the motion passed at the meeting of May 20th is rescinded, we return to the old form. I am told that the minutes are incorrect, and that at the next meeting in September they will have to be amended. Of course, as far as the delegates are concerned, we have to go by the minutes as published in the Gazette. Therefore to avoid any change of bring left without an value for winners’ classes, I move that we return to the same formula as published in the Rules, which is a standing resolution at the present time which was in vogue before the meeting of May 20th, and is as follows: -

“The following scale of points was adopted to regulate the values of winners’ classes at A.K.C. shows. All shows to be rated upon the actual number of dogs entered, not including local classes: 1,250 dogs or over, 5 points; 750 dogs and under 1,250, 4 points; 500 dogs and under 750, 3 points; 250 dogs and under 500, 2 points; under 250 dogs, 1 point.

On the Pacific Coast, 400 dogs or over, 5 points; 250 dogs and under 400, 3 points; under 250 dogs, 1 point.

Specialty Club holding shows not confined to their own breed will be rated as regular shows.
New clubs holding inaugural shows, having no previous record, shall be rated 1 point as a minimum.

No active member of this Association can delegate its right to any other club or person to hold or manage a show in its name.

The Secretary shall publish in the Gazette for December of each year the ratings of shows for the following year.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is either self-acting or no motion will be required. The minutes of a meeting published without confirmation do not necessarily stand. They might be a guide in so far as they can be, but they are subject to correction; they would not be final. In what respect were they not regular?

MR. VREDENBURGH: Simply the statement was made that a new standing resolution was adopted.

MR. CARNOCHAN: But there was nothing said about that standing resolution superceding the one that was in force before.

MR. VITI: I made the motion and I distinctly recollection, because I realized that point had to be covered, I incorporated in my motion that the previous resolution was to be rescinded and amended by the substitution of the present one which has just been rescinded. Therefore I submit there is nothing to govern the rating for championships at present; the minutes have not been acted on in any way.

THE CHAIRMAN: Were not those minutes read at this meeting?

MR. VREDENBURGH: No.

THE CHAIRMAN: They are subject to your approval.

MR. VITI: This is a Special Meeting and the rules say they only the subject matter of the call may be acted upon at the meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN: I have never heard you could not review your action at a former meeting. Of course there might, as in this case, be business coming before this meeting concerning something which was done at the previous meeting and necessarily those minutes would have to be approved. Unless exception were taken to such ruling the Chair would rule that the minutes of the previous meeting should be read and approved, or disapproved or amended in any way which the delegates saw fit. They know what action you took at the last meeting, and certainly it is a part of the business to read the minutes at the special meeting. They are not precluded from acting on the minutes of a previous meeting. They are part of the same subject, and I should, unless exception were taken by the delegates at this meeting, rule that the minutes of the previous meeting be read and acted upon.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The part of the minutes which refers to the subject. I will read Mr. Viti’s resolution as it is published in the Gazette. Mr. Carnochan reads as follows,

“MR. VITI: My resolution is: Resolved, that after August 1, 1903, the schedule of points to regulate the values of winners’ classes be as follows: That at shows giving at least $2,000 prize money in regular classes, the rating shall be one point. At shows giving at least $3,000 the rating shall be three points. At shows giving at least $4,000 the rating shall be four points. At shows giving at least $5,000 the rating shall be five points. That Specialty Clubs holding shows confined to their own breed, the rating shall be four points. That upon the Pacific Coast one-half of the amount shall substitute the above amounts of money. That the opening of winners’ classes at all shows shall be matter entirely within the discretion of the Bench Show Committee of said Clubs, subject of course to the rules governing winners’ classes.” There is nothing said there about rescinding any former or previous resolution.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I call for the stenographic copy of the previous meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not know whether there is a lawyer present who could advise us. So far as my experience has gone that would be a correct ruling.

MR. VITI: It seems to me that the simplest way out of the matter would be to move that the old resolution be re-adopted, or that a substitute be adopted in its place, and then they can raise no such quibble hereafter. If this meeting adopts the old resolution as the action of this meeting, it holds. It seems to me in view of the fact that this resolution which has been unanimously carried and apparently meets with general approval, could be acted upon a this meeting were it not for the fact that the number of points is to be raised from 10 to 15. My suggestion is that we put in effect this resolution that has been passed and make it 10 points with a recommendation that the Rules Committee at the Annual Meeting change it to 15 points. We will then have a change to give it an exhaustive trial from August until February. If at the February meeting we find that it has not worked out as satisfactorily as this meeting thinks it will work out, then it can be changed. Give it a trial until then. I would put that in the form of a motion.

MR. CARNOCHAN: If we do that we will have three different sets of schedules for the value of winners’ classes in six months. We cannot change the number of points required for the winners’ classes until the Annual Meeting.

MR. VREDENBURGH: I think the delegates that have spoken are all laboring under a mistake. They can change the rules at any meeting provided they have been suggested by the Rules Committee and notice given at a previous meeting. It is only the Constitution that cannot be changed except at the Annual Meeting. The rules can be changed at any time provided notice has been given. There is one provision of the Constitution and By-Laws which says so.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Why didn’t that resolution go through the last time?

MR. HUNNEWELL: Mr. Muss-Arnolt made a motion to have the minutes read.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I made a motion, which was seconded, to return to the old form.

THE CHAIRMAN: These minutes are either one way or the other. They must be confirmed or otherwise. I said I would rule that we could proceed to the reading of the minutes, but before doing so let us know exactly what the resolution was in the stenographic report.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I withdraw my motion.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move to amend Mr. Muss-Arnolt’s motion, simply in order to save time, and that is to read the minutes as published in the Gazette, which we always accept.

THE CHAIRMAN: We have the stenographic report here, and the motion of Mr. Muss-Arnolt will be the reading of the minutes, if you accept that amendment, as published in the Kennel Gazette.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: My motion did not mean as printed I mean the stenographic copy.

MR. VREDENBURGH: The President has the stenographic report.

MR. CARNOCHAN: What I think Mr. Arnolt means is this: the minutes as published in the Gazette which were taken from that typewritten report has been objected to by one of the delegates. What Mr. Arnolt wants is the original shorthand minutes, so they can be read in order to see whether the motion was originally made or not.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Only on the point which we are discussing.
THE CHAIRMAN: The motion is that that portion of the stenographic notes be read from which the minutes were published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: If the minutes are read as published, and there is no objection, and when you reach the point where there is objection, take this typewritten report and be sure that the publication is the same as that which the stenographer put in type from his notes, then if you do not accept that, you correct that in any way you see fit and as your memory serves, and what you are willing to accept as your action at the last meeting. That is the way to do. You will then have dispensed with the reading of all the minutes unless you proceed and read them all. Everybody has read them in the Gazette.

The Secretary then read the following from the original minutes.

“MR. VITI: My resolution is: Resolved. That after August 1, 1903, the schedule of points to regulate the values of winners’ classes be as follows: that at shows giving at least $2,000 prize money in regular classes, the rating shall be one point. At shows giving at least $2,500 the rating shall be two points. At shows giving at least $3,000 the rating shall be three points. At shows giving at least $4,000 the rating shall be four points. At shows giving at least $5,000 the rating shall be five points. That specialty clubs holding shows confined to their own breeds, the rating shall be four points. That upon the Pacific Coast one-half of the amount shall substitute the above amounts of money. That the opening of winners’ classes at all shows shall be a matter entirely within the discretion of the Bench Show Committee of said Club, subject of course to the rules governing winners’ classes.

MR. VITI: I said that that was an amendment to and a substitute for the resolution in force. Otherwise my motion would have been a nullity. That motion I made as an amendment to and a substitute for the old method. Otherwise this was useless.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is competent for this meeting to change this portion as it desires by amending it so as to read as their recollection serves them. If that is the case, if the delegates present remember that there was a rescinding clause rescinding the former method, if that rescinding clause was offered and was not published and ought to be a part of the minutes of the former meeting, you can do so now.

    MR. CARNOCHAN: Why would it not be better, as the American Kennel Gazette does far and wide, and we do no want to publish our errors from time to time, to let this thing stand?

    THE CHAIRMAN: An error is an error. You cannot do this.

    MR. CARNOCHAN: Why can’t we? The motion passed there does not go into effect until the first of January, - the New one that has just been passed, until the Annual Meeting, the first of February. Anything that the delegates care to do is agreeable to me.

    MR. VITI: It is purely a clerical error. It was my motion and it was not fully taken down, and there are delegates present here to-day who were not present then, and it is impossible for them to say what I did say or what I did not say, but I have a positive recollection on the subject that my motion was not copied in full, and I think that the American Kennel Club should have that error corrected.
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I was present and I remember that Mr. Viti did state that.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I was present and I have the same recollection.

MR. VITI: I move that the minutes be amended by adding the part that was omitted by the stenographer, to-wit: the foregoing resolution is an amendment to and a substitute for the resolution now affecting winners' classes.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. BOHLEN: I would like also to have the minutes amended in this respect, that I voted against the resolution at the last meeting and I am not so recorded.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that Mr. Bohlen's name be substituted for Mr. Watson's who was not present, so voting in the negative.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move to have that motion taken up which I withdrew some time ago.

THE CHAIRMAN: Now you should vote on the minutes as published in the Gazette and as now amended. A motion will be in order to approve these minutes as published in the Gazette. That is the customary method, with these amendments that have now been offered.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Does this action which is taken now obviate the rescinding of the last motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: You have to go back now and simply repass this, if you want to, and any other business. Are you ready for the question on the adoption of the minute as published in the Gazette as we have amended them to-day?

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to know how long those minutes are in force. Are they in force up to the February meeting?

THE CHAIRMAN: They would have been acted upon the first meeting following.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I do not think the delegates realize that it is simply the minutes we are now acting upon.

MR. MORTIMER: I understand that, but we have rescinded a resolution.

MR. HUNNEWELL: That has absolutely nothing to do with the adoption of these minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: That has nothing whatever to do with it. It is simply the confirmation, as to whether these are correct and become a part of the records of the Kennel Club.

The motion on the adoption of the minutes as published in the Gazette as amended was then put and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: If there is no objection they will come in as a part of these minutes; if there is objection raised then they would have to be passed again. If there is no objection they will come into the minutes subsequent to this action.

MR. HUNNEWELL: If you are going to bring that action in, you will bring in the original motion made by Mr. Carnochan that the action at that meeting be rescinded.

THE CHAIRMAN: That also, if there is no objection, will become a part of these minutes subsequent to the action you have just taken.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The motion to return to the original form has not been passed.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes; I understand now that what has been passed before I came in was the rescinding of the amended action here?

MR. CARNOCHAN: That is right.

THE CHAIRMAN: This resolution therefore by common consent becomes subsequent to that and is now in force; therefore to return to something that no longer exists would be impossible, and your motion would not be in order.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: What is it in the meantime?

THE CHAIRMAN: It does not exist any more.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Which does not?

THE CHAIRMAN: you proposed to return to what had been rescinded by this motion, and this has been passed.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I am afraid we differ. If I make myself clear – possibly I am entirely wrong, and if I am I hope you will correct me, the amendment to the minutes which we have just made, taking Mr. Viti’s wording, now leaves us in the position of having no value for winners’ classes. Therefore it is not a question of having no values for winners’ classes, and therefore I call up the resolution which I withdraw some time ago in order to allow the minutes to be amended.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is moved by Mr. Carnochan that the American Kennel Club return to the standing resolution in existence before May 20th, 1903.

MR. VITI: I had made a motion that I think the stenographer will find on his minutes, that we consider the advisability of putting this in effect now, and not waiting until February; put it in effect at 10 points and make it 15 points afterwards.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is conscious of the fact that another motion was suggested. That is, with regard to Mr. Carnochan, we have to consider Mr. Viti’s amendment.

MR. VITI: I will move this as an amendment. I want to get an expression of opinion from the delegates here. We have a very representative meeting here today, something that we do not always have, and I for one would like to know how the delegates individually feel about adopting this motion now. I move it as an amendment.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I do not accept the amendment.

MR. VITI: May it please the Chairman, the vote is first on the amendment. That is an instruction to the Rules Committee as to something they are to do in February. Now I make that some motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: I cannot recognize you on this. You will have to make it as a separate matter, a separate resolution.

MR. HUNNEWELL: The motion that was passed is not the motion that Mr. Viti is making.

MR. VITI: If the Chair does not think this is germane to Mr. Carnochan’s motion, I have nothing further to say.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Rules Committee has been instructed to report this at the Annual Meeting and that has been passed. Now, Mr. Carnochan offers a resolution to go back to the standing resolution as to the scale of points. Now
Mr. Viti wants to have this take effect now.

MR. CARNOCHAN: If it could be taken into effect now I would only be too delighted, but part of that, the part increasing the number of points, can only be amended at a meeting where notice has been given at a previous meeting. If we adopt the amendment as suggested by Mr. Viti, we have one scale we have been working on now, and after this meeting we will have another scale, and after the Annual Meeting we will have a third scale. I do not think we should change the scale of value of our winners' classes so fast.

MR. TAYLOR: I believe there was a motion to return to the old form which called for 10 points. If I am correct, there have been 26 shows held, and there are six more to be held for the year, which would complete it. I think it would be wise to return to the 10 points until the Annual Meeting to make the year complete, and then take in Mr. Carnochan's substitute, and not substitute 15 points now until the first of January.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. Viti has a right to offer an amendment to your motion if he chooses and it is consented to.

MR. HUNNEWELL: Mr. Viti’s amendment does not mention that. It mentions not to change from 10 to 15 because it is unconstitutional.

MR. VITI: My amendment is to keep it at 10.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I do not accept it for the decline to accept the amendment. I do not accept it for the reason that I think we should not have three different scales for value of winners’ classes in six months.

MR. HUNNEWELL: How is it going to change when the schedule of points does not change?

MR. CARNOCHAN: I say it is going to change. It is going to change it in this way: there will be a change where a dog has to win his points at a show that must give a rating of three points. There is one change.

MR. HUNNEWELL: You said your change was simply in the number of points.

MR. CARNOCHAN: In addition to that there is a change from clubs counting their Summer shows on the same rating as their Winter shows. That is another change.

DR. FOOTE: I want to have one word on this subject. I do not agree with Mr. Viti’s amendment, for I think the first and most important thing is to present this new ruling to the exhibitors at large. We have for years been switching around from one ruling to another as regards championships, and they have never been satisfactory. We kept altering the rule, and everything we did we found there was something wrong with it. Before we adopt any new rule – while at the last meeting we thought we were improving the old plan, nevertheless it has been sat down upon hard by the exhibitors, and we are called here to rescind that action in May and to provide something better. Now then, let us go back to the old plan. Let the new plan be thoroughly published and argued out in the Kennel press and among the exhibitors generally before we take any action on it. I positively oppose Mr. Viti’s amendment.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I agree thoroughly with what Dr. Foote has said. I think it is a very strong argument, because the new rules, as made in my motion, should have the widest ventilation and every one should receive them before they go into effect.

MR. VITI: In view of what Dr. Foote has said I am inclined to alter my views on the subject, and I withdraw my amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: Then I will put the question on the original motion. Original motion put and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read the Membership Committee’s report as follows:

New York, September 3, 1903

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day, the following credentials were duly approved and their acceptance hereby recommended.

Fanciers’ Association of Indiana appointing R.E. Jones.
St. Louis Collie Club appointing Daniel Buckley.
Haverhill Kennel Club appointing M.A. Knipe
Bulldog Club of America appointing W.C. Codman
Rhode Island Kennel Club appointing William Codman
Byrn Mawr Kennel Club appointing J.A. Caldwell, Jr.

Your committee begs to report that it approved the applications for admission to membership of the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club and the Frederick County Agricultural Society on August 8th, 1903, said applications to be submitted to the Executive Board for a mail vote.

Respectfully submitted,
(Chairman) G.M. Carnochan
       S. Van Schiack
       R.H. Williams

The following named gentleman were elected as delegates from the following named Clubs:

Haverhill Kennel Club, M.A. Knipe
Fanciers’ Association of Indiana, R.E. Jones
St. Louis Collie Club, Daniel Buckley

Bulldog Club of America, W.C. Codman
Rhode Island Kennel Club, William Codman
Bryn Mawr Kennel Club, J.A. Caldwell, Jr.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

New York, September 3, 1903

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since the last quarterly meeting applications for membership were filed by the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club and the Frederick County Agricultural Society. The same having been duly approved by the Membership Committee, said applications were submitted to the Executive Board for a mail vote, which resulted in their unanimous election.

Credentials were received from nine Clubs, three of which came to hand too late to be acted upon at this meeting. Six were filed within the time required by the constitution and were referred to the Membership Committee, which will report at this meeting. Twenty-one applications for the registration of kennel names and one transfer have been received and referred to the Stud Book Committee, which will report at this meeting.

A bill for disbursements from March 10th to August 21st, $9.75, has been rendered by the Pacific Advisory Committee, and a resolution to pay same is hereby recommended. The Bay State Kennel Club, having been incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts as the Bay State Co-Operative Bench Show Association, you are requested to change the title of said Club to its cooperative title. I would recommend that the request be granted.

I have to report that Mr. Sidney Loog, of Philadelphia, Pa., competed at the late Wissahickon Show with his Great Dane, "Nana Sahib" in the puppy class, and although his dog was entered in the novice class at said show, and was present at the show at the time said novice class was judged, the owner declined to permit his dog to compete in said novice class. In accordance with Rule XV. I levied a fine of $2.00 and sent a bill for same to the owner of said dog, the receipt of which he acknowledged, and he also volunteered the information that at the time he withdrew his dog from competition he was fully aware of the fact that he was violating a rule of the American Kennel Club. Said Loog was notified on June 29th last of the fine imposed against him, and has failed to liquidate it. I would therefore recommend his disqualification.

At the meeting of the Executive Board held July 1st last, in the charges preferred by P.C. Garrigan against H.W. Simpson, Dorchester, Mass., said Simpson was ordered to pay $30.00 to said Garrigan on or before August 1st, 1903. This order he has failed to comply with, and I have therefore disqualified said H.W. Simpson in accordance with the direction of the Executive Board.

The action of the Boston Terrier Club in specifying weights of Boston terriers in the novice class, which was declared out of order at the May meeting, has been explained by said Club that it was not its intention to submit any new rule, and that the division of weight above referred to was simply for the guidance of its own organization, and that there was no intention on the part of the Boston Terrier Club to dictate to the American Kennel Club.

Mrs. T. Earle Shreve, Burlington, N.J., requests the American Kennel Club to rescind its former action relating to the English toy spaniel, and requests that the nomenclature be designated under the name of King Charles, Prince Charles, Blenheim, and Ruby spaniels.

I ah veto report the following charges: H.G. Burns vs. Rochester Kennel Club. Charge: Said Burn is unable to obtain from the Rochester Kennel Club the prize awarded to his collie, “White Nancy”. Ernest E. Betts vs. Chicago Kennel Club. Charge: That said Chicago Kennel Club refuses to pay a special prize of $25.00 won by said Betts, and offered by W.C. Titcomb the Chicago Kennel Club.

There being vacancies on two of our standing committee, namely, Chairman of Constitution and Rules Committee, and Member of the Stud Book Committee, occasioned by the death of our late member, Charles W. Rodman, Jr., you are requested to fill said vacancies at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh

Secretary

On motion, said report was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his report as follows:

New York, Sept. 3, 1903

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report.

Balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1903 $12,556.46
Receipts from Jan. 1st, to date 10,715.10
Total $23,271.56
Disbursements from Jan. 1st, to date, 10,577.65
Balance on hand $12,693.91

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,

Treasurer
On motion said report was accepted and placed on file.

On motion of Mr. Knipe, the reading of the report of the Executive Committee was dispensed with, and the same was accepted as published in the July Gazette.

The Secretary: The next in order is the report of the special committee on Revision.

Mr. Viti: I should state that the committee have been unable to conclude the work entrusted to it, which was rather voluminous, and we had the misfortune to lose one of our prominent members. We report progress and ask to be continued to report at the next meeting.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I move that the report of the committee be accepted and the committee continued.

Motion seconded and carried.

Under the head of general business Mr. Viti nominated Mr. W.B. Emory as Chairman of the Rules Committee, made vacant by the death of Mr. Charles W. Rodman, Jr.

Mr. Appleton: I second the nomination.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I nominate Mr. G.W. Carnochan as Chairman of the Rules Committee.

Mr. Carnochan: I think Mr. Emory is a very excellent man for our Executive Board, and I feel this way about it: If the meeting wishes me to take the Chairmanship of the Rules Committee in preference to the Chairmanship of the Membership Committee, I will be very glad to obey. I desire to do whatever is agreeable to the delegates. In that case I would resign the Chairmanship of the Membership Committee and would take great pleasure in nominating Mr. Emory as Chairman of that committee. Whatever the delegates desire, it is all the same to me, my idea always being to work for the best interests of the club.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I think the Rules Committee is such an important committee, especially at the present time, that it is our duty to elect one who can be and is always present at the work of such committee.

Mr. Emory: I second Mr. Carnochan's nomination.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I don't think it is proper to slight such an important matter. Our rules are in such a state that they need considerable overhauling, and they should be made so plain that everybody can understand them.

Mr. Viti: I think it will save trouble hereafter, but I call your attention to the constitution, which makes Mr. Carnochan ineligible for nomination, because the rules say that a person can only be Chairman of one committee. Mr. Carnochan today is the Chairman of the Membership Committee. Therefore he is ineligible to be nominated for the other office until he has resigned the Chairmanship of the Membership Committee.

Mr. Carnochan: As I said before, whatever the meeting decides, it is immaterial to me.

The Chairman: If the constitution is as Mr. Viti suggests, you are not eligible.

Mr. Carnochan: If it is desirable I will resign as Chairman of the Membership Committee.

Mr. Viti: I move that the procedure be suspended in order that we may act upon Mr. Carnochan’s resignation as Chairman of the Membership Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Viti: I move that the resignation of Mr. G.M. Carnochan as Chairman of the Membership Committee be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: Now I again nominate Mr. G.M. Carnochan as Chairman of the Rules Committee.

Nomination seconded.

Mr. Viti: I nominate Mr. Emory as Chairman of the Membership Committee.

Mr. Carnochan was then elected as Chairman of the Rules Committee, and Mr. Emory was elected as Chairman of the Membership Committee.

Mr. Viti: I nominate Mr. Singleton Van Schaick as a member of the Stub Book Committee.
  Nomination seconded.
  Mr. Singleton Van Schaick was then elected as a member of the Stud Book Committee.

  The Secretary: There is still a vacancy in the Rules Committee.
  Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I am not prepared to make a nomination. As I said before, this is a matter which we have been working on for year, and our rules are in such a state that we require a very good, practical dog man familiar with such things.
  Mr. Carnochan: I nominate Mr. Muss-Arnolt as a member of the Rules Committee.
  Mr. Viti: I seconded the nomination.
  Mr. Muss-Arnolt was then elected as a member of the Rules Committee.

  On motion, the Secretary was authorized to pay the bill of $9.75 rendered by the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements.

  The Secretary: The Bay State Kennel Club has been incorporated under the name of “The Bay State Co-Operative Bench Show Association,” and they desire to have their title changed on our books to their cooperation title.
  Mr. Viti: I move their request be granted.
Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: At the Wissahickon Show a man by the name of Loog, of Philadelphia, entered a Great Dane in two classes, the puppy and novice classes. He competed in the puppy class, and he says in his communication that he considered the Judge of that class a dishonest man and he declined to compete in the novice class. I notified him of the rule and sent him a bill for $2.00 fine, which he stated to me in a communication dated June 26th, if we insisted upon its payment he would pay it, but at the same time he did not withdraw his right, when he procured certain affidavits, to prefer charges against the judge for dishonest practices. I replied to him under date of June 29th. He has declined to pay his fine. I recommend, under those circumstances, that he be disqualified.

Mr. Carnochan: I move that the be given 30 days time in which to pay said fine, a the end of which time, if said fine has not been paid, he be disqualified.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I think that is showing too much leniency. In view of the manner in which he has acted, I do not think he should be given any consideration.

Mr. Carnochan: we have always given 30 days in a case like this.

Mr. Viti: I do no think we have had a case like
Mr. Carnochan: I do not mean exactly similar cases, but in cases of fines that course has been pursued.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: Mr. H.G. Burns prefers charges against the Rochester Kennel Club for refusing to pay a prize awarded to his dog at its late show. That matter can only be tried by the Executive Board. I simply report it. The Chicago Kennel Club offered for W.C. Titcomb a prize of $25.00, which was awarded to a dog belonging to Ernest E. Betts. They acknowledged that they advertised that prize, but as Mr. Titcomb had not made good his donation, of course they could not pay it.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: They are responsible under our rules.

The Secretary: Yes, and that will be referred to the Executive Board under the rules.

The Secretary: The next business in order is this appeal of Mrs. T. Earle Shreve.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I move it be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

The Secretary: The Stud Book Committee has already had the matter under advisement for several months, and they determined to make them all English toy spaniels divided by Mr. Viti: The committee took the matter up and went into it as great length, and its intent was that if Mrs. Shreve or anyone else has a Blenheim, they can register it as such, but the overwhelming majority of breeders freely admit that they interbreed the different breeds in order to make what to-day is a new breed, the English toy spaniel, but there is nothing to prevent them registering pure bred toy spaniels and King Charles as such. It is only those that are mixed that cannot be registered as pure bred, and I think this is right.

The Secretary: Within a week after the reception of this letter from Mrs. Shreve, I received two applications for registration of two separate and distinct breeds, one a Ruby and the other a Blenheim, and they were both from the same litter and by the same father and mother.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: Wouldn’t it be good policy, in reply to that letter, to send her the statement of Mr. Viti.

Mr. Viti: Send her a copy of the minutes.

The Secretary: The Secretary has never understood the case as Mr. Viti has just started. We have supposed, in carrying our the order of the Kennel Club taking effect January 1st, that all of the English toy spaniels were to be registered under the name of and known as English toy spaniels, and all classification at the different shows have been stated to be the English toy spaniels but subdivided by different colors. In case a pure bred so-called Blenheim should come here fore registration, under my interpretation of the resolution I should register that dog as an English toy spaniel, because this office has considered since January 1st that there is no such breed known officially as the King Charles, Prince Charles, Blenheim and Ruby.

Mr. Viti: No; I understand we have a new bred on our books, namely, the English toy spaniel. We also have the old breed on our books, and if there are any living specimens of pure bred Blenheims, they may be registered as such. I understood the action of this Club to be merely the creation of a new breed of interbred dogs like cross-bred setter. There are, from the evidence that was submitted to the committee, very few pure bred Blenheim or King Charles or Prince Charles or Rubys.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I think we fully understood, all of us, that it was an absolute change, that those spaniels were only known as English toy spaniels by various colors.

Mr. Viti: We were never asked to consider the pure bred ones, and consequently we were not legislating on something we were not considering. They stood as they existed before. I think it only applies to the new breed of dog, the English toy spaniel changed into a breed, but technically it is not such.

The Secretary: I never understood it so. I may be wrong, but for the sake of the argument suppose that was the intention. Suppose that Mr. Viti is correct, I would like to know how this office can determine what is a thoroughbred and what is not. For instance, an application might be received in which none of the ancestors had been registered, and it would therefore be impossible to determine whether this dog was pure bred or not, and in that case we might register a pure bred King Charles as an English toy spaniel, or vice versa, we might register an English toy spaniel as a King Charles spaniel. There is no way for us to determine that, and there is no question in my mind but that it was the intention to strike from our books entirely the King Charles, Prince Charles, Ruby and Blenheim names, and in their places make it generally the English toy spaniel.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: That is certainly the full comprehensive of it, and I do not see how the other can come in after we have allowed the Club to use the names.

Mr. Carnochan: I call for the report of the Stud Book Committee on this subject.

The Secretary then read the following report which was submitted at the December meeting:
"In the matter of the distinction of toy spaniels by varieties of breeds, your committee has carefully considered all correspondence submitted to them; have informed themselves, but examination of the witnesses, as to the conditions governing the breeding of the varieties, and from the overwhelming proof of the evidence, they are forced to conclude that at present the different specimens are not produced through unbroken pedigrees of the same variety of ancestors, and they therefore recommend that King Charles, Prince Charles, Blenheim and Ruby spaniels be registered on and after January 1, 1903, as Toy Spaniels of black and tan, tri-colored, orange and white, and red toy spaniel varieties."

The Secretary then read the adoption of the amended report of the Stud Book Committee, which is as follows:

"The Chairman: The motion before the house now is Mr. Mortimer’s motion, that the word “English” be prefixed to the words “toy spaniels” in the Stud Book Committee’s report. The recommendation of the Stud Book Committee will then read as follows:

‘And they therefore recommend that King Charles, Prince Charles, Blenheim and Ruby Spaniels be registered on and after January 1, 1903, as English Toy Spaniels of black and tan, tri-colored, orange and white, and red toy spaniel varieties’.

Mr. Viti: I am equally positive that it was the intention of the Stud Book Committee, although it does not so appear, that only the interbred specimens should be registered as English toy spaniels, and that if anyone was fortunate enough to own a pure bred specimen and could prove that it was pure bred, the name was still retained for that purpose, and that a new breed was created just the same as cross-bred setters. We have cross-bred setters to-day. We have black and tans or Irish and English setter, and because we have cross-breds it does not mean that all setters should be registered as such. We created a new breed to meet a demand for interbred dogs, but it was not the intention of the Stud Book Committee to wipe out the old breed. If anyone owned a specimen of that sort he was entitled to have it continued as such.

Mr. Carnochan: that would bring up again the matter of having special classes for them. I think, if the Stud Book Committee feels this way, their views should have some weight in this matter, and I therefore move to refer the communication of Mrs. Shreve to the Stud Book Committee for action.

Motion seconded and carried.
The Secretary: I have here the report of the Stud Book Committee. The following applications for registration of kennel names have been approved.

Respectfully submitted
M.A. Viti
Chairman

On motion said report was accepted and placed on file, and the applications for registration of kennel names and transfers granted.

The Secretary:  I have nothing further to bring before this meeting in the way of routine, but I would like to state that Mr. Day, who has been with the American Kennel Club for sixteen years, is to be married the first of the coming month, and I simply notify you of the fact so that if you feel that his services here should be recognized by a testimonial or present form the Club, it is in your hands to do so.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt:  I move that the Club donates him a month’s salary.

Mr. Viti:  I second the motion.

Carried.

Mr. Carnochan:  I offer the following resolution:   That a dog can be shown in a class headed “any other terrier”, or “all other terriers”, or an miscellaneous class.
Mr. Viti: I move that the matter be referred to the Rules Committee, to give a definition of miscellaneous classes.

Motion seconded and carried.

Meeting then adjourned.

Samuel R. Cutler, to represent the Bay State Co-Operative Association.
J. Roger McSherry, to represent the Frederick County Agricultural Society.

On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with and accepted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, Dec. 15, 1903

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

I beg to report the receipt of three applications for Active Membership. Sept. 25th COLLIE BREEDERS’ ASSOCIATION. Dec. 4th. TOLEDO FANCIERS’ ASSOCIATION. Dec. 14th. JERSEY CITY KENNEL CLUB. The application of the COLLIE BREEDERS’ ASSOCIATION was presented to the Executive Board at its meeting the 3rd instant, and by it referred back to the Membership Committee, in order to obtain the views of the Collie Club of America. I will present a letter from the Sec'y of the Collie Club of America, also a protest filed by D.E. Gardner, against the admission of said Club. The application of the Jersey City Club, arrived too late to be acted upon at this meeting, and will therefore have to be laid over until the annual meeting in Feb. next. The application of the Toledo Fanciers’ Association is in order.

The following credentials have been filed:
August 22nd, from the Chicago K.C.; appointing E.S. Woodward
August 26th, from the Sharon K.C. appointing F.H. Hoyt.
Nov. 10th, from the Atlantic City K.C. appointing J. Sergeant Price, Jr.
Nov. 14th, from Bay State Co-Operative Assn. appointing Samuel R. Cutler.
Nov. 26th, from Frederick Co. Agl. Society, appointing J. Roger McSherry.

I beg to report that under date of Dec. 1st, charges for misconduct were preferred by T.M. Poole, against J.D. Holt, of Tamaqua, Pa. On Dec. 1st, a memorial to this Club having seventeen signatures thereto was presented requesting to restoration of the original name, namely, Blenheim, King Charles, Ruby, and Tri-Colored, in place of the present nomenclature “The English Toy Spaniel”.

Under date of Dec. 3rd, credentials were filed by the Rochester K.C. appointing H.H. Kingston, Jr., as its delegate in place of W.J. Gram, although said credentials were not received in time, to be voted upon at this meeting, yet the same having been contested by the present delegate will be present at this meeting, to state their cases, and I have promised them that their arguments will be heard.

The Brunswick Fur Club made a deposit with claim for dates for a show of hounds under our rules, the day preceding their annual trials. Through an error of its Secretary, the wrong rules were published and finding that the owners of hounds not being sufficiently posted in the Bench Show feature, failed to support same by their entries. I was duly notified that the Bench Show had been abandoned. To-day I received a request from the delegate of said club for the return of their deposit, and will present said request at this meeting for your consideration.

The following applications have been filed for the registration of kennel names:
Sandstone  H.H. Swift
Acme        W. Wallace
Bonnie View T.A. Meyers
Brookcroft  C.E. Brown
Filston      G.W. Swartwout
Gladwood    Dr. C. Green
Glenvale    W.D. Glenn
Multnomah  F.B. Fechheimer

Also an application for the transfer of the registered name EXMOOR, from T.F. Jager & E.A. Weimer, to E.A. Weimer.

In conclusion I beg to report that on Nov. 30th, I mailed bills for Active dues, Associate dues, and Advertising account.

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Reports of meeting of the Executive Board were read as follows:

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD
HELD DEC. 3rd, 1903

Present: H.K. Bloodgood, M.A. Viti, W.G. Rockefeller, J.W. Appleton, G.M. Carnochan, W.B. Emery
Absent: August Belmont, H.H. Hunnewell

H.K. Bloodgood is the Chair.

The Secretary presented the following report:

To the Executive Board of the A.K.C.

Gentlemen:

At the Sept. meeting of the
A.K.C. I reported charges against the Rochester Kennel Club by H.G. Burns for non-payment of prizes, since that time the Rochester Kennel Club has satisfied the said claim. Also charges against Chicago Kennel Club by E.E. Betts, for non-payment of a special prize of $25.00, which said Bette claimed. The Chicago K.C. disputes the claim, and has deposited the $25.00 with this club subject to its decision in the matter. At the adjourned meeting of this Board held July 1st, 1903, the Rhode Island K.C., New Jersey K.C., Twin City K.C. and Chicago K.C. appealed from the decision rendered by this Board on April 22nd, 1903, imposing a penalty of $25.00 against each of the said Clubs for holding their Shows under the wrong Rules. The Board confirmed its former action and dismissed the appeal. Thereupon the Chicago K.C. promptly paid its fine. The other three Clubs above mentioned, having failed to obey the orders of this Board I respectfully ask instructions on the premises. At the same meeting your Sec’y was directed to investigate certain charges or statements made by J.M. Taylor, at a meeting of this Board, to the effect that the Chicago Show of 1903 accepted entries through Geo. W. Clayton from Geo. S. Thomas, B.F. Lewis, and others, subsequent to the date of the closing of the entries, and said J.M. Taylor was directed to prove his statement. Your Sec’y has made the investigation he was directed to do and now begs to report that Mr. Taylor has so far failed to produce any statement or evidence in support of his allegation. At a meeting of this Board held April 22nd, 1903, on charges preferred against Mrs. F. Senn, by Mrs. E.E. Bedford, for misrepresentations made in connection with the sale of an Eng. Toy Spaniel, Mrs. Senn was directed to make good her guarantee of refund the purchase price. The matter has been settled by the payment to the purchaser of the amount originally paid to her. At the adjourned meeting of this Board held May 19, 1903, a fine of $60.00 was imposed on the Colorado Kennel Club, for accepting 12 puppy entries at its show of 1903, all in direct violation of the rules. I beg to report that said Club has failed to pay said fine, and I therefore ask for instructions in the premises.

At the Meeting of the A.K.C. held Sept. 4, 1903, Mr. Sidney Loog, was fined $2.00 for refusing to show a dog at the late Wissahickon Show, that was entered and was present at said Show. He was given 30 days to pay said fine in default of which he was to be disqualified. I now beg to report that he paid the fine within the time granted.

The Rochester Kennel Club was fined $30.00 for accepting six puppy entries at its Show of 1903, all of which were in direct violation of the Rules, and now requests that said fine may be remitted.
I beg to report the following new cases:

Sept. 25, 1903. Tom B. Middlebrooke questions the ownership of the Collies Hanover Fascination, Hanover Fortuna, and Hanover Victoire, shown at the late Braintree and Medford Show. They were shown in the name of Mrs. J.M. Copeland, and said Middlebrooke alleges that at the time of said Shows, said dogs were the property of R.A. Murray.

Sept. 28, 1903 S. Boyd Carrigan prefers charges against Sidney Loog for assailing his honesty as a Judge and his reputation as such while in the discharge of his duty as a Judge at the late Wissahickon Show.

Oct. 9, 1903 S.H. Westcott prefers charges against W.J. Gram, late Sec'y of the Rochester K.C. and the present Delegate, from said Club to the A.K.C. for selling him a dog and giving said dog a false pedigree.

Oct. 17, 1903 The Collie Breeders' Association prefers charges against D.E. Gardner for selling a dog, giving false pedigree to said dog.

The following Clubs have filed applications for admission to membership, and said applications have been

I also report that I have handed over to the Stud Book Committee, applications for the registrations of Kennel Names, and said Committee will report on same at this meeting.

I beg to request an additional appropriation of $120 per annum to be applied to salary account.

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary.

The different matters referred to in the above report were taken up and acted upon.
Ordered, That the New Jersey Kennel Club, Rhode Island Kennel Club, and Twin City Kennel Club, be and hereby are given 30 days within Which to pay the fine of $25.00 imposed against each Club, in Default of which said Clubs will be suspended.
Ordered, That the Colorado Kennel Club, be and hereby is given 30 days Within which to pay the fine of $60.00 in default of which said Club To be suspended.
Ordered, That the Rochester Kennel Club, be and hereby is given 30 days to Pay the fine of $30.00 in default.
of which said Club to be suspended.

Ordered, That J.M. Taylor having failed to obey the orders of this Board that the Sec'y be and hereby is instructed to advise said Taylor that he is given 30 days within which to comply with the original order, in default of which, action will be taken in reference to his non-compliance with said order. The Sec'y was granted an additional appropriation of $120 per year to be applied to the salary account E.H. Morris filed an appeal for re-instatement.

Resolved, That said appeal cannot be considered unless based on an apology to this body, and accompanied by apologies to the Show giving Club, and the Judge concerned.

Collie Breeders' Assn.

Vs.

D.E. Gardner.

The evidence submitted by both parties in this action was very voluminous and as considered with great care and attention. The Board was satisfied that the pedigree of the Collie Ravenswood Plato, registered No. 69896, is incorrect, but in its opinion no proof of intentional fraud had been produced. It was therefore, ORDERED, that said case be and hereby is dismissed, and that the registration of said dog be cancelled.
The following Clubs were duly elected to active Membership:
Franklin-Oil City Kennel Club, and the Newport Dog Show.
The application of the Collie Breeders’ Association was referred back to the Membership Committee, with the suggestion that said Committee should obtain the opinion of the Collie Club of America, before the application could be passed upon by the A.K.C.

Upon the recommendation of the Stud Book Committee the following applications for Kennel Names, were granted: Bethesda, to Mrs. H.M. Jones; Bijou, to Frank L. Warner; Carlston, to Mr. & Mrs. August Ulm; Crestwood, to Frank L. Sternberg; Donibristle, to W.R. Howell, M. McClau & Howard Seaver; Edgemont, W.O Hoppe; Edgevale, to J. Harding; Greystone, to S. Untermeyer; Kentco, to A.C. Bateman; Lthgow, to C.G. Gilmour; Midland, to G.R. Obermann; Mt. Pleasant, to D.C. Sands, Jr.; Placentia, to Mrs. G.A. Freeeman; Springhill, to T.W. Turner; Sylvan, to L.G. Porter & L.J. Benson; Thackeray, to Mrs. C.H. Young; Three Oaks, to T.J. Griffin; Wyomissing, to W. Steffey & G.W. Seifrit; Brandywine, transferred from Mr. & Mrs. R.F. Perkins, to R.F. Perkins & J. Copeland, Jr.
The following applications were laid over until the next meeting in order to obtain the approval of an absent member of the Committee:

Bonnie View, Glenvale, and the transfer of Exmoor.

On motion the Board adjourned to meet on Dec. 15th, at 2 P.M.

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

ADJOURNED MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD
HELD DEC. 15TH, 1903
Present:  H.H. Hunnewell, H.K. Bloodgood, M.A. Viti, G.M. Carnochan, W.G. Rockefeller, W.B. Emery.
Absent:   A. Belmont, J.W. Appleton.

H.K. Bloodgood in the Chair, followed by H.H. Hunnewell.

The following cases were presented and disposed of.

S.H. Westcott
Vs.  Re misconduct in connection with dogs.
W.J. Gram  In the above cases Gram sold a Boston Terrier to the plaintiff furnishing the said dog a pedigree, and stating that the dog had been bred by him. The purchaser having made inquiries as to the correct pedigree of said dog and being informed that the dog had no pedigree, preferred the above charges for misconduct. Late on the defendant acknowledged he had made a mistake and took the dog back. In his defense however he furnished the A.K.C. with a memorandum upon which he based his claim that the original pedigree was correct. The documentary evidence furnished by both sides was very full and voluminous and received careful consideration which resulted in the following finding:

Whereas, from the evidence in this case the Board is of the opinion that the dog sold by the defendant was given an improper pedigree, and was deliberately misrepresented by him and therefore it is Ordered, that W.J. Gram be and hereby is disqualified.

---------

E.E. Betts

Re claim for unpaid special prize.

Chicago K.C. In this case it is claimed that a special for $25.00 was wrongfully withheld from the winner. The Committee of the Chicago K.C. giving as a reason for the withholding of said prize, that the Judge failed to call the competing dogs in the ring, and did judge said special from his judging books in the regular classes. The Chicago K.C. however deposited with the A.K.C. a check for $245.00 to be disbursed according to its decision.

The charges were dismissed in as much as the Chicago K.C. had withheld the prize, subject to the decision of the A.K.C. It was therefore

Resolved,  That according to the rules, the Judge’s award is final, and there being no breach of the rules alleged it is Ordered,  That the claim of Betts for the special in question shall be paid to Him.

--------

T.B. Middlebrooke

vs.  Re misconduct in connection with shows.

R.A. Murray  Middlebrooke made the statement that certain Collies shown at the late Braintree and Medford, shows in the name of Mrs. J.M. Copeland, were the property of R.A. Murray. A written statement from both Murray and Copeland contradicted that made by Middlebrooke. The case was dismissed for the reason that the statement of said Middlebrooke had not been substantiated.

--------

S. Boyd Carrigan

vs.  Re misconduct in connection with dog shows.

Sidney Loog  The plaintiff in this action judged Gt. Danes a the late Wissahickon Show, and was accused by
The defendant as being a dishonest and crooked Judge in a letter written by him to the A.K.C., which is the cause of this action. The Board carefully considered the many statements and affidavits filed in the case with the following result:

Whereas, the statement that the Judge at the Wissahickon Show of 1903, was crooked, not having been proven, and the action of the defendant at said Show being prejudicial to the best interests of dog shows, it is therefore Ordered, that Sidney Loog be and hereby is disqualified.

Adjourned,

Signed A.P. Vredenburgh,
Sec’y

On motion said reports were accepted and placed on file.

The Toledo Fanciers Association was duly elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

(At this point Mr. Hunnewell resigned the Chair to Mr. Bloodgood.)

The Secretary read the report of the Stud Book Committee as follows:

The Stud Book Committee have approved of the following applications for the registration of kennel names:

- Sandstone    H.H. Swift
- Acme         William Wallace
- Bonnie View  T.A. Meyers
- Brookcroft   Clarence E. Brown
- Filston      G.W. Swartwout
- Gladwood     Dr. Charles Green
- Glenvale     W.D. Glenn
- Multnomah    F.B. Fechheimer

TRANSFER

EXMOOR From T.F. Jager & E.A. Weimer, To E.A. Weimer

The Stud Book Committee also reports that at a meeting held upon the 21st day of November, they decided to recommend to the American Kennel Club that a section be opened in the Stud Book for the registration of foreign dogs, and that all foreign dogs should be registered under such designation, the breed of each however to be specified. They also recommend that for the present Boxer dogs and German Pincher dogs be eligible. Other breeds will be reported upon later.

Secretary Vredenburgh: I have a communication from the Brunswick Fur Club, asking for the return of their deposit of $25.00, which amount was forfeited under the rules of the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Muss-Arnolt: I move that their request be granted.
Motion seconded and carried.
THE CHAIR: I would call your attention to the fact that such action is contrary to our rules.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Haven’t we got the power?
THE CHAIRMAN: You can donate them $25.00, but according to the rules that amount has been forfeited.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Why can’t we transfer this to another year?
THE SECRETARY: You can.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move to reconsider my motion.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that this deposit be transferred to cover dates for their Show to be held in 1904, under the conditions as mentioned in their statement, inasmuch as the rules do not permit the American Kennel Club to return a deposit in case the Show is not held.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have to report a memorial to this Club, containing 17 signatures, requesting the restoration of the original names, namely, Blenheim, King Charles, Ruby, and Tri-Colored, in place of the present nomenclature
“The English Toy Spaniel”. I think this matter is now in the hands of the Stud Book Committee.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I was just going to state that, and I move that it be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The application of the Collie Breeders’ Association was referred back to the Membership Committee at the meeting of the Executive Board on the 3rd instant, with the suggestion that that Committee should communicate with the Collie Club of America in order to obtain their views on the advisability of admitting another Collie Club.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: What is the location of that proposed club?

THE SECRETARY: Chicago. I received under date of December 12th, a communication signed by William C. Hunter, Secretary of the Collie Club of American, which I read.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Is the Collie Club of America a member of this Club?

THE SECRETARY: Yes. I have also a protest dated December 10th. This was referred back to the Committee with this suggestion from the Collie Club of America.

MR. JARRETT: Was there any objection made to the St. Louis Collie Club joining the American Kennel Club?
THE SECRETARY: None whatever.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: If you permit another Club to join, as we have the St. Louis Club, I cannot see why the same precedent does not work for the Chicago Collie Club. Of course every Club might say that we will take care of it, but I don't think we should prevent the spreading of more Club. If they thing they can take care of themselves, I do not think that we should stop them.

MR. CROKER: I think if the Collie Club of American objects to this Breeders' Association, and if this Collie Club of America is in good standing with the American Kennel Club, the American Kennel Club ought to protect its interest, so long as the Collie Club of America is doing its best to advance the interests of the breed throughout the country and stand willing to do whatever the members and breeders want them to do. I think that it is the duty of this Club to look out for the interests of its members, and I do not think it would be right for us to allow another Club in the field which is working along the same lines as the Collie Club. I think this is a very important matter and should received full and proper consideration.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think as a rule the American Kennel Club has protected its members in that manner, but how about this St. Louis Club, was that considered in the same manner?

THE SECRETARY: Nothing was said. Their application came in regular form and was approved by the Membership Committee, and then they were elected without any opposition.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Then you have to ask the St. Louis Kennel Club; they are members of the Club. They have an interest there or they would not form that club. This is too big a country for us to say that one club can cover it all. You have those clubs of different breeds in different sections of the country. There should be better reasons given before we refuse to admit them.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Collie Club of America is a national club, and the St. Louis Kennel Club is a local club. That makes quite a difference.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: They propose to be a national club.

THE CHAIRMAN: But they are not at the moment, as I understand it.

MR. CROKER: The Collie Club, I think, should be protested. They offer specials, and they have for years past, and have done everything to help the different Shows along, and if this other club comes into the field it is certainly going to do them harm, and I think this club ought to look out for their interests, no matter what precedent has been established.

MR. MORTIMER: While I can hardly see the reason or necessity for another Collie Club, yet I think this club has established a precedent which you cannot very well disregard. There is the American Spaniel Club, and then there was also the Spaniel Breeders’ Society.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Spaniel Breeders’ Society was started to help the Spaniel Club, and it worked in every way for them, and the consent of the Spaniel Club was gotten by the American Kennel Club and signed by the officers of the American Spaniel Club before the Spaniels Breeders’ Society was elected to this club. That is the situation there. The precedent that Mr. Mortimer speaks of was considered by the American Kennel Club. This Club refused to elect the Spaniels Breeders’ Society without the consent of the American Spaniel Club.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: They have done nothing of the kind with the Collie Club of St. Louis. Isn’t the St. Louis Club represented here? Hasn’t it a delegate here? It is an independent club if it has a delegate.

MR. MORTIMER: Then there is the Ohio Valley Fox Terrier Club, I think it is named.

(At this point Mr. Hunnewell resumed the Chair.)

THE SECRETARY: In so far as the Fox Terrier Clubs are concerned, the National Club – in other words, the American Fox Terrier Club, has heretofore been perfectly willing for these smaller Fox Terrier Clubs to become members as I understand.

THE CHAIRMAN: They belong to the American Fox Terrier Club in exactly the same way as the different clubs belong to this club.

MR. CUTLER: I understand that both these clubs are to have jurisdiction, so to speak, over the whole country. That is true, isn’t it?

THE SECRETARY: I suppose so, so far as they can get it.

MR. CUTLER: I think that is against one of your fundamental principles that two clubs should have jurisdiction over the same territory. That point was raised some time ago over the club which I have the honor to represent. The Bay State Club excluded Boston from its jurisdiction in order that it might not conflict with the New England Kennel Club. I think that is just the principle, as I understand it.

DR. FOOTE: It strikes me it is all wrong to admit local clubs. If the breeding interest in any particular breed becomes so large throughout the country that every State or every large City wants to start a local clubs, it seems to me that they should work by delegates through the National body, and should have only one organization, such as it represented here in the American Kennel Club. I think it is all wrong that there should be delegates from two Collie Clubs, or delegates from two Spaniel Clubs. I think the National body should be organized the same as our body is, and let local clubs be members of the National body with representation in the National body.

MR. CARNOCHAN: With reference to what the delegate from the Bay State Association has said, I may mention the case of the two Chicago club. There we have given representation to two clubs, the Mascoutah Kennel Club and the Chicago Kennel Club.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Mascoutah Kennel Club was the parent club, and did not object to the Chicago Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: The Chicago Kennel Club was a club of ladies who entered pet dogs, and the original name of the Chicago Kennel Club was the Chicago Pet Dog Club, and as such was admitted, and then after the Mascoutah Kennel Club gave up giving shows, which they did on account of the censure imposed on it by this body two years ago, the Chicago Pet Dog Club applied for the right to change their title to the Chicago Kennel Club, which was granted. That is the history of that.

MR. VITI: I should like to call attention to this point: This is a specialty club that seeks admission, and it will have standards of its own. It cannot be for the best interest of any breed to have two or three conflicting standards. While I know absolutely nothing about this new club, I think it should receive the endorsement of the Collie Club of America before it applies for membership here. I do not think it is to the best interest of the dog to have specialty clubs for one breed if they are antagonistic to each other.

MR. BUCKELY: Aside from the fact of their being specialty clubs, it has always been the ruling of the American Kennel Club that two clubs covering the same ground should not exist without the consent of the parent or older club. If this Collie Breeders’ Association is a general society covering the whole United States, it is manifestly unfair to admit them in view of the protest of the Collie Club of America. If, on the contrary, it is a western club, and it assumes a local aspect, it should not be admitted without the consent of the Secretary of the St. Louis Kennel Club, which I represent.

MR. CARNOCHAN: When the application of the Spaniel Breeders’ Society came before the Membership Committee, that point was thoroughly thrashed out, that we should not accept the name of any club for membership unless it had the consent of the original club of the breed in the American Kennel Club, and for that reason we returned the application of the Spaniel Breeders’ Society, and received a written letter from the Secretary of the Spaniel Society consenting to their becoming members of the American Kennel Club. That is the precedent which was made at that time, and it was in view of the action of the committee taken in that case that the application of the Collie Breeders’ Association was referred back.

MR. JARRETT: I move that unless the consent of the Collie Club of America is obtained, the application of the Collie Breeders’ Society shall not be granted.

Motion seconded.

MR. VITI: Why not make it general? I offer an amendment to the motion, that where a specialty club exists no other such club shall be admitted to membership without filing with the American Kennel Club the consent in writing of the older club.

MR. JARRETT: I accept the amendment.

Motion as amended and seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: W.J. Gram, the delegate representing the Rochester Kennel Club, was disqualified yesterday for misconduct. Does that disqualification give me authority to remove his name as a delegate, or do you want to pass a special resolution as this meeting?

THE CHAIRMAN: According to our regular rules, no man who is disqualified can serve as an officer of the American Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: The action taken yesterday authorizes me to drop his name as a delegate. I ask for information.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: The rules must be applicable there. No vote is necessary.

MR. MORTIMER: I think that should follow logically. I do not think there is any necessity for our taking any action in the matter.

THE CHAIRMAN: Unless I hear some objection, the Chair will rule that the rules of the American Kennel Club remove him from office.

THE SECRETARY: The Rochester Kennel Club, under date of December 2nd, upon the regular printed heading of the Rochester Kennel Club, giving all the officers, one of whom is H.H. Kingston, Jr., the Secretary, filed these credentials. At a recent meeting of the Rochester Kennel Club, Mr. H.H. Kingston, Jr., was appointed as a delegate from that club to this club. Mr. Gram and Mr. Kingston were invited by me to be present at this meeting, so that this club could decide what is the proper Board of Officers from the Rochester Kennel Club.

MR. VITI: He cannot be the Secretary.

THE SECRETARY: This communication was dated before he was disqualified and when he was in good standing.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Does a disqualified man have any standing on this floor?

THE CHAIRMAN: None.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Is not the club disqualified also?

THE CHAIRMAN: No; he was disqualified from his own personal acts.

THE SECRETARY: They make a claim here that there are two factions in that club, each claiming to be in control of each claiming to have its Board of Officers, and here is a claim made by one faction that the present administration, or alleged present administration, was illegally elected. We must fight this thing out sometime in order to know whom to recognize. Leaving Mr. Gram out of the question, here is a gentleman that has come all the way from Rochester to state his side of the question, and it was at my invitation. I think that you should back me up to that extent to allow him to make his statement.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Since when can this club go into factional fights of different clubs? What have we got to do with it? Let them fight it out themselves.

MR. VITI: I think you are perfectly right about that, Mr. Muss-Arnolt.

MR. BLOODGOOD: Whose suit is being contested here, Mr. Gram’s?

THE SECRETARY: No, Mr. Kingston’s.

MR. VITI: He is an officer of the club, but not a delegate here?

THE SECRETARY: I have his credentials here as delegate.

MR. VITI: I did not understand that.

It was moved and seconded that the club should hear Mr. Kingston.

Carried.

MR. KINGSTON: May I ask that Mr. Wallace, who is speaking for us, be present – the Vice-President of our club?

THE CHAIRMAN: Is he here to corroborate you or to defend your case?

MR. KINGSTON: To answer any questions that may be asked.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I cannot see why we should here either of these gentlemen until we find out whether Mr. Kingston is coming here to be elected as a delegate, or what his object is. Have his credentials been here the proper length of time?

THE SECRETARY: No.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Then I move that the matter be declared out of order.

MR. VITI: I voted for that motion, and I ask that we reconsider it. My idea is this, that there is absolutely nothing before us. I understood these credentials were here to be acted upon, but I see that they are only here for the purpose of being filed, and for no other purpose whatsoever. We have absolutely nothing before us; we have been simply indirectly informed that there is a quarrel in the Rochester Kennel Club between themselves as to whom should hold office in the Rochester Kennel Club. I think it would be a very bad precedent for us to start in to referee disputes in every club. We have a very large membership, and active clubs, and we would have to take a year or two off if they have many fights. I voted to hear Mr. Kingston. Now I vote that we rescind that action.

MR. JARRETT: I second the motion.

MR. MORTIMER: I think it would be only fair for us to allow them to come in and for us to hear what they have got to say.

THE SECRETARY: This matter has got to come up within a few days before the Membership Committee. I have here the statement of one faction which I will put before the Membership Committee. Now, I think it is only fair to the Membership Committee that these gentlemen should present the other side so that the Membership Committee can have both sides of the question before them when they consider these credentials which will be properly before us within three or four days.

MR. CARNOCHAN: It was not until yesterday that we ceased to have a delegate from the Rochester Kennel Club. Therefore it was not until yesterday that these credentials had any right to be here at all, whether they were dated before or not.

THE CHAIRMAN: They have a right to change their delegate at any time they wish to do so.

MR. CARNOCHAN: We now have an application which has not been here the proper length of time to be passed on. That application comes down signed by the proper officials of the Rochester Kennel Club. It is not a matter for this Board to take into consideration at all. The gentlemen are here; the Membership Committee is here. If the Membership Committee want to take these gentlemen aside and interview them, it is in the province of the Membership Committee to do so. I do not think that we ought to have anything to do with this matter until it has come before the Membership Committee.

The motion to rescind was then carried.

DR. FOOTE: It would not be proper to move that the Membership Committee meet these gentlemen, but I think they should do so. I think as a matter of courtesy they should talk the matter over with them.

THE SECRETARY: I have another communication on the same subject from W.J. Gram. I have no right to pigeonhole it. It is for you to decide whether I shall present this communication or not.

DR. FOOTE: I move that the whole matter be referred to the Membership Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. WATSON: Under the head of new business I offer the following resolution: That the Secretary enter into communication with the Treasury Department with the view of having the English Kennel Gazette and American Kennel Gazette recognized as official records of the respective kennel clubs for the purposes of importation of dogs.

The resolution was seconded, and after considerable discussion, lost.

MR. CARNOCCHAN: I would like to bring up the matter of Express rates. We have all been suffering lately under that burden, and I would like to make a motion that a Committee of three be appointed by the Chair to confer with the Express Companies, and endeavor to get lower rates to breeders in general.

MR. VITI: I second that motion, and I think that it is a proper subject for the American Kennel Club to take up, because the rates are not only high, but they are exorbitant; then exhibitors are treated with very little consideration. The companies seem to carry dogs in any way they see fit, and they handle them as roughly as they can; they never feed or water them; they let them stay in the train sheds over night, and in view of the fact that they charge double rates for carrying dogs, it is a very serious thing, and one that the American Kennel Club could not do better than to counteract. The only thing to be said against it is that we went through this performance some years ago when Mr. Belmont tried to do something in the interest of dog exhibitors. If I recollect rightly Mr. Belmont was Chairman of that Committee, and they were unable to get any concession whatsoever from the Express Companies after a correspondence running over two years.

