MASTER HUNTER LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT TITLE APPLICATION

In order to recognize a Master Hunter's lifetime of success for Pointing Breeds, Spaniels or Retrievers in the hunt test programs, the AKC has introduced the Master Hunter Lifetime Achievement title. The title will be designated by the letters MH followed by a number (i.e. MH20) indicating the number of times the dog passed the MH test. Owners may apply for the title at any time. MH12 will be the minimum level MH Lifetime Achievement title. To apply an owner must submit this completed form along with the $25.00 recording fee. Upon determination of the number of MH level test passes as recorded by the AKC, the title will be recorded on a dog's record and a title certificate issued. The title may be updated at the request of the owner by submitting another title application form. Higher level titles will supersede previously recorded MH titles. The AKC will recognize passes of the MH test back to January 1, 2000.
