

Gina DiNardo

Assistant Vice President / Assistant Executive Secretary

212-696-8350 [office] • gmd@akc.org [email]

Gina DiNardo has had life-long involvement with purebred dogs. She has been attending dog shows since she was two years old and showed her first dog at age five. Gina has more than 30 years experience in the sport of purebred dogs, primarily with Doberman Pinschers and also Great Danes, Bichon Frises, Boxers, Dachshunds, Beagles, Whippets, Smooth Fox Terriers, Parson Russell Terriers, Pugs, Norwich Terriers and Golden Retrievers. In her current AKC position, she assists the Executive Secretary with communications to and from that office and with the maintenance of AKC policies and historical records.

Media Appearances:

- More than 100 TV/Radio appearances
- NBC's Today Show – multiple appearances
- iVillage Live – multiple appearances
- TV Commentator – Mohegan Sun AKC Events
- Satellite Media Tours for AKC/Eukanuba National Championship and AKC Meet the Breeds
- NPR and Animal Planet Radio

Club Memberships:

- The Doberman Pinscher Club of America
- The Connecticut River Working Group Association
- Greenwich Kennel Club
- Morris and Essex Kennel Club
- Tuxedo Park Kennel Club

Professional Experience/Education/Awards:

- AKC/Eukanuba National Championship Show Committee
- AKC Meet the Breeds Chairperson
- Former AKC Director of Club Communications
- Former AKC Publications Advertising Manager
- BA degree in English and Philosophy from Skidmore College

Sport of Purebred Dog Highlights:

- Best Junior Handler at The Doberman Pinscher Club of America
- Owner-Handled two Doberman Pinschers to National Ranking of Number One in breed standings
- Owner-Handled Doberman Pinscher to Top Ten All-breed National Ranking including 30 Best in Show and Best in Specialty Shows

