

???? WHICH OBEDIENCE OR RALLY CLASS SHOULD I ENTER ????

So you would like to enter AKC obedience or rally trials, but aren't sure which class to enter. The information below was developed to help exhibitors determine which classes you and your dog are eligible to enter. Go to the Obedience Regulations/AKC Rally® Regulations booklet at the following link for a description of the exercises performed in each of these classes.

AKC OBEDIENCE CLASSES

AKC Obedience is a sport that demonstrates the dog's ability to follow specified routines and emphasizes the usefulness of the dog as a companion to man by behaving in the home, in public places and in the presence of other dogs. The following list shows the order of obedience classes in the progression of the difficulty of the exercises performed. The Regular classes are in bold and they must be completed in the order listed. An "*" denotes Optional Titling Classes and Alternative Titling Classes. These classes may be offered at events at the club's option in addition to the Regular Titling Classes. They are not required for the dog to progress to other classes, but may be used as stepping stones between the regular classes:

- Beginner Novice*
- Preferred Novice*
- Novice
- Graduate Novice*
- Preferred Open*
- Open
- Graduate Open*
- Preferred Utility*
- Versatility*
- Utility

Obedience: Handlers in the "A" classes must own the dog entered or be a member of the owner's household or immediate family.