MR. CARNOCHAN: In this connection I think that possibly the Express Companies might be inclined to do something for us if they had pointed out to them some of the idiosyncrasies of the present methods. I have been studying Express rates lately, and I find that I can send a dog to Fargo, North Dakota, cheaper than I can send it to Newark, New Jersey, or possibly for the same amount. Under the present system where the rates are over $2.00 a hundred, if a person applies as a breeder, he can procure single rates, but where the rates are under $2.00 a hundred, there is no rebate, and the rates are double. Therefore, for example, if you are sending to a place where the rate is $1.80 per hundred, you pay $3.60, or if you are sending to a place where the regular rate is $3.00, you only pay $3.00, and I think if those facts were brought to the notice of the Express Companies, they would probably arrive at some other satisfactory conclusion.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chair appointed as such Committee, Mr. Carnochan as Chairman, and Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Mortimer as members.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to make a motion that a win of first prize in a local class should not debar dog from being entered in a regular novice class.

THE CHAIRMAN: I think that would have to go before the Rules Committee.

MR. MORTIMER: Then I would like to have my motion referred to the Rules Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

AKC'S FIRST ARTICLES of INCORPORATION

Statement Made at the Annual Meeting Following the Filing of the Articles of Incorporation

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, Tuesday, February 9, 1904

President August Belmont in the Chair.

THE PRESIDENT: All the officers and committees for the ensuing year having been elected, and as I said to you, I am very sorry I cannot remain through the meeting on account of a very important engagement, I would like to say a few words to the delegates in regard to the question of the incorporation of the American Kennel Club. As you know, it is an unincorporated body. There is a lot of dead wood, I believe, in the way of resolutions and records, &c., which, I understand, is somewhat embarrassing to members of the club. A simple and a very effective method of incorporation has been adopted by the Committee which you appointed some time ago to take steps with a view of incorporating. I believe it was generally felt that the incorporation of the American Kennel Club was a desirable thing to have done. Therefore a separate corporation was formed and incorporated, to which you can make over your entire organization, assets, &c.; that is passing from one into the other. I have had the matter thoroughly explained to me, and I am satisfied that it is the best course to pursue, and when it comes before you, if I am not present, Mr. Viti, who is familiar with the subject, will explain it to you. I want to state that it has my approval, and of course from the Chair I could not advocate it, but I would be prepared to do so were I asked to do it on the floor. If the matter comes up you can consider the subject as having been thoroughly gone into by me, and I feel that there is no risk to be run. In doing so you should safeguard the mere fact that you have passed into the new organization with all that belongs to you, and such of your rules and regulations as are in existence, so as not to open the door to having a complete readjustment. It would have been necessary, if you had incorporated, I think, to have gone through a great deal of trouble, but this is a short cut which I think you will all find desirable. Mr. Viti and Mr. Carnochan have been over the scheme and it has met their approval. I wanted to say to you that the demand for it, the need of it, the details of it, are, I think, for the best interests of the Club. If you will kindly excuse me, gentlemen, I will keep my appointment for half-past two o'clock today.
THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB was held at its offices, No. 55 Liberty Street, New York City, Tuesday, February 9, 1904

THE PRESIDENT: It is customary at this meeting, the annual meeting, that the regular business be suspended and that the Association proceed to the election of officers for the ensuing year. Under those circumstances a motion is in order for some person to take the chair and preside during the election of officers.

On motion, Mr. Marcel Viti was selected as the Chairman.

THE SECRETARY: The first office to be filled is that of President.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I nominate Mr. August Belmont as President of the American Kennel Club for the ensuing year.

Motion seconded.

On motion nominations were declared closed.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question now before the house is the election of Mr. Belmont as President.

Mr. August Belmont was unanimously elected as President for the ensuing year.

Mr. Belmont resumed the chair.

THE PRESIDENT: Gentlemen, I thank you very much for the honor you have conferred upon me. I have always felt that I did not give as much time to the affairs of the Kennel Club as I think they should receive. At the same time you have my earnest interest, and I shall do as well as I can during the ensuing year.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. H.H. Hunnewell to succeed himself as Vice President of the Association.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I second the nomination.

On motion nominations were declared closed, and Mr. H.H. Hunnewell was elected Vice President of the American Kennel Club for the ensuing year.

THE SECRETARY: The next in order are the standing committees. Stud Book Committee. The first is Marcel A. Viti, Chairman.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I nominate Mr. Viti to succeed himself as Chairman of the Stud Book Committee.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. G.M. Carnochan as Chairman of the Rules Committee to succeed himself.

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations were declared closed, and Mr. Carnochan was duly elected as Chairman of the Rules Committee.

THE SECRETARY: The next is the field trials and Coursing Meetings Committee. Mr. J.W. Appleton was Chairman in 1903.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I nominate Mr. Appleton to succeed himself as Chairman of that committee.

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations were declared closed, and Mr. J.W. Appleton was elected Chairman of the Field Trials and Coursing Meetings Committee.

THE SECRETARY: The next in order is the Finance Committee. Mr. William G. Rockefeller is the present Chairman.

MR. CROKER: I nominate Mr. William G. Rockefeller to succeed himself as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations were declared closed, and Mr. William G. Rockefeller was elected Chairman of the Finance Committee for the ensuing year.

THE SECRETARY: The Membership Committee is next in order, Mr. William B. Emery, Chairman.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. Emery to succeed himself as Chairman of that committee.

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations were declared closed, and Mr. William B. Emery was elected as Chairman of the Membership Committee.
THE PRESIDENT: The Chairman of the various committees having been elected, the next business will be the election of the committees themselves. The Stud Book Committee consisted of Mr. M.A. Viti, Chairman, and J.W. Appleton, Singleton Can Schaick. I think I can save time by reading the names of the committee members, and unless nominations are made changing in any way the committees, those committees will be continued as they are. Committee on Constitution and Rules, G.M. Carnochan, Chairman; James Watson, Henry Jarrett, G. Muss-Arnolt and A.P. Vredenburgh.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Mr. Watson is not a delegate at the present time and is therefore ineligible to serve. I nominate in his place, Mr. E. S. Woodward.

THE PRESIDENT: I continue reading the committees: Committee on Field Trials and Coursing Meetings. J.W. Appleton, Chairman; D.S. Summers, John Caswell and R. Crompton. Finance Committee: William G. Rockefeller, Chairman; G. Carnochan and Frank H. Croker. Membership Committee: William B. Emery, Chairman; Singleton Van Schaick and R.H. Williams. If there is no objection, I will put the motion on all the committees to be re-elected with the exception of the Committee on Constitution and Rules.
All in favor of the re-election of the members of the Stud Book Committee, Field, Trials and Coursings Meetings Committee, Finance Committee, and Membership Committee will please signify the same by saying yes.

Motion unanimously carried.

THE PRESIDENT: With regard to the Committee on Constitution and Rules, Mr. James Watson not being a delegate, he would not be eligible to serve.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I nominate Mr. E.S. Woodward in place of Mr. Watson.

On motion, nominations were declared closed.

THE PRESIDENT: I put the motion on the election of the entire committee, substituting Mr. E.S. Woodward in the place of James Watson.

Motion carried.

THE PRESIDENT: All the officers and committees for the ensuing year having been elected, and as I said to you, I am very sorry I cannot remain through the meeting on account of a very important engagement, I would like to say a few words to the delegates in regard to the question of the incorporation of the American Kennel Club. If you will kindly excuse me, gentlemen, I will keep my appointment for half-past two o'clock to-day.

On motion, Mr. H.K. Bloodgood was elected as Chairman.

THE SECRETARY: I have here the certificate, being the result of the election of associate officers and delegates. The same is as follows:

CERTIFICATE OF ELECTIONS OF ASSOCIATE OFFICERS AND DELEGATES FOR 1904

New York, Feb. 6, 1904

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, in accordance with Article XI, Section 6 of the American Kennel Club Constitution, met this day at the office of the American Kennel Club for the purpose of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, for the officers and delegates of the Associate Members of said Club, to hold office for the term of one year from this date, or until their successors be elected.

We found the total number of the Associate Members entitled to vote to be 215; total number of votes cast, 120, total number of votes scattering, 13; total number of irregular votes and thrown out, 2.

We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greatest number of votes to be duly elected as officers and delegates of the Associate Members, of the year ending in February, 1905, to wit:

President:  H.K. Bloodgood
Vice President:  Pierre Lorillard, Jr.
Secretary:  H.T. Peters
(1) Delegate:  W.G. Rockefeller
(2) Delegate:  George H. Gooderham
(3) Delegate:  Howard Willets

(Signed)

E.S. Woodward
Representing the President, A.K.C.

H.K. Bloodgood
President of Associates A.K.C.

(Attest)  A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary A.K.C.
On motion of Mr. Carnochan the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and accepted as published in the December Gazette.

The Secretary then read the report of the Membership Committee as follows:

New York, Feb. 8, 1904

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day, the following applications for membership were submitted:

Dec. 14, 1903    Jersey City Kennel Club
Jan. 19, 1904    Valley Fair Kennel Club
Jan. 27, 1904    Cincinnati Kennel Club
Feb, 1, 1904     Japanese Spaniel Club

Also as application from the Dog Owner’s Protective Association of Cincinnati for reinstatement. Also credentials from the Rochester Kennel Club, appointing H.H. Kingston, Jr., as its delegate. Your Committee begs to report as follows:

That it respectfully approves and recommends the admission of the Jersey City K.C., Valley Fair K.C., Cincinnati K.C., and the Japanese Spaniel Club, and withholds its approval from the reinstatement of the Dog Owners Protective Assn of Cincinnati, believing that the application of said Club for reinstatement was prompted by a desire to prevent the admission of any other Club from that City. The credentials from the Rochester K.C. appointing H.H. Kingston, Jr.
as its delegate were investigated by your Committee at the last meeting, the same having been contested by the late delegate W.J. Gram. In the opinion of your Committee the statements made by the said Gram, in his letter, Dec. 1, 1903 are in error, as proven by the records shown by Mr. Kingston, who having all books and documents belonging to the Rochester K.C. in his possession, and it is therefore decided that he was at that time the Sec'y of the Rochester K.C. and your Committee hereby approves his credentials as delegate and recommends his acceptance.

Respectfully submitted,
Wm. B. Emery, Chairman

MR. H.H. KINGSTON, Jr. was elected to represent the Rochester Kennel Club as delegates.

The Jersey City Kennel Club, the Valley Fair Kennel Club and the Japanese
Spaniel Club were duly elected as members of the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIR: What is your pleasure in regard to the application of the Cincinnati Kennel Club?
THE SECRETARY: The Cincinnati Kennel Club and the Dog Owners Protective Association, a former member which was dropped in May, 1903, for non-payment of dues, sent their applications, and they were received here in the same mail. The Dog Owners Protective Association asked for reinstatement, and paid its dues for 1903, for which they were dropped and the present dues for 1904. The Membership Committee before whom these two applications came, disapproved of the reinstatement of the Dog Owners Protective Association and recommend the election of the Cincinnati Kennel Club. The grounds upon which they base their recommendation is that it is their belief that the Dog Owners Protective Association apply for reinstatement only in order to prevent the admission of an allied club, and it is now the duty of this meeting to decide whether they will endorse the recommendation of the Membership Committee or not.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: If the Membership Committee, as a committee will state that it is their opinion – and of course they would not give it except they have very salient proof of that, this club should certainly accept it.

THE CHAIR: They state that in their report here, that they believe that to be the fact.

MR. CULVER: I think we ought to have some statement by somebody who has made an investigation. We want to vote intelligently. I do not know that I could vote intelligently until I know something about the facts.

MR. EMERY: It is a curious thing that two letters were sent, one sending back dues and the other making application for reinstatement should come by the same mail. The excuses given for the non-payment of dues seemed very weak to the Membership Committee. The club which now applies for membership has a record of being a live club, and it encloses catalogues of shows which it has given; the membership of the club is large and enthusiastic and active, while, on the other hand, the membership of the club which is in arrears is a very small club and very little known. We sifted the matter over thoroughly, and thought if there was to be a club represented here from Cincinnati, we should take the best club that they had. That is the reason we disapproved the application of the Dog Owners Protective Association and approved the application of the Cincinnati Kennel Club.

MR. CLAYTON: I attended their last show, and they gave a very creditable little show, and I would like to move that they be admitted to membership in the American Kennel Club.

MR. MOORE: I second the motion.
MAJOR TAYLOR: I do not know a single person that is behind the present club, but I do know that Mayor Fleischman and a large body of Cincinnati sport men were behind the other club. They got into a row between themselves about the disposition of some prizes, and this new club was formed before they settled it.

MR. VITI: Do I understand Mr. Clayton to say that the new club had held shows?

MR. CLAYTON: It has held three very successful shows in Cincinnati.

MR. VITI: Do you know how many shows the Dog Owners Protective Association has held recently?

MR. EMERY: That I cannot say. I think they held a show two years ago.

MR. VITI: How recently were these three shows held by the new club, Mr. Clayton?

MR. CLAYTON: The last one was held last December.

MR. VITI: Your records will show the numbers of shows held by the Dog Owners Protective Association?

THE SECRETARY: I think in 1901?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: If the Constitution Kennel Club held shows and filed catalogues here, how is it that they are not members?

THE SECRETARY: They did not hold it under American Kennel Club rules, because of the Dog Owners Protective Association, which they thought was still a members, they simply sent the catalogues to show that they were giving shows with their application. I would like to state that in November, 1902, I sent a bill to the Dog Owners Protective Association for dues payable on or before January 1, 1903, to which they did not reply, not did the communication come back to this office. I sent a second bill to them and received no reply. Then by virtue of a resolution passed by the annual meeting, I sent a final bill to them and notified them that they would be dropped if they did not pay their dues within thirty days. I received no reply. At the expiration of thirty days they were dropped from the roll. I heard nothing from them until last month when they said that they would like to be re-instated and asked how much they owned. I sent them word that they were dropped from the roll for non-payment of the 1903 dues, and they sent in their application with dues of 1903 and 1904. I found the communication here in my first mail on the 27th day of January, and in the same mail I found the original application from the Cincinnati
Kennel Club.

On the question being put, the Cincinnati Kennel Club was elected by a vote of 24 to 1.

The Secretary then read his quarterly report, as follows:

New York, Feb. 8, 1904

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly report:

All matters to be acted upon by the Nominating Committee, Rules Committee, the Stud Book Committee, and the Membership Committee, have been handed over to their respective committees, and reports by said Committees will be presented at this meeting.

The following charges for misconduct have been lodged with this office and will be presented to the Executive Board at its first meeting. Dec. 1st, 1903: T.M. Poole, vs. J.D. Holt; Dec. 19th, 1903, H.W. Owens vs. C.B. Pineo; Jan. 23rd, 1904, Samuel Chew vs. Wilson Barnard.

I present herewith a bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements, from Oct. 25th, 1903, to Jan. 25th, 1904, amounting to $6.70, and would recommend payment of same.
At a recent meeting of the Executive Board, J.M. Taylor was directed to substantiate his statement made at a former meeting of the Executive Board, to the effect that the Chicago Kennel Club, has violated the rule in accepting entries after the advertised date of closing of same. Within the time granted by the Board, Mr. Taylor did comply with the orders of said Board, withdrawing his former statement, but stating that at the time that he made the charge he believed it to be true.

The following Clubs were penalized by your Secretary for violation of Dog Show Rules. Dec. 21st, 1903, Colorado Kennel Club, $60.00; Jan 4th, 1904, Rochester Kennel Club, $30.00. The first named Club declined to pay the penalty, and was suspended by order of the Executive Board. The last named Club paid the penalty, under protest. The reason given by both clubs for the above action is based upon their claim that the penalty imposed was unconstitutional.

I beg to present for your consideration a protest signed by James Watson, delegate of the Colorado Kennel Club, suspended, against depriving him of his right to represent his club, on the ground that the suspension of his club was unconstitutional. In this connection let me say that Mr. Watson saw fit to send a printed circular letter to delegates setting forth his contention, and takes occasion to warn the Kennel Club against a problematical action by what he terms the “West”. Said circular is specious, but fallacious, and in my opinion it would be well to point out inaccuracies, in said circular letter to enable the delegates to arrive at an intelligent conclusion.

The Secretary of the Aurora Kennel Club returned the bill for its dues for 1904, unpaid, and with filed a notification that said club was disbanded, I would therefore recommend that the Aurora Kennel Club be dropped from the roll.

I beg to present to you a communication from the Pacific Kennel League, in which it specifies the condition under which it will disband and its members again become members of this Club.

I beg to report that I mailed bills to our Active Members for annual dues for 1904, the customary time, namely Nov. 30, 1903, and again mailed a second bill on Jan. 4, 1904, to such members as had not paid up to that date. I now report the following clubs arrears: Cleveland Kennel Club; Mascoutah Kennel Club; Pointer Club of America; Hoosier Kennel Club; Atlanta Kennel Club; Colorado Kennel Club; Sixth Dist. Agricultural Association; Twin City Kennel Club; Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals; Aurora Kennel Club; Conshocon Kennel Club; Orange Co. Agricultural Society; Southwestern Kennel Club.

According to Article X of the Constitution the above mentioned Clubs have forfeited all right to representation in this Association, and such clubs may be suspended or dropped from the roll. As it is customary in such cases for the annual meeting to grant an additional thirty days within which the clubs reported to be in arrears may retain their membership by paying the dues, I would recommend that the usual resolution be adopted and that your Secretary be directed to drop without further legislation all clubs that do not take advantage of the additional time granted to them.

I beg to report so that the same may be a record that the Merrimack Valley Kennel Club sent its classification for approval and the same was returned and not approved. Immediately thereafter Feb., 6th, I received the premium list of said Club setting forth that the classification had been approved by the American Kennel Club, and signed with my name as Secretary. On the same date I notified said club, that its show could not be held under A.K.C. rules for the following reasons:

First, that the premium list was issued before being officially approved. Second, that the publication in their premium list of the official approval of a classification was without my knowledge or consent. Third, that the classification in all breeds where winners classes were given was faulty.

It is but proper that all intending exhibitors at this show should receive this timely warning so that their entries would not be made under the misapprehension that the advertised winners classes would become records.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary

I would like to state in connection with this that in this morning's mail, I received duplicate classification from the Merrimack Club and a further communication. The fact that they are going to withdraw or send out amended premium lists of course will permit the club to hold its show under our rules, and I have telegraphed approval of the classifications, which I received this morning with one or tow small changes, but I did not want the exhibitors or the delegates for one moment to think that the premium list that has been sent out by the Merimac Club with my name appended as approving, was approved by me, because I think if they did they would think it was time they got a new Secretary?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: You did not sign it?

THE SECRETARY: No, I did not. They put my signature to it through ignorance.

THE CHAIR: What is your pleasure in regard to the Secretary’s report. On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

MR. BALL: I desire to state that the Secretary of the club which I represent, the Pointer Club of America, is ill, and evidently that is the reason the dues owing by our club have not been paid. I would ask if I may be permitted to pay them now?

MR. WOORDWARD: I move that the dues owning by the Pointer Club of America be accepted at the hands of its delegate.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. DRAKE: In reference to the dues of the Mascoutah Kennel Club, I desire to state that the Secretary, Mr. Lincoln, is abroad at present, and I imagine that is the reason that the dues of our club have not been received. I would like to ask for sixty days’ extension?

MR. MOORE: I second the motion.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I do not think we ought to alter our precedent of thirty days’ notice. We have at other meetings allowed clubs in arrears for dues thirty days within which to pay. I do not think we ought to make any change in that rules for one particular club. I think the matter is rather out of order now. It should not be brought up until we come to it in the proper order of business.

THE CHAIR: I think we ought to take that up under the lead of new business.

The Treasurer read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, Feb. 6, 1904

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report.

Balance on hand Jan 1st, 1904 . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . $14,114.09
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 2,074.80
Total . . . . . . . . . . . . . . $16,188.89

Disbursements from Jan. 1st to date . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 993.04
Balance on hand . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . $15,195.85

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Treasurer
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

On motion the resignation of the Cleveland Kennel Club was accepted, with regret.

On motion the bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from October 25, 1903 to January 25, 1904, amounting to $6.70, was ordered paid.

DR. JENNINGS: I move that the Aurora Kennel Club, now defunct, be dropped from the rolls of membership.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary then read the communication from the Chicago Kennel Club.

MAJOR TAYLOR: I deny I ever preferred charges against the Chicago Kennel Club, or any other club or person in existence.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I beg to differ with Major Taylor. I heard Major Taylor make charges before the Executive Board, and so did the rest of us. He did, however, withdraw them.

MAJOR TAYLOR: In giving my testimony as to who controlled the Chicago Kennel Club, I did state that they had received entries after date of closing, but isn’t it the rule of this club that no charges against any individual or club are ever considered except they are made in writing? I never made them in writing. It is a very common thing for any member of this club to make oral charges against a club, and I question if there are not many now in this room that said that certain clubs received entries after their date closed.

THE CHAIR: If there were any changes made you withdrew them?

MAJOR TAYLOR: I deny making any.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I think the gentleman is out of order.

THE CHAIR: Yes, I think so.

MAJOR TAYLOR: I do not want to go on record as preferring charges against the Chicago Kennel Club, and I defy any man to prove it.

The Secretary read a protest from the Chicago Kennel Club, against allowing the dates claimed by the Franklin Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: The Chicago Kennel Club did change their date. There was no compulsion. The American Kennel Club does not grant exclusive dates. The American Kennel Club always, at the request of a club, will use what influence it may have to get other clubs to change their date, but if they will not do so, then the American Kennel Club is estopped, and approve of their dates. That is what was done here, and had it not been for the fact that this letter requested me to lay this matter before this meeting I should simply have replied to it and filed it.
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Did not the Franklin City Kennel Club really apply for dates before the Chicago Kennel Club applied?

THE SECRETARY: That I cannot tell without the figures.

MR. CUTTER: What is before us in this communication?

THE CHAIR: It is not the duty of the American Kennel Club to allot the dates.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the letter be received and filed.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I now read the communication from the Rochester Kennel Club enclosing check for $30, paid under protest.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the protest of the Rochester Kennel Club in this matter be not allowed.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move as an amendment that it be allowed.

THE SECRETARY: The point is they claim that if the make one error in the puppy entries they are fined $5; if they make twenty errors it is still a fine of $5; that it is not cumulative.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I do not think that dog men as a rule are lawyers, and they ought not to be. Our rules ought to be framed in plain, simple words, and we should be guided by what those words mean. I do not think we should have to go to a court of law to have it defined what is meant. We lay down our rules for our guidance, and we cannot ask anybody to define what we mean. I mean the plain, simple wording of it. The wording itself does not ask for anything else except $5.

MR. MOORE: I would like to ask if a club having these illegal entries, should accept twenty such entries at $3 an entry, which would be $60 in the club’s coffers, and the club pays the American Kennel Club $5, wouldn’t that be defrauding the exhibitors out of $55? Would not the exhibitors be losing $55, because the Kennel Club would disqualify the wins, and the money would not be returned to the exhibitors, so the club would be $55 to the good, and it would be an incentive for every club to make mistakes if it cost only $5 in the aggregate.

THE CHAIR: It is really very badly worded, there is no doubt about that.

MR. PINEO: I think we will have to stand by the wording of that rule. It seems to me it is better to fine them $5, and change the wording of the rule, if that was the intention to fix a penalty of $5 for each offense, but it seems to me that it is an injustice to fine them $30. I am in favor of changing the wording of it.
MR. CARNOCCHAN: There is such a thing as a matter of precedence in this club. Since those rules were first made the Secretary has acted and interpreted that rule to mean $5 for each offense. Certainly the intent of the rule was that the penalty should be laid for each offense, and I do not think we have any right to remit a penalty for individual clubs when other clubs have paid the penalty according to the intent of the rule. If we are going to return this money—if we are going to remit this penalty, we ought to go back and remit every penalty that has been paid since the formation of those rules. There is no question in our minds, I think, in the minds of most of us, that the intent of the Committee who formed that rule was to lay a penalty of $5 for each offense.

THE SECRETARY: There is no question about it. I was one of that committee and I recommend it. Since that rule has been in effect, the Secretary of this Club had collected $5 for every violation, and this is the first protest, and that of the Colorado Kennel Club which I have now, is the second protest in our experience.

THE CHAIR: There is no question about the intent.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: There has never been a protest previous to this?

THE CHAIR: No.
MR. CARNOCHAN: I call for the question. My motion was that the protest be not allowed.

MR. VITI: This is not the first time we have been called upon to interpret the rule. We have frequently interpreted this rule, because I take it that when the Secretary has been instructed, as he has frequently been, to impose a fine greater than $5, that is an interpretation of that rule, although it has not been marked in so many words. We say that the Secretary is directed to impose a fine of so many dollars frequently in excess of $5. It has unquestionably been the rule of this Association to impose a fine. It was not until this protest was made that any question has ever entered into our minds at all.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I can say we have gone further than that. In every instance, I may say, where the Secretary has imposed a fine of more than $5 or a fine of $5, he has reported it to this body. We have in every case substantiated and agreed to that extra fine, and therefore we have made it a precedent.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Has there ever been a larger fine than $5?

THE SECRETARY: Repeatedly. In connection with this I would say, the first communication on this subject was not a protest; it was based upon their statement that their show was financed by the Young Women’s Christian Association of Rochester, in the first place; that their Superintendent was a man that did not attend to his business, and therefore they asked that that fine be rescinded. That communication was submitted by me to the Executive Board, and the Executive Board confirmed the fine.

Mr. Carnochan’s motion that the protest be not allowed was then put and carried.

The Secretary then read a communication from the Colorado Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: Before you discuss this communication I desire to point out that they say that upon investigation they find on June 8th, that W.H. Kerr received a notice; that he was not the Secretary, and that I ought to have known that, as they had filed a list of the new officers to me. That I pronounce as an absolute misstatement. I have examined every paper that has come form the Colorado Kennel Club, and the only knowledge that I had that Mr. Kerr was not the Secretary of the Colorado Kennel Club was recently, I sent a letter to the delegate of the Colorado Kennel Club informing him that if this fine was not paid within thirty days I was directed to suspend the club. I did that because the delegate of a club is the only person that I know. The delegate of the club returned that letter to me, and decided to accept it, and in a postscript he added that the Secretary was N.S.
Kaimo. I then sent a letter to N.S. Kaimo, and that is the reason for whatever delay there was in the matter. It is the first time in my experience as Secretary of this club that any delegates has refused to accept a communication affecting his club or the American Kennel Club. I have no knowledge after a club has been admitted to membership who their officers are. There is nothing in the constitution that demands that they shall keep the American Kennel Club advised of every change of officers.
It simply states that on making their application they must file with it a list of their officers, and consequently the only person that we know is the delegate whom we accept on credentials that he is the delegate, until he is superseded or removed.

THE CHAIR: Who is their representative?

THE SECRETARY: Mr. James Watson. Therefore it is proper for me at any time in sending notice to an active member of this club, to mail it to the delegate, and it is the duty of that delegate to send it to his club, as it is supposed the delegates keeps in touch with his club, and knows whom to address it to. I would say in connection with this that I have a protest from Mr. James Watson, who was the delegate of this suspended club. I have only recently read it, and I find that the argument contained in the last letter from the Colorado Kennel Club is entirely the argument made by Mr. Watson who has filed this protest, so it is possible they were prompted in their argument by their delegate. They say in their communication that only the Secretary can impose the fine. The Secretary did impose the fine, and after waiting for over two months for a reply, and not hearing form the club, I reported it to the Executive Board, which confirmed the fine, and at the next meeting of the Executive Board I again reported that they had not paid their fine, and the Executive Board then passed a resolution which they had a right to do, the effect of which was that unless this fine was paid within thirty days the Secretary of the American Kennel Club was instructed to suspend the club. It has nothing to do with disqualification then, and that has been the way the matter has come to this termination. The club did not pay the fine, and at the end of thirty days, I suspended them under direction.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Then the report of the Executive Board was referred to the meeting of the Board of Delegates and they confirmed the report of the Executive Board, making it the action of the Board of Delegates. I make the same motion with regard to the club, that their appeal be denied.

    Motion seconded and carried.

    THE SECRETARY: I have a protest here from James Watson, the delegates of the Colorado Kennel Club suspended. He said he had not official knowledge, but he believed the fine was on account of the puppy class. I would like to state that the writer of this protest judged at the Colorado show. On his return to New York he came to the office and he told the Colorado men that he was afraid that it would go pretty hard with them on account of their puppy entry, but that he would have a talk with the Secretary on the subject, and if he could see his way clear to relieve them in any way he would do all in his power to have it done. I will now read his protest.

    MR. CARNOCHAN: Isn’t this out of order? We have nothing to do with him. We have to do with the Colorado Kennel Club.

    THE CHAIR: I rule it out of order.

    THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from the Pacific Kennel League.

    MR. CARNOCHAN: I move this matter be laid on the table.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to ask action on the kennel clubs in arrears for dues.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the clubs which have not paid be given thirty days in which to pay their dues, and if they do not pay in that time they be dropped from the roll.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Viti read the report of the Stud Book Committee as follows:
Your Stud Book Committee begs to report as follows:

Application has been made for the registration of the below list of kennel names and as none of them conflict with those already registered your Committee recommends that they be granted.

Austin  by  F.A. Minard
Blackthorn  W. Ballantyne
Blackstone, Valley  J.B. Tebo
Capital City  M.A. Young
Clydesfold  Wm. Kistner
Dalmore  H.A. Dalrymple
Ellsworth  Mrs. J.V. Champion
Grosvenor  G.B. Arhold
Lenox  S. Frothingham
Losantiville  W.B. Weaver
Middle Ground  Mrs. J.C. Norton
Monticello  C.D.J. Mc Donald Mooresetown  W.F. Reive
Morven Park  W. Davis
Oakdale  J. Brey
Primrose  Mrs. H.R. Barry
Rockhill  E.D. Bryan
Redfern  E.R. Cole
Revere  T.B. Middlebrook
Scorcher  C.L. Thomas
Thirlsmere  Mrs. J.H. Brookfield
Application has been made for the transfer of the name Auburn from C.H. Mower to C.H. Mower and E.P. Woodbury. No objection appearing to the granting of such a transfer your Committee recommends that it be allowed.

Application has been made for the registration of a variety of dogs to be known as American Man-trailers. These dogs are at present claimed to be American Bloodhounds, a variety which is not recognized by the American Kennel Club. Your Committee feels that they can hardly be regarded as a distinct breed and that therefore they should not be recognized.

In the matter of the Registration of Red Oak Belle, a Collie. Objection has been lodged against the registration of this Collie by John Black upon two grounds. (1st) That Red Oak Belle was not the property of A. Hillman when he sought to register her, and in the (2nd) place the pedigree is at fault. Regarding the first objection your Committee is of the opinion that it is necessary for a person to be the actual owner of a dog at the time it is registered. As the Stud Book is a work of record intended largely to preserve the pedigrees of the dogs therein recorded it should be incumbent upon a person registering a dog not owned by him to give the name and address of the owner. In regard to the second point, Mr. Black does not state wherein the pedigree is at fault and your Committee is unable to report that feature and have accorded Mr. Black an opportunity to point out the error.

In the matter of the Boston Terriers Gold Money and Gibsy B. These two dogs are sought to be registered as being sired by Sullivan’s Punch out of Princess. Mess. Sullivan & Schenck, the owners of Sullivan’s Punch have objected to such registration upon the grounds that Sullivan’s Punch is not the sire. They have not however, submitted an affidavit in support of their allegation as requested to do. Mr. Fred. E. Rice who sold both of the dogs in question appeared before your Committee and requested an opportunity in which to present proof of the correctness of the pedigree which your committee accorded him and therefore recommend that the case be held under advisement pending the receipt of this information.

In the matter of the Collie Ravenswood Plate owned by D.E. Gardner. After this case was referred to this Committee certain charges were brought against Mr. Gardner upon irregularities in the pedigree and this case was incorporated in the one heard by the Executive Board and disposed of by this association at the December meeting.

In the matter of the Great Danes Bryn Mawr Rosalind and Bryn Mawr Perle. The Great Dane Club of America directed the attention of this association of the pedigrees in question.
Both of these dogs are stated to be by Caesar 4th, A.K.C. S.B. 58446, owned by Dr. J. Fletcher Lutz. Dr. Lutz stated that Caesar had not served any bitches. From an investigation of the facts the Committee is convinced that while this dog was in the possession of one T.M. Murphy, he was allowed to serve the dam of these dogs and consequently their pedigrees are as registered. The Great Dane Club of America which also investigated the case, arrived at the same conclusion. Your Committee feels that the pedigree being accurate to stand of course if the service was obtained improperly, the parties injured would have their proper recourse through the preference of charges in the customary form.

In the matter of the pedigrees of Ingleside Chief Powhatan stated to be whelped Aug. 30th, 1900 and Montebello Eva, stated to have been whelped Dec. 15th, 1900, both by Sandor Von Inn out of Lola. Your Committee requested the Montebello Kennel’s proprietor to explain the discrepancy in the dates of birth and in answer have received a letter stating that it is evidently a mistake. That they registered Montebello Eva from data left by the former superintendent, E.A. Rothman, and that they could find no record of the dog Ingleside Chief Powhatan. The Committee feel that they should hold this matter further so that they can pursue the investigation already started.
In the matter of the petition for a change in the regulations regarding the registration of Toy Spaniels.

This petition was referred to your Committee at the last meeting and before reporting thereon they desire that an opportunity be granted to each one of the petitioners to state in full their reasons for urging the change and have accordingly requested them to state the number of different varieties they have bred can show an unbroken pedigree of the same variety of color. The Committee would suggest that this matter be held in abeyance so that each person may have an opportunity of expressing his or her reasons.

In the matter of the Collie Zero II.

This dog was registered by Henry Heuer, the proprietor, as sired by Hanover Victor. It was assigned #74,054. After Mr. Heuer had registered the dog he requested that the name of the sire should not appear as Hanover Victor but Coila Victor. This change was accordingly made, and the dog was registered as sired by Coila Victor. Dr. Henry Jarrett, the owner of Hanover Victor, wrote to this association stating that in his opinion the sire was Hanover Victor and not Coila Victor. He, however, refused to make any formal protest in the matter. Mr. Heuer’s son furnished an affidavit stating that he saw the service and that the dam was not bred to Hanover Victor. The Committee feel that as no formal protest has been filed against the ped-agree that it should be allowed to stand. In the matter of the Collies Fisherboy and First Choice. These Collies were apparently bred by Wm. R. Radford, one of them being sold by him to Edwin Harison and the other to Frank P. Smith. They are stated to be out of Queen Mab whose sire is Martin’s Loyal dam Lassy. The pedigree of Queen Mad is questioned by James A. Cain who owns the sire. The Committee is convinced from the correspondence and in examination of the witnesses that these pedigrees are improper and should be cancelled. As Mr. Wm. T. Radford would appear to be the part at fault, your Committee has tried to communicate with him and so far has been unsuccessful. It feels that the pedigree should be cancelled. Wm. T. Radford’s connection with the matter your committee believes should be further investigated, and should be given an opportunity to show cause why action should not be taken against him for improper conduct.

In the matter of the dog Tiger. Dt. H.E. Hahn has lodged a protest against Samuel H. Thompson, in regard to the selling of a dog and apparently an improper pedigree. Dr. Hahn states that he answered an advertisement in the Field and Fancy offering an English Bull Terrier for sale. That a certain pedigree was sent to him by the owner who described the dog as a bull terrier, 70 lbs. in weight. The advertisement reads:

“English Bull Terrier.
Even white markings. Registered
For Sale or Trade for good bred"
Collie, sable and white pedigree.
Samuel Thompson, Sanford, Maine.”

The pedigree, which was enclosed, is clearly that of a Bulldog, the sire being Sultan, a grand-son of King Orry, while the other ancestors are descendants of King Lud, Ch. Grabber, Ch. Lord Rip, Jack Spratt and other well know bull dogs. In addition to this, the registration number affixed to the pedigree, #65,259, is a Pointer. In one of his letters to Dr. Hahn, Mr. Thompson states:

“The man I got him off said that he was an English Bulldog. The day when I got him several men said he was a terrier, so I called him a terrier ever since.”

Your Committee wrote to Mr. Thompson notifying him that he was charged with having sold a certain dog under misrepresentations, and to please explain his reasons for supplying the pedigree furnished and inquiring by what right he affixed an American Kennel Club number to a dog which was not registered. In reply thereto they received a letter from him stating which contains the following:

“I have had a letter notifying me of selling Dr. H.E. Hahn a dog under misrepresentations. I wish people would know what they are talking about before they say such things. I never sold him a dog but I sent him a pedigree I got when I bought the dog and I did not know but what it was right. I
I was looking for it last night but could not find it, but if I come across it I will send it to you for you to look it up and you can see for yourself. “Your Committee cannot see much distinction between selling and offering for sale in this instance. It may be that what Mr. Thompson says is absolutely accurate and that he did receive the pedigree from the person from whom he purchased the dog. Your Committee makes no recommendations and merely reports the facts to your association. On the 3rd inst. They wrote to Dr. H.E. Hahn, the complainant, and his letter was returned as undeliverable. They also communicated with Mr. Mac Kecke, the alleged breeder but have heard nothing in reply.

In the other cases pending, your Committee report that they have communicated with the parties in interest and while they have received several replies, they think it but right to wait until all have had an opportunity to reply before reporting.

In the matter of the kennel name Vanor.

In this matter Samuel Chew has filed charges against Wilson Barnard of dishonorable conduct in the matter of the registration of the kennel name Vanor. Mr. Chew states that he is the sole owner and proprietor of the name Vanor and that he alone is entitled to the use of that name and that the registered use thereof was obtained by Wilson Barnard as a result.
of certain dishonorable practice. The evidence produced shows that Chew and Barnard entered into an agreement upon the 20th day of Feb., '02, by which Samuel Chew turned over to Wilson Barnard a dog which the said Barnard was to board the dog free and divide equally all stud fees with said Chew. After this agreement was made a number of conversations took place between the parties and a number of letters were written, forty of which were submitted to the Committee and are on file in this office. Mr. Chew states that in addition to Orangeman, he turned over several other dogs to Mr. Barnard for exhibition purposes. That Mr. Chew did wish the dogs to be shown in his own name and that Mr. Barnard hesitated about exhibiting them in his and suggested that they be shown in a kennel name. The name Vanor was finally determined upon and application was made therefore “Barnard and Chew, Wilson Barnard, Prop.” The name was accordingly granted to Wilson Barnard over a year ago. Mr. Chew states that only within the last few months has it come into his knowledge that this kennel name was registered in the name of Wilson Barnard, he, Chew, believing that it was simply to be recorded and that he never had any intention of allowing Wilson Barnard to have any interest in the name which is that of his country seat in Pennsylvania and which has been so known for over a century, during which time it has been in his family. Mr. Barnard contends on the other hand that Mr.
Chew was quite willing that he should apply for the registration of that name and that it was Barnard's understanding that it was to be available not only for dogs in which Mr. Chew had an interest, but for Barnard's dogs as well. There was no written agreement with the parties. As to the ownership or uses of the said kennel name, your Committee believe that under the circumstances the name as recorded should be cancelled. In their investigation of the case, the Committee learned that the aforesaid Orangeman was exhibited at Newark, Pittsburg and Atlantic City as the property of Wilson Bernard whereas in fact, according to the statement of Mr. Chew, and Mr. Barnard's own admission, he was not the bona fide owner of the dog at that time. Application for the registration of the kennel name was not made until the following November and at the ensuing Westminster Kennel Club Show in February, '03, the dog was again exhibited as Wilson Barnard, owner. It is obvious that under the rules that these wins of this dog must be cancelled and whether or not any further action is to be taken rests with the association. The Committee is of the opinion as it is shown by the evidence that in all these transactions Mr. Wilson Barnard was acting as agent for Mr. Chew and that the entries were made by said Barnard. Mr. Barnard explains that he endeavored to acquaint himself with the practice before entering this dog, and was informed by the Secretary of one of the shows that he thought it would be best to have the dog listed in Barnard’s name. The Committee is of the opinion that the present situation is the result of ignorance and carelessness and that malice or fraud has not been shown.

(Signed) Marcel A. Viti,
Chairman
On motion the same was accepted and the recommendations therein contained, adopted.

MR. VITI: Before we take up new business I have a motion I would like to make: Resolved, that a vote of thanks be extended to the President, Vice President and President of the Associate Members for the services they have rendered in courteously, faithfully and impartially presiding at the meetings of the Association during the last year, which conduct is deeply appreciated by the delegates. Resolution seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: It is now in order to take up the report of the Committee on Rules and Constitution.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that we read and vote on each section as it comes up.

The Secretary then read the report as follows:

Present: All members.

Mr. Vredenburgh was elected Secretary for the Committee for the year 1904. The question of the eligibility of James Watson to act upon this Committee being brought to the attention of the Committee after discussion the following preamble and resolution was unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, The Colorado K.C. having been suspended by a resolution of the American Kennel Club, at a meeting held December 3rd, 1903, the said Club cannot be represented by a delegate during the time of said suspension, and

WHEREAS, James Watson being the former delegate, and as such was duly elected a member of this Committee, and

WHEREAS, it is the sense of this committee that a precedent should be established subject to confirmation by the A.K.C. at its next meeting, it is

RESOLVED, that it is the sense of this Committee that the duly elected members of each Standing Committee, shall be privileged to act at all meetings of said Committees until a successor shall have been duly elected at either a special or regular meeting of the A.K.C.

Mr. Vredenburgh desiring to return from all Committees, requested permission to propose an amendment to the Constitution, as follows:

That the Secretary of the A.K.C. should cease to be a member of all Standing Committees."

MR. CARNOCHAN: In that matter we absolutely declined to take the request at all. We thought that the Secretary ought to be a member of all committees as Secretary of the American Kennel Club, and therefore we took no action but referred it to the Board of Delegates.
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It stands to reason that the Secretary is chiefly informed about everything that comes before the club, and while I should like to see him afforded as much relief as possible, I think it would be very impracticable to have him relieved of that, because he is the man we have got to go to any for information that we need.

THE SECRETARY: (Reading report) “Your Committee declined to act on his request and respectfully refers the matter to the American Kennel Club.

This Committee respectfully recommend the following additions, alterations and amendments to the Constitution and Rules:

The following amendments are standing resolutions that have been adopted from time to time under which the American Kennel Club is acting, but has never been incorporated in the Constitution of the Club.

Article 2. Add a paragraph to read as follows: “Publication in the Kennel Gazette the official organ of the Club, is sufficient notice to all persons interested in the general business transacted by the Club or its Committees.”

Article 9. Add to Section 3, beginning on the 8th line “the American Kennel Club will not consider nor render judgment in cases of complaint upon monetary transactions unless fraud, trickery or the like is obvious, and that in complaints where legal redress is possible and the above elements do not appear, the Club declines to act. All charges and specifications preferred for trial before the American Kennel Club should be duly sworn to before some qualified person.

Article 13. Add a new section “No. 5”. All Committee which may have any report to make, or may have any report to make to the American Kennel Club shall, so far as they themselves are concerned, consider such report as strictly confidential, and that the American Kennel Club shall be the only medium by or through which said reports can be made public.”

The Secretary: They are all standing resolutions which have been in force for years, and the Committee recommend that they be incorporated in the Constitution so they will be known without reference to them as old standing resolutions.

MR. CUTTER: I move these be incorporated into the Rules.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Those are all the proposed amendments to the Constitution that were standing rules. Now, we come to amendments to rules governing dog shows. These were all standing resolutions.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that where there has been no change made, those same ones may be incorporated in the Rules.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: (Reading amendments to rules governing shows) Add to Rule IV, the right to show a dog cannot be transferred by the owner by agreement, bargain, sale or lease.

Add to Rule VII, a bitch owned in this country and sent to any foreign country to be bred and returned to this country to whelp, the progeny shall be considered as American bred.

Alteration to Rule V, line 2, after the words “a prize”, insert the words “either in England or America”.

Rule XII, Section 7. Every show is guaranteed one point towards a championship. All shows to be rated on the actual number of dogs entered as follows: 1,000 dogs or over, five points; 750 dogs and under 1,000, four points; 500 dogs and under 750, three points; 250 dogs and under 500, two points; under 250 dogs, one point. On the Pacific coast, 400 dogs or over, five points; 300 dogs and under 400, four points; 200 dogs and under 300, three points; 100 dogs and under 200, two points; under 100 dogs, one point. The total number of points required for a championship to be ten, but the dog must make one win at a show whose rating is three points. Specialty clubs holding shows confined to their own breed, four points.

The Committee recommends the addition of the words “or more” to follow the words “three points” in Section 7. Mr. James Watson desired to be recorded as voting in the negative on the above Section.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I would like to make an amendment to that by adding to the words “whose rating is three points or more”, “and a total of fifteen points must have been won under at least three different judges”.

MR. JARRETT: It seems to me that the difficulty in winning a championship is already great enough, and you are only imposing greater hardship on the exhibitor if you make that rule. I should rather see the number of points stay at ten, because I think the addition of the three-point class or better, does away with the objection to this rule. Under this new rule you have added a three-point show, and in addition to that you have added another five points. I would like to make an amendment to the amendment that it remain at ten points as it is; that we simply add on the clause three-point shows or better.
Amendment seconded.

MR. CARNOCHAN: As the originator of this motion, I would like to state that the reason why this matter of change was brought up was simply to have plenty of discussion on it, and if the Board of Delegates consider that ten points are sufficient, I should vote in favor or ten points. The reason why the number of points was made fifteen was this: Some years ago three wins in the challenge class were sufficient to give a dog his championship. There came a time when we felt that it was too easy for the dog to win his championship, and we wanted to make it a little bit harder so that the title of Champion would mean a little more. Last summer there was an idea quite widespread in kenneldom that the title of Champion was now being won too easily. The change was made to fifteen points so as to make it a little harder. I think as the years go by we ought to increase the difficulty in making champions slightly, and as to the question of making a winner at three point shows—if that is considered sufficient increase by the Board of Delegates who are the judges in this matter, and who know better than any one else what should be the increase, let it be that. It seems to me by adding five points more a dog will have more difficulty in earning his championship.
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: By my amendment I want to add to the ten-point motion that it should be won under three different judges.

Amendment seconded and lost.

ME. CARNOCHAN: I accept that amendment, and we can vote on the whole thing at once.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I accept it as a member of the Rules Committee.

THE SECRETARY: I accept it as a member of the Rules Committee.

THE SECRETARY: (Reading) Rule XII, Section 5, line 5, after the words “open class”, new sentence: “Winners classes cannot be allowed where two or more breeds are combined.”

MR. JARRETT: I move that change adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: (Reading) Rule XII, Section 6, Line 2, Strike out the words “for which no regular class has been provided in the premium list” and substitute the words “which have not been otherwise provided for in the premium list, wither with a class for the breed itself or in combination with other breeds.”

MR. VITI: I should like to add an amendment to that. The Committee seems to have overlooked the many difficult-ties which are constantly arising in regard to the definition of the term “established breeds”. Very peculiar animals are continually creeping into the miscellaneous class. I would therefore move, as an amendment, we add after the word “breeds” “established breeds shall be such breeds as are now eligible to registration in the Stud Book, and such breeds as may hereafter be made eligible for such registration.” “A list of breeds recognized by the American Kennel Club must be published in every Premium list.” The Secretary of the Kennel Club could then send to each show secretary a list of the breeds that are eligible for registration in our Stud Book and when applications are made for the entry of these peculiar animals, he can check them off and see if they correspond with that list. If the name does not appear on that list, the entry cannot be accepted.

THE CHAIR: It is also a guide for the exhibitor.

MR. VITI: And furthermore, “that a list of breeds recognized b the American Kennel Club must appear in every prize list”, so that the exhibitor will have a guide, and he can turn to his prize list, and if he sees the name of that breed is not there he need not enter upon it. I do not think that American Kennel Club shows should degenerate into menageries, and I would add “that no dog whose breed does not appear upon the list of recognized breeds should be entitled to recognition in the American Kennel Club shows.”

   Amendment seconded and carried.

   THE SECRETARY (Reading) Rule XII, Section 5, line 15, after the word “medal”, add, “duplicate medals for champions cannot be issued.

   Rule XII, add new section.

   The term “field trial records” as used at all dog shows applied only to public trials where competition is open to all.

   Rule XV, add new paragraph as follows: “When a dog is disqualified for not complying with the condition of any class in which it is shown, that does not disqualify it from competing for specials offered in its breed and to which it may be eligible.”

   Rule XX, add new paragraph: “The term ‘One Exhibitor’ shall mean an individual or co-partnership, exhibiting as an individual, firm or kennel name.”

   Insert new Rule XXIII.

   “Rule XXIII. It is deemed conduct prejudicial to the best interests of dog shows for an exhibitor to affix any award, sign or notice over his dog of any prizes that his dogs have not won at that show unless it is specifically and distinctly stated on such notice the name of the show where the prize was awarded and the year in which that show
Was held.

The Superintendent of a show must remove such notices on his attention being called to the matter, and the exhibitor shall forfeit any prize or prizes won at that show to the American Kennel Club.”

On motion, the same was adopted.

THE SECRETARY: Change Rule XXIII to read Rule XXIV.
Change Rule XXIV to read Rule XXV.
On motion, the same was adopted.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I move that these new rules take effect June 1st.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move we now go into committee of the whole.
Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then went into Executive Session, after appointing Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh chairman.

The Committee on arising reported to the delegates as follows:

MR. VREDBEUGH: Mr. Chairman, the Committee of the Whole begs leaves to report that it has referred to its Stud Book Committee a certain matter, directing said Committee to investigate and report on this matter at its convenience, to the American Kennel Club in executive session. I also beg to report that there was a communication from the Pacific Kennel League which was laid on the table during the session of this meeting.
MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that it be taken from the table.
Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VENDENBURGH: The Committee of the Whole beg leave to report that the communication from the Pacific Kennel League was considered, and that he Secretary of the American Kennel Club was directed to notify the Pacific Kennel League that the matter had been referred to the Pacific Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club for its consideration and to report its recommendations to American Kennel Club.

It was moved and seconded that the recommendations of the Committee of the Whole, be adopted.
Carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

The report of the Membership Committee was read as follows:

New York, May 19, 1904

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day, the following applications for membership were duly acted upon:-

Feb. 23rd, 1904, New England Collie Club;
Apl. 27th, “ Russian Wolfhound Club;
May 9th, “ Hornellsville Kennel Club.

The application of the New England Collie Club carried with it the official consent and approval of the Collie Club of America. The above applications all being in accord with the provision of the Constitution, their admission is respectfully recommended. We will also report that the application of the Collie Breeders’ Association of Chicago, was laid on the table at the December, 1903 meeting, pending the consent of the Collie Club of America. The Secretary of the A.K.C. has Written to said Collie Club of America for its pleasure in the matter. A communication is on file from said Collie Breeders’ Association, sated April 5th, 1904, advising us that it had submitted to the Collie Club of America its standards, and an amendment to its constitution that it shall hold shows at such time and placed as may be decided on by the Board of Governors, except that no shows be held at dates previously claimed by the Collie Club of America with the American Kennel Club, and at no place east of the western limits of the State of Pennsylvania. The action of the Collie Club of America in the premises is submitted without comment.

The following credentials having been filed with the time limited by the Constitution, the acceptance of the same is respectfully recommended:

January 29, 1904: Massachusetts Kennel Club, appointing Philip W. Moen.

February 15, 1904: Jersey City Kennel Club, appointing Geo. M. McCarthy.

February 29, 1904: Irish Setter Club, appointing J.J. Donohue.

March 2, 1904: Airedale Terrier Club, appointing William L. Barclay.

March 21, 1904: Collie Club of America, appointing Edwin J. Van Schaick.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) S. Van Schaick
R. H. Williams

The New England Collie Club, Russian Wolfhound Club and Hornellsville Kennel Club were elected members of the American Kennel Club.

The following named delegates were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Philip W. Meon Massachusetts Kennel Club
George M. Mc Carthy Jersey City Kennel Club
William L. Barclay Airedale Terrier Club
Edwin J. Van Schaick Collie Club of America
William J. Berg Japanese Spaniel Club
J.J. Donohue Irish Setter Club of America

On motion the minutes of the last meeting of the American Kennel Club and also the minutes of the last meeting of the Executive Board were accepted as published in the Gazette.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to say, so that it may become a matter of record, that in one of the cases before the Executive Board at its last meeting, the appeal of Mr. Edwin H. Morris for re-instatement, Mr. Viti, who was present at the meeting, did not take part in those proceedings, but withdrew, and through an oversight that fact was not stated in the published minutes.

The Secretary then read his regular quarterly report as follows:

New York, May 19, 1904

To The American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:-

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly report. All matters within the province of our Standing Committee have been referred to such Committee and their reports will be presented at this meeting. Certain matters affecting the Pacific Coast, were referred to our Pacific Advisory Committee for investigation and said Committee has reported its action under the dates of February 22\textsuperscript{nd} and March 5\textsuperscript{th}, and the same will be submitted to you at this meeting.

The Central Beagle Club has tendered its resignation and as it is in good standing the same is in order, and I would recommend its acceptance.

At the late show of the Westminster Kennel Club certain entries were accepted from a person not in good standing, and by direction of our Executive Board, I called upon the said Club to show cause why action should not be taken against it; the answer will be submitted to you at this meeting.

I beg to report that the Montreal Canine Association, a member of this Club is good standing, has just held a show governed by Canadian Kennel Club Rules, and it will now rest with you whether or not any action shall be taken in the premises.

On December 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 1903, I mailed a check for $25.00 to the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club, the same being a return of the deposit said Club made with their claim for show dates. I am advised by the Secretary of the Club, that said check has never been received, nor has it ever been returned to this office. I stopped payment on the check on April 18, 1904, and request authority to issue a duplicate.

I beg to report the charges for misconduct preferred by S.W. Franklin, against Frederick E. Rice. Said charges will be submitted to the Executive Board at its first meeting.

At the annual meeting I was directed to drop all Clubs whose dues were in arrears after thirty days. Final bills were mailed to such Clubs on February 11\textsuperscript{th}, and on March 11\textsuperscript{th} following I dropped from the roll of membership the Atlanta Kennel Club, Colorado Kennel Club, Coshocton Kennel Club, Hoosier Poultry & Kennel Association, Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Sixth District Agricultural Association, Southwestern Kennel Club and Twin City Kennel Club.

At the forthcoming dog show to be held by the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, 1904, I am advised by the Department of Live Stock that no entries can be accepted at that show, by REGISTERED DOGS. One of the conditions of the entry must be the filing with the Exposition a certificate, the form for which will be supplied by the Exposition, which must certify the breed, name, Stud Book number, and Volume of the Stud Book, the year in which said dog was registered, and the owner. This certificate must be filled out and signed by the Secretary of the National Club of the country from which the dog is entered. The above service will entail considerable work by this office, and I would respectfully recommend that a resolution should be adopted at this meeting, fixing the fee for each certificate so issued at twenty-five cents ($0.25).

I beg to report that the annual Stud Book for 1903 was shipped to all Associates and Subscribers on May 2nd, 1904, by Wells, Fargo & Company Express.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer then read his report as follows:

New York, May 19, 1904

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

I beg to submit here with my regular quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand, January 1st, 1904 -----------------------------$14,114.09
Receipts from January 1st to date-------------------------------  6,956.99
Total ----------------------------------------------------------$21,071.08
Disbursements from January 1st to date------------------------ 6,257.62
Balance on hand---------------------------------------------$14,813.46

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A.P. Vrendenburgh,

Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

-REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES:

The Secretary read the report of the Stud Book Committee as follows:

The Stud Book Committee reports that the following
APPLICATIONS FOR KENNEL NAMES have been made and as none of them conflict with any already registered, it is recommended that they be allowed:

ASBURY       R.H. Dane
BRAEMAR       Geo. C. Huhn
DREAMLAND     W.H. Kelley
EPSOM         John W. Griffin
GLEN ROCK     Dr. J. Fletcher Lutz
INGAFIELD     William H. Whittem
KING LUD      John W. Merriam
KISMET         J.H. Brookfield
KWEENEE     W. De Mond and Hattie T. Humphrey LACKAWANNA   Wilson Bailey
LEETSDALE     Thos. S. Arbuthnot
PARKHILL      Louis Fernandez
ROB ROY       M.W. Robinson
ROSEMARY      Miss H.G. Parlett
ROSSMERE      P.C. Garrigan
WILLOWMERE   Miss A.A. Marks

Also the application for transfer of the name Presto to James A. Davis, from the executrix of Dr. J.V. Mott.

-APPLICATIONS TO AMEND-BELFAST      W. Ballantyne
EDGEMONT SPRINGS     Edgemont Springs Kennel Club (Incorporated)
MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: According to the rules the transfer of any prefix or affix must be done only on the written authority of the original holder, so I cannot see how under the rules we can pass that word “Presto,” the original owner of the same having died before it was transferred.

MR. VITI: The Stud Book Committee thought it was the right of Dr. Mott, and as such it passed to his representative, who was his executrix, his widow. If it passed to her, she certainly had the right to dispose of it, and it was upon those grounds alone that the Stud Book Committee acted.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Then we should first repeal the law we have passed. That rule was made on my own motion, that no affix or prefix could be transferred except upon written authority.

MR. VITI: That was the case of ‘Dunollie.’ That case differs from the one here in a very important respect. There was not transfers made of the name “Dunollie,” nor was there any transfer asked for. In that case a stranger made an application for the name “Dunollie,” which was denied because it was held to belong to the estate of Mr. Tilford. If a stranger had applied for the name “Preston,” it would have been denied, because that would have been a similar case to “Dunollie”, but here is an application made by the legal representative of the person who owned the name, asking leave to transfer it.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the names and transfers be granted as approved by the Committees.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The next business in order is the Pacific Advisory Committee’s report.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that it be laid on the table until we take it up as a Committee of the Whole.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I will now read a communication from the Pacific Advisory Committee which is not included in the motion just passed. The communication is as follows:

Special Meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee,

#490 California Street, San Francisco,

February 27, 1904

Present: De Ruyter, Chairman, Harley, Norman

Absent: Carlton

Minutes of Meeting held October 27th, 1903, read and ap-
Newman vs. San Francisco Kennel Club: Complaint of non-receipt of special prizes, consisting of Philadelphia Dog Show Association Medal and a silver cup. The Secretary of the San Francisco Kennel Club replies that: Mr. L.A. Klein was Secretary and Manager of the Show in 1902, and had full charge of all cups and medals; therefore the S.F.K.C. is unable to give any information as to the location of the trophies in question. The S.F.K.C. also pleads, that the complainant did not file his complaint within the statutory period of six months from date of the closing of the show.

Ordered filed, and the Secretary was directed to inform Mr. Newman of the answer of the San Francisco Kennel Club.

