SPECIAL EVENT RALLY TRIAL DESCRIPTION

A Special Event Rally Trial is where the host club proposes a unique mix of AKC Rally classes and/or non-regular classes or a unique eligibility criterion. A club may select the classes and/or divisions offered at a Special Event Rally Trial and may offer the upper level classes without offering the lower level classes. A club may establish unique eligibility criterion to enter the event. A club may not change any other part of the Regulations pertaining to the class requirements or signs, including the equipment requirements. Special Event Trials must be open to all breeds, including dogs listed with AKC Canine Partners, except at specialty events limited to one breed/group. A club may only apply for two Special Event Rally Trials per year. Please describe the Special Event criterion below or in a separate document that accompanies the application:

Fees

$50.00 application fee for each trial
 $25.00 application fee if this trial corresponds to a trial from the previous year that had 30 entries or fewer
