PROCEDURE FOR JUDGES TO FOLLOW

1. The Judge must mark this book and distribute the ribbons. Only under extraordinary circumstances may ribbons be distributed by the steward, or anyone else.
2. Ribbons must be presented in the field at the conclusion of the class. If the owner or handler has left the area before the ribbons are given out, send an attendant to bring him or her back into the field.
3. Line up the dogs, first, second, third, fourth and fifth, before handing out the ribbons. All dogs with qualifying scores should also be line up in the field before handing out the ribbons. The public is entitled to know the order in which the dogs were placed and which dogs qualified.
4. Sign your name at the bottom of this page to certify that the judging was done in accordance with the requirements of The American Kennel Club Regulations and Herding Trials.