In the matter of the publication in the Gazette of the list of members of this Committee: The Secretary of the American Kennel Club reporting that the name of the an ex-member had been continued therein through inadvertence, the latter was ordered filed.

The Committee on Membership reported that after long canvassing it had arrived at the conclusion that Dr. W.P. Burnham would prove a valuable addition to the roll: It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted, and that Dr. W.P. Burnham be nominated to the American Kennel Club for appointment to this Committee. Carried.
The Secretary then read a communication from the Pacific Kennel League, referred to this Committee by resolution of the Delegates of the American Kennel Club at the annual meeting held February 9th. A list of “conditions” accompanied the communication:

After some discussion it was Resolved, that:

WHEREAS the interpolation of the condition that all the conditions presented herewith must be accepted or rejected as a whole, make acceptance of the same an impossibility, on account of some of the said conditions being diametrically opposed both to the Constitution and Policy of the American Kennel Club, the further discussion of this subject be deferred until the next meeting of the Committee, and the Secretary be and hereby is directed to invite Norman J. Stewart as the most prominent representative of the Pacific Kennel League in California to be present at the next meeting, in order to advise and confer with the Committee, in regard to the proposals before the meeting.

The Chair then adjourned the meeting until Saturday, March 5th, the meeting to be held at the Occidental Hotel at 2 P.M.

Attest,

J.P. Norman,
Secretary
THE SECRETARY: I report the resignation of the Central Beagle Club.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move the resignation be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: At the late show held by the Westminster Kennel Club there were five entries accepted from a disqualified person. This matter was reported to the Executive Board, and the Executive Board directed the Secretary to send word to The Westminster Kennel Club requesting it to show cause why some action should not be taken. The Secretary took such action, and on May 4th received a communication which I will read to you.

The Secretary then read the communication.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that this matter be referred to the Executive Board for action.

MR. MORTIMER: Before this matter is referred to the Executive Board I should like to say that I received those entries under a misapprehension. I did not know that he was a disqualified man, not did I have the slightest suspicion in that regard, or I should not have accepted the entry. The Westminster Kennel Club is of course responsible for my act in the matter, I being their Superintendent, but I assure you that there was no desire on my part to accept the entries of a disqualified man. We have taken every possible step to recover the prize money, and have paid the money over to the exhibitors who came next in order to the Wins awarded to the entries made by the disqualified exhibitor. While I am not here to represent the Westminster Kennel Club I hope the American Kennel Club will accept my explanation and apology for anything of the kind having happened. It was carelessness on my part entirely.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: The Westminster Kennel Club has made good the prizes to those who were next in order?

MR. MORTIMER: Yes, that has already been done.

The motion to refer the matter to the Executive Board was then carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Montreal Canine Association has just completed a show held under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club. This Montreal Club is a member in good standing of the American Kennel Club, and I report the matter so that this meeting can take such action as it deems proper. I first saw the statement made in the Canadian Kennel Gazette, and I wrote to the Secretary of the Montreal Club asking if that article was based on fact, and I received a communication replying in the affirmation.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Is there not a certain modus operandi in cases of that kind?

THE CHAIR: I cannot recall any specific rule. I should think it ought to come up under the general heading of conduct prejudicial to this Association.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I can see only one thing to do, and that is, they must be thrown out.

MR. BUCKLEY: Does not the disqualification of a club involve the personal disqualification of its officers?

THE CHAIR: Yes.

MR. BUCKLEY: I happen to know something about it because at that time I was up in the Adirondacks for my health, and I was right near the Secretary of the Montreal Club, and he said to me then – although the matter had not then progressed so far as it has up to this time – that he realized that there was going to be a fight over this matter. I heard a conversation between him and two others, all the details of which of course I do not recollect, but they did say they were very much against anything but an A.K.C. show, and Mr. Laurin is one of the most ardent champions of the American Kennel Club that I know of. Among other things he will not sell a dog except with the proviso it is registered with the American Kennel Club, and in every way I know he is an earnest supporter of the American Kennel Club, and while without any doubt it would be advisable to take the usual steps, I think in this case some thought should be given to the personal disqualification of those who are our very warm friends.

THE CHAIR: Is he an officer of the Canadian Club?

MR. BUCKLEY: Yes.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: If they are in good standing they could have resigned. Failing to do that I think we ought to take a different course. They had the absolute right simply to resign. Nobody would have stopped them, and there would have been nothing in it.

THE CHAIR: There are three things you can do. You can either drop them or suspend them or disqualify, them according to the way in which you view the matter.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It should be disqualification because they had every opportunity to resign. We had no right to refuse their resignation. They refused to do that.

THE CHAIR: May be the idea was never suggested.

MR. MORTIMER: I cannot see what right we have to disqualify them.

THE CHAIR: I think you are right in this respect, that they are entitled to notice under our rules I do not think we can take summary action against them.

MAJOR TAYLOR: Would not a suspension cover the case?

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the Secretary be instructed to prefer charges against the Montreal Canine Association for holding shows under other than American Kennel Club rules.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: On December 3\textsuperscript{rd}, in connection with certain other clubs, I sent to the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club a check to return their deposit for their date claim for their September show. When I had my bank account balanced for the Finance Committee's examination on the 20\textsuperscript{th} of January, I found that this check was not returned. I then communicated with the Secretary of the Bryn Mawr Club, telling him that I had sent his check to him, and he replied that he would look it up. I only received his letter on April 13th. That is over four months after the check had been issued, and he said that the check had never been received, nor could he get any trace of it. I sent it in one of our envelopes with our return card on, and it has never been returned to us, and the check has never passed through the bank. On the 18th of April I stopped payment. I should like to have instructions what to so in the matter, whether to issue a duplicate check or not.

THE CHAIR: I should think you could do that as a matter of office work.

THE SECRETARY: I would if it was a matter of a few days, but when it is four months, I do not care to do it without instructions.

MR. BUCKLEY: The Post Offices in that Section of the country are mostly railroad post offices; they are at railroad stations, as you know, and it is reported that there has been a gang operating – I do not know that they operated in this district, but a great many post offices have been broken open in connection with railroad stations and a great deal of mail matter destroyed.
MR. VAN SCHAICK: I move that a duplicate check be issued.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Do you want to hear the charges of misconduct which have been made? That should be acted upon by the Executive Board.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I do not think they come to us.

THE SECRETARY: The request has often been made and usually complied with in order that the delegates may know what is being referred to the Executive Board.

MR. MORTIMER: I ask that the charges be read. The charges were then read.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the matter take the usual course.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The application of the Collie Breeders’ Association was laid on the table at the December Meeting. I have a letter here for the Collie Club of America on the subject.

It was moved and seconded that the matter be taken up for discussion.
Carried.
The Secretary then read the correspondence in relation to the matter.

THE CHAIR: The present rule of this Association is that no specialty club can be admitted unless it has received the endorsement of the older one. I do not think that an additional endorsement is allowable because that would practically be pursuant to the rule of the American Kennel Club. I cannot see how this application is in order at all, there being no consent given. That was adopted by the delegates at the December meeting.

MR. CARNOCHAN: There is one thing in connection with this that I cannot understand, and that is this, if it is the Collie Club’s standard by which they will allow admission to the American Kennel Club of a subsidiary club, how they cam to pass unanimously and give their consent to the admission of a club that we have admitted to-day, the New England Collie Club. They said that the New England Collie Club was all right. That was certainly not confined to one State in New England, but it was for the whole of New England, and it is certainly not confined to a lesser number of point rating out there. They have charged regular club dues, but they passed that and at the same meeting they put a statement of that sort before us of what they proposed to do.

THE CHAIR: It does not seem to be very consistent, but it is an internal affair of theirs.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: If they can dictate like that, how can we admit their delegates here, if it is a subsidiary club?

THE CHAIR: They are not subsidiary. We will practically have to amend our Constitution to receive them.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think they want us “to pull their chestnuts out of the fire” for them.

MR. EDWIN J. VAN SCHAICK: In admitting the New England Collie Club, their Constitution and their standard are practically the same as ours. Their standard was the same as ours. They did not wish in any way to conflict with us. If we should choose a date they had decided on, they would waive their right in favor of the old club, and on those conditions alone it was decided by the members at that annual meeting to admit the New England Club, and the Breeders’ Association did not propose to consider the Collie Club of America one way or the other. They would not waive any right in our favor with regard to dates of holding shows. They are antagonistic, and they show it not only in their list, which I have received of the officers of the clubs, but in every way they wished to show that it was their desire to cut loose from the Collie Club of America, and try to run shows or an organization so as to take away from our club. It is for these reasons that we do not care to have them admitted to membership in the American Kennel Club. As a local concern we are perfectly willing they should come in.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The Collie Breeders’ Association wants to localize their shows to West of Pennsylvania. Am I right in that?

MR. EDMUND J. VAN SCHIACK: I think that pretty nearly covers the whole United States.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Do you not think New York State and New York City amounts to something? Why do you partition off the New England States?

MR. VAN SCHIACK: That was done at the last annual meeting.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I am simply asking for information in regard to the matter. I cannot see that your cup holds water.

MR. VAN SCHIACK: They certainly did permit the New England Club to hold shows in New England according to their statements there.
THE CHAIR: These delegates decided in December that no specialty club should be admitted hereafter if it provided for, a breed that already had a specialty club that was a member here, unless as a condition precedent, it received the endorsement of the older specialty club.

MR. CARNOCHAN: My only question in the matter is the fact that what is meat for New Englanders is not meat for the Westerners, and on that account I must say it would seem as if it was within the province of the delegates of the American Kennel Club to examine into this matter pretty closely and ascertain why the line is drawn against one section of the country and not against the other.

MR. VAN SCHIACK: I think most of the members out West are members of the Collie Club of America, and are in good standing, but this Breeders’ Association is merely a handful of men in Chicago. When they organized they were at this meeting. They were brought in, and they said although at present our fee is $25, we will get in for nothing, but whoever comes in after this shall be admitted on the payment of $25. Several of those gentlemen have resigned.

MR. MOORE: As I understand it, the matter under discussion is, shall the Breeders’ Society be admitted or not; in view of the fact that we passed a rule in December that they should not be admitted unless approved of by the parent club, how can we discuss the matter now. I put that in the form of a point of order.

THE CHAIR: The Chair sustains that point of order.

MR. MOORE: I think it is in the province of the Secretary to answer those communications and see if he cannot bring about an understanding between the two bodies. I move that the Secretary be requested to write to both parties with that end in view.

THE CHAIR: And send them a copy of the motion that was carried at the December meeting.

MR. MOORE: I will add that to my motion.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I should like to know whether you desire this letter form the Collie Club of America spread upon the minutes.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: So long as we cannot take any action on the matter, how can their communication be spread upon minutes?

MR. BUCKLEY: It was part of the discussion.
MR. MOORE: In view of the fact that the Secretary is authorized to continue the correspondence, I should think it ought to be spread upon the minutes.

THE CHAIR: It is part of the discussion and otherwise acted upon, and therefore I think it should go in the minutes.

MR. BUCKLEY: It was on that letter that the ruling was made, because that brought out the fact that the Collie Club did not approve of the Collie Breeders' Association.

Collie Club of America
Fayetteville, Pa.,
May 17th, 1904

Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary American Kennel Club, N.Y.

My dear Sir:

In accordance with the resolution passed at the annual meeting of the Collie Club of America regarding the Collie Breeders Association, this latter organization has just acknowledged our request by submitting their Constitution and By-laws. The same have been duly considered by the Collie Club of America and I am officially empowered to write you as follows, so that you may lay the same before the delegates of the American Kennel Club for their earnest and mature consideration: Firstly, the two clubs that have applied for recognition in the American Kennel Club are the New England Collie Club and Louisville Collie Club. There two Clubs were recognized by the Collie Club only as local organizations, the former confined to the New England States, the latter to Louisville. Both Clubs have adopted the standard laid down by the Collie Club of America, and furthermore, they are not in opposition to the Collie Club of America. The Collie Breeders’ Association, however, according to their own Constitution, wish the right to take in the entire United States with the privilege of holding shows as far east as Pennsylvania and as far West as the Pacific Coast. Their type idea differs somewhat from that of the Collie Club of America. This is detrimental to the Breed. Our type and standard are those in use in Scotland and England and up to date in America. We cannot afford to have any deviation from these standards. In spite of the fact that the Collie Breeders’ Association have in every one of their actions manifested a desire to down the Collie Club of America, we are willing to recognize them under conditions to be stated later.

It should be understood, however, that our membership includes more men in the West than in the East, and that as an illustration of our ability to protect and cater to the same we held our show in Milwaukee this year and made it a great success, the greatest success of any Specialty Show ever held in the United States, and practically all the entries were made by Western men, members of the Collie Club of America, and without any support form the Collie Breeders’ Association although we practically came to their doors. Does this demonstrate or not, our ability as a National Organization? To not only cater to the Western breeders, members of our Club, but to our Eastern members as well? Another thing I should like to call attention to is the fact of admitting Specialty Clubs unlimitedly. No matter how small the organization the American Kennel Club admits them all on the same basis, and this is not a case where the more shows the better for the dog. No matter how few the dogs or how small the locality you have no jurisdiction over the number of shows they shall hold. Specialty Clubs are allowed four points for winners and there is nothing to prevent these small organizations holding twenty shows a year and turning out champions by the wholesale. They have nothing to sacrifice and everything to gain. This is not the policy of any Specialty Club in the United States. They hold an annual show and put up better prize money than is given at any regular show and it has been our experience in our two annual shows that the quality and competition was far in excess greater than that encountered in regular shows. This deserves consideration, and we as the National Body representing the Collie in America deserve the protection of the American Kennel Club in that our unselfish interest has been demonstrated by our supports of the Breed in the years past.

Upon the following conditions the Collie Club of America is willing to accept the Collie Breeders’ Association, or any other Collie Organization that may apply for admission to the American Kennel Club.

1st. That they be recognized not as a National Organization but as a Local Organization, the word local meaning the confining the holding of shows to the State in which the organization is formed.

2nd. That their rating in winners shall not be on a par with the National Organization, The Collie Club of America.

3rd. That their standard of type for judging shall be identical with that adopted by Collie Club of America and that no other standard be recognized until said standard is amended by the Collie Club of America.

4th. That they shall not hold shows on dates conflicting with those taken by the Collie Club of America.

5th. That the Collie Breeders’ Association or any other organization applying for admission to the American Kennel Club lend their support to the Collie Club of America and will do nothing detrimental to its interests. Upon these conditions not subject to amendment, does the Collie Club of America give its sanction to the admission of the Collie Breeders’ Association to the American Kennel Club, and we earnestly appeal to the Delegates of the American Kennel Club for their hearty co-operation, for, after mature consideration, we not only feel, but know, it is for the interest of the Breed which we represent, and furthermore, we know that there are other Collie Clubs forming which are about to apply for admission and limitation of rights is the only thing that can protect one and all.

I am,

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Wm. C. Hunter, Secretary,

Collie Club of America

THE SECRETARY: I should like to have some action in connection with the proposed charge for possible certificates that will be demanded of the American Kennel Club for the World’s Fair registration.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I raise the point of order that we have already a certified pedigree for which the charge is fifty cents. I cannot see why you should make any cheaper rating than that.

THE CHAIR: This includes the name of the dog. In other words, it is a duplicate receipt.
MR. CARNOCHAN: Why should we charge anything for the receipt.

THE CHAIR: You do not charge anything for the original receipt, and the exhibitor can file that original receipt with his entry, but if he wants a duplicate receipts, so he may keep the original for himself, or if he has lost the original and has to have a duplicate, the Secretary’s thought is that that will involve a certain amount of expense to the American Kennel Club which should be defrayed by the person who owns the dog, and not by the American Kennel Club.

MR. CARNOCHAN: It seems unjust to charge the second time.

THE SECRETARY: In other words, you want to show ten dogs that you may have registered in the last two or three years, and we have rendered the service for your fee, and as you have the registry receipt, you do not care for that receipt, you do not care for that receipt, but you want to a certification from the American Kennel Club that that dog was registered in such a year, in such a volume, by such a person, signed and given to you so you can file that with your entry.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I should think at the present time if a man came here and asked for that you would give him a certified pedigree for fifty cents.

THE SECRETARY: The certified pedigree is entirely a different service.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Why should there by any charge for making out a second receipt?

MR. CARNOCHAN: If we make out several hundred, we shall have to get more help.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Are you not in favor of helping the St. Louis Exposition?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, but I think we should have a remuneration.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I do not think we should charge for a second receipt.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: If I lose my original certificate, can I not come here for duplicate?

THE SECRETARY: You can.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: The Secretary is right, because the St. Louis Exposition will furnish the blank, but I do think we could afford to give the certificate free.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I personally cannot see any difference between this case and the case of the man who comes and gets a receipt the first time he wants.
to register his dog.

THE SECRETARY: He pays for that. Do you want to do it again in the case of one or a dozen or five hundred. We were going to do the same think in connection with the Chicago Fair. You were going to charge twenty-five cents.

(At this stage the Chairman resigned the Chair to Mr. Price).

MR. VITI: I think it would be a great mistake to charge twenty-five cents. I think the American Kennel Club is able to afford that. It would not cost us twenty-five cents to get it out. You can issue them on certain days. You can say that on a certain day a receipt will go out, and a clerk will be employed for a few days to do the work on that particular day.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Cannot our clerks do it here?

MR. VITI: At most it would not involve twenty-five cents to the American Kennel Club.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that they be issued free.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to amend that motion by substituting that duplicate receipts of registry be issued to anybody free who may apply for them.

THE SECRETARY: That is done. The Live Stock
Department of the Louisiana Exposition furnishes a certain form. They do not propose to accept our registration receipt or a duplicate thereof; they propose to furnish a certain form, and that form is to be filled out by the Secretary of each National Club. Mr. Carnochan’s motion that we issue a duplicate receipt without cost is entirely unnecessary, because it is done every day. We are not to issue any such receipt. We are asked to issue a special one.

At this stage Mr. Viti resumes the Chair.

THE CHAIR: This is a certificate, not a receipt.

THE SECRETARY: If a man registers his dog, he pays a dollar for that registration, which entitles him to a receipt, giving the name of the dog, the breed and the number of the dog; but if he wants a certified pedigree he is not entitled to it unless he pays for it. That is an entirely different service. If you ask for a third service, it is for the delegates to say whether that third service will be given free or whether a charge will be made therefore. It is immaterial to me. This whole matter will have to be gone through with before our next meeting.

THE CHAIR: Probably it is not quite clear to you that there is a receipt issued by this office when a dog is registered; in addition to that there is a certified pedigree with which you are familiar, and then it is proposed to issue a third document.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to ask the question, why should we issue a third document?

THE CHAIR: Because the St. Louis Exposition requires the same certificate for horses, cattle, sheep, dogs, etc., issued uniformly. It does not confirm with the exact language of ours, although it is in substance the same. They propose sending one to the Canadian Kennel Club, one to the American Kennel Club, one to the English Kennel Club and one to the French Kennel Club, if you will look at that receipt you will see it is different from anything that has ever been used in this office.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Personally I do not see any reason for charging for it.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: We have pledged ourselves to support the St. Louis
Show as a body.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I rise to a point of order.

THE CHAIR: The question before us now is whether or not a charge shall be made.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I have made a motion that we give that certificate free.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I moved to amend it simply to read to anybody free.

MR. BUCKLEY: In discussing that amendment, it would seem that the practice of giving a receipt to any one who asked for it for registration of a dog might prove a bad one, in the hands of those who chose to make it so by endorsing the sale of a dog on a receipt, and obtaining another receipt, and possibly substituting another dog and endorsing that one, and so on ad libitum; so I think the amendment would be distinctly unfortunate one.

MR. MOORE: I would like to move to amend that the Secretary be allowed to choose his dates for issuing those certificates, he to be allowed clerk hire to carry the matter out, and that it be for the sole use of entries for the St. Louis Exposition, and not be used at any other show.

The motion as amended by Mr. Moore was seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have just received this resolution:

Resolved that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club be and hereby is instructed that on and after this date no official business or communication connected with the affairs of the American Kennel Club shall be given out until such time as same has been published in the official organ of the club, namely, the American Kennel Gazette. G. Muss-Arnolt, May 20th, 1904 Delegates Great Dane Club

MR. MOORE: I second the motion.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I am not very much of a business man, but I cannot see why we should permit our communications to go out when we have a paper which is really sustained and supported by this club, in which our official business and communications are published. It is not a readable paper in general; it is simply a paper which contains our proceedings etc. We are running this on charity, I suppose. Usually everybody is anxious that we hoard up all the money we can, and in this way of handing over our affairs for publication by the press, we are throwing it away. Why do we publish the Gazette? We can read the matter that is in it weeks ahead of its appearance in other papers. I think it is very bad business, that we should give out our very substance that we can print in the Gazette. If we do not want that, let us stop the Gazette.
MR. MOORE: My reason for seconding that motion was that I noticed that these go out to the press, and sometimes they look pretty rocky. I think directions should be given to the Secretary to look over the report of the stenographer before it is given out to any one to print, and that would be the case if it was published first in the Gazette, and I think that being the official organ, it should first appear there.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to ask Mr. Muss-Arnolt to what report he refers.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Everything that is official business.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Do I understand that that motion would rescind a motion passed here that all documents of the Kennel Club are obtainable by the press if they apply for them.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Certainly, because it should not be obtainable for publication before it is first published in the Gazette.

MR. CARNOCHAN: You know that there was a resolution of that kind here, do you not?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Yes, but I stand by what I have said. I do not think it is right, for why should we have an official paper?

MAJOR TAYLOR: I understand that one of the best stenographers in New York is employed here, and that this matter goes before the Secretary before it is sent out, and I do not see why it should not go out in good shape.

THE SECRETARY: That is so. I have got to have copies to revise. I usually get them the day on which they have to be mailed to the West.

MR. MORTIMER: I do not think that the American Kennel Club can be blamed for the language that is used in any publication. I think it would be very poor policy on the part of this club if it withheld its information. The Gazette is published once a month. Very often matters of business are transacted in connection with which no harm can be done by giving it to the public press.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It does harm in regard to our business.

MR. MORTIMER: So far as the business is concerned, the American Kennel Club is getting wealthy. I do not know what more you want.

MR. BUCKLEY: May I ask whether the information given out to these papers is recorded and noted in any paper in which it may be published as unofficial, or whether it is the official report of the meeting.

THE CHAIR: The Gazette is the only official organ of the American Kennel Club.

MR. BUCKLEY: Is it so noted in the papers in which it is published?

THE CHAIR: I am not responsible for that; I do not know. I very rarely have an opportunity to read them.

THE SECRETARY: They are unsigned reports.

MAJOR TAYLOR: The treasury would not seem to show that it has been very seriously injured by the press aboard.

MR. HOPTON: I think by the press copying the reports of the meeting of the Club does the Club much good, because numbers of people read it, while lost of people do no subscribe to the Kennel Gazette.

MR. MOORE: In view of what has been said I withdraw my second of that motion.

THE CHAIR: The matter is not before the house if it is not seconded.

MR. HOPTON: Has any report been furnished by the Committee on Express Charges?

THE CHAIR: Have you received any report from that Committee?

SECRETARY: No.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to state, as Chairman of that Committee, that I have endeavored to reach Mr. Rockefeller, one of the members of the Committee, with whom I propose to interview the various Express Companies. So far I have been unable to see him. I have written him several letters. He has been away our West on various trips. The last communication I had was from his Secretary saying he would return and give the matter his attention. I have been for that reason unable to hold a meeting of the Committee.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move we now go into executive session.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Delegates then went into Executive Sessions, Mr. Vredenburgh being selected Chairman.

MR. VREDEBURGH: I beg to report that the American Club, in Executive Session, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, that the Chairman of the Executive Committee here in session now reports to the Chairman of the Board of Delegates the following result of the Executive session: that the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Board be spread on the minutes of the regular meeting, and that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club be instructed to write to the Pacific Kennel League through the Pacific Advisory Committee that the American Kennel Club must decline the proposition form the Pacific Kennel League to join the American Kennel Club for the reasons stated in the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Board; also that if the Pacific Kennel League will submit a proposition in conformity with the recommendations contained in the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Board, the American Kennel Club will be glad to entertain it.

THE CHAIR: You have heard the report of the Chairman of the Executive Session. What is your pleasure?

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that it be accepted.

Motion seconded and carried.

Copy of the adjourned meeting of the Pacific Advisory Board, held March 5\textsuperscript{th}, 1904, follows:

Present: De Ruyter, Chairman, Carlton, Harlye, Norman.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.
The Secretary read a letter from Norman J. Stewart, replying to the invitation of this Committee. The letter being marked confidential and containing a statement of his inability to attend the meeting and giving reasons therefore, was ordered filed, without being spread on the minutes of the Committee.

On motion the unfinished business of the previous meeting was taken up.

It was moved and seconded that the “Conditions” submitted by the Pacific Kennel League be considered and discussed seriatim. Carried.

Condition No. 1. --- That the American Kennel Club recognize all wins heretofore made by the dogs under Pacific Kennel League rules, including those wins made under the Canadian Kennel Club rules in British Columbia, which have been recognized by the Pacific Kennel League.

Moved that the Committee recommend the rejection of this Condition. Seconded and carried.

Condition No. 2 --- That the Pacific Advisory Board shall consist of one delegate from each Club, which is a member of the Pacific Kennel League, together with the members of the said Board now acting under Moved that this Committee be made representative and elective in the following manner: That any show-giving club on the Coast, a member of the American Kennel Club, shall have the power to request this Committee to nominate to the American Kennel Club for appointment to this Committee, any delegates, a resident of San Francisco, that they may select, and this Committee shall nominate such delegate so designated to it.

Seconded and carried.

Condition No. 3. --- That the Pacific Advisory Board of the American Kennel Club, as above organized, be empowered with full authority to arbitrate and regular the internal affairs of the Pacific Coast Clubs; that its findings in the event of an appeal being taken by an exhibitor, be absolute and final.

Moved that this Committee cannot recommend that it be endowed with the right to interfere in the internal affairs of any Club. This Committee already possesses the power to regulate and decide disputes between Clubs and Clubs or between Clubs and Exhibitors, but the Committee cannot recommend that its decisions be made absolutely final, without allowing the recourse of an appeal to the parent body.

Seconded and carried.

Condition No. 4. --- That each Club be empowered to elect its own member to such Advisory Board, and that each member of the Pacific Kennel League shall be entitled to one representative on such Board, to be elected as herein provided.

Moved that this Condition being apparently in conflict with Condition No. 2, the Committee repeats its recommendation under that Condition, with the understanding, that no Club, not being a member of the American Kennel Club, can be represented on the Committee.

Seconded and carried.

Moved and seconded that the Secretary be instructed to transmit with the least possible delay to the American Kennel Club, the foregoing recommendations as the result of the mature deliberations and consideration of this Committee.

Carried.

There being no further business under the call for the meeting, the Committee adjourned, subject to call of the Chair.

Attest,

J.P. Norman,
Secretary.
The meeting then adjourned.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting were laid over until the next regular meeting.

The call for the special meeting was read by the Chair, which was as follows:
New York, July 25, 1904.

To the Delegates:

You are hereby notified of the requested to attend a special meeting of the American Kennel Club, at the office of the Club, 55 Liberty Street, New York, on Thursday, August 4, 1904, at 3 o’clock P.M.

Business – To consider communication of the St. Louis Exposition.

By order of the President.

A.P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary

The following letter from Col. Charles F. Mills, Chief Department of Live Stock, Universal Exposition, St. Louis was read:-

Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary American Kennel Club,

55 Liberty St., New York.

Mr. dear Sir:

It has been suggested by a number of leading dog fanciers who have arranged to make exhibits at the kennel show of the Universal Exposition of 1904, that the value of the awards might be greatly increased by their full recognition and publication by the various National Kennel Clubs interested in the compilation of Stud Books.
The gentlemen composing the advisory committee, representing the American Dog Fanciers, in connection with the Universal Exposition of 1904, and consisting of Messrs. August Belmont, John G. Kent and Marcel A. Viti, in their announcement to exhibitors of dogs at the World’s Fair, refer to the matter of recognizing the awards as follows:

“It has been decided that inasmuch as the World’s Fair Kennel Show is universal in character, and is to be held under rules approved by the officers of the kennel clubs of this and foreign countries, we will favor the proposition that the wins at the Universal Exposition of 1904 shall be published in the home and foreign Kennel Club Stud Books.”

The classification for the kennel show of the Exposition, a copy of which has been sent you, will soon be published in pamphlet form to meet the unexpected demand from prospective exhibitors of dogs.

It is suggested that the action of your club in reference to this matter be embodied in a resolution which can be published in the final edition of the Kennel Show Prize List, which will soon go to the printer.

In this connection the matter of Specialty Club prizes and their announcement in the Kennel Show Prize List may be of sufficient importance to influence you to write the officers of such clubs and to urge them to make liberal provision for prizes for exhibits at the Worlds’ Fair of the breeds in which they are respectfully interested.

All such special prizes should be determined on the exhibits made at the Worlds’ Fair and not contingent on further winnings at any later shows.

You will see the necessity of having each Specialty Club advise this Department direct, and without delay, of the special prizes they desire to offer for Worlds’ Fair exhibits, which should be in the form of cash or valuable metal.

Very truly yours,

Charles F. Wills,
Chief of Dept. of Live Stock.

The subject matter of Col. Mills’ letter was thoroughly discussed, and resulted in the adoption of the following resolution, offered by Ancel H. Ball, and duly seconded by Frank H. Croker:-

Resolved, That the American Kennel Club agrees, under a suspension of its rules, to publish a record of the wins of dogs shown at the Universal Exposition, at St. Louis Mo., October 25 to 28, 1904, in the American Kennel Gazette and the American Kennel Club Stud Book; and if a certificate of winnings be requested on such dogs same be given, stating that a St. Louis win was made under a suspension of the American Kennel Club rules. It is also understood that the winnings at St. Louis shall not count for or against a dog, or in any way affect the showing of said winners in any classes of shows held under the regular rules of the American Kennel Club.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

A.P. Vredenburgh,

Secretary
REGULARLY QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB HELD AT ITS OFFICES NO. 55 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK CITY,

The report of the Membership Committee was read as follows:

New York, Sept. 23, 1904

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At the meeting of the Membership Committee held this day, the following application for membership was presented:-

July 11, 1904, TOY SPANIEL CLUB OF AMERICA.

This application was protested by the Japanese Spaniel Club, upon the ground that the Japanese Spaniel was one of the breeds of Toy Spaniels included in the breeds to be cared for by said Club. An amended Constitution was subsequently filed in which the Japanese Spaniel was made an exception, and your Committee therefore recommends the election of the Toy Spaniel Club of America.

Credentials from the following Clubs have been received and hereby approved:

May 25, 1904, Russian Wolfhound Club appointing Dr. J.E. De Mund

June 3, 1904 N.E. Collie Club

“ Tom B. Middlebrook

June 7, 1904, Hornellsville K.C.

“ Dr. Charles O. Green

Aug. 11, 1904, Englewood, K.C.

“ Myron W. Robinson
Respectfully submitted,
Signed  William B. Emery Chairman

The application of the Toy Spaniel Club was laid over to be considered later.

The following named delegates were elected to represent the following named clubs:
Dr. J.E. De Mund  Russian Wolfhound Club
Tom. B. Middlebrooke  New England Collie Club
Dr. Charles O. Green  Hornellsville Kennel Club
Myron W. Robinson  Englewood Kennel Club

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and they were approved as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows:

To the American Kennel Club,
Gentleman:

I beg to report that since our last quarterly meeting the following clubs have been admitted to membership by mail vote:
Through the Executive Board, - The Louisville Collie Club; Lawrence Kennel Club; Englewood Kennel Club; Madison Athletic Club;
Through the Pacific Advisory Committee; the Oakland Kennel Club; San Mateo Kennel Club.

I beg to submit the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of its meetings held June 4th, July 23rd, and Aug. 230, 1904. Also a communication from said Committee requesting a ruling on the question of the publication of certain of its acts in the Gazette prior to the usual presentation of same at one of our regular meetings.

The Executive Board called upon the Westminster Kennel Club; Buffalo Kennel Club, and Montreal Canine Association to explain certain acts at their late shows, and replies from said cubs will be submitted for such action as may be thought proper.

At the meeting of the Executive Board held April 13, 1904, charges preferred by T.M. Poole against J.D. Holt, were investigated, and a decision rendered as follows: “Ordered, that said Holt be and hereby is directed to refund the fifty dollars paid by Poole, and in his receipt of same, Poole be and hereby is directed to return the tow dogs which he purchases for said amount, and were received from Holt. In default of the said order being complied with by Holt within thirty days the said J.D. Holt shall be disqualified.”

It appears that the order above quoted has never been complied with by Holt but a satisfactory compromise was made between the parties, and Poole has several times demanded the return of the deposit of ten dollars which he made with the original charges. This demand I have refused to comply with until such time as I may receive official instructions in the premises, which I now ask at your hand.

The Collie Breeders Association Application for admission to membership is still pending, a further letter of June 15, 1904, having been filed, same will be presented at this meeting. I now hold their dues for 1903 and 1904, and in justice to all, some disposition of the case should be made.

I beg to report that charges have been preferred and are now pending by S.W. Franklin against Fred E. Rice, which will be presented at this meeting. I now hold their dues for 1903 and 1904, and in justice to all, some disposition of the case should be made.

I beg to call to your attention that the fine imposed against the Collie Club of America in the sum of Twenty-five dollars for holding its Spring Show under wrong rules, have never been paid, and I would suggest that the penalty of suspension in accordance with precedents be imposed at this meeting.
I submit herewith a detailed fill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from Feb. 23rd to Aug. 11, 1904, amounting to $21.17, and would recommend that the same be ordered paid.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted, and placed on file.

The Treasurer's report was read as follows:

New York, Sept. 22, 1904

Wakefield   W.G. Maine
Wawonaissa  L.R. Ferris
Westmoor    J.B. Wood
Wiltshire    E.S. Hickman

As none of them conflict with any already on the book it is recommended that they be allowed.

Permission has also been asked to transfer the following names previously registered to new owners, and as no objection appears to the request it seems that they should be granted.

T R A N S F E R S

Earlington   From W.P. Earle to E.M. & W.P. Earle
Kiski        From Taylor & Richards to A.B. Taylor
Rockhill     From E.A. Bryan to E.A. & F.A. Bryan
Mt. Pleasant From D.C. Sands, Jr., to D.C. Sands, Jr. And E.M. Kennedy
In the matter of the exhibition of the Beagle Orangemen. The first part of this case was acted upon at the meeting of last February, but the Stud Book Committee was directed to continue the case as it appeared from the evidence that the dog was shown without the name of the real owner having been disclosed. It appears from the records that the dog was shown under the name of Wilson Barnard while it was owned by the Vanor Kennels in which Mr. Chew was a half or entire owner. There were a number of agreements made between Mr. Chew and Mr. Barnard relating to the exhibiting of this dog and the formation of the Vanor Kennels but as they are in conflict with the rules of the American Kennel Club they cannot be relied upon by either of the parties. The Committee is of the opinion that the Beagle was the property of Mr. Chew and was contributed by him to the Vanor Kennels. Mr. Barnard, however, showed the dog giving himself as agent and omitting the name of the owner.

The committee is of the opinion that there is no doubt that the dog was shown in violation of the rules and that all of its winnings should therefore be disqualified and the other winners moved up but there is no evidence that Barnard acted fraudulently in the premises as he made inquiry of the show secretary and was advised to enter as he did, but they think he was so grossly careless in regarding the rules that he should be censured by the association and be directed to return to the secretary where the said dog was exhibited as Wilson Barnard, owner, or Wilson Barnard, agent, an amount equal to the prizes won by Orangemen.

In the matter of the designation of Toy Spaniels.

The last action taken by the Kennel Club on this subject decreed that thereafter Toy Spaniels should be known and registered by their colors and not by the names they formerly held. This was based upon the evidence submitted by the breeders that an inconsiderable percentage alone were bred from parent of the same variety of color. Owners of dogs however which have descended from an unbroken line of the same variety of ancestors have applied to register their dogs under the original names and the committee believe that this should be granted as it was not their intention to recommend that pure bred dogs should be excluded form the Stud books. It seems that the proper solution of the matter would be to allow English Toy Spaniels to be registered by their colors as orange and White English Toy Spaniels, Black and Tan English Toy Spaniels, Red English Toy Spaniels, and Tri-color English Toy Spaniels, and in addition to that
To allow those persons who own Blenheim, Rubys, Prince Charles and King Charles and who can attest a pedigree showing an unbroken ancestry of the same variety to be registered under those names.

In regard to the matter of kennel names a protest has been filed against the use of registered kennel names in combinations with other names. It has been the practice heretofore to allow the use of kennel names which although similar were not identical with those already registered. It is the opinion of the committee that this custom should be departed from as kennel names should be as safeguarded as trade marks and trade names are protested by courts of law, and they think that hereafter no name should be registered which conflicts with any registered prefix.

It was moved and seconded that said report be laid upon the table and brought up under the head of new business. Carried.

Reports of meetings of the Pacific Advisory Board were read as follows:
Meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, held June 4, 1904, at Occidental Hotel, S.F.

Present: Harley, Burnham, Norman
Absent: de Ruyter, Carlton

On motion, Mr. Harley took the chair.
The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
The Secretary moved that for the expeditious dispatch of the business before the meeting, the rules be suspended, and the business be taken up out of order.
Seconded and carried.

It was moved and seconded, that the action of the Secretary, as outlined in his letter of May 31st, to Mr. Vredenburgh be sustained, and that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to delay taking any further action in the premises before the meeting, until he has received a reply from Mr. Vredenburgh confirming his letter of May 23rd. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that the matter of the present discussion be not spread on the copy of the minutes sent to the American Kennel Club for publication, but that the resolution adopted during the foregoing discussion be forwarded to the Secretary of the A.K.C. for transmission.
to the Executive Board at an executive meeting. Carried.

A.K.C. versus Mrs. A. Roi. This is a charge made that Mrs. A.A. Roi showed at the late San Francisco show, a Gordon Setter dog under the name of Dick, the said dog not being her property, and that the said dog was not entitled to the name and pedigree given. From the evidence produced, it would appear, that the dog in question was sold by Edward Attridge, a resident of San Francisco, to Colonel Park Henshaw, and that the pedigree given was supplied by the vendor of the dog at the time of sale; that the dog was presented by Colonel Henshaw to Mrs. A.A. Roi. It was therefore moved and seconded that Mrs. Roi be and hereby is exonerated from the charge, and that no suspicion of fraud can be imputed to her action.

After a prolonged discussion of matters pertaining to A.K.C. interest the meeting adjourned.

SUPPLEMENTARY MINUTES

Meeting of Pacific Advisory Committee, held June 4, 1904

..................

NOT FOR PUBLICATION

This resolution is to be spread separately on the minutes and is to be forwarded to the Secretary of the A.K.C. for presentation to the Executive Board or the A.K.C. in Executive session of the Committee of the Whole.

RESOLUTION

It was moved and seconded that this Committee confirms the action of its Secretary in delaying to forward to the Pacific Kennel League the resolution passed by the A.K.C. on May 20th., for the reason that the A.K.C. is probably unaware of the conditions now existing as hereafter noted. This Committee is of the opinion that the Pacific Kennel League by its actions in reorganizing under the name and title of Western Kennel League, in claiming jurisdiction over the entire United States and Canada, in adopting as its official register the Field Dog Stud Book, has ipso facto withdrawn its offer to affiliate with the A.K.C. and that it would not now consent to take such action. From facts known to members of this committee the league is now committed to direct hostility to the A.K.C. The Committee is further of the opinion that no reply should be made to the P.K.L. and that the promise of the A.K.C. to consider favorably a modified application from the P.K.L. tends to stultify the A.K.C. as there is no probability of such application being made, and the offer is likely to be taken as an indication of fear and weakness. Carried.

PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Meeting held July 23, 1904, at Occidental Hotel

Present: J.E. De Ruyter, Chairman, C.K. Harley, J.P. Norman
Absent: H.H. Carlton, Dr. W.P. Burnham

Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Communications: S. Barnett, relating to charge of entering dog under wrong name and pedigree; ordered filed.

From A.P. Vredenburgh, June 6, relating to resolution passed at previous meeting; also one dated June 11, on the same subject; both ordered filed.

Proxy from H.H. Carlton to the secretary; ordered filed.

The Constitution of the Western Kennel League, an association formed for the purpose of governing clubs holding dog shows, was brought before the committee, and after some discussion, it was moved and seconded that,

Whereas, it has come to the knowledge of this committee that the organization known as the Western Kennel League has seen fit to incorporate in its rules and Constitution a clause disqualifying all person, who may exhibit does at shows held west of the 110th degree of longitude under the rules of the American Kennel Club, and,

Whereas such a clause proves that the organization has been formed and exists in a spirit of undisguised hostility to the American Kennel Club, and,

Whereas, such action is prejudicial to the best interests of dogs and dog shows, therefore be it

Resolved, that nay person or persons acting from and after this date in any official capacity, paid or unpaid, including that of Judge, Secretary, Superintendent, Steward, Clerk, of a show, or as an officer or member of a bench show Committee of a Club holding a show west of the 110th degree of longitude, under the rules of the Western Kennel League, or under any rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, be and hereby are disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club. Carried.

And it is further resolved, that this Committee recommend to the American Kennel Club, that it take under advisement the expediency of adopting similar measures affecting clubs and shows held east of the 110th degree of longitude under the rules of the Western Kennel League or any other organization hostile to the American Kennel Club or otherwise prejudicial to the best interests of Dogs and Dog Shows. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that, whereas the foregoing resolutions become effective from date, the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to secure for them the most prompt and extended publicity possible, in order to prevent their infraction by persons otherwise uninformed of their passage. Carried.

There being no other business, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the Chair.

Meeting held at Occidental Hotel, August 30, 1904.

Present:  J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman, C.K. Harley, W.P. Burnham, J.P. Norman
Absent:  H.H. Carlton

Minutes read and approved.

The Secretary read the following report:

Berkeley, Cal. Aug. 30, 1904

Pacific Advisory Committee, A.K.C.

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that since our last meeting, we have by mail vote, unanimously elected to membership in the A.K.C. the following clubs:

OAKLAND KENNEL CLUB
SAN MATEO KENNEL CLUB

The former will hold a show on September 2nd, 3rd. The latter on September 9th.

On the subject of the resolution passed by this Committee disqualifying officers of Clubs holding shows held under rules other than the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB. I have received certain letters of approval, which I will read to the meeting, suggesting that the Committee first decide whether these letters shall be incorporated in the minutes reported to the A.K.C. secretary to publish in the Gazette or whether the letters be not reported to the A.K.C. for publication.

I would respectfully call the attention of the Committee to the fact that aforesaid resolution applied to all clubs west of the 110th degree of longitude and would ask the committee to wither include or exclude specifically the clubs domiciliated in British Columbia.

The SPOKANE KENNEL CLUB made arrangements for a show to be held under Western Kennel League rules some time previous to the passing of the W.K.L. resolution disqualifying A.K.C. clubs. The president points out that the club had no voice in the passing of that disqualifying clause and was not in favor of it. He points out that it would be manifestly unfair to disqualify officers of that club or to compel it to hold a show under A.K.C. rules, when its premium list has already been issued for a W.K.L. show. The judge of the show had already signed a contract with the club, and an appeal is filed with this Committee.

I beg to call the attention of the Committee to a recent announcement in a local sporting paper that the secretary of this committee was in receipt of letters from Northern fanciers requesting the rescinding of the disqualification resolution. The paper in question very courteously printed in its next issue my unqualified denial of the statement.

Your attention is called to the announcement in the sporting pages that the W.K.L. has rescinded its disqualification clause. Your attention is also called to a statement appearing in the public press signed by Norman J. Stewart, that the A.K.C. was offering a subsidy of $300.00 to a Northern kennel club to hold a show under A.K.C. rules.

With reference to the correspondence to be laid before the meeting, between the secretary of the A.K.C. and the secretary of this Committee, I think it would be in order for this Committee to obtain a ruling form the A.K.C. as to what resolutions of this Committee should find prompt publication in the American Kennel Gazette.

The membership committee having terminated its labors, and the roster of the Pacific Advisory Committee being now complete, the chair is asked to discharge the Committee.

Yours obediently,

J.P. Norman
Secretary
On motion, it was decided to take up the secretary’s report seriatim. The election of the San Mateo Kennel Club and of the Oakland Kennel Club was ratified.

Communications were read and ordered filed, the secretary being instructed to advise the writers that the Committee derived much pleasure and encouragement from the contents of same.

It was moved and seconded that the resolution passed on July 23rd, by this Committee, disqualifying all officers of clubs holding shows under the rules of the Western Kennel League or under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, west of the 110th degree of longitude, does not apply to clubs holding shows under the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club, provided such shows are held outside of the boundaries of the United States. Carried.

The following communication was then submitted:

San Francisco, Aug. 29, 1904

J.P. Norman, Esq.,
Secretary Pacific Advisory Committee
American Kennel Club

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing a letter from the President of the Spokane Kennel Club and would respectfully suggest that you lay the same before the Committee with a view to having your recent disqualification rule suspended in the case of the Spokane Kennel Club, on the ground that the show was announced before your rule was made.

Respectfully,

Oakland Kennel Club

W.E. Chute,
Secretary

The letter enclosed, in so far as pertinent to the matter at issue is as follows:

Spokane, Wash. August 22, 1904

Mr. W.E. Chute,
Secretary,
San Francisco

Dear Sir:

............but I will send dogs to A.K.C. shows at Frisco and any other place. I regret the trouble and that Spokane did not even have a vote on the rules or even know anything about it, until it was passed. We advertised our show months before the trouble. If you disqualify me because I am President of the Spokane Kennel Club, you will do me an injustice, also prevent me showing at your shows out West and East.......
Yours truly,

Thos. S. Griffith

After considerable discussion, it was deemed inadvisable to consider the suspension of the rule in question, and the letters were ordered filed. The Secretary was instructed to telegraph and to write to Mr. Griffith setting forth the decision of the Committee. There being no official notice before the Committee as to the rescinding of the Western Kennel League of the disqualification clause, the subject was not admitted to discussion.

The following extract was read from a letter appearing generally in the sporting press, purporting to be signed by Norman J. Stewart, Secretary of the Western Kennel League: At the same time, it became known to us that the A.K.C. intended fighting the League in its own territory. We were told that A.K.C. shows would be held in every town which at present gave W.K.L. shows. In one case, at least, money, (the amount, I believe was $300.00) and a guarantee of fifty dogs from San Francisco was offered to some fanciers of the North to get up an A.K.C. show in opposition to the W.K.L. club in the town. It is always hard to get information of such offers, as they are naturally made “sub rosa”, but it is only fair to assume that similar offer was made to other fanciers in other towns."

The Chair called for the personal assurance of each member as to the truth of the allegations contained in the foregoing as affecting each personally, and after each member had denied that he had either privately or in his capacity of member of this Committee offered any monetary subsidy or consideration to aid any show to be held in the North under the rules of the American Kennel Club in opposition to shows held under the rules of the Western Kennel League, it was Moved and seconded that the statement published in the sporting papers over the alleged signature of Norman J. Stewart, Secretary of the Western Kennel League, that the American Kennel Club, or anyone having authority to speak for the American Kennel Club had offered any monetary subsidy to aid in holding a show under the rules of the A.K.C. in the North in opposition to shows held under the rules of the Western Kennel League, was, in so far as this Pacific Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club or any of its members are concerned, an utter fabrication and without any foundation in substance or in truth.

And it was further moved and seconded that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to procure for this resolution prompt and extended publicity. Carried.

Considerable correspondence was laid before the Committee that had transpired between the secretary thereof and the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, with reference to the publication in the American Kennel Gazette of resolutions for which this Committee, in the interests of the American Kennel Club deemed prompt publicity desirable. After consideration of the same, it was Moved and seconded, that the Secretary be instructed to request the Secretary of the American Kennel Club to lay the matter before the Executive Board, with the request to the latter to authorize the publication in the Kennel Gazette of resolutions for which the Committee desires prompt publicity, without awaiting the action of the American Kennel Club on the full minutes of the meetings as reported to that honorable body. This request is in no way to be interpreted as any desire to impair the undisputed right of the American Kennel Club to be placed in possession of the full minutes of the meetings of this Committee. Carried.

The membership committee reported the completion of its labors, the roster of the Committee being now complete the chair accordingly discharged the sub-committee.

On motion the report of the secretary was approved.
There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

It was moved and seconded that said reports be accepted and spread upon the minutes.

GENERAL BUSINESS

THE SECRETARY: At the last show of the Westminster Kennel Club, there were four entries made, accepted, and the dogs competed of a disqualified man. The matter was reported to the Executive Board which directed the secretary to ask the Westminster Kennel Club for an explanation. I have the communications here from said club which I will read.

The secretary then read the correspondence referred to.

MR. WILLIAMS: I think there is little to be said in addition to that. The facts are that the entries were accepted by mistake. The awards were withdrawn from those entries, and the other entries were moved up, and were paid the additional amounts to make them first prizes, second prizes and so forth. The club regrets exceedingly the occurrence. It is something that has possibly happened to other clubs, and may happen again. We make an apology for the mistake, and we will submit with pleasure to any fine the committee sees fit to impose. I would like to file with the secretary copies of the letters to the parties in interest.

MR. MOORE: I move that no further action be taken in the matter.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a matter to bring before you affecting the Buffalo Kennel Club in relation to the entry of bull dogs. There was a bull dog entered at their show. Then there was a request made that the entry be cancelled and another dog substituted, before the closing of entries, which was granted. After the closing of entries, there was a telephone request that the original entry should be substituted dog, which the Buffalo Kennel Club very kindly allowed. They published in their catalogue the first substitution, which they had the right to grant, but the dog shown was the second substituted dog. The Executive Board cancelled the win, as the dog has no right to be shown.

MR. CODMAN: After the entries closed?

THE SECRETARY: Yes. The Buffalo Kennel Club was then called upon to explain why they permitted such action. I have their letter here dated May 6th, which I will read. I saw the president of the club, and he told me that their superintendent had permitted these substitutions without their knowledge or consent, and when the matter was protested he called for the original papers, and he said that while they could find all other papers, these particular papers could not be found and never had been found.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Is there any proof from the protestee that there was another dog shown in the meantime?

THE CHAIRMAN: The dog that competed was not the dog whose name was in the catalogue. This matter was brought to the attention of the Executive Board, which cancelled the winnings, but they thought that before taking any action against the club, the club should have an opportunity of explaining its position. This is the answer which the club has filed, which is before us today.

MR. MOORE: The club accepted it and made this change after the entries had closed?

THE CHAIRMAN: The substitution was made after the close of entries.

MR. MOORE: How could they accept that, or how could the exhibitor make it?

THE CHAIRMAN: The substitution of “Toreador” for “Smesher” was made after the closing of entries. There is no proof that the dog that was brought in the ring was entered because the entry blank is not there, and his name was not in the catalogue.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Then the whole this falls on the exhibitor for substituting the wrong dog.

THE CHAIRMAN: I cannot say that there is any rule that covers this case in so many specific words. There is the general rule concerning improper conduct in connection with dog shows.

MR. MOORE: Has this superintendent been asked for an explanation?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, and this is the letter which has just been read.

MR. MOORE: They do not say they referred it to the superintendent.

THE SECRETARY: The President told me so personally.

MR. MOORE: I do not think we ought to act on any hearsay evidence, and for that reason I think that the matter ought to be referred to some committee, or postponed until we can take some final action.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It is understood that a dog was shown which was not entered, isn’t it?

MR. CODMAN: The dog is disqualified. The Buffalo Kennel Club disqualified that themselves, didn’t they?
THE SECRETARY: No; we did.

MR. CALDWELL: In that case, I do not think that the officers of the Buffalo Kennel Club are entirely to blame. They were entirely in the hands of their superintendent, and as I understand it, he made the change out of his friendship for Mr. Hopton.

THE CHAIRMAN: We can only recognize the officers of the club. If they are allowed to fall back on their employees, we have no means of enforcing the rule. We recognize the club, and if the club is so unfortunate as to have in its employ unreliable employees, then they must pay the penalty. I think it better that we should dispose of these matters and not let them drag along.

MR. CODMAN: Are any charges filed against the Buffalo Kennel Club?

THE CHAIRMAN: No. The American Kennel Club for violation of its rules at a show investigates on its own motion. It does not wait until an outside party prefers charges.

MR. CODMAN: Are there any charges filed against the exhibitor?

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Earle preferred charges against the exhibitor. He preferred his charges before the Bench Show Committee, whose decision was adverse to him, and he appealed from the decision of the Bench Show Committee in Buffalo here. Then the American Kennel Club sustained his appeal.

MR. MOORE: What further action is necessary?

THE CHAIRMAN: The only question is whether or not you want to go any further than to cancel the wins of the dog?

MR. DALE: Under the existing circumstances I think it would be very hard, inasmuch as the club is responsible for its agents. I think it would be very severe to punish the Buffalo Kennel Club. It is unfortunate, to be sure, that they had in their employ anyone who would countenance any such thing as that. The exhibitor is the man that should receive all the punishment that is meted out.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the disqualification of that dog stands if that is all that can be done in the matter.

THE CHAIRMAN: You mean that the dog be disqualified?

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Yes.

THE SECRETARY: That has already been done.

MR. MOORE: I move that the matter be laid upon the table.

Motion seconded and carried.
THE SECRETARY: The Montreal Canine Association held its last show under Canadian Club rules, during which time it was a member of the American Kennel Club, and at the last meeting of this club, held in May, they were given an opportunity to explain their position, and here is the explanation under date of June 3rd, which I will read.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: While I know perfectly well that the statements made there are correct, I do not see how they can ask us to help them to straddle two horses at once --- being members of our club, and holding shows under another club’s rules. I do not think they have any right to ask us to show any sentiment in the matter. Our rules are strict and open in every respect. Nobody would claim that we could be small enough to permit a member to slap us in the face and hold a show under other rules. I know those gentlemen who plead for clemency are our friends, but that we cannot help. We have got to act according to our rules. We would be placed in a very funny position if we permitted a matter of this kind to pass without notice or action.

MR. MOORE: I would like to ask if our rules are mandatory in regard to the punishment of clubs holding shows under other rules than our own?

THE CHAIRMAN: No, we do not say anything about that.
It is assumed that they would only held shows under our rules.

MR. CODMAN: Any club can hold a show, and it is not necessary that it should be held under American Kennel Club rules.

MR. MOORE: It seems to me that we should not antagonize people or clubs or dog interests unnecessarily, and while I think our rules should be enforced to the fullest extent, I believe that a certain amount of consideration should be shown to the dog world, and if these men----these friends of ours in the Montreal Canine Association---lost control of that club for one meeting, I do not think we should take summary action against them and disqualify all those officers and members. It would seem to me proper to direct the secretary to reprimand them and caution them against any repetition of the offense, and then if next year they should hold a show not under our rules, it would be time for summary action. I think that the American Kennel Club desires as many friends as it can possibly get, and that it does not want to antagonize anybody unnecessarily.

THE CHAIRMAN: There is this to be said: I know these gentlemen personally, and I know that they are loyal members of the American Kennel Club. They undoubtedly stood by the American Kennel Club very loyally, and they had great Pressure brought to bear against them a couple of years ago to hold a show under Canadian Club rules, but they held out against that pressure and joined the American Kennel Club and they held the Montreal show under our rules for two succeeding years. I fully agree with the statement that we want to treat all our members in the dog world as fairly as possible, but on the other hand there was nothing to compel them to serve as officers of or hold shows under Canadian Kennel Club rules. If they had lost control they could have resigned. I do not think we should be very severe in this case because it is a new situation.

MR. MOORE: It has been suggested that a fine might be imposed, but it seems to me if these officers of the club are of the right sort, a reprimand coming from this club would carry much more weight than a fine of $25, which practically would give them the privilege of committing the same offense under penalty of another fine.

THE CHAIRMAN: You want to consider another thing, and that is whether or not we are going to allow our members to belong to the Western Kennel League or to the Canadian Kennel Club and continue membership in the American Kennel Club. That is what is being done; they are still members of the Canadian Kennel Club today. I am not expecting an opinion.
I merely made the suggestion because I thought it would be well to have the subject considered in all of its branches, for I think it is apt to be a precedent for something that might happen at any moment.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Some of the gentlemen here feel that we should be lenient in this matter, but I do not. However, I will bow to the wishes of the majority. I move that we merely drop them.

Motion seconded.

THE SECRETARY: The facts in connection with this matter are these. I saw a statement in the Canadian Kennel Gazette that the Montreal Canine Association was going to hold its coming show under Canadian Kennel Club rules. Of my own volition I wrote to the secretary of the Montreal Club asking if the statement in the Canadian Kennel Gazette was true. He replied that it was; that they were going to hold their next show under Canadian Kennel Club rules. I then reported that to the May meeting of this club. There were no charges preferred against them. A motion was made to give the Montreal Canine Association an opportunity to explain why they held their show under Canadian Kennel Club rules during the time there were members of the American Kennel Club, and here is their explanation.
MR CUTLER: It seems to me that this discussion is getting away from the real issue. We do not care what individuals there are in Canada. We may have a number of friends there, but as the chair said a moment ago, it is only clubs that we deal with. This club, as a club, as it seems to me, infringed this Article 9 of our Constitution, namely, did something which is detrimental to the best interests of the American Kennel Club—held a show under the rules of our competitor, and as a club we must deal with them, especially in view of the fact that a majority of their members voted to do this after being warned by our proper officer, and it seems to me that we clearly stultify ourselves if we do not live up to our own rules. I do not think that the fact that some of its members, and its most influential members are friends of ours ought to weigh in this question. The club must be disqualified. If they want to form a new club, they will have that opportunity.

MR. MOORE: Does that carry a disqualification of all the officers of the club and the members?

THE CHAIRMAN: Not in my opinion.

MR. CALDWELL: It only deals with the club.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Then why isn’t this the easiest way out of it, and I repeat my motion, that we drop them.

MR. DALE: Just a word for information. Dropping the club or expelling it, what does that carry with it? It does not make any difference whether those individual members are members of the American Kennel Club or not?

THE CHAIRMAN: No. Those members remain in good standing if they happen to be associate members here or delegates. If you wanted to go further you would have to expel them as individuals. This is a club as an organization because the club as a body alone has membership here.

Motion carried.

THE SECRETARY: The next matter for your attention is the case of Poole against Holt. It is simply a technicality, but I would like to have the official consent of the club before returning the money.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the secretary be directed to return the deposit money.

Seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The collie Breeders' Association is again before us with a letter. Agreeable to the requests that were made at the last meeting, I endeavored to settle this controversy between the Collie Club of America, and the Collie Breeders' Association. I received no reply from the Collie Club of America, but I have this letter from the Collie Breeders Association.

THE CHAIRMAN: This communication is out of order.
This Association has decided two or three times that it would protect its members and it would not allow any other club to come in as a specialty club.

THE SECRETARY: I do not think it is right for us to hold two years dues indefinitely.

MR. MOORE: I move that the communication to the secretary be answered; that the secretary be directed to refer them to his former letter, and state that the consent of the parent body is absolutely necessary to membership in our organization and then having been admitted, their two years dues be returned.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have to report the Collie Club of America as failing to pay the fine that was imposed on it last spring, and as having paid no attention to my communication on that subject. Last spring we were obliged in order to enforce the payment of a similar fine to suspend four clubs. The Collie Club of America has not answered our communication, and as it has not liquidated that fine, my report is that I would recommend suspension.

MR. VAN SCHAICK: I cannot understand why it has not been paid.

MR. MOORE: I move that said club be given thirty days within which to pay said fine, or they will be suspended.
pending further action of the delegates.

    Motion seconded and carried.

    On motion the treasurer was directed to pay the bill of the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from February 23rd to August 11th, 1904, amounting to $21.17.

    THE SECRETARY: The Pacific Advisory Committee asks a ruling. I will preface it by saying that in passing their disqualification rule they requested me to publish it at once in the Gazette. I sent them word that I must decline doing so; that it had been the custom ever since I have been secretary of the club to defer publication of official communications until they could be reported at the American Kennel Club meeting, and then they would be incorporated in the minutes if the American Kennel Club so decided; that there was no reason why I should depart from the custom of years in publishing an official communication from the Pacific Advisory Committee.

    MR. MOORE: Is the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee absolutely final?

    THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, until it is appealed from. If there is no appeal lodged against it, then it is a finality.

    MR. MOORE: Is there any time limit as to when the appeal must be made? It would seem to me as if they had a right to have the resolutions published. At the same time I agree with the secretary that it is advisable to hold them up sometime.

THE SECRETARY: I quite agree with Mr. Moore that they have a right to have them published, but I do not agree with him that they have the right to tell me to publish them when it is entirely against the custom of the American Kennel Club ever since we had a Pacific Advisory Committee. If the American Kennel Club at this meeting or any other meeting shall pass a resolution that upon the receipt of the resolution or official action of the Pacific Advisory Committee the secretary shall in the first issue of the Kennel Gazette thereafter publish the same, then I have nothing to say; that is eminently proper, but it is not proper for the secretary to take upon himself the breaking down of customs that have prevailed for many years.

MR. MOORE: I did not intend to criticize the secretary’s action. I think that inasmuch as they have final jurisdiction, the secretary should be authorized to insert their resolutions, or the minutes of their meetings in the first publication of the Gazette.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is entirely a matter for you gentlemen to decide.
MR. MOORE: I make that in the form of a resolution that the secretary be directed to publish the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Board in the first issue of the Gazette following the receipt of the report; provided, however, no appeal is lodged.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The only thing I have to present to you now is the application of the Toy Spaniel Club of America. I see Mr. Berg is present. The matter was laid on the table until he could arrive.

THE CHAIRMAN: In your absence Mr. Berg the report of the membership committee was laid aside. They reported that application was made by the Toy Spaniel Club of America for admission, and that that application was protested by the Japanese Spaniel Club on the ground that the Japanese Spaniel was one of the breeds of toy spaniels included in the breeds to be cared for by said club. My thought was that you ought to have an opportunity of saying whether or not it was satisfactory to you to have any club admitted as a Toy Spaniel Club even though the constitution did exclude a certain variety of toy spaniels.

MR. BERG: That seems to be contrary to the wishes of the president of the club. I submit a letter from the president of the club which I received this morning.
After some further discussion, Mr. Cutler moved that the matter be referred to the Membership Committee, they to report to the Executive Board. Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Stud Book Committee’s report was laid over to be taken up under the head of new business.

MR. MOORE: I move that the Stud Book Committee’s report be accepted and placed on file, and that the recommendations therein contained be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CUTLER: There is one matter that several constituents of mine have brought to my attention. I do not think there is any great trouble about it, but in order that it may be determined, I would like to ask for a ruling on the question of the rules of the American Kennel Club cover a man who makes false statements in his advertisement. That question has been presented to me in several different ways. At a meeting some time ago we had a discussion as to whether a man who should advertise a false pedigree of a stud dog or a false pedigree of any dog he had for sale, or if he should make any misrepresentation about the extent of his business, or whether he had a kennel, when in reality he did not have anything perhaps but one brood bitch and had a few puppies for sale --- any false representations made, not to a special individual, but to the public generally in the way of an advertisement—could a person who did that be brought before this Association, or before the Executive Board and be punished by disqualification, and if he could be owned and breeds be disqualified, even if he does not belong to the club?

THE CHAIRMAN: The rule says that any person who is proved to the satisfaction of the Board to have been guilty of fraudulent or discreditable conduct of any kind may be suspended or disqualified, and we have had a number of cases where strangers to us have committed fraudulent acts and we have disqualified them. Of course, the only thing that is necessary is proof that these advertisements are fraudulent.

MR. CUTLER: It would not matter, as I understand your ruling, whether a man is a member of this organization or a member of any club—he might be a perfect stranger?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. CUTLER: A man who would indulge in that kind of advertisement would not probably be troubled by disqualification, but if all the dogs that he bred and the dogs that he owned were disqualified, I can conceive how he would be put out of business, and that would be a punishment which would be effectual.

THE CHAIRMAN: The disqualification not only applies to the individual, but it applies to all the dogs owned by him, and to dogs bred by him from the disqualified dogs. They cannot be shown by anybody at all, nor can they be registered.

There being no further business, the meeting then adjourned.

The report of the Membership Committee was read and is as follows:
New York, Dec. 13, 1904

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Membership Committee held this day, the following credentials that have been filed in accordance with the Constitution, were considered, and are hereby approved:

Oct. 5, 1904,       San Mateo K.C.     Appointing    W.W. Stettheimer
Nov. 18, 1904       Westminster K.C.     “           H.T. Peters

The Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and the Colorado Kennel Club, both of which were dropped from membership on account of the non-payment of dues, for 1904, have applied for re-instatement and with said application paid the dues for 1904, and also for 1905. We would therefore recommend that said applications be granted and said clubs be again placed upon our roll of Membership.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Wm. B. Emery, Chairman
Singleton Van Schiack
R.H. Williams

The following named delegates were elected to represent the following named clubs:

San Mateo Kennel Club   W.W. Stettheimer
Madison Athletic Association   E.L. Jones
Canonsburg Kennel Club     R.J. Waddell, Jr.,
Westminster Kennel Club     H.T. Peters
Philadelphia Dog Show Association C.B. Newbold

On motion the application of the Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and the Colorado Kennel Club for Reinstatement, were granted.

The Secretary read his quarterly report, and it is as follows:

New York, December 13, 1904

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to report that since our last quarterly meeting the following clubs have been admitted to active membership, by a mail vote of the Executive Board:

CANONSBURG KENNEL CLUB
TOY SPANIEL CLUB OF AMERICA

The several matters under the jurisdiction of the Membership Committee and the Stud Book Committee have been referred to said committees, and their report will be submitted to you at this meeting.

I also beg to present the Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee, of Sept. 20, 1904, and Nov. 29, 1904. In accordance with the action of the delegates at its last meeting the Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee, Sept. 20\textsuperscript{th}, as above referred to, were duly published in the September Gazette.

I beg to present a communication from E.J. Meisenheimer, the Secretary of the late Milwaukee K.C., requesting that said club be dropped from the roll for the reason that it has not held a meeting for several years and none of the members feel inclined to continue the organization. This club is in good standing having paid its dues in full to Dec. 31\textsuperscript{st} of this year. I would respectfully recommend that said club be dropped from membership.

I have to report the filing of charges of misconduct by John W. Minturn against Walker M. Alexander, and that said charges will be presented to the Executive Board at its first meeting.

I will also present a protest against the action of your Secretary, in the cancellation of the winnings of the Gt. Dane TRISTAN II, filed by its owners, Howe Totten.

At the later Bryn Mawr Show, certain specials were competed for by dogs owned by Mrs. G.N. Brazier. Said dogs were not entered at the Bryn Mawr Show, and were therefore not eligible to compete for any prize offered at said show. The said dogs were entered at the Specialty Show, held by the Scottish Terrier Club, upon the same grounds, and date, as the Bryn Mawr Show was held. Through a misunderstanding by the officers of the said Bryn Mawr Kennel Club, Mrs. Braizer’s dogs were allowed to compete, proved to be the winners and three cups were delivered to her. These awards were protested with the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club, and protest sustained by it. Notice was sent by the Secretary of the Bryn Mawr K.C. to Mrs. Brazier to return said cups which she has failed to do, whereupon notice to that effect was filed with this office. On November 28th your Secretary notified Mrs. Brazier to show cause why the A.K.C. should not take action against her at this meeting. I have Mrs. Brazier’s acknowledgement of this notice, with the information that she would answer very shortly. I be now to report that no answer has yet been received by this office, not has any notice been received from the Bryn Mawr K.C. that the cups in question has been returned.

I beg to call your attention to the fact that the Philadelphia Dog Show Association published an Addenda in its Catalogue, embracing 56 entries. I called upon said club to explain them. In the reply it was stated that these entries were reserved by George S. Thomas, by mail, from Sheffield, England, the letter being mailed prior to the date of the closing of the entries, but the full particulars of the dogs entered were not received until after the Catalogue had been numbered, and as stated to your Secretary by the Superintendent of the said show, more than week after the closing of the entries. In connection with said show I also call to your attention that the prizes in a majority in the different classes were in the shape of “sweep-stakes.” It has been held by this club that the premium list should contain all of the conditions of the contract to be entered into between the show-giving club and the exhibitor, and that the latter was entitled to know, before making his entry, the exact amount of prize money that he intended competing for. Your Secretary would therefore request definite rulings to cover the above cases. First, whether or not, the request to reserve entries made prior to the closing of entries, and the particulars required by the rules, following after the entries had closed, are legal entries? Second, whether or not prizes in regular classes, not definitely stated but to be determined after the entries had closed, in the form of “sweep-stakes” is legal?

I beg to report that Col. J.D. James kindly and generously donated to this club the mounted head of the Collie BRIZE YONT.

It may be interesting to know the number of champions that have been made during the present year. We have recorded and sent medals to 92 and there are now on file applications for 15 additional ones making a total of 107 champions for the year 1904. From this record it is but a fair inference that the title of champions cannot carry with it the importance that it should demand, and I would therefore submit that it might be well to again consider this much vexed question.

I present to you from the Pacific Advisory Committee a detailed bill for disbursements from Aug. 18 to Dec. 1\textsuperscript{st} inclusive, amounting to $20.45, and would recommend that the same be ordered paid.

Since writing the above the following communications have been received:

Request to drop from membership the HAVERHILL KENNEL CLUB, as said club has gone out of existence. This club is in good standing, having paid its dues to Dec. 31\textsuperscript{st} next and I would recommend the request be granted.

From E.H. Hance, Jr., appealing from a decision of the Boston Terrier Club disqualifying the Boston Terrier EASTOVER LANCELOT, the rules allow seven days from the date of the decision on a protest within which either party has the right to appeal. In this case the Boston Terrier Club rendered its decision Dec. 5\textsuperscript{th}, 1904 and the appeal came to hand Dec. 14\textsuperscript{th}, 1904. Technically this appeal does not come within the seven days limit, and it rests with the Executive Board whether or not it shall be entertained. A communication from G. Muss-Arnolt asking that the minutes of the previous meeting be corrected. The minutes referred to read as follows: “I move that the disqualification stand and that that is all that can be done in the matter.” The correction asked for is: “I move that the disqualification of that dog stands, if that is all that can be done in the matter.”

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

THE SECRETARY: I will state in connection with this report that but a few minutes before the convening of this meeting I received a letter from Mrs. Brazier on the subject of the cups that I report here that I have not received.

MR. VITI: I move that the report be accepted and taken up under the heading of new business.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. VITI: I move that the minutes of the last meeting be accepted as published with the correction pointed out by Mr. Muss-Arnolt.
Motion seconded and carried.

The Treasurer’s report was read, and is as follows:

New York, Dec. 13, 1904

To The American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand, Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1904 \(-\) $14,114.09

Receipts from Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st} to date \(-\) 15,523.05

Total \(-\) $29,637.14

Disbursements from Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st} to date \(-\) 13,881.29

Balance on hand \(-\) $15,755.85

I would also report that all bills for dues form clubs and Associates were mailed on Nov. 30, 1904. To cover dues from Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1905 to Dec. 31\textsuperscript{st}, 1905.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A.P. Vredenburgh

Treasurer”

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The minutes of the meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee of September 20th, 1904 were read and on motion accepted.

The minutes of the meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, held on November 29, 1904, were read, and are as follows:

Minutes of Meeting of Pacific Advisory Committee, held at Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, Nov. 29th, 1904.

PRESENT:
  J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman; H.H. Carlton; J.P. Norman, C.K. Harlay, Dr. W.P. Burnham.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Communications were read as follows:
  Application for membership from the Pacific Collie and Old English Sheep Dog Club, Application from W.E. Chute to allow postponement of settlement of affairs of Oakland Kennel Club, on the ground of serious illness. From Norman J. Stewart, alleging that John Bradshaw made offers of financial aid to the Seattle Kennel Club, in the name of the American Kennel Club, on condition of that club holding a Show under the rules of the latter.
  From the same, retracting the statement that the American Kennel Club or its Pacific Advisory Committee had made offers to a Northern Kennel Club, a member of the Western Kennel League, guaranteeing financial aid in the event of a show being held under A.K.C.
rules. On motion the above communications were taken up seriatim.

The Secretary was instructed to refer the application of the Pacific Collie and Old English Sheep Dog Club back to the Secretary, in order that the club might secure the approval of the Collie Club of America for its application, said approval to accompany the application of the Pacific Collie to this Committee and to be a part thereof.

The Secretary was instructed to acknowledge the letter from Mr.
Stewart, in which he withdraws the charge against this Committee. The letter concerning Mr. Bradshaw was ordered filed, as it contained no specific charges and was accompanied by no written evidence. The letter from the Secretary of the Oakland Kennel Club was ordered filed.

The Committee then entered into the consideration of some confidential letter, pertaining to matters of importance to the Kennel interests of the Coast, and the Secretary was directed to take certain action.

A charge was preferred by the Pacific Fox Terrier Club, against S.
Barnett, that he did sell to Hugh McCracken a Fox Terrier Dog Puppy, furnishing a false and fraudulent pedigree, the charge being supported by documentary evidence. The Secretary was instructed to call on the said Barnett to furnish his defense within ten days of date, for which purpose a copy of the charge was to be given him. Mr. Harley presented to the Committee a letter from C.D. Nairn of Ballston, Oregon, in which was set forth certain allegations in respect to a false pedigree alleged to have been furnished to Hugh McCracken by a Mr. Perry. The Secretary was instructed to call on Mr. McCracken for further particulars.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned on motion until Friday, December 8th.

Attest,

J.P. Norman
Secretary

On motion the same were accepted.

In Re Application of Daniel Manley for reinstatement.

About five years ago Daniel Manley was disqualified for dishonorable transaction which consisted in furnishing an improper pedigree. The evidence produced was in some points quite conflicting but after considerable investigation and examination of the witnesses the Committee were convinced that Manley was guilty and was reported to the A.K.C. This view was confirmed by the club and Manley was disqualified. He now makes application that this sentence be removed and submits that during the entire period of his disqualification he has behaved in a reputable manner. Your Committee has investigated through inquiry of several persons and is convinced that his statement is true. They are of the opinion that in view of the length of time he has been disqualified and the fact that during that period and now he bears a good reputation it is advisable that he be reinstated.

Your Committee thinks that it would make the Gazette of more service to the members if the names and addresses of the persons registering dogs were published together with the data which is already inserted. This will allow the members to communicate directly with any owners with whom they may desire to correspond.

In the matter of the pedigree of the St. Bernard
Judith Stapleford:

The facts in this case are fully disclosed by the correspondence. The objection was discovered and pointed out voluntarily by the owner and the Committee believe that her explanation should exculpate her from any wrong doing and the dog be properly recorded.

The object of winner classes at dog shows being for the purpose of enabling candidates to qualify for American Kennel Club Championship honors, and be so recorded in the Stud Book, your Committee believe it but fitting that the A.K.C. should hereafter proffer to the winners a certificate of each win in a winners class, those classes being A.K.C. classes. At present many dogs win first prizes in the winners classes who for various reasons do not obtain the title of championship and yet while they may have won to within a small fraction of a championship they have nothing as a souvenir of the winnings of this distinction. The cost of such a certificate would not be of much expense to the Kennel Club and the clerical work of filling them in would not involve any more of an expenditure than your Committee thinks is warranted by the facts. In addition to this the Committee is of the opinion that a separate index should be kept showing the winnings in the winners classes of each dog so that at a glance it could be determined just what may be the record of each dog and championship medals awarded promptly upon their having been won. The committee recommends that such a certificate be prepared.

Your Committee also recommends that hereafter all dogs that have won the title of champion in the A.K.C. should always be referred to as such in the certified pedigrees issued.

It has been suggested to your Committee that applications for registrations should hereafter be accompanied by a certificate from the owner of the sire and dam proving the breeding. Your Committee has considered the same and the subject in different phases, the facility with which such certificate can be procured, the frequency of litters, the number of puppies in each, the number of breeds of dogs records, and as favorable action on this subject will involve a change in the rules of the Association, which is not within the jurisdiction of this Committee, your Committee deems it advisable to refer the subject to the delegates without recommendation.

It is recommended that the following breeds be added to those already recognized.

Esquimaux, (Husky, Mailimuth)
Owtchar, or Russian Sheep-dog
Mexican Hairless
Chinese Crested
Labrador

Application has been made for the recognition of the German Sheep-dog but your Committee had not had an opportunity as yet to authenticate the standing of the breed.

There are a number of other cases pending, in which the final evidence is being collected, and they will all be submitted at the next meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Stud Book Comm

NEW BUSINESS:

THE SECRETARY: The Milwaukee Kennel Club and the Haverhill Kennel Club ask to be dropped from the roll, as they no longer exist. Both Clubs are in good standing, having paid their dues in full to December 31st, 1904.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that they be dropped.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I now read a protest from Mr. Howe Totten. I have this to say in regard to this matter. When this dog was sent here for registration as Tristan, for the reason that there had been a Tristan registered some five thousand numbers previously, I fell back on the privilege we have assumed and published on every entry blank that we assumed the right to add a number or letter. We registered the dog as “Tristan II” and sent in the receipt. The communication he alleges that he sent to me giving the transfer from the co-partnership to himself never reached this office, and he was promptly advised of that when he wrote this letter, and that that accounted for my not sending a reply. There is but one mistake in the registration, and this is, his address is given as Boyd, Pennsylvania, instead of Boyd, Maryland, to which I wrote him that the address was not necessarily a part of the registration, and that I must decline to re-register the dog because the registration was correct.

MR. VITI: Has the dog ever been exhibited by Mr. Totten as “Tristan II”?
THE SECRETARY: Yes.

MR. VITI: He accepted that name?
THE SECRETARY: Yes. I would state further, if I am not mistaken, at the Chicago Show he sent word that he had made out the application himself. He knew what he was doing and he had given the name as “Tristan II”, and we sent for the application form and found that no “II” had been placed after the dog’s name. We then notified Mr. Howe Totten that if he was so certain that he had entered his dog as Tristan II, somebody must have been working over this application form after it had left his hands; to which he replied that that was rather a serious accusation to make, and that he would come on here and look at the form. He came on and saw that the form was made out in his own handwriting and there was no “II” to it.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to ask for information, whether the omission of the numeral “II” is a sufficient reason for disqualifying the dog when the dog is absolutely identified by the name of the breeder, the sire and dam and also by the stud book number. It seems pretty harsh, to my mind, that an exhibitor should lose a prize that his dog has won, or that the dog should be deprived of the credit of winning a prize, for a slight omission of that kind when the dog is absolutely identified in every other way. I think this is a very proper time that that question should come up for decision. I know of a number of instances where similar errors have caused disqualification, and it seems to me a rather heavy penalty under the circumstances.

THE SECRETARY: It has been the custom as far back as I can remember that a dog must have his registered name given on the application form.

MR. CROKER: Where would you suggest drawing the line where this should be allowed and where it should not be allowed in making these mistakes or omissions?

MR. MORTIMER: I do not think that there need be any line drawn at all, but when we consider that an error of that sort is made without any intent to defraud, there can be no good end attained by it. I think that a slight mistake of that kind might be overlooked. I say when a dog is identified by his Stud Book number I think that that ought to be quite sufficient.

The Secretary read the rules in regard to registration.

THE SECRETARY: That dog was not shown under its
MR. SMITH: It seems to me just exactly as Mr. Mortimer has said, that there was clearly no desire on the part of the this exhibitor to defraud in any way when he entered this dog. He probably was in the habit of calling this dog by his registered name, Tristan, and putting down those numerals escaped his notice. Where he writes in the Stud Book number, it clearly identifies the dog. It is just about the same as if he had misspelled the dog’s name. The Stud Book number distinguishes that.

THE SECRETARY: Another rule states that a registered dog cannot be changed under any circumstances.

THE CHAIR: What harm would be worked by omitting that?

THE SECRETARY: Simply because Tristan No. 72986 is not registered; Tristan 56986 is registered.

MR. SMITH: As I understand you, the dog named Tristan was registered several years back?

THE SECRETARY: About a year before.

MR. SMITH: He might be confused with that dog or not, but the Stud Book number clearly identifies the dog.
THE SECRETARY: It is easy to make mistakes in the Stud Book number.

MR. CARNOCHAN: It seems to work a great hardship for the exhibitor, there is no doubt about that, but when a rule so specifically states that a dog must be identified by name, it should be adhered to. If we grant indulgence in this particular case it will open a door which it will be very hard to close. It seems to me we ought to stand by the rule. For the sake of the argument let us go one step further. Suppose Tristan’s kennel name was “Bob,” and this exhibitor omits to show him as Tristan, but shows him as Bob, with his proper registered number, with proper date of birth, and so on, we would have no more reason for refusing one than the other.

THE CHAIR: It seems to me that is rather stretching the point. It is a question of what harm could be done in allowing it, and I think Mr. Mortimer’s point is very well taken, that the American Kennel Club does not desire to be unjust to anybody who exhibits in good faith.

THE SECRETARY: It has always been held so by the American Kennel Club. We have disqualified, I could not begin to say how many dogs on account of the same error.

MR. CALDWELL: Are the pedigree of the tow Tristans the same?

THE SECRETARY: No.

MR. CALDWELL: Then how could it be confusing if the name is not given? It seems rather hard that the exhibitor should lose his win when the Stud Book number was given.

THE SECRETARY: But he enters a dog under a false name. It is not the name of the dog. The name of the dog is determined by registration.

MR. SMITH: Supposing a man was to misspell the name of his dog when he entered it in a registration blank—supposing the name were radically misspelled, but he still gives the Stud Book number of the dog, should that dog be disqualified because his name is misspelled?

THE SECRETARY: That is not a parallel case, because very often illiterate men will misspell names, but if there is enough to show the particular dog entered, only misspelled, that would not militate against him. The dog has got to have his name. That is what the rule says, and what determine the name of a dog is the registration.
MR. MORTIMER: I claim that the point just raised covers the matter entirely. I do not think there was any intention not do I think there could be any mistake. Mr. Vredenburgh said if a name was misspelled it would not make any difference so long as we knew it would not make any difference so long as we knew it was the name of the dog. Now we know that Tristan II is the name of the dog, and we know that the dog is identified by his date of birth, breeder, sire and dam and by his Stud Book number, and it does not seem right that because so many scores of these cases have been disqualified that disqualification should be carried any further. I think this is a very good time to take action on that very matter. I think it is a hardship on the exhibitor that we ought not to inflict on him.

MR. CARNOCHAN: While I still think it is a great injustice to the exhibitor, I would like to ask how we can change our rule by a vote at this meeting. Therefore I should like to make a motion to refer this matter to the Rules Committee to report at the next meeting.

MR. CROKER: Are we attempting to change the rule, or to interpret the rule?

MR. VITI: I recognize with the rest of the delegates how unjust it seems and how harsh it is to apply this rule, but it has come up so frequently before the American Kennel Club and has been decided each time adversely to the exhibitor. The last case that I recall was in San Francisco where an exhibitor entered a dog a “Two-Step”, giving the proper registration number, the proper date of birth and the proper name of the breeder; but he also had a bitch named “Quick-Step”, and in his hurry in making out the entry blank he put on the sire and dam of “Quick-Step”. That case was even a harsher one than this, and yet the American Kennel Club decided in that case that the dog ought to be disqualified.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I think if the Rules Committee took this matter up there would be a very easy solution of it, and that is this, to add to the rule after the word “named”, “or other proper identification by registered number,” or something of that kind, so there would be no question in a case of this kind; but I do not see how we can change a rule which so specifically states that a dog must be identified by name, and there can be no question that “Tristan” is not “Tristan II.”

THE CHAIR: If you consider the numeral “II” a part of this dog’s name, there is no question as to what the action of this club should be under this rule. If Tristan II is this dog’s name, for the sake of a number added to him, and not his name, then we might act, but you cannot change this rule at this meeting. It is beyond the power of this meeting to do that.

MR. VITI: It has always been my opinion that a proper designation by Stud Book number was a sufficient identification of a dog. That identifies him because a reference to the Stud Book will give his correct name and his pedigree, but the American Kennel Club has decided adversely to that suggestion.

MR. CUTLER: It seems to me we ought to determine first whether we are attempting to change the rule, or whether we are attempting to interpret the rule, as some one has said. As the Chairman has stated, we cannot change the rule at this meeting, and if we could it would not help this case, because we cannot change a rule and make it apply to a case which has already happened. We are attempting, as I suppose, to interpret the rule, and I suppose we have a right to interpret the rule, but it seems to me if we interpret the rule we come to the same thing, because this does not say properly designated, and leave it there. It says a dog must be properly designated, and then it goes on to say how he shall be designated, and he shall be designated by one thing, his name. I do not see any other way except to say that this dog was improperly entered because the name must be said to include the numeral, because our rule requires that where a dog which is presented for entrance in the Stud Book has the same name as a previous entry, a letter or numeral may be added to the name. I cannot see that there is any way of getting away from it by interpretation of the language, and however great the hardship may be, I do not think that there is any way of helping this man out, but I think that a rule could be very easily framed along the lines suggested by Mr. Mortimer, that where it is obvious that it is a mere mistake, and no wrong intent is meant, that would be a matter for the future; it would not help this man in any way.

MR. CROKER: There seems to be no doubt that this man’s dog was disqualified under a technicality. So long as this rule stands as it is, unless we can find a record of similar cases in which the wins have been allowed to stand, I do not see how we can let this dog’s win stand. If we can show that other slight errors have been overlooked, I should think this dog’s win should be allowed to stand.

MR. CUTLER: I move that this case be referred to the Rules Committee with instruction to report at the next meeting in reference to the matter.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I have already made that motion.

MR. CUTLER: Not with instruction to make a new rule, but with instructions to consider the question which has just arisen, to ascertain if there is not precedent for the interpretation of this rule.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I moved that this entire matter be referred to the Rule Committee for the purpose of framing additions to the rule to avoid such cases as this in the future.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to ask if by such course my action is sustained in this matter.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The Whole matter is referred to the Rules Committee.

THE SECRETARY: The Stud Book Rules say that when a registration has been once published in any form in the Stud Book the name of that dog cannot be changed, although any dog that has been registered in any form in the stud book can be re-registered, the only change being the change of ownership. If they say that “Tristan II” is not the name of the dog, and if this man wants to re-register this dog to show the new ownership, am I obliged to re-register that dog as Tristan? That would show whether it is part of the name or not.

THE CHAIR: The rule will have to be followed out, and you must take up the question of correcting that rule later or not, and the Secretary must be sustained. I do not see how we can alter the rule in this case if Tristan II is the name of this dog. We have got to stand by the rule until you alter it, until you go through the proper form to do that.

MR. SMITH: It is my idea that the American Kennel Club should not try to interpret this rule as strictly as they are evidently trying to. Here is a man who enters his dog in a Show and makes him a champion. Now, simply through his error in recording that dog’s name, simply forgetting to put down those two numbers there, but yet recording the Stud Book number, he should lose the benefit of his dog’s win. If this matter does before the Rules Committee
I should like them to take up this special case and endeavor to have this man win with his dog.

THE CHAIR: I think there is any doubt about that. It is a question of how the rule reads, and I agree with you that we do not want to be severe if we can help it, especially when a man does not intend any harm; but we all have to stand by the wording of this rule.

MR. PETERS: I think we will make a great mistake if we do not support the Secretary in regard to this. He has interpreted the rule as it stands. If the rule has been interpreted correctly I think we ought to support the Secretary and then make such changes in the rule for the future as to avoid any further questions of this kind.

MR. CROKER: I would like to ask the Secretary if he recalls any case in the past where a dog was not disqualified under this technicality, where the exhibitor was let down easy.

THE SECRETARY: Not a single case during my connection with the American Kennel Club. So far as I know not a single case of that kind has been overlooked.
MR. CROKER: I do not see how we can let this man out. We have got to live up to the rules, but if there has been a case where leniency has been shown under similar circumstances, it ought to be taken into consideration here.

THE CHAIR: It seems to the Chair that we should live up to the rule, although the application of that rule is a hardship in this case.

MR. CARNOCHAN: It does not make any difference to me at all what is referred to the Rules Committee except this, the rule itself should be referred absolutely to it.

THE CHAIR: Do you not think that that should be taken up separately from this case?

MR. CARNOCHAN: I am perfectly willing that that should be the way. We will certainly bring the matter up at the next meeting. I will withdraw my motion.

MR. JARRETT: It seems to me the only question before us is whether this dog was sufficiently identified or not.

THE CHAIR: It is a question of whether you sustain the Secretary or not in his action.

MR. PETERS: I make a motion that we sustain the Secretary in his action.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. CROKER: I move that we recommend that this rule be brought up at the next meeting of the Rules Committee, or a meeting to be called by it, for the purpose of amending it.

MR. CUTLER: I second that motion.

Carried.

THE SECRETARY: The next matter is the question of the cups awarded to Mrs. Brazier at the late Bryn Mawr Show. There were two Shows held upon the same grounds, separate and distinct, the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club Show, and the Scottish Terrier Club Specialty Show. The Bryn Mawr Kennel Club did not provide any classes for Scotch Terriers. The specifics that they had they allowed the Scottish Terriers from an independent show to come in and compete for, and they were awarded the prizes. The matter was protested, and they allowed the protest and called upon Mrs. Brazier to return the cups erroneously paid to her. The matter was then referred to me and I called upon Mrs. Brazier to show cause why action should not be taken at this meeting. As I stated, just before this meeting I received her appeal.
MR. CODMAN: Did she enter her dogs in the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club’s Show?

THE SECRETARY: They did not have any classes for Scottish Terriers.
MR. CODMAN: Then she was not eligible for Bryn Mawr Specials.

MR. MORTIMER: I might say that at Atlantic City there was a Fox Terrier Show held in connection with the Atlantic City Show. The Fox Terrier Show was a separate show entirely as far as breed was concerned, but the Fox Terriers did compete for the special prizes at Atlantic City that were offered by the Atlantic City Kennel Club.

THE CHAIR: They were not entered in any classes?

MR. MORTIMER: No, it was a Fox Terrier show only.

MR. VITI: They had both to take the same course. They were only allowed to compete by those clubs, not by the American Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: They were as separate and distinct as if one show was held in San Francisco and the other held in Maine.

DR. DE MUND: Mrs. Brazier states in her communication that the committee informed her that she could compete. I do not see how they can go back of that.

    THE CHAIR: If they informed her anything of that kind they were certainly acting beyond their power.

    MR. CALDWELL: When Mrs. Brazier wrote me she asked whether she had to pay an additional entrance fee to compete for specials; not whether her dogs could compete for specials; not whether her dogs could compete, and at the time I thought all the dogs in the specialty dhow could compete for the specials. They paid their entrance fee to us. The Scottish Terrier Club did not get their entrance fees.
Personally I think her dogs had a perfect right to compete, and have always thought so.

    THE SECRETARY: On that statement I should set an investigation on foot to ascertain whether the winners at the Special Scottish Terrier Show should be entitled to four points. If that Scottish Terrier Show was a Bryn Mawr Show, not one of the winners is entitled to four points.

    MR. MORTIMER: You do not take any cognizance of special prizes?
THE SECRETARY: When there is a protest made, we do.
MR. MORTIMER: I do not see what jurisdiction we have it we do not recognize these specials. It seems to me it is merely a question between Mrs. Brazier and the committee at Bryn Mawr, whether they see fit to allow them or not.

THE CHAIR: It comes under our jurisdiction if a protest is made against these dogs that are competing and winning specials at a show for which they have never been entered.

THE SECRETARY: They have got to do as they say in the specials. We always go by the specials. We hold a club responsible for the payment of every special offered in their premium list.

MR. MORTIMER: I take it that the two shows were one show as a whole held at Bryn Mawr under the Bryn Mawr management, and that this special prizes for which Mrs. Brazier’s dogs competed as an open special given by the Bryn Mawr Club, and it was a special prize for the best team on the ground.

MR. VITI: Apropos of what Mr. Mortimer says, I think the proper way is to prove by the prize list exactly how these prizes were offered. The prize lists must be in file here, and they will show exactly the condition of these prizes. There is another thing we should consider, and that is whether or not the conditions of these specials are not under the sole jurisdiction of the Bench Show Committee, and if not, they did or did not waive the conditions in this case. Mr. Caldwell has stated that he told Mrs. Braizer that she could compete. We ought to consider whether that was not opening these specials to the Scottish Terrier Club. As I take it the Show Committee had a right to suspend their own rules if they say fit to do so.

MR. CALDWELL: When these specials were offered it was our intention that Scottish Terriers could compete for them, and we thought that they could compete.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The fact that the Secretary wrote to Mrs. Brazier and told her that these cups would be open for dogs entered in a specialty show indicates the intention of the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club through its Secretary to give that understanding with reference to this matter. At the same time there is another thing which must also be taken into the case, and that is the subsequent action of the Bench Show Committee of the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club in telling Mrs. Brazier that she would have to return the cups. The Bench Show Committee who were in charge of that show decided then that she must return the cups at a later period, thereby nullifying whatever the Secretary may have said previously. Those two matters must be taken in conjunction, I should think, in this action.

MR. CALDWELL: Mr. Carnochan seems to be under a misapprehension. Mrs. Brazier wrote me to ask me if she had to pay an additional entrance fee to compete for the specials, to which I replied that no extra entrance fee was necessary. I told her that the one entrance fee covered the fee for all the specials offered by us.

MR. CARNOCHAN: On what ground did your Bench Show Committee tell her subsequently that she could not compete?

MR. CALDWELL: I allowed Mrs. Brazier’s dogs to compete.

MR. CUTLER: I cannot see any question here. It seem that it resolves itself right into this: Here were two shows. There ahs been a suggestion made, and I would like to answer it, and that is that the Show Committee would have a right to waive this provision, but it don’t seem to me that would be according to rule. They published specials in a catalogue, and everybody has a right to know that. They cannot at the show tell a certain person that she may compete when they have told the general public before that they cannot compete. Our rules say that a dog must be entered, and this one was not entered, and the Show Committee cannot nullify the rules of this organization.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The Show Committee cannot nullify the rules of the American Kennel Club, but it can waive its own rules at any time.

THE CHAIR: The club rules say that a dog cannot compete for specials except he is entered in one of the regular classes, and we are now only wasting time.

MR. CUTLER: I move that the action of the Bryn Mawr Club in sustaining the protest be approved.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Now I ask for a definite ruling, first, whether or not the request to reserve entries made prior to the closing of entries, and the particulars required by the rules, following after the entries had closed, are legal entries.

MR. MORTIMER: I was going to say in reference to this case that these entries by the reservation of a certain number of entries, was made by an exhibitor who was at that time in England. His letter was dated before the close of the entries, as I understand, at the Philadelphia Show, and while I may be wrong, I have always held that those were proper entries. I have had entries made frequently in the same manner for the Westminster Kennel Club Show, although probably not as many as in this case, but there are a number of instances in which entries have been reserved in that same way from England, and we have always considered those proper entries.

THE CHAIR: The question before us is, is it a legal entry? If one exhibitor reserves entries and then comes in and gives his particulars after the closing of the entries, has he not an advantage over the other exhibitors.

MR. MORTIMER: No, I do not think that he has any advantage over other exhibitors unless he can look over the entry books and see what dogs have been entered in each particular class.

THE CHAIR: Does not that leave a loop-hole open which the American Kennel Club should guard against?

MR. MORTIMER: I will go so far as to say this, I would not consider an entry made by any resident of the United States except it was from a far distant point, say San Francisco. I might receive a telegram.

THE CHAIR: The entries that this point was brought up on how many reservations were made?

THE SECRETARY: Fifty-six.

THE CHAIR: The particulars of those entries came in ten days after the closing of entries.

MR. MORTIMER: So far as I know about these fifty-six entries, they only covered about twenty dogs, as I understand, and so long as the exhibitor made these entries in good faith, and he had no opportunity of consulting the entry books or forms to see what dogs were already entered, I do not see what advantage he can have over other exhibitors.

THE SECRETARY: Rule 4 designates what as entry is. And further than that, there is another rule that imposes a penalty on any club that accepts an entry after the date of closing of entries. The entry must clearly identify the dog to be exhibited by name, and if none, its date of birth, names of sire and dam and name of breeder. The object of the rule was to prevent fraud. Please understand
I am not referring to the Philadelphia Kennel Club, but generally to prevent fraud. Just as Mr. Mortimer, stated, if a man reserves ten entries, we will say, and ten days after the entries close he goes into the office of that show and happens to be hand-and-glove with the superintendent, or whoever happens to be in charge of the office at that time, and he asks permission to look over the entries, and it is granted to him, he will the know exactly which dog to enter of the ten that he reserved, and that is the one thing that rule was passed to prevent. Another thing was if a man reserves ten entries, and ten days thereafter comes in, he has his choice as to which does to enter, because some of the dogs that he had reserves may have died, and therefore he has an advantage over the man who entered according to the rule and sends all the particulars in prior to the closing of entries. I am saying nothing about the Philadelphia Kennel Club receiving fifty-six entries afterwards. I saw the Addenda, which was unusual, and I called for an explanation; I have reported the explanation, and the only question I ask is for this club to determine whether that is a legal entry or not for my future guidance.
MR. CARNOCHAN: There is no question about this matter being the usual custom. It has been done. It has been the regular custom for a man to reserve entries sometimes because he could not get the particulars of the dog’s breeding until after the entries closed.

THE CHAIR: This point goes further than that.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I understand. I am leading up to that. Therefore being a matter of custom I think that it is time for us to stop the custom, and a motion to the effect that in the future no entries can be reserved would be the proper thing. I do not think we should single out any particular show.

THE CHAIR: Which would be overlooking the questions before the house. There should be an answer yes or no to the Secretary’s inquiry.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I make the motion that owing to its having been the custom for a number of years that entries in the Addenda of the Philadelphia Show catalogue be considered legal, but that in the future all entries must be made by name with proper particulars before the entries are closed.

THE CHAIR: You are not answering the question
By that motion. I will put your motion, but you are leading up to a very dangerous situation of affairs for the American Kennel Club.

MR. CARNOCHAN: My motion has for its aim, whether I expressed it properly or not, the sanctioning of these entries in the past and the preventing of them in the future.

THE CHAIR: Why should an illegal entry under any circumstances be sanctioned?

MR. CARNOCHAN: Because we could take up case after case, retroactive, in the past, and disqualify or throw out win after win of dogs how have been entered in this way for ten years. I have no doubt but what the superintendents of these shows had taken these entries in good faith. Therefore let us stop it for the future. I do not think that any one show, as there has never been any action on this matter before, should be taken to task for having hone it.

THE CHAIR: By your motion you desire to sanction that which is illegal that has gone by?

MR. CARNOCHAN: To sanction that which has been made legal by custom.

THE SECRETARY: Is there any proof that it has been the custom to accept entries by reservation? My experience would show me that is a very rare occurrence. I have only the catalogue to go by, and it is only now and then that I will find an addenda of one, two or three dogs. Then I ask the question of the club to explain this addenda. Therefore I am not prepared to say that there is or has been for a number of years an evasion of this rule by the reservation of entries. No case has ever come before the American Kennel Club in that respect. I never have had occasion and never have had an opportunity to enforce that fine of $5 for accepting an entry after the closing of entries. When the Philadelphia catalogue came to me accompanied by four pages of addenda I naturally asked for an explanation. I have given the explanation, and what I want to know now is, is that a legal entry or not.

MR. CUTLER: I do not think it makes any difference whether it is a custom or not. If it is a custom which is against the law it is not a custom which should prevail. It cannot prevail. If there is a custom that has grown up of doing things illegally, that is a reason why it should be stamped out immediately. I think the only question before us is to answer the question propounded by the Secretary. He has asked us to interpret this rule. I do not want to make a motion so long as there is one already before the house.

THE CHAIR: I do not think Mr. Carnochan’s motion is in order.

MR. CUTLER: I move, if it is allowable, that the question asked by the Secretary be answered in the negative.

THE SECRETARY: I ask whether or not.

MR. CUTLER: I say not.

MR. VITI: I think that there is a general feeling here that the delegates would like to vote on the two parts of this subject separately; first, whether or not such entries are proper entries in the general sense of the word, and, secondly, whether or not any cognizance in view of the prevalence of the custom should be taken of the case at Philadelphia, and I make that in the form of an amendment, first, whether or not these are proper entries. Then, as a disconnected proposition, and cognizance should be taken of this irregularity in view of what has gone on.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I accept that amendment.
MR. VITI: I will interpolate the word “hereafter”, - will be considered illegal hereafter.

MR. Carnochan’s original motion read.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I call for a vote on that motion.

THE CHAIR: You are stating a motion that is in direct opposition to this rule of the American Kennel Club.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I say I am not. I say that I am stating something which by immemorial custom has become the interpretation of that rule.

MR. CROKER: I would like to know whether or not Mr. Carnochan’s motion is in order.

THE CHAIR: Mr. Carnochan’s motion does not answer Mr. Vredenburgh’s question.

MR. CROKER: Is the motion out of order or not?

THE CHAIR: Yes, I should rule Mr. Carnochan’s motion out of order on the ground that it is not in keeping with the rules of the American Kennel Club. The question before the house now is whether such entries are legal entries.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Do I understand you to rule my motion out of order for the reason that it conflicts with the rules of the American Kennel Club?
THE CHAIR: Yes, I do, as I interpret the rules.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Then I see no reason why the Secretary should ask the delegates the question whether such entries are legal or not. He should be able to interpret the rules himself.

MR. VITI: I think the rule is perfectly plain, but if, in view of the prevalence of the custom, it is deem wise to take any action in this specific case, why not say so in those few words.

After some further discussion Mr. Viti moved as follows: That these entries are improper entries but because it has been the custom to tolerate such entries in the past, no action be taken in this specific case.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: Now my other question: “Second, whether or not prizes in regular classes not definitely stated but to be determined after the entries had closed, in the form of “sweep-stakes” is legal.”

MR. JARRETT: I move that they are legal.

Motion seconded and carried.

It was moved and seconded that a vote of thanks be tendered to Colonel J.D. James for his generous donation to the club of the mounted head of the collie “Brize Yont.”
Seconded.

MR. CODMAN: I am requested by the Board of Governors of the American Bull Dog Club to bring up the matter of the Buffalo-Hopton affair, where on dog was substituted in a class that he was not entered in. You have all the particulars before you, the matter having been laid on the table at the last meeting. We want you to take the matter up and make a final issue of it.

THE CHAIR: It is not on the table. It was settled, but it is in order for the Bull Dog Club to make a motion on the subject and bring it up again.

MR. CODMAN: I will bring it up and ask that it be considered so that I can report to my club on this matter.

THE SECRETARY: If the Bull Dog Club desired to bring up the question whether the exhibitor in that case had acted fraudulently or otherwise, it is now the privilege of the Bull Dog Club to introduce the question.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Would it not be the proper thing for the Bull Dog Club to prefer charges?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, that would be proper.
MR. MORTIMER: I have had considerable difficulty at shows with the management of which I have been connected, in deciding what was a sporting and non-sporting dog. I think this would be a very good time to take the matter up. I would therefore present you the division of the English Kennel Club as published in the catalogue of their show in October last, and ask that we make a division following on those lines as near as we can, also including the breeds which are included in this.

THE SECRETARY: That should be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

It was moved and seconded that the matter be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Carried.

MR. JARRETT: I move that Mr. J.I. Behling of Milwaukee, be given the permission to use the prefix, Wellesbourne, in connection with the Collie Wellesbourne Carqueror.

Motion seconded carried.

THE SECRETARY: You have an appeal from Mr. Hance from the decision of the Boston Terrier Club disqualifying the Boston Terrier “Eastocer-Lancelot.”

On motion the same was referred to the Executive Board
The Stud Book Committee’s report was then taken from the table and its recommendations adopted.

MR. VITI: I move that if carrying out the recommendations of the Stud Book Committee which have just been adopted involves extra expense in the employment of additional help, the Secretary be authorized to procure such assistance as he may require.

Motion seconded and carried.

The following suggestion contained in the report of the Stud Book Committee was on motion referred to the Rules Committee:

“It has been suggested to your committee that application for registrations should hereafter be accompanied by a certificate from the owner of the sire and dam proving the breeding. Your committee has considered the same and the subject in different phases, the facility with which such certificate can be procured, the frequency of litters, the number of puppies in each, the number of breeds of dogs, records and as favorable action on this subject will involve a change in the rules of the association which is not within the jurisdiction of this committee, your Committee deems it advisable to refer the subject to the delegates without recommendation.”

MR. MORTIMER: I move that the German or Belgium Sheep-dog be added to the list of breeds already recognized.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bill presented by the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from August 18th to December 1st inclusive, amounting to $20.45, was ordered paid.

The meeting then adjourned.

The certificate of election was read, and is as follows:

New York, February 6, 1905

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, in accordance with Article XI, Section 6, of the American Kennel Club Constitution, met this day at the office of the American Kennel Club for the purpose of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, for the officers and delegates of the Associate Members of said Club, to hold office for the term of the one year from this date, or until their successors be elected.

We found the total number of the Associate Members entitled to vote to be 240.

Total number of votes cast 135; total number of votes scattering, 24; total number of irregular votes, and thrown out, 2.

We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greatest number of votes to be duly elected as officers and delegates of the Associate Members, of the year ending in February, 1906, to wit:-

President   H.K. Bloodgood
Vice-President  L. Loring Brooks
Secretary   H.T. Peters
(1) Delegate   W.G. Rockefeller
(2) Delegate   Dwight Moore
(3) Delegate   W.P. Earle

(Signed)  E.S. Woodward
Representing the President A.K.C.
H.K. Bloodgood
President of Associate Members;
(Attest)  A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary, A.K.C.

THE CHAIR: If there is no exception taken to
The regularly of the credentials of the delegates of the associate membership, they will act as part of this meeting.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the reading of the minutes of the last meeting be dispensed with owning to their having been published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MOORE: I move that the minutes be adopted as published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

The following named delegates to represent the following named clubs were elected:

G. Muss-Arnolt American Dachshund Club
Dr. C. Motschenbacher Canonsburg Kennel Club
J. Willoughby Mitchell Bryn Mawr Kennel Club
James Watson Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association
O.H. Albanesius Great Dane Club of America
Milton Clark Rochester Kennel Club
S.L. Goldenberg Toy Spaniel Club of America
Dr. Walter B. Weaver Cincinnati Kennel Association

THE SECRETARY: I know of credentials from the Boston Terrier Club appointing its Secretary, Mr. F.H. Osgood, as its delegate, and I fail to find those credentials, but I can state that they have been received by me, and I am afraid they may have been attached to some other paper that I cannot put my hands on at the moment.

THE CHAIR: The Secretary states that he has received credentials from the Boston Terrier Club appointing Mr. Osgood as its delegate, but that those credentials he cannot just now find. If you desire to approve of his appointment, that may be done.

Moved and seconded that such approval be given.
Carried.

THE CHAIR: I will ask that the Secretary's report and Treasurer's report be not read at present unless exception is taken to the ruling of the chair in that respect, when the newly elected officers have been chosen. I therefore ask Mr. Viti to take the Chair in order that you may proceed to the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Mr. Viti takes the Chair.

THE CHAIR: The officers to be voted for at this meeting are President, Vice-President, the Chairman first, and then the members of the Stud Book Committee, Constitution & Rules Committee, Field Trials & Coursing Committee, Finance Committee, Membership Committee. The first nominations in order will be for the office of President.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I nominate Mr. August Belmont to succeed himself.

Nomination seconded.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that nominations be closed.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE CHAIR: The question now before the house is upon the nomination of Mr. Belmont for President of this Association for the ensuing year.

THE CHAIR then put the question and Mr. Belmont was unanimously elected.

At this point Mr. Belmont resumes the Chair.

THE CHAIR: I desire to thank you for your mark of confidence and my re-election to this office which I have held for so many years, but which I have felt really was not occupied by me in a manner that was wholly for the best interests of your Association; but I do not find that a sufficient number of you agree with me to permit me to insist upon your relieving me from my duties, which do not rest upon me as burdens, but simply I have not sufficient time to do, as I feel, justice to them. However, you will have during the ensuing year such time as I can afford to give, and certainly such time as I can afford to give, and certainly such time will be given with the same interest that I have always felt in the
The welfare of the American Kennel Club. (Applause).

The next office to be filled is Vice-President. Nominations are now in order.

MR. MOORE: I would like to place in nominations for that office Mr. Hunnewell to succeed himself. Mr. Hunnewell has presided at our meetings during the absence of the President with a great deal of ability, and I am sure we owe it to him and the delegates to unanimously re-elect him.

On motion nominations were declared closed.

On motion Mr. Hunnewell was elected Vice-President, and so declared by the Chair.

THE SECRETARY: The next in order is the Chairman of the Stud Book Committee. Mr. Marcel A. Viti is the retiring Chairman.

MR. MOORE: I place in nomination the name of the Mr. Viti to succeed himself.

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations declared closed.

On motion Mr. Viti was elected Chairman of the Stud Book Committee and so declared by the Chair.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move the nomination of Messrs. James W. Appleton and Singleton Van Schaick to succeed themselves as members of the Stud Book
Committee.

On motion nominations declared closed.

On motion Messrs. James W. Appleton and Singleton Van Schiack were elected members of the Stud Book Committee and so declared by the Chair.

THE CHAIR: Nominations are next in order for the Chairman of the Committee on Constitution & Rules. Mr. G.M. Carnochan is the present incumbent.

MR. MOORE: I desire to place in nominations the name of Mr. Carnochan to succeed himself.

Nomination seconded.

On motion nominations closed.

On motion Mr. G.M. Carnochan was elected as Chairman of the Committee on Constitution & Rules and so declared by the Chair.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I desire to renominate the three following gentlemen on that Committee, Messrs. E.S. Woodward, Henry Jarrett and G. Muss-Arnolt to succeed themselves as members of that Committee.

Nominations seconded.

On motion nominations closed.

On motion Messrs. E.S. Woodward, Henry Jarrett and G. Muss-Arnolt were elected as members of the Committee on Constitution & Rules and so declared by the Chair.
MR. MOORE: I nominate Mr. J.W. Appleton as Chairman of the Committee on Field Trials & Coursing Meetings to succeed himself.
Nomination seconded.
On motion nominations closed.

The Secretary read his regular quarterly report as follows:

New York, February 14, 1905

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor the submit my regular quarterly report. Four applications for admission to membership in the club and credentials from eight clubs appointing delegates have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report upon the same at this meeting. I have referred to the Stud Book Committee thirty-five applications for Kennel Names, and four applications for the transfer of registered kennel names, and said committee will report on the same at this meeting.

I will present the minutes of the Executive Board of February 1, 1905, minutes of the meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee of December 9, 1904, December 29, 1904, and of January 9, 1905, neither of which have yet been published in the Gazette. I also report that the Portland Kennel Club of Portland Oregon, has been admitted to active membership in this club by the Pacific Advisory Committee, and said club has been granted the dates of May 3rd to 6th, 1905, for its Bench Show, and the classification for said show has been duly approved by said Pacific Advisory Committee.

I beg to submit an application from the Brunswick Fur Club, to change it title to that of the Brunswick Fur Club, to change title to that of the Brunswick Foxhound Club, with the request that our records be amended to conform thereto. I regret that it becomes my duty to again report the fact that the Rhode Island Kennel Club published the wrong rules in its premium list for its late show January 24th and 26th, 1905.

I will present a communication from A.G. Clark in reference to his kennel name “Marlborough.”

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary

On motion it was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was then read, and is as follows:

Binghamton Industrial Exposition
Orange County Agricultural Society
Fanciers’ Association of Indiana
Pueblo Kennel Club
Franklin Oil City

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Executive Board was read, and is as follows:

New York, February 1, 1905

Meeting called to order at 2:15 P.M. H.K. Bloodgood in the Chair.

The following matter were presented by the Secretary, duly investigated and decided as follows:

S.W. Franklin )
Vs. ) Re misconduct in connection with dogs.
Fred E. Rice )

In the above case Rice sold to Franklin a Boston Terrier, giving a written guarantee that said terrier could be registered. The application for the registration of said dog was refused, for the reason of short pedigree, upon the strength of which the charges were preferred as Rice had failed to fulfill his guarantee. The charges were filed with the A.K.C. May 9,1904. During the interval between that date and the holding of this meeting Rice settled the case to the entire satisfaction of Franklin, who requested the privilege of withdrawing his charges. It was therefore ORDERED – that as no fraud has been shown, the application to withdraw the charges is hereby granted, and the deposit of ten dollars be returned to Franklin.

Wilbur E. Evans )
Vs. ) Re misconduct in connection with dogs.
Dr. W.G. Kandall )

In the above case Evans sent a French Bull bitch to Dr. Kendall, for service to his dog RICO, and paid therefore $25.00. In a printed card issued by Kendall advertising Champion Rico in Stud, it says “a litter guaranteed.” Evans’ bitch was bred to Rico twice, without result, and was thereafter bred to another dog by name of TOBY, and he gave evidence before this Board, that as a result of breeding to the said TOBY, his bitch gave positive evidence of being in whelp. Evans filed an affidavit that his bitch had never been in whelp to Champion Rico. It was therefore ORDERED – that owning to the fact that a litter was guaranteed by Kendall, and that said guarantee was never fulfilled, that the said Kendall be and hereby is directed to return the $25.00, being the amount of the fee paid to him by Evans, and that if the said fee be not returned within thirty days from the date of this meeting, said Kendall shall be disqualified.

J.W. Minturn )
vs. ) Re misconduct in connection with dogs.
W.M. Alexander )

In this case, Alexander sold a dog to Minturn (a Great Dane), named HANOVER CEDRIC, which he represented as being thirty-five inches tall, and also as the tallest Great Dane in America. Minturn purchased this dog upon the representation made, and paid therefore $175.00, on or about the 17th September, 1904. On the 28th day of September thereafter, Alexander wrote another letter to Minturn, in which he offers to sell another Great Dane to him, named ALEXANDER TIGER II, and said that his dog is about an inch taller than the dog he had just sold to Minturn. The dog purchased, HANOVER CEDRIC, was received by Minturn’s kennel man, on September 30, 1904, who reported at once to Minturn that the dog was not as represented. On October 10 following, Minturn personally examined the dog and found that he only measured thirty-one inches in height instead of thirty-five as represented. On October 19, 1904, Minturn sent a special delivery letter to Alexander, repudiating the contract, and demanded the return of his money upon the receipt of which he would return the dog to Alexander. To this letter Minturn never received a reply. In Alexander’s defense, he claims that on October 4, 1904, he received a letter from Minturn accepting the dog. This statement is denied by Minturn. The defense continues that “heights” in Great Danes, are judged by comparison, and claims that the dog in question is nearer thirty-five than thirty-one inches in height. The Board renders its decision as follows, - Whereas Alexander sold a dog representing it to be the tallest dog of its breed in America, and Whereas Minturn purchased said dog upon that representation, paying therefore $175.00, and Whereas, after the consumption of said sale, Alexander offered to sell another dog of the same breed to said sale, Alexander offered to sell another dog of the same breed to said Minturn, representing it to be one inch taller than the dog he had sold, representing it to be the tallest of its breed in America, it is therefore ORDERED, - That unless Alexander can and does produce the alleged letter from Minturn, dated October 4th, 1904, accepting said dog, said Alexander is hereby directed to refund the sum of $175.00 within thirty days of the date hereof, to Minturn, and that upon the receipt of said money, Minturn is hereby directed to return the dog to said Alexander. In default of the said Alexander complying with this order, within thirty days, he shall be disqualified.

Merritt C. Ring
Vs.      ) Re misconduct in connection with dogs.
F.G. McIntosh

In the above case, about April 2, 1904, Mcintosh offered to sell a dog to Ring, (a red Cocker Spaniel bitch) named ECLIPSE ELLEN, and represented her to be in whelp, to his champion PERFECTION, and also by a printed notice upon his letter paper, guaranteeing satisfaction. In said letter, he writes, “remember I guarantee all my statements, if not as represented, money refunded.”; in a second letter dated May 4, 1904, in speaking of the said ECLIPSE ELLEN which Ring had purchased, says, “she is die to have her pups May 31, 1904.” Ring wanted until that date, and as the said bitch did not have puppies, duly notified Mcintosh, the following day, June 1, 1904, that the bitch had failed, claimed a return of his money, stood ready to return the bitch, and that in the meantime would hold her subject to Mcintosh’s order. Mcintosh replied on June 6th, writing to this effect: “I cannot sell a dog and let the customer accept it and keep it a number of weeks and then decide he does not want it and return it and get his money back.” Mcintosh refused to fulfill his guarantee. The defense of Mcintosh under date of January 30, 1905, states that he wrote to Ring that he was willing to do what was customary among breeders, to give him a return service, and that if she again failed, that he would make an arrangement that would satisfy him by giving him another bitch or refund him his money. He claimed that Ring ignored such a fair proposition, upon which he requested Ring to bring the matter up before the American Kennel Club for a decision, hence these charges.

It was decided as follows: Whereas, Mc Intosh made this sale upon the representation that the bitch was in whelp to his dog PERFECTION which proved to be untrue, and Whereas, Mc Intosh guaranteed all of his statements in reference to this Bitch, it is ORDERED – that the said Mc Intosh be and hereby is directed to refund to the said Ring the sum of $35.00, being the purchase price of said botch, and that the said Ring be directed upon the receipt of said money, to return said bitch to Mc Intosh, the return express charge to be paid by the said Mc Intosh, and if said order is not complied with by Mc Intosh within thirty days of the date hereof, he will be disqualified.

Spotswood Kennels  )
Vs.  )  Re appeal from cancellation of the winning of Boston Terrier Club  )  the Boston Terrier, EASTOVER LANCELOT, )  At the Boston Terrier Club Show, held November
                          )  16-19, 1904

In the above case the Boston Terrier EASTOVER LANCELOT, was protested, upon the ground that the dog’s tail had been improperly tampered with, said protest was forwarded to the American Kennel Club for its action, and was at once returned with the information that original jurisdiction in such cases could only be assumed by the Showgiving club, but could some before the American Kennel Club, on appeal from either part after a decision had been rendered by the Show giving club. Pursuant to this information the Bench Show Committee of the Boston Terrier Club, met, and decided the case, by sustaining of the Show. From this decision the above appeal was lodged with the A.K.C. The evidence produced by the Spottswood Kennels was an X-Ray exposure of the dog's tail, affidavits by M.K. Kasabian, G.R. Hartman, and John J. Maher. All connected with the medical profession and all present at the time the X-Ray or Skiagraph of the dog’s tail was made, and all testifying that no indication or evidence of the tail of the said dog, as having been docked or tampered with, was revealed. It is therefore ORDERED, -- that the appeal of the Spottswood Kennels is hereby sustained, and that the original winning of the Boston Terrier EASTOVER LANCELOT be reinstated.

JAMES WATSON – Request for ruling.

In this case Watson’s dog Red Hills Doctor, was moved to first place at the Chicago and Atlantic City shows, in 1904, by reason of the cancellation of the winnings of the Irish Terrier COURTLAND THYGE. Watson made a claim on both clubs for the difference in prize money due him by reason of the said marking up of his dog. He alleges that neither club has paid to him the extra prize money demanded, and appeals to the A.K.C. under date of January 25th-27th, 1905, to enforce his claim as above set forth. Rule XXII, governing Dog Shows, and Rule V, Governing Clubs holding Shows, say, “that all claims against a club for unpaid prizes shall be outlawed after the expiration of six months from the last day of the closing of a show.” Watson contents that the Chicago Show ended March 12th, 1904, but the official list of awards were not published in the Gazette until May 31st, 1904, and the awards at the Atlantic City Show, which closed April 2nd, 1904, the officials awards were not published in the Gazette until July 31st, 1904, and claims that the six months limit, could not be effective until after the official awards had been published. This Board rules that in accordance with the Rules now in force that all claims must be made within six months from the closing day of the show, and under said rule Watson’s claim has been outlawed.

Upon motion of Mr. Viti, the following minute was adopted:

This Board has learned with sorrow of the loss this Association has sustained in the death of Mr. Frank H. Croker. Mr. Croker was constant in his attendance at meetings, his personal character and his ability endeared him to his associates, and while as a delegate he rendered exceptional and valued services to the Association for several years.
Be it therefore resolved that this Board hasten to avail itself of this, its first opportunity to express its sentiments of the loss we have sustained, and to convey its sympathy to his family.

Adjournment,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary read three reports of meeting of the Pacific Advisory Committee, dated December 9, 1904, December 29, 1904, and January 9, 1905. They are as follows:

-December 9, 1904-

Present: J.E. De Ruyter, Chairman, Dr. W.P. Burnham, J.P. Norman

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
On motion the rules were suspended in order in consider first all charges of misconduct before the Committee.

It was moved and seconded that the charge of the Pacific Fox-Terrier Club against S. Barnett of uttering a false and fraudulent pedigree be taken up.
Carried.

The Pacific Fox-Terrier Club vs. S. Barnett: The complaint, duly sworn and signed by J.B. Martin,
Secretary of the Pacific Fox-Terrier Club, sets forth, “That the said S. Barnett sold a Fox-Terrier dog puppy to Hugh McCracken and furnished as a pedigree of said puppy a pedigree of a dog “Female and Male,” whelped February 10th, 1902, sire Woodlawn Rustic, dam Sappho, breeder Mrs. T. Murphy, Hollister.”

The pedigree was produced in evidence.

A letter was submitted from Mrs. T. Murphy, stating that Woodlawn Rustic was bred only once to Sappho and died shortly afterwards. The litter contained three puppies, all females.

The Secretary stated that a copy of the charge had been mailed to Mr. S. Barnett in a registered letter and Mr. Barnett’s receipt for the said letter was produced.

Mr. McCracken stated that the pedigree had been handed to him personally by Mr. Barnett with the assurance that it was the true pedigree of the puppy bought.

There being no defense, it was Moved and seconded that whereas the evidence produced before this committee proves conclusively that S. Barnett has sold to Hugh McCracken a fox terrier dog puppy and furnished therewith a pedigree of a dog whelped February 10th, 1902, bred by Mrs. T. Murphy sired by Woodland Rustic out of Sappho and whereas the said pedigree is evidence per se of its having been drawn up for a bitch puppy, and Whereas it is proved that no dog puppies were born in the litter for one of which the above pedigree was drawn up, and whereas it is shown on reliable evidence that the said S. Barnett furnished the said pedigree, knowing that it was not the true pedigree of the dog puppy sold, and

Whereas the said S. Barnett has failed to answer the charge in any way or to appear before this committee as summoned,

Therefore be it Resolved, that the said S. Barnett is proved to be guilty of knowingly uttering a false and fraudulent pedigree and thereby of conduct prejudicial to dogs and dog shows; and

That the said S. Barnett be and hereby is disqualified and debarred from all the privileges of the American Kennel Club. Carried.

On motion, the Secretary was directed to procure publicity for the above resolution.

It was moved and seconded that the committee do not proceed to consider the charges against John Perry of San Francisco. Carried.

Mr. Hugh McCracken stated that the Collie dog exhibited by John Perry at the San Francisco show of April, 1904, under the name of island Chief, catalogue No. 283, in the class for Collies Novice Dogs, breeder alleged to be Thomas S> Griffiths, alleged to be whelped January, 1903, has since been bred by the said John Perry to various bitches and pups have been sold out of the resultant litters, giving the pedigree of the dog as being by Chance IV out of Ormskirk Princess, bred by C.G. Nairn, Ore., and whelped December, 1902. Mr. Hugh McCracken stated that this same dog, which he could identify, was offered to him for $15.00 by a Frenchman, who stated that his wife had bought the dog from a man in the streets of Portland, Oregon. Mr. McCracken refused to buy the dog, because it had no pedigree. He stated the dog was afterwards sold to John Perry and is the one exhibited and bred by Perry as Island Chief. Perry declared to Mr. McCracken that a friend of his had written to Mr. Thomas Griffiths of Spokane, Washington, and had sent a picture of the dog. And that Mr. Griffiths has recognized the dog as being of his breeding. Mr. Griffiths, under date of October 27th, 1904, in a letter to Mr. Hugh McCracken produced in evidence, said that he had received such a letter, but had answered that to the best of his knowledge, he had never seen such a collie before, and that he thought the dog was a fake. Mr. McCracken further stated that Mr. Perry had bred the dog to several bitches under the second pedigree stated above, and produced an advertising card, on the back of which, in handwriting supposed to be John Perry’s and to be signed by the latter, the following particulars are written:

Mr. Vredenburgh, Secretary of the American Kennel Club, under date of November 28th, directs this committee to investigate the charge. C.D. Nairn of Ballston, Ore., under state of November 13th, advised that according to the dates given, the dog Island Chief, could not be a son of Change IV out of Ormskirk Princess.

Norman J. Stewart stated that to the best of his belief Change IV had been sold by Mr. Nairn to Mr. Albee before the date mentioned as the whelping of Island Chief.

After some discussion of the evidence, the Secretary was directed to write to Mr. John Perry, notifying him of the charges and calling on him to explain the contradictory pedigrees and the exhibition of the dog at the San Francisco show of 1904 under a pedigree, differing from that under which he subsequently bred the dog, such explanation to be filed within the usual time limits.

The committee then went into executive session, Mr. Norman J. Stewart being invited to remain in conference.

Mr. Stewart stated that he represented the California clubs, members of the Western Kennel League, and was authorized by them to negotiate with the Pacific Advisory Committee and with the American Kennel Club.

Mr. Stewart stated that the California Clubs recognized that the utility of the Western Kennel League had passed away, if the Pacific Advisory Committee would so re-constitute itself as to be more thoroughly representative of the kennel clubs and kennel interests of the Pacific Coast.

He stated that the ideal committee of the Coast Clubs was an elective one. But on the unanimous assurance of the members of the committee, that the constitution of the American Kennel Club must be the paramount consideration, and that no proposition to modify or change said constitution could possibly be entertained, Mr. Stewart agreed to abandon this requirement. He stated that if the Committee would make such concessions as would reduce to a minimum the dissatisfaction felt by the clubs he represented at the lack of representation on the Pacific Advisory Committee, all the California Western Kennel League clubs were certain to apply for membership in the American Kennel Club and it was probably that the Northern Western kennel League clubs would make the same application. After considerable discussion a decision was reached, and Mr. Stewart was empowered to communicate to the clubs, members of the Western Kennel League, the limit of concessions that could be made by the Pacific Advisory Committee on its own authority, without infringing on the constitution of the American Kennel Club, the paramount authority and consideration.

Provision was made for representation on the committee and the proposed arrangement provided also for a means of conveying to the committee the wishes of the majority of the Pacific Coast Clubs, members of the American Kennel Club in joint convention assembled. It was agreed that the committee should re-convene to meet Mr. Stewart at his request, when the Western Kennel League clubs had communicated their decision to him.

The Chairman and the Secretary were each instructed to communicate with officials of certain Northern clubs with a view to facilitating Mr. Stewart’s negotiations with those bodies.

There being no further business the committee adjourned, subject to the call of the Chair.

MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, A.K.C., Held December 29, 1904, at Occidental Hotel, S.F.

Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman, J.P. Norman, C.K. Harley.
Absent: H.H. Carlton, Dr. W.P. Burnham
Minutes of previous meeting read and corrected as follows:
Insert “unofficially” after the words “to” negotiate” fourth line of second section on page 2.
Excise “Mr. Stewart agreed to abandon this requirement” changing the following period to a comma, line 16, second section, on page 2. The minutes were then approved.
A.K.C. v. Perry: Charge of uttering false pedigrees. Further evidence was produced in this matter.
Letter from John Perry, stating his innocence of the charge and his willingness to abide by the decision of the Committee.

Letter from C.D. Nairn, Ballston, Ore., stating that Change IV was sold to O.J. Albee of Lawrence, Cal. before the date of birth of Island Chief as given.

Letter from Mr. J.M. Golobeck of Crockett, Cal., containing copies of pedigree furnished by John Perry.

The Secretary stated that he had interviewed John Perry, who appeared innocent of any intentional wrong-doing; his actions and statements having apparently been caused by false information and his own ignorance.

The Secretary was instructed to procure further evidence, and if possible, to procure the attendance of John Perry at the next meeting.

On motion, further consideration of the case was postponed until the next meeting.

The Committee then went into executive session, to consider the progress of negotiations with Mr. N.J. Stewart, who attended the meeting by invitation.

Mr. Stewart stated that it was the wish of the members of the Western Kennel League to enter the American Kennel Club as a body, or not at all.

The Secretary read letters and telegrams from the Portland Kennel Club, enquiring as to the terms on which that club could be admitted to membership in the A.K.C. Also letters form the Seattle Kennel Club, Inc., as to their retention in the A.K.C., it having come to the knowledge of the officials.
of that club that efforts were to be made with the Pacific Advisory Committee to oust them in favor of a rival Seattle organization.

Mr. Stewart assured the Committee that if the concession were granted of a new Committee, the nominees to which were to be elected by a body of delegates representing the Club of the Coast, the present members of the Committee were sure to nominate to succeed themselves, or if not all, nearly all.

The Chairman stated that the proposition of leaving all the new members to be nominated by such a body could not be entertained, in view of the fact that no more than a personal pledge of such a re-nomination could be given.

Mr. Norman stated that his resignation was at the service of the Committee, whenever required, but he did not think such a resignation would conduce to the interests of the American Kennel Club, unless it were established that his successor would be equally enthusiastic for those interests.

Mr. Stewart spoke of the matter of recognizing Western Kennel League wins, but was assured that such recognition was outside the possibility of discussion.

After considerable discussion, the Committee agreed on certain concessions to be made to the Coast Clubs, which it was hoped, would remove the dissatisfaction now prevailing among some of them. A list of concessions was drawn up and it was arranged that Mr. Stewart should furnish duplicate copies, as understood the concessions, which were to be sent by him, signed to the Chairman and Secretary of the Committee for their signature. When this satisfied, these concessions were to be communicated to the Clubs of the Coast, and such of them as were not already members of the American Kennel Club would be admitted on application, providing that the necessary compliance with the Rules and Constitution of the A.K.C. had been accomplished.

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, A.K.C.
Held at Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, January 9, 1905

On motion the rules were suspended, in order to take up the pending charges out of the regular order of business.

Consideration of this case was resumed. The evidence was recapitulated. Letters from C.D. Naim of Ballston, Oregon, from O.J. Albee of Lawrence, California from Hugh McCracken of San Francisco, the oral testimony of the latter, of Norman J. Stewart, were accepted as proof that the pedigree alleged to be furnished, could not possibly be that of the dog Island Chief, inasmuch as he could not have been the product of a mating of Chance IV to Ormskirk Princess at the time stated.

The copies of the pedigrees alleged to have been furnished by John Perry were received from Mr. Moiles, City Marshal of Crockett, Cal., through the intermediary of Mr. J.M. Golobeck of that town. These were sworn copies and proved that such pedigree had actually been furnished by defendant.

Letters from Thomas S. Griffiths of Spokane, Washington, denied the breeding of the dog, Island Chief, as given in the entry blank by defendant at the San Francisco show, April, 1904. The difference in the pedigree furnished after the show proved that the first one was false.

On motion these conclusions were accepted by the Committee.

Mr. H. McCracken volunteered further testimony to the effect that he had been informed by the Mr. William McCormick that the defendant had stated to the latter, that his dog, Island Chief, had no pedigree. The defendant, John Perry, was called upon for a statement:

He said that he as a Persian, naturalized, unversed in the English language; he was a hard-working man, very fond of dogs for the love of them, and not for the money there might be in it. He was desirous of obeying the instructions of the Committee and would cheerfully submit to any penalty they might inflict.

He had bought the dog of a stranger, a Frenchman or Italian, through the intermediary of a Mexican interpreter, equally unknown. The vendor had first demanded seventy-five dollars, but had ultimately accepted twenty-five. He sated at the time of the sale that the dog was bred by Thomas S. Griffiths of Spokane. The defendant had retained half the purchase money, pending the production of the pedigree. In the meantime, defendant exhibition the dog at the San Francisco show in good faith, as being bred by the said Griffiths, whelped December, 1902, particulars unknown. When the vendor produced the second pedigree, defendant did not recognize the difference until informed of it.

Since receiving the letters from the Secretary of this Committee, informing him that his dog’s pedigree was alleged to be fraudulent, he had refused to breed his dog, giving as the reason that it had none. This statement was confirmed by Mr. McCracken.

The defendant did not know the whereabouts of the vendor of the dog, but would like to ascertain the same.

In reply to questions, the defendant stated that he had told Mr. McCormick that his dog lacked a pedigree on account of the letters he had received from the Secretary.

The defendant had sold pups to Mr. Moiles and to Mr. Cooper and the latter had written the letters to Mr. Griffiths in the defendant’s name.

There being no further evidence: It was moved and seconded that Whereas it was apparent, clearly and unmistakably that the Defendant had acted throughout in good faith, that his errors had been caused by ignorance, and that he was the victim of misrepresentation and that.

Whereas, while it was clearly proven that both pedigrees furnished by defendant were equally erroneous, yet as he had no means of determining the same, other than through the information of others, and that,

Whereas, it was clearly shown that the Collie dog, Island Chief, could not be of the breeding of Thomas S. Griffiths of Spokane, as was acknowledged, when the defendant later issued pedigrees showing the dog to be by Chance IV out of Ormskirk Princess, bred by C.D. Nairn, whelped December, 1902, and,

Whereas, from the evidence adduced, as neither sire nor dam was in Mr. Nairn's possession at the time stated, he could not be the breeder of the dog as alleged, and further the said dogs, Chance IV and Ormskirk Princess were mated but once and at time other than set forth in the pedigree of which copy is in evidence.

Therefore be it Resolved, that the Collie dog, Island Chief, is not bred by Thomas S. Griffiths, not by C.D. Nairn, as far as shown by the evidence, not can he be the offspring of Chance IC out of Ormskirk Princess, whelped a the time given, and the defendant is hereby cautioned not to use such pedigrees in breeding or selling the progeny of his dog, Island Chief, and that

The defendant, John Perry, by and hereby is acquitted of the charge knowingly issuing false pedigrees, and of the charge of any wilful fraud in connection therewith.

   Carried: Each member stating his concurrence in the resolution.

   It was then moved and seconded that the regular order of business be resumed. Carried.

   The minutes were read and approved.

   Under the head of new business, the application of the Seattle Kennel Club Incorporated for a change of name to the Seattle Dog Fancier’s Association was taken up. The reasons of the Club for making the change were fully set forth in the communications pertaining thereto.

   It was moved and seconded, that the application be granted, and that the change of name of the late Seattle Kennel Club Incorporated to The Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association be and hereby is approved. Carried.

   It was moved and seconded, that,

   Whereas, the Spokane Kennel Club has held a Dog Show from October 5th to October 8th, 1904, inclusive, under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, and,

   Whereas, such action is in contravention of the Resolution of this Committee, passed on July 23rd, 1904, and is made punishable by disqualification, applicable to the officials of such Club and Show, paid or unpaid, therefore be it

   Resolved, that the following officials of the Spokane Kennel Club, in office at the time of the said Show, be and hereby are disqualified, such officials being certified as acting in that capacity according to the official catalogue as acting in that capacity according to the official catalogue of the Show published by the Spokane Kennel Club: John M. Bunn, President, Claude D. Bond, Vice-President, A.B. Jackson, Secretary-Treasurer, Albert Benham, Director, A.L. Crismna, Director, and that they are debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club. Carried.

The discussion on the matter of concessions to be made to Clubs desirous of entering into the American Kennel Club was resumed:

The Chair stated that the agreement partially adopted at the last meeting was roughly drawn up, and after the amendments left a certain amount of doubt as to the true intent, on account of inconsistencies caused by a part of the agreement being left without change. He had therefore revised the draft, as sent up with Mr. Stewart’s signature, and the Secretary had concurred with him, as to the desirability of the revision. Nothing had been changed in the sense or intent, but the loopholes for disagreement had been removed. The Chair and the Secretary had signed the revised agreement, and it would be now produced for notification by the Committee. Mr. Stewart had certified to the concessions, as being such as he had understood to be granted at the time of the last meeting. Mr. Stewart’s letter accompanying the return of the agreement was read: The writer deprecated strongly the attitude of the Committee in refusing to resign, as this was the one point on which his friends were not satisfied.

In this connection, other letters were read deprecating the action of the Committee in making any concessions whatsoever, as none were desired by the writers or their friends.

A letter from Mr. Stewart to the San Francisco Kennel Club was read, inviting the Club to send a delegate to the convention of the Western Kennel League, to be held at Portland on January 14th. The letter was ordered returned to the President of the San Francisco Kennel Club, who had laid it before the meeting.

It was then moved and seconded, that,

Whereas, Mr. Norman J. Stewart has represented himself to be the Secretary of the Western Kennel League, and deputed unofficially by the California members of the League to represent them with plenary powers, and,

Whereas, he has signified to this Committee, that certain concessions in the matter of the constitution of this Committee and the formation of an elective body of delegates to act as an intermediary between the clubs and this committee, would remove the now existing dissatisfaction felt by some of them, and would restore harmony to the Coast Kennel interests and would tender to render those clubs desirous of membership in the American Kennel Club, and Whereas he has stated that the following concessions would effect those ends, therefore be it
Resolved, that this Committee is willing to make the following concessions and to adopt them as its by-laws, provided that the Club assembled at Portland on January 14th in convention, pass the necessary resolution, that these concessions are satisfactory, and that such clubs intend to, make applications for membership in the American Kennel Club, immediately after the passage of such resolution.

COPY OF REVISE CONCESSIONS MADE BY PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

Sec. 1. Pacific Advisory Committee.

The Pacific Advisory Committee shall consist of seven members, five of whom shall be the present members of the Committee. Three members shall be nominated by the California Clubs, two by the Oregon Clubs and two by the Washington Clubs, in the manner specified under Section 2, Body of Representatives.

The nominations for the two additional members shall be sent to the Advisory Committee in the manner specified for filling vacancies, and if approved, to the A.K.C. for confirmation.

On conformation by the A.K.C., the nominees shall take their seats on the Committee, and this new Committee shall have all the powers and privileges of the old.

In the event of the death, resignation or expulsion of any members of the Committee, the Body of Representatives shall at once meet and shall send the names of three men, Whom it would suggest to fill the vacancy, to the Advisory Committee. The Committee, shall, if approved, select and transmit to the A.K.C., one of the names for confirmation.

In order to secure a working Committee and be assured of a full representation at meetings, the members of the Committee must be residents of San Francisco, or its immediate vicinity.

Sec. 2. BODY OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Body of Representatives shall hold its first meeting in San Francisco and nominate by ballot two men as new members of the Advisory Committee in the manner specified for filling vacancies thereon. These nominations shall be sent to the Advisory Committee, and the two names approved by them shall be forwarded to the A.K.C. for confirmation. The California Clubs shall nominate three members to represent them; the Oregon Clubs, two members; and the Washington Club, two members.

This Body of Representatives shall be officially recognized by the Advisory Committee and shall be empowered to hold meetings at such times and places as it may see fit, and to make such recommendations and suggestions to the Pacific Advisory Committee as it may think desirable.

Carried.
There being no further business, the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the Chair.

Secretary.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that they be accepted as read and placed on file.

Motion seconded and carried.

The report of the Committee on Constitution and Rules was read as published in the Gazette, and, on motion of Mr. Viti, accepted and placed on file.

MR. SMITH: I have a resolution which I would like to have adopted at this meeting if possible. It is as follows:

Whereas, -- It being the sense of this meeting that it would be for the best interests of this association that candidates for certain offices to be elected at the annual meeting should be announced prior to said meeting, and Whereas, - It is customary for nominations to be made and announced before the date of annual meetings in many clubs, and said custom has been found to work advantageously, and Whereas, -- Such a plan would not be contrary to the Constitution of this Association, and would be quite a proper one to adopt it is thought best by this meeting to adopt a standing resolution under which all future elections shall be governed. Be it therefore Resolved, -- That be-between the dates of December 1\textsuperscript{st} and December 31\textsuperscript{st} of each year, nominations for the offices of President and Vice-President, the Chairman of each Standing Committee, of this Association may be filed with the Sec'y of this Assn. by any delegate whose club is in good standing and said Secretary must publish said nominations for the above named offices, in the December issue of the American Kennel Club, of each year, And be it further Resolved, -- That at each succeeding annual meeting only such candidates as may have been nominated an whose nomination has been published in the preceding December issue of the American Kennel Gazette in the manner above set forth, shall be eligible to be voted form and no other nominations shall be permitted not can any candidate other than such as have been announced be nominated or votes for at the Annual Meeting.

Resolution seconded.

MR. DALE: I would like to know if that could be done by resolution, that no other members in good standing could be nominated or voted for. It states in that resolution that none other but the names as presented.

THE CHAIR: It would seem to the Chair that the point is well taken, that this closes the door to the application of a provision of the Constitution which is not final, but which does not preclude the nominations of officers at the annual meeting. It would seem, therefore, that if a resolution of that kind were adopted, it would be afterwards incorporated in the Constitution. Section 1 provides that the Association shall elect a President and Vice-President. That is the only provision. The Executive Board shall appoint a Secretary-Treasurer and so forth.

THE SECRETARY: Before that motion is put I would like to say that it embodies something that makes it a physical impossibility of accomplishment. The Gazette is published on the 31\textsuperscript{st} day of December, and consequently all copy must close several days before that date, and it states in the resolution that between December 1 and December 31 the nominations must be published in the December Gazette, which would be a physical impossibility.

MR. CARNOCHAN: So far as I can see, this motion is practically an amendment to the Constitution. It is prescribing the manner in which we shall elect officers. There should be thirty days notice it in the Gazette, and should go through the Rules Committee.

MR. JARRETT: That seems to be the case. The Rules and Constitution provide for the manner in which some of these officers should be elected, the Chairman of the Associate Members and the delegates of Associate Members.

THE CHAIR: An indication of what the Chair bases its opinion on is that in the nomination of delegates it prescribes particularly that that shall be by ballot where no provision is made, and the lection is prescribed there under the ordinary rules of procedure, and it would not seem that this meeting would be competent to tie the hands of another future meeting with respect to that without amending the Constitution. I think myself that the resolution embodies that idea. That is calculated to guard against the possibility of serious dissension in the Kennel Club. It is manifest that should a movement for the election of an officer to succeed another be conducted in a manner which was not generally known and sprung upon a meeting, it might cause dissension in the club, in the Association, and the Association has up to the present time in most matters been very peaceful, and as a result of that, very successful; so that I regret the fact that it does not seem possible to say from the Chair that the motion is really in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I do not see that it has very much to do with it as it does not change the election of officers; it only provides for nominations; it does not alter anything at all in regard to how to elect. They are to be elected by ballot anyhow.

THE CHAIR: As the Chair stated, there is no provision, and there being no provision, we would fall back upon the ordinary methods of procedure; but if you attempt to prescribe by a standing resolution a method of procedure like this, it would seem that it could not be done; that is the way it strikes the Chair. The Chair is ready to have an exception taken for whatever would be the interpretation of the rules on this subject.

Dr. De MUND: I would like to ask if it would be legal --- one part of that resolution states that no one shall be noted for except those nominated. Can we take away a right to vote for any member for an office?

THE CHAIR: That prescribes a method other than the ordinary method and precludes the voting upon nominations made at the meeting.

DR. De MUND: Is that right? Is that legal? Can we take away the right to vote?

THE CHAIR: It would appear to the Chair not; but this matter is open for discussion. There are gentlemen present who are familiar with the procedure, and lawyers who can possibly give a reason which would be convincing to the meeting that it was not right.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: It does not appear that that has anything to do with our constitution; it only provides for a meeting so as to let everybody know whom they should like to have for a candidate for a certain office, and every candidate can vote for the man he thinks should be in that office.
THE CHAIR: When I say the Constitution --- the proper place for anything of that kind is the by-laws. The by-laws do usually in our Association prescribe the methods of procedure under the Constitution; that is really the proper place for a matter of this kind.

MR. CUTLER: I am in favor of this proposition, but it does not seem to me that it can be done; that is, in the way in which it is presented. I do not believe that any by-law or any provision can be made which will say that any delegate has not the right to vote for whom he pleases at a meeting. We are sent here to elect the people whom we believe are proper persons to be elected, and because he does not see fit to send in his name or is not properly before the meeting in that way, I do not think that a by-law would be constitutional. It does not seem to me that it would be in accordance with common parliamentary principles. That is, if I make myself plain, it means this: We are here to elect officers, and we cannot have our hands tied, and this body to-day cannot say what the next meeting will do; but I had in my mind when I got up to make some suggestion that it be referred to a committee with instructions to report a rule or an amendment to the Constitution which is in accordance with the spirit of this resolution for its action at the next meeting. I will make that as a motion in order to bring it before the meeting.

MR. NEWBOLD: I would state that I have just been through something of this kind in another club. I do not think that our constitution and by-laws permit of this thing being done now, but there is no reason why we should not refer this to a proper committee, directing it at the next meeting to bring in a resolution complying with the intention expressed in this resolution that Mr. Smith has read. I would offer that as a suggestion.

MR. CUTLER: I make the motion: I believe it was seconded.

THE CHAIR: There is a motion before the house. This is a discussion on the motion.

MR. CUTLER: I think a motion to refer a matter to the committee is a subsidiary motion when any motion is before the house.

THE CHAIR: The first motion being defeated there could be no reference of the subject to the meeting. It is customary where a list of nominations is put before a club or association or before an annual meeting, to do it through the intermediary of a nominating committee that is appointed at the annual meeting to serve and put in nomination names for various officers at the succeeding meeting. That is done, but that does not preclude nominees being placed in nomination by other agencies; but it gives an opportunity for regular nominations to come before the committee; and then, of course, when that custom does prevail, it does not strike a meeting as being quite the proper procedure to spring somebody on them without any previous notice.

MR. CUTLER: I think it can be accomplished. It is very much the same as what is known as the Australian ballot, where nominations are made substantially in the way proposed here in this resolution, but you will recall that there is always a blank left at the bottom so you can vote for any one you want to. That is, it is not constitutional to say that the persons are not voting as they please, although there might not be any nominations. I think this matter could be referred to some committee to frame it up in a way so as to make it constitutional, I think it ought to pass, but in its present form, there has been a clause brought out which precludes us from voting except for somebody who has been nominated.

MR. SMITH: I make a motion then that the Chair appoint a committee to frame this resolution so as to carry out this idea, and so that it will not conflict with the by-laws of the club.

MR. DALE: Is there not a rules committee existing to-day?

THE CHAIR: Yes: That motion is not seconded. Mr. Smith, you presented this resolution, and the Chair may suggest, if you will amend it in this form by saying that it is the sense of this meeting that such and such a thing shall be done, then if that passes, that question be left to the consideration of the Committee on Rules. I think the Committee on Rules will find that this can be governed by amending by-laws. The by-laws could be so amended as to provide a method for placing in nomination certain nominees for the office and I think the point is well taken by Mr. Cutler that it would not be possible to deprive anybody of the privilege of putting in nomination and voting for some one else; but of course that minimizes the danger of having dissension.

MR. MOORE: In view of the fact that Section 6 of Article 11 provides for a certain procedure in the election of certain offices, I do not believe that we could act under a by-law. I am in favor of this, but I so not see how it is possible, because we prescribe a certain fixed rule in Section 6 of Article 11 for the election of associate members, and if we provide for that method in our constitution I do not see how we could have a rule in our by-laws that would carry weight.

THE CHAIR: I think you will find that this does not change the method of election. The election is exactly as prescribed under the ordinary rules of procedure.
This association is perfectly competent to prescribe a method in its by-laws putting in nomination through its official action a certain number of nominees.

MR. MOORE: But that section deals with the method of nominating officers. Why would not the same thing apply?

THE CHAIR: It omits to do for the association itself because it is permitted to act under the ordinary procedure.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Would not any new method naturally go into the constitution; as the constitution prescribes the election of the associate members, would not any change also go on the constitution?

THE CHAIR: Not necessarily, because it is really not part of its own work, the election of officers of the associate membership.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The association cannot change its constitution unless we do it for them; therefore it is part of our constitution.

THE CHAIR: I must not argue that with you, but in describing it the associate membership is simply a body attached to the American Kennel Club under certain prescribed restrictions, and those have been placed in the constitution in order that they may be fixed, and takes away from the associate membership the right and power to regular their own method or reaching their own difficulties with regard to their officers and delegates. It is exactly in the same way that you prescribe any regulation with regard to clubs. They are not a part actually of the association as members; they are only given a right to send delegates and then the club has prescribed a method of their doing that.

MR. JARRETT: I think that the election of the officers of the associate members does include the American Kennel Club, because the Chairman, or the President, by virtue of his election by the associate members becomes a member or officer of the American Kennel Club. He becomes, I think, the third ranking officer, and that of course is an office of the club, and if this new resolution goes through it will interfere with the method already laid down for the election of this officer. The Chairman of the Associate members, by his election as Chairman, becomes an officer of the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIR: I can say the point taken is this: As I understood Mr. Carnochan, his contention is that it must necessarily be made a part of the constitution. The Chair explains that that is not necessary; that the association itself can prescribe for a method of procedure to put in nomination for subsequent officers; if it prescribed a method for election, that would be another matter, but even then at a staged meeting a motion could be made to proceed to a ballot, and if the meeting so preferred, instead of a vote, you can take a vote in any manner the meeting prescribed, another method has been prescribed.

MR. CUTLER: I think as far as you stated that I concur in what you say, but it does seem to me that this prescribing a form of election – that is the point which I raise, because it sates only those who are nominated shall be voted for. If it had left that element out and had simply been a nomination, it would have been a by-law, but election by the delegates of the American Kennel Club means those delegates who come here at the Annual Meeting and vote upon the questions, and they have a right to vote as they see fit at that time, and it is not proper for anybody to say, or this body to say, that they shall not vote for whom they please; so it is changing in the form in which it is offered the method of electing the officers. It that could be stricken out or be changed so it simply means what I have pointed out, I think it would be proper.

MR. SMITH: I do not think it does that exactly, for the reason that it gives any delegate in good standing the power to file such names. However, I would like to ask that this be referred to the Rules Committee with instructions to report at the next meeting.

Motion seconded.

MR. VITI: I should say with instructions to frame a rule in accordance with the sentiments of this
MR. SMITH: I accept that.

Motion carried.

MR. CARNOCHAN: There is a matter in the report of the Rules Committee which I would like to bring up, and that is the matter of Rule 3, Section 2, governing clubs. That rule read as follows: “Exhibitors must abide by their own errors in making out their entry forms. Show officials cannot transfer a dog that has been wrongly entered.” The report of the committee ruled that the rule should stand as it now exists, as any change would open the door to greater carelessness on the part of the exhibitors. The minority of one believes that errors of spelling of dogs’ names, or leaving off any initials or numerals in connection with such names, which, under the present rule disqualify a dog’s win, with injustice to the exhibitor, would be avoided by the addition to the section, after the words “registered names, such names to be identified by the registered number.” I would like to move that the report of the minority committee be adopted, and in support of that I want to read what has been printed in the Gazette just below, as follows:

“Special Notice. Warning to exhibitors and Secretaries of Shows. The discussion at the December meeting as to the interpretation of certain rules, followed by the meeting of the Rules Committee, obliges us to give special warning to exhibitors on the subject of filling in entry blanks.

“To avoid cancellation of wins at shows, the following points must be carefully noted:

If the name of a dog is not given precisely as registered, even to the proper spelling, and if any mistake is made in the stud book number, date of birth, breeder, sire or dam, the award must be cancelled. If the stud book number of a registered dog is not given, the award must be cancelled.

Should any of the above particulars be unknown to the exhibitor, it must be so stated on the entry blank, as “breeder unknown” “date of birth, breeder, sire or dam, the award must be cancelled. If the stud book number of a registered dog is not given, the award must be cancelled.

Should any of the above particulars be unknown to the exhibitor, it must be so stated on the entry blank, as “breeder unknown,” “date of birth unknown” etc. If this is not done, the award must be cancelled. It is not sufficient to have the name alone correct or the stud book number alone correct; every detail of the entry must be correct or the award must be cancelled.”

It seems so foolish to me that on account of the spelling of a dog’s name wrong that his wins should be cancelled, I move that the minority report of one be adopted.

Motion seconded.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I wish to raise the question, for what is a committee appointed and the minority decide. What cold be the use of a committee if the majority did not true? The majority have decided it should not be.

THE CHAIR: It has always been the custom for a member of a committee to present a dissenting report if he desires; that is customary; he has that privilege. Although the report of the committee may be made and adopted by the majority, he has the privilege of presenting a minority report. It would not be proper to rule such a report out of order, but it has not been presented yet, so far as I can see. Was it included in the report of the Committee on Rules?

THE SECRETARY: Yes.

THE CHAIR: The report was accepted and placed on file, and the action on that was that the Chair would rule the adoption of the majority report in so doing, not making a note of the minority report except as a matter of record, it not having fixed its approval to that minority report. If it is the sense of the committee to reopen the matter in order to permit the minority committee to seek an approval of that report in the face of the majority report, it is for the meeting to say, and such a motion would be entertained by the Chair.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The reason I bring it up is this, that it being an amendment to the by-laws or to the rules governing show-giving clubs, it can only come from the Rules Committee with thirty days notice. Therefore it the matter did not come through the Rules Committee as their report, it could not come up here at all to-day.

THE CHAIR: The time for you to have made your objection and requested action on your minority report was when the motion was before the meeting for the adoption of the general report of the Rules Committee. The Chair rules that so far as the action of this meeting is concerned, it has approved the majority report, and simply gave the minority report a matter of record: It is competent for this meeting to reopen the question on a motion to reconsider that vote, and that would give you an opportunity to bring this up for the consideration of the meeting.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The reason I brought it up later, after the matter was accepted, was this, that the Secretary makes his report; that report is accepted and placed on file; then every matter in that report is brought up individually afterwards and votes upon.

THE CHAIR: I should have to rule your motion out of order, and that you may make a motion for reconsideration.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I make that motion, that the report be reconsidered. Motion seconded and lost.

THE CHAIR: The report of the Rules Committee stands as adopted.

MR. EMERY: As Chairman of the Membership Committee,
I should like to have the assistance of the delegates and ask that it listen to a memorandum which I have written:

“Whereas, all credential are investigated by and reported on by the Membership Committee before said credentials can be acted upon by the delegates; and

Whereas, the Constitution fails to lay down any rule or regulation for the guidance of said Committee other than the sole provision that all credentials must be signed by the Secretary of the Club issuing same; and

Whereas, the Stud Book Committee has provided certain forms for applications for Kennel names, publishing on same, rules which must be complied with before said Committee will approve of such application; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Membership Committee be, and hereby is, authorized to prepare and publish official forms to be used as credentials by all clubs sending delegates, and that it may publish on such forms such rules for its guidance as it may deem for the best interests of this Association.”

Resolution seconded.

A call for the ayes and nays resulted in the unanimous adoption of the resolution.

MR. CARNOCHAN: In the September number of the Gazette, in the report of the Pacific Advisory Committee --- and it was on account of this matter that I insisted upon the minutes of the last Pacific Advisory Committee’s meeting being read, is the following resolution after various preambles: “Resolved, that any person or persons acting from and after this date in any official capacity, paid or unpaid, including that of Judge, Secretary, Superintendent, Steward, Clerk of a Show, or as an officer or member of a Bench Show Committee of a club holding a show East of the 110th degree of longitude, under the rules of the Western Kennel League, be and hereby are disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club.”

That was carried and it went into effect, and we see in the minutes to-day that certain members were disqualified in Seattle because they were officers, etc., of a show given by the Seattle Kennel Club. It seems to me that we certainly East of the 110th degree of longitude ought to hold up the hands of the Pacific Advisory Board and pass a resolution disqualifying all persons connected with shows of the Western Kennel League held east of the 110th degree of longitude, that any person or persons acting from and after this date in any official capacity, paid or unpaid, including that of Judge, Secretary, Superintendent, Stewart, Clerk of a Show, or as an officer or member of a Bench Show Committee of a club holding a show east of the 110th degree of longitude under the rules of the Western Kennel League, be and hereby are disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club. I have brought this matter up for this reason, that the Western Kennel League have got a foothold east of the 110\textsuperscript{th} degree of longitude, I think at Chicago, and I think that we ought to put a stop to that in the East as they are preventing it out in the West.

THE CHAIR: Would it not be simpler to have a standing rule and have it so worded as to be within the limits of the United States, because someone reading it, thinking it was East, would say it is not West. It is rather confusing.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The Pacific Advisory Board has control of all matters West of the 110\textsuperscript{th} degree; therefore we could not change it.

MR. VITI: Only subject to our constitution, I think, following my friends example in the last motion that was made; this is an amendment to the by-laws and rules. I move that the committee be instructed to frame a rule that would disqualify any one under those conditions who would show at any show in the United States of America held under the rules of this Western League.

Amendment seconded.

MR. BELMONT resigned the Chair to Mr. Bloodgood.

THE SECRETARY: The Brunswick Fur Club has changed its title to that of Brunswick Foxhound Club, and asks us to consent to that, and to amend our records accordingly.

It was moved and seconded that he applications for change of name be granted.

Carried.

THE SECRETARY: I am very sorry for my friend Mr. Codman. I have got to bring up a matter connected with his last show. It is the seconded time unfortunately. He published the premium list, and the last rule states, these rules are not to be published. He unfortunately referred to the rules governing clubs holding shows instead of rules governing shows.

MR. PETERS: I move that we overlook this oversight.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the following kennel names were adopted recommended by the Stud Book Committee:

Alpigene    F.M. Williams
Bombard     H.T. Coldwell

On motion a communication from Mr. Albert G. Clark was referred to the Stud Book Committee.

MR. DALE: I have a matter which I wish to bring up, and that is in regard to dates of shows. As delegate of the Long Island Club, which I represent, we find that the Chicago Kennel Club has been assigned the same dates that we have. A year ago the Chicago Kennel Club had the same dates that the Franklin Kennel Club had. It looks as if the Chicago Kennel Club wanted to infringe and tread on some one else’s feet. I would like to make a motion that this question of dates be referred to the Committee on Rules to report at the next meeting, to see if some plan cannot be devised so that no dates will conflict. I think it is no more than right. The Kennel Clubs pay into the American Kennel Club its faith money and I think the American Kennel Club should in return give that club its faith money and I think the American Kennel Club should in return give that club its faith that it should hold those dates for that Kennel Club. I make that as a motion, that it be referred to the Rules Committee to report at the next meeting.

MR. ROCKEFELLER: I should like to make a motion that the Finance Committee be authorized at their discretion to employ a professional accountant to aid in auditing the accounts of the club. To explain my position I would like to say that the accounts have to be audited in time to publish in the January Gazette. It takes several weeks after the close of the year for the Secretary to prepare the accounts, and there is, owing to the growing business of the club, an immense amount of clerical work to do, and it can be done by some accountant as well as by some member of the Finance Committee. They do not wish to shirk any responsibility in having the report correct, but they do not feel that they can give the time to go over all the many petty cash items and audit them as they should be audited.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to second that motion. There is a mass of small accounts, small items which we have to look over, and which we must look over in order to vouch for the correctness of the books.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: Does not that do away with the Finance Committee practically? Why not cut it off?

Motion seconded. Carried.

THE SECRETARY: The clubs that are in arrears for dues for 1905, what will be done with them?

MR. VITI: I move that they be given thirty days, in which time if they do not pay, they be dropped from the roll without further action.

Motion seconded.

The Washington, Pennsylvania, Kennel Club, Millers River Kennel Club, Passaic County Fish & Game Protective Association and Dalmatian Club of America were elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I cannot tell you how glad I am to be with you again. Circumstances over which I had no control kept me away or a great many months, but I assure you in the future I shall make every endeavor to be present at every meeting. I want to thank all the delegates for the forbearance they have shown towards my absence, and thank them very much for the honor they conferred on me in electing me for another term, and I hope to be able to fulfill my duties to their satisfaction. The American Kennel Club is getting so big and has so much business of importance to transact, that in the future, I shall endeavor, with your help and advice, to expedite matters by conforming more to the parliamentary rule. In that way I think we can transact our business with greater dispatch and arrive at much better results.

Brockton District Kennel Club
Central Beagle Club
Franklin Kennel Club
Genessee County Agricultural Society Kennel Club
Lynn Kennel Club
Philadelphia Collie Club and Rockland County Industrial Association

On motion the minutes of the last meeting were adopted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary’s report was then read, as follows:

New York, May 18th, 1905

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this, my regular quarterly report.

Since our last meeting I have received applications from ten clubs for admission to active membership, and credentials from fifteen club appointing dele-Gates to represent them. These papers have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report upon same at this meeting.

I have sent to the Stud Book Committee all matters coming within its jurisdiction, including sixty applications for the registration of kennel names and six transfers of ownership of words already registered, and said Committee will submit its report for your consideration.

Our Pacific Advisory Committee has held five meetings since our annual meeting, namely, March 18th, March 27th, April 7th, April 18th, and May 10th. The minutes of the above meetings have been duly filed with this office, and it rests with this meeting whether same shall be read or ordered to be printed as part of the proceedings of this meeting, without reading.

Pursuant to the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee at its special meeting of March 27th, 1905, the minutes of which were published in our April Gazette, under authority of the delegates, said Committee found that it became necessary to disqualify one hundred and sixty (160) persons, consisting of the officials of, and the exhibitors at a show held by the Seattle Kennel Club, in April last.
There appears to have been an error at the late Chicago Kennel Club show, in the judging of the pointer bitch classes. Whether said error was the fault of the judge or of the ring steward, it will be for you to determine. I have as evidence a letter from one of the competitors, from the judge of the class, and in confirmation of his position a description of the dogs, as published in one of the sporting papers. As I do not care to assume the responsibility of changing the awards on the marked catalogue of the Chicago Show, said catalogue agreeing with the judge’s book, according to the statement made to me personally by the Secretary of the Chicago Kennel Club, I submit the matter to you for a decision.

The rules allow the different show clubs to use their own discretion in the matter of a date for the closing of entries, provided it is not fixed later than seven days preceding the opening of a show. Rule XIII says in estimating the number of prizes a dog has won, no award received by it on or after the date of closing of entries will be counted. During this spring circuit the closing of dates have so complicated matters, that I would ask an interpretation of the rule or what would be still better, the enactment of a new rule whereby such complications could not arise. In this connection I will submit a letter from Mr. J. Sergeant Price, and also one from our MC. Mackarness who has the examination of the several catalogues in his charge.

The Committee on Constitution and Rules held its meeting April 7th last and votes to recommend certain changes in the rules as they now exist. The report having been published in the Gazette of April 30th, the recommendations of that Committee will come before you to-day for such action as may be deemed proper. In case these amendments or any of them shall be adopted at this meeting, I would request that a resolution be adopted fixing a time for the Rules as amended to go into effect, as this matter was entirely overlooked by your Committee.

I beg to report for your information only that the following cases will be submitted to the Executive Board at its first meeting:

J.F. Hynes against the Colorado Kennel Club for its failure to pay certain prizes at its late show.

Charles E. Golding, against the Frederick County Agricultural Society, same cause.

The Secretary promised to prepare a brief in this case but has failed to do so.

John C. Sullivan against Westminster Kennel Club, appeal form its action on his protest.

Arthur L. Scollay against the Merrimack Valley Kennel Club, same cause.

William J. Pingston, appeal from cancellation of a winning by the A.K.C.

Bay State Co-operative Bench Show Association, against A.E. Mathews for failure to return prize money paid to him for the win of his dog, said win having been subsequently cancelled by the A.K.C.

I beg to report a bill of disbursements by the Pacific Advisory Committee for the period covering December 9th, 1904 to Arul 24th, 1905, amounting $36.35. I would respectfully recommend the same be ordered paid.

I would respectfully call your attention to Article 13, Section 5, page 8 of the Constitution, in which it is clearly stated that the reports of any of the Committees of this Association must be regarded as strictly confidential and that the American Kennel Club shall be the only medium by or through which said report can be made public. I must regret that it is my duty to call you attention to the fact that the matters in the report of the Committee on Rules, which were not published by the American Kennel Club, until April 30th, were made public, in one of the sporting papers, in its issue of April 15th.
The Constitution has obviously been violated, by whom, I cannot state. I have investigated the matter to the best of my ability without result, and I feel that it is due to this office that your Secretary should bring this matter to your attention.

Under date of April 3d, 1905, I received a letter signed in the name of F.B. Forman. Said letter covered a check for $3.00 for the registration of a kennel name. The same were turned over to the Stud Book Committee, the matter being within its province, and was duly returned by that Committee without action preferring that the letter should be officially brought before the delegates. During the 19 years that I have had the honor of holding my present position in the American Kennel Club, it has never been my ill fortune to receive such a scurrilous communication, and I will submit same to you, feeling that you will take proper action in the premises.

Owing to the withdrawal of Dr. Henry Jarrett as a delegate of the Ladies’ Kennel Association of Massachusetts, it leaves a vacancy on the Committee of Rules and Constitution, and the same should be filled at this meeting.
Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read, as follows:

New York, May 18, 1905

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report.

Balance on hand - - - - - - - - - - - - - $17,559.97

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenbrugh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to nominate for the vacancy in the Rules Committee Mr. Edward Brooks.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I second the nomination.

On motion nominations declared closed, and Mr. Edward Brooks was declared elected.

The report of the Rules Committee was read as published in the Gazette.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move they be placed on file and taken up seriatum.

Motion seconded and carried.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

May 18, 1905

The Stud Book Committee of the A.K.C. beg to submit the following report.

The following list of applications for Kennel names were received by us, and as none of these names conflict with those registered, your Committee recommends that the names be granted to the applicants.

The following cases have been placed with us for investigation, and we report as follows:
In the matter of the Bulldog

BRAEMAR ROWENA:

Braemar Rowena was entered in the Third Annual show of the Ladies' K.A. of Am. In the puppy clas, and application was made for her registration in the A.K.C. Stud Book. In both instances her date of birth was given as November 10, 1902.

Mr. J.M. Seager, a competitor at said show filed a protest upon the ground that the date of birth was erroneous, it being impossible to have been whelped upon that date as her dam was bred on August 21, 1902.

Your committee communicated with Mr. Luke Crabtree, who was the owner, of Rolyat (the Sire) at the time of the mating, and he replied to our inquiries as follows: “I once owned a bull bitch names Lady Beatrice, the same was served by Rolyat on the 21st and 22nd, August, 1902, and I sold her to Mr. R. Lobban of New Jersey. I received information afterwards that Lady Beatrice had four puppies to Rolyat.

Trusting the information is what you require,

Yours very truly,

Luke Crabtree.”

Your Committee is of the opinion that Mr. Crabtree’s statements as to the date of service should be accepted, nothing to the contrary being alleged.

This committee cannot find any cases recorded where the period of gestation has extended 80 days, but Mr. Lobhan furnished us with a statement from his veterinarian as follows:

“Newark, N.J. May 13, 1905

Mr. Marcel A. Viti

Dear Sir:

Mr. R. Loban has shown me a letter from you of date May 11, in which you ask him to have his veterinarian make affidavit of the whelping of Breamar Rowena. It would be impossible for me to take affidavit as to Breamar Rowena as of course they were not named then. But I will take affidavit that I was in attendance of his birch and I have no doubt that the pup (Breamar Rowena) was one of the pups whelped; by my call book it was November 10/02.

Hoping that I have answered everything to your satisfaction,

I remain,

Yours,

Dr. E.D. Bachman”

We are of the opinion, however, that the veterinary is laboring under a mistake and therefore recommend that the winnings be cancelled and the matter be referred to the Executive Board to investigate whether or not any fraud has been committed.

We have submitted our findings upon the assumption that he eighty day period of gestation is impossible, but if it can be demonstrated that such is not the case, we would recommend that the matter be referred back to this committee.

In the matter of the complaint of Jas. L. Little against B.F. Crout:

Mr. Little’s complaint is that Mr. B.F. Crout registered a Cocker Spaniel under the name of Toots C, giving the dam in the application for registration as Newcastle Hurrah. The fact being that Toots C was whelped before the registration of Newcastle Hurrah, her dam, which up to that time was not registered was known as Hurrah.

It is the opinion of your committee that the spaniel Toots C was properly registered giving the dam as Newcastle Hurrah, that being the only recorded name by which the dam was ever known.

In the matter of the Fox Terrier “Tamanend Bard Wire”:
This dog was exhibited at many shows and registered by Mr. Earl B. Douglas as sired by Meersbrook Ned from Smallwood Vivacious. At the end of a show this dog was identified by Mr. Chas. W. Keyes as having been bred by him by “Meersbrook Bristles from Myosotis” and sold by him to Jos. Duckworth of Allentown, Pa. Mr. Douglas informed this committee that he had purchased the said dog from Mr. Duckworth who subsequently admitted to him that the pedigree furnished at the time of the sale was an improbably one. Mr. Douglas wanted a dog from “Smallwood Vivacious” which Mr. Duckworth had owned and the latter knowing this had substituted the dog purchased from Mr. Keyes for the other one which had died.

Your committee recommend that all prizes won by “Tamanend Bard Wire” together with his registration be cancelled and that said Jos. Duckworth be requested to appear before the Executive Board to show cause why he should not be disqualified for fraudulent conduct in connection with dogs.

In the matter of the Cocker Spaniel “Skippie”:

This dog was exhibited at the last Westminster Kennel Club show by Mr. H.D. Ogden, the particulars given of the entry give the sire as “Annandale Riddle” and dam as “Annadale Regina,” this entry was protested by Mr.
Moses Taylor, the owner of the Annadale Kennels, who stated in his affidavit that “Annandale Riddle” the sire given in the entry, was never bred to any bitch. Mr. Ogden in his defense states that he purchased Skippie from a Mr. T.K. Kelly, who got her from Archibald Lawson, the brother of the manager of the Annandale Kennels, and that he had every reason to believe that the pedigree was correct. Mr. Taylor has stated to your committee that he bred “Annandale Regina” to a dog called “Annandale Rye,” but as he was not pleased with the appearance of the puppies he ordered all of them to be destroyed, which he thought had been horned, but it was quite possible that one of the puppies had been saved and might have passed into the hands of Mr. Ogden.

Your Committee is of the opinion from the evidence submitted that the registration of the dog “Skippie” should be corrected, by the substitution of “Annandale Rye” as the sire, in place of “Annandale Riddle” and that the winnings made by “Skippie” prior to this date should be cancelled.

Your committee finds that there is no intention on the part of any one to defraud in this matter.

In the matter of the Irish Setter, “Red”.

This dog was registered by Howard N. Casell, the particulars were stated to be: Breeders, L. and S.A. Contoit; Sire, “Connaught” and Dam “Reddy”. Mr. Louis Contoit protests this registration upon the ground that he owned both “Connaught” and “Reddy”. That “Reddy” only had one litter to “Connaught” in which there were only three dogs, Ch. “St. Cloud III “75666, Dermond” 65023 and St. Cloud’s Timothy, “69144. That “Connaught: and “Reddy” were owned by Mr. Contoit up to the time of their deaths. In his application for registration Mr. Cassell stated that he purchased the dog from Mr. C.T. Colehower who furnished him with pedigree as stated.

Your committee communicated with Mr. Colehower who informed them that “Red” was brought to his kennels by Mr. Wm. Wood, now of Chews Landing, N.J., in exchange for a beagle dog from “Lady Dorothy,” the pedigree was given to him by his father.

Your committee therefore communicated with Mr. Wm. Wood but have heard nothing from him as yet.

Your committee is of the opinion that the stated pedigree is erroneous and that the registration should be cancelled together with any wins that “Red” may have made. We recommend that the Executive Board require Messrs. Colehower and Wood to show cause why action should not be taken against them for any misconduct in connection with this transaction.

In the matter of English Setter, “Rumney Rocket”.

Application for the registration of this dog was made by J.H. Brighbill, who stated that the name and address of the breeder was Mr. J.D. Wood, Wilkes Barre, Pa., this registration is protested by Mr. Wood upon the ground that the animal registered is not bred as stated.

Mr. Wood states that Mr. Brightbill had a litter of puppies on Sept. 12, 1903, on the same date that Mr. Wood’s “Mapel's Queen B” whelped to Ch. Rumney Racket. That he loaned to Mr. Brightbill a puppy from the “Racket Queen B” litter to suckle Mr. Brightbill’s bitch, that subsequently Mr. Brightbill wrote to Mr. Wood that his (Brightbill's) puppy had died; but a Mr. W.S. Kern in an affidavit filed, states that Brightbill acknowledged that it was Wood's dog that died and was carried away by the ashman. Your committee has had no explanation from Mr. Brightbill.

From the above facts your committee is convinced that the pedigree is fraudulent and should be cancelled and that the Executive Board should take cognizance of the matter.

In the matter of the registration of the Collie “Mason Clinker”:
Application was made for this registration by Stephen Dunn who stated on the application blank that the dog was sired by “Wishaw Clinker” from “Lady Hutton.” Mr. F. Poth was given as the breeder and Geo. Frank as the seller, the date of birth as December 12, 1902.

Mr. J. S. Walters filed a complaint upon the ground that the breeding could not be as stated and that “Wishaw Clinker” was in Scotland in 1902.

Mr. Fred Poth, the owner of “Lady Hutton” states that he had never bred any stock to “Wishaw Clinker” or has been out of his kennels without his knowledge. Mr. Dunn states that the pedigree in question was furnished him by the seller, and that in registering the pedigree he merely copies it. Mr. Geo. Frank states that he bought the dog from a coachman who gave him the pedigree, that he found out it was not right and so notified Mr. Dunn.

Your committee is of the opinion that the pedigree is not correctly stated, that the registration should be cancelled and the dog disqualified. We are of the opinion, however, that the matter should be investigated and would recommend that the Executive Board inquire into the motive and as to who is the guilty party.

In the matter of the application for the recogni-Tion of Porto Rican Spaniels:

Your committee has considered the description as well as the illustrations and we are of the opinion that it has not yet been established that there are any distinct or recognized breeds of dogs on the island of Porto Rico.

Regarding the division of breeds into sporting and non-sporting divisions, your committee is of the opinion that if they are to be so divided it would recommend that they be allotted as follows:

Your committee desires the Association to consider the advisability of dividing the breeds into three sections as follows: Sporting, Non-Sporting and Terriers, believing that such a division might facilitate the judging of special prizes which is the cause of this matter having been referred to the Committee.

It would make fewer and more equal contestants and could not in any way affect the standing of a breed as no matter how they may be divided for such show purposes their characters would remain the same.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the prefixes and the transfer of kennel names be granted and that the recommendations contained in such report be taken up later under the head of General Business.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary: I am in receipt of four sets of minutes form the Pacific Advisory Committee, dated respectfully March 18th, March 27th, April 7th and April 18th, with 160 names of disqualified persons. The question is whether you want them read here or whether you want then read here or whether you will simply order them spread upon the minutes.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that they be spread upon the minutes.

Motion seconded and carried.
MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, A.K.C.
Held at the office of the Chairman, Mills Building,
San Francisco, March 18, 1905
Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman; C.K. Harley, Dr. W.P. Burnham, J.P. Norman.

On motion the minutes were adopted as published in the American Kennel Gazette.

The mail vote of the Committee, electing the Portland Kennel Club to membership in the American Kennel Club was confirmed.

On motion to take up unfinished business, the papers relating the negotiations with the Secretary of the Western Kennel League, Mr. N.J. Stewart, were called up. On resolution, the Committee decided that no further steps would be taken in the negotiations, and the papers were ordered passed to file.

On motion it was resolved that the Clubs of the Coat were advised by this Committee of the desirability of keeping in touch with their respective delegates, so that the latter may be kept informed of the legislation needed, and the Secretary was instructed to convey this resolution to the Pacific Coast Clubs.

On motion, it was resolved, that the Clubs of the Coast, members of the American Kennel Club, be called upon to express to this Committee their individual opinion as to the advisability of putting into force the concessions granted to the negotiator for the Western Kennel League, Mr. Norman J. Stewart, and to express what if any, other or alternative changes they would desire in the present management of Pacific Coast Kennel affairs.

Mr. W.E. Chute, Secretary of the Oakland Kennel Club, in a letter dated January 20th, 1905, advises that he is responsible for the error in entering Mr. Papst’s Pointer, Mason’s King, as “Topnotch Mason’s King” and that the error at the San Mateo show was copied from his error at the Oakland show. The writer thought that consequently this committee should intervene to have the cancellation of the dog’s win reversed. After some discussion, it was resolved, that the case is covered by the rule that the exhibitor is compelled to abide by his own errors, and that the Secretary of the Oakland Club made out the entry blank as the exhibitor’s agent; the committee must therefore decline to interfere in the matter.

On the application of Frank J. Moore for re-instatement:

It was moved and seconded, that whereas the applicant is certified by the Portland Kennel Club to be a member in good standing, and whereas he states that the Salem Kennel Club, which held a show in December last under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, has since disbanded, and applies for re-instatement on the ground of belonging to a member of the application of the said Frank J. Moore for himself and associates is endorsed by the Portland Kennel Club, therefore be it

Resolved, that the officials and clerks of the Salem Kennel Club, including Frank Turner of Victoria, who acted as Judge of the show, were disqualified by reason of having held a show under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, but that said officials and employees are reinstated except that such re-instatement does not apply to the judge of said show, Frank Turner of Victoria, British Columbia, who is and remains disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club.

On the application of A.B. Jackson for re-instatement:

It was moved and seconded that whereas the applicant was Secretary of the Spokane Kennel Club, which held a show under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, after the resignation of the President of said Club to avoid disqualification, this club committee does not deem it advisable to grant such application, unless accompanied by the guarantee of allegiance to the American Kennel Club, such as would be afforded by membership in a club a member of the American Kennel Club, or the application of the Spokane Kennel Club for admission to the American Kennel Club and of its officers, for re-instatement to good standing therein. Carried.

Re the amendment of Mr. Viti to the motion of Mr. Carnochan to disqualify all exhibitors at shows held under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, held anywhere in the United States, the amendment and motion having been referred to the Rules Committee at the annual meeting of the A.K.C.

It was moved and seconded, that the letter written by the Secretary of this Committee by direction of the Chairman be confirmed; that the object of this resolution having been stated by Mr. Carnochan to the upholding of the hands of this Committee, and the Secretary of this Committee having written as noted to the Chairman of Rules Committee, that any disqualification of the exhibitors at any show would not meet with the support of public opinion on the Coast, this Committee deems it within its deference, that any extension of the disqualification clause passed by this Committee on July 15th lat, be made applicable only to officials, judges and employees at shows held under other than A.K.C. rules. Carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the Chair.

SPECIAL MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, MARCH 27, 1905

Held at office of the Chairman, Mills Building, S.F.

Present: de Ruyter, (Chairman), Burnham, Carlton, Harley, Norman

The reading of the minutes was postponed to the next regular meeting.
Communications were read as follows:

From the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, relating to negotiations with the Seattle Kennel Club.

Copies of letters between the President of the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association and the President of the Seattle Kennel Club.

Published interviews with the officials of the Seattle Kennel Club.

The Chair stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of considering what steps, if any, should be taken to protect the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association from the publicly announced intention of the Seattle Kennel Club to hold a show at such time and place as would be likely to be most detrimental to the show of the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, a member of the American Kennel Club.

After some discussion, in which all the members of the Committee participated:

It was moved and seconded, That whereas the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, a member of the American Kennel Club, has since January last, announced its intention of holding a show in the month of April under the rules and auspices of the American Kennel Club, and

WHEREAS, the Seattle Kennel Club has made overtures of consolidation to the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, which the latter has found impossible of acceptance, and

WHEREAS, the Seattle Kennel Club through its President has publicly announced its intention of injuring the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association by holding a show under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club during the week preceding the show to be held by the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, and

WHEREAS, the holding of such show and the encouragement thereof would be conduct detrimental to the best interests of dogs and dog shows, and

WHEREAS, this Committee deems it to be its paramount duty to protect such members of the American Kennel Club as are under its immediate jurisdiction from the prejudicial results of such action. Therefore, be it resolved, that the officials, paid and unpaid, of any show held west of the 110\textsuperscript{th} degree of longitude under other than the rules of the American Kennel Club, be disqualified as provided in the resolution of this Committee passed in July last, and be it further.

RESOLVED, that all exhibitors at any show held during the month of April in Seattle under rules other than those of the American Kennel be and hereby are disqualified and that the officials and members of any club holding such show be and hereby are disqualified and be it further resolved, that the present officials and members of the Seattle Kennel Club be and hereby are disqualified in the event of any show being held.

Carried unanimously.

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned subject to the call of the Chair.

SPECIAL MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE,
Held April 7\textsuperscript{th}, 1905 at office of Chairman

Present: de Ruyter (Chairman), Carlton, Burnham, Norman,
Absent: Harley

On motion, the minutes of the meeting of March 18\textsuperscript{th} were called up, read and approved.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Chair stated that the object of the present meeting was to consider applications for re-instatement to good standing from person disqualified for holding shows in the United States west of the 110\textsuperscript{th} degree of longitude under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary read the application of A.B. Jackson of Spokane. It appearing from the facts set forth to the Committee, in conjunction with this application, that Mr. Jackson had complied with the conditions laid down by this Committee at the time of his prior application, it was:

Moved and seconded, that A.B. Jackson be and hereby is re-instated to good standing in the American Kennel Club, and restored to the privileges thereof. Carried.

The Secretary read the application of Claude D. Bond of Spokane. It appearing from the facts set forth with this application, that the applicant had complied with all requirements of this Committee, and with the rules of the American Kennel Club, it was Moved and seconded, that Claude D. Bond be and hereby is re-instated to good standing in the American Kennel Club, and restored to the privileges thereof. Carried.

The Secretary read the application of John M. Bunn of Spokane. It appearing from the facts set forth with this application, that the applicant had complied with the requirements of this Committee and with the Rules of the American Kennel Club, it was Moved and seconded, that John M Bunn be and hereby is re-instated to good standing in the American Kennel Club, and restored to the privileges thereof. Carried.

The Secretary read the application of the Spokane Kennel Club, Inc. for admission to the American Kennel Club. The club having filed its constitution and list of officers in duplicate, and the same conforming to the rules of the American Kennel Club, it was Moved and seconded that the Spokane Kennel Club be and hereby is elected to membership in the American Kennel Club. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that the mail vote of this Committee electing the Southwestern Kennel Club to membership in the American Kennel Club be and hereby is confirmed. Carried.

There being no other business before the meeting, the same was adjourned.

MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Held April 18th, 1905, at office of Chairman

Present: De Ruyter (Chairman), Carlton, Burnham, Norman,
Absent: Harley

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Communications:

From the Secretary of the Pacific St. Bernard Club, alleging that D.J. Sinclair stated to the Secretary of the P. St. B. Club that Chas. Newman had requested Mr. Olney of Pleasanton to allow the said Newman to exhibit Mr. Olney’s St. Bernard, Teddy Roosevelt, as his own; that he, Newman, had everything “fixed” and was bound to win.

On motion the letter was ordered filed, pending the presentation of definite charges, supported by the necessary affidavits.

In reference to the concessions made to Mr. Norman J. Stewart, during the negotiations for the acceptance of certain clubs into the American Kennel Club.

From the Seattle Kennel Club, strongly deprecating the granting of any concessions, and expressing unqualified satisfaction with the present management of Pacific Coast Kennel affairs, and with the methods thereof.

From the Portland Kennel Club, expressing identical sentiments:

From the San Mateo Kennel Club, expressing opinions coincidental with the foregoing.

From the Oakland Kennel Club to the same effect, and criticizing strongly the policy of granting such concessions;

From the President and Vice-President of the San Francisco Kennel Club, verbally and in writing, disclaiming any wish to put such concessions into force.

It was moved and seconded, that whereas the clubs in the jurisdiction of this Committee, who were members of the American Kennel Club at the time, that the said concession were made, have unanimously and unequivocally expressed their desire that the said concessions be not granted and that the management of Pacific Coast kennel affairs remain in statu quo, therefore be it

Resolved, that the concessions offered to Norman J.
Stewart, not having been accepted by the Clubs of the Western Kennel League, be and hereby are, at the unanimous request of the Clubs, members of the American Kennel Club, revoked and cancelled. Carried.

The official catalogue of the Dog Show of the Seattle Kennel Club being laid before the Committee, showing that the said club had held a show in Seattle on April 12, 13, 14 and 15, 1905, under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, in contravention of the resolution of this Committee passed March 27, 1905, it was moved and seconded that the individuals whose names appear in said catalogue be and hereby are disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club, according to the resolution in such case made and provided, and that the list of names hereto attached be the list of persons so disqualified and constitute an integral part of these records. Carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned subject to call of the Chair.

MR. CARNOCHAN: As Chairman of the Committee on Express Rates, which committees has not made a report since it was appointed, I would like to report the following letter:

“Dear Sir:

“In effect September 1, 1904, rate on dogs in crates or kennels by express is one and one-half merchandise rates.”

Signed by the agent of the American Express Company.
I think this is one step in the right direction and is very much better and simpler than the very complicated system of rates which was in effect before September 1, 1904.

THE CHAIR: As I understand, this committee is still in existence and doing more work?

MR. CARNOCHAN: If the delegates choose to keep us on. We are endeavoring to obtain a single flat rate.

THE CHAIR: If there is no objection the report will be accepted and the committee continued in existence.

GENERAL BUSINESS

The Secretary: I call attention to an apparent error at the late Chicago Kennel Club show in the judging of the pointer bitch classes, and I submit the correspondence in connection with the matter.

THE CHAIR: I think this is a matter that should be referred to the Executive Board.

Moved and seconded that the matter be referred to the Executive Board.
Carried.

THE SECRETARY: In the matter of allowing show clubs to use their discretion in the matter of a date for the closing of entries, provided it is not fixed later than seven days preceding the opening of a show, I would ask the American Kennel Club either to make a ruling or to refer the matter to the Rules Committee so that a new rule may be recommended that will do away with the present complication.

The Secretary read a letter from J. Sergeant Price Jr. in reference to the entry of S.P. Martin's Irish Terrier, “Edgecomb Ben.” At the Buffalo Show, the win of said dog having been cancelled by the A.K.C. winning 1st novice, at Pittsburg Show, before the closing of the entries for Buffalo.

MR. VAN SCHAICK: I move that this award shall stand. The Dog was entered in good faith, and was entered before the award in the novice class was made. I think that award should stand.

Motion seconded.

MR. MORTIMER: Rule 13 seems to be perfectly clear in this matter. I do not see how it can be misunderstood in any way at all.

THE CHAIR: This is a very important matter. It seems to me it would be a very proper subject to refer to the Rules Committee. If it is a question of the rules why not have the Rules Committee decide it, and if they consider that under the rules this award should stand, we should act on their advice, or we could make a change in the rules in that regard if the Rules Committee so decided.

MR. CARNOCHAN: The rule is so perfectly plain that if, as stated, the Irish Terriers were judged on the second day of the Pittsburg Show, that win at Buffalo must stand according to the rule. Therefore I would like to offer an amendment to the motion, that all wins at the Buffalo show that were disqualified in any class owning to the belief that all dogs were judged at Pittsburg on the first day be allowed to stand, and that the Rules Committee be asked to frame a rule on this subject.

Motion as amended carried.

MR. VITI: I move that the rules shall be altered so as to read that in case of the date of closing of entries falling within the dates of a previous show, the awards at that show shall not be counted.

Motion seconded and carried.

On motion the bill of disbursements reported by the Pacific Advisory Committee, amounting to $36.35, was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: I now read the most remarkable letter I have ever received.

(Letter read).

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the matter be referred to the Executive Board for action, the Secretary preferring charges against this man.

MR. VITI: I move as an amendment that the equivalent of the check for $3 be returned with that Notice.

Motion as amended carried.

After a discussion lasting four hours, the report of the Rules Committee was adopted, amended or rejected as follows:

A dog is eligible for registration in the Stud Book under the following conditions:

1. American bred dogs whelped after Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1906, must have registered parents. Lost.

2. Foreign bred dogs must have a pedigree of at least three generations, certified to by the Kennel Club of the country from which they are imported. Lost.

3. Dogs not eligible under Section I and II, must have won at least three first prizes in limit or open classes of their breed, under at least three different judges at recognized shows. Lost.

4. Dogs whelped prior to Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1906, may be registered at any time under the rules in force up to that date. Lost.
NEW BY-LAWS

XVII. Any person or person acting in any official capacity paid or unpaid, including that of Judge, Secretary, Superintendent, steward, clerk of a show, or as an officer or member of a Bench Show Committee of any club, holding a show in the United States of America, under any rule antagonistic to the American Kennel Club, shall be disqualified and debarred from all privileges of the American Kennel Club. Carried.

NEW BY-LAWS

With the exception of routine business no matters shall be brought up for discussion at any meeting, unless due notice has been given to the Secretary of the A.K.C. and by him sent to each delegate at least twenty days prior to the said meeting or unless a majority of the delegates present at a meeting consent to the consideration of a new subject. Carried.

AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES

Rule XII. Class No. 1

Add a new paragraph. Puppy classes must be judged not later than the second day of the show. Carried.

Class No. 2.

Substitute the following: The novice class shall be for American bred dogs only, never having won a first prize at any recognized show, wins in the puppy classes excepted. Carried.

Class No. 5.

Add after the word “class” in the 12th line. – the words “under three different judges, excepting however a 5 point shows when two wins under different judges will be sufficient.” Carried.

Paragraph No. 7.

Add new paragraph. “Shows that do not give money prizes in the regular classes, shall be rated at one half the schedule of points as designated above.” This does not apply to shows held west of the 110th degree of longitude. Lost.

Rule IV.

Add the following words: “Except in the case of technical errors where fraud is not shown, in which case the Secretary shall impose a fine of $2.00 for each entry.”

Substitute for the present Rule XXIV, The Superintendent of any show cannot exhibit or officiate as a judge at that show. Carried.

Page XXI, Rule XVI. Section 4. Add the words “for each entry.” Carried.

Same Rule, add new section. For all errors in the entry forms at shows where fraud is not shown -- $2.00 for each entry. Carried.
that between the dates of Dec. 1st and Dec. 31st of each year, nominations for the officers of President and Vice-President, and the Chairman of each standing committee of this Association, may be filed with the Secretary of this Association by any delegate whose club is in good standing, and the said Secretary must publish said nominations for the above named offices in the Jan. issue of the American Kennel Gazette of each year. And at each succeeding annual meeting only such names as may have been nominated and whose nominations have been published in the preceding Jan. issue of the American Kennel Gazette, in the manner above set forth, can be nominated and no other nomination shall be permitted nor can any candidates other than such as have been announced be nominated.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the Rules Committee be instructed to report this matter back to the annual meeting as an amendment to the Constitution of the Club.

MR. VITI: I move as an amendment that it be now adopted as a by-law of this Association.

Motion as amended carried.

It was moved and seconded that the Rules go into effect August 1, 1905.

Carried.

THE CHAIR: There are still some matters connected with the report of the Stud Book Committee to be acted upon.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the cases therein mentioned be referred to the Executive Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MORTIMER: I notice that the cocker spaniels and field spaniels are all registered together with no division, although they are a distinct and different breed.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the Stud Book Committee be instructed to report this matter of cocker and field spaniels back at the next meeting of this club.

Motion seconded and carried.

It was moved and seconded that the recommendation of the Stud Book Committee as to classification of dogs as sporting, non-sporting and terriers be adopted.

Carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

The following named delegates were elected to represent the following named clubs:

Harry S. Spackman  Interstate Fair Kennel Club
Abram D. Gillette  Champlain Kennel Club
Clifford Drake  Stockton Kennel Club
J.L. Lockhart  Washington Kennel Club
S. Boyd Carrigan  Philadelphia Collie Club
A.M. Orr  Miami Valley Kennel Club
Arthur Letts  Southwestern Kennel Club
John W. Britton, II  Bull Terrier Breeders’ Association
C.K. Harley  Pacific Sheep Dog Club
Richard Crocker, Jr.  Colorado Kennel Club
Monson Morris  Rockland County Industrial Association
W.T. Payne  Franklin Kennel Club

THE SECRETARY:  Credentials have been filed from the Spokane Kennel Club, nominating Alexander H. Rutherford; Bryn Mawr Kennel Club, nominating Mr. Henry D. Riley; Keystone Beagle Club, nominating Mr. Wilson Barnard; Cedarhurst Kennel Club, nominating Mr. John G. Bates; Bay State Co-operative Bench Show Association, nominating Mr. William E. Stone; Passaic County Kennel Club, nominating Mr. Albert Ulrich.  These credentials are marked by the committee “not approved.” The Passaic County Kennel Club’s nominee is the Secretary of the club. The Bay State Co-operative Bench Show Association’s nominees is the clerk of the club, which, I suppose, is the same as the secretary. The Cedarhurst Kennel Club’s nominee is the secretary of the club. The Keystone Beagle Club’s nominee is the secretary of the club. The Bryn Mawr Kennel Club’s nominee is the secretary of the club. The Spokane Kennel Club’s nominee is either an active or honorary member of that club, and upon those grounds the committee disapproved of their acceptance.

MR. MASTICK: I move that the Secretary include in his notification to these clubs whose credentials have been disapproved by the membership committee the reason therefore as stated at this meeting.

MR. VITI: I move that the minutes of the last meeting be accepted as published in the Gazette.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

To the AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this, my regular quarterly report.

Since our last meeting there has been an addition to our roll of active members of nine clubs as follows:

Through the Pacific Advisory Committee:
- PACIFIC SHEEPDOG CLUB
- STOCKTON KENNEL CLUB
- ST. CLARA COUNTY KENNEL CLUB
- SANTA CRUZ COUNTY KENNEL CLUB
- DESERT AGRICULTURAL & MANUFACTURING SOCIETY

By the Executive Board:
- Interstate Fair Kennel Club
- Miami Valley Kennel Club
- Westchester County Fair Kennel Club
- Wolverine Kennel Club

With these additions our roll of active members numbers ninety-nine clubs, all in good standing, and is the high water mark since the organization of this Association. Three applications for membership are now pending, and twenty-one clubs have filed credentials, both of which will be duly reported by your Membership Committee.

Twenty-eight applications for the registration of Kennel names have been submitted to the Stud Bok Committee, and its report will be presented for your action.
The Passaic County Fish and Game Protective Society has tendered its resignation as an active member. This club being in good standing I would recommend the acceptance of this resignation.

It also requests that its date deposit now in our hands be transferred to the Passaic County Kennel Club, provided same shall be elected at this meeting, and whose application will be reported upon by the Membership Committee.

The Rhode Island Kennel Club and the Texas Kennel Club both claimed dates and made the necessary deposit for shows to be held during this year. For good and sufficient reason these clubs will be unable to hold the shows contemplated, and respectfully requests that their deposits be transferred to cover shows to be held in 1906. As precedents exist where such requests have been granted, I respectfully recommend that the two requests referred to above, be granted.

The Collie Club of America has withdrawn Mr. Edwin J. Van Schaick, as its delegates, and I would request permission to remove his name as such delegate.

I beg to report the receipt of a bill for disbursements from the Pacific Advisory Committee, covering expenses from May 10th to August 31st, amounting to $31.25.
This committee has a balance to its credit on account of deposits made with it by this Association, of $13.65, I would therefore recommend that the balance now due said Advisory Committee of $17.60 be ordered paid. Our Pacific Advisory Committee has held three meetings since the last report, namely, June 21, August 2, and September 6th, and minutes of the same have been filed with this office. It rests with this meeting whether said minutes shall be read or ordered printed as a part of the proceedings of this meeting without reading.

The Lynn Kennel Club has filed a notice that it has suspended J. Mc Guinness of Everett, Mass. for removing his dog from its show, without authority, and against the express direction of said club. It is alleged that a notice was sent to Mc Guinness, notifying him of time and place where a meeting of the Bench Show Committee would be held to consider his conduct, and giving him due opportunity to appear before said Committee in his own defense. Failing to take advantage of this opportunity he was duly suspended under the provision of the A.K.C. Rule. I would report that under our rules this suspension must either be removed at this meeting, or the penalty of disqualification must be imposed against the said Mc Guinness.
I beg to report for your information that the following cases will be submitted to the Executive Board, at its first meeting:

John G. Howland vs. Charles B. Pineo, misconduct in connection with dogs.
Adolphy Stucky vs. Dr. C.C. Kammerer, misconduct in connection with dogs.
J.W. Brauer vs. Dr. C.C. Kammerer, misconduct in connection with dogs.
C.G. Fowler vs. Franklin Kennel Club, misconduct in connection with dog shows.
Myron W. Robinson vs. Lynn Kennel Club, Appeal from action of superintendent of said club.

No doubt the delegates will recall that at the annual meeting the members were so numerous that there was not sufficient space in our meeting room to accommodate them. Several men obliged to occupy chairs in both the Secretary’s office and the registration office, and I am informed that a few of the members retired for want of room. As above reported, our membership at present is very large, and likely to be increased at this meeting by at least twenty additional delegates, and I therefore believe that the need of a larger meeting room is a subject that should be thoroughly discussed, and I trust that this matter will receive due consideration at your hands.
Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh,

Sec'y

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:

“New York, Sept. 21, 1905

To the American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1905, $16,714.95

Receipts from Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st} to date, 12,977.84

\[ \text{Total} = 29,692.79 \]

Disbursements from Jan. 1\textsuperscript{st} to date, 13,237.96

Balance on hand, 16,454.83

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh

Treasurer”

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: The report of the Executive Board of July 20\textsuperscript{th} was published in the July Gazette.

On motion the reading of the report of the Executive Board meeting was dispensed with.
The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

“New York, September 21, 1905

The Stud Book Committee of the A.K.C. begs to submit the following report:

The following list of applications for kennel names and transfers were received by us and as none of these names conflict with those registered, your Committee recommends that the names be granted to the applicants:

BARROWOOD    Mrs. F.T. Barrowman
BALBEC        John Howe
BEPO PO BLUE   Mrs. Newton Bennington
BUCKS         Philip French
BURNLEY       W.B. Boorum, Jr. et al
CAVE ROCK     W.W. Spackman
CLIVEDEN      Mrs. C.E. Guyer
RELIANCE      John D. Faulkner
ELMBANK       W.F. Center
FOREST OAK    R.D. Williams
GLENBREEKIN FARM Thos. Crimmins
GREENWOOD     A.B. de Campi
HATTON        Robert Irvine
TRELAWNEY     Dan G. Trench
VINEWOOD Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jenkins
WAHNETAH V.E. Heywood
WESTLAND M.C. Strickland
WYCHWOOD Mrs. H.S. Oakley

Transfers
GLIMPSEWOOD from W.B. Boorum, Jr. to Mrs. W.B. Boorum
RUSHTON, from George W. Bunnell, Jr. to H.S. Collette
STOUGHTON form Caleb West to Caleb West, H.P. Melcher, E.F. West

Applications were also made for the registration of the names Boston and Aberdeen. Following the precedents of the club your Committee recommend that these two names be disallowed. Boston, because of the same reason which actuated the Kennel Club in disallowing the name New York, and Aberdeen, to conform with the precedent refusing the name of a breed.

Several other applications are in the hands of your Committee and will be acted upon after they have been published in the Gazette. Your Committee feel that all applications for kennel names and the transfers thereof should be published in the Gazette before they are acted upon so as to afford an opportunity for objecting to them if there be any cause for such action.

(Signed) Marcel A. Viti
Chairman"
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

THE SECRETARY: I have here the minutes of the last three meetings of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MOORE: I move that the reading of such minutes be dispensed with and that they be spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

The minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee of meetings held on June 21st, August 2nd and September 6, 1905, follow:

San Francisco, June 21, 1905

Present: De Ruyter, Chairman, Carlton, Burnham, Norman

Absent: Harley

On motion the minutes of the previous regular meeting were accepted as published in the Gazette.

The minutes of the special meeting of May 10th were read and approved.

The Pacific Sheepdog Club having been elected by mail vote, the election was confirmed.

In re Ollard versus Portland Kennel Club: This is a claim for prize money offered to the handler bringing the largest number of dogs from Washington.
On motion the Secretary was instructed to refer the matter back to the appellant with direction to file sworn affidavit, accompanied by the usual deposit of ten dollars and a copy of the premium list of the Portland Kennel Club showing that the association made the alleged offer of the sum involved.

The following letter from C.K. Harley was read by the Secretary: San Francisco, June 13, 1905. Mr. J.P. Norman, Secretary Pacific Advisory Committee. Dear Sir: Owing to the fact that for the next two years my residence is to be in the City of New York, I hereby tender my resignation as member of the Pacific Advisory Committee of the American Kennel Club, to take effect at once. Very truly yours, (Signed) Charles K. Harley.

It was moved and seconded that this committee regrets in the extreme that circumstances have compelled Mr. Harley to tender his resignation, and that in view of the same, this committee accepts the resignation with equal regret. Carried unanimously.

On motion it was resolved to take up the matter of filling the vacancy on the committee.

The Chair suggested that it would have the tendency to make this committee more representative of the Clubs of the Coast and would bring it more in touch which them if this committee would give them the choice of selecting from a number of fanciers, persons gratae to the committee, the one who would be most acceptable to the majority of the clubs. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes from the club would be the one nominated to the A.K.C. for appointment. As the result of considerable deliberation, he would ask that the names of Frederick P. Butler, Walter W. Stettheimer and Norman J. Stewart be placed in nomination for submittal to the clubs, if such course were adopted by the meeting.

It was moved, seconded and carried that the suggestions of the Chair be adopted, and the Secretary be instructed to submit to the clubs the list of candidates as might be approved by the meeting.

The names of W.W. Stettheimer, Fred P. Butler and Norman J. Stewart were then placed in nomination.

It was moved and seconded that nominations be closed. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that the three names mentioned be submitted to the clubs for a choice. Carried.

A petition was then read from the Southwestern Kennel Club, asking that John Riplinger and others disqualified by reason of having held a bench show at Seattle during the month of April, in contravention of the rules of the American Kennel Club, be re-instated to good standing. On motion, the consideration of the petition was postponed to the next meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Attest:

J.P. Norman
Secretary

August 2, 1905

Present: De Ruyter, Chairman, Carlton, Burnham, Norman.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

On motion, the election by mail vote of the Stockton Kennel Club, the Santa Cruz County Kennel Club and the Santa Clara County Kennel Club were confirmed.

In pursuance of the resolution passed on June 21st, the Secretary having requested the clubs in the jurisdiction of the Committee to express their preference for one of the three gentlemen, Messrs. Fred. P. Butler, Norman J. Stewart, or Walter W. Stettheimer to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Chas. K. Harley, the following replied were received:

For Fred. P. Butler, Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, Oakland Kennel Club, San Francisco Kennel Club.
For Walter W. Stettheimer: San Mateo Kennel Club, Pacific Sheep Dog Club, Portland Kennel Club, Spokane Kennel Club, Stockton Kennel Club, Southwestern Kennel Club, Santa Cruz County Kennel Club (Mr. Stewart having withdrawn his name), Santa Clara County Kennel Club, (Mr. Stewart having withdrawn his name).

There being eight votes for Mr. Stettheimer against three for Mr. Butler, it was:

Moved and seconded, that this Committee do hereby recommend to the American Kennel Club that Mr. Walter W. Stettheimer be appointed to fill the vacancy cause by the resignation of Mr. C.K. Harley. CARRIED.

Tucker versus Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association:

This is a complain from Dr. E.F. Tucker of Portland, dated July 24th, alleging that he had deposited with the S.D.F.A. the sum of five dollars to cover a protest and that no action and that no action had been taken thereof, and that he could elicit no reply form that association. It was moved and seconded that the secretary be instructed to call on the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association for an immediate action on Dr. Tucker’s protest, or for a satisfactory reason for failing to take action thereon, the reply to be furnished within ten days from the date of the Secretary’s letter, failing to receive which, this com-committee would take the necessary disciplinary steps. CARRIED.

Chute versus Morris:

Under date of July 25th W.E. Chute produces a communication published in a local paper, signed by Wm. J. Morris and dated Los Angeles, June 22, in which said Morris accuses complainant of endeavoring to prevent Morris’ dog from competing for a special prize offered at the San Francisco Dog Show for the best Pointer owned on the Pacific Coast. The complainant denies the allegation and petitions the committee to cause the defendant to corroborate his accusations and to substantiate them or to suffer the usual penalty for conduct prejudicial to dogs and dog shows. It was Moved and seconded that the Secretary be instructed to call on the said Wm. J. Morris to furnish proof of his accusations within ten days from date of advice, failing to receive which, this committee would resort to the usual disciplinary measures. CARRIED.

In the matter of the petition of the Southwestern Kennel Club for reinstatement of certain individuals disqualified for participation in a show held in Seattle in contravention of certain rules passed by this Committee, it was Moved and seconded that no communication having been received from the disqualified parties seeking re-instatement to good standing, this committee regrets its inability to comply with the request of the Southwestern Kennel Club.  CARRIED.

The rules being suspended on motion by unanimous vote, it was moved and seconded that the by-laws of this committee be amended as follows: That this Committee hold a regular meeting on the first Wednesday of each month, the meeting place to be the office of the Chairman, unless otherwise stated by notice from the Secretary.

Carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Attest:

J.P. NORMAN
Secretary

September 6, 1905

Present: De Ruyter, Chairman, Burnham, Stettheimer, Norman.
Absent: Carlton

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The Secretary read the following communication: New York, Aug. 15, 1905.

Mr. J.P. Norman, Sec. Pacific Advisory Committee, Berkeley, Cal. Dear Sir: I have the honor to advise you that Mr. Walter W. Stettheimer has this day been duly appointed a member of your committee, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. C.K. Harley. The appointment is made by August Belmont, Esq., President A.K.C. by virtue of the authority given him in the constitution. I have notified Mr. Stettheimer of his appointment. Yours truly, American Kennel Club, by A.P. Vredenburgh, Secretary.

Application from the Desert Agricultural and Manufacturing Society of Salt Lake City, Utah for membership in the A.K.C. was read. On the statement by the Secretary that the Society has filed an attested copy of a resolution adopted on August 7th by the Board of Directors embodying in the constitution a clause for the holding of dog shows, and had otherwise complied with the requirements of the American Kennel Club, it was moved and seconded that the aforesaid Society be and hereby is elected to membership in the A.K.C. CARRIED.

In the case of Chute versus Morris: Complaint of false charges of misconduct.

The defendant by his attorney, W.A. Alderson, seeks a further extension of thirty days, in which to file proof of the allegations. On motion, it was resolved that such extension be granted.
Tucker v. Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, A Protest:

It appears from the complaint that this was an appeal filed with the bench show committee after the expiration of the seven days allowed for such appeal; the protest was overruled on that ground by the executive board of the defendant club; the complainant alleged that at the dog show of the S.D.F.A. held in April, 1905, the special prize, a silver cup, offered for the best American-bred Airedale Terrier was awarded to Colne Sandy, owned by W.F. Delabarre of Port Los Angeles, registered in the A.K.C.S.B., No. 78510, as being bred by Jo. H. Laurin of Montreal, Canada. Reserve was awarded to Dr. Geo. Newlands’ Colne Lochiel, A.K.C.S.B., 81106, bred by the same breeder. The defendant club having refused to consider the protest, it was resolved on motion that it be instructed to return the deposit of five dollars to the plaintiff, pending the decision of this committee, the said deposit to be transmitted through this committee and it was further resolved, that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to take steps for the procuration of further information in the case.

In the case of G.C. Israel: A petition for the removal of disqualification.
The particular sets forth under date of August 8th at Olympia, Washington, that he was disqualified with many others for having exhibited at the dog show held in April, 1905, by the Seattle Kennel Club in contravention of the rules of the American Kennel Club as enunciated by the Pacific Advisory Committee, that he exhibited under a misapprehension and in ignorance of said rules, and that he is and always was loyal to the American Kennel Club, and for those reasons prays for reinstatement to good standing. On motion, it was resolved that said petitioner be reinstated to good standing on filing with the Secretary of this committee an undertaking that he will not, in future, exhibit at any dog show, that is not held under the rules and with the sanction of the American Kennel Club.

Burnham v. Lepman: A charge of fraud and misconduct.

This charge, brought by Dr. W.P. Burnham of San Francisco of against Horace G. Lepman of Chicago, that the plaintiff sent the defendant $135.00 in payment of a collies bitch, that the defendant received the money of which proof is furnished, and that defendant has not to date delivered the bitch or returned the money, not has he made any other acknowledgement or return. The Secretary stated that he had sent defendant an attested copy of the charge and had allowed him the customary time in which to make answer. On motion, the case was laid upon the table, awaiting defendant’s answer or presentation at the next regular meeting.

Butler V.C.W. Buttles of Kansas City, a charge of fraudulent misrepresentation.

This is a charge brought by Fred. P. Butler of San Francisco that defendant advertised a setter dog for sale, nine months old, high class and well made, and that plaintiff bought the dog on those representations. On arrival the dog was found to be an exceedingly poor specimen of which fact plaintiff adduces corroborative testimony and accuses defendant of fraud and misrepresentation. The Secretary stated that he had sent defendant an attested copy of the charge and had allowed him the usual time in which to make answer. On motion, consideration of the case was postponed until the next regular meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Attest:

J.P. NORMAN
Secretary

On motion the resignation of the Passaic County Fish & Game Protective Association was accepted.

The Passaic County Kennel Club, The Southern Beagle Club and the People’s Poultry & Pet Stock Association were elected to membership in the American Kennel Club.

Mr. G.B. Post, Jr. was elected to represent the Southern Beagle Club, and Mr. Osgood Sayen was elected to represent the Philadelphia Pointer Club.

THE SECRETARY: The Rhode Island Kennel Club and the Texas Kennel Club ask for a transfer of their dates to cover shows to be held in 1906. The reasons given seem to be good and sufficient, that they could not hold their shows in 1905, and their applications are now before you.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that their request be granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Collie Club of America has withdrawn Mr. Edwin J. Van Schaick as its delegate, and I request permission to remove his name as such delegate.

It is moved and seconded that the Secretary be authorized to remove Mr. Van Schaick’s name from the list of delegates.

Carried.
On motion the Secretary was authorized to pay the balance due the Pacific Advisory Committee of $17.60.

THE SECRETARY: The Lynn Kennel Club has suspended a man by the name of J. Mc Guinness, of Everett, Massachusetts, for removing his dog from its show without their permission and against their express direction. They allege they gave him an opportunity to be heard, which he did not take advantage of, and thereupon they suspended him. It is now nor this meeting to either remove that suspension or change it to disqualification. It has been the custom in these cases where no good reason is shown to remove the suspension, to disqualify the man, and for him when he receives notice thereof, to appeal and appear before the executive board which will consider the case on its merits.

MR. MOORE: Isn't there a specific rule covering the removal of dogs from shows?

MR. MIDDLEBROOKE: This man removed his dog from the show about seven o'clock in the evening of the second day of the show, which was the closing day, against my express wish. The show did not close until ten o'clock. He said he did not care for the American Kennel Club or anybody else, he was going to take his dog out.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move that the action of the club be sustained and the man disqualified.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a resolution here offered by the Membership Committee. It is as follows:

"WHEREAS, it is the opinion of the Membership Committee that the status of a paid judge at dog shows and field trials be determined.

Be it resolved, that a paid judge shall be defined as any one who shall have received or agrees to receive any monetary compensation for services as a judge at any dog show or field trial. Any judge receiving many for expenses shall be considered a paid judge unless the amount simply covers his necessary and legitimate expenses; which shall consist solely of transportation fares from and to his home, and hotel charges during his stay at the show or trial.

Be it further resolved, that all judges except paid judges be and hereby are required to file with the American Kennel Club, within thirty days after the close of the show or trials, an itemized bill of his expenses provided the club at which he judged has or agrees to reimburse him for said expenses, and said reimbursement accepted by said judge, and any judge who fails to file an itemized bill of expenses as above provided shall be considered a paid judge.”

MR. MOORE: I move that the resolution be referred to the Rules Committee for consideration.

Motion seconded.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move the resolution be adopted.

MR. VITI: I second the motion.

MR. EMERY: The idea of the Membership Committee informing that resolution was simply to get instruction. We wanted to know how we should define a paid judge, because in these credentials we ask that question whether or not they are paid judges.

THE SECRETARY: As a member of the Rules Committee, it does not appear to me that that is a proper subject for that committee’s consideration. If it was a change in the rules in any way, shape or form, then there is no question that it should be committed to the Rules Committee, considered by it and published in the Gazette before it could be finally acted upon at this meeting, but here is a definition only; it is not a rule; it is simply a definition for the assistance of the Membership Committee in. the prosecution of its duties, so that it may know exactly where it stands. It asks this Association to define who is an what is a paid judge. It does not seem to me, as a member of the Rules Committee, that that matter should come before it.

MR. MOORE: Then I will withdraw my motion.

THE CHAIR: You cannot withdraw your motion. It is before the House. It will have to be voted on.

The motion was then put and lost.

THE CHAIR: Mr. Muss-Arnolt's motion to adopt the resolution is now before the house and is open to discussion.

MR. DALE: A professional or paid judge is not eligible, as I understand it, or a Secretary, to represent a club.

THE SECRETARY: Further than that, a man to represent a club must think enough of the club to become an active member of it, or the club must think enough of a man to make him an honorary member.

MR. FOSTER: Suppose one of us goes up to Canada and judges, and we do not choose to charge up any expense at all, every man who does that under this resolution would have to send word to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club that he was not charging his expenses or be considered a paid judge.

THE CHAIR: The judge will have to send in word that he has not accepted any money.

MR. SMITH: This idea of sending in word to the American Kennel Club within thirty days would only occur where a man had received his expenses. Many of us go all around the country and judge and do not charge any expenses, but the object of this is simply to make a fine distinction between the one and the other.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I think the matter would be much simpler if there was included in the resolution a provision compelling the show's Secretary, when he sends in the catalogue, to send in the list marked “amateur judge” or “paid judge”. If the show's Secretary is compelled to note whether or not a judge is paid, it will simplify the matter considerably.

MR. SMITH: That is the idea of that resolution, to determine what an amateur judge is. There are amateur judges that will go from here to Hoboken, for instance, and judge at a show and who will send in an itemized account of their expenses amounting to $50.00 or $75.00. He is an amateur judge, but how his expenses can amount to as much as that is a puzzle to several of the show Secretaries. Mr. Muss-Arnolt’s idea of having the Show Secretary send in a catalogue marking the judge paid or unpaid would still give the judge who was supposed to be an amateur, the same privilege.

MR. VITI: It seems to me that this wording answers the objection of Mr. Foster, “Provided the club at which he judged has or agrees to reimburse him.” Where you pay your own expenses, and do not ask to be re-imbursed you do not have to file any statement.

MR. FOSTER: I happen to think of an instance. The people up in Toronto asked me to come up there and judge bull terriers, and they told me to let them know what my expenses would be and they would reimburse me. I told them I was not a professional judge, and was going to their show anyhow, and that I would not charge for any expenses. Those people would probably tell you they had agreed to pay my expenses, while I would say I had not charged them any expenses.

MR. MCGUIRE: The American Kennel Club will have to determine whether the charges are excessive or not.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: That should be left to the show Secretary to determine; he is the man that ought to know.

MR. MOORE: I agree with the suggestion that the Secretary of the show should be compelled to send in a list of his paid and unpaid judges, but I fail to see any necessity for the rule at all.

MR. MC GUIRE: This matter has been threshed out in the Amateur Athletic Union. A man is either an amateur or professional, and this very resolution that you are discussing now has raised a lot of questions. You cannot draw the line as to what one man’s expenses would be. I remember five years ago among base ball teams it was customary for the members of the teams to play ball at certain summer resorts and a great many of them received their railroad expenses, which amounted to $400.00 or $500.00; but they were still amateurs. This is the same question, nothing different.

MR. SMITH: For the very reason that the gentleman gives I think that it has become the duty of the American Kennel Club, or the delegates, or some committee, to determine what an amateur judge is, inasmuch as it has been a very much disabused privilege by several people who pose as amateur judges going around to different shows and saying they would act as judges provided their expenses were paid, and when the show comes to settle the bill for their expenses, they are found to be greatly in excess of what they should be. I am saying this for the benefit of several of the delegates here who seem to be in favor of adopting this resolution.

THE SECRETARY: I can tell you of two instances, and both men are gentlemen amateur judges who would not under any consideration accept remuneration for judging. One of them went from New York to Philadelphia. We all know that the excursion rate is $4.00, and a dollar for a drawing room seat there and back makes $6.00. He stayed there four days, which he had a right to do, because he has a right to stay until the close of the show for the reason that he is a judge until the close of the show. He paid about the highest rate for hotel expenses, $7.00 a day, which was $28.00, plus $6.00 for railroad transportation, making $34.00 altogether. Every dollar that he received in excess of $34.00 was paid for his services to that club. He put in a bill for expenses $75.00, and he claims he is strictly an amateur judge. In another case, in Pittsburgh, the receipted bill showed $75.00 charged, and yet $30.00 was more than a generous allowance, for the man only lives a little ways from Pittsburgh.

MR. DALE: I claim there are enough gentlemen in the dog world who will go around and judge without any remuneration at all. It is one or the other.

MR. MIDDLEBROOKE: I am in favor of passing the resolution if you will change it to read that the Secretary of the club or the superintendent will make the return. I move as an amendment that the return be made by the Secretary of the club holding the show or superintendent.

MR. MC GUIRE: I move an amendment to that amendment making it obligatory upon the Secretary of the show to file with the Secretary of the American Kennel Club a statement of all moneys paid to judges at shows. Any man who is paid in excess of his railroad transportation expenses will be considered by the American Kennel Club a professional judge.

MR. MIDDLEBROOKE: I should be willing to pay a reasonable hotel bill.

MR. MC GUIRE: A man who has no objection to accepting his hotel expenses should have no objection to becoming a professional.

MR. SMITH: That question was brought up by one of the members of the committee when we framed this resolution who assumed the case of a man being sent from here to Denver to judge, and the man could not afford to pay his railroad expenses and unless he were allowed to receive that amount the compensation he could not judge at that show, and therefore his being an amateur would prevent him going.

MR. MC GUIRE: That applies to the amateur in every line of sport. If a man wants to remain an amateur he must necessarily be in a position to afford to remain such. If he is not and does not care to become a professional, let him refrain from judging. You have got to draw the line and you have not to draw it very close.

Mr. Mc Guire’s proposed amendment was put to a vote and lost.

MR. MOORE: I move that the resolution be referred to the Rules Committee.

Motion seconded and lost.

MR. MIDDLEBROOKE’S proposed amendment was also put and lost.

MR. MC GUIRE: I move that the resolution be laid on the table.
Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Emery offered the following resolution:

Be it resolved, that a paid judge shall be defined as any one who shall have received or agrees to receive any monetary compensation for services as a judge at any dog show or field trial. Any judge receiving money for expenses shall be considered a paid judge. And be it further resolved, that the Secretary or Superintendent of all show giving clubs shall within ten days after the close of its show forward to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club a list of all judges who have or are to receive any monetary consideration for expenses or otherwise.

Resolution seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: There is only one other matter that I have referred to in my report, and that is the question of quarters for the delegates. A great many of the delegates present to-day know the trouble that they had at the last two meetings to obtain a seat or even to get within the walls of this office, and I think it is a question that ought to be discussed to-day whether we should appoint a committee or whether the Secretary or any of the officers should undertake to see what arrangement can be made to increase our floor room for meeting purposes. I am told by the superintendent of this building that he can accommodate us with more room. He has stated that he is so anxious to keep us in this building that he will make such an offer that we cannot afford to go and look elsewhere.

MR. MC GUIRE: I move that the Chair appoint a committee to take up the matter of obtaining larger quarters for the meetings of the club.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Chair appointed as such committee Messrs. B.S. Smith, Dwight Moore and A.P. Vredenburgh.

The meeting then adjourned.

Mr. Vredenburgh read his quarterly report as follows:

Secretary’s report. New York, Dec. 20, 1905

To the American Kennel Club:

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit this, my regular quarterly report:

I have received since our September meetings, seven applications from clubs for admission to membership, and credentials from fourteen clubs appointing delegates to represent them in this Association, all of which have been duly approved by the Membership Committee and will be submitted to you at this meeting for action.

All matters received by me that belong to the Stud Book Committee have been duly referred to that Committee which report at this meeting. The Executive Board held a session yesterday, and completed its labors this morning, and its report will be duly presented to you.

I beg to report the receipt of the resignation of the Canonsburg Kennel Club, and as this club is in good standing, would respectfully recommend the acceptance of its resignation.

I beg to report the receipt from the Pacific Advisory Committee, minutes of their meetings held in San Francisco, October 4th, November 1st, (special), November 18th, and December 6th. It rests with this meeting whether these minutes shall be read or whether you will order them printed as part of the proceedings of this meeting, without taking up your time in reading same. I will present or you consideration a communication from the delegate of the Rhode Island K.C. in reference to a petition from the “Rhode Island Japan Plumed Club” asking that the so-called Japanese Plumed Spaniel be placed upon our list of recognized breeds.

I beg to submit a bill of disbursements from the Pacific Advisory Committee covering a period from September 6th to November 30th, amounting to $37.10, and would recommend that the same be ordered paid.

The Rules under which we are now acting directs me to impose a penalty of $2.00 against every exhibitor for technical errors, in making entries in dog shows. This rule supersedes the old one where I was directed to cancel the winnings of the dog who has been wrongly entered at a show. I have been obliged to impose a great many $2.00 fines, and have collected a very great percentage of the fines so imposed. I would now ask for instructions as to what would be the proper course to pursue in order to enforce the payment of these fines from such persons as do not respond to our bills rendered.

Under the present rule the novice class is open only to American Bred dogs; since this rule went into effect, my attention has been more strongly attracted to the fact that notwithstanding the provision of an old rule that exhibitors must state on their entry form the date of birth, breeder and names of sire and dam if known, that exhibitors fail in a great measure to give these particulars on the show entry form, and therefore have been compelled to assume that the particulars were unknown to the exhibitor. The absence of these particulars do not furnish me with any data by which I can determine whether the dogs so entered in the novice class are eligible to that class or not, and I have therefore assumed that they were not eligible, and have cancelled the winnings of such dogs. If after such action the exhibitor can furnish me with such information as would prove that the dogs were American bred, I have gladly reinstated such dogs, and given them credit for the wins that I had cancelled. I caused the notice to be published in the Gazette of November 30\textsuperscript{th}, cautioning exhibitors to give the required data, and suggested that as the novice class was open to American bred dogs only, the entries therein should contain the same details as an entry in the puppy class, namely, that the date of birth, name of breeder, and name of sire and dam, must be given. Since this notice has appeared, it has occurred to me that in case these particulars should not be known to the exhibitor, that a statement on the entry blank, same to be published in the catalogue of shows, that the dog in question was bred at such as place, within the limits of the United States, that I could safely accept such a statement as proof that the dog was American bred. I would therefore respectfully request for an expression of opinion from the delegates on this subject for future guidance.

While on this subject of American bred dogs, I would like a ruling whether the nationality of a breeder could determine the nationality of the dog; in other words, if an American should purchase a bitch in any foreign country, and after he became the possessor of same bitch, should direct that she should be bred to a dog in the same country, and the bitch shipped to this country, whelping here, whether the puppies are American bred. Heretofore such puppies would be considered American born, but foreign bred. I think this is a question that should have an official interpretation.

We have celebrated the “coming of age” of this Association and it gives me pleasure to congratulate the Association on its strong, healthy condition, with a membership on ONE HUNDRED AND TEN regularly organized clubs, with a record of FIFTY-NINE SHOWS within the year of 1905, with increasing interests taken in well bred dogs, throughout the United States, and with the solid Pacific Coast, under our care, surely it is an occasion to feel proud of our work, and to express our appreciation to the breeders and exhibitors, and to the Press, who have all combined and helped to attain such splendid results.
Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer’s report was read as follows:

I beg to report that all bills for dues to Associate Members and Active Members, and for advertising accounts, were mailed to the proper persons on November 29th, last, with very gratifying results.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Executive Board was read, and is as follows:

HELD DECEMBER 20\textsuperscript{th}, 1905

Meeting called to order at 11: AM with the following members present: H.H. Hunnewell; H.K. Bloodgood; Marcel A. Viti; J.W. Appleton; G. M. Carnochan; W.B. Emery.

Absent: August Belmont, William G. Rockefeller

H.H. Hunnewell in the chair

The following business was presented and acted upon:

J.E. Howland vs. Chas. B. Pineo: Re misconduct in connection with dogs.

A.C. Wilmerding appeared for the plaintiff, stating that his principal was in the far West, and therefore was unable to be present and requested a postponement of the case until the next meeting of the Board, which was duly granted.

Adolph Stucky vs. Dr. C.C. Kammerer: Re misconduct in connection with dogs. F.S. Stedman appeared in behalf of plaintiff, and stated that the defendant had finally made a settlement satisfactory to Stucky. It was thereupon ORDERED, that as said settlement had not been made until after the charges had been preferred and notice had been sent to Kramer, to that effect, that said Kammerer be and hereby is suspended.
J.W. Brauer vs. Dr. C.C. Kammerer:  Re misconduct in connection with dogs. Ordered, that Brauer be and hereby is directed to return to Kammerer the Boston Terrier bitch, received by him from Kammerer at once and that said Kannerer be and hereby is directed to return to Brauer the original purchase price within thirty days after the receipt of said bitch, in default of which Kammerer shall be disqualified.

J. O'Hara, Jr. vs. Dr. C.C. Kammerer:  Re misconduct in connection with dogs. Kammerer stated that this action should be had against the Anthony Kennels, as the transaction was had with said kennels. The case was therefore laid on the table until the next meeting, the Secretary was directed to call upon O'Hara, to furnish further particulars.

Arthur L. Scollay vs. Merrimack Valley K.C.:  Re misconduct in connection with dog shows, Ordered, that the Merrimack Valley K.C. be directed to open the case within thirty days, giving Scollay, et al at least five days notice as provided for in the rules, the meeting to be held at such an hour as will give all parties in the case a chance to be present. In default of which the club will be suspended.

Arthur L. Scollay et al vs. Merrimack Valley K.C.:
Re appeal from the decision on protest. This appeal was laid on the table, pending the result of the charges by Scollay in the preceding action.

Mrs. E.O. Bacon vs. Brockton District K.C.: Re appeal from decision on protest. The protest was made against a Cocker Spaniel, alleged to be over weight, and whose owner declined to allow the dog to be weighed. The appeal is not sustained, for the reason that there was no limit of weight stated in the premium list, and that an American Spaniel Club judge did not officiate.

American K.C. vs. E.A. Holbrook: Re misconduct in connection with dogs. Holbrook registered a Boston Terrier, receiving a registry receipt, of the dog named a Duke B. He afterwards sold this dog to Mr. Champion, and delivered with it said registry receipt which had been changed after leaving this office so that the dog’s name appeared as “Duke 2nd.” Said Champion entered this dog at the late Boston Terrier Show, as “DUKE 2d”:, and was compelled to pay a fine of $2.00, for entering a dog as a registered dog under a different name, from its registered name. It is the sense of this Board that no intent to defraud appears. Holbrook not being able to account for the change in the receipt is hereby censured.
and directed to pay to Mr. Champion the $2.00 paid by him to the A.K.C. as a penalty imposed for an incorrect entry, and in default of non-payment of said amount, Holbrook will be suspended.

Westminster K.C.: Re, case of Boston Terrier, Eastover Lancelot. The committee of the Westminster K.C. request an order to the Spotswood Kennels to exhibit to said committee the tail of the late Boston Terrier, Eastover Lancelot, which is stated to have been preserved in alcohol. Said committee is requested to make a fining and to forward to the American Kennel Club, the evidence taken at the hearing of the case. The A.K.C. does not care to order the production of the tail of said dog to the said committee.

C.G. Hopton: Re, request for a ruling on the status of the proposed show to be held at Madison Square Garden, December 26-30th, whether it will endanger his standing, should he officiate as judge at said show. The Secretary was directed to advise Hopton, that he must act on his own discretion in judging shows that are not held under A.K.C. Rules.

James Watson: Re request for a ruling. This Board will gladly take up or interpret a specific case, but declines to make a ruling on a general subject.

J.J Mc Guiness } Re appeal for reinstatement
} Lynn Kennel Club
The appeal for immediate reinstatement is denied. Ordered, That the present disqualification of Mc Guinness shall expire July 1, 1906.

The Board adjourned to meet Thursday morning at eleven o’clock.

On motion the report was accepted and placed on file – TRANSFER

December 21, 1905

M.W. Robinson vs. Lynn Kennel Club: Re protest.

Protest cannot be considered as the A.K.C. has no original jurisdiction in the premises and the protest of Robinson to the Lynn Club having been withdrawn by him, no appeal can be taken.
The report of the Stud Book Committee was read, and is as follows:

The Stud Book Committee begs leave to report as follows: Applications have been made for the granting of the following kennel names. They have all been published in the Gazette, and as none of them conflict with any already registered, we recommend that they be granted:

Mr. John W. Minturn has applied for the name “Rockcliffe” and desires to cancel the names “Bismark” which he now has. Your Committee believes that he should be allowed to cancel his present name and that afterwards Rockcliffe be granted to him.

In the matter of the application for the name Shoe Town, your Committee is of the opinion that this should not be allowed as it would conflict with the name Show City which is already registered, and make confusion.

In the matter of the kennel name “Otley”, your Committee reports that application for the same was made by H.J. Dowds, and that after the same was published in the Gazette, W.J. Burgess filed a protest stating that he had used the name “Otley” for his own dogs, but as he never registered it and as Mr. Dowds’ application was filed first, your Committee thinks the name should be granted to Mr. Dowds.

Your Committee recommends that Roseneath terriers and Papillions be added to the breeds already recognized.

In the matter of the rough-coated St. Bernard, Nadar. This case is one where in Messrs. Cugley & Mullen, of Philadelphia, sold a St. Bernard puppy to Mr. E. Graizely, of Delanco, N.J. In his complaint, Mr. Graizely states that he was given the pedigree as sire, Friar Tuck, out of Princess Bonnie, at the time he bought the dog, and that Julius Pornack was given as the breeder, that he subsequently found out that said Pormack has not owned either the sire or the dam, and also learned that Fred. P. Olin, of Reading, Mass. was the owner of the sire.

The date of birth of the puppy was stated as April 28, 1903, but Mr. Olin informed Mr. Graizely that Friar Tuck was bred in August 1902 to Princess Bonnie, owned by George F. Lord, of Norwich, Conn., and that this was the last bitch to which Friar Tuck had been mated.

Mr. Graizely further informed the Committee that he found out from Mr. G.V. Glebe that three of the puppies born in November, 1902 as a result of the mating above referred to, had been sold to Messrs. Cugley & Mullen, and that Cugley & Mullen had informed him that those puppies had all died.

In answer to the foregoing allegations, Messrs. Cugley & Mullen replied:
“They sometime in the early part of 1903, we bought from Julius Pornack, of Philadelphia, a litter of St. Bernard pups, which were sold to us with a certain pedigree. One of these pups we sold to a certain E. Graizely, of Delanco, N.J.

Several months later Mr. Graizely called on us and informed us that one of the parents of his pup had been dead some time before his pup was whelped.”
We assured Mr. Graizely that this fact was unknown to us and that we would investigate and in the event of his pedigree not being correct, we would take his pup off his hands and refund purchase price, also any cost that he may have incurred since purchasing same.

We notified the American Kennel Club to hold up the registration and started an investigation.

Upon interviewing Mr. Pormack we found that he owned a Friar Tuck-Princess Bonnie bitch, which he had served with a dog without any breeding. When selling the pups to us he in his ignorance simply gave us the pedigree which he got with his ignorance simply gave us the pedigree which he got with his bitch supposing he was doing the proper thing. Upon receipt of this information we informed Mr. Graizely of the facts in the case and gave him instructions to return the dog to us, which he did and we in turn reimbursed him as per our agreement."

Your Committee communicated with all the parties referred to and from a careful consideration of the evidence recommend that the registration of the said dog, and any winnings be cancelled, and that the Secretary be directed to prefer charges of improper conduct against Cugley & Mullen.

The attention of your Committee has been directed to the fact that at the Show of the Miami Valley Kennel Club, held Sept. 25, 1905, an entry was made in classes 18 and 19 by John L. Wood. The breed of the dog was a pointer, and his name was Shywood. On the entry blank, in the space for the S.B. number, there was written A.K.C.S.B. 89,072. There is no pointer named Shywood registered in the Stud Books, and Stud Book #89,072 is the registry number of a bull terrier. Mr. Wood was communicated with on October 27, 1905, and so far no reply has been received. Your Committee would therefore recommend that the Secretary be directed to prefer charges of dishonorable conduct in connection with dog shows.

In the matter of the bull dog, Penrythe Nell.

William H. Mulford entered the bitch Penrythe Nell #90,455 at the show of the Bryn Mawr Kennel Club, held in September last. The sire was given as Choctaw and the dam as Shamrock Nell. Edwin R. Dockstader, the owner of Choctaw questioned this breeding, stating that Shamrock Bell had never been bred to his dog. Mr. Mulford explained that he had purchased Shamrock Bell from J. Hope, of Philadelphia, a dealer in dogs and that at the time of purchase Hope told him that the bitch was in whelp to Choctaw. The bitch subsequently whelped and Penrythe Nell was the sole puppy. Mr. Mulford for the reasons stated, gave the pedigree of Choctaw, both in registering and showing her.

In answer to your Committee's communications, Mr. Hope replied denying that he said the bitch had been bred to Choctaw, and stated that he said that she had been bred to a dog in his store which he thought was by Choctaw. Mr. Mulford denied that Mr. Hope made any such statement.

Your Committee recommend that the registration and all prize winnings be cancelled and that the Executive Board be requested to investigate the transaction.

In the matter of the Boston terrier, Hartman's Peg, 75539:

This bitch was registered by J.W. Hartman and was said to be sired by Tip from The Belle. Mr. A.J. Owens protested the registration alleging that the pedigree was fraudulent, that the dam of the bitch registered, was of unknown pedigree and was bred to Little Ned owned by him, who was sired by Tip from The Belle, and that it was Little Bed's pedigree that was used fraudulently. Your Committee communicated with the parties in interest, but after receiving one letter from Mr. Hartman, he removed and your Committee has since been unable to locate him, and the case has been held in abeyance while the Committee has been attempting to communicate with him. There seems to be no question as to the impropriety of the pedigree, and your Committee feels that the guilty parties in this transaction should be severely dealt with, and recommend that the case be referred to the Executive Board so that charges of fraudulent conduct may be made against Messrs. Hartman and Tuttle.

It is also recommended that the registration and prize winnings of Hartman’s Peg, 75,539 be cancelled.

In the matter of the Collies Fisher Boy 73,525 and First Choice 74,439:

Mr. Joseph A. Cane protested these registrations upon the ground that Queen Mad the stated dam was not sired by Moreton Loyal as given on the application blank. There seems to be no doubt that the pedigree is a fraudulent one. Both of the dogs in question were sold by William Radford, Falls of Schuylkill, Philadelphia. One of them was sold to Mr. Edwin Harrison and the other to Frank P. Smith. Your Committee recommends that the pedigree be cancelled and that the Executive Board prefer charges of fraudulent conduct against the said William Radford.

In the matter of the bull dogs Rodney Smacher and Bryn Mawr Rosador. Rodney Smasher was registered as whelped May 19, 1902, Breeder, C.G. Hopton, and Bryn Mawr Rosador as whelped July 19, 1902, Breeder N.J. Hess. The sire and dam are both the same and they were from the same litter.
your Committee communicated with both Messrs. Hopton and Hess and your Committee is of the opinion that the date of birth should be July 19, 1902. The dam was in the custody of Mr. Hess at the time she was whelped, but she was still owned by Mr. Hopton, and consequently he should be the breeder. There was no fraud alleged, and your Committee recommends that the particulars be corrected as above.

In the matter of the Irish setter General Stark 55,947 and Spartan 56,688:

General Stark was said to be by Alstead 22,627 from Stella, 19932, breeder A. Johnson, whelped August 18, 1896. He was registered by Mr. John Sanbry, and the seller was named as a Mr. Jabboe. Spartan was registered by James N. Cande, with the same pedigree, date of birth and seller.

The protest was filed by Mr. C.P. Hubbard, of Cass County, Iowa, who stated in his affidavit that in February, 1892, he purchased the bitch Stella IV, 19,932, and that while in his possession she was bred to Alstead upon two occasions, whelping November 1, 1892, and May 15, 1893, and that said bitch died in the possession of the deponent at Broken Bow, Neb., early in the Fall of year 1893.

Your Committee is of the opinion that the said registrations should be cancelled and that the Executive Board be requested to prefer charges against the parties furnishing the pedigrees. Your Committee has for some time been endeavoring to communicate with the persons stated to be the breeder and seller but without success. Letters addressed, following the directions on the registration blanks having been returned.

In the matter of the registrations of Ingleside Chief Powhatten and Montebello Eva, both sired by Sandor von Inn from Lola. The date of birth of the first is given as August 30, 1900, while that of Eva is December 15, 1900.

Your Committee communicated with the owner of the Kennels who explained that all the records were in the charge of a former Superintendent with whom there had been a most decided disagreement, prior to his dismissal, that the records he maintained were inadequate, and incomplete and they had little to go upon.

That Ingleside Chief Powhatten was sold by the said former Superintendent during his term and that there was no record of his birth and that Eva was registered by data found after the discharge of the former Superintendent.

No evidence of fraud or fraudulent intent has been shown to the Committee, but your Committee is of the opinion, that the pedigree should be cancelled.
In the matter of the prefix Marlborough:

Mr. Alfred G. Clark who is the registered owner of said name complains that it has also been used by Mr. Charles R. Joseph, of Chicago. Mr. Clark contends that as the prefix is registered in his name he is entitled to have it protected and any one prevented from using it. Mr. Joseph stated that he was not aware that the name was registered when he adopted it, and that, having found out it was owned by someone else, he was quite willing to abandon it and your Committee thinks that if he desists from all its further use, that no action should be taken.

This is the first case of the kind which has come before the Kennel Club, and your Committee thinks it would be well to establish the practice that where a kennel name has been registered by any one, its use by any one else would be deemed conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the Kennel matters.

Of course it is well established that no one case use a registered name for the purpose of registration or exhibiting in that name, but it does not seem that this protection is ample, and they recommend prefix for kennel purposes should be proceeded against.

In the matter of the Boston terrier Gold Money 71,284, and Gipsy B. 71,285:

These dogs are said to be by Sullivan’s Punch out of Princess, and whelped September 22, 1892. One was registered by Mr. George Buckingham and the other by Mrs. J. Montgomery Douglas. In the application form, the breeder and the seller of both dogs are respectively James Irving and Fred. E. Rice. Messrs. Schenck and Sullivan, the owners of Sullivan’s Punch protest that no bitch was bred to their dog during the month of July 1902. Mrs. Douglas stated that Gold Money had been sold to her by Fred T. Thomas, New York City. Your Committee held a number of meetings in this case for the purpose of hearing testimony and also communicated with all the witnesses. Mr. Fred. Rice testified that he bought the litter from James Irving, of Cambridge, Mass., and that he would procure from him further evidence of the authenticity of the pedigree and asked that the matter be held in abeyance to give him a further opportunity to do so. To this your Committee acceded, but the evidence has not been produced as yet. Mr. Rice explained that he personally delivered the dog to Mrs. Douglas, that Fred. Thomas works for him and that the dogs are advertised for sale in Mr. Thomas’ name.

Your Committee recommends that both the registrations be cancelled as the pedigrees have not been substantiated, and that the Executive Board investigate the matter to ascertain if any fraud has been committed.

In the matter of the bull terrier Sylvia, 76,552. This bitch was registered with a full pedigree of three generations, which it is alleged is fraudulent. Your Committee communicated with a number of persons who were stated to have knowledge of the fact that the sire, Irish Mike, was a dog with no pedigree, but what is popularly known as a “fighting dog”. Your Committee is of the opinion that the bitch in question is unpedigreed, and therefore should be cancelled and that the Executive Board be requested to prefer charges of fraud against J.W. Sullivan, who registered her.

In the matter of the bloodhound Bell Gibson, #68,732:

This dog was registered by Mr. J.B. Harald, Brookston, Indiana. The complainant, Mr. Roger D. Williams, objects to the pedigree stating that it discloses that the animal is not a bloodhound; that the dam of the sire, Fanny and both her parents are foxhound also. This case has been held under advisement, as your Committee has been unable to receive any answer from Mr. Harald, and before concluding the case desired that he should be heard from, but as they have now waited some time, they recommend that the pedigree should be cancelled, and that the matter be sent to the Executive Board so that charges may be preferred against Mr. Harald.

In the matter of the bloodhound Fanny K:

This dog was registered by Mat. Keirl and said to be by Warrior, 52,824 from Songstress, 42,450. Mr. J.L. Winchell, the owner of the alleged sire and dam has protested the registration as being fraudulent, he never having mating them near the time necessary for the dam to have whelped in March, and further than that that he never sold a dog to Mr. Keirl who stated in his application for registrations that he purchased it from Mr. Winchell. This case like the former one has been in the hands of your Committee for some time. Your Committee felt that as the charge was such a serious one, they were particularly anxious to communicate with Mr. Keirl before reporting on the matter, and although we have written him frequently, we have not received any reply from him frequently, we have not received any reply from him and now recommend that the registration be cancelled, and that the matter be referred to the Executive Board, so that charges of fraud may be preferred in the case.

The Committee would recommend that in cases of protest the complainants be required to furnish all original letters and papers bearing on the case at the time of filing the complaint.

In many cases considerable correspondence reaching over many months is necessary to exhaust all means of obtaining the facts and for this reason cases frequently remain in the hands of the Committee which could be disposed of quite promptly if the parties would file all their evidence at the time of making complaint.

In the matter of the registrations of Field and Cocker Spaniels your committee reports that no argument has been offered in support of the division and they feel that until need for a change in a custom which has been in force so long has been shown, no action should be taken. And invite expressions of opinion from the breeders and owners of these breeds.

Signed, Marcel A. Viti, Chairman

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the report be accepted and the recommendations there in contained be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

GENERAL BUSINESS

THE SECRETARY: I beg to report the resignation of the Canonsburg Kennel Club.

On motion the resignation was accepted.
THE SECRETARY: I have the minutes of four meetings of the Pacific
Advisory Committee, containing the usual routine of business.
Following are the minutes:

REGULAR MEETING PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, A.K.C., Held at Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 4, 1905

Present: J.E. de Ruyter, Chairman; H.H. Carlton, Dr. W.P. Burnham; W.W.
Stettheimer and J.P. Norman.
The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
G.C. Israel: Application for re-instatement.
In a communication dated at Olympia, September 15th, the applicant undertakes and agrees that he will not again exhibit at any dog show in the United States that is not held under the rules and with the sanction of the American Kennel Club. It was moved and seconded that in consideration of the foregoing agreement, the said G.C. Israel be, and is hereby restored to good standing in the American Kennel Club. CARRIED.
J.S. Kloebber: An application for reinstatement.
In a communication dated at Green River, Hot Springs, Wash., September 12th, Dr. J.S. Kloeber applies for reinstatement to good standing, having been disqualified for participation in a Bench Show held at Seattle by the Seattle Kennel Club contrary to the rules of the American Kennel Club. In consideration of the fact that the said applicant is endorsed by the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association, it was MOVED AND SECONDED that the said Dr. J.S. Kloeber be reinstated to good standing in the American Kennel Club on filing with the Secretary of this Committee an agreement to refrain from exhibiting at any dog show in the United States that is not held under the rules and with the sanction of the American Kennel Club. CARRIED.

Chute vs. Morris: A complaint of false charges and misconduct.

The defendant, by his attorney, W.A. Alderson, under date of September 30th at Los Angeles, files a request for further extension of 30 days in which to present his testimony on the ground that he is awaiting a statement and affidavit from Judge Ashton in England. There being no objection from the appellant who was present, it was RESOLVED, that the extension of 30 days be granted to the defendant.

Burnham vs. Lepman: A charge of fraud and misconduct
The defendant having filed no answer except a telegram dated at Chicago, September 25th, 1905, reading as follows:

“J.P. Norman, Berkeley. Answer only mailed to-day through clerical error. Please grant continuance.
(Signed) Horace G. Lepman.”

It was moved that discussion of the case be postponed until after the other matters before the meeting had been disposed of. Seconded and CARRIED.

Tucker vs. Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association: A protest.

The case having been continued from the last meeting for the purpose of enabling the Secretary, under resolution, to investigate the breeding of the protested dogs, which were given by the A.K.C.S.B. as being bred in Canada, the Secretary reported that he had received from the defendant the check for five dollars filed by the appellant in support of his protest. It appeared from the evidence presented by the plaintiff, which was confirmed by the defendant, and by the official catalogue issued by the defendant, that the Trophy for best American bred Airedale Terrier offered by Mrs. J.P. Norman, was awarded to W.F. Delabarre’s dog, Colne Sandy, 78510, Catalogue No. 196, breeder, Joe A. Laurin, by Colne Luckey Baldwin ex Colne Walton Flynway, with reserve to Dr. George Newland’s Colne Lechiel, 81106, Catalogue No. 192. Breeder, Jos. H. Laurin, by Champion Colne Luckey Baldwin out of Colne Wilhelmina. On this evidence it was MOVED AND SECONDED that the said Trophy having been offered for an American Bred Terrier, and having been awarded to a dog bred in the Dominion of Canada as shown in the Stud Book of the American Kennel Club, it be therefore

RESOLVED that the said award be cancelled for the reason of its having been made to a foreign bred dog, and be it further

RESOLVED THAT the protest of the appellant be and is hereby sustained. It is ordered that the said W.F. Delabarre be instructed to return the said Trophy to the Seattle Dog Fanciers' Association within thirty days from date, the said Association to retain the Trophy until their next dog show, when it is to be offered against under the same conditions, it being impossible to ascertain the dog next in order to the reserve dog. It is further ordered that the deposits of the appellant made with the defendant Association be returned to them. CARRIED.

Butler vs. Buttles: A complaint of fraudulent misrepresentation. Fred. P. Butler, the complainant, presents an affidavit with corroborated testimony to show that C.W.
Buttles of Kansas City sold him an English setter dog advertised as follows:

“DASHING DAN. (Dan Thiers-Dashing Duchess). A beautiful young dog of combined bench and field quality, and will win; ideally marked white, black, tan and ticked. He is of the Druid type, narrow skull, low hung ears, very long, square muzzle, dark eye and short straight tail, good size, very stylish, nine months, price $50.00, worth $100,000.”

The evidence presented by the plaintiff contained statements by Edward J. Creeley, D.V.S., certifying to a broken tail. By John Bradshaw, recognized judge, asserting that the dog is a very poor specimen or the breed, and by Philip Mr. Wand, a recognized judge of the breed, declaring that the dog differed from the advertised description in almost every essential point, and that he was very poor specimen of the breed. Under date of September 20th, the defendant denies the plaintiff’s allegation, and asseverates that the description of the dog was accurate. He denied that any break existed in the tail, but asserted that the rectangular formation at the end of the tail was not due to a break, but was inherited from his dam Dashing Duchess, who has been a bench winner all over the Eastern States. He denied that the dog was light of eye as charged, and further accused the plaintiff of misrepresenting facts to this Committee, accompanying the statement of the plaintiff were copies of photographs of the dog, taken at the request of the plaintiff, and duplicates of these copies accompanied the statement of the defendant. The defendant acknowledged that the dog was “out at elbows” as shown in the photograph, but this fact was not made the basis of the plaintiff’s charge or a part thereof.

It was elicited from the above mentioned witnesses presented by the plaintiff on inquiry by members of the Committee, that not only was the dog in question a poor specimen, but that he was not worth more than a very small portion of the price paid for him. Mr. Bradshaw and Mr. Wand both stated that a dog of the English setter breed conforming the defendant’s advertisement, could be bought for the price paid to the defendant for an inferior specimen. It was MOVED AND SECONDED that whereas Mr. C.W. Buttles of Kansas City, Mo., advertised an English setter dog Dashing Dan by Dan Thiers out of Dashing Duchess in the terms above stated and

WHEREAS, the said dog on the testimony of expert judges is proved to be without bench or field qualities, thick in skull, long crooked tail, light eye, not stylish, and on account of his faulty conformation, slow and lumbering in gait, therefore be it

RESOLVED that the said dog does not conform to the advertisement, and that Mr. C.W. Buttles has been guilty of misrepresentation, and be it further

RESOLVED that the said C.W. Buttles be and hereby is suspended until he refunds to the plaintiff $50.00 paid as purchase money, and the further sum of $11.50 expended for express charges to San Francisco by the plaintiff, and the defendant is further ordered to deposit with the plaintiff the further sum of $11.50 to be applied on the prepayment the express charges for the return of the dog to Kansas City, Mo., these payments to be made within the space of thirty days from date of this resolution. CARRIED.

Stockton Kennel Club vs. Harris: A complaint of false charges and misconduct.

This is a complaint made by the Stockton Kennel Club in a duly attested statement of the President thereof, Frederick N. Vail, dated October 3rd, 1905, and an unversified statement dated September 29th, 1905, which latter was accompanied by two copies of the Stockton Mail, a daily newspaper issued in the City of Stockton of the issue of September 29th, 1905. The issue contained an interview alleged to have been had with Edward F. Harris, in which the latter is represented to have stated that “Crooked work was being performed in the Stockton Kennel Club”, inferring that the judges and officials of the bench show then being held by the Stockton Kennel Club were guilty of such crooked work. Denial of the charge was entered by the defendant in person, together with statement of other persons corroborating the denial. Counter-affidavits were presented by the Stockton Kennel Club including the reporter who conducted the alleged interview with the defendant, confirming the accuracy of the report.

It was resolved that Mr. Harris be invited to state his ground for making the alleged charges against the Stockton Kennel Club.

Mr. Harris then made a statement to the effect that he understood that eh cup offered by the Stockton Laundry was offered for the best pointer, regardless of sex, and was put up by the Kennel Club for the best pointer dog; that he understood that the pointer bitch Stockton Belle had been placed over the dog Scotch Joe in a special competition but that he now found he had been misinformed as to that circumstance; that he had just risen from a sick bed, and was naturally nervous and excitable, and that he intended no reflection whatsoever on the honor or integrity of any of the officials or judges of the Stockton Kennel Club. Furthermore the defendant asserted that he had not been rightly quoted in the alleged interview published in the Mail of the 29th, and he denied positively having charged the members, officials or judged of the Stockton Kennel Club with any crooked word or dishonest acts. In view of the defendant’s statement, as above outlined, and of the expressed willingness of the President of the Stockton Kennel Club, Mr. F.N. Vail to accept the same as a sufficient disclaimer of the interview published, it was MOVED AND SECONDED that the Committee go into Executive Session. After some discussion of the evidence presented, it was MOVED AND SECONDED that WHEREAS it has been proved to the satisfaction of this committee that defendant has been misquoted in the Stockton Daily Mail of September 29th, and whereas the defendant expressly and explicitly disclaims any intention whatsoever to reflect on the honor or integrity of the judges, officials, or members of the Stockton Kennel Club, and WHERAS defendant states he was misinformed as to the fact of the pointer bitch Stockton Belle having been placed in competition over the pointer dog Scotch Joe, therefore be it RESOLVED that this Committee do accept the denial and disclaimer of the defendant as to the accuracy of the interview printed in the Stockton Daily Mail of September 29th, 1905, and find that the charges alleged to have been made against the judges, officials and members of the Stockton Kennel Club were baseless in fact and foundation, and were not made by the defendant, and the case is therefore ordered dismissed. CARRIED.

Burnham vs. Lepman: On motion this case was taken from the table. It was MOVED AND SECONDED that

WHEREAS the defendant has filed no answer to the complaint and his telegram of September 25th had not been followed by the arrival of the defense, therefore be it

RESOLVED that the consideration of this case be deferred to a special meeting to be held on October 18th next, and that the Secretary be instructed to advise the defendant that unless his evidence be presented on or before the date named, the case would be decided by default. CARRIED.

Mr. A. Wolfen then requested permission to address the Committee. He sated that he had sent a dog to the Stockton Bench Show, and the dog had not been judged for specials for the reason that it had arrived after the time set by the Kennel Club as the limit for receiving dogs. The dog had, however, been judged in the regular class.
Mr. Wolfen was advised by the Chairman that the matter would be laid before the Committee only in the shape of a protest from the decision of the Bench Show Committee of the Stockton Kennel Club.

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned on motion to 18th.

MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, NOV. 1, 1905.

Present: de Ruyter, Chairman; Burnham; Stettheimer; Norman.
Absent: Carlton

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Chute vs. Morris: The defendant having been granted an extension of thirty days, wherein to file his reply, and there being a remainder of three days of the extension, it was resolved to continue the case until the next regular meeting.

Burnham vs. Lepman: There being no reply from the defendant, the case was taken up. It appeared from the affidavits presented that Dr. W.P. Burnham had answered an advertisement of the defendant in Field and Fancy, and had agreed to buy the Collie bitch, Brookmere Kelpie, for the sum of $135.00. He had forwarded $50.00 on March 17 as an earnest of his intentions, and on April 5th the balance of $85.00. Defendant had not acknowledged the receipt of the money, although advices from the postal authorities telegraphed the Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee to grant continuance, as papers had been mailed that day. No papers had been received from defendant. The appellant not participating in the proceedings, it was Moved and seconded, that whereas it has been proved to the satisfaction of this Committee that Dr. W.P. Burnham of San Francisco paid one hundred and thirty-five dollars to Horace G. Lepman of Chicago in two payments, namely, on March 17th, 1905, fifty dollars and eighty-five dollars on April 8th, 1905, in payment for the Scotch collie bitch, Brookmere Kelpie, advertised by Mr. Lepman in the Dog Fancier and in Field and Fancy, the said bitch to be shipped to the appellant in time to be shown at the San Francisco Dog Show, held on May 10, 11, 12, and 13, 1905 and WHEREAS it has been proved that the defendant received the said sums of money and did not acknowledge receipt and did not ship the dog as agreed, and WHEREAS the defendant has failed to make answer to the charge of fraud and misconduct preferred by the appellant, and WHEREAS the only reply made by the defendant to the communications from this committee has been a telegram dated at Chicago, September 25, 1905, reading as follows: “Answer only mailed to-day through clerical error, please grant continuance. (Signed) Horace G. Lepman.”
      AND WHEREAS said telegram has not been followed by any further communication from the defendant, therefore be it RESOLVED that Horace G. Lepman is proven guilty of fraud and misconduct as charged, and be it further resolved that the said Horace G. Lepman be and hereby is suspended from all privileges of the American Kennel Club, and be it further RESOLVED, that unless the said Horace G. Lepman has refunded to the appellant, Dr. W.P. Burnham, the sum of $135.00 now fraudulently withheld by the defendant before the expiration of the term of suspension, the defendant, at the expiration of the term of suspension, the defendant, at the expiration of the sixty days, shall be and hereby is permanently disqualified. Communications relating to the general good of kennel interests on the Pacific Coast were read and discussed.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

SPECIAL MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE
SAN FRANCISCO, NOVEMBER 18, 1905

Present:  De Ruyter, Chairman, Burnham, Stettheimer, Norman
Absent:   Carlton

The chairman stated that the meeting was called to consider communications from the Southwestern Kennel Club, the San Francisco Kennel Club, the San Mateo Kennel Club and the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association relative to the disqualification imposed on certain individuals connected with a bench show held in Seattle in April last by the Seattle Kennel Club, under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, and contrary thereto.

The following communications were read by the secretary:

“San Francisco, Nov. 4, 1905, Mr. J.P. Noman, Secretary Pacific Advisory Committee, Berkeley, Cal….

Dear Sir, - At a meeting of the San Mateo Kennel Club held to-day, I was directed to request you to kindly submit to your committee the following resolution passed by the Executive Body of the San Mateo Kennel Club: Whereas at the Seattle Kennel Club Show held in April last in contravention of the A.K.C. rules, all parties connected with same suffered disqualification, and whereas it is the conviction of this body that the majority of participants at said show exhibited in the interest of the Fancy, without knowledge of the penalty to follow, and whereas the punishment imposed has sufficiently fulfilled its purpose as a severe lesson to the disqualified fanciers, Be it resolved that the secretary of this club be directed to communicate with the secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee and respectfully petition above Committee to favorably reconsider the disqualification imposed. Very respectfully Yours, D.J. Sinclair, Secretary San Mateo Kennel Club, Philip C. Meyer, President attest."

Seattle, Wash., Noember 9, 1905. J.P. Norman Esq. Sec. Pacific Advisory Committee, Berkeley, Cal. – Dear Sir.- By direction of the Executive Committee of the Seattle Dog Fanciers Association, I am directed to advise you, that after giving the matter of the reinstatement of the disqualified exhibitors at the recent bench show of the Seattle Kennel Club due consideration, it is the desire of this association that such disqualification be removed. The best interests of dogdum in this locality suggested that a move in this direction is the proper one, and the Seattle Dog Fanciers Association is only too pleased to concur in any such movement. By order of the Executive Committee. Chas. McAllister, Secretary."
San Francisco, Nov. 10th, 1905.

J.P. Norman Esq. Sec. Pacific Advisory Committee, Berkeley, Cal. Dear Sir –

Please note that at a meeting of the San Francisco Kennel Club held on the 6th inst., a resolution was passed instructing the secretary to inform you that it was the sense of the Board of Directors, that it would promote peace and harmony in Pacific Coast Dogdum and tend to increase the influence and popularity of the American Kennel Club on the Coast, if the Advisory Committee, in any manner, which in their judgment seems proper and fit, would remove the sentence of disqualification, which now hangs over the officers and exhibitors at the last show of the Seattle Kennel Club. The Board of Directors earnestly urge that your Committee take this action at as early a date as possible, in order that the disqualified owners and exhibitors may have an opportunity to show their dogs at the various shows to be held in the near future. Very truly yours, Fred. P. Butler, Secretary Treasurer, San Francisco Kennel Club.”

It was moved and seconded, that

Whereas this Committee has already granted petitions for reinstatement to good standing in the A.K.C. of individuals, who were disqualified for participating at the Seattle Kennel Club show held during April 1905 in contravention of the rules of the American Kennel Club; the said petitions having been accompanied by a signed undertaking not to participate or exhibit at any future show in the United States held under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club, and Whereas communications have been received from the Southwestern Kennel Club, asking for reinstatement of the individuals disqualified by reason of having participated in the Seattle Kennel Club show in April 1905, and

Whereas similar communications have been received from the San Mateo and San Francisco Kennel Clubs, and

Whereas the Seattle Dog Fanciers’ Association has in the interest of peace and harmony made the broad recommendation of reinstatement of all disqualified individuals, who are so on account of connection with said show, Therefore be it

Resolved, that all individuals disqualified for connection with the Seattle Kennel Club show held in April 1905 be and hereby are given the opportunity to secure reinstatement by applying to this Committee within sixty (60) days from date of this resolution; the applications to contain a declaration to the effect, that the applicant undertakes that he will not participate or exhibit at any future show held in the United States under rules other than those of the American Kennel Club,
And be it further.

Resolved that the secretary of this Committee be and hereby is instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the secretary of every kennel club under the jurisdiction of this Committee, and to each and every individual disqualified for participation at the said Seattle Kennel Club show.

CARRIED.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

J.P. NORMAN

Secretary
REGULAR MEETING OF THE PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE,
AT OCCIDENTAL HOTEL, SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6, 1905

PRESENT: J.E. De Ruyter, Chairman; H.H. Carlton, Dr. W.P. Burnham, W.W. Stettheimer, J.P. Norman

The minutes of the last regular meeting, held Nov. 1, were read and approved.

The minutes of the last special meeting, held Nov. 18, were read and approved.

The secretary submitted an invitation from the American Kennel Club to be present at the celebration of the twenty-first anniversary of the foundation of the American Kennel Club. It was MOVED and seconded that the Committee regrets its inability to attend the function, but extends its hearty and sincere congratulations and good wishes to the parent body on the auspicious occasion, and requests Mr. Charles K. Harley to attend the celebration as the official representative of this Committee and to repeat in person to the Executive Officers of the American Kennel Club the good wishes already enunciated in this resolution. And it is also MOVED and seconded that the secretary be and hereby is instructed to convey these resolutions to the American Kennel Club and to the representative of this Committee, Mr. Charles K. Harley.

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.
The secretary submitted a communication from the Spokane Kennel Club, dated Nov. 20th, asking for the reinstatement of the individuals disqualified for participation of the Seattle Kennel Club held in April 1905. It was resolved that the letter be placed on file, and that it was the sense of this Committee that such letter should be accepted as a further endorsement of the action taken by this Committee on the 18th of November last.

Applications for reinstatement, accompanied by an undertaking not to exhibit again under other than A.K.C. rules were received from the following individuals, disqualified for participation in the show held by the Seattle Kennel Club in April 1905; Thomas Plimley, Victoria; Wm. B. Bailey, Seattle; W.F. Hall, Victoria; W.H. Drummond, Seattle; Frank Higgins, Victoria; H.G. Wilson, Victoria; Dr. J.S. Klobber, Green River, Hot Spgs.W. It was moved and seconded, that the foregoing six applications be and hereby are reinstated to good standing in the American Kennel Club. Carried.

TUCKER V. SEATTLE D.F.A.

Under date of Nov. 25, 1905, the secretary of the Seattle Dog Fanciers Association advises that Delabarree had returned to the Association a cup, but not the one, of which the award had been protested by Dr. E.F. Tucker; on motion, it was RESOLVED, that the matter be postponed to the next meeting, in order to give Mr. Delabarre an opportunity to show that he was acting in good faith.

On motions, it was RESOLVED that the meeting be constituted a public one for the hearing of protests and appeals.

CHUTE V. MORRIS

This was an appeal filed by W.E. Chute with the Committee, asking for the punishment of the following letter in a local sporting paper, issued at San Francisco on July 1, 1905; Los Angeles, June 22, 1905. Editor -- Dear Sir: In your issue of May 20th, the special awards at the San Francisco dog show gave Mason’s King as the winner of the cup for “Best American-bred Pointer owned on the Pacific Coast.” This cup was awarded to my bitch, Faith, and the cup is now in my possession. I would not trouble you about this correction, only there seems to be a concerted effort to withhold the credit of this win form my dog. One kennel (?) paper, which devoted its entire space to this show and giving all the awards, accidentally omitted this one. (and this one only). Mr. Chute the ring steward, marked up the award book giving this special to Mason’s King, and when I asked to be allowed to compete for the cup, I had to call Mr. Ashton’s attention to it personally, before I was allowed to bring my dog into the ring. Mr. Chute tried to argue the question, until finally Mr. Ashton told him there was no comparison between the dogs. While I do not consider it any honor to beat this dog, I do not wish any of my dogs to rest under the stigma of having been beaten by Mason’s King. I know that this error was not made by your paper, but I hope you can see your way clear to rectifying it and oblige, Yours sincerely, William J. Morris.”

Mr. Chute in his written complaint alleges that he did not write up the judge’s awards, but that they were written up by the judge himself. He said that he told Mr. Morris that the dogs had already been judged by Mr. Ashton, who has awarded the special immediately after the termination of the regular classes. Mr. Chute asked that Mr. Morris be punished for the reflection on his character and integrity thus published, if the committee found the charges to be baseless, or that he himself be disqualified, if the charges were sustained.

In his reply to the complaint, Mr. Morris denied that he had any intention whatsoever of aspersing the honor of the appellant, and said, that had he known Mr. Chute so understood his letter, he would have written to him personally, disclaiming any such intention. He had written to Judge Ashton for corroboration of the events alleged to have transpired in the ring, but had received no reply.

The case has been postponed for a space of ninety days, at the request of the respondent.

Mr. Chute, who was present at the meeting, tendered in evidence, a letter from Tom Ashton, dated at Leeds, England, Oct. 27, 1905: In reply to your letter, I beg to say that you did nothing to influence me in any way to Frisco show or any other place; if you had, I should at once have reported you to J.P. Norman. Your respectfully, Tom Ashton.

It was moved and seconded, that such portions of the appellant’s complaint as referred to personalities or to sporting periodicals be stricken therefore. Carried.

Mr. Chute was called on to support the complaint: He said that he has been connected with dog shows for many years, and had never had any charge made against him, that affected his integrity. He denied marking up the judge’s book, and said that he had endeavored to get Mr. Morris out of the ring, as the award in question had already been made and marked by the judge from recollection of the comparative merits of the best dog and the best bitch, who had only just been judged. Mr. Ashton had asked him the number of the dog handled by John Bradshow, and on being told, entered that number in his book. The appellant stated that the work of judging was being impeded by many frivolous interruptions, and it was at the request of the judge as well as in the normal exercise of his duties as ring steward that he exerting his best efforts to expedite the business of awarding the specials. Mr. Morris had really forfeited his right to claim the privilege of bringing his dog into the ring again, as he had known when the pointer specials were bring judged, and had not then claimed that right.

After considerable discussion, in which the sense of committee was clear, that there was no ground for believing that Mr. Chute’s intention were at all to his discredit, it was MOVED and seconded, that whereas it has been proved to the satisfaction of this committee, that Mr. Chute’s actions at the San Francisco show held in April last were dictated by his desire to do his duty to the Club employing him as official ring steward, and that such actions were not in any way prejudicial to the best interests of dogs and dog shows, and

Whereas it has been proved to the satisfaction of this Committee that Mr. Chute did not write up the entries in the judge’s book, but that they were made by the judge himself, and whereas the respondent, William J. Morris, in his answer to this complaint, expressly disclaims any intention of reflecting on the character and integrity of the appellant, William E. Chute, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that this Committee finds that the charges as published in so far as they affect Mr. Chute are without foundation and are the result of a lack of information and be it further

RESOLVED, that his Committee disapproves the action of Mr. Morris in publishing in print a charge against Mr. Chute, based on ignorance of the real circumstances of the case, and finds that Mr. Morris was misled by appearances and acted without due investigation, and be it further resolved, that

As Mr. Morris disclaims any intention of reflecting on the honor of the appellant and the article in question makes no such direct charge, the complaint be and hereby is dismissed.
CARRIED.

BROADHEAD V. BAHLER

This is a charge of fraud and misconduct brought by Mrs. T.H. Broadhead of Los Angeles against Mr. M. Bahler of Leavenworth, Kansas. The appellant alleges, that in June last, she bought from the respondent an English Toy Spaniel bitch named Fay, the said bitch being guaranteed to be in whelp and otherwise sound. The bitch was to be due to whelp ten days after arrival at Los Angeles, but being examined and found empty, whereof the appellant produced a veterinary surgeon’s certificate, she was shipped back to Leavenworth three days after arrival. The bitch was moveover found to be suffering from eczema, as stated in the certificate produced in evidence. The appellant prayed for return of the purchase money, namely fifty dollars paid for the bitch, as well as four dollars and 50 cents expressage from Leavenworth to Los Angeles, and for a further sum of five dollars and 50 cents paid to the express company for the return charges, the respondent having failed to pay them, and having in fact refused to do so. It was further alleged that the respondent threatened to charge appellant for the keep of the bitch. It was further alleged that respondent had cut off feathers from around the hind quarters of the bitch on account of the skin trouble. Letters from the respondent were offered in evidence. The respondent in rebuttal, alleges that he sent the bitch out before he had received the purchase money, in compliance with the wish of defendant, and that such action showed him to have faith in the soundness of the bitch, and that she was as represented by him to the appellant; that she was sound when returned to him by the appellant as shown by accompanying veterinarian’s certificate, and that she was sound at the present time as shown by accompanying certificate from another veterinary; that she was sound at the time of breeding, as shown by the letter from the breeder, Mr. Chas. R. Joseph of Chicago, the owner of the dog, Ashton Conqueror, to which she was bred; that she has been bred to that dog, as evidenced in breeder’s certificate; that the reason of her not whelping was the loss of the whelps owning to the severe strain of the journey to Los Angeles and back without a rest; that the appellant had not given her a chance to prove that she was in whelp, having sent her back ten days before she was due. The respondent, although he did not consider himself bound to do so, had offered the appellant to breed the bitch against to any ten dollar stud dog she might name, and if this offer were not accepted, would charge appellant fifty cents per week for the keep of the dog.

The appellant presented in evidence a letter from C.R. Joseph, alleging that the bitch was considered by his kennel man too fat to breed successfully at the time she was brought to his kennels and mated to Ashton Conqueror.

It was MOVED and seconded, that whereas no fraud had been proved and the defendant had to all appearances acted in good faith, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the case be and hereby is dismissed. CARRIED.

RODGERS V. STOCKTON KENNEL CLUB

This was an appeal filed by F.J. Rodgers of San Francisco against the Stockton Kennel Club.

The appellant alleged that a cup was offered by the San Francisco Kennel Club for the best BULLDOG, male or female, at the Stockton Kennel Club’s show held in September last. That said cup was won by his bitch, Girtford Goody, by reason of her having been awarded the reserve for best dog in the show; that said cup was awarded in error to F.C. Meyer, for his dog, Endcliffe Baron, which had not met the appellant’s bitch in competition for said cup.

The Stockton Kennel Club answered that the cup was awarded to Mr. Meyer in error through lack of experience in dog shows, and it would be returned by Mr. Meyer, demand on him having been made. The appellant produced in evidence of his claim that his bitch had been awarded reserve for best in the show, the written testimony of Chas. Lyndon, one of the judges of said show, and the oral testimony of John Bradshaw, there present, another of the judges of said show. Both stated that they participated in the award to Girtford Goody of the reserve for best in the show.

It was moved and seconded, that

Whereas it has been proved to the satisfaction of this Committee that the building bitch, Girtford Goody, owned by the appellant and entered by him at the Stockton Kennel Club show held in September last, had been awarded reserve for best in show, and whereas said award carried with it of necessity the award of best in the class for bulldogs, and

Whereas it has been proved to the satisfaction of this committee, that the cup for best Bulldog was offered for best of the breed regardless of sex, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Stockton Kennel Club be and hereby is ordered to deliver said cup to the appellant, with the modification, that Mr. P.C. Meyer be and hereby is allowed to return the cup direct to Mr. F.J. Rodgers, the appellant, it being known to this Committee that Mr. Meyer would be desirous of having this courtesy extended to him, as soon as the ownership of the cup should be decided by the Committee.

CARRIED.

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned.

ATTEST:

J.P. NORMAN

Secretary
THE CHAIR: If there is no objection the reports of the Pacific Advisory Committee will be published in the Gazette.

THE SECRETARY: I present for your consideration a communication from the Rhode Island Japan Plumed Club, asking for a recognition of the dog called the Japanese Plummed Spaniel, and that the same be placed upon our recognized list.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the matter be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

The bill for disbursements from the Pacific Advisory Committee from September 6, 1905, to November 30, 1905, amounting to $37.10, was, on motion, ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to know what course to pursue to collect fines imposed on exhibitors for technical mistakes. Provision is made that we shall impose a penalty of $2 for every technical mistake in place of the old plan of cancelling the winning of the dog. A great majority of the fines have been paid, but there are those who pay no attention whatever to the bill that we have forwarded to them, and I would like instructions from this meeting relative to the collection of these fines, and if they are not paid, what discipline should be imposed.

   DR. OSGOOD: I would like to ask the Secretary if it is not indicated on his circular what penalty would be imposed if the amount is not paid.

   THE SECRETARY: It is, but I have no authority in the matter.

   DR. OSGOOD: I move they be suspended until the fine is paid.

   Motion seconded.

   MR. CARNOCHAN: I think that is a bit too harsh. I should like to amend that by saying that no wins of dogs exhibited by such persons be disqualified until the fines be paid.

   Amendment seconded.

   THE CHAIR: The only objection to that is, if he does not win he can go on and show his dogs without paying a cent.

   THE SECRETARY: The American Kennel Club has passed a rule directing me to impose a fine under certain conditions, but they have not passed any rule by which a man can be punished if he does not pay that fine.

   DR. OSGOOD: With the permission of the mover of the amendment, I would like to change my original motion to read that if the fine is not paid within sixty days the exhibitor so fined shall be suspended until said fine is paid. Seconded and CARRIED.

MR. ALBANESIUS: I move that the notification from the Secretary to these exhibitors be by registered letter.

THE SECRETARY: I want to ask instructions regarding the novice class. In a few words, there are many exhibitors who fail to give any data in connection with their entries in the novice class, in the absence of which I have been obliged to assume that they were not eligible, and have cancelled their winnings. I suggest that it will be sufficient instruction to me, if exhibitors, not knowing the sire and dam and breeder, or date of birth of the dog, will state on their entry form, and that be published in the catalogue, that the dog was whelped at such a place within the limits of the United States.

MR. PETERS: I make a motion that in the novice class the name and address of the breeder must be given when required by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club; otherwise the dog be disqualified.

MR. VITI: It seems to me the name and address of the breeder and date of birth of the dog is what we want, because a man might subsequently move to this country after having been in China where the dog was born. He could come over here and bring the dog with him. That surely could not change the nationality of the dog.

MR. CARNOCHAN: With regard to this name of breeder and with regard to the matter of not giving particulars, don’t you think that it would be entirely satisfactory that we should not ask more for the novice class than for the puppy class? We require certain things of the puppy class; why not require those same things of the novice class. If the exhibitor produces satisfactory proof to the Secretary that his dog is American bred, I think the win of that dog should be reinstated. I do not see why we should make any exception in favor of the man who makes an error in the novice class any more than we do in reference to the puppy class.

DR. OSGOOD: It seems to me that if we require the date of birth and the name of the breeder in the puppy class--- that was the motion that I was going to make, that we require the same thing of the novice class, the name of the breeder, the date of birth and sire and dam, and I would move an amendment that we require the same for the novice class in the entry blank that we do of the puppy class --- if the sire and dam of the breeder are not known, the dog is not eligible as an American bred dog.

MR. CARNOCHAN: That is the rule as it stands now. I suggest that each exhibitor be allowed the privilege, after his dog has been disqualified, or coming here and producing evidence that the dog is American bred, in which case his dog would be reinstated. I am perfectly willing make that as an amendment.

MR. VITI: The puppy class requires the name of the breeder and sire and dam if known, and date of birth. The name, John Jones, does not indicate whether that man is an Englishman or an American. I think we should establish some hard and fast rule of proving that the dog is American bred.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Do I understand that it is the intent of the delegates here to have the Secretary ferret out every case of American and un-American bred? I had an idea that when an exhibitor signed his name to his entry blank, where it stated novice class --- American bred dog – the Secretary would take exhibitors’ statement of that fact until a complaint was made alleging to the contrary.

MR. PETERS: I think that the present entry blanks are inadequate as to the novice class as we have it to-day because it calls for an American bred dog, and all we have to give is the name of the breeder, the sire and dam and date.
of birth. The Secretary would never know from any entry is the novice class that he ever sees whether that dog is American bred or not unless he happened to know the sire and dam and breeder. Therefore, I think, the entry blanks should give the name and address of the breeder at the time of the whelping of the dog, or something of that sort, so it could be determined.

DR. OSGOOD: I think my amendment is weak in that it does not name the location of the breeder, and I would consent, if the seconder will withdraw that, to change the wording of my amendment.

MR. MORTIMER: I think probably the majority of the delegates would be perfectly satisfied with the Secretary’s notification given in the last publication of the American Kennel Gazette, but it has been stated that these rules are to be modified to a certain extent, so that now we do not know quite where we stand. I am in favor of the rule as stated by our Secretary in the last Kennel Gazette, that the rules applying to the puppy class should apply to the novice class, and I think that would be all that was required.

On motion Dr. Osgood’s proposed amendment was withdrawn.

THE CHAIR: The motion before the house is Mr.
Peters’ original motion that the name and address of the breeder be given at the time of whelping.

MR. EMERY: Don’t you think it would be better to have the date and address and location of the bitch whelping? I do not think the name of the owner qualifies the fact as to where the puppies are whelped.

Chairman Hunnewell resigns the Chair to H.K. Bloodgood.

MR. PETERS: I would like to change my motion to read: That upon the request of the Secretary of the American Kennel Club in all cases where any doubt exists, the breeder must at once furnish the Secretary of the American Kennel Club with the name and address of the breeder of the dog at he time that the dog was bred.

Motion seconded.

MR. MOORE: I move to amend Mr. Peters’ motion that the entry be compulsory; that all the particulars given in the entry blank be furnished, and failing that, the win is cancelled subject to appeal.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to ask Mr. Moore how eve that would decide that the dog entered was an American bred dog?

MR. MC GUIRE: Why can we not deal with that the same as with any other technical error that occurs? Why make a special rule for that? The win is disqualified and the man has to furnish proof that he dog is American bred. If he enters a dog that is not American bred, he violates a rule that is printed on the blank. The only thing to do is to make a rule, making it compulsory that all dogs entered in the novice class -- that the entry blank be filled out in full, otherwise the dog is not eligible to the novice class.

MR. PETERS: My motion is that the entry blanks remain as they are at present for all shows, and that we assume that exhibitors who enter the novice class, on reading the rules, know the dog entered must be American bred, and that he has entered the dog as American bred; that whenever a question arises, upon notification by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, they will be compelled to furnish to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club the name and address of the breeder at the time the dog was whelped.

Motion carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have only one more matter to bring to your attention. I would like it to be determined whether the rule as to American bred dogs can be interpreted in this way, that if an American purchases a bitch in any foreign country, and after it becomes his property, if he sees fit to mate that bitch to a dog in any foreign country, and the bitch comes to this country and whelps, whether the nationality of the breeder will determine whether the dog is American bred or foreign bred.

MR. BROOKS: Do you want the dog to follow the flag?

THE SECRETARY: At present that would be an American born dog, but a foreign bred dog. The present rule is that a bitch owned in this country and sent to any foreign country to be bred and returned to this country to whelp, her progeny shall be considered American bred. Now, whether that rule means, if an American living in this country purchases a bitch on the other side, we change the present rule because she cannot be sent to a foreign country and is bred there, after he becomes the owner, and then the bitch comes to this country and whelps, whether the nationality of the breeder will determine whether that dog is not only American born, but also American bred.

MR. CARNOCCHAN: I would like to add to what Mr. Vredenburgh has said by reading Rule 7: “The breeder of a dog is the person owning or leasing the bitch at the time of her being bred. A bitch owned in this country and sent to any foreign country to be bred and returned to this country to whelp, the progeny shall be considered as American bred.”
There the rule stops: there is nothing in that rule, except by inference, to prevent a person’s buying a bitch in a foreign country, breeding her to a dog in that foreign country, bringing her to this country to whelp and her progeny being considered as American bred, the inference being that this being the only case stated, all other cases must be foreign bred dogs. It seems to me that the fact that the bitch being brought here to whelp, the bitch being owned by an American before she is bred, that that person has done all in his power, has fulfilled every possible requirement that he can to have those puppies American bred, and on that line I would like to make a motion that such progeny as stated by Mr. Vredenburgh in his statement be considered American bred dog.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: That is, there are two facts which will determine whether the dog is American bred or not; in the first place, the breeder must be an American, and in the second place, the bitch must whelp in this country.

MR. MORTIMER: I think this would be a good opportunity of deciding what constitutes as American bred dog. We have ever since I knew anything at all about dog shows, or ever since the inauguration of specialty clubs, a number of clubs, some of whose members reside in Canada, and although the specialty clubs usually donate their special prizes for American bred dogs, Canadian bred dogs have invariably been allowed to compete for those specials, and for that reason I have assumed that a Canadian bred dog was an American bred dog. I have so assumed for years past. I do not know whether there has been any rule passed to the contrary of not.

MR. VITI: I do not see why any discrimination should be made against Mexico, for instance, but it seems to me that an American bred dog must be a dog both born and bred in America, and that his sire and dam should both be here. I think the rule of one of our members, the Bull Dog Club, on the subject, covers the ground so that there cannot be any dispute at all. The rules should be in the interest of having the very best stock in America.

MR. MORTIMER: Those Canadian members are breeder essentially. They have come down here a great many times, and they have won our special prizes that have been offered by American specialty clubs. I think if we define the American bred dog as those only born in the United States, we are working a very great injury to the Canadian members of our different American specialty clubs, and for that reason I would like to ask a definition of what an American bred dog is.
MR. PETERS: I move that an American bred dog, as it is now termed, shall be a dog bred on the continent of North America.

Motion seconded.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I can go back a good ways in connection with this matter. I was on the committee that went to London to endeavor to procure international relations between the American Kennel Club and the English Kennel Club. That matter was entirely settle; everything was done. We were to be recognized by the English Kennel Club, as the paramount power on the continent of North America, and we were to recognize them as the paramount power with the rest of the world. The document, I believe, is somewhere in the archives, and has on it the signature of three members of the American Kennel Club and three members of the English Kennel Club, and that international agreement which would have been for the very best interests of kenneldom all over the world, was blocked by our very good friends in Canada. They said, we are not going to be considered a part of the United States; we are going to hold our own shows and abide by our own rules. They have since affiliated with the kennel club of England. Therefore I see no reason why they should be treated any better than our English brothers. I see no reason why they should have special favors if we decide that a class is to be limited to American bred dogs in the sense of born in the United States and bred in the United States. I see no reason why a colony of Great Britain should have any other rights than the parent body in England. For that reason I am opposed to admitting Canadian dogs and considering them in any way American bred.

THE SECRETARY: I have a recollection of matters occurring in connection with this matter long before those stated by Mr. Carnochan. I was a member of the Rules Committee. On two occasions the Canadian Kennel Club came here and knocked at our door and wanted recognition. They appointed a committee of three; we appointed a committee of three, and we met in New York. We came to a conclusion satisfactory to all the members of the joint committee. We signed that conclusion. They went back to Canada. Canada repudiated the agreement. They wanted all the recognition and gave nothing in return. That was the first slap in the face that we received from our friends, the Canadians. The second time was when the Canadian Kennel Club appointed their Executive Board, giving them full power to act, to come to some agreement of reciprocity with the American Kennel Club. The Hamilton Club of Canada forced that issue and they invited me to come and meet them. I went, representing the American Kennel Club alone, and was pitted against members of the Executive Board of the Canadian Kennel Club. We had a session for two days. We came to an agreement that I was very glad to sign and which they signed. There was one article that said that this agreement would be rescinded on six months’ notice. This was in July. The Canadian Kennel Club held its annual meeting in September and repudiated the act of its Executive Board which it had given full power to act, and served us with the six months’ notice, which we did not take advantage of and said the agreement would cease on receipt of our letter. That was the second time. The third time is the time Mr. Carnochan refers to when we had this agreement signed with great ceremony on parchment, where the English Kennel Club, in its preamble, said that the American Kennel Club is the paramount power on the Continent of North America, and they repudiated that preamble by accepting Canada as an affiliated club, so that Canada would not show any allegiance to the American Kennel Club. Why should we show any partiality to Canada or to Canadian breeders. That was one thing the committee had in mind in passing the rule concerning the novice class, that we should strike out Canada from one class. If the specialty clubs have so many Canadian members, it is very easy to arrange their specials by announcing prizes for the best dog bred in the United States or Canada. Why do you say that a Canadian dog should be an American bred dog, when it is a foreign country? When an exhibitor takes his dogs there he has to pay his duties and go through the same red tape that he would in coming from Manchester or Liverpool. They have to give a certain pedigree and deposit it with the port of entry before they will allow a Canadian dog in this country. It is another a different flag. It is a foreign country. When we say American, we mean that part of the America that would control the United States, within the limits of the United States.

MR. PETERS: I cannot see why we should grind all these old axes, but I suppose the reason we made the rule barring their dogs out of the novice class was because we thought they could breed better dog than we can. We are all equal here and I think we ought to have that class equal, and if we are going to use the term “American bred”, I should favor that they be allowed to compete with us.

MR. MORTIMER: I do not think this is a question of dog politics at all. I have no doubt that those gentlemen who are present who were engaged in that controversy with the English Kennel Club may feel aggrieved, but as a matter of precedent for twenty years past Canadian dogs have always been recognized at our American shows as American bred dogs, and they have always competed for every special that was offered. For that reason I claim it would be only right and proper that Canadian bred dogs should be admitted.

MR. MC GUIRE: Have we anything which tends to shows that it would be agreeable to the Canadian people to have their dogs designated as American bred? They might make a very violent objection to it. They have repudiated a couple of agreements they have entered into, and here, without any apparent request from them, without any seeking on their part, without even a representative from their club, it is proposed that we designate their dogs as American bred.

MR. MORTIMER: In answer to the gentleman who just spoke, the proof that the Canadians are very glad to come down here if the fact that they come in large numbers every year; the fact that there is a large number of Canadian members in every specialty club in existence is this country to-day.

MR. MC GUIRE: Even that fact does not give us the privilege of claiming their dogs as being American bred, nor does it compel them to accept our making them American bred dogs.

THE SECRETARY: The Pacific Advisory Committee has an agreement with the American Kennel Club that any act by it shall be binding unless that act is appealed from and set aside on that appeal by the American Kennel Club. This very question has been determined by the Pacific Advisory Committee in this case. There was a special offered for the best American bred dog. The prize was awarded to a dog that was bred by Mr. J.A. Laurin, of Montreal, Canada. That was appealed from; it was brought before the Pacific Advisory Committee and the appeal was sustained upon the ground that it was a foreign bred dog. We have got to set that aside, and how we can do it without an appeal I cannot see.

MR. MORTIMER: I think this quotation by the Secretary is a very fine illustration of the tail wagging the dog.

Mr. Peters' motion that an American bred dog as it is now termed, shall be a dog bred on the Continent of North America, was then put and lost.

MR. VITI: I move that American bred dogs are dogs bred and born in the United States of America excepting the cases governed in Rule 7 of the rules governing dog shows.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Secretary read the following certificate of election:

New York, February 7, 1906

To The American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, in accordance with Article XI, Section VI, of the Constitution, met this day at the office of the American Kennel Club, for the purpose of opening and canvassing the votes received by the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, for the officers and delegates of the Associate Members of said club, to hold office for the term of one year from this date or until their successors be elected.

Article XI, Section IV, provides for the election of an extra delegate for every one hundred members over three hundred. There being on this date 493 members, one extra delegate has been elected, making a total of four delegates to represent said Associate Members.

We found the total number of Associate Members entitled to vote to be 285.
Total number of votes cast 152.
Total number of votes scattering, 12.
Total number of irregular votes and thrown out, 2.
We do therefore declare the following persons as having received the greater number of votes, to be duly elected as officers and delegates of the Associate Members for the year ending in February, 1907, to wit:

President:  H.K. Bloodgood
Vice-President:  Winthrop Rutherford
Secretary:  Chas. W. Keyes
Delegate (1):  W.G. Rockfeller
Delegate (2): Dwight Moore
Delegate (3): Wm. P. Earle
Delegate (4): O.W. Donner

(Signed) A. Clinton Wilmerding
Representing the President A.K.C.
H.K. Bloodgood
President of Associate Members
(Attest) A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary of the A.K.C."

The following named clubs were elected to membership in the American Kennel Club:
District of Columbia Kennel Club, Bar Harbor Bench Show Association, the Chester Kennel Club and Asbury Park Kennel Club.

The following named delegates were elected to represent the following named clubs:
Howard Willets San Mateo Kennel Club
S. Crozer Robinson Deseret Agricultural & Manufacturing Society
R.S. Edson Collie Club of America
M.F. Mulcahy North Shore Kennel Club

On motion the minutes of the last meeting were approved as published in the Gazette.
The Secretary read his report as follows:

"SECRETARY’S REPORT.

----------

New York, Feb. 13, 1906

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

I have the honor to submit this, my regular quarterly report. I have received since our last meeting four applications from Clubs for admission to membership, and credentials from six clubs appointing delegates to represent them in this Association, all of which have been submitted to the Membership Committee which will report their action at this meeting. All matters received by me that belong to the Stud Book Committee have been duly referred to that Committee for investigation, and report to this Association.

I beg to report the receipt from the Pacific Advisory Committee of the Minutes of its meeting held Jan. 2d, 1906, and the same was published in the Jan. issue of the Gazette by request of said Committee and under the authority given me by this Association.

In compliance with Section VII, of the By-laws I caused to be published in the Jan. Gazette the nominations for the officers and chairman of the several Standing Committees, which were received during the month of December, from delegates representing Clubs in good standing. There nominations will be placed before you for the election for said officers at this our annual meeting.

I beg to report that Mr. J.E. Smith, of Cleveland, Ohio, had lodged a complaint against the Altoona Kennel Club for unpaid prizes with said complaint, is filed a return registry receipt from Charles M. Kelley, the Secretary of said Club, alleged to be an acknowledgement of the receipt of his claim for said prize under date of Jan. 29th, 1906, I served a notice on said Charles M. Kelley, be registered mail for said claim for unpaid prizes and to show cause why action should not be taken by the A.K.C. at this meeting. I have received the return registry receipt from the P.O. Authorities, but have not yet received any communication from the Altoona K.C. on the subject.

I beg to report for your information that W. Howard West, Philadelphia, Pa. has preferred charges against George S. Kelly, of the same city, for misconduct in connection with dogs. This case will be submitted to the Executive Board at its first session.

It gives me great pleasure to report that since Jan. 1st, 1906, we have received fully twenty-five percent additional members to our Associate List, and that the increase in the business of this Association for the past three months, has been unprecedented, and I have been obliged to add an additional clerk. We now have an office force of seven, with sufficient employment to keep each one busy from nine until five o’clock each day.

Owing to the printer’s strike, we were laboring under the utmost difficulties in the publication of our January Gazette. The issue was not only five days late, but we have found many errors, and possibly many more exist that we have not discovered which is all due to the inexperienced compositors employed by our printing concern, and I therefore ask for the indulgence of our patrons who may have or who may discover errors which we would gladly correct upon notice. I fear that the same trouble will exist in the composition on our Stud Book for 1905, the copy of which is now in the printer’s hands, and I trust that we may be able to publish the Stud Book the latter part of April as is usual.

I beg to report the following clubs in arrears for dues for 1906, which were due and payable Jan. 1st, last;
Under the rules the above named clubs cannot be represented at this meeting. I would recommend that the usual notice be sent to all clubs in arrears notifying them that if the dues are not paid within thirty days, that said clubs will be dropped from the roll without further action.

A proposed amendment to the Rules filed with your Secretary and A meeting of the Rules Committee to consider same was called for Jan. 22d the report of said Committee will be submitted to you.

I have received two communications one from Mr. G. M. Carnochan, and one from Mr. J. Sergeant Price Jr., which I will read for your information. I have also received from the Pacific Advisory Committee a bill for disbursements, from Dec. 1\textsuperscript{st}, 1905, to Feb. 5\textsuperscript{th}, 1906, amounting to $22.45, and would respectfully recommend that same be ordered paid.

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

Carried.

The report of the Committee on Rules was read as follows:

“New York, January 22, 1906

To The American Kennel Club

Gentlemen:

I beg to report that notice of a proposed amendment to the “Rules Governing Dog Shows: was duly filed with the Secretary of the A.K.C. by Mr. Marcel A. Viti. A meeting of the Committee on Constitution and Rules was ordered to be held this date, to consider same. I beg to report that as a quorum of said committee was not present, the proposed amendment was laid over until the next meeting of the Committee.

(Signed) G.M. Carnochan, Chairman

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Secretary reported the receipt from the Pacific Advisory Committee of the minutes of its meeting held January 2, 1906, and stated that these minutes were published in the January Gazette at the request of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

On motion the minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee’s meeting were accepted and placed on file.

The report of the Stud Book Committee was read as follows:

GENERAL BUSINESS

THE SECRETARY: I have a complaint of Mr. J.F. Smith against the Altoona Kennel Club, with two receipts from the Secretary of said club. Mr. Smith claims unpaid prizes at the late show. Since writing my report received another complaint from Mr. Clark Hulings against the same club for the same offense. The rules provide that a club in arrears for dues beyond sixty days of the close of the show shall be suspended and the officers of the Bench Show Committee of such club be disqualified. I sent the club the usual notice under date of January 29, 1906 by registered mail.

The Chair: I think it is proper for the American Kennel Club to instruct the Secretary to follow the usual rules of the club in connection with this matter.

MR. BROOKS: I make a motion to that effect, that the Secretary of the American Kennel Club be instructed to carry out the rules of the club against the Altoona Kennel Club.

Motion seconded and carried.
On motion the bill for disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee from December 1, 1905, to February 5, 1906, amounting to $25.45 was ordered paid.

THE SECRETARY: The next business in order is the matter of the clubs in arrears. Our plan heretofore has been to direct the Secretary to send a notice giving the clubs thirty days time from the date of the meeting to pay their dues, and all clubs in arrears after that time shall be dropped without further action.

MR. MOORE: I make a motion to that effect.

Motion seconded and carried.

The Secretary read the following communication from Mr. J. Sergeant Price, Jr.:

“Chestnut Hill, Pa., February 8, 1905

Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh,

55 Liberty St.,

New York, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

I see by the last Gazette, received yesterday morning, that I have been nominated for Vice-President. As this is the first intimation I had that such was the case, I would be very much obliged if you would withdraw... my name, as I do not care to run for the office.

Yours truly,

J. Sergeant Price, Jr."

The Secretary also read the following communication from Mr. G.H. Carnochan:

A.P. Vredenburgh, Esq., Secty
American Kennel Club, 55 Liberty St., N.Y.

Dear Mr. Vredenburgh: --

It is with the utmost regret that I have to inform you that for almost the first time in my recollection, I shall have to be away from the Annual Meeting. I had intended to be present, but there is a most important hearing before one of the Committees that I am a member of, in the Assembly, that make it imperative that I should be in Albany on Wednesday.

I regret it the more as I am a candidate for the office of Chairman of the Rules Committee, but I shall have to let my past record on this very important Committee represent me, instead of being at the meeting in person.

I shall introduce a bill shortly in the Assembly, to change the license fee for dogs, so that in the case of the owner of a kennel, there can be a fixed fee for each kennel, instead of for the individual animal as at present. This seems to me to be a proper procedure, in view of the fact that dogs in kennels are as a rule kept in the kennel enclosures and are not obnoxious to the public at large. I should be glad to have the views of the delegates on this subject, if you see fit to bring the matter before them.

Very cordially yours,
Gouverneur M. Carnochan”

On motion the same were received and placed on file.

MR. MOORE: The January Gazette informed dog people generally that all factional strife in the West had ceased, and that all the clubs in the Western part of the country were now under A.K.C. rules, and I think that this is a very proper time for the delegates of the American Kennel Club to express their thanks and appreciation of the services that have been rendered by the Pacific Advisory Committee and by Mr. Norman, the Secretary. I understand he has been the Secretary now for seven years, and devoted a very great deal of time to the club’s affairs, and has succeeded in amalgamating all the different elements there into one body, and I would like to offer a resolution that a special vote of thanks be given to the Pacific Advisory Committee and to Mr. Norman for their work on behalf of the American Club.

Resolution seconded and carried.

MR. BUCKLEY: In the memory of those present when Rule XV anent entering dogs bringing them to the show and not showing them was made, it was to prevent and owner from withdrawing from competition after having seen the dogs of his opponents, I move that the Rules Committee be instructed to so change this rule that entries for specials only may in future be received and not necessarily be made to compete in the class in which they are entered, and report at the next meeting.

MR. VITI: I second that motion. It occurred to me in thinking over that matter the other day that where a judge puts in his dog for exhibition only, under this rule he would have to compete.

A DELAGATE: I would like to offer an amendment to embody that.

THE SECRETARY: The rule states that all dogs entered for competition must compete in all classes to which it is eligible. If the dog is entered for exhibition only, he is not entered for competition, and therefore does not have to compete.

MR. BROOKFIELD: I called up the American Kennel Club on the telephone yesterday and received a ruling to the effect that I had to show an old bitch which I had entered. I showed her as Champion, and she only got third.

THE CHAIR: I should say under the circumstances, under that rule that dogs entered for competition only are required to compete, no amendment to this rule is necessary.

MR. DALE: May I ask how Mr. Brookfield entered his dog that he was compelled to show--- was it for exhibition or specials only?

MR. BROOKFIELD: For specials only/

THE SECRETARY: I think a little explanation is due. We will cite Mr. Brookfield’s dog. It was entered for specials only. When the catalogue comes in there is no mark against the dog. We cannot tell whether that dog competed in his class or not. The cause of the publication of that rule was the receipt of a complaint, the first complaint on record, where it was claimed that under the rules a man entered his dog at a certain show for specials only and did not compete in his class; that being the first time that it has ever been brought to our knowledge officially, we then had to interpret and publish the rule.

Mr. Buckley’s motion to refer this matter to the Rules Committee was then put and carried.

At this point President Belmont arrived and took the chair.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

PRESIDENT BELMONT: I move that Mr. H.K. Bloodgood be called to the chair.

Motion seconded and carried.

Mr. Bloodgood takes the chair.

THE SECRETARY: In accordance with the by-laws nominations were open from December 1st to December 31st, 1905, by any delegate or club in good standing. These nominations closed on December 31st and were published in the January Gazette. The first are nominations for President. --- Mr. August Belmont and Mr. Hollis H. Hunnewell.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I need hardly say that my name was placed in nomination entirely without my knowledge or consent. I do not think that I or anybody who has the slightest interest in the American Kennel Club would ever allow his name to be placed in nomination in opposition to Mr. Belmont for the office of President. Mr. Belmont has done more for the American Kennel Club than I think a great many members realize. The older members realize it; I think possibly some of the younger members do not. When we were in our infancy, when we had to have a start, Mr. Belmont took hold, practically wrote the constitution and practically outlined the whole idea of the club. In addition to that for five years he guaranteed five thousand dollars a year towards the expense of running the club. Subsequently a law suit was brought against the club, as you will remember, and Mr. Belmont footed the bills. We were very poor and very new; our expenses were very heavy, but we came out on the right side. Mr. Belmont has been repaid, but I do not think that his sportsmanship will ever be repaid. (Applause). I am sure that every true sportsman in this country endorses Mr. Belmont and has the greatest respect for him in every way in which he has been connected with sports. I would say also that Mr. Belmont took up other matters which were very important and devoted a great deal of his time to the affairs of the club, after which he offered to resign as President of this club, and a unanimous vote was taken so long as Mr. Belmont would be king enough to remain our President we would be only too glad to have him do so. I wish to most emphatically withdraw my name from nomination as President, and I move that Mr. Belmont be unanimously elected President of this club, all standing.

Motion seconded and unanimously carried.

The chair declared Mr. August Belmont duly elected President.

President Belmont takes the chair.

MR. BELMONT: I feel, perhaps, for one reason, that I appeared too soon, and for another reason I can say to you that I am very glad that I was here to receive so striking a compliment from you, one which I do not think is deserved, and I say that in all sincerity. Mr. Hunnewell has said nothing about the excellent services of the other members of the American Kennel Club, or its officers, who worked quite as much as I did to establish the American Kennel Club upon the footing which is now occupies. The club would not have been in existence without the assistance of Mr. Vredenburgh, of Mr. Bloodgood and of Mr. Hunnewell. Year in and year out I have found myself so occupied with various other matters that I have not really given this office the attention that it should have.
As I have said before, and I cannot help feeling so to-day, I have felt that a younger and more active man should head this club. We have had very little serious opposition, it is true, and perhaps it is unfortunate that we have not had more to spur us on to greater activity, but it is a fact that there is always room for improvement, and while I was conversant with the affairs of the club and actively interested in dog shows, and I do claim that I did contribute to the advancement of the club by work and thought, the financial part of it was secondary, because ever since the club has owned its stud book, it has been self-supporting. It might not have had the cash at the moment, but there was no question as to its ability to carry on its work in the future. Now I occasionally attend at some of the meetings when some question comes up which happens to attract my attention, either through unwarranted complaint from an outside party, or from word which Mr. Vredenburgh brings to me, but outside of that it is nothing to you excepting the name, and that other members of the club can contribute just as well as I can. However, I will not be so ungrateful as to say that for any such reasons I will not serve you, because I will do the best I can, and if I can give you more of my time during the ensuing year, I shall do so; and whenever I can return to the bench with any prospect of success and enjoyment, I shall do that, but my kennels have somewhat run out. “Victor” is dead and “Leasario” is not far from it, and I believe the type has passed from what I always bred for in my own field as dog fancier, so I would have to reform myself; you know that is something in order to-day, and I am not considered one of them. I thank you very much for your compliment.

THE SECRETARY: Nominations for Vice-President: Hollis H. Hunnewell, J. Sergeant Price, Jr., and Dr. J.E. De Mund. I have read a communication from Mr. Price withdrawing his name.

DR. DE MUND: I would like to withdraw my name as candidate for Vice-President of the American Kennel Club.

THE CHAIR: There is now but one candidate before you, and a motion instructing the Secretary to cast one ballot for Mr. H.H. Hunnewell will be in order.

On motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for Mr. H.H. Hunnewell as Vice-President of the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary declared that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. H.H. Hunnewell was declared elected Vice-President of the American Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: Chairman of the Stud Book Committee – Marcel A. Viti, retiring member.

On motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot for the election of Mr. Marcel A. Viti as Chairman of the Stud Book Committee.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Marcel A. Viti was declared elected Chairman of the Stud Book Committee.

THE SECRETARY: There are two members of the Stud Book Committee to be elected in place of James W. Appleton and Singleton Van Schaick.

MR. MUSS-ARNOLT: I move they be elected to succeed themselves.

MR. MOORE: I second the nomination.

There being no other nominations, on motion the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for the election of James W. Appleton and Singleton Van Schiack to succeed themselves as members of the Stud Book Committee.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Messrs. Appleton and Van Schiack were declared elected members of the Stud Book Committee.
THE SECRETARY: The next nomination is for Chairman of the Constitution and Rules Committee. There are two candidates, Mr. G.M. Carnochan and Mr. Edwards Brooks.

MR. BROOKS: I ask the privilege of not voting, being one of the candidates. Request granted.

The delegates then proceeded to ballot, resulting in the election of Mr. Edward Brooks as Chairman of the Constitution and Rules Committee by a vote of 23 to 12.

THE SECRETARY: The other members of the Committee on Constitution and Rules are Mr. E.S. Woodward, Mr. Edward Brooks and Mr. G. Muss-Arnolt. Mr. Brooks has been made chairman, and that leaves Mr. Carnochan, Mr. Woodward and Mr. Muss-Arnolt as retiring members of that committee, and their successors to be elected. Mr. Woodward is no longer connected with dog matters, and does not attend, and there should be some one elected to take his place.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that Mr. Carnochan and Mr. Muss-Arnolt be elected to succeed themselves on that committee.

Nominations seconded.
There being no further nominations, on motion the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for the elected of Messrs. Carnochan and Muss-Arnolt to succeed themselves as members of the Constitution and Rules Committee.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Messrs. Carnochan and Muss-Arnolt were declared elected members of the Constitution and Rules Committee.

MR. VITI: I nominate Mr. Dwight Moore to succeed Mr. E.S. Woodward as a member of the Constitution and Rules Committee.

Nomination seconded.

Mr. Middlebrooke: I nominate Mr. Samuel R. Cutler to succeed Mr. E.S. Woodward as a member of the Constitution and Rules Committee.

Nomination seconded.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that the nominations be closed, and that we now proceed to ballot.

Mr. Moore asked to be excused from voting. Request granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

The delegates then proceeded to ballot, resulting in the election of Mr. Dwight Moore by a vote of 29 to 7.

THE SECRETARY: Nomination for Chairman Field Trials and Coursing Meetings Committee --- James W. Appleton.
There being no further nominations, on motion the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for the election of Mr. James W. Appleton as Chairman of the Field Trials & Coursing Meeting Committee.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot for Mr. Appleton, and he as declared elected Chairman of the Field Trials & Coursing Meetings Committee.

THE SECRETARY: Finance Committee. William G. Rockefeller is nominated for Chairman.

There being no other nomination, on motion the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Mr. W. G. Rockefeller as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

The Secretary stated that he has cast such ballot, and Mr. W.G. Rockefeller was declared elected Chairman of the Finance Committee.

THE SECRETARY: The two retiring members of that committee are Messrs. G. M. Carnochan and Dwight Moore.

MR. MOORE: I would like to withdraw as a candidate for election on that committee, as I am already on one committee.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I nominate Mr. J.M. Dale in place of Mr. Dwight Moore.
Nominations seconded.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I nominate Mr. Carnochan to succeed himself as a member of that committee.

Nominations seconded.

There being no other nominations, on motion the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for the election of Messrs. Dale and Carnochan as members of the Finance Committee.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Messrs. Dale and Carnochan were declared elected members of the Finance Committee.

THE SECRETARY: Nomination for Chairman membership Committee, Mr. William B. Emery.

There being no other nominations, on motion the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for the election of Mr. William B. Emery as chairman of the Membership Committee.

The Secretary stated that he had cast such ballot, and Mr. Emery was declared elected Chairman of the Membership Committee.

THE SECRETARY: Messrs. Singleton Van Schiack and B.S. Smith are the two other members whose terms of office expire.

MR. HUNNEWELL: I move that those two gentlemen be elected to succeed themselves as members of such committee.

Nominations seconded.

There being no other nominations, on motion the Secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Messrs. Van Schiack and Smith to succeed themselves as members of the Membership Committee.

The Secretary stated that he has cast such ballot, and Messrs. Van Schiack and Smith were declared elected members of the Membership Committee.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

credentials from the Pomeranian Kennel Club, appointing Reginald F. Mayhew are also not approved by the Membership Committee.

The minutes of the last meeting, on motion, were adopted as published in the Gazette.

The Secretary read his report as follows:
To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:- I have the honor to submit this me regular quarterly report. I have received since our last meeting eleven applications from Clubs for admission to membership, and credentials from ten Clubs appointing delegates to represent them in this Association, all of which have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report its action at this meeting.

By order of the meeting of Feb. last, I dropped all clubs in arrears for dues for 1906, March 17th, 1906, and now report that the Fanciers’ Association of Indiana, the Orange County Agricultural Society, the Chicago Kennel Club, and Englewood Kennel Club have paid their dues for 1906, and all apply for reinstatement.

I will submit to you the Minutes of the Executive Board of Meetings held April 26th, and April 27th, 1906, also Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee, of its meeting held March 7th, 1906.

The Secretary of the Pacific Advisory Committee, under date of May 5th rendered a bill for disbursements between Feb. 14th, and April 28th of $17.75. Owing to the condition of affairs in San Francisco, the Secretary asked if this bill could not be paid at once, as he had personally advanced the money, and needed its return as soon as possible. I found the bill to be correct and assumed the responsibility of sending him a money order for said amount, without waiting for your approval. I now respectfully ask your approval of my action in this matter.

By direction of the Stud Book Committee I have preferred charges against W.A. Bonnot, Orange, N.J., for issuing fraudulent pedigrees. I have also preferred charges against Philip Dahi, St. Louis, Mo., for the perpetration of a fraudulent act.

Mr. A.H. Adamson filed an appeal against the action of the Merrimack Valley Kennel Club, in sustaining a protest against a Bull Terrier at its late show. These charges and this appeal, will be presented to the Executive Board for action at its first meeting.

Owing to the general strike of printers during January and February, and for other delays caused by the printers, and over which we had no control, the annual volume of the Stud Book, of 1905, has been delayed for over thirty days beyond the usual date of publication, and for the information of all interested in said book, I beg to state, that we have every reason to believe that said Volume will be ready for shipment to our Associate Members for 1905, and to other subscribers, on or about June 1st.

The Genesee County Agricultural Society Kennel Club, has filed a notice to the effect that its title has been changed to read, Genesee County Kennel Club, and requests our records to be changed in accordance therewith.

I beg to report that the Pacific Advisory Committee has admitted to active membership, the Hawaiian Kennel Club of Honolulu, and I have therefore added that club to our list of Active Members.

I will submit a communication just received from the Bureau of Animal Industry, in reference to the recognition of foreign books of record, and have advised the Department that I would submit their communication to the Delegates at this meeting, so that official action may be taken on the subject.

As is usual at this time, I would recommend that your Secretary be directed to send final bills to all Associate Members who are in arrears for dues for 1906, and if the same be not paid within thirty days, that they be dropped from the roll without further notice.

The Ladies' Kennel Association of America, through Its Secretary, requests the American Kennel Club to adopt the following rules: First, That dogs ruled off or barred from being shown in England, should be barred from being shown in America. Second- That kennels can give their prefix only to dogs bred by such kennels. Third- That dogs registered in England, must be registered under the same name in America.

It is obvious that by the last clause it is meant that if a dog has been registered in England, and imported to this country, and registered with the American Kennel Club, that it must be registered under its English name. I would suggest that these resolutions be referred to the Stud Book Committee for its consideration, and report at a subsequent meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary."

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The Treasurer’s Report was read as follows:

“New York, May 21st, 1906

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report.

Balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1906 . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 18,571.25
Receipts from Jan. 1st to date. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 11,011.49

Disbursements from Jan. 1st to date . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 8,454.14

Balance on hand 21,128.60

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer”

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
The report of the Executive Board was read, and is as follows:

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Vs.   Re Breach of Contract
James Ballantyne

Charles D. Malliard Atty. Appearing for defendant. A number of affidavits were presented to prove that defendant agreed to sell to plaintiff a Scottish Terrier, named Piper Sandy, for the sum of $150. It was claimed by plaintiff that he had obtained a refusal of this dog during the first day of the N.Y. Show of 1906, and consummated the purchase on the third day of said show, agreeing to pay $50.00 on the delivery of the dog, to wit, Feb. 17th, $50.00 on April 1st, and $50.00 on May 1st. The first payment was paid by check dated Feb. 14th. This check was returned with the information that the dog was sick with distemper. Plaintiff agreed to add to his purchase price, expenses incurred for said sickness. after the exchange of several letters and interviews, plaintiff mailed to defendant a check for $150, in full payment of the dog and demanded the delivery of said dog. Under date of April 7th defendant returned the check for $150, with the information that plaintiff could not have the dog for less than $500.00. None of the above allegations were disproved. It was therefore-ORDERED, that Ballantyne be and hereby is directed to deliver the Scottish Terrier “Piper Sandy” to Clark within thirty days of the date of this meeting, and that Clark, be and hereby is directed to pay for said day the original purchase price of $150.00. In default of the delivery of said dog as above directed the said James Ballantyne shall be suspended.

Re - Misconduct in connection with dogs.
James B. Blossom appearing for plaintiff. this case was postponed at the meeting of Dec. 1905, at the request of the plaintiff. it would appear from the evidence and affidavits in the case that the parties had entered into an agreement for an exchange of Pointers. The plaintiff agreeing to pay all express charges. Plaintiff personally crated and shipped his bitch to defendant on April 27th, 1905. The express Co. delivered eh crate in good order with the dog therein at defendant’s stable. The affidavit of the Express Agent certifying that he delivered the dog, and a further statement from said Agent that he held defendant’s receipt for same being filed with the charges. It would appear from the evidence that this bitch escaped and has not been located. The plaintiff demands that the defendant shall live up to his contract. It was therefore, --

ORDERED, -- that Charles B. Pineo, be and hereby is directed to send to Howland according to his original agreement, a Pointer by Young Rip Rap out of Sam’s Bell, within two weeks from the date of this meeting, in default of which said Pineo shall be suspended.

Spotswood Kennels
Vs.  Re--  Appeal from decision on Sullivan protest.
The defendant was directed to re-open the case and hear the protest of Sullivan against the Boston Terrier Eastover Lancelot. It would appear from the evidence taken before the W.K.C. that at the show of Feb. 1905, the Veterinary Surgeon, examined the dog in question, and returned it to the ring, without giving an official opinion. Nine months thereafter said Veterinary appeared before the Dog Show Committee of the W.K.C. and gave his opinion in his testimony for the first time. It is held that the object of the rule, is that a decision should be rendered at the time of the examination by the Vet. It is therefore,

ORDERED, that the original decision rendered by this Board Feb. 1st, 1905, be and hereby is confirmed.

Misconduct in connection with dogs.

In this case the plaintiff charged that the defendant
Was issuing pedigrees of Toy Poodles, in which There was a cross in the second generation of A Maltese Terrier. It appeared from the evidence Produced that the defendants received from the Plaintiff the aforesaid pedigree, and issued their Pedigrees based upon the pedigree received from the Plaintiff. It is therefore

ORDERED, that the charges be dismissed and the Sec'y, of the A.K.C. be directed to prefer charges Against W.P. Farmer.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF EXECUTIVE BOARD
HELD April 27, 1906

Present: -- H.H. Hunnewell, H.K. Bloodgood, Marcel A. Viti, Edward Brooks, Absent:-- August Belmont, James W. Appleton.

Vs Re -- Appeal from decision on protest.
Merrimack Valley The plaintiff protested the award to a Collie at the Kennel Club show of the Merrimack
Valley Club in 1905, and said protest was not allowed by the Dog Show Committee. It appearing that the protestors did not have the opportunity to appear before said Committee in support of their protest, the case was referred by this Board at its meeting held Dec. 1905, back to the Merrimack Valley K.C. with directions to open the case and hear it on its merits giving both parties in the premises an opportunity to be heard. This was done and the Dog Show Committee of the Merrimack Valley K.C. reversed its former decision and sustained the original protest.

It was therefore,--

ORDERED, that the cause for this appeal having been removed said appeal is hereby dismissed.

J'O'Hara, Jr.  Re -- Misconduct in connection with dogs.
Vs. Dr. C.C. Kammerer  In this case the plaintiff purchased a Boston Terrier for the sum of $25.00 upon certain representations made by defendant. It appears that the dog shipped by defendant did not comply with his description, and said dog was promptly returned and a demand made for the return of the purchase price, which was not complied with. It was therefore, --- ORDERED, that Dr. C.C. Kammerer, be and hereby is directed to return to O'Hara the sum of $25.00 within thirty days of the date of this meeting. In default of which said Kammerer shall be disqualified.

Charles W. Buttles
Vs.   Re -- Appeal from disqualification.
Pacific Advisory Com. This appeal was presented to this Board at its meeting Dec. 1905, and postponed. A request from the appellant for a postponement to enable a representative to appear in his behalf at a future meeting was not granted. The contention was that F.P. Butler, of San Francisco, Cal., purchased an English Setter from the appellant, based upon a description of the dog as advertised in the American Field of June 24, 1905. From the testimony in the original case before the Pacific Advisory Committee it would appear that the dog was not as represented in said advertisement, and the appellant was suspended by the Pacific Advisory Committee until he refunded to F.P. Butler, the sum of $50.00, being the purchase price and $11.50 express charges to San Francisco to Kansas City, within thirty days from the date of said meeting. From the evidence before this Board, it is of the opinion that the Pacific Advisory Committee rendered its decision according to the evidence before it, and it is therefore, -- ORDERED, -- that the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee be and hereby is sustained.

Joseph L. Vaughan
Vs.   Re -- Misconduct in connection with dogs.
Frank F. Dole The evidence produced in this case shows that in August, 1905, the plaintiff sold the Bull Terrier bitch known as Edgewood Nan, to Vaughan
It was proven by affidavit that said bitch appeared to be in whelp, to Edgewood Bloomsbury Hero. There is no evidence to prove that one of the conditions of the sale was that said bitch should be in whelp. There was however, a guarantee on the part of defendant that he should at his own expense have said bitch registered and send to the plaintiff the registry receipt and a certificate pedigree which he failed to do. It is therefore, ORDERED, that Dole be and hereby is directed at his own expense to have the Bull Terrier bitch Edgewood Nan, properly registered, and to deliver to Vaughan the register receipt and the certified pedigree. The charge of misconduct on the part of Dole is dismissed.

New England K.C.
Vs.
Mr. & Mrs. J.M. Copeland

Re. -- Suspension for substitution of Collie at the Boston Show of 1906.
The Bench Show Committee of the N.E.K.C. acting upon a protest against two Collies entered by the defendants, rendered a decision that said Collies were not the dogs entered for its show by the defendants, and suspended the defendants for said substitution, and notified the American Kennel Club of said action. The defendants were notified to show cause why said suspension should not be removed and having failed to produce any evidence to disprove the alleged substitution. It is therefore ORDERED, that the suspension by the N.E.K.C. be and hereby is sustained, and that under the rules, J.M. Copeland, and Mrs. J.M. Copeland be and hereby are disqualified.

Samuel R. Cutler,
Atty., for W.A. Corey

Vs. Re.--  Appeal from ruling of Sec'y.
American Kennel Club

In this case William O'Connor of Boston, registered a Boston Terrier, under the name of Little Teddy Mack, and sold said dog to William A. Corey of Manchester N.H., who is turn presented same to his son W.A. Corey, Colorado Springs, Colo. This dog was shown by said Corey, at the Denver Show, and at the Colorado Springs Show, under its registered name. It would appear that this dog has won several prizes under the name of Teddy Mack, and after its name had been changed the owner failed to enter the dog at the Western Show, as Little Teddy Mack, (formerly Teddy Mack). Under the rule the two winnings above referred to were cancelled. The appeal from the action of the Sec'y is based upon the ground that it was a technical error in which no fraud appeared, and that a fine should have been imposed instead of cancellations. It is the sense of this Board that the question of fraud does not arise. It is ruled that the violation of the rule by Corey, although he was ignorant of same was not a technical one, it was therefore.

ORDERED, -- that the cancellation of the awards to the Boston Terrier Little Teddy Mack at the late Denver and Colo. Shows, be confirmed and the Sec'y’s action be sustained.
A request from the Pacific Advisory Committee for the cancellation of the date claims made by the Santa Clara Co. Kennel Club, the San Francisco Kennel Club, and the Bull Terrier Club of San Francisco, and a return of the date deposits made by these clubs, was granted.

It was moved by Mr. Viti, and duly carried that a list of the Field Trials or Dog Show Prize Winnings of any dog will be furnished upon request. The list shall include all winnings appearing in the official Stud Book, the charge for such certificates or for a search for same shall be fifty cents, and said fee shall be paid whether or not the search discloses any winnings.

By Mr. Viti, and carried, that on and after June 1, 1906, all Premium Lists must publish the classification as follows:--

SPORTING DOGS (name each variety in alphabetical order)
NON SPORTING DOGS (name each variety in alphabetical order)
TERRIERS (name each variety in alphabetical order)
FOREIGN DOGS (name each variety in alphabetical order)

Further that the Secretary be instructed to withhold his approval of all classification received by him on and after June 1st, 1906, unless the conform with the above.
On motion Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh was re-appointed Secretary-Treasurer.

On recommendation of the Finance Committee salaries were fixed for the current year.

The Chair appointed William G. Rockefeller, on the Committee of Incorporation in place of the late member C.W. Rodman.

Meeting adjourned.

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary
MR. MORTIMER: I would like to ask whether that report, as to the last rule that was read, the ruling as to the list being in alphabetical order on the premium list is to be carried into the catalogue. It seems to me that if the premium list has to go out in that order, that is, taking all the sporting dogs first, and then the non-sporting dogs, and then the terriers, and the catalogue has to follow in the order of the classification in the premium list, we shall have great difficulty in benching our dogs at the different shows. You see that in the sporting division there comes first, Basset hounds, then beagles, then blood hounds. That is, we jump from a small dog to a very large one; and so we go on until we come to the non-sporting division, where we have first bull dogs, then Chihuahuas. A toy dog is always put in cages. Next in order come collies, Dalmatians and then the English toy spaniel. They are always caged. Then we come to the French bull dog. That is a small dog occupying a small bench. Then we jump to Great Danes, Italian Greyhounds, then Japanese spaniels, and then we come to mastiffs. In providing benching for these dogs we have to commence either with the smallest dogs or with the largest dogs. I do not know whether I make myself quite clear to you gentlemen, or not, but I would say that benching runs in three different sizes. In benching large dogs, such as bloodhounds, mastiffs, St. Bernards, Great Danes, Russian Wolfhounds, and so forth, the base board is between eleven and twelve feet in width, and this benching comes in fifteen foot lengths. If we have to put in a little toy dog an amount of space that we cannot afford. The Westminster Kennel Club finds the greatest difficulty in benching dogs at its show in Madison Square Garden unless it commences with the large dogs and come very gradually to the smaller ones. That is, in order to make the most of the space at our command. I think you will agree with me that to bench a mastiff alongside of a Japanese spaniel would be rather ridiculous, as it would spoil the effect and symmetry of the show, besides taking up an unnecessary amount of room

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to ask the Secretary whether there was any other letter sent out with this document, this important notice?

THE SECRETARY: No.
MR. CARNOCHAN: I would call attention to the fact that it must have been very misleading to the Secretaries of our shows, because it is not signed by the American Kennel Club, or by any official of it, and it would give rise to people thinking it was unauthorized.

THE SECRETARY: I would like to state for the information of the delegates that a first notice was sent out to Bench Show Committee which I will read. When this notice was sent out it was simply a circular to follow that which was sent out about a week after – to follow that as a guide to the show committee.

MR. CARNOCHAN: That does not, however, render that second document any more authentic, does it?

THE CHAIR: It concludes with “Only such breeds as appear below are recognized by the American Kennel Club.” There is no doubt to anybody’s mind that that was issued by the American Kennel Club. The motion which was carried by the Executive Board reads “On and after June 1, 1906, all premium lists must publish the classification as follows,” and so forth. I do not see that that means that dogs have to be benched that way.

MR. MORTIMER: The difficulty is that when you issue your premium list you classify all these dogs. When we begin with Basset hounds, the different classes of Basset hounds, the different classes of Basset hounds would be No. 1, 2, 3 and so forth, and your catalogue has got to follow the premium list, or your exhibitors will make mistakes in their entries. When the catalogue follows the premium list, the benching must follow the catalogue.

THE CHAIR: Is that absolutely necessary?

MR. MORTIMER: It is absolutely necessary in so far as you have to make the best use of any building you might have, as the benching goes in different sizes.

MR. BROOKS: Mr. Mortimer is right. If you have your entries jumping all through your catalogue, as you have it here, when you call a class into the judging ring, you won’t know where to do.

THE CHAIR: The only thing you can do to remedy that would be to request the Executive Board to reconsider its report in that respect.

MR. BROOKS: That only applies to the premium list?

THE CHAIR: Yes.

MR. MORTIMER: But the catalogue has got to follow the premium list.

MR. BROOKS: I do not see why it should.
MR. MORTIMER: You will have matters badly mixed up if you do not. I would like to make a motion that the Executive Board be asked to reconsider that rule.

THE CHAIR: The proper motion would be to accept the report but to ask the Executive Committee to reconsider that part of it.

MR. MORTIMER: I am sure the gentlemen here have given this matter deep thought. If they have they will see the great mix up we will have, and the very great inconvenience there will be in holding shows. I would like to say a few words more on this subject before I make the motion. The difficulty seems to be that there is more or less trouble in finding out the different breeds; that is the sporting-breeds, but I think if all premium lists were made to read the same, the classification to follow in every instance as far as, it possibly could – for instance, the Westminster Kennel Club, and every premium list should follow the Westminster Kennel Club’s list, to make the premium lists of all shows practically the same, that would do away in a great measure with the difficulty that arises in this office in finding out the proper divisions or sections. that these particular breeds should go in. If we can make a rule that our premium lists shall be uniform, and the catalogue should follow that, as I say, I think that would do away with all difficulty.

MR. CARNOCHAN: While this is a resolution passed by the Executive Board, it certainly is a rule, and it should come under the head of rules governing dog shows. I therefore move that this matter be referred to the Rules Committee to formulate a proper rule in this connection.

DR. DE MUND: I second the motion.

MR. MORTIMER: Before that motion is put I would like to call attention to the fact that this notice has been sent out to all superintendents and secretaries of bench shows. It is possible now that it is the idea or the opinion of all these different secretaries that this must be carried out. Ought they not to be notified to the effect that this matter should be held in abeyance until the committee has reconsidered this matter?

MR. VITI: There is only one show claimed in August, I think.

MR. MORTIMER: No, there are more than that.

MR. VITI: If this meeting took place, the Executive Board will have a meeting in June, and if they corrected that, then it would simplify matters very much, because if they make a rule, it cannot be acted upon until the September meeting. As for myself, I should think that it is not practicable to bench dogs in alphabetical order, but they ought to be benched in order of size, or some particular form to be adopted.

THE CHAIR: The motion Mr. Carnochan makes is as follows: That the report of the Executive Committee be accepted; that the matter of classifying of breeds at shows as reported by the Executive Board be referred to the Rules Committee to formulate a rule and report same to the next quarterly meeting; that the Secretary be instructed to give notice to the show secretaries and superintendents to this effect. I understand from this motion that the show secretaries are to proceed as they did before.

MR. VITI: It seems to me the proper thing to do is to have this matter reconsidered. I assume the Executive Committee will have a meeting in June.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to offer an amendment to the motion that has just been made by Mr. Carnochan. I move as an amendment that the Executive Board be asked to reconsider that question at its June meeting, or at as early a meeting as can be convened.

Amendment seconded.

MR. CARNOCHAN: While of course that is entirely proper it is within the power of this quarterly meeting to take any action that it pleases on the report of the Executive Committee. Therefore it is not necessarily at this meeting to ask the Executive Board to rescind its motion. If we do not approve of their report this rule does not then go into effect.

MR. MORTIMER: As I take it, it is necessary that this matter should be settled as speedily as possible. Dog show clubs are getting ready for their dog shows, and it will be soon time to go to work on these shows in getting out premium lists and all that sort of thing, and it would be well to have this matter finally settled as early as possible in order to do away with any subsequent difficulties that might arise.

DR. DE MUND: I should like to amend that by moving that this meeting do not sustain the action of the Executive Board in the change of the rule.

Amendment seconded.
MR. MORTIMER: If I may add to my amendment, that in the meantime before this matter is reconsidered – this matter cannot be finally considered, as I understand it, until the next quarterly meeting – if it cannot be I should like to add to my amendment that the premium lists stand as they were. That is to say, that this notice should be cancelled.

THE CHAIR: I think under our own constitution I should rule [Dr. De Mund amendment] out of order, under Section 2, Article 12.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to ask in that connection whether the acts of the Executive Committee do not have to be passed upon by this meeting, and why should we accept their report.

THE CHAIR: It was read for information. You have heard the report and you are requesting a reconsideration.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I can understand while the Executive Board may have full power between meetings, we certainly have power at this meeting to do as we please, and we can refer this matter, which should be included in the rules governing dog shows, to the Rules Committee. We cannot change our by-laws without their going to the Rules Committee.
THE CHAIR: You cannot change what the Executive Board has done. You can ask it to reconsider, or bring the matter up again, but you cannot change what it has done. The Executive Board has full power between meetings.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Do I understand you as ruling that the Board of Delegates has absolutely no power at any time to change the rulings of the Executive Board?

THE CHAIR: As I understand the constitution, they can bring the matter up again and ask for a reconsideration, but they have go to accept the report of the Executive Board, they having full power.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Then how is Dr. De Mund’s motion out of order if we have power at this time to change any ruling of the Executive Board?

THE CHAIR: You have not such power, as I understand our constitution.

DR. DE MUND: Do you make that as a ruling?

THE CHAIR: Yes.

DR. DE MUND: I appeal from that ruling.

MR. MOORE: I think Dr. De. Mund’s motion is out of order at this time, but I see no reason why you cannot bring it up under the head of new bus-INESS.

DR. DE MUND: I asked for a ruling on that motion, and the ruling of that motion, and the ruling was that this body had not power to change the Executive Board's report. My motion was not to change the report, but simply not to sustain what it has done.

THE CHAIR: You can bring that up under the head of new business. Our report does not have to be passed upon by the delegates. The report comes in. That is what has been done. Then if you choose under the heading of new business to rescind anything that has been done, you have a perfect right to do so, but you have not right to change the report of the Executive Board. The discussion came up on this clause because it was evident a mistake had been made, and to save time I thought in accepting the report we would pass a resolution to ask the Executive Board to reconsider this matter which evidently was a mistake, and was acknowledged by the mover of the motion to have been a mistake. The report of the Executive Board is law until it is changed.

DR. DE MUND: I did not understand your ruling in that way. Therefore I withdraw my appeal. I understand the ruling to be that this body has no power to set aside anything that the Executive Board did.

THE CHAIR: That rule was law until to-day.

DR. DE MUND: But we have power now to set it aside?

THE CHAIR: You have power to set aside, I might say, in the future, but not what we have done.

MR. MC GUIRE: I think we have the power to refer that part of this report back to the committee with instruction.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I call for the previous question.

THE CHAIR: Mr. Carnochan moves that the report of the Executive Board be accepted; that the matter of classifying of breeds at shows, as reported by the Executive Board, be referred to the rules committee to formulate a rule and report same to next quarterly meeting; that the Secretary be instructed to give notice to the show secretaries and superintendents to this effect. Mr. Mortimer’s amendment is that this matter be reconsidered at the June meeting of the Executive Board, and pending action the premium lists to continue as at present. The vote first will be on the amendment.

Amendment carried.

The motion as amended was then carried.

The following named clubs were admitted to membership in the American Kennel Club: Tedeseo Kennel Club; English Setter Club; Grotona Collie Club; East Liverpool Kennel Club; Columbus Kennel Club Incorporated; York Kennel Club; the New Bedford Kennel Club; the Mississippi Valley Kennel Club; Pine Tree Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: The applications of the Methuen Kennel Club of Methuen, Massachusetts, being protested by the Merrimack Kennel Club and the Revere Kennel Club are marked out approved by the committee. The application of the Orange County Agricultural Association for reinstatement is approve by the committee.

MR. BROOKS: I move that it be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The request of the Chicago Kennel Club for reinstatement has been marked approved by the committee.

MR. BROOKS: I move that it be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The request of the Chicago Kennel Club for reinstatement has been marked approved by the committee.

MR. BROOKS: I move that it be reinstated.

Motion seconded and carried.
THE SECRETARY: The People’s Fanciers’ Association of Indiana’s application for reinstatement is marked approved by the committee.

MR. BROOKS: I move that it be reinstated.
Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The application of the Englewood Kennel Club for reinstatement is marked by the committee to hold pending investigation.

MR. BROOKS: On behalf of the Rules Committee, I have to report that it has no final report to make. We have had two or three meetings and changed the rules very materially, but we are only about half way through our work, and it will require a few more meetings to finish the work so as to publish it in the Gazette. I report progress.

It is recommended that all with the exception of Thistle be granted as applied for. Thistle being already registered the application must be denied.

Application has been made for the recognition of a variety of dogs to be known as Japanese Plumed Dogs.

The Committee was informed that these dogs have been bred from dogs in Japan some years ago. No proof however was offered of the existence of Plumed dogs in Japan, nor of their establishment as separate and distinct breed of many generation.

A protest against the recognition of this breed was filed by the Japanese Spaniel Club.

The Committee being of the opinion that there is not sufficient proof of the establishment of the breed recommends that the application be denied.
In the matter of the Beagle now known as Windholme Bartender it is recommended that the case be continued as the proof at present is inconclusive and the committee believes all the parties should have an opportunity to furnish further evidence.

Marcel A. Viti
Chairman

On motion the same was adopted and placed on file.

The report of the Pacific Advisory Committee under date of March 7, 1906, was read, and is as follows:

REGULAR MEETING OF PACIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE, MARCH 7, 1908, MILLS BUILDING, SAN FRANCISCO.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The secretary raised a point of order and the meeting granted unanimously permission to introduce a motion to amend the by-laws of the committee.

It was then moved and seconded, that the date set for the regular meetings of the committee be changed from the first Wednesday in each month to the second Wednesday.

Carried.

The secretary advised the Committee, that since January the 25, he had in his possession the application for membership and the dues of the Bull-terrier Club of San Francisco, and also their deposit of $25.00 for dates claimed on March 17\textsuperscript{th}. The application had not been perfected and submitted to the Committee for action, by reason of said club not having obtained the consent of the Bull-terrier Club of America to their affiliation with the American Kennel Club. The Bull-terrier Club of San Francisco had applied for such consent and had received a reply from the secretary of the national Bull-terrier Club, stating that the application would be considered and determined at the annual meeting to be held on Feb. 12\textsuperscript{th}. It now transpires that the annual meeting had been held, and the local club’s application had not been acted upon either through oversight or possibly on account of pressure of other business. The local club had been obliged to forgo their intention to hold a show on March the 17\textsuperscript{th}, and had been much inconvenienced and had besides incurred some financial loss. In view of these facts, it was MOVED and seconded, that whereas the Bull-terrier Club of San Francisco applied to the Bull-terrier Club of America for consent to join the American Kennel Club, and received a reply from the secretary of the latter stating that the application would be laid before the annual meeting to be held on the 12th of February, and Whereas such application was not laid before the annual meeting of the Bull-terrier Club of America, presumably through oversight, and Whereas such neglect to take proper action has inflicted financial loss and much inconvenience on the Bull-terrier Club of San Francisco and has resulted in the cancellation of their intended show to be held on March 17th, and whereas such neglect of duty appears to be a matter of frequent occurrence, where Pacific Coast specialty club is concerned, and Whereas this Committee is of opinion, that the formation of specialty clubs on this Coast can but remotely affect the parent specialty in the East, by reason of geographical distance and other considerations, and Whereas the aforementioned neglect of the Pacific Coast Clubs by the Eastern parent clubs is resulting in much injury to the kennel interests of the Coast and in much dissatisfaction with the American Kennel Club for allowing this condition to continue, therefore be it Resolved, that this Committee is of the opinion that it should be empowered to admit specialty clubs within the limit of its jurisdiction to membership in the American Kennel Club, without requiring that such specialty clubs be obliged to obtain the consent of the Eastern parent clubs, but that such admission be granted only on condition of such specialty club agreeing to adhere to the standard defined by the parent body, and that every such admission granted by the Pacific Advisory Committee be notified to such parent body as well as to the American Kennel Club, and be it further Resolved, that the secretary of this Committee be and hereby is instructed to request the secretary of the American Kennel Club to present this resolution to the American Kennel Club for consideration and action. Carried.

The secretary informed the meeting that on request of the Portland Kennel Club, he had approved the change of date from April 18th to 21st as first granted to May 30th to June 2nd, and that on request of the Seattle Dog Fanciers Association, he had changed the date of their show from April 18th to 21st as first granted to May 23rd to 26th.

The action of the secretary was confirmed.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Attest:

J.P. Norman,
Secretary
MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like to ask whether or not that resolution of the Pacific Advisory Committee in regard to specialty clubs takes effect without our approval, or whether it has to be approved.

THE CHAIR: They ask for approval. It has to be approved by us.

THE SECRETARY: They ask permission to admit specialty clubs within their jurisdiction without requiring that specialty club to obtain the consent of a similar specialty club in the East.

MR. CARNOCHAN: This is in direct opposition to one of our own rules. I have always questioned the use of that rule to making a specialty club go to the parent specialty club, but it does not seem to me, so long as we have such a rule, that we can confirm the motion of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

THE CHAIR: They simply ask for an exception in their case.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I cannot see why any exception should be made, because the last case we had of this sort was a club in Chicago, and why should San Francisco or the Pacific Coast be excepted in a matter of this sort any more than Chicago.

THE CHAIR: As I understand it now, they can be accepted if they have the consent of the parent club.

MR. MORTIMER: I think that as the Pacific Coast has its own advisory board, taking into consideration the geographical distance there is between the extreme West and the extreme East of this continent, there should be not real reason why the Pacific Advisory Committee should not be allowed to grant permission to those specialty clubs to give shows. Those specialty clubs agree to adhere to the standards of the parent club, and that was one of the reasons why the Chicago club, which has just been referred to – why their application was refused, as I understand that they wanted to use a different standard to that of the parent club.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Mr. Mortimer states a fact which was my reason for asking the first question. If the Pacific Advisory Committee, under its charter, have full power over matters in their own territory, I do not see any reason why they should come to us for confirmation of that resolution.

THE SECRETARY: The point is that we have a standing resolution that the American Kennel Club will not admit a specialty club where one already exists for the same breed of dogs without the consent of the original club.

THE CHAIR: So the Pacific Advisory Committee would have to follow our rule.

MR. CARNOCHAN: According to their charter they have full power.

MR. VITI: It seems to me that the question of geography is not a proper one, because all specialty clubs are just as liberal with their prizes in Canada and Texas and on the Pacific Coast as they are at shows in the East, and I think we want to avoid a case of this kind. If a specialty club is not approved by the parent club there is no guarantee that the standard of the parent club will be recognized. If the parent club offers prizes, we will say for example, under their standards, and the local club offers prizes under an entirely different standard, those conditions are not going to be conductive to the enforcement of what is recognized and stated generally to be the proper standard for different breeds. It was for that reason that we decided to obtain the permission of the parent club at the start. I think we ought to do all we can to protect our members in their standards and not allow clubs to be formed in this country that would have antagonistic standards.
to those, so that you would have two sets of special prizes offered at the same show for two different varieties of fox terriers, for example.

THE CHAIR: Mr. Carnochan, you are perfectly right in saying that the Pacific Advisory Committee has full power out there, but they cannot break our constitution.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Is that in the constitution?

THE SECRETARY: It is not in the constitution; it is a rule.

THE CHAIR: They have to conform to our ruling in what they do. They cannot break our rule.

MR. EMERY: I move that they be instructed to follow the rules of the parent club, and that their request be not granted.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Has my point of order been decided?

THE CHAIR: What is that?

MR. CARNOCHAN: That they have power in their own territory.

THE CHAIR: They have power in conformity with our constitution, rules and by-laws.

MR. CARNOCHAN: Is this in the by-laws?

THE CHAIR: It is being looked up by the Secre-
MR. CARNOCHAN: Have they a right to change any of our standing resolutions?

THE CHAIR: No, not our standing resolutions.

MR. VITI: There is no question at all but what this is against the best interest of this association for them not to enforce our standing resolutions. They are just as enforceable as the by-laws.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I would like a ruling on my point of order, as to whether the Pacific Advisory Committee is able to attend to that matter itself.

THE CHAIR: I should rule in this case that it had not. We can give them the power. They asked for the power to do it.

MR. MOORE: I do not think it is a debatable question. You can rule that they cannot do it.

THE CHAIR: No; I have ruled that they have not the power without our giving them the power.

MR. VITI: They have practically asked that we amend that resolution by making an exception in their case.

MR. CARNOCHAN: In view of the fact that the general sentiment seems to be that the clubs on the Pacific Coast should be allowed this power, and in view of the fact that it seems great injustice to clubs in the East if they are allowed this power, I move that the resolution with reference to specialty clubs applying to the parent specialty club be rescinded, and that the passing on specialty clubs with reference to the standards be referred to the Membership Committee.

MR. MORTIMER: Are not these members of the Pacific Coast Club members of the American Kennel Club?

THE CHAIR: They are just as much members as we are.

MR. MORTIMER: Then why not grant this privilege they ask for, or is it a privilege? It is a right that they are entitled to. The only existing condition is that their standards shall conform to the parent club’s standards. The American Kennel Club recognizes no standard whatever.

MR. CARNOCHAN: I move that the Membership Committee formulate rule on this subject and report at the next meeting.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The recommendation of the Stud Book Committee on the granting of Kennel names has been read, but no action has been taken.
MR. MOORE: I move that the recommendations of the Stud Book Committee be adopted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I assumed the responsibility of paying the bill of disbursements of the Pacific Advisory Committee of $17.75 without first submitting it to you for your direction. Of course we all know the peculiar circumstances on the Pacific Coast and at San Francisco. At the last meeting of the Executive Board they directed me to allow three clubs to cancel their dates and return their date deposits, and acting under that direction, as I say, I assumed the responsibility of paying this bill of disbursements of $17.75, and I would like your action at this meeting confirming my action.

MR. MOORE: I move that the action of the Secretary be confirmed.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Genesee County Agricultural Society Kennel Club has changed its name to read “Genesee County Kennel Club,” and asks that our records be corrected accordingly.

MR. MOORE: I move that the request of the Genesee County Agricultural Society Kennel Club for change of name be granted.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have a communication from the Bureau of Animal Industry at Washington referring to recognition of foreign books of record.

MR. MOORE: I move that the communication be referred to the Stud Book Committee, they to report at the June meeting of the Executive Board.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have asked permission to send final bills to all associates in arrears for dues for 1906, and recommend that the usual course be followed, that if not paid within thirty days I be directed to drop them from the roll.

MR. MOORE: I make that motion, that the Secretary be directed to adopt the usual course.

Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: The Ladies’ Kennel Association of America, through its Secretary, requests this club to adopt the following rule:

1st: That dogs ruled off or barred from being shown in England, should be barred from being Shown in America.

2nd: That kennels can give their prefix only to dogs bred by such kennels.

3rd: That dogs registered in England, must be registered under the same name in America. I suppose that means if registered in England, they must be registered in the same name in America.

MR. VITI: I would like to ask the delegate from the Ladies’ Kennel Association what argument they have in support of this third request, that dogs registered in England, must be registered under the same name in America. Do they mean dogs that have been registered there and shown, or dogs that have not been registered there and shown, or dogs that have not been registered there and not shown as well?

MR. MORTIMER: I take that they mean dogs that have been registered there and exhibited; that instead of their names being altered when they come out here and saying formerly so and so, that they be registered under the same name that they were registered under in the English kennel club.

MR. VITI: Do you know whether or not they are informed that the English kennel club has always refused to show us any recognition of that sort?

MR. MORTIMER: No, I do not know whether they are aware of that fact or not. But I should think that there can only be one objection to that rule or to that recommendation, and that is in the case of dogs already registered in this country by the same name, in which case I should recommend that the word “imported” be added. I am satisfied to have the matter referred to the Stud Book Committee or Rules Committee.

It was moved and seconded that the first request be referred to the Rules Committee, and that the second and third requests be referred to the Stud Book Committee.

Motion seconded and carried.

MR. MORTIMER: I would like to recommend for recognition by the Stud Book Committee the Siberian or Samoyed dogs. I call your attention to the breed here as recognized, and also to the fact that there are a number of these at the present time in this country. I would like to go further with the admission of breeds, and I would take Count De Bylandt’s book as an authority. There are a number of dogs coming here all the time that we cannot get even into the miscellaneous class without we have permission from the American Kennel Club, and it seems a little hard. I had to refuse four entries of the Samoyed dogs because I could not get them in the miscellaneous class. If you look over English catalogues you will find that they are recognized there under the head of foreign dogs, and a classification made for them in their shows.

MR. VITI: Don’t you think if our list of foreign dogs that are recognized was expanded so as to include virtually all those dogs, it would answer that purpose? That was my thought to expand that list.

MR. MORTIMER: That was my idea exactly; that the list of foreign dogs be extended to cover the breeds that are recognized in this book.

MR. CARNOCHAN: What is our present rule in this connection?

THE CHAIR: The Stud Book Committee has given a list of dogs that are recognized by the American Kennel Club.

MR. VITI: From time to time that list has been added to.

MR. MORTIMER: I move that our list of foreign dogs be extended so as to include any breed in the miscellaneous class that is recognized in Count De Bylandt’s book, and we will take his book as authority.

Motion seconded and carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

Hartford Show Association, Methuen Kennel Club and Canobie Kennel Club.

THE SECRETARY: The application of the Englewood Kennel Club for reimbursement has again been held back by the Committee without its approval.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with and they were accepted as published in the last number of the Gazette.

The Secretary read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, September 26th, 1906

To the American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:-

I have the honor to submit this, my regular quarterly report. I have received since our last meeting three applications from Clubs for admission to membership, and credentials from nine clubs appointing delegates to represent them in this Association, all of which have been referred to the Membership Committee, which will report its action at this meeting.
I will submit to you the minutes of the Executive Board of its meeting held July 2nd, 1906, also minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee, of its meetings held June 16th, 1906 and July 25th, 1906 and August 18th, 1906, and September 8th, 1906.

The Piping Book Kennel Club of Glen Cove, L.I., filed its application for membership, and requested that the same be submitted for a mail vote. The Executive Board unanimously voted to admit the said club to active membership, and has been so recorded upon our records.

The following charges have been filed and will be submitted to the Executive Board at its first meeting.

Baggett Remedy Co., against T.B. Middlebrooke
Bernard Guggenheim against Bruno Wolfrum
J.G. Burns against the Buffalo Kennel Club
Boston Terrier Club against W.S. Hennessy, Jr.
Thomas Kelly against Bar Harbor Bench Show Ass'n

A communication from the Pomeranian Club of America, and a protest from R.F. Mayhew against his rejection as a delegate to represent their Club has been duly filed with this office, and the same will be submitted to you at this meeting.

A Special Committee appointed by the Executive Board to classify the breeds of dogs so that all premium lists and catalogues shall publish said breeds in the same order, begs to submit its report for your consideration.

The Rhode Island Kennel Club claimed dates for a show to be held at Pawtucket, September 8th, 1906, and has notified me that owning to unforeseen circumstances, it will not be able to hold said show, and requests me to return the deposit of $25.00. The rule clearly states that in case a show is not held that the deposit shall be forfeited, therefore having no authority to comply with the request of this club, I notified it that I would present the request at this meeting for your action.

I beg to submit for your consideration the advisability of issuing the Gazette semi-monthly instead of monthly as heretofore. The marked increase in the number of shows held under our rules has on one occasion increased the size of the Gazette to fifty-six pages, and notwithstanding the large addition of the number of pages the reports on the shows are delayed from two to three months after the shows have been held. Taking the Gazette of May 31st, 1906, as a basis, I find that the cost of same was $383.84, it contained 62 pages of printed matter. In publishing that paper semi-monthly, the increased cost would have been less than $30.00. For this additional outlay, the official awards would have been published nearer to the date of the show, and I think would have given more general satisfaction. With the claims for shows now pending, there will be 26 prize lists to be published in three issues, and together with the other matters contained in the Gazettes, will materially add to the size of each issue and at the same time contain official awards at least two months after the shows have been held. I would strongly recommend that I may have the privilege of making the trial for the months of October, November and December of a semi-monthly publication.

The Rules Committee has held several sessions during the past summer in the consideration of the re-arrangement of the rules, adding to and taking from the now existing rules, such parts as in its judgment was considered for the best interest of dog shows. The final report of the Committee was duly published in the August Gazette, and is now before this meeting for final action.

I beg to report the receipt of a bill from the Pacific Advisory Committee for disbursements from May 1st to September 15th inclusive, amounting to $39.45, and would respectfully recommend that the same be ordered paid. I would also report that I have paid a visit to San Francisco, and while there purchased card cabinets and filing cases, with the necessary cards, and an office desk for the use of the Pacific Advisory Committee.
This enables the Secretary of that Committee to keep our records on the coast similar to those kept at this office. The cost of the entire plant being about $105.

Respectfully submitted,

A.P. Vredenburgh
Secretary

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.

The Treasurer read his quarterly report as follows:

New York, September 26, 1906

To The American Kennel Club,

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit herewith my regular quarterly financial report:

Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1906 . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . $18,571.25
Receipts from Jan. 1 to date . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 17,425.39
Total . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . $35,996.64
Disbursements from Jan. 1 to date . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 17,121.54
Balance on hand . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . $18,875.10

Respectfully submitted

A.P. Vredenburgh
Treasurer

On motion the same was accepted and placed on file.
THE SECRETARY: The report of the Executive Board was published in the July Gazette.

MR. MOORE: I move that it be accepted as published in the Gazette. Motion seconded and carried.

THE SECRETARY: I have four reports from the Pacific Advisory Committee.

MR. MOORE: I move that they be published in the next number of the Gazette and passed upon at the next meeting. Motion seconded and carried.

The following is a copy of the Minutes of the Pacific Advisory Committee.

June 16, 1906

Present: J.E. De Ruyter, Chairman
Dr. W.P. Burnham
J.P. Norman

Moved and seconded that the minutes be adopted as published in the Gazette. Carried.

The Secretary read the following letter from Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh.

New York, April 19, 1906

Mr. J.P. Norman,
Berkley

Dear Sir:

We are more than anxious about our friends in San Francisco during this terrible ordeal, through which they are passing, and as it is impossible to reach you by telegraph, we can only hope that this letter will reach you by telegraph, we can only hope that this letter will reach you and cheer you in whatever surroundings you may a present be in. We are hoping that all is well and will welcome the earliest possible news from you with eagerness. If you need any assistance from us we are ready and willing to extend to you and yours whatever may be necessary. With the very best of wishes for your safety, we remain,

A.P. Vredenburgh

Your truly,
It was moved and seconded that this Committee extends to the American Kennel Club and to its Secretary, Mr. A.P. Vredenburgh, its sincere thanks and heartfelt appreciation of the prompt sympathy and offer of assistance so fraternally extended, and that Mr. Vredenburgh’s letter be constitution a part of the minutes of this committee and be filed in the archives with the endorsement of this resolution made thereon.

The Secretary read the following communication from the A.K.C. dated April 27, 1906:  C.W. Buttles versus Pacific Advisory Committee:  Appeal from decision of said Committee: “At a meeting of the Executive Board held on April 27th, 1906, the above case was acted upon and the following resolution was duly adopted: The request of the appellant for postponement not granted. Ordered that the action of the Pacific Advisory Committee be and hereby is sustained. Deposit forfeited.”

On motion the letter was ordered filed.

A point of order was claimed and allowed by the Chair:  It was moved and seconded, that whereas the above was an appeal taken from a decision of this Committee, a constituent past of the American Kennel Club, it is the sense of this Committee that the title of said appeal is in error, and that the case should be docketed in the files of the Executive Board under the original title, by which it was heard by this Committee, namely, as Butler versus Buttles. That any other title is misleading and would lead to an improper inference, and that the latter in the position of defendant to all appearances. An appeal from a Superior Court to a Court of Appeals would not be docketed as a complaint against the former, and it is respectfully submitted to the American Kennel Club by this Committee that all future appeals against its decisions be docketed under the original title of the case. Carried.

The Secretary reported the election to membership in the American Kennel Club by mail vote of the Bull Terrier Club of San Francisco, and of the Hawaiian Kennel Club of Honolulu, T.H.

On motion the vote was confirmed.

It was moved and seconded THAT WHEREAS, it is the understanding of this Committee, that the Rules Committee of the A.K.C. is now considering amendments and additions to the rules to be submitted to the A.K.C. at its September meeting, therefore be it RESOLVED that this Committee do now proceed to the consideration of such amendments as it may deem desirable to submit to the Rules Committee for recommendation to the A.K.C. and to the consideration of the American Kennel Club, without such recommendation, if the findings of this Committee are not in the nature of new rules, and be it further RESOLVED that the Secretary be and hereby is instructed to transmit separately in condensed form the findings of this meeting to the secretary of the A.K.C. for presentation to the Rules Committee.

It was moved and seconded that WHEREAS this Committee finds itself frequently impeded in its work and sometimes in error, by reason of the delay in learning of changes in or additions to the rules of the American Kennel Club, and WHEREAS such occurrences must decrease the efficiency of the Committee and thus of the American Kennel Club in so far as its Pacific coast interests are concerned, and WHEREAS subscribers to Eastern kennel papers acquire knowledge of the proceedings of the American Kennel Club before the members of this Committee, which is a part of the executive machinery of the American Kennel Club, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that it is the sense of this Committee, that in order to properly perform its work of promoting the interests of the American Kennel Club, it is essential that all changes in the rules or additions thereto be transmitted to the secretary of this committee immediately after the meeting of the American Kennel Club at which such changes or additions were passed, or as soon thereafter as possible. Carried.

It was moved and seconded, that the American Kennel Club be requested to furnish this Committee with a copy of all standing resolutions of the said Club, so that the Committee may be enabled to perform its duties and render its decisions in accordance with such resolutions, and it was further moved and seconded that the American Kennel Club be requested to furnish this Committee with a copy of all standing resolutions and rules that may not be printed in the copy of the constitution and book of rules furnished to this Committee. Carried.

It was moved and seconded, THAT WHEREAS confusion is caused and errors occur by reason of the fact that Clubs and individuals on the Pacific coast deal sometimes directly with the American Kennel Club, and WHEREAS the American Kennel Club in its constitution has among other powers delegated to this Committee as its agent on the Pacific coast, expressly stated that all communications between the American Kennel Club and Clubs and Exhibitors on the Pacific coast shall be transmitted through this Committee, and neglect to comply with and to enforce compliance with this rule leads to the ignoring of this Committee and to the consequent impairment of its efficiency therefore be it
